

BIBLIOTHE-
CA
ELIOTÆ.

Aa. 896

ELIOTES Dictionarie, by Thomas Cooper the third tyme corrected, and with a great number of phrases enriched, as to him that conferreth the other editions, it may easily appeare.

LONDINI IN AEDI-
bus nuper Tho. Bartholæi.

Anno Domini. 1558.
Cum privilegio.

BIBLIOTHE
CA

150-10

Order of 14th & 15th march.

CLARISSIMO

VIRO GVALTERO HADDONORE

CYNABELISABETHAE A LIBELLIS

Tho. Cooperus Oxoniensis.

S. D. P.

SEMPER MIHI PERSVA-

si (vir ornatissime) frustra suscipi nostra

consilia nisi deus eisdem annuat & successus addat: ita nunq̃ verius in meis rebus

comprobavi, quam cum nuper cogitarem

Elior. Bibliothecam, quantum vires paterentur, ita perfectam & absolutam reddere, ut posthac opera & labore meo non indigeret. Cum enim hoc opus viderem descriptionibus virorum & famularum illustrium, monumentum, urbium, regionum, in tantam

amplitudinem creuisse, ut hac sola ratione coactus antea fuero

plurima & utilissima praetermittere: statui hoc tempore id omne genus priorum vocabulorum in prius librum coniicere,

& eius loco huic volumini adicere omnes illas phrasas & lo-quendi formulas ex quibus multiplex verborum natura & usus varius facilius posset a studiosis intelligi. Sed cum hanc rem in me suscepissem, & in eandem toricam viribus incumberē, tanta pristinæ valetudinis incidit perturbatio: ut necessario mihi vel in medio itinere fuerit cum ignominia definiendum, vel cum cer-tissimō incolumitatis & vitæ periculo quo capi progrediendum.

Hac itaq; necessitate commotus celsi proposito & consilio meo,

& tamdiu cedam necessum est, quoad superis visum fuerit, vel imbecillam et labentem valetudinem confirmare, vel eam vitæ rationem concedere, qua liber a docendi munere tempestivas queam horas in huiusmodi literaria exercitia conferre.

Quicquid enim hactenus a me in his rebus factum est: id no-cturnis lucubrationibus & intempestivis studiis debebatur: nunc

verò cum tenuis & incommoda valetudo nocturnum tempus ad quietem postulet, diurnum autem totum sit in discipulis insituendis transigendum : æqui boniq; consulent studiosi, cum intelligent hanc æditionem non tanta perfectam industria, quanta fuit a me instituta et inchoata. Hanc ego rationem deserti sine consilii tuae prudentiæ non ignotam esse volui, ne sordidæ fortis-sis & ignavia tribuendum putares, quod ab illo proposito descerim, quod persequi sine maximo valetudinis incommodo non potui. Neque tamen ita velim accipias, quasi nihil haberet hæc ædi-tio, quod superiores non sunt complexæ. Nam & susceptum institutum magna ex parte sum persequutus et in reliquo operis cursu multa adieci plurimum ad vsum latinæ orationis facientia. Hoc quicquid est labo-ris & industria (clarissime Haddone) ti-bi in praesentia nuncupandum censeo: ut propter singularem tuam in me humanitatem qualem cun-

grati et memoris animi significationem haberes: quam si in bo-nam partem accipies satis
amplum me fructum arbitrabor ex hac re conse-quutum
Vale;

EXIMIO VIRO D.

HADDONO MVSAEI MAGDALE

NENSIS APVDOXONIENSES, PRAESIDI:

& ceteris eiusdem collegii sociis, ac bona-rum literarum studiosis, Coope-rus ibidem ludi literarii professor.

S. D.

I QUID EST IN ME

sedulitatis & industriae (viri doctissimi) quam, pro viribus, sem-per studui in rebus agendis adhibere: Si quid ingenii, vel eruditionis: quod nunq̃ mihi satis am-plum visum est, ad amicorum merita praedicanda: id iure debeo, quantulumcunque est: in laudis et existimationis vestrae ornamentum conuertere. Cum enim prima studiorum meorum incunabu-la: et quicquid est ex eo tempore in literis a me positum, cogitatione et memoria complector: facile intelligo me vestra omnium singulari usum beneuolentia et benignitate: tantisque saepe cumulatum benefi-ciis: quanta tenuis haec facultas mea verbis consequi nunquam potest.

Nam et tuum in me (Haddone praestantissime) animum, licet nuper admodum notitia sit inter nos, mirifice propensum intelligo: et cum ceteris eiusdem Gymnasii commilitonibus meis: tanta non studio-rum modo, sed animorum etiam coniunctione vixi: ut nihil prom-ptius habuerim aut paratius: quam illorum operam, curam, diligentiam, studium, in omnibus rebus: quae ad meam utilitatem pertinere videbantur. Quamobrem vehementer essem ingratus: si non cogi-tationes meas et ingenii nervos contenderem: ut, cum meritum amplitudinem pari nequeam officio exaequare) aliquam vobis darem mutuae voluntatis significationem. Itaq; superioribus non multis abhinc mensibus: cum Eliotae Bibliothecam in manus, hoc consilio, resumerem: ut compluribus in locis castigatior, et non contemnenda

A III

verbo,

verborum supellectili ditior, in vulgus exiret: nihil videbam, nec meo in vos officio conuenientius, nec studio in me vestro dignius: quod ut hos labores meos, succis suis horis absolutos, nomini vestro conse-crarem. Studium tamen hoc, et consilium meum non nihil remorata est suspicienda nominis Regii maiestas: cui, multorum iudicio, quantum in me esset, viderer detrahere: si, post illam, meis lucubra-tionibus alios vellem patronos ambire: praesertim cum, huius reuerentia, satis ab omnium iniuriis munita nostra videatur industria.
Huius rei cogitatio, licet aliquantisper animum in diuersas partes trahebat: non potuit tamen ab instituto penitus auocare. Nam ut pri-mas officii mei partes Regiae Maiestati debitas fuisse plane confiteor, et libenter agnosco: ita secundas Gymnasium Magdalenense, quasi iure suo, videtur vendicare. Huius enim beneficio in artium libera-lissimarum studiis educatus: eidem acceptam referre debeo qualem-cunque sum consequutus vel ingenii vel eruditionis commendationem.
Huc praeterea accedit: quod animo et cogitatione semper in hanc sen-tentiam, fui propensior: ut existimarem: hoc opus, tam spissum et va-rium, non modo imperatoriis egere viribus ad coercendam inuido-rum petulantiam: sed etiam hominum iudicio, in doctrinarum orbe vniuerso, consultissimorum: qui errata, quae me subterfugerent: et propter eximiam rerum cognitionem facillime possent deprehendere: et, propter singularem humanitatem libentissime vellent adnota-re. Cuius notae, cum viderem hoc vestrum Museum nonnullos alere: & te in primis Haddone doctissime (qui propter singularem virtutis, ingenii, eruditionis praestantiam: praefectus eidem es constitutus) de-cretum mihi cum animo & constitutum erat: hoc quicquid est elucubrationis, sub vestro titulo in manus hominum emittere. Quid autem sim his nouis laboribus consequutus: quod prior editio complexa non sit: malim vsu studiosos lectores experiri: quam mea predicatione, quasi praconis voce, innotescere. Videar enim fortasse qui-busdam, tanquam negotiator avarus, inutiles merces in ipso statim ingressu ostentare. Vos autem si hanc qualemcunque significationem animi erga vos mei benigne acceperitis: stimulos addetis vehementissimos, ad ea perficienda: quae et reip. non minus vtilia sint: et vobis multo magis iucunda. Valete.

JOHERONY S. LVDIMAGISTER

ROFFENSIS IN RENOVATAM

Eliota Bibliothecam.

COmmoda si quis aues, operis nomise recentis :

Cooperi illa tibi trader epistolion

Sin cupis et sentire labor fit quantus in illis :

Qua huc congesta vides perlege, deinde scies.

Hæc qui contulerant, omnes voluisse videntur

Angligenas pueros reddere Timoribon.

Et plane felix puer est, cui tota documenta

Sint veluti in cunis tradita molliculis.

Anglia nunc dicat, felix ætas Edoardi.

Quo puero, pueris optima quæq; cadunt.

NICOLAYS GRIMOALDVS

ad lectorem.

MEsibus, ecce, nouis rerum sunt horrea plena :

V sibus ut promas, o philomale, tuis.

Seq; adeo victos duri fateantur agrestes.

Rustica res tanti nulla laboris eget.

Quid non expugnat vigilans industria? Quid non Mens, ardore, potest? sedulitate, manus?

Scriptores recitant quæ multa vocabula multi :

Omnia sunt vno dinumerata libro.

Hic, patrias voces omnes, formasque loquendi :

Romanasq; omnes, vnicus Anglus habet.

Verba, notæ rerum, sic ordine cuncta notantur :

Vno vt contuitu, singula nosse queas.

Queis caruere patres, tantoque feruntur honore :

His operis fretus, tu mihi quantus eris?

THOMAS BICLEVS MAGdalenensis.

ESt aliquid verbis Anglos formare latinis :

Plus tamen est linguam his arte polire suam.

Hoc vtrunq; tibi Cooperus præstitit, vno

Has linguas libro, tradidit ipse duas.

Tradidit vt cunctis studiosis utilis esset,

Artifici, docta, qua potuitq; manu.

§ IIII

Ergo

Ergo disce puer, iuuenis, vir, disce senexq;
 Hic omnem fœdam pellerè barbariem
 Quisquis es hic discas, vnoq; volumine, docta
 Anglis & Latiis arte referre sonos.

Nec pigeat grates, quas gratas reddere possis
 Authori, gratus qui dedit ista tibi
 Vt daret hæc gratus tibi curas atque labores
 Cooperus vigiles nocte dieq; tulit.

Nicolaus Grimoaldus, ad Thomam Cooperum.

Vt viam longam, peregrè profectus,
 Ac iter longum cupit expedire
 Confici: nullas remoras nec opor
 Esse viator,

Sed dari certos petit, atque claros
 Indices: qui se temerè vagantem
 Retrahant: dempto scrupulo, monentes,

Quà sit eundum: et inquit
 Sic amor si quem tener: expetitq;
 Terrium sedes nitidas Dearum
 Possit: et sacros, aditu recluso, Scandere montes:

Te, ducem primum, Cooperè, capter:
 Te sibi iungat, teneris ab annis
 Te legat, voluat, recolat, reuolat, Lauder, ametq;:

To the most puissant and mightie prince Edward the. vi.

by the grace of god kyng of Englande, France and Irelande, defender of the faith, and of the church of Englande, and also of Irelande in earth the supreme head: your most humble and obedient subiecte Thomas Cooper heartly wylleth all grace and peace from god with long reygne, honour, health and prosperitee.

When I had atchieued my labours (suche as they be) in castigatyng and augmentyng this Dictionarye, in time past compiled by Sir Thomas Eliote, and dedicated to the most renowned pynce your deare and louynge father: I longe doubted with my selfe (most gracious soueraygne lord) whether I shoulde in lyke maner might be so bolde, as to exhibite the same to your Imperiall maiestee. My lowe estate and base condition a longe tyme did beare me backe, and greatly abashme. For in deede I thought it a thyng verie vnseemly, and a great presumption in me so simple a person, to set abode the castigation of suche a worke vnder the name, title, and protection of so noble and great a pynce: Yet consideryng and weighng in my mynde, the benygne Clemencie, that so bryghtly shyn-neth in your most gracious countenance, and the excellent towardnesse of vertue, godly zeale and fervent desyre of good learnyng, that already appeareth in your hyghnesse, I was wonderfully encouraged, and conceived a great boldnesse hardily to aduenture the same. And this also did comforte and put me forth greatly, that your highnesse (as all noble pynces are wont) not onely in the gyftes and presentes, but also in other woorkes and enterpryses of your faithfull subiectes, doth undoubtedly more weygh and consyder the herte, true meanyng, and honest endeuour, than the power or woorthynesse of the person: the benefyte and prosyte that maye growe thereby to your realmes and dominions, than any other cause or qualitee, that can be imagined to commend and sette forth the thyng. So that nowe (by consyderacion of these thynges) I am thoroughly perswaded, that I can not accomplishe the dutee of a kynde and louynge subiecte, vnlesse I dooe with this simple token or poore earnest peante geue due testimonie of my good hert toward your maiestee, and glad mynd for the wonderfull grace and towardnesse that dooeth so abundantly shewe and declare it selfe in your highnesse minoritye and childehode. For what subiecte indued with common sense and reason, doeth not euen now in these your tender yeres clerely per-ceiue your godly inclination, disposed so to rule and gouerne vs in vertue and true religion, that of all nations we maye iudge our selves to be most happye and fortunate? For this thyng, chiefly, we are bounde daily on our knees with lowly her-tes, to geue most humble thanks to god, who pityng our estate, of a syngular fa-uour and mercie toward this realme of Englande, sent you to reygne ouer vs. Secondly we ought to loue and honourably fauour in our hertes your most noble and deare vncle Edward Duke of Somerset, who, besydes the protection of all your realmes and louynge subiectes, is not onely wyll carefull to preserue your royall person from all maner perylls and leoperdies, but also that you be in suche wyse and so godly traded vp in all kindes of vertuous doctrine, as you maye be moste woorthye and hable to haue the gouernance of your most noble realmes and dominions. And for this cause were right prudently prouided for your highnesse, suche and so excellent instructours, as scantly the lyke in vertue and learnyng maye in any place be founden, whose godly instructions and vertuous counsayles, how effectually they take place in your sacred maiestees bzeast, it dooeth ryght well appeare to all them that attende vpon

THE PROEME.

vpon your royall person, by the sage and godly talke that pored eth from your most gracious mouth. We here abode, and by your most godly procedynges evidently perceiue, howe your grace willeth, that your deare vncle and other most honourable counsaylours and ministers, shoulde endeuour and applie theim selves, first, to set vp true religion, to goddes honour and glozie, to abolyshe ydolatrie and supersticion: and than consequently to procede forth to the aduancement of the common weale, that is, truely to minyster iustice, to restreigne extortion and oppression: to set vp tyllage and good husbandry, wherby the people maie encrease and be maintained. Your godly herte wolde not haue wilde beastes increase, and menne decase: grounde so enclosed vp, that your people shoulde lacke foode and sustenance: one man by shuttyng in of fieldes and pastures, to be made, and an hundred therby to be destroyed. O godly herte, O prince most woorthy to reigne, not ouer two or thre realmes, but ouer the whole worlde. Such talke hath seldome bene heard of princes of full age, perfyte di-scression and longe reigne. Wherfore the inestimable comfort and loye that all your louyng subiectes do take at this your wise and discrete deuising and communing, and many other lyuely sparkes and certayne tokens of vertue and chrystian regyment, can not be sufficiently expessed: Pea vndoubtedly many englyshe hertes haue conceyued an vnfeigned hope, that your maiestee, shewyng your selfe so sage, so gracie, so prudent, in your tender youth, shoulde as very Salomon by wysedome byng the worlde from tumultie and ruffling, to restfull quietnesse: from warre, to peace: from hatred and disorde to loue and amitie: from contentious sectes and opynions, to one Christian vnitee and true religion. Surely I say many are fully perswaded, that the eter-nall wysedome and secreete counsaile of God, hath ordeyned your highnesse this to doe, to his greate honour, your immortall prayse, and the weale and profite of all your louynge subiectes. Some perchaunce will meruaile why I speake not of your high magnificence, of your great and large gyftes of fortune, realmes, dominions, pa-laices most richely adorned, treasure, precious stones and iewels: for whiche kynges are wonte to be highly magnified and prayed. Those (moste beninge and gracious soueraygne) shine not so bryght, ne are so beautifull in mine eyes, nor yet to be so greatly esteemed of any Chrystian hert, as are the dyuine gyftes, with the whiche your moste royall bzeast is indued: The precious Margarite Sapience, whom you so louyngly embrace, whiche shall make your kyngdome stronge for euer: Sciencie of gods worde most gracious, that you so earnestly fauour, which shall cause you euer to loue and dreade hym, and knowe styll whose minister ye be: Loue so great to god and your commons, that shall alwaie kepe and surely defende you: Iustice, so vprightly weighyng as well the cause of the poore as the ryche, whiche shall alwaie fortifie and establishe your moste noble kyngdomes. These thynges do most adourne the maiestee of great monarkes, and rulers of the worlde, these thynges (moste gracious prince) dooe moze magnifie and sette forth your royall name a thousande folde, than all the ryche of the worlde and gyftes of fortune. Whiche, not withstandinge, your highnesse hath in great aboundance: wherto, our confynuall prayer is, that the almighty lorde will vouchesafe to graunt, yet still moze and moze encrease of all grace, long lyfe, welth and condigne felicitye, and finally make perfyte in you that excellent image of a Chrystian gouernour, that his wysedome and gracious hande hath already wonderfully framed and begunne, to our great comforte. Amen.

The profite and commodites of these my labours, and the maner of the whole worke, that I haue so boldly enterprised to publishe in your maiesties name, is sufficiently described and sette forth in a latine epistole here folowynge, for that onely purpose, made and entituled to the indifferent reader: which I thought not conuenient here to repete.

God save your maiestee.

THO. COOPERVS CAN-DIDO LECTORI SA-LVTEM.

LIOTA, VIR IN PRIMIS BO-narum literarum studiosus, & multis nominibus optime de republica meritis: cum Bibliothecam suam aggredereetur: maleuolorum calumnias, & reprehensiones se plurimum ve-reri: et hanc operam Criticorum dentibus esse valde obnoxiam prædicabat. Solent enim huiusmodi homines, in alienis laboribus, non quæ utilia videantur obseruare: sed quæ imprudentia præter-lapsa sint, summo studio notare et carpere: adeoque singulos conuellere literarum apices: ut, si quid paulum modo retortum sit: id suo more conuitiis exagitent. Cui, mens, quàm vera præfagie-bat: vel hinc satis perspicuum est: quod Dictionarium huius Latinoanglicum, mirifico studiosæ iuuentutis amore exceptum, post-quàm errata quædam essent in eodem deprehensa: ita cepit maledictis figi: ac si Eliota nullam fuisset industria sua laudem meritis:
nec tantis quicquàm laboribus doctrinæ et literarum studiosis profuisset. Quamobrem et mihi simile quiddam in huius operis casti-gatione euenturum opinor. Nam istius ingratitude metus, animum mihi iam aggressuro, diu perplexum atque suspensum tenebat, et ab instituto penitus auocasset: nisi Bertheletus, singulari vir in bonas literas amore præditus, haud mediocriter animum aduersus huiusmodi Sycophantas confirmasset: seque, tanquàm alterum Theseum, in his laboribus exantlandis adiunxisset. Huius tamen sententiæ (ultra quàm mihi per officium licebat) restiti, et operam meam hac in re constanter negavi. Tum, quod istam prouin-ciam uti dignum erat exornare, longe supra vires esse crederem, videreturque res ipsa in linguis multo exercitatiores, et per omnia eruditiores poscere: tum, quod ætas hæc nostra plurima haberet ingenia egregiè ad res agendas nata, à quibus hoc sperandum atque expectandum putavi. Obiciebam præterea, non mediocriter tantum doctorum iudicium nobis metuendum, cui fortasse diligentia nostra et industria satisfieri posset, sed peritissimorum etiam et doctis-simorum quorundam: quibus, nihil fere, nisi quod ipsi faciunt, placere solet: et quibus nihil satis doctum, maturum, expensum, ele-gans, exornatum, sublime denique et omnibus numeris absolutum vide-

videtur: Quibus omnibus sic breuiter ab illo responsum est: Neminem vnum omnia posse: nemini concessa esse omnia: neque expectandum cuiquam dum absolutus reddatur artifex: donis presentibus ad aliorum vtilitatem & commodum reipublice vtendum. Esse onus hoc magnum fortasse, & nobis propter inuidorum malevolentiam periculosum: dignum tamen in quo omnes nervos ætatis & industriæ nostræ contenderemus. Adhæc, florere quidem hodie multa ingenia præstantissima: quæ, si vellent & hac in re & in aliis, plurimum præstare possent: sed in tanta peritissimorum hominum multitudine, et studiorum varietate, alios aliis rebus ita intentos, vt vix sperandum sit eorum quenquam (nisi insigni proposito præmio) munus hoc suscepturum: in quo, voluptatis et delectationis minimum, laboris autem, studii, et difficultatis plurimum existat. Denique doctos, qui malignè carpunt aliorum pie susceptos labores, non plus metuendos, quam indoctos non intellecti operis contemptores: quum, vtrosque constet affectibus non sana duci ratione. Studiosos forsitan et recte animatos hoc opere excitari posse: vt, et ipsi ingenii sui faciant periculum: et, hoc quod Eliota feliciter incipit, nos studiose promouimus, illi denique absoluant et summam operi manum imponant. His ego persuasus delegatam mihi ab homine amantissimo prouinciam amplius recusandam non putavi. Eisdem rationibus, causam nostram studiosis omnibus et equis lectoribus satis probari magnopere confido. Quibus si nobis satisfacere contigerit, magnorum laborum, multarumque vigiliarum, fructum nos suscepturos amplissimum putabimus. Illis enim scripsimus: illis solummodo studuimus placere. Alios vero qui hoc genus exercitationis in vniversum imbrobant, vsque adeo vt confici vocabularia cum latinæ linguæ idiomatum interpretatione grauiter et moleste ferant: nec ipsi magnificimus, nec a studiosis hominibus audiendos iudicamus. Hi tamen, si qui sunt, (sunt autem plurimi, temerè in his suggeri iuuenibus calumniantes, quæ alioqui cum magno cognitionis fructu ex bonorum authorum lectione discere oportuisset) hoc sibi responsum auferant: Varronis, F. Pompei, Perotti, Am. Calepini, et nostra item memoria, Nizolii, Riccii, Bas. Zanchi, Step. Doleti, Roberti Stephani, aliorumque doctissimorum hominum industriam nos imitari. qui, cum magna laude immortalique nominis memoria, in hoc scripti genere ante nos laborarunt: Quorum authoritas & exemplum tantum apud nos valet, vt cum illis, decipi & errare honestius multo, & laudabilius fore putemus, quàm istis magistris erudiri & instrui. Quid enim habent, cur non illos eodem condemnent crimine, ne, si modo nos hac in re voluerint reprehendere? verè enim si existimabunt, sic constituent: in simili causa versari nos, atque nobis eandem cum illis rationem esse: Nisi fortasse laudant eos, quod obscura & difficilia (vt erant doctissimi) summa diligentia enucliarunt: nos autem ideo non probant, quod ista rectius quàm illi præstare non potuimus. Quum iure potius optimo laudi nobis tribui oporteat: quod summis laboribus, atque vigiliis, eorum opera peruoluentes, sententias & interpretationes conferentes, hic cum vernacula interpretatione congersimus: quicquid ex his omnibus vtilitatis studiosa iuuentus exhaurire posset. Neque hic velim quisquam labores nostros eleuet, & Eliotæ primum, nostramq; deinde industriam derideat, nimis fastidiose iactitans: Vni duntaxat nationi scripsisse nos: nimis breuiter omnia tradidisse: tyrunculis atq; adeo puellis nosmet solum accommodasse: facilem ac nullius negotii operam præstitisse: quum eamodo in patrium sermonem transfuderimus, quæ nobis alii latinè copiosius exposuerunt. Anglis solum scripsisse nos fate-mur certe libenter, atque id imprimis gloriamur, vel ex hoc satis perspicuum esse, nos, singulari quodam in patriam amore, non externa gloriolæ fama adductos, hanc suscepisse prouinciam. Breuiter omnia tradere, nec integris authorum exemplis phrasés ubiq; illustrare, & operis commoditas suaserit, et necessitas impulit: ne in immensum excreceret volumen: quod vnum incommodum aureum illud opus Thesauri habet. Ad tyrunculorum sane captum nosmet submisimus, sed ita, vt exercitatissimi hic reperiant, quo sua studia iuuare possent. Nullius autem difficultatis esse, quod, ex aliorum lucubrationibus, quæ ad nostrum vsum essent, transtulimus, cur magnopere dicant nihil video. Nam & ipsi, quorum subsidio nostra maxime leuata est industria: ab aliis, qui ante eos in eodem stadio desudarunt, se non nihil adiutos ubique fatentur: nec tamen ideo nihil eos fecisse credendum est: quum ab omnibus in cælum iustissimis & verissimis laudibus efferantur. Denique, quod ad vernaculam interpretationem attinet, quid alii sentiant nescio: nos certe, qui iam experti sumus quanti laboris studiiq; sit, per sancte vobis confirmare audemus, longe hoc difficilius nobis fuisse, quàm si idem latinè præstandum foret. Huius rei quæ fidem vobis faciunt, vt alia multa prætermittam: sexcenta nobis occurrebant vocabula ex Columella, Carone, Varrone, Plinio, & aliis, peregrina & rara, vel arti alicui propria: nec vlla vel ipsius authoris vel alterius interpretatione illustrata: quæ transire facile potuissemus, si aliorum exemplo licuisset, integra ex authore subscripta sententia, verbi significationem lectoris iudicio ciò relinquere. Verum nos operis suscepti ratio cogebat, vel propriam rei cuiusq; appellationem addere, vel paucis vernaculè ita describere, vt etiam pueri vim ipsius vocabuli possent intelligere. Sed altius paulo & penitius huius operis difficultates introspicimus. Vocabulorum quæ in Dictionaria plerunque conferuntur, quædam communia sunt & familiaria: quædam certis artibus & scientiis destituta. Familiarium certe verborum interpretationes aliquot vernaculè reddere, haud magni fortasse laboris est, quum omnibus nota sint, & quotidiano sermone protrita, obuia, & vbiq; occurrentia. Ago, fero, facio, duco, quid significant, nemo non nouit: verum istorum, & similium, varium apud authores vsum obseruare, & pro immensa hac varietate, diuersas, aptas tamen & conuenientes significationes apponere, vel quum vsum vocabuli verbo vnico satis indicari non potest, breuiter ex probato authore phrasim & modum locutionis ita cum vernacula interpretatione subnectere, vt interim seruetur: vtriusq; linguæ idiotismus et gratia: hoc opus, hic labor est, hæ sunt de quibus tantopere quærimur difficultates. Hoc autem quanti sit, et quantum nos hac in parte studii et laboris posuerimus, aliorumq; industriam adiuuerimus: illi deniq; scient, qui, vel infinitas Romani sermonis diuitias et elegantias (quas Cicero ne Græcorum opibus cedere existimabat) cum nostræ linguæ penuria tenuiq; suppelleçili conferre, vel, ex Cicerone, Lilio, Tacito, Cæsare, alioue scriptore classico quicq; Anglico sermoni tradere voluerint. Et vt sint fortasse nonnulli, qui hoc totum nullius momenti fecerint, quod illis vix vllum operæ pretium videatur esse, si quis latina apte in matrem vertere sermonem calleat: Quando tamen M. Tullius, sine controuersia totius eloquentiæ fons, nonnusquàm gloriatur se latine interpretando philosophiam patriæ familiarem reddidisse: et quædam ex græcis tam poetis quàm oratoribus in suum vsum transferendo egregiam nauasse operam credebat. Qui minus nostra laudetur industria, qui summo studio, summaq; diligentia sic latina vbiq; Anglicè interpretati sumus, vt vel pueri quoq; latina vernaculè, vel è contrario vernacula latinè, nullo fere negotio et cum aliqua ratione et gratia, nec ineptis et absurdis, sed appositis et accommodatis verbis reddere addiscant. Sed iam ad eorum verborum contemplationem veniamus, quæ artibus quibusdam et scientiis propria diximus: Quorum tanta varietas est, tamq; difficilis cognitio: vt nemini vnquam vni quantumuis πολυμαθει, et multifaria rerum experientia doctissimo, eorum omnium vernaculam cognouisse nomenclaturā arbitrer contigisse. Huius generis sunt omnia instrumenta mechanica, vt fabrilia, tonforia, rustica, nautica, textoria, bellica. &c. quæ propria sua habent vocabula, vix illis nota, quorum manibus quotidie teruntur. Idem etiam sentiendum de singulis operum partibus, quæ eisdem subiiciuntur artificiis. Quot res in ædificio sunt? quibus si à fabris sua nomina reddi posceres: magis mutos reperires quam pisces? Pretereo hic præcipuos illos loquendi modos, quos singuli opifices in propriis artibus sibi peculiare habent. In vna re nautica, quanta rerum varietas? quot locutionum formulae? quot instrumenta nautarum vsui accommodata? quot naui ipsius partes? quot nauigiorum genera? vt, quæ ad hoc vnum spectent negotium exactè didicisse, non minimi laboris esse videatur. Eos ergo qui lexicò ex omni parte perfectum, & in quo nihil desyderetur, sibi conficiendum proponunt: omnes simul artifices in consiliū adhibere oportet: vt ab illis rerum nomina discant, quibus singuli artificia sua tuentur. Quemadmodum & nos frequenter ad materiarios fabros, ad olitores, ad textores, ad agricolas, ad rusticam turbam de nomenclaturis retulimus: & ab illis sumpsimus etiam, quæ rei congruerent propositæ. Iam vero herbis sua vocabula, quibus vulgo nuncupentur subscribere, quàm sit arduū, medicorum inconstantia, (qui in hac sola re multorum annorum studium posuere) satis probat. Apud illos enim hodie, in plerisque, doctissimi viri argumentū habetur, non herbam digito monstrare, nomine indicare, vel quæ sit breuiter definire: sed authorum qui de ea scripserunt pugnantem sententias numerare. Siquidem & Theophrastus, & cunctis in re herbaria a Galeno prælatus Dioscorides, neque non apud latinos Plinius, tam diuersi plerumque abeunt, vt in gratiam nulla possint orationis persuatione reuocari: & nonnunquam in herbulæ cuiusdam facie representanda, notas tam varie deliniant: vt quidnis potius quàm stirpem ipsam demonstrare videantur, vel certe eandem multiplicitate prorsus & varia effigie. Huc adde, quod vnaquævis regio suas habeat stirpes, sibi peculiare, qui nec vsquam alibi reperiantur, nec (cum in nullo vnq̃ vsu apud nostrates fuerint) Anglica nomenclatione reddi possint. Quid hic tēpus tererē in recensendis innumeris piscium, volatiliū, serpentum, insectorum, gemmarum generibus? quorū omnium naturę perscrutandę, & nomina ediscenda sunt eis, qui nihil in Dictionario vernaculo deesse cupiunt. Quum ergo tantæ difficultatis, tantiq̃ studii res existat, quo quidq̃ certo et proprio vocabulo appelletur pernoscere: ne mox terrę cælū misceant nimium seucri alienorum operum censores, si quod forte verbum, parum apte materno sermone redditum, inuenerint. Sciant in opere tam spisso et vario, facilem esse lapsum: Imo non labi difficillimum: et per et per omnia, omniū opinioni satisfacere, nemini vnquam cōcessum. Simul etiam memores sint, satis esse homines imprudentia lapsos non erigere: vrgere vero iacentes et non potius in pedes rursū statuere, nimis esse inhumanum. Sed merces iam vobis coram sine fraude exponam: vt intelligatis quid, a nobis, in hoc opere præstirum, expectari debeat. Digessimus ordine alphabetico, quā fieri potuit commodissime ac diligentissime, latinas dictiones omnes, et peregrinas duntaxat eas, quæ a latinis vsurpatæ sunt authoribus. Multas vero, quæ nullo latinorum vsu probari possent, ideoq; meram sapere barbariem viderentur, reiecit. Vocabula nonnulla, et plumas locutionum formulas, quæ sapissime sine vllō ordine, cum maximo lectorum incommodo, temere spargebantur: vt in suas sedes fideliter restituerentur, studiosè laborauimus. Annotauimus præterea in nominibus genus & inflectionem. Verborum etiam præterita, quæ priori editione corruptissime legebantur, hic castigatiora reperies. Accentuum item ratio, non vbiq; a nobis prætermissa. Adhæc, Vocabulorum aliquot millia adiecimus, & verborum significationes innumeras: quæ non modo in scriptoribus latinæ linguæ probatissimis, sed in quotidiano etiam sermone vsum habent amplissimū. Vnicuiq; dictioni vernacula vocabula accommodata & conuenientia, quasi vno aceruo congesta, tanta varietate subtexuimus: vt hic noster labor non tam ad expeditam Romani sermonis notitiam, quā ad nostræ linguæ ornatum, & elegantiam plurimum conferat. Phrasæ etiam & formulas locutionum, vsum verborum aptissime demonstrantes, ex Cicerone & aliis latini eloquii principibus, vbiq; subscripsimus: quibus interpretandis, non verbum pro verbo anxie reddere, vt syllabas numerare videremur: sed vim vocibus subiectam pro viribus exprimentes, vtriusq; linguæ gratiam et elegantiam seruare, præcipuè studebamus. Præterea, propria nomina deorum, virorum, regionum, fluminum, oppidorum, quæ prius magna ex parte neglecta erant, item adiectiua & patronymica, ad poetarum lectionem maxime necessaria, tum ex Stephano, tum ex aliis, qui de eis scripserunt, in hanc editionem transtulimus. Deniq; vix credas quā varia & corrupta vbiq; esset, tum priorum nominum, tum etiam vocabulorum latinorum orthographia, aliis aliter scribentibus: ita vt eadem dictiones diuersis sæpe locis repeterentur. huic etiam vitio nostra diligentia succurrimus: & vbi probari possit varia verbi alicuius scriptio, lectorem ex vno loco in alium mittimus, ne frustra eadē repetere cogeremur. Postremo, errata, non in propriis solum, sed et iam in latinis innumera, castigauimus: quæ Eliota vel impressorum errore deceptus, aliis falso falso ascripsit: vel imprudentia et nimia festinatione lapsus, ipse designavit. In re herbaria (vbi plurima, nec immerito, nostri temporis medici desyderant) multa restituiamus, aliqua adiecimus: Quum principio tamen animus esset, nihil quod ad herbas & frutices attineret, attingere: ne committeremus, vt audacter verius quàm prudenter ea res a nobis traderetur: in qua, nunquàm singulare aliquod & præcipuum studium posuissimus: præsertim quum medici quidam, quos initio consulimus, tam fastidiose vota nostra reiecerint. Optauimus ergo magis, vt tam inconstans & varia fruticum et stirpium nomenclatura, a perito aliquo & exercitato viro describeretur: qui bonam ætatis suæ partem posuisset, in disquirendis et inuestigandis herbarum naturis. Pollicitus hoc est Turnerus, vir sane doctus & pius, cuius industriam omnes artis medicæ studiosi, auidissime expectant. Habes iam (lector humanissime) bona fide tibi exposita, quæ nos postrema hac æditione præstitimus. Quæ non ideo velim hic a me ad-scripta putes, vt vel Eliotæ viro ornatissimo (quemq; propter singulare in bonis literis promouendis studium, semper amari plurimum) tanquàm negligenti atque oscitanti insultare, vel meritas eius laudes imminuere videar: sed potius vt tibi, amice lector, hoc pacto labores nostros vtcunq; ob ocu-

los propo-

nam,

arque apud te aliquod nostræ industriæ specimen

ederem. Nunc

ergo si studia tua quicquàm a nobis iuuari putabis,

sudoribus nostris & vigiliis fruiere

non ingratus: & Vdallo viro doctissimo, cuius eruditifsimus annotationibus multis locis leuati sumus, dignas laudes gra-

tiasque tribue.

Vale.

Iste affectus: vel imperitiam et nimiam simulationem habet, ipse de genere in re habet (vbi plura, nec inueniunt, non in re medici delictum) nulla ratione, sed ad hoc, quod ratio tamquam animus esset, nihil quod ad rationem & fructum attineret attingere: ne committeretur, ut audiret verum quum prudenter res nobis traditur: in qua, nunquam singulare aliquid & par-tium fructum possideremus: praeterquam quum medici quidam, quos ratio constituit, tunc ratione vix nostra ratione. Oportet namque ergo magis, ut tam inordinata & vix fructum et fructum nomenclamus, a perito aliquid & exordium vix delectetur: qui de namque estis hoc partem possidet, in dispendio et inordinata partem naturae. Possidet hoc est, Turpetur, vix inordinata & par-tem inordinatam omnes artis medicis fructus, quidam exordium habet tam (lector humanitatis) bonis vix delectetur, quos nos fructus hac ratione praestamus: Quod non ideo vix inordinata scripta patet, ut vel fructus vix inordinata (quum proprium singulare in bonis licet promouendis fructum, semper autem in plurimum) candorem neglegentiaque obsequii inhibere, vel modestas eius laudes humanitas videtur: sed potius ut illi amice-tor, hoc pacto laboris nos inordinata obsequii hoc propositum
 namque
 atque quod ad aliquid nostrum inordinata spectant eorum. Nunc
 ergo si iudicis tuus
 quum a nobis iudicis partem inordinata nostris & vix inordinata non inordinata: & vix inordinata doctissimus, cuius etiam inordinata inordinata
 in locis inordinata
 aliquid laudes pro
 inordinata etiam
 Vale.

IN THE

ende of a worde is alwaies long.
except ita, quia,
quia, and the no minative, accusa tive, and vocatis usages of nouns are declined, sa ving the vocatis us case of the na
minative in, as.

A, and Ab, signify, of, and from. A, is sette before such wordes onely, as doe begynne with a consonante. Ab and Abs are used as well be fore wordes that begynne with vowels, as with consonantes, onlesse the rough and unpleasante sounde of the worde be a lette therto.

A, and Ab, signified with possesives doe note the dower or cause efficient: as, victus est a Scipio:
one: Scipio overcame hym.

A meis civibus res mihi honori fuit: my cyti
sens dyd greatly honour me for that thing.

A nobilitate magis infestus ager fuit. &c. the noble men dyd more here hurt than tountry.

A and Ab, signify moving from a place: as,
A villa redeo, I returne from my house.

A and Ab, be sometimes interpreted by, Cum,
and serve to note the time: as, A parvo re noui:
id est, cum adhuc esses parvus: I knowe the when thou was but a little one. Ab adolefcentu tulo: when thou was but a yonge man. Ab in fante: when thou was but a childe.

A and Ab, note the terms of tyme, and then co
monly followeth, Ad, as vsq; ad: as, A prin cipio ad finem: from the beginning to the ende.

A sole orto vsq; ad medium diei: from the sunne risinge until a great parte of the daye was passe. A capite ad calcem: from the toppe to the toe.

Ab imis vnguibus vsq; ad sumum verticem:
from the toes to the crowne of the head.

A mane vsq; ad vesperum: from early in the mornynge until the euenynge.

A media nocte rogatus ero: id est statim post.
Ab orto vsq; ad mala: from the beginninge of the feaste until the ende.

Ab omni aeternitate vixit animus: id est, ab aeterno: the soule of man had no beginninge but was euer.

Ceremonie ab omni vetustate accepta: scilicet monies receyued of our auncestours longe sence, tyme out of mynde.

A pridie idus Septembris: from the day before the Ides of September.

Ab Sylla & Pompeio consulibus: sence the tyme that Sylla and Pompey were consuls.

A and Ab, note separation: as, Longissime ab occasu: a great way from the weste.

A and Ab, for contra: as defendit a frigore myrtos: it kepeth the myrtells against the coude.

Vestes a tinea defendit: it kepeth garments from the mothes.

A and Ab, for Prater or contra: as, Id annotasse non ab re fuerit: it wyl not be unprofitable, or it shalbe nothinge againste our purpose to note that. Quidus, dum ab re nequid ores, faciam:
I wyl doe what so euer you wyl for you desire me nothinge againste honestie.

A re tua, for, A tuis negotiis: from your owne business.

Non ab re fuerit subtexere. &c. It shalbe not thinge from our purpose to adde.

Non ab re, sometime for, non sine causa.
A and Ab, for, post, Statim. Continuo post:
A ientulo: after breakfast. A somno: by and by after sleape.

A and Ab, for Pro, with these verbes Sum, Sto, Facio, Dico, Ago, and other lyke: as Scire ab Senatu: to take parte with the Senate. Non modo dicendi ab reo sed ne surgendi quidem potestas fuit: we hadde no licence not only to speake any thinge for the partie accused, but not to muche as to rise up in his behalfe. Videne to tum hoc sit a me: I looke well whether all these deceit make with me. Nihil magis a nobis quam ab aduersariis facit: it maketh no more with us then with our aduersaries.

In the same signification we vse. Cum aliquo facere, Cum aliquo stare. Pro aliquo esse. A testibus, con tra testes: for wytnes against wytnes. A ru moribus, contrarumores: for rumour, and to make them to be beleued: against rumours and to proue them not to be beleued. Nostri il li a Platone & Aristotele moderati homines:
those moderate men that be of our followers of Plato and Aristotle.

A and Ab, for quod pertinet ad: as, Sumus imparati tum a militibus tum a pecunia: we are supplied as well of souldiours as of mo ney.

A morbo valui, ab animo ager fui: as touching my disease I was whole, as touchinge my minde I was seke, I was hoole from my disease, and seke in my minde. Tam a me pus sica est quasi soror mea sit: she is as chaste and undefiled for me, as yf she were my owne sister.

Bis perit amator, ab re et ab animo: he that is in loue is dubble caste away and undone, both as touchinge his goodes as also his minde. Tam in ops eram ab amicis: I was so utterly desti tute of frendes. Securos vos ab hac parte red dam: as touchinge this matters I wyl make you secure.

A and Ab, for per, vt ibi Iunius mensis consu matur velim tranquille a Parthis, id est, vel per parthos liceat mihi tranquille consumere Iunium.

A for De, as aforis, for, deforis. A via salutes for de via: salute him in the waye or streete as thou goest.

A and Ab, for versus, as, Quod a sole melius quam quod a terra: better that was towarde
the

the son, then towards the earthe.

A parte Aquilonis: on the northe syde.

A contraria aure instilla: put it in at the contrary eare.

A and Ab, toynd with the ablatiue of the person, noteth the house or dwelling place: as, A iudice venit: he cometh from the iudges house.

A vobis: from your house. Ab se egreditur: he cometh out of his owne house. item A patre milite, sene. &c.

A and Ab sometyme signifie at, or with: as, A frigore incipit febris: the feuer beginneth with a colde. A potu prandium incipiunt: they begynne their dinner with drynke at the cuppe.

A fronte & a tergo: both behinde and before.

A verecundia: id est, præ vel propter: A verecundia memoriarū meritorum haud secus quā ducem suum attollunt: for shame and remembrance of his merites, & Friget ab illo: i. illius comparatione,

A for propter, as, Auidior erat certaminis a spe quam successus rerum augebat: because of the hope whiche his prosperous successe did encrease.

A recenti memoria perfidie aliquanto minore cum misericordia auditi, because of the fresh remembrance of. &c.

Caput meum a sole dolet, my head akeeth with the heate of the sunne.

A and Ab for ex parte, A Sabinis Metius. ab Romanis Hostilius.

Ab aliquo legare: as, Ei testamento legat grandem pecuniam a filio, a secundo hæredē nihil legat, by testament he bequeathed to him a gret somme of money to be deliuered or payed to him of his sonne whom he leste his chiefe heyre: but if his sonne died he appointed the seconde heyre to geue him nothing.

A and Ab proximitatem loci notat: as Venerat a Roma pridia vespere: he came from Rome the day before in the euening. from Rome, that is, not out of the very citie, but from the country about or nigh to the citie. otherwise it shoulde haue bene in the ablatiue without a preposition. Supplementum ab Roma abduxerat. i. de locis vrbi propinquis.

A and Ab, haue this difference from E and Ex. A theatro, from the theatre or from the place hard by the theatre: Ex theatro: out of the very theatre it selfe.

A and Ab toynd with certayne nownes signifie officers or ministers: as, Ab accidentibus qui preest nuntijs afferendis. Ab aure, a secretarij or one to whom a pynce reueyleth his private counsaile. A commentarijs: he that recollecteth or cronacleth notable actes doone of a pynce. A latere: a great friend of a pynce, alway about him. A libellis: maister of request. A manu: a clerke or secretarie. A memoria: he that is the pynces remembrance. A pedibus: a foote man or lackey. A secretis: one that the pynce appointeth to patens or warrants. A studijs: a pynces instructour or ouersier of his studies. A rationibus: maister of accomptes, maister cossozar. Ab epistolis, a secretarie or clerke of the signet. A baris: ouersier of the measures: clerke of the markette.

These names of offices be vsed vnderclined in all numbers and cases: as, Quid agunt a pedib', or quid agit a pedibus. Misi a pedibus: I haue sent my footeman. Dedi a pedibus meis, I deliuered it to my footeman.

A is sometyme put in Cæsars commentaries for interuallo: A millibus passuum circiter duobus aduentum expectant, aboute two miles of &c. Positis castris millibus passuum. 15. fiftin miles of &c.

Me sap elegantly: A me tibi solua: i. de mea vel de mea pecunia, I will pay the of myne owne purse. Viaticum dabo ab tripeza tibi, I will take money of the barther, and geue it you for your spendpence. Frater laborat vi tibi debet, ab Egnatio soluat: my brother endeuoreth to gette money of Egnatius that he may pay his debtes to you.

A suis fratribus dicit se dedisse, he saith he borroweth money of his brother and gaue it him. Suppedinat sumptum a socijs, he borroweth money of his felowes to maintaine his charges. Representabo tibi a fratre, I will take money of my brother, and pay you out of hande.

A cauda de ouo exeunt, they come out of the egge with their tayles forwarde: or their tayles come out of the egge first.

A matre pulli non exiguus hodie pretijs variunt, ponge chickens euen from the damme. &c.

Qui a philosophia, a iure ciuili ab historia suis erit instructor, he that shall be well furnished with the knowlage of philosophie, of the law. &c. Inuictus a labore, that can bee overcome with no labour.

Tam prope ab exule fuit quā postea a principe, he was almost as nye to be a banished man, as he was after to be a pynce.

Ab singulari amore & beneuolentia hæc ad te scripsi: I haue written vnto you for a singular loue and good will.

Significauit se a te illum librum descripsisse: that he had the copie of you to write out that booke.

A me salutem dic Cicroni, haue me commended to Cicero.

Saluebis a meo Cicerone, my sonne Cicero sendeth commendacions vnto you, or greeteth you.

A puppi Religatus, for ad puppim.

Hec primum ab illo iniuria animaduertenda ab illo iniuria. i. eius iniuria, or iniuria quam ille fecit, these his iniuries first to be punished.

A me, for meus, as Quis a me pepulit fores.

A and Ab, seme sometyme to lacke: as, Donec desertus suis caderet. i. a suis.

Accita vitelio auxilia. i. a vitelio, they sent for payde from vitellius.

A and

A and Ab are pletely vſed with vſq, and prope, as Vſq a Romulo, euen ſens Romulus tyme. Tam prope a muris, ſo little a waie from our wailes, oꝝ ſo nye to our wailes.

Abaces, dumme, that can not ſpeake, alſo certaine caſes, wherein pleaſure is kepte.

Abacti, officers depoſed, oꝝ ſuche as be conſtrained to reſigne their authoritie.

Abactor, oris, m. g. a ſtealer of cattell.

Abactus, us, theſt of cattell.

Abactus, a, um, diuinen away.

Abacta nox, the night paſt.

Abactus magiſtratus, depriued of office.

Abaculus, abaculi, a little couſtour that auditours doe vſe, called alſo Calculus.

Abacus, abaci, m. g. was in olde tyme a playne pleaſure made in a buildinge of ſtone to ſette on a ſeat or hence of marble. It is alſo a ſquare table of ſtone in building ſet vpon the chapters of pillars. Alſo a counting table, ſuche as Arithmeticians oꝝ auditours doe vſe, oꝝ ſuche as Aſtronomers deſcriue their figures in. Alſo a cheſt boorde oꝝ playng tables, and a cupboorde to ſet plate on.

Totos dies abaco & laticulis conterunt, they ſpende whole daies in playng at tables oꝝ cheſtes.

Abacus, is ſometyme taken for a ſhelſe in a houſe, and by a metaphor, for a bar or ſhelſe in the ſea.

Abacus ſolis, amonge Aſtronomers is taken for the compaſſe or breadth of the body in the ſonne. as it appeareth to our ſight.

Adagio, ſonis, for. ge. ſignifieth the ſame that adagio, and adagium doe, a pꝛouerbe.

Abalienatio, tionis, for. g. an alienacion.

Abalienator, ōris, m. ge. he that doeth alient oꝝ put away a thyng, oꝝ that altereth the poſſeſſion thereof, and is of lawiers called an alienour.

Abalienatus, nāra, um, is he, whom a man putteth away from him.

Abalienatus iure ciuium, outlawed out of the libertees of a citee.

Abalienata morbis membra, members mortified by ſickenefſe.

Abalieno, enas, aui, are, to alienate, to geue ouer to an other, to put oꝝ tourne away, to make ſtrāge, oꝝ to withdraue a mans mind from one.

Abalienauit a me patrem, he hath tourned my fathers mynde from me.

Totum ſe a me abalienauit, he hath withdraue him ſelſe wholly from me.

Crucior a viro me tui abalienari, it greueth me & I am ſeparated from ſuch a man as he is.

Abambulo, bulas, aui, are, to walke away.

Abambulantes, they that walke awaie.

Abāmira, abamira, for. ge. my great graundfathers ſiſter,

Abanec, a gyddle, whiche pꝛieſtes did weare, ſo wrought with colours of ſcarlette and purple, that there ſemed to be ſet in it, flowers and precious ſtones in order.

Abanniti, thoſe that be baniſhed out of their cuntry for a yere ſpace.

Abania, is interpreted the father, vnto god accepta- ble, oꝝ gratifying vnto god.

Abaphus, a, um, bndied, vncoloured.

Abaptiſtus, a, um, that which can not be drowned as cooke.

Abaptiſtum, i, an inſtrument which ſurgeons vſe.

Abarceo, oꝝ abarceo, ui, ere, to prohibite, oꝝ put off from a thyng.

Abauia, uia, f. g. my great grandames mother.

Abauus, i, m. g. my great graundfathers father.

Abauunculus, i, my great graundfathers brother.

Abax, abaxis, m. g. a cupboorde oꝝ diſhe.

Abazea, orum, certaine oꝝ dinaunces oꝝ lawes made by Dionisius.

Abba, a worde of the language of Syria, and ſignifieth father.

Abbas, abbatis, an abbot.

Abbatissa, an abbeſſe.

Abbreuiio, aui, are, to abbreuiate oꝝ make ſhorter.

Abbreuiatura, a, f. g. an inſtrument of a notary, oꝝ a lawier briefly drawn.

Abdico, abdicas, aui, are, to reiect, to reſuſe, to forſake, to expell oꝝ put out of fauour, oꝝ to reſigne an office.

Abdicauit filium, he forſoke oꝝ reſuſed him for his ſonne.

Abdicauit ſe magiſtratu, he hath reſigned his office oꝝ dignitee.

Abdicauit ſe libertate, he bereſte him ſelſe of his libertee.

Vtinam poſſit e vita in totum abdicari aurū, I woulde golde might cleane be taken out of the vſe of mans lyfe.

Laurus manifeſto abdicat ignes crepitu .i. a verſatur, the baie tree with the crackynge of the leaues. Meteweth that of nature it is againſt fyre.

Abdicare cibi aliquem, to prohibite the vſe of any meate.

Abdicare legem, to forſoꝝe a lawe.

Abdicatio, ōnis, a reſignacion, oꝝ the acte of a father, whā he excludeth his ſonne and heire from the inheritaunce of his poſſeſſions.

Abditamentum, contrary to additamentum, a diminucion.

Abdicatus, a, um, forſaken oꝝ reiected.

Abdico, dixi, ere, to deny oꝝ forſake, to forſpeke, to caſt of oꝝ renounce.

Abdicere amores ſuos, for Abdicare.

Abdite, ſecretely.

Abditamentū, deduction of money in comptinge.

Abditus, abdita, um, hydd ſecretely.

Abditum, a ſecrete place.

Abdo, abdis, abdidi, ere, to hyde oꝝ kepe cloſe.

Abdere ſe ex conſpectu heri, to kepe him away, that his maiſter ſee him not.

Abdere ſe in aliquem locum: as, Abdidi me in bibliothecam, I hidde my ſelſe vnto my library becauſe I woulde not be troubled.

Se in proximas ſyluas abdidit, they hydde them them in the nexte wooddes.

 Abdiderat sese, for Abscondiderat.
 Neg se in occultum abdiderat, he did not hide him selfe in any priue place.
 Abdidit intra vestem, or, sub veste ferrum,
 he hidde the knife vnder his garmente.
 Se in suis quisq; tectis abdiderunt, they hydde them selfe euery man in his owne house.
 Speluncis abdidit artis, i. in speluncis.
 In insulam abdita est, id est, relegatu, he was banished.
 Abdidit, the pastime.
 Abdere se literis, or in literas, to lue unknowe in continuall studie.
 Me totum in literas abdam.
 Abdidit se rus, he hydde him selfe in the countrey.
 Abdidit se domum, he hidde him selfe at home.
 Abdomen, abdominis, n. g. that which is vnder
 the mouth of the stomacke, where it apereth outward vnder the gyfte of the brest bone, the vpper and former part of the bealy, that is betwene the nauill and the pyuie members. This is also cald Hypochondria, it is sometye taken for the fatte about the hydnis. Also for the pappes of a sow with hir mylke, cut of from hir bealy the daie after she hath frowed.
 Abdomen in saturabile, an vnfaciate gutte, spoken of one that is neuer satisfied in eatynge and drynkyng.
 Abdomini indulgere, abdomini inferuire, ab-domini operam dare, to geue hym selfe to braty there.
 Abduco, abducis, iuxi, ere, to leade away, or leade out, to leade asyde, to pulle away, or take with.
 Abduce, for Abduc, leade or haue away.
 Abducere a fide, to cause a man to breake his promyse.
 Abducimus aliquando per vim, aliquando sine vim.
 Abductum in secretu Masinissam sic alloquitur, he leadyng Masinissam asyde into a secrete place, &c.
 Abductum in ganeum credo, I thinke he is led into some brothell house.
 Donec in diuersum abducatur a nidis, vntill he hath led them cleane a nother way from hir nest.
 Abducere in seruitutem, to leade away into bondage.
 Ne discipulum abducam times, i. ne auertam a sententia tua, lest I shoulde turne him from your opinion.
 Abducere inuenes ad nequitiam: to leade yonge men to lewdnes.
 Abducere se a republica, to withdrawe him
 selfe from the busines of the common weale.
 A studijs ad lasciuia abducere, to withdrawe from study and learning to wantonnes.
 Abducere caput ab ictu, to bend his head from the stroke.
 Abduxi clauem, I toke out the key.

Animum a cogitationibus abducere, to with-drawe the mynde from meditation.
 Abducere gradum, to steppe backe.
 Abducere animum a solitudine, to withdraw the mynde from penfull carefullnesse.
 Abecedarium, the order of the letters, or the crosse
 rowe.
 Abecedarius, he that setteth any thyng in order by letter, or he that teacheth children the crosse rowe, or he that learneth his crosse rowe.
 Abedo, dis, or abedo, abes, abedi, to consume or eate vp.
 Abellina, or auellana, a fiberde of the towne of Abella.
 Abemo, abemis, to take away.
 Abemito vestem, take away his coate.
 Abeo, vi, veli, ire, to departe or goe away.
 Abire, a, ab, or de loco aliquo.
 Abijt, hinc, illinc, istinc, &c.
 Abire ex oculis e conspectu, to go out of sight.
 Nimum istuc abijt, thou wenste to farre this way. Longe abijt, he is gone a great way hence.
 Peregre abijt, he went into straunge countreis.
 Abijt obuiam, he went forth to mete him.
 Impune abijt, he escaped unpunished.
 Cum prio resupino, Abijt exulatum, he went into banishment.
 Non totum ferrum in corpus abijt, al the daggar entred not into his body.
 Abijt memoria, it is out of my remembraunce.
 Vreditus agrorum, sic etiam pretium retro abijt, i. imminutum est, is diminished.
 Sed ab hoc parum per abeamus: let vs leaue
 this matter a little while.
 Abitum est a priore emptione, thei went from their first bargayne.
 Abire e medio, or e vita, to die.
 Nunc abeo ad vulgi opinionem, now I conde-scend to the common peoples opinion.
 Quod presens fuit in diem abijt, is deferred.
 Ne in ora hominum pro ludibrio abiret, that men might not talke and geste at it.
 In quos sumptus abierunt fructus predioru:
 where vpon is the reuenewes of my landes and manours spent or consumed.
 Abire in ventos, to vanishe away.
 Abijt hora, the tyme is passed.
 Abijt sol, the sonne is downe.
 Abijt oppidum in villas, the towne is tourned into fermes.
 Abijt in vulnus, he fell downe on the syde, wheron he was wounded.
 Abijt e medio, he vanished away, he was neuer moze seene.
 Abijt incepto, he left of his enterpryse.
 Abijt in salem, it was turned into salt.
 Abibirur, he or I will depart or goe away.
 Abi in malam rem, go hence with a mischief.
 Abi tu sane superior, sytte thou hygher, goe vpper.
 Abire pessum, to ren hedlynge, to come to a mischief.

mischief, to decay or goe to naught.
 Abire à iure, to doe wronge.
 Abire, to cease, to vanish, or to be appeased, to slippe awaie.
 Mirabar hoc si sic abiret, I marvelle yf this matter should so passe.
 Quid ad istas ineptias abis? What medleste thou with these fantasies? Why doste thou beginne to speake of these trifles.
 Abequito, aui, are, to side awaie.
 Aberceo, aberces, act. to forbid.
 Eā abercet domo, he forbiddeth her his house.
 Abërro, aberras, aui, are, neu, to erre, or to wander abode, to goe out of the righte waie, to departe farre of, or a sonder.
 Aberrare a proposito, to leaue or goe from the matter in communication.
 Ne longius aberrer oratio, that my oration wander not to farre from the purpose.
 Aberrauit a communi utilitate: he wente from the profite of the comon weale.
 Non multum ab Herilli leuitate aberrabimus we shall be almoste of as little constancie and grauitee as Herillus.
 Nullo alio modo a miseria quasi aberrare possum: id est, a miseria cogitationem auertere, withdraue my mynde from cogitation of my miserie.
 At ego hic scribendo dies totos nihil leuor, sed tamen aberro: subaudi, a dolore, & mo-lestia: but yet my minde is withdrawen from sorow and miserie thereby.
 Aberrare, for errare, Quamque vereor ne ni-hil coniectura aberrem, id est, ne coniectura non fallat.
 Aberratio, aberrationis .f. g. a wandringe, or a recreation that withdraweth the minde from heuinelle.
 Aberratio a molestiis.
 Aberuncasso, scere, to tourne by.
 Aberunco, runcas, aui, are, loke in auerrunco.
 Aberuncare iram deorum, to withdraue the vengeance of god.
 Abfore, to be awaie.
 Abgrego, abgregas, aui, are, to seuer or take out of the flocke, to draw shepe.
 Abhinc, before this tyme. Abhinc triennium, with an accusatiue. three yeres hence.
 Abhinc annis quindecim: with an ablatiue.
 fiftene yeres hence.
 Abhoreo, abhorruui, ere, neut. to abhorre, to hate, to despise, to flee fro, to be vnlike, or to disorde.
 Abhorreo ab vrbe relinquenda, I haue no
 minde to forsake the citee.
 Abhorret à fide, it is incredible.
 Abhorret ab illo mea sententia, mine opinion is contrary to his, or repugnant against his.
 Abhorret à suspicione, it is contrary to my supposell.
 Abhorrens ab auribus vulgi: that doeth not agre to the eares of the comon people.

 Alij talibus vitiis abhorrent: pro a talibus. as Abhorre cum accusatiuo, pro, detestari,
 Pumilos tanquā ludibria naturæ abhorruit:
 Nec abutilitate audientium, nec ab officio nostro abhorrebit oratio mea, my oration shal be neither againste the profite of the hearers, nor contrarie to our dutie.
 Abhorre a nuptiis, to hate mariage.
 Abhorret a charitate vulgi, he tendereth not or passeth nothyng on the poore people.
 Nō abhorret à vero, it is not vnlike to be true.
 Abhorresco, abhorrescis, neu, to feare to behold.
 Abiecte: basely, vilely.
 Abiectio, abiectionis, for. g. vilitee, low estate,
 basenes of courage.
 Abiecto, aui, are, to cast away often.
 Abiectus, a vile person.
 Abiectus, a, um, base of courage, almoste in desspaire, naught set by, vexed with aduersite, cast of, laied aside, prostrate.
 Pari fortuna abiectus: cast downe in lyke aduersitee.
 Abiectior animi, of baser courage.
 Abiegnus, a, um, made of firre.
 Abies, abietis, f. g. a tree called a firre. it is some-tyme used for ship boordes.
 Abietarius, rii, m. g. a carpenter.
 Abietarius, a, um, & abiegnus, a, um, of firre.
 Abiga, an herbe called puite, looke Camapitis.
 Abigeatus, abigatus, m. g. felonie, or the act in stealing of cattell.
 Abigenabos, was amonge the diuinours, called Augures, the ore, whiche was to be sacrificed, as bounte whoun the other beastes were set in order.
 Abigeus, abigei, m. g. a stealer of cattell.
 Abigas, the thirde skinne that the yonge one wraps
 ped in the wombe.
 Abigo, abigis, egi, ere, act. to driue awaie any thinge that is iuell or noisome, as flies from our face, or birdes from fruite. also to driue away cattell by theste, or disceite. as, Abigere pecus pro agere.
 Abigere ex ædibus to driue out of the house.
 Abigunt nubes venti, the wyndes driue away
 the cloudes.
 Abigere lassitudinem, to driue awaie wey-nesse.
 Abigere partum, whan a woman forceth her selfe to trauaile before her tyme.
 Abiicio, abiicis, ieci, ere, act. to caste awaie, to renunce, to make base or vile, to despise, to poure out. sometime to geue awaie.
 Abicere se, to sette little by him selfe to debase
 hym selfe.
 Abicere spem, to dispaire.
 Abicere arma: to leaue of warre.
 Abiecit se in herbam: he laide hym selfe downe on the grasse.
 Abiciunt se humi, thei laye downe on the grounde.

Se ad patris pedes abiecit: he did prostrate him
 selfe at his fathers feete.
 Ego me pluribus pro te supplicem abieci:
 I became suter for thee to very many.
 Omnem se amorem dixit abieciſſe illinc: he sayde he tourned all his loue cleane from hir.
 Senat^r autoritatē abiecit. Abiectū reddidit.
 Consilium faciendi belli abiecit. i. repudiauit voluntatem discendi abijcere: to cast of the will to learne.
 Abiectio animi, a desperation.
 Abiecto animo homo, a man of a desperate,
 faynt, or bale corage.
 Abiectē, deperately, fayntly.
 Abin, or abis, a worde of the language of Syria, signifiyng frowarde, ouerthwarte.
 Abintegro, a fresch, a new, from the beginnyng
 agayne.
 Abintestato, without testament.
 Abitio, abitiois, f. g. a departure or goynge awaie, olde wryters tooke it for death, as we maie call it the decesse of one.
 Abitus, us, m. g. a departing or away to passe by.
 Omnē abitum custodē coronant, thei sette about euery place where any passage was.
 Circumiecta vehicula seperant abitus, the wagons closed it all the wayes that thei shoulde passe bye.
 Abiudico, abiudicas, aui, are, act. to take awaie by iudgement from one, and geue to an other by the same sentence.
 Id ab eo contra ius aquiratēq; abiudicauit,
 He tooke that away from hym by iudgement against all law and reason. Abiudico, is also to caste awaie by iudgement.
 Abiudicare a vita, to put to deathe.
 Abiudicabit nunquam a suo triobulum, He will neuer iudge from his seruaunt the worthy of thre halfe pens.
 Abiudicatum, geuen by iudgement from one to
 an other.
 Abiugo, abiugas, aui, are, act. to vnyoke, discharge, or putte a sunder.
 Abiungo, abiungis, xi, ere, act. to seuer or put a sunder.
 Abiuratio, a forswearynge, an abiuration.
 Abiuratus, a, um, withholden wrongefally, or by vntruthe.
 Abiuro, abiuras, aui, are, act. to denye by an oth,
 or to hepe a thyng wrongefally, also to abiure.
 Abiurare creditum, to forswear money that is lent one.
 Abiurasso, idem.
 Ablactio, ablactas, aui, are, act. to weane.
 Ablaqueo, laqueas, aui, are, neu. g. to rydde the earthe from trees and bynes, and cutte awaie the byer rootes.
 Ablaqueatio, onis, f. g. the doyng therof.
 Ablaqueatus, a, um, rydde or purged after that maner.
 Ablatus, a, um, taken away.

Ablectæ ædes, houses well garnysched to styre men to bye theim.
 Ablegatio, onis, f. g. a sendyng awaie.
 Ablegmina, orum, n. g. partes of the intrayles, which in olde tyme were offered to the goddis.
 Ablēgo, ablegas, aui, are, act. to send awaie one that we be werie of, or whom we woulde not haue in our company.
 Ablegare pecora, to remove cattall from one pasture to an other further of.
 Puerum venatum ablegauit, he sent the boye out of the way a huntinge.
 Hic a fratri aduentu me ablegauit, he sente me forth, that I shoulde not be present at my brothers commyng.
 Ablepsia, æ, f. g. e. blyndenesse of mynde, blyndynnes.
 Abligurio, abliguris, iui, ire, to consume goodes in banquetynge and faryng delicately.
 Ablōco, ablocas, aui, are, act. to sette or let to an other. to take from one and lette to an other.
 Abludo, uſi, ere, act. signifieth contrary to alludo.
 Hæc a te non multum abludit imago, This example is not much vnlke thy conditions.
 Abluo, abluis, ui, ere, act. to washe of, to washe awaie.
 Abluere se, to purge or purifie them selfe, as the pagans dyd.
 Terra pluuij non abluitur id est, rigatur.
 Ablutio, onis, f. g. a washyng.
 Ablutus, a, um, washed awaie.
 Abluuium, for Diluuium, an vniuersall fludde, wherewith a contrey is drowned.
 Abmatētera, ra, f. g. my great graundames mothers systēr.
 Abmitto, ſi, ere, act. to sende awaie.
 Abnato, abnatas, aui, are, to swymme awaie.
 Abneco, abnecas, ui, are, act. to flea or hyll.
 Abnego, abnegas, aui, are, act. to deny or refuse.
 Abnepos, oris, m. g. a sonne in the fourth degree in liniall descent.
 Abneptis, tis, f. g. a doughter in the same degree.
 Abnocto, aui, are, to be from home all the nyght.
 Abnodo, abnodas, aui, are, act. to prune or cut awaie knottes from trees.
 Abnormis, out of rule.
 Abnuo, abnuui, ere, act. to deny or refuse, properly with countenance or becke, to becke awaie, to forbydde.
 Abnuere imperium, to refuse to bee vnder a mans dominion.
 Abnuere iussa ducis, to disobey the capitaines
 commaundement.
 Non abnuimus sementem sic fieri: id est, non negamus.
 Nihil vnq; abnuuit studiis meis voluntas tua:
 id est, negauit.
 Abnueram bello Italiam cōcurrere Teucris,
 I forbade that Italie shoulde make warre against the Troianes.

Abnu-

Abnuendus, a, um, to be refused.
 Abnato, aui, are, signifieth to becke awaie often tymes.
 Aboleo, aboles, eui, ere, act. to put out, to rase out, to annul, to vndoe for euer.
 Abolere conscientiam generis humani, To make men forget, or to put out of the remembrance of men.
 Abolere vndis, to washe or pouge with water.
 Abolere corpus igni: id est, cremare.
 Magistratum aboleuit: id est, abrogauit.
 Abolere sterilitatem foeminarum, to put away.
 Abolesco, ui, ere, to be brought to nought, or to be abolished.
 Abolitio, abolitionis, f. ge. a destroyng or putting out of memory.
 Abolitus, abolita, um, rated out, put out of remembrance, destroyed or abolished.
 Abolla, fe, f. g. a Senators habite, or a diuine cloke, or such a garment as philosophers beled in olde tyme.
 Aboloes, olde writers beled for, ab illis.
 Abolus, a horse that hath not lost thole teeth, wherby his age maie be discerned.
 Abominor, atus sum, ari, depo. to hate a thyng as a token of ill lucke, to detest, or to haue in detestation, or to despye the contrary.
 Abominandus, a, um, woorthy to be detested, hated or abhoyred.
 Abominatio, onis, a detestation.
 Abominatus, a, um, detested, execrated, or excommunicated.
 Aborior, aboreris, vel aboriris, abortus sum, aboriri, dep. to bee borne before y natural tyme.
 Aborsus, sus, m. g. an vntymely byrthe, nigh to the conception, which maie be called abortion.
 Abortio, onis, f. g. & abortium, the byrth that is destroyed by some hurt, or other misadventure or medecin.
 Aborto, aui, are, or Abortio, tiui, ire, neu. to bynge forth a childe ere it be perfect.
 Abortiuus, tiua, um, that thinge that is brought forth before the tyme, or that whiche procureth the said vntymely byrth to be brought forth.
 Aborris, or Abortium, an vntymely byrth, nigh to the iust time of deliuerance, wherby the child dieth.
 Abortum facere, to trauallye before tyme.
 Tronitus solitarijs ouibus aborius inferunt: thunder doth make sheepe bringe alone to pene before their tyme.
 Abpatrius, my fathers great vncl.
 Abra, x, a lyttle gytle or handmayde, that neuer goeth from hir maistres.
 Abrado, radis, rasi, ere, act. to pare or scrape, to cutte or shawe awaie.
 Abradere aliquid, by a metophoze, is to take awaie a thyng by force or violence, to wrest away by craft and gyle.
 Abrasus, a, um, pared, cutte, or shawed awaie.

Abrafana, a part of Assyria.
 Abrenuncio, aui, are, to renounce or forsake.
 Abreptus, a, um, taken from one by violence.
 Abrincatui, people of the countrey of Lyons, in Fraunce.
 Abripio, abripis, ripui, ere, act. to take fro, or to take by force.
 Abripuit repente sese, he went away suddenly.
 Abripere ad questionem, vel in cruciatum, to draw forth to punishment, or examination by countenances.
 Abripi a parentis similitudine, to be made vnslyke his father in maners.
 Abrodiaton, a delicate or deintee lyfe.
 Abrodiatus, a delicate person, a minion.
 Abrodo, abrodus, rodus, ere, act. to gnawe or bite of.
 Abrogo, abrogas, aui, are, act. by a publyke consent to disannul, to fordoore, to take awaie, or to make of none effect.
 Marcum Lepidum priuatus Italia abrogauit, he beyng a pryuate person, expelled Marcus Lepidus out of Italy.
 Abrogare fidem, to bynge out of credence.
 Abrogare legem, to dissolue or repelle a lawe.
 Fidem homini abrogare, to beleue a man no more, to haue one out of credence.
 Vires beneficiis abrogare, to esteeme the benefite of no value.
 Abrogari, they, whiche beyng at libertee, submitte theim selues to an other mannes rule by their owne consent.
 Abrogatio, onis, f. g. the resolupnge or repellyng of a lawe.
 Abrodis vita, a sumptuous and delicate life.
 Abrotonites, ta, mas, ge. a wyne made with sous thernwodde.
 Abrotonum, abrotoni, n. g. an herbe called sous thernwood, it is hote & drie in the thirde degre.
 Abrumpo, abrumpis, rupi, ere, act. to breake of, to cutte of, or plucke by.
 Abrumpere rem inceptam, to breake by or leade of an enterpryse.
 Abrumpere patientiam, to breake patience, to waxe angry.
 Abrumpere lucem vel vitam, to dye.
 Abrumpere somnum, to awake from slepe.
 Fidem abrumpere, to breake promise.
 Abrumpe moras, put away delay.
 Abrumpere studia, to breake of studie.
 Aether obrumpitur ignibus, it lighteneth.
 Abruptio, onis, f. g. a burstyng or breakyng.
 Abrupta loca, rockes and hilles here & there broken or dygged, so that one maye vnneth go or trepe by on theim.
 Abrupte, out of frame, not agreynge with the besynnyng.
 Abruptum, that which hath suche a falle or steepe penesse downe, that no man maye passe by it, but onely fall downe.
 Ex abrupto, sodainly, without any occasion.

Abruptus, abrupta. um, broken here and there,
as rocks and great hills, stipe downe.
Abruptus sermo, a tale that hangeth not to-gyther.
Abrupta contumacia, a stowarde stubbornnes.
Abruptum ingenium, a rashe brayne that dooeth all thinges on head.
Abs, of or from, loke Ab.
Abcedo, cedis, celsi, ere, neut. to go away from,
also to gather to an impostume.
Abcessit incepto, he hath the lesse of hys enter-pryse.
Abcedo hac: goe this waye.
Abcedere in altitudinem, to ascende or goe upwarde.
Supprimit omne quod abscedit: it stoppeth
what so euer is gatheringe to an impostume.
Abcessus, celsus, ma. ge. & abscelsio, onis, f. g.
a departing fro.
Abcessus, is of phisicions taken for an impostume or botche, or for a course of euill hus-mours to som part of the bodye, whereby matter putrified is ingendred.
Abseido, or abscindo, abscidi, scindere, to cut of.
Abseisse, or abseise, is the same that Fixe, firms ly determinatly.
Abcissus, abscissa, um, broken, sharpe, or cut of.
Abcissior iusticia, sharpe iustice.
Abcissus locus, a place troublous, rough,
and harde to come to.
Quamquam abscissa res erat, althoughe there was no hope to bynge the matter to effect.
Abcissa castigatio, an harde, rigourous, and sharpe correction.
Abscio, iui, ire, to go out of remembrance.
Abcondite, covertly, priuily, darkely.
Abconditus, condita, um, hydden.
Abcondo, condi, ere, act, to hyde.
Abcondere fugam furto, to flee or steale as way priuely.
Abcondio, onis, f. g. an hiding.
Absens, entis, omnis ge. absent or awaye.
Absentaneus, a, um, that which is done in absēce.
Absentia, entia, f. g. absence.
Absentio, si, ire, to thinke contrary.
Absento, sentas, aui, are, act. to sende awaye, or cause to be absent.
Abfilio, abfiliis, to leape away.
Abfimilis, abfimile, muche vnlyke.
Abfiss, abfissis, fœ. gen. the strake of a cart whele, wherin the spokes bee sette.
Abfisto, abfistis, abfisti, ere, neu. to depart from a place, or to be farre of, contrarie to Afsistere.
sometyme it signifieth to abstepne or leaue of.
Abfistere incepto, to breake or leaue of hys purpose.
Abfistere bello, to cease from warre.
Si furore abfistere vellēt, yf they would leaue their madnesse.
Absoleo, absoles, absolui, ere, to be out of vse.
Absoletus locus, a place vnoccupied or negle-

eted, after Calepine, without authoritie.
Aboluo, soluis, solui, ere, act. to leaue that whiche he was bounden: also to perfourme or make perfect, to accomplishe, to spare, to forgiue, to par-done, to dispatche, to absolue, to quite, or deli-uer one out of all daunger of iudgement.
Aboluere, to dispatche of businesse.
Aboluere creditorem, to paye that he oweth
Aboluere, to synyshe, to ende.
Aboluere pensum, to worke out hys taske.
Aboluere suspitione, to dyscharge or putte out of all suspicion.
Aboluere vno verbo, to make an ende shortly, to tell at one worde.
Aboluere reum, to discharge, quite, or set at libertie, one that is accused.
Omnium sententiis absoluitur: he was quite by all mens sentences.
Is annus Romanos longo bello absoluit:
that yere dispatched the Romaines of a longe
warre.
Hunc hominem veneri absoluit sibi condem-nat: as touching his offence to Venus he qui-teth him, but for that was doone to him selfe, he condemneth him.
A Fannio iudicio se absoluit: he dispatcheth him selfe from Fannius accusation in iudgement.
Promissum absoluerē: to fulfill his promise.
Quid totū absoluitis orbe: id est, consumilis.
Paucis absoluam: I will make an ende in fewe
wordes.
Absolutorium, tōrii, n. g. that whiche deliuereth or dyschargeth a man.
Absolutorius, tōria, um, that which doeth apper-teyne vnto the dyscharginge or dyspatchinge of any man.
Absolute, perfectly, absolutely.
Absolutio, onis, f. g. a dyscharge, or dyspatching,
also a perfection.
Absolutus, lūta, um, dyscharged, dyspatched. Et so perfect, absolute, or without faute.
Absono, absonas, aui, are, neut. to dysorde or sounge euill.
Absonus, absona, um, that whiche soundeth not well, or dysordeth, or that maye scantely bee hearde, or by a metaphoze, dysagreyng.
Absonum fidei, not credible.
Absonus voce, he that hath an vntunable
voyce.
Absorbeo, sorbes, sorbui, vel psi, ere, act. to swalowe or suppe vp.
Abque, without. Nam absq̃ eo esset, for yf he had not been.
Abstemius, stēmia, um, that drinketh no wyne.
Abstemiu prandium, a dinner without wyne.
Abstentus, accursed out of the churche.
Abstergeo, and Abstergo, si, gēre, and gere,
act. to wype awaye.
Absterge calceos, wype thy shooes.
Absterge equos, rubbe the horses.
Abstergere dolorem, to put awaye sorowe.
Item

Item luctum, metum, molestias.

Absterreo, sterrui, ere, act. to prohibite, to lette of put fro, to feare awaye, or dyue awaye wth feare.

Absterrere, a, ab, vel de re aliqua.

Absterrere auctum, to lette the increace of a thinge.

Absterres te adiri, thou makest men astrayde to come to the.

Absterrius, a, um, feared awaye.

Abstinencia, nentia, f, g. abstinence, a vertue in forbearing to take an other mannes goodes.

Abstinenter, with abstinence.

Abstineo, abstines, ui, ere, n. to abstaine, to forbeare of temper, not to meddle with, sometyme to forbyd or let, and also to excommunicate.

Non abstines manum mastigia? Wylt thou not holde of thy handes, villayne knaue?

Astinuere ignem ab ade, they dyd not let fyre on the temple.

Abstinere vino, to forbeare wyne, liketwyle, cibo carne, armis, iurgiis. &c.

Abstinere manum in iudicio, to refraine from geuing bypbes to iudges.

Abstinere alieno, vel ab alieno sub audi se, not to meddle with other mennes goodes, to forbeare ex tozcion.

Abstineas a me manum, take hede that thou strike me not.

Abstinuit diu publico, it was longe or he came abyode.

Abstineus alieni, he that medleth not with or ther mennes goodes.

Abstinendus, a, um, to be letted or kept from.

Primo die abstinendus a cibo, the fyrst daye he muste be kept from meate.

Absto, stiti, are, to stande farre of.

Abstorqueo, si, ere, to gette or wyeste awaye by force or tozmentes.

Abstraho, abstrahis, axi, ere, act. to take by force or by crafte to take awaye, to pull awaye, to sepparate, or to withdraue.

Abstrahere se a solitudine, to withdraue his mynde from care.

Abstraxi me illinc, I gat me thence.

Abstractus, a, um, drawen awaye by force.

Abstringo, stringis, strinxi, ere, to leuse that, whiche was bounden.

Abstrudo, strudis, vfi, ere, act. to hyde.

Abstrudere tristitiam, to put awaye sadnesse or heuiness of mynde.

Abstrusus, strusa, um, hydde or shutte vp.

Abstrusus homo, a close felowe that wyl not open his mynde.

Abstrusior disputatio, a subtyll or darke discputation.

Absum, fui, esse, to be awaye, or farre of, to sayle a man in tyme of neede, to be distant or absent, to lacke or wante.

Abesse vrbe vel ab vrbe.

Abesse absolute possitum: as, absit: let him be awaye from me.

Curandum ne milites absint a signis: heere muste be taken that the souldiours wandet not from their standerde.

Abesse a periculo: to be furte from dangier.

Abfuisse me in altercationibus fero non moleste: that I was not present at that altercation.

Bidui abfuit: he was two dayes iourney of, from that place.

Viginti millium spatio aberat: he was. xx. myles of.

Quot millia fundus tuus abest ab vrbe: howe many myles of is your lande.

Abfuit aliquot dierum viam: he was certains dayes iourney of.

Abesse, longe, procul, multum, paulum. &c.

Tu propius abes: thou arte not so farre from hym: or thou arte lesse waye of from him.

Multum ab iis aberat. L. Furius: he was farte inferiour to them.

Nummus abesse hinc non potest: there can not lacke on peny.

Quid huic abesse potest de maximarum reru scientia: id est, de esse.

Absint ista a nostris literis: god forbydde that suche thinges should be in our letters.

Cum procul abesset a spe consularis.

Non longe abfuit, vt huic persuasioni credere: he was almost brought that he did beleue. &c.

Nec multum abfuit, quin iurarent. &c. there lacked not muche, but that they woulde haue swoyne.

Miror quod amico in difficili eius tempore abfueris: I merueyle that you dyd not helpe your frende in his necessitee.

Abesse, for alienum esse: as, Abest a contentione, he deliteth not in debate strife or contetion.

Abest a culpa, he is not faulty.

Abest a reprehensione, he is not blamed.

Abest mihi animus, I haue no courage.

Absente nobis, while I was awaye.

Absit, god forbyd.

Absit verbo inuidia, a forme of speaking, whan one wold not be suspected of arrogancie in some thyng that he will speake.

Absumo, sumis, sumpsi, ere, act. to spende, to consume or waste awaye.

Absumere animam letho, to slea or kill.

Absumere, vinum, diem, tempus, argenti. &c.

Absumi fame, to be sterued, or famished.

Absumi ferro, to be slayne.

Absumi cura: to be pyned with care.

Sin absumpra salus: yf all hope of saluegarde be paste.

Absumedo, inis, dispende, waste of money or other lyke thing.

Absumptio, onis, f. g. a wasting, or waste.

Absumpti sumus, we are vndone.

Absurde, without purpose of reason, to no purpose.

Absurdus, surda, dum, inconuenient, foolyshe discreet.

Abruptus, abrupta, um, broken here and there, as rocks and great hills, stipe downe.
Abruptus sermo, a tale that hangeth not together.
Abrupta contumacia, a stowarde stubbornnes.
Abruptum ingenium, a rashe brayne that dooeth all thinges on head.
Abs, of or from, like Ab.
Abscedo, cedis, celsi, ere, neut. to go away from, also to gather to an impostume.
Abcescit incepto, he hath the leste of hys enterpryse.
Abscedo hac: goe this waye.
Abseedere in altitudinem, to ascende or goe bywarde.
Supprimit omne quod abscedit: it stoppeth what so euer is gatheringe to an impostume.
Abcessus, celsus, ma. ge. & abscelsio, onis, f. g. a departing fro.
Abcessus, is of phisicions taken for an impostume or botche, or for a course of euill humours to som part of the bodye, whereby matter putrified is ingendred.
Abseido, or abscindo, abscidi, scindere, to cut of.
Abseisse, or abseise, is the same that Fixe, firmly determinately.
Abcissus, abscissa, um, broken, sharpe, or cut of.
Abcissior iusticia, sharpe iustice.
Abcissus locus, a place troublous, rough, and harde to come to.
Quamquam abscissa res erat, althoughe there was no hope to bynge the matter to effect.
Abcissa castigatio, an harde, rigourous, and sharpe correction.
Abseio, iui, ire, to go out of remembrance.
Abcondite, covertly, priuily, darkely.
Abconditus, condita, um, hydden.
Absoondo, condi, ere, act, to hyde.
Abcondere fugam furto, to flee or steale as way priuely.
Abconso, onis, f. g. an hiding.
Absens, entis, omnis ge. absent or awaye.
Absentaneus, a, um, that which is done in absēce.
Absentia, entia, f. g. absence.
Absentio, si, ire, to thinke contrary.
Absento, sentas, aui, are, act. to sende awaye, or cause to be absent.
Abfilio, abfilis, to leape away.
Abfimilis, abfimile, muche vnlyke.
Abfis, absidis, fœ. gen. the strake of a cart whele, wherein the spokes bee sette.
Abfisto, abfistis, abfisti, ere, neu. to depart from a place, or to be farre of, contrarie to Assistere. sometye it signifieth to abstepne or leaue of.
Abfistere incepto, to breake or leaue of hys purpose.
Abfistere bello, to cease from warre.
Si furore abfistere vellēt, yf they would leaue their madnesse.
Absoleo, absoles, absolui, ere, to be out of vse.
Absoleus locus, a place vnoccupied or negle-

ted, after Calpine, without auctoritie.
Abfoluo, soluis, solui, ere, act. to leaue that whiche was bounden: also to perfourme or make perfect, to accomplishe, to spare, to forgiue, to pardon, to dispatche, to absolue, to quite, or deliver one out of all daunger of iudgement.
Abfoluere, to dispatche of businessse.
Abfoluere creditorem, to paye that he oweth.
Abfoluere, to synpse, to ende.
Abfoluere pensum, to worke out hys taske.
Abfoluere suspitione, to dyscharge or putte out of all suspicion.
Abfoluere vno verbo, to make an ende shortly, to tell at one woorde.
Abfoluere reum, to discharge, quite, or set at libertie, one that is accused.
Omnium sententiis absoluitur: he was quite by all mens sentences.
Is annus Romanos longo bello absoluit: that yere dispatched the Romaines of a longe warre.
Hunc hominem veneri absoluit sibi condemnat: as touching his offence to Venus he quieteth him, but for that was doone to him selfe, he condemneth him.
A Fannio iuditio se absoluit: he dispatcheth him selfe from Fannius accusation in iudgement.
Promissum absolue: to fulfill his promise.
Quid totū absoluitis orbē: id est, consumilis.
Paucis absoluam: I will make an ende in fewe wordes.
Absolutorium, torii, n. g. that whiche deliuereth or dispatcheth a man.
Absolutorius, toria, um, that which doeth apperteyne vnto the discharginge or dispatchinge of any man.
Absolute, perfectly, absolutely.
Absolutio, onis, f. g. a discharge, or dispatching, also a perfection.
Absolutus, lūta, um, dyscharged, dyspatched. Also so perfect, absolute, or without fault.
Absono, absonas, aui, are, neut. to dysorde or sounde euill.
Absonus, absona, um, that whiche soundeth not well, or dysordeth, or that maye scantely bee hearde, or by a metaphore, dysagreyng.
Absonum fidei, not credible.
Absonus voce, he that hath an vntunable voyce.
Absorbeo, sorbes, sorbui, vel psi, ere, act. to swallowe or suppe vp.
Abique, without. Nam absq̃ eo esset, for yf he had not been.
Abstemiū, stēmia, um, that drinketh no wyne.
Abstemiū prandium, a dinner without wyne.
Abstentus, accursed out of the church.
Abstergeo, and Abstergo, si, gēre, and gere, act. to wype awaye.
Absterge calceos, wype thy shoes.
Absterge equos, rubbe the horses.
Abstergere dolorem, to put awaye sorowe.

Item

Item luctum, metum, molestias.

Absterreo, sterrui, ere, act. to prohibite, to lette or put fro, to feare awaye, or dyne awaye wth feare.

Absterrere, a, ab, vel de re aliqua.

Absterrere auctum, to lette the increace of a thinge.

Absterres te adiri, thou makest men asrayde to come to the.

Absterritus, a, um, feared awaye.

Abstinencia, nentia, f, g. abstinence, a vertue in forbearing to take an other mannes goodes.

Abstinenter, with abstinence.

Abstineo, abstines, ui, ere, n. to abstine, to forbeare or temper, not to meddle with, sometyne to forbyd or let, and also to excommunicate.

Non abstines manum mastigia? Wylt thou not holde of thy handes, villayne knave?

Astinuere ignem ab æde, they byd not set fyre on the temple.

Abstinerere vino, to forbeare wyne, likewise, cibo carne, armis, iurgiis. &c.

Abstinerere manum in iudicio, to restraîne from geuing bypbes to iudges.

Abstinerere alieno, vel ab alieno sub audi se, not to meddle with other mennes goodes, to forbeare ex tortion.

Abstineas a me manum, take hede that thou strike me not.

Abstiniuit diu publico, it was longe or he came abyde.

Abstineus alieni, he that medleth not with or ther mennes goodes.

Abstinentus, a, um, to be letted or kept from.

Primo die abstinentus a cibo, the fyrst daye he muste be kept from meate.

Absto, stiti, are, to stande farte of.

Abstorqueo, si, ere, to gette or wyeste awaye by force or toymentes.

Abstraho, abstrahis, axi, ere, act. to take by force or by crafte to take awaye, to pull awaye, to separate, or to withdraue.

Abstrahere se a sollicitudine, to withdraue his mynde from care.

Abstraxi me illinc, I gat me thence.

Abstractus, a, um, drawen awaye by force.

Abstringo, stringis, strinxi, ere, to leuse that, whiche was bounden.

Abstrudo, strûdis, vsi, ere, act. to hyde.

Abstrudere tristitiam, to put awaye sadnesse or heuiness of mynde.

Abstrusus, strûsa, um, bydde or shutte vp.

Abstrusus homo, a close felowe that wyl not open his mynde.

Abstrusior disputatio, a subtyll or darke discputation.

Absum, fui, esse, to be awaye, or farte of, to fayle a man in tyme of neede, to be distant or absent, to lacke or wante.

Abesse vrbe vel ab vrbe.

Abesse absolute positum: as, absit: let him be

awaye from me.

Curandum ne milites absint a signis: heepe muste be taken that the souldiours wandre not from their standerde.

Abesse a periculo: to be farte from dangier.

Abfuisse me in altercationibus fero non moleste: that I was not present at that alteration.

Bidui abfuit: he was two dayes iourney of, from that place.

Viginti millium spatio aberat: he was. xx. myles of.

Quot millia fundus tuus abest ab vrbe: howe many myles of is your lande.

Abfuit aliquot dierum viam: he was certayne dayes iourney of.

Abesse, longe, procul, multum, paulum. &c.

Tu propius abes: thou arte not so farte from hym: or thou arte lesse waye of from him.

Multum ab iis aberat. L. Furius: he was farte inferiour to them.

Nummus abesse hinc non potest: there can not lacke on penye.

Quid huic abesse potest de maximarum rerû scientia: id est, de esse.

Absint ista a nostris literis: god forbydde that suche thinges should be in our letters.

Cum procul abesset a spe consuatus.

Non longe abfuit, vt huic persuasioni credere: he was almost brought that he did beleue. &c.

Nec multum abfuit, quin iurarent. &c. there lacked not muche, but that they woulde haue swoyne.

Miror quod amico in difficili eius tempore abfueris: I merueyle that you byd not helpe your frende in his necessitee.

Abesse, for alienum esse: as, Abest a ostentatione, he deliteth not in debate strife or contetion.

Abest a culpa, he is not faulty.

Abest a reprehensione, he is not blamed.

Abest mihi animus, I haue no courage.

Absente nobis, while I was awaye.

Absit, god forbyd.

Absit verbo inuidia, a foyme of speaking, whan one wold not be suspected of arrogancie in some thyng that he will speake.

Absumo, sumpsi, ere, act. to spende, to consume or waste awaie.

Absumere animam letho, to slea or kill.

Absumere, vinum, diem, tempus, argenti. &c.

Absumi fame, to be sterued, or famished.

Absumi ferro, to be slayne.

Absumi cura: to be pyned with care.

Sin absumpta salus: yf all hope of saluegarde be paste.

Absumedo, inis, dispende, waste of money or other lyke thing.

Absumptio, onis, f. g. a wasting, or waste.

Absumpti sumus, we are vndone.

Absurdè, without purpose of reason, to no purpose.

Absurdus, sùrda, dum, inconuenient, foolpThe disorder

disordynge, dishoneste, abhorrynge, odious, as gagnt all r. me and reason.
Abfus, loke abis.
Abfynthites, α , wyne, wherein wormewood hath ben infused or sodden.
Abfynthium, synthij, ne. ge. is commonly called wormewood: how be it there be therof thre kyndes: Scriphium, which seemeth to bee our worme-wood: Santonium, wherof cometh wormseede, and may be called frenche wormwood: Poticum, or Romanum, which hath a lesse leafe than our wormwood, and hath a sweeter odour, it may be called wormwood gentle, our comon wormwood is called in latin Abfynthium rusticum.
Abuerto, ti, ere, to tourne awaye or from a place.
Abdiacum, a towne in Germany.
Abundans, a riche man.
Abundanter, abundantly.
Abundantia, dantia, f. ge. abundance or plente of any thyng.
Abundantia foeminarum, the naturall flize of women, their termes.
Abundatio, onis, f. g. an overflowyng.
Abunde, abundantly, plentuously enough.
Abunde est, it is enough.
Fraudis illi abunde est, he hath fraude or deceit enough.
Abunde potentia adeptus est:
Abunde est alterum efficere: pro, satis est.
Abunde promittere, to make a bouitfull promise.
Abunde tibi adsunt omnia: Abunde paren- rum, pro satis.
Abundo, bundas, ai, are, neu. to abounde, to haue abundance and plentie of any thyng, what so euer it be. also to be ryche.
Abundare ingenio, to haue a great wytte.
Abundare opibus fandi, to flowe in eloquyce.
Hic solacismis abundat, this felow rolleth in his incongruities or false latine.
Si quando abundare cœpere, if I shal beginne to be riche.
Quarum rerum abundemus, sometime with a genitiue.
Abundare audacia, to be veraie bolde.
Abundans corporis, bygge of body.
Abuolo, abuolas, ai, are, act. to flee awaie.
Abutonon, idem quod Abrotonum.
Abusiue, improperly, against nature or custom.
Abusq; mane ad vesp̃a, from morning to night.
Abusum, wozne out.
Abusus, us, & abusio, abuse, euill vse.
Abutor, usus sum, abuti, dep. to abuse, to vse a thyng dishonestly, vncomly, & trary & it serueth
for. out of order, or in vayne. also to weare out.
Otio & literis abuti, to imploye his time and learnynge cuill.
Abuti legis ad quæstum, to abuse the lawes to his owne profite and gayne.
Operam abutitur, he abuseth his labour.
Abydena, orum, n. g. trifles, thynges of small effimation, wanton toyes, vnseemly for men to vse.

Abydenus, a, um, of Abydus.
Abydochoma, they that bolte their vntruster or falsehode.
Abyrtace, was a kynde of meate made of leches,
cresses, garlike, the kernels of pomegranades,
mustard seede, and such other lyke.
Abyssus, bylsi, form, gen. is a depencse without bottom.

A. ANTE C.

A is a coniunction copulative, and signifieth sometyme, and: as Doctus ac ius- tus es. Thou art counnyng and iuste.
 Sometime it is taken for than: as Haud seque- ac iussi faciunt. They doo none otherwise than they be commanded. Sometime it signifieth as:
then commonly is sette after this wordes, æque, aliter, cōtra, iuxta, perinde, pro eo, secus. &c.
 as Superbis perinde ac si rex esses. Thou art as proude as if thou were a kynge. Sometime, and that, & truly: as Aliquid boni tibi pro ista re faciam, ac lubens, I will dooe the some good tourne for this thing, & that with all myn herte.
Ac non, pro, Nec.
Ac non quia ades dico, i. nec.
Ac potius, yea rather.
Acacalis, the seede of an herbe growynge in Egypte, whiche toke that name of the nymphe Acacalis, who beyng deflowred of Apollo, was deliuered of two chyldren, named Philacides and Philandrus.
Acacia, α , a kynde of thorne, the seede wherof is lyke vnto chittes. it is also the iuice of the same fruite.
Acacia, the iuyce of a fruite in Egypte, but in seede therof, men take nowe the iuyce of sloes, which lyke to the other, dooe refrigerate bynde and steepe heate backwarde.
Acacia, α , innocencie, simplicitie, sinceritee.
Acacus, ci, a simple and playne person, without gyle or fraude.
Academia, α , an vniuersitee, whiche tooke that name of a place nigh vnto Athens, where Plato
(the great philosopher) taught philosophie.
it may also be vled for any great or notable schoole.
Academici, were a sect of philosophers, whiche
foloweth and taught the doctrine of Plato.
Acada, α , a gode, also a rodde of .x. foote longe, wherewith men dyd vse to measure landes.
Acalanthis, some suppose to be a dogge, some thinke it a byrde, loke Acanthis.
Acanthia cicada, a prouerbe spoken of vn-lerned and rude persons, or suche as be ignorant in musike.
Acantha, α , loke Acanthus.
Acanthus, a, um, of Acanthus, or like to it.
Acanthis, or Acalanthis, and Acanthilus, idis, a byrde that fedeth on thystles, and maketh hir nest with clawe, loke ligurinus.

Acan-

Acanthion, or acanthium, is a bushe, lyke vnto a white thorne, with lesse leaues, mosse, and pye-lynge. It may be called in Englishe ote-thistle, because the leaues are lyke to otes, or gum-thistle, or cotten thistle, because it is gummie, & the leaues haue in them a thing lyke cotten.

Acanthion, onis, a hedgehogge as Galene declar-eth De compos. med.

Acanthus, acanthi, m. g. or Acanthes, as Diosco-rides saith, is an herbe, that groweth in stony and moyst groundes, and hath leaues longer and broder than lettise, in forme lyke to rocket, some-what blacke, in byrnyng soft and fattle, ha-uyng a stalke of .ii. cubites high, of the thynknesse of a mans fynger, garnished vnder the toppe with little longe leaues, and pyckynge, wheron groweth a white flower. It is supposed to be Branca vrsina, in englishe Brank vrsine, and not bearefote, as some take it, because of the likenes of the name.

Acapna, orum, n. g. dry wood that smoketh not.

Acapna thysia, sacrifices without smoke, spoken of a simple feast, wherein is neither bake, roste, nor sodde.

Acar, & acarus, ri, m. g. a littell worme that byedeth in waxe, & is the least of all vermines, a mite.

Acarne, nes, a fische of the sea.

Acaron, a wyld myrtle tree.

Acarpia, carpia, f. g. lacke of fruite.

Acarpus, a, um, vnfruitfull, vnprofitable.

Acarus, loke Acar.

Acatalecticus versus, a verse that hath nothyng to much or to lytle. Contrariwise Catalecti-cus, wanteth a syllable.

Acatalepton, that can not be comprehended.

Acatulis, a little iuniper.

Acatia, loke Acacia.

Acatium, acatij, n. g. the greatest sayle in a ship, also a bote.

Acaustus, a, um, not bourned.

Accanto, au, are, to syng by.

Accedo, cessi, ere, neu. to come or go to, to ap- proche, to assent or agree, to be increased, aug- mented, or added to a thyng. Sometime it sig- nifieth a lykenesse to be in a thyng: as Eorum potestas proxime ad deorum immortalium accedit, Their power is mooste lyke vnto the im- mortall goddes.

Accede adiutare, come helpe me.

Accedere ad amicitiam alicuius, to ally hym selfe with one.

Accedere alicui, to graunt or agree to an other, or to be of an other mans opinion.

Accedere ad causam, to take on him to pleade a mattier.

Ipsa in opidum accedere noluit: he woulde not come in to the towne.

Obstitit ne in aedes accederet, that he shoulde not come into the house.

Accedere ad rem publicam, to geue him selfe to beare office in the common weale, or to be occupied in common affaires.

Accedere alicui ad aurem, to come and whis- per one in the eare.

Accedere obuiam, to mete with.

Accedere periculū, vel ad periculum, to put hymselfe in daunger, to come to daunger.

Accedit huc, mozeouer then that.

Accedit plurimum precio, the pryce increas- eth much.

Huc accedit summus timor, mozeouer than that, the feare is wonderfull great.

Accessit illi animus, his courage is increased.

Accessit operi manus extrema, the woork is perfectly fynished.

Accessit tertius annus, was added.

Accessit, he came to.

Accessit illis animus, their courage is encreased.

Accit illi ætas, he is become olde, his age is en- creased.

Robur illi accessit, his strength is encreased.

Accessit ea res in cumulum, that thinge moze- ouer was therunto added.

Accelero, celeras, au, are, neu. to haste or spede, actiuelly and neutrellly.

Accelerare gradum, to go apace.

Accelerate viam, dispatche your iourney quickly.

Acceleratio, onis, f. g. haste or speedynesse.

Accendo, accendi, ere, act. to kendle, inflame, prouoke, or geue boldnesse, also to encourage.

Accendere offensiones, to encrease malpce, or hatrede.

Accendere sitim, to increase thyrst.

Accendere mentes in prælia, to encourage mens hertes to battayle.

Accensi, were souldiours appointed to be about great officers for defence of their persons.

Festus saith, that it were they, that after the death of souldiours were put in their places, or that ac- company or go before souldiours, that be speke redy to be in their place and do their duitie. Ma-ro affirmeth that they were ministers alwaies ready at the commandment of principal officers.

Accensi, wer also called Decuriones, and Centuriones, according to the nūbre of souldiours, whiche they gouerned: they were also officers like unto our criers, which by the commandment of the Consull, called the people to assemblies.

Accensus, maie now bee right well vsed for him that the lawiers call barbarously adiunctum.

Accensus, censa, um, set on fyre, kendled or in- flamed. Accensus in ira, inflamed with anger.

Accentus, centus, m. g. an accent or tune, wherby a syllable is pronounced.

Accepso, in stede of acceperim, I haue taken.

Acceprabulum, loke Acetabulum.

Acceptilacio, onis, f. g. a quittance of an obligas- tion made by mouthe, whan the dettour deman- deth of the creditour, whether he be content of that whiche he hath promised him: and the cre- ditour answereth, yea as though he sayd, I do accept it as if it were payed.

Acceptio,

Acceptio, ónis, f. g. a receiuing.
 Acceptor, áut, áre, to receiue.
 Acceptare iugum, to submitte him selfe as a subiecte or bondman.
 Acceptor, óris, m. g. he that taketh, or receiuech.
 Acceptum, thankfull, pleasant, allowable. also any thinge that a man hath receiued, or by gite, or lone, or otherwise.
 Acceptor ferre, to accompte that thynge paid and deliuered to vs that was promised vppon couenante, although it were neuer payed nor we neuer receiued it, and therby acquite him of that whiche by promise he shoulde haue geuen vs. as it shall appere in these wordes folowynge: one asked me. xx. s. and I promised hym. xx. s. afterward I despyng to be deliuered of my promes sayd thus, Quod tibi promisi accepto fers mihi?
 he answereth: accepto fero. I compted as deli-uered, wherby I am quitte of my promise.
 And we saie: Acceptor ferre, acceptum ferre.
 and Accepte facere or acceptum facere: item, habere acceptum: all of one signification. Thei vse also the same speakynge passiuely.
 Acceptor mihi fertur, quod promisi: that whiche I promised is compted as performed, and I quitte of my promise.
 Acceptor rogat promissor: he that promised desireth to bequitte of his promise.
 Pecuniam accepta facere, ferre, vel habere: to make a quittance for money as though he had re-ceiued it.
 Acceptum habere, to allow or accompte thanke worthy.
 Acceptum in vulgus, acceptable to the comon
 people.
 Acceptum referre, to kepe a rekeneng of that whiche is receiued. contrary Expensum ferre, is to register what a man hath laide out.
 Accepti & expensi ratio, an accompte of resceipte and expenses.
 Eam pecuniam mihi retulit acceptam, he hath put in his booke that he receiued so muche money of me.
 Eam pecuniam mihi expensam tulit, he put in his booke that he deliuered that money vnto me.
 Vitam meam tibi acceptam refero: I acknowledge that I owe my lyfe vnto you: or that I am bounde vnto you for my lyfe.
 Acceptrica, æ, f. g. she that vseth to receiue any thinge.
 Acceptus, receiued, entertained.
 Acceptus, a, um, accepted, acceptable.
 Accersio, iut, ire, idem quod accerso.
 Accersitus, a, um, called for, or sent for.
 Accersitus situs, m. g. a calling or sendynge for.
 Accerso, cécis, siui, ere, act. tertiæ coniuga, to call forth, or sende for, to goe to call or fetch, to accuse, and as it were to adde or bringe to any thynge that whiche it hath not.
 Accerci iube filiam, commaunde thy daughter to be sent for, or called for.

Accercere orationi splendorem, to make the oration more eloquent, pleasant, or beautyfull.
 Accersire vel accercere capitis, to accuse one of a deadly offender.
 Accercitus domo huc sú, I was sent for from home to come hither.
 Accerci ad aliquod negotium, to becalled to doe some business.
 Quando vis, accersere me, when ye wyl, sende for me.
 Accerce mercede, to hyre for money.
 Accercere auxilia ex aliquo, to sende for aide out of some place.
 Accercium dictum, an oracion to muche affectate, or as we saie, to faine feare.
 Accersita descriptio, a straunge or vnnete description, not agreynge with the nature of the thynge.
 Accercita sacra, strange kyndes of religion, that began in an othe country.
 Accercitor, óris, m. g. he that goth to call or fetch
 an other.
 Accessio, ónis, fce. ge. an augmentacion. also a going or comynge.
 Accessionem adiungere adibus, to make an house larger.
 Accessio febris, the course of the feuer.
 Accessio morbi, the beginnyng of a sickness.
 Accessus, cécus, m. gen. the approachynge or co-mynge to.
 Accessus maris, the flowynge of the sea.
 Accidens, déntis, neu. ge. is an accidente, which maie be or not bee, without the corruption of that wherin it maie be.
 Accidens, déntis, om. ge. that changeth.
 Accidentia, thinges that chaunce or happen to a man, and properly my fortunes.
 Accidentia, æ, f. g. chaunce.
 Accidit nuper, these hapned, it is chaunced.
 Accidere, in the thyrde persone, is to happen or chaunce to, and properly of euyl thynge.
 Vbi ad aures accidit regis, when it came to the kinges eares.
 Si quid illi accidat, If he chaunce to die, or yf
 it happen to hym otherwise than well.
 Fama accidit, a brute or rumour was spred.
 Hoc mihi voluntatis accidit, I am of thys
 mynde.
 Accidit ad animum tuum, it hath chaunced
 as ye woulde haue it.
 Istud verbum verè in te accidit, thys wooorde agreeth right well vnto the: or it maye bee ryght well spoken of the.
 Timeo quorsum accidat, I feare to what ende
 it wyl come.
 Accidit diuinitus, it was the hande of god.
 Accido, accidis, cidi, idere, act. to extenuate or make feble, to afflict or to destroye.
 Accisi crines, heares cleane cut of.
 Accisa dapes, meates cleane psumed or eaten by.
 Accisæ

Accidit res, when the strength or power of any part is afflicted, broken, and greatly appoyed by misfortune and aduersitee.

Accido, accidis, accidi, ere, neu. to fall down in doyng reuerence.

Accidere ad genua, accidere ad pedes, lowly and reuerently to fall downe at a mans feete.

Quos accidam? to whom should I make humble intercession?

Acciendus, a, um, to be called or sent for.

Accio, accies, ciui, ere, accitum sup. idē quod Actio, iui, ire.

Accino, accinis, cini, nere, to hnge to an instrument, or to hnge a parte, as a treble to a tenour, or a descant to a playne longe.

Accingo, cingi, ere, act. to gird, to prepare, to make ready to do some thing.

Accingere se alicui rei, to make him selfe ready to an enterprise.

In hoc differim accingere, prepare the to this perillous enterprise.

Accingi armis, to bee armed.

Accingi ad spem maiorem, to loke for higher auancement.

Accingi ira, to be wood angry.

Accio, accis, iui, ire, act. accitum sup. totall to, to send for one to come.

Ni voluptatem accires, excepte it dōd bying a pleasure with it.

Accipenser, looke accipenser.

Accipio, accipis, cepi, ere, act. to take, to heare, to suppose, to knowe, to vnderstand, to admitte, to receiue, to intreat, or intertaine, to pledge one in bying.

Accipere auribus, to heare.

Accipere ad verbum, to take a thyng as it is spoken.

Accipere auditionem, to heare by reposte.

Accipere aliorum, to take it other wise than it was spoken.

Accipere causā, or excusationē, to hold excused.

Accipere cladem, to lose the bataille, or to haue the ouerthrowe, or to be discomfited.

Accipere conditionem, to take the offer.

Accipere corde, to perceiue well.

Pol haud satis meo corde accipi tuas querelas; In good faith I do not wel perceiue the cause of thy greife. a poeticall phrase.

Accipere a quis auribus, to heare indifferently or patiently.

Accipere durius, to take it displeantly.

Accipere dictis, aut verbis, to chide.

Accipere dolorē, to take thought, to be heauy.

Accipere fiduciam, to be incoffed.

Accipere grauitate, to take it heauily.

Accipere in ciuitatem, to make one a citisen.

Also to open the towne gates against one that besiegeth it, to yeide it by.

Accipere moderate, to take it patiently.

Accipere mandata, to take charge by commissiō.

Accipere rationes, to take accompte.

Accipere oculis & animo, to see and remembre.

Accipere potestatem, to haue leaue.

Accipere verberibus, to beate one.

Accipere vulnus, to be wounded.

Accipe ad omnia, take this answer for all.

Ego a maioribus memoria sic accipi, I remember that I heare sime elders to reposte.

Accipit fidem fabula, the tale was beloued.

Accipere frenum, to yeide hym selfe subiect.

Accipere imperium, to obeie.

Accipere merum, to feede.

Accipere praecepta, to be taught.

Rem publicam accipere, to take the gouernance of a publike weale.

Accipere societatem, to make alliance.

In eam partem accipio, I doe take it, or I doe so interpret it.

In aliam partem accipis accidam est, thou doest take it other wyse, then it is spoken.

In solutum accipere, to compte a thyng a payed.

Silentium ipsius in superbiam accipiebatur, was interpreted to come of a pride.

Accipere sententiam, to ratifie a sentence.

Si tempus debitum accipiat, if it maie be done in due tyme.

Vitam deorum accipere, to be made a god.

Accipere aliquid in muneribus, to take bydes.

Accipere, maie be oftentimes resoluēd by this word Afficior, as Accipit latitiam, he was to gladdē, or affected with gladnesse.

Accipere iniuriam, to take wronge.

Accipere plagam, seu vulnus, by a metaphore, to take a great hurt or damage, which we call a cossey to the herte.

Accipies a Polione, ye shal know it of Pollio.

Si te a quo animo ferre accipiet, if he shal perceiue, that ye take it well in worthe.

Parum accipere, not to vnderstand.

Accipere in maius, to suppose a thyng to be more than it is.

Regie accipius, entertained lyke a hnge.

Accipere ampliter, to intreate, or entertaine noblye.

Accipere, pro, tractare in malā partē: as, nisi sic accipiuntur verberibus, thei be so beatten.

Quo te modo accepissem, nisi iratus essem? Howe wolde I haue handled the, if I had not been angry?

Accipiter, accipitris, m. g. an hauke.

Accipiter humipeta, a sparhawk.

Accipiter hierax, an hauke, called a saker.

Accipiter pecuniarum, a poller of the people or an extorcioner.

Accipitrarius, rij, m. g. a falconer.

Accipitro, accipitras, aui, are, to cathe. A word out of vse.

Accito, aui, are, to call, or sende for oftentimes to come.

Accitus, accita, um, called for, called to come.

Accitus, us, m. g. a calling or sending for.

Acclamo, acclamas, aui, are, act. to crie with reioysing, toyinge, and sometime contrary, to crie against

 a thyng.
 Acclamatio, onis, f. g. a shoute, or crie.
 Acclamito, clāmitas, aui, are, to crie to ofte tymes.
 Acclino, clinas, aui, are, act. to encline or bende to, and by a metaphore, to fauour, to consent or agree to.
 Acclinatus, acclināta, um, leanyng or bende
 to a thyng.
 Accliuē, stiepe wise, bendeing wise.
 Accliuus, cliue, siue accliuus, a, um, rylyng by warde to a small toppe, leanyng towarde a
 thyng.
 Accliuus arbori, leanyng to a tree.
 Accliuus falsis animus, a mynde prone to lew denesse.
 Accliuitas, rātis, f. g. a rylyng by of an hyl.
 Accludo, si, ere, to shut to.
 Accola, accolz, com. ge. the next inhabitant, cal led a borderer. Also he that cometh out of one countrey, and dwelleth in an other countrey or towne.
 Accola campi, he that dwelleth next the field.
 Accolo, accolis, colui, ere, neu. to dwell by or nigh, specially hilles, waters, or woddes.
 Accolit propinquus nostris aedibus, he dwel leth nigh to our house.
 Accommodo, commodas, aui, are, to accommo date, to appropye, to apply, make apt, fit, like, or agreyng to an other thyng, to set in orde: to geue or encline, to lende, to conforme.
 Accommodare ensem lateri, to giede a sword about one.
 Accommodauit orationem ad gratiam, he qualified his talke to please.
 Accommodatus, to better purpose.
 Accommodare curam auribus, to heare dys
 gently.
 Accommodare se ad rem publicam, to geue him selfe to the publike affaires.
 Accommodare animum literis, to applye his mynde to learnyng.
 Illud si scissem, ad id meas literas accommo dassem, If I had knowen that, I would haue wryten my letters thereafter.
 Testes ad crimen accommodare, to bynge forth withnesse accordyng to the accusation.
 Accommodare se ad nutum alicuius, to make him selfe to ones becke.
 Accommodatio, onis, f. g. an applyng.
 Accommodus, a, um, apte, mete, conuenient.
 Accommodatē, aptely, conueniently, to the pur pose, hanfomely.
 Accommodate, aduerbium, aptly, very well.
 Accommodatus, a, um, applied to a thyng, be seeming, couenable, inclined, or disposed.
 Accommodatus ad flagitia, disposed to mis chiefe.
 Accredo, or adcredo, didi, ere, to geue credence,
 to assent a worde seldom vled.

Accredo, is, ui, uere, idem quod accredo.
 Accresco, eui, ere, to growe, to encrease, to be augmented.
 Ve accrescat fides, that it maie be the moze bes leetied.
 Flumen subito accreuit, the riuer rose so deynly.
 Accretio, onis, for, ge. & accrementum, ti, n, g.
 an increasyng, the encrease.
 Accubatio, onis, f. ge. a sittynge at the table. also the sittynge in of a woman with childe, sometyme
 the sittynge abwyde of byrdes and foules.
 Accubiores, thei that sitte at the table.
 Accubitus, cubiti, n. g. a bed or cotche to lye on by daye tyme, as it was the maner of the olde Romaynes to eate lyeing on their beddes.
 Accubitus, cubitus, mas. g. the lyeing in the said
 maner.
 Accubo, accubas, cubui, are, neu. to lye by, to sit or lye downe to eate: and by a metaphore, to butte vpon.
 Accubat mecum, he lieth with me.
 Accubare alicui in conuiuio, to sit by one at a feast.
 Theatrum Tarpeio monti accubat, the The atre butteth vpon the hill Tarpei.
 Accudo, di, ere, to beate a thing on an anuilla, to forge, to hammer, or to coyne moze to that which is already copyed.
 Accudere tres minas, by a metaphore, is to make thre to adde. iii. poundes moze to a summe.
 Accumbo, cubui, ere, neu. to lie downe, to lie by,
 to lie or sit downe at feastes or bankettes.
 Accumbere mensam, to sit at one table.
 Accumbere alicui, to sit by one at the table.
 Accumbere superior, to sitte in the higher
 place.
 Accumulo, cumulas, aui, are, act. to accumulate,
 to gather on heapes, to encrease.
 Accumulare aliquem donis, to geue gyftes plentifully vnto one.
 Accumulare arborem, contraye to Abla quare, to heape yethe aboute the rootes of trees, to kepe them from the parchynge heate of the sonne.
 Accumulare, plentifully, liberally, bountifully.
 Accumulatio, onis, f. g. an heapyng by.
 Accuro, curas, aui, are, act. to take good hede, or to care for. Also to do a thyng diligently.
 Accurare prandium, to prouide and make reas dy the dincr.
 Accurare hospites, to entertaine guesstes.
 Accurate, diligently, curiously, exactely, studis
 ously, earnestly.
 Accuratio, onis, f. g. earnest diligence.
 Accuratus, a, um, wherein is muche diligence, cur riouse, exacte, wel handled, done studiously.
 Accurata malicia, malice prepened.
 Accuratum habere, to prepense, or forcast a thyng curiously.

Accurata

Accurata commendario, an earnest commendation.
Abcurro, curri, ere, to runne to, to speede thither.
Accuro, vt sciam quid velit, I run to knowe what he woulde haue.
Accurritur ab vniuersis, euery man runneth thither.
Accursus, us, ma. ge. an assemblyng of hasty gathering of people to a place.
Accusabilis, sibile, worthy to be blamed.
Accusatio, ōis, f. g. an accusation of blamyng.
Accusator, ōis, m. g. an accusor, of rebuker.
Accusatorius, a, um, pertainyng to an accusation.
Accusatorius liber, a byll of complainte.
Accusatrix, icis, a woman accuser of rebuker.
Accuso, cūas, aui, āre, aēt. to accuse, blame of reprehende.
Accusare crimine, to accuse, of charge one with an offence.
Accusare vitium, culpam, aut crimen, to rebuke a mans faulte of vice.
Accusare, and Excusare, are contrary.
Accusas id me, ye blame me for this thinge.
Ace, aces, a titer of Phornicia.
Acedaria, corruptly vled for acetaria, salettes of meates lightly prepared.
Acedia, acēdia, f. g. falsly called accidia, slouth, penituenesse, heauinesse of herte, idle weeninesse, carelesse, negligence.
Acedior, atus sum, to be weery, of weare slouthfull.
Acentra, & acentreta, thinges wherof the center of pyche in the middes is not knowen.
Aceo, āces, acui, ēre, to be eger, tart, of Sharpe.
Acephalus, acēphala, um, without a head.
Acēphali versus, verses beginnyng with a shorpe syllabe.
Acēphali fabula, a tale without head of tale.
Acer, aceris, n. g. of aceris, ris, a tree, the wood wherof is moste gentle to worke in, it seemeth by the description therof, to be that, whiche is cald maple. Also bowes be made therof.
Acer, aceris, n. g. chaffe of millerde.
Acer, cra, crum, & acer, acris, acre, eger, Sharpe, felt, sowze as vineger swifte, cruell, valiant, vehement, diligent, circumspecte. Sometime it betokeneth strong, soze, fierse of earnest.
Acre acetum, stronge of Sharpe vineger.
Acer amator, a feruent loue.
Amor acer, ardent loue.
Acer animus, a great of lusty courage.
Acer equus, a contagiousse of swifte horse.
Flagitator acer, an importunate suitour.
Acre iurgium, bitter chiding.
Acer morbus, a greuous sickenesse.
Acer armis, fierse in armes.
In rebus gerendis acer, earnest and diligente in his affaires.
Aduersarius acer, a cruel & deadly aduersary.
Ambitus acer, a verie earnest sute for office.
Arcus acer, a quicke castinge bow.

Aestus acer, a feruent heate.
Acer canis, a hownde of quicke sent.
Frigus acre, a Sharpe colde.
Animaduersor acer, a seuer of rigorous punisher.
Homo acer, a diligent person.
Acres cibi, tart, Sharpe, of biting meates.
Dolor acer, greuous sorowe.
Cedes acris, cruell slaughter.
Hyemps acris, a Sharpe winter.
Acri sole siccantur, they be in the sonne when it is feruent hote.
Ingenium acre, a Sharpe quicke witte.
Odor acer, a stronge sauoure.
Visus acer, a quicke sight.
Aceratum, ti, neu. g. mozte, of claye mixte with hey of strawe, wherewith walles be daubed.
Acerbe, bitterly, vnriple, cruelly, vehemently.
Acerbitas, āis, f. ge. bitternesse of taste, Sharpe nesse of tyme, crueltee of man, heauines, griefe, peine, aduersitee, vexacion, affliction.
Acerbitatibus lacerari, to be tourmented with afflictions.
Acerbo, aui, āre, to trouble, to make bitter, abominable, moze cruell, of rigorous.
Acerbare crimen, to augment a faulte, & make it moze greuous.
Acerbus, a, um, vnripe, sowze, displeasunt, difficulte, harde, solepne, austere, and painfull: as, Robustorum iuuenū acerba mors: the death of yonge men is painfull: as who saith, they die with great difficultee.
Acerbavira, a painfull lyfe.
Homo acerbus, a sowze felowe.
Acerba fors, a sowzefull of heauy condicion.
Acerbae faciae, bytyng tauntes.
Acerbus dies, a heauy daie.
Acerba, for acerbe.
Acerbum spectaculum, a cruel sight, horrible to beholde.
Acerbum, bi, neu. ge. sowzefulnes, greuousnes, painefulnesse.
Acernus, a, um, of the tree called Acer.
Acero, āceras, aui, āre, to mixe with chaffe.
Acerosus, a, um, mixt with chaffe.
Acerosum frumentū, vnclean wheate, wheate not well winnowed of fanned.
Acerosus panis, browne breade not ranged.
Acerra, x, f. g. a Myppe, wherin frankensense is put, some do name it an aultour, whiche was set before a dead corpe, wheron insense was burned. Some call it a cup, wherin they did sacrifice wine.
Acerrime, excedyng Sharply, of stifly, egerly, of rigorously.
Acerrima vxor, a verie shrewd wife.
Acerrimi inimici, moztall ennemies.
Acerrimi testes, witnesses, whiche do stifly as hyde by the martier.
Acersecomes, he that neuer cutteth his heare.
Aceruatim, aduerb. on heapes, without ordre, in a mengle.

Aceruatum dicere, to shewe, or speake confusely without order.

Acerualis, uale, a kinde of argument, called Sorites, whiche procedeth by diuers probacions, & in the ende, as it were after a heape of argumentes, is concluded of the first and the laste.

Aceruatio, onis, fœ. ge. a heapyng or gatherynge together.

Aceruo, aceruas, aui, are, act. to gether into heapes.

Aceruus, ui, m. g. a heape or gatherynge together, and specially of graine, or other smal thinges.

Acesco, sci, ere, to waite somye, eger, or tarte, specially in licoure.

* Acesci & Heliconis opera, a prouerbe spoken of such thinges as be cunningly wrought.

* Acesias, a foliſhe and an vnlearned phisicion, of whom ysleth this prouerbe.

* Acesias medicatus est, spoken of a thyng that wareth worse and worse, and the more it is tended, the worse it is.

Acesis, an herbe whiche is yelow in colour.

* Acessai luna, a prouerbe spoken of suche as dyne for the matters from daie to daie.

Acestides, greete fornares of yron, wherein brasse is made.

Acetabulum, tabuli, n. g. a measure conteynng in it of wine. ii. ounces and an halfe. it is also a little vessell, as a sawcer, or other like. It is a boze or goblet, wherein iugglars make their conuenance. It is a partition in the legge of a fyſhe called Polipus, which is lyke vnto a little cuppe or goblet. It is also the holownesse, wherein the huckle bone turneth: and euery other thing lyke thereto, and apte to receiue any thing.

Acetare, to moue or stirre. an olde worde.

Acetaria, orum, neu. g. meate minced and eaten lyke salettes with vineger.

Acetarium, rij, n. ge. a salette of herbes. it is also a gardeine, where salet herbes do growe.

Acetositas, atis, f. g. eignerelle, tartnes, sowrenes.

Acetosus, tosa, um, eger, sowre, tarte.

Acetum, aceti, n. g. vineger.

Acetum in pectore,
Nunc experiar, sit ne acetum tibi cor acre in pectore, Nowe will I proue, if thou haſte any thyng, that dothe picke the in the stomache.

Aceto quempiam perfundere, to taunte one bytyngly.

Acharis, charidis, com. g. with out grace.

Achane, nes, fœ. ge. a corne measure among the Persians.

Achantia, x, f. g. a fyſhe, which some men do suppose to be thornbacke.

Achateon, the maine saile of a shyppe.

Acharistus, idem quod ingratus.

Achares, a precious stone, wherein are represented diuerſe figures. for some haue had in them the images of the ix. mules, some of Venus, some haue the colour of Corall, some are bryght as Crystall. It was one of the. xii. stones that god commaunded to be put on the vestimentes of Aaron. It is supposed, that magicians by burnynge that stone, & the smoke thereof commynge did put awaie tempestes and stormes. Also it is a ryuer in Sicill. It was the name of Aeneas companion.

Achetæ, grasshoppers, whiche chirpe lowde and pleasauntly.

Achillea, lœa, f. g. an herbe called parrot or rather milfoyle.

Achilleas, iados, or Achilleis, leidos, a kinde of barley, peradventure that whiche is called here corne.

Achilleon, or achilleos, some doe suppose to be milfoyle.

Achilleum, lei, n. g. a sponge, which is very soft, and hath small holes.

Achillus, la, lum, without lippes, without margēt or byrm. It is also a stone that hath no east.

Achimenis, idis, f. g. an herbe, whiche is of suche force, (as inchaunters teache) that if in tyme of battayle it be cast into an armie: it will cause the souldiours to be in a great feare, & redy to flee.

Achne, nes, f. g. chaffe. also the some of the sea: of Sophocles it is taken for dew. it maie bee used for the smallest and refuse of euery thyng.

Achne ignis, smoke.

Achulus, without galle.

Achores, rennyng sores in the head, whiche be engendred in the skyn, & breake out in smal holes, a common disease among children.

Achras, a wilde pear.

Achrestia, x, vnthriftynesse, vnprofitableness.

Achrestus, vnapt, vnbonest, vnprofitable.

Achriogelos, a fole that laugheth without cause.

Achyron, ri, n. g. chaffe.

Acizaris, cris, fœ. m. ge. a hatchet of brasse, which amonge the painymys was used in sacrifice.

Aciale, or Aciare, harde yron.

Acicula, cicula, f. g. a pinne.

Acidula, peares that be sowre, also an herbe, called foxrell be boys.

Acidula aqua, water that maketh men dronke lyke wyne.

Acidulus, cidula, um, somewhat eger, or tart.

Acidus, acida, um, eger, sowre, or sharpe.

Acidylus, a knotte in the gyddle of Venus.

Acies, ei, f. g. betokeneth the edge of a knife, or other weapon or tole. Also the front of an host at the ioyning of battaile. Moreover that part of the eie, which is called the sight.

Acies animi, vel ingenij, the sharpnes or capacitee of the witte, which some call the spirite.

Acie trahere, to set an edge, or to make sharpe.

Dirigere aciem oculorum in aliquem, to loke vpon one.

Effugere aciem, to go out of sight.

Excitare aciem oculorum, to quicken the eie sight.

Stricta ferri acies, a naked sword, a sword drawn.

Hastæ acies, the speare poppe.
 Vinū acinacium, small household wyne, made at the seconde pressing.
 Acinaceus, a, um, of kernelles or graines.
 Acinacis, cis, mas. gen. a croked sworde that the Persians used.
 Acinus, acini, ma. g. & Acinum, ni, n. g. a litle kernelle, whiche is in grapes, raisins, pomegranates, and other bearies.
 Acinosus, nōsa, um, full of kernelles.
 Acinos, or Acinus, f. g. small basill.
 Acipenser, or Aquipenser, pēseris, ma. ge. a kinde of fishe, whiche hath the scales turned toward the head, & swymmeth against the water.
 Aclanes, he that neuer crieth.
 Aclasis, clāsis, for. g. a garment bntowed from the shoulders.
 Acliti, vnbyd, or vnalled.
 Aclis, acidis, for. g. a kinde of weapon, used in olde tyme, as it wet an hurlebatte.
 Acme, mes, it is taken for flourishyng youth, or lusty age.
 Acmon, mōnis, m. g. an anuile.
 Acmotheton, thēti, neu. gen. the stocke that the anuile standeth on.
 Accetus, one that hath no bedde to lye in.
 Acolastus, a prodigall, vnruley, and riottouse personne.
 Acolastus homo, a veray vnthyste.
 Acoluthus, thi, m. g. a waityng seruaunt.
 Acolytus, he that can with no terrour bee drawn from his purpose.
 Acon, onis, a fysh, which after the description of Paulus Iouius, I suppose to bee that, whiche at London is called a chadde.
 Aconæ, rough rockes.
 Aconiti, a prouerbe, vsed whan a thing is easily obteyned without sweatte or labour.
 Aconitum, niti, neu. g. an herbe excedyng venos moule, it hath leaues like a cucumbe, but somewhat lesse, & rough: the stalke one hande bredth hyghe, the roote like the tayle of a Scorpion, and is white as Alabaſter. ther is also an other kinde therof, whiche hath leaues like a plane tree, but the diuisions are thycher, the leafe lenger, and moze blacke. and hath a stalke like a ferne, one cubite in heygth, the seede beyng in a long codde, the rootes are blacke, & like to the heares, or hornes of a Chympe. Turner saith, that one kynde of Aconitum, maie bee called Libardbaine, an other woulfbayne, of the which is two kyndes, blew, and yealow woulfbayne.
 Acontia, æ, for. ge. a certaine impression lyke to a fyre darte, which seemeth to flee in the ayre.
 Acontia, is also a serpent of the bygnesse of. ii. cubites, great in the foze parte, and decreasynge small backward towarde the tayle, of colour grene, Acopa, orum, n. ge. medicines to remedy weynesse or labour.
 Acopis, form. gen. a pteious stone lyke a glasse, with small golden droppes, wherewith yf oyle bee heated, and the body therewith anoynted, it dissolueth all weynesse.

 Acopos, or Acopus, acopi, for. g. an herbe, called also Anagyris, full of byanches, and hath floures lyke to colewortes, and hath an euill sauoure, the seede of it is in long coddes, harde, and in facion lyke vnto kidneys.
 Acor, oris, m. g. a tartenesse, lyke vnto ripe wine, or pomgranades, eighennesse.
 Acorna, æ, f. g. a kynde of thistles.
 Acorum, or Acorus, an herbe with longe leaues lyke the blade of a sworde. Aconiceus and Antonius Musa do suppose it to be great galys gale, and not that whiche is called Gladiolus, in Englyshe, gladen. This roote is hot and drye in the thyrde degree.
 Acosmia, æ, f. g. a disordered heape of thynges, disworshipp, dishonour, and also an inordinate confusion of matters in a common weale.
 Acosmus, one that is vndecked or vntrimmed, a clown.
 Acquiesco, cūi, ere, neu. g. to be at rest or quiete, also to recreate, delyte, or to take pleasure in a thyng, or person. also to leane the head or armes vpon any thyng. It signifieth also to assent to other mens saynges.
 Lectis tuis literis aliquantulum acquieui, Whan I had readde your letters, my sorowe was somewhat asswaged.
 Habemus aliud nihil, in quo acquiescamus, we haue none other thinge to delite our mynde with, or wherein we maie take pleasure.
 Acquirō, quiris, siui, ere, act. to gette, or obtaine a thing that is sought for.
 Acquirere amicos, to winne frendes.
 Acquirere beneuolentiam, to get the good will or fauour of men.
 Acquirere dignitatem, to obteyne honour, or dignitee.
 Acratismus, i, m. g. & Acratisma, tismatis, n. g. a breakfast.
 Acraton, pure wyne without a late, or vnmixt.
 Acratophoron, rōphori, neu. ge. a littell water pitchar.
 Acredo, inis, acritudo, dinis, acritas, tātis, for. g. Sharpenesse or sowzenesse, that is in frutes, which be not ripe.
 Acredula, æ, f. g. the wood lark.
 Acrementum, ti, idem quod Acredo.
 Acrobodicon, æi, the rigour of the lawe.
 Acrifolium, loke Lotos.
 Acrimonia, mōniæ, form. g. tartenesse, which byteth the tounge, and pearceth the head, as in the tast of garlike, onnyons, and other like thynges. It signifieth sometyme Sharpenesse in speakyng or mynde, sometyme lyuelinesse, and quickenesse of witte.
 Acrisia, æ, f. g. lacke of iudgement.
 Acritas, tātis, form. ge. sowzenesse, crueltee, diligence, vehemencie.

Acriter, sharply, severely, stiffly, strictly, cruelly, vehemently, diligently.

Acriter animum intendere, to sette all his intent of study.

Acriter iudicare, to iudge with a great deliberation, and as nigh the truth as he can.

Acritudo, inis, f. g. egerneſſe.

Acroama, amatis, neu. gen. a ſubtyll ſentence of leſſon, requyryng muche ſtudy and ſerche. It is alſo taken for all thynges reherſed or doen, to deſyte the audyence, and alſo the perſon that reciteth them.

Acroamata, were certayne lectures of Aristotle, whiche he redde to his ſcholeters, wherein was the moſt counnyng and ſubtyll part of philoſophy.

Acroamaticus, matica, um, perteynyng to thoſe lectures.

Acrochordon, chordonis, f. g. a kynde of warres, ſo ſmal at the rootes, that they ſeeme to hange by a ſinew.

Acrocomus, crocomi, one hauyng longe heares.

Acrodria, be al frutes, which haue an harde rynde or ſhale, as pomegranades, nuttes, cheſtins, piſtaces, and other lyke.

Acroſtolia, ōrum, n. g. a certayne garnyſſyng of ſhyppes, both befoze and behynde, whiche may eaſily be taken away.

Acroteria, orum, neu. ge. the extreme partes of a mans body, as the fingers endes. alſo pinnacles, battilmentes, and images ſette on buttrees to garnyſſe the buildynges. It is alſo the ſtemme decaynge or garnyſſyng of ſhyppes.

Acrothorax, one halfe drunke.

Acti, as if, as though. loke Ac.

Acta, ra, f. g. a water banke or ſtronde, wheron the water floweth.

Acta, orum, n. ge. plur. It is that we call actes, concernyng mens lyues, or priuate buſyneſſe put in wrytyng. Alſo ſuche dedes as haue happened out of iudgement. And actitara be thoſe thynges, whiche haue happened in iudgement, properly they that be in doyng.

in acta referre, to regiſter or cronicle.

Acta diurna, actes daily done.

Acta circumducere, to cancell a ſentence ones determined.

Acte, tes, f. g. an elder tree.

Actra, a, f. g. called alſo Chamaecten, and Ebulum, an herbe talled wallwozt.

Acteon, loke Actium.

Acteus, a, um, one of Athens.

Actia, orum, plaies made ones in. v. yeres.

Actias, tiadis, one of Athens.

Actio, ōnis, f. g. betokeneth ſometyme pronunciation, ſometyme an ozacion wrytten, ſometyme an action in the law, ſometyme an hystory, ſometyme a defence, otherwhyle a recompence in woꝝdes for a benefit receiued: as Gratiarum actio, for thankes. generally it is taken for the actuall dede in euery thyng.

Actio, the beary of an elder.

Actioſus, a, um, buſy.

Actitatio, ōnis, f. g. a debatynge of a caſe in the law, a pleadynge.

Actitatus, determined by iudgement.

Actito, aui, are, to practiſe, ſpecially in ciuile matters, to doe often, to pleade a matter.

Actius, loke Accius.

Actius, actiue.

Actor, ōris, maſ. gen. the doer of the dede. alſo in the law the plaintife, complainant, or demandant, alſo a player of enterludes, and a mannes factour or baylyffe, that hath the charge of his buſyneſſe.

Actor, the name of a certayn noble man.

Actualia nomina, names whiche doe procede of act: as Rex a regendo, of gouernynge: Dux a ducendo, of leadynge.

Actualis ſcientia, a ſcience that declareth thynges by their operacion, of the whiche are thre par-tes, morall, diſpenſatiue, and ciuile.

Actuarius, arii, m. ge. a ſubſtantieue, ſignifieth a ſtortary or ſcribe, or any other that wryteth ſpe-cillie.

Actuarius, a, um, actiue.

Actuaria nauis, or actuarium, riij, a row barge or other light ſhyppes, which is rowed.

Actuaria minuta, or actuariola, ſmall ſhyppes or botes.

Actuariolum, rioli, n. ge. a littell bote or barge.

Actuoſe, byaggyngly.

Actuoſus, ōſa, ōſum, full of buſyneſſe, alwaye occupied, both actiuelly, and paſſiuelly.

Actuoſus ignis, fyre that burneth alwaie.

Actuoſa vita, an actiue or worldly life.

Actus, a, um, perſourmed, alſo ariued, thruſt in,
brought to, feared, diſpatched, dyuen, vexed, tossed, conſtreigned.

Acti tempeſtate, dyuen by force of wether.

Acti iucundi labores, a pꝛouerbe, ſignifyng, that the memoꝝ of labours and trauailes paſ-ſed, is pleaſaunt.

Actus multis caſibus, vexed and tossed with many miſſortunes.

Retro actus, dyuen backe.

Mihi acta acta eſt, I am olde.

Actum agere, to doe that whiche is all ready doen, to labour in vaine, or to do ouerthwartly.

Actum de me eſt, I am vndoed.

Actum eſt, the matter is paſt cure.

Actum eſt mecum pꝛaculare, I am right well delt withall.

Actum habere, to allow that whiche a man hath dwen.

Actus, us, maſ. ge. a dede, noble pꝛoweſſe, the part of a comedie or plaie, the countenance and geſture of the ſame players, a daies woꝝke in tillage, whiche was accounted at. 120. foote ſquare. Alſo the meaſure of grounde, conteynyng. 120. foote ſquare.

Actus hominis, the partes of mannes life, al-ludynge to the actes of comedies.

Actus

Actus rerum, the expedition or exployting of matters.
Acta diurna, such thyng as be doen and registered dailey.
Actum, anone, without taryng, by and by.
Acuale os, a parte of the bone about the temples of a mans head.
Aculeatus, a, um, any thyng that pricketh. Also that greueth or troubleth the mynde.
Aculeus, cullei, m. g. a pycke of syng. also a rebuyng taunt, cherke, or rebuke: and al thynges that doe pycke and greue the mynde, maye be called Aculei.
Aculei orationis, the affections and lively be- huience of an oracion.
Aculeus sagittæ, an arrow head.
Aculeolus, leoli, m. g. a little pycke of syng.
Acumen, cūinis, n. g. the sharpenesse, edge, or point of any thyng. Also subtilitee, wittinesse, fyne iudgement, & sometyme sleightynesse, crafty mylinesse.
Vbi est acūmen tuum? Where is thy witte?
Acūmen saporis, sharpenesse of tast.
Acūmen ingenij, finesse of witte.
Acuminatus, a, um, that hath a sharpe point or edge.
Acumino, acūinas, aui, are, act. to sharpen.
Acūcula, a, a little nedell.
Acuo, acuis, acui, ere, act. to whette or make sharpe. By traslaciō it signifieth to pycke forth or stirre one to do a thyng, to pooke, to quicken.
Acūere ingenium, to quicken the witte.
Quam luno his accuit verbis, egged, stirred, sette a fyre.
Acūere linguam, to make the tungue to pro- nounce perfectly.
Acūere stilum, to write sharply or curesly.
Acūere animos, to make fierse or couragious.
Acūere iuuentam ad bonas artes, to styre youth to the study of good letters.
Acūere industriam, to make moze diligent.
Acupedius, pedia, um, he that hath an apte or quicke fote to renne with all.
Acupictores, imbodourers.
Acupingere, to imboder.
Acus, acris, neu. g. chaffe.
Acus, us, f. g. a needell. Also chaffe of corne, an order in battayle, and a pinne, wherewith womē doe trymme by their heares.
Rem acu terigisti, thou hast hitte the nayle on the head.
Acus, aci, m. f. g. a fyfthe of the sea, longe, small and smoth: on the backe he hath a colour be- twene greene and blew, his beake is longe and sharpe. in some countreyes here it is called an hognebeake. In the time of spaumng, the bealy of this fyfthe openeth, and so the spaume issueth, and afterwarde the wounde is closed. This fyfthe is harde of digestion, but it is moyst, and of good iuice in an wholl body.
Acustici, orum, m. g. they whiche doe heare all,

and speake nothyng them selfe.
Acute, quickly, subtilly, wittly.
Acutulus, he that hath a pretty witte.
Acutulus, a, um, somewhat subtille.
Acutus, a, um, sharpe edged or poynted, subtil, witt: but in voyce it betokeneth hygh or smal, as a treble, Quill.
Acute aures, eares quicke of hearyng.
Acuti oculi, clere eyes, quicke of sight.
Acuti cibi, sharpe meates.
Acutum ingenium, a quicke or subtil witte.
Acutus morbus, a vehement or sharpe disease.
Acutum & triste resonare, to make a mylle and hydous noyse.
Acyon, an holly beary.
Acyrologia, an vnproper kynd of speakyng eis- ther in wordes or sence.

A ANTE D.

AD, by hym selfe, or ioygned to an other word, signifieth, to, about, nere to, or at: as, Vado ad oppidum, I goe to the towne. Erat ad ripam fluminis arbor, There was at the riuers syde a tree. Ad, is sometyme vled for In: as, Ad forum audiuit, for In foro. Sometyme it signifieth agaynst: as, Ad illum mihi pugna est, Against hym is my warre. Sometyme it betokeneth in comparyson: sometyme cause: as Ad quid hoc fecisti? For what cause, or whereto dyddest thou this? Some- tyne about: as, Ad duo millia hominum oc- cisa sunt, There be slaine about .2000. men. also after: as, Ad hac, after this.
Ad, is also sometime taken for, Quantum ad. Vidi simul cum populo Romano forum, co- mitiumq; adornatum, ad speciem magnifico ornatum: ad sensum cogitationemq; acerbo & lugubri, I with the people of Rome behelde the places of iugement and common assemblies, as to the plesure of the eie, sumptuously garny- shed: but as to respect of witte and imagination, lamentably and heuily decked.
Ad annum, during an wholle yere, or for a yeres space.
Ad assem, to the vittermost peny, euery fars thyng.
Ad breuissimum tēpus, for a very short time.
Ad cyathos stare, to awaite on the cuppe.
Ad decem annos, id est post, ten yeres after. Nescio quid intersit, vtrum illuc nunc veni- am, an ad decem annos, I wotte not what diuersitee, whether I come nowe, or ten yeres hereafter.
Ad, with an accusatiue case, is sometyme vled for a datiu: as, Ad carnificem te dabo, for carnifici.
Ad decimum sextum calendas, about the .xvi. calendes.
Ad dextram, ad sinistram, on the right hande,

on the left hande.
 Ad diem, at the day appoynted.
 Ad desiderium, id est, propter.
 Inde cum actæ boues quædam ad desiderium (yt sic) relictarum mugissent, Than whan some of the neate, whiche were dyuen awaye, for the desyre they had of the other that remayned (as they vse to doe) dyd loow oʒ belloow.
 Ad ducētos, about 200.
 Ad, for Circa: as, Ad quod tempus te expectabo, about what tyme. &c.
 Ad extremū, ad postremum, at the last, finally, in conclusion. Sometime at the last ende, contrary to Ab initio. Also in the hynder parte.
 Ad exemplū, to the exāple oʒ likeness, wheare,
 Ad, for Secundum, and noteth similitude oʒ lykenes.
 Ad hoc exemplum nunquam amaui, I neuer loued of that facion, oʒ in that maner.
 Ad hæc mala, hoc mihi accidit, besides these displeasures, this chaunced vnto me.
 Ad horam nonam in anchoris expectaui, I late at ankoy vntyl ix. of the clocke.
 Ad hunc modum, this waie, oʒ in this maner, oʒ after this sort.
 Ad id tempus, at that time.
 Ad illam faciem, ita vt illa est, vt emerem sibi mandauit mihi, He commaunded me to by for him one, that had suche a face as he hath.
 Ad amussim, by rule oʒ lyne. And by a mesaphoze, exquisitely, curiously, with great diligence.
 Ad iudicē dicere. i. apud iudicē, before a iudge.
 Eius testis ad iudicem fidem informabit, his wytnesse before a iudge, shall proue the truth.
 Ad, for ante, oʒ coram.
 Cunctantem ad limina expectant, they loke for him at the gate.
 Ad limina, a poynt.
 Ad lucem, for vsq; ad lucem, vntyll daie lyght.
 Ad manum seruus, he that is ckerke to one, oʒ wyrteth for him.
 Ad manus venire, to come to hand strokes, to cope together.
 Ad me, pro apud me, with me.
 Commodum ad te dederam literas, cum ad me bene mane Dionysius fuit, I had scarcely sent my letters vnto the, whan Dionysie was with me perly in the moynyng.
 Ad meridiem, vntyll noone.
 Ad meridiem spectat, aut vergit, it lyeth towarde the south.
 Ad me domum, at home with me.
 Ad me abducta est domum, id est, ad domū meam, home to my house. lyke wise wee saye:
 Ad me Londinum veni.
 Ad multam noctem, late in the nyght.
 Ad nummum conuenit, it is the tiew summe.
 Ad pedē, a prouerbe, which signifieth agreeable, as it were, my chooe is meete for my fote. Accordyng to this prouerbe, is the sentence of Paulus Semilius, who hearyng his wife Pappia, comended for hir beautee, & diuers other good qualittes, held by his fote to the that praised hir, and asked how thei liked his chooe. Thei saied it was a good chooe. Than saied Semilius, ye doe see, that it is a new chooe, and well made, but none of you doeth know, where it wyrteth me, and yet I doe feele it.

 Ad pedes, a lakap.
 Ad pedes desilio, I lyght on my fete.
 Ad pileum vocare, to drye men to sedition vpon trust of libertie oʒ other commodittes.
 Ad quindecim talenta, about xv. talentes.
 Ad raurum poscere, to aske till one be hoare.
 Ad rem facit, it maketh for the matter, vʒ is conuenient, oʒ is fernetly for the purpose.
 Ad rem pertinet, it belongeth to the purpose.
 Ad rem suam sapere, to be wyse for his owne profite.
 Ad restē res redit, the thing is in dispaire. Whiche prouerbe came of them that did hange them selues, because they had not so good fortune as they looked for, oʒ that thynges happened not accordyng vnto their expectation.
 Ad summum, at the most, oʒ at the vtermost.
 Ad, for præ, signifieth comparison: as.
 Ad sapientiam huius nimius nugator fuit, in regarde of this mans wylsome, he was but a verie trifier.
 Ad tempus, in season. Sometime accordyng to the time, also for a tyme.
 Ad verbum, worde for worde.
 Ad viuū rescare, to touche it to þ quicke. A prouerbe taken of paryng of nayles, vntill the bloud doeth appere. Which signifieth to touche a thyng neerer than neede requyrez.
 Ad vnguem, exactly, absolutely, perfectly.
 Ad vnum, not one left, at ones, vnto the last, euerychone.
 Ad vnum idem sentiunt, they be all of one opinion.
 Ad calendas græcas, signifieth neuer. for in olde tyme the Grekes had no calendes.
 Ad horam, at tyme appoynted.
 Ad exitam atatem, for Ad vltimam atatem.
 Ad hæc, moxouer.
 Ad hoc, furthermoze.
 Ad liquidum, clerely, evidently, plainly.
 Ad manus, at hande, ready.
 Ad modum, as it were.
 Ad primus, chiefe of all.
 Ad urbem esse, to be in the citie.
 Ad eum respice, loke towarde him.
 Ad memoriam aliquid notare, to note a thing that it may be remembred.
 Ad perpendiculum exigere, to trie a thyng by the plumbe rule.
 Ad meum sensum, to my iudgement.
 Ad cinerem ambusus, burned to ashes.
 Ad omnia inutile, profitable for nothyng.
 Ad bonitatē proficere, to waxe better & better.
 Ad di-

Ad digitos venire, to be cōpted on the fingers.
 Ad febrem valet medicamen, the medicine is good against the feuer.
 Valet ad caput, it is good for the head.
 Ad fidem affirmare, to affirme certainly.
 Ad Apollinis, ad Monetā, ad Saturni, ad Iunonis, at Ipollos temple. &c.
 Ad lapidis iactum peruenire, to come within a stones cast.
 Ad id, to that tyme.
 Ad irritum cadit spes, our hope commeth to naught, or we be disappointed of y^e we loked for.
 Ad portionē, id est, pro portione, accordyng to the propozcion of the remnant.
 Ad tertias decoquere, to seeth a thyng to the thyrde part.
 Ad votum, euen as we woulde wishe.
 Studet ad lucernam, he studieth by candel light.
 Ad tua verba reuixi, your woordes relieved me, or, with your woordes I was relieved.
 Adactio, ōnis, f. g. compulsion, or constreint.
 Adactus, a, um, compelled, put forth, forced, dy-uen in.
 Adæque, semblably, so muche, as muche.
 Adæque miser, so muche or euen as muche a wretch.
 Adæquo, aui, are, to make playne or lyke, to aduance it selfe, that it may be lyke or equall to
 an other.
 Adæquare urbem solo, to raise a citee to the earthe.
 Adæquauit cum virtute fortunam, he was euen as fortunate as vertuous.
 Adæquare aliquem sibi, to make one equall to him selfe.
 Adæro, æras, aui, are, act. to praise or value.
 Adæstuo, aui, are, to ouerflow or boyle ouer.
 Adaggero, aui, are, to gather, heape, or laie to-gyther.
 Adagia, adagiz, f. ge. an olde wyse, whiche had a childe but late.
 Adagio, ōnis, idem quod adagium.
 Adagium, adagij, neu. ge. a prouerbe, or as I mought saie, an olde saied saw.
 Adalligo, aui, are, act. to bynde to.
 Adamantæus, for Adamantinus, a, um, of or pertainyng to a diamonde: and by a metaphoze, inuincible.
 Adamantis, idis, form. ge. an herbe that the in-chaunters doe vse.
 Adamas, antis, m. g. a diamonde, whereof bee di-uerse kyndes: one is founde in India, and is litle, bygght, heauy, and so harde, that nothyng can breake it, excepte the bloud of a gote. In nother is founde in Arabia, whiche is lesse than the other, and of colour moze pale. Some be found in Macedonia, and they haue moze the colour of yron made bygght. other be founde in Ethiopia, and thei be most darke in colour. And some be founde in Epyres, and their colour draweth toward the colour of apze, but thei are soft.

The vertues of this stone are these, to resist poyson and witchcraft, it putteth away feare, it causeth him that weareth it, to vanquish in contes-tion, it helpeth theim that be lunatike or phrenes-tike. I haue proued, that a diamonde layd by a nedel, y^e lode stone might not draw it by to him.
 Adamo, adamas, aui, are, act. to loue very wel, to desire feruently, and somtime to loue wantonly.
 Adaperio, aperis, perui, ire, act. to sette open a
 thyng.
 Adapertilis, le, for apertum, open, or easy to be opened.
 Adapto, aui, are, to ioyne to, to make fitte or euen
 with.
 Adaquatio, ōnis, f. g. watryng of cattail.
 Adaquo, adaquas, aui, are, to water hōse or cats-tail, also to water herbes or trees.
 Adarca, called also Adarcha, adarces, adarcion, adarcos, and Calomochnus, a salte some,
 which commeth of the rindes of canes or reedes growynge in fennes.
 Adareo, adares, ui, ere, to be dyte. I worde sels dome vsed.
 Adasia, an olde pew, whiche hath lately peaned or had a lambe.
 Adasso, olde wryters vsed for Adigo, to compell.
 Adasus, a facion of coates not shewed on the shoulders.
 Adaucto, aui, are, to increse or augment.
 Adauctus, a, um, augmented or increased.
 Adauctus, us, m. g. the increse or augmentacion.
 Adaugeo, auges, auxi, ere, act. idē qd adaucto.
 Adaugesco, auxi, ere, to increse, to grow bigger or greater.
 Adaxint, for adegerint, lette theim compelle or constreigne.
 Adbibio, adbibis, adbibere, neu. ge. to drinke.
 somtyme to drinke much: And by a metaphoze, for Imbibere, to receyue into the mind preceptes or counsailes, Adcenſi, for Accenſi.
 Adcorporo, aui, are, to myngle or ioyne to, so to cleaue and ioygne to, that it is one body.
 Adcredo, credis, credidi, ere, idem quod credo.
 Adcreſco, eui, ere, to be added to.
 Addax, acis, m. ge. a beaſt in Aſrike, which hath crooked hoynes.
 Addecet, for Decet, it becometh.
 Addecimo, decimas, aui, are, to take tenthes.
 Addenſeo, ui, ere, to make thicke, or close to gether, as whan many bee assembled in a small rōume.
 Addenſo, aui, are, idem quod addenſeo. also to make thicke, as lycour is made thicke.
 Addico, addicis, ixi, ere, act. to delpyer, to sell, or to appoint gooddes to be solde openly, to aslienate a thyng from ones selfe, or from any other man: and permitte, graunte, and appoynt the same to some other persone, to saie, to asuow, geue, or addict hym selfe to any thyng or persone, to appoynt, iudge, or depute. Also Addicere quempiam pro debito, is to deli-uer the debtour to his creditours, to doe with him what they lyst.

Antonius regna addixit pecunia, appointed out and solde kingdomes for money.
Nummo addicere, to sell for a small trifell and almost for nothinge.
Fundus addicetur Ebutio, the lande is permitted and graunted by iudgement to Ebutius.
Addicere ad iusiurandum, to force one to swear.
Addicere aues, was amonge the Augurians,
to approue or allow a thyng to be doen.
Nisi aues addixissent, idest, approbassent, excepte the byrdes by their tokens had allowed the
thyng.
Addicere sanguinem alicuius, or Addicere morti, to appoynt one to dye, or to bee put to death.
Addicere bona in publicum, to confiscate
goodes, or lease them as forsaite.
Addictam precio habere fidē, to haue his credyte and truthe ready to be solde for money.
Addicere corpus turpissimæ cupiditati, to geue or abandone his body to most filthy lust.
Addicere in seruitutē, to iudge one to be bōde.
Addicere se alicui, vel homini vel rei, i. se illi deuouere. Senatus cui me semper addixi, to the maintenance or folowing wherof I haue addicted and as it were bequethed my selfe.
Addicere opus aliquod: pro, locare faciendum, to sette out a worke to be done a great, or for a certain pprice.
Addictus færis & alitibus, layd to bee deuou-red of wyld beasts and foules.
Addicere animū, to geue or apply his mynde.
Addictio, ōnis, f. g. deliuerance of goodes to the possession of an other.
Addictus, he that is iudged, appoynted, deputed or bounden.
Addictus, a, um, openly solde.
Addisco, didici, ere, to learne, to learne well, to adde to in learning.
Addiscere rubas, to learne to blow the trūpette.
Additamentum, mēti, n. ge. a thyng added to,
an augmentation.
Additio, ōnis, f. g. an addition.
Additus, a, um, added or put to.
Additus, is also vsed for an enemy.
Nec Teucris addita luno vsque aberit, f. g.
ther Juno, enemy to the Troianes, shall lacke or be away.
Addiuino, uinas, aui, are, idem quod diuino.
Addo, ēdi, are, to geue to one.
Addo, addidi, ere, to adde, to ioyne or put to.
Addit equos: Ad hāc rem addit: In illā orationē quādā addidi. Quāobrē in sententiā nō addidisti: pro, sententiā: In potu vnguētum addunt, Aliquid de suo addit. In colliria additur. Adde huc. Adde quod. Exemplis melioribus se addere, to folow the better exāples.

Addere, for Dare: as Natura quam Iupiter apibus addidit.
Addebat hoc, he saied moreouer.
Addere animum, to geue courage.
Addere gradum, to make hym goe faster.
Huc adde, or adde quod, moreouer then this,
furthermore.
Addere calcar alicui, to styre or prycke one forwarde.
Addere aliquem astris, to make one a god.
Addere in nares, to put into the nose.
Addere facta pollicitis, to doe or accomplishe that whiche is promised.
Addere fidem, to confirme.
Addere finem, to make an ende.
Addere operam, doe thy diligence.
Addidit multum reipublicæ, he profited much the publike weale.
Addito tempore, in processe of tyme.
Addere alacritatem scribendi, to geue one a pleasure or comfort to wyte.
Addoceo, addoces, cui, ēre, to teache muche.
Addormio, iui, ire, to sleepe.
Addormisco, miscis, miui, ere, idem.
Addubitatus, a, um, doubted of.
Addubito, addūbitas, aui, āre, to doubt, or to be somewhat in doubt.
Adduco, dūcis, ūxi, ere, to byng to; or byng forth, sometyme to draw or plucke together, to bende or draw vp, as a bowe, a slynge, or any other ingyn. also to woue or perswade.
Adducit tuam Bacchidem, Adhuc huc, Ad-duxit intro in ædes, Adduxit ad prandium, Puero nutrice adduxit, for the childe. Adducere a foro, ex Italia. Quod ex Italia adduxerat. Adducere aliquē ad vel in rem aliquam.
Adducere alicui ante oculos, to byng before ones eyes.
Adducit cutem macies, leaues maketh the skinne wrinckled.
Adducere frontem, to froune.
Adduci mercede, metu, odio, precibus, &c.
to be moued or perswaded.
Adduxit in suam opinionem, he hath perswaded me to agree to his mynde.
Adducere in cognitionem, to geue knowlage, or make to know.
Adducere ad cōcordiā, to byng to agreemēt.
Adducere ad consuetudinem, to bring to a custome.
Adducere in dubitationem, to byng one in doubte.
In honorem adducere, to make a thyng to be esteemed or honored.
Adducere in expectationem, to byng one in hope, or cause him to loke for a thyng.
Adducere arcum, to draw or bende a bowe.
Adducere habenas, to pull streite the reigne of the bydell.
Adducere ad mucrones, to byng a matter in case to be tried by dent of sworde.

Addu-

Adducere in metum, to byng one in feare.
Adduxisti me in eam necessitatem, thou hast brought me into such a strapte.
Adducere in negligentiam, to make one negligent.
Adducere in inuidiam, to make one enuied or hated.
Adducere sitim, to make a man thirstie.
Adducere ad prandium, to byd to dyner.
Adduci non possum vt credam, I can not be perswaded to beleue it.
Adducere tedium alicuius rei, to make a mā weery of any thyng.
Adducere vultum ad tristitiam, to looke sadly.
Adduci, to be meeued, or perswaded.
Adductus, a, um, broughte, drawen together, shounke, bended as a bow is.
Adducta frons, a frownyng forehead.
Adducto constitit arcu, he stode with his bow bent.
Addues, pro addideris, a worde out of vse.
Adduplico, au, are, to double any thyng.
Adedo, ades, or adedis, edi, adesse, or adedere, to deuoure or consume.
Adechastus, ti, f. g. a sincere persone, that neither for meede nor drede wil doe against iustice.
Adelphi, byetherne. it is also the name of a comedie in Terence.
Adelus, a, um, vnckerrayne, vnknewen.
Ademptio ciuitatis, banishment.
Ademptus, a, um, taken awaie.
Lubrico itinerum abempta equorum pernicitas est, the horsemen coulde make no speede for the slippernesse of the waie.
Virilitatis adempta homo, a gelded man.
Adenes, is, a disease in the throte and mouth like little burnelles.
Adeo, so much, mozeouer, surely, without doubt. Sometime it signifieth euen: as, Tute adeo iam eius verba audies, Euen you your selfe shall heare him speke by and by. Sometime it is vbled for Etiam, and addeth a vehemency: as, Intra mœnia, atq; adeo in senatu videris, You see him in the citee, and that moze is, in the senate. Sometime for Certes: as, Nihil hercle, aut si adeo bidui est aut tridui hæc sollicitudo, No thyng in good faith, or trewly if he be, the sorow is but for two or thre daies. Sometime for Valde, or multum: as, Is adeo dissimili studio est, He is of farre vnlike disposition. Sometime for Etiam, without vehemency: as, Atque adeo longum est nos illum expectare, And mozeouer, it woulde be very longe for vs to tary and loke for him. Sometime Adeo non, for tantū abest: as, Vt ne filum quidem desuper pendentis aranæ rumpere, adeo fugere non queat, That he coulde not so muche as bzeake the threede of the spyder, hangynge ouer him, much lesse flee awaie: sometime for Eo, as, Adeo res reddit, The mattier came to this poynte: Sometime it hath no propre signification, but doth either fulfil or adorne a sentence.

Adeo, iui, ire, act. to go or come to, to demande, to attempte, to make assaute, to set vpon or cns counter.
Adi huc, come hither.
Adire aliquem, siquid velit, to go to a man, and enquire, whether he will haue any thing.
Adire contra, to go to mete.
Adi actutum ad fores, go quickly to the doore.
Adire aliquem scripto, to goe to a pñce and offer him the declaracion of his mynd in wryting as the maner was to the emperours of Rome.
Adi ad me vicissim, pro veni ad me.
Tum primum ad causas orandas adire cepimus, then I first began to take vpon me pleading of causes.
Adire in ius de re aliqua, to go befoze a iudge for any mattier.
Nunc prior adito tu, Howe do thou set vpon hym firste.
Adire omnem fortunam, to proue and aduerture all chaunce, good or euill.
Adire rem publicam, to take in hande the gouernance of the publike weale.
Adire aliquem blandis verbis, to talke gently with a man.
Adire aliquem de re aliqua.
Adi te heri de filia, I cam yesterday to talke with thee, concernyng thy daughter.
Adire discrimen, to put him selfe in perill.
Adire hereditatem, to enter into his inheritance.
Adire inimicitias, to enter into displeasure, or enmitie.
Adire ad pactionem, to come to a pointe concerning the bargeine.
Adire periculum, to take a daungerous thing in hande.
Adeor, the passiue of Adeo.
Adeousque, vntyll that.
Adeps, adipis, ma. & for. g. the fatte of all thing.
Adipes tenuare, to make leane.
Adepio, onis, f. g. obteinyng or gettyng.
Adeptus, a, um, obtained, gotten, or founde.
Rerum adeptus est, he hath obtained the dos minion.
Adequito, aui, are, n. g. to ryde by or nere to.
Adesdum, come hither.
Adespotus, a, um, one that is subiect to no man, or a boke that beareth no mans name or title.
Adespota fama, a rumoure sprede without any certaine authoure.
Adespota, goddes taken to the hynges vble, by cause no man claymeth them.
Adesurio, efuris, iui, ire, to be verape hungrye.
Adesus, a, um, deuoured, or by a metaphoze, consumed and wasted.
Adesa pecunia, money spente in ryottouse bakettyng.
Adfabrum, well wrought.
Adfremo, adfremis, frémui, ere, n. g. to groyne, or murmur at a thyng, as men do, whan they heare that displeaseth them.

Adfringo, égi, ere act. to bryake, as one doeth a pot or other thing agaynst a stone or wall.
Adgemo, adgemis, gémuí, ere, neu. to wayle or lament.
Adgrego, adgregas, áui, áre, loke Aggrego.
Adgretus, for Aggressus.
Adgretus fari, aboute to speake.
Adhabito, adhabitas, aui, are, neu. to dwell by.
Adhareo, háres, hási, rere, neu. to cleave faste, to stycke to, to sette sure, to ioyne to, to holde or to take to any thyng.
Adharere lateri, to be next to a man either in goyng or settyng.
Adhesit mihi ad infimum ventrem fames, I was meruailously anhungred.
Adhresco, hési, cere, ídem quod Adhareo.
Adhrescet iusticia & honestati, he wyll cleave or stycke vnto iustice and honestie.
Adhæse, Neque adhæse locutus est, he mumbled not, but spake out.
Adhæsió, ónis, f. g. adherentia, x, f. g. adhæsus, us, m. g. a stickyng, cleauyng. or fastnyng to a thyng.
Adhæsus, a, um, cleaued to.
Adhalo, hálas, áui, áre, to blowe or breathe vpon a thyng.
Adhiamó, hámas, áui, áre, to bynde to, to tie or grapple, or rather (by the wordes of Cicero) Adhamare honores, should signify, to aspyre to honours, by a metaphoze taken of anglyng.
Adhibeo, adhibes, hibui, ére, act. to moue or put to, to applie, to admitte or call to, to take to, to ioyne or ad to, to call vpon, to shewe: and oftentimes it is expounded by this worde Vtor, to vse or exercise.
Adhibere animum, to take hede what is spokē.
Adhibere aures, to hearken diligently, to geue an eare.
Adhibere in consilium aliquem, to consult or take counsaile without one.
Adhibere parsimoniam, to spare.
Adhibe e testes, to take wytnesse in a matter.
Adhibere vim, to dooe a thyng by vyolence, to inforce.
Celeritatem adhibere, to make haste, or to vse diligence.
Cœna aliquem adhibere, to byd one to supper whiche is inferiour to him.
Delectum adhibere, to put a difference, to discrene betwene thynges, whiche is the better.
Religionem adhibere, to make conscience of a thyng.
Adhiberi cæpta est ad ornamentum etiã corporis, it began to be applied also to the flesh apparylyng of the body.
Adhibere ad deliberationes principes ciuitatis, to call or admytte to his consultations the chiefe men of the citee.
Ad partus adhibetur Iuno Lucina, in tyme of womens trauaile Iuno Lucina is called vpon.

Arbitrum adhibere, to calle or take one for an arbitrou.
Adhibere artem, to vse arte or counnyng.
Adhibere auctoritatem ad aliquid agendum, to haue or byng with him authoritee or maiestee to the dooyng of a thyng.
Calcaria equo adhibere, to thurstle the spures to the horse: and by a metaphoz, to styrre or pryck forwarde. Adhibere frenos, to hold backe or restraigne, is contrary.
Adhibere cautionem, to be ware and take good hede, to be prouident and circumspect.
Adhibere deum, to call to god for helpe.
Adhibere doctrinam, to adde learnyng or knowlage to a thyng or persone.
Tentum adhibe in te diligentia, so muche diligence imploy vpon your selfe.
Ne quis dolus adhibeatur, that no discreyte bee vled.
Adhibere fidem alicui, to beleue or geue credence to one.
Adhibere fidem in amicorum periculis, to shewe him selfe faithfull and trusty, whan his frende is in daunger.
Adhibere lumen rebus, to make matters plain and easy to vnderstande.
Vt omnes adhibeam machinas, that I maye vse all the meanes that maie be.
Adhibere misericordiam, to shewe mercy.
Adhibe te in consilium, vse thine own counsel.
Adhibere necessitatem, to constreigne.
Adhibere preces deo, to pray to god.
Adhibere remedium vulneri, to lay a plaister to a wound.
Adhibenda est quædam reuerentia aduersus homines, There muste be a certayne reuerence vled towarde men.
Sic se adhibere, to behaue hym selfe after suche sorte.
Adhibere manus, to put his hand to a thyng.
Adhibere solatium, to comforte.
Adhibere studium ad aliquid, to imploye his study vpon a thyng.
Adhibere supplicium, to punyssh.
Adhibere deum testem, to take god to witnes.
Huc adhibe vultus, tourne thy face to me, loke vpon me.
Adhinnio, hinnis, iui, ire, n. to neie as an horse doeth after a mare. Cicero, by a metaphoze, maketh it to signify, to reioyce, or wantonly to desyre.
Adhorresco, hóruí, ére, to feare greatly.
Adhortator, óris, m. g. he that exhorteeth or counsaileth.
Adhortatio, ónis, f. g. an exhortacion.
Adhortor, árus sum, ári, to exhorte or counsaile, to styrre, to prouoke, or perswade to the dooyng of a thyng.
Adhuc, yet hitherto.
Adhuc locorum, for adhuc.

Ego pro te, sicut adhuc feci, supplicabo, I will make supplication for thee, as I have done hitherto.

Est adhuc alia in respondendo figura, there is furthermore an other figure in answeringe.

Adhuc tranquillares est, yet the matter is in good quiete.

Adiaceo, adiacoes, iacui, ere, n. to lye by or nere to, to bounde or border vpon, to be adjacent.

Adianoeta, orum, n. g. misteries, thinges secreete, and hid in wordes.

Adiantum, ti, neu. ge. an herbe growynge about springes of water, hauinge small leaues lyke a Coliander, called of apothecaries Capillus veneris, and groweth not in England, although some take it for maiden heare, it maye be called Venus heare or Colonder maiden heare, and is in a meane temper betwene hote and colde, other name it to be well ferne.

Adiaphoria, æ, indifferencie, wherein is no preferment of one thyng before an other.

Adiaphoron, indifferent.

Adides, morte battes of a cubite and a halfe long, hauynge pickes of iron in theim, and were tyed to a lyne, that whan they were throwne, he that did cast them, might plucke them againe to him: hurlebattes.

Adiectio, onis, f. ge. and Adiectus, us, ma. ge. an addynge or castynge to.

Adiectus, a, um, added or cast to.

Adigo, adigis, egi, ere, act. to procure or buye, to bynde by othe or promise, to byng or dyue to, to fasten or ioyne to, to myme to compell or dyue one to do a thyng, to dyue in, as a wedge or pinne, or nayle, or other like thyng.

Si in arborem clauus ferreus adigatur, If the iron pinne be dyuen into the tree.

Adigere ensen in pectus, to thruste a sworde to ones herte.

Adiges me ad insaniam, thou wylte make me madde.

Adigere naues, id est agere.

Adigere ad arbitrum, to constreigne a man to come and pleade before the arbitrou.

Prouintiam oem in Pompei verba adigebat, he compelled the whole pvince to sweare as Pompei would haue them.

Adigere sacramento, iureiurando, or ad iusiurandū, to force one to sweare after a prescripte and appointed facion.

Vulnus per galeam adegit, he wounded hym through his helmet.

Adigere pectus, to dyue cattell.

Adiciales, or Adipales cornæ, the feastes of the pagane priestes in olde time.

Adicio, adicis, ieci, ere, act. to cast to, to adde or put to, to increase.

Idem humor clystere intus adicietur, Shall be cast in.

Si calculum nostro errori adieceris, If thou shalte alow our errour.

Aestas febres adiecit, addeth fevers.

Adicere album calculum, to approue a thing.

Adicere animum, to set his mynde or loue on one, to caste fauour to one.

Adicere oculum hereditati. Planè videbant adiectum esse oculum hereditati, They saw plainely, that he was desirous to obteyne the inheritaunce.

Adiecit animum nouo consilio, He began to cast or imagine in hys mynde a new deuise or counsaile.

Adiecitur celeritati sic, by this meanes it wyl be dooen the sooner.

Adicere auctoritatem, to adde auctoritee to a thyng, or to make it more esteemed.

Tercentum adiciunt, subaudi animum, thre hundred agreed.

Adicere expectationem, to make one looke more for a thyng.

Si modus adiceretur, if moderation or measure were kepte.

Adicere oculos in aliquem, to loke vpon one.

Adicere oculorum imprudentiam, to loke on a thyng vnware, or by chaunce.

Adicere vires, to make stronger.

Adicere aliquid potioni, to suffice one to drinke a littel more.

Adicere intus, to cast or poure in.

Adimo, adimis, emi, ere, act. to take awaie or diminish.

Adimere animam alicui, to slea one.

Adimere ius, to prohibite.

Adimere suum alteri, to take an other mans goodes from hym.

Adimere vestem, to pull of his garment.

Adimere ciuitatem, to banyshe or expoulle one out of the citee.

Adimere curam alicui, to put one out of care.

Adimere aliquem lato, to deliuer one from death, or to saue ones lyfe.

Adimere nomen virgineum, to defloure a virgin or mayden.

Adimere vocem alicui, to make one that he can not speake, or to take ones speeche fro him.

Adimere metum, to put out of feare.

Adimere lumen, to put out ones eie.

Adimpleo, impleo, cui, ere, act. to supply.

Adimplere oculorum vicem, to bee in stede of eyes.

Adindo, indis, indidi, ere, act. to put in.

Adineo, iui, ire, as Calpurne saith, is to put in or nere to: but the place that he citeth of Colus mella hath nothyng so.

Adinstar, like to.

Adinuenio, inuenis, eni, ire, act. to inuent a thyng subtilly.

Adinuentum, ti, n. g. an inuencion.

Adipales, loke Adiciales.

Adipalis, pâle, om. g. fatte: and by a metaphore, grosse, barbarouse, or rude.

Adipatum, ti, n. ge. fatte meate.

Adi-

Adipatus, a, um, larded, basted.
Adipiscor, pisceris, éptus sum, sci, dep. to gette or obtayne, ioynd with a persone, it signifieth to ouertake.
Adipisci senectutem, to come to age.
Adipisci gloriam, diuitas, laudem, sapientitiam, to atchiefe or gette glozy, richesse, prayse, wylledome.
Adipisci palmā, to obtayne or get the victoꝝy.
Medio itinere eum adéptus sum, I ouertoke hym in the middes of his iourney.
Adipiscor is vsed of Plautus somtyme passiuely.
 Non ætate adipiscitur prudentia.
Adiposus, rpyche.
Adipsateon, a kynd of thorne, called also Erysi- sceptrum, Dipsacon, and Diacheton.
Adipson, a drynke that quencheth the thyrst.
Adipfos, called commonly Rigolia, a sweete roote called licozesse, also a certain date tree growyng in Egypt, the fruite wherof hath no stone Plinius calleth it Myrobalanum.
Aditculus, li, m. g. a little entree.
Aditio, ónis, f. g. an accesse or repayre.
 Quid tibi hanc aditio est? why comest thou to this woman.
Adito, aditas, áui, are, neu. to go to.
Aditus, adita, um, gone to.
Aditus, aditus, m. g. accesse, commyng to, or entree, a way to passe or go in.
Aditum littoris illi ademerunt, they prohibited or letted hym to lande.
Aditus ei preclusus est, the waie or passage is stoppe or closed agaynst hym.
Dare alicui aditum ad cælum, to byng one to heauen.
Aditus omnes firmare, to fortify all places where enemies may entre.
Aditum habere, to haue accesse or entraunce.
Aditu illū prohibet, he wil not let hym come in.
Aditum sibi reperire, to fynde a way to enter.
Rumpere aditum, to breake in.
Tentare aditum, to assay to entre.
Aditus ad honorem, by a metaphoze, a waye or meane to attayne to honour.
Aditus obstructus est, the way is stopped.
Aditum iacere ad aliquid, to begynne to make way or meane to a thyng.
Adiudico, iudicas, áui, are, act. to iudge, and by a metaphoze, to attribute any thinge to a man.
Adiudicare in seruitutem, to iudge one to bō-dage, or to be a seruauit.
Italys adiudicat armis, he doth attribute to the warre of the Italians.
Adiudicauit mihi salutem orbis terrarum, he attributed to me the sauegarde of the worlde.
Adiugo, adiugas, áui, are, act. to yoke or ioygne to.
Adiugare vitem, to fasten the vyne to the raile.
Adiumentum, ti, n. g. helpe.
Adiumento esse alicui, to helpe.
Adiumento esse ad victoriam.

Adiumento esse in causis.
Adiumento esse vel importare.
Nihil erat adiumentum ad pulchritudinem: the byd nothyng to encrease or set forth hir beautie.
Adiungo, iunxi, ere, act. to ioyne to, adde or geue to, to set to a thyng, to take to, to applie, to wyne or obteyne, to knitte, couple or afforate in friendship, or otherwyle. Errat longē, mea quidem sententia; qui imperium credat grauius esse aut stabilius, vi quod sit, quam id quod amicitia adiungitur, He is as foule deceiued, in myne opinion, that thinketh, that rule to be moze fyme and stable, which is gotten by violence, than that whiche is obteyned by friendship.
Hic dies me valde Crasso adiunxit, This day hath reconciled me to Crassus, and made me his deuy frende.
Adiungere se ad aliquem, to enter familiars
 see with a man.
Adiungere animum ad aliquid, to applie his mynde to any thyng.
Animum ad aliquod studium adiungere, to set the mynde on some thyng, that one hath a fantasie to.
Accessionem ædibus adiunxit, he hath enlarged his house. and taken moze roome to it.
Hac in re mihi vestra diligentia adiungenda
 est, I must haue your diligence in this matter.
Adiungere sibi auxilium, to gette him ayde or succour.
Adiungere sibi aliquem beneficio, to make one his frende by some good tourne.
Adiungere sibi beneuolentiam hominum, to wyne or obteyne the fauour of men.
Adiungere tauros aratro, to yoke oxen to the plough.
Adiungere se ad causam alicuius, to take part with a man, or fauour his cause.
Adiungere fidem alicui rei, to beleue a thyng.
Adiungere ciuitatem aliquam in societatem,
 to make alliance with a citee.
Me ad eius rationes adiungo, I associate my selfe to hym, in all his affaires, or in all that he hath to dooe.
Adiungere sibi socium, to take to hym a companion, or to associate him with one.
Adiunctio, ónis, f. g. a ioynyng to, or addicion, a knitting or coupling together in frendshippe.
Adiunctor, oris, mas. g. one that addeth or ioy-neth to.
Adiunctus, a, um, ioynd or added.
Adiurati, confederate or alied together by othe.
Adiuratio, ónis, f. g. a coniuryng.
Adiurgium, debate, harigunce.
Adiurgo, áui, are, to rebuke.
Adiuro, iúras, áui, are, act. to sweare earnestly, to denie, with an othe, to coniure, to requyre or insfoꝝe an other man to sweare.
Adiuto, iútas, áui, are, act. to helpe.
Adiutor, deponent, idem quod adiuto.
 Adiutor,

Adiutor, the palliue.

Adiutor, oris, m. g. adiutrix, triciis, f. g. an helper, a furtherer.

Adiutorem alicui venire, to come to helpe one.

Eius honori semper adiutor fuit, he did alwai further his honour.

Adiutorem se proficitur ad eam rem, he pro- mpled his helpe in that matter, Adiutorium, torij, n. g. heaipe.

Adiutus, iura, um, holpen.

Adiuuamen, uamius, n. g. helpe.

Adiuuo, adiuuas, iui, are, act. to helpe, to aide, to succour, to fauour, to further, to do good to.

Ad bellum adiuuare: vt me adiuues in hac re.

Si quid tu adiuuas. Aliquo auxilio vt adiuuet

Adiuuat incubare.

Adiuuare facultates alicuius, to augment a mans substance, or make him richer.

Fortes fortuna adiuuat, fortune fauourerth bolde aduenturers.

Adiuuare ignem, to amende the fyre, and make it bourn.

Ignem adiuua, mend the fyre.

Adiuuare auiditatem ad cibos, to make one to haue stomake to his meate, Adiuuare formam cura, to set forthly fauour with a turious trymping.

Adlaboro, boras, aui, are, neu. to labour diligently.

Adlino, adlinis, lini, liui, leui, ere, act. to an- noyne or rubbe with any thing liquide.

Adlubefco, lubui, scere, uen. to please or content one.

Adluceo, xi, ere. loke Alluceo.

Admando, aui, are, to sende to, to beliet any thing to one to bynge to an other.

Admetior, tiris, ensus sum, iri, dep. to measure.

Adminiculus, a, um, thoyed, staped, vnderlet, or propped vp.

Adminiculo, niculas, aui, are, & Adminiculus, aris, to apde or succour.

Adminiculum, niculi, n. g. propriely is a thore, a prop, or other lyke, wherewith rupnous houses, trees, or other thinges be thoyed, vnderlet, and helde vp, and by a metaphore, apde, or suppo- sation.

Adminicula vite, all thynges necessary to the lyfe of man.

Administer, istri, mafe, gen. a seruante, a mini- ster, a truche man or enterpretour, a stewarde of househoulde.

Administratio, onis, for. ge. the exploityng or doyng of a thyng, setaple.

Administratus, a, um, of or petteyng to the administration or exploityng of matters.

Administrator, oris, m. g. he that ministrerth or exploiteth.

Administrator belli, a souveraigne capitaine of warres.

Administro, aui, are, act. to do seruice, to exploite, to fournythe, to geue, to ministrer to, to rule, to gouerne.

Administrare bellum, to be capitaine in war.

Administrare iudicia, to helpe controuersies in iudgement.

Administrare rem familiarem, to haue the ouer- sight and gouernance of matters petteyng to househoulde, to husband matters.

Administrare rem publicam, to gouerne the common weale.

Administrare prouinciam, to rule a prouince.

Administrare negotium, to exploite a matter.

Administrare pocula, to attend vpon a mans cuppe.

Admirabilis, atis, f. g. idem quod Admiratio.

Admirabilis, le. Admirandus, a, um, meruay- lous, to be wondred at.

Admirabiliter, wonderfully, meruapulously, ex- cellently, passyngly well, honourably.

Nos Asia accepit admirabiliter, The cuntry of Asia receiued vs honourably.

Admirandus, a, um, he that doth wounder, or meruaple at a thyng.

Admirandus, a, um, meruapulous, to bee wons- dered at.

Admiratio, onis, for. gen. a wounderynge, or meruaplyng.

Admiratione affici, to be meruapled at, or ho- norred.

Admiraciones efficere in aliquibus, to make men wonder at.

Admirationem habere, to haue any thyng in it, that may be wondred at.

Admirator oris, maige: a meruaplet, or one that doth greatly esteeme a thyng, or persone.

Admiror, aris sum, act. to wonder, to meruaple at, to honour or reuerence, to esteeme greatly, to be in loue with, to haue in high regarde.

Admirari aliquem. Admirari de aliquo.

In ea re Platonem admirabar. In vobis hoc admiror.

Admiratus sum de illo, I had great meruaise of him.

Admirari aliquem ex ore alterius, to esteeme one greatly, for the commendation and reporte of an other man.

Admiscere, misceri, miscui, ere, act. to mingle, or mixte one thyng with an other.

Hoc cum alijs rebus admisceri nolo.

Admiscere se alium negotio, to entermeddle in a matter.

Admissarius, Carij, m. g. a nowne of the partici- ple admissus, as, admissarius equus, a station hoyse, it is also a man outragiously geuen to the fylthy luste of the body.

Admisio, onis, for. gene, nighnesse aboute a pynce, as admitted to bee of his pryue coun- saile, or pryue chambere.

It also signifieth the acte of puttyng the male to the female, or con- summation.

Admissionales, vthers of the chambere.

Admissum, si, n. g. significth a thyng committed, of bone.

Admissura, sura, f. g. the act of tyme when beastes do their hynd in generation, seasoning of a cow, and couerynge of a mare.
Admiste, an aduerbe significyng one mixt with an other.
Admistio, onis, f. g. a minglyng of mixture.
Admistura, re, idem.
Admistus, a, um, put vnto a thyng, or mingled with it.
Admitto, mittis, misi, ere act. to admitte, to put to, to bypunge in, to suffer, to susteine, to let into a place. Also to offend.
Quid tandem admisi in te? what haue I offensed thee?
Culpam in se admisit castigabilem, he hath committed an offence worthy punishment.
Noxiam admittere, to committe a fault. also Noxiam alicui admittere, dooeth signifie to pardonne or forgive.
Admittere diem, to open the wyndow that the light may come in. lykwys, solem admittere.
Admittere equum, to put the spures to the horse, and let him renne.
Cum se deuoueret, & equo admissio in media aciem Latinorum irruebat, when he had made his bowe, he tooke his horse with the spures, and rushed forth into the midde of the hoste of the latines.
Confidius equo admissio ad eum accurrit, Confidius, chasyng the spures to his horse, ranne against him.
Admittere marem feminæ, to put the male to the female.
Admittere noxam, to do an offence.
Admittere sumptum, to doo great cost, to suffer great expenses.
Salutarū veniebant, admissus est nemo, they came to salute him, but none was let in.
Fac ut ad illam admittar, helpe that I may be let in to hir.
In cubiculum admisit, he lette him come into the chamber.
Admitti per regulas, to be lette in by the rooffe of the house.
Per quæ admittimur in animum iudicis, whee by we be in fauour with the iudge, or haue him fauourable towarde vs.
Admittere aliquem arcanis, to make one pryue to our secretes.
Admittere consilium auribus, to heare aduys of counsaile.
Neutrum in cibos, vel ad cibos admittendū, neither is to be allowed for meate.
Facile curationem admittunt, they be easily healed.
Medicinam non admittit, he will not abyde as cure.
Sed tu quod cauere possis, stultum est admittere, but it were very folyshnes to suffer that to be done, whiche thou maist let.

Admittere aues, amonge the augurians, was to appoyne a thyng.
Admittere fidem, to beleue.
Admittere iocos, to take bourdyng.
Admittere solem, to lette the sonne shine vpon a thyng.
Admitto, is sometyme vsed to graffe.
Admodulor, admōdolor, atus sum, ari, idem quod modulor.
Admodum, veray muche, somewhat, reasonably. sometyme it is vsed for Etian, yea, as, Aedes ab eo accipisti? Resp. Admodum. Admodum with a genitiue case. Admodum exigui pulueris viuiradici subijcimus, i. pauillum pulueris.
Nuper admodum, very lately.
Admodum incerto scio, I am very vncertaine.
Admodum nihil, nothyng at all.
Admonio, iui, ire, to beseege.
Admoliō, iris, itus sum, iri, to put of moue to.
Admoneo, admones, mōnui, ere, act. to warne, to exhort, to monithe or put one in remembrance to doo, to witte, to aduertise, to rebuke, to shew one of his faulte, to aduise.
Ad scribendum admonebatur, he was admonished to write.
Me tuis verbis admonuit, he warned me in your name.
De hac re te admonui. Eam rem nos locus admonet. Huius rei admonebam. Admoneo te ut &c. Decedere campis admonuit.
Admonere aliquem ad aurem, to admonithe one in his eare.
Admonere flagello, to whype or bypunge forth, as they doo horses.
Locus ipse me admonet, the place it selfe putteth me in remembrance therof.
Illud te admonitum volo, This thyng I would well you should knowe.
Admonitor, oris, m. g. one that counsaileth or putteth in mynde.
Admonitio, onis, f. g. an admonition, a warnyng.
Nullum admonitionibus locum reliquit, he was so ready that he needed no admonition.
Sentire admonitionem morbi, to feele the grudgyng of the disease that one had.
Admonitum, ti, n. g. aduertisement, a counsaile, an aduysment, an instruction.
Admonitus, mōnita, um, warned. admonished, put in mynde, put in remembrance.
Admonitus, us, m. g. admonitio, onis, f. g. gen. a warnyng of admonicion.
Admonitio morbi, the grudgyng of a disease or sickness that is past, whiche is commonly called Reliquie morbi.
Admordeo, admōrdi, dēre, act. to byte sore, to hawe, and by a metaphore, to endamage or hurte a man, to wreste somwhat from him.
Admorius, a, um, bitten, hawen.
Admoueo, admoues, ui, ere, act. to moue or put to,

to, to set of byngge to.
 Admoſe ſcalam, ſet a ladder to the walle.
 Ad id ſe admoſet, he ſeteth forth of applyeth him ſelfe to that.
 Manus vectigalibus admoſent, they take by violence the reſidue of the common weale.
 Ad urbem admoſere exercitum, to leade of byng an army to the citie.
 Admoſere aures, to hearken.
 Admoſere blandicias, to flatter, of ſpeake ſayde.
 Admoſere calcar aequo, to ſpur the horſe, and by a metaphore to prouoke of ſpyre forwarde.
 Admoſere ſtimulos, idem.
 Admoſere occaſionem, to geue an occaſion.
 Admoſere fabricas, to aſſay by crafty meanes.
 Admoſere faces doloris, to kende greater occaſion of ſorrowe.
 Admoſere terrorem, to put in feare.
 Admoſere manum nocentibus, to puniſhe wicked perſonnes.
 Admotus, a, um, moued, of put to.
 Admotus, us, ma. g. and Admotio, ōnis, f. g.
 a moung of puttyng to.
 Admugio, iui, ire, neu. to loowe of belloowe to.
 Admurmuratio, ōnis, f. g. a ſotte noyſe of a tope-nyng of men, ſewynge a conſente to a thyng ſpoken of doone.
 Admurmuro, aui, are, neut. is properly, where men at that thyng; whiche is doone of ſpoken, do murmure, blamynge, of reſpoung the thyng.
 ſometyme it ſignifieth in the good parte, to al-lowe ſecretly.
 Admutilo, mutilas, aui, are, act. to torment of deate veray ſore.
 Adnaſcor, naſceris, atus ſum, aſci, dep. to grow ſuperfluouſly, as gumme bothe on trees.
 Adnato, adnatas, aui, are, neu. to ſwimme to a
 place.
 Adnauigo, nauigas, aui, are, n. loke Annaigo.
 Adneſto, adneſti, of nexui, ere, act. to knytte a
 thyng.
 Adneſtio, ōnis, f. g. a knyttynge, of faſtynge to of
 a thyng.
 Adneſto, nixi, nictere, neu. to wyne on one.
 Adnitor, niteris, nixus ſum, niti, dep. to leane to a thyng, to endeouere, to geue diligence, and ſometyme to helpe.
 Adniti omni opera, to endeouere with all diligence.
 Adnexus, vel Adnifus, a, um, leanyng, cleauynge, of ioyng faſte to a thyng.
 Adno, aui, are, neu. to ſwimme to.
 Adnotatio, ōnis, f. g. a tytyng, of ſhorte notyng of that we reade, of heare.
 Adnoto, adnotas, aui, are, act. loke Annoto.
 Adnubilo, nubilas, aui, are, act. to make cloudy.
 Adnumero, numeras, aui, are, act. to adde to, to numbre to.
 Adnutrio, nutris, iui, ire, act. to nouryſhe by of nygh to an other thyng.

Adobruo, obrui, ere, act. to couer with earthe of other thyng.
 Adolabilis, le, without greffe of ſorrow.
 Adoleo, adoles, olui, & olui, ere, aduſum, to beſeene to growe, to dooe ſacrifice with inſence of other fumes, to bourne, to bourne ſweete
 thynges.
 Adolent, the paſſio, to ſometime bled.
 Adoleſcens, entis, om. g. a pong man, whiche is yett growynge vnto . xxi. yeres.
 Adoleſcens moribus, lighte and vncouſtante of behauiour.
 Adoleſcentia, x, f. ge. is the age betweene childhood and mans age, whiche is betweene . 14 .
 and . 21 .
 Adoleſcentior, aris, aris ſum ari, dep. to be wanton of full of yowth, to play the yonger.
 Adoleſcentula, x, f. ge. a pong woman, a pong damoyſell.
 Adoleſcentulus, li, ma. g. a ladde.
 Adoleſcenturio, iui, ire, to play the boy.
 Adoleſchios, a bablar, a chatter, a ioly talker.
 Adoleſcho, leui, ere, neu. to grow, to encreaſe in age, properly ſpoken of men. but applyed alſo to beaſtes, trees, herbes, and all other thynges.
 Quam ſuauiter adoleuerit etas, whan he ſhall come to tpe age.
 Poſtq̄ adoleuit ad eam etatem, after he came to that age.
 Donec ver adoleſceret, vntill ſpyng tyme was well gone on.
 Adoleſcere in tria cubita triennio, to growe to the height of . iii. cubites in thre yeres.
 Adoleſcit ratio, reaſon waxeth tpe.
 Adoleſcunt opes, ryches increaſe.
 Adoleſcebat lex, the lawe began to bee of moys ſoyte.
 Adoleſcere in ſacrificijs, to burne.
 Adonai, the name of god amonge the Jewes, whiche ſignifieth, our loyde, Adonia, feaſtiuall daies, whiche were kepte in the honour of Adonis, the darlyng of Venus.
 Adoniſmus, mi, m. g. the lamentynge of Adonis.
 Adoperio, adoperis, perui, ire, act. to couer of hyde.
 Adopinor, aris ſum, idem quod opinor.
 Adoptatiſſimus, veray gladly deſired, Adoptatiuus, the ſonne of one that is adopted, of the perſon ſelf that is adopted, of taken in ſtede of a ſonne.
 Adoptatiuus, a, um, he whom a man ordeineth to be his heire, and taketh vnto him in ſtede of his ſonne.
 Adoptatus, a, um, choſen, adopted.
 Adoptio, and Adoptatio, ōnis, f. ge. an election of an heire out of the courſe of inheritaunce, as by wyll, of gyfte. Adoptio is ſometyme taken for graſtynge.
 Adoptiuius filius, a ſonne by adoption.
 Adopto, aui, are, act. to chooſe, of take to, to cal for, to electe of apoynt an heire.

Minorem

Minorem Scipionem a Paulo adoptauit, he chose by adoption out of Paulus Semilius familie, him that was called the younger Scipio. A Herbam adoptare, to name an herbe after his owne name: as Artemisia: Panfolus wpre did.
Ego quem potius adoptem aut innocem,
quam illum, quo defendente vincere didici:
Whom shulde I rather chose for mine aduocate of call vpon, than hym, who defending my cause
I learned to vanquish. Adoptare in diuitias, to chose one to possesse his riches.
Adopia. e sibi nomen, to chose, or take vpon him an other mans name.
In adoptionem dare filium, to geue his soune to be adopted.
Adoptare se alicui ordini. i. immiscere semet
ipsum & sibi ordinem aliquem vendicare.
Ador, n. g. indeclin. & Adoreum, rei, n. ge. a kynde of pure wheate. called also Far, whiche in olde tyme was vsed in sacrifices.
Adoratio, onis, f. g. is an expresse motion, or acte of reuerence, done with the bodie inclined, woz knyppng, sometyme praiers.
Adoraturi sedent, a prouerbe signifiyng, that men in tyme of praier shoulde haue their myndes attent and fixed onely vpon that, and perceiue continually therin.
Adorea, & Adoreola, x, f. g. weare in olde tyme taken for laude, prayse, and renoume. Also a cake of fyne wheate, which they vsed in sacrifice.
Adoreus, oreas, um, of pure wheate.
Adorior, oris, vel oreis, ortus sum, iri, depo.
to assaunte, to inuade, or set vpon by treason or other wyle, to endeuour or go aboute a thynge.
Si conuelleret adoriāmur ea, quæ non possunt commoueri, If we shoulde go about to plucke and strete those thinges, whiche can with no strength be moued.
Adoriri aliquem gladio.
Adoriri iurgio, to chide.
Occasio idonea ad rem adoriendam, I meete occasion to go about the matter.
A tergo hostes adoriri iubet, He bad theim to set on their ennemies at their backes.
Adorno, aui, are, act. to appaile, to prepare, to praysse, to aduance, to honour, to adorne, to fournyshe, to go aboute.
Adornare benefacta verbis, to augment and set forth benefites with wordes.
Tragulam in te iniicere adornat, He gothe a boue to deceiue thee.
Adornare bellum, to prepare for warre.
Adoro, oras, aui, are, act. to honour with inclination of the body, to beseeche, to worshippe and reuerence.
Adortus, ta, tum, inuaded, set vpon.
Adoxia, x, f. g. ignomine, shlaunder.
Adoxius, a, um, infamous, without renoume and gloie, absurde.
Adpeto, adpetis, petij, ere, loke Appeto.
Adposco, sci, ere, idem quod posco.

Adprecor, idem quod precor.
Adprobo, and Adprobus, loke Approbo.
Adpromissor, loke Appromissor.
Adproporo, loke appropero.
Adpropinquo, loke appropinquo.
Adpugno, aui, are, to assaunte, to fight agaynst.
Adpulsio, onis, f. g. and Adpulsus, us, ma, ge.
the dyfte of sheepe to the water.
Adquiro, loke Acquiro.
Adquo, for quously, vntill, and for Quantum.
Adrado, idem quod Rado.
Adrepe, repis, repsi, ere, neu. to crepe to.
Adrepere in amicitiam alicuius, to crepe into ones frendship by litle and litle.
Adria, x, masc. gen. brnice sea. Adria is also the name of two citres in Italy, of whom that sea was so named.
Adrodo, loke Arrodo.
Adrudus, rude, not polished, not garnished.
Adrumo, aui, are, to grudge, or make rumour. an olde worde out of vse.
Adruo, adruis, ere, to turne the ground in tillage,
after Calepine.
Adscisco, sciui, ere, to ioyne or take to, as whan one ioyne an other with him in auctorite, or taketh one to ayde him in his office.
Adscire, to ioyne, or put to.
Adscriptiij, were menne of warre, whiche were taken into an armie, to supply the places of them that were slayne, or otherwyle lached.
Adscriptiui, idem.
Adscriptor, loke Ascriptor.
Adscriptio, loke Ascriptio.
Adsector, oris, m. g. loke assector.
Adsensio, si, ire, and Adsensior, loke Assensio, and Assensior.
Adsequor, utus sum, loke Assequor.
Adsero, ui, ere, loke Assero.
Adseruo, aui, are, loke Asseruo.
Adsestrix, icis, for g. a woman messenger, that is sent to call one.
Adseuero, aui, are, loke Asseuero.
Adsicco, aui, are, loke Assicco.
Adsideo, adsideo, ere, loke Assideo.
Adsignifico, aui, are, loke Assignifico.
Adsigno, aui, are, loke Assigno.
Adsilio, adsilis, ui, ire, neu. loke Assilio.
Adsimilis, loke Assimilis.
Adsimulo, aui, are, loke Assimulo.
Adspere, a worde out of vse, whiche commeth of Sapere.
Adstio, stiti, ere, loke Assisto.
Adstrus, ta, tum, set or grafted by.
Adsolet, loke Assolet.
Adspuo, adspui, adspuere, to spet on, to spet to.
Adstrepo, ui, ere, loke Astrepo.
Adstruo, xi, ere, loke Astruo.
Adsum, ades, adfui, esse, futurus, I am here, or present, or at hand.
Adstis domi facite, See that ye bee bothe at home.

Adsum,

Adsum, signifith, sometime to be present, some tyme to apde, sometyne to fauour.

Vbi imperator non adest ad exercitum, when the capitayne is not present at the armie.

Eum decreto scribendo video adfuisse, I see he was present at the wytyng of that decree.

Adfuit fortuna incepto, fortune fauored my enterpryce.

Adesse alicui contra alium, to helpe a man as gaynst an other.

In omnibus rebus mihi adfuit, he dyd apde me or helpe me.

Adesse animo, to haue his mynde at libertee, to take a good hert to him, to be of good courage. also for intentum esse & fauere, as, Adesse equo animo.

Adesse praesens, to be present.

Ad tempus constitutum aderit, he will be present at the tyme appointed.

Adesse coram, idem.

Adesse coram praesentem, Coram aderit praesens tibi, he shall come before the.

Adesse adiudicium, to appere in iudgemente.

Adesse for inesse: Omnia adsunt bona quae penes est virtus, all good thynges be in him in whom vertue is.

Adsit modus amori, let there bee a measure in loue.

Adesse iudici, to be associate in commission.

Adest, he is at hand.

Adest et animus, he hath a good courage.

Adsum, used with aduerbes, as, Hic adsum.

Adesto istic, tary here. i. mane.

Adsum, is used sometyne for Accedo, as, Huc ades, come hyther. sometyne for Aduenio, as, Hi ex Africa adfuturi videntur, Ita semet, they will come hyther out of Afrike.

Aderat promissa dies, the day appointed was come. sometyne for Paratum esse, as, Ad defendendam causam ad est, he is ready to defende the mattier. Mihi quoque adsunt testes, id est, in promptum sunt.

Adesse alicui, to fauour or helpe one. Also to defend, as the aduocate defendeth his client.

Adsunt pugnantibus foeminae, The women helpe the souldiours.

Adrexo, texui, ere, act. to ioyne or adde to, and as it were to weaue to a thyng.

Adubernaes, is a dweller in a little cottage made of bourdes, or suche lyke thyng, where many of them be situate together, as it were bouthes in a fayre.

Adtondeo, tondes, tondi, ere, act. loke Tondeo, Aduectio, onis, f. g. and Aduectus, us, m. g. a carpage ouer to a place.

Aduecto, ui, are, act. to cary often to a place.

Aducho, aduehis, uexi, ere, act. to byng or cary to in a shyppe, wayne, or other lyke thyng.

Aduchit auster imbres, the south wynde byngeth showres.

Aduchi aliquem, to be taried to one.

Aduehere equo, to cary on horsebacke.

Adueluatio, onis, f. g. A mutuall reprochyng, contention in wordes, brawlyng or chydng.

Adulo, ui, are, idem quod velo.

Aduena, aduenz, com. ge. A straunger.

Aduenerari, to worship with great reuerence.

Aduenio, aduenis, ueni, ire, neu. to come, to come to, to appoche, to chaunce to.

A portu aduenit: Ex Hyperboreis aduenit: Quum ex templo ad forum aduenero, Tyriam aduenit urbem. Si in prouinciam aduenerit, Properantibus illis aduenit. Me accusatum aduenit. In these it signifith nothyng but to come.

Propterea pace aduenio: for pacifice venio.

In tempore, per tempus aduenire.

Aduenit senectus, olde age draweth nere.

Per me quanta adueniet calamitas hodie ad hunc lenonem? Howe greatte myserie shall chaunce this daie to that haude throughe my means?

Per tempus aduenit, he came in season.

Aduentitius, a, um, that cometh by chaunce, that one hath not of him selfe, but of other.

Aduentitium auxilium querere, to seke apde of forrenners,

Aduentitia dos, A dowrie geuen by an other frende and not by the parentes.

Aduentitia bona, goodes that dooe come vnloked for.

Aduentitius morbus, spkenes that cometh without our defaute, and of some men is called an vncome.

Aduentitium donum, a gyfte geuen to a pynce at his fyrste entrie into a citie.

Aduentito, ui, are, neu. to come often.

Aduento, ui, are, neu. to come nighe.

Aduentores, common resorters, or haunters to a place.

Aduentorius, a, um, that is profered or geuen to a man at his comyng.

Aduentus, us, m. g. A comyng to.

Aduerbero, ui, are, act. to beate sore.

Aduerbialiter, like an aduerbe.

Aduersaria, orum, neu. g. A recknyng boke of expenses, writte afore the boke of accompt be made.

Aduersarius, rij, m. g. An aduersary.

Aduersator, oris, m. g. idem.

Aduersatus, a, um, against or contrary.

Aduersio, onis, f. g. of this woorde ryleth diuers phrases: as, In aduersione emere, In aduersione venire, Per aduersionem vendere, is whan the perill or heppng of the thyng bought is turned from the seller to the byer.

Aduersitas, atis, f. g. contrarietee, repugnancie, aduersitee, sometyne enmittee.

Aduersitor, oris, m. g. A seruant that seketh for his maister, or that doth fetch him home after dinner and supper.

Aduerso, ui, are, is of olde writers used for, Aduersor, atus sum, to repugne, to be contrary, or to refuse.

 Inſenſe aduerſari alicui, to bee extremely againſt a man.
 Aduerſari rem aliquam, to be againſt a matter
 Aduerſante natura quicquam facere, to do a thyng againſt naturall inclination.
 Aduerſum, ſi, n. g. Aduerſitee.
 Aduerſum, and Aduerſus, prepoſitions ſignifyng agaynſte, towarde, face to face, ſometyme it is vſed for Erga, ſometyme for the Aduerbes Contra & obuiam. Quis eſt hic, qui aduerſum mihi fit? who is he that cometh agaynſte me. or marcheth towarde me.
 Aduerſus, a, um, that wherof the ſopparte onely is ſene: as Auerſus, that wherof onely the hinder part is ſene. ſometyme Aduerſus, is euill, vniſortunate. alſo ſoppe right agaynſte. alſo one that hath his face toward vs. alſo Aduerſus ne mini, ſtruyng or wangling with no body.
 Aduerſa ærumna, Aduerſitee, domage.
 Aduerſa valetudo, ſickenefſe.
 Aduerſo ſumine, agaynſte the ſtreame.
 Aduerſis vulneribus, with wunders in the ſopparte, ouerthwarte the breaſte or face.
 Aduerſis frontibus concurrunt arietes, weathers doe butte or runne with their ſoppeheades, one agaynſt an other.
 Aduerſarium ſe intendere, to be againſte one in his procedynges.
 Aduerſus gratiæ homo, A rude or ſrowarde ſelowe nothyng fauored.
 Aduerſum clium, ſtreight by againſt the hill.
 Aduerſo animo, agaynſt thy will, my will, his will, againſt his herte.
 Aduerſa, abſolutely for aduerſitee; Premi aduerſis .i. rebus.
 Aduerſi dentes, the ſoppe teeth.
 Aduerſum ſolem intueri nequit, he can not loke againſt the ſunne.
 Aqua aduerſa vehi, to bee caried againſte the ſtreame.
 Aduerſa via, a contrary way.
 Aduerſis auſtris ætatem ducere, to leade our life in great aduerſitee and wretchedneſſe.
 Aduerſus homo, an enemy.
 Scandere in aduerſum, to clyme agaynſte the hyll.
 Aduerſo rumore eſſe, to be eucl ſpoken of.
 Aduerto, uerti, æ, act. to perceiue, to turne to, to attende, obſerue, and take hede, to conſider, to punyſhe.
 Aduertebatur, it was noted.
 Aduertere animum, to take hede, or harken.
 Aduertere oculos, to perceiue, to ſee, to beſe holde, to conſider.
 Aduertere vrbi agmen, to turne or bende the hoſte againſt the citie.
 Vt multos aduerto crediſſe, as I perceiue that many haue beleued.
 Aduertere aurem, to harken diligently.
 Aduertere aliquid grauitèr, to marke or note

a thyng diſpleaſantly or with greefe of mynde.
 Aduertere in aliquem, to puniſhe one.
 Aduertere durius paſſimonie, to plaiſe the nigarde.
 Res inſigniores hominem aduertunt, thynges that be notable make one attentue.
 Adueſperat nuper, it waxeth late, or it is night, the euenyng, or euentide is come.
 Aduigilo, uigila; aui, ære, neu. to wathe, or take good heede.
 Aduiuo, uiuis, uixi, ære, neu. to liue, a worde vſed ſeldome vſed.
 Adulas, antiſ, an hill called ſaincte Gothardec, enſtring into Lumbardy.
 Adulatio, ònis, f. g. properly is the fauynge of a dogge, and by a metaphoze flatteriee. ſometyme a flatterpng tale.
 Adulator, òris, m. g. a flatterer.
 Adulatorius, a, um, of, or pertainyng to flattery, or lyke to it.
 Adulatrix, icis, f. g. a woman that flattereth.
 Adulo, aui, ære, of olde writers was vſed for Adulor, to flatter.
 Adulor, laris, atus ſum, ari, is whan a man either with voice or geſture of bodie, endeuoureth him ſelfe, ſeruſable to winne a mans fauoure, to flatter.
 Adulari alicui, and Adulari aliquem, to flatter one.
 Adulter, alteri, m. g. adultera, ræ, f. ge. a man or woman aduoutre; it is alſo applied to beaſtes.
 Adulter ſororis, one that hath committed aduoutrie with his ſiſter.
 Adulterinus, a, um, and Adulteratus, a, um, counter ſaited, forged, corrupted, and ſometime that is begotten in aduoutrie.
 Adulterinum ſignum, a counterſaite ſcale.
 Adulterinus nummus, a counterſaite coyne.
 Adulterine clauæ, counterſaite keys.
 Adulterata mulier, a woman abuſed in aduoutrie.
 Adulterium, térij, n. g. aduoutrie.
 Adulteria arborum, graſpnyng of trees.
 Adulteria natura, ſuche thyngs as nature dothe alter or mingle.
 Adulteria mercis, the alterpnyng and counterſaityng of wares.
 Adultero, aui, ære, act, to counterſaite or forge. alſo to corrupt, & to commit aduoutrie withone.
 Adulterare iudiciũ, to corrupt iudgement.
 Adulteror, adeponent, and Adulteror, a paſſiue.
 Adultus, a, um, full growen, ſometyme burned.
 Adulta vrbs, a citie whiche in proceſſe of tyme is waken ſtronger and puiſſant.
 Adulta peſtis, a great miſchiefe that hath by longe continuance taken roote.
 Adultum ver, the middle part of ſprynge tyme, likewise adulta æſtas, adulta hyemps, adultus autumnus.
 Adulta authoritas, authoritee by continuance, growen to eſtimation.
 Adumbra

Adumbratim, somewhat obscurely, not plainly.
Adumbratio, ōnis, f. ge. a shadowynge, also an imitacoin or expresse of an other thyng, somes what to the likenesse and nature of the same.
Adumbratus, a, um, shadowed, done covertly.
Adumbrata laticia, counterfeit, or feigned gladnesse.
Adumbrata opinio, a false opinion.
Adumbro, aui, are, act. to make or geue shadowe, to represent or expresse, as peyncters doo, that shadow images in playne tables, to make them seeme imbored or rounde. Some suppose, that it signifieth to tricke a thyng, or drawe it groteske, as peyncters do at the begynnyng. It signifieth also to feigne, or dissemble a thyng. Also to imitate or follow.
Ad ipsum sumus in eorū sermone adumbrare conati, that same we haue endeavored to imitate and expresse in their talkyng.
Adumbrare morem alicuius, to counterfeit one's actions.
Aduncitas, atis, f. g. crookednesse, hookednesse.
Adunco, aui, are, act. to make crooked or hooked.
Aduncus, a, um, crooked or hooked.
Adunco naso suspendere, a prouerbe signifying with pryuy mockes to scozne and delude a man.
Aduno, unas, aui, are, act. to gether or heape together, a worde veray seldome in vse.
Aduocatio, ōnis, f. g. a pleadyng, also assistance. And sometyme consultation of men assembled together.
Aduocatus, cāti, mas, g. an aduocate, he that defendeth an other mannes cause: or one that for frendship assisteth a man in a matter.
Aduocito, aui, are, act. to call for one often.
Aduoco, aduocas, aui, are, act. to call to, to calle to helpe, to chole for an aduocate or patron, to entice or allure.
Aduocare sacramentum in alicuius nomen, to take an othe hym selfe, and cause other also to sweare to be obedient to a man.
Aduolatus, tus, m. g. a slepyng to.
Aduolo, aduolas, aui, are, n. to flye to, or nyghe a place: to go or come quickly.
Aduola obsecro, come quickly I pray the.
Aduolare in auxilium, to make speede to helpe one.
Aduoluo, uolui, ere, act. to wryppe rounde together, to tumble or rolle.
Aduolutus genibus, fallen downe at his knees.
Aduorsum, for Aduersum, and Aduortor, for Aduertor.
Adurgeo, for Vrgeo.
Aduro, si, ere, act. to roste, or bourn.
Adustio, ōnis, f. g. burnyng, or rostyng.
Adultus, a, um, rosted or burned.
Adusque, untill, euen to.
Adynamum vinum, small wyne.
Adyticulum, a diminutiue of Adytum.
Adytum, adyti, n. ge. the chauncell, or other secrete place of the temple, where none came but priests, or persons sanctified.

A. ANTE E.

Aea, the name of a mayden, whiche (as the poetes feigne) sleynge from the ryuer Falls, was turned into an Islande of the same name. It is also a citee of Colchis, an other of Thessalia.

Aedepol, an othe amonge the gentiles, signifying by Pollux house.

Aedes, or, aedis, dis, f. g. an house, and if therunto be ioyned the name of god, or of a saynt, it signifieth a church or a temple, as: Aedes saluatoris, saynte saupours church. It is also a thābpe, sometyme a sepulchre, sometyme a bee hyue.

Aedicula, dicula, f. ge. an oratory, chappell, or place, where images were kept. also a litle chambr in an house, also a case, coueryng, or tabernacle, wherein images do stand.

Aedicula, arum, a litle house.

Aedificatio, ōnis, f. g. a buyldyng.

Aedificariuncula, la, f. g. a litle buyldyng.

Aedificator, ōris, m. g. a buylder.

Aedificium, ficij, n. g. all the whole buildyng of an house.

Aedifico, dificas, aui, are, act. to buyde, properly houses: but it is applyed to all other thynges, as. Aedificare carcerem, casas, muros, porticum. &c.

Aedificare classē, to make a navy of shypes.

Aedificare rem publicam, to ground and establish a common weale with honest maners, lawes, and ordinaunces.

Aedificare hortos, to make gardenes, garnished with fayre and beutifull buildynges.

Aedificauit deus mundum, God made the worlde.

Aedilatus, us, idem quod aedilitas, secundum Calepinum.

Aedilis, lis, m. g. an officer, whose charge was to see the keepyng by and maiteynyng of the temples and pryuate houses, and to make prouision for solemne plates. Of them some were called Aediles curules, of a chayre with crooked feete wherein they did sytte. Other called Aediles plebis, because they were chosen out of the people or commons. loke moze of these officers, in Alexandro Neopolitano, li. genialium dierum. 4. cap. 4.

Aedilitas, atis, f. g. and Aedilatus, m. g. the office of the Aediles.

Aedilitatem gerit sine populi suffragio, I prouerbe, whiche maie bee saide vnto him that meddleth in other mens matters, or commaundeth in an other mans hous or office.

Aedilitius, litij, ma. ge. he that had bene ones in that office or auctoritee.

Aedilitius, litia, um, perteynyng to Aediles.

Aedimus, idem quod Aedituus.

C

Aedituus

Aeditius iudex, a iudge of arbitratour chosen of the one part.
Aedituor, and editimur, aris, atus sum, ari, to rule ouer the temple or house.
Aedius, edita, um, high and stronge.
Aedituus, tui, ma, ge, the prelate of the temple or church, and maie be now called the personne, the parson the prieste, or sextene, some vse it for a clark.
Aedituentes, for Aeditui.
Aedo, edidi, ere, act, to sette forth or publyshe, also it signifieth to byng forth by generation, loke Edo, with single E.
Aedere scriptum, to shew forth wrytyng.
Aedere spiritum, to peld by the gost.
Aedere facinus, to doe an euill dede.
Aedere stragem, to make a slaughter of men.
Aedere nomina, to tel the names to be wrytten.
Aedere praelium, to make a battayle.
Aedreica vlcera, sores about the priuie members.
Aedon, onis, f. g. a nightingale.
Aeger, aegra, aegrum, sicke, sorowfull, penitence or heauy.
Aeger amore, lone sicke.
Aeger consilij, penitence, and halfe desperate, so that he can scant tell what to doe.
Aeger delicti, sorowfull for his faulte or offence.
Aeger pedes, and pedib, diseased in the feete, sicke of the goute.
Comperit, cuius morbi aeger esset, he perceived, whereof he was sicke, or what disease he had.
Aeger fluore, one that hath the fluxe.
Aegram ponere animam, to dye.
Aeger morbo graui, sicke of a sore disease.
Aegervale tudine, diseased.
Gratuler aegrum reliqui, I left him sore sicke.
Aegra res publica, a feble common weale, a common weale in a very euill estate.
Aegialus, a sea banke.
Aegilops, ipis, a very high place that so muche as gods can not come vnto.
Aegilops, ipis, a kynde of trees that beareth mastie, also wyld otes, and a coote, whiche is rounde like garbhe and cnyngs.
Aegilops, m, g, and agilopa, x, f. g. is the disease in the eie called a fistula.
Aeginea, orum, neu, gen, great patches, wherein be diuers kyndes of wares.
Aeginopola, they that sell diuers wares in great patches.
Aegipanes, beastes like vnto men, haunged sicke like vnto gotes.
Aegirindon, ni, n, g, an oymment made of the bearies of poplars.
Aegiros, the blacke poplar tree.
Aegis, idis, f. g. of some is said a garmente made of beastes skynnes, used in Iphike. Also the raging wyndes of the sea, or an hurlyng tempest of wynde. Other take it to bee a certayne thinge made of garland; some take it for a pike that carryed the goddesse Aegis at Athenes and went into their house that were new married at whiche ceremonye muche wantonnes were used. It is also the tergate of Iupiter and Pallas. It is the conquer an habergeon, wherewith the godd onely were peincted. It is also the female of the tree called Larix.

Aegulus, a little byrde, whiche seareth the ass so muche, that when he heareth him braye, hee refresheth his egges out of the nest, and the yonge fall to the ground for feare.
Aegloga, loke Eloga.
Aegocephalus, a byrde, whiche is without a spleene.
Aegoceras, an herbe called sengreke.
Aegoceros, rotis, mas, ge, idem quod Capricornus.
Aegon, a stable for gotes, it is also used for the sea.
Aegron.
Aegonomus, mas, ge, a gotchearde or keeper of gotes.
Aegonycon, ci, n, g, an herbe called also Lithospermum, and sometal it Semen leoninum, but most commonly Milium solis, loke Lithospermum.
Aegophthalmos, a precious stone, so named after a gote etc.
Aegre, with great payne or difficultie, greuouly, heauily, also hardly, against his will.
Aegretero, I am sorow.
Aegre est, for Molestum est, Quid tibi aegre est, what thyng greueth the.
Aegre nimis risum conuulsum, I had very much adoe to forbear laughynge.
Aegre alicui facere, to do a thyng that shall be displeasent and greuouus vnto a man.
Aegre id mihi concessit, he graunted it to me very hardly, and almost against his will.
Aegresco, scere, neu, to be sicke, to bee heauie, or take a matter greuouly, to waxe more sicke, and is referred properly to the mynde.
Aegrimonia, monia, f. g. sykenesse, great heauynesse.
Aegritudo, inis, f. g. greafe of mynde or sorowe, sometyme sykenesse of the body.
Crucians aegritudo, veracion of mynde.
Flebilis aegritudo, mournyng and sorow.
Leuatio vel sedatio aegritudinis.
Criminis aegritudo, the weaknes or feeblenesse of an accusation.
Aegritudinem leuare, to ease or helpe the sicknesse or heauynesse.
Aegrius, more sorowfullye, more displeasantly.
Aegroatio, onis, f. g. sykenesse of body, and sometyme of mynde.
Aegroto, ai, are, neu, to be sicke, to fayle, or be feeble of courage.
Aegrotat fama, his good name decayeth.
Aegroto, is sometyme applied to fruite.
Aegro.

Aegrotus, a, um, sick, feble of contagion and Aegrum, idem quod aegrotus, sick, feble sure, sickness of the mynde, feblehede.
Aegula, a, um, of the same kind, in some places they doe perfume well, to make it white.
Aegylops, looks Aegylops.
Aelurus, liri, m. g. a catte.
Aekidm, aekidm.
Aemoniz artes, forreale.
Aemulatio, onis, f. g. enuy, emulation, (misdion with desyre to excell)
Aemulator, foris, m. g. he that doth enuy, or mistake any person.
Aemulatus, us, m. g. idem quod aemulatio.
Aemulus, us, a, um, sum, ari, dep. with a certayne enuy and ambition, to endeavour, to passe or excell an other man, to folowe or studie to be like
 an other.
Aemulari aliquem, alicui, cum aliquo, a.
Aemulari, absolutely, to contend.
Aemulus, la, luri, that followeth, or emuleth an other onely for desyre of glory, a louer, or follower of the same thyng, or person, and sometime an enemy.
Fama aemula, Herculei laboris, no less fame
 then was spredd of Hercules' traualles.
Aemulus alicuius de re aliqua, One that contendeth with an other for any thyng. as, Carthago aemula urbis de tetrum orbe.
Labra aemula rosis, lippes in waue as, rubdy
 as roses.
Ficus quam pyris magnitudine aemula, a figges in greatnesse lyke unto peares.
Aeneatores, blowers in trumpets.
Aeneides, de, patronimicum.
Aeneidomastix, a booke written against Metegyle.
Aeneus, a, um, byasen.
Aenigma, nigmatis, n. g. a darke question, harde
 to be vnderstande or assayed, a ryddle.
Aenigmatistes, tistæ, vel tistis, m. g. he that proposeth harde questions.
Aenum, ni, n. g. a caudron. It is also a tyer in Germany.
Aenus, aëna, num, idem quod æreus.
Aepolium, polij, n. g. a gote market.
Aepolus, aepoli, m. g. a gotcherde, or seller of gotes.
Aequabilis, quabile, equal, also iust, indifferent,
 moderate, constant, and alwaie like to it selfe, ex-
 ceedyng in no degree.
Nihil aequabile inter omnes esse potest, no-thinge can be indifferent to all.
Aequabilem se præbere, to shew him selfe moderate, constant, and not wauerynge.
Aequabilitas, tatis, f. g. an honest moderation of mynde, wherein is no varietee or trouble. also idem quod aequalitas.
Aequabiliter, equally, moderately, vnuariably, in euen partes.
Aequatus, a, um, of one age.

Aequalis, le, equal, playne, of lyke age or con-ditione of thyng.
Aequalis, of lyke age and yeres. Coxtaneus, of one yere, although of diuers ages.
Aequalis meus, tui, illius, &c.
Superius et inferioris ætatis æqualium, of hym that was of one type or age with me.
Eius in te beneuolentia est ipsius ætati æqualis, in ab ipso ætatis æqualis tibi fuit.
Aequalis æqualem, like wil to lyke: one thyng louneth to matche with an other: or contrary.
Aequales calculi, when indgements, or prouerbs applied vnto thyngs, whiche lacked due ius-tell that they were not condemned, for as muche as in olde tyme the Judges gaue not sentence openly, but deuyge in diuers opinions, they deuyge into a potte little bones of dyuers colours, and the moste in noubmer preuagled:
 and if they were equal in noubmer, he that was accused was acquitted. Which thyng stode with good reason, as Aristotle sheweth in his problemes.
Aequale urbi sacrificium, a sacrifice that hath continued as long as the citie.
Aequalis æqualem delectat, lyke wyl to lyke.
Aequalitas, tatis, f. g. equalite, likenesse.
Ad æqualitatem redigere, to make equal.
Aequaliter, likewise, equally.
Aequamentum, ti, indifference. also the toung
 of a balance.
Aequamentum capillorum, the topps of the heade, wheate the heares doe deuyde, the shewde of the heare.
Aequanimis, me, and æquanimus, a, um, of a quiete, indifferent, and gentyll mynde: he that is neyther extolled in prosperitee, nor discomfited
 in aduersitee.
Aequanimitas, tatis, f. g. a quiete moderation of mynde, takyng all thynges in good parte. also fauour and good will.
Aequanimitas populi, the fauour and good will of the people.
Aequanimitè, moderately, patiently, coldely.
Aequatio, onis, form. ge. the equal diuision of a thinge, or where one thyng is made equal to an other.
Aequator, oris, m. g. a lyne that diuideth the hea-
 uen in the middle, called also the Equinoctiall
 lyne, into whiche whan the sunne cometh, the
 daies and nightes ben of one length.
Aequatus, a, um. myde equal, or euen.
Aequata nox diei, the night beyng made as euen with the day.
Aquato oim periculo, all beyng in lyke daun-
 ger.
Aequè, aduer. iustly, as well, euen as well, some-tyme wyllyngly, so, equally, a lyke.
Aequè ambo pares, all of one greatnesse.
Aequè pauci, euen as few.
Aequè vtriusque necessarius, as much freende
 to the one as the other.

Aedititius iudex, a iudge of arbitratour chosen of the one part.
Aedituor, and aditum, aris, atus sum, ari, to rule ouer the temple or house.
Aeditus, adita, um, high and stronge.
Aedituus, tui, ma. ge. the prelate of the temple or church, and maie be now called the personne, the parthe prieste, or septene, some vse it for a clurke.
Aedituentes, for Aeditui.
Aedo, edidi, ere, act. to sette forth or publyshe, also it signifieth to byng forth by generation, loke Edo, with single E.
Aedere scriptum, to shew forth wrytynge.
Aedere spiritum, to yelde by the gost.
Aedere facinus, to doe an euill dede.
Aedere stragem, to make a slaughter of men.
Aedere nomina, to tel the names to be wrytten.
Aedere praelium, to make a battayle.
Aedrica viscera, sores about the priuie membes.
Aedon, onis, f. g. a nightingale.
Aeger, acgra, acgrum, sicke, sorowfull, penlyse of heauy.
Aeger amore, lone sicke.
Aeger consilij, penlyse, and halfe desperate, so that he can scant tell what to doe.
Aeger delicti, sorowfull for his faute or offence.
Aeger pedes, and pedib, diseased in the fete, sicke of the goute.
Comperit, cuius morbi aeger esset, he perceived, wherof he was sicke, or what disease he had.
Aeger fluore, one that hath the fluxe.
Aegram ponere animam, to dye.
Aeger morbo graui, sicke of a sore disease.
Aeger valetudine, diseased.
Grauius agram reliqui, I left him sore sicke.
Aegra res publica, a feble common weale, a common weale in a very euill estate.
Aegialus, a sea banke.
Aegilips, ipis, a very high place that so muche as goates can not come vnto.
Aegilops, pis, a kynd of trees that beareth mastie. also wyld otes, and a roote, whiche is rounde lyke garlyke and onyons.
Aegilops, m. g. and agilopa, x, f. g. is the disease in the eie called a fistula.
Aeginea, orum, neu. gen. great paches, wherein be diuers kyndes of wares.
Aeginopola, they that sell diuers wares in great paches.
Aegipanes, beastes like vnto men, haupnge fete like vnto gotes.
Aegirion, ni, n. g. an oynment made of the bearies of Doplars.
Aegiros, the blacke poplar tree.
Aegis, idis, f. g. of some is cald a garmente made of beastes skynnes, vled in Aphyke. Also the raging waues of the sea, or an hurlyng tempest of wynde. Other take it to bee a certayne thinge made of garland; some take it for a plect that carryed the goddesse Aegis at Athenes and went into their house that were new married at whiche ceremonie muche wantonnes was used. It is also the tergate of Iupiter and Dallas. It is thosquer an habergeon, wherwith the godd onely were peincted. It is also the female of the tree called Larix.

Aegithus, a little hyde, whiche feareth the asse so muche that whan he heareth him braye, he casteth his egges out of the nest, and the yonge fall to the ground for feare.
Aegloga, loke Ecloga.
Aegocephalus, a hyde, whiche is without a splene.
Aegoceras, an herbe called sengreche.
Aegoceros, rotis, mas. ge. idem quod Capricornus.
Aegon, a stable for gotes, it is also vled for the sea.
Aegrum.
Aegonomus, mas. ge. a gotchearde or heper of gotes.
Aegonycon, ci, n. g. an herbe called also Lithospermum, and some cal it Semen leoninum, but most commonly Milium solis, loke Lithospermum.
Aegophthalmos, a precious stone, so named after a gotte.
Aegre, with great payne or difficultie, greuouly, heauily, also hardly, against his will.
Aegre fero, I am sorow.
Aegre est, for Molestum est, as Quid tibi aegre est, what thyng greueth the?
Aegre nimis risum contum, I had very much adoe to forbear laughynge.
Aegre alicui facere, to do a thyng that shall be displeasing and greuous vnto a man.
Aegre id mihi confelsit, he graunted it to me very hardly, and almost against his will.
Aegresco, scere, neu. to be sicke, to bee heauie, or take a matter greuouly, to waxe more sicke, and is referred properly to the mynde.
Aegrimonia, monia, f. g. sykenesse, great heauynesse.
Aegritudo, inis, f. g. greefe of mynde or sorowe, sometyme sykenesse of the body.
Crucians aegritudo, vexation of mynde.
Flebilis aegritudo, mournyng and sorow.
Leuatio vel sedatio aegritudinis.
Criminis aegritudo, the weaknes or feeblenesse of an accusacion.
Aegritudinem leuare, to ease or helpe the sicknesse or heauynesse.
Aegrius, more sorowfullye, more displeasingly.
Aegrotatio, onis, f. g. sykenesse of body, and sometyme of mynde.
Aegroto, aui, are, neu. to be sicke, to sayle, or be feeble of courage.
Aegrotat fama, his good name decayeth.
Aegroto, is sometyme applied to fruite.

Aegro

Aegrotus, a, um, sicke, feble of contagion.
Aegrum, idem quod aegrotus, sorow, displeasure, sickness of the mynde, febleness.
Aegula, a, um, of obscuritie, wherewith in some places they doe perfume wolle, to make it white.
Aegilops, looks Aegilops.
Aclurus, liri, m. g. a catte.
Achidam, a, um, a catte.
Aemonia, artes, soperie.
Aemulatio, onis, f. g. enuy, emulation, imitation
 with desyre to excell.
Aemulator, oris, m. g. he that doeth enuy, or imitate any person.
Aemulus, us, m. g. idem quod aemulatio.
Aemulor, aris, aris sum, ari, dep. with a certaine enuy and ambition, to endeavour, to passe of excell an other man, to folowe of studie to be like
 an other.
Aemulor, aliquem, alicui, cum aliquo.
Aemulari, absolutely, to contende.
Aemulus, a, um, that followeth, or emulor another onely for desyre of glorey, a louer, or folower of the same thyng, or person, and sometyme an enemy.
Fama aemula Herculei laboris, no lesse fame
 then was spreadde of Hercules traualles.
Aemulus alicuius de re aliqua, One that con-
 tendeth with an other for any thyng, as, Carthago aemula urbis de terrarum orbe.
Labra aemula rosis, lippes in maner as rubdy
 as roses.
Ficus quae pyris magnitudine aemula, A figge in greatnesse lyke unto peares.
Aenatores, blowers in trumpet.
Aeneides, da, patronimicum.
Aeneidomastix, a booke written against Metegyle.
Aeneus, a, um, brasen.
Aenigma, nigmatis, n. g. a darke question, harde
 to be vnderstande or assayed, a ryddle.
Aenigmatistes, tistae, vel tistis, m. g. he that pro-
 poseth harde questions.
Aenum, ni, n. g. a caudron. It is also a ryuer in Germany.
Aenus, aena, num, idem quod areus.
Aepolum, polij, n. g. a gote market.
Aepulus, aepoli, m. g. a gotcherde, or seller of
 gotes.
Aequabilis, quabile, equal, also iust, indifferent,
 moderate, constant, and alwaie like to it selfe, ex-
 ceedynge in no degree.
 Nihil aequabile inter omnes esse potest, no-
 thinge can be indifferent to all.
Aequabilem se praebere, to shew him selfe moderate, constant, and not wauerynge.
Aequabilitas, tatis, f. g. an honest moderation of mynde, wherein is no varietee or trouble. also idem quod aequalitas.
Aequabiliter, equally, moderately, vnuariably, in
 euen partes.
Aequatus, a, um, of one age.

Aequalis, le, equall, playne, of lyke age or con-ditione of tyme.
Aequalis, of lyke age and peres. Coxtaneus, of one tyme, although of diuers ages.
Aequalis meus, tuus, illius, &c.
Saepe inter fui quarelis meorum aequalium, of them that were of one tyme or age with me.
Eius in te beneuolentia est ipsius aetati aequalis, in ab ipsis cunabulis amicus tibi fuit.
Aequalis aequalem, like wil to lyke: one shew longeth to matche with an other: or contrary.
Aequales calculi, euen iudgementes, Episouerbe applied vnto them, whiche lacked but lit-tell that they were not condemned, for as muche as in olde tyme the Iudges gaue not sentence openly, but heeprge in diuers opinions, they dyd put into a pottle little bones of dyuers colours, and the moste in noubmer preiudged:
 and if they were equall in noubmber, he that was accused was acquitted. Which thyng shode with good reason, as Aristotle sheweth in his pros-blemes.
Aequale urbi sacrificium, a sacrifice that hath continued as long as the citee.
Aequalis aequalem delectat, lyke wyl to lyke.
Aequalitas, atis, f. g. equaliter, likenesse.
Ad aequalitatem redigere, to make equall.
Aequaliter, likewise, equally.
Aequamentum, ti, indifferency. also the tounge
 of a balance.
Aequamentum capillorum, the topps of the heade, wheate the heares doe deuyde, the Medde of the heare.
Aequanimis, me, and aequanimus, a, um, of a quiete, indifferent, and gentyll mynde: he that is neyther extolled in prosperitee, nor discomfited
 in aduersitee.
Aequanimitas, tatis, f. g. a quiete moderation of mynde, takynge all thynges in good parte. also fauour and good will.
Aequanimitas populi, the fauour and good
 will of the people.
Aequanimitate, moderately, patiently, coldely.
Aequatio, onis, form. ge. the equall diuision of a thinge, or where one thyng is made equall to an other.
Aequator, oris, m. g. a lyne that diuideth the hea-
 uen in the middle, called also the Equinoctiall
 lyne, into whiche whan the sunne cometh, the
 daies and nightes ben of one length.
Aequatus, a, um. myde equall, or euen.
Aequata nox diei, the night beynge made euen with the day.
Aquato oim periculo, all beynge in lyke daun-
 ger.
Aequē, aduer. iustly, as well, euen as well, some-tyme wyllynge, so, equally, a lyke.
Aequē ambo pares, all of one greatnesse.
Aequē pauci, euen as few.
Aequē vtriusque necessarius, as much freende
 to the one as the other.

Nihil est æque quod faciam lubens, There is nothing that I wolde doe so gladly.
 Aequæ ac, æque atque, æque ut æque quàm, euen as, as muche as, lyke as, or euen as well.
 Aequæ ac si, euen as though.
 Aequæ studium est, they haue lyke endenour.
 Aequæ miser atque ego, euen in as myserable state as I.
 Iuxta tecum æque scio, I know it in a maner as well as thou.
 Aequæ noctibus quàm die cernit, he seeth as well in the nyght as in the day.
 Non æque omnes egent, alhaue not like nede.
 Aequidiale, ælis, n. g. the tyme whan the daies and the nyghtes bee of one length, the tyme of the yere.
 Aequidies, ei, the equall length of the daie and nyght.
 Aequidiam, idem quod æquinoctium.
 Aequilanium, lani, n. g. the halfe deale of the whole.
 Aequilatio, ònis, f. g. euen largenesse.
 Aequilibris, libre, om. g. of the same weight.
 Aequilibras, tatis, f. g. equalitee, or liknesse of weight.
 Aequilibrium, librij, n. g. euen weyght of poyle, sometyne it is vsed for the tonge of a balance.
 Aequimanus, quimani, m. g. he that useth the one hande as well as the other.
 Aequimentum, ti, n. g. or æquimenium, the hire of an horse or other beast.
 Aequinoctialis, ctiale, om. g. the adiectiue of Aequinoctium.
 Aequinoctium, noctij, n. g. the time of the yere, whan the daie is as longe as the nyght, whiche is twyle in the yere. In sprynge tyme aboute the eyght Calendes of Apryl. And in Autūne, about the eight Calendes of October.
 Aequiparabilis, rabile, om. gen. worthy to bee compared, and equalled.
 Aequiparatio, ònis, f. g. lykenesse, and equalitee.
 Aequiparo, quiparas, aui, are, to compare or make equall, sometyne to bee lyke.
 Aequipollentia, lénria, f. g. equalitte in estimacion or valwe.
 Aequipolleo, polles, pollui, ère, to haue lyke power, or to be of like estimation.
 Aequipondium, pòndij, n. g. equalitee, or lykenesse of weyght.
 Aequitas, atis, f. g. equitee, iustice, or euennesse, likenesse of facion.
 Aequitas animi, an honeste, quiete, and indifferent affection of the minde, without indignacion or grudge, in which significacion æquitas is ofte vsed alone.
 Quam æquitatem habet? What right is it?
 Aequiter, iustly.
 Aequiuallentia, æ, f. g. equall value.
 Aequiualeo, æquiuales, ualui, ère, to be equiuallente, or of lyke valour.
 Aequiuocatio, ònis, f. g. diuers significacions to one woorde.

 Aequiuoce, diuersly significyng in one woorde or terme.
 Aequiuocum, quiuoci, n. g. one woorde haungyng diuers significacions.
 Aequo, æquas, aui, are, act. to make end of playne, equall, or lyke.
 Illum vadentem æquat, he goeth euen as faste as he.
 Laborem operum æquare iustis paribus, i. æqualiter inter omnes parties.
 Aequare se cum inferioribus, to make hym selfe equall to his inferiours.
 Aequare solo, to beate downe to the grounde.
 Aequare solo dictamur, he a metaphora, to disdainull and abrogate the dictatourship.
 Aequar nomen virtutibus, he is a man as vertuous, as highly renoumed.
 Aequare quempiam in re aliqua, to them oness selfe equall to an other in any thyng.
 Aequare aliquem alicui, to compare one man to an other.
 Aequor, æquoris, n. g. the sea, sometyne other waters and ryuers. Sometyne lande, feldes, and the vppermoste plainnesse of any thyng.
 Aequore aperto, in playne feldes.
 Aequor maris, the vppermoste, or euen part of the sea.
 Aequora Actoa, the Egeyrian sea.
 Aequor Atlanticum, the ocean sea.
 Aequor patulum, the playne felde.
 Aequoreus, a, um, of the sea.
 Aequum Tynicum, a towne of Idell.
 Aequum. i. idem quod æquitas.
 Aequi bonique facimus, we take it well in woorth, or we bee not displeased with it.
 Nunquā quicquam æqui bonique impetravit, he dyd neuer obtaine any parte of his right.
 Aequi bonique facio, I take it in good parte, I recke not, I care not.
 Aequus, æqui, mas. gen. a iuste and indifferente persone, that inclineth no more to one than to an other.
 Aequus, a, um, euen or playne, equall, sometyne good and fauourable.
 Aequus animus, a moderate, quiet, and patient wynde, not whynyng nor grudgyng at any thyng. also gentill, not rigorous.
 Aequo animo ferre, to take it in woorth, or patiently.
 Ex æquo loco dicere, is whan the speaker is of equall state with the hearers.
 Aequum est, it is but reason.
 Aequum esse alicui, to be content with one.
 Aequum & bonum, is a discrecion or moderation of right without rigour or extremitee of the law, conforable, or reasonable dealynge.
 Aequum certamen, where one hath no more aduantage than an other.
 Aequum te mihi præbere debes, Thou oughstest to shewe thy selfe fauourable vnto me.
 Aequus

Aequus animus est, I passe not, I care not.
 Aequa lance, a ploverbe signifying indifferently, without fauour or respecte of personne.
 Aer, aeris, aeri, aerē, oz aera, aere, sine plu. m. g. the ayre, sometyne withde, blast, breath of sound.
 Aera summam arboris, vngill vñeth, for Alti tudinem arboris. Aere fulua, saltē Chnus in the feminine gender for fuluo. Aeres in the plus tall numbꝛe is vñed of Virgilius and Lucreti.
 Viciū aeris, the corrupciōnes of the ayre.
 Apertus aer, the open ayre.
 Aer crassus & densus, a grosse thicke ayre.
 Aer pestifer, an infectious ayre.
 Liquidus & tenuis aer.
 Aera, rā, f. g. monete numbꝛed. sometyne ymas ges gemetall. also dānell, whiche groweth as monge coynes, oz after otheꝛ cooke.
 Aeramentum, mēti, n. g. any thyng made of copper oz brasse.
 Aeranthemis, brasser some Anthemis, an hebe called Camomill.
 Aeraria, rā, f. g. a myne of brasse.
 Aerarium, rij, n. g. a treasore, where a common treasure of a citee oz countrey is kept. And some tyme the treasure it selfe.
 Ad aerarium rationes referunt, they bynge in the accompte to the eschequer.
 Aerarij praefectus, hygh treasurer.
 Aerarij tribuni, were treasourers whiche paid wages to the souldiours. And may be vñed now for generall receiueurs.
 Aerarij quæstores, may bee taken now for the collectors of tyues and amerciamentes.
 Aerarius, rij, m. g. he that was by punishment of the Lenors put from his freedome of a citelen, and payed tribute as a stranger.
 Aerarium facere, siue in aerarios referre, to make a man one of that numbꝛe, oz so to punish a citelen.
 Ex aerario eripere, vel ex aerarijs eximere, to deliuer one from that rebuke and punishment.
 Aerarius, a, um, belongyng to brasse, oz money.
 Aerarius, rij, m. g. he that worketh in brasse.
 Aerarij milites, souldiours waged.
 Aerarius scriba, a clerke that writeth, and is accomptant for suche thynges as are receiued and layde out.
 Aerarius lapis, the oze, wherof brasse is made.
 Aerarius faber, a smith, a copper smith.
 Aeraria fabrica, smithes crafte oz workinge in brasse.
 Aeraria officina, a smithes shoppe oz woofke house.
 Aeratus, a, um, myxed oz couered with brasse.
 Aeratus homo, a man indebted. it is vñed of Plautus cleane contrary, for a ryche manne wel moneyed.
 Aereolum, vel Chalcus, the. xxxvi. parte of Dagma, by estimation the weight of two barley coynes.
 Aereus, a, um, of brasse oz copper, and by a metas phore, stronge.

 Aeria, cā, a ryche folke, that denoueth fleshe, and spauñeth thysse a perr.
 Aerides, a kynde of precious stones.
 Aerifer, that beareth brasse.
 Aerificium, fiet, n. g. the crafte to worke any thyng in brasse oz copper.
 Aerineus, a, um, of dānell.
 Aeripes, aripedis, com. ge. with brassen fete.
 Aeripēs, aripedis, com. gen. that is as swift as the wynde.
 Aerisonus, nā, num, that soundeth with the noise of brasse, basons, oz any other like thyng.
 Aerius, aeris, um, of the ayre, oz lyke the ayre.
 Aerizusa, a iasper stone lyke to the ayre.
 Aero, aras, aui, are, acti, to byesse, mingle, oz counterfaite with copper oz brasse.
 Aeromantia, aeromantie, f. c. ge. diuination of coniecture of thynges to come by the ayre.
 Aerofus, aerofa, um, that wherin is brasse oz copper, oz wherof it is made.
 Aerugo, aruginis, f. c. ge. rust oz ranket in metals, specially in copper oz silver. It is taken in Roiaze and Juuenale for money. also for silans be, mistepoz, spitefull enaie.
 Aeruginosus, nōsa, um, rusty oz cankered.
 Aeruginosa segites, coyne corrupted with mils dew, as it were blasted.
 Aerumina, nā, f. c. ge. paynefull labour, care of mynde with heauynesse, infelicitee.
 Aerumna omnes te pramunt, all miseries doo ouerwhelme thee.
 Aerumnabilis, le, full of miserie and payne.
 Aerumnalis, le, wherof is greatte payne and labour.
 Aerumnatus, a, um, brought to miserie.
 Aerumnosus, a, um, miserable, full of payne oz trauaile.
 Aerumnula, arum, lyttle croked stauces, wherof with men doe carry fardelles and trusses on their backs.
 Aeruscator, oris, m. ge. one that scratcheth toges gether money by all vnlawfull meanes.
 Aerusco, aui, are, to gette money by falschode, oz vayne promises.
 Aes, eris, n. g. is properly copper oz brasse. It is oftentimes taken for monete. Sometyne for trumpettes. sometyne also for pyon. sometyne for an helmette. Also for the stemme of a shyppe. and for any thyng that is made of brasse, names ly among poetes.
 Aes graue, golde oz silver befoze it is cōyned. bolion.
 Aes signatum, money redy cōyned.
 Aere diruti milites, souldiours, whiche for some defeaute were putte out of wages, and may bee applyed to ryottous personnes, that haue spent all awaie.
 Aere meo. Multi. n. anni sunt, cum ille in aere meo est, It is longe tyme passed, that I ac counted him in the numbꝛe of my freendes, oz for one of mine.

 In ære meo est, he is in my debt or danger.
 Aes caldarium, copper.
 Aes coronarium, latyne mettall.
 Aes circumforaneum, money borrowed of them, whiche are named bankers, and do lende money by exchange.
 Aes confiare, to cast mettall.
 Aes ducere, to melt mettall.
 Aes alienum, money that is borrowed. also det.
 Aes ductile, mettall that will be soone molten.
 Aes alienum afferre, to be indetted.
 Aes alienum habere, idem.
 Aes alienum cogere, confiare, contrahere, to be endetted.
 Aes alienum dissoluere, exire, to paie debtes and be quitte.
 Aes alienum exonerare, to discharge the dette.
 Aes alienum facere, to borrow money.
 Aes suum, money that other men do owe unto him that we speake of.
 Aes meum alienum, debt that I owe.
 Aes alienum tuum, debte that thou doest owe.
 Deuouere se pro ære alieno, to make ones selfe bounde by reason of debt.
 Crescit tibi æs alienum, thy debte dooeth encrease.
 Aes alieno exire, to come out of debte.
 Aere alieno obrui, to bee overcharged with dettes.
 Aere alieno obstringere aliquem, to cause an other man to be bounde or indetted for him.
 Aere alieno premi, to be greuously endetted.
 Aes alienum alicuius suscipere, to take on one to discharge an other mans debte.
 Aere meo me lacessis, thou gnest me scotte for scotte, or as we saie, thou paieest me home.
 Aes militare, money appointed to paie soulds byours.
 Aera lupinis quid distent, non ignorat, he knoweth good from badde.
 Ex ære aliquem ducere, to cast the image of a man in bras.
 Aesalon, onis, m. g. a little byrde, whiche breaketh the crows egges. also a kynde of haukes moste like to be a merline.
 Aesculæum, ti, n. g. the place where the tree called Esculus, groweth.
 Aesculeus, a, um, of that tree.
 Aesculus, li, f. g. a tree that beareth mast greater than any other next the chesten, and the leafe broder than the chesten.
 Aestas, ætis, f. g. sommer.
 Non semper erit æstas, it will not alway bee sommer, take time whan time cometh, for occasion wil not alway serue: when the yzon is whot we must strike, lest it be colde agayne.
 Aëtas adulta, the middle part of sommer.
 Aestas noua, beginning of sommer.
 Aestas præceps, sommer towards the ende.

Aestimabilis, mabile, omnis, ge. that may bee valued.
 Aestimatio, onis, f. g. a payne sette, a valuation, consideration, or weying of a matter.
 Aestimator, oris, m. g. he that valueth or setteth the price on a thing, a priefour, or one that ponders a matter.
 Aestimatus, mātā, tum, valued, priefed.
 Aestimata poena, a penaltie appointed or set.
 Aestimare litem, to take the damages, costes, and charges that a man suffereth by suite of the lawe.
 Aestimo, æstimas, aui, are, act. to esteeme, to value, to priefe. Also to regarde or sette by, to ponder, wey, and consider.
 Aestimare pecuniam, to priefe, to set the price.
 Aestimare harum rerum omnium precia, consider you, of what value or importance all these thynges bee.
 Valde caræ æstimas, thou doest sette the price very deere.
 Aestimare bene de aliquo, to haue a good opinion of one.
 Magni or magno æstimare, to set much by.
 Flocci æstimare, to set light by.
 Aestimare tanti, quanti, tandidem, pluris, minoris.
 Aestimare aliquem ex re aliqua, to esteeme one by a thing.
 Aestimare hæc, atque expedit, Consider you these thynges, and wey them well.
 Aestimauit tribus denarijs, he valued it at iii. pence.
 Penam suam honoribus summis æstimabat, he esteemed that punishment to be to him in steede of great honour.
 Aestimare litem alicui, to geue sentence that one beinge caske shall pay a certayne summe of money for the damage and costes.
 Decem sestertijs lis ei æstimata est, he was condemned to pay towards damages and costz a hundred poundes.
 Aëstifer, stifer, rum, that byngeth or suffereth heate.
 Aestiua, orum, n. g. plu. places to bein for shade in the sommer tyme, where vnto as well menne as beastes dooe withdraue them selves for heate.
 Aestiatio, onis, f. g. a dwelling or beyng in a place in sommer tyme.
 Aestiuo, stiuas, aui, are, neu. to dwell or bee in a place during the sommer tyme.
 Aestiuus, a, um, perteynyng to sommer.
 Aestuariā, orum, ne. ge. pl. places wherunto the sea floweth and ebbeth, or meeres filled with salt water. Also chynkes or gapinges of the earthe, or pyttes made with mens handes, wherby water pours issue out.
 Aestuario, onis, f. g. a vehement motion, an vnsquietnes of mynde.
 Aestuo, æstuas, aui, are, neu. to waxe hotte, to bourn, to flow like the sea, to be in anguisthe of trouble of minde, to be in a great fame. also to cast out hot vapours, as a pot doeth when it seetheth, to boyle.

 Aestuarē desiderio, to be verie desirous of a
 thyng.
 Aestuabat dubitatione, he was in doubt, and wist not what to dooe.
 Aestuarē inuidia, to be very angry, or greatly displeased.
 Aestuat dies, the daie is exceedinge whot.
 Mare aestuat, the sea is troublous.
 Aestuosus, a, um, hotte or scruent, stony.
 Aestuosissimi dies, scruent hotte daies.
 Aestiosa & puluerulenta via iter faciebam,
 I iourneied in a whotte and a dusty way.
 Aestus, us, ui, mas. gen. heate of the weather, or burning of the sunne. Also the troublous motion, rage, or violence of the sea. Sometime doubt-fulnesse of sitting of the mynde, a scruple, a vehement motion of the mynde. Also loue.
 Aestus belli, the troubles of warre.
 Aestus vlcis, the smartynge payne of a soze or pyle.
 Erat hic quoq; aestus ante oculos, I had also this scruple or doubte in my minde.
 Aetas, atis, form. gen. age, otherwhyle tyme. also the space of a hundred yeres, a mans life time.
 Somewhyles one yere. It is applied also to wyne and fruite, wherof cometh Aetatem ferre, spoken of frutes or wyne that will continue longe.
 Aetas acta est mihi, my time is passed.
 Tertiam aetatem vixit, he liued thre hundred yere.
 Aetas bona, the flowre of youth.
 Aetas grandis, auncienter, or olde age.
 Aetas decrepita, age, wherin a man loseth the vse of his membres.
 Aetas ingrauescens, age increasynge.
 Idem aetatis, for Eiusdem aetatis.
 Aetas matura, tyme age.
 Aetas prima, youth.
 Aetate adulta, of full age.
 Aetate affecta, of olde age, auncient.
 Aetate confectus, very aged, in extreme age.
 Aetate exacta, idem.
 Antecellere aetate vel aetate anteire, to bee elder.
 Aetate integra, in the flowre of youth.
 Aetate prouecta, aged, or of good age, verie auncient.
 Aetate anteire, to be elder.
 Flexus aetatis, the decarie or inclination of age,
 when one is past the middes of his age.
 Extremum aetatis tempus, the uttermost point of a mans lyfe.
 Nostrum tempus aetatis, our life tyme.
 Constans aetis, myddle age.
 Accedit illi plus aetatis, he waxed elder.
 Aetatem desidiose agere, to liue idelly.

Aetatis sabulum peragere, to passe the whole course of the life.
 Aetatem in aliquo conterere & consumere,
 to spend al ones time in a thyng.
 Aetatem cum aliquo degere, id est, vitam, to liue with one.
 Excessit mihi aetas ex magisterio tuo, I am no more vnder thy gouernaunce, I am past thy correction.
 Aetas firmata, mans state, perfecte age.
 Aetate professit vsq; ad adulescentiam me-am, he liued tyll I was a yonge man.
 Aetatem meam me viduam esse maueim, quam istae sagittae tuae pati, quae tu facis, I had leuer be a widow all my lyfe, than to endure this trouble that I haue with the.
 Aetatem velim seruire, Litanum modo vt conueniam, I woulde dooe seruice al the daies of my lyfe on the condicion I mought mete with Litanus.
 Nostra aetate, in our tyme.
 Aetatis progressus, the course of age.
 Aetatis satis habere, to be olde enough.
 Aetatem vix decimam ingressus, i. annum.
 Aetatem, an aduerbe, signifyng long tyme.
 Iam dudum aetatem lites sunt inter eos, there hath bene variance betwene them long tyme.
 Aetacula, lae, f. g. childhode.
 Aeternitas, atis, f. g. euertastynge, tyme without ende.
 Ex omni aeternitate, hatynge nouer any begynnynge.
 In omni aeternitate, for euer, continually.
 Ad memoriam aeternitatis, that it might al-way be remembred.
 Aeterno, and aeternum, euertastynge, for euer, alwaies.
 Aeterno, aui, are, act. to make perpetuall.
 Aeternus, a, um, euertastynge, without end, for e-uer, continuall.
 Nullum aeternius lignum, no woodde endureth longer.
 Aether, atheris, sine plur. m. g. the firmament.
 of some it is taken for the elemente of fyre, and for the ayre. also for Iupiter, sometime for light and brightnesse, sometime for the goddes.
 Aether often bled for celum.
 Vbi eos pater aether in gremium matris. &c.
 id est, Iupiter.
 Raptim secat aethera pennis, i. aerem.
 Aethera, or aethra, ae, f. g. the ayre.
 Aethereus, theaea, um, of the firmament.
 Aethereum semen, i. diuinum, the seede of a god.
 Aetherea aura vefci, to liue.
 Aethiopis, pidis, form. ge. an herbe that inchan-ters vse, by force wherof ryuers be dried vp, and lockes opened.
 Aetiologia, logia, fer. g. a shewing of the cause or reason.
 Aetites, a pretious stone, founde in an Egles nest, whiche hath within it an other stone, as C iij it were it were with yonge, whiche maketh a sounde, if the stone be taken. If the bealy of a woman with childe doe fall downe low, this stone, being hanged aboute the left arme, retineth the childe. But if the womans tyme be come to treauyle: than being taken awaie, and bounde to his thigh: she shall bee forthwith deliuered without any payne. Also, if a piece of this stone be put into bread, or into a puddynge, and given vnto one: if he be a theefe, it shall neuer goe through him: lykewyse the broth, wherein it is sodden, if a theefe, or they that bee of counsaile with him, do take it: he nor they may not swallowe it. Prepared with waxe and oyle of Lyspes, it helpeth againste the fallynge sicknesse, In Corolario Hermolaus Barbarus, saith, that except this stone be taken out of the Egles neste: it hath no vertue in medicine.

Aetnaeus, a, um, of Aetna.

Aetnaeus deus, Vulcane.

Aetnaei fratres, the Cyclops.

Aetnaeus pastor, Poliphemus.

Aetnaea tellus, Citille.

Aeuitas, ratis, f. g. eternitee, age.

Aeuum, xui, n. g. longe, or euclastynge tyme, also tyme, age, sometyme life.

Aeuo nostro accedit, it chanced in our tyme.

Viue memor q̄ sis xui breuis, liue hauninge in mynde howe shortly thy lyfe is here.

In aeuum, for euer.

A condino xuo, from the begynnynge of the worlde.

Aeuum securum agere, to liue without care.

Aeuiternum, that is made eternall.

A ANTE F.

Affabilis, le, a man easy to be spoken vnto, gracious in wordes, courtesie and sweete in language.

Affabiliras, aris, for. gen. gentilles in hearynge, courtesy in talkynge.

Affabiliter, courtesly, gentilly.

Affabre, cunninggly, craftely, workmanly.

Affabrum, cunninggly or craftily wrought.

Affanix, arum, for. gen. trifles, thinges of small estimation.

Affatim, abundantly, euen to the full.

Tibi diuitiarum affatim est, Thou hast abundance of ryches.

Affatus, spoken vnto.

Affatus, us, m. g. a talkynge or speakynge to.

Affatus alicuius petere, to desyre to speake with one.

Affectare, curiously, with to much diligence.

Affectatio, onis, f. g. curiositee, affectacion.

Affectator, oris, m. g. one that doth effectate or counterfeyte a thyng to curiously.

Affectatus, a, um, affectate or to curiously.

Affectata oratio, a curious fourme of speaking.

Affectio, onis, for. g. affection sometyme trouble of mynde.

Firma corporis affectio, a good and stronge disposition of the body.

Astrorum affectio, the disposicion of the sterres.

Affectio celi, the inclination or disposicion of the celestials bodies.

Præcipuam habet erga fortum affectionem, a singular affection.

Affecto, aui, are, act. to seke effectually, to desyre or couete a thyng earnestly.

Affectare regnum, to aspyre to a kyngdome by ambition.

Affectare cruorem alicuius, to seke ones death.

Affectare diligentiam in nugis, to desyre to be diligent in trifles.

Quod iter affectet videtis, ye see what way he desyreth to take.

Affectare, is in Wilpian used for, consulte aliquid facere, to dooe a thinge of purpose.

Affectare aliquem damnis, for afflicere.

Affector, atus sum, aris, idem quod affecto.

Affectus, us, m. g. affection or naturall motion, as gladnesse, desyre, and such lyke, sometyme sicknesse.

Affectus, a, um, troubled or vexed, afflicted, disposed, affectioned, meued, affected, also feeble and sorrowfull.

Affectus pena, punished.

Affectus premio, rewarded.

Afecta, thinges almoste finished or nigh at a point.

Afecta fides, credence almoste losse.

Afecta ætas, sommer well nigh passed.

Affectum bellum, warres nigh at a point.

Affectus morbo, vexed with sicknesse.

Affectus virgis, beaten with rodde.

Cum ita sis animo affectus, seying that ye be so minded, or so affectioned in your mynde.

Cum tantis a vobis benefecijs affectus sim, seying that I haue had so greatte benefites at your handes.

Afecta & prostrata res pub. a common weale sore broken and almoste cleane ouerthrowen.

Afecta ætas, olde age.

Animos affectos recreare, to refreshe mens myndes sore abashed and discouraged.

Quomodo celum sit affectum, how the heauenly bodies are disposed.

Affectus desperatione, discouraged.

Affectum corpus, a body hurt or werped, sometyme out of temper.

Afecta opes, riches almoste spent or wasted.

Grauita affectus, greuouly meued.

Affero, affers, attuli, ferre, to byng to, to profite or conduce, to shewe or bynge tydynges, to allege or bynge forth a reason, authorytee, or such lyke.

Afferre constantiam, to make constant.

Pompeianis ea res ad receptum difficultatem afferebar, that thyng made that it was very harde eie harde for Pompeis souldiours to rebile.

 Magnas difficultates exercitui Caesaris attulit, it brought Cesars armie in great distresse.
 Afferre expectationē, to make me to loke for a thing at ones handes.
 Solent etiam fastidia cibo afferre, they were wonte also to make men lothe their meate.
 Afferre finem tributorum, to cause no more tribute to be payed.
 Lachrymas afferre, to make one to wepe.
 Bononius miros terrores ad me attulit, he tolde me of merueilous terrible matters.
 Somnum afferre, to byng one a sleepe.
 Afferro ad te salutem, I come to salute the.
 Afferre adiumentum alicui ad aliquam rem.
 Afferre auxilium, to helpe, to aide.
 Afferre dentes, to byte.
 Afferre manus, to set violent handes on one.
 Afferre molestiam, to do displeasure to one.
 Afferre morbum, to make sicke.
 Ales alienum mihi hæc res attulit, this thinge hath brought me in debte.
 Afferre pedem, to come.
 Abiit unde malum pedes attulisti, goe hence,
 from whens with a mischief percame.
 Afferre vim alicui, to make assaute on one.
 Attuli hunc, for Adduxi, I haue brought this man.
 Afferro pro conféro.
 Bius iussu huc me afferro, at his commaundes mene I come hither.
 Afferam vñum antiquitatis exēplum, I will bynge forth one example of antiquitee.
 Ad ea quæ dixi affer, si quid habes, if you haue any thyng to say to these thynges that I haue spoken, byng it forth.
 Afferre in medium, to communicate with other.
 Afferre accessionem, to augment a thing.
 Quam causam afferam? what cause or excuse shall I alleage?
 Quidam compertum attulit, one brought certaine tydings.
 Afferre delectationem, to delite.
 Afferre taxidum alicui, to make one weie.
 Afferre fidem alicui rei, to make a thyng to be beloued.
 Animi magnitudinem ad eius causam attulit, he defended the mans cause with a stout courage.
 Animum afferre alicui, to byng a courage to
 one.
 Florem afferunt arbores, the trees byng forth blossoms.
 Afferre inertiam, to make negligent or sluggish.
 Afferre manus sibi, to sea ones selfe.
 Afferre memoriam, to put in remembrance.
 Afferre odium alicui, to byng one in hate or displeasure.
 Opinionem populo afferunt, they bynge the people in this opinion.

Afferre causam mortis voluntaria, id est,
 præbere causam mortis voluntari.
 Afferre questionem, to moue a question.
 Tibi nullam religionem attulit, it neuer pleshed thy conscience.
 Repulsam attulit hæc res, this thyng was cause of his deniall.
 Afferre sumptum alicui, to put one to coste.
 Afferre vim virgini, to rauish a maiden.
 Afferitur, tydings is brought.
 Afficio, afficis, eci, ere, act. to moue affection or disposition, either to good or euill, so muche that reason is therewith troubled and disquieted.
 Afficere bonis nuntis, to byng good tydings.
 Vñ bonis vos, vestrosq; omnes, nuntis me afficere vultis, as ye wil, that I byng to you and yours good tydings.
 Aegritudine affici, to be moued with griefe of mynd, Aegritudine premi, confici, debilitari, to be sore vexed with sorow. Torum se dedit aegritudini, he gaue him selfe wholly to sorow and griefe of mynd. Aegritudinem leuare, extenuare, lenire, sedare, to diminish, swage, or mitigate, to ease or helpe. Aegritudinem depellere, detrahere, eripere, tollere, to take away cleane the sorow or griefe of mynd fro one.
 Afficere cura, to bynge in care.
 Afficere lucro, to make one wyne or gaine.
 Afficere stipendio, to paie wages.
 Afficere eum letali vulnere, he gaue hym his deatnes wounde.
 Afficere dolore, he maketh me sorie.
 Afficit me gaudio, he maketh me gladder.
 Affici, to be moued with affection.
 Afficere corpus, to byng the body lowe, or to make it feble or weake.
 Afficiunt corpus fames & sitis.
 Afficere desiderio, to make desirous.
 Affici exilio, to be banished.
 Regis nomine afficere, to call one by the name of a kyng.
 Afficere sepultura, to burye.
 Affici admiratione, to be meruailed at, to be in admiration.
 Affici honore, to be had in great honour.
 Afficere ignominia, to shlaunder.
 Affici iniuria, to be wronged.
 Afficere incommodo, to endamage, or hurt.
 Affici difficultatibus, to be in great perplexitee or daunger.
 Morte affici, to be slayne.
 Afficere errore mentis, to bynge one into an erreour.
 Affici vulneribus, to be wounded.
 Affigo, figis, fixi, ere, act. to nagle to, to fasten.
 Affigere literas pueris, to make childerne
 lerne by herte, or kepe in memory.
 Hanc literā ad caput affigunt, they will set that letter one your heade.
 Cuspide ad terram affixit, he fastened him to the grounde with his speare.

Affigere

Affigere cruci, to crucifie.
Affigere terræ radicem, to take rote.
Affigi nostris animis, to bee rooted in our myndes.
Affixus, a, um, fastned.
Affixus alicui tanquā magistro, cleauynge to one as to a maister.
Affixus lecto, soze sicke in his bedde.
Quibus in rebus me sibi affixum habebit, in whiche matters I will not faile to sicke to him, or be his companion.
Affictus, a, um, made, feigned, counterfayted.
Affictus, a, um, idem.
Affingo, finxi, gere, act. to make, to fourme, to feigne, or in feignynge to adde or applye to a thyng, to deuise, to feigne for one. Sometime to inuent a lye. Sometime to counterfayte.
Sermones affingere personis fabulosis, to deuise wordes, that persons named in poetes fables shulde speake.
Addunt & affingunt rumoribus, they adde and deuise somewhat to rumours, moze then was spoken.
Affingere mores hominum, to counterfayte mens manners.
Affingere aliquid alicui, to lye, or make a lye on one, or speake of him that is not true.
Affinis, ne, in fieldes betokeneth adioynynge, in men it betokeneth aliaunce by mariage. And by a metaphoze, he that is parte taker of any thing, priue to an offence, or accessory.
Affinis negotiis publicis, he that meddeleth with the affaires of a commonalte.
Affinis rei capitalis, gyltis of a great offence, whiche deserueth deathe.
Affinem esse culpæ, to begilte.
Affinis sceleris vel sceleri, gylt of the trespas.
Affines esse earum rerum, quas fert adole-scentia, To be parte taker of those thynges that yowth despyeth or deliteth in.
Affinitas, âtis, f. g. affinitee. alpaunce.
Affinitate attingere, to be of alpaunce to one.
Affinitates iungere, to make alpaunce by marriage.
Affinitates dirimere, to breake alpaunces.
Affirmare, with affirmaunce.
Affirmatio, ônis, f. g. affirmaunce.
Affirmatum, ti, n. g. affirmed. somtime cōfirmed.
Affirmo, aui, âre, act. to affirme. somtime to confirme, or stablishe.
Affirmare se animo, to take a godd courage.
Certum affirmare, to affirme for a suretee.
Affirmare asseueratione, to affirme certainly.
Affirmare iureiurâdo, to affirme with an oth.
Afflatus, tus, m. g. a blaste.
Afflatus spiritus, diuine inspiration.
Affleo, cui, ère, n. to wepe and lament feignedly.
Afflictatio, ônis, f. g. punishment of the bodie with sickenesse.
Afflictio, ônis, f. g. and Afflictus, tus, m. g. affliction, trouble, aduersitee.

Afflicto, aui, âre, act. to torment ones selfe continually, to trouble, to vex, or greue, to toss and tumble, to dyue to gether, as, Naues tempestas afflictabat, the tempeste tossed and dyue the Shippes together.
De quibus acerbissime afflictor, for whiche thynges I am veraye soze troubled & disquieted.
Afflictari morbo, to be greuously sicke.
De nostris rebus grauissime afflictor, I am soze tourmented with cogitation of our affaires.
Afflictor, ôris, m. g. one that afflicteth or troubleth.
Afflictus, a, um, troubled, vexed, greued, afflicted, oppressed, and as it were cast to the ground with aduersitee.
Afflicta fides, credence decayd and almost lost.
Afflicta fortuna, aduersitee, trouble.
Afflicta & prostrata virtus, vertu neglected and cast vnder foote.
Afflictis rebus, in aduersitee.
Naui afflicta scopulis, dashed agaynst the rockes.
Affligo, xi, ere, act. to throte or beate downe to the grounde, to punyche, to afflict, to vex, to trouble, to torment, to greue.
Affligam te ad terram scelus, si me vno digi-tulo attingeris, I will beate the downe to the grounde wpyche, if thou touche me with one fynger.
Affligere & debilitare animos metu, to trouble and discourage mens myndes with feare.
Affligit corpus senectus, olde age greueth and weakeneth the body.
Affligere hominum mores, to impair or corrupte the manners of men.
Affligere opes alterius, to spende and waste an other mans goodes.
Affligere rem aliquam vituperando, by dyspraisynge to make a thyng worse than it is.
Affligere se, to vex or torment ones selfe.
Affligi frigoribus, to be greued with colde.
Afflo, afflas, aui, âre, act. to blowe to, to blowe wynde, to blowe vpon. Sometime to fyll with wynde.
Afflari, to be blowen vpon, to bee blasted.
Afflari sydere, to bee blasted, as floures of trees and corne somtyme bene.
Affluerat nescio quid rumoris, supple me, a certaine byrte or rumour came to mine eare.
Afflare alicui, to fauour.
Sperat sibi aurem posse aliquam afflari in hoc crimine, he trusteth that by the fauour of some personne, he maye bee holpen in this crime, that he is charged with all.
Afflari fulmine, to be stricken with lightnyng.
Afflari diuino spiritu, to be inspired of god.
Affluens, tis, om. g. abundant.
Affluētibus vndiq; barbaris, when the barbarous people came in great nūbres on euery syde.
Bonitate affluens homo, a man of muche honestie and godd behauiour.

Affluens

Afluens studiis locus, a place where is much exercise of learning.
Afluenter, abundantly.
Affluentia, a, f. g. abundance.
Affluo, affluis, fluxi, ere, neu. ge. to flowe to, to overflowe, to abounde.
Affluit amor, love creepeth, or slideth into a m.
Nihil litterarum ex istis locis affluxit, there came no letters from those partes.
Affluere diuitiis, to abounde in riches.
Affodio, affodis, fodi, fodere, act. to digge, or take moze ground so that we haue.
Affor, atus sum, ari, dep. to speake to, to talke to, to desire or increate, to geue thanks: seldom or neuer used in the firste persone.
Affore, to be here or present.
Hanc affore biduo, that she be here within these ii. daies.
Afforis, from without, som tyme it is no latin.
Afformido, formidas, aui, are, act. to be soze afraid.
Affrango, egi, ere, to breake by or nere to.
Affricanae gallinae, whiche seme to be the same, which we call Turkey rockes.
Affrico, affricas, fricui, are, act. to rubbe against a thyng.
Affricus, tus, m. g. a rubbing against a thyng.
Affricus, ra, rum, rubbed against a thyng.
Affricus, ci, called also Lybs, the wynde south-west and by west.
Affrio, affrias, aui, are, to grate, or breake small one thyng with an other.
Affulgeo, fulges, fulsi, ere, to shyne agaynst a thyng. Also to happen with gladnesse.
Sardinia recipienda repentina spes affulsi, a sudden hope suddenly hapned, that Sardinia shoulde be recovered.
Affundo, fudi, ere, act. to shedde, or sprinkle liquor on a thyng, to flowe or renne by a place, as a ryuer nere to a towne. Sometime for Infundere, to powze in.
Frigida in aqua affunditur venenum.
Affusus, a, um, prostrate, lying flatte on the earth, powzed in, flowng by, shedde or sprinkled vpon.
Affusus rumulo, lying prostrate vpon the ground by the graue.
Meander plurimis affusus oppidis, Meander that renneth by many townes.
A fronte & a tergo, before and behynde, sometime it is taken for a proverbe applied to them, whiche do beholde thynges passed, with those thynges which maie happen. Also the tyme passed with the tyme to come.

A ANTE G.

Agabus, an hebrue name, whiche signifieth in latine, Locusta, a fly that destroyeth coyne. Also Festiuitas patris, the pleasant mirth of the father. Of this name was a prophete in the tyme of the apostles, which pro-pheted of an vniuersall famine to come, and that saint Paul shoulde be bounden and put in gyues.

Agalma, galmatis, n. g. an image.
Agalochum, mentioned by Dioscorides, seemeth by the description thereof to be the Scots wodde, called nowe Lignum aloes.
Agamus, agami, ma. g. one that was neuer married, a single man; a bachelor.
Agape, agapes, f. g. charitee, mutuall love.
Agapenor, the gouernour of Agamemnon's nauie.
Agapis, is a stone of the coloure of Saffron, the vertu wherof is to cure the styngng of scorpions and serpentes, if it be layd to the wounde.
Agaricum, garici, neu. g. a promontory, nere to Theoris. It is also a kynde of mushrooms growing on trees about Bosphorus. It is hotte and scattereth humours.
Agastilis, the whole herbe and roote wherof Ham-montacum is made.
Agaso, onis, m. g. an hostepper or mulettrout.
Agathites, maioram.
Agathallus, a byrde, that hath naturall enmitie with an other byrde, called Acanthylis: so that if the blood of them bee forcibly mixt together, they will after leuer eche from other.
Age, adverb. go to, take hede.
Age age, well well. Sometime of consentinge.
Age age, vt lubet, well go to, as ye list. Sometime an aduerbe of correctinge: as, Age, scis quid loquar? go to soyle. &c. Sometime of encouraginge: as, Nunc age, naturas apibus quas &c. Sometime it is ioyned with the plurall nouns by: as, Age igitur vos intro abire.
Age dicat, lette hym speake on, let hym speake hardily.
Age, & agite, go forth, say the on, or tell on.
Age sis, go to hardily.
Age dum, go to yet.
Age porro, well go to: well, suppose it be so.
Age iam, age nunc, go to nowe.
Age sane inquam, well, I am content.
Agite dum, idem quod agite.
Agea, ea, f. g. a waie in a shyppe.
Agelastus, ti, m. g. he that doth neuer laughe. also sad, soleine, waiwarde.
Agellus, gelli, m. g. a little felde.
Agelai panes, broune breade.
Agema, gematos, n. g. a companie of souldiours.
Ager, agri, m. g. a felde. Sometime it signifieth a territory, belonging to a towne, wherein are included, fieldes, medowes, wodes, and waters. Sometime a manour with the demeanes. Sometime the arable felde onely.
Ager Romanus, the territorie or countrey about Rome.
Agricultio & cultura agrorum, the manuringe and tillage of the earth.
Fatigatio agrorum, weeringe of the grounde.
Agrorum sationibus faciendis expediemus, wee will make our selfe in a readines to sow our landes.

landes.
 Ager benignus, a frutefull and fertile ground.
 Fertilis, ferax, idem.
 Cretosus ager, a chalkye ground.
 Vliginosus ager.
 Ieiunus atq; exilis ager, a leane and barrayne ground.
 Incultus ager, a wilde grounde vntilled.
 Ager lapidosus, limosus, macer, a stonie stonie, leane grounde.
 Agros occare.
 Onerati agri messibus, loded with corne.
 Stercorare agros, to dunge.
 Vertere agrum, to turne the grounde.
 Agricultura, and cultura, the tilling of the earth.
 Agros alienos irrigas, tuis sitientibus, a proverbe spoken of them that be diligent in other mens matters, and let theyr owne slepe. it is applied also to aduouters.
 Ageraton, an herbe like to organie. ii. handefull highe: the sauoure whereof, whan it is broyled, prouoketh vyne.
 Aggemo, ui, ere, loke Adgemo.
 Agger, aggeris, m. g. a heape of stones or tourse, also a bulwarke, or a contremure to a fortesse or campe in battaile. Sometime it signifieth a causey, or the highe parte of the way lyke a causey. Also bankes to kepe in the water of ryuers. Sometime a dicke.
 Ager arenæ, a heape of sande.
 Aggerem iacere, to caste a bulwarke.
 Alpini aggeres: id est, Alpes.
 Cingere locū aggere, to trench a place about.
 Aggero, aggeras, aui, are, act. to heape vp, and by a metaphore, to augment and aggrauate a matter.
 Aggero, aggeris, gessi, ere, act. to lape on an heape, also to brynge to one. Sometime to beare or carie.
 Nāq; æcastor, amor & melle & felle est for cundissimus, gustu dat dulce, amarum vsq; ad facieratem aggerit, for in god faith, loue hath aboundance both of honie and galle, in taste it is pleasant, but it bryngeth with it bitternesse, so much, that it becometh lothsome.
 Aggestus, gessus, m. g. an heape.
 Agglomerō, glómeras, aui, are, act. to make vp on an heape, by adding to. Sometime to please and gather thicke to gether, as souldiours doe in their arraie in battaile.
 Agglutino, aui, are, act. to ioyne together, to glue, also to soulder.
 Aggrauatio, ónis, f. g. a greife or burden.
 Aggrauesco, scere, to waxe more greuous: or heauye.
 Aggrauo, aggrauas, aui, are, act. to be burdenous, or chargeable, also to aggrauate, or make a thyng more greuous.
 Aggredior, gressus sum, edi, com. to go to, to come to, to inuade, to assaile, to begyn or enter into a matter, to attempte or set in hande with any thyng, to geue assaile.

 Aggredi aliquem de re aliqua, to go to talke with one for any matter.
 Aggredi aliquem, to sette on one with purpose to begyle hym: as, Irane agitis mecum? satis astute aggredimini, doe ye handle me after this sorte: ye assaile me craftily enough in deede.
 Cum aggredior ancipitem causam, when I beginne or sette in hand with. &c.
 Priusq; aggredimur ad singulas leges, before we enter to speake of euery law particularly.
 Aggrediar ad crimen, I will begynne to speake of. &c.
 Aggredi bellum: id est, suscipere.
 Aggrego, aggregas, aui, are, act. to gather to gather.
 Aggregare se ad amicitiam alterius, to associate hym selfe to the frendship of some other.
 Cum meam voluntatē ad summi viri dignitatem aggregassem, when I had bent my wyll to the maintenance of. &c.
 Aggressio, ónis, f. g. an assaile.
 Aggreus, idem quod aggressus.
 Aggigarton, a kind of grapes without kirkels.
 Agidus, a citie.
 Agilei, houtholde loues.
 Agilis, agile, om. g. nimble, light, lieger, quier.
 Agilitas, atis, f. g. nimblenesse, dexteritee.
 Agiliter, nimblye, lightly, quickly, quierly, liegerly.
 Agilla, or Agylla, an olde towne in Tuscane.
 Agina, ginæ, for. ge. that wherein the beame of a peeze of balance is hanged.
 Aginator, óris, mál. gen. he that is meued with a little gayne.
 Aginor, árus sum, ári, dep. to marchandise vile thynges or of small value.
 Agiographa, booke of holy scripture.
 Agipedes, is the same that Pedari lex. loke there.
 Agitabilis, le, om. g. that maie be easily meued, stirred, or shaken.
 Agitatio, ónis, for. ge. meuyng, or stirring, also exercise.
 Agitatio mentis, stirring of the mynd.
 Agitator, óris, mál. gen. a driuer of a cart, or of beastes.
 Agitatus, a, um, meued, stirred, tossed, exercised, troubled, disquieted, vexed.
 Agito, agitas, aui, are, act. to moue, to shake, to tolle, to gouerne or guide, to dwelle or liue in a place, to reuolue, imagine, or caste in ones mind, to intreate well, to go, to do often, to picke, to compell, to trouble, to persecute, to vex, to consider, to sollicite.
 Iam calcari quadrupedem agitabo aduersum clium, Nowe will I with the spurre make my horse renne vp the hill.
 Agitare causam, to beate a matter, to debate the cause.
 Agitare dies festos, to spende holpe dayes in pastime and myzth.

Agitare,

Agitare conuiuia, to make feastes.
 Agitare conuiuium, to banquet or make good chere.
 Age igitur, hoc agitemus conuiuium, uiuo & sermone suau; therefore go to, lette vs ban-ket, drinke, talke, and make good chere.
 Agitare custodiam, to take good heede in keeping of one.
 Agitare cum animo, to reuolue in the mind.
 Agitare diem, to passe forth the daie.
 Agitare feras, to course wylde beastes.
 Agitare imperium, to gouerne.
 In pace uero beneficiis magis quam metu, imperium agitabant. In the time of peace they gouerned more by gentlenesse, than by feare.
 Agitare iustitiam, to exercise iustice.
 Agitare letitiam, to make ioye.
 Agitare mentem, to conceine in the mynde, to thynke.
 Agitare praesidium, to be in garison.
 Agitare uigilias, to kepe watche.
 Agitare vitam, to liue.
 Agitare æuam, to liue.
 Agitare cœtus noctu, to make vnlaustull assembles in the night.
 Agitare consilia, to consulte.
 Agitari diuersum, to be so troubled, that he is nowe in one mynde, and nowe in an other.
 Agitare fugam, to flee.
 Diuersus agitabatur, he was tossed hether and thether in diuers opinions.
 Agitare ingenium, to exercise the witte.
 Agitare moras, to dyspue forth the tyme.
 Agitare rem aliquam sermonibus, to debate or talke of a matter.
 Aglaophotis, an herb, which for the beautifull coloure therof was so called.
 Aglaspis, glaspidis, f. ge. the name of a legion of souldiours amonge the Romaines.
 Aglidia, idem quod Aglithes.
 Aglithes, clothes of garlick.
 Aglyphos, phi, m. g. not grauen.
 Agmen, inis, neu. ge. an hoste of men. sometime a violence, a course of water, sometime mouyng, also a multitude.
 Agminalis, le, pertainyng to an hoste.
 Agna, na, fœ. g. a thee lamme. also a measure of grounde called also Actus. 120. fote euery way.
 Agnascencia, & agnata membra, mēbres, which are superfluous: as whete one hath thre legges, or vi. fingers on one hand, and other lyke.
 Agnascor, atus sum, sci, dep. to bee bozne after his fathers testament is made.
 Agnati, orum, m. g. kynsmen of the fathers syde.
 Ad agnatos & gentiles deduci, to bee comit-ted to his kinsfolke, as madde men were by the law ciuile: wherof was made a prouerbe, applied to them, that do all thynges madly and without circumspection.
 Ad agnatos, & gentiles deducantur.
 Agnatio, onis, f. g. kynrede by the fathers syde.

Agnatus, a, um, that which is in by the more than the comon course of nature vnto byng forth.
 Agnellus, a ponge lambe.
 Agninus, nina, um, of a lambe.
 Agnitio, onis, f. g. knowlage.
 Agnitus, agnita, um, known.
 Agnomen, nominis, n. ge. the surname that one obteyneth for any acte, or by other meanes.
 Agnosco, agnoscere, act. to knowe of othe, that is, to agnise & reknowlage a thing afore knowne to know by some token.
 Agnoscere debitum, to acknowlage and take vpon hym the charge of an other mans due.
 Agnoscere nomina, idem.
 Agnosco ex me, I rather than myselfe.
 Agnos, is a tree, which is a hynde of willow; and is commonly called Agnus castus, in englyshe parcke leaues: it hath leaues like to willow; but that they be alwayes greene, & hath not so sweete a smell: and floures byt purple, and after white, and a seede like pepper. There is an other hynde therof, which hath more brānches, and leaues whiter, and some what more, & the floure purple: Bothe of them do growe about riuers. It is called Agnos, which is in englyshe chaste, for it is saied, if a man or woman haue it about theim, or vnder their beddes, it shal kepe theim chaste.
 Agnus, agni, m. g. a lambe.
 Chordi agni, lames eaned after thei tyme.
 Expertes herbar agni, that neuer dyd eate
 grasse.
 Hornus agnus, this peres lamme.
 Sub rumi agni, suckyng lammes.
 Admittere agnos, ad matres, to let them in to their dammes.
 Depellere agnos a lacte, to weane lammes.
 Agni depulsi a matribus, weaned.
 Agnus æditus, a lamme eaned.
 Emittere agnos, septo agni, let out of their folde.
 Lasciuit agnus, the lamme playeth.
 Subrumare agnos, to put the lammes to the teatte.
 Summittere agnum nutrici, to put the lamme to the yew.
 Summouere agnos, to take lammes from the flocke and sell them away.
 Ago, egi, ere, act. to do, to accuse, to heare or geue care, to dyspue, to expel or put out, to gouerne, to moue or wagge, to speake, to bere & disquiete, to force or pursue, to thurst or caste downe by violence, to prouoke or stee, to represent, to sprede a brode, to preuaile, to go or remeue, to treate of a thyng, to endeuoure or labour, to be attendant or diligent, or wholly bent or fixed to a thyng:
 as, Hoc age, take heede and sette thy mynde on this thing, or be wholly bent or fixed to it.
 Alias res agit, his mynde is on other matters.
 Vnde agis te nunc Dorpale? From whence comest thou nowe Dorphalus, Agere arbores ab alto ad terram, to pul down trees from on high to the grounde.

Id agere,

Id agere, to fynde meanes.
 Ego semper id egi ne interesset, id est, curauit & annixus sum.
 Annum agens vnde uigilium, goynge in the xij. pere.
 Agere silentia, to bee all huiht and in peace.
 Agere respectum, to haue a respect.
 Agere aetatem, to liue.
 Agere ad prescriptum, to do as he was appointed.
 Agere ambages, to go about the bushe, or to tell a longer tale than nedeth.
 Agere aliquem, to pursue one.
 Agere amicum, to do like a frende, or playe the parte of a frende, lyke wyse, Agere patrem, fratrem, ciuem, iudicem, regem, consulem.
 &c.
 Agere apologum, to telle a fable.
 Agere animam, to be at the poynt of death.
 Agere causam, to pleade.
 Agere conuentus, to holde a parliament.
 Agere cuniculos, to vndermine.
 Cuniculos ad ararium agebat, he vndermined the treasure house, or gotte in to the treasure house by mynyng.
 Agere cum aliquo, to treat or speake with one.
 Cum mecu saepe ageres, vt de amicitia scriberem, where oftentymes thou didst intreate, that I shoulde write of frendshippe.
 Illo presente mecum agito, si quid uoles, If thou wilt any thyng with me: speake it in the presence of this man.
 Agere diris malis, to curse.
 Agere de pace, to treat of peace.
 Agere delectum, to chole men, as in musters for the warre.
 Agere equum, to spurre the horse.
 Agere insidias, to do a thyng by treason or martiall policie.
 Agere ex sponso vel ex sponso, to bypunge an action of couenant.
 Agere ex syngrapha, to bypunge an action of dette vpon an obligacion.
 Agere fabulam, to plaie in a comedie, trage dy, or enterlude.
 Agere frondem, to put out leaues: spoken of a tree.
 Agere furti, to appeale one of felonie.
 Agere gemmas, to bourgen.
 Agere inter homines, to liue.
 Agere iniuriarum, to sue one for trespas or wronges done.
 Agere pecuniariam litem aduersus aliquem, to sue one for a money matter.
 Agere lege, to iue, to procede by the order of the lawe.
 Agere mensuras fideliter, to measure thinges iustely.
 Agere morem, to vse for a custome.
 Agere nugas, to mocke, to trifle.
 Agere orationem, to pronounce an oracion.

Extat oratio quam egit.
 Agere poenam ab aliquo, to puni the one.
 Fœderum ruptorum poenas ab se grauiorẽs quam Pop. Rom. egerunt, id est, exegerunt.
 Agere primas partes, to be the chiefe personage.
 Agere radicem, to take rote.
 Agere reum, to sue one in the lawe.
 Agere summo iure, to procede with rigour.
 Agere suo iure, to execute his auctoritee.
 Agere vineas, applicare, to appoche to the walles of a towne, defended with the ordinance of warre, by a similitude, called vines.
 Agit vigesimum annum, he is. 20. yere holde.
 Pectus meum nunc agit cubito, she butteth me on the breast with her elbowe.
 Membris agit atra venena, id est, fugat.
 Agere caudam, to wagge the tayle.
 Tros Tyriusq; mihi nullo discrimine agetur, shall be gouerned.
 Agit ipse furem in somnis, id est, vexat, inquietat.
 Quo hinc te agis? whyther wy'te thou?
 Agunt adolescentiam, thei be in their pouche.
 Agis rem actam, thou ledest thy labour, the thyng is done to thy hande.
 Agit rem suam, he goth about his owne busis nelle or profit.
 Agit hic perpetuum diem sol, the sonne shyneth here all the daie longe.
 Agitur de capite, aut de fama, he is in daunger of his lyfe or of his credence.
 Bene mecu agitur, I am well at ease, or I am in good condicion, or I am well delte with all.
 Agitur res capitis, the question of the mattice in debate concerneth lyfe and deathe.
 Hoccine agis an non? id est, audis, dost thou herken, or geue eare to me, or no?
 Est ne ipse de quo agebam? id est, loquebar, is this he that I spake of?
 Ad omne scelus mentes illorũ agit, he dothe incense and steeke theyr myndes to all mischief and naughtinesse.
 Egi omnes illos adolescentes, I represented all those yonge men.
 Agere pecora, to driue cattell.
 Agere bellum, to make warre.
 Bene agere cum aliquo, to handle or entreat a man honestly.
 Apud illos qui tum agebant, id est, viuebãt.
 Principis amicitia agunt feruntq; omnia, by the fauour of the pynce thei do what so euer thei lust theim selves.
 Agere circum, to turne rounde.
 Agere contagia late, to spreade the infection farre abrode.
 Nihil ago tecum, I haue nothyng to dooe with the.
 Agere hortatione, to exhort.
 Agere precibus, to praie or intreate.
 Agere seuerẽ, grauiorẽ, remissẽ, leniter, vrbane, band, secure. Securus dicitur securus, colubundus. Agere curam, to care for. Agere desiderio alicuius rei, to be stirred with the desire of any thinge. Agere diem festum, to kepe holy daye. Agere forum, to deale matters. Agere gradus rados, to go softly. Dies agis interea, in the daye time he is on the lande. Agere in crucem, to crucifie or hange vp. Agere in exilium, to banyshe. Agere mecum fortuna, fortune fauoureth me. Agitur mensis septimus, this is the seventh monthe. Non multu egerit, he had not much peneuall. Agere secretum, to be alone. Agere spumas ore, to frothe at the mouth. Agere silentium, to kepe silence. Agitur gloria populi Romani, Agitur salus foelorum. Agitur certissima vestigalia, hoc est, Agitur de gloria, de salute, de vestigali bus. The question, controuersie, or contention is of or concerning these thynges, or these thynges be in daunger. Agogae, pites or dykes, where into water boys dely. Agolum, agoli, n. g. a daffe to dyue tatter with. Agon, agonis, or Agonis, goni, ma. ge. a contention in fourme of battaile, or a wrestling. Also the place where it was exercised. Also the name of a man. Agonalix, or Agonales dies, certayne festiual dayes kepte amonge the Romaines. Agones, were sometyme called hilles. Agones, among the Romaines were they that by led the beastes to be sacrificed, and maie be applied prouerbi ally to them which longe consaite, and yet enterpryse nothinge. Agonia, agonie, f. g. feare and heauynesse, or vexation of mynde. Also sacrifice done on hilles. Agonisma, atis, n. g. the rewarde of victorie. Agonista, niste, m. g. a champion. Agonizo, aui, are, neu. ge. to contende, to fight valgauntly. Agonotheta, a, or Agonothete, res, mas. ge. he that maketh a common game, and payeth the rewarde to them that do winne it. Agoreus, rei, mas. ge. a market man, an haunter of markets or faires. it is in Gellie taken for an vlearned man. Agoraeus panis, breadde solde in markettes, as carle bread in London. loke Agoraeus, in proper names. Agoranomis, ranomi, ma. g. he that fettereth the price of vitaple, a tasker, or a clerke of the markettes. the Romaines call hym Aedilem. Agraphus, pha, um, not writen, nor permitted. Agrarius, ri, ma. ge. a landed man. Also he that fauoureth the lawes as he made for the ordeyning of possessions. Agrarius, a, um, perteynyng to landes or poss sessions.

Agriales, a lawe made for the common distriction of landes, as our statutes bee of inclos-ures and decaying of husbandry, but amonge the Romaines they were such lawes as dyd ap-poynt howe much land a senator shoulde haue and howe many, and howe much shoulde be deutyd amonge the people. Agrestis, te, om. ge. wyld, growen without culture. Also he that is wyld, rude, beasty, without gentyl manners, or civill. Agrestes moris, rude and carterly maners. Agria, a, f. m. gen. a kynde of scabbes, which of course breaketh out endyngere, and is veraye harde to be healed. also a soye, which can not be cured by any meane. Agricantha, a, or Agricantha, a wyld thorne.
Agricola, gricola, com. ge. an husbande man.
Agricolator, oris, m. g. the same. Agricolatio, onis, f. g. tillage, or husbandry.
Agrilus, oris, m. g. an husbandman. Agricoltura, husbandry. Agrimonia, a, or Agrimonia, called commonly in english the Egrimoyne, and is the right Eupatorium, as it appeareth as well by the description of Dios-corides, as by the affirmance of Raynardus, Simonis, and other most excellent philosophers of this tyme. The decoction of this herbe against the poulder thereof dyed, is an excellent remedy against the oppilacions of the lynes by reason of stenne. It is hotte in the first degree, and drye in the seconde. Agrion, oris, m. g.
Agriondarium, an herbe, called also Hiberis.
Agrum, idem quod aridum. Creticum, some call it Phu. it hath a taste lyke Alexander.
Agrionophillum, idem quod Pencedanum.
Agrifus, rude, wilde, of the fylde. Agrioselinon, idem quod Hippocelynomion.
Agrionia, orum, the feastes of Dionysius, celebrate among the Grecians. Agripalma, a, an herbe called also Galeopsis, in englyshe the Agripall. Agripeta, rei, com. ge. he that doeth aske his portion in diuision of landes. Agrippa, they whiche bee borne with theyr feete forwarde. Agrippus, called of the Lacedemonians, a wilde olive tree. Agria, a beasty pleasant and holsome herbe used much amonge the Egyptians. Agrostis, latinis gramen, semeth by Fuchius to be Stichwort.

A ANTE H.

Hy, a voyce of lamentyng or sorowynge, but it is sometime applied to other affections, as to indignacion, anger, desyre, rebus-tyng, chidinge, denyng, correctyng, &c. Athenum, athenigen, gen. a pot to heate drinke in. also a great vatte, wherein purple is dyed.
also

also a caudron.

Alenus, n. m. g. a vessel of white brasse of coppe pre, which is bygher bothe within and without.
Achenus, n. m. g. of Ahenus; a. um, is of poetes taken for Acreus; dialen; or of brasse: And by Aemtas phote stronge, hardes and thum swed in you Ahetra, a. um, for gena; a. u. beyres, which goe from the nauill and water, downe beneath the hidings.
Alchryson, an herbe called also semper viuum.
Ahorta, r. f. g. one of the principall beyres.
Aluz, n. m. g. of one that is troubled.

ANTHE L. Alu, n. m. g. of one that is troubled.
 A. n. m. g. of one that is troubled.

Alu, n. m. g. of one that is troubled.
 A. n. m. g. of one that is troubled.

Alu, n. m. g. of one that is troubled.
 A. n. m. g. of one that is troubled.

Alu, n. m. g. of one that is troubled.
 A. n. m. g. of one that is troubled.

Alu, n. m. g. of one that is troubled.
 A. n. m. g. of one that is troubled.

Alu, n. m. g. of one that is troubled.
 A. n. m. g. of one that is troubled.

Alu, n. m. g. of one that is troubled.
 A. n. m. g. of one that is troubled.

Alu, n. m. g. of one that is troubled.
 A. n. m. g. of one that is troubled.

Alu, n. m. g. of one that is troubled.
 A. n. m. g. of one that is troubled.

Alu, n. m. g. of one that is troubled.
 A. n. m. g. of one that is troubled.

Alu, n. m. g. of one that is troubled.
 A. n. m. g. of one that is troubled.

Alu, n. m. g. of one that is troubled.
 A. n. m. g. of one that is troubled.

Alu, n. m. g. of one that is troubled.
 A. n. m. g. of one that is troubled.

Alu, n. m. g. of one that is troubled.
 A. n. m. g. of one that is troubled.

Alu, n. m. g. of one that is troubled.
 A. n. m. g. of one that is troubled.

Alu, n. m. g. of one that is troubled.
 A. n. m. g. of one that is troubled.

Alu, n. m. g. of one that is troubled.
 A. n. m. g. of one that is troubled.

Alu, n. m. g. of one that is troubled.
 A. n. m. g. of one that is troubled.

Alu, n. m. g. of one that is troubled.
 A. n. m. g. of one that is troubled.

Alu, n. m. g. of one that is troubled.
 A. n. m. g. of one that is troubled.

Alu, n. m. g. of one that is troubled.
 A. n. m. g. of one that is troubled.

Alu, n. m. g. of one that is troubled.
 A. n. m. g. of one that is troubled.

Alabandica, a rose with whitish leaves like a Damaske rose.

Alabandina, r. r. a redde stone myxt with blue, it prouoketh bledng.

Alabandus, the god that the people of Alabanda worshipped.

Alabarches, barchis, m. g. he that hath the rule ouer sale, and amonge the Egyptians it was a noble man.

Alabaster, and alabastrus, stri, m. g. a vessell made of alabaster, to herpe sweete oymntes in.

Alabastrus, is also used for the greene leaues that couer the rose bud.

Alabastrum, a citee in Egypt.

Alabastrum, batri, m. gr. of Alabastrites, alas baster. It is founde specially about Thebes in Egypt, and Damascus in Syria.

Alabastrites, is also a pretious stone of diuers colours, myngled with whyte.

Alabaster, f. f. f. that breeds in the riuer Nilus.

Alabia, r. r. innocency.

Alabon, idem quod Alaba.

Alacer, alacris, cre, vel hic & huc alacris, hoc cre, cherefull, quicke of spire of witte, lusty of courage, mery, and he that liueth in hope, properly he that is in a meane betwene glad & soz.

Sometyme it betokeneth a man, ready of wil, long. Thereof cometh Alacritas, redinesse of promptnes of wil, also seruientnes of mynde.

Alacer vt alteri nocet, ready to hunte an other.

Alacer animus ad bellum suscipiendum, a mynde ready and couragious to enterprize a warre.

Alacer animo sum, I am desirous.

Alacer, promptly, couragiously, gladly.

Alacritas, acris, f. g. cherefullnesse, courage.

Canum alacritas ad venandum, the cherefullnes of houndes of dogges to hunte.

Alacritas, idem quod alacer.

Alapa, alape, f. g. a blowe or stroke with the hãde.

Alapathus, thi, an herbe called also Lapathum, and Rumex, sorrell.

Alaris, alare, and Alarius, a, um, of or pertayng to the wyng.

Alari equites, horsemen, whiche are in the wynges of a battayle.

Alaternus, ni, f. m. g. a tree that neuer beareth fruite of seede.

Alatus, a, um, wynged.

Alauda, dæ, f. g. a lark. It was also the name of one of the legions of the Romaines.

Alaudium, dij, n. g. a namyng of appealing.

Alazonia, r. f. g. arrogancy, pride.

Albadaran, amonge the Chaldeis the name of a little bone in one of the great toes, which is not corruptible after their opynion: it is in facion like the pulle called Licer, of this bone p. priuep sears chare of natures secretes speke many thynges.

Albarcola, a repell herne or a dwarfe heron.

Albarium, rij, n. g. the parget of a wall.

Albarium

Albarium opus, pargettunge, white lishing on Alba spina, a tree supposed to be that, whiche the Arabians call Baccus, some thinke the contrary, and that it is a hyemle, growyng in hedges and byches, having flowers whyte, and of good stature which we call the white thome.
 Some suppose it to be a hynde of shille, square and full of pynches, and some thinke it to be a Albarica, or, f. g. a habourous worde for a mylon.
 Albarus, ra, tum, whytred, or apparellled in white.
 Albedo, dimis, f. g. albedudo, albor, whitenesse.
 Albuginosa, orum, a geyppate of the inward of beastes, whiche was offered to Dis, called god of helth.
 Albo, alui, ere, to be whyte.
 Albescere, ui, scere, to be whyte, or were whyte.
 Albergaria, arum, certain rates for eating meate.
 Albidus, a certayne kynde of targettes of buccles.
 Albeus, and Albeolus, a chesse hounde, after Callepine: but he semeth to be deceived, for the places that he neth, haue Alueum, and Alueolus.
 Albicera, bicera, f. g. a kynde of olyue tree.
 Albicrate ficus, brode fyngers with a small stalk.
 Albico, albicas, qui, are, n. g. to be whyte.
 Albidus, a, um, somewhat whyte.
 Albiganium, loke Albinga.
 Albitudo, inis, f. g. whytynesse.
 Albo, qui, are, act. to make whyte.
 Albogalerus, leri, mas, ge. an hatte, whiche the great priestes of Jupiter, called Flammia dia-les, dyd weare.
 Albonenses, a people of Illiria.
 Albor, oris, m. g. loke Albedo.
 Albocia scura, targettes of shieldes of the largeste sorte. They were called also Decumana.
 Albucus, or Albucum, ci. some do suppose to be the herbe, whiche is called Asphodelus. Some write, that it is onely the stalk of Asphodelus, and that the whole herbe is called Hastula regia.
 It may be cald in English white affodill: or bych daffadill: it groweth not in England. loke after in Asphodelus.
 Albuelis, a kynde of grapes.
 Albugo, buginis, f. g. a whyte spotte in the eye.
 Album, albi, n. g. a table openly sette by, wherein eyther the names of officers, actes verely done, or some publyke decre is wrytten. Album pratortis, or Album iudicum, a table set by among the Romans, whiche he that had defiled, spotted, or corrupted, was forthwith put to death without iudgement.
 Album Senatorio eradere aliquem, to take one out of the number of the Senators.
 Album, bi, whyte.
 Albumen, buminis, n. g. the whyte of an egge.
 Albus, loke Albucis.
 Alburnum, ni, neu. gen. the fatte that is in some tree.
 Alburnus, the name of a fishe.
 Albus spinus, the hauthorne tre, the branches of the same are blowned then call may betwix.

 Albusia, um, white, somewhat pale, and by a meane, f. g. full, narrow, sometime happye, sometime sad.
 Albus fluvius, a river called Dumber, in the north parte of Scotland.
 Album plumbum, tyne.
 Albi calculi, white stones, wherewith the people of Creta dyd note or marke the dayes, wherin they had any dooings. Like as they marked their dayes with blacke stones called Nigri cal-culi.
 Album calculum addere, to allowe.
 Albus mater, his, n. g. I know not whether thou be whyte or blacke. A proverbe spoken of them, whose manners be to us unknown.
 Albus, a whyle bynde, a proverbe spoken of a thynge fortunate or luckye, or elles that chaunceth seldome.
 Album calculum addere, to allowe or avow a thynge. A proverbe taken of the aunciente forme of iudgements.
 Albergaria filius, a proverbe spoken of one whom fortune fauoureth in all his doinges.
 Alburus, the name of diuers men.
 Alcega, f. g. the taylor of a Lyon, or of any other beaste, that useth the taylor for a helpe to defende the body. It is taken also for a Lyon.
 Alcega, an herbe called of the Latines Ligu-strum, in the east parte Cyprus, of the French men Troena, in English, priuette.
 Alcaengi, or Alcacangi, loke Alkakengi.
 Alcamus, the woorme, wherof crymson coloure is made.
 Alce, ces, or Alces, cis, f. g. a wilde beaste in the wooddes of Germany, in facion and shynne lyke to a falowe dere, but greater, and hath no foyntes in his legges: and therefore he doeth needer lye, but leane to a tree whan he doeth reste hym. The hunters knowynge this, do saw the trees, that they be so leane to, halfe in sunder, wherby they fall downe and be taken. loke Al-ces.
 This beaste of some is called Aloia.
 Alcea, ferm. gen. is one kynde of malowes, but he hath leaues dygged lyke Neruen, and a floure lyke a Rose, longe rootes spue or spre whyte and brode. Also Jo. Agricola sayeth, that it is called of the Apothecaries Herba Si-meonis. It maye be called veruen malowe, or cut malow, or marsh malow.
 Alcedo, cedinis, or Halcyo, onis, ferm. gene.
 a byrde of the sea, which doeth hatch ponge chies hens on the lande, and laye her egges on the san-des in the middes of wynter. And whan the sea is most treblous, if she doe laye, it becometh sodenly calme, and the stormes & wyndes do cease, untill the byrde haue all hatched, and brought by hir chyckens, and made theym able to fley, whiche is in the space of. xiiii. dayes.
 This byrde is little more than a sparrowe, hir fethers be purple of colour mixt with whyte, and D hath half a long necke and a small, his body somewhat green, long slender, and is one very seldome, howbeit this byrde is taken for that, which we call the bynges fether, whiche is one bynde of the same.

Alcedonea, tymes of qutetnes, without care or trouble on the sea.

Aleyonides dyes, idem.

Aleonor, a name of Argine.

Alees, also, f. g. idem quod Alegra brass in Framke is a mule, but he hath his upper lip so longe, that whan he fedeth, he goeth backe warde by the head not byrde of the grasse and herbes whiche he wilde eat: The byrde bynde of them hath byrdes on their upper browes.
Such a beaste was late brought into Englande, and sente in the bynges park at westminster.

Aleabrias, is the name of a booke, which is an introduction to the iudiciall parte of Astronomie.

Alchech, in the Arabis tongue, is the becke, which is called Linx, and is begotten between a lyon, and a lybarde.

Alcibradion, also, n. g. is an herbe, whiche Dioscorides calleth Eclion. Strius Cordus (a famous physician of this tyme) supposeth it to be a bynde of our boage, the flowers being somewhat lyke, but that they be deeper in, and do not spede so bynde, and be of a more purple colour.
The seede therof is lyke the head of an adder: in so muche that theretoe seme to bee eien therein.
Some doo suppose it to bee wylde boage: other name it also Anchusa, it is called Alcibradion, of Alcibrades, whiche used it to paine his face.

Alcibiaceum, Dioscorides calleth Eclion, idem quod Alcibradion.

Alcibias, of Dioscorides calleth Stechas, or Sticas.
Alcibion, an herbe.

Alcoranum, a booke of Mahumete, wherein are mytte moste shamefull lies and abominations, with some parte of scripture, & necessary lawes, though these be fewest. For he getteth byentie to men to haue great numbres of wyues, and concubynes without numbre. He ymagineth aungels to be in loue, and to commit aduouttie with moztall women. He auauenteth, that he himselfe went up to God to receiue lawes, and that he was borne thither by an asse, that Iesus lent him: that he found God beating of an aungell, betwene whose browes was the space of a iours-ney of many hundred yeres. And such lyres in great number be there feigned, not withstanding, in the same booke he doth prohibite aduouttye,
and commaundeth strenghtly keepyng of promes,
and other thynges, not to be dyspelled.

Alcyo, loke Halcyo, and Alcedo.

Aleyonides, loke Alcedonia.

Alcionium, the spume of some of the sea rate.

Alea, also, f. g. a dyce, playyng at dyce. Somtyme it signifyeth chaunce or fortune.

Aleam emere, to byrde a thyng that we knowe not, or becometh of.

Aleam omne iactare, to set all at dyce and cruse.

Aleaformis, the chaunce of fortune, somtyme in play.

Extracommuni ingenij alea positus, without wynde of compassion extellyng all others in wynde.

Aleator, also, n. g. a dyce, or a playe.

Aleatorium, a place, generall playe, or a playyng house.

Dieteromus calleth it Aleatorium, forum.

Aleatorium, also, n. g. belongyng to dyce, or playe.

Aleatoris, the byrde whiche do now the well, but doe some, thynges that do canout well.

Alec, or Halec, lecis, f. & neu. g. a felle called an heartynge.

Alecto, one of the furies of hell.

Alecton, also, n. g. the fount of Santagor, or Alectoria, also, n. g. a fount founde in the forthes of the greatnes of a beaute

Alectolophes, an herbe called of the latynes Christa, because the yeres be lyke a cockes cobe,

the floure small, the seede blacke in coddres,
frenche men call this herbe feruen.

Alecula, leculæ, f. g. a spot, or a little herpyng, pylchard.

Alemon, an oymment that weastlers vse, called also Aelima.

Aleo, also, n. g. a byrde, or dyce playe.

Alephingina, species, is a barbarous wynde bled of the wyndes, whiche they doo figure powder

of soote spres, as ginger, pepper, cloves, maces, nutmiges, cynamothie, and other lyke.

Alepteron, a place in bathes, where men were and bathed.

Ales, also, f. g. a byrde. Somtyme it signifieth a byrde in fleynge or rennyng, as Alite planta, of foote. Ales is somtyme bled for Ales palladis, the owle.

Ales pandionis, the owle of the nightingall.

Phacidis ales, a pheasant.

Ales cyllenius, Mercurius.

Cythereia ales, a culuar.

Phabeus ales, a crowe.

Titanus ales, Iohannis.

Canorus ales, the swanne.

Alous ales, the eggle.

Mala ales, euill luche.

Potiore alite quid facere, id est, meliori au-spicio.

Secundo alite quid facere: idem.

Alatus, that hath winges.

Alitib' secundis, prosperously, with good fortune.

Ales, itis, adiect. om. g. swifte.

Alesco, alui, scere, neu. to growe or waite fat.

Alerudo, inis, f. g. fatheffe of the bodie.

Aleuron, i. m. g. meale of wheate.

Alex, alécis, f. g. a kinde of saltelycour made of byr-des, betay hollow for many thynges. It is also a ryuer that diuideth the countrey Byeginum from Lotrus.

Alexandrina Chamedaphne, of Dioscorides is called Vinea perulinea, perwinckle.
Alexicacon, icaci, n. gen. a remedy to put away misthies, or any evil thynge.
Alexicacus, lexicaci, m. g. one that smyth men from all misthies, misfortune, and poore.
Alexipharmacum, thymel, g. is properly a medicine against popson. It is also taken for such thynges as men use to hang about their neckes, theyr armes, or in house for a defence against popson, ill spirites, or geruous diseases. And so Throphylus writeth it in his nygthe booke, where he treateth of Tripolium.
Alexiteria, idem quod Alexipharmaca.
Alga, algæ, f. g. reites of weedes in the sea.
Algeses, spithes called also Purpure.
Algenis, se, belongynge to reites of weedes of the sea.
Algeo, alxi, vel alxi, g. re, n. gen. to be in payne, properly for colde, to chill for colde.
Algidenis, a thynde of rabyde, long and thert through.
Algidus, algida, um, chill for colde.
Algificus, gifica, um, that maketh one chill for colde.
Algor, oris, m. g. n. gen. grieve. Sometyme it signifieth colde.
Algosus, a, um, full of such weedes, as be in the sea, and called Alga.
Alguasen, an herbe lyke unto a lily.
Algus, i, and Algus, us, m. g. idē quod Algor.
Aliandal, colocintida.
Aliās, an aduerbe, signifieth of els, els where, in an other place, after an other facion, an other tyme, Sometyme.
De hoc aliās, I wil speake of this another tyme.
Aliās ita loquar vt cōcessum, aliās, vt necesse est, id est, interdum, Sometyme.
Aliās aliud de eisdem rebus iudicabunt, at an other tyme they will geue a contrary sentence vpon the same matter. or Sometyme they will geue one iudgement of a thynge, Sometyme an other.
Alibi, els where. Sometyme in an other thynge.
Alibilis, le, that nourisheth.
Alica, alica, for, g. is a thynge made of wheate in this wise. They take wheate and strepe it in water, and afterwarde beate it: than they drye it in the sunne, & bryake it grosse, so that euery corne be broken in foure or fyue pieces. Some do put into it chalke, some creame of milke sodden, to make it seeme verate white.
Alica saccharata, frumentie.
Alicariæ meretrices, common harlottes.
Alicarij, they that do make or sell Alicam.
Alicastrum, cāstri, neu. g. the fourthe sort of the wheate called Far.
Alicubi, Somewhere.
Alicula, læ, f. g. the diminutue of Alica.
Alicunde, or as somme accent it, Alicunde, from some place, or of some other persone or thing.
Alienatio, onis, f. g. an alienacion or alterpnyng, or the withdrawinge of the mynde from the friends, or fauour of any man, also the deliuerance of the possession of any thynge to an other.

Alienatio mentis, such a commacion, or thous thyngs of reason, that a man is almost beside hym selfe.
Alienator, oris, m. g. he that altereth a thynge.
Alienatus, is, m. g. put away, altered, estranged, alienate.
Alienatus ad libidinem animus, a mynde falsen from vertue to fleshy pleasure.
Alienat est mihi vsus arduus hoc est ablatum.
Alienatus a sensu animi, a mynde cleane with out all reason or consideration.
Alienigena, nigenæ, rom. g. a stranger, an alien.
Alienigenus, a, um, that which cometh out of an other countreie.
Alieno, alienas, aui, are, act. to alienate, to put away, or put of, to aliene or alter possession.
Alienari mentes, to be out of his right wittes.
Dicenda sententia illum alienauit, in declarpnyng his opinion he made him his enemye.
Alienare, reconciliare, contrarye.
Alienari, is sometyme used, to be altered or corrupted.
Alienare quempiam a se, to put one out of his frendship or fauour.
Alienus, a, um, of an other sort, strange, diuers, vnlyke, not agreable, out of acquaintance or fauour, an other mans, none of ours, he that is not of our kynrede, familie, or countrey. Sometyme absurd, vnmete, not conuenient, also vnholosome, hurtfull, noysome. Sometyme used for Alius.
Equirare podagricis alienum, it is vnholosome or not agreing for the that haue the goutte to ride.
Cibi stomacho non alieni, meates agreing wel with the stomake.
Aliena mensa, an other mans table.
Alienæ domi esse, to be at an other mans house.
Alienus hic nemo est, there is no straunger.
Propinqui nobis propiores q̄ alieni, kindeste to be nare to vs in frendship, then such as be not of our kinne.
Vtere tuis rebus, non alienis, vse thyne owne geare, and not an other mans. Sometyme it hath a datiu case: as.
Alienus ambitioni, nothing set on ambicion.
Alienus, is sometyme used for farre vnlyke, vntoward, vnmete.
De alieno liberalis, he is liberrall of that which is none of his owne: he cutteth a large thonge of an other mans leather. Sometyme it hath a genitiue case.
Aliena consilij domus, an house vnmete for the purpose, or nothing knowing of the purpose.
Item: Alienum dignitatis alicuius.
Alieno more viuendum est mihi, I must liue after an other mans facion, or as other men will haue me.
Alieno animo esse, to be displeased with one.
Alienos agim, we becom strangers vnto hym.

Alienissimum reipublice tempus; the worst time that may bee for the weale publique; the tyme it hath an ablatiue case res. Alienissimum Alienium suis rationibus; unsupportable for his purpose.

Item alienum nostra amicitia; not agreeable to our friendship.

Non alienus sanguine regibus; of the kynge's bloude.

Alienus animus; Iam primum illum alieno
a nobis animo esse, res ipse indicat; the thing it selfe declareth, that euen now he hath no fa-uour towards vs.

Aliena iacis; thou castest not hynde to the purpose. A proverbe taken of dyers, when they nede chance vnto theyr lyf, & not as we would haue them.
Animus alienus alicui; for, ab aliquo.

Alienum a dignitate alicuius.

Alienissimus vite rustica; pro, a vita rustica.

Aliena loqui; to saue ad men doe in extreme tykenesse.

Alienus locus; an vnmette place.

Alienum tempus; an vntoconuenient tyme.

Alienum fortuna sua vultum gerere; to loke otherwyle than the present state of ones liues gappeth.

Alienus a literis; rude, ignoiant, barbarous.

Alienior heres; an heire that is no hynde to hym, whom he succedeth.

Alife; toke Aliph.

Alifer; & aliger, ligera, rum; any thyng that hath wynges.

Alimentarius; a, um, pertynyng to liuyng or sustenance. Sometime he to whom a man getteth his luyng in meate and drinke by his last will.

Alimentarius lex; a law which wylled chyldren to find & nouryshe their parentes being imbecile.

Alimentum alicui; new ge. sustenance, foode, or liuyng.

Alimodis; idem quod aliusmodi; of an other fastion or maner.

Alimon; an herbe that will not suffer them that tast it to be hungry. it is also called Alera, Al- bucium, and Alimos.

Alimonia, monia; form. ge. and Alimonium, i,
idem quod Alimentum.

Alio; to an other place. Somtyme to an other thyng, to an other purpose.

Cupiditatis nomē seruet alio, id est, ad aliud, let hym kepe the name of couetousnes to an other purpose.

Alio responsionem suam diriuauit; he aun-swered not to that he was demaunded.

Alio sermonē transference; to talke of an other matter, to turne his talke to an other matter.

Quo alio; to any other place.

Alioqui; or Alioquin; otherwyle; mozeouer, or els, excepte that, if not.

Aliorū; towarde, to some other place, otherwyle.

Aliorū atq; ego feci, accepit; he toke it other-wyle then I did it for.

Aliomendū; for Aliotubū; mar. D. Aliomendū

Alipara; medrens made without fatte. Alipara

Alipatos; fleshet that hath no fatte. Alipatos

Alipax; plaisters that haue no fatte in theire make. Alipax

Alipes; souer of spere. Alipes

Alipedes equi; swift rennyng horses. Alipedes equi

Alipetrum; a place in bathon, wher in men were banished. Alipetrum

Alipilus; he that pulbeth the beares of ones atme holes in the bathon. Alipilus

Alipres; dipes; m. g. he that annoynteth wrestlers in common game, and was called the master of the wrestlers. Alipres

Aliqua; by some place, by some maner. Aliqua

Aliquam multi; for Aliquot; some. Aliquam multi

Aliquandū; any whyle. Aliquandū

Aliquando; with the accent in antepenult. sometimes notwth than, ones at length, ones in tyme passe, and is used both with the pterterence and the future.

Aliquando tandem; ones at length. Aliquando tandem

Aliquantillum; a diminutiue of Aliquantulum.

Aliquantisper; a little whyle. Aliquantisper

Aliquantū; somewhat, by a little. Aliquantū

Aliquantū ante; a little before. Aliquantū ante

Aliquantū post; a little after. Aliquantū post

Aliquantulum; somewhat. Aliquantulum

Aliquantulus; a, um; somewhat be it neuer so litle.

Aliquantum; idem quod Aliquantulum.

Aliquantus; a, um; somewhat, neyther much neyther litle.

Aliquantum ad rem est auidior; he is somewhat couetous.

Aliquantum; vled with a verberas; Aliquantū pcesit; he went somewhat forwarde on the way.

Aliquantum; with a genitiue case; as; Aliquantū nummorum.

Aliquantenus; aliquatenus; in some part, by some reason, or meane.

Aliquid; some thyng.

Aliquid; for Aliquantum; the aduerbe.

Aliquis; aliqua; aliquod; some, one.

Aliquis est; he is a man of no smal repufacion.

Is aliquis ligarius non fuit; vnus aliquis;
some one man.

Aliquis de vel ex nobis.

Aliquispiam; quāpiam; quōdpiam; idem quod

aliquis; a rare worde.

Aliquo; to some place.

In angulum aliquod abeam; I wyll goe into some coynner.

Aliquorsum; towarde some place.

Aliquot; some, not many, not few.

Aliquotfariam; for aliquot modis.

Aliquoties; at sometyme.

Alirei; Plautus vbleth for Alia rei.

Alisma; called of some Damosion; of other Ipe- ron; of late wyters Fistula pastoralis; in Englyshe water plantayne.

Alisi; an herbe called of the latines Flos paradisi;
the floure of paradise, of the Frenchemen, Ocu- lus

lus dei.

Aliter, oꝛ els, contrarie wise, oꝛ otherwise.

Aliter ac, aliter atq, aliter quā, oꝛ otherwise than.

Aliter de ea re audio, atque vt ad te scripseram, I haue herbe oꝛ otherwise of that matter, than I wrote to you.

Aliter atque aliter, diuers waies.

Alites, great byrdes, which are fedde.

Alitūra, rā, f. g. nourishyng.

Aliubi, els where Aliubi, foz alicubi, somewhere.

Aliubi, atq alicubi melius, better in some place than in other.

Aliunde, from an other place.

Alius, alia, uid, In the genetiu case Alius. some tyme is founde Alij, and Alia, other, oꝛ an oꝛ ther, diuers, contrary, oꝛ of an other sort.

Alius alium præponit, one preferreth the one, an other the tother.

Alius, with a verbe plurall.

Alius alium percontatur, one of vs demaundeth of an other.

Alia fallacia aliam trudit, one deceyts byingeth in an other.

Alius alium ingenio præstat, some haue bettē wittes than other.

Aliud alio discipulū, he cast one thyng into one place, an other into an other.

Aliud stans aliud sedens, one thyng stans byng an other sittynge, spoken of verie vncōstant and waueryng persons.

Alia dicenda, alia cælenda, somethings are to be spoken, some to be kepte cloaste.

Aliam ætatem alia decem, somethinges be some one age, some an other, all thynges dooe not become euerie age.

Aliud est anima, aliud corpus, the soule and the bodie be diuers thynges.

Aliorum sit iudiciū, leat other men iudge.

Aliud alio tempore. Alius alio modo. Alia atq alia religiones, many and sundry kyndes of religion.

Alius es multo quā soles, thou art farre an other felow than thou were wont to be.

Longe alia mihi mens est, id est, diuersa, my mynd is greatly altered: oꝛ, I am now of an other opinion.

Alia alios delectant, dyuers men bee delited with diuers thynges, oꝛ some thynges delite one man, some an other.

Alius sum ab illo quem putas, I am not the man that ye take me foz, oꝛ, I am an other manner of man than ye thinke foz.

Aliud ac, foz aliud quam.

Aliud mihi respondes, ac rogo, thou answerest me not to that I aske the.

Alia sunt legati partes atque imperatoris, the office of a legatē, and of an emperour be diuers, oꝛ be not all one.

Quæ per biennium alia super alia es ausus, Whiche with in the space of this two yere one vpon an others necke thou haste ben so bolde to enterpise.

Aliud ex alio malū, one mischiefe in an others necke.

Ouorum alia sunt candida, alia pallida, of tyes ges some bee white, some pale.

Eadem aliis, aliter euadunt, the selfe same thynges chaunce diuersly to diuers persons.

Alis, foz Alius, and Alid foz Aliud, was vsed of olde wryters.

Aliusmodi, in an other maner, of an other fashion.

Aliuta, olde wryters vsed foz Aliter.

Alkakengi, is an herbe, called also Halicacabus, and Vesicaria, and in greke Physalides, out of which groweth a stalke, hauynge on the toppe thereof a rounde thyng lyke to a bladder, of coloure betwene redde and yelow, wher in is a redde bearie lesse then a cherie, whiche in diuers waies is wonderfull medicinable agaynst the strangurie, oꝛ stoppings of vrine, besydes other good vertues.

Allabor, sus sum, abi, dep, to flow by, to slide by, oꝛ to rowe by.

Allaboro, bōras, aui, āre, act. to labour, to labour earnestly.

Allaborare alicui rei, by labour to adde to a thyng.

Allaudo, aui, āre, act. to lyghten, to make lyghte.

Allambo, bi, ere, idem quod Lambo.

Allantoides, the seconde skinne that the yong infant is wrapped in, in the mothers wombe.

Allapsus, us, masc. gene. a flowynge by oꝛ to, a clydynge to.

Allapsus, a, um, the participle.

Allapsus genibus, fallynge down at his knees.

Allatro, allatras, aui, āre, neu. gen. to barke at, and by a metaphoz, enuiouslie to rayle oꝛ speke against one.

Allatrare alicuius dignitatē, to rayle oꝛ speake against a mans honour.

Allatrant maria, the seas roze.

Allatus, a, um, brought to.

Allaudo, aui, āre, vsed of poetes foz Laudo.

Allectatio, ōnis, f. g. an allurynge oꝛ intyng.

Allecto, aui, āre, act. to allure oꝛ drawe to by fayre meanes.

Allector, ōris, m. g. one that allureth.

Allectus, a, um, allured.

Allecti, chosen, ascribed, appoynted.

Allegatio, ōnis, f. g. a sollicitation oꝛ intreaty made by frendes oꝛ messengers.

Allego, allēgas, aui, āre, act. to alledge oꝛ byynge foz the, to name, to depute oꝛ geue auctorite, to sende one as a messenger, solicitour oꝛ intreater in some weightie matter.

Illum ad me hodie allegauit, he sent that man to me to daie.

Alium ego isti rei allegabo, I will depute oꝛ assigne an other to that matter.

Multa allegauit, he alleged oꝛ brought in many thynges,

Allego, allegis, égi, ere, act. to ascribe, to choole to a company, to assigne.
Allegere in ordinem, to ascribe to some order, or admitte into a company.
Allegere in praetores, to ascribe amonge the pretors.
Allegoria, gória, f. g. a figure called inuersion, where it is one in wordes, and an other in sence and meanyng.
Alleluya, is an herbe, called of the apothecaries Trifoliū acetosum, and Panis cuculi, of Philisnie and other learned men, it is named Oxys. wodge soxrell.
Alleluya, prayse ye the lord.
Alleuamentum, ti, neu. ge. a swagging or dimisnyng of sorow, an easynge of pepne.
Alleuatio, ónis, form. ge. idem.
Alleuo, alleuas, áui, áre, act. to lyfte vp, to heaue aloft, and by a metaphoze, to helpe or succour, to ease one of sorow or grieve.
Artabanus alleuatur animum, id est, animo.
Alleuare ónus, to lyghten ones burdeyn.
Alleuare afflictum, to helpe and comfort one that is in miserie.
Alleuare dictis ærumnā aliorū, to comforte.
Alleuatum corpus, a body eased or amended of his sykkenesse.
Allex, állicis, an adiectiue, that allureth or inticeth.
Allex, or Allux, cis, m. g. loke Allus.
Allia, idem quod Alia.
Alliarium, ri, n. g. an herbe that hath the tast of garlike, and in English is called, sauce alone, or Flacke of the hedge.
Alliatus, a, um, that senteth of garlike.
Allicefacio, licéfacis, feci, ere, act. to allure or drawe to.
Allicio, állicis, léxi, ere, act. to allure.
Allicere alicuius beneuolentiam, to allure the fauour or good will of a man.
Allicere & attrahere feitum, to allure and draw vnto it selfe pcren.
Allicere somnos, to prouoke slepe.
Allido, lidis, fi, dere, act. to squatte or throwe any thing agaynst the grounde or walles, and by a metaphoze, to hurte.
Allidi in re aliqua, to be hurt, or take harme in any thing, to be damaged.
In quibus me perlibente Seruius allisus est, id est, læditur, hath some hurte or damage.
Alligatio, ónis, f. g. a byndyng to of a thyng.
Alligator, óris, m. g. he that byndeth.
Alligatura, ræ, f. g. a bonde.
Alligatus, a, um, bounden to.
Alligata ciuitas fœdere, a citee bonde by some conuencion or agreement.
Alligo, álligas, áui, áre, act. to bynde to, to stop or lette, to accuse or appeache.
Alligare vulnus, to wraппe or bynde vp a wounde.
Alligari & impediri in re aliqua, to be lette or intangled in a matter.

Alligari beneficio, to bee bounden to one for any benefite.
Alligare noua lege, to charge with the obseruance of a newe lawe.
Alligare aliquē furto, to appeach one of felony.
Alligare se furti, to charge hym selfe with felony, or to shewe hym selfe guilty of felony.
Allino, állinis, lini, lini, léui, ere, act. to annoynt.
Allinere vitia sua alteri, to infecte an other with his vice.
Allium, állij, neu. gen. garlike. wherof be, in kindes: one is the common garlike: an other is called Allium anguinum, crow garlike or wild garlike: the thyrd Allium vrsinum, ramens of Bucrammes.
Ne alij quidem caput, he gaue not so much as a garlyke heade. A prouerbe spoken of a wygarde, and one that wyll departe with nothing.
Allobrogicus, a, um, the adiectiue.
Allocutio, ónis, f. g. a speakyng to one.
Allocutum ire, to speake with one.
Allodium, a thyng that is propre to one and his owne.
Allophylus, lóphyli, m. g. a straunger, an alpen.
Alloquium, quij, n. g. communication, speche.
Alloquor, tus sum, alloqui, to speake to.
Allubesco, lúbui, scere, neu. ge. an olde worde, signifyng to please.
Allucinatio, ónis, f. g. a byndnesse of mynde, an erreour or deception of opinion.
Allucinor, átus sum, ári, dep. to be deceiued in opinion, to erre.
Alludo, lúdis, ere, neu. gen. to speake that which hath some respect or resemblaunce to an other thyng, to speake merily, to scoffe at a thyng prauily and merily, to smile vpon, to make gesture or countenance of wythe to a thyng or persone, to fauour.
Alludere ad historiam, to speake or do some thyng agreeable, or lyke to some hystoppe before wrytten.
Alludit tibi huius vite prosperitas, Fortune smileth on thee, or the worlde goeth with thee.
Alluo, álluis, ui, ere, act. to flow nighe to, to wash as the water doeth the grounde.
Allus, the great toe, whan he lyeth ouer the next toe.
Alluies, ei, for. g. is whan abundance of water, mixt with claie, couereth the grounde, a cloud.
Alluio, ónis, for. g. idem.
Alma, mæ, f. g. a mayden, hyd, or secreete.
Almitas, ei, form. gen. beautifulnes, or excellent noythyng.
Almytis, of some is taken to be the same that Alimum is. loke there.
Almus, a, um, all thynges that noythe vs, properly the earthe is so called Alma tellus, because we haue therof our sustinaunce. Sometime it signifieth fayre, beautifull: as, Almus dies, a fayre clere daie.

Alnus,

Alnus, alni, f. ge. an alder tree, or an alder tree, of which shippes were wonte to be made. Comes etiam si significat a shippe or bote.

Alo, alis, sui, ere, act. to feede, to nouryſhe, to ſinde one all thinges neceſſary, as meate, drinke, and clothy. It is applyed to thynges not corpo- rally, and ſignifieth to increaſe, to augment, to mainteyne.

Alere proprie maiores, nutrire pueros.

Alere bellum, to mainteyne warre.

Glandes, quæ primo victum mortalium aluerunt: id est, ſuſtentarunt.

Sicim alere, to continue or kepe theſtines.

Alit honos artes, honour and aduancement maketh learning to flouriſhe.

Alere audaciam, to make bolde.

Aloe, aloes, form. gen. is a typle of an herbe congeled like a gumme, wherof be two ſortes: one is named Succorina, which is lyke a lyuer, red, dryght, and broke: the other is called Caballina, and is ſandy and groſſe. The fyrſt ſtendeth and confirmeth the ſtomacke of a man, and therfore is myxt with purgative medicines, becauſe they ſhall not anole or hurt the ſtomacke: the laſt is occupied about hoſes and other beaſtes. This typle is called Succus succorina. After Plinie Aloe is an herbe, that hath a meruailous bitter taſt, wherof ſpeth this prouerbe.

Plus aloes quam mellis habet, It is moze ſowpe than ſweete, moze bitter than pleaſaunt. Erasmus ſaith, Aloe is a ſhutte, in ſauour ſpynnyng, in taſt moſt bitter.

Aloe lignum, or Lignum aloes, is a ſweete or pueriſhe woorde, which begyn receyued in medicines comfoſeth the ſtomacke, and all the infe- rior partes of man, and maketh ſweete breath.

Aloetis, Mandragora.

Aloidarium, a purgation made of Aloe.

Alogia, lógiæ, f. g. vnreaſonable and beaſtly fees dyng, and ingurgitation of meate and drynke.

Aloia, loke Aloe.

Alonge, farre of.

Alopecia, péciæ, f. ge. is a diſeaſe in the heade or bearde, whiche cauſeth the heares to fall of by the rotes.

Alopecidæ, dogges gotten betwene a wolfe and a bytche.

Alopecis, a grape ſhaped lyke a foxes taile.

Alopecurus, an herbe lyke a foxes taile, and is full of moiſnes.

Alopecus, ci, m. g. he that hath a pylde paſe, that is ſo ſaie, the heares falling with ſcurfe.

Alopex marina, called alſo Vulpes marina, is a typle of the ſea, whiche perreyunge the hooke to bee faſtned in his bealy, byteth of the lyne aboue the taklyng, and ſo eſcapeth.

Alôſa, a typle called of the Spaniardes, Sau- lus: of the Venetians Culpea, of Briſtoll, and other grekes Chryſſa, whiche Gaſa translated Alôſa. This typle, for a ſeruent deſyre that he hath to a deyne in the Canies lawes, killeth hym.

Aloſchorodon, idem quod Capparis.

Alpha, the fyrſt letter of the grekes, and is vſed for the fyrſt or principall.

Alphabetaſti, they that doo learne fyrſt the order of letters.

Alphabétum, ti, neut. gen. the order of letters, as, ABC.

Alphiton, meale, or phylitions it is alſo taken for barley meale ſeyed.

Alphos, alphi, m. ge. a morpheu or ſhappynge of the ſhynne.

Alpina, næ, a ſtrange tree, the bodie wherof is verie white, and bees will not touche the bloſ- ſomes of it.

Alpinus, a, um, of the mountayns Alpes.

Alpum, for Album, vſed of olde wyters.

Alpus, a, um, pale, carefull or ſtudious.

Alſa, a riuer rennyng by Aquileia in Italy.

Alſine, an herbe called of ſome Myſolota, in Italy it is named Muris auricula, becauſe the leaſe thereof is lyke a mouſe eare, after ſome it is cal- led chike wede. It groweth muche in places ſha- dowed with trees. And chiefly on gardeine wals- les, of this herbe be. iiii. kyndes.

Alſioſus, a, um, cold of nature. alſo that thyng which is ſone hurt or anole with colde.

Altanus, a certayne wynde that ſpeth out of the eaſthe.

Altare, raris, n. g. an aultare.

Altea, of ſome is taken for Althæa, loke there.

Alte, on hygh, depe, with poetes ſomeſyme long, continually. alſo farre of.

Alte terram fodere, to dygge deepe in the grounde.

Ferrum haud alte in corpus descendit, The ſwerde perced not farre into his body.

Altius perſpicere, to ſee farther, or perceyue moze in a matter.

Alte petium, farre ſette.

Altius repetere, to reſite a thing with all cir- cumſtance, almoſte from the begynnyng.

Alter, ra, rum, alterius, teri, an other, the other, propely one of the two, the ſecond, but it is oft- ten vſed for alius. And of olde wyters Alteræ, is vſed in the datyue caſe.

Alter, is vſed in the plurall number, thus: Du- plices ſimilitudines, vnæ, rerum, alteræ ver- borum.

Alteradecem, Alteris literis.

Altero quoq; die, euey ſeconde daie.

Alter ab vndecimo, id est, ſecundus, the thir- tieth.

Alter & viceſimus, one and twentie.

Alter quiſquam, any other.

Qui de altero obloquitur, ſeiſum contueri oportet, He that ſpeth ill of an other, ought to conſider his owne fautes.

Vnus & alter dies interceſſerat, twoo or thre daies were paſte.

Ita fiat, vt neuter alteri officiat, id est, neuter neutri, So it shall come to passe, that neither shall hurt other.
 Cum vterq; alteri obiciat, palam est vtrumq; fecisse, When eche of them laith it to others charge, it is manifeste, that bothe of them did it.
 Vnus & item alter, one or two, signifying an uncertayne numbze.
 Alterum tantum, as much more.
 Cum alter alterum videremus, when eche of vs sawe other. Likewise Alter alterū docetis, Altero die quā soluit a Brundisio, the second daie after he departed from Brundise.
 Alter ab illo, nexte after hym.
 Alter ego, alter idem, alter Cicero. i. similis.
 Alter, eris, or Halter, eris, m. g. poises of leade, made to lyfte vp in bothe hādes, to exercise mē, which maie not otherwyle labour. wherof there be many now in Englande, specially in studentes chadmbers.
 Alteratio, onis, f. ge. alteration, changeyng from one qualitee to an other.
 Alteras, olde wryters vsed for Alias.
 Altercatio, onis, for. ge. a contention in wordes, where one mā purposeth, and an other replyeth, also a chydng.
 Altercator, oris, ma. gen. one that contendeth by replication, a wryngler, a chider.
 Alterco, idem quod altercor, to be at wordes.
 Altercor, atūs sum, ari, depō. to contende with wordes one with an other on sundry parties, to chide, to wryngle.
 Altercum, siue altercagenu, an herbe called also Fabā porcina, after some in Englishe Benbane.
 Alternatim, by tourne, one at one tyme, an other at an other tyme.
 Alterne, idem.
 Alternō, aui, are, act. to doo thynges by tourne, now one, and than an other; And beyng referred to the mynde, it signifieth to wauer, to bee vnconstant, to bee in diuers tales.
 Alternās testis, a witness wauering in his tale, or beyng in diuers tales.
 Alternatio, onis, f. g. succession by tourne.
 Alternus, a, um, that is down by course.
 Alternis diebus, sundry daies, where one day is betwene.
 Alternis annis, euery seconde pere.
 Alternis penē verbis, almost at euery seconde worde.
 Alternis annis sunt mares, alternis forminæ. They bee sometyne males, and sometyne females, or euery second pere they be males.
 Alterplex, icis, olde wryters vsed for Duplex.
 Altero, alteras, aui, are, to alter or chaunge.
 Alterta, idem quod Alterutra.
 Alteruter, tēutra, trum, the one or the other.
 Alterutrinque, an aduerbe, on either parte.
 Althæa, æ, f. ge. the great malowes or holy hocke in comme mens opinion: but I thinke it rather to be called water malowe, or marsh malowe.

Altis, altile, n. ge. the thing that is franked to be made fatte, be it beast, fyre, or foule.
 Altis galina, an henne franked or fedde.
 Altimetor, oris, m. ge. or Altimeter, tri, an instrument, wherewith high thynges are metted.
 Alifonus, a, um, that maketh nople com shoue.
 Alitronans, nantis, om. gen. he that thundreth, whiche name the paynymys gaue to therr god Jupiter.
 Altitudo, tudinis, f. g. height or deepnesse.
 Altitudo animi, noble courage, hautenesse of mynde.
 Altiolans, lantis, om. gen. all thyng that flyeth hygh.
 Altiolus, a, um, that flyeth hygh.
 Altor, oris, m. g. he that nouryseth or hyngeth by one.
 Altrifecus, on the one part.
 Altrix, icis, f. g. she that nouryseth.
 Altrouersum, on the other part, or on y ether side.
 Altus, a, um, hygh, depe, properly in the sea, it signifieth also excellent, glorious, auncient, noble, great, haute, lustie, secrete, hydde. Sometyne from heauen, or out of heauen.
 Ex alto, from on hygh.
 Altum orum, longe rest, great leysure.
 Aeditus in altum, sette aloft.
 Altior spiritus, an haute and lusty courage.
 Alta mente præditus homo, a man of great and excellent wysedome.
 Altus somnus, deade sleape.
 Alta quies, great rest.
 Altus dolor, sorow kept close, that lieth cunctyng in the stomache.
 Altiores literæ, profounde learning.
 Altum, alone, signifieth sometyne the deepest part of the sea, and fardest from lande, the mayne sea. sometyne heauen.
 Ex alto in portum, out of the mayne sea into the haven.
 Demisit ab alto, he sent downe from heauen.
 Alta exaggerata oratio, an hygh and plentis full stile.
 Altus, a, um, nourished.
 Aluear, aluearium, and Aluiare, neu. ge. a place where hyues of bees be set. also a stocke of the same hyues, sometyne the hyue it selfe.
 Alueatus, a, um, made holow lyke to the place where a ryuer renneth.
 Alueolatus, a, um, holow.
 Alueolus, li, m. ge. a baskette or maunde, a chesse boude or tables to plaie on. it is also an holow vessell made of wodde, also a culuer hole, or a place of wodde made for culuers.
 Alueus, alui, or Aluius, ui, mas. gen. an hyne for bees, a vessell to walthe in, the bealy of any thyng that lacketh life. sometyne it signifieth a shippe or the docke that a shippe standeth in, also the place betwene both bankes, where the ryuer renneth, the chanell of a ryuer. Alueus is sometyne taken for bees, also a chesse board

It hath a footelonde; called also Helichryson: of Theophrastus; Silius: of Apothecaries: Scitac of Plinius; in Englishe maudrine woode of Balzar Can. Whother groweth a foote in height, and hath leaues lyke bayle, and a flowpe facioned lyke an eare rather than a flowpe, of coulour cymosyn, and neuer dyeth, wherof it hath his name Amaranthos: it hath no candour, the more it is gather-red the more it groweth agayne, and when all flowers are past in the wynter, then it beeyng watered; both springe a newe. Plin. li. 21. c. 8.
 It is called commonly flos amoris, in Douche
 Floramor, in frenche Passeue lute: in Englishe (as some suppose) Balzare, of other flowpe gentile, more cruelly.

Amare, bytterly.

Amarefco, ui, scere; to make bytter, or to bee bytter.

Amarice, a lytle shrubbe of bushe, called also Erice, Tamarice, Myrice, Briaria.

Amarico, aui, are, to make bytter, to make angry.

Amabilis, idos, a womans name.

Amariscus, an herbe called Mathia, or dogge fenell.

Amarities, ei, bytternesse.

Amaritudo, inis, and Amaricies, ei, bytternesse.

Implere amaritudinem inimici, to shewe ones selfe as sharp and cruel as if he were an enemy.

Amaror, idem quod amaritudo.

Amarulentus, a, um, vexed with malice, very bister, spytefull, enuious.

Amarus, a, um, bytter; and by a metaphoze very angry, cruell, peynfull, hurtfull, spytefull, froworde, vnplesant.

Casus amari, aduerber. fert patienter, casus amarus.

Dicta amara, spytefull woordes.

Amara mulier, a rushe queane.

Sales amari, bytyng troffes.

Amariorum me facit senectus, age maketh me more austre, frowarde, vnplesant.

Scripta amara, taunting wytynges.

Amara mors, death peynfull, heauye, vnp-plesant.

Amarus hostis, a cruell enemy.

Amarus rumor, a spytefull rumour.

Amasius, & Amasia, he or she that loueth; or is in loue.

Amasso, idem quod amauero.

Amatio, onis, f. g. a loupng, a wanton loupng.

Amator, oris, male. gene. a lover, or hee that is amorous.

Amatorculus, li, m, g. a small or simple lover.

Amatoria, aduer. lyke a lover, taken both in the good parte and the yll.

Amatorie, subst. the name of one of the Muses, called in Greke Erato.

Amatorius, a, um, that petyneeth to loue.

Amatorium poculum, a drynke charmed to make a man a lover.

Amatoria poesis, verses of loue.

Amatrix, tris, f. g. a woman lover.

Amatrosis, is, vel sios, form. ge. the byttnesse of the tien.

Amazaes, in latine Plaustrum; a wayne; loke

Hamaxa.

Ambactus, a seruant.

Ambages, bagis, fco. ge. a circuite of woordes, or a tale drawen in lengthe.

De hoc nomine tantum legi has tres voculas,

Ambages, ambage, ambagibus.

Ambage longa nos moratur, vix digne pueris ambages. Missis ambagibus.

Ambagiōsus, a, um, adiect. that aboundeth in suche foyme of speakeyng.

Ambar, or Ambarum, loke Ambrā.

Ambarualis hostia, was a sacrifice made for the felices, with a sow great with farowe.

Ambedo, ambedis, vel ambes, edi, ere, to eate or knowe about a thyng.

Ambegni, were an oxe and a ramme, whan on every syde of them lambes were brought to bee sacrificed.

Ambest, idem quod circum est, vel edit.

Ambēsus, a, um, eaten by, or gnawen rounde about.

Ambidentes, sheepe of two teethe, of some called hogges, and of some theaues.

Ambidexter, stri, m, g. he that useth both handes lyke well. And by a metaphoze, he that taketh money on both the partes.

Ambigo, ambigis, egi, ere, to compeffe or dyue about, to doubt, to be at controuersie or variance.

Vicini nostri hic ambigunt de finibus, our neighbours hereby are at controuersie for the boundes of their landes.

Dei in itineribus ambigens patriam & declinans. i. ambiens patriam & non ingrediens:

Tacit. Nihil est quod inter homines ambigatur, in quo non &c. there is nothinge in con-trouersie betwene.

Ambigitur, men doubts, or the controuersie is.

Neq. ambigitur quin Brutus &c.

Vitica est ambigens & plantæ & animalis, id

est, medium quiddam inter animal & plantā,

The fische called Vitica, is of nature doubtful betwene a plant and a liuely creature.

Homo cum omnibus generibus ambigit, id

est, ancipitē naturam habet ad omnia genera.

Ambigitur ius aliquod inter peritos, That lawe is in controuersie betwene lerned men.

Ambiguntur causæ proptor scriptum, causes be doubted of.

Ambigue, aduer. doubtfully.

Ambiguitas, ais, fco. gen. doubtfulnesse, un-certayntee.

Ambiguum, gui, a doubte.

Ambiguus, ambigua, um, doubtful, uncertayne, variable, vncoustant.

Ambiguus futuri, vncertaine what shal chance hereafter.

Ambiguus

Ambiguus lupus, isyled of Quintus for a wolfe that was sometyme a wolfe, and chynnes charyged into a man.

Ambiguus with a genitive case: as, Consilij ambiguus, that knoweth not what he shal doe.

Pudoris & merus ambiguus, vncertaine betwene hope and feare what he should doe.

Scriptum ambiguum, a doublefull wytyng that may be taken diuers waies.

Verba ambigua, wordes of double significacion.

Vates ambiguus, that profecteth thynges obscurely and darkly.

Ambiguus imperandi, vncertaine whether he myght gouerne lyke an emperour or no.

Fidei ambigua vir, a man of slypper credence, a man of small fidelitee, or he that kepeth not his promise.

Ambiguum non habeo, I doubt not.

Ambio, ambis, iui, ire, icum, ex am & eo, to passe, to go about, to seeke for promotion, to bespye, to pray, to intreate, to make suite of labour, to sue or stande for an office, to seeke vpon.

Multi illa ambiunt sponfam, manye sue to hir for marriage, or make suite, or seeke vpon hir.

Ambitio, onis, f. g. inordinate desyre of honour or authoritee, ambition. Also the sekynge for the fauour of men, earnest suite of labour in a matter. Sometyme obsequy, and wyllynge readynesse to dooe any thyng.

Non puto existimare te ambitione me labi, I dooe not thinke that thou iudge me to erre that I may get fauour.

Nullo officij aut ambitionis in quemq omisso genere, omittynge no kynde of gentle seruice or obsequy towards any man.

Ambitione summa a populo contenditur magistratus, with great importunitie of very importune suite.

Ambitiose, adue. quali. proude, curiously with great labour.

Ambitiose aliquid facere, to doe a thyng with much affectacion.

Ambitiose tristis, one that dooeth effectate or uermuche grauitee or sadnesse.

Ambitiose corrigere orationem, to correcte an oracion, alterynge but a very litle, as they do that be loth to displease the maker.

Ambitiosus, a, um, that hath a great compasse or circuite, that coueteth ouermuche to haue the fauour of men, or to get glozy and honour, ambitious. Peruailous earnestly and studiously done. Superfluous, nothyng to the purpose.

Ambitiosus amnis, a ryuer that kepeth a large compasse or circuite.

Ambitiosa amicitia, feigned amitee, wherein bee many gay wordes, and small frendshyppe, peincted frendship.

Ambitiosa decreta, ordinaunces published by the suite, fauour, and frendship of men.

Ambitiosa diligentia, to curiously diligence, when a man endenoreth to get fame and praise, or to currie fauour.

Ambitiosus iudex, a iudge desirous of the fauour of men, lothe to displease.

Ambitiosa ornamenta, superfluous ornamentes, which be onely for ostentacion.

Ambitiosa sententia, sentences pronounced for fauour or frendship, and not of a right conscience.

Si ambitiosis villa praeferet, if he will preferre profitable thynges before such as be superfluous.

Ambitiosa preces, affectuall desyres.

Ambitiosus, si, masc. gen. he that immoderately desyret honoure.

Ambitus, ambitus, m. g. a circuite, or indolure, also the offence of ambition made by the lawes, the inordinate suite to obteyne the fauours of men by bypyng or other meanes. also a periede.

Ambitus aedium, the compasse of the house round about.

Ambitus verborum, a full or iuste periede.

Ambitus, ambita, tum, part. enuironed, or compassed, intreated or sued vnto with many desyres and prayers.

Ambiti honores a principe, honours, promotions, or offices desyred and purchased of the prynte by great sute.

Ambrosia, bo, nom. collect. bothe.

Amblothrion, a medicine, whiche in women prouoketh traucelyng before the tyme.

Ambra, a beate sweete thyng, whiche is founde on the sea by a countrey called Zingis, in the easie parte of the worlde, and is (for his gray colour) commonly called (of the apothecaries) Ambra-grisa, Ambergrise. Hereof are made veray precious and cordiall medicines. It is hot in the second degree, and dry in the first.

Amblices, tyles whiche be layed ouerthwart betwene other tyles.

Ambrones, people of France.

Ambrosia, brosia, f. g. signifyeth immortallitee, it is cald of the paynymes the meate of the godd.

It is also after Plinie a name applied to diuers herbes, some called it Artemisia a kynde of Mugwort, or Cansey: other call it Botris, whiche is oke of Hierusalem, other apium rusticum, some Liliū. Ruellius, saith the herbe which is properly called Ambrosia, hath small leaues lyke rue, and that in his countrey it groweth muche amonge cozne, so that mowters are wonte to make their garlandes of it. It is called also Vinosa herba, because it hath a sauer lyke wyne. This name Ambrosia, wandered in diuers thynges. For were it meate, or drynke, or herbes, whiche for the delicatenesse thereof, was offred to the godds in sacrifice, they called it by that name.

Ambrosia, is also the feast of Bacchus, vled to be kept in the moneth of January.

Ambrosia alendus, a prouerbe signifyng that one is worthy to be a god.

Ambrosica, ca, a kynde of grapes.

Ambro-

Ambrosius, and Ambrosiacus, a, um, adiec. of of pettepnyng to Ambrosia. also sweete, pleassant, delectable.
Ambrum, a blacke gemme of stone.
Ambubaiæ, arum, plur. drunken drabbes that wander aboute the stretes.
Ambubeia, or ambugia, the common cyphoe, with the longe leafe, and blewe flowre, whiche wyll close at the goyng doune of the sonne, and open at the ryng.
Ambulacrum, lacri, n. g. a ppyuate place to walke
in, a galery, an aley in a gerdyne, a walke.
Ambulatio, ðnis, for. ge. verbale, walkyng, or a walkyng place, a walke, a galery.
Ambulatus, that walketh or goeth.
Ambulatiuncula, læ, f. g. a little walke.
Ambulator, toris, for. gen. verbale, a walker or stypat.
Ambulatorius, a, um, and ambulatus, le, that goeth on wheles, or may be remoued from place to place, as Turris ambulatoria, a tower in warre, that may be brought to and fro.
Ambulatrix, icis, f. g. a woman that walketh.
Ambulo, ambulas, aui, are, to walke or stypre as bout, to go.
Ambulare in ius, to come befoze a iudge.
Ambulant aues, when birdes goe by stepes, as the crane and other doth. and dooe not hoppe
as the sparowes doe.
Ambulant aues, fluuij, uauis apud Plin.
Ambulatio caput per omnes leges, This clause is often repeted in the lawes.
Cum Xerxes maria ambulauisset, when Xerxes made a brydge and went ouer the sea.
Si duo scandia ambularentur, passue apud Plin.
Amburbale, or amburbium, a sacrifice, when the beast that is sacrificed goeth about the citee.
Amburo, bûris, uîsi, rere, to bourn all aboute.
Ambustio, ðnis, f. g. a bournyng, or parchyng.
Ambustus, a, um, bourned vp, or scalded.
Ambustus ad cinerem, bourned to ashes.
Ambusta aquis, thynges scalded.
Ambustum fulminibus, blasted with lighte-nyng.
Amecus, & ameca, olde wyrters vled for amicus & amica.
Ameia, æ, f. g. the sede of an elmetree.
Amella, æ, f. g. an herbe, whiche groweth muche as bout the ryuer Mella in fraunce.
Amellus, the flower of that herbe.
Amemelides, a kynde of medlars, wherein bee fiue stones.
Amen, a woorde of hebzue, whiche after the interpretation of Aquila, signifieth fideliter, after the .70. interpretours, it signifieth Fiat, bee it.
Amens, mētus, adiect. madde, ragepnyng, without all counsell or aduysment, out of his witte.
Amens animi, madde.
Amentatus, a, um, the participle of amento, that is tyed with a thonge.
Amentia, mētia, f. g. denom. foly, madnesse.

Amento, aui, are, to fasten a littell thong, or a like thyng on a dart or iavelyn.
Amentata, hasta, iavelyns with thonges to holde by, or darts.
Amentum, ti, neu. ge. a thonge, or that whiche is bouden to the middes of a dart or iavelyn, wherewith it is thowen, a strope of a loupe. it is also the oke appull, or a rounde thyng that groweth on an oken leafe.
Amicos, idem quod ammi.
Amerimnos, signifieth with care or thought.
Amerimnon, is also an herbe called Aizoon mas-ius, loke there.
Ames, amitis, m. g. a pette for a byrde to set on,
a little forke, wheron nettes be sette in haukyng or huntynge.
Amethodus, a, um, without methode or way in teachyng.
Amethystinatus, one apparayled in colour lyke to the amethyst.
Amethystinus, a, um, of an amethyste, coloured lyke an amethyst, violette.
Amethystus, ti, masc. ge. called also Anterites, is a prierous stone, called an amethyste, whiche is of a purple colour, but the more it is myrte with rose colour, the better it is. Amethystus is also a kynde of grapes, the wyne wherof doth neuer make men drunke. also an herbe in colour lyke wyne.
Ametor, ðris, m. g. he that is without mother.
Ami, an herbe called in englyshe Amy.
Amia, æ, f. g. a fysh lyke to a tunc, but he hath no scales, but a playne skynne, which syneth lyke to spluer mixt with blewe. And his taylor is in facion lyk the newe moone, the encrease of so much every daie, that it maye scencibly be per-ceyued.
Amianthon, is of Erius Cordus supposed to bee a stone, whereof bee made matches lyke to threedes, whiche beynge ones on fyre, are neuer extincte or put out.
Amiatus, idem quod amianthon.
Amica, æ, fem. ge. a woman that is loued. also a concubine.
Amicabilis, le, frendely.
Amice, aduer. quali. lyke a frende.
Amicibor, for amicar, I will be clothed, araped, or aparayled.
Amicinum, ni, neu. ge. a canne or pottle, but after Hozman it is the hynge of a bottle, or the nose of a bottell.
Amicio, amicis, ciui, mictum, ire, to clothe, to put on a garment.
Amicitur chartis, it is put, wrapped, or couered in paper.
Amicior, ictus sum, iri, to be cladde.
Amiciter, frendly.
Amicitia, ciuiæ, f. g. amice, or frendshipp.
Amicitiai, in the genitiue case, for amicitia.
Amicities, ei, for amicitia.
Amicitia est inter res inanimas. Plin. Amicitia est

Amicitia cum seoy the nature of frend and of a sigge hath great amicitie and doe wel agree. In Amicitia, the Mountayne of begynning.
 Ius amicitie, the ryght of frendshipp.
 Par amicitia, two hoodle frendshipp.
 Ascribere aliquem ad amicitiam, Accipere in amicitiam, to admytte one to be his frend.
 Amicitia claudicare videtur, he seemeth not to be a sure and trueth frende; he seemeth to bee a feyne frende.
 Amicitiam conglutinare, coniungere, con-iugare, connedere, constituere, to ioyne of knyghts in frendshipp.
 Amicitiam pepigerat cum ea gente; he was alyed; or ioynd in frendshipp with that people.
 Amicitiam dirumpere, dissolvere, discindere, dissuere, dissociare, euertere, extinguere, tollere, violare, to breake frendshipp.
 Amicitia mihi est cum eo, he and I be frende.
 Amicitiam conseruare, confirmare, colere,
 continere, tueri, to maptaine frendshipp.
 Pyladea amicitia, perhyte frendshipp, such as was betwene Pylades and Orestes.
 Amicitiam alicuius dimittere, deserre, ex-uere, renuntiare, repudiare, to forsake a mans frendshipp.
 Amicitiam gignere, conciliare, comparare, acquirere, parere, contrahere, to get or wyne
 frendshipp.
 Amictorium, torij, n. g. a linnen caple that women do vse to weare.
 Amictus, a, um, cladde.
 Amictus, us, m. g. verba, a garmente of apparayle, or els the arayng and clothing.
 Amicula, e, f. g. a diminutiue of amica.
 Amiculatus, a, um, couered, cladde.
 Amiculum, li, n. g. a short cloke.
 Amiculus, li, m. g. a diminutiue of amicus.
 Amicus, & amica, a frend, a louer, he or she.
 Amicus ac pernecessarius alicuius.
 Amicus bonus, ceruus, charus, dulcis, fidus, iucundus, inops, nouus, intentarius, pius, tes-nuis, verus.
 Amicus animi, Amator corporis est, amator ad tempus, amicus in perpetuum, Donat.
 Amicus, a, um, propise, conuenient, frendly, pleassaunt, acceptable, fauorable: and ioynd to a thyng that lacketh lyfe, it signifieth profitabyl or holsome.
 Amicus pratis humor, amica frugibus æstas, holsome, profitabyl, that doeth it much good.
 Amice aures, fauorable.
 Quies amica, pleasant.
 Nec dijs amicū est, i. non placet dijs.
 Vento amico ferri, to haue a prosperous winde.
 Vultu amico promittere spem, with a pleassant, amiable, or louing countenance.
 Amilla, læ, f. g. the flower of ramomill.
 Amineæ vites, vines growynge by Salerne.
 in the roialme of Naples.

Amisus, loke amissus.
 Amissio, onis, f. g. verb. the losse of a thing.
 Amissus, a, um, lost.
 Amicus, amice, f. g. my father's lyfe, myne aune.
 Amicini, orum, mal. gen. cousins. remains by a brother and sister.
 Amitto, misi, missum, tere, to lette one to departe, to lose, to sende, to lette passe, to take fro, to cast away, to forgoe.
 Vera rerum vocabula amissum, we haue losse of the true name of thyng.
 Amittere animum, to leese his lyfe.
 Aspectum omnino amiserunt, they cleane lost their sight.
 Illum e conspectu amisi, I haue losse the sight of him.
 Sensum humanitatis ex animo amisi, he hath cleane lost and caste out of his mynde.
 Occasionem amittere, to leese an occasion.
 Ne receptum amittam, that I lese not the place
 whether I may receyue.
 Amittere vitam per dedecus, with shame to
 leese his lyfe.
 Amittere iusiurandum, to breake an othe, to lose credence.
 Quod si non dederit, atque hic dies præterierit: ego argentum, ille iusiurandum amiserit. If he doe not paie it, and this daie do passe, I shall lose my money, But he shall lose his credence.
 Amittere libidinem. Iam non possum, amisi omnem libidinem, I may doe no more, I am past all pleasure.
 Amittere rem de manibus, to ryd ones hands of a matter.
 Amittere hominem de manibus, to let a man go that was taken.
 Amittere ciuitatem, to lose the libertee or franchise of a citee.
 Amisit colorem, he hath losse his colour.
 Ammi, or ammium, a litle whyte seede, it hath the taste of Origanum, and is hotte and dry in the thyrd degree, it groweth most commonly in Æthiophe. The apothecaries sayth Jo. Agricola haue not the very true Ammi, but in stede thereof, they sel the seede of cheruyle. It is named of apothecaries Amros.
 Ammochrysus, a precious stone, in colour lyke
 golde mixte with grauell.
 Ammonius, nij, or rather Ammodites, ditis,
 m. g. a wourme much lyke an adder, a cubyte longe, in colour lyke grauell, with blache spottes, and hath a very hard tayle. It is of some called Cenchrias.
 Ammoneo, loke admoneo.
 Ammones, after some the herbe Coronopus,
 looke there.
 Ammoniacum, niaci, n. g. called also Gutta ammoniacā, is a soote gumme, whiche the apothecaries cal it Gentermyne. it issueth out of a caane, or (after plinie) out of a tree, called Metopios, whiche

which groweth specially in Aethia, where the temple of Jupiter Hammon stood.

Ammonitum, tri, n. g. the matter whereof whylet glass was wont to be made of, like Plim. 36. li. cap. 26.

Ammorgis, ginis, the lyes of wyne, also a certaine herbe, whereof is made a purple colour, and garments thereof dyed be called Vestes Amorgynae. Amorgis, is also the thynne skynne of a cane of reede, like Amorgis.

Ammoueo, amoues, moui, ere, for amoueo.

Ammenses, fium, f. g. cities nere to riuers sides.

Amnestia, forgetfulness of thynges passed.

Amnicola, la, commu, gen. one that dwelleth by a brooke.

Amnicus, amnica, um, of the brooke.

Ammis, is, m. g. a ryuer of brooke.

Amnes sole exhausti, dyed by with the sunne.

Euanescent atq; exarescent amnes, banyshe away and be dyed.

Amni secundo deuchitur, he is caried downe with the streame.

Amnes alti, deepe ryuers.

Amnis piscosus, placidus, purus, quietus, sedatus.

Amnis, rapidus, rigidus, fixus, spumans, spumofus, turbidus.

Amo, amas, amai, are, to loue hertly, to lous wantonly, to be delighted in a thyng.

Amare certatim, to loue who can loue best.

Amare in matrimonium, to loue one to the intent to marry hir.

Diligere, amplecti, amare aliquem.

Amare quippiam plus suis oculis, to loue a thyng exceedingly well.

Amari iace inter puluillos sericos, he loueth or he is delighted to lie.

Amare, (absolutely) to be intangled in wanton loue.

Omnes qui amant, grauitur sibi vxorem dari ferunt, all that be in loue.

Amare ex animo, to loue with hert and mynde.

Amare se in aliquo, to please ones selfe in any thyng.

In eo me valde amo.

Nisi nosmet valde amabimus, excepte we well stand muche in our owne conceite.

Seipsum amat sine riuali, he loueth him selfe better, or setteth moze by him selfe, then all the worlde doth besyde: spoken of one, whom no man loueth but him selfe.

Amare plus q̃ diligere.

Amas quod, for Gaudes quod. Amasque q̃ nusquam tibi sit porandum, id est, gaudes.

Amo te ex, or de hac re, I loue you, or I sette muche by you, or I thanke you for this thyng.

Multum te amo quod respondisti octauio. I thanke the hartely.

Amat, for Solet, it is wont, or the facion is so.

Amodo, from henceforth, hereafter.

Amorbaum carmen, verses songe by course, whā

one answereth to the other, with equall number of verses, and speaketh either a contrary, or a farre greater thyng, like to Uygylis chryde Eclog.

Amena, orum, n. g. a substantiue, pleasant and delectable places, goodly to beholde.

Amoenitas, atq; form, ge. pleasure, delectableness, simplicity.

Ameneret, miteret, pleasantly.

Amene, idem.

Ameno, aui, are, to make merry or glad.

Amoenus, a, um, pleasant or delectable.

Amenum ingenium, a pleasant witte.

Locus amoenus, a delectable place.

Amolior, lris, lris sum, lri, to remoue or putte away with great payne. sometyne to confute.

Amolimini hinc, get you hence.

Amoliri periculum, to putte away peryll or daunger.

Amomis, idis, an herbe lyke to Simonium, without saueur or fruite, and hath a flower lyke to Digamant.

Amomum, momi, n. g. is a little hushe wrapped rounde together like a cluster of grapes, and hath a little flower lyke a whylet hyolette, the leaues lyke withwynde, or whylet wyne leaues. The best cometh out of Armenia, whiche is yelowe as golde, the wood somewhat red, and very soote in saueur. They be deceiued (saith Luellius and Agricola) that take it for the rose of Hiemus Salem, called also our ladies rose.

Amor, moris, m. g. loue, sometyne lecherous lust. sometyne it is taken for Cupido, the god.

Amor amarus, vnpleasant or hurtfull loue.

Acer amor, vehement loue.

Aequare amorem, to loue one as hertely as he is loued.

Amore inflammare animum, to sette ones hert on fyre with loue.

Ardentes amores excitaret sui, it woulde make men meruailously in loue with it.

Amorem agram solatur restitine, he coms forth his loueficke mynde with playng on the lute.

Amoris flammam compescere, stents the raging yuge flames of loue.

Amor habendi, conetousnes.

Alendus amor verbis dulcibus.

Amplecti amore aliquem, to loue one.

Ardere amore alicuius, to be exceedingly in loue with ont.

Flagrare amore idem.

Captus amore, entangled in loue.

Componere amores, to make loue balades.

Frangere amorem, to bydle his loue.

Teneri amore alicuius, to loue.

Ad nostrum amorem nihil potest accedere, our loue can not be greater.

Amores, wanton pastymes or pleasures, wherein we delite, sometyne a person whom we loue.

Quid amores ac delitix nostrae Roscius our detelyngs

Amorbundus, a. m. n. that is amorous.
 Amorgis, genis, hath a synde of lyne; wherof is made rapyns of Cyprys, looke Amorgis.
 Amorphus, plu, without shap or figure.
 Amosio, for annuo.
 Amotio, this, term. gen. verb. a temouynge of purging away.
 Amoueo, amoues, motum, motu, ere, to remoue, to put from a place or a thyng, to putte away, to lay asyde, to flete away.
 Amouere crapulam, to parbake, when one is drunke.
 Amouere suspicionem ab aliquo, to put one out of suspicion.
 Lex virgas amouit ab omnium ciuium cor-poribus, the lawe forbodeth that any ciuyl shoulde be beate with rodde.
 Amouere legationem, to take away legacy.
 Amouere aliquem ab officio, to put one out of his office. A se culpam amouet, he pargeth the fault from him selfe.
 Amouere metum, to put away feare.
 Amoueri in insulam, to be banished or tarye away into an ylande.
 Per fallacia amouit, he toke it away by flattery.
 Ampellus, a synde of coughe earthe, like the same called Bitumen.
 Ampelodesmon, an herbe, wherewith they make bondes to tye bynes.
 Ampelodesmus, looke Omphelocarpus.
 Ampelodesmia, called Labrusca, a wyde vyne.
 also an other herbe, wherof from Labrusca, hauynge harde leaues of the colour of aches, and leede loke the kernes of a pomegranate. Plini.
 li. 27. Cap. 9.
 Ampeloleuce, es, for ge. a whyle vyne, called also Ophiostaphilos, Melonitros, comonly Bryonia, it groweth in hedges and bushes, in En-gypte & Hyponie.
 Ampelomelana, f. g. of some is also named Bryonia, and Chironia, of the latines Vitis raminia, and Vitis nigra, it hath leaues like vyne, but somewhat bigger; and climynge by buttes tak-eth holde with tendrilles, as a vyne dooth.
 Appendices, olde wyrters used for appendices.
 Ampeloprasion, si, neu. gen. porrum siluestre, an herbe which groweth in bynepardes, haupng an heade like to garleke, a leafe like to spurge, or to a leke blade after some, a purple flower, and leede like to rashes.
 Amphi, in latine Circum, about.
 Amphibia, orum, neu. ge. byrdes or beastes that do lyue as wel on the water as on the lande.
 Amphibion, idem quod Aloe.
 Amphibolia, amphibologia, a, f. g. of amphibolon, li, neu. gen. a forme in speakynge, where a sentence may be taken two sundry or contrary wayes.
 Amphibracus, chi, m. g. a foote of meter beeynge of three syllables, the first and last short, and the [illegible]

Romains, after. xii. ounces to the pound. 72.
 pound weight, after. 16. ounces to the pound, and by this counte Amphora is more then our bushell. 16. pounde for our bushell is but 56. pounde. If Sextarius, after phidons, be but 18. ounces, or 20. ounces, Amphora conteyneth lesse then our bushell. 20. pounde, or there aboute.
 Amphoralis, le, adiect. that conteyneth the measure of Amphora.
 Amphorarius, ri, m. g. he that beareth the potte,
 a tankarde bearer.
 Amphoro plonpli, a double freight or duette that is payed when the shippe man undertaketh on warandise to conducte a man safe forth, and bring him safe whome agayne.
 Ampiruo, aui, are, n. g. is properly where in down syng he meyns of countenance that one mak-eth, he vnto whom it is made, shall doe the semblable. it was firste vied of the priestes called Sals.
 Amplant, olde wyrters vied for amplificat, they enlarge.
 Ample, amply, largely.
 Elate, ample, loqui, to vse a lofty and high stile in speakinge.
 Amplecto, vied of olde wyrters for amplexor.
 Amplexor, xus sum, ri, frequent. & a Prisciano inter communia numeratur, To embrace, to compasse, to loue hertly, to receiue gladly or greedly, to holde. sometye to comprehend or conteyne. also to conceiue in ones mynde, or vnder-stand.
 Amplecti artem aliquam, to apply ones mind earnestly to a facultee of science.
 Amplecti ius, ciuile, to studie the ciuile lawe earnestly.
 Amplecti officijs, to shew frendlye pleasures
 to one.
 Non fortuito ad tuam amplitudinem, meis officijs, amplectendam incidi, I dyd not geue my selfe by chance to shew such pleasures and seruice as I coulde vnto your honour.
 Quod ego pluribus verbis amplecterer, for complecterer, whiche thyng I would declare or set forth to you in mo wordes.
 Ut totum genus iudiciorum amplectamini
 .i. intelligatis, That you maie perceiue and vnderstande the hole course of accusations.
 Medium hominem amplectitur, he taketh the man by the middle.
 Amplecti amore, to loue.
 Amplecti alicuius virtutem, to be in loue with ones vertue or honestie.
 Me quotidie magis amplectitur, he loueth me
 euery day more then other.
 Plebem nimis amplecti putabatur, he was thought to much to fauour the commons.
 Amplexor libenter talem animum, I receiue gladly and fauour such a minde.
 Amplexari, for amplecti.

Amplexo, vied of olde wyrters for amplexor.
 Amplexor, aui sum, ri, frequent. To embrace, to loue, to fauour, to haue in estimation.
 Amplexus, plexus, m. g. verba, imbratione.
 Dare amplexus, to embrace.
 Ampliatio, onis, f. g. verb, a deferring of iudge-ment, as concerning mans life for some weyghty consideration.
 Ampliatus, a, um, part, a man reuyed whose iudge-ment is deferred vpon some difficultie or consideration.
 Amplificatio, onis, f. g. an augmentation.
 Amplificatus, a, um, partic, augmented.
 Amplificator, oris, m. g. verb, he whiche increaseth a thyng.
 Amplius, aduerb, nobly, magnificently.
 Amplifico, aui, are, act, to augment, to make lesse
 etc. sometye to extoll, to magnify.
 Pretium rei alicuius amplificare, to enhance the price of a thyng.
 Amplificare, authoritatem, gloriam, dignitatem alicuius, to encrease.
 Amplio, amplias, aui, are, act, to make more, to drawe to, to deferre or delaye a thyng in iudge-ment, to repp.
 Ampliare seruitia, to increase the numbre of seruantes.
 Ampliter, aduerb, largely, abundantly, magni-fiently.
 Ampliter occupatus, let with much business.
 Ampliter testis, witness of all the hole matter.
 Ampliter mentiri, to lye shamefully.
 Ampliter acceptus, sumptuously receyued.
 Ampliter in cena nobis opposuit, he serued vs at supper very sumptuously. or, he made vs a very sumptuous and costly supper.
 Amplitudo, inis, f. g. greatnes of power or mai-este, noblenesse. sometye it significeth largenes.
 Amplitudo terræ, the largenes of the coun-
 trey.
 In amplitudinem adulescere, to grow to great heighth and bignesse.
 Amplitudine opum, in greatnesse of substance or riches.
 Amplitudo corporis, the bygnesse of the body,
 in proportion to the length. sometye the height or length.
 Modica amplitudine simulachrum, a small or little Image.
 Amplitudo animi, maieste, noblenes of mind,
 haute courage.
 Amplitudinem suam retinere, to continue in his maieste and auctoritee.
 Ampliagus, pluaga, gum, much wanderynge.
 Amplius, aduerb, compaa. ab ample, moreouer,
 more largely: sometye vied for Plus.
 Terræ non amplius apparent, (absolutely) no more, no lenger.
 Amplius, is sometime ioined with a nominatiue, sometime an accusatiue. Sometye an ablatiue case.

Amplius: but seldom with a genitive.
 Amplius sunt sex menses, it is about halfe a year.
 Amplius horas quatuor fortissime pugnaue runt, they fought valiantly more then four howres, or four howres and about.
 Amplius liberorum. i. more children.
 Ceperunt amplius tria milia hominum, they tooke prisoners. 3000. men and about.
 Haud nummo amplius, not a peny more.
 Amplius deliberare, to take better advisement.
 Amplius pronunciarerum. i. ampliare.
 Amplius morando, by longer taryng.
 Hoc amplius, for Etiam, vltra, praterca, fute thermore, moreouer.
 Amplius opinione, longer then we thought.
 Cum essem assensus, decreui hoc amplius ut tu &c. i. decreui praterca.
 Amplius, a, um, large, wyde, great, abundant,
 noble, honorable, of great auctoritee and power.
 Amicitia ampla, honorable or great friendship.
 Amplissimus ordo, was used for the Sena tore of Rome.
 Ampli homines, honorable and great men.
 Amplissimus magistratus, the highest office.
 Amplissimum magnitudine, of passyng great bygnesse.
 Funus amplum, a sumptuous and honorable buriall.
 Res pecuaria ampla, when a man is a great grauer, and hath great richesse of cattle.
 Occasio ampla, a very good occasion.
 Suos omnes per se esse ampliores volebat, his will was to haue all his frendes by his meas ures to be the better.
 Si morbus amplior factus est, if the disease be increased.
 Fortunas amplissimas amittere. to lose mee
 uallous great treasure and substance.
 Amplissima familia natus, descended of a no ble house or linage.
 Arbor amplissima, a bygge tree, and of bette great compasse about.
 Amplustre, neut. gene. & plur. Amplustra, or amplustria, loke aplustre.
 Ampron, onis, m. g. a corbe or chayne fastned to the pokes, wherby beastes dooe drawe a wayne.
 Ampulla, lae, f. g. an oyle pot, most commonlye of glasse. also a bottle or flagon. sometyme it signifieth a thyng that is blowen or puffed.
 Suetonius vseth that woorde for a dynghyng glasse. It may be called a viole.
 Ampulla patoria, a dynghyng glasse.
 Ampullae per translat. proude & stately woordes.
 Ampullaceus, a, um, of ampulla.
 Ampullacea mulier, a woman seemeth to be for a woman goyngiously aparyled.
 Ampullacea pyra, a kynd of peares, in facion like a viole.
 Ampullarius, rij, m. g. a bottell maker, a glasse maker, or such lyke.

Ampullarius, laris, um, idem quod ampullaceus.
 Ampullor, laris, latus sum, lari, depo. to swell for pyde, also, to be proude or haue woordes in speakyng or wytyng.
 Amputatio, onis, f. ge. verbal. a cuttyng of or away.
 Amputo, amputas, aui, are, act. to cut of, to cut counte about.
 Amputare quicquid est pestiferum in repu
 blica, to cutte of cleane take away the occasion of any great mischife in the common weale.
 Amsegeres, they whose landes lye by the bygh wayes lye.
 Amula, amule, f. g. a pottle, wherewith for religion they caried water: it may be used for an hoyle water pottle.
 Amuletum, ti, n. g. any thyng that is ordeyned agaynst poysonyng. it is also taken for euery thyng, whiche is hanged about ones necke or arme, to preserue from any inconuenience or sickness.
 Amuletam, is also a certayne herbe called Cy claminij. loke Pli. li. 25. ca. 9.
 Amurea, a, f. g. the mother of some of all opses.
 Amurcaria dolia, vessels to put that some in.
 Amusium, li, ac. ge. an instrument to fynde out wyndes.
 Amusim, by rule of lyne.
 Amusis, sis, form. ge. a masons or a carpenters rule of lyne.
 Ad amusim aliquid facere, to doe a thyngs exactly.
 Numerus ad amusim, the iust and euen num ber, nether more nor lesse.
 Alba amussi, a prouerbe signifying to doe a thyng without choyse.
 Amussitatus, a, um, made by lyne, wel propor tioned, perfect, absolute.
 Amussitata, opera, exact and perfect diligence.
 Amusus, si, m. g. he that knoweth no learnyng,
 an ignorant idote.
 Amygdala, a, form. ge. an almonde tree, some tyme the almonde.
 Amygdala faucium, certayne kitenelles in the nethermost parte of the mouth.
 Amygdaliceus, a, um, lyke an almonde.
 Amigdalinus, dalina, um, of almondes.
 Amygdalites, dalite, f. g. an herbe, the leafe
 wherof is lyke to an almonde, a kynde of surgo.
 Amigdalum, li, n. g. an almonde.
 Amigdaliceus, a, um, of or lyke an almonde, or almonde tree.
 Amylum, is a thyng made of wheate three mon thes olde, whiche is laied in water tyll it waxe soft, the water beyng chaunged .v. tymes in the daie, and as often in the night: and when it waxeth tender, and as soft as may be, than the water beyng softly poured out, it is troden with mens fete, eftsones the water is poured out and troden agayne. Finally the bran, whiche swimmeth on the water, is taken away
 with

with a syue, and that whiche remaineth, being streyned, is laied on newe tyles, and sette in the hotte sunne vntill it be thorough dreyed. This is verpe medicinable agaynste distillacions into the eyes, and pynples of the eyes. Agaynste spittynge of bloudde, and myxt with milke, it causeth one to be fatter.

Amymitia, tx. f. g. a kynde of frankensens.

Amyris, a tree that hath a very pleasant sauour, but it bringeth forth no fruite.

Amyron, idem quod Atractylis.

Amystis, a certayne drynke, whiche the Tharis are vled to drynke by at one draught, wrynkyng.

Of some it is taken for the precious stone called Amithystus.

A ANTE N.

AN, an aduerbe of ashyng, as, obferro, an is est. I pray you, is it he? sometyme of doubtynge, as, Haud scio an illam amat, I can not tell whether he loue hir or no. It is vled for Aut, as, Metu an contumacia? For feare or for stubburnesse? Anne, for An, both interrogatiuely and doubtyngly. An sometyme foloweth, Vtrum. Multum interest vtrum laus imminuatur an salus deferatur.

Annon, for nonne. An, is vled for circum, of olde wyrters.

Ana, a beast in the easie parte, which hath mighty and stronge teth, and longe clawes. also a barbarous word that phisicians now a days dooe vse, for, singulorum partem, vel partes.

Anabasis, is, for. g. an herbe called also Equisetum, of the grekes Hippuris, in englishe (after some) horsestaple.

Anabasis, sq. m. g. he that rideth by poste horses.

Anabathrum, thri. neu. g. a pulpit or other lyke place, whiche standeth on highe, whereunto a man must go by by a ladder or greiles.

Anabalagium, lagij. n. g. a uesture that couereth the shulders, some iudge, it may be vled for a womans riple or nyset.

Anabula, æ. f. g. a beaste in Ethiope, hauyng an head lyke a camell, a necke lyke an horse, and legges lyke an oxe, and is of colour a byght red, full of white spottes. Also an herbe called Lactoris, or Lactaria.

Anacabea, æ. for. ge. a tree, or rather an herbe called also Lotus.

Anacabos, bi. the fruite of that tree.

Anacamserotis, for. ge. an herbe, whiche by the touching thereof, testozeth loue betwene men, after most deadly hate.

Anacardium, ij. n. g. a tree vnknewen to the old grekes: it groweth in India, also in Sicilia, in the mountaynes, out of the whiche fyre cometh: The fruite thereof is lyke the herte of a littell byrde, & hath a redde iuyce lyke to bloud. The vulgare people of Sicilie and naples cal it pediculum elephanti, an elephantes louse.

There is contained in the fruite honey, whiche dooth exulcerate, and burneth the bloud and other humours, it rooteth by wertes, and is holisome for the synewes, whiche be hurte with colde. by it selfe taken it is venym, but there is thereof a confection made by Helis agaynste all colde diseases.

Anacephaleosis, sis. f. g. a shoyte recapitulation or repetition of thynges before rehearsed.

Anachites, a stone that is holisome agaynste poyson, and dyueth away madde fantasies, and bayne feare out of mens myndes, idem quod Adamas, the Diamonde.

Anachoresis, esis. f. g. wilderness, a solitary place.

Anachoreta, m. g. an hermite, he that lyueth as part, and out of company.

Anacletis, sis. f. g. a reboundyng or beatynge backe agayne, a reperberation.

Anaclinterium, rij. n. g. a mattress to lye vpon.

Anacollia, those thynges the gumme whereof is medicinable agaynste corrupted heares.

Anacoluthos, a vice in wyrtynge or speakhynge, whan the wordes answere not the one to the other.

Anacresis, the examination of a matter.

Anacreontius, a. um. of Anacreon.

Anactorion, idem aliquibus quod Xiphion.

Anadema, matis. n. g. a garlande.

Anadendromache, a plaister made of the leaues of holy hocke, or rather marthe mallow called Althæa, some take it for holy hocke.

Anadendrides, a certayne kynde of bynes.

Anadendron, the marthe mallow.

Anadiplosis, sis. f. g. is a doublyng of a woorde, as whan the last woorde of the first verse, is the first woord of the seconde, as,

Certent vcygnis vlula, sic Tyterus Orpheus in syluis inter Delphinus Orion.

Anagallis aquatica, called also Sion & Lauer, an herbe named named in Englishe Brookholmes, whiche groweth in water, with a streight vpright stalke, whiche is fatty, and hath brode leaues lyke Alysander: but they be lesse, and haue a good sauour. Surgions doe vse it in healyng of woundes.

Anagallis gallidis, for. g. an herbe, called vnderly Morsus gallinæ, in englishe (as I suppose) Wimpernell: other take it for chickewede. This herbe hath both kyndes: the male beareth a red flower, the female a blue.

Anaglipha, & anagliptra, orum. n. g. vessel or plate of gold or siluer chased, as ruppes or bolles beaten with the hammer, and not ingraued.

Anaglyptes, tis. vel te. ma. g. he that woozeth such vessel.

Anaglyptice, ces. for. g. the craft to chace or misboce plate.

Anagnostes, tx. maf. g. he that readeth to other men, as a bible clerke, or any other that readeth while an other wyrteth.

Anagoge, es. for. ge. the hygh and subtyll vnderstandyng of the scripture, or other thyng.

Anagraphe,

Anagraphe, es, a description; Anagyris, or, rus, an herbe of shrub very pleasant to see to, and hath a large yellow flower, but a verie horrible and stinking sauer; looke Dioc. li. 3. ca. 142: Some saie Anagyris, is a place in Africa; wher groweth abundantly a very stinking herbe; Analecta, drum, neu. gen. fragmentes of meate that fall vnder the table, and bee afterwarde swepte awaye; Analectes, re, m. g. he that sweepeth or gathereth by brokettes or fragmentes; Analectis, lectidis, f. g. loke Analectides; Analeptice, ces, f. g. a soume of dicte to nourish him that is late recovered of sickness; Analeptia, x, f. g. is a spychyffe of the head, which sauerth away sensiblenesse from the whole partes of the head, and cometh of the weaknesse of the fronte, or of to much meate, or of to much leschrepe, or dyngnyng muche colde water, or to muche studie, or of indigestion; Analogia, analogia, f. g. conueniencie, or proportion, whose properie is to conferre that which is doubtfull, with that which is lyke to it, which is more certayne, to make it more playne; Analogista, arum, tutors that are not bound to make accompte to the pupils or wardes, for the tyme that they had them in tuition; Analogos, propositionable; Alphabeti, thei that haue not learned their a. b. c.; Analysis, sis, f. g. a resolution; Analyticum, ci, n. g. that whiche resolueth; Ananchitis, a precious stone, whiche magicians vse; Ananestides, (or rather Analectides) thynges made of cotton, or such lyke, as it were litell pillowes that women vse to sette on their houls bes the better to facion their bodies; Anangilos, idem aliquibus quod rebus; Anantopodoron, a figure in wyrtynge, where some litell clause is lefte out, eyther in the begynnyng, myddes, or ende; Anapastum, sti, n. g. or Anapastus, ti, m. g. a kynde of verse; Anapastus, a foote in metre of three syllables, hauyng the two fyrst feete shorte, and the last long; Anaphalis, idem quod gnaphalium; Anapauomenos, ni, one that is at rest or quiete; Anaphora, or Apanaphora, x, f. m. gen. a figure called relation, or repetition, whan one worde is rehered in diuers clauses. as, Verres adesse iubear, Verres cognoscebat, Verres iudicabat; Anaphora, bee atencions of the planets from the east parte by the dailey course of the firmament; Anarchia, x, f. m. ge. when a people is without a pynce or gouernour, lacke of a pynce; Anarchus, a, um, without a pynce, or without a begynnyng; Anarrhinon, idem quod Hippoglossum; also an other herbe diuers from that; Anasphoros, ferne; Anas, itis, f. m. gen. a duche; Anastomosis, f. m. g. of phisicians is taken for a blypynge that cometh by trippynge of blypynge or rotting of a veyne; Anastrophe, es, f. g. a turning out of a common order: as, italiam contra, for Contra italiam; Anatarius, a, um, of a duche, or that aspect of duches; Anatilis, ri, m. f. m. gen. a keeper of duches; Anathema, themaris, m. g. penult. corrept. a man contemned and abandoned to the diuel, as the last times vse sacrum sometyme to the euill parte; Anathemia, themaris, ne, ge. penult. product. in holie scripture betokeneth separation, as where it signifyeth a thyng offered or sette by in a temple or church, as images of waxe, silver, or any other mettall; Anathematizo, aui, are, to curse or geue to the diuell; Anaticula, le, f. g. a little duche, a duclyng; Anatius, anatis, um, like a duche; Anatocismus, mi, m. g. receiuyng of vnture yerely; Anatomia, x, or Anatome, es, f. g. anotomie, or cuttyng of men by phisicians, to consider the inwarde partes and membes; Anatologizos, ti, m. g. vnskillfull or ignorant in phisicke; Anauros, a tyuer in Thessalia; Ancusa, orum, n. g. grauen vessell; Anceps, itis, adiect. om. ge. doubtfull, vncertaine. sometyme it signifyeth double. also cuttyng on bothe sydes, or that hath an handell at bothe endes, or two heades or faces; Ancipiti mucrone, with a two edged sword; Ancipites bestia, beastes that lyue bothe on water and lande; Ancipiti videntur bello, they are set on, both before and behynd; Anceps fortuna belli, doubtfull fortune of warre; Anceps cibus, a doubtful meate & dangerous; Anceps ius, a lawe that is in controuersy; Ancipitia vocabula, wordes that maie be vserd bothe to the good and euill parte; Ancerum, ti, ne. ge. of some taken for the wyld cucumber; Anchilops, is superfluous fleshe in the greater corner of the eye, wherunto humours gather; Anchinum mel, a certayne honny made of onely flowers gathered in the spryng tyme; Anchites, loke Anachites, quod idem est; Ancholia, x, f. m. g. a blew violet; Anchora, anchora, f. g. an ancoze. also the gasle, whereby the ancoze is tied; Anchora, the bondes, wherewith the sayle parde is fastened to the mast; Anchorale, lis, ne. ge. a cable, wherewith an ancoze is tied; Anchoralis, le, idem quod Anchorarius.

Anchorarius, a, um, perteynyng to an anchoze.
 Anchusa, x, f. g. an herbe, called in France Orchanera. women vse it to set a ruddinesse in their cheskes. it maie be called wilde Buglos, or Dis-chanet. Of the iuyce therof is dyed sanguine colour.
 Anchyle, is an incision or cutting of the cordes of the necke or iointes, whereby the vse of the member is let.
 Ancile, ancilis, ne. ge. a shield without corners,
 such one in the tyme of Roma kyng of Rome,
 was seene fall out of the skie.
 Ancilla, x, for. g. a mayden seruaunt, it was properly taken for a bonde woman.
 Ancillariolus, li, ma. g. a vile felow, that geueth
 hym to the loue of wenches.
 Ancillaris, re, om. g. that perteyneth to a womā seruaunt.
 Ancillor, atus sum, āri, depo. to serue humbly or diligently, or to serue lyke a slaue.
 Anciloglossum, the disease or lette in a man, or childe, when we saie, he is tounge tied.
 Ancillula, x, f. g. a littell or pooze wenche seruaunt.
 Anelabria, orum, n. g. vessels, whiche priestes
 vled in sacrifice.
 Anclabris, bris, f. g. a table vled in sacrifice.
 Anelo, āui, āre, loke Anelo, āui, āre.
 Ancon, cōnis, m. g. properly an elbowe.
 Ancōnes, the coyces or corners of a wall, also amonge Geometrists, it is the bowynge that maketh the corner, called angulus rectus, they be also certayne vessels.
 Anconici, orum, ma. g. certayne coyces, or corners that stand out in building to beare by any beame or rafter.
 Anchurisma, matis, neu. g. the takynge awaie of a windie matter being dissolved.
 Anctera, the partes of the necke, where men bee sonest choked. Also instrumentes, wherewith woundes are closed.
 Anculare, olde wyters vled for ministrare.
 Anculi, & ancule, goddes and goddesses of seruynge women.
 Ancus, ci, ma. g. he that hath a crooked arme.
 Ancyla, lā, f. m. ge. or ancyclops, clōpis, the stoppyng or holdynge of a iointe that it can not moue, when it commeth of a grossenes or obstruction, or by the stretchynge of a sinew.
 Anciloglossi, those which be bozne tounge tyed.
 Andabata, arum, ma. gen. men that fought with swoordes wyngynge, or rather a kynde of plaie.
 Andianum vinum, wyne of, Aniewe.
 Andrachne agria, an herbe, whiche the Italians call Illecebra, some thynke it Orpin.
 Andrachne, nes, f. g. in greke, is in latine Portulaca, in englyshe purslane.
 Andrago, ginis, f. m. gen. a woman haupng a mans herte, a virago.
 Andresemon, some wyte for Androsamon, loke there.
 Androdamas, androdamantis, m. g. a precious stone, hard and ponderous, bright like Glasse, and in soueraine is of diuysed littell squares, it is founde in the sand of the read sea, it putteth away the furze of yre, and the rage of lechery.

 Androgynus, ni, masc. ge. a man haupng both members of a man and also of a woman.
 Andron, ōnos, masc. gen. a chambze, wher-into men onely do come. also a space betwene two walles, whereinto rayne falleth, a maner of gutters.
 Androsarum, f. g. feastes, whereunto such men come.
 Andronitis, tidis, f. m. ge. idē quod Andron.
 Andronium, ni, n. g. a medicine for the disease in the roote of the tynge called Vna.
 Androsace, ces, f. g. Cordus and some other suppose it to be that, whiche is called Cuscutha, in englyshe withwynde, whiche wyndeth aboute lyn and hemp. Mula and Wynardus thynke the contrary: beleue whom ye lyst. Dioscoris des describeth it in this wise: Androsaces, is a bitter herbe, spreadynge abrode small stalkes like rushes, without leaues, haupng littell coddies on the toppe, wherein be seedes: it groweth on the sea coast of Syria.
 Androsamon, mi, ne. ge. an herbe called saint Johns woor, or rather Cusane, and groweth in gardenes, and no where els, it beareth a yellowe flower. The apothecaries call it falselle Agnus castus.
 Andruare, olde wyters vled for recurrere, to renewe againe.
 Anellus, loke Annellus.
 Anemone, es, f. g. an herbe lyke to rocket, the leaues are full of holes, the flower neuer open-neth, but whan the wynde bloweth. Plin. li. 21.
 cap. 21. 23. In frenche, it is called Coques-lourdes, or cocles, of common apothecaries it is called Herba venti: some thynke it maie bee called in englyshe, rose perseye. Erasmus saith, Anemona, is a kynde of Poppie, whiche beareath a floure like a rose, but it hath no good sauour: it groweth al about in the fieldes.
 Anethum, thi, n. g. an herbe called dyll.
 Aneurisma, matis, n. ge. a cutting a sinder of the sinew, whiche containeth the receptory of bloudde, or takynge awaie the matter, wherein the spyrtes be conteyned.
 Anfractus, us, mas. ge. wyndynges and tour-nynges, specially in grounde. sometyme a circuite or compasse.
 Anfractus solis, the tournynge or reuolucion of the sonne.
 Anfractus iudiciorum, the perplexitee and hard doubtfulnes of iudgements.
 Anfractus littorum, the crooked windynges of water bankes.
 Anfractus, a, um, that is broken round about.
 Angaria, a constraint or compulsion, seruage.
 Angaria, arum, f. g. some do expounde it a pro-uision of postes in sondry places, for spedynesse of

of messengers. also certayne charges of offices that men take paynes in, as watching, carrying of thinges from place to place in warfare, &c.

Angarij, orum, m. g. postes of courours, whiche goe in messages.

Angario, aui, are. to constrayne one to doe a thinge.

Angelica, x, f. g. is taken of Spaynardus, for that whiche is called Alexander. John Canstertus, a well learned man at this time, supposeth that whiche Dioscorides calleth Morrida, to be our Angelica. Of this herbe bee two kindes, one of the gardenes, called herbe imperiall, as I thinke: an other wilde, named linge wurt, or longe wurt.

Angellus, a little corner.

Angelus, li, m. g. an angell. in greeke it properly signifyeth a messenger.

Anger, a certayne serpente, after whose stinge hapneth intollerable paynes.

Angina, x, f. g. of the greekes called Synanche, is an inflammation of the muscle of the inner gargill. Of this dyscase be three kindes. The first is Synanche, wherein appereth neither swelling nor rednesse, but the bodie waxeth leane, the membres are lested, and the breath is stopped. The seconde is called Verisynanche, there appereth rednesse and swelling, and let of speche with paynge. The thyrde is called Parasynanche, wherein onely the thekes do swell, the other tokens do not folow, the squince.

Angiologia, x, f. g. is a poynt of surgery in the heyne of the temples hid, beinge deuised from temple to temple in depenesse.

Angiportus, tus, ma. g. of Angiportum, ti, n. g. a great hole in the earth with many tourninges, or that whiche hath no waye oure, of a lane in a towne, which leadeth the nexte way to a streete, or that which lieth on a haven, wherby marchandise is caried from the water, or recaried.

Ango, anxi, anctum, angere, acti. signifyeth properly to throtle of strangle, and by a metasphoze, to torment, vex of trouble with care.

Angit animum illa cura, that care troubleth my mynde.

Angi desyderio.

Angi cruciatu timoris, to be soze tourmented with feare.

De stathio manumisso non nihil angor, I am somewhat troubled that Stathius is manumised.

Angor, oris, m. g. properly stranglynge, anguish of body or mynde.

Angor nos afficit, anguisthe of grete of mynde tourmenteth vs.

Angorem capere, to take sorow.

Angoribus & molestijs implicatus, wapped in anguisthe and payne.

Curam & angorem animi leuare: to mitisgate.

Anguilla, la, f. gene. an eele, whiche, as the best authours affirme, cometh wpythout generation of spaune; neither there is of that kynd male or female, but be ingendred of the bowels of the earth, whiche is of claiie myxt with moist earth: and that appereth by standyng pooles, where after the earth hath been throwen out cleane, after diuers showres of rayne, eeles haue bene founde. for in dyie wether they increase not, though it be in a ryuer. And they that syndyng little thynge lyke heates of easis toynd with theim, saie, that they are pong peeles, are decepted. In the ryuer of Ganges in India, haue been founde eeles, xxx. fete in length.

Anguilla est, elabirur, he is an eele, he slips wpyth away.

Anguillarius lacus, a place where eeles be bred.

Anguiculus, li, mascu. gene. a little snake, or serpent.

Anguifer, a sterre, or signe.

Anguimānus, guimani, mascu. gener. an otypphant.

Anguinum, ni, n. g. a knotte of snakes rolled together lyke a bottome of threde.

Anguinus, and anguineus, a, um, of a serpente, of windyng and creeping lyke a serpent.

Anguipedes, guipedum, m. g. certayne gygantes, whiche had crooked fete.

Anguis, for, & masc. gen. a snake.

Angueus, a, um, of a snake.

Anguitenens, idem quod Anguifer.

Angulāris, re, or angulātus, ta, tum, cornerde.

Angulārim, corner wise.

Angulōsus, a, um, full of corners.

Angulus, anguli, m. g. a corner or narrow place.

Angustatus, a, um, made streight.

Anguste, an aduerbe, signifyng straightly, narrowly, paynesfully.

Anguste sedere, to sitte very streite or close.

Anguste vii re frumentaria, to spare bytable.

Anguste scriptum, simply, and slenderly wpytten, without copie of eloquence.

Angustius diffunduntur radices, the rootes dooe not spread so largely or so farre abroade.

Anguste & presse rem definire, to define a thinge bryefely and in fewe wordes.

Angustius pabulari, to haue great scarcitee of forrage, or to haue very little roome to provide for forrage.

Angustissime continere, to holde one very shorte, to kepe one in great daunger.

Angustia, x, or rather angustia, arum, for, g. streightes and narowe places, that maie scantly bee passed by. Sometime perplexitee and trouble of mynde.

Verborum angustia, scarcitee of wordes.

Angustia ararij, scarcitee of money in the common treasoze.

Rei familiaris angustia, small substance.

Pectoris angustia, saynte courage when men dare not enterpryse great matters.

Angustia temporū, aduerstee, or the troubles

some state of any time, also, shortnes of tyme.
 In sumas angustias adductus est, he is brought into a great streight, or he hath much a doe.
 Angustias, ais, a streyte, or streyte place.
 Angusto, ai, are, act. to make streite or narowe.
 Angustus, a, um, streite or narowe, base, small.
 Angustioribus folijs herba, herbes with nar-rowe leaues.
 Nox angusta, a shoyte night.
 Rebus in angustis, in aduersitee.
 In angustam subtilitatem terminantur venæ,
 beynes doe ende very small and narowe.
 Angustianimi & parui est amare diuitias, it is a poynt of a wretched herte, or base courage to loue rycheffe.
 Angultis interrogatiunculis aliquē punge-re, to bere or trouble one with shoyte questions.
 Angusta disputationes, disputacions with shoyt argumentes.
 Mensa angusta, a pooze table, where is but small chere.
 Angusta viarum, narowe waies, or straitte passages.
 In angustum venire, to be in some necessitee, to haue great lacke of helpe.
 Anhelatio, ōnis, f. g. verb. an harde or difficile fetchynge of breahe after vehement labour.
 Anhelator, ōris, m. g. he that fetcheth his wynde often, or bloweth much called a purse man.
 Anhelatus, a, um, breathed out.
 Anhelitus, helitus, masc. gene. breahe or wynde
 of a man.
 Creber anhelitus, thicke breahtynge.
 Recipere anhelitum, to take breahe.
 Mouere anhelitus, to make one to blowe or breahe hardly.
 Anhelitus terræ, a breahe commynge out of the earth.
 Reddere & recipere anhelitum, to breahe.
 Anhelitus vini, belchynge after ouer muche drynkyng of wyne.
 Anhele, ai, are, neut. to fetche wynde, to drawe breahe, to breahe out, and by translation to labour to haue or come to a thyng, to be very greedy or disirous.
 Anhelare verba, to pusse out his word.
 Amnis anhelat vapore, the ryuer casteth out a vapour.
 Anhelare scelus, with all endeuour to aspyre to naughtynesse and mischiefe.
 Anhelus, hēla, um, adiec. that draweth his breahe peynfully.
 Annicetum, ti, or anysum, or anisum, si, n. g. an herbe lyke to fenell, wherof cometh anyse seede.
 Aniciana pira, a kynde of excellent good peares.
 Anicola, a, com. g. one the dwelleth by Amo.
 Anicula, a, f. g. a little olde woman.
 Anilis, le, om. g. adiec. of an olde woman.
 Aniles superstitiones, foliſhe and bayne super-sticion.
 Aniles fabulae, olde wyues tales that haue neither truth nor credence.

 Aniras, ais, f. g. olde age.
 Aniliter, lyke an olde foole.
 Anima, is a substance created, inuisible, moste like vnto the immortall god, hauing none ymage or figure, but onely of his creatour. it is called in Englyſhe the soule. Sometyme it is taken for lyfe. Also it signifieth the breahe. otherwhiles the wynde, sometyme the water. Sometyme the ayre.
 Animam adimere, vel extinguere, to kylle.
 Anima debet, he oweth more than he is worth, he oweth so muche, that he hath not his lyfe but in lone.
 Dicamabo, an fortet anima vxoris tuge, I tell me of good felowſhippe, doeth thy wyues breahe synke.
 Animas nostras negotiantur medici, phyſicians doe make marchandise of our liues, or doe
 by and sell our liues.
 Animam puram conseruare, to keepe ones
 breahe sweete.
 Animam comprime, holde thy breahe.
 Ego illi puto, si ocepſo, animam omnem intertraxero, If I ones begynne I will drawe all the water out of that well.
 Animam agere, to be a dyng.
 Concedere animam alicui, to suffre him to leue.
 Animam agere, effundere, mittere, edere, efflare, exhalare, expirare, exuere, relinquere
 to dye.
 Claudere animam laqueo, to hang ones selfe.
 Concedere animam alicui, to pardonne one his lyfe.
 Obectare animam periculis, to put ones lyfe in iopardie.
 Animas ademptas reddere, to restore to lyfe.
 Interclusio animæ, the stoppyng of the breahe.
 Attrahere & redere animam, to breahe.
 Anima mea pars, anima mea dimidium, spokē of one, whom we loue exceedingly, my singular and especiall frend, my owne dere harte.
 Anima follis, the wynde of the bellows.
 Animaduérſio, ōnis, f. g. verb. iudgement, consideracion, punishment. sometyme study. some-tyme condemnacion or forſaite.
 Animaduersionem remittere, to pardon.
 Animaduersionem effugere, to scape punishmente.
 Animaduérſor, ōris, m. g. verb. he that puniſh-eth, one that conſydereth, weyeth, and taketh good heed of any thyng.
 Animaduérſus, a, um, parti. ſcene, knowen, per-ceued, conſidered, puniſhed.
 Animaduerto, uérſi, uérſere, act. to conſider, to take heede, to perceiue, to regarde, to ſette mynde on a thyng, to beholde, to thynke, to puniſh.
 Experrecta nutrix animaduertit dormien-tem circumſpicatū serpentis amplexu, The nourice

nouryze awaketh, and perceyued the chyld, beeyng on sleepe, whapped all aboute in the wyngs of a serpente.

Animaduertur sues a facie, & progenie, & regione cæli, swyne be marked or considered to be chosen, by their looke, by their byrde, by the countrey where they be byrde.

Dare operam, & cum silentio animaduertite, take heede, and with silence attend or marke well what I will say to you.

Ea sunt animaduertenda peccata maxime, quæ difficillime præcauentur, Those offences ought to be moste sharply punished, which most hardly are eschewed.

Hæc re animaduertsa, Cæsar iubet signa conuerti, That thyngs beyng perceyued, Cæsar commaunded to aduance the standerde.

Animaduertere in aliquem, to punishe one.

Animaduertere rem aliquam, to haue respecte or regarde to a matter.

Animaduertere iniuriam, facinus, peccatum, to punishe an offence or naughtie acte.

O facinus animaduertendum, Oh shamefull dede, worthy to be punished.

Animæquius, a, um, patient or sufferynge.

Animæ, for animæ.

Animal, animalis, n. g. all thyngs that hath life, and is sensible, commonly it is taken for a beast, a liuyng creature.

Animalis, animalæ, and animabilis, le, adiect. liuely, that hath life, or that perteyneth to lyfe.

Animans, f. g. nōnunquam neutrius, idem quod animal, sayng that it is more large. for it maye signify all thinges that haue spirite or lyfe.

Animatio, ōnis, f. g. and animatus, us, m. g. the geuyng of the soule or lyfe.

Animatus, m. a, um, part. that hath soule or lyfe.

Animatus, a, um nomen, hauyng a fantasy or fauour to a thyng, or to be disposed.

Intelligebim socios infirmæ animatos esse, of weake courage.

Ira animatus fui, atque nunc sum, vt ea te pateram donem, I had such a fantasy, and haue yet, that I would geue that cuppe to you.

Amābo, si quid animatus est facere, fac iam vt sciam, If he be disposed or mynded to dooe any thyng, let me know it, I pray the.

Malè animatus erga aliquem, angry, wrothe, or owyng small fauour to any person.

Bene animatus, contrary.

Animi, for cogitations or thoughtes.

Animellæ, the swete breade in a hog or other beast.

Animittus, aduerb. from the veray soule or lyfe.

Animo, aui, are, act. to geue courage or boldenes, to quicken, to geue herte or stomake.

Animari, to quicken or take lyfe, as the chyld doeth in the mothers wombe.

Animosè, couragiously, lustily, with a bolde courage or stomake.

Animositas, atis, f. g. boldnesse, lusty courage.

Animosus, a, um, bolde, stoute, couragious.

Animula, le, f. g. dimi. of ad.

Animus, animi, m. g. the mynde, the will. sometyme it is put for the soule. sometyme for affection or delectation. sometyme for winde or blast. sometyme for wyathe. sometyme for a towne.

Animus alienus, a mynde that fauoureth not a man.

Animos addere, to make one holde, or to picke hym forwarde to dooe a thyng.

Animos comprimere, to abate ones courage.

Animos retardare, idem.

Animos efferre, to loke high, or to be proude.

Animos lactare, to drawe mennes herts with fayre promises, to make folles fayne, to byngs men in a folles paradyse.

Animi pendere, to be in doubt what to dooe.

Animi causa, for pleasure. Cur eam emit? T. animi causa, Wherfore dyd he bye hit? C. for his pleasure.

Animo male est, it greeweth me at the betys hert.

Animo præsentis, with a bold spirit or courage.

Animo bono sis, be of good cheere, take a good herte.

Animo iniquo pati, to suffre vnpaciently.

Animo obsequi, to take pleasure, to folow appetite or wyll.

Animo morem gerere, idem.

Animum adicere ad virginem, to set his loue on a mayden.

Animum adiungere, to apply or set ones mind on a thyng.

Animum aduertere, to take hede.

Animum appellere, to dispose or apply him to dooe a thyng.

Animum eicere ab aliquo, to pull affection or loue from one.

Animum abicere, to despayre.

Accendunt hæc animos, these thinges doe inflame mens stomaches.

Animum recipere, to take hert or courage. also to fetch breath.

Metuit defectionem animi mei, he feareth lest my herte will fayle me.

Animum sumere, to take a good herte.

Animi amplitudo, great courage.

Acer & præsens animus, a quicke and ready wytte, a liuely mynde or courage.

Aequo animo ferre, to take paciently.

Animo altiore esse, to haue a lofty and hyghe mynde.

Animus angustus, demissus, simplex, humilis, iacens, minutus, infirmus, exiguus, paruus, pusillus, a vyle and base courage.

Animus amplus, excelsus, altus, fortis, ingens, magnus, a stoute stomache, a great or lusty courage, a noble mynde.

Animus auersissimus, a very froward minde.

Animo faciliore abuti, to abuse a gentill mind, or one gentlenes.

Hoc animo sum, I am of this minde.

Animus inflatus, a proude stomacke.
 Animo quidem meo, after my iudgement of opinion, as I thynke.
 Animis mutuis amare, to loue ethe other.
 Linqui animo cepit: he began to founde.
 Linquente animo incubuit &c. as he was as boutte to founde.
 Animo abhorrere, to hate or be ageynst.
 Animo abiectio homo, a desperate persone, a man forlorne, a man of base courage.
 Animus accessit nobis, our courage is increased.
 Animum adhibere, or aduertere, to attende or harken.
 Animo agitare, to thinke, or cast in ones mind.
 Animo concidit, his hert faileth him.
 Pluribus ad fugam animus fuit, Many wer in mynde to flee.
 Animus est in hortis, I thynke, or my mynde is on my gardeyns.
 Animum inducere, to perswade.
 Inducere in animum non potui: I coulde not perswade my selfe.
 Pascere animum, to delite the minde.
 A mare ex animo, to loue hartly.
 Defectus animo, one that swouneth.
 Noui animos eius et spiritus: I know his stomake and courage.
 Ex animo tuo colligere potes, you may gather by your owne minde.
 Mihi est in animo, or in animo habeo facere, I purpose, or I am in mynde to doo so.
 Animus erga te idē ac fuit. i. voluntas, myne affection or good wille, is towarde you, as it was wont to be.
 Animum alicuius recolligere alteri, to reconcile one man to an other, to byinge one in fauour agayne.
 Noui ego amantium animos, id est, cogitationes, I know the affection & fantasies of louers.
 Validus animi, stoute of courage.
 Diuersus animi, vncertayne what to doe.
 Largus animo, of a bountifull harte.
 Animus impotens, an vnpacient courage, a proude or dogged hert, an vnruly minde.
 Animus tibi pender, thou standest in doubte what thou maiest doe.
 Anime mi, my dere hert.
 Animule, idem.
 Anio, loke Anien.
 Anisum, loke Anicetum.
 Annālis, in the singular numbze, and annāles, in the plurall, are most commonly vsed for histories of actes perely doen.
 Exannalium vetustate: out of auncient cronicles.
 In tuo annali: for annalibus.
 Est in annalibus nostris, it is in our cronicles.
 Annales, le, that which is doen perely.
 Tempus annale: the tyme that the compasse of the yere mesureth.
 Annarius, nāria, um, aged, or that whiche is doen perely.

 Annaria lex, was a law in the .xii. tables of the Romans, wherby was appoynted, at what age, and duringe what time, great offices in the publike weale shoulde be taken and kept.
 Annascor, nasceris, natus sum, depo: to growe, or be borne by a place or man.
 Annato, aui, are, loke Adnato.
 Annaugo, aui, are, to sayle to.
 Anecto, nexui, ctere, act, to knyt, fasten, tye, or ioyne to.
 Cor annexum in lana ouis nigra, tyed to in the wull. &c.
 Annecti ad linguam, for lingua.
 Annellus, a littell tynge.
 Annexus, a, um, knitte or tied to.
 Annexus, us, m, g. a tynge or ioyng to.
 Annicto, aui, are, to winke at one.
 Anniculus, a um, that whiche is of one yeres age or groweth.
 Anniculaetas, one yeres age.
 Annifer, nifera, rum, adiect. that beareth fruite all seasons of the yere.
 Annisus, a, um, and annixus, a, um, the participle of annitor, that induceth diligently.
 Summa ope annixi or annisi sunt, They bent thei myndes to it, and endeouored with all diligence.
 Annitor, anniteris, nixus vel sum, niti, depōn. to resist, or to helpe, to sette to my mynde, loke adnitor.
 Anniverfarius, saria, um, that every yere returneth at one time.
 Anno, aui, are, loke Adno.
 Annominatio, a figure, wherein is allusion of wordes, that sounde like, as Veniſſe a te ante- quam Romam venit.
 Annōna, annōna, f. g. vitails, sustinaunce, or luyng, cozne. Sometime it signifieth findinge in meate, drinke, & apparayle. It is vsed also for a monethes, or a yeres stipende or wages.
 Difficultas & grauitas annonae, scarfitee, and dearth of vitayle.
 Vilitas, annōna, plentee and good cheape of vitayles.
 Inferre caritatem annōna, and Incendere annōnam, to make scarfitee or dearth of vitayles.
 Ingrauescit annōna, vitayle wareth dere.
 Annona haud multum laxauerat, cozne waxeth littell better cheape, cozne was styll at an hyghe pryce.
 Laxior annona, better cheape of vitayle.
 Prodesse annōna, leuare annonam, to make cozne or vitayle better cheape, or at a lower pryce.
 Duplas conſequebatur annonas, he had double allowaunce of vitayle, or so muche allowance in wages, as two other.
 Conualeſcit annōna, there beginneth to bee moze plentee of vitayle.
 Graui annōna conflictari, to bee greued wth great scarfitee and lacke of vitayle.

Facta durior annona, coine made durer.
 Anonam incendere, or Excandefacere, to make vitaille rise to a higher price.
 Comprimere annonam, by bying of muche vis-tayne and coine to kepe it at a high price.
 Cressit annona, vitaille ryleth to a higher price.
 Flagellare annonam, to make vitaille durer.
 Annonarius, a, um, pertayninge or belongyng to vitaille.
 Annonaria expensæ, expenses in bytayne.
 Anonymos, a tree not muche vnylike a pomegrat-nate tree, it hath leaues betwene the bygnesse of that and a laurell.
 Annosus, a, um, aged, of many yeres growth or continuance.
 Annotatio, onis, fce. ge. a noting or markyng of thynges for a special remembrance.
 Annotator, oris, ma. gen. one that marketh or obserueth.
 Annotinus, a, um, of Annus, that is one yere old.
 Ungues annotini, nayles of a yeres growyng.
 Annotinus, a, um, of Annona, that pertaineth to vitaille.
 Annotina naues, shippes that cary coine or vis-tayles.
 Annoto, annotas, aui, are, act. to note, to intitle, to marke or put a thyng in wrytyng for remembrance, to appoynt out, to registre.
 Annotari, sometyme to be made notable.
 Hæc litora conchylio annotantur, be famous or notable.
 Vti is annotat, as he noteth or putteth in wry-
 tyng.
 Annotatum est, Pro observatum est. It was obserued.
 Annotare cursim, to mention a thyng bryefely,
 to touche a thyng by the waye.
 Ex noxiis laniandos annotauit. id est. decernebat. Of theym that were hurtfull, he appointed whiche shulde be kylled.
 Annotare reos absentes, when the iudge ordeneth persones that be accused in theyr absence, to be sought for.
 Annotare requirendos reos, idem.
 Annuatim, perely.
 Annularis, re, om. ge. perteyninge to a ryng.
 Annularius, rij, m. g. one that maketh or selleth rynges.
 Annulatus, a, um, rynged, or haupng the fyngers
 ful of rynges.
 Annulus, annuli, mas. gen. a ryng.
 Annulus signatorius, a ryng with a seale, a sygnet.
 Pala annuli, the brode place of the ryng where the stone is set, the colet.
 Detrahare annulum, Induere annulum, to pull of, to put on.
 Annulo sigilla imprimere, to seale with a ryng.
 Annumero, aui, are, act. to number to, to adde to in number. sometyme onely to number. also to accompte, tel, or pale money.

Cum vates annumerarer, when I was counted amonge poetes.
 Annumerat mihi argentum sua manu.
 Annuntio, are, act. to declare a message to shewe.
 Annuntiare salutem, to greete or salute in an other mans name.
 Annuo, annuis, ui, ere, neut. properly to nodde with the head. Also to affirme or promise, to assent or graunte, with noddynge to demaunde a question, or wyl one to do a thyng, to signifie or appoynt, to fauour.
 Flauio assistenti annuentiq an distringeret
 gladium, Gttinge by hym and ashyng.
 Ego autem venturum annuo, I aspyre or promise, that I wyl come.
 Annuit cepit deus, god fauoureth that we go aboute.
 Hoc mihi significasse & annuisse visus est, he semed to me, to signifie and make semblaunce as though he wolde saie thus.
 Si deus annuerit, If god vouchsafe it, If god
 saie Amen.
 Annuit patres conscripti nutum, id est. concedite, graunte to vs.
 Annus, ni, ma. ge. is commonly called a yere, not withstandyng Annus, is diuided into thre significations. Annus lunaris, whiche is. xxx.
 daies: Annus solstitialis. xii. monethes: Annus magnus, called also Annus vertens. 1254.
 yeres: in whiche space of tyme the planetes and sterres returne to the same state, that they were in at the tyme, from whence we doo accompte.
 Josephus calleth the space of. 1000. yeres Annus magnus.
 Anno incipiente, in the beginnyng of the yere.
 Alternis annis, euery seconde yere.
 Agere annos extremos, to be in his laste daies.
 Labuntur anni, the yeres passe awaie.
 Primis annis, in youth.
 Anni extremo, anni exitu, fine anni, in the ende of the yere.
 Grauis annis, aged.
 Annus bellicosior, a yere, in whiche is more warre than at other tymes.
 Cedere annis, spoken of wyne that wyl not asbyde. Ferre annos, the contrary.
 Annutrio, iui, ire, loke adnutrio.
 Annuum, a pencion or annuitie, allowaunce for a yere in vitaille or wages.
 Annuus, a, um, that dureth one yere, or that is done euery yere.
 Regnum annuis vicibus habendum reliquit,
 he lefte his kyngdome so betwene them that eche
 by course shoulde gouerne his yere.
 Annua dies, the space of a yere.
 Annuum munus, an office for one yere.
 Annua vices, course or succession perely.
 Annua febris, an perely feuer.
 Annua sacra, sacrifices done perely.
 Anodina, nodinorum, thynges which by prouos
 kyng slepe, do put away pynes or greife.

Anomalia, a, f. g. inequality, vnlykenes, contrarie to Annologia.
Anomalum, anómali, neu. ge. vnequal, diuers, rough, that is not playne.
Anonis, nidis, f. g. vel Ononis, an herbe called Cammoche or rest harowe. like Ononis.
Anónium, anonij, n. g. an herbe called dead nettle, or archangel.
Anonymos, mi, without name: there is an herbe so called.
Anophyrus, a, um, spungen or growen vpon a thynge.
Anórmis, me, om. ge. without rule.
Anquina, anquina, f. g. the corde, wherewith the saile is bounde to the mast.
Anquiro, siui, ihere, sium, act. to seke, to make inquisition or informacion.
De perduellione anquirere, to sit in examinacion of treason.
Anquirere capitis, or capite de aliquo, to procede against one in a great offence.
Pecunia anquirere, to pursue one to condemnation, to haue amendes.
Anquyromachus, rómachi, mas. gen. a facion of ships or boates.
Ansa, ansæ, f. ge. the eare or handle of a pottle or cuppe. and sometyme it signifieth occasion. sometyme a latchet of a shewe.
Dare ansam, to geue an occasion.
Ansanctus, ti, m. g. on euery syde holy.
Ansatús, a, um, hauing an handel.
Ansatús homo, a man that goethe with his armes on kenbowe.
Ansegetes, like amsegetes.
Anser, anseris, mas. ge. a goose. Thei treade to in gender in the water. They sit on theyr egges in colde countreies. xxx. daies, in warme countreies or wether. xxb. daies, as Columella sayeth. They were much made of by the Romans, for asmuche as whan the frenchmen besieged the capytol of Rome, thei within beyng on sleepe, the capitol had been worne, if a certayne number of geese, perceiuyng the enemies, had not cried: wherewith the Romayns awaked, and by the valiant prowesse of M. Manlius, slewe and draue out the frenchmen, wherefore geese were had in great reputacion: & prouision was made, that they shoulde neuer lacke meate.
Strept anser, the goose crieth.
Velluntur anseres, geese are pulled,
Anserculus, li, m. g. a little goose or a gosling.
Anserinus, a, um, lyke or pertainyng to a goose.
Ansula, ansulæ, f. g. a little handle or latchet.
Antacei, as Strabo writeth, be fishes in the ryuer Bosphorus, lyke to dolphins without finnes, and be veray delicate and pleasant to eate.
Antachates, chátis, m. g. a precious stone, that sauerth lyke myrrour.
Antæ, ærum, f. g. plur. iambes, also postes on euery syde of a doore.
Antæ, is redde in the singular number ones in the trunius.

Antæci, people that dwel in the contrary to Antichthones.
Antanacclasis, sis, f. g. a figure, whan there be set. ii. contrary or vnlyke significacions of one word, as, Amare iucundum, si curetur, ne quid insit amari.
Antandros, a citie in Phrygia.
Antépocha, a, f. g. the counterpane of a dede in writyng.
Antarcticus, the south pole.
Antarium bellum, battayle before a cite or towne.
Ante, before, a preposition ioyned to an accusatiue case of tyme, place or persone.
Ante cibum, before he hath eate somewhat.
Ante lucem, before daie.
Ante diem tertium, id est nudius tertius, before the thirde daie after was finished.
Ante diem octauum idus Nouembris, before the viii. daie of the idus of Nouembre was finished.
Ante oculos, before our eyes, in our presence.
Ante pedes, before vs, prouerbiaily.
Ante oculos coram anduxisti, euen harde before my face.
Palam ante oculos omnium, openly before mens eyes.
Ante alios, with the comparatiue degree, Ante alios immanior omnes.
Ante alios, with a superlatiue, Ante alios pulcherimus omnes.
Ante me illum amo, I loue hym more then my selfe.
Ante alios hilaris, more mery than al the other. i. plus aliis, super alios.
Ante omnia, chiefely, specially, before all thynges.
In ante diem quartum distulit, he deferred it vntyl it was before the fourth daie.
Ex ante diem quintum, sens before the fyfthe daie.
Ante alios, aboue other, before other, more than other, or besyde other.
Ante, an aduerbe of tyme, before.
Antea, ante, aduerbes, before.
Anteactus, a, um, parti. done or paste before this tyme.
Anteacta vita, the lyfe that we haue led before, our former lyfe.
Anteambulo, ónis, m. g. a lackey or other seruāt that goeth afore his maister, the vsher or treasurer that goeth before his maister.
Antecanis, a sterre.
Antecapio, antecapis, cēpi, capere, to preuente, to take vp before.
Tempus legatorum antecapiebat, he preuented the embassadours.
Antecaptus, a, um, and after some antecaptus, part. taken vp before hande.
Antecedo, cēdis, cēsi, cedere, cēssum, neutr. to go before, to excel, to passe. it is construed both both with an accusative and a passive case.

 Si hunc rei antecedit, it excell this thyng.
 Antecedit me aetate, he is elder than I.
 Antecedere precio, to be more costly, or of higher price. Antecedo illum vel illi.
 Biduo me antecessit, he was before me two dayes journey.
 Antecedens annus, the yere before.
 Antecello, lui, ere, act. to excell to have preeminnence.
 Antecessio, onis, f. g. a going before, an excelling, or passing.
 Antecessor, oris, m. g. afore goer, an antecessour.
 Antecessus, us, m. g. semeth to be used for Anticipatio.
 In antecessum dabo, I wyl give or pay the money before hand.
 Antecenium, nij, n. g. a colacion or drinkeinge betwene dyner and supper, a boeuer.
 Antecursor, oris, m. g. afore ryder, a scurser.
 Antedico, xi, ere, to shew or tel before.
 Anteco, anteis, lui, ire, neut. to procede or excell;
 or to go before.
 Candore nives antecunt, they bee whiter then snowe.
 Anteire ceteris, vel ceteros virtute, to excell
 other in vertue.
 Anteire aetate, aliquos vel aliquib⁹, to be elder.
 Anteiri ab aliis, to be passed or excelled of other.
 Antexpectatum, an aduerbe, sodeinty, before it was looked for.
 Antefactum, a deie done before.
 Antefero, antefers, tuli, ferre, act. to put before,
 or set moe by.
 Antefixa, orum, n. g. plur. thynges cast in moldes,
 and set ouer doores, vnder the eaves droppynge,
 to beare of the droppes that fal downe.
 Antegenitalis, le, an adiectiue of Ante + genitus.
 Antegredior, gredieris, gressus sum, tegredi, to goe before.
 Antehabeo, antehabes, habui, ere, to preferre.
 Antehac, before this tyme, or before that tyme.
 Antelapides, stones set at both sides of a dore for strength.
 Antelarus, a, um, preferred, sette before.
 Anteloquium, anteloqui, n. g. the first tourne in speakyng.
 Antelucanus, cana, um, that whiche is before day
 lyghte.
 Antelucanae cœnæ, suppers that continue from the euentyde to the sonne ryng.
 Antelucani venti, windes that doe blowe from the water, or from some creke.
 Anteluco, an aduerbe, before daie.
 Anteluco, aui, are, to wake before daie.
 Anteluculo, before daie light, or an howze afore
 the sonne risynge.
 Antema, mæ, the gardeine malowe, which was so named of Pythagoras.
 Antemalorū, of euyls or misfortunes that be past.
 Antemeridianus, a, um, that is, or that is done before noone.

 Antemon, a certain case of a thynge.
 Antemna, næ, f. g. the crosse piece, wherunto the sayle is fastned, the sayle yerde.
 Anteoccupatio, onis, f. g. a preventinge of one in the possession of a thyng.
 Anteoccupo, aui, are, act. to preuente one in the possession of a thyng.
 Antepagments, loke antipagments.
 Antepilani, a sorte of souldiours in the forpartes of the Romans army of the which there were comonly thre benches called, manipuli.
 Antepono, lui, ere, act. to set before, to preferre.
 Antequam, before, ere.
 Antequam de republica dicam, ere I speake of the weale publyke.
 Anterior, and hoc anterior, comp. ab antefine superlatiua. that is somewhat before, formoste.
 Antermini, orum, mæ, g. the inhabitants of the marches or frontiers of a countrey.
 Anterotes, rotis, mascu. gen. the warlike kynde of Amastes, which hath a purple colour towards a chystall.
 Antes, antium, plur. mas. g. outwarde pillars or postes, wherby the house or frame is susteyned, buttresses.
 Antesignani, orum, mæ, g. they that be nexte the standerde, appointed to defende it.
 Antesto, antestas, steti, are, neut. to excell or stand before.
 Robore alios vel alius, antestari, he excellerth other in strength of the bodie.
 Antestor, aris, tatus sum, stari, depo. an olde worde used among the Romans, whan one did arreste his aduersarie, to make hym appeere in iudgement, whiche he coulde not doo, excepte he tooke one that was presente for a witnesse, and therfore, antestari, is at suche a tyme to take one that is present to witnes, whiche was doone by touchyng of the parties eare, and askynge hym whether he wolde be witnes or noe, if he answered: yea, then he might take his aduersarie before the iudge, otherwise if he did it without witnes, he might be sued of an action of trespas by his aduersarie. But as it semeth by other, antestari is to beare witness or testimonie of such kynde of reffe.
 Antesium, antefui, antesse, to excell an other in
 any thyng.
 Anteuenio, anteuens, ueni, nare, neut. to pre-uente, to excell or passe.
 Anteuenire insidiis, to preuente.
 Anteuerto, uerti, uertere, to preuente, to ouerryde or ouer go one. Sometyme to do one thyng before an other, to dw or speake before an other.
 Maiores mihi anteuertunt gaudis, my sor-rowes come vpon me before my ioies.
 Damnationem veneno anteuertit, he poisned him selfe before he was condemned.
 Miror vbi ego huius anteuertierim, I meruaile where I came before hym.

Rebus aliis anteuertam quæ mandas mihi, id est præponam, I wyl do those thinges that you byd me before al other.
 Ille me anteuertit, he pꝛeuented me, and spake before me.
 Anteuolo, aui, âre, act. to flee before, to pꝛeuent in fleeing.
 Antebanus, a, um, nigh to the cite: as Antebanum prædium, a manour nigh to the cite.
 Anthedon, onis, f. g. a kynde of medlar, whiche hath leaues lyke an almonde tree, the frutes lesse than the common medlar, but muche plesanter, and wyl be lenger kepte.
 Anthemis, anthemidis, f. g. an herbe called Las momill.
 Anthera, ræ, f. g. a certayne salue, whiche hath a floury mynge and vyente colour: reade Loxn. Celsus. All be it Ioannes Mainardus sayeth, that phisicians doo call Antheras, compounded medicines for diseases in the mouth, wherein roses be mingled: but he that redeth Galene de compo. medica. shal finde Antheras, without the floures of Roses.
 Anthericeum, cei, n. g. a kynde of Baulme.
 Anthericon, idem quod Asphodelus.
 Antherices, are called of Herodotus the stalkes of stremes of Dassadilles, or the toppes of the eares of cozne.
 Anthericus, a certayne herbe, whiche can not be reaped, but plucked vp with the hande as flax is.
 Anthirion, after some the herbe called auricula muris, looke Alcipe.
 Anthillis, an herbe, whereof bee two kyndes. loke Dioscorides li. 3. ca. 130.
 Anthias, a fysh, a great deuourer of mānes flesh, hauing teeth lyke to a combe. yet notwithstanding, in the partes wher this fysh breedeth, is no monster of the sea, and therefore he is called Sacer piscis, the holy fysh. He is also called Callionymus.
 Anthinus, a, um, that flourisheth, that is full of floures, or made of floures.
 Anthirinos, an herbe lyke to lynne, hauinge no roote. it hath a purple floure, and groweth commonly amonge cozne. the sede is lyke to a calues head with the nolethilles open.
 Anthisterion, the name of a moneth among the Atheniens. some thinke it Apryl. for it is as muche to saie as Floralia.
 Anthologica, orum, n. g. plur. booke intreating of flowres.
 Anthos, eos, mas. gen. is commonly taken for the floures of rosemary. All be it, it is the generall name of euery flower.
 Anthraceus, cei, m. g. a colyar.
 Anthracia, æ, f. g. a cole,
 Anthrax, anthracis, m. g. a cole. also a soze called a Carbuncle, or rather a pꝛecious stone so named.
 Anthracites, citis, m. ge. a stone wherein semeth to be as it were sparkes of fyre.

Anthracinus, a, um, blacke as it were a cole.
 Anthropographus, the surname of Dionysius, whiche painted nothing but men.
 Anthropophagi, people whiche eat of deuours men.
 Anthropos, a man.
 Anthus, thi, m. g. a byrde that counterfaitheth the neighing of horses. also a floure.
 Anthyllis, is called commonly herbe pug.
 Anthyparus, ti, m. g. latine proconsul.
 Antiades, a disease in the mouthe, lyke to greas kernels, called in latine Tonsilla.
 Antia, arum, the heare of a woman that is lored ouer hir forheade, gentiwomen byd lately call them their rolles.
 Antibacchius, a foote in meter, hauing the two first sillables long, & the last short, as, Audire.
 Antica, antica, the foreparte, wherunto postica is contrary.
 Anticantharos, the flower called liliū siluestre.
 Anticanis, looke Antecanis.
 Anticategoria, æ, a pleadng, when one assaith an other.
 Antichresis, sis, f. g. a gage, or peece of lande laied to mortgage.
 Anticipatio, onis, f. g. an anticipation, or taking before. also a figure called Prolepsis.
 Anticipo, aui, âre, to pꝛeuent, to take before, to anticipate.
 Quum audisset vnum anticipasse mortem, when he had harde that one of them was deade before, or had killed hym selfe before.
 Eius rei molestia anticipat, he feleth the grieue of that thinge sooner then he shold doe.
 Anticyricon, a certayne herbe lyke to groundsel, whiche groweth in the Ile Anticyra.
 Anticithones, people dwellynge in the bittermoste parte of the world directly against vs.
 Antideo, dis, dire, for Anteco.
 Antidor, antidoris, or rather antidorum, ti, n. g. remuneration, gyfte for gyfte, one for an other.
 Antidosis, is, f. g. retribution, remuneration.
 Antidotarius, a booke of medicines.
 Antidotum, ti, n. g. Antidotus, ti, for. g. a medicine to cꝛpell poyson.
 Antigerio, olde wyttres used for valde, vel scilicet, quasi dicerent ante res geratur.
 Antigrapheus, a controller.
 Antigrapheus, idem.
 Antigraphum, an example wꝛitten out or printed by an other example.
 Antilepsis, latine intercessio.
 Antilegomena, n. g. plur. contradictions.
 Antilena, næ, a peitrell.
 Antilogia, æ, contradiction, gainesaying.
 Antimaron. i. contra mortem, agaynst death.
 Antimelon, in Diosc. is called mandragora.
 Antimonion, in Diosc. mandragora. also a kinde of mettall.
 Antimerabole, antimeraboles, f. ge. a fygure in speche, where woordes are repeted to a contras-ry sentence: as, Non vt edam uiuo, sed vt ui-uam edo: I lyue not to eate, but I eate to liue.

Antinomia, α , f. g. whan there seemeth repug-nancie betwene two lawes.

Antinous, a younge styllinge of meruaplouse

beautie, whom Adrianus the emperor loued.

Antiochia, a noble citee in Syria, called fyrst Epiphane, or Beblata, it was augmented by Ses-leuchus, son of Antiochus, one of the companis one of great Alexander, 330. yerres before the comynge of Christ. He called it by his fathers name Antiochia. Thorough this citee renneth the ryuer Orontes. Of this citee was saint Peter the apostle bishop. vii. yerres. And after him saint Luke the euangelist other. vii. yerres.

There was the fyrst counsaile celebrate, where the name of Christen men fyrst began. This citee was in the handes of christen men. 1000.

yerres. And there hath ben in succession. 153.

byshops. It had within it. 366. churches, In trochia is also a parte of Syria, and an yle in the sea Medeterraneum, there is an other Antioch in the sea coast of Persia, an other in Lybia, in Blidia, in Cilicia, in Pieria, an other by

Taurus, and in diuers other places, Vide Pli.

Antiochis, chidis, a woman of Antioch.

Antiochus, a kynge of Syria, the fourth of that name was called the great Antiochus, afore the comynge of Christ. 212. yerres. He was also called Pterax (whiche signifieth a faulcon) for the raueny he bled in takynge from euery man his possessions and goodes. To this kynge came Anniball, after Carthage was deliuered: to whom Antiochus shewed his armie gathered agaynst the Romaines, meruailous ryche armed with gold and syluer. And he (reioysynge therin) demaunded of Anniball, yf he thought it not enough for the Romaines, meanyng the puissance of the armye. Anniball little esteemyng the ryche, answered in scoyne: yes, although liaritee, he might take his realme from him, whiche he did: for comynge vnto hym vnder the colour of aliaunce: he shewe Ptolome styrnge at supper. He also subdued the Jewes in Hieru-salem, and robbed the temple and citee, and did set by Idols, and with sundry tourmentes compelled the Jewes to breake the lawes of god, and commytted Idolatry. But he escaped not unpunished. For when he had reigned a le-uen yerres, he fell into an horrible sicknesse and tourmente, so that woowes issued abundantly out of his bodye, whiche so corrupted his selfe, that no man about him myghte susteyne the sauour thereof. At last he returnyng to the knowlage of god, dyed very contrite. Diuers other haue bene of that name, some kynges, some philosophers.

Antioopa, the daughter, of Pterax, and wife of Lycus king of Thebes in Egypt.

Antipagmenia, garnishynges of porches or doo-res, wrought in stone or tymber, or els peincted.

Antipater, the name of diuers kynges, as well of Macedonia, as of Judea. Also a noble captaine, whom great Alexander made his lieutenant of Macedonia, whiles he was in his conquest: who did many valiant actes in the absence of Alexander, and kept the realmes and dominions of his maister in good state thorough his wisdomie and prowesse. But beyng at dis-cension with queene Olympias, she wrote many great complaintes to hir sonne against him, Finally (dreadyng the crueltee, as well of Alexander as of his mother) it is supposed, he consented to the poysonyng of his maister.

Antipater, a stoike philosopher, bozne in the citee of Tyzus, from the tyme of his byrth, vntyll

his death, had alway a feuer, and yet he liued till he was olde. There was a famous poete, di-uers philosophers, and a sophister of this name.

Antipater, is also an herbe, whiche hath an harde stemme, and leaues lyke rosemary, but they are broder, and not so longe. The propertie therof is, that the flowers, whiche growe laste, dooe sprynge by highest: therfore Pandecta calleth it Filius ante patrem, the son afore the father.

Antipathia, α , f. g. a repugnancie, or contrarietee of naturall qualitees or affections.

Antipelargia, α , f. g. mutuall thankfulnessse, remuneration, one good tourne for an other.

Antipelargesis, idem.

Antiperistaxis, a lette, restrainte, or repulsion,
on euery parte. wherby where heate commeth,

cold is expelled: where cold is, heate is expelled.

By this is welles water warme in winter, because the hygh partes of the ayre (beeyng cold)

the heate draweth to the lowest partes. Lykewyse in the body of man, the spyrite is kepte in more seruente, by the outward cold, by the ioynite consent and tolleracion of all the partes of the body.

Antiphates, a kynge of the Lastrigones, Melama-pos

pos sonne.

Antiphates, the halsted sonne of Sarpedon.

Antiphellus, a porcion of Lycia.

Antiphon, an auncient poete of Ramnuse.

Antipharmacum, idem quod antidotum.

Antiphona, bee interpreted antemnes, songen after psalmes. These were fyrste ordeigned to bee songe in the Church by saincte Ignatius, the disciple of saincte John the euangeliste, & chebyshop of Antioche, the yere of our lord. 109. or rather by sainct Ambrose.

Antiphonus, and Antiphus, the sonnes of Phisamus by Decuba.

Antiphus, of this name were diuers.

Antiphrasis, ferm. gen. a wyde haupnge a contraye meanynge, as Parca, the ministers of deathe, so called, because they spare no man.

Also a fygure in an oracion, whan we touche that, whiche we saie wee will not speake of: as Non tango, quod auarus homo est.

Antiphrates, certaine pprecious stones, whiche beyng sodde in mylke, maketh it lyke mirre.

Antipilani, an order of souldyours in the Ro- mayne army,

Antipodes, a people, the whiche doe inhabyte the parte of the worlde, in respecte of the rounde- nesse therof vnderneath vs, that their feete seme to be against ours.

Antipocha, a wytyng of byll of a mans owne hand, wherein he knowlageth his debte.

Antipolis, a citee of Parbon in Fraunce, called commonly Ragni.

Antipophora, a figure, whan we recite the say- ynges and objections of our aduersaries, to the intent to answer or confute them.

Antiprôsis, tôsis, ferm. gen. a figure, whan one case is put for an other.

Antipyrgus, a citee of Marmarica, called com- monly Lucco.

Antiquarius. rij, mas. gen. he that scritheth for antiquitees, or readeth olde woordes, or vseth to speake or wyte woordes of auncient tyme, which haue been longe out of custome.

Antiquatio, an abolition, or abrogacion.

Antique, aunciently.

Antiquitas, aris, auncientee. It is sometye vled for a lounge affection towarde a thyng or persone.

Antiquitas, pro ipsis antiquis.

Antiquitas generis, auncientee of bloudd.

Tantum antiquitatis curaque maioribus pro Italica gente fuit. id est, antiqui & præcipui amoris, ab eo quod antiquum pro charo ponitur.

Antiquitus, of auncient and olde tyme.

Antiquitus durauit hic mos vsque ad nostrā memoriā, this maner hath continued of olde tyme euen to our memoie.

Antiquo, aut, quare, to make voyde, to reduce to the fyrste state, to repell, to abrogate, to abo- lish, or to put out of memoie.

Antiquare legem, to abolishe a lawe.

Antiquus, a, um, auncient or olde, sometye it signifieth great, noble, or worshipfull. also it signifieth muche sette by, or loued.

Nihil antiquius, nothyng more set by or fa- uoured.

Antiqua ratio, the maner of tyme passe.

Antiqua terra, a noble countrey.

Terra antiqua, potens armis, & vbera gle- ba, I noble countrey puissant in armes, and of a fertile soyle.

Antiqui homines, menne of the olde facion, men auncient in maners and behauiour.

Antiquum obtrines, thou hepest thy olde wont or facion.

Tres epistolas accepi, antiquissimæ cuique primum respondebo, I will make answer to eche epistle as he was fyrste witten.

Antiquus, for, charus. Nec mihi iam patri- am antiquam spes vlla videndi.

Antiquior cura, id est, prior, the first or the fer rare.

Nihil mihi est antiquius nostra amicitia, I doe esteeme or set by nothyng more then. &c.

De Tullia mea tibi vidio antiquissimum esse &c. I see that you desyre to doe nothyng more then to dispatche the matter concernyng Tullia.

Antiquus hospes, myne hoste of longe tyme.

Antiqui mores, honest maners.

Antiquus amicus, an olde frende.

Antirrhino, an herbe, whereof be. ii. sortes, the one described of Plinie with leaues like flaxe, wiche groweth much in Germany, and may be called in Englishe calfe Snowte. the other of Diosco. with leaues like Stimpennell, whiche maister Turner saith he hath it in his gardeyn, and calleth it broode calues Snowte.

Antirrhesis, contradiction.

Antismos, mi, merpe tellyng or scorryng without anger.

Antispasis, after Hippocrates, the tournyng of the matter of a disease into the contrary.

Antispasis, a pluckyng the contrary way.

Antissa, a towne in Lesbos, also an plande ioy- gned to Lesbos.

Antistes, antistidis, com. g. a prelate or a priest. and by a metaphoze, he that excelleth, or is chiefe in any science.

Plato sapientia antistes.

Antisthenes, was a famous philosophier in Athes- thenes, afore the comyng of Christ. 366. yeres, who to here Socrates, went euery daye on his feete from Pyreus to Athes, whiche was fye miles. He fyrst began the sect called Cinici. but he supposed the chiefe goodnesse to be in vertue.

Antistia, idem quod antistita.

Antistita, an abbasse or priorese, a woman priest.

Antistitium, prelacie or preeminence.

Antistitor, stitoris, m. ge. he that hath preemi- nence ouer other, or that standeth before them that worke, and controulleth them, a controller, or an

of an onefect of workemen.

Antisto, stiti, are,, vled of olde wryters for antestare, to excell.

Antistichon, or antistichon, neu. gen. a trope whan one letter is put for an other: as, Sella for Seda.

Antistrophe, es, fecm. gen. a figure, whan one word is repeted in the ende of diuers clauses.

Antitasis, a pluckynge backe.

Antitaurus, an hill foze right agaynst the mountayne Taurus.

Antitheton, in Diotro. Xantion or lappa.

Antithesis, is, fce. ge. a figure, whan one letter is sette for an other, as Olli for illi.

Antitheton, ti, neu. gen. a figure whereby one contrary is iopgned with an other: as Frigida pugnabant callidis, humentia ficeis. Mollia cum duris, sine pondere habentia pondus, Colde thynges contended wylth them that were hotte, myst thynges with dry, hard thynges with soft, lyght thynges with heauie kept not one note.

Antitypum, pi, the copy of a wrytyng or dede.

Antiuertum, a promontory in cornwal, called saint Burien.

Antium, a citee in the parte of Italy called Latium, by the sea syde, the chiefe citee of the Volscians.

Atlantes, ymages of antique sette ouer doores in the corners of an haunce.

Antlia, antlix, f. g. a pumpe, or lyke thyng to drawe by water.

Antlo, aui, are, to draw by.

Anteci, people that dwell in the Zone contrary to Andichthones.

Antoninus, an emperours sonne Seuerus.

Antonius, the name of an auncient familie in Rome, of whiche was Antonius the oratour, and Antonius triumuir, which caused Cicero to be slayne. Of this name were diuers Emperours, and one specially, called Antonius Pius, whiche succeeded Hadriane, the yere of our Loyde. 1041. and reigned xxi. yeres, and thre monethes, with Aurelius, and Lucius. His pyenitours were Spaniards, and Capitollinus saith. He was a meruaylous good man, for he gouerned with such moderation and gentylnesse, that he was therefore called Pius, and father of the countrey. He was neuer cruell for any pryuate or common cause, He vled oft ten this sayng. He had liffet saue one subiect, than destroy a thousand enemies. For his deuout lpyng, sweetenesse of maners, mercie, iustyce, and temperance, he was compared to Roma. Wherefore many kynges and pryncis of dyuers nations, laynge warre aparte, by his commaundment, comytted all theyr contentions vnto his iudgement, and helde them therewith contented. yet was he not so despyous of gloze or rycheffe, that he would attayne ther vnto by other mens domage. He dyed at the age of 70 yeres.

Antonius musa, physician to Octauion the Emperour, billyered him of a daungerous sickness, and therefore the emperour caused an Image made of brasse to be sette by by the ymage of Esculapius. There is now luyng a physician of that name in Ferrate, who is tyght lyhely to sette forth a wonderfull knowledge in physike, if ambition or auarice lette him not, as it doeth other men of great learnyng.

Antonomafia, a figure, when the epitheton is vled for the proper name: as Saturnia for Juno.

Antopyrites panis, idem quod antopyrus.

Antor, one of the Centaures.

Antra, arum, the spaces betwene trees.

Antrax, acis, quicke spluer crach.

Antronia, a certayne citee in the countrey Heloponessus.

Antropomorphita, a sect of Heretikes, who asyrmeth, that god had a body and membes as a man had. This sect began in Egypt about the yere of our lozde. 380.

Antrum, tri, a denne or caue vnder the earth, sometimes holownesse.

Cecum antrum, a darke denne,

Antus, loke Anthus.

Antyllis, loke Anthillis.

Anubias, of Dioscorides idem quod Coniza.

Anubis, anubis, vel anubidis, was a God of the Egyptians, whom they honoured for Mercutius, in figure of a dog.

Anuicallia, and Anuifera, certayne herbes, as Slope, Penycopall, Sopell, Fenell, and dyuerse other, whose stalkes are in wynter drye, and seme deade, but towarde sommer, they spryngeth greene leaues and stalkes out of the rootes.

Anularius, loke Annularius.

Anulus, loke Annulus.

Anulus, a ryuer of Mauritania.

Anus, us, fce. g. an olde wyfe.

Anus, ni, masc. gen. an arse.

Anus ficus, a fygge ouer tye on the tree.

Anxie, curiously, carefully, with great peynte and heauynesse.

Anxietas, âtis, thought, care, heauynesse, augurthe, or sorowe.

Anxietudo, inis, idem.

Anxifer, he that causeth sorowe.

Anxius, a ryuer in Asia, rennyng out of the mountayne Armenius in to Mesopotomia.

Anxius, anxia, um, carefull or heauy.

Anxia oratio, an oracion made with to much diligence.

Anxio animo esse, to haue an heauy and carefull mynde.

Nepotum securitatis anxius, carefull for the securitee of his nephews.

Anxia agritudines, peynfull sykkenesses.

Anxut, tam masc. q neu. gen. a citee called also Tarasina.

Anxurus, the surname of Jupiter, because he was neuer shaven.

Anypodetus, he that is bare footed.

Anydrus, an Ilande.

Anygrus, looke Anigrus.

Anytis, a kynge of Egypt.

Anytus, one of Athens, enemy to Socrates.

A ANTE O.

A On, the sonne of Neptune.

Aonia, a part of the countrey of Boeotia.

Aonius, a, um, of that countrey.

Aones an ancient people of Boeotia.

Aoris, the sonne of Aras, a great hunter and warriour.

Aorus, a citee of Crete.

Aous, a ryuer.

Aornos, a place wherunto no byrde maye come, also a citee of Egypt.

Aornus, a ryuer that renneth through the citee Pheneum, wherein is a fisme, called Perculus, that hath a voyce like a thynne.

Aorhi, people of Asia.

Aorta, one of the principall veines of the body.

A ANTE P.

A Pri, people of Ethiopia.

Apage, fy, fy, away, away.

Apagē, haud nos debeat fugituros imitari, fy, fy, it will not becomē vs to playe the mychers. also remoue, put away, byrue as waie. it hath also a signification of a more behesmeney: as, Apagē hanc caniculam, away with this bytche: or hence away with this bytche.

Apagē illum a me, haue away from me.

Apagē te, gette the hense.

Apagē te a dorso meo, away, away, from my backe.

Apagēsis, let bee, gette the hense, away.

Apagina, is a cutting of the bone of, in the ouer part aperyng, descendyng downe in the partes ioyninge to the rupture: or it is, when the ende of a bone is broken, where he is ioynd with an other bone.

Apalēstris, he that can neither waste nor do any other maistry.

Apalon vinum. i. tenerum.

Apamea, an yle in the ryuer Cygris. also a towne in Bithinia.

Apamia, was a citee in the lesse Asia, thorough the myddell wherof ranne the ryuer Marsia. It was also the name of a citee in Parthia, an other in Phrygia.

Apandropia, inhumanitee.

Aparana, idem quod Lappa. Diosc.

Aparine, parines, f. g. an herbe, whiche some men suppose to bee that herbe, whiche is called, Rubia tinctorum, in englyshe madder. other woulde haue it to be cluere or goose grasse, whiche semeth most agreeinge to the description of Diosco.

Apate, a kynde of endyte or reproch.

Apator, with out father.

Apathes, philosophers, whiche helde opynion, that a wise man had none affections or passions.

Apauortene, a countrey of Scythia, wherein is the prouince of Bircania.

Apeda, x, a byrd, whose fete be so litle, that he semeth to haue none. I suppose it be a martlet.

Apella, lx, mas. ge. a name, wherby the Jewes were called in derision, as it were Sine pelle, because the skyn of their yerd was cut of, when they were circumcised.

Apelles, an heretike in Grece, the yere of our lord. 174. whose heresy was, that he knew not the god, which he wooed, whippd, and that Christ was not god in veray dede, but a fantasy apperynge to men as a man.

Apelles, an excellent peincter in the tyme of great Alexander, borne in the yle of Cos, of whom onely Alexander, would be peynted. when he dyed he left an Image of Venus vnperformed, whiche no man after him durste enterpryse to fynyshe. for the incomparable beautie therof.

Apeliotes, apeliote, mascul. generis, the same wynde.

Apelleus, a, um, of Apelles.

Apello; apuli, to put away.

Apeneste, a citee of Duell, comonly called Apans or stredonia.

Apennius, looke Apennius.

Apepsia, id est, cruditas, cruditee, or lacke of good digestion.

Aper, pri, m. g. a boze. It is also a fisme, which hath a voyce.

Frendet aper, the boze gryndeth his teeth.

Apērio, aperis, ui, ire, to open or vntouer, to shew or disclose, to expounde or declare.

Aperire repagula, to open the barres and rayles, and prouerbyally, to make away, to geue an occasion to any thyng.

Aperire literas, to open letters sealed.

Aperi caput, vntouer your head, put of your rappe. where it is used for, detegere.

Totam rem aperiam: I will declare the whole matter.

Necessario se aperiant, they must nedes shewe what they be.

Aperire for prode, as,

Fontes sceleratissimorum consiliorum aperuit, he disclosed the fountaines and begynnynge of their most vngacious purposes.

Aperire, for soluere, or explicare, as,

Aperire dubia, to expound doubtful chynge.

Aperire enigmata.

Fuste aperire caput, to breake ones head with a cudgell.

Aperire iter ferro, to make waie with the swerde.

Aperit ramum qui veste latebat, i. ostendit, he shewes

he showed. apertus is an open, open place.
Aperire viam alijs, to make a way for other.
Virtus sua reditum ad tuos aperuit, the ver-tue hath reddeed the from banishment to thy friends.
Aperire locum suspicioni, to make one suspected, to geue occasion of suspicion.
Aperire occasionem, to geue occasion.
Aperire fores amicitie, to begyn friendship.
Rem familiarem benignitati aperire, to Non in claudenda res familiaris: ut eam be-nignitati aperire non possit; he muste not so hepe by his substance that he will not take it out of bestowe sonne peere of it to: lyberall be.
Aperit florem arbor, the tree spreadeth his blossom.
Aperire ludum literarium, or ludum docen-
di, to sette up a schoole.
Aperit, openly, playnly, evidently, without colour of dissimulation.
Aperit dolorem ferre, not to dissimule his sorowe.
Aperit falsum, playne false.
Aperit odisse, to hate without dissembling.
Apertissime insaner, every man may iudge that he is starke madde; or dooeth agaynste all wytte and reason.
Apertio, onis, f. g. an openynge.
Apertura, a lyttle hole, lyfte open in buildynges for some use or purpose.
Apertus, a, um, open, playne, euidet, discou-red, without colour or cloke.
Apertum, and dubium, contrarye.
Aperta pericula, manifest perilles.
Apertus aer, cleere wether.
Apertum cælum, idem.
Aperta aquora, bryde fieldes.
Apertus campus, an open and bryde fiede.
Apertus dolor, sorowe that is not hidde.
Aperti & simplices homines, playne and simple persons, that knowe not to dissemble with the worlde.
Apertum, (absolutely) an open, or playne,
 place.
Castris in aperto positis, pitchinge his campe
 in an open place.
In apertum proferre, to brynge abrode.
Apes, velapis, is, f. ge. a bee.
Bombus apum, the hummyng of bees.
Examen apum, a swarme of bees.
Insidit floribus apes, the bees light on floures.
Apes fauos fingunt, make honie combes.
Mellificantes apes, make honie.
Apes flores aggerunt pedibus & compar-tant, doe caste in a heape and cary together.
Apesus, untis, a mountayne in Grece.
Apex, apicis, m. g. is properly a lyttell wollen theede in the crowne of a cappe, the cresse or tuft on the head of a pectoche or other byrde,
 the note that is sette ouer letters for the accent,

also the crowne of the heade, the toppe of enetis thynge, sometyme a mytre, sometyme the highest perfection of honour or dignitee.
Apex sententis est autoritas, the chiefe dignitee of the age is authoritee.
Apices litterarum, the toppes of letters that standeth about the other parte.
Apex falcis, the poynte of an hooke, or sickle.
Apicibus, onis, a puddyng called a bluddyng.
Aphaca, ce, or Aphaces, ces, f. g. a hynde of tares that groweth in eard grounde. These phasus doeth sometyme count it among pulis, sometyme amonge herbes, and taketh it for one hynde of Antiope, or rather Antelope.
Aphareus, the father of Apyreus.
Aphasis, a figure, where a letter or syllable is taken from the begynnyng of a woorde, as Pone manum, for Depone.
Aphasias, idem quod Apefus.
Aphedonites, people of Eppie.
Apheria, the places, from the whiche horses bee sette forth whan they runne in games. Also after Suidas, certayne engines to wyne the walles of a citee besieged.
Aphidna, arum, a place in the countrey of As- thens.
Aphilos, he that hath no freende.
Aphractum, ti, n. g. or aphractus, ti, m. g. a hynde of shippes, whiche the *Rhodian*s vled a brigantine, or a barke; nothyng mete to withstande a rough sea or tempest.
Aphren, idem quod Cicuta.
Aphrica maior, the thyrde parte of the worlde, whiche is leuured from Asia, on the east by the ryuer Atlas: on the west from Europe, by the pylars of Hercules. The wyther parte is now called Barbarie, the people Moopes: The inner part is called Libya, and Ethiopia.
Aphrica minor, is in this wise bounded, on the west with Mauritane and the ryuer Im- plaga, on the north with the sea Aphrican, on the east with Cyrenaica, on the south with the desertes of Libya. In this is the citees Cars- tage, Utica, Liritha, & the prouince of Rumi- die. this countrey and Mauritania is now called Barbarie.
Aphricanus, a name geuen to two noble Roma- nes, called Scipiones, because the one vanquished Anniball, and subdued Cartage: the other afterwarde vitally subuerted and des-troied it.
Aphrodes, a hynde of poppy.
Aphrodisia, daies or sacrifices, dedicate to Veu- nus, or venetiall pastimes.
Aphrodisium, an ymage of Venus, also a promontoie of Laria, an other of Spayne, called Labo de cruz, and a citee of Affrike.
Aphrodisius, a prelate, the disciple of Sainct Peter.
Aphrogala, i. cremor lactis.
Aphrodite, es, the surname of Venus.
Aphronitrum, the some of Salte peter, called of the the Arabians Baurach. tooke in Euchsius de compositione medicamentorum, li. 1. where he speaeth of Nitrum.

Aphroscorodon, a kynde of great garlycke.
Aphtha, is an exulceration of breaking out in the mouthes of children, whiche doe sucke.
Aphthonius, a sophister, whiche wrote exercises for children.
Aphthitis, the seede of the herbe called Buphthalmos, oxeye.
Aplus, a certayne fysh.
Aphya, a kynde of little fyshes in brookes, whiche are supposed to haue none other begynnyng but of abundance of rayne: for they are found all tymes of the yere, and the more the water is troubled, the better they are. Plinie callith this fysh the Apua. Theodosius nameth him Apua,
I suppose they be dais. Erasmus saith, that Aphya is a white, soft, tender fysh, whiche is no sooner sette on the fyre, but it is enough, and requirith nought but oyle to frye hym. In Eger is a fysh called a Smis, whiche if he be longe kept, will turne to water.
Aphya, is also of Cicero bled for the vyle and base sort of the people.
Apia, a peare tree.
Apianus, a, um, that wherein bees doe delpte.
Apiana, vuz, a kynde of grapes, whiche bees chiefly delpte, the mustabell grape.
Apyracora, a kynde of electrum.
Apianum, the place where as bees do sette.
Apianus, he that nouryseth bees.
Apiastra, a byrde that doth denoure bees.
Apiastrum, tri, neu. gen. called also Melisso- phyllon, Meliphillon, & Melinon, an herbe, wherein bees greatly delite, the frenche men call it Melisse. It is iudged to bee baulme of baulme gentle, our baulme is not the right me- liphyllon.
Apianus, a, um, raied or fylled with bees.
Apiax oues, sheepe of small growth, and that beare but little wull.
Apica, ce, f. g. a sheepe that hath no wull on hys bealy.
Apicula, la, a younge bee.
Apiculus, a diminutiue of apex.
Apidanus, a ryuer in Thessaly.
Apilascus, cudis, golde ready to be toynd.
Apina, na, of Apina, arum, a citee of Pouell, the name wherof is bled as a prouerbe.
Apina, trifelyng thynges.
Apina, nuttes with veraiie thyn Males.
Apinus, a tree, wherof cometh pitche.
Apionia mala, rounde appuls, whiche I take to bee pome royall.
Apios, wilde radyshe, or as other suppose ernute or earth nutte, looke his description in Diosc.
lib. 4. cap. 157.
Apiria, infinitenesse, where there is none ende.
Apis, idis, or, is, called also Serapis & Osyris, a man, whome the Egyptians honoured for the chief god. Also an oxe, whome they worshipped.

also a towne of Threke, and a kyng of Segures, which was sonne to Jupiter and Probes.
Apiscor, apiscum, apisci, an olde word bled for to fynde out.
Apistos, or apistus, ti, f. g. a pyerous stone, whiche beynge ones hott, continueth hott seuen dayes.
Apitius, a Romayne, whiche delited in delicate meates, so much, that he professed cookery, and infected Rome with gluttony, whiche before was the mymour of temperance. And whan he had consumed in gourmandyse, Millies sester-tium, whiche amounteth (after the computation of Senalis) to two millions, and 500000.
crownes: whiche is after our rate. 583454. li.
whan he grew in febr, and made hys schynge,
there was left but Centies sesterium, whiche amounteth to this rate in oure monney. 9505.
li. viii. Chyllynges, fearynge in that substatyue to liue in penury, he willingly dranke payson, and died.
Apium, called also Selinon, properly oure common persely, some will haue it to be smallage. of this Apium there be diuers kyndes.
Apus, of the grekes is taken for a kynd of pearce.
Apus, the name of a familie of Rome.
Aplanes, that moueth not, that wandreth not.
Aplophillo, idem quod Alysson. Diosc.
Apluda, wheaten byanne.
Aplustre, tris, n. g. plar. Aplustria, or aplustra, by synopacion, the catchynge of ornaments of a ship.
Aplysia, sponges.
Apocra, f. g. the vice of a mozte breathe.
Apocalypsis, sios, f. g. a reuelacion.
Apocho, apocha, f. g. ge. a quittance for monete that is payde.
Apocleti, orum, counsaillours of the pryuy couns-saile, senators, chosen and graue counsaillours.
Apocope, es, form. gene. a figure, by whiche a letter or a syllable is taken awaye from the ende of a word: as, Peculi, for peculij.
Apocopi, men beyng gelded.
Apocroci, men that bee harde and miserable in lyuyng, frowarde, austere.
Apocryphus, a, um, hydde, not knowen.
Apocryphi libri, bookes, the authours wherof be vnknowen, or rather not to bee bled openly in the churche.
Apocynon, i, n. g. a littell bone in the lefte syde of a frogge, wherewith (it is supposed) thynges may be dooen, whych were not expedient to bee openly known, loke Plin. li. 32. ca. 5.
Apodes, dum, plu. loke apus.
Apodixis, is, form. gen. an euident probacion, a demonstration.
Apodosis, sis, f. g. ge. a figure, whan there is a certaine correspondenche of wordes in a sentence.
Apodos, the crowng of a rocke out of tyme or course.
Apodyterium, the place by a bayn, whete they whych

whiche be bayned, dooe put of their clothes.
Apornicola, la, a dweller on the hyl Aporninus.
Aporninigeus, x, idem.

Apenninus, an hill that diuideth all Italy into two partes.

Apogei, windes that doo arise out of the ground.
Apogrium, gei, n. g. a shadowes of the baillunge vnder the ground.

Apographum, an example written or peined out Apolactizo, aui, are, to strepe with the heeles.
 also to despyte or scete at naught.

Apolectus, ti, a chosen man, a pyked fellowe, also a fythe of the kynde of Tunic.

Apolis, idis, m. g. a stranger, a banished man.
Apolinaris, re, of Apollo.

Apolinares ludi, playes made in the honout of Apollo.

Apollinaris, an herbe called Wenbayne.

Apollinaris, the name of dyuers men, one was bishop of Hierapolis, a citie in Asia, the yere of our lord 1045. a great learned man. he wrote a booke of the sayth of Christe: an other booke against the gentiles, dedicate vnto Antonius the Emperour, also against the heretikes called Cataphrige. An other of the same name was bishop of Loadicea, whiche also was a noble learned man, and wrote xxx. bookes for our faith against Dorphyrius: not withstanding he fell into heresy, saynge, that Christe receyved not fleshe of the virgin mary: but that in the acte of his incarnation, some parte of the woorde was converted into fleshe. He saide that Christes soule was not of that parte, whiche was rational, but onely of that parte, whiche kepte the body lyving. And therefore in his incarnation, he tooke onely the body, and not the soule.

Apollinea, a citie in Lumbardy, nowe called Vercelle.

Apollineus, a, um, of Apollo.

Apollo, inis, called also Liber pater, the gentiles honoured for god, referrynge to him the invention of musike, poetrie, and of phisike. it is sometyme taken for the sunne.

Apollonia, a virgin, bozne in Alexandria, who for confessynge the faith of Christe, the yere of our lord 265. had all hir teeth pulled out of hir head. And after, whan the tyran menaced hir, except she woulde blasphemie Christ, she woulde be bouerned in a great fyre therefore prepared: after she had aduysed hir selfe, she brake from the ministers, and willingly lepte into the fyre.

Apollonia, is also the name of a citie in Egypte, nowe called Malonia: an other in Creta: an other in Syria. also a towne in Thracia.

Apolloniata, people of Apollonia.

Apolloniensis, se, of Apollonia.

Apollonius, the name of dyuers learned men, one bozne in Grece, about the yere of our lord 90. in his infancie so profyted in learnynge, that beyng but a childe, he was a great philosopher, and folowed the secte of Pythagoras, goynge alwaie in linnen, and neuer eatynge any thyng that had lyfe. And not withstanding he was excellently learned in the mysticall knowlage of philosophie and naturall magystrye to haue more knowledge he wente into Egypte, Persia, Ethiopie, and India, to learne of the Magicians, and Gymnosophistes, and returned into Grece and Rome, where he was had in great admiration, for the miracles that he shewed. And at last, beyng above the age of 80. yeres, in a great assembly of people, was suddenly conueighed awaye, no man knoweth howe nor whither; as Philostrophus, who writteth his lyfe, saith. Also Isidore maketh abundantly mention of hym in his etymologue to the olde testament. There were of this name thre great phisicians: One called Apollonius Memphisites, the disciple of Crasistratus: he fyrst of any phisician wrote of the partes of mans body. The other two were of Asiaticke, the father and the sonne.

Apologatio, onis, the using of fables.

Apologia, x, a defence or answer to a rebuke.

Apologoi, aui, are, to taunt, scoffe, or rebuke.

Apologus, a fable, wherein beastes or trees doe speake.

Apomel, vel apomeli, a dyne made with honey combede sodden in honey, vntill the waxe be cleane skimmed awaye, and than cooled, and put in a fayne earthen pottle.

Apona, orum, n. g. such medicines as helpe with out paine.

Aponus, a place in Italye, nere to Dauy, where be hot bathes, holtsome for many diseases.

Apophasis, is, for, ge. a denyng of a thyng, also an inuentory.

Apophatica, negantia.

Apophlegmarismus, m. g. a medicine, which causeth one to vomite by fleume, or els both purge the head.

Apopleumenos, i. scammonia. Diost.

Apophoreta, orum, neu. ge. presentes or giftes lyke to our new yere giftes, and maye be vled for the same.

Apophthegma, atis, a short and quicke sentence.

Apophyades, certayne thynges that hange to installes.

Apoplexia, vel apoplecticus morbus, is a sickness engendred of abundaunce of grosse humours, whiche dooe fyll those receptories or vessels of the head, from whens the feyng and mouynge of the body cometh. And therefore they that haue this disease, bee depyued of feyng, speche, and mouynge.

Apoplexis, idem.

Apoplecticus, he which hath the sated sickness.

Apoptosis, sis. f. g. a dyscase whan the heares of the browes doe fall.

Aporeta, orum, n. g. caskettes, or coffers, wherein were put secreete thynges.

Aporia, x, for, gen. doubt, necessitye, perplexitee, desperation. non est in hominibus propter

Aporion, a certayne controuersie, looke Cell. lib.
9. cap. 17.
Aporior, aris, to doubt, to be vncertayne, to bee
 in a perplexitee, to bee brought into a streit.
Sometyme to lache.
Aporrhoe, certayne impressions in the eye, whiche we call starre fallings, because it so ap-pereth to our sightes.
Apóspasma, aris, n. g. a bultion. also a hynde of impostume when by inflammation sand and like thynges be ingendred in the body.
Aposimata, phisicians dooe call desquamations.
Aposiopesis, esis, for. ge. a fygure, whersomes what is left out, specially in spekyng, and left to the conjecture of them that he heeres.
Apostasia, rebellion, or forsakyng of a mans profession or allegiance.
Apostata, ix, mase. gen. a rebell or renegade. it is now vsed for him that forsaketh the religion of Christe.
Apóstaro, ai, äre, to flee from or forsake him,
 whom we professed to folow.
Apostema, stemat, n. g. an impostume, wherein corrupted humours haue recourse in any part of the bodye, properly it signifieth spase, or dyssaunce.
Apostacion, ei, n. g. a libell made in dinoscesment or seperacion.
Aposteparnismos, is a cuttinge away of the bone with the wounde.
Apostolus, an apostle, it properly signifieth a messenger or legate.
Apóstoli, be called literæ dimissoriae, dimissories testimonials. et.
Apostoli, letters missiue.
Apóstrophe, es, f. g. a conuersion in spekyng.
Apóstrophus, i, m. g. a note, lyke an halfe circle, sette in the later ende of a word, and signifyeth part of it to be taken away.
Apotelesma, lesmatis, n. g. a pronostication or declaration of the signification of sterres at a mans natiuitee, or the begynnyng of any thyng what shall happen thereof.
Apotheca, x, f. g. a wyne sellar or shoppe, wherein thynges be sette to sale, a storhouse.
Apotheosis, osis, form. gen. a dedication or consecration, properly of men into goddis: 3 cas
 nonisacion.
Apoxymenus, ni, m. g. he which twipeth away fyllthe from ones body. also the name of a picture or table in Roma.
Apozema, zemat, n. ge. a decoction of water with herbes or barley, which the grekes vsed in stede of our syrups.
Apparate, cleanly, hanfomely, gaily, minionly,
 galantly.
Apparatio, onis, idem quod apparatus.
Apparatus, us, m. g. preparation, prouision, apparaplyng, or deckyng, furniture.
Apparatus belli, preparation for warres,

auxiliary.
Apparatus, a, um, prepared, made ready, dressed, trimmed.
Apparatus sumyt videtis, I am readye as ye see.
Appareo, appare, ui, äre, to appere, to be sene,
 to be manifest or euident, to be present or geue attendance, to sommon or make one appere before an officer.
Apparet eum ita fecisse.
Res apparet, the thyng is euident.
Facis promissa nunc apparent, see that thou sticke to thy promises, or see that thy promises maie shew them selfe.
Quid rectum sit apparet, quid expedit obscurum est, what is honest, is apparant: but what is most profitable, is vncertayne.
Quatuor & viginti lictores apparebant cons-ulibus. i. apparituram faciebant, fower and twentie sergeons, waitted on the consules to excess or summon men to come before them.
Ex quo facile apparet, whereby it maie easely
 appere.
Illud quod apparet ad agriculas, pro agricolis Ego mox apparebo domi. i. adero. I will bee
at home by and by.
Ille bonus vir nusquam apparet, that honest man can be sene in no place.
Apparere in aliquo loco, to bee sene in anye
 place.
Si vis naues apperuiscent, if they had bene sene
 in any place.
Apparere questioni, to serue proesse, as sergeantes and baylyffes dooe.
Apparicio, onis, f. g. an apperance, attendance,
 whan a man is ready to dooe his duetie.
Apparitor, toris, m. g. an officer of iustice, attens-dyng on the great ministers, to summon or attache whom they will commaunde, a sergeant.
Apparitura, x, f. g. the office of a sergeant or bail-lyffe, in summonyng or attachyng men.
Apparo, apparas, ui, äre, to apparaple or trimme, to be ready to dooe a thyng, to prepare or ordeyne, to make ready.
Apparare prandium, to make ready dyner.
Hanc fabricam apparo, I go aboute this wile or decreite.
Apparare crimine in aliquem, to prouede accusacions against one.
Apparare fugam, to prepare him selfe to flee.
Nuptiæ mihi apparantur, they go aboute a marriage for me.
Apparare praesidium for parare.
Dum apparatur, while all thinge is made redy.
Appollatio, onis, a namyng, callyng or appeas-lyng to an higher iudge.
Appellatio litterarum, the pronounciation of letters, when wee geue to euery one his true sounde.
Appellatio ignominiosa, a reprochfull name.
Appellator, one that appeleth to a higher iudge.
 Appellito,

Appellito, ai, are, a frequentative of appello.

Appello, ai, are, to name or call, to call upon for helpe, to call by name, to call upon a man for helpe, to common or talke with one, to commence an action against one in the lawe. As Julian the great lawyer, will have it signifie, to move a maiden to have hir virginities, sometime it signifie to argue, sometime to appeale to an higher iudge, sometime to touche.

Appellare aliquem superbius, to speake proudly and arrogantly to one.

Non consuevi homines appellare aliterius, I have not customed to call men by.

De quo iudicio sevelim dicere omnia, multi appellandi laudendique sunt, i. nominatim pro dendi, I should better many by name and of sende them.

Appellare, cum infinitivo: Servus sua natam servamque appellans esse, saynge hir to be his servaunte.

Virginem de strupo appellabat, i. eius pudicitiam oratione attentabat, he spake of fued to the maide to have deflowred hir. Appellare, is sometime used for applicare or appellere.

Fides authorem appellet, i. fides sit penes auctorem.

Appellere solū, to husband or till the ground.

Appellare blandē, to talke pleasantly, or use sayre woordes to one.

Appellare ad tribunos, to appeale.

Appellare Cæsarem, to appeale to the Emperour.

Vnum te sapientem appellant, i. dicunt.

Appellare literas, to pronounce letters.

Appellare nutu & significatione, with countenance, and tokens to declare whom he meaneth, whan a man dare not name him.

Quos saepe nutu & significatione appello.

Non appellantur hæc in lege, the lawe speaketh not of these thinges, or they be not mentioned in the lawe.

Appellare nomine vel nominatim, to call by name.

Vis ut appellem hunc gallicē, i. alloquar: wil you that I should comon with this mā in french. Virum appellat, he calleth upon hir husband. Comiter vnumquemque appellabat, he spake to every one gently.

Appellare de re aliqua, to common with one of a matter.

Appellare literas aliquē, to send letters to one.

Crebris nos literis appellato, send often letters to vs.

Appellare aliquem, to commence an action against one.

Multi plectuntur alij ne appellantur.

Appellare aliquem pecuniā, or de pecunia, to call upon a man for money that he oweth.

Quos appellem: To whom shoulde I call for helpe?

Vos, vos, appello fortissimi viri.

Appellare deum, to take god to witnesse.

Eum victorem appellat, i. pronuntiat, he proclauneth him to be victour.

Appello, puli, ere, pulsum, to argue, sometime to apply or set the minde, to direct, also to approach. Appellere animum ad aliquid, to sette the mynde to somethyng.

Appellere naucem ad locum aliquem, to steare with his shippe at any place.

Cum ad villam nostram nauis appelleretur, when the shippe was arrived, &c.

Appellere se, as, I haud auspicio huc me appuli, I came hither vntoockly.

Appulit me vestris oris, for ad vestras oras.

Appellere ad scopulos, by a metaphore, to put in daunger.

Appellere animalia ad aquam, to dryue cattell to water.

Turres ad operas Cæsaris appellabat, i. admoniebat.

Mentem ad philosophiā appulit.

Animum ad vxorem appulit, he gaue his mynde to marriage.

Me ad mortem appulit, i. compulit, it had almost vndone me, or caste me away.

Appendicula, a diminutiue of appendix.

Appendix, pēdicis, f. g. that which hangeth as an other thyng, it is also a shed, a howell or penthouse, an addition, or that which pertaineth to a thyng, as a parte thereof.

Cum appendicibus Olcadum centum milia fuerunt: appendices dixit milites additos ad iustum aliorum numerum.

Appēdo, pēdis, di, ēre, to hange by or weygh, to hange out, to peyle or weygh in a balance or beame.

Appēdo pecuniā, I weigh or count out money.

Appēdere mutuo, to lende.

Sex millia murenarum mutuo appendit.

Appēdere verba, to ponder or weygh ones wordes.

Appenninus, the parte of the moyn taynes of Italy, whiche begyn at Geane, and diuide Italy, and extendeth vnto the sea betweene Naples and Sicile.

Appēnsis a, um, hanged at a thyng, weighed, pondered.

Aurum appensum, golde weighed out.

Appetens, veray desyrous of a thyng.

Homo tui appetentissimus, very desyrous of your company.

Nihil est appetentius similibus tui, none lyke vnyge is more desyrous of such men as you be.

Appetētia, appetite, desyre of meate, inordinate desyre of other thynges.

Appetentiam ciborum præstat, It maketh one to haue a stomake to his meate.

Appetio, ōnis, appetyte, desyre, endeavour to cathe holde on a thyng with ones handes.

Appetitus, tus, appetyte, inordinate desyre sensualliter, and in the plurall numbze, the affections of passions of the mynde.

Appeto, appetis, in, ere, to desyre muche, to go to, sometyne to inuade, with desyre to hurt one, to desyre a mans harme, to approche, drawe nere, or to be at hande. sometyne to intreate.

Dies appetebat, id est, instabat, the day was come, or at hand.

Appetit merides, it is almost noone.

Leuans se alis, os, oculoque hostis, rostro & vnguibus appetit, rysing vp with his whinges, with his talons and will he assailed the face and eyes of hym that fought on the other parte.

Nox appetit, the night draweth nere.

Appetit vitam hominis, he goeth aboute, or he endeouureth to worke that mans death, or ridde him out of lyfe.

Appetere amicitiam, laudem, mortem, regnum, voluptatem, &c.

Appedere si aliquid de: Quantum sibi oratores de præclarissimis artibus appetuerunt.

Quid in illa appetitur.

Appetit per auaritiam, he desyareth couetously.

Appetere ferro, to assaile one with a weapon, to sette on one with a swerde drawn.

Appetere lapidibus, to hurle stones at one.

Appetere dexteram osculis, to kysse ones right hande in meetynge.

Appetere aliquid manibus, to endeavour to take holde on a thyng with his handes.

Per illum manibus appetiuit.

Appherima, id est, furrur. byanne.

Appias, appiadis, patronymicum, form. of Appius.

Appiades, were among the paynyms these goddesses, Venus, Pallas, Pax, Concordia, Vesta, Of these do make mencion Ouidius de arte amandi. 2. & de remedio amoris, Et Tullius. 3. fami. epistolarum.

Appia via, the name of an highe way or causey, from Rome to Campayne.

Appiana mala, a kynde of appulles. as greate as quinces, hauyng as great a souour as they, and of colour redde.

Appianum, ni, n. g. a kynd of peynctyng colour.

Appianus, a noble historian, bozne in Alexandry, wrote moste excellent workes of the Romaines ciuile warres, whiche bookes I counsaile all theim that bee studious in Tullius workes, to reade diligently, whereby they shall vnderstand many thynges, that els they can not well vnderstande.

Appingo, egi, or inxi, ere, pictum, or pactum, to peinct or wyte more to a thyng, to adde to.

Appion, a famous grammarian bozne in Egypt, against whom Iosephus wrote his warke De antiquitate Iudeorum.

Appiosus morbus, a certayne disease in the head of beasts when corrupt bloud hurteth the skinne of the brayne, and greueth the head, so that it taketh away the sense and mynde.

Appius Claudus Sæcus, an oratour of Rome.

Applaudo, si, ere, to moue handes of feete for joy or fauour that we beare to a thyng, or to beate any thyng to the grounde.

Applausor, one that cryeth on that maner.

Applausus, us, the clapping of handes for joy. sometyne an open gratulation, or appoyning of a thyng.

Applicatio, onis, an applyng of bendynge of the mynde, a resoyng of expoyng to any person.

Applicatus, a, um, attritus, applied, laied to, bent or inclined.

Omne animal applicatum ad se diligendum, bent or inclined.

Applicata aures, eares plaine & close to the hed.

Applicitus, the other participle, toynded to. &c.

Applico, applicas, aui, or ui, are, to toygne, to putte or adde to, to laye or sette to, or to apply, or bende to, sometyne to attyne, to leane to, to associate.

Applicat primum ad Chrysidis partem se, he first made repayre to Chrysis father.

Applicare naues terræ, or ad terram, to arris or byng the shippes to lande.

Quæ vis immanibus applicuit oris, subaudi- te, brought the hither or made the to arrive here. In eum primum classem applicuerunt, they arris- ned with their name thither first of all.

Applicare aures, to hearken, to geue eare.

Applicare se ad arborem, to leane to a tree.

Applicare scalas, i. admouere, to sette by ladders to scale the walles.

Eidem flumini castra applicuit, i. admonit.

Applicare se ad aliquem, to accompany hym selfe with one, to associate hym selfe. &c.

Applicare aliquo, to resort to a place, as,

Quo me ampicem, i. quo me vertam, to whom or whyther shoulde I goe?

Vt ad honestatem applicitur, i. accommode- tur, that it maie be applied to honestee.

Applicare se ad aliquod studium, to sette his mynde on any kynde of study.

Ad amicitiam Pop. Rom. se applicuit, he did toygne hym selfe to the frendship of the Romaines.

Ad eundem me doctorem applicui, I went to the same maister to learne.

Applicare se ad conuiuia, to haunt feastes.

Applicare animum ad frugē, to waxe thyrsty.

Applicare oscula, to kysse.

Applodo, ôsi, ere, loke Applaudo.

Apploro, aui, are, to weepe or wayle to or by one to make mone to one with weeping.

Appluda, loke Apluda.

Appluere, to rayne, to rayne by.

Applumbo, aui, are, to soulder.

Appono, apponi, sui, ere, to put or adde to, to sette to, or appoynt.

Apponere ante ianuam: Apponere ad ignē, Apponere manum ad os: Quæ apposita portæ erat, i. iuxta portam.

De meo nihil his nouum apposui, i. addidi,

I ads

Added nothing of my owne.
 Qui virtis modum apponit, he that maketh a measure in vice.
 Apponere notam alicui rei, to sette a marke on any thyng.
 Illi epistola notam apposuit.
 Notam ad malum verum apposuit.
 Apponere mensam, to make ready the table.
 Mensam apponite.
 Apponere cibis aliquid, to myxe somewhat with meates.
 Appositum est ampliter, great there was sette on the table.
 Apponere cibum alicui, to sette meate before
 a man.
 Nihil ei preter secundarium panem apposuit,
 he set nothing on the table before him but broun breade.
 Argentum illi purum apposuit, he serued him
 onely with silver vessel.
 Custodem alicui apponere, to appoynte a ke yer of ruler ouer one.
 Calumniatores apponere, to suborne or procure false accusers.
 Apponere accusatorem alicui, to cause one to accuse a man.
 Annos apponere, for addere.
 Apporrigo, to stretche out by a place.
 Apporto, aui, are, to bynge to, to cary to, to shewe of bynge tynges.
 Apportare ad locum, to cary to a place.
 Apporte ab aliquo, to cary away from a man.
 De, vel, ex Illirico apportari iubet, to bee brought out of Delauonie.
 Apportare vehiculo, to cary to a place in a waggon.
 Vndiq; apportantur, they are brought on eues
 syde.
 Quidnam apporras? what tydings byngest
 thou?
 Apportare nuncium, to byng a message.
 Apportare damnum, to bynge harme, or bee
 the occasion of damage.
 Anni tempora morbus apportant, The seasons of the yere byng sicknesses.
 Apposco, poposci, ere, to aske more.
 Apposite, aptly, conueniently.
 Apposite ad persuasionem, fittely to perswade.
 Appositio, onis, a meuyng, addyng, or putyng
 to a thyng.
 Appositus, us, idem.
 Appositus, a, um, put to, or set to, logned to, set or put by, suborned or sent priuily. Sometyme it signifieth conuenient, or to the purpose, apt, fyt, sometyme laied by.
 Appositor ad auferenda signa, more fytte. &c.
 Appositus erat ab isto vt emeret, he was sent or caused priuely of him to hve it.
 Ager est ad vitem appositus, fit to beare vines
 Homo appositus, a man fytte for the purpose.
 Appositum & propinquum nobis, harde by, nete to vs. Tempus appositum ad agendum Appositus, a, um, well wette with dyspne, well wds shed or swilled with dyspne, almost dyspne.

 Apprehendo, di, dere, to take, to attache, to lay handes on a thyng, to gette.
 Apprehendere palmam, to gette the victory.
 Apprehendere morsu, to bite.
 Quantum apprehenderint tres digiti: as much as thre fyngers can holde.
 Apprehendere manum alicuius, to take one by the hande.
 Apprehendere regionem aliquam, to obtayne
 gouernance of a countrey.
 Apprime, chiefly, principally. It is set for valde.
 Apprime vtile, very profitable or expedient.
 Apprime doctus homo, a man excellently well learned.
 Id apprime rectissime dicitur, that is exte-lently well spoken.
 Apprimo, apprimis, pressi, ere, to presse to, to put harde to.
 Apprimus, a, um, principall, chiefe.
 Approbatio, onis, the allowyng of a thyng.
 Sometyme a probacion.
 Approbator, one that alloweth.
 Approbe, meruaylously well, veray honestly.
 Approbo, approbas, aui, are, to approue, or al-lowe, to shewe of proue, that a thyng is worthy to bee allowed, to make good a cause, to confyrm and proue with reasons.
 Approbare opus, to proue of shewe euidently,
 that the woork is perfect and good.
 Approbus, approba, um, veray honest.
 Appromissor, one that dweth confyrm an othes mans promesse, as it were a suretee.
 Appromitto, si, ere, to confyrm that an othes man hath promised, to bynde hym selfe for an othes mans promise.
 Appropero, aui, are, to make haste or speede,
 to come.
 Approperare gradum, hve you apace.
 Approperare mortem, to haste ones death.
 Approperatum opus, a speedy woork, a woork hastid forwarde.
 Appropinquatio, an appoyching or drawing to.
 Appropinquo, aui, are, to appoche, to drawe nyghe to.
 Appropinquat tempus, the tyme draweth nyghe.
 Appropinquante definita die, whan the day
 appoynted was at hande.
 Appropinquare alicui dignitati, to bee neere to some honour or preferment.
 Appulia, loke Apulia.
 Appulsus, us, dyspyng of beastes to watryng.
 Appulsus, us, arriuall, appocheyng, or comyng
 to or nere.
 Appulsus solis, the appocheyng of the sunne.
 Appulsus, a, um, arriued, come to.
 Appulus, loke Apulus.
 Apricatio, nis, a breathyng or walkyng in the sun.
 Apricor, aris, ari, to sit or go abrode in the ayre, or in the sunne, to get a sunnyng.

Apricitas, âris, the warmenesse of the sunne in wynter, a sayze clere wether.
Si diei admittit apricitas, If the day be sayze and clere.
Apricus, a, um, sunny, warme by reason of the sunne, open vpon the sunne.
Apricus dies, a sunny daie.
Apricus locus, a place that standeth open vpon the sunne, a sunny place.
In apricum proferre, to brynge abrode.
Apricus homo, one desirous to be in the sun.
Aprilis, is, ma. ge. the moneth of Apryle.
Aprilis, le, of Apryle. Somtyme the moneth it selfe.
Aprinus, a, um, of a boze.
Apronia, an herbe called also Viris nigra, a black byne, whiche cenneth vp and wyndeth about trees & stalkes of herbes, and hath a leafe lyke to pule, but greater, & beareth bearies in clusters, whiche at the begynnyng are greene, and blacke when they be ripe, the roote is blacke within and pelowe withoute lyke boze. Some call it Spelomelana, some Bryonia, other Chironia.
Aprono in genua, I knele on my knees.
Aprosopos, with out person.
Apraxis, an herbe, the roote wherof handleth fyre fyre of.
Aprugna, the denyson of a wyld boze.
Aprugnus, a, um, of a boze.
Aprugnum callum, the braune of a boze.
Aprutium, a parte of Italy, the people wherof were somtyme called Samnites, against whom the auncient Romaines, had warres long tyme in it be these citees, Aquileia, Adria, Sulmo, Ortona, Arpinum, Aquinum, and other.
Apseudos, a true fellow without deceite.
Apſida, a, idem quod apſis.
Apſicorus, a, um, couetous of noueltee, mutable, anon satisfied, lothyng.
Apſis, apſidis, f. g. the circle of a carte wheele. also the circles in sterres. also the bowynge in arched routes.
Apſorus, an yle in the Venetian sea, and a citee in Ponte, now called Brchaui.
Apſychon, without lyfe or soule.
Aptatus, a, um, made feete or agreeable. Sometime myngled with a thyng.
Apte, apty, to the purpose, fytly, conueniently, well to the purpose. Somtyme ioyntly.
Apte dictum, a word spoken in his right place.
Aptera, orum, a citee in the countrey of Lycia, and a towne in Crete.
Aptitudo dinis, aptnesse.
Pro, au, are, to ioygne, to agree two thynges together, to make fitte or applye one thyng to an other, to settle, addresse, or make redy ones selfe to any thyng, to place a thyng fitly, to trymme.
Aptat se pugne, he maketh him ready to fyght.
Aptare conuiuium, to prepare or make ready a feaste.
Aptotum, ti, vnderclined, without cases.

Aptus, a, um, apte agreeable, meete, necessary, properly conueniente. Somtyme ioygned or compacte.
Apta & connexa inter se, compacte and ioygned fytly one with an other.
Apta inter se, agreeable one to an other.
Qui est totus aptus ex seſe, whiche hath all thynges necessary in him selfe.
Nam cui viro ex seipſo apta sunt omnia, For that man, whiche hath all thynges requisite in hym selfe.
Aptum ex illis tribus, compacte of those thre thynges.
Aptum aliquo vinculo, tyed or fastned fytly with some bande.
Apta & accomoda naturæ, thynges conuenient and agreeable to nature.
Aptum & concentaneum tēpori, & personæ, mete and agreyng to the tyme and person.
Curationi aptus æger, a ſyche person mete to be cured.
Cibus stomacho aptus, meate agreeynge with the stomache.
Aptius vber, more fruitefull or fertile.
Aptum ad omne anni tempus pallium, a garment mete for all tymes of the yere.
Apta compositio membrorum, a good proportion of the membres.
Aptus verbis, one that heeth pſoppe and ſeate wordes, mete for the matter.
Aptus mihi homo, a man mete for my purpose, a man after my fantasy.
Aptus sum, somtyme, I haue gotten.
Apua, a ſyche ingendred of the rayne, looks Apſia.
Apuani, people of Apſuria.
Apuchi, a temple in the countrey Cyrenaica.
Apud, at, nere to or by, somtyme among: whan it is ioygned with a person, it signifieth with.
Apud eum Sulpitius sedebat, Sulpitius dyd ſit by him.
Apud se ruri, at his own house in the countrey.
Tecum apud te ambulabo, I wyll walke at home with the in thyne owne house, lyke wyse.
Secum apud se.
Sum apud te primus, thou setteſt moſte by me of all men: or, I maye doe as muche with the as any man.
Apud iuuentutem, amonge yonge men.
Apud maiores factitata, done oftē of our foze fathers.
Apud matrem recte est, All thyng is well at my mothers: or my mother is in good helth.
Apud me minimum valet, It doeth nothyng auayle with me: or, I sette little ſtoze by it.
Cum apud te aliquem laudo: whan I prayſe any man to you.
Apud eum est primus, he is his principall minion.
Apud me priores partes habet, he maie doe moſte with me.

Facdo te apud illum deum, I make him take the for a god.

Per eam te obsecramus ambre, si lus, si fas est, uti aduersa eius per te recta, rectaque apud omnes sint, We bothe desyre you on his behalf, if it maie be by any meanes possible, that by your pollicy his misfortune maie be heuened, and from all men kepte secrete.

Apud aliquem mentiri, to make a lye to one.

Apud nos imperium tuum est, we remembre your commandment.

Apud animum meum statuo, I determine in my mynde.

Apud forum, in or at the market.

Apud ades, in the house.

Apud orcum, in helle,

Apud quem, in whose presence.

Apud maiores nostros, in the tyme of our forefathers.

Apud se non est, he is out of his wytte, or he is not in his right mynde.

Vix sum apud me, ita animus commotus est metu, spe, gaudio, mirando hoc tanto, tam repentino boho, I am well nygh out of my witte, my mynde is so vexed with feare, hope, and ioye, with this good chaunce, whiche is so wonderful, so greate, and so sodenly hapned.

Apud te sis, see that thy wittes be thyne owne, thinke what thou hast to do, remembre thy selfe.

Apud ignem, by the fyre.

Apud aquam, by the water.

Apud quem, by whom.

Apud eum, by him.

Apud te exemplum experiendi habes, non eges for is, ye haue the experience at home, ye nede not to seke for it abroad.

Apud Plautū legitur, it is redde in Plautus.

Apud macellum emi, I bought it in the shambles.

Apuleius, (a philosopher borne in Afrique) flourished in Athens, and wrote in latyne dyuers woorkes, as de vita & moribus platonis, & de deo Socratis, in a right eloquent and temperate style. In his booke called Floridorum, & de Asino aurio, he wrote so effectately and flourishingly, that he is moze to be mocked than prynced. He made also a right commendable booke of the names and vertues of herbes. He was about the yere of our lord. 300.

Apulia, Puel, a parte of Italy, borderynge on the sea adriaticum, a countrey populouse, and hath in it many townes and castelles, abundance of corne, wyne, oyle, and good courters for the war. The chiefe citee thereof is Bundusium. there is also the mount of saint michael, called Gargarum. This countrey is called by other names, as, Iapegia, Messapia, Calabria, and Salentina. The people are called Apuli.

Apulus, a, um, of that countrey.

Apus, apodis, form. gen. a byrde lyke a swallow, with larger whynges, and is mozte commonlye aboute the sea costes, where alwaies the fletch of houereith in the ayre, and byedeth in a roche, a roche misthet, any marines may thus be called. It is the seconde kynde of swallows.

Apyrexia, the shakynge of the counte in a feuer of ague.

Apyrina mala, swete pomegranades.

Apyron, liue alume.

Apyrōtos, ri, form. ge. a stone that no fyre may damage or deface, it is called also Carbunculus, a Carbuncle.

A ANTE Q.

Aqua, water.

Aqua pura, cleare water.

Aquæ niales, water that cometh of snow.

Aqua pluua, or celestis, rayne water.

Aqua fluuialis, retyng water.

Lethæis aquis dari, to be forgotten.

Aqua limosa, limpy or muddy water.

Aqua oculi, a disease in the eyes when they runne downe with water or moisture.

Aquæ Augustæ, a towne in Gascoyne, called Baiona.

Aquæ callidæ, a citee in Englande called Bath, an other in Spayne called Wich.

Aquæ ductus, us, m. g. a cundyte.

Aquæ licium, the takynge or dyenng of rayne water to be vled in medicine.

Aquæ Sexiæ, a towne in Prouance, now called Squenis.

Aquagium, gh, n. g. a cundyte.

Aqual, genitiuo, for Aqua.

Aquaintercus, water whiche renneth betwene the skyn and the fleshe: the drypsy.

Aqualiculus, dimi, a little trough. also a part of the bealy, where the ordours do rest, the panche.

Aqualicus, a trough. also a panche.

Aquâlis, lis, m. g. an ewer, or other lyke thyngs to bynge water to the table.

Aquaricola, places where water is cast into, as a gutter or synke, not onely in a kytyng, but also in any other roume of the house, for auoydance of water.

Aquariolum, a washyng place, a little place to auoyde water, as in barbours shoppes and houses of office. Also a place of a ryuer, wheree rats tell is watered.

Aquariolus, li, masc. gen. a common harlottes slave. Also a wittall, that suffreth his wyfe to be naught.

Aquarium, rij, idem quod aquariolum.

Aquarius, one of the .xii. signes.

Aquarius, a, um, perteynyng to water: as,

Aquarius sulcus, a forowe, by whiche water is dyaped.

Aquaticus, a, um, that whiche haugeth the water, or lyueth therein, or groweth in water or mariche grounde.

Aquatilis, le, the same.

Aquatio,

Aquadro, Gnis, a waterpynge, a carryng of fetchyng of water.

Aquator, tôris, he that carryeth of fetcheth water in an army.

Aquatus, a, um, that wherinto water is putte, waterishe.

Vinum aquatum, alaid wyne.

Aqueus, aquea, um waterishe.

Aquifolium, or Aquifolia, π , a wylde tree, hatynge sharpe prickynge leaues, and bearies without iuyce, a kynde of the tree Ilix.

Aquila, an eagle. It is also a fyne of the kynde of them that haue gristles.

Aquila, was also the name of one bozne in the countrey at Ponte, of a Gentile becomen a Jew, whiche translated the olde testamente the seconde tyme out of hebreue into greke.

Aquila, the standerde of the Romaines. also a cyttee of the Bytians, buylded by the Lumbards.

Aquila senectus, a prouerbe, spoken of an olde man, whiche dynketh more than he eateth.

Aquilegium, a gourd of water, whiche commeth of rayne, or a conueighinge of rayne water to one place.

Aquileia, vel Aquilegia, an auncient citee in the parte of Italy called Forum Iulij, or Friaul: sometyme of such estimation, that therein was kepte the great marte of all Europe: And the emperor Octavian delpyed principally to respayre thither often. Afterwarde it was destroyed by the Hunnes, and the inhabitantes, fled thence, and were the fyrste that began to builde the citee of Venice. but now it is so synple, that none dwel there but fishers, and a fewe shepherdes, and is called Algar.

Aquilegia, π , f. ge. the herbe and flower called Columbine. Some wolde haue it to be capons fether or settewall.

Aquilex, aquilegis, he that sercheth for water, or conueieth it.

Aquilifer, aquiliferi, the standerde bearer of the Romaines.

Aquilinus, a, um, of or lyke an eagle.

Aquilinus nasus, an hooked nose.

Aquilo, lônis, the northeast wynde. sometyme taken for colde weather and tempest of wynde.

Aquilonâris, re, towarde the northe.

Aquilônus, a, um, where that northe wynde bloweth.

Hiemps aquilonia, a wynter, wherein the noztherne wynde bloweth muche.

Aquilus color, russet.

Aquiminarius, rij, a cuppe to dynke in, or a water pottle.

Aquinum, ni, a towne in Italy.

Aquipenser, loke Acipenser.

Aquisgranum, a towne in Germany, called Aquisgrane, or Aix.

Aquitania, Gupan, accounted to be the thyrde part of Fraunce, hath on the west the ocean sea, on the north the ryuer of Loyre, or (as Cesar wytteth) the riuier of Geronde: On the east the part of Fraunce called Lugdunensis, on the south the mountayne Pyrenet, whiche diuide Fraunce from Spayne. Albe it a part therof containeth Gascogne, Fox, Bygor, and a few countreis more.

Aquitanus, or Aquitanicus, a, um, of Gupan.

Aquites, the name of a pylet.

Aquo, au, are, to fetche or beare water.

Aquor, aris, atus sum, ari, depon. to fetche or proude water to water cattell.

Aquosus, a, um, full of water.

Aquila, a little water. Also a towne in Degeturia.

A A N T E R

A Ra, an altar. Ara is also a planet.

Aras adolere, to bourn sacrifice.

In aram confugere, to flee to sanctuary.

Vsque ad aras esse amicum, to dose all the pleasure a man can for his friend, sauyng his conscience.

Ara, idem quod Iolium.

Arabarches, a lord of Arable.

Arabia, in hebreue Saba, is a countrey in Asia, dyuided into thre regions, Petrea, Deserta, and Felix. Petrea, (signifyng fongel) macteth on Egypte, and Judea. Plinie calleth it Nabatheia, the chiefe citee thereof is Petra, now called Arach: In holy scripture it is called Petra deserti. By this countrey the chyldren of Israell passed out of Egypt. It is (as Strabo wytteth) playne, enuyronned with roches of a great heygth, wherein bee many springes of freshe water. without that circuite, towarde Judea, the more parte of the countrey is desert without water. There is the great mountayne Sina, called of Pytholome Melanes, where the olde lawe was geuen to Moses, and where the body of the holy virgine Catharyne is buryed. Also an other mountayne called Latus, where the great Pompeius is buried.

Arabia deserta, of Strabo called Sanetis, hath on the south, the mountaynes of Arabia felix, on the north Mesopotamia, on the west Petrea. The people of this countrey haue no certayne habitation, but dwell in tentes.

Arabia felix, on the south lieth betweene the two seas Arabicum and Persicum, which is so plentifull, that it byngeth forth corne and fruytes twise in the yere. They haue plentifull of all fruite and cattell, except horses, mules, and swyne: Of all foules, except geese, cockes, and hennes. also there groweth all kynde of spyes and swete gummes. The townes are vnwalld, because the people do lyue alway in peace.

Arabice olere, to smell of sweete saours.

Arabicus, and Arabius, a, um, of Arable.

Arabilis, le, sarable.

Arabis,

Arabis, or, Arbis, a ryuer.
Arabica, a towne in Portugall.
Arabs, bis, one that dwelleth in Traby.
Arabus, bi, a stone lyke to quoy, whiche beyng broken to powder, is holsome to rub the teeth. loke Dioscor. li. 5. cap. 140.
Arachne, the name of a woman, whiche first invented spinning of linnen, and makinge of nettes: it is also taken for linnen parne, or the woufe of cloth.
Arachneus, a little beast, whiche goeth a foote pace.
Arachnides, a very thynne skynne in the eye, which sinketh downe somewhat in the myddes: in the holownesse whereof is a thynge somewhat lyke to glasse, whiche causeth the eye to be in colour gray or blacke or otherwyse.
Arachnion, fyne threde, also a certayne faute in oliues.
Arachosia, a countrey in Asia.
Aracthus, a great ryuer in the uttermost borders of Egypte.
Aracia ficus, figges brode and whyte, which doe grow on a little stalk.
Aracynthus, a mountayne in Scotia in Grece, or, after other, in Athens, in Arcadie, or Carnanie: where Minerva was specially honoured.
Araduca, a citee in Spayne, called commonly Arzua.
Aradus, a citee in the yle Tripolis, towarde Syria, where as Pomponius wyrteth, was seene a serpent lyke dead in length. 125. paces, and of suche greatnesse, that he mought deuour a man on horsebacke, and every scale of his skyn was greater than any Mylde.
Aræ, certayne rockes in the sea betwene Afrika and Sardinia, where the Africanes and the Romans made a league.
Aræ flauia, a ryuer in Germany called Roddingen.
Aragus, a ryuer nere to the Massagetes.
Aram, was brother to Abraham.
Aramæi, the Scythians.
Aranea, a copwebbe. sometyme a spyder. it is sometyme taken for the downe that cometh of the blossoms or flower of wilowes.
Araneolus, or araneola, a yonge or lyttell spyder or copwebbe.
Araneofus, a, um, full of spyders, copwebbes, or thynge lyke to copwebbes.
Araneofus vomitus, whan in the vomitinge, thynge are seene lyke copwebbes.
Araneum, nij, n. g. a faute in vines and oliues, whan the fruite is wrapped as it were in a copwebbe, and so destroyed.
Araneus, a spider. it is also a fythe of the greatnesse of a gougeon, in colour diuers, hauyng on his backe nygh to his head. iii. prickles.
Araneus mus, a beaste in Italy, whose bytynge is venemous.

Arar, or Araris, a ryuer in Fraunce, called now Sagona, whiche is so quiete, that vnder it may bee perceyued, whiche waie it runneth. Not farre from Lyons, it falleth into the ryuer Rhone.ouer this ryuer Julius Caesar made a bypge in one daie.
Arrange, idem quod Spondillion. Dioscorides li. 3. cap. 86.
Ararus, a ryuer in Scythia, whiche runneth thorough the realme of Armenia.
Arath, a countrey in Armenia wonderfull fertile.
Aratio, enis, tyllage of the earthe.
Aratiuncula, a diminutiue.
Arator, oris, a plough man. sometyme a plough ore, also a poetes name.
Aratro, aui, are, to plough efsouones lande that is sown to make it fatte.
Aratrum, aratri, a plough.
Aratus, a poete in Asia, before the incarnation 246. yeres, amonge diuers other warkes, wrote certayne verses of astrologie, whiche were translated by Cullie, and also by Germanicus, the sonne adoptiue of Tiberius the emperour.
Araurius, a ryuer of Fraunce called also Rauraris.
Arauso, a citee called commonly Aurence.
Araxes, a ryuer in Armenia, ouer whiche great Alexander made a bypge, and likewyse did Augustus the emperour.
Arba, a citee and an ylande of Illiria.
Arbea, a citee in Iudea, where Adam and othe three patriarches were buried.
Arbela, a countrey in Persia. Q. Curtius saith, it is a citee of Mesopotamie, where great Alexander vanquished the power of Darius kynge of Persia.
Arbies, a people of Indie.
Arbilla, the fatnesse of the bodie.
Arbiter, arbitri, an arbitratour, a man indifferently chosen, to be iudge betwene two parties, an vmpyre or stichler.
Arbitrum sumere, eligere, accipere, to take or choole an arbitour.
Dicere & statuere arbitrum, to appoynte an arbitour.
Sine arbitris aliquid facere, to dooe a thynge alone secretly.
Ab arbitris remotus locus, or locus ab arbitris liber, a place secrete or litle haunted, or where is no resorte of men to trouble one.
Arbiter initiationis, a godfather.
Ab arbitris remotus locus. &c. a place free from all company or comptrollers.
Loca venusta sunt, abdita certe, & si quid scribere velis ab arbitris libera, the places are faire, at the least wise secrete they bee: and in case a body bee wyllynge to wyte, free from all comptrollers: as if he shulde haue saide, from suche as wolde saye, what shulde he go wyte now? an other tyme were better, it is now out of season, with other wordes of dehortynge.

Arbitramētum, of some is vsed for the sentence of iudgement of the arbiter.
Arbitrariē, after his owne mynde, or accordyng to the warde that was made.
Arbitrariō, vncertapnly, vndeterminately.
Arbitrarium, rij, neu. gen. that is not yet deter- mined, arbitrable.
Arbitrarius, a, um, that is not yet awarded, deter- mined, or iudged.
Arbitratus, us, ma. g. arbitrement, will, pleasure of iudgement. looke Arbitrium.
Arbitratu meo, in my iudgement. sometye it signifieth at my pleasure.
Viri boni arbitratu, after the iudgement and aduise of an honest man.
Tuo arbitratu id fiat, Let that be dooen after your fantasie, or as ye wyll deuise it.
Arbitri, they that are present. sometime witnesses.
Arbitris remotis mecum loquebatur, They, which were present, commaunded away, he tal- ked with me.
Arbitrium, trij, arbitrement, a ward, iudgemente, aduise, opinion, wil, pleasure, fantasie, or appetite. sometye the aucthoritee giuen to the arbiter.
Omnia pro arbitrio suo facit, he dooeth all thynges after his owne mynde, or as pleaseth hym selfe.
Ad arbitrium suū scribere, to wypte of a mat- ter after his owne fantasie and opinion.
Viure ad aliorum arbitrium non ad suum, to lyue after the mynde & appetite of other men, and not as he wyll hym selfe.
Ad arbitrium & nutum alterius se fingere, to facion hym selfe after an other mans wille, appe- tite, or commaundement.
Arbitrium tuum sit, be it as ye wyll.
Non vestri arbitrij erit, it wyll not be in your power.
Arbitrium liberum, free wille.
Arbitrio suo carere, not to haue his owne wil, or to be vnder an other.
Arbitrium recipere, to take vpon one to be in- different iudge betwene two partes.
Arbitror, ātus sum, ari, to geue sentence as an ar- biter dooeth, to trowe, to thynke, to suppose, to iudge, to awarde, to obserue and marke what a man dooeth or saith, to deuyle or appoynte af- ter what facion a thyng shoulde be dooen.
Secede huc, ne arbitri dicta nostra arbitrari queant, Come hither a syde, that they whiche be present, may not harken what we saye.
Arbor, & arbos, a tree. sometime it is vsed for the masse of a shippe. sometime an oze.
Arbor inanis, a holow tree.
Arbor louis, an oke.
Defringere ex arbore plantas, to gather grasse of a tree.
Serere arbores, to plant or graffe trees.
Arbor, the name of a fische in Pli. li. 6. ca. 4.
Arborarius, a, um, that haunteth or maketh nes- ses in trees.

Arborator, a lopper of trees, a woodman.
Arboresco, scis, scere, to ware to a tree.
Arborētum, ti, idem quod arbustum.
Arboreus, a, um, of a tree, or like a tree.
Arborideus ramus, a bough that is kepte and nourished to be a great tree. Colu. li. 5. ca. 4.
Arbōrius, a, um, perteynyng to trees.
Arbores, olde writers vsed for arbos.
Arbāscula, lā, a litle tree, also the proper name of a woman.
Arbustinus, a, um, or after some arbustinus, top- gned or sette in order by trees: perteynyng or like to a place sette with trees.
Arbustinae vites, bynes sette or planted in or- der by trees.
Arbustinus locus, a place beset with trees.
Arbūsto, aui, are, to sette a fiede with trees, to make a groue.
Arbustum, a place where trees be sette, properly elmes, wythy, or salow, a groue. It may bee tak- ken for an orcharde, a hop yarde, or a vineyard, where vines doo growe by by trees, it is also a vyne that renneth by in heyghte, or by a pole.
Arbustus, a, um, full of trees, also fertile, growing plentifully or rankely.
Arbūreus, a, um, of a wyldyng tree.
Arbutum, arbuti, an appell called a wyldyng. it is also called vnedo.
Arbutus, ti, f. ge. a wyldyng tree.
Arbūrus, a tree that groweth in Italie, and hath leaues lyke Quickentree, a fruite like strawber- ries, wherof phisicians name it strawberie tree, or arbute tree.
Arca, a citee in Syria.
Arca, cā, a coffer or chest. also a coffin or chest, in which corpiis be caried to churche, or buryed in. It is also a streite place in a prison, called littell case. also a damme, stanke, or pile, made to stoppe the course of the water, vntill a byrde or other thyng bee made in a riuer or in the sea.
Arca Noe, a great vessell, whiche God commaun- ded Noe to make, that he, his wyfe, his thre sonnes and their wyues, mought bee preserued from the vniuersall floude, the yere of the worlde 1652. And befoze the incarnation. 2310. yeres. This vessell conteygned in length. 300. cubites of geometrie: whych after the exposition of saynte Augustin were. 300. perches, euery cubite of geometrie beyng sixe common cubites. In breadth it was. 50. perches. In deapnesse from the hatches to the bottome. 30. perches, from the hatche vpwarde, one perche. Noe at the finishyng of this arke, was of the age of 600. yeaues. Berolus writeth, that after the floude, this arke remayned on a mountayne in Armenia, called Cordiei, where he in his tyme saw parte therof.
Arca testamenti, called also, Arca fœderis, a cof- fer or chest made by Moyses, in the desert (siue cubites in length, and. iii. in breadth) wherein were put the table of the olde lawe, the rodde of of Moyses, and parte of Hanna. It was made of stronge woode, and soote, & heuened, as well within as without, with fine golde. And on the toppe were two images of angels Cherubim.

Arcadia, a countrey in Greece, set in the myddle of Peloponnesus, or Morea, so called of Arcas, the sonne of Jupiter, who reigned there. It was also called Pelasgia, Parthasia, and Lycaonia. There was the baggyne first inuented. Also the greete fenne Lerna, where Hercules slew the monster Hydys, is there, with the riuer Erimasus, and a mountayne of the same name. There is also founde the stone Abeston, whiche beyng once hott, mai be neuer be quenched, and is of the coloure of yron.

Arcalia, a certayne peculiar latine in the emperours scheker.

Arcane, secretly.

Arcano, alone, in a priuie place.

Arcanum prodere, to disclose ones counsaile.

Arcanus, a, um, secrete, hyd, close, pryue, vnknowne.

Arcanus homo, a close felowe, that will kepe counsaile.

Arcanos sensus alicui prodere, to commit secrete counsaile to a man.

Arcana tabella, booke wherein secrete matters be written.

Arcanum, i, neu, gene. a thyng secrete, hydde, or knowne of fewe.

Arcarius, rij, ma. ge. he that kepeth the common treasure, a treasorer, a coferar, a chamberlayne.

Archadicus, or Archadius, a, um, of Arcadia.

Archas, adis, or chados, one of Arcadia.

Archas, the sonne of Jupiter and Calisthona, daughter of Lycan, (before the incarnation. 1470. yeres) hearyng that his mother (beyng a virgine consecrate) was deflowred by Jupiter, whan he was begotten, and therefore expelled of the other virgins, would haue slaine hir: who beyng aferde of him, fledde into wyldernesse, and hid hir, tyll she and her sonne were reconciled by Jupiter. Afterwarde, they bothe beyng dead, the painyms sepynged, that they were translated amonge the sterres, set nigh to the pole arctike, and the mother called Vrsa minor, and the sonne Vrsa maior.

Arcasus, a, um, bent like a bowe.

Arcella, ix, a diminutiue of arca, or after some of Arcer, an horse litter, also a fossel.

Arcellat vites, vines set or ordered after the facion of an horse litter or chariotte. Col. lib. 3. ca. 22.

Arceo, cui, ere, itum, to streigne or tie harde, to put of, to dyspue awaye, to kepe in streite or dyce, to kepe of, to barre, to debarre, to forfende.

Arcere aditu, to kepe of, or lette one that he may not enter.

Arcere homines improbitate, to keepe men from lewdnesse.

Arcere frigora, to keepe or defende awaye the colde.

Arcere solem, to shadow or kepe of the heate of the sunne.

Arcera arcera, an horse litter or chariotte.

Arcesilas, a philosopher, the scholar of Polamon.

There was also of that name a cunningg heruee of images, specially the image of Diana.

Arcesilas, one of the .v. capistaynes of Beroia, that came to Troie. Also a philosopher of the sect of the Academics, and scholar to Crantor.

Arcesostis, a kinde of white vine called ampelos leute, whiche there.

Arcessirus, a, um, the participle of arcesso.

Arcessitum dictum, a kinde of speakeinge to much affectate.

Arcesso, iui, ere, itum, to call, to call for, to go to call, to purchase or get a thyng, to accuse, to call vp, as men doo spirites.

Arcessere ab aratro, to call from the plough.

Arcessere ventos, to rayse vp the wyndes.

Arcessere manes, to call or rayse vp spirites.

Arcessere a capite, to fetch a thyng euen from the begynnyng.

Arcessere capitis, to accuse one of a deadly offence.

Arcessam ad societatem laboris, I will call for him to bee partetaker of my labour, or to helpe me.

Arcessere sibi causam mortis, to be the cause of his owne death.

Archaismos, for. ge. a figure, signifyng a thyng to be spoken after the aunient sort.

Archander, Danaus wifes father.

Archarius, a chiefe ruler, the chief head or gouernour.

Archedicus, a comicall poete.

Archelaus, the name of diuers famous men. One a philosopher, the disciple of Anaxagoras, bozne at Mileum, maister to Socrates, brought first naturall philosophy out of Ionia to Athens. Of this name were diuers kynges: One of Macedonia (whome Plato calleth a tyran) slayne by Cratena his minion. whan he hyred the famous peynter Zeuxis to peynnte his palaice: Socrates laied merpely, he did it to prouoke men to resorte vnto him: though they would not come for his sake, yet at least they should gladiely come to behold his sayre house. Also whan he had wyth him at supper diuers learned men, a poete despyed of him a summe of money, which he caused to be brought, and forthwith gaue it to Euripides, who dyd not aske it, sayinge, thou arte worthy to haue it, and he to despye it.

Archemorus, sonne of Lycurgus king of Aemea, was slayne by an adder, as his nourse laied him in the grasse by a ryuer syde. For whose sake we made certayne playes called Nemei. he was also called Opheltes.

Archeota, a chiefe officer, as it were the mayster of the rolles.

Archeptolomus, was charyoste maister to Her-for of Troye.

Archetypus, pi, m, g. the first example of paterne.

Archetypi amici, by a metaphore, trewe and faythfull frendes, or after some, auncient frendes.

Archezostes, a white vine, looke Ampeloleuce.

Archias, called also B. Licinius, a poete of Antioche, muche fauoured and honoured of the noble men of Rome, speciallpe of Lucullus and Cullie who defended him in a noble oration, wherein he speaketh much to the commendation of poetrie. It was also the name of him that builded Syracusis.

Archiatrus, or archiater, tri, masc, gen. a chiefe phisicion.

Archibellion, of some is taken for anchusa. Dios. lib. 4. ca. 26.

Archibius, a grammarian of Alexandria.

Archidamus, (a noble man of Sparta) beyng demaunded, howe muche money woulde serue to the warre of Peloponellus, answered, that warre sought for no certayntie.

Archidemus, a mans name. Aristoph. in ranis.

Archigenes, the name of a famous phisicion. It is he also that would be taken for the wisest of his kynne.

Archigerontes, the chiefe in authoritee amonge auncient men.

Archigrammateus, a chauncellour or chiefe secretarie.

Archigubernius, is vled of Trebellius, for an admirall, or els a chiefe shippe maister.

Archilochus, a poete of Lacedemonia, that wrote in the kinde of verses, lambici, wherein he was so vehement, that where Licambes, his wyues father, tooke from hym his wyfe, and married her to another man, he so rated hym with verses, that he compelled him for sorowe and indignation, to hange hym selfe. He was before the incarnation. 650. yeres.

Archimagirus, ri, masc. gene. a chiefe cooke or maister cooke.

Archimandrita, te, masc. gene. an abbot or ruler of hermites.

Archimedes, a famous geometrician of Syracusis, in Sicile, who by his arte dyd longe tyme resiste Marcellus, Capitayne of the Romayns, that besieged the citee. Finally the citee beyng won, and he sent for by Marcellus, was founde drawyng figures of geometrie in the grounde, whereunto he was so attentue, that whan he was boden come to Marcellus, he answered, whan he had finished the fygure, he wold come. At whiche answer the messenger disdeynge, slew him. for which dede Marcellus was excusedynge soze. Some suppose, he first inuented the makinge of materiall spheres and globes. He made a dooue of wode, whiche had in it suche equal poize, that it woulde hange in the ayre by a longe space. he made also an horologe, wherin myght be sene the true course of the heauens and spheres. He was afore the incarnation. 192. yeres.

Archimimus, mi, masc. gen. the maister or chiefe of the plaiers, or of them which represent other mens gestures in playes to scoone them.

Archine, idem quod madragora. Dio. li. 4. c. 79

Archiotra, they whiche haue the rule of the place, where commons euidences be kept, or they that kepe common libraries.

Archipirata, te, ma, g. an archepprate, a maister of theues, or a chiefe robber on the sea.

Archippocamus, mi, masc. gene. the maister of the horses.

Architas, a noble philosopher of Tarentine, the disciple of Pythagoras, and capitayne of the invincible army of the Tarentines. He was mayster to Plato in geometrie, whome he also deliuered from Dionysius the tyrant of Sicile. he was afore the incarnation of Christ about. 370. yeres. There was a conynge carpenter of the same name.

Architectio, onis, fam. ge. dyuisynge or makinge of a thyng.

Architecton, onis, m, g. idem quod architectus

Architectonice, es, f. gene. idem quod architectura.

Architectonicus, a, um, perteynyng to the maister carpenter or chiefe deuiser of the workes.

Architector, oris, m, g. idem quod architectus.

Architector, aris, ari, to make craftie, or to builde buildyng conynnyngly.

Architectari voluptates, to inuente waies or means of pleasure.

Architectura, the conynge of dyuisynge of buildyng, the science of masons or carpenters. som tyme the buildyng it selfe.

Architectus, ti, m, g. a chiefe diuiser of buildyng or mayster of the workes, or he that goeth about any gyle or decepte. Also a principall authour, woorker, or diuiser of any thyng.

Architectus legis, the diuiser or maker of a lawe.

Architectus obsoniorum, a cooke, a diuiser or dresser of viandrie.

Architectus & princeps sceleris, the chiefe and principall woorker of this mischief.

Omnium machinator & architectus est, he is the woorker and diuiser of all these matters.

Architectus verborum, the inuenter or maker of wordes.

Architectus beatæ vitæ, the first inuenter or diuiser of happy or blessed lyfe.

Architriclinus, ni, masc. ge. mayster of the house, or chiefe ruler of the feast, it may be vled for a shewer, or the marshall of the haule, for hys office was, to see the meate brought in, and euery thyng set on the table in place and order.

Archium, the treasoure of munimentes, and euidences belongynge to a thyng or citee, a principis palais, a great officers house, as the lordes chauncellours, or the rolles.

Archoph.

Archophthalmon, idem quod Chryfogonum,
Archon, ontis, was the chiefe dignities in Athens.
 A gentile officer lyke to the patro in Rome in olde tyme, and the lord chiefe Justice wch be.
Archontici, certayne heretikes, whiche affirmed, that the vniuersal state of thynges was not made by god, but by psonis. And they also denied the resurrection of the bodie.
Archos, a pynce or chiefe ruler.
Arctima, a littell cote, or whyle barow.
Arcto, qui, are, to put in, to set to, to graffe.
Arctemens, ontis, the surname of Spolio, whiche is alway painted with a bowe in his hand, also the signe called Sagittarius.
Arctima, qui, the clothe leade, the buttre.
Arconicum, a minotall, called Defenike.
Arcte, strictly, narrowly.
Arcte accubare, to lye of lie neere together.
Arcte diligere, to loue earnestly.
Arcte defendere, & defendere aliquid, to holde and defende a thyng earnestly, or strictly.
Arctius, completely, to embrace on hardy.
Arcte dormire, to sleape soundly.
Arcticus, a, um, towards the northe.
Arcticus polus, the northe pole.
Arctium, the great burte.
Arctophilax, acis, masc, gene, a sterre that folow weth Charles wayne, called also Arctum and Bootes.
Arcto, qui, are, to streigne, to bynde strictly, to make narrowe or strictly.
Arctomys, a beast, whiche I take to be an hedges hogge.
Arctos, form, ge, in englyshe a beare, it is a fy-gure of sterres, of whiche there be twayne, Vr- sa maior, called also Helice, and Vrsa minor, called Cynosura.
Arctous, a, um, of the northe.
Arctus, a, um, strictly, narrowe.
Arctum animum soluere, to sette a sorow full of penyue herte at lybertee to caste away care.
Arctior somnus, sounde sleape.
Arcta iura, strict lawes.
Arctæ res, aduersitee, daunger, perill, trouble.
Arctis in rebus opem ferre, to help one in ad-
 uersitee.
Arcturus, a sterre, that is at the tayle of that,
 which is called Vrsa maior.
Arctum, bent lyke a bowe.
Arcturus, a, um, facioned lyke a bowe or arche,
 also sicke of the iaunders.
Arctabalista, a crosse bow.
Arctij, the watchmen in a fortreffe or towne.
Arcula, arculæ, a lyttell coffer or casket. also a byrde amonge the augurians, which disallowed a thyng to be dooen.
Arculata, circles made with byanne, whiche were
 vled in sacrifice.
Arculus, arculi, a lyttell bowe or arche. also a god, whiche hath the tuicion of coffers and the set: also idem quod arculum.

Arculum, arculi, a, ge, a roll that women dooe weare on theyr heades, to beare water or milke easily, a wyale.
Arcuo, qui, are, to make bent lyke a bowe, or to make a vaulte.
Arcus, us, mal, ge, a bow, or the vault of a rofe.
Arcum intendere, or adducere, to bende a bow.
Arcu tela dirigere, to shoot.
Porrigere arcum, idem quod dare manus,
 to geve.
Arcus remissus, a bow vn bent.
Arcum retendere, to vn bende a bowe.
Arcus, us, & arcus, ci, the rayne bowe.
Ardalides, the surname of the mules, after Des- dalus the sonne of Vulcan.
Ardea, ardæ, a byrde called an heaton. It is also the name of a citee in Latia, beyng from Rome aboute xviii. myles. In it was the palace of Turnus, whome Æneas vanquished, and the people there were called Rutuli.
Ardeas, atis, and Ardeatinus, a, um, of the citee Ardea.
Ardelio, onis, one that can netter stande still, but is alwaie full of gesture, a busy man, medlyng in many thynges, and can shylle of nothyng.
Omatteret in every mans matter.
Ardens, entis, hasty in doing, quicke witted, burnyng, ardent, mynyng, earnest.
Ardens febris, a bournyng feuer.
Ardentes equi, swyfte hores.
Ardentes papule, the sores called carbuncles.
Ardenter, feruently.
Ardeo, si, dere, to bourn, to be on fyre, to lous ardently, or exceedingly, to make haste, to be consumed, to desire, also to myne, to be more hotte or earnest in a matter, to rage for anger.
Tyrios ardebat murice læna, his mantell dyd
 myne of fyne purple of Cyre.
Ardere cupiditate, to couet ardently.
Ardere iracundia, to be inflamed with anger.
Ardere maximo flagitio, to haue dooen, or to be defamed of a mischeuous dede.
Ardeo te videre, I desyre earnestly to see you.
Ex æquo ardere, to loue eche other feruently.
Ardere in virgine, to be rauished with the loue of a mayde.
Ardet ad vlciscendum animus, I am verye desyrous to be reuenged.
Ardent omnia bello, the warre rageth every where.
Ardere dolore, to be soze greued.
Ardet inuidia, he is greatly enuyed.
Ardere studio veri reperiendi, to be verye dessyrous to finde out the trouth.
Ardeola, an hearnelew, whereof be thre kyndes:
 One is called Pella, whiche singendyeth wth muche difficultee, and lykwyse sitteth: In the time of treadynge, the blond issueth oute of the eyes, a blew heron, The other is called Alba, or in or in greke Leuce, a triel heron or a swarfe he-con. the thirde is called Sællaris, or piger, a bitour.

 Ardesco, arsi, scere, to bee hasty or fierse, looke
 Ardeo, to bee hasty or fierse, looke
 Ardescit facile, it is soone set on fyre.
 Ardis, the sonne of Eges hyng of Lidia.
 Ardiscos, a ryuer of Sythia.
 Ardor, oris, mas. ge. vii. ent heate, burnynge,
 feruency, earnest desyre, exteprynge loue.
 Ardor animi confedit, the feruente desyre of the minde is alaid.
 Ardor edendi, great hunger.
 Arduenna, a greete woodde in Gallia Belgica, which was in lengthe, 500. myles rompyng from the riuer of Rhene, throughe the lande of Luke, vnto the cite of Courney.
 Arduitas, atis, fem. ge. the hyghnesse of an hyll harde to clyme or get vp on.
 Aridus, olde writers vled for aridus.
 Arduus, a, um, harde, peynfull, hyghe, difficile, steepe downe, as the browes of rockes, and the edges of cliffes, harde to get vp on. Sometime feruent, couragious.
 Campo arduus infert, he rusheth into the fælde with a lusty courage.
 Cedrus ardua, a very high cedar tree.
 Res arduæ & difficiles, harde and dyspyle matters. Sometime aduersitee, daungier, trouble.
 Clius arduus, a cliffe of an hyll, high & steepe
 downe.
 Ardua, et ardua terrarum, hygh places, hylles harde to passe by.
 Area, areæ, a large place in a citee, kepte euer cleane, where marchauntes doe assemble. Also it is euery place that is marked out to builde or sette an house in. Also a floore, where coze is chepshed. It is moze ouer a plotte in a gardeyne digged and trimmed redde to be sowne or sette.
 It may be vled for a bedde in a gardein, a parde or courte within an house, a soze in the head, which causeth the heare to fall.
 Area, also a rounde circle that doeth compasse any sterre or planet.
 Areator, a thresher, after Calpine.
 Arecomici, people of Parbone in Fraunce.
 Arefacio, arefacis, feci, ere, to make drie.
 Arelate, a citee in Fraunce, called Oileance, an other in Pozica, called Lynze.
 Aremórica, the countrey of Aquitayne in Fraunce.
 Aréna, a citee in Peloponnesus.
 Aréna, lande. Sometime drye grounde lyke to lande, also a theatre.
 Arenas in litus fundere, a proverbe, syngnyfyng to doe a thyng that nedeth not.
 In arena mea, I will vled for, In mea functis one, in my office or iurisdiction.
 Arenaceus, a, um, sandy.
 Arenaria, arum, pities where lande is dygged.
 Arenarius, a, um, perrepyng to a fyghtynge place, or in a house, or in a field.

 Arenatum, ti, neut. gen. moster.
 Arenas, a, um, pergetted with lime and lande.
 Arenosus, a, um, sandy, or full of sande.
 Arenensis, dy of thysse.
 Arenula, fyne sande.
 Areo, uisere, to be drye, or to be made drye.
 Arere siti, to be drye for thysse.
 Arcola, a bedde in a gardeyne, or a lytel parde.
 Areopagite, Iudges, whiche sette in a place of Athens, to iudge causes of murder, and weighty thynges concerning the comune weale. It is vled sometyme for other seuer and vylcoups iudges.
 Areopagus, the village of Athens, where the sayde iudges dyd sit.
 Areopolis, a citee in Arabie, called also Hion.
 Areopolis, the inhabitants of Areopolis.
 Arepennis, a measure of grounde amonge the frenche meyne, as muche as our lande of halfe aker.
 Arisco, arui, scere, to waxe drye, or to bee made drye.
 Arctum, ti, neut. gen. a decree or ordynance.
 Areta, the daughter of Aristippus, the philosopher, whiche succeeded him in his schoole. She taught, that the pleasure, whiche moste delected
 the body, was the chiefe goodnesse.
 Aretalogus, li, mas. gen. a bragger, or a vaunter of his owne vertues. Sometime a forger of lies to make men mery.
 Areta, in latine, Virtus, in englyshe vertue. It was also the name of the wyfe of Alcinous, king of Phæacis, of whome Homere writeth in O-dysssea.
 Arethuse, the compaignon of Diana. It is also the name of a fountayne in Sicile, and of an other in Metia. also a towne in Grece, a citee in Cubra, and an other in Sylla.
 Arethusis, the name of the citee Syracusis, nere to the fountayne Arethusa.
 Arethysa, & Arethusa, a riuer in the greate Irs-menie.
 Aretinus, a, um, of the citee Tretium.
 Arétium, a citee in Tuscan, called Arezo, 50.
 myles from Peruse.
 Aretus, the sonne of Nestor and Euridices.
 Arteria, a, wyne and water offered to the infernal goddys, or rather dyuelles.
 Argagarion, a certeyne medicine, giuen agaynst
 the leppie.
 Arganthionius an hyll nyghe to Bithynia, by the citee of Buzias, nigh therunto is a well, where Philas the companion of Hercules was sodenly taken away by the Nymphes, whan he was at that well to fetch water.
 Argantonius, a kyng of a citee in Scotia, an other in Spayne, which lyued, 120. yeres, or after some, 300. yeres.
 Argas, a name of repzoche, giuen to Demosthenes in hys eldship. Suidas esteemeth it to bee a kynde

hynde of serpentes.
Argatilis, a kinde of fowle that breedeth in water banks, making her nest with linnen threede in forme of a balle, so close, that the entrynge into it can not be founde.
Argema, argema, fo. ge. o. Argema, atis, n. g. a soye in the eyes, whiche beyng in the blacke of the eye, is white, and in the whyte of the eye, it is redde.
Argemone, es, o. Argemon, an herbe, whiche hath leaues lyke wyld poppe, ragged, also a purple flower, the toppe is a rodde longer than the head of a poppy, and brode about, a rounde roote, the iuice of it is of the colour of saffron and tarte, it is that whiche is commonly called agrimonia.
Argenon, a precious stone of the kinde of Jasper.
Argentaria, a banke of exchange, a bankers table or shoppe, the office of bankers.
Argentarium facit, he maketh or occupieth a banke for exchange.
Argentarius, a, um, of o. perteynyng to syluer or money.
Argentaria fodina, a syluer myne.
Argentaria taberna, a bankers shoppe.
Argentaria cura, care for money.
Argentaria inopia, lacke of money.
Argentaria illecebra, thynges gettyng money.
Argentarius comeatus, prouision of money.
Argentarius, rij, a banker, with whome men do make theyr exchange of money.
Argentagina, a, the siluer sicknesse.
Argentatus, a, um, couered with siluer.
Argenteus, a, um, of syluer.
Argentina, a fayre citee in Germany, on the west side of the riuer of Reine, called Strausbrough. it was also called Argentoratum.
Argentofus, a, um, mixt with syluer.
Argentum, ti, siluer. Sometyme it signifieth, plate or money.
Argentum factum, siluer redy to be coyned, or rather siluer ingrauen, or plate.
Argentum signatum, money, syluer coyned.
Argenti fodina, a syluer myne.
Argentum pustulatum, pure syluer well tried.
Argentum viuum, quicke syluer.
Argæa, places in Rome, where certayne auncient grekes were buried.
Argæi, ymages made of bull rushes, whiche the byrgins Vestales vsed to cast perely into Cyber.
Argæus, a very hygh hyll, on the toppe whereof is alway snow.
Argestes, the wynde that bloweth out of the southe weste.
Argetos, owst, byght.
Argeus, a, um, of the citee of Argos.
Argi, a citee of Italy buylded by Diomedes, called after Argiripa.
Argia, a countrey in Delopeneso, or Mozea, also the daughter of Adastus, hyng of Argiues.

Argia plu. a citee in Laconia.
Argifontes, the name of Mercurius, because he slew Argus.
Argiletum, the sepulchre of Argus. Also a place, where potters clay is digged. it is also a streets in Rome, where booke sellers dwelled.
Argiletana, booke sellers dwellynge in the sayde streete called Argiletum.
Argilla, potters claye.
Argillacius, a, um, lyke to potters claye.
Argillofus, a, um, full of that claye.
Argilus, a citee of Emathia, nere to the mouth of the ryuer Strymon.
Arginusa, three lytell ples in Asia, by the ples of Mitele and Lesbos.
Argion, the herbe called Capillus veneris, looke there.
Argiripa, looke Argi.
Argiros, idē quod mercurialis. Dios. li. 4. c. 102.
Argis, aduer. at the citee of Argos.
Argissa, a citee of Thessaly, nere to Peneum.
Argius, a Grecian.
Argi, Grecians.
Argo, form. gen. the shippe, wherein Jason and his company sayled into Colchos, to wyne the fleece of golde.
Argolicus, a, um, of Argos.
Argolis, idis, a woman of Argos.
Argonauis, a sygne, whiche tyeth the day before the idus of Marche.
Argonautæ, were the companions of Jason, whiche sayled with him vnto Colchos, as Laertes, Pollux, Hercules, Chelamon, Ophreus, Zetus, Calais, and many other noble men, as well of blood, as in prowesse. This voyage was before the incarnation. 1254. yeres.
Argopelasgus, one of Thessaly.
Argos, a countrey and citee in Thessaly, where Inachus reigned. In this countrey bee the famous mountaynes of Olympus and Ossa. also Argos was a citee not far from Athens, another in Achaia. It was also the name of a litle dogge.
Argulus, the soune of Amyclas.
Argumentatio, onis, the declaration of an argument.
Argumentor, atus sum, ari, to argue, reasone, or dispute.
Argumentofus, a, um, that which is dooen with great reason, or that hath much matter.
Argumentum, ti, is a reason makynge a prooffe, whereby one thyng is gathered by an other, to confirme that whiche is doubtfull. Sometyme it signifieth a matter to speake or write of: or the summe of any matter that is written. Sometyme coniecture. Sometyme a mozte exposition of that which foloweth: otherwhyles a sentence. also a sygne or token, a presumption.
Argumentum pictura, the deuple of a thyng portraied.
Argumentum scriptura, the matter that is written of. Argumentis colligere, to gather by reason and argumentes.

Argumentum frigidum, a symple argumente of no force.

Satis est argumenti, it is a sufficient proufe.

Arguo, arguis, ui, ere, to reprove, to reprehende of blame, to impute, to accuse, to shewe, to bitter of declare, sometime to let or prohibite.

Arguere aliquem pecuniam, to accuse one for stealing of money.

Non ex auditu arguo, I gather it not by here say.

Arguitur virtus malis, vertue is declared in aduersitee.

Illum neque arguo, neque purgo, I do neither lay it to his charge, nor acquite hym of it. I neither accuse, nor excuse him.

Quoniam verbo arguit, verbo satis est negare, Because he byngeth proufe onely by wordes: it is sufficient to deny it with wordes.

Arguere reum, to shew and proue by reason, that the person is guilty.

Arguere aliquo crimine, to accuse or appeche a man of any crime.

Arguitur patrem occidisse, he is accused, or it is layed to his charge, that he hath murdered his father.

Arguor immerito, I am accused or blamed without cause, vnworthily.

Argutum iri, for In discrimen vocari.

Argura, a citee of Thessalie.

Argus, the sonne of Aristor, the .v. kynge of Argiues, which made the shippe, wherein Jason and other sailed to Colchos, the poetes feygne, that he had an hundred eyes, signifyinge thereby his wisdom and circumspection. Moreover, that Juno appoynted him to kepe Io, whom she had transformed into a cowe. But Mercurius (beinge sent by Jupiter) with his sweete harmony brought Argus on slepe, slew hym, tooke Io fro hym, and brought her into Egypt. Then Juno tooke Argus eyes, and set theym in the perowhes taile, wherfore the perowche is called Auis lunonia.

Argutatio, reasonyng, debatyng, a crahynge or myll noyse, a subtil poynthe of reasonyng.

Argutator, a subtil reasoner or disputer.

Argute, an aduerbe, signifyinge wittily, subtilly.

Argutia, sharpe or shewde wordes, harde & wittie saynges, subtilitees.

Argutia digitorum, the meuyng or gesturynge of the fyngers.

Argutia vultus, often chaungyng of countenance.

Argutiola, a pryncy taunt or quippie.

Arguto, au, are, to obiecte, impute, or reproche.

Argutor, atus sum, ari, to speake sharply, shewde lie, or to chatte pertly.

Argutari pedibus, to leape or make gesture with the fecte, as men doo in daunsyng.

Argutus, a, um, somewhat pette, quicke in answeryng, somewhat subtil.

Argutus, a, um, reproved, accused. Sometime it signifeth shewde, subtil, or wittie, and he that can in speaking sharply interche a man wittie.

Also myll of voice, or that maketh a noyse like to leaues of a tree blowne with the wynde. Sometime leane, slender, small, sharpe or pyked.

Arguta diuisio, a subtil diuision.

Arguti homines, they that speake muche in few wordes, subtil or wittie men.

Arguti oculi, rolling eyes, or alwayes meuyng.

Argutum caput, a sharpe or pyked head, lyke a sugar lofe.

Arguta manus, handes ful of gesture or toyes.

Ecquid argutus est? was he euer accused or reproved for any thing?

Argyra, a citee in Sicile, where Diodorus Siculus was borne.

Argyranche, rāches, f. g. the silver sickness.

Argyraspides, m. g. men bearyng shields of silver. These were great Alexanders souldiours, whiche were after his death, retyred of diuers princes, as the launce knightes be.

Argyrini, a certayne people in Egypte.

Argyriion, silver.

Argyrippa, a citee of Buell, buylded by Diosmedes.

Argyritæ, certayne westers, which were rewarded with money.

Argyritis, the spume or some of silver.

Argyrocopus, idem quod argentarius.

Argyrodamas, a precious stone, whiche stoppeth the anger and ferefulness of men.

Argyrognomones, bankers that only exchange money.

Argirondes, a ryuer in Etolia, in colour lyke silver.

Argirologus, he that seeketh or labourerth for money.

Argyrotóxos, he that beareth a silver bow.

Aria, a countrey in Asia, bounded on the northe with Margiana, & a parte of Bactria. Thrac was ones called by this name.

Aria, aria, a certayne tree, whiche begynneth to beare frute at the begynnyng of wynter, and is of so harde matter, that before it can be cutte or bozed, it must nedes be reasond in water.

Ariabignes, the sonne of Darius by the daughter of Gobria, one of the admiralles of Perces naup.

Ariadne, nes, f. g. a lady the wyfe of Theseus, whome he forsoke, not withstandyng she hadde saued his life.

Ariadneus, a, um, of Ariadne.

Ariannes, a famous citee in Armenie.

Ariapythes, a kynge of Scythia.

Ariarathes, a kynge of Capadocia, vnder whome that countrey was firste allied with the Romanes.

Ariathes, a mans name.

Aricandos, a ryuer of Lycia, wherof a citee there is called Aricanda.

Aricia, a citee in Italy .x. myles from Rome, called called nowe Ricia castellum. also the wyfe of Hippolytus.

 Aricinus, a, um, of Aricia.
 Aricinum nemus, a woode by the sayed citee, where Roma, the kynge of Romans, feigned to speake with Ceres in the saye.
 Aricinus lacus, a brooke by Aricia, called Speculum Dianae.
 Aricomissi, a people of Fraunce nere to the riuer Rhone, called also Arecomici, and Volca.
 Arida, idem quod echion.
 Arides, idem quod locustæ.
 Ariditas, aris, drynesse.
 Aridaria, idem quod Chrysogonum. Dio. li. 4. cap. 59.
 Aridus, arida, dum, drye or withered.
 Arida vita, a stricte, harde, or poore lyfe.
 Aridus victus, harde or coorse fare.
 Aridum sermonis genus, a stile that hath no sweetnesse or pleasantnesse in it.
 Arida arua, barayne fieldes.
 Arida crura, small legges, that haue but skinne and bones.
 Homo aridus, a brayn pyggarde, a myster, a chinche, a pynche penny, a pelter, one that wyll scantyly bestow a penny vpon him selfe.
 Aries, rietis, m. g. a ramme: also a piece of ordinaunce of ingine, made lyke a rammes head, to beate downe a wall. It is also one of the xiiij. signes that the sonne passeth by. Also a fyre, haueing hoynes lyke a ramme, whiche he sometyme holdeth with his head out of the water, & if he espie any man swimmyng, he goeth to hym, pulseth hym vnder the water, and deuoureth hym.
 Arietarius, a, um, the adiectiue of Aries.
 Arietinus, a, um, of a ramme.
 Arieto, aui, are, to rushe or beate at a thyng, as rammes doo with their heades. also to hit or throw downe. sometyme neutrally, for Labasco, to fall or decaye.
 Arii, a people of Scythia.
 Arimaspi, people of Scythia, whiche haue but one eye in theyr forehead. They fight continually with Gryphons or gripes. Herodotus sayeth, they haue two eyes, but they vse to wynte wth the one, that they may haue the other more ready fast, whan they moote.
 Ariminensis, one of Ariminum.
 Ariminum, an olde citee in Flaminia, a countrey of Italye by the ryuer of Rubicon, called now Rimini.
 Arimari, people vnder the dominion of Moscovites, whiche lyue alwaye in woodes, and be gentill and iuste in maners. They eate nothyng but beeries and masse.
 Arimus, a kynge of Mysia, or Meonia.
 Arinca, a kind of wheate called Siligo. loke there.
 Ariobarzanes, a kynge of Cappadocia, who aided Pompei in his last batayl agaynst Cesar.
 Ariolatio, anis, a diuination.
 Ariolus, looke Hariolus.

Arion, a famous harper, whome the marynetes woulde haue caste into the sea to haue hys money: but he despyng them, to lette him play a longe on his harpe & he died, afterwarde leapt into the water, and a Dolphine receyuyng hym on his backe, brought him to lande a lyue. it is also one of Adrastus chariot hoyses.

Arion, in Dioscorides is taken for Xiphion.

Arionius, a, um, of Arion.

Arisarum, ri, n. g. of Arisaros, a lytle herbe called ramsons: Fuchsius contendeth, that it is the herbe called Arum: and yet Dioscorides saith, Arisarum maioris est quam Aron acrimonia, li. 2. ca. 186.

Arisbe, or after some Arisba, a citee in the countrey of Troy, and also in Lesbos.

Arista, a, the bearde of coyne. sometime it is taken for the eare of wheate. sometime for wheate. Post aliquot aristas, after a few pears.

Aristas æstu numerare, a prouerbe, signifying one to do a thyng in wayne: or to attempt that he cannot doo.

Aristæ pondus, a lyght matter.

Aristæ, is vsed sometyme for pill, heares.

Aristarchus, a grammarian of Alexandria, whiche taught the sonne of kynge Ptolemeus called Philometor, he was of suche iudgement, that it was thought no verse of Homere, whiche he dyd not approue. He died by abstinence, whan he was of the age of .72. yeres, before the incarnation. 127. yeres.

Aristathea, or Aristalhea, the mallow wth the greate leaues, the marthe mallow.

Aristæus, the sonne of Apollo and Ceres, called of Hesiodus Apollo pastoralis, he was slayne with dogges. The Centyles peyncted hym a ponge ladde, bearded, standyng betwene the toppes of the mountaynes Parnassus, oute of whiche ranne the fountayne Castalius, haueing farre from him the serpente Python, whome he strake throughe with his arrow. They dedicated vnto him the gripe and the rauen.

Aristæas, a poete in the tyme of Cyrus of Persia.

Aristides, a noble man of Athens, in wyle dome iustye and temperance excellent. He in the gouernance of the common weale of Athens, was logned with Themistocles, a man of great power and riches, who saied in the counsaile, he knew a thyng, whiche was expedient to the common weale, but not necessary to bee openly knowen, and despyed to haue one appoynted, to whome he shoulde disclose it. The counsaile appoynted Aristides to whome he shewed, that the naime of the Lacedæmonians mought be shortly sette on fyre, and so shoulde theyr power launce bee abated. Thys herde, Aristides resoured to the counsaile, and sayed: The aduise of Themistocles is profitable, but not honest. The Atheniensis hearyng it was not honest, iudged, it mought not be profitable, and would not haue it than disclosed. Suche credence had they in Aristides. Also not withstanding the Athenians had killed him, only because he excelled in iustice, yet at his departing he prayed to god, that what so euer they desired, might come to good effect and consolation. And called againe from exile, he neuer remembred anye olde displeasure, in so muche that he alway honoured Themistocles, with whome he euer contended in the weate publike. Of his temperance this is a greates token, that though he had ben in the greatest dignities and offices in the commune weate, yet died he so poore, that he left not to burie hym worthily. And his daughters were married at the charge of the cite. And to his sonne Lysimachus was giuen by the people one hundred Mina, which amounteth of our money to. 239. pounds. xi. s. viii. d. Oh, how may christen men be ashamed, when they reade this storie, beholding in his temperance, iustice and charitee, a more resemblance of Christes doctrine, than is in them that will doo nothinge vnhyed, and measure iustice by theyr affections. Of this name were foure other. he was afore the incarnation. 474. yeres.

Aristides, a christian philosopher in Athens, the pere of our lord. 132. made an elegant defence for Christes religion, and deliuered it to Adrian the Emperour, wherewith he was so perswaded, that he gaue commendement to the pryncall of Asia, that he should put no christen man to death, excepte he were conuicted of some notable crime.

Aristippus, discipule to Socrates, putte the chiefe goodnes in voluptee or pleasure: wherefore Diogenes calleth him the royall dogge, because he alway folowed them that were rithe, and taught for money. On a tyme, beinge on the sea in a storme, and the shippe in peryll, he was soze as fearde. After the peryll was past men asked of him, why he feared so muche, sens he was a philosopher. The peryll sayed he, in losse of an ignorant knave, and of a noble philosopher is not of lyke estimation. His folowers were called Cirenaici. His sect by other disciples of Socrates, and noble philosophers, was vterly exterminate. he had a daughter called Arce, excellentely learned. he was afore Christe. 366. yeres.

Aristo, omis, Platos teacher. also a philosopher, discipule of Zeno.

Aristobolus, sonne of Hircanus, capitayne and chiefe byshoppe of the Jewes, was. 92. yeres afore the comynge of Christe. This man attempted to translate the dygnitie of a byshoppe into the dignitie of a kynge, and he spide, after the returninge from the captiuitie of Babylon, toke on hym to weare a crowne. He laboured the people called Iturei in Syria, and compelled them to bee circumcised: But by the pll counsaile of his brother Antigonus, he put his mother and longer brethren in prison, and after that he had laid brother Antigonus, in samphyrage hym.

For whiche cruelties god so strake hym, that his bowelles were rent in his body, and he vomited up all the bloud in his body, and so died.

Also Aristobolus was one of the fourtie, that translated the Bible into Greke. In other was an hystoriographer, in the tyme of great Alexander.

Aristocles, the name of diuers philosophers.

Aristocles, a tyrann of Sydonia, also a famous pynter.

Aristocratia, the fourme of gouernance of a weate publike, where many doo rule, that are of moste vertue and power.

Aristodemus, the name of sundry learned men of which one instructed Pompeys children.

Aristogenes, a physician of Chace. also an other of the same name, counsaile to Hippocypus, the philosopher.

Aristogiton, an oratour of Athens, which for his lewde behauiour was called dogge. also one of the sheers of Pisistratus.

Aristolaus, a certayne pynter, scholar to Pausanias.

Aristolochia, an herbe, named of the apotecaries.

Astrologia, in englysh rounde hertwoyt, wherof be thre kyndes, she is called round hertwoyt or rounde, after Luri, which hath leaues in fashion like guy, but somewhat rounder, wherein is a sharpe and delicate oboue, the floure white lyke a lytell bone upon a redde knoppe. The rootes are rounde and many. An other (called longe Aristolochia, or longe hertwoyt) hath long leaues, small braunches, a purple floure, and styketh. whan it springeth, it is of the fashion of a pear. The root is longe, of the greatness of a mannes finger. Bothe of them doo beare berries lyke to capres, within of bore colour, bitter and styknge. The third is longe and hath small braunches full of leaues comes what rounde, like to the lesse syngene, and hath floures lyke vnto fwe. The rootes longe and small, with a thicke rynde, and soote in sauoure, in englysh small hertwoyte.

Aristomache, es, the wyfe of Dionisius the tyrann. also the wyfe of Dion.

Aristomachus, a man that was all his lyfe tyme in loue with bees. An other of that name wyte of the makinge of wyne.

Aristomenes, a man of Messene, whiche was called Iustissimus: whan he was dead, he was founde to haue his herte all heary. There was also of that name, a comicall poete of Athens.

Ariston, onis, a certayne grauer of ymages. also a famous lawier.

Aristonicus, a grammarian of Alexandria, and an eunike of Ptolomeus, whiche was a valiant capitayne.

Aristonimus, a comicall poete, ouersce of Phyladelphus librarie.

Aristo.

Aristophanes, a poete moſte eloquent in the tonge of the Athenes, although he was borne at the Rhodes. he wrote .54. comedies, wherein he ſpares not them, which than lyued. he was in diſpleaſure with Socrates, and therefore he repreſenteth him in his comedy called the Cloudes. it was alſo a grammarian of Byzance.

Aristophon, a pennyers name.

Aristophontes, he that ſleeth noble & great men.

Aristophorum, a diſhe, wherein meate is bozne to dinner.

Aristorides, Argus the ſonne of Ariſtoz.

Aristoteles, ſonne of Nicomachus the phiſicion, bozne in Stragena, in Grece, conſumed bys yowthe riotouſly. He was after ſcholar to the noble Plato. xx. yeres continually. he excelled al men in Marpenesse of witte and knowledge in dyuers ſciences: wherefoze kynge Philip of Macedonie ſent him his ſonne Alexander to traſhe, ſayynge: He thanked God, that he had a ſonne bozne in his time. Chys man began a ſecte, the folowers whereof were called Peripatetici. he taught after Platons death. xliii. yeres, he was baniſhed oute of Athenes, becauſe it was ſuppoſed, he deemed not well of theyr goddes. It is wytten, that he died by this occaſion. As he went by the ſea ſyde, he perceyued ſymermen ſetyng and dooynge of ſomewhat. And whan he asked what they did, they tolde hym a ryddell, which whan by longe ſtudy, he could not aſſoile: for ſhame and ſorrowe he died. Of hym Quintilian writeth thus. What ſay you by Ariſtotle, whome I wote not whether I may iudge moze excellent in knowledge of thynges, in abundance of wytyng, in ſweeteneſſe of eloquence, in Marpenesse of wit, or elſe in diuerſitee of workes. He was litle of perſonage, crooked backed, yll ſhaped and ſtutynge. he was. 345. yeres befoze Chrys ſtes incarnation.

Aristotelicus, and Aristotelius, a, um, of Ariſtotle.

Aristoxenus, a famous philoſopher & phiſicion, the ſcholar of Ariſtotle, and dyuers other learned men. An other of that name was in Cyrena, ſo curious in gardenyng, that euery nyght he vſed to caſte mulle on his lartule, to make them ſauour moze pleaſantly.

Arithmetica, a, or Arithmetice, es, the ſcience of numbyng. Of whome it was fyrſt founde it is vncertayne. All be it Abraham taught it firſt to the Egyptians. Longe tyme after Pythagoras declared it to the Grekes. Plato willeth, that befoze all other thynges, the numbes be taught to the childre: without the which nothing either priuate or common can be well ordered.

Arithmos, numbre.

Aritiſſa, a lake in Armenia the greater.

Aritudo, drythe, or dryneſſe.

Arius, a ryuer of Aria, nere to Bactria.

Arma, orum, harneys and wepons. Alſo the instruments of all maner of craftes. Alſo ſtanza derdes and baners. ſometyme battayles, wayes or marriall aſſayes. ſometyme ſtrength or puiſſance. ſometyme a ſwerde.

Ad arma vocare, to commaunde men to bee in harneys ready.

Arma rusticorum, arma coquinaria, arma nautarum, arma piſtorum, arma ſtudioſoru, arma tonſoria. The tooles and instruments of all theſe ſciences.

Arma vulcania, for fortitudine.

Armorum arbiter, Maſter.

Armis aptari, to be armed.

Arma facere, to make harneys.

Arma perdere, to be vanquiſhed.

In arma mouere aliquem, to incenſe one to warre.

Venire ad arma propter res alienum, to fight for dette that one oweth, becauſe he wyll not pay it.

Armalcar, the ryuer Euphrates.

Armamenta, tooles, instruments, all ſoze for warres or Myppes, armour, takelyng.

Armamentarium, an armoury or ſtochouſe for Myppes or ordinaunce.

Armariolum, diminutiue of armarium, a lytle ſtudie or cloſet.

Armarium, where booke are layed or other ſtuffe of houſeholde. Alſo an ingyn of woodde ſhodde with yron.

Armarium librorum, a ſtudie or library.

Armati, armed men.

Armator, an armourer.

Armatura, armoure. ſometyme it is taken for men armed.

Armatura leuis, lyght harneys.

Leuis armaturæ oratio, a kynde of ſpeakynge vſed in a digreſſion, in the begynnyng to byng in any matter that ſhall folow.

Armatus, a, um, armed, ſenſed.

Armata dolis mens, a minde ready inſtructed with gyle and deſepte.

Armatus animo, a man of ſtoute courage.

Urbs armata muris, a citee ſenſed with walles.

Armatus, us, idem quod armatura.

Armenia, the name of two regions: Maior, and Minor. Armenia maior, hath on the north Colchis, Iberia, and Albania: on the weſte, parte of Cappadocia: on the eaſt, parte of the Euxine ſea: on the ſouthe, Meſopotamia, and the mountayne Taurus. Armenia minor, hath on the north and weſt parte Cappadocia: on the eaſt the noble ryuer of Euphrates, and Armenia maior: on the ſouth part the mountaine Taurus.

Armeni, people of Armenia, whiche were chriſtened of late yeres, but now they be ſubiettes to the Turkes. They in ſome thynges erred from the church of the Latyns and Grekes.

They haue one greete biſhop, whome they call Catholicum. They celebrate muche lyke vnto our ſacion. They kepe holpe neyther the natiuities witte of Christ nor his baptisme, saynge: he ned-ded not to be purged or censed of synne. Also they take from al sacramentes the vertue to conferre grace. They escones baptysme those that come from the church of the latynes to theym, saynge, that we bee not of the catholyke faith,

 but they. They say, that no man may be christened, onelesse he receyue the sacrament of the aultare: and that infantes neede not to be baptised, asseyning that in them is no originall synne.
 That the holy ghost proceedeth of the father and not of the sonne. That the sacrament of the aultare may not be consecrate of breade cleane without leauen. Also in the consecration they put no water to the wyne. Moreouer they saye, that the receyvinge of the sacramente profiteth onely to the body. That whan Christ descended into hel, he ledde with hym all the soules that were there.
 That matrimonic is no sacrament, and may bee dissolved at the wyll of the man or woman.
 That Christ dyd ryle the Saturday after good fridaye. All these and other heresies, are condemned by sundry generall councyles, and the consent of all christendome.
Armeniaca malus, a tree, whiche beareth a cer-tayne kynde of peaches.
Armeniicum malum, is a fruite accompted as amonge the kynde of peaches. The Italians doe call them Armelini, The frenche men, Leza-bricors.
Armenius, or Armeniacus, a, um, of Armenia.
Armentalis, le, of or perteyninge to an herde of beastes.
Armentarius, a keeper of cattell. Sometime an esquier de esquier, also a towe herde.
Armentinus, a, um, idem quod armentalis.
Armentosus, a, um, there as is muche neate or cattell.
Armentum, store of horses or neate. Sometime it signifieth cattell, an heard of beastes.
Armiagron, idem quod Dracontium maius.
Armiger, migeri, mas. g. properly an esquier for the body, or he that alway attendynge aboute a knyght, beareth his head piece, hys speare, and his shield.
Armiger, ra, rum, that beareth armour.
Armigera louis, an Eggle.
Armiger equus, a barbed horse.
Armilla, ringes, that gentillwomen used to weare aboute theyr armes, and at thys day some men and women do vse, called braceletes. Also cer-tayne ornaments of golde, that capytaynes vs-ed in olde time, to gyue to theyr souldyours.
 also an ornament that postes or heraudes dooe
 weare.
Armillaus, a, um, that weareth braceletes, or suche lyke ornaments.
Armilla curiores, postes.
Armilla tor, he that maketh braceletes.
Armille, neu. gen. an instrumente of falschoode or craft.

Armillum, a vessell, wherein they used in theyr sacrifice, to put wyne, used to bee caried on mens shoulders.
Armilustrum, was a festiuall day, wherein the Ro-manes did sacrifice armed, and trumpettes did blowe bluddy soundes. also the place, wherein such sacrifice was made.
Armipotens, puissant in armes.
Armilonus, a, um, the epitheton of Bellas.
Armitens, he that holdeth weapon, armour,
 or harnesse.
Armo, aui, are, to arme, to harneys. Sometime to insense or fere to armour to make puissant or of great power.
Armare naues, to equippe or arme shippes
 shippes to the sea.
Armare aliquem in rempublicam, to reple by one, and make him puissant agaynst the common weale.
Armare se eloquentia, to garnyshe ones selfe wyth eloquence.
Armoge, es, or Harmoge, es, the propozition of colours in peynting.
Armon, a ryuer that cometh from the hylles of Arabie, and diuideth Moabitude, from Amonitide, after Salepine.
Armon, a wylded rabythe.
Armoracea, and Armoracium idem.
Armorica, the aunciente name of Britayne in Fraunce.
Armus, mi, ma, ge. the shoulder of a beaste, or the pinion of a fowle. Sometime a mannes shoulder.
Arnabo, a kynde of sweete oyle.
Arnates, a people of Italy.
Arna, a countrey, where the Scottians inhabited.
Arne, a citee nere to the goulfe called Maliacum.
Arnobius, a noble retorician of Arike, mayster to Lactantius. he wrote agaynst the gentiles, the pere of our lord. 305. whose exposition wee haue vpon the psalter.
Arnoglossa, an herbe called Plantayn, or waybrode leafe: which is colde and dry in the second degree, the mytre wherof in curyng of fevers terrian, and in stoppyng of bloud, is of soueraygne vertue, lyke as the fede and the water therof is agaynst the stone, if it be drunke.
Arnus, a swyfte ryuer in Italy, whiche renneth by the citee of Florence, called vulgarly Arno.
Aratus, a, um, eared.
Aro, aui, are, to eare or plowe lande. Sometime to delue or digge. Sometime to take fruite of that whiche is sowne.
Aratur, the impersonal, and the personall passyue.
Arare aquor, or aquas, poetically, is to sayle.
Arare littus, a prouerbe signifying to labour in bayne.
Arôma, the name of a citee.
Arômata, in plurali, the frutes of certayne her-bes, meruaylous pleasant in sauour and taste, types, as gynger, pepper, sugar. &c.
Aromatopôla, a, ma, g. apothecarie, or he that selleth

Selleth Spices.

Aromatorius, ri, idem.

Aromaticus, a, um, sweet of saour, odouriferous, Aromatites, e, mase, ge. a precious stone, whiche hath the saour of myrr. Also a made wyne, myngled with cinamome and gynger.

Aromatorius, & aromatopola, he that selleth thynges haupng sweete saours.

Aron, or Aros, an herbe called wake Robin. it is of some called Serpentaria minor, because it hath leaues lyke to Dracunculus, but broader, and haupng blacke spotted. it groweth aboute hedges. This herbe, after Plinius, is of that sorte, which he called Bulbi, and hath leaues lyke foxgell, a stalk of it, cubits high, and a soft rote, which may be eaten rawe.

Aronium, idem quod Sempervivum.

Arpandes, lieutenant of Egypt vnder Lambytes.

Arpinas, aris, a man or woman of Arpinum.

Arpinum, an auncient towne in Italy, famous and noble by the byrthe of Plautus, Tullius, and Marius.

Arquatus, a, um, lyke a dome.

Arquatus morbus, the sythenesse called the faundise.

Arquites, olde wynters used for an archer.

Arquus, qui, the rayne bowe.

Arrabo, looke Arrha.

Arrectarius, a, um, a thyng that is erected vp.

Arrectarii parietes, walles made with timber and parget, to diuide chambres, partitions.

Arrectus, a, um, erected, lifted vp, straight vp.

Arrecta coma, starynge heare, that standeth vp ryght.

Indigitos arrectus, standynge on tpp toe.

Arrectus ad bellum animus, the mynde thus couraged agayne to warre.

Arrepo, looke adrepo.

Arreptitius, he that is possessed with an euyl spirit, he that wee say to be taken.

Arrepto, ani, are, a frequentative of arrepo.

Arrha, and Arrhabo, earnest money. Sometime one that lieth in hostage, also a pledge.

Arrianus, a poete in the time of Tiberius, and an historiographer, whiche wrote the gestes of Alexander the greete.

Arrideo, rides, si, ere, to make pleasaunte or favourable countenaunce on a thyng, to smile at a thing. Sometime to like or content, to please.

Arridere alicui, to smile on a body, to make a mery countenance, to make a smiling.

Aedes mihi arridebant, the house pleased me well.

Arrigo, arrigis, xi, ere, to auance, to lyfte or sette vp, to lyften.

Arrexii animos, it auanced theyr courage.

Arrige aures, laye to thyne eares, or geue an eare to that is spoken.

Arriminensis synodus, a generall counsaile kept at Arriminum in Italy, the pere of our lord.

360. the 22. pere of the reigne of the emperoure

Constantinus, where the grekes assayed by theyr subtil wittes to condemne the noble counsaile of Nicene: but by the wysedome of the latyn that disputacion was deferred, and at a generall counsaile at Rome, the opinions of the Arrians were condemned.

Arripio, arripis, pui, ere, to take quickly, to take by violence, to snatche or plucke.

Arripere condicionem, to take the offer.

Arripere maledictum. Quare cum ista sis auctoritate, non debes Marce Cato, arripere maledictum ex triuio, aut excurrarum aliquo conuicio, whereto, for as muche as ye are in this auctorite, or of this estimation, Marcus Cato, you oughte not to vse suche a worde of reproche, or vile taunt, as is commonly spoken of euery sayling kinne.

Arripere sermonem, to take hym at his word.

Arripere se foras, to get hym out of the doores quickly.

Arripere velis, to invade or sette vpon.

Arripere ad vel in quaestionem, to take and examine one by tourmentes.

Arripere occasionem, to take an occasyon quickly.

Arripe auxilium, take helpe or ayde.

Arripere verba de foro, to take wordes that be used of oratours in the common place.

Arripere similitudinem alicuius, to euenbus to resemble or be lyke one.

Arripere literas auide, to learne gredily.

Arripere aliquid ad reprehendendum, to take a thyng capiously.

Arripere admonitionem, to take quickly that one doeth put vs in mynde of.

Arrius, an heretike, a prieste in the churche of Alexandria, the pere of our lord. 320. he was a saye personage, had a very sharpe wyte, & was greatly esteemed. But fallng into pryde and ambition of honoure, he purposed and helde thys heresy, that the sonne was not equall to the father in deitee, nor of the same substance but was a mere creature. vnto this errour he induced a great parte of the worlde than christened, as wel noble clerkes as other. For the whiche was called the great counsaile of Nicene, the emperour Constantinus magnus beyng present, with 318. byshops: where it was (after longe disputaciō) determined, that the son is equal, and of one substance with the father, as touchynge the diuinitie. which decree was approued by the emperour, and Arrius, with .vi. byshops, whiche obstinately perseuered in theyr heresy, were banysed. Afterward Arrius finished his life with an horrible death. For as he was disputing, bringe prouoked to the stoule, in exonerating nature, he poured out all his bowelles, and so died.

Arrius, or rather Arrianus, an hypocrizan bozne in Nicomedia: amonge other workes he wrote in greke the lyfe of greete Alexander. This man for his learnyng and vertue obteyned great honours at Rome of the emperours Hadrian and Antonine, in so much that he was ones consul. There was one Terrius a philosopher in Alexandria, in the time of Augustus, and an other very familiar with Cicero.

Arrôdo, si, ere, to gnaw.

Arrôdere rempublicam, by a metaphorse, to pill and poll, or robbe the common weale.

Arrogans, arrogant or presumptuous.

Arrogans minoribus, presumptuous or proude towarde his inferiours.

Arroganter, presumptuously, proude.

Arrogantia, arrogancy, presumption.

Arrogantia opinionis laborare, to be suspected of arrogancie.

Arrogo, arrogas, aui, are, to claime or attribute to muche to ones selfe, to presume. also to adopt or take one to be his heire.

Arrogare filium, to make one his heire by adoption.

Arrogare pretium, to inhaunce or sette by the price.

Arrogare & Derogare, be contrary.

Sumere & arrogare sibi.

Arrostema, atis, sicknesse, feblenesse.

Arrugia, a myne of golde.

Ars, artis, a craft, subtiltee, cunningg, decept, gyle.

Ars parasitica, the feat of flattery.

Plus artis adicere, to make more cunningg.

Artem instituere, efficere, or Ad artem reducere, to bying any knowledge to the forme of an art or science.

Arfaces, was the generall name of the kynge of Parthia.

Arfacia, the name of a citee of Medea.

Arfanca, a citee of Germanie, called Cleppern.

Arsenaria, a citee of Mauritania, called Arze.

Arsenicum, a yelow coloure, called in latyn Auripigmentum, in englyshe Orpine, or arsenike.

Arfacus, ramus comeri.

Arfela, the seconde kynde of the herbe called Arges mone.

Arsanthum, idem quod Pulegium.

Arsenogonon, an herbe, hauynge bearies lyke the floures of Olyues, but more pale, the seide whyte lyke poppe. This herbe beyng drunke causeth to ingender menchyldern.

Arsenothela, a beaste, whiche is bothe male and female, as some saye that an hare is, one yere male, and an other yere female.

Arsenotheta, a boy that is abused contrary to nature.

Arsenothela, certayne goddes, which were both male and female.

Arseuerse, in the Tuscan tongue, signifieth away with the fyre.

Arfichina, a citee in Germanye, nowe called Bomp.

Arfichoras, a kynge of Sardis in tyme of Anibal.

Arfinoe, the wyfe of Asimachus, kynge of Macedonia, and a citee in Lyene, called commonly Trochira.

Artis, is, for gen. elevation of the voyce in pronunciation, as where the accent is.

Arsonium, a citee of Germany called Rhiniska.

Artaba, a measure of the Egyptians, containing 72 Roman measures called Sextarii.

Artabanus, kynge of Parthia, the last of the stocke of Asaces, whome Artaxerxes slew, and restored the kyngedome to the Persians. 538. yeres, after Darius was followed by Alexander.

Artabazes, or Artabades, kynge of Armenia, son of Artaxerxes, which excellently learned.

Artabicia, one of the plas of Propontis.

Artabri, a people by the promontory called Artabrum.

Artabrum, a promontory in Spayne.

Artace, a citee of the Milesians in Asia, and a towne of Bithynia, called Carpi.

Artacena, a countrey of Syria.

Artacha, an hyl full of iters, in the ple of the Lycenians.

Artachas, a capytayne in the army of Xerxes.

Artages, a kynge of Armenia, surnamed Sophenus. also a ryuer rennyng into Tiber.

Artaphernes, one of Darius capytaynes, banished of the Grekes nere to Marathon.

Artanum, a citee of Germany, called Herbiopolis, wirtzburg.

Artaxa, a kynge of Armenia, of whome Tigranes descended.

Artaxata, orum, neu, gen. the chiefe citee of Armenia the great, at the riuer of Araxis.

Artaxerxes, a name, whereby manye kynge of Persia were called: Of whome one is named in the byble Darius: In other, whiche was his sonne by Hester, called also Ochus: In other called Longimanus, because his armes and handes were so longe, that standing vpright, he mought touche his knees with his handes. He was benygne and loued peace, and therfore was he well beloued of all his people. He was before the incarnation. 485. yeres, and had to his name Darius.

Artaxiasata, a citee of Armenia.

Arteax, people of Persia.

Artembares, a noble man of the Medes.

Artemedeion, idem quod Dictamum. Diosc. 3. ca. 35.

Artemidorus, a learned man, very familiar with Brutus, which deliuered a booke to Cesar, of the conspiracy agaynst him, the same daye that he was slayne, wyllyng hym to reade it soothly: with but he neglected it, to his owne confusion.

Artemis, idis, is a name of Diana.

Artemisia, the name of a noble pryncesse, wyfe to Mausolus, kynge of Caria, of a notable chastytee, and excelled so in loue towarde hir husband, that whan he was dead, she caused his herte to be dried in a vessell of golde into pouluer, and by lytle and lytle she dranke it vp, sayinge: There

Two herbes shoulde neuer departe asunder, and that she thought there might be no worthy sepulchre made for it, but his owne bodie. For withstandinge she made for his bodie such a sepulchre, that for the excellent worlman shep, beaute, and cōlynesse: it was taken for one of the miracles of the worlde, and for the notable fame thereof, all suspicious and great se-pulchres, were afterwarde called Mausolea.
 She founde also the herbe Artemisia, called in latyne Damasonium, of great vertue in womens diseases. Of this herbe be thye kyndes, Artemisia latifolia, in englyshe Mugwoode, an other named Artemisia tenuifolia, in englyshe fennel, the thyrde, Artemisia monoclos, Cansay of the gardeyne.
 Artemisium, a promontary of Euboea, and an image of Diana.
 Artemisius, the moneth of Maie amonge the Macedonians: Also an hyll in Ieradia.
 Artemita, a famous cite: 500 furlonges from Seleucia.
 Artemis, a mountayne of Beasa in argo.
 Artemon, onis, m, g. a trouble of pully, wherein coppers doo errene: it may also be taken for an instrumēt that hath troucles, as a crane, also the sayle of a shippe. Artemon is also a propre name of dyuers men.
 Artemon, an heretyke, whiche affirmed, that Christ was but pure man, takynge his beginnyng in our lady. This heresie, beyng one condemned, was chesones reuised by Paul the Samosatensis.
 Arteriall, a, a syneme lyke to a veyne, wherein the
 spyrte of lyf dooth walke, mixt with bloud.
 Arteriall, a, a syneme lyke to a veyne, wherein the
 spyrte of lyf dooth walke, mixt with bloud.
 Arteriall, a, a syneme lyke to a veyne, wherein the
 spyrte of lyf dooth walke, mixt with bloud.
 Arteria, of Lucretius is used in the plurall number, and heere gender.
 Arteriacē, ces, form. gen. a medicine, called also Diacodion.
 Arthabanus, looke Artabanus.
 Arthabaita, people lyvinge wylde lyke beastes.
 Arthanes, toke Arranes.
 Arthetica passio, called also Morbus articularis, the toynne lickenesse, is thus diuided, into Corendix, called Stratica, whiche is in the huckle bone, Podagra, the goute of the legges and feete, and Chiragra, the goute of the fyngers.
 Arthritica, some suppose to bee the herbe and floure, whiche is called pyrrero.
 Arthriticus, or Arthricus, one diseased with the goute.
 Arthritus, idem quod arthetica passio.
 Arthurs, a kynge of England, whan it was called Britannia, a man of excellent prowesse, who in xv. great battayles agaynst the Saxons, ban-quished them, and finally drave the most parte of them out of this roialme. he subdued Scot-lande and Irelande, at that tyme beyng well inhabited, and in culture. And after kept an honourable house of valyant and noble personas

ges, wherein was such magnificence, that it gave occasion to Frenchmen and Spanyardes, to exercise their wittes in aunauyng of Arthurs maiestee with incredible fables. whiche is no more to bee meruayled at, than the semblable inuentions and fantasies of the Grekes. All be it this Arthure was a veray noble and famous prynce, yet of them, which wrote histories about his tyme, he was but remembred. He flourished about the yere of our lord. 510.
 Articularius, he that hath the goute.
 Articularius, a, um, or Articularis, re, perteynynge to the ioyntes.
 Articularius, or Articularis morbus, the goute.
 Articulate, articulary, as whan one dooth expresse euery syllable.
 Articulation, from ioynt to ioynt, ioynt meale, ioynte by ioynte, also treatable, soundynge euery syllable.
 Articulation, onis, f. g. the spryngynge of shooting out of twygges of trees from ioynt to ioynte.
 also a faute in vynes, wherwith the ioyntes of knottes be corrupted.
 Articulo, culai, are, to ioyne one ioynte to an other.
 Articulus, a, um, in trees knotte of full of ioin-tes: In stile or indyng, whan there be many worte members in a sentence.
 Articulū, a ioynt, also a moment a or parcell of tyme, also a colour of the thyrde, also a knotte of ioynte in twygges of trees, in stalkes of corne, and other lyke. Amonge grammarians it is the article:
 Articulū sargenti, the knotte of a twygge.
 Articuli montium, hillockes that be in a great hill, wherby men maye goe by more easly.
 In ipso temporis articulo, in meruaylous good season, at the veray poynte.
 Habere dolores articulorum, to be lyke of the goute.
 Artifex, tificis, a crafter man, or one that is coun-nyng in any feate, one that is his craftes maister, a fyne doore, a fyne woorkeman.
 Artifex mundi deus, God the maker of the worlde.
 Artifex, and Inscius, bee contrary.
 Scenici artifices, stage plaiers.
 Morbi artifex, a physicion.
 Artifex sceleris, the auctour or diuiser of any mischeuous acte.
 Artifex, an adiectyue, counnyngly and wooken
 manly doone.
 Artifex temperamentum, a counnyng modes-ration in dooynge any thyng.
 Artificialis, le, idem quod artificiosus.
 Artificialiter, idem quod artificiose.
 Artificiose, woorkemanly, counnyngly, craftily,
 artificially.
 Artificiosus, one that dooth a thyng by arte or counnyng.
 Artificiosus, a, um, that counnyng is shewed in,
 artificially

artificiall, crafty.
Artificium, the practise of a craft, cunningge, workemanſhip. ſometyme gyle or deſeipt. ſometyme a thyng cunninggly wrought.
Artificio ſimulationis eruditus, cunningge, or wel inſtructed in falſehode or feignyng of matters.
Artificium coquorum, cookery.
Quorum artiſicijs effectum eſt, by whole craftie conueyghaunce it was brought to paſſe.
Artigis, a citie in Spayne called alſo Alhama.
Artio, tui, ire, vſed of olde wyters for Arto, ai, are.
Artitus, well inſtructed in ſciences.
Arto, ai, are, to ſtreigne, to thruſt together, to wyngge. looke Arcto.
Artocopus, pi, a baker. ſometyme a pantarer.
Artocreas, atis, neu. ge. of Artocrea, a, ma. ge. maie bee called a paſty or ppe, with fleſhe or fyſhe baken.
Artolaganus, lagani, maſc. generis, fyne cake breadde.
Artomici, people of a countrey in Fraunce called Armynae.
Artoptra, a, a bakynge panne, wherein they bake tartes, or other thynges made of fyne paſt, ſometyme a brake, wherewith bread is wrought in dowe, or a knedynge tubbe. Of ſome it is vſed for a woman baker, or a certayne veſſell, wher in breade is baked or lodde.
Artopritius panis, bread baked in ſuch a veſſell.
Artotyritæ, people, whiche did offer to theyr god, breadde and cheeſe.
Artredones, a certayne kynde of bees of the leaſt ſorte.
Artuo, ai, are, to cutte in ſunder, or in pices.
Artus, tuum, plu. nu. maſ. gen. membris of the body betwene the ſoyntes, takynge the bones, fleſhe, and ſynewes.
Artuum dolor, for Morbus articularis.
Aruales fratres, were ſuppoſed to bee the ſofter betherne of Romulus, to whom he gaue the dignitee of prieſthoode, to make ſacrifice for growynge and increaſe of corne, and preſeruacion of the corne fieldes.
Aruerni, people of Fraunce nere to the ryuer of Leyze.
Aruica, arucæ, a kynde of corne or grayne.
Aruina, talowe.
Aruſium, an hyll on the ſea coſte of the yle called Chium, where growe the wines called Aruſia vina, nowe Maruſſia vina, malueſey.
Arum, ri, the herbe named wakeroben, or cokerpenkle, or rampe, the apothecaries call it pes vituli, or Serpentaria minor.
Arunca, a towne in Italy.
Arunus, i, m. g. the bearde of a gote.
Arundinæus, a, um, lyke a reede.
Arundineus, a, um, of a reede or cane.
Arundinofus, a, um, a place wherein is great plenty of reedes.

Arundifer, that beareth or byngeth ſoftly reedes.
Arundinæum, a place where reedes doe grow.
Arundo, rundinis, f. g. a reede or cane. ſometyme it is vſed for an arrowe, becauſe arrowes were made of reedes. ſometyme for a pype. ſometyme for a littell ſicke that chyldren ryde vpon.
Aruo, ai, are, to lay or ſette vpon, lyes or ocher herbes in rannes, haile vnder the earth, or moſe, to make them leſſe tart or ſpyte.
Arupenum, a towne in Fraunce.
Arupinum, a citie in Pannonia.
Aruspex, he that telleth of thynges to come, by looking in beaſtes bowelles.
Auruſpicium, that kynde of ſothe ſaynge.
Aruum, ui, n. g. of Aruus, ui, m. g. a ſowen field.
Cultus aruorum, the husbandynge or tilling of the grounde.
Arx, arcis, f. ge. a ſortreſſe or caſtell, ſpecially ſtandynge bygh.
Condere, conſtruere, erigere arces, to build ſtronge holdes or caſtelles.
Munire arcem, to ſortifie or ſtrengthen a caſtell.
Euertere, ſubruere arces, to ouerthrowe or beate downe ſtronge holdes or ſortreſſes.
Tradere arcem, to yeld vpon a caſtell or ſortreſſe.
Arxata, a citie of Bementie.

A A N T E S.

Aſa, aſis, a pounde weighte. In olde tyme in the partition of land, or other lyke thyng inheritable, they called the whole Aſ, and the partes deuided, ounces. Aſ, is alſo a ſmall coyne of braſſe, ſomewhat leſſe than our helſe penny. x. of theſe made a Romayne penny, called Denarius, whiche was in value our ſterlynge groſe.
Aſſem negat ſe daturum, he ſaith he will not geue one farthyng.
Ad aſſem omnia perdidit, he hath loſt euery farthyng.
Ad aſſem impendium reddes, Thou ſhalt pay me agayne euery farthyng: or thou ſhalt recompence me to the bittermoſte farthyng.
In aſſem, in all the whole ſumme together.
Hæres ex aſſe, he that is heyre of all.
Aſa, in the language of Syria, ſignifieth a phyſicion, or a healer of ſickenſſes. Of that name was the v. kyng of Juda, the ſonne of Abia, who reigned .41. yeres. He honoured god, beſtroyed ydolles, and was fortunate in battaile, ſo that he is compared to kyng Dauid, for his perſonage and vertuouſe qualitees. He ſlowe the kyng of Ethiophe, with an infinite numbre of his people. He was afoze the incarnation, 973. yeres.
Aſachæ, a people in the mountaynes of Ethiophe. v. daies iourney from the ſea: who lyue onely by huntynge of Elephanter.
Aſachus, a ryuer in Macedonie, cennynge by Deſſa, at the foote of the mountaine Peta.

Asa, a people of Peloponnesus.
Asa, a cirtagne hill.
Asa, a greke that was slayne of Hercules.
Asaph, an hebrue woorde, signifyinge gatherynge or synnysynge. Of this name was a synngng man in the house of god, to whom kynge Dauid als signed certayne titles of his psalmes.
Asaron, loke Asarum.
Asarum, a neu. gen. payng tyle, with pyctures eneled, whiche maie not be swept with a besome, but with a wyng, or other softe
 thyng.
Asarum, asari, an herbe, whose leaues are lyke vnto guy, but they be lesse and rounder. it hath a good sauour. The flower is purple, and sauourish sweetely, and groweth betwene the lea-ues by the roote. The stalke is edged, and somewhat rough. The rootes be small, reo-shed and lyke a grasse full of knottes. it is also called Bacchar, the frenchemen call it Caberet.
 the Germanis Walswort. it is called, asarum baccha, or sole fote.
Asbesta, a people of Libya, where was an oracle of Ammon.
Asbestinum, a kynde of lyne, whiche can not be burned: and the cloth therof made is purged cleaue with fyre, than with water.
Asbestos, a precious stone of yon colour, growyng in the mountaynes of Beradie, which beyng ones burnyng, can not be quenched.
Asbolus, the name of an hounde in Oude.
Asbolus, a citee of Thessaly.
Asca, a citee in Sicilie, buylded by Elytus, a paynte of Troy.
Ascalaphus, the sonne of Mars and Ariodes.
 also the son of Icheron, and the nymphe Dyphenes, whiche was touned into an oule.
Ascalabotes, a. m. g. idem quod stellio.
Ascalingium, the citee of Hilderhem.
Ascalon, an hebrue woorde signifieth a payngynge or a balance, or fyre of infamy. Also a citee in the higher Idumea, from Hierusalem 90. miles, as Egeippus saith. The people of this citee were called Ascalonites.
Ascalonia, a kynde of onions called scalpons.
Ascalus, the brother of Cantalus, and sonne of Hymenæus.
Ascanalis, the citee of Swetz in Germanie.
Ascaria, one of theples called Cyclades. Also a cuntry in Asia, and a citee, and a meere or marishe in Croas.
Ascanius, the sonne of Eneas the troian, and Creusa his wife, daughter to kynge Pyramus of Troy: who commyng in Italy with his father, susteyned sundry labours: And fynally after his father, reigned ouer the Latyns, with Sylvius Posthumus, his brother in lawe, and buylded the citee of Alba Longa. he was also called Iulus, he reigned .xviii. yeres. Of this name was a ryuer in Phrygia, of the whiche Scanius was named.

Ascarides, little rounde wormes, whiche dwellyde in the longe gutte of a man, or beast, but specially of chylidren.
Ascendo, a. i. ere, to asende, to go vp.
 it is applyed also to the voyce, whan it mounteth or exalteth.
Ascendere equum, to scape or mount on horse
 backe.
Ascendere nauem, to take shippynge.
Ascendere in concionem, or in rostra, to make an oracion to the people.
Ascendere altiorē gradum, Ascendere ad
 honores, to exle to honour and dignitee.
Ascendere gradibus magistratum, to aspe or be aduauced to honour from office to office.
Ascensus, us, an ascendyng, mountyng, or climyng vp, also aduancement or exlyng to honour.
Prohibere ascensu, to kepe one downe.
Asceueria, monasteries, where men were exercised in contemplation.
Ascia, a. for, ge. a thyp are.
Ascio, ascis, sciui, to know perfectly.
Asciburgium, the citee of Emerich in Germany.
Ascio, ascias, aui, are, to thyp with an are.
Ascisco, iui, scere, to admitte, to choose or ioygne to vs any thyng or person, to presume to take vpon vs. sometyme for appetere, to desyre.
Asciscere and Segregare, be contrary.
Asciscere sibi laudem, to attribute laude and prayse to ones selfe.
Asciscere sibi nomen regium, to take vpon
 one to vlturpe the name of a kynge.
Asciscere sibi socios, to choose hym company ones, or to associate other with him.
Asciuerunt sibi illud oppidum commercio & societate, They haue ioygned that towne to them by entercourse of marchandise, and familiar conuersacion.
Ad hoc scelēis foras multos asciuerunt, they haue associate or made priuy to this mischeuous conspyacie, a great numbze of men.
Asciscere consuetudinē, leges, ritus, to byng in vlt any custome, lawes, or ceremonies.
Asciscere generum, to choose or take a sonne in lawe.
Ascisci in ciuitatem, to bee made free, or admitted to the lybertees of a citee.
Ascitæ, Arabians.
Ascites, a kynde of dyoplie, loke Ascytes.
Ascitus, a. urn, chosen, admitted, or taken to, als sociated. sometyme strange, farre sette, not in the thyng selfe.
Ascitus, and Natiuus be contrary.
Asclepiades, a famous phisicion. Also a philosof-pher, whiche beyng blynde, was demaunded in scozne, what his blyndenesse profyted hym? he answered, that he hadde the moze compagne by one boie that ledde hym. It is also the name of an historiographer of Cypres, and diuers other men.
Asclepias, is called of the Herbalistes Hirundinaria,

naria, because the rodde resembleth a swalowe, of the apothecaries Vincetoxium, because it is of great force agaynst the popson: in englyshe (as some suppose) it is called grounde yuy, but eas the swalowe.

Asclepiodorus, a peincter in the tyme of Appelles, also one of Alexandria, whiche was excellent in the mathematicall, and knowlage of herbes and stones.

Asconius Pedianus, the excellent expositor of the oracions of Cullie, when he was .73. yeres olde, became blynde, and lyued afterwarde .xii. yeres in greates estimation and honour. he flourished aboute the tyme of Nero the emperour.

Ascopera, æ, a bagge, a purse, or satchell of lether.

Asera, a towne in Scotia, by the mountayn Heslicon. In this towne was borne Hesiodus the famous poete: and therefore he is sometyme called Ascreus.

Ascribo, ascribis, si, etc, to adde to in wrytyng, to attribute, to impute, to bill amonge other, to registre in the nymbze of other, to enroll, to put in recordes.

Me quoq; ascribe fratres sententia, couple or togyne me to my brothers opinion.

Ascribi in legibus, to bee added or mentioned in the lawes.

Ascribi in ciuitatem, ciuitate, ciuitati, to bee enfranchised, to bee made free, or admitted to the libertees of a citee.

Ascribe me ad, or in amicitiam, take, admitte, accompt, or accepte me as one of your freendes.

Ascribere in numerum, to accompt as one of the number.

Ascribi numinibus, to be canonysed, or made a saynte.

Ascribere penam forderi, to appoynte or set a payne vpon him that breaketh the alliance.

Ascribit me socium tuis laudibus hominum opinio, The common brute maketh me parts taker of your laude and prayse, or attributeth part therof to me.

Ascribere aliquem tutorē liberis, to appoynt by testamente, who shall haue the tuicion and gouernance of his chyldren.

Ascribere salutem alicui, to send commendacions to one by letters.

Ne ascribat mihi negligentiam, impute not to me any negligence: or accompte me not negligent herein.

Ascripti, were they that were appoynted to inhabyte townes or citees made by the Romaynes, called Colonia.

Ascriptio, an addicion, enrolling, or registryng.

Ascripti milites, souldiours, whose names are entred or registred with other.

Ascriptus, he that is added to the nymbze of other, whose name is registred or enrolled: or one of them that hath submitted hym selfe to be vnder an other mans dominion or gouernance.

nance: or he that is admitted by taken into a companie aboute the common nymbze.

Ascriptus, idem.

Ascriptor, oris, he that followeth the example of an other man, or he that wryteth many copies of others examples. Also a broker in the lawe, a fauour, maynteyner, or one that fauoureth a mans cause.

Ascriptus, a, um, wrytten to, intitled, registred, enrolled.

Ascrinium, called Ascrinium, a citee in Eburria.

Asculum, a citee in Puell in Italy, whose Lucius and Fabius discomfited Pyrrhus.

Ascyrum ri, neu. gen. the herbe, whiche of some is called Peter worpe: other wolde haue it to be Cuscuta, some thynke it to be a kinde of Saine Johns worpe, and that is most likely, and may be called square St. Johns grasse.

Ascytes, one of the kyndes of dropsy, the cause wherof is lacke of good digestion, wherby is engendred in all the membes a salte and a yelowe humour, whiche at the laste falleth into the bealy, and is turned into water, and therein is meued, as it were in a great vessell, when the body meureth, the bealy being swollen and great.

Asdrubal, a name of dyuers noble men of Carthage, of whiche one married the sister of Anniball: he ruled the citee of Carthage, and sent Anniball into Spayne, and there exercised hym in continuall labours. At the laste in the myddell of his frendes and seruantes, he was slayd by a Mozaire slaue, whose master he had slayne a littell before. This slaue feared deathe so lytell, that when he was put vnto most horrible tormentes, he being in them, shewed alwaye a laughyng countenance.

Ascella, or ascella, looke axilla.

Ascelli, two sterres in the signe called Cancer.

Asellius Sempronius, an historiographer in the tyme of Setpio Vemilianus.

Asellus, a diminutive of Asinus. also a fysh, whiche the Grekes do call Onon, & Oniscon, and is of a dun colour lyke an asse, and hath in his head. ii. stones lyke myll stones. In the casual daires he can not bee founde (as Theophrastus wryteth) Oppianus saith, he hath his name of slownesse: many suppose it is the fysh, that we call an haddocke. Other thynke it is the rodde fysh. Of the dyuers kyndes of them Malbe wrytten in their places.

Asia, æ. for. ge. is the thyrd parte of the worlde, dyuided from Europa by the sea called Bosphorus Thracius, and the great ryuer of Tanais: And from Afrike by the famous ryuer Syllus: and is in quantitee supposed to be as great as bothe Europa and Afrike. Asia minor, is a parte of the other Asia, whiche is now called Turkey, and conteyneth in it these cosmes, Pontus, Bithynia, Phrigia, Caria, Lycia, Lydia, & Lycaonia. Asia is also a meere, fenne, or marke here to the ryuer Caspius.

Asiaticus,

whiche way to euer a man cunneth to it.
 Copias in aspectum hostis adducit, he bynd
 geth his armie into the syght of his enemye.
 Sub aspectum cadit, It is of that sorte that it
 maye be seene.
 Vno aspectu de aliquo iudicare, to iudge of a man euen at ones synghe.
 Priuare liberos aspectu suo, that goe from his chyldren that they may not see him, to berefte his chyldren of his presence and companie.
 Vt ea tibi sub vno aspectu ponerentur, that they might be sette in suche sorte as ye may see thein all at ones.
 Oculi quod volunt, aspectum contorquent, or conuertunt, The eyes turne the syght whiche waye they list.
 Ea quæ aspectu sentiuntur, whiche be seene with the eye.
 Fugere aspectum, to auoyde, or eschewe to come in ones sight.
 Vesci in aspectu seniorum, to eate theyr meate
 in the sight, &c.
 In aspectum lucemq; proferre, to bring abrode that euery man may see.
 Referre aspectum aliquod, to toke or haue an eye to a place. And it is referred to the mynde.
 Si referunt aspectum in Curiam, if they looke backe to the Senate.
 Aspello, puli, ere, to put backe, or dysce awaye
 from one.
 Aspendius, a certayne harper.
 Aspendus, a cite of Damphilia.
 Asper, aspera, um, rough, Harpe, vnpleasunt, as well to the sight as to other senses. Also hard of greuousse, cruell, vndeignefull, churlische, rude, seuer, rygourous.
 Asperum vinum, a rough wyne.
 Asper nummus, money new coyned.
 Aspera maris, the rough stormes of the sea.
 Asperimo hyemis, in the Harpest season of wynter.
 Asper natura, & omnibus iniquus, cruell of nature, and woorkyng iniury to euery man.
 Asperior & durior doctrina, a seuer, harde, and rygourous hynde of learnyng, as the Sto-ikes was.
 Homo asper & durus, a rygourous, seuer, or rough persone, a Stoike.
 Aspera & horrida oratio, a rough or vnpleassant stile.
 Monitoribus asper, vndeignefull to them that aduertise him of any thyng.
 Aspera tempora, troublous and dangerous seasons.
 Aspera loca, rough places, full of stones, bus-shes and hylles.
 Aspera signis pocula, plate grauen with flowers and ymages.
 Monitoribus asper, rough and vnpleasant to such as aduertise him.

Horrei capillis asperis, he hath rough heare.
 Asperis faciebus eludere.
 Odia aspera, cruell hatred.
 Sapor asperimus, a very rough and vnpleassant taste.
 Secula aspera, harde world, full of aduersities.
 Aspera tempora, idem.
 Asper victus meus est, I lyue hardly.
 Asper victus, austre and harde luyng.
 Asper animus, a fiers, stubborne, or vntrastable mynde.
 Asperum & lenē, contrary. A lyke wylle Asper & leuis locus.
 Asperē, aduerb. qualiter, hardly, sharply, rigou-rously, seuerely, roughly, vndeigne, vnpleasantly.
 Quod asperē acceptum in præsens mox, &c. whiche thyng beynge taken vnpleasantly at that present, &c.
 Nimis asperē tractare aliquem, to intreate a man to sharply, or to rygourously.
 Asperē loqui, to speake seuerely and rygourously.
 Asperiter, idem quod asperē, an olde worde.
 Aspergillus, li, m. g. or Aspergillum, li, n. g.
 an holy water. Asperge or Aspergite.
 Aspergo, spériginis, a sprinkling of spoure.
 Aspergine parietum, sweatynge of stone walles.
 Aspergo, si, gère, to sprayng or cast water. And by a metaphore, to mixe or tempe seuerely with other thynges. also to poudre.
 E fonte illum asperxit, he toke water out of the well and caste one him.
 Labem aspergere dignitati alterius, to spotte or disteyne an other mans dignitee.
 Huc tu vitæ splendorē maculis aspergis istis.
 Sales orationi aspergere, to mixe his talke here
 and there with mery conceites.
 Aspergere comitatem seueritati, to mixe eas-miliaritee and grauitie together.
 Aspergere aliquid in epistolis, to touch a thyng quickly in a letter.
 Aspergere maculis vitam alicuius, to make yll report of a man.
 Aspergit hoc mihi molestia hæc epistola,
 this letter hath brought me into this trouble.
 Aspersisti aquam, Thou hast put me out of feare, thou hast relieved me, or quickned my spyrites, prouerbially spoken.
 Mendaciunculis aliquid aspergere, to myngle
 lyes here and there with true matters.
 Aspergere aliquem lingua, to backbite or speake euill of one.
 Aspergere salem carnibus, to poudre flesh.
 Aspergi suspitione, vel infamia, to be in suspicion or misse reported of.
 Istius facti non modo suspitione, sed ne in-famia quidem est aspersus.
 Asperitas, atis, f. g. sharpenesse, rudenesse of manners, roughnesse, vnpleasantnesse.
 Asperitas viarum, roughnes of waies.

Asperitas

Asperitas aceti, the sharpnesse of vinegar.

Asperitas animæ, the roughnes of the places where the breath issueth.

Asperitas contentiōis, bytternesse of contentiō.

Aspernabilis, he that is worthy to bee despyed or refused.

Aspernatio, ōnis, contempte.

Aspernatus, nata, um, contemned, despyed, rejected.

Aspernor, aris, ari, to despye, contemne, or sette light by, to refuse or abhorre, to reiecte or cast off.

Illiberaliter aliquid aspernari, to despye a thinge vngently.

Cuius crudelitatem deos a suis aris & templis aspernari confido, I trust the goddes doe reiecte from their alters and temples. &c.

Non aspernor Trebatij literas.

Animo aspernari aliquem, auribus respuere.

Aspernari & contemnere, Aspernari ac respuere, vel reijcere.

Aspernari dolorem, & appetere voluptatem, contrary.

Aspernari alicuius sententiā, to reiecte a mans opinion or iudgement in a matter.

Aspero, asperas, aui, are, to make rough, sharpe, or harde.

Asperare crimen, to make an offence moze greivous.

Asperare alicuius iram, to make ones anger moze fierce.

Sagittas ossibus asperare, to make the heades that they sette on their arrowes, of bones.

Asperare pugionem saxo, to whette a dagger, or make it sharpe with a stone.

Aspersio, ōnis, a spynnyng or castyng of water.

Aspersus, us, idem.

Aspersus, a, um, spynkled or wet with any lyqueur.

Aspersus infamia, steyned with dishonour.

Asphalaton, some take for berberie tree, but not rightly, for this Asphalaton, groweth not about this parte of the worlde, but rather in Grece and Rhodes.

Asphaltum, idem quod bitumen. also an herbe called Trifolium. Diosc. li. 3. ca. 122.

Asphatiris, idem quod Pologonium. Diosc. li. 4. ca. 5.

Asphaltum, idem quod bitumen.

Asphaltites, or Asphaltum, a lake of Syria, called Mare mortuum, therein is the lime mixt with breymstone, cald Bitumen, or asphaltum, where in no liuely thyng can dwelne. Some suppose, in that place stode the citers of Sodoma, and Gomorrha, Asphodelus, phodeli, mas. ge. an herbe called Daffadill. Of this herbe be. ii. kyndes, the male called Albucus, and the female named Hastula regia, the Apothecaries call it corruptly Aphrodilorum.

Aspicio, aspicias, xi, ere, to beholde or looke on a thinge, to see. sometyme to fauour or helpe.

Me huc aspice, vel, ad me aspice, looke this way vpon me.

Aspicere longe, to beholde a far of.

Aspicere & contueri, vel contemplari, cernere & aspicere.

Aspiciunt inter se, They regarde eche other, they looke and beholde one an other.

Furtim nonnunquam inter se aspiciabant.

Aspicere lucem, to be borne or brought forth into the worlde.

Propter quos hanc lucem aspexerit, by whom he was borne into this worlde.

Aspicere aliquem, to regarde or beholde a persone.

Vix aspiciendi potestas fuit, we myght scarcely looke on hym.

Aspicere ē, E longinquo aspicit, he loketh on it a farr of.

Ex alto aspicit, he loketh on it out of an highe place.

In obliquum aspiciunt, they looke a wyze.

Ad Lentulum consull aspexit, he looked on Lentulus.

Ad faciem eorum cum aspicias, haud videntur mali, when a man looketh on theyr face. &c.

Aspici for considerari, to be considered or regarded.

Sin solo aspiciamur sexu. &c.

Aspicit nos deus, god fauoreth or helpeth vs.

Aspidion, idem quod Alysson. Diosc. li. 3. ca. 106.

Aspidisca, or aspidiscus, a little tergate or shield.

Aspilates, a stone lyke to silver.

Aspiratio, ōnis, a recetyng of breathe, contrary to Expiratio. Also influence or exhalacion.

Aspiratio aeris, drawyng of breath.

Aspiratio terræ, vapoure of the earth.

Aspiratio stellæ, the influence of a sterre.

Aspiro, aui, are, to aspyre, to looke to come to a thyng, to attayne to, to blowe, to fauour, to geue ayde, to geue all study and wytte to attaine a thyng, to touche, to come to, to haue access to a man.

Ad quæ granaria nulla aura humida e propinquis locis aspiet, no moyst ayre may come.

Ne felis possit aspirare, id est, accedere.

Ex bellica laude aspirare ad Africanū nemo potest, In the prayse of warfare no man can attayne to the excellencie of Africanus.

Nec equis aspirat Achilles, id est, accedit.

Aspirare in Curiam, to aspyre or gette into the Senate house.

Ad eam laudem quam volumus aspirare non possunt.

Aspirat fortuna labori, Fortune fauoureth our labour, or helpeth forwarde. &c.

Aspirat felicitas alicui, he is fortunat, or fortune smyleth vpon hym.

Aspirare nemo potest ad illum, No man can haue access to hym.

Aspirare,

Aspirare ad rem aliquam, to aspyre or endeuour with all study to attayne to a thyng.
Aspirare non possunt ad illam laudem, they can not attayne to that laude and prayse.
Deus aspirat mentem, ingenium, gratiam, or Inspyrat, impertit.
Aspiriudo, dinis, f. g. sharpenesse.
Aspis, aspdis, fcm. ge. a lytell serpent, whiche breedeth in Asie, whose spyng is so benemoule, that nothing maie cure it, except a stone taken of the sepulchre of an auncient kyng, which beeyng washed in water, and the water drunke with wine, the inhabitantes aspyre, that it onely cureth the stroke. Plinie saith, the male and female goe alwaie together, and if one of them be slayne, the other doeth continually followe the flect, till he haue styken hym, although he bee in a great assemble of people: excepte he passe ouer a ryuer. This name Aspis, is so generall, that it conteyneth diuers other kyndes, of whiche shall be wyrtten hereafter.
Asplénos, hédéra. Diosc. li. 2. ca. 199.
Asplendón, a citee of Rhodis.
Asplenium, ni, or Asplenium, and Splenium called also Scolopendra, or Scolopendrium, an herbe, whiche groweth commonly amonge stones, or on olde walles, it hath many leaues, growyng out of one roote, lyke to the woorme called a palmer, that hath many feete. It is somewhat lyke to ferne, and hath nether flower, stake, nor seede, and is commonly called of the Apothecaries Cetrac or Ceterac, in Englyshe, Litterache, Scaleferne, or spnger ferne. It is called Asplenium, because it minisheth or consumeth theyr splene that eate or drynke it.
Asporeus, an hyll in Asia nere to Pergamus.
Asportatio, ónis, the carpage or bearynge away
from a place.
Asportatus, a, um, carped, bozue, or conueyghed
from a place.
Asporto, aui, áre, to cary away, to cary to.
Asportari Alexandriam iussit ad virum.
Asportare aliquem secum, to cary one awaye with him.
Multa de suis rebus secum hinc asportauit.
Asprédo, and Asprítudo, túdinis, fce. g. roughnesse, sharpenesse.
Asprétum, ti, neu. gen. a rough place full of stones and rockes.
Assa, certayne dyse stones.
Assa voce cantare, to syng onely with mannes
voyce, without any other voyces or sownes.
Et assa voce cantabant & cum tibicine.
Assabinus, a god amonge the Ethiops.
Assacini, a countrey of India, wherein is the citee Magosa.
Assaménta, orum, n. g. sawed boordes.
Assaracus, the sonne of Trois kyng of Troians.
Assaracum, of olde wyrters was vled for a drynke temperd with bloudde and wyne.
Assaius, a, um, roasted. an olde woorde.

Assarum, loke Asarum.
Assatura, x, fce. ge. roasted meate.
Assella, asselle, com. ge. a page, and he that foloweth in all thynges the wyl of an other man: & waytynge seruant alwaie readye at his maisters commaundment.
Affectatio, onis, fce. ge. a suite ordinary, a folowyng, companiing, or attendyng on a man.
Affectatio celi, for obseruatio astrorum.
Magna celi affectatione compertum est, id
est, obseruatione.
Affectator, a companion. Also a follower, or one that dooeth imitate an other mans behauiour, eloquence, or learyng.
Quidam vetus affectator ex numero amico-rum, &c. a certayne olde companion of his.
Affectator eius Appolodorus, his follower.
Affectator eloquentie eius, a follower of his eloquence.
Affector, áris, ári, to kepe company with one, or folowe him, to endeuour to gette ones fauour, or wyne his frendshipp.
Eum affectatur filius natu maior, his eldér son accompanieth him or wayteth on him.
Ga. Pompeium affectatus est, he folowed Pompei to gette in fauour with him.
Affectari pretextatam, to folowe a mayden to the ende to corrupte hir or wyne hir to his lewde purpose.
Affensor, óris, m. g. he that assenteth or agreeth to an other mans opinion.
Te vnum mihi fuisse assensorem: that you onely agreed to me or were of my opinion.
Affensus, us, m. g. assent, consent, agreement.
Affensu populi, by the consent of the people.
Affensum suum firme sustinere, to stepe his assent constantly and not agree to a thyng.
Affentatio, ónis,, flattery.
Blanditijs & affentationibus beneuolentiam colligere, to gette a mans good will with fayre woordes and flatteryng tales.
Erudit ad affentationē, wel instructed to flatter.
Affentatiuncula, a flatteryng tale.
Affentator, óris, m. ge. a flatterer, that prayseth a man ouermuche, and holdech vp his yea and nay in euery thyng.
Affentatorie, flatteryngly, or lyke a flatterer.
Affentio, assentis, si, ire, & Assentior, tiris, iri, depo. to consente, to assente or agree to. Also to perceiue. Sed assentio aperiri foras, quæ ab forbent, quicquid venit intra pectus, But I perceiue the doores are opened, whiche deuoure all that cometh within the boltes.
Cui assensi sunt ad vnum, to whom they assented euerychone.
Affentiri aliquid alicui.
Vitiosum est assentiri quicquid falsum, it is not without faute for any thyng to be agreed vnto that is false.
Ego illud assentior tibi, That thyng I grant to you. De Bruto accersendo tibi assen-Assentire

rior: He concerning the thinge by consentie agree to you: so implied. assensus est
 Sepissime tibi maximis de rebus assensus est.
 Assensum est Bibulo, they consented, or agreed to the opinion of Bibulus. assensus est
 Assensus, onis, idem quod assensus, own man
 Assensus & approbatio, of his, assensus
 Assensionem retinere, to stay his assent, id
 Assensor, aris, ari, to flatter, or immoderate (as for the most part) falsely to praise a man, to the intent to winne favour by flattery thence by, to holde by ones yea and naie, to soothe a body.
 Assequor, assequeris, assequi, to follow, to gette, to obteyne, to attayne to, to surmount, to some thinge to render as muche to one as he hath des served. assequor
 Nullam partem videar morum meritorum assecutus, I coulde not seeme to have satisfied any parte of your deservinges, to have done the 100. parte so muche as you have done for me. assequor
 Assequere & retine, overtake him & holde him.
 Ite cito, iam ego vos assequar, Goe you on a pace, I wyl overtake you by and by. assequor Insequi, and assequi, to followe and overtake.
 Nihil aliud assequeris, nisi. &c. you shall wyne nothing els threby, but. assequor
 Propositum assequi.
 Assequutus est quod sperabat, he hath gotten or obteyned that he hoped or looked for.
 Maturitatem assequi, to be ripe.
 Ingenium alterius assequi, to attaine to be like or equall to an other man in wytte.
 Vi senex saltem eius ingenium aliqua ex par te assequar.
 Assequi coniectura, to attayne to the know ledge of a thinge by conjecture, to coniecte.
 Ex hac re coniectura assequi potes.
 Assequi literis, to sette forth, or make playne any thing in wrytyng. Assequi verbis & di ctis assequi.
 Suspitione concilium assequi non potui, I coulde not suspect or dyspyne, what his abuse or counsaile was.
 Cogitationem alterius assequi, to gesse or know what an other man thynketh.
 Assequi nomen, to gette a name.
 Asser, asseris, or assis, is, m. g. a myngle, a clos uen boorde, a planke, a punchion or ioynt of. asser
 or. iii. foote longe.
 Asser, is also the best bone over the harte, cal led also scutum cordis.
 Querneis vel roboreis assibus contubulare,
 to bourde a place with oken plankes or bourdes.
 Assercula, Lato bled in the plurall numbze and neutre gendze.
 Asserculi, & Assiculi, diminutives of asser, little boordes or lathes.
 lunctis parieti modicis asserculis.
 Assero, asseris, serui, asseru, asserere, to clappe, to asserue or aspyne, to manumise or make free, to deliure.

 Asserere aliquem in manu, to set one at libertie,
 or to manumise a bond man.
 Asserere in seruitutem, to bringe into bondage or seruitude.
 Asserui iam me, fugi carcere, I have sette
 my selfe at libertie.
 Asserere ab iniuria, to defende from wronge or iniurie.
 Asserere se studiis, to leave all other busynesse to applye studye.
 Quin tu te studiis asseris?
 Asserere se, to make him selfe free, to sette hym
 selfe at libertie.
 Alexander louem sibi patrem asseruit, id est, vendicabat, Alexander claymed Iupiter to bee his father.
 Asserere sibi maiestatem diuinam, I assume te, vel arrogare, to vendicate or take vpon hym a diuine maiesty.
 Asserere sibi cognomen, to attribute or take vpon him a name of honour.
 Felicitis cognomen sibi asseruit. L. Sylla.
 Asserere aliquem celo, to canonise, or make one a saynt.
 Asserere se ab iniuria obliuionis, I vindicare, to do some thinge that shall rebounde to his im mortall fame.
 Assero, asseris, serui, ere, assitum, to some or plant by.
 Asserio, onis, an asserimance, or asser Bndes us, a demonstration, or document, a vouchyng.
 Also a procuring of ones libertie.
 Sit ne liber qui in asserione est, in the procu ringe of his libertie.
 Asseror, oris, he that setteth one at libertie, or defendeth him from bondage. Also he that clays meth any persone to be bonde.
 Accommodare se asserorem veritati, to ap ply him selfe to bee a maynteyner and defender of the truth.
 Asseruio, asseruis, iui, ire, itum, idem quod Seruio.
 Asseruo, aui, are, to kepe diligently, to take hede of one, to obserue or watche.
 Asseruari custodijs, to be kepte in warde.
 Asseruare aliquem in carcerem, to commytte and kepe one in warde, or in pypson.
 Asseruare carnes sale, or in sale, to kepe meate in powder, or to keepe meate sauourye by sal tyng.
 Asseruare aliquem domi suae, to kepe one at home in his house.
 Hic tibi asseruandus est, ye must take good hede of this felowe, or you must watche him.
 Asseruabo quid rerum gerat. i. obseruabo, I will take hede, or watch what he dooeth, or what he goeth aboute.
 Assessio, onis, sytting at a thinge, assistance.
 Assessor, oris, assoriate to a man in office or aus cositor,
 H dispositio, especially in judgement; or consultation ons, an assistant.

Affectus, af, gl idem quod affectio.

Affectrix.

Affectanter, with assurance.

Affuerate, idem.

Affueratio, af, f, g, affirmance of vouching.

Affueratione affirmare, to avouch for a thing or person.

Tanta authorum affueratione commendat
ur, with so great assurance of all authors.

Affuero, affuero, affuero, affuero, are, to affirm
earnestly.

Affuerare de re aliqua, to affirm any thing.

Affuerare gravitatem, to affirm of pretence great gravity.

Unum illud firmissime affuerabat, he affirmed this one thing very constantly.

Affueror, affueror, affueror, are, to affirm.

Affuero, affuero, affuero, are, to be diligent.

Affuero, to wax or to be made dry.

Affuero, affuero, affuero, are, to be diligent.

Affuero, affuero, affuero, are, to be diligent.

Affuero, a byshops seat or charge, wherein he sitteth when he ministrereth, or a table, whereat the hy priests, called flamines, byt in sacrifice.

Affuero, affuero, affuero, are, to sit with or by an other, or to be assiduous, to be continually at a thing.

Hic assident, hic laborant, they labour continually about this.

Apud carbonem assidet, he sitteth by the fyre.

Assidet dies totos apud portum, he sitteth or getteth attendance at the haven oftentimes whole daies together.

Sub sellam supponetur perasam, ed mulier assidet, let it be put under a chamber stoole, and let the woman sitte upon that.

Assidere in carcere dies noctesq;, to sitte in pyson day and nyght.

Assidere gubernaculis, to sitte continually at the sterne.

Assidere literis, to be in continuall studie of letters.

Qui tota vita literis assident.

Assideri for obsideri, to be besieged.

Assido, assidis, fedi, sidere; (but Gellius and Caleppyne accent it Assido, I iudge it rather longe) to rest, to sitte downe, to sitte by, especially to helpe or dooe scrvice, as by a syche man or greate officer.

Assido, accurrunt serui, foccos detrahunt.

In bibliotheca assidite.

Imprudenter super eam assidit, he sitte downe upon it.

Simul assidamus, let vs sit downe together.

Adherbalem dextra assedit Hyemal, Hyemal
call satte downe or placed him selfe on the ryght hande of Adherball. of this place and of the difference betwene Assideo and Assido, looke Gellius in Assideo.

Assidue, Assidue, Assidue, Assidue, which dooe nisse continually, sometye Assidue of Assidue.

Assidue veniebat id est, sapiens.

Assidue meum fuit Dionysius, Dionysius was with me continually, or Assidue meum never away from me.

Assiduitas, Assiduitas, for, g, continuance in a thing, diligence. also the continuall accompanie of Assiduitate quoridiana, by day continually.

Assiduitas bellorum, the continuance of war.

Assiduitas et diligencia: Assiduitas et vi- gilia.

Assiduitate orationis meae, with my continuall talk unto him.

Meum Assiduitate quoridiana in studio scilicet
sime tractavit, with his great and dayly continuance in study.

Eandem assiduitatem in hiis prae buis post die, the kepte the same company the nexte day to-Assiduus, a, um, continuall, sufficient, syche or well at ease, diligene or laborious. also, often.

Assiduus meum fuit, he was continually with me.

Labor assiduus et quoridianus.

Assidua recordatio.

Operam assiduam dare ludis, to be always in seyng of playes.

Bonus et assiduus pater familias, a good and diligent householder.

Assidua et diligens scriptura.

Ita sunt assidui, Varro: so they be more diligent.

Assidui fide iussores, sufficient sureties.

Assiduus scriptor, an author appoynted, whose sentence is holden for certayn and true.

Classicus assiduus scriptor, no proletarius.

Assiduus bella gerit, he maketh warre continually.

Assidua febricula, a continuall fever.

Assiduus dominus, a good husbando, a diligent ouersee of his householde.

Assignatio, onis, a distribution, assignation, ap-poyntment.

Assignatus, a, um, ordeyned or deputed.

Assignatum tempus, the tyme ordeyned.

Assigno, assigno, assigno, are, to geue, distribute, assigne, or appoynte, to depute or ordeyne, to impute, to lay the fault or blame on a thing or person.

Assignare agros colonis, to assigne or appoynt a porcion of lande to them that be sent to inhabite a countrey.

Assignare agros sorte, to appoynt or distribute by lot.

Morbi qui certis corporis partibus assignari non possunt, which can not be called the proper or peculiar diseases of any part of the body.

Assignatum tempus impleuit.

Assignatum a deo munus defugere.

Natura autibus caelum assignauit, nature hath appoynted.

appoynted the apte for foules.
 Assignare locum alicui rei, to appoynt a place for any thyng.
 Assignare ciuitati vilius amentiam, to im-pute or laie the faute of one mans madnes to the whole citty.
 Assignare culpam fortune, to blame or laie
 the faute on fortune.
 Assilio, assilus, silui, liui or liij, sultum, lire, to leape forth, to encounter or assaile hastily. also to leape as a horse both a mare, and a bul a cow.
 Assilientem admissarium calcibus proturbat.
 Assilire ad aliud orationis genus, to leape from one manner of stile to an other.
 Assiluit aris, he lepte to the alters.
 Assilit in ferrum, he runneth on his enemies weapon.
 Assilire a tergo, to steppe quickly behinde one.
 Assilientia æquora, the tumblyng waues of surges of the sea.
 Assimilis, le, semblable, or muchelyke.
 Assimile hoc est, quasi de fluuiio. &c. this is lyke as though. &c.
 Quasi tu nunq̃ quicquam assimile huic facto feceris.
 Assimiliter, all semblable, or very lyke.
 Assimilo, aui, are, to dooe a thyng lyke to an other man, to imitate or folowe one, to compare, to lyken vnto. also to resemble, to represent the similitude of an other thyng.
 Grandia si paruis assimilare licet, If a man may compare great thynges with small.
 Os porcum assimilat, his mouth resembleth or is lyke an hogges snout.
 Italia folio querno assimilata est, Italy is in facion lyke an oken leafe.
 Assimulatio, onis, a dissembled countenance.
 Assimulatus, a, um, counterfayted, feigned, forged, compared, lykened.
 Assimulata virtus, counterfayted, or feigned honestee.
 Familiaritas assimilata.
 Assimulo, aui, are, to feygne a thyng that is not or to dooe a thyng that he doeth not, to make a countenance, to sette a good face on a matter.
 Also to compare, to make him selfe lyke an other,
 to counterfayte or lyken, to draw out, or repessent any thyng in peyntynge or portraiture.
 Assimulare oportet quasi ames, you muste feygne or make a countenance as though you did loue him.
 Vlysses furere assimulabat, feigned him selfe to bee madde.
 Assimulauit se quasi Amphitrio esset, he made as though he had bene Amphitrione.
 Assimulabo quasi nunc exeam, I wyll make as though I came forth but now.
 Assimulauit formam Britaniæ oblongæ seu tellæ, he resembled or lykened. &c.
 Assimula quasi ægrotus sis, make semblance as though ye were sicke.

Assimulare aliquem.
 Assimulauit anum, he made him selfe lyke an olde woman.
 Assimulare literas, to forge or counterfeit letters.
 Pictor facile assimulabit quicquid acceperit,
 i. representabit, I peynter will easly por-traite or draw out what so euer he taketh in hand.
 Assimulari, the passue.
 Assipondium, dij, a pounce weyght.
 Assis, is, mas. ge. idem quod Asser.
 Assisia, one of the names of Dallas and Muertha.
 Assisto, astiti, tere, to assiste, to stande by, to bee presente, to helpe to defende a mannes cause.
 Hic propter hunc assiste, Dooe thou stande here by him.
 Astitit ad foras, he stode at the doore.
 Assistit rectus, he standeth vpryght.
 Contra omnes hostium copias in ponte asti-tit, he stode vpon the byrde agaynst all the power of his enemies.
 Cum assistentibus nobis sermocinabatur, he talked with vs standynge by.
 Assitus, assita, um, sowne or planted by.
 Asso, aui, are, to laie boordes, or boude floures,
 also to roste.
 Ligneis veribus assatum, rosted on wooden boches.
 Cum assatum fuerit, when it shall be bourbed.
 Associo, aui, are, to associate or make ones selfe companion with an other. sometyne to iougne or set to an other thyng.
 Cornua sumi, associant malis, i. adaptant.
 Assolet, onely in the thyde persone: and moste commonly vled impersonally. It was wont, or the custome and vse was.
 Paratis omnibus, vt assolet, vocabant ad. &c.
 Assono, assonas, ui, are, to sowne or make a sowne
 agayne lyke to an Echo.
 Plangentibus assonat.
 Assuefacio, assuefacis, eci, ere, to accustome, to enure, by vse or continuance to byngne one to a
 thyng.
 Disceere & assuefacere se.
 Assuefacere alicui rei, to accustome one to any
 thyng.
 Ne ad supplicia patrum plebem assuefaciant.
 Assuefactio, onis, a byngnyng of one in custome.
 Assuefactus, a, um, taught by vse & continuance.
 Assuefactus aliqua re. Assuefactus cum bar-baris genere quodam pugnat.
 Assuerus, significeth prince or head.
 Assuesco, cui, ere, to vse of a custome, to practise by longe custome to dooe a thyng.
 A tenero assuescat non reformidare homines, let him practise euen from his childehoode not to be abashed of the company of men.
 Assuescere bella animis, to practise theyr myndes in warre.
 In hoc assuescat, let him enure him selfe to this thyng: or let hym accustome him selfe to this.
 Assiduitate quotidiana assuescit animus

nimus. &c. by dayly vse a mans mynde accustometh it selfe.

Non aquis assueuimus istis, we haue not bene accustomed to these waters.

Legibus inter arma assuescere non possunt,
In tyme of warre men can not accustom theiselfe to the obedience of lawes.

Vt fremitum assuesceret voce vincere.

Assueui semper amare virum.

Ligando cogit os vetustæ, sedi assuescere, with splentyng he maketh the bone vse to his old place agayne.

Assuescitur, the impersonall.

Assuetior, the comparative of assuetus.

Assuetudo, suetudinis, for. g. wont or custome, longe vse.

Assuetus, a, um, accustomed, enured, practysed, or exercised by longe continuance.

Assuetus labore assiduo, exercised in continus all labour.

Assuetus mendacijs,

Amore prædæ assuetus.

Assuetus succedere testō.

Non assuetæ ad sceptra manus.

In omnia familiaria iura assuetus.

Paruo assueta iuuentus, accustomed to be content with a little.

In arte assueta tempus ponere, in a science that he hath bene accustomed in.

De more assueto belli, after the oldefacion of warre, or as it is wonte to be in warre.

Longius assueto, further then we were wont.

Assuetus cum genitio: Gallici tumultus assuetis.

Assula, assulæ, f. g. a chyppe, or lath.

Assula is vled of Plinie and Vitruuius, for the thin and flat peeces of marble, whiche they that wozke in it doe cutte forth as it were chippes, and lerned physicions bydde that somme rootes shuld be cut Assulâtim. wherfore I thynke that assula, may be vled for a loppe of breadde, or other lyke thynges.

Assulâtim, & assulose, in facion of thyngle or slates. Also peete meale in chippes.

Assulto, aui, âre, to renne or leape vpon one with great force or violence, to assaile one fierly.

Mox ingruit assultans velocissimos peditum tergis insultare pugnantium iubet. Portarūq; moras frænis insultat & hastis.

Assultim, leappngly, iumppngly.

Assultus, us, leappnge on a thyng, assaplynge or settynge on with hasty violence.

Assum, looke adsum.

Assumo, psi, ère, to take, to receiue to, properly it signifieth to take to muche on one, sometyme to cate.

Assumere aliquem in consiliū, to consulte or take counsaile with one, or to take a man to bee his counsaylour.

Assumo te in consilium rei familiaris.

Assumere in societatem, to take one to hym

as a companion, to associate an other with hym, to make a paunce.

Hernicos in societatem armorum assumpserunt, they tooke the Hernicians to be partakers of the warre with them.

In exemplum operis aliquem sibi assumere, to choose or take one whom he wyll imitate in his woork.

Eum in exemplum operis assumpsit.

Assumere, amonge orators, is when they bryng any thyng to declare the first proposition: wherby the minor in a syllogisme, is called assumptio.

Assumere sibi, to take to muche vpon hym, to attribute to mynselfe to ones selfe.

Idonus inuirus assumpsit, I tooke that charge
vpon me agaynst my wyll.

Non potuisset ei arti satisfacere, nisi dicendi copiam assumpsisset, onles he had taken to hym more ouer the copie of eloquence.

Vxorem, generum, assumere, to take to hym.

Hoc genus dicendi assumendum non est ad causas forenses.

Extrinssecus assumuntur argumenta, argu-mentes be taken of thynges that be in the nature of that cause we speake of.

Foris assumere: idem.

Aliquantum iam etiam noctis assumo, I take some parte of the night to.

Sacra de Græcis assumpta, taken of the Græcians.

In nomen assumere, i. in familiam & ius no-minis capere. Domitius qui illum in nomen assumpsit, whiche chose him to beare his name and be as one of his stocke.

Quod alteri detraxit sibi assumit, he taketh to hym selfe that he pulled from an other.

Iuuenum minus interest quæ assumant, id
est, esitent.

Assumere semel die epulas, to make but one meale in a daie.

Assumere cibum & potionem, to receiue
meate and drynke.

Assumptio, onis, a takinge. Also the seronde pres-position in a syllogisme.

Est in ijs aliquid dignum assumptione, there is in theim some thyng woorthye the takinge.

Assumptiuus, a, um, that taketh any thyng to it.

Assumptus, a, um, taken.

Assuo, assuis, assui, ere, to sow to, or pierce.

Assur, a citee in Judea, buylded by kynge Salomon.

Assurgo, réxi, surgere, to rylse vp, to rylse to an other better than ones selfe, to geue place, to grow bpwarde.

Assurgere ex morbo, to waxe whole, to rescouer health, to sette vp or walke whan one bes gynneth to amende.

Nunq̃ assurrexit ex morbo.

Assurgeri alicui.

An quisquam in curiam venienti assurrexit

Dyd any man asyle. by oꝝ make reuerence to you, whan you came into the senate oꝝ counsaile house?

Assurgere in arborem, to growe to the height and greatnesse of a tree.

Assurgit vertex montis quinquaginta millibus passuum, The mountayne is from the foote to the toppes ffty myles. oꝝ the mountayne ryseth in heygth.

Assurgit in septem vlnas, it is rylen in heygth vii. aynes, oꝝ it is. vii. aynes hygh.

Turres assurgunt: id est, extruuntur.

Tumor assurgit, the swelling aryseth.

Assurgit animus, the mynde oꝝ courage increaseth.

Gaudet in aduersis animos assurgit Adrastus.

Assurgunt Iræ, anger increaseth.

Assurgere dicitur orator, qui sublimiter loquitur, to ryle vp in amplification and highnes of stile.

Assurgi, the passiue, oꝝ the impersonall.

Assurgit clementer & molliter collis, The hill is not very stepe, but easy to get vpon.

Assurrectum est, and assurgitur, the impersonall.

Vt maioribus natu assurgatur, that men shuld ryle vp and dooe reuerence to theyr elders.

Assus, a, um, tosted oꝝ roasted. Sometyme for Solus, as Assa vox, looke there, in Assa.

Assus sol, the burnyng and hottesonne.

Assyria, a regyon in Asia, called nowe Syria, in englishe Surry, whiche marcheth on the east vpon Indus, on the west vpon the noble ryuer of Tigris, on the South it hath the countreys Medea, on the north the hill Caucasus.

Assyrius, a, um, of Assyria.

Ast, but. Sometyme than oꝝ truely.

Ast ego quæ diuum incedo regina. i. Ar.

Bellona si hodie mihi victoriam duis, Ast hic ego templum tibi voueo. i. tum, vel certe.

Asta, a towne in Spayne. also an olde towne in Agyuria.

Astabites, idem quod stellio.

Astaboras, a ryuer in Egypte.

Astaces, a ryuer rennyng into Ponte.

Astaceni, people of India.

Astacus, a citee of Asia so named of Astacus, the sonne of Neptuneus and Olbia. Also a towne of Megaris, and a citee in Bearnania.

Astacus, ci, a lopstar of the sea, whiche in some thinges dooeth vary from the crauaile Locusta, for his eight hinder legges be greater & broder: he hath two teethe as a crauaile, but the hoznes aboute theim be shorter and smaller. he hath also iiii. other hoznes, lyke the other two, but they be shorter and lesse, ouer theim be his eien, whiche are very lyttell. The forehead ouer the eies, sharp and rough, the breste broder than of the crauaile: All the body within hauynge moze substance, and shorter. fower of his feete be fowred, and fower be close.

Astapas, a ryuer of Asia, by whiche the people Rhizophagi dwellen.

Astaphis, phudis, for. ge. a raison.

Astaphis agria, an herbe called also of the Latins Herba pedicularis, and Picuitaria, of the apothecaries Staphis agria.

Astapus, water that renneth out of a darke place.

Astaroth, a name of hebeue, whiche significeth rycheesse oꝝ flockes. Also mahynge serche, oꝝ the mouth of the lawe. It was the name of an ydole, whiche the Jewes honoured. Also the name of a citee in Syria, whiche was geuen to the children of Gerlon, of the kyned of Massalles. Also of a countrey, whereof mention is made Genesios. 14.

Astarte, a goddess of the Assyrians, whiche after Cicero, was the fourth Venus, that was maryed to Adonis, to whom Salomon, to please his concubine, raised an altar.

Astassent, an olde woode for Statuerunt.

Asteismos, steismi, ma. g. significeth vberante, ciuillitee, it is a trope amonge grammarians of the kynde of Ironia.

Aster, astri, m. g. a starre. also Platos seruant.

Asteraticus, an herbe called also Bubonium, of Plinie Inguinalis, hath a stiche stalke, on the toppes a flower purple oꝝ yelowe diuided lyke to the floures of wyld camomyl, in facion lyke a sterre. The leaues be longe and rough.

Asterchillos, the herbe Achillea.

Astéria, a, f. g. the name of the yles of Delos and Rhodes. also a precious stone, whiche hath in it a byghnesse lyke the ball of the eye.

Asteriace, cès, for. ge. a certayne medicine.

Astérias, a kynde of hearons, I suppose it is an Egret. also a byrde in Egypte, whiche is taught to imitate a mans voyce.

Astéricos, idem quod aster atticus.

Astéricum, an herbe called also Helxine Perdicium, Vrciolaris, Muralium, oꝝ Muralis, of the Apothecaries Parietaria, oꝝ Parataria, in englishe Bellitozie.

Asterie, was daughter to Larus, and syster to Latona, on whom Jupiter in likenesse of an Eagle, begat Hercules: he was tourned into a quayle, and after into an stone.

Asterion, i. sativa cannabis. Diosc. li. 3. ca. 167. also a kynde of spyders.

Asterion, a citee of Thessalie, an other of Surry. also a ryuer of Beacia rennyng into the wood Nemara. It was also the sonne of Cometa, that folowed Jason into Colchos.

Asteris, oꝝ Asteria, an ple betwene Samus and Ithaca. It is also a citee in Spayne, & the name of Citans daughter, the syster of Latona.

Asteriscus, a lytle marke in wyptynge lyke a sterre.

Asterno, aui, âre, to spreade, throwe downe, oꝝ prostrate by any thyng.

Asternor, eris, to be laide a longe aboute a place.

Asterusia, an hill in the southe parte of Crete.

Asthma, asthmatis, ne. ge. a syckenes, whan one

- can not fetch his wynde, but with muche difficultes, with wepyng of the breste, whiche hap-neth by straitnesse of the pypes stopped with tough fleume, or of some impostume growen in the pypes.
- Asthmaticus, he that draweth his wynde thowte.
- Astice, a countrey of Thace.
- Asticla, idem quod Astypalaea.
- Astigi, a citee of Spayne.
- Astinome, the daughter of Chyia, whiche Homer callethe Chryseida.
- Astiochia, the mother of Clepolemus.
- Astipulatio, ónis, fca. g. assent. sometyme affir-mance or auouchyng of any thyng.
- Astipulator, óris, he that is of one accorde or consent with an other.
- Astipulatus, us, idem quod astipulatio.
- Astipulor, áris, ari, to leane to, to fauoure, to assente or agree to.
- Astiuo, stitui, tuere, to place any thyng.
- Asto, astiri, are, to stande by, to bee present.
- Mors ad caput astitit, stode at his heade.
- Ante oculos astitit: Astat in conspectu meo.
- Astitit in ripa, he stode on a banke.
- Iuxta praefides astat deos, he standeth by.
- Supra caput astitit.
- Asto cum accusatiuo: Asta te amabo, Reste
you, or stande styll I praye you, of good felowshyppe.
- Asto aduocatus cuidam amico, I am assent in a matter to a certayne friend of myne.
- Astare mensi domini, to wayte or geue attens-dante on his maisters table.
- Astare contra alicui, to resiste or withstande a man. Vt confidentur mihi contra astitit.
- Astare in genua, to kneele.
- Astomi, people of Indie, hauynge no mowthes, whiche lyue by the apper and the smell of sweete
thynges.
- Astorgion, a certayne kind of spyders, called also Asterion.
- Astrea, the daughter of Astreu and Auroa, or after some, of Jupiter and Themis, it is taken for iustice, as the worde dooth signifie. She des-testyng the naughty and vniust liuynge of men, flew to heauen, and was touned into the signe called Libra.
- Astraus, one of the gygantes that rebelled asgaynst the goddes.
- Astragali, partes of the bones of pylers.
- Astragalizo, áui, áre, to plaie at dyce or tables, hockle bone, chesse, or suche lyke game.
- Astragalizontes, open dyers, or plaiers at such games.
- Astragalus li, mas. gen. the plaie at dyce, tables, hockle bone, chesse, or suche lyke games. also the pastie bone in a beast, in Homere it is taken for the necke ioynt or bone, where it is ioynted to the backebone.
- Astragalus, called of common apothecaries Cicer montanum, an herbe with an harde stalke beyng in the leafe and branche like vnto Cicer, and hath a little purple flower, a roote lyke to radyshe, and certayne thynges growynge to it, hard lyke to hoines wounde together, it is commonly founde in stony groundes, where cometh abundance of wyndes. in English it may (of the forme) be called peasethnut.
- Astrepo, ástrepis, strepui, ere, to make dynne or noyse.
- Cum accusatiuo: Surdas principis aures astrepebant.
- Vt eadem astreperent hortabatur: he exhorted them that they shoulde with noyse repte the same.
- Cum datiuo: Astrepebat huic alacre vulgus.
.i. applaudebar, vel strepitum assentiebar.
- Astricté, close, straightly.
- Astrictio, ónis, the noun verball, a sharpe bytternes of tast, also byndynge, streynynge.
- Astrictorius, a, um, that is apte to streyne or bynde, or make stryptyke.
- Astrictus, a, um, bounde, or fastned to.
- Non sunt tam arcta & astricta vt ea laxare nequeamus.
- Astricti voluptatibus, bent or wholly geuen to the maintenaunce of pleasure.
- Astricta frons, a frowning countenance.
- Astrictus gustus, a rough or sharpe tast, that streyneth the tongue.
- Astricta & contracta eloquentia.
- Astrictus & deuinctus, bounden and obliged.
- Astrifer, trisera, rum, that beareth a sterre.
- Astringo, xi, ére, to ioygne or bynde together, to bynde or oblyge by conuenaunt or promysse.
- Astringere & relaxare, contraria.
- Astringere fidem, to promysse faithfully.
- Hac lege tibi meam astringo fidem.
- Astringere se furti, to confesse that he hath done felony.
- Frondem vel ferro amputare vel astringere, or to bynde it to an other thyng.
- Astringite hunc ad columnam fortiter, bynd this felowe fast to the pyler or poste.
- Aluum or ventrem astringere, to bynde the bealy or make collype.
- Astringi necessitate, id est, cogi, to bee con-streynged of necessitye.
- Astringi legi, to be bound or constrained by law.
- Astringere homines beneficijs, to bynde men to vs with frendely pleasures.
- Astringere orationem numeris, to knytte or proportionate a mans style in speakynge and wrytyng, and reduce it to certayne measures.
- Astringi ad temperantiam, to be bounde to a certayne temperance and moderation of liuynge.
- Vt ipse ad eandem temperantiam astringeret.
- Astringere frontem, to bende the browes, to frowne.
- Astringere linguam mercede, to corrupt one with bribes, to stoppe ones mouth with money.
- Astringere aliquem condicionem, to bynde one
vpon

Apon a cassyne penaltie of forfayture.
Astringi frigore, to bee chylled of styte for cold.
Arctius astringi non potest, It can not bee stricter bounde.
Huius officij seruitutem astringi testimonio sempiterno, i. confirmabo.
Breuiterastringam argumenta, I will knyt vpon argumentes in fewe wordes. I will be shorte argumentes.
Qui astringuntur facis, they that be in orders.
Ad certa verba se astringere, to bynde him
 selfe to certayne wordes.
Ad seruitutem alicuius se astringere,
 Me astringam in iurafacta tibi, I will sweare vnto you.
Id si faceret, magno scelere se astringeret,
Astrios, ois, for. ge. a pectious stone that groweth with in India.
Astroites, re, for. ge. a stone lyke to a spheer eye.
Astrolabium, bij, n. g. an astrolabe, op instrument
 ment of astronomie.
Astrológia, e, f. g. the speculation of reasoning as concerninge the celestial or heauenty motions.
Astrológus, gr, m. g. an astrológien, he that studieth
 the speculation of astronomie.
Astronómia, the part of astronomie that concerneth iudicialles and practise.
Astrónomus, mi, an astronomer.
Astrophe, one of the steres called Pleiades.
Astrum, astri, n. g. a celestiall body, compacts of many steres, as a signe.
Astrum dominus, the sunne.
Astra Lycaonia, the steres of signe called Vrsi maior, and Arctophylax.
Astruam, struxi, ere, to builde, to loggne one house to an other, to fortify, to aspyre, to adde more to a thyng.
Nouum ædificium veteri astruitur.
Astruere dignitati alterius, to augment an other mans dignitee of honour.
Astruitur ijs, i. preterea, moreouer, of further more.
Omnibus quos bonos facis hanc astruis laudem, ne coegisse videaris, thou addest this prayse vnto them.
Quærenti quid astrui magnificentie posset,
 respondit &c. i. quid superaddi.
Magni æstimo dignitati eius aliquid astruere.
Quantum ille famæ meæ apud principem astruxit,
 i. auxit famam.
Quædam ex ijs, quæ dicta non sunt, sibi ipse astruit, he addeth to somewhat of his owne in-uention, that was not spoken.
Astruere auditis, to increase that one hath herde, to adde more to it.
Astu, vndeclined, craftly, subtylly, with decepte, wilyly.
Astupeo, w, ere, to be astonied or amazed at a
 thyng.

Astur, uris, a noune possessiue, and signifieth of Asturia: as Astur homo, a man of Asturia.
Astur equus, a Spanysh horse, called a genet.
Astura, a towne and cyuet in Italy.
Asturco, cónis, masc. ge. a geldyng of genet of Spayne, that ambleth.
Astures, idem quod Asturcones.
Asturia, a countrey in Spayne betwene Galicia and Portugall, whiche sometyme was famous for mynes of golde, and amblyng hachens called Asturcones.
Asturia Augusta, a citee in Spayne called Astorga.
Asturicus, a, um, of Asturia.
Astus, us, masc. gen. crasse of subtilties.
Astus belli, pollicie of warre.
Astute, crastily, subtilly, wilyly.
Astutia, e, f. g. craste.
Astutus, subtiliter.
Astutus, a, um, subtil or craste.
Astyages, the laste kynge of Medes, father to Mandana, the mother of noble kynge Cyrus, who was .597. yeres before the incarnation, reigned .38. yeres, and at laste was depose by Cyrus. In other Astyages was by the Gorgons head of Perseus touned into a marble stone.
Astyalus, a Troian slayne by Proctolomus.
Astyanax, actis, was sonne of Hector, by Andromache, whom after the wynging of Troie, the Grekes cruelly threwe downe from a toure, so that his braynes cleaued to the walles.
Astycratia, the daughter of Colus.
Astydamas, the name of two tragicall poetes of Athenes, the father and sonne.
Astynous, a Troian slayne by Diomedes.
Astyochia, the daughter of Hector, whiche was taken by Mars.
Astypalea, an yle in the sea Begeum. It is also a mountayne in Creta, an other by Athenes.
Astypaleus, a, um, of that yle.
Astustinum, hyphen threbe whiche maye not be burned, like Abbestinum.
Asychis, a kynge of Egypte.
Asyla, an herbe called also of the Latines, Ferus Oculus.
Asylas, the name of a soothsayer.
Asyli, sanctuarie men, they bee also those sacred persones, on whom to laie violent handes, was accounted a great offence.
Asylica, the ppyllege of sanctuarie.
Asylum, li, a sanctuarie.
Asylus, an ymage, wherevnto men were wonte to runne for succour, as to a sanctuarie.
Asymbolus, symboli, m. g. he that cometh to a bankette without appoyntement, an vnboden gyste. also he that goeth stot free, and payeth
 nothyng.
Asynderon, or Asyntheton, a figure in speakyng of wrytyng, when wordes bee not knytte and coupled together with coniunctiōns.
Asymphonia, discorde in delectante and songyng.

Asyntheta, pure Chyftall.
Alyftaton, a kynde of Philosophy contrary to it felfe.

A ANTE T.

AT, a voyce, whiche fignifieth in the wor-des that folowe, wraeth or indignacion.

At etiam rogas? why doeſt thou aſke?
 ſometyme it ſignifieth, yet. Si non propinqui-tatis, at etatis ſux, ſi non hominis, at huma-nitatis rationem haberet. Althoughe he had no conſideration of kyndred, yet ſhould he have had regarde to his age. And though he cared not for the perſone, yet ſhould he have had reſpecte to good humanitee. Sometime it ſignifieth Sed.

Alſo At ſometyme is put for Saltem, at the leaſt waite. Si non eodem die, at poſtridie, If not the ſame daie, at the leaſt waite the nexte folow-wyng.

At differentiam rerum ſignificat. Scipio eſt bellator, at Mar. Caro orator.

At, pro, tamen, Paru ſuccellit, at facio ſedulo.

At, when with interrogation wee wonder at, in prayſyng or diſprayſyng. At quē deum? &c.

At quē mater? quā crudelitate ferri videtis.

At, cum quid oramus: At videte hominis impudentiam: but I pray you ſee, &c.

At, Quū quid obicimus, ſtatim reſpōdemus.

At mores commodi: quis contumaciō?

At certe, interpoſitis, aliquot verbis: At quod maximum eſt, parum certe parum.

At enim: but. Atenim, ſcin quid in mentem
 venit?

At iam, At iam poſthac temperabo.

At ita: At ita vt quiſq; ſide optima.

At Hercule, but in fayth. At nunc, but now.

At poſtquam id euenit.

At nos quem admodum eſt cōplexus, but how.

At vt, At vt omne reddat.

Ata, tr, or Ate, tes, in latine Noxa, detrimen-tum, the name of a hurtfull ſpyyte, alwaie woozkyng yll to men.

At at, an interiection of ſodayne dreade, feare, or admiration.

At at, noui iam ludum. Ah ha, I perceiue now the game.

At at, eccam adest propinquē, Oh, lo, he is here at hande.

Atabulus, a feruente wynde, which whan it blow-weth in the roialme of Naples, peſtilence inſueeth immediatly.

Atabyria, the auncient name of the Rhodes.

Atabyris, a veray high mountayne in Rhodes.

Ataceni, people of Arabia.

Atacini, people of Narbone in France.

Atagen, or Atagéna, nā, idem quod attagen.

Atalanta, a mayden (daughter to Iafus a prynce of Arcadia) came with dyuers noble menne of Grece into Etolia. to ſlea the great boze, whiche deſtroied that countrey, the ſame boze dyd ſhe kill ſhe and wounde. But aftermoſt he was ſlayne by Meleagre, ſon of the kyng of Beotia, who loued Atalanta, and tooke hir to his wife,

 and had by hir a ſonne called Parthonopaeus,
 whiche was ſlayne at the battaile of Thebes.

In other Atalanta, daughter of Laoneus, kyng of the ple Scyus, contended in cennynge with them that came to wooe hir. Whan ſhe hadde banquiſhed & put many to death (for that was the wager, or els to haue hir) at laſte a noble yonge man Hippomenes (whyles they were cennynge) threw at ſundry tymes thre apples of golde from hym, in takynge vp wherof, ſhe was tarred, and ſo ouer romne. Ouidius wytteth, that as they two medled together in the temple of Cybeles, the goddeſſe hauynge theret indignacion, tranſformed them bothe into ſtone.

Atalantus, a, um, of Atalanta.

Atargata, called alſo Atergatis, a goddeſſe of the Syrians.

Atarna, a citee of Myſia in Asia.

Atarnes, the brother of kyng Darius.

Atar, looke at.

Ataus, atqui, maſ. gen. my great grandfather grandfather.

Atax, a famous riuer in Parbone. alſo one that inhabiteth about that riuer.

Atechna, thynges vncunningly handled.

Atechnia, ignoraunce, vniſkilfulneſſe, lacke of cōnyng.

Ategia, a boothe or place made by wyth trees, or boughes.

Atella, looke Atella.

Ater, a, um, blacke or darke, and by a metaphore dyedfull, horryble, alſo deadly, ſorrowfull, heuy.

Ater panis, browne breade.

Atra bilis, melancoly.

Atra dies, a diſmall day, a ſorrowfull or heauy day.

Albus at ater ſis, nescio, I can not tell whether thou be blacke or white, prouerbiaily.

Cruor ater, blacke blood.

Ingluuias atra: id eſt, ſad.

Atrum nemus, a darke wodde.

Nox atra, a darke night.

Atra ſpelunca, deepe darke denne.

Tempeſtas atra, a foule blacke ſtoyme.

Atra nubes, darke cloudes.

Ater odor, a veray yll and naughty ſauour.

Atra Tigris, a cruell tygre.

Atergatis, a goddeſſe of the Sidoniens, called alſo ſo Athara, Derceto, and Dagon.

Aternus, a riuer in Italy.

Ateſis, idem quod Atheſis.

Ateſte, a citee in the countrey of Venere.

Athacus, athaci, m. g. a byrde with foure legges, hauynge the longeſt bechynde.

Athalia, daughter of curſed quene Jeſabell, and mother to kynge Ahab, beynge alſo miſcheuous, hearyng that hir ſonne Ochozias was ſlayne,
 and

and Joiam (with all his household) destroyed: he being inflamed with desire to regne, laisynge aparte all womanly ppytes, determined to destroy utterly, all the posteritee of David, but thought the goodnesse of god, Joas, the sonne of Ochozias, an infant, was entrusted to his consyngher auncle by Josabeth, his aunt, and hid in the house of Jaiades the byshop, and there kepte. vii. yerres. After this cursed woman Athalia had reigned ouer Hierusalem. vii. yerres, Joas, whiche was supposed to be slayne, was by Jaiades made kynge, whereof the beyng aduertysed, and crying to the people to slea Joas, was taken of the men of warre, and shamefully drawen vnto the gate of the citee, called Mularin, and there slayne. She was before the incarnation. 900 yerres.

Athamantes, people of Artholia.

Athamas, antis, the sonne of Aeolus, father of Hyrcan, and Melles. Also a mountayne in Whichiotia.

Athamanteus, a, um, of Athamas.

Athamantius, a, um, of Athamas.

Athamantis, idos, f. g. Ino, or Leucothea.

Athanasius, the byshop of Alexandria, the yere of our lord. 348. a man of holy lyfe and great leuynge, susteyned many and great persecucions of the Ierrians. For whan in the counsaile (holde[n] at Laodicea) he had confounded them with moste puissant argumentes, he stired almost all the worlde against hym. wherefore he fled. And vi. yerres continually he abode hyd in a dyoces borne, where he neuer sawe the sonne. Whan he was he discouered by a mayden, and fled alyones by the helpe of god, and wandring about the world, not withstanding pynnis, the people and hostes dyd continually persecute him so that he myght scape synde any place to abyde in. Also a common harlot was brought againste him, whiche affirmed, that he had accompanied with hir. But he alway susteyning all thynges with a wonderfull patience, at last died, the yere of our lord. 379.

Athanasia, a certayne medicine, whiche restoreth a sicke man to perpetuall health of body.

Athanasos, i, com. ge. immortall.

Athanasus, a man of meruaylous strength and greatnesse of body.

Athara, looke Atergatis.

Athara, athara, f. g. a certayne medicine, verye holisome for children.

Atharatrion a certayne kynde of cakes.

Athens, arum, the citee, of Athens.

Athenaxon, a famous peynter that learned of Glaucion of Corinth.

Athenaxum, a place at Rome, where all sciences were redde.

Athenaxus, a learned philosopher in the tyme of Augustus, borne at Seleucia in Cilicia. In other ther was a grammarian under M. Antiochus, whiche wrote a booke de Dipnosophistis.

Athene, nes, the name of Minerva.

Athenodorus, a philosopher, whiche wrote with Octavian the Emperour this lesson, whan he toke his leaue of him. Noble pynce, whan you be wroth neyther say nor doe any thyng, vntill you haue perused the. xiiii. greke letters, and remembred the order of theyr places, where they stande, that the passion of yre, by withdrawinge your mynde to an other thyng, may languishe and banishe away.

Athenopolis, a towne of the Massilians.

Atheos, athei, m. g. he that beleueth there is no god, a miscreant, an infidell.

Ather, in barley is the very sharpe poynt of the grayne.

Athera, as Diosc. saith, is a certayne suppyng made of the wheat Zea, beinge byrled very smal, and is profitable for children, and to make certayne salues. Plinie saith it is made of Olyra: Etius affirmeth it to be made of Amylum.

Atheroma, romans, n. g. a little poultice in the necke, or vnder the armes.

Athesinus, a ryuer rennyng out of the lake Bapennium, and falling into Jler.

Athesis, a ryuer in the countrey of Venetia, rennyng by the citee of Trent, and thorough Verosna, and so passeth into the sea Adriaticum.

Athlia, x, mal. ge. a great wrestler, or a great renner at common games.

Athletica, x, for, ge. the craft of wrestlyng or rennyng.

Athletice, strongly, lustily, in good plyte.

Athleticus, a, um, pertainyng to a wrestler.

Athleticus victus, stronge feedynge.

Athlochari, people of Scitia in Asia.

Athlohera, x, m. g. the iudge in games of wrestlyng or rennyng, the maister of the game that giveth the rewardes to the wyppers.

Athopia, smalnesse of the eye, and debilitie of sight.

Athos, or Athon, an hyll in Thracie, of a wonderfull height.

Athraci ars, the arte of magyke.

Atilius, or atilius, a great fyre in the ryuer Po in Italy, which with lynge styl waxeth so fatte, that being taken, he is often a thousand pounds weyght.

Aumus, atima, mum, without honour.

Athra, the father of Hippodamia, also a ryuer of Etolia, and a citee in Thessalia.

Atina, a towne of the Lucans in Italy, the people whereof be called Atinates.

Atinia, x, a kynde of elme tree.

Atizdes, a pretious stone synnyng lyke siluer. iii. synngers bygge, in forme lyke a chytte, and hath a pleasant sauour.

Atlantes, Moores dwelling about the hyll Atlas.

Atlanteus, and Atlanticus, a, um, of Atlas.

Atlantides, the. vii. daughters of Atlas. Also certayne cerres.

Atlantis, an plande, y. dayes saylyng from the hill Atlas,

Atlas, after which it is named.

Atlas, antis, of this name were thre. One kynge of Italy, and father of Electra. An other of Beradia, father of Maia. The thirde of Phaulxania, called the greatest, the brother of Prometheus, who as the Grekes suppose, byd hytse synde out the course of the steres, by an exte- lent imagination. wherfore the poetes feigned, that he susteyned the firmament with his shoul- ders. It is supposed he was aboute. 1599. yeres afore the incarnation. It is also the name of an hill in Barbaria, high and small, whiche pierceth the cloudes. Atlas is also a greater quere in the northe parte of the worlde, running into Afric. Atlantis nepos, Mercurie.

Atlantiades, idem.

Atlius nodus, a knote of a soyne of the backe bone.

Atnepos, potis, maf. gen. the fifth of lyneall des- cent from me, of my newewes newew.

Atneptis, tis, f. g. my netes nete.

Atocion, vel atocium, n. ge. a medicine, wheres by the conception and birthe of chyldren is pre- uented and letted.

Atocius, of atocion, a certayne spyder, whiche is heary, and hath a great head, and he bee cutte in peeces, there is founde in him. ii. wormes, which beyng hanged in a peece of a hattes shinne bes- soye the sunne rising, shall make that a woman shall not conceiue with childe.

Atomus, atomi, form. gene. a thynge so smalle, that it can not be deuided or made smaller. Also Atomus, be moles in the sonne.

Atossa, the daughter of kynge Cyrus.

Atque, and, and also, and yet, and that, but, as, such as, as it were, as though, than, some tyme for Statim.

Illi sunt alio ingenio atque tu, They be of an other maner of witte than thou arte.

Non Apollinis magis verum atque hoc res- ponsum est, Apollos answer was neuer truer than this is.

Atque eccum, but lo where he is.

Atque audin? but herest thou?

Atque vides? doest thou not see?

Aliter atque, Secus atque, otherwys than.

Atque pro tamen. Mihi quidem hercle non fit verisimile, atque ipsis commentum placeat.

In good sooth it seemeth not to me to bee true, and yet the diuise of feigned tale pleaseth theym well.

Atq, is vsed in the beginnyng of sentences, as Atque vt omittam Græciam.

Atque, pro, fed. Atque ego qui te confirmo, ipse me non possum, But I which do comfort and strengthen you. &c.

Atq, for Quam. Qui peccas minus atq, ego, whiche doest offende lesse than I.

Atque, for isque, idemq.

In vnum atque angustum locum, into one place, and that same beyng stryct and narrow.

Atque.

Atque hoc confiteor iure mihi obligasse, And certes I graunte, it hath woorthily chaunted vnto me.

Negotium magnum est nauigare, atque id mense Quintili. It is a great busynes to take the sea, and especially in the moneth of July.

Atque aliquis dicat, but some man wyll saye to me.

Atque equidem orante Thaide.

Atque edepol, and in very dede.

Atque vero, but. Atque etiam, yea and also.

Pro eo atque si nullo iure factum esset, So though, or euen as though it had ben doon by no ryght of law.

Atque id: Negotium magnum est nauigare, atque id mense Quintili, and that. &c.

Atque aliquis dicat, but a man wyll saye vnto me.

Bellus est atque optabam locus, the place is handsome, euen as I wyshed to bee.

Atque adeo, vnto byrds waies, and that, and also, and furthermore, and moze ouer, and that moze is.

Præter me nemo, atque adeo tu iudex esto, and that be thou iudge.

Respondit mihi paucis, atque adeo fideliter, yea and that. &c.

Esurio hercle, atque adeo nunchaud parum sitio, yea and that moze is, I am now. &c.

Atque adeo potius: Quo id iure, atque adeo quo id potius ore fecisti, by what ryght, or rather with what face durdest thou be so bolde to do it.

Atque adeo autem: Atque adeo autem eur egomet non introeo, and in dede why dost I not. &c.

Atque adeo, ornatus causa postum: Atque adeo antequam de in comodis Sicilia dico.

Atq, ita, and so: Some tyme and on that condit- ion. Atque ita, opus est, and so it is neede.

Atque ita profecto, vt eum ex hoc exhone- res agro, but on thys condicion truely. &c.

Ex eisdem locis atque in causa iudiciali, out of the same places as.

Alius atque. Alius nunc sum atque olim fui, I am an other maner of man then I was in tyme past.

Secus atque, ex pit secus agere atque initio dixerat, otherwys then. Aliter atque, idem.

Atque vt. Iste aliter atq, vt dixerat decreuit, Item atque, after the same sorte as, Non item ea definienda atque illa quæ. &c.

Pariter atque, lyke as, Pariter hoc atque a- lias res soles.

Potius atque, rather then, vt tu potius sis, atque ego.

Atque id quoque. &c. and also.

Non magis verum atque, no moze true then.

Quod est non dissimile atque ire in Solos- nium.

Ad eundem modum atque, even as, or after the same fashion as.

Vnum atque idem videtur atque id quod. &c.
Contra atque ante, contrary wise to that it was before.

Similiter atque, lyke as, Non illum similiter atque ipse eram comorum vidi: id est, yet vel sicut.

Aequè atque, even as lyke, even as muche as.

Miser atque atque ego.

Item atque, Pariter atque, Iuxta atque, lyke as, as well as.

Talis atque, suche as.

Atque atque, doubled, addeth a vehemency.

Atqui, a conjunction discretive; but, but yet, yea but, certes, all be it, surely.

Atqui si illam tetigerit digito vno, oculi illi eo effodiuntur, Surely if he touche his with one fynger, hys eyes shalbe by and by pulched out of hys head. Sometyme for lmo.

Atqui ea res multo maxime disunxit illum ab illa, yea but that thynge moste of all plucked his minde from hir.

Atqui, sometyme aboundeth.

Araba, a measure of the Grekes, contynnyng
v. modios Romanos, of englyshe measure a bushell, a pottell, a pynte, and aiii. ounces.

Atrabaticæ, arum; blacke garments.

Atracius, a, um, the adiective of atrax.

Atracia ars, arte magyke.

Attractylis, tractylidis, for. g. an herbe called also Cnicus sylvestris. Of it be two kyndes: the one brye rougher and full of pyches, whiche the apothecaries calle Carduus benedictus. The other not so rougher nor pyched: and is named also Cartamus sylvestris, Fusus agrestis, and Colus rustica, because women used to make spyndels of the stemmes thereof: in englyshe (after some) wyld saffron, I would not so assume it, although the french men call it Saffron bastarde.

Atramentarium, an ynkehozne,

Atramentum, ti, neu. g. ynke, blacke that Woes makers doo occupy.

Atramentum scriptorium vel librarium, wrytynge ynke.

Atramentum sutorium, shoomakers blacke.

Atraciz, people of Arabia felix.

Atrani, people of Italy, mentioned of Plato.

Atratus, a, um, blacke or smudged, also a mourner that goeth in blacke.

Atrax, acis, a ryuer of Etolia, wherof a certayne people are called Atraces.

Atreplexum, idem quod atreplex.

Atrebares, a people of a countrey in Fraunce, called Artois.

Atreus, the sonne of Pelops and Hippodamia, kyng of Myrene, founde by the Eclips of the sunne: And because hys brother Chiestes had lpen with hys wyfe, he slew and rosted his saped brothers childzen, and made him to eat them. who knowynge it, and aspyng therfore vengeance, had answer made by the God Apollo, that if he dyd carnalige knowe hys owne daughter Pelopia, he should on hir get a sonne, whiche should reuenge him. So begat he Esgishus, who afterwarde slue his vncle Atreus, and in lphawys hys eldest sonne Agamemnon,

This was before the incarnation. 1258. yeres.

Atreus, a, um, the adiective of Atreus.

Atria, a towne in the countrey of Venere, wherof
the sea Adriaticum was named.

Atrarius, a, um, that belongeth to the porche or hall.

Atrocipilla, la, form. gen. a byrde wyth blacke fethers on the crowne of hys head, muche lyke oure lynes.

Attricus, atrici, masc. gen. a porter that keepeth a gate, or an vsher of the hall.

Acridæ, in the plurall numbze, Agamemnon and Menelaus.

Atrides, æ, patronymicum, of Atreus.

Atrienfis, is, m. g. a cheif seruante, as is the vsher of the hall, or the mayster porter.

Atrifer, triferi, m. g. a rushe that beareth a blacke seede.

Atrium, a diminutive of atrium.

Atriplex, triplicis, m. gen. an herbe called of the grekes Atraxaxis, and Chrisolacanon: Of the frenchmen Arrhoches: of the Germainys Molken, in englyshe Drache or Drage. Of it be two kyndes, one wyld called redde Drage, an other of the gardeyne called whyte Drage.

Atritas, âtis, f. g. blackenesse.

Atrium, atrij, n. g. an entrie, a porche or portall before a house, where in olde tyme men used to dync and suppe. And therefore it is sometyme taken for an hall. also the poozhe of a churche.
sometime for an inner courte, or the courte besfoze the house.

Atria auctionaria, courtes or places where open sale of thynges was made.

Atrôcitas, tatis, f. g. crueltie, fierinesse, outragis ousnesse.

Atrociter, cruelly, fiercely, outrageously.

Atropatus, a capitaine of the Medes, after whom a parte of the countrey was called Atropatia.

Atropha, thynges that are not nouerished wyth the foode that they take.

Atrophia, æ, an affecte or distracie, wherein the body can not be nouerished wyth any thyng that it receyueth, but consumeth with leanesse.

Atrophus, atrophi, masc. gen. he that hath that affecte.

Atropos, one of the fatall ladies, which is assigned to breake the threde of lyfe. it is sometime putte for necessitee of death.

Atror, ôris, ma. g. blackenesse.

Atrox, ôcis, com. gen. cruell, fierce, outrageous wythoute pytee, lower in countenance, ter-ryble.

Atror æstas, a burnynge hote summer.

Atrox

Atrox iniuria, a cruell or meruaylous spytful displeasure.
Facinus atrox, a cruell and horryble acte.
Atrox et vehemens orationis genus, Cui lene et mansuetum opponitur.
Atroces literæ, terribile or fierce letters.
Atrox tempus, a greuous and an euill season, whan much crueltee is practysed.
Atrocia extra, rawe bowelles, horryble to be holde.
Atrox suspitio, a very greuous suspicion.
Atrox animus, a stoute stomake, that feareth no peryll or daunger.
Atrox ingenium, a cruell nature.
Atrox tempestas, a meruaylous great storme.
Atrum holus, idem quod hypposelinum.
Atta, a poete. also a citee in Arabia felix.
Attaceo, ui, ere, to holde ones peace, or kepe silence with other.
Attactus, a, um, touched softly.
Attactus, us, an easy soft touchyng.
Attacum, a towne of Spayne.
Atta, be they, whiche throughe some defeaute in theyr legges or feete, seme rather to draw their feete softely touchyng the ground, than to walke.
Attagen, ênis, m, ge. and Attagêna, æ, f. gen. a byrde, whiche is founde in Fonia, and is very delicate, and hath fethers of sundry colours, and beyng at large, is alway syngyng and chat-terynge, but beyng ones taken, he maketh no noyse, nor seemeth to haue any voyce. They are deceyued that take him for a woodcocke, it is most lyke a byrde called a mouge vs a godwitte.
Attalia, a citee of Pamphilia.
Attalus, a king in the lesse Asia, meruaylous riche, of whome all magnifyke and statelly thynges are called Attalica.
Attalica vestis, a garment or hangyng of cloth of golde, so named of the ryche and sumptuous kyng Attalus.
Attalum emplastrum, a very holisome salve. Cel. li. 5. ca. 5. 19.
Attamen, or Attamen, but yet.
Attamino, aui, are, to foule or defyle.
Attégia, arum, shepherdes cotages.
Attegrare, vñed of olde wyters for Integrare, or augere.
Atteius philologus, a learned man, verie familiar fyrst with Salus, and after with Dollio.
Attelabus, bi, the smallest sorte of the flies, called Locustæ, and haue no wynges.
Attella, or Atela, a towne in Italye, where was a great and famous theatre.
Attellanus, a, um, and Attellanius, of Attella. sometyme mockyng and mery.
Attellana fabula, were comedies or enterludes, whiche were anely iestes, and mery scottes, and bourdynges.
Attemperate, in season, agreeably with the thing, temperately.

Attempero, aui, are, to make feete or agreeable.
Attendo, di, ere, to take heede, to consider, to intende, to be attentive, to giue good eare to a thyng.
Audi atque attende laterensis.
Si attenderis quid dicat, yf thou take good heede what he saith.
Bene, diligenter, admodum, magnopere, attendebat, he gaue very good eare vnto him.
Attendere & aucupari verba oportebit.
Non attendimus neque exaudimus nosmet ipsos.
Attendite atque intelligite.
Attendere ad, Non inutile, attendere signa adeos qui exciderunt sensus.
Attendere de, Animus sollicitus nihil potest de officijs legationis attendere, to make anye pretyning to the dutties. of it.
Me dicentem de inuidiosis rebus attendite, doo you marke me, or harken to me.
Attendere aliquem, or aliquid, to be attentive on a thyng or person.
Attendere cum dariuo, vel rei vel personæ.
Attendit iuri, he gaue his study, or applied him to the law.
Attendere rei alicui, to apply any thyng.
Cui magis quam Cæsari attendant, to whom should they harken more then to Cæsar.
Attendo cum accusariuo rei vel personæ.
Attendite exitum, marke ye well, or consider ye the ende.
Attendo te studiose, I harken to you diligently, or I take good heede what you say.
Attendere animum, to take heede, geus eare, to marke, to consider.
Attendite animos ad ea quæ sequuntur.
Attendere æquo animo, to harken patiently, and with an indifferent mynde.
Attente, intently, with a fixed mynde.
Attente legere, cogitare, audire, agere, &c.
Attentio, ônis, attentiuensse, or syngyng of the mynde.
Attento, aui, are, to assaye, to proue, to assayle, or sette vpon by discepte, or otherwys.
Nemo apud nos qui attentauerit, that wyll assay it.
Attentare classem, to giue the onfet, to assayle a nauy of shippes.
Attentari sententia dicitur, when it is discurs- sed or tried, whether it be true or no.
Attentare urbem, to assaye by policie or force how to winne a towne. Capua ab illis attentari putabatur.
Attentare pudicitiam puellæ, to endeuoure to seduce a mayden to naughtinesse, or to entice or prouoke a mayden to lewdnesse.
Attentare fidem alicuius, to goe about to corrupt a mans fidelitee, or to make a man doo vntruly.
Attentare aliquem bello, to make warre vpon one.

Precibus

Precibus attentare aliquem, to interate a man.
Attentus, a, um, attentive, diligente, he that is fixed on a thyng, diligente to hearken, earnestly be-bent to here, geuyng a good eare, earnestly bent to a thyng. Sometime a courteous person.
Attentus ad rem, carefull to get goodes.
Attentus in, Qui in ea re tam attentus fuit.
Attentus circa aliquid, Erit iudex circa ius nostrum attentior, more diligent of attentive.
Attentissimis, nimis audire.
Attenta vita, id est, curiosa, diligens, a cares full and diligent lyfe.
Attentus rerum paterfamilias, a good house-holde diligente aboute his affayres and busyn-nes.
Quintij frater sane ceterarum rerum paterfa-milias prudens & attentus.
Attenta vita, a diligent and scrupable lyfe.
Attenuare, slenderly, subtilly, finely.
Attenuatio, onis. f. g. a diminutyng.
Attenuatus, a, um, appayred, weakened, diminished. also slender, thynne.
Attenuatum dicendi genus, a slender, playn,
 or easy stile, that floweth not in eloquence.
Attenuo, aui, are, to diminishe or make lesse, slenderer or thynner, to appayre or make weaker.
Attenuare curas, to diminishe the care or pens-yuenesse.
Attenuare opes, to consume or waste treasure.
Cutem lambendo attenuare, to make thinner.
Bellum attenuatum & imminutum, diminished and made lesse.
Legiones prælijs attenuatae sunt, with often battayles, many of the souldiours were slayne, and the number of theyr legions diminshed.
Attenuant corpora noctes vigilatae, maketh mens bodies leaner.
Attenuans victus, a spare diet that maketh a man leaner and slenderer.
Attero, atteris, triui, ere, to rubbe agaynst a thyng, to weare, to wast or consume, to breake in pieces.
Atterere famam, Post ubi eorum fama atque pudorem attriuerat, maiora alia imperabat,
 After that he had made the consume their good name and honestee, he sette them in hande wpyth other greater attemptates.
Atterere gladiū cori, to make sharpe a swerde with a whetstone.
Atterere aures alicui, by a metaphoze, is to asnoy one with bablyng.
Atterunt se scopulis, they rubbe them selfe as gaynst the rockes.
Attrita inter se ligna, stiches rubbed one as gaynst an other.
Alueum atterere, id est, calcare, to weare the chanell of a riuer and make it deeper.
Attrita toga, an olde gounne threde bare.
Et surgentes atterat herbas, and doth breake or hurte the herbes as they grow.

Attestans, aui, one that witnesseth.
Attestans, a, um, witness, proued by witness.
Attestationes, testimonies.
Attestor, us sum, aui, to call to witnesse, cometyne for Testor, to witnesse.
Attexo, ui, ere, to adde to, to ioyne to, and as it weare to weare to a thyng.
Attexere personis orationes, to make oratioons, and name them on persons.
Atthis, was daughter of Leaneus, whome (some suppose) to geue the first name to the countrey called Attica.
Attica, a countrey in Grece, wherein stood the famous citie of Athens, the noyce of all sciences.
Attice, an aduerbe signyfing, in the eloquence of speche of Athens.
Atticinos, a peculiar phrase or elegance of the Athens tongue.
Atticisso, to speake in the Athens tongue.
Attilus, a tytle in the epyce Poet, whiche by hys strongnesse groweth so great, that he payseth 1000. pounce weight.
Atin, a worde spoken to auncient men for reuerence, as we say father.
Atticus, attica, um, of Athens.
Attigo, attingis, idem quod attingo.
Artigius, by or nigh ioyning to.
Attila, looke Attyla.
Attilius Regulus, a noble sonfull of Rome, ban-quished oftentimes the Carthaginenses, was at last taken by a sleight, and beyng bounden was sent to Rome, that for him they myght exchange a great number of pylsoners of their people.
 But at his comynge, he exhorted the Romaynes, not to make suche exchange, consideringe his age and debilitie. And so with a glad will he returned to his enemies, knowinge that he should be cruelly putte to death. So muche losued he his countrey. wherfore at his retourne, the Carthaginenses caused his eye liddes to bee cutte of, that he mought neuer slepe, and than to be put in an holow tree, beyng styched full of nyles, the pointes inward. where he continued till he died.
Attineo, attines, tinui, ere, sometime idem quod teneo, to holde, sometime for Retineo, to holde
 backe.
Ni proximi prehensam dextram attinuissent
 Had not they whiche were next hym taken and holden hys hande.
Ni Stertinius accurrens attinuisset, If Stertinus renning to him, had not holden backe or letted hym.
Attineri vinculo seruitutis, to be kept in bonddage.
Domi attineri studijs, to be kept at home with studie.
Attineri publica custodia, to bee kepte in the gaole or common prison.
Attinet, it belcometh, it is conuenient, it apperteyn-eth, it belongeth, it concerneth, it toucheth.

Quid

Quid attinet ad nos scire? what perteyneth it to vs to know it? or what haue we to doo to know it?

Attinet ad vitam colendam, it belongeth to the husbandyng of vyues.

Nihil ad me attinet, it perteyneth nothyng to me. or I passe not, I care not.

Iam ne vis me dicere quod ad te attinet? now wilt thou that I speake that whiche is for thy profit, or that concerneth or toucheth thee?

Comperiebam nihil ad Pamphilum quicquam attinere, I perceiued nothyng at all that Pamphilus had there to doo.

Attinet hoc ad me, this thyng toucheth me.

Quid istuc ad me attinet? what haue I to doo with that.

Quod ad me attinet, nec arguo, nec purgo, As for my part, or, as for me, I doo neyther accuse nor excuse them.

Quod ad argentum attinet, as concernyng the money.

Quid attinet? what anapleth it?

Attingo, attingi, ere, to touche almost, to touche softly, to mencion or handle a matter bryefly, to meddle a lyttel with a thyng.

Ne me attingas scelesti, touche me not.

Attingit me sanguine, he is of my blood.

Attingere senectam, to come to age.

Attingere partes naturæ, to come to the knowledge of naturall causes.

Priusquam remp. attingeret, before he came to the gouernaunce of the common weale.

Vt primum forū attingi, as soone as I beganne to pleade first in the common place.

Aliquam rem attingere, id est, tractare.

Eam rem ne attigerunt quidem, they neuer touched or spake worde of that matter.

Voce tantum attingi legis initium, I spake but euen a worde of the beginning of the law.

Perquam breuiter perstrinxi atque attingi, I touched and spake of the matter very shortly.

Attingere partem sceleris: Quicumque aliquam partem illius sceleris attingit, who so euer was in any parte partaker of that mischiefe.

Leuiter in transitu quippiam attingere, to touche a thyng bryefely by the way.

Singulatim vnamquamque rem attingere: to touche euery thyng particularly.

Attingere studia, to sauoure of letters.

Nihil ad rem attingit, it belongeth nothyng to the matter, or it maketh nothyng to the purpose.

Attingit te hæc res, this matter toucheth thee. Inquisitio veri maxime humanam naturam attingit, serchyng of the truth mooste of all perteyneth or belongeth to mans nature, or to meeth nerest to it.

Legis nomen nihil attingunt, they be nothing worthy the name of lawes: or nothyng mete to be called lawes.

Attingere sanguine, to be kinne vnto,

Non illi modo quos sanguine attingit.

Cognitione attingere, idem.

Attingere aliquem summa necessitudine, to be of great familiaritee with one.

Ne suspicione quidem attingere possum, I can not coniecture, dyuine, or suspecte what it should be.

Attingere aliquem suspicione, to make one suspected.

Attingere aliquem infamia, to defame a man.

Perpauci erant, quos ea infamia attingerat, There were verie few, whome that infamy touched, or that were so misreported of.

Non plus attingit doctrinæ quam quod. &c.

He had touched no more learnyng.

Strictum librum aliquem attingere, to haue redde a littel parte of a booke hastily.

In transitu attingere, to touche or mencion a thyng bryefely in other communication.

Attingere res gestas versibus, to begynne to write an history in verses.

Attingere oram aliquam, siue regionem, to border vpon or to ioyne nere to an other countrey.

Macedonia quæ tantis Barbarorum gentibus attingitur.

Eorum fines Nerui attingebant.

Ea pars quæ Siciliam proxime attingit, whiche is next to Sicilie.

Hora circiter diei quarta Britanniam attingit, He arrived in Englands aboute fower of the clocke.

Si qua de pompeio te attingit cura, if you be any thyng carefull.

Nostri principes digito se cælum putant attingere, Our princes thinke them selues to bee euen as it were goddis, prouerbially spoken.

Attingere aliquem, to name one, to make mencion of any person.

Quem simul atque attingi, whome so soone as I named or mencioned.

Attingere aliquod genus vitæ extremis digitis, to haue assayed or tasted a lyttell anye kinde of lyfe.

Primoribus labris aliquid attingere, to haue a smacke or litle vnderstandyng of any thyng.

Attingi dolore, to bee attached wth sorrowe or heuynesse.

Attingi inuidia, to be hated or envied.

Attis, looke Atthis, It is sometyme taken for a nightyngale.

Attollo, attuli, ere, to auance, to lyfte vp, to take away.

Aduersus Dictatoriam vim attollere oculos non audebant, they durste not ones looke agaynst the power of the Dictatour.

Illa se attollunt, those partes rise higher.

Custodire istum ne quis eum attollar neue quis attingat, id est auferat.

Attollere signa, to display ensignes, standerdes and banners in the fiede.

Quid si propius attollamus signa, eamisque obui-obuiam.

Attollere partum, to moue the or bynde by a

Femine mammas non habent nisi quæ par-

Attollere oculos, to looke vp, to caste by the Oculos ad cælum attollunt.

Attollere quempiam in cælum, or in sydera,

Attollere se a graui casu, to ryse by after a

Quem attollentem se a graui casu, whom et

Chamaeisson haderam appellat non attollentem se a terra: id est, humi repentem; for Attollunt se venæ, the veynes swell and waxe

Modo se venæ attollunt modo remittunt, the Attolluntur colles alti, the hilles be of a greate

Attollunt Arcadia in montes septuaginta

Arcem attollere rectus, a poeticali phrase, to Attollere humeris, to beare bypon ones shoul-

Sæpe attollunt humeris.

Attolle pallium, take by the mantell or clothe.

Attondeo, di, ere, to clippe or sheare a thing nigh

Attondere arbores, to shearde trees.

Dum tenera attendent virgula capellæ,

Attondere auro, to rydde one of his money, to Attónite, bathfully.

Attónitus, a, um, astonied, amased, or abashed.

Attónitis oculis videre aliquid, to stande sta-

Ingens fragor aures attónitas reddit, maketh

Attónitus nouitate rei, astonished or abashed

Attóno, ai, are, to make astonied, amased, or

Attónsus, a, um, thorne or clipped, polled, shed.

Attónsa laus, laude or prayse diminished.

Attónsum caput, a polled head.

Attráctio, ónis, for. g. a drawyng or pullng to.

Attráctus, a, um, drawen or pulled to.

Attráctylis, looke Attráctylis.

Attráho, attráhis, tráxi, ere, to draw or pulle to,

Attráhere & Allicere.

Attráhere aliquem ad aliquod negotium, to Attráhere & reddere animam, to breath, to Attráhere lorum, to pull the reyne of the bys-

Attráhere & accersere malum, to seke and be

Attráhere ad se aliquem, to make one come to Tribunos attráhi ad se iussit, to bee broughte

Attrébates, looke Attrébates.

Attréctam, a, a seelyng or touchyng.

Attrécto, aui, are, to seke, to handell or touche

Attréctare uxorem alterius, to medle with an Attremo, atremis, tremui, ere, to tremble or

Attribuo, bul, ere, to attribute, to impute, to put Ceterorum tuendorum curam quæstori at-

Si legi, loco, vrbi, attribuetur oratio, if you

Pecunia attributa, a summe of money assigne

Attributa pecunia numerata est, the money

Attribuere causam calamitatis alicui, to im-

Quod re ledunt Catoni attribuas & Serui-

Attribuere & ascribere.

Timor quem mihi natura pudorq; meus at-Attribuere crimen aut culpam.

Si vni culpa attribuenda est, if the faulte be to Attribuere alicui equum, to gyue or delpyer

Video cui Apulia sit attributa, ife to whom

Attribuere tertium locū alicui in re aliqua,

His singulæ naues erant attributæ, eche of Attribuere negotium alteri, to committe the Attributio, ónis, the assignation or delpyerance

Attributus, a, um, attributed, delpyered or as-

Attributa pecunia, money delpyered to be ge-

Attributa pecunia, money delpyered to be ge-

Attributa pecunia, money delpyered to be ge-

Attributa pecunia, money delpyered to be ge-

Attributa pecunia, money delpyered to be ge-

Attributa pecunia, money delpyered to be ge-

Attributa pecunia, money delpyered to be ge-

Attributa pecunia, money delpyered to be ge-

Attributa pecunia, money delpyered to be ge-

Attributa pecunia, money delpyered to be ge-

ficer, to bestow in the common affaires; as was to the gouernours of the prouinces amonge the Romaynes.

Attributarque descripta, assigned and appointed out.

Attritus, rus, rubbing or wearyng, washyng or creatyng together.

Attritus calciamentorum, the wearyng of shoes with much goyng.

Attritus, a, um, rubbed, woyn, waasted consumed.

Attrita vestis, a garment woyn out.

Attrita ansa, an handell waasted with much handlyng.

Attrita bellis Aethiopia, Ethiopie waisted and well nre destroyed with warres.

Atroparia, parte of the countrey of Aethia.

Attili, the paterfict tense of Atter.

Attyla, of some called Athyla, a valiant Scythian prince; after he had subdued Dacania, entred into Italy, destroyed the citie Aquileia, and came towarde Rome: wherof the Emperoure

Valentinianus beyng afeard, sente vnto hym Leo the byshop of Rome, with the consules and certayne senatours: who submitted theym sel-ues vnto him. And whan his hoste supposed, he woulde haue theym in contempte, and continue his iourney to destroye Rome: he pardonynge them, departed: wherent all men meruailed.

But he, beyng demaunded, why he had so doone answered, that whyles the byshoppe and sena-tours spake vnto him, he behelde standynge on eyther hande of him, a man of armes of excellent personage, euery of them holding a naked sword ouer him, manacynge to slea him, if he spake any vnfittynge worde, or byd make any further at-tempte. wherfore he discharged the Roma-nes with gentil language, perswadyng his hoste to holde them contente. Afterwarde he entred into Germany, washyng the countrey, and in his retourne towarde Hungary, he married a wyfe. In which marriage he so excessively fylled him selfe with meates and wyne, that thereby

he fell in a bledinge, and so died: afere the incarnation. 401. yeres. And at the beginnyng called him selfe the scourge of God.

Atuacutu, the towne of Antwerpe in Brabant.

Atura, a towne of Aquitayne.

Aturius, a yuuer in Fraunce, called vulgarly, Le Dou.

Atypus, atypi, m, g, one that is tongue tied.

Atys, a chyld of wonderfull beautee, beloued of Cybele, the mother of goddis, and was touned into a pyne tree. It was also a kyng of Lydia, descending lynially from Hercules, and Omphale. Also a riuer of Sicilie.

A A N T E V.

AV, an interiection, vled of women beyng soe abashed or amaid. And after A nacre, an interiection of silence.

Auantici, a people of Fraunce.

Auare, rodetously, nychly, pygordly.

Auare & acerbe impetare, to rule with steadiness and tyrannye.

Auaricum, Gierron in Berry in the topallure of offraunce.

Auariter, idem quod auare.

Auaritia, x, and Auiditas, ei, for g, auaritie, rodetousheite, inordinate desyre of money.

Ardere auaritia, to be creadyng coudous.

Auarua gloria, inordinate desyre of honour and dignitee.

Ex luxuria auaritia existit, of glatte cpyngeth inordinate desyre of money.

Auaritia sepe hanc fuit, he was alwayes creadyng coudous and gready.

Per auaritiam aliena bona appetere coudous lye to desire other mens gooddes.

Auaritie coarguere, to blame one of coudoustounes.

Auaritie in simulare aliquem, to say that one is coudous.

Exuere auaritiam, to be creadyng coudous.

Auarus, a, um, coudous, auaricious, desirous,
gready of money.

Auaris adulationes, for Auarorum adula-tiones, the flatterynge of coudousmen.

Cecidis avarus miles, a cruell coudous, desy-rous of murther.

Auarum mare: a gready sea.

Intuitus avarus, the vnfortunate desyre to beholde
a thyng.

Avarus laudis, desirous of pryse.

Auceps, aucupis, com. ge. a foaler or hynder.

Auceps syllabarum, he that watcheth at coudous syllable to take a man in a trippe, a coudous felow.

Ne quis nostro aucups sermone fiet, lest there be any that watche what we say.

Aucera, vled of olde wyters for dape aucta.

Auctarium, looke Auctuarium.

Auctificus, a, um, that maketh or increaseth.

Auctio, onis, for an increase. also an open sale of pyuate gooddes.

Auctio regia, sale of the kynges gooddes.

Auctionem facere, and auctionem propo-nere, to set his gooddes to sale.

Auctionem hic faciam & vendam omnia que habeo.

Auctionem vendere, the office of the crier in such common sales.

Auctio hasta, pozt sale of the gooddes of men,
that be atteynted of treasons or felony.

But more proprely of men & gooddes taken in warre and solde by the chiefe capytayne.

Vis conclamari auctionem, will you haue it cried in the market place that there shalbe open sale of these gooddes.

Auctionarius, a, um, of or perteynyng to pozt sale, or the sales man.

Auctionaria tabula, inuentories, wherin the gooddes

goodes to be solde, are written.

Auctionor, auctus sum, ari, depo. to sell household stuffe by public sale.

Auctor, rius, greater.

Auctio, auctitas, aui, are, the frequentative of aucto.

Auctitare pecunias fornore, to increase many by usury.

Aucto, aui are, frequen, to gayne, to wyne, to augment or multiply.

Auctolytus, a thiefe that transformed him selfe into diuers shapes.

Auctonus, the sonne of Apollo and Lyene.

Auctor, oris, m. g. b; auctrix, he or she that augmenteth or increaseth.

Auctofactus, u, a seruant that is solde, bounden, or hyed.

Auctoramentum, the bande, or price wherewith one is bought or hyed.

Auctoro, aui, are, to hyde one as seruant, or by certayne law of couenaunt, or els by a price and some of money.

Auctuarium, ouer measure of weight, surpluse in number, or quantite, or weight.

Auctus, a, um, increased, auanced.

Auctus latitia, more ioyfull or gladd.

Auctus pecunia, made richer.

Auctor agridudo, more paynfull techer.

Auctus filio, he is richer than he was, for he hath a sonne borne.

Auctus damno, he hath yet more harme.

Auctus honoribus, he is aduanced to honour and dignitee.

Auctus prada, he is made rich with robbinge and pillynge.

Auctus animo, his courage beynge increased.

Auxilio iam auctus, haunge more ayde then he had before.

Clodius Antonij beneficio auctus est.

Auctas exaggerataeque fortunas vna nox prae deleuit, one nyght dyd almoste cleane take away the riches meruelously increased and augmented.

Societate Agrippinensium auctus, haunge the societee of theym, whiche he hadde not before.

Auctus re fortunisque, he is very substantiall and ryche.

Auctus, us, increase, augmentation.

Auctus dierum, the increase of the dayes.

Aucula, a towne in Thuscane, called Aquapendens.

Aucupatio, onis, f. g. bydyng, and after Busbeas, in his booke de asse, sometyme gayne, aduantage.

Aucupatorij, tyme twygges.

Aucupatorius, a, um, perteynyng to bydyng.

Aucupia, birdes taken of the fouler.

Aucupium, n, n. g. bydyng or foulpyng. Sometime the birdes that be taken at the bydyng.

Aucupium sagittarum, shootyng at byrdes. Vitam propagabat aucupio sagittarum, he lengthened his life with going a byde and shootyng at birdes.

Aucupium delectationis, delihte of delectation.

Ne aucupium delectationis in oratione videatur esse, that there may not seeme to bee in your speeche a certayne affected studie or delihte to delihte.

Aucupium auribus facere, to harken what is sayd.

Hoc nouum est aucupium, this is a new way to get money.

Aucupor, auctus sum, pari, dep. and aucupo, to goe a bydyng, foulpyng, or haukyng. Also it signifyeth to searche by craftie meanes, and to watche for.

Aucupari sermonem alicuius, to harken or take heede what one sayeth.

Circumspice num sermonem nostrum quis aucupet vell acupetur.

Aucupari tempus, to espye a time.

Aucupari sibi famam obreclatione alienae scientiae, to endeouour to get a name by the discrypyng of an other mans counnyng.

Gratiam alicuius aucupari assensatiuncula, to endeouour to gette ones fauoure by a flatteryng tale.

Aucupari rumculos imperitorum hominum, to goe aboute to gette pryde of ideotes or vnkerned persons.

Aucupari tranquillitatem, to watche or taske for a calme wether, or tyme the wynde bee layde.

Delectationem quandam dicendo aucupari, in pleyng to endeouour to delihte by audience.

Aucupari errantem aliorum opinionem non debemus, wee should not goe aboute to vnderstande and folow the erroneous opinion of other.

Curepistolis & matris & sororis imbecillitatem aucupatur.

Qua tamen ab alijs legibus similitudinem quandam aucupatur.

Aucupari verba, aut vim verborum, to serche the propertee of wordes, or what they signifie.

Aucupari vilitatem, to hunte for profit.

Audacia, foolhardynesse, courage, truste, confydence in ones selfe, auenterous courage, nos mache, boldenesse, presumption.

Qua in Catone libertas, in alio audacia dices retur, that was called in Lato playne & franke speakyng his wynde, should in an other person haue ben called presumption.

Catilina fuit magnae audaciae, of greate presumption.

Expertus audaciae homo, a man that is tried to be bolde and hardie.

Titubans audacia, rather full boldnesse.
 Audacia, temeritatis, Audencia, fortitudinis est.
 Fretus impudentia atque audacia, trusting only to his impudentie and presumption.
 Cedere audaciz alicuius, to give place to ones confidence and boldnesse.
 Comprimere contundere frangere audaciam alicuius, to holde under and break ones boldnesse or presumption.
 Homo experte audaciz, a man of a proved courage and boldnesse.
 Increvit audacia, his confidence or boldnesse encreaseth.
 Audacia fortitudinem imitatur, soolehardysnesse imitateth valiant courage.
 Petulans audacia, malapert boldnesse and presumption.
 Inhumana audaciz, Liero hath in the plurall number.
 Audacter, & audaciter, boldly, adventurously.
 Audacter & libere loqui, to speake boldly without feare.
 Audacter monere, respondere, defendere, dicere, &c.
 Audaculus, hardie, spoken in disparage or contempt.
 Audax, acis, bolde and hardie, or trusting well in hym selfe, a rather boldne, a presumptuous person.
 Audax facinus, a bolde enterpryse.
 Audax & confidens. Audax, amens, impudens.
 Petulans & audax homo. Temerarius & audax.
 Audax animi, bolde of courage.
 Impium atque audax caput, a wicked and rashly tow.
 Audacem faciebat amor, made hym bolde.
 Audens, hardy.
 Audencia, &, hardynesse.
 Audeo, sus, sum, ere, to presume rashly. To have the harte to doo a thyng, to dare, not to bee a fraide to doo.
 Qui fallere audebit patrem, tanto magis audebit ceteros, he that shall haue the herte to begyle his owne father.
 Audere longius, to adventure further.
 Secundis rebus longius audebunt.
 Capitalia ausi plerique, the more parte of them haue not ben afrayed to committe most deadly offences or damnable crimes.
 Maiora viribus audere, to adventure more than one is able to achieve.
 Audere, with an accusatiue for, non vereri.
 Non ausis aciem hostibus, his enemies not darynge, or not brynging so hardy to fight wth hym.
 Illud, sine publica fraude, Facinus auso, saying he durste to adventure that acte, &c.

Pater multa hostilia ausus, his father presumpinge to doo, &c.
 Nihil ultra fremitum & minas ausus, he durste doo nothyng but graine and threaten.
 Nocturnam oppugnationem audebant, they were not afrayed to sette upon the ciue in the nyght.
 Nec Tiberius pernam eius palam ausus, neyther durste Tiberious punish hym openly.
 Ultima audere & experiri cogitabat, he intended to adventure and trye the extremitie.
 Periculum in aperto non audebant, they were afrayed to adventure that daunger in an open place.
 Pugnam ausi sunt, they durste not to fight wth them, or to encounter wth them in battaile.
 Qui me ferro ausi sunt tentare, that durste begynne or presume to fight with me.
 Audientia, &, audience, report.
 Audientiam facere, to commaunde and make silence, as they doo, whiche are cryes in places of iustice.
 Audio, iui, ire, to here, to consider, to perceyue, to graunt that whiche is asked, to doo the thing that is commaunded. Also to agree, to obey, but most commonly with a negation.
 Audire bene, to bee well reported of, to haue a good name.
 Cupit bene audire a parentibus, he desireth to haue his parentes speake well of him.
 Audire male, to be yll reported of, to haue an ill name.
 Apud omnes bonos viros propter auariciam male audit.
 Audin, tu? Harest thou not?
 Audire Platonem, to he Platos disciple.
 Platonem tres annos audiuit, he was Platons scholar three yeres.
 Audias, pro audire poteris, thou mayst heare.
 Audiens dicto, rebeye to dooe that he is commaunded, at commaundement, obediens.
 Audiri, to bee belished.
 Audiris, for ybi audieris.
 Audire breuiter, audite paucis, here in fewe wordes.
 Missis leuibus copis que ex longinquo in mains audiebantur, whiche a force of seemed to those that hearde them, to bee a greater number.
 Audiri latius, to be hearde farther.
 Quo latius audiretur, that he myght be hearde the further of.
 Audiui dicere, I hearde one report.
 Quis esset nunquam audiui dici, I neuer heard any man tell who he was.

Vt audiui dicere, as I hearde one say.
 Audiui idem quod audiui dicere.
 Audiui & credo, I heard repoite so, and I beleeue it.
 Audire alterum de re aliqua, to geue audience to an other man, or to here what one will saye in any matter.
 Audiui a patre, ex patre, & patre, and de patre, I hearde it repoited of my father.
 Saepe a maioribus natu audiui.
 De psaltria hac audiuit, he hath hearde some speaking of this syngyng woman.
 Hoc te ex alijs audire malo, Is for this I had leiffer that ye shoulde here it of other men.
 Audire de capite alicuius, id est, cognoscere, to sitte in examination of a matter concernyng lyfe and death.
 De capite viri consularis soccatus audiebat.
 Audire pro concedere, Preces meas audiuerunt, They hearde and graunted my petycion.
 Audire admonentem, to obey one that doeth aduertise vs of any thyng.
 Audio ironice, for non audio.
 Audio, sometyme for consentio, I consente, I agree.
 Pro illo te ducam: ch. audio.
 Audiendus non est, he is not to be beleued, or he ought not to be obeyed.
 Nec Homerum audio, Neyther I agree to Homere, or I beleue not Homere.
 Si fabulas audire velimus, id est, credere. If we wyl beleue fables.
 Nunquam labere, si te audies, you shall neuer doo amysse, yf you wyl folow your owne counsaile, or doo as you thynke best your selfe.
 Si me audies, yf you wyl folow my counsaile, if you wyl doo as I wyl haue you, yf ye wyl be ruled after me.
 Minus commodè audire, to haue a shewde name, to be puell repoited of.
 Attente bonaque cum venia audire aliquem: to here one fauourably, and diligently.
 Auribus si parum audias, yf thou bee dull of hearynge.
 Dolobellæ, me audiente Cæsar dixit, &c. Cæsar sayde to Dolabella in my hearynge.
 Audire pro intelligere.
 Audio quid velis, I perceyue what your mynde is.
 Audin quid dicat, dooest thou not perceyue what he sayeth.
 Audire nuntium, vnde vix ter in anno nuntium audire possunt, from whens they shall here woide. &c.
 Audibo, vñd of olde wyters for audiam.
 Auditor nihil noui, there is no newes hearde of.
 Auditio, ònis, for. gene. hearynge or audience, a rumoure or repoite, that cometh to ones hearyngs.

Auditio accipere, to here by repoite.
 Ne leuissimam quidem auditionem de ea re accepi, I hearde not one woide spoken of this matter.
 Fabularum auditione ducuntur, They take great pleasure in hearyng of tales.
 His rumoribus atque auditionibus permoti, beyng moued with these rumours and repoites.
 Fictæ auditiones, feigned repoites.
 Falsas auditiones depellere, to put awaye false repoites.
 Sedere in his scholis auditioni occupatum gratius est quam, &c. beyng occupied in here hearyng. or hearyng. &c.
 Audituncula, æ, a diminutiue of Auditio.
 Audituncula aspersum esse, to here a lyttell talkyng of a matter.
 Auditor, ònis, mas. gen. one that heareth, also a discipule or scholar, one that cometh to lecture.
 Auditorium, ri, neu. g. a place where men dooe here lessons or proposicions, an auditoie. sometyme the whole audience. sometyme a common place, where iudges sit to decide matters.
 Auditum, ti, neu. gen. repoite.
 Audito nunciare, to tell by here say.
 Nihil præter auditum habeo, I saye but as I hearde other repoite.
 Auditus, a, um, herde.
 Rerum ex utraque parte audita, the matter beyng hearde or examined for bothe partes: or whan they had bothe tolde theyr tales.
 Romæ cuncta in deterius audita Mutianum angebant, worse rumours of all thynges beyng heard eueri day at Rome desquieted Mutianus.
 Audito castellum obsideri, id est, postquam audisset.
 Audito, absolutely, whan it was hearde.
 Auditus, us, mas. gene. hearynge, one of the five wittes.
 Auditum intelligi, to be perceyued by hearyng.
 Audiuitaui, for saepe audiui, a woide out of vse.
 Aue, be thou gladde or ioyful, as the vulgare people say, rest you mery.
 Aue te iubet, id est, te salutet, He greeteth you well.
 Aueho, auehis, auexi, ère, to cary from one place to an other, to cary awaye.
 Auella, or Auellinum, a towne of Campayne in Italy.
 Auellana, næ, f. g. a silberde nutte.
 Auello, ùli, ère, to plucke away by violence.
 Auellere se a meretrice, to withdrow hym, to leaue or forsake the company of an harlot.
 Auellere & abstrahere, to plucke & draw away by violence.
 Auellere aliquem a suis, to pulle a man from his friends or acquayntance.
 E signo Cereris hoc auellendū curauit, he caused that he pulled from the image.
 His auelli non possunt nisi lima, they can not be pulled from them but with a file.

Auelliterus ab aliquo, to take a ferme or pette of grounde from one by force.

Auēna, nē, f. ge. otes. Sometyne it is put for ote strawe, or a wheate strawe or reede, or a pype made of an oten strawe.

Auenāceus, a, um, made of otes.

Auenārius, a, um, beyng amonge otes, or of otes.

Auenāria cicada, a kynde of grasshoppers, whiche appere not till coine be ripe.

Auentinus, an hill at Rome.

Auentinus, a, um, of that hill.

Auenuiorum colonia, or Auenio, Auinion, a citee in Prouaunce.

Aueo, aues, ēre, to couerte.

Auet audire, he despyeth to here.

Auerni, people of the countrey in France called Auergne.

Auēnus, ni, ma. ge. and in the plurall number,

Auernā, orum, neu. ge. a lake in Campayne, which was dedicate vnto Pluto kyng of helle, where men supposed to bee an entrie or passage to helle.

Auernus, a, um, and Auernalis, le, of Auernus, sometyne of hell.

Auerrois, a great philosophier, and phisicion, enemy to Aicen, and also to Chyste. And for his great commentes written vpon Aristotle, he is named Commentator. He was aboute the yere of our lord. 1147.

Auerrūco, aui, āre, to tōne away, to put away, to scrape of, to cut of, as men cut bynes.

Auerrūcāre deūm iram, to pacifie goddes wrath.

Dij auerruncent, god forbiddeth.

Auerrūcus deus, God whiche putteth awaye all puell.

Auerfatio, ōnis, f. ge. an hatynge, abhorrynge, or refuynge of a thyng, disdeigne.

Auerfio, ōnis, a tournynge awaye, a stealynge awaye, looke Aduersio.

Auersor, ātus sum, āri, to abhorre, to refuse.

Auersāri aliquem, so to detest and abhorre one, that for hate he tourneth his face from him.

Auersāri preces alicuius, to bee agaynst a mans desyre.

Auerfor, ōris, ma. gen. he that tourneth a thing from one vse to an other.

Auerfus, a, um, straunge vnaquaynted. Sometyne backwarde, or on the backe half, contrary to Aduersus. Also angry, wrath, spitefull, as gaynst, so that he will not looke on one.

Aduersus, & Auersus, forwarde and backwarde.

Auersa venus, praposterus & infandus coitus.

Auersa pars, the backe syde of a thyng.

Canities semper a priore parte capitis, tum deinde ab aduersa, then after one the hynder parte.

Auersa pecunia publica, the common treasure tourned to a particular aduantage.

Auersis post crura plantis, the fete tourned backwarde.

In auersa charta scribere, to write in rough paper that stoppeth the penne. Also to write on the backe syde of an indenture or such lyke wys tyng, to endorse.

Auersus a proposito, tourned from hys purpose.

Auersus a vero, contrary to the truth, against the truth.

Auersus a suis, contrary to, or respyng hys friendes myndes.

Neminem vidi tam auersum a suis.

Auersus a musis, he that hateth or despyeth learning.

Nemo tam auersus a musis.

Auersus a veneris amoribus, he that despyeth not in, or despyeth wanton loue.

Amicos auersos componere, to sette friendes at one, that were at variance.

Auersi dii a salute populi Romani, the goddis be displeased with, or regarde not the wealth of the Romaynes.

Auersissimus animus, a mynde greatly displeased and bent agaynst a man.

Aueria, a, f. ge. the pentrell of an horse, or after some, it is the hedstake of the bydell, wherunto the rayne of the bydell is fastned.

Auerto, si, tere, to tourne awaye, to tourne fro, to disdeyne.

Auertit se, he tourned him selfe away.

Auerrere ab aliquo loco, to lette or prohibe one to enter into a place.

Vultum auertit, he tourned his face away.

Ex oculis illius se auertit, he tourned hym away out of his sight.

Auerrere se ab aliquo, to leaue hym there, to come away from one.

Auerrere hostes, ab aliquo loco, to dygne away enemies.

Auerrere se a sermone, to tourne away from the tale, to disdeyne to here ones communis racion.

A nostro sermone se penitus auertit.

Auerrere culpam in alterum, to lay the blame or faute in an other.

Deus hunc a nobis casum auertat, hepe thys chaunce from vs.

Conatus alicuius auerrere a rep. to hepe or let one that he doo not those thynges that he endeuoureth agaynst the common wealth.

Furorem alicuius auerrere a pernitie reip. to keepe that ones furie destroy not thee. &c.

Surda aure auertitur, he tourneth away now and will not heare.

Auerrere hereditatem, to putte one from hys inheritance.

Auerrere flumen, to tourne the ryuer oute of hys course.

Iter ab Arate auerterant, they tourned theyr

they journey from Bras.

Quod omen dii auertant, God kepe vs from that lucke or chaunce.

Vt auerteret rem a suspicionē, that he myght make the matter not to be suspected, or that he myght byng the matter out of suspicion.

Auertere se ab amicitia alicuius, to forsake ones amitie or friendship.

Totum se ab illius amicitia auertit.

Mentem eius ab illa defensione auertit.

Auertere se in mercaturam to geue hym selfe to practise the state of marchandise.

Auertit regem in cogitationem belli, he turned the kynge from all other thynges, and sette him in mynde to make warre.

Auertere pestem, to pferue or kepe from the pestilence.

Repente auertis orationem, suddenly thou turnest our talke to an other thyng.

Auertere aliquē ab infamia, to kepe one from mystepost or slander.

Auertere ab oculis, to conueygh oute of mens sight.

Auertunt ab oculis naribusque domo-rum, &c.

Auertere crimen a se, to putte the faulte away from hym selfe.

Auertere animum ab aliquo, to forsake one to alienate his mynde from him. sometyme not to thynke on one, nor consider who he is.

A me penitus animum auertit.

A me animum parumper auertas Catonem loqui putes, thynke not of me, but ymagine that Cato speaketh.

Auertere cogitationem, not to regard or consider any more.

Auertere oculos omnium in se, to make all men to looke from other, and beholde him onlye.

Auertere in fugam, to put to flyght.

Auertere rem aliquam, by stealthe to take awaie a thyng, to robbe.

Consistit hereditas in his rebus quas auertit Oppia.

Auertere pecuniam publicam, vniustlye to use the commune treasure to hys owne aduantage.

Auertere sensus magicis artibus, to enchaunt
by witchcraft.

Aufero, abstuli, auferre, to take away, to raue away. sometyme to steale, to beare awaye by stealthe, to obtayne a mannes requeste, to haue that he despyed or craued, to craue oyle sue of.

Auferre caput alicui, to strike of ones head.

Auferre formam, to disfigure.

Auferre nomen alicui, to take from one hys good name.

Aufer te hinc, get the hence.

Aufer te domum, get the home.

Aufer me vulu terrere: id est, desine,

Aufetas iurgium si sapias, leaue thy chiding.

Auferent dies quindecim hi ludi, those playes will lette vs these xv. dayes.

Aufer nugas, leaue these triflinges, leaue your moches.

Auferre litem, to geite by action or proccesse of
the lawe.

Maiore multa mulctat, quam litem auferunt, he maketh them to spende more than they may wyne by theyr suite.

Auferre petitionem, id est, impetrare, to haue
the thyng that he asketh.

Id auferre & abducere licet, they maye cary away that and take it with them.

Abstulit e conspectu, he carped it oute of sight.

Acquitati multum auferit frans impiorum:
id est, nocet, hurteth or dysmyngeth.

Auferit animum ad contemplationem eorumque, &c. It carieth away my mynde to the consideration, &c.

Nomen auferre alijs, to make other nothyng spoken of.

Quin tu hinc pollicitationes aufer, but doe thou I praye thee leaue thy saye promysses.

Tuo arbitrato, dum auferam abs te id quod peto, Euen as you will, so that I maye haue
the thyng that I aske or demaunde.

A Scapulis paucos dies auferit dum in patriam mittat, he obteyned the delay or space of two or thre dayes of them, untill.

Iudicio iam pridem abstulissim, I woulde haue obteyned it by suite in the lawe.

Facile auferemus quod volumus, wee shall easily obteyne.

Auferre pignora, to take a dystresse or gage.

Abstulit iratus pignora.

Suspendas potius me, quam tacita hanc au-feras, Thou shalt rather hang me, than make me kepe these thynges secrete.

Auferre inultum, to go quite withoute punishment.

Ego precium ob stultitiam fero, sed inultum id nunquam auferet, I am well rewarded for my foolishnesse, but he shall not go quite, or he shall not scape unpunished.

Auferri sibi, to bee vexed in mynde, or from
hym selfe.

Quanti voles auferes, ye shall haue it at your owne price.

Auferre e conspectu, to take or conueygh out of sight.

Auferre opem ab aliquo, to obtayne ayde or succour of one.

Auferri inter manus, to bee bozne oute betwene men, whan one can not geue hym selfe.

Alius inter manus e conuiuio tanquam e pralio auferebatur.

Auferre pecuniam de arario, to steale money out of the common treasury.
 Nihil tibi abstuli: id est, furtipui.
 Auferre aliquid domum, to carry home that, that one hath stolen.
 Multa clam domum suam auferebant.
 Auferre ab aliquo id quod petimus pro impetrare, to obtayne of one that, which we desyre.
 Auferre auditum, to make one drake.
 Auditum accolis auferr.
 Auferre alicui vitam, to kille.
 Auferre fastidium, to take away lothedom.
 Haud sic auferent, they shall not escape so.
 Aufere lachrimas, cease thy weeping.
 Auferre laudem, aut gloriam ex aliqua re, to get prayse or honour for any thyng.
 Auferre mensam, to take up the table.
 Mensa ablata est.
 Obliuio illud abstulit, that is forgotten.
 Auferre præmium, to haue a rewarde.
 Hoc præmium auferes.
 Auferre responsum ab aliquo, to haue an answer of one.
 Illud ab eo responsum abstulit.
 Auferre somnum, to lette one that he cannot sleape.
 Calor somnum aufert.
 Auferre spem, to put out of all hope.
 Medios auferrur in hostes, he rusheth into the myddes of his enemies.
 Ne auferent te aliorum consilia, Lette not of other mennes counsaile tourne thy mynde: bʒ, take hede you be not seduced or mypled by other mens counsaile.
 Aufidena, a, a towne of Italy.
 Aufidius, a mans name.
 Aufidus, a ryuer in the countrey of Naples in Italy.
 Aufugio, fugis, fugi, ere, to flye away, to eschue.
 Aufugere aspectum alicuius, to flye out of ones sight.
 Aufugere ex loco aliquo.
 Auga, the sister of Telephus, who with hir sonne was caste into the sea, and preserued by the providence of Pallas.
 Auge, the moynyng or brightnes.
 Augea, a citee of Locris, an other in Laconia.
 Augas, a kynge of the people called Elici, slayne by Hercules. also a comicall poete of Athens.
 Augeo, xi, ere, to increase, to augment, to enriche, to ausunce, to make moze worshipfull or honorable.
 Augere & ampliare, to augment and make greater.
 Augere animos, to make moze couragious, also to take a lusty harte or courage.
 Beneuolentiâ auxit consuetudo, familiaritce increased theyr friendship.

 Agrippina cognomento augusta augetur, is made moze honourable with the surname of Augusta.
 Dona precibus augere, to encrease and bestowe his gifts or presentes, to enriche and bestow.
 Ille dies me summo honore auxit, that daye made me farre moze honorable, or vndercast my honour greatly.
 Largitione potissimos amicorum auxit, he enriche the best of his friends.
 Auges tu molestiam, thou enrichest my griefe.
 Opes per scelus auxit, he hath increased his riches by mischief.
 Auxit timoris opinionem, he enrichest the opinion, whereby they thought him to be a fearde.
 Scientia augere aliquem, to make moze cunninge.
 Auxit suspicionem, he enrichest the suspicion.
 Augere dignitatem & nomen alicuius, to increase ones honour and renoume.
 Augere diuitijs, to make richer.
 Augere linguam latinam, to enrich the latin tongue.
 Augere ciuitatem procreatione liberorum, by generatyon to make the citie moze populous.
 Augere verbis munus, to lette forth or comende a present with wordes.
 Non ille verbis auget munus suum.
 Augere suspicionem alicuius rei, to make a thyng moze suspected.
 Augere spem, to put one in greater hope.
 Augere industriam alicuius, to giue one reason to doo better and better, to make one moze diligent.
 Augere & ornare aliquem, to ausunce one to richesse and honour.
 Te non modo tuendum mihi sed augendum atque ornandum putavi.
 Non tueri solum sed augere commodis deo, but also enriche with commodites.
 Rem augere laudando, with prayse to make a thyng moze than it is, to amplexifie it.
 Augere auxilia, to make a new hoste after a discomfiture.
 Augesco, augescis, scere, to waxe greate, or to be greate, to be growen, to be increased, to waxe bigger.
 Quotidie augescit de filio agritudo, the sorrowe and heauynesse for my sonne increaseth dayly moze and moze.
 Augescere incrementis, to bee increased, or waxe moze.
 Augescunt, corpora, Augescunt vultus.
 Augias the sonne of Phobas, or after some of Nictus or Epochus, out of his eyes appered as it were sonne beames. Other affirme, that this Augias was kynge of Epites, or Elidenes, and and sette in.

Aniarius, & aniaria, he of the that haue charge of the keepinge of poultry or wilde foule. It may also be used for a poulter that selleth poultre.

Auicenna, or Abicena, a famous physician, whom some suppose to bee of a citee in Spayne called Hispalis, or Seville. Some name him pyncer of Aboalim, some say he was kynge of Bichynia. He was excellently learned, and wrote in the Arabike tongue many noble booke of physike, phisic naturall and metaphisike. He comprehended physike in five volumes, wherein he collecteth him self the interpretour of Galene: He was as house the pers of our lord. 1191. And was (as some suppose) poisoned by Auerrois, whome he slew before he died.

Auicula, a, f. g. a lytle byrde.

Auicularius, idem quod Aniarius.

Auide, affectuously, courtously, ardently, with great desyre, greedily.

Auidienus, a mans name in Bojace, whiche was riche, and yet a very nygarde.

Auiditas, atis, desyre of a thyng, courtousnesse, ardent affection, greedynesse.

Infinita auiditas glorie, insatiate desyre of glorie.

Auidus, auida, um, courtous, desyous, greedy.

Auidus cibi, hungry.

Auidis moribus, of an excedyng courtous appetyte.

Auidus glorie, desyous of honour.

Aliquantum ad rem auidior, somewhat courtous.

Auidus interficiendi alicuius, desyous to kyll one.

Animus appetens & auidus, a greedy and courtous mynde.

In pecunijs locupletum auidus, courtous, or greedy, to haue theyr gooddes that be ryche.

Voluptatis auidæ libidines, the greedy desyres of pleasure.

Aures auidæ, eares desyous to heare.

Canes auidi, greedy dogges.

Auidus deus, Pluto.

Auidus videndi, desyous to see.

Parandi diuitias auidus, desyous to gette ryche.

Auilla, a lambe lately peaned.

Auis, is, f. g. a byrde.

Auis alba, a white byrde. A prouerbe appplied to a thyng either fortunate or lucky, or els selddome and rare.

Concentus auium, the syngynge or chirpyng of birdes together.

Grex auium, a flocke of byrdes.

Voces auium liquidæ, the cleare voyces of birdes.

Auis deuia, an owle.

Auis fluminea, a byrde that used muche on the ryuers.

Lunonia auis, a paroche.

Auis varia: a byrde of diuers coloures.

Glomerantur aues, flocke together.

Insidias aibus moliri, to lay aynce for byrdes, to get a byrdynge.

Bonis aibus, with good lucke, fortunately.

Auersa aui, vnfortunately.

Auis solis, the byrde called phoenix.

Auis, a, um, that whiche is ledde by aneassed.

Auicent of longe tyme or continuance.

Auitus ager, vnde inheritate.

Auius, aui, um, wherby there is no passage of way, sometime out of the way, without reason.

Auia virgula, bushes so thicke, that no man may passe through.

Montes aui, Saxa aui, Nemoraria.

Auius errat animus, the mynde wandereth.

Aula, æ, an hall. Sometime the palace or court of a pynce. It was also of olde wyppers used for Olla, a pottle. Aulai, for Aula, the gentius case. It is sometime used for a pipe of Maunne.

It is properly a gallery or walke: or other place, whiche the wynde passeth through.

Aula, a faute in trees called also olla.

Aule, Maunnes or waytes.

Aulea, ærum, n. g. most commonly used plurally, but Auleum, is sometime used in the singular number.

And Aulea, f. g. if the pyppers erre not, Capstry, hangynge of noble mens houses.

Auleri, people of a citee in Normandy, called Moane.

Aulerij, people of Alpauce in France.

Aulætes, æ, m. g. he that playeth on the flute, a pypper.

Aulæticus, a, um, pertainyng to a piper or plater on a flute.

Aulætris, aulætridis, vel tridos, f. gen. a woman pypper.

Auli, a kynde of shell fysh, lyke vnto muskles.

Aulicorius, a, um, boyled or sodden in a pottle.

Aulicus, aulici, m. g. a courtier.

Aulicus, a, um, of the court, as, Aulicus apparatus, courtely preparation, or prouision, but most properly of pynces.

Aulicocia, orum, thynges that bee sodden in pottes.

Aulis, lis, or lidis, a littell countrey of Myte in Boeotia, in Grece. It was also a great citee and haven, where the pynces of Grece assembled together, and conspired the destruction of Troy.

Aulocrene, nes, a countrey wherein was the plain tree, on which Martha, byrde baynquished of Apollo, was hanged.

Aulædus, i, m. g. a synger, a plater on the flute, a mynstrell.

Aulon, the name of a mountayne and citee in Calabria, where groweth excellent good wyne.

also of two other citees, the one in Macedonia, the other in Lilicia.

Aulos, li, m. g. a pyper or flute.

Aulula, a litle potte, whereof cometh Aulularia, a comely in solace, where in declared the curious mynde of one, which had his money in a pot, thynnyng that no man knewe it but hym selfe, and yet was bereaved of it.

Aulus, a name used amonge the Romans.

Auo, or Auus, a tyte in the byther of payne.

Auocamentum, ti, n. g. passyng, recreation, that withdraueth the mynde from heynesse of melancoly.

Auocatio, onis, f. g. a withdrauynge of calling away from a thyng.

Auoco, auocas, auis, are, to cal away, to distract, to alienate, to plucke away, and withdraue one from any thyng.

Auocare animum, to withdraue the mynde from a thyng.

Auocat a rebus gerendis senecta, withdraueth.

Auocare & detertere, to withdraue and deter.

Auocare & allicere, are contrary.

Auocare se a corpore, to withdraue ones selfe from the cogitations of bodily thynges.

Auocare a vitijs, to plucke and withdraue men from lewdnes.

Auocare concionem, to lette of forbydde any assemble to be made.

Auolo, auolas, auis, are, to flye away, to hyge away quickely.

Aura, x, f. g. gen. sometyme betokeneth a softe mynde. sometyme byghenes. sometyme fauour of the people. sometyme mynde simply. also aye.

Aura æthera vesci, to lyue.

Auras vitales carpere, idem.

Aura leuis, a gentle or softe coole of wynde.

Auram captare, to haue good hope.

Auræ popularis homo, a man that seketh fauour of the people.

Auræ diuinæ particula, a part used for the soule.

Nec venit incæptis mollior aura meis. i. melior fortuna.

Attollere se in auras, to aduance it selfe alofte into the aye.

Scindere auras, to cut the aye.

Rapida velocius aura, more swifte then the rasing wynde.

Aura auri. i. splendor, the thynnyng byghenes of golde.

Mollior aura, better fortune.

Aura rumoris, a small rumour.

Auras, and Aurai, in the genitiue for Auræ.

Auramentum, ti, gyltynge. After some it shoulde seeme to bee an instrument vled to digge vp of pourge golde.

Auraria, x, f. g. a golde myne.

Aurarij, gylters. sometyme it signifieth maine tynners.

Aurarius, a, um, of or perteynyng to money.

Aurarium negotium, a money matter.

Aurarius faber, a gylter of golde smyth.

Auras, a great tyte falling into Jher.

Aurata, x, f. g. a fye of the sea, which I suppose to be a golde head, for he hath in his forehead a chynge conglate, whiche in the water shyneth like gold. He hath also a set of teeth lyke cheeke teeth, wherewith he hath bene herde of syluers in the night to craue hercules and such little shell fishes wheron he feedeth.

Auratis, le, of or belongynge to golde.

Auratura, x, gyltynge.

Auratus, a, um, gylter.

Aurea, aurea, f. g. the head hall of an hoyle.

Aurea, a carter.

Aurelia, a family in Rome. also a certayne herbe.

Auræolus, a, um, yelow, somewhat lyke golde.

Auræolus a diminutiue of Aureus.

Aureus, aurei, m. g. a piece of golde in money.

Aureus, a, um, of golde. And is vled by a meta phore, for thynnyng, beautifull, goodly, rich, precious.

Aurea Alexandrina, an excellent confession made by kynge Alexander.

Auresco, scis, to be yelow and byght lyke golde.

Aurichalcum, ci, latten mettall, or copper.

Auricomus, a, um, he that hath heares as yelow as golde.

Auricula, le, f. g. the eare lappe.

Auricula infima mollior, more soft and pliant than the lower part of the eare. A prouerbe spoken of a mylde and gentle persone, nothyng stubburne or frowarde.

Auricula muris, the herbe called alsine. Diosc. li. 4. ca. 89.

Auricularis, ris, idem quod aizou maius. Diosc. li. 4. ca. 91.

Aurilaris, re, idem quod Auricularius.

Auricularis confessio, confession made secreted by as priests do here it.

Auricularius, a secretary of pryuy counsellour.

Auricularius, a, um, perteynyng to the eares.

Aurifer, a, um, that beareth golde.

Aurifex, icis, masc. ge. a golde smyth, or a golde tyner.

Aurificina, x, f. g. a golde smythes shoppe.

Aurifodina, x, a golde myne.

Aurifur, uris, com. gen. a theefe that stealeth golde.

Auriga, x, com. gen. a dyuer of a carte, a carter, a wayne man, a chariot man. sometyme it is vled for an hoylekeeper. sometyme for a mastyner. it is also a sygne in the bymament vpon the hoynes of the bull, ioygned to it one cleere sterre. In the hande of Auriga be .ii. sterres called Hædi, whoselyng and goynge downs dooeth oftentimes cause great tempestes.

Aurigarius, idem quod auriga.

Aurigatio, onis, f. g. the dyuyng or gyarding of a carte or chariot.

Auriger, rigera, rum, idem quod Aurifer.

Aurigda, a citee of Cyrene, called Zodra.

Auriginosus, si, masc. gen. he that is sicke of the jaundys.

taundysse.
Aurigo, aul, arc, idem quod Aurigor.
Aurigo, riginis, f. g. a sickness called the pelote taundysse.
Auriger, atus sum, arl, to dygne a carte, or some lyke thyng. also to gouerne.
Aurilegus, gi, after Calpeyne he that stealeth golde.
Auripigmentum, in greke Arsenicum, a colour lyke golde. in englishe Oppyne, or arsenik.
Auris, auris, for. ge. an eare.
Aurem vellere, to put in remembrance.
Aurem in vtramuis dormire, to slepe soundly. to take no thought or care for any thyng.
Sonant aures, the eares ryng.
Tarditas aurium, dull hearyng.
Aures sitientes, eares despyous to heare.
Aures arrigere, to lyfte up the eares, to heere attentively, to harken.
Aures calent illius criminibus, myne eares glowe or bourn with often hearyng of his mischeuous actes.
Aures hebētes habet, he is dull in hearyng, or he lyketh not to heere.
Auribus accipere, to heare.
Auribus capere spolia, to harken and heere as way secrettes, or secreete counsailes.
Auribus dare, to flatter, to speake that whiche shall content a mans eare.
Auribus exquisitis alicuius vri, to be vcray fauourably heard of one.
Auribus prouchi, to be caried by the eares. it is properly vsed, where we beyng in iourney with one, delite so muche in his communication, that we fele no labour or payne by goyng or rydyng. So may we saie, Auribus prouchimur, in hearyng of hym, our paynes are reliaed, or in hearyng hym talke, our iourney semeth short, or is abbreviate.
Auribus lupum tenere, to holde a wolfe by the eares, A prouerbe, whiche dooeth synnyse, to be in two sundry daungers, and knowe not what is best to bee doone.
Obseratis auribus fundere preces, to make intreatie to one that will not heare, to praye a deafeman.
Rimosa auris, an eare that wyl keepe no counsaile, Accidit auribus, or ad aures, It came to his hearyng, or it came to his eare.
Accommodare aures, or dare aures alicui, to geue an eare, to harken to one.
Ad aurem admonere, to warne one in his eare.
Auribus surdis canere, to tell a tale to a deaf man.
Aures claudere veritati, to stoppe ones eares as gaynst the truth.
Inuare aures cantu, to delyte the eares with songyng.
Ad aurem gannire, to chat or make babylng

of one.
Ferre aures, Ferunt aures hominum que iucunda sunt & mirabilia, soot eares and delyght.
Aures teretes & religiose, hys eares and eare cloute that can not abyde any thyng so douer anye.
His vocibus aures nostrae circumsonant, his eares alway heare these thyngs, or these thyngs be heare into our eares on every syde.
Honoris sermonibus aures eorum imbuere oportet, you must talke of nothyng to them but honourable matiers.
Aures obstruere, to stoppe the eares.
Aures assentatoribus patefacere, to geue an eare to flatterers.
Aures patent quarelis omnium, he is ready to heare every mans complaine.
Aures peregrinantur, whan we be ignorant, and knowe not that that every man heareth.
Peruenire ad aures, to be heard.
Auriscalpium, pi, n. g. an eare pyler.
Auritus, a, um, great eared, or he that hearkneth diligently.
Aurinitis, a golde synche.
Auro, aul, arc, to gyfte, or to make to gyfte, or myne lyke golde.
Auro, the name of an herbe.
Aurora, the mornyng or ryng of the sonne. after portes, the daughter of Titan, and Terra.
Aurum, ri, neu. gen. golde: sometyme money.
Sometyme ornamentez or abillimente of noble women.
Aurum obrizum, syned golde.
Aurum coronarium, was golde gathered of the people to make crownes to sende to Emperours after theyr victories.
Aurum Tolosanum habere, A prouerbe, whiche had this begynnyng, whan Titinius Lepio tooke by assaule the citee of Toloze in Italy: there was founde in the temples greute plenty of golde, whiche beyng taken away, all that had any parte therof dyed miserably wherof happened this prouerbe, whan anye man sheweth his lyfe in myserye, men woulde say, that he had golde of Toloze.
Aurum & argentum factum, golde and syluer made redy to occupy.
Aurum cclatum, golde ingraued.
Aurum fusile, golde melted.
Gemmatū aurū, golde set with pious stones.
Effingere in auro, to make, engrave, or counterserte in golde.
Aurunca, a citee buylded by Iulon.
Aurunci, an auncient people of Italy.
Ausa, a citee of Spayne.
Ausaripeda, ripeda, for. gen. an heapy worme with many feete, that byedeth on leaues of trees and herbes.
Ausci, people of the citee Aux, in Guyan.
Ausculari, vied of olde wyters for Osculari.

Ausculatio, ónis, for. ge. an hearkenynge, an hearyng, also an obeying.

Ausculátor, óris, maf. gene. he that hearkeneth or heareth.

Ausculto, aui, are, to heare diligently, to geue good care, to hearken. Also to obey.

Ausculabíur, the impersonall, he wyl dooe as ye byd hym.

Auscultare alicui, to obeye one, to bee at his commaundement.

Auscultare inter se, to consiler one in an others case.

Auscultare ad fores, to stande hearkenynge at the doore.

Ausculat pñcis, hearken a worde of twayne.

Te auscultabo lubens, I will heare or hearken unto you with a good will.

Visne mihi auscultare? wyl you dooe as I wolde have you? will you folow my counsaile?

Auseli, idem quod Aurelij.

Auser, or Auseris, a cite in Italye nere to the cite Luc.

Ausim, is, it, is put for Audeam, as, nt.

Ausim affirmare, I dare anowe, or I dare boldly say.

Ausis, itidis, the countrey called Thus, where Job dwelled.

Ausones, were the auncient hynges of Italye.

Ausonia, the parte of Italye, wherein standeth Beneuent, and Calce, so called of Auson, the sonne of Altes and Calypso. Afterwarde all Italye was called Ausonia, and the people Ausonij.

Ausonius, a, um, and Auson, of Ausonia.

Ausonius, a sophister. Also a poets of Burdeux in Gascoigny.

Auspex, auspicijs, com. ge. idem quod Augur.

Also the persone that maketh the mariage on the maydens parte. Also the chiefe capitayne or leader in warre, or any other feate.

Christo auspice, Christ beyng our foze man.

Auspicalis, le, perteynyng to divination.

Auspicalis, a lyttle fyssh, called also Remora, whiche cleauynge fast to the heele of a shyppe, holdeth it still as well agaynste the puiſſaunce of wyndes, as of oyes. This fyssh is also called Echeneis, Rede Plinie Libro. 32.

Auspicato, happily, with good lucke.

Haud auspicato huc me appuli, I came hither unluckely.

Bellicam rem nunquam administrare voluerunt nisi auspicato: onles they byd consulte the augures before, or onlesse it were approued by the augures.

Auspiciatus, a, um, honourably enterprysed, fortunate, or byngynge good lucke. Approued by the Augures.

Auspiciatus locus.

Auspicium, cñ, n. g. the sygne or token shewed by byrdes, of thynges that shall folowe. Also it becometh fortune, conducte, or disposition of a capitayne. It is also a signification of thynges to come. Sometyme it signifyeth authozitee.

Communem ergo hunc populum, paribusque regibus auspicijs, Therefore let us goe to see this people with some together with equal authority.

Auspiciu opima, tokens of good lucke.

Auspicio malo, with ill lucke, or in an pteyme.

Ne ego adpolveni huc auspicio malo, I came hither in an ill tyme, or, an unhappye or unlucke fortune brought me hither.

Auspiciu liquidum, a manifeste sygne or token.

Meis auspicijs illud agam, I wyl dooe that after myne owne fantasy or mynde.

Tuo auspicio factum, It was dooe by thy bypse or counsaile.

A supplicijs vitam auspicatur, he begynneth his lyfe with peyne and trouble.

Auspico, auspicias, aui, are, to seker for a thyng by divination.

Auspico, aus sum, ari, to seke or gather by divination, to begynne or enterpryse a busynesse.

Supplicijs vitam auspicatur, he begynneth his lyfe.

Auster, ri, m. g. the southe wynde.

Austris aduersis iratam ducere, loke Aetas.

Austere, sowerly, cruelly, austere.

Austérras, atis, for. gen. Harpenesse, cruelnesse, sowzenesse, rigorousnesse.

Austérras colorum, the sadnes of colours.

Austérus, a, um, sower, or sharpe, displeasunt, also seze or withoute pitee, cruelle, austere, seuer.

Austerus color, a sadde colour.

Austero more cñ aliquo agere, to handle one roughly, or vngently.

Austerus sapor, sower taste betwene sharpe and bytter.

Vinum austerum, a rough wyne.

Australis, le, southerne, or of the southe parte.

Australis singulus, the meridionall zoone.

Australia, an yle in the ocean sea towarde the southe parte of the worlde, called Glesaria.

Austria, is a great countrey, on the uttermoste east parte of Germanie, sometyme called Pan-nonia superior. It boundeth eastwarde vpon the roylme of Hungarie, westwarde vpon the countrey called Noricum, and Taurisum, southwarde vpon Italye: Northwarde, it is inclosed with the great riuer Danubius or Ester,

In duche Donow. In it is the noble cite Wiens na, set vpon the sayd ryuer. There is also a famous vniuersitee, where especially the mathematycall sciences are moste exactly taught.

Austrinus, a, um, from the south parte.

Austrinum cælum, a cloudy weather, whan the southe wynde is by.

Austrinus dies, a soule cloude day.

Austro, aui, are, to make moyste.

Austrum, loke Austrum,

Aut, or, either.

Aut vero, for Aut etiam.

Aut certe, or at the least.

Quo enim vincebamur a victa Græcia, id aut illereptum est, aut certe nobis communica- tum, That one thinge, whether we gave place to Græce, whiche is vanquished by vs, either it is taken cleane away from them, or at the leaste we be therein equall unto them.

Aut, used interrogatively, as,

Aut ego nesciebam quorsum tu ires? But thinkest thou that I dyd not knowe, whither thou wouldst goe?

Aut, sometime completely, as,

Aut mihi da, aut rapio. Sometime rethorically, as, Aut tu magne pater diuum misere.

Sometime seperately, as,

Aut onera capiunt vehientum, aut agmine facto.

Aut, a coniunction of doubtinge, if it be doub- bled it signifieth equall desyre of both the thinges that be mentioned, as,

Aut librum volo, aut pretium. If it bee but ones set, it doth signifie a demynishing: as,

Librum volo aut pretium, I wyl have the booke, that I moste desyre, or at the leaste more for it.

Aut, sometime toyneth for, Et, or, que, as,

Molirine moram, aut veniendi poscere cau- sas, and agayne.

Tum liquidas corui presso ter gutture vo- ces, Aut quater ingeminant: pro quaterque.

Autem, a coniunction discretive, whiche is neuer put in the fyrste place, but in the seconde, and signifieth as. Vero doth, also but.

Ah quid faciam? quid mea autem? quid fa- ciet mihi? Oh what shal I doe? but what passe I? what wyl he doe to me? It signifieth also Etiam.

Abite, tu domum, tu autem domum, Goe your waye, Gette thee home, and also goe thou thy way home.

Autem, is often so set that it is referred to no- thinge, and is interpreted, but, truly, and. and such lyke englishes. as,

Aeschinus odiose cessat, prandium corrup- pitur, Ctesiphon autem in amore est totus.

Ille autem: as, Ille autem bonus vir nusq̃ ap- paret, and that honest man. &c.

Adeo autem, as, Atque adeo autem cur non ego &c. and indeede why doe not I. &c.

Exce autem: and loe. of a sodayne or straunge cogitation.

Autem enim, for profecto. C. Autem enim nepuicq̃ vis. Plautus.

Autem etiam, seperately: Inter quos autem ratio, inter eos etiam recta communis.

Neque enim, Neque autem, in two diuers clauses. Neque enim tu is es, qui qui sis nes- cias. &c. Neque autem ego ira sum demens vt &c. Pridie autem: the day before.

Porro autem: and more over.

Tum autē, pro, praeterea. Tum autem Pha- drus gaudet.

Tum absonium autem quale miseri, and inopem. &c.

Vix autem, and scarily.

Tu autem, afterwards, furthermore. Sometime, And.

Autem, is sometime used in the repetition of a question, as,

Quid non fecissent? fecissent autem? Imo, quid non fecerunt? what would not they have doone? what would not they have done? Nay, what have they not doone al ready? Sometime it signifieth nothinge, but only by the num- ber of the sentence.

Authe, one of the seven daughters of the gyante Hypponens, whome Hercules slew.

Authenticum, ei, n, g the patterns, whereby any example is witten.

Authenticus, ea, cum, of authorities, or that is doone or approued by him or them that bee in authorities.

Authēpsa, se, f. g. a certayne kynde of brycke pottes, which seetheth the meate with very lytle, and almost no fire at all.

Author, oris, com. ge. the first inventor or ma- ker of a thinge. also a reporter of newes, & ruler of trower. He that telleth or delivereth a thinge on warrant. And that person, whome a man followeth in doing of any thinge.

Author tibi non sum aufugere, I wyl not counsaile thee to renne away.

Author id tibi sum, I wyl thus aduise thee.

Quid mihi es author? what doe you aduise me to dooe.

Certis authoribus ita esse comperit.

Authore re, by thy counsaile.

Plurimis authoribus, by the opinion or aduise of many.

Authores classici, authors receyued, and of all men allowed.

Authores alicuius sententiae, Be they, whose sentence, counsaile, or indgement we follow.

Suasor & Author. Hortator & Author.

Author fuit profectionis, He was the causer of my goynge forth.

Author ferendae legis, He that causeth any law to be made, or he that is the causer, that any law shoulde be made.

Ille legibus contra ausyicia ferendis author.

Authores ira mihi sunt amici, My frendes counsaile me so.

Author tibi non sum vt vrbi te committas.

Authores sunt, They say or wryte.

Authorem habere aliquem, to follow one as hys author.

Author, a man haupng power, dignytee, and authorities to doo a thinge.

Vt id sic ratum esset, si patres authores fieret, That it shoulde be so stablyshed, if the Senate would molde appoyne it.

Rem tibi auctorem dabo, I will declare to you, in dede, that it is so.

Auctores sumus, our aduise of opinion is.

A malo auctore quid emere, to bye any thyng of him that can not make sufficient warrantise.

Auctores pupillorum, the tutors of gardians of wardes.

Author alicuius operis, the authour.

Consilario & auctore vestorio, Vestorius begynne my counsaillour and authour.

Dicendi grauissimus auctor & magister, the great authour and maister of eloquence.

Auctor alicuius interficiendi, the chiefe cause of wofuller of ones death.

Brutus præclarus auctor nobilitatis tue, the woorthy founder of begynner of. &c.

Auctor pacis, a chiefe perswader of peace.

His rebus quis auctor fuit, who was the chiefe cause of doore of these thynges.

Auctor ad faciendum aliquid: Si auctores ad liberandam patriam desyderarentur.

Ceteris auctor ad te adiuuandum fuit, he caused other men to healse you.

Auctor fuit in restituendo.

Magnopere mihi auctor fuit ne differrem tempus: he earnestly aduysed me. &c.

Auctor certus, grauis, locuples, luculentus, maximus: a very sure and good authour.

Auctor dubius, incertus, leuis, an authour of small credite.

Authoramentum, ti, n. ge. an indenture of obligation, whereby a man is bounde to dooe seruyce. Also earnest money, wages of hyre, preast money.

Authoratio, onis, a sellenge of swoorde plaiers, of suche other persons.

Authoratus, he that is bounde to serue, especially in warres. looke auctoratus.

Authoratus, a, um, bounden by couenaunt. also for addictus, condemnatus.

Authoritas, atis, authoritee, credence, puissance, iudgement, aduise, opinion, power, estimacion, reputation, the enioyng of possession, maintenance, suppositacion.

Authoritatem habere in aliquem, to haue authoritee, power, rule, commaundement, iurisdiction ouer one, to maie commaunde one.

Authoritatem defugere, to deny to haue done any thyng, or to haue bene the cause that it was doone.

Nuququam defugiam auctoritatem tuam, I will neuer disobey your commaundement, or I will not styche to dooe it, if you say the word.

Attende, quam ego defugiam auctoritatem consilatus mei, Consider how I refuse or excuse to execute the authoritee that I may lesully by myne office of counsaillour.

Authoritatem interponere, to commaunde a thyng to be done.

Authoritatis iure, by ryght of prescription, called Vfu capio.

Id auctoritatis, for eius auctoritatis, of suche estimacion of authoritee.

Tanta ebori auctoritas erat, quozie was so muche sette by. or, quozie was of suche estimacion, or so highly esteemed.

Authoritatem debemus nullam, nec fidem commentitijs rebus adiungere, we ought not to make feigned thynges of any reputation of credence.

Detrahare auctoritatem alicui, to dimynish the ones authoritee of honour.

In auctoritate esse, to be of great authoritee, or reputation.

In auctoritate alicuius esse, to obey, to be subiect, or vnder an other mans iurisdiction.

Authoritas eorum mecum facit, They authoritee maketh with me, or confymeth myne opinyon.

Parum auctoritatis habere, to be of small reputation, to be little regarded or esteemed.

Homo perdita auctoritate, a man out of all credence and estimacion.

Authoritate valere, to be of power.

Authoritates publicæ, comon letters, wytyngs of instrumentes, to confyme and ratifie any thyng in the name of an whole citee or comynalte.

Authoritas, sometyme for author the fyrst begynner of a thyng.

Authoritas pro testimonio authenticæ, I proued wytnesse, a sufficient profe.

Vfus & Auctoritas, the proprietee or possession of a thyng by prescription of longe tyme, called of the lawyers Vfu capio.

Authôro aui, are, to bynde one by couenaunt to dooe seruyce, looke aucturo.

Autini, or rather Auteri, the Trythe men.

Autocineton, that moueth it selfe.

Autocithones, people which beganne in the countrey where they inhabyte, whiche name was geuen to them of Athens.

Autodidactus, he that learneth without a maister or teacher, he that hath no maister but him selfe.

Autographus, tographa, phum, that is written with ones owne hande.

Autololes, a people of Mauritania.

Autolicus, a maister theefe. Also the sonne of Mercurie or Deucalion, and graundfather to Ulfes, famous for his thefte. There was one Autolycus selowe to Jason, an other was a notable wrestlar.

Automalax, a citee of Cyrene, called also Pentapolis, commonly Estam.

Automatus, a, um, that goeth by a byce.

Automata, orum, neu. g. thynges without lyfe, whiche seme to moue by them selues, as appereth in olde horologes and ymages, whiche moue by byces. It is taken generally for all thynges, whiche happen without any notable cause.

Automedon, ontis, Achilles chariot man.

Automolæ,

Autómola, a people, whiche came out of Egypt into Ethiopie. also among the grekes it doeth signify rennegates or renneaways.

Autonoe, es, the daughter of Cadmus, wyfe of Tristeus, and mother of Acteon, whiche after hir is called Autoonoeus.

Antonómia, x, libertie to lyue after mens owne lawes.

Autónomus, he that lyueth after his owne lawes.

Autophóros, an arrant theefe, that is taken with the thynge.

Autópyros, browne breade, householde breade, whan no branne is taken out, called also Cibarius, Medius, and Synonistus panis.

Autor, loke Author.

Autricum, the citee of Charters in Fraunce.

Autumnális, le, belongyng to Autumne.

Autumnitas, idem quod Autumnus.

Autúmnus, the tyme of the yere betwene summer and wynter, whiche begynneth the .vi. date of Auguste, and endeth the .vi. date of November.

Ilexus autumnni, the later part of Autumne.

Autumnus adultus, the myddle parte of Autumne.

Autúrgia, x, workyng with ones hande.

Autúmo, autumas, áui, áre, to suppose or affirme, to thynke, to iudge, to esteeme, to saie.

Si vera autumas, If thou saie true, or if it bee true that thou reportest.

Audúlio, ónis, a pluckyng of, or pullynge awate.

Auúlsor, óris, mas. gen. one that plucketh away a thynge by violence.

Auúlsus, a, um, pulled or plucked awate.

Auúnculus, the vncle on the mothers syde.

Auúnculus maior, my great graundfathers brother, my fathers or my mothers vncle.

Auus, the graundfather.

Auus paternus, the graundfather on the fathers syde.

Auus maternus, the graundfather on the mothers syde.

Auxiliáris, re, wherein is ayde or succour.

Auxiliares copíæ, succours from a straunger. likewise Auxiliaria arma, auxiliares cohortes, auxiliares duces.

Auxiliárius, a, um, that socoureth or commeth in ayde of an other.

Auxiliátor, óris, one that helpeth or aydeth.

Auxilior, árus sum, ári, to ayde or helpe, to succour.

Auxiliari contra aliquid, to be medicinable or holosome agaynst any thynge.

Auxilium, ayde or helpe, succour.

Auxilia aduersa valetudinis, thinges to helpe one in spekenesse.

Mutuis auxilijs stant omnia, All thynges bee preserued and maynteyned be heelpynge one an other.

Auxilium sibi adiungere, adhibere, to take ayde.

Auxiliu afferre alicui malo, to healse a thyng that is in an euill state.

Auxilium implorare, petere, rogare, to aske or besyde ayde or succour.

Auxilium dare, ferre, to ayde. Aphewpse,

Auxilio leuare, defendere, iuuare.

Vocare auxilio aliquem, to call one to helpe hym.

Auxilio esse, to helpe.

Auxilla, x, for. ge. a litle potte.

Auxina maior, idem quod periclymenon.

Auximum, the citee of Picentum in Italye, called commonly Osinum.

Auxumæ, the younge tyme that cometh of the spawme of Tunies.

Auxillaris vena, a veyne about the lynes.

A ANTE X.

Aménta, verses made by the priestes of Mars, called Sali, in quicke taunting of all men.

Axantos, an yle in the ocean sea, beneathe England and Irelande.

Axare, olde wyrttes used for Nominare, to name or aske.

Axe agglomerati, a great company of men standyng together.

Axiaces, a ryuer called also Hypanis.

Axícula, x, a diminutive of axis.

Axiculus, li. m. g. a diminutive of axis, or asser.

Axies, a company of women doyng any thyngs together.

Axilla, x, the arme hole, for whiche some roze ruptly vse Ascella, and Asella.

Axim, used of olde wyrttes for Egerim.

Axinomántia, x, for. ge. a kynd of diuination or witchcraft, done by hatchettes.

Axiocus, a philosopher, to whom Plato wrote a booke of death.

Axióma, ómatis, n. g. authoritee, dignitee, or honour that a man hath by reason of offyce, or any noble act that he hath done. Also a sentence spoken and proued, as if Plato walke, Plato moueth. If it be daie, the sunne is aboue the earth. It is putte by Cully for that, whiche sophysters call a proposition, whiche is a sentence true or false. It is also called a Maxime.

Axion, the brother of Alphesiboræ.

Axis, is, mascu. gen. an extree of a cart. Sometime the whole carte. Sometime it is wyngle, wherewith houses are couered in steele of ryle, or clouen bourdes. Sometime it is taken for the hooke that a doore or gate hangeth on. Sometime for heauen.

Axis mundi, is a lyne ymagined to go streight from the north to the south, diuidyng the world as it were into two partes: At the endes are supposed to be two pointes in heauen, whiche are are called the north pole and the south pole;

 Phœbeus axis, the chariot of the sunne.
 Fulcrum axes, cactus armis, wry hooks like axes.
 Sub uteris axe, under the apple.
 Axioch, companions, when many does any one
 thinge.
 Axium, a citee of Syria, called commonly Chama.
 Axius, a river in Macedonia.
 Axon, a river of the Tiber in Italia.
 Axona, a river in France, in the borders of Nemous, called Daur.
 Axona, axona, f. g. a thinge in the topnet of the necke, whiche moueth not, but is tyll like an eye see.
 Axones, people of France.
 Axos, a citee in Thracia.
 Axungia, is, f. g. supine greale, or barrowes
 greale, byngs olde.
 Axus, idem quod Axus.
 Axylus, a man in Phigia, very happy in all things pertaining to the life of man, who was great humane to strangers.

A N T E Z

A Zan, an hyll in Arabia, where Cybele the mother of the gods was honoured.
 Azana, a countrey of Ethiopia toward the redde sea.
 Azanes, people of Arabia.
 Azanaz, a region of Arabia, barrenne and unable to be tilled: looke the proverbe, Azeneas mala.
 Azania, or Azanium, a citee of the lesse Asia.
 Azanium, a well, the water whereof beynge drunke, causeth men to have the sauvour and taste of wyne.
 Azeta, a name of Proserpina.
 Azelus, without love, without enuy.
 Aziris, a citee in the lesse Armenia, nere to Euphrates.
 Azorus, a citee in Syria, also of Scia.
 Azyms, a, um, not leavened, without leaven.

AFTER Quintilian is sometime put for other letters as, Byrrhus for Pyrrhus, Bruges, for Fru-ges: Belena for Helena.
 Baal, in the tongue of Syria, signifeth Lord, and is attributed to Jupiter. After some interpretation it signifieth haupnge dominions, subiec-tion, or possession. It was an ydole, that the Samaritans and Moabites worshipped.

 Babba, a town of Mauritania, called Julia Campestris.
 Babacter, one of the names of Bacchus.
 Babax, an interfection of wonderynge, or as some thinge of contempt or neglectynge.
 Babel, signifieth confusion or mixture. It was the name of a towne builded by Nimroth, before the incarnation: 274. yere. At the build-yng hereof was the first confusion of tongues.
 This was doone in the lande of Sennar, in the countrey of Caldea.
 Babylas, a famous byshop of Antioche.
 Babylon, a great citee in Caldea, and signifieth confusion or translation, where was a towne builded by Nimroth, in height five myles. 170.
 paces. Afterwarde beynge enlarged by Semiramis, it conteyned in compasse three score miles.
 The walles were in height 300. fete, in thick-nesse of breadth 75. fete, and had 100. gates of brasse. There ran through the middle of it, the famous river Euphrates. It is also a town, or rather a great citee in Egypt.
 Babylonia, the countrey where the citee of Babylon stode. on the north it is bounded with Mesopotamia, on the west with Arabia the desert;
 on the east with Sufian, on the south with the redde sea. In this countrey is Caldea.
 Babylonicus, and Babylonius, a, um, of or per-tynnyng to Babylon.
 Babylonica vestis, a garments, deale, or hanzyng, woun with diuers colours.
 Babyris, a stronge towne in the countrey Atropas-tia, nere to the citee Artaxara.
 Babys, a folyshe mynstrell Darius brother.
 Bacles, people in the sea costes of Libya.
 Baccha, bacca, f. g. a bearge, as a bay beary, an hame beary, an eglentyne beary, and gyp beary, the fruse of laurell, olive, myrtle, and such other be conteyned vnder this name.
 Baccæ, margarites or perles.
 Baccæ caprinæ, looke Caprinus, a, um.
 Baccatus, a, um, garnyshed with perle, or haupng
 many berpes.
 Baccalia, calix. f. g. a bynde of baye tree or lau-sell, but it hath greater leaves, and great plens-tee of tree of bearies. Some take it to bee the common laurell or bay. It is also called Augusta, vide Plin. li. 15. cap. 30.

Baccha, wyne in Spayne.

Bacchar, arum, women, whiche sacrificed to Bacchus.

Bacchamon, the sonne of Perseus and Andromede.

Bacchanal, or Baccanale, lis, neu. gen. the place where the solemnities of Bacchus was kept, some tyme the feast.

Bacchanalia, lium, or liorum, neu. gen. plu. nu. feastes of the paynyms, whiche they dyd celebrate with all abominations of lechery.

Bacchar, aris, or Baccharis, ris, for. ge. an herbe called commonly our Ladies gloves, accordyng to the french name. Plinie saith, that onely the roote of this herbe saoureth sweetely lyke cinamome. And some call it Nardus rusticus. Of the roote were wonte to be made sweete oyles. Carolus Stephanus, in his booke de Re hortensi, saith, that Bacchar, and Baccharis, bee two dyuers herbes, and that we shuld be well ware, that we take not Baccharis, for Bacchar. For Bacchar saith he, is that herbe, whiche the grecies call Marum, and hath leaues lyke puy, but somewhat rounder. Turner thynketh Bacchar, to be sage of Hierusalem. Bacchar is also a wyne potts.

Baccharis apud Ruellium, is supposed to bee the flower called London button.

Baccharicum, a sweete oynement made of the roote of Bacchar.

Baccharim, lyke a madde man, furiously.

Bacchario, onis, f. g. drunken banquetting.

Baccheis, idis, a woman belonging to Bacchus.

Bacchiade, people whiche came out of Corinth into Sicilie, and had theyr first begynnyng of Bacchia, the daughter of Dionysius.

Bacchicus, or Baccheius, a, um, of Bacchus.

Bacchides, a capitayne that betrayed the citee Sinopis to Lucullus.

Bacchius, a sworde plater. also a Corinthian, who married the daughter, of Clithius, the kynge of Megarence.

Bacchius, a, um, of Bacchus.

Bacchius pes, a foote in meter, hauyng the fyrste syllable shorte, the residue longe, as Quis rino.

Bacchor, baccharis, arum sum, ari, to celebrate the feaste of Bacchus, to dooe a thyng lyke a madde man, or to be hered with spirites, to be woode, to renne, gadde and rage as it were a mad man. also to liue dissolutely and riottously.

Toram incensa per urbem Baccharur, goeth lyke a madde bodie.

Ritu bacchantium, as it were madde folkes.

Bacchari in voluptate, to rage in pleasure.

Bacchari in aliquem, to rable vpon one.

Egone baccharus sum in te, an. tu in me.

Baccharur Boreas, the north wynde rageth, or bloweth tempestuously. Bacchus dñi, called also Liber, Dionysius, Oris, Priapus, Bromius, and Brotinus, the son of Jupiter by Semeles. The poetes seigne, that after Jupiter had gotten Semeles with child, he deliued hym to company with his wyfe, and he did with Juno in his diuine maiestie: wherefore he begynnyng with him his thunder and lighteninge, came to hir, but she not able to sustaine his presence, fell in trauaile, was deliuered longe before hir tyme, and died. Jupiter took and deliuered the childe to Mercurius, who by his counmaundement caried it vnto Syra, where it was nourished by the nymphes. Like foolishly other imagined, that Jupiter made an hole in his thygh to put in the childe, where it remayned vntill the full tyme of his birth. This man among the Greeces dyd sette wyne and make wyne. Also he first poked oxen in the plough, and gathering vnto him a great number of people, went a greate parte of the worlde, destroyinge monarches and tyrannes, and conquered the countrey of India: but his people deliuyng in wyne, and dyynkyng superfluously thereof, fell to fighting among them selues. wherefore he prouided, that whan they dranke, they shuld haue in their handy nothyng but canes, or other light stiches. Bacchus, is sometyme vsed for wyne.

Bacchi clientes, portes.

Bacchi humor, wyne.

Baccifer, cifera, rum, a tree bearyng bearies.

Baccula, a little bearie, or such lyke small fruit.

Bacelus, properly signifieth hym that is misled: it is vsed of some for a fool.

Bacillus, li, m. g. or Bacillum, li, n. g. a little staffe.

Bactio, onis, a vessel of an olde facione to make the handes in, hauyng a longe handle. some call it Trulla.

Bactes, the name of Bacchus.

Bactra, drum, a citee in the furthest parts of Persia, the people where of are called Bactri, or Bactriani, in whom is such inhumanitie, that whan they parentes be verye olde, they throwe them vnto fierce dogges, whiche doe rente them in pices, and deuour them. like Bactriana.

Bactriani, the people of that countrey.

Bactriana, a countrey, wherein were sometyme a thousande citres. It is bounded on the west, with Margiane: on the north, with Scythione, diuided fro it with the riuer Oxus, on the south, with Aria and Paropamisade.

Bactros, a ryuer of the Bactrians, whereof a citee is called Bactrum.

Baculus, or Baculum, a staffe, or rogiell.

Incumbere vel inniti baculo, to leane vpon a staffe, to walke with a staffe.

Membra leuare baculo, idem.

Badacum, a citee of Roince, or of Banarie, named at this daie Salezaburgensis.

Badas, a ryuer of Surp, nere whereunto Memas non non was buried.

Balius, called also Baius, and Balius color, bafe colour.

Badiso, ai, are, to go.

Babis, loke Bebis.

Balon, a citie of Spayne now called Tariffa.

Benacus, loke Benacus.

Benia, a great ryuer in Portugall.

Bata, ta, f. g. a longe garment made of leather of Spayne, that couereth all the body, good in wynter to kepe of the colde wynde, and in sommer the heate of the sonne.

Batica, a countrie in Spayne, whiche taketh his name of a ryuer Batis, rennyng through it. It was also called Turdetania, and is the south part of Spayne, where be now the cities of Lisbyle and Corduba, & the royalme of Granado, and extendeth to the pylers of Hercules. It hath on the north, Portugall, beyng drayned from it with the ryuer Gubiana, on the west the maine ocean sea, on the south the streight of Marroche, and the middle sea, on the east as it were a lyne drawne from the citie Balearia, vnto Ana.

Baticatus, he that weareth a blacke or browne garment.

Baticola, a dweller by the ryuer Batis.

Baticus, a, um, blacke or browne, swarte, tawny, darke.

Batux, a citie of Barbon in Fraunce, called Bethers, some write Baterra, some Bliterra, other Bliterna.

Batis, a ryuer in Spayne by Granado, called nowe Guadalquivir.

Batulon, a ryuer in Spayne called also Bethalon, commonly Befon.

Baganum, the citie of Curney.

Bagoas, an Eunuche, whom great Alexander especially loved.

Bagous, in the Perſian tounge ſignifieth a gelding, or a gelded man.

Bagrada, Bagradas, or Bengrada, a ryuer in Africa, by the citie called Utica, where Artilius Regulus, and the hoſte of the Romaines, clewe a ſerpent, which was in length. 120. fectes.

Bahal, the ydoll of Cyze.

Baix, arum, a towne in Campania, on the ſea ſide, betwene Puteolus, and Misenum, for temperatenesse of ayre, and ſaſtynes of building, much haunted of the auncient Romaines. There ate hotte waters naturall, both pleaſaunt and holſome. Therefore it is ſuppoſed, all other hotte bathes naturall, were called Baix.

Bairon, an hſtorigrapher, whiche wrote an abridgement of the geſtes of great Alexander.

Baiulo, ai, are, to beare, to cary.

Baiulus, li, ma, g. a poſter or carier of bourdens. ſometyme it ſignifieth vyle or baſe.

Baius, the companion of Aligres, buried in Campania, After who the towne Baix, was named.

Baius, a, um, loke Badius.

Bal, idem quod Baal.

Balaam, ſignifieth the age of the people, the denſe ſynge or deſtruction of them: it was the name of a ſoothſayer, whom Bala the kynge of Moab bites, deſired to curſe the Iſraelites, who by the way was let by an aungell, that the aſſe, whereon he rode, ſhould beholde, and aſſaſſe who he ſhould beate hym. And then he hym ſelfe perceyued the aungell, who bad him go to Bala, and ſpeake no ſynge, but that he commaunded him. And ſo ſpecially, he bleſſed the Iſraelites, contrary to the expectation of Bala.

Balena, a, f. g. a great fiſhe in the ſea, whiche hath an hole in his head, whereby he taketh ayre, and ſpouteth out great abundance of water.

Some ſuppoſe that it is a whirlepoole, the hath pappes like a beaſt. ſomewhat in his mouth, ſomewhat that there hath bene ſounde of them. 240. fectes in length.

Balanra, a towne not farre from Laodicea.

Balanatus, a, um, oyned with the oyle called Balanium.

Balanus, a, um, made of Balanus.

Balanita, a kynde of great grapes.

Balanista, they that gathered maſte of acornes.

Balanites, a, m, g. a ſtone, which is a light greene, and hath a veyne in the myddle lyke a flame of fyre. Diſt. li. 36. ca. 10.

Balanitis, icis, f. g. a kynde of rounde cheſtnuttes.

Balanus myrepſica, is called of Apothecaries Ben, and ſo it may be named in Engliſhe, vide. Diſt. li. 4. ca. 163.

Balanus, ni, f. g. a generall name of maſte, but moſte properly, for the maſte of a date tree or a date it ſelfe. Acro taketh it to be an herbe, where of an oynment is made. It is alſo a ſuppoſitoy to helpe them that be coſtue. Alſo a ſweete oynment made of Myrabolanes. Alſo a kynde of Cheſt nuttes, and a fiſhe of the ſea. Of the Greekes it is vſed for a mans parde.

Balanus ſcordianus, idem quod Caſtanea.

Balaria, idem quod lychnis coronaria, Diſt. li. 3. ca. 113.

Balatrões, caſcals or vyle knaves. It was vſed of olde wyters, for ſpottes of durt, ſpotted on a mans garment, as he iourneied by the waie.

Balæus, us, m, g. bleatynge of ſheepe.

Tenuis balatus, ſmall bleatynge lyke a lambe.

Balarus dare, to bleate like a ſheepe.

Balaſtinus, a, um, like to the flower of pomegranades.

Balaſtium, ſtij, neu, g. the flower of a wyld pomegranade, profitable not onely to medicine, but alſo to die cloth.

Balaſuſus, after Calepine is an herbe lyke to Narcifſus.

Balbe, obſcurely, ſtuttyngly.

Balbina, a virgine in Rome martyred vnder Craiane.

Balbicinor, atus ſum, ari, to maſſe in the mouth.

Balbus, a, um, that can not well pronounce wordes des in speaking, a maffier, whiche faute is most properly in olde men.

Balbūrio, balbūris, iui, ire, to stammer oꝝ stutte, to maffie in the mouth.

Baldraca, a poore mayde, that wolde in no wyse be corrupt by Otho the emperour, not withstanding all his great offers and promisses.

Baleardus, a christen philosopher in fraunce, disagreeing in some poyntes from the church of the latins.

Baleares insulæ, two ples in Spayne, in the sea called Mediterraneum: The one is now called Maiorica, the other Minorica.

Baleāris, re, and Baleāricus, a, um, of oꝝ belonging to those ples.

Baleſium, a towne on the sea coſte in Italy, not farre from Brundſe.

Balineum, and Baliniæ, arum, of olde wyrters vſed foꝝ a bayne oꝝ bathe.

Balinienses, people of Latium, called alſo Trebulani.

Balius, a, um, bay colour, oꝝ ſometyme a pied oꝝ ſpecked colour.

Balius æquus, an hoſe of bay colour.

Balincium, a kynde of ſweete wine that is made in Sicille.

Baliſta, æ, fœ. ge. a croſſbowe oꝝ a brake, oꝝ great engine, wherewith a ſtone oꝝ arrowe is ſhotte. it may be vſed foꝝ a gunne.

Baliſtarium, rij, n. g. the place where a great brake oꝝ ſpyng is layed.

Baliſto, aui, are, to bleate often.

Balio, onis, the name of a bande in Plautus, of whom other bandes bee called Balliones.

Ballicenus, Catilius vnle.

Ballonoti, oꝝ Bellonoti, people of Scythia in Europe.

Ballôte, es, f. g. an herbe called alſo Marrubium nigrum, oꝝ Marrubiaſtrum, oꝝ Praſium ſcorzidum, it groweth commonly in ſeildes by hygh waies ſyde, and hath a ſynkyng ſauour. ſome thinke it to be a kynde of archangel, other call it ſynkyng hoꝝe hounde, oꝝ blacke hoꝝe hounde. loke. Pl. li. 27. ca. 8.

Ballūca, cæ, fœ. gen. a veſſell, wherein golde was powred.

Ballūca, is alſo gold oꝝe, oꝝ golde befoꝝe it bee ſyned and purged.

Balneæ, arum, plu. commune baynes.

Balneāria, orum, all things belonging to a bayn.

Balnearium, rij, n. g. a place where a bathe oꝝ ſtue is in a mans houſe.

Balneārius, a, um, of oꝝ belonging to a bayne.

Balneātor, ôris, ma. oꝝ com. the keeper of a bayn, oꝝ he that ſerueth in a bayne.

Balneatōrius, a, um, idem quod Balneārius.

Balnecolum, li, n. g. a litle bayne oꝝ bathe.

Balneum, a pꝛuate bayne.

Balo, aui, are, to bleate lyke a ſheepe.

Balfa, a citee in Portugal called alſo Tauila.

Balfamena, idem quod Buphthalinus, Dioſco.

lib. 3. cap. 157.

Balfamum, i, n. g. the baulme tree. and ſometyme baulme, loke Theo. li. 9. cap. 6.

Balfaminus, a, um, of baulme.

Balfamita, as Dioſc. ſaith, an herbe of bygnos and heigth of a lylle, and hath a leafe lyke rue, but much whiter, being alway greene, and groweth onely in Iudea and Egypt. lege. Pl. li. 12. ca. 27. Theo. li. 9. ca. 6.

Balfamode, a kynde of Caſſia, but moꝝe bitter then Caſſia. Pl. li. 12. ca. 19.

Baltheus, ei, m. g. and Baltheum, thei, ne. ge. a belt, a ſwoorde gyrdle.

Balria, an yle in the German ſea.

Balūca, oꝝ rather Balax, in greke Chriſammos, gold grauell.

Bambalio, ônis, maſ. ge. he that ſammereth oꝝ ſtuteth foꝝ feare.

Bambarium, oꝝ Bambitium, ſine cotten, oꝝ ſylke.

Bambilius, lij, maſ. ge. a certayne vermine, which fleeth, called commonly Barbellus.

Bambia, a kynde of olyue tree, after calepꝛne.

Bambotum, a ſpyer of Mauritania.

Bambyca, a citee of Meſopotamia, called alſo Edeſa, and Sacra.

Bambyce, a citee in Syria.

Banaſa, a towne in Syria.

Banaufus, an artiſicer that worketh by ſpye.

Banchus, a kynde of the ſylke called Aſellus, after ſome an haddocke.

Bannomanna, an yle a dayes iourney from Scythia.

Banurri, inhabytauntes of the countrey called Tingitana.

Baphia, æ, f. g. a dyehouſe.

Baphicus, a, um, perſeꝛnyng to dying.

Baphice, es, f. g. the arte of dying.

Baptæ, men dyed oꝝ coloured, which vſed to be at ſacrifice, as it were women.

Baptæ, were certayne comedies, wherein were reproved thynges diſhoneſt and abhominable.

Baptēs, a grene ſtone, of the colour and ſourme of a frog.

Baptiſmus, i, m. g. & Baptiſmum, i, Baptiſma, aſis, neu. ge. baptiſme.

Baptiſterium, rij, n. g. a bathe oꝝ veſſell to waſhe the bodie in, a dyinge ſatte, oꝝ a fonte.

Baptizo, aui, are, to baptiſe, to diepe.

Bara, an yle not farre from Brundſe.

Barachum, a towne in Syria.

Baracura, a poꝛt towne in India, called Bangella.

Baragaſa, a towne in Ethiopia.

Baramalacum, a towne of the people called Nabatheï, in Syria.

Barathro, ônis, an exceꝛdyng glutton that ſpendeth all vpon his bealie.

Barathrum, thri, an vmeaſurable depeneſſe, a place in hell. Alſo a dungeon in Athens, where priſoners were kept. it is ſometyme taken foꝝ an harlot oꝝ queane, which ſpendeth all that a man can gette. ſometyme the bottome of the ſtomake.

ſomes

Sometime one that is an exceeding glutton.
 Age effunde hoc nunc in barathrum, got to now, poure this into the bottomles panthe.
 Incluyes & tempestas barathrumque macelli.
 Barba hirci, an herbe called goates beards.
 Barba, bar, for ge. a beards, as well of men, as of all other beastes.
 Prolixa, demissa, barba, a longe beards.
 Barba tenuis, in or touchyng the beards.
 Hirsuta barba, a rough beards.
 Incipiens barba, vel prima barba, a yonge moorie beards.
 Ingens barba, a great beards.
 Barbam pascere, to nourish his beards.
 Abradere barbam, to shave off his beards.
 Recidere, and rescare barbam, idem.
 Canet barba gelu, his beards is hoare with froste.
 Crescit barba, his beards groweth.
 Mulcere barbam, to stroke the beards.
 Promittere barbā, to let his beards grow longe.
 Donec crinem barbā, promitteret.
 Tondere barbā, to clippe the beards.
 Vellere barbā alicui, to plucke one by the beards.
 Barba, an herbe of some called Gracia dei.
 Barba louis, an herbe called Syngrene, and growweth on yles.
 Barba senis, an herbe that groweth amonge stones, haung leaues lyke to longe heares. it is also called Barba petra, it hath a yelow flower and the roote thereof is bitter.
 Barbare, barbarously, rudely, without eloquence.
 Barbaria, a countrey, where dwelleth people rude and beastly: somesyme every countrey, excepte Grece and Italy. Barbaria, x, f. g. is somesyme rudenesse, rusticitie, fiercenesse, churlishenesse.
 Barbaria forensis, the barbarousnes and ruden-nes of them that be auditours in the place of iudgement.
 Barbaria est grandis habere nihil, it is a great rusticitie to haue nothyng or to be a pooze man.
 Inueteratam barbariam ex moribus hominum delere, to take away that olde rudenesse that men haue bene wonte to vse in theyr beshauours.
 Barbaricarij, weauers of cloth of baudhyn.
 Barbaricū, i, a shoute or crie in the Romaine army.
 Barbaricus, a, um, idem quod barbarus.
 Vestes barbaricæ, precious garmentes.
 Barbarica sylua, where growe trees of dyuers sortes out of order.
 Barbarica lege ius suum persequi, apud Plaut, id est. Romana.
 Barbārica pauimenta, paued floozes.
 Barbāries, ei, f. g. rudenesse, lacke of ciuilitie.
 Inhumana barbaries: vncourteis rudenes.
 In ipsa barbarie. i. in ipsos barbaros.
 Barbarismus, the corrupt forme of speakyng or pronouncyng.
 Barbarus, a, um, barbarous. In olde tyme all people, excepte Grekes, were called Barbari, properly it be they, whiche dooe speake grossly,

 without obscuryng of congeit, or pronounc-not perfectly, especially Greke or Latyne, also they that abhorre al elegancy. Wherouer it sig-nifieth them that be fierce and cruell of maners and countenance, rude, ignorant, rusticall, churlish, without eloquence.
 Mare Barbarum, pro Indico, apud Horat.
 Gentes immanitate barbaræ, fierce in outragis and cruelties.
 Agrestes & barbaræ.
 Inhumans ac barbarus, vncourteis and rude.
 Immanis ac barbaræ gens.
 Lingua & natione barbarus.
 Natura & moribus barbarus, rude.
 Consuetudo hominum immanis ac barbaræ,
 a cruell and rude facion.
 Aucto in barbarum cognomeno.
 Barbātulus, he that hath a yonge beards.
 Barbātus, um, bearded.
 Barbescula, a towne in Spayne called Barbescula,
 also a yuener that renneth by that towne.
 Barbiger, bigera, rum, he that weareth a beards.
 Barbitum, the beards, after Apuleius.
 Babilos, m. f. c. ne. g. an instrument of musike, whiche I suppose is that, whiche men call douls lymers. Some thynke it to be a double harpe, called a rote. Some a great harpe that soundeth like organes, other the broder part of the harpe.
 Barbula, a little beards.
 Barbula florum, the little beards of flowers, such as be vnder the roale leafe.
 Barbo, onis, m. g. called also Mullus, of the grekes Trygla, a fysh called a barbyll.
 Barcei, people nere to Carthage.
 Barce, a citee in Africke called also Ptolomais, It was the name of Sichæus nurse, and a queene of Libia, also a promontory.
 Barcenis, a woad in Germanie beyonde the ryuer Rhene, called Sylua nigra, which diuideth the Swaues from the Cheruskians.
 Barcha, the surname of Amilcar Anniballes
 father.
 Barcinō, a citee in Spayne, called commonlye Barcelona.
 Bardana, the herbe called the great burre.
 Bardasanes, a byshop of Mesopotamia, whiche wrote agaynst Marcion in the Syrian tounge.
 Barderate, a citee in fraunce.
 Bardesanes, an excellent astronomer.
 Bardi, were certayne witches or prophetes in Gallia.
 Bardiacus, ci, m. ge. a certayne garmente without a hood.
 Bardocucullus, i, m. g. a thymmed hatte, or a shepherdes cloke, a cloke with a hood.
 Bardus, one that is dull wytted, a foole, comes tyme a mynstrell that syngeth iekes or fables.
 Barduli, people of Biscaye in Spayne, called Turduli and Tapari.

Bardus, a, um, blunke, blockyde, dull witted, foolyshe.
Barea, a towne in Spayne.
Bargeni, people of Heine.
Bargus, a ruere of Thace.
Bargylla, orum, a citee in Caria.
Bargylus, an hyl in Asia.
Baria, a place among the Sabines.
Bariona, Johnson, of the sonne of John, as, Barpholomeus, Ptholomeus sonne, wheres by it semeth, that Bar in the tounge of Syria or hebrue, signifieth a sonne.
Baris, idos, velidis, f. g. a bore in Egypt, wheres in they caried dead bodies to burying.
Barium, a towne of Duell in Italy, called roms monly Barry.
Barnacida, a, f. g. e. a garmente that chyldren dyd weare.
Barnichius, a ruere in Peloponessus.
Barnus, unvis, a towne in Macedonia, neere to Heraclea.
Barones, barons, ballaunt and noble men. Some thynke it is latine.
Baroptenus, a precious stone.
Barra, a towne of the Orobians in Italy.
Barrire, to brye lyke an Olyphant.
Barritus, itus, m. g. the bryeing of an Olyphant. also a howte of crye that the Romaynes vled to make whan they fought battayle.
Barrus, ri, mas, g. e. an Olyphant. It doeth also signify a tooth.
Quid tibi vis mulier nigris dignissima barris? what wouldest thou haue thou woman, that arte moste worthy blacke teeth.
Barrus, is also a mans name in Horace, whiche was an excedyng great detractour.
Barum, a citee.
Barutus, or Barutum, looke Berytos.
Basabocates, people of Aquitayne in Fraunce.
Basaltes, a kynde of marble.
Basan, a countrey beyonde the ruere of Jordan in Judea, which was diuided to two of the tribes. It maie be interpreted moste fertile of fatte.
Basanites, tis, m. g. the stone, whereof they make whetstones.
Bascania, littel trifles, which synthes were wonte to haue hangyng befoze their shoppe wyndowes to exclude enuy.
Bascauda, a, f. g. a certayne kynde of beffell, whiche came out of Englande.
Bascropeda, a countrey of the Medes neere Mar-monia.
Bastuli, people of Spayne.
Basia, honest kysses, sweete kysses.
Basiatio, onis, a kissing.
Quarris quot mihi basiationes tuas satis sint?
Basiator, oris, a kysser.
Basilaxa, a citee in germany, Basyle.
Basilei, people of Sarmatia, surnamed Iaziges, and Vrgi.
Basilica, an Ile in the north ocean sea.

Basilica, a, f. g. a beynge petysonyng to the harte.
Basilica, a, f. g. a place where people doe assemble for iustices in the lawe, and wheres ciuile iudgements bee executed, and counsailes holden. It may also be taken for an hall or other large place, wheres ciuiles doot attende, and wheres for iudges, or wheres great feastes be kept. Also so it signifieth a cathedrall church.
Basilicaux, a wall nut.
Basilicanus, he that hepyth the place called Basilica, wheres hymen a lesson of a church.
Basilice, colaly, princely, magnificently.
Basilice agere, to doe a thynge colaly, princely.
Basilice interij, id est, vehementer. Plant.
Basilicon, a kynges robe.
Basilicum, ci, n. g. a kynde of bynes.
Basilicus, ci, a tetraque chaunce at the dyce.
Basilicus sinus, a bosome of the sea neere Ionia.
Basilicus, a, um, copall, noble, princely.
Basilica facinora, copall and princely actes.
Basilica nux, a wall nutte of a frenche nutte.
Basilice edictiones, the kynges ordinaunces or commaundementes.
Basilicus victus, id est, regius.
Basilidæ, a people of Scythia in Europe, haung thepp begynnynge of Hercules and Erichona.
Basilides, an heretike, whiche affirmed, that Christ was not crucified, but Symon Cyrenens, who (as the euangelistes wyte) was condeigned to beare the crosse, whan our sauour waxed saynt through effusion of blood by his scourgyng. He saied, it was none offense to denie Christ in the tyme of persecution. He denied the laste resurreccion: he also affirmed, that virginitee was of no greater merite than marriage, but equal with it. he was about the yere of our lord. 110.
Basilidiani, the folowers of Basilides.
Basiliscus, called also Regalus, in englyshe a roscatise, a serpente in the desertes of Aegypte, not passyng. 12. inches in length, haung a whyte circle about his sharpe head as it were a crowne, red eyes, and is somewhat blacke of colour, and so venemous, that he sleeth mē and beastes with his breath & sight of his eyes. rede. Pl. li. 8. ca. 21.
Basilus, a man of incomparable vertue and learsynge, bozne in Cappadocia, of a noble house. His parentes (as Gregorius Nazianzenus wyrteth) were christians, his father named Basilus Magnus, by whiche name he was also called. His father taught him as well grammer as other learynges called Quadriuales. After he went to Cesaria, and from thens to Constantinoble, where he learned rhetorike, logike, and philosophy moze perfectly. From thens he came to Athens, where disputage with dyuers great learned men, synally vanquished them. But whyles he exactly studied in philosophy, Gregorie Nazianzene, beynge than wholly dedicate to the studie of scripture, and seruyce of god, louyng Basile intierly, came into the schole where he radde in a chayre, and takynge him by the the hande, brought him to a monastery, where layng apart all booke of philosophy, he onely intended to the reading of holy scripture. At the last, heeing ledde by the spirit of god, they divided themselves. Basile goynge about the countrie Pontus, taught the people the true faith. After he was bishop of Calasia, and exiled by Valens the emperor, who favoured the Arians hereby. He was of such a reuerēt grauiter, with humblenesse, that the people loued him. The emperor and men in autoritee feared him. So that he was at laste reuoked from exile, when other of the true faith were put out of the countrie. Basile onely for feare was reserued. He was about the yere of our lorde. 367.

There were two other bishops of the same name, one of Antiochia, in the tyme of Constantine: he wrote agaynst Marcellus. An other of Cilicia, vnder Anastasius.

Basilius, is also a ruere in Ita.

Basilius, one of the sheers of Cesar. also a notable pyrate.

Basio, aui, are, to hyffe.

Basiare basia.

Vsq̃ue ad millia basiare, to hyffe a thousande
tymes.

Basis, is, for. g. the foote of a pylour, or that su-steyneth any thyng. also the foundation of grounde of a matier. And after some, roundels made to sette vnder wyne pottes for ray-nyng of the table, or suche a foote as they vse to sette chafenge bysses vpon at the table. Sometyme it is taken for the whole pylour.

Basis struclilis, the foote of nether part of a pyl-lour made not of one stone but of many, wheron the pylour resteth.

Basis statua, that parte of a tabernacle wheron the Image dooeth stande, the foote of stay of it.

In basi statuarum maximis literis insum-erat.

Palma in basi Caesaris dictatoris, i. in colūna.

Basis villa.

Basistani, people of Spayne called also Bastuli.

Basium, li, n. g. a hyffe.

Basia dare, to hyffe.

Oscula, officiorum sunt: Basia, pudicorum affectuum: Suavia, amorum.

Da mihi basia mille.

Bassaris, idis, a priest of Bacchus.

Bassaricus, the name of Bacchus.

Bassaricus, a, um, of Bacchus.

Bassianus, a bishop in the tyme of Ambrose, bozne at Syracuse.

Bassas, the name of dyuers learned men.

Basterna, x, f. g. a certayne sorte of chariattes.

Basternæ, or Bastarnæ, people on the north syde of Thrace, about the ryuer of Ister or Danus bias.

Bastuli, people of Spayne neere to the Turdulians.

Bar, a woorde spoken reprochefully or scornfully of a man, or of a thing. Sometyme it is vled for a woorde of silence, as peace, or hyffe.

Bata, a towne and an haven in Ita.

Batala, an antique citee in Italy.

Batalus, a certayne effeminate person. the name of a rybaude poete. Also the surname of Demosthenes, geuen to him of his foer, whan he was a childe. Sometyme it signifyeth the arte, or the pryue partes.

Barania, a countrey in lowe Germanye, called Hollande.

Barauus, a, um, of Hollande.

Batea, the daughter of Teuchus, and wyfe of Dardanus.

Bathyllus, a younge man of Samia, beloued of Anacreon the poete. And an other was a famous scoffer and dauncer.

Bathochus, deepe, profounde.

Batia, the tymbre of Ilius in Troie.

Batillum, li, n. g. of batillus, a fyre panne. also a faction of hookes, wherewith in some countreis they vse to reape corne. also a kynde of spade or donge forke.

Batina, after some Bantina, a towne of Duell in Italy.

Batiochus, a certayne pottle, out of which wyne is poured at the table. The Italians call it Boccale.

Batiola, idem quod Batiochus.

Batis, is, f. ge. the fyre called raie or sheate. it is also an herbe called Christamarina, or Baticu-la, of the Grekes Crethmon, Crithmon, or Crithamon. Of this herbe be two kyndes, one sowen in the gardeyne, an other growynge by the sea syde, and is condite in byrre, and solde of the apothecaries to be eaten in salettes. The frenche men call Basyle, and Crestmarine.

The Italians call it Fennocchio marino, in englyshe, Sampere.

Batis, a litle byrre, whiche is most lyke to bee the buntynge.

Batoptenus, a certayne pterious stone.

Batrachion, or Batrachium, called also Ranunculus, is an herbe, whereof bee diuers kyndes, of whiche I suppose one is communely called goldeknappe or yealow craie, of some Crowefoote. It is also called of Democritus, Chri-santhemum, for it hath a flowre as yealow as golde, and the leafe is somewhat lyke vnto pers-ily, but it is muche greater, valpaunt beggars haue vled this herbe to blyster and breake the chyn of theyr legges and armes, to moue people to geue them almes. Batrachium, is also a colour, wherewith men vled to peinct their faces, before visours were inuented. Etal. saith: some call Batrachion, Sardoia, or Sardonia, after the countrey, where it groweth abundantly.

Batrachites, x, m. g. a stone both in colour and forme lyke a grene frogge.

Batrachos, a frogge, also a swellng of the tounge

K iij with

with an inflammation.
Batrachomyomachus, the battaye of myle and frogges.
Batrachus, a terrapine fyke.
Barris, a vessel with a longe handell, after Calepin.
Bartalus, the name of an euillnatured and wanton mynstrell.
Bartolom, loke Bartolom.
Bartola, a terrapine cuppe to bypke wyne in.
Bartologia, x, f. ge. a longe pattynge of superfluous speeking, where one thyng is often repeated.
Batton, a comicall poete.
Batos, called of the Iuines Rubus, and Sentis, a bycere, wherof be dyuers kinde, as the hyppie, the egiontyne, and the byamble. Batos is commonly taken for the blache beery tree.
Battus, his name that blinded Cyrene, of whom the womē of Cyrene be cald Battiade. Herodotus writeth, that the Libyans cald a king Battus.
Barulus, a towne in Lampayne.
Batuo, batuis, ui, ere, to battre, to beate, to strike, to fight.
Quibus batuatur tibi os senex nequissime, iohannis thou maiste be dashed on the mouth thou olde naughty churle.
Cantator atque latorator batuebat pugatoris armis, he bypge a mynstrell and dauncer fought with weapons lyke a souldiour.
Batuere cum: Mirmilionem rudibus secum batuentem sica confodit, contending with him.
Batus, ti, m, g. (as Iosephus witnesseth) comprehendeth .72. Sextarios, whiche it is be understan- ded of Sextarius Romanus, comprehendeth foure Romayne modios, and an halfe, euerie modium bypge. iii. gallons. so that Batus, of our measure, is xiii. gallons & a pottle. Some as- sume it to be but .36. pintes of Parise: whiche is the same measure, that Amphora is.
Batus, is also a kynde of fyke, and a bypde.
Bauaria, called also Baroaria, in duche Berhe, in frenche Bauiere, a countrey in high Germany, lyng in the east: on the south it boundeth on the mountaynes of Alpes, whiche diuide Ger- manie from Italie: On the west lieth the coun- trey called Sacra, in duche Braue: On the east Austria cald in duche Ostrie: On the north, the roialme of Boheme.
Bauari, vel Baroari, people of Bauier.
Bauor, aris, depo. to bathe lyke a dogge.
Baucis, a poore olde woman, whiche entertained Jupiter and Mercurius.
Baucalis, a vessel with colde water to rynke or washe cuppes in, in the sommer.
Baudus, and Meudus, two foolish poetes whiche entred Aitgile.
Baali, a towne in Italie betwene Bate, and Messenum.
Baxe, arum, shppers, properly of philosophers, or suche other.

Bellum, a tree growynge in Stada, and Deptia. It is a gumme comynge of the same tree, lyke to waxe, but thicke as gumme, which in vntuous and faine theye thicke of colour, when it is rubbed by couers, and dyeth in red.

Bene, happy, fortunatly, blessedly.
Bene beatus viuere, to liue in perfect bliss.
Beatus, ims, & Beatus, is an heap of good thynges gathered together, of it selfe suffi- cient, without lacke, and a beate perfection, acc- ordynge to beate, blessedness.
Beatus, a diminutiue of Beatus.
Beatus, is he which hath abundance of all thyngs that is good, and is perfect in all thynges that be woorthy praye, or ought to be desired of a good man. sometyne it is taken for fortunat, or noble.
Beatus, a, um, blessed, happy, holie. sometyne perfecte, absolute. also fyke.
Florentes atque beati, flosyng and welthy.
Florens & beata res publica.
Beatus, is sometyne applyed to other thynges besyde men: whiche be excellent in their kynde as Vox facilis, magna, beata, flexibilis, a full and perfecte voyce.
Vnde tam repente factus es beatus: to what thyng and fyke.
Pelix & beata.
Ab omni parte beatus, happy in euery poynte.
O terq; quaterq; beati: id est, supius beati: vel beatissimi.
Longe beator, farre more happy.
Arua, beata, id est, fertilia.
In libera & beata ciuitate vivimus, in a free and wealthy citie.
Ciuitas beatissima & opulentissima.
Quis melius est beatusue, what man lieth, more ioyous or happy then I am.
Sed tu beatis mitior rebus veni, in prosperitee.
Vita beata, perfite or blessed lyfe.
Fruantur beati tuo sempiterno, they liue in blyss worlde without ende, or they as blessed inioy lyfe euerlastyng.
Vt puellæ vnum me facerem beatorum. i. vt puellæ persuadarem me diuitem esse & lo- cupuletem.
Bebeus, a notable backbiter, or tale bearer.
Bebryacensis, or Bebryacum, a kynde of bypdes of the bygnesse of a thyrthe.
Bebryces, people of Asia, whiche tooke theye begynnyng of one of the daughters of Danaus.
Bebrycam, or Bebryacum, a towne in Italie betwene Tremona and Verona.
Bebrycia, a countrey called the great Thyrgia.
Bebrytus, a, um, & Bebryx, icis, of the countrey of great Physica.

Bedryx, an ancient kynge of the mountaynes called Pyrenxi.

Beccus, in the mooste olde physican booke, signifieth breadde.

Becher, a countrey of Scythia after Seleppne.

Bechion, an herbe called of the latines Iulsilago, and Farsaria, of some Populago, of the aspothieries Vngula Caballina, in Englishe foote foote, or all horse, or horse hooft, like Tusilago.

Bechicum medicamentum, a medicine, holtsome agaynst the cough.

Beda, a famous learned man of this realme. For his modestie, vertuous life, and learnynge surname woorthypfull Bede.

Bedeguar, a worde used of barbarous phisitions: after the sayng of Detapio, the white hyere, whiche (as Dioscorides wytyeth) hath a white flower and a swete. Maianardus supposeth it to be a certayne kynde of thysle, with sharpe prickes, and a square stalk. And now some take it for the thysle, whiche is called Carduus benedictus.

Beduini, certayne heretikes amonge the Berasins, whiche woorthyp the sonne at his ryng, and they aspyre all thynges to chaunce by destinyne, wherefore they vse to fyght in battayle vnarmyd, sayng, that deathe can not bee eschewed.

Bee, the voyce of Merpe.

Beelphegor, a gapping yboll.

Beelshabub, an ydole called god of flies.

Beelshaphon, lord of the north, an ydole set vp in the places of espiall.

Beemoth, the dyuell, and signifieth a beast.

Beergios, one of the sonnes of Neptuneus, whom Hercules vanquished.

Bela, of the olde latines was used for ouis, a shepe. wherof cometh Belare, to bleate lyke a shepe.

Bela, a kynge of Hungary.

Belbina, an yle in the goulfe called Argolicum.

Belbiton, beastes dunge.

Belbus, bi, m. g. a beast called also Hiena.

Belerium, or Bolorium promontorium, is a place in Cornewall called saint Burien.

Belga, one of the countrey Belgica.

Belga, the people that inhabyte the countreys and townes inclosed with the ocean sea, and the ryuers of Rhene, Marne, and Meyne, wherin bee the citees of Trye, Colepne, Magunce, and Keynes. Also the countreys of Flaunders, Holland, Gelder, Juliers, Cleues, Hennaw, part of Fryslande, Picardie, the greatest parte of Champayne, and all the forest of Federne. It was sometyme called Callia Belgica.

Belgicus, a, um, of that countrey.

Belgium, the towne of Beauuoisine.

Belial, the dyuell, which is interpreted Apostata, without yoke.

Belion, idem quod polium montanum. Diosc.

lib. 3. cap. 123.

Belisarius, a famous capitaine in the tyme of Justinian the emperor.

Bella, a towne in Campagne.

Bellaria, drum, a banketing, by Mars, as dances, marchepaynes, and other lyke.

Bellaria, a, the flower of the herbe Bellis.

Bellarius, a, um, one for the warre.

Bellator, oris, m. g. a warrior.

Bellator equus, a horse for warre.

Bellatrix, icis, a woman warrior.

Bellatulus, a, um, a manton worde, whiche is as much to saye, as aoly, proper, little saye one, well laugured, chaste, little speere borne, pryncemayden, myghty hope.

Bellax, acis, used or banished in warre.

Belle, well.

Belle se habet, he dooth or saith well.

Bellerophon, seu, Bellerophon, the sonne of Glaucus kynge of Ephrya, a man of much beauty and prowesse, was ardently beloued of Demobea, the wyfe of Dictus kynge of Ephrya, next after Glaucus. whan she desired hym to committe auenture with hir, he fearyng the vengyaunce of Jupiter, god of hospitalitee, and remembryng the frendshipp hir husbunde had shewed him, refused, and put hir away from hym: whiche she disdeynynge, and being in a mood rage, accused him to hir husbunde, that he had rauished hir: but he lyke a good man woulde not slea him in his owne house, but deliuered hym letters to his wyues father, sent him into Lycia, who perceyving the mynde of Dictus, encouraged and sent Bellerophon to destroy the two monstres, Solymos, and Chymara, that he mought be slayne vnder the colour of a valyaunt enterpryse. But he, attcheyning it nobly, retourned with honour.

Bellerophon literas affert, a proverbe, whan one byngeth letters agaynst himselfe.

Bellerophontes, a, um, of Bellerophon.

Belliatus, a, um, beautified.

Bellica, a pylour in the temple of Bellona, called goddess of battayle, wherat they used, whan warres were proclaymed, to caste a iavelyn.

Bellicose, valyauntly, warrelke, fiercelly.

Bellicofus, a, um, valyaunt in armes, fierse or warrelke.

Bellicrepa saltatio, a certayne fourme of daunsing in harneys.

Bellicum, i, n. g. a warrelke towne.

Bellicum canere, to blowe to the battayle, and by a metaphoze, to anymate, to incourage, to styte vp, to make disencion or debate.

Bellicus, a, um, pertynyng to warre, warlike.

Bellifer, a, um, that maketh warre.

Belliger, ligera, um, idem.

Belliger, i, m. g. a warryour.

Belligero, aui, are, to make warre.

Bellipotens, puissaunt in armes or battayle.

Bellis, seu Bellium, the whyte daye, called of

Some the Margarite. In the north Banwool, or rather it is the common name of bailes. It is also a fythe with a longe beake like a crane, whiche is called of some an hoynbeake.
Bello, ui, are, to make warre.
Bellantur, Uirgili vsed for bellant.
Bello, Uirgili vsed in Spainne.
Bellocastrum, a countrey in France nowe called Bayeux.
Bellona, the goddess of battayle.
Bellonarij, the priestes of Bellona.
Bellus, a, um, for Bellicosus.
Bellouacum, a citie in France nowe named Beaus uops, the people wherof be called Bellouaci.
Bellua, a, f. g. a great cruell beest or a monster. by repprehen it is applied to a man.
Fera & immanis, tetra & immanis, serua, bels lua, the Image of the beastes in the Zodiake.
Immanis be sometime called Bellux: as Leo, Taurus, lupa, &c.
Pro homine: Quid ego hospitij iura in hoc tam immani bellua commemoro.
Feritas & immanitas bellux in figura hominis.
Belluatus, a, um, peincted or herued with great beastes.
Belluata raperia, tappessey, wher in is wrought or peynted the fygures of beastes.
Bellulus, a, um, somewhat saye, mynton, terke, gelaunt.
Bellum, signifieth all the time that the warre both continue. warre, also battayle.
Abstitero bello, to leaue of warre.
Dare bellum alicui, to commytte the charge of warre to any man.
Ducere bellum, to pprolonge the warre.
Bellum civile, warre betwene men of one countrey or citie, ciuill warre.
Bellum intestinum, warre amongst the inhabitants of one countrey.
Bellum nauale, warre on the sea.
Bellum instruere, adornare, apparare, moli ri, nauare, parare, to prepare for warre.
Bello premere, to trouble one with warre.
Belli, aduerbially for, at warre.
Belli domicij, bothe abode at warre, and at home in the citie.
Bellum componere, to make a conclusion of warres, to make peace betwene two, whiche are at warre.
Bellum consistare, to styre vp warre.
Bellum indicere, to declare warre, to sende despauce.
Bellum moliri, to prepare warre.
Bellum ponere, absoluere, abstinere, depo nere, dimittere, to sette asyde warre.
Bellum profigare, to fyght out a battayle, to ende a warre.
Bellum, totum tempus quo sumus in militia:
Prælium, ipsum armorum certamen.
Bellum aliquando pro prælio: In eo bello trecenti milites desiderat, in that battayle.

Bellum, aliquando bellatores & ea quæ ad bellum pertinent omnia complectitur. Ouid. Permanet Aonijs Nereus violentus in vndis.
Bellaque non tranfert: id est, non patitur Græcos in Asiam transire, and dooth not con-ueigh ouer the Grecians with the furnishe of warre.
Apex bellorum, i. caput & dux.
Author belli: Adiutor belli: Causa belli.
Continatores bellorum, the sterys up of warres.
Consector belli, the synner of any warre.
Is totius belli consector erit.
Celeritas belli, the swiftnesse of warre.
Belli celeritatem morabitur.
Magna belli conventionione superantur: in a great conflicte and contention of warre.
Communis belli Mars, the vncertaine of doubtfull chaunces of warre.
Incerta belli alea: Euentus belli varius: idem.
Domestici belli extinctor, the ender of quietnes of a ciuill warre.
Habilis bello, meete for warre.
Quæ bello est habilis ætas.
Inexpertus belli: Insolens bellorum.
Gens bello intractabilis, i. insuperabilis.
Iura belli: the lawes of armes.
Modo belli, in the facion of warre.
Latrocinari magis q̃ modo belli.
Offensio belli: an ouerthrow in battayle.
Non belli offensionibus sed victorijs.
Bellis rudis vel ignarus, vntrayled in warfare.
Subita belli, the todayne chaunces of warre.
Subita belli locus abnuat, the place was not meete for suche todayne chaunces as often dooe happen in warre.
Summa belli in hac vna re posita videtur.
Domestica and externa bella, contrary.
Omni imbutum odio bellum inferre alicui:
to make a moste deadly and hartfull warre vs pon one.
Duces accendendo bello acres, temperandæ
victoriæ impares: capiteyns fierse and coura gious in sterpyge by the warre, but not able to moderate the victorie.
Bellum affectum, attenuatum, imminutum.
Bellum affectum videmus, & pæne confe
ctum, we se the warre well diminished and al-moste cleene fynished.
Alere bellum, to pprolonge and mayntayne the
warre.
Ardere bello: Cum arderet Syria bello: whē
Syria was soze vexed with warre.
Cauponari bellum, to fyght for money and gayne.
Simulacra belli ciere, to make a shewe of bat-tayle, to fyght for colour of shewe as men dooe in exercises of warre.
Bellum merum loquitur, he speaketh onely of warre.

Bellon,

Bellon, a stone and a river in Spayne.
Bellus, a, um, fayre, honest, pleasant, good, courteous, gentle, civile.
Bellus homo, an honest man.
Bellus, beastly or lyke a beast.
Belides, the sonne or neww of Belus.
Belis, idis, the daughter or nere of Belus.
Belone, et, s, g, a hinde of the looke Acus.
Belos, a weapon, or an arrow. It signifieth also a stone the compass of the firmamente and sterres, also the ayre that incloseth all thynges.
Belus, a floode or pavement: And the first entree in at a doore.
Belosocos, or Belonacos, idem quod Distamum. Dioc. li. 3. cap. 35.
Belua, idem quod Bellus.
Beluinus, a, um, beastly.
Beluina rabies, a beastly furie.
Belunum, a towne in the countrey of Venetie in Italy.
Beluolus, a, um, full of monstres of the sea.
Belus, an ancient dyng of Assyria, to whome the first ymage of ydole to be honoured, was made. There was an other Belus of Egypt: In other the father of Dido. It is also a ryuer in Syria, whiche hath sande of the nature of glasse and turneth at other mettall that cometh into it, into glasse.
Belzahard, (a barbarouse woode, for the efficacy therof, necessary to be knownen) is a speciall and souverayne medicine agaynst popson beyng drunke. Auenzoar writeth, that agaynst popson, that is credynglye hotte, he made it in this soume. Ther graynes of barley, with fyue ounces of the water of a gourd. But some men thynke, the moste excellent Belzahard, is that, wherof Plinie writeth. Properly the harte is at continuall debate with the serpente, in so muche that he pursueth and seketh for him as hys hole, where he lieth and with the breathe of his nose, thylles, compelleth him to come out. Now after the harte hath foughten with the serpente, and eaten him, he becometh thyrstye, and renneth to some water, and leapeth into it, but he dooeth not drinke as than. For if he tooke neuer so litle water, he should die incontinent. Than dooe yssue out of his eyes droppes, whych by littel and lystell dooe congeale, and waxe as greate as a chesten nutte. After the harte is come out of the water, men a wayte where those droppes fall, whiche they take and kepe, as a thyng most precious, and agaynst all maner of popson moste certayne remedy. Thys haue I taken out of the booke of Ioan. Agricola de recentioribus medicamentis.
Bemarchius, a learned man of Capadocia, which wrote the gestes of Constantine.
Bembina, a towne of Nemæa.
Bembinadia, the countrey called Nemæa.
Bembinus, a, um, of Nemæa.
Benacus lacus, a lake in Italy called Garde.

Bene, well, honestly, prosperously, sometime muche.
Bene accipere aliquem, to intreat or entere tayne one well.
Bene acceptus, well entertayned, well intreated.
Bene agitur, the thyng is well doen.
Bene ambulare, God be with thee.
Bene audire, to be well spoken of.
Propter singularem humanitatem apud omnes bene audit.
Bene cogitare de aliquo, to haue a good opinion of one.
Bene comenit inter eos, They agree well together.
Bene curare uitatem, to lyue pleasantly.
Bene de te merco, I doo thee good, thou arte beholdeu unto mee.
Bene ferre gratiam, to doe pleasure to one.
Bene habere, to bee well at ease. Also to lyue pleasantly.
Ut bene haberem me in filiarum nuptiis.
Bene hercle denuncias, Thou tellest me good thynges.
Bene hoc habet, thys mattier commeth well to passe, or thys mattier goeth well.
Bene longus sermo, id est: valde, a verye longe tale.
Bene magnus, very great.
Bene mane dedi literas, &c. very tymely, very early.
Bene mereri, to doe pleasure to one.
Bene de rep. meritis est.
Bene multi, very many.
Bene nummularum marsupium, a pourse well stozed with money.
Bene comitatus Romam venit, he came to Rome with a good company.
Bene nummatus homo, a well monied man.
Bene successit, it came well to passe.
Bene vale, farewell, adieu.
Bene valere, to be in good health.
Bene vertere, to tourne to good.
Precor deum, ut hæc res bene vertet tibi, I pray god this thyng may tourne thee to good, or may be for thy profite.
Bene viuere, to make good chere.
Bene volo tibi, I woulde the good.
Non æque bene, not all thyng so well.
Bene actum cum eo est, he is well dealt with all. It is well for hys parte.
Bene cognitus, well knowen.
Bene dissimulatus amor, id est multum.
Bene est, for Bene habet, it is well, the matter is in good case.
Bene facis, well done, I thanke thee.
Bene factum, I am gladde, it hath chaunced wonderously well.
Bene fidum, very sure, trusty.
Bene firmum, very stronge, or constant.
Bene gessit sua negotia, He hath well employed ted his matters.

Bene habent tibi principia, thy begynnynge is good, or thou hast a good begynnynge.

Bene longinquus dolor, a payne that continueth longe.

Bene xepoll narras, wonderous well sayed, I am glad to heare it.

Bene natus, descended of an honest familie, comen of a good stocke.

Bene promeruit, he hath well deserved it.

Bene tibi est, the matter goeth well with thee, or it is well for thee.

Melius est homini factum, he is amended.

Bene sit tibi, much good doo it thee.

Bene venire velim, quod illud feceris, I pray god tourne it to muche good, that you haue dooen.

Bene, for valde.

Epistola bene longa, a very longe epistoll.

Bene assimilare, id est: Nunc tuum est officium has bene vt assimiles nuptias.

Aetatem suam bene curant, they lyue pleasantly and make muche of them selues.

Senatum bene firmum, firmiorem vestra auctoritate fecistis, the Senate that was verpe stedfast and constant before. &c.

Quasi re bene gesta latantur, they reioyse as though the matter were well brought to passe.

Eques Romanus locuples bene gerens sui negotij, wealthie and a good husbände, or one that employed his assayes well and diligently.

Res bene gesta, noble artes.

Flos bene olens, a sweete flower.

Bene penitus se in illius familiaritatem dedit, he gaue him selfe thoroughly into his familiarity.

Iuris & antiquitatis bene peritus, very cunning, or very well sene in. &c.

Quod eos conuenisti, plane bene, it is well in dede, or it is very well.

Bene plane magnus dolor mihi videtur, it seemeth to me a very great sorow in dede.

Si quis bene præcipit, if a man geue good counsaile, or aduertise a man well.

Bene promittit quidem, he maketh saye promise in dede.

In clamando quidem video eū esse bene robustum, I see he hath a stronge voyce to braye or crye out.

Sane bene, well in dede.

Bene sanæ mentis homo, one in his ryght wittes, or one well aduysed.

De illius moribus bene sperare debemus.

Improbo nemini bene esse potest, no ill man can be in good case, or in good estate.

Benedice, an aduerbe, signifyng, in praylynge, or saynge well.

Cum ille ciebas me ad te, blandē & benedicē, whan thou diddest trayne me vnto thee with pleasant wordes, and praylynge of me.

Benedico, dixi, ere, to prayse, to say well of: ap plied to god is signifyng to blese, or endow men with his giftes, or benefices.

Bene dicere deo, id est, laudare.

Benedicta, a certayne electuary very medicinable agaynst the gout.

Benedictum, ti, neu. g. a good sayng, an honest report.

Benedicus, a man well tunced, or saye spoken.

Benefacio, benefacis, or after the exception of oure Grammer, benefacis, eci, ere, to doo well.

Benefacis quod me adiuuas, Thou doest wel to helpe me.

Benefecit Afilius quod transegerit, Salius hath doone well that he despatched the matter.

Benefacere erga aliquem.

Benefit, the impersonall.

Benefactum, ti, ne. gen. a benefice, a pleasure, a friendly tourne.

Benefacta male locata, benefices or pleasures ill bestowed, or ill employed.

Beneficentia, æ, fce. g. is not onely lyberallite in geuing money or possessions, or other like thinges, but also in helpynge a man with counsaile, sollicitation, or other labour.

Beneficiarij, were they, whiche in the warres were not charged with watche or other labours pertaining to the fildie or hoste.

Beneficiarius, rij, m. g. he that receyue a benefice or good tourne of an other. It is also he that is called a vassal, a client, or a tenant that holdeth of an other by sayth and homage.

Beneficiarius fundus, lande giuen in fee simple or fee tayle, to be holden of donour by some seruyce.

Beneficium, fien, n. g. a benefice, a pleasure, or a good tourne.

Beneficio afficere aliquem, to doo a pleasure to one.

Beneficio alligari, or obligari, obstringi, to be bounde by some benefice or good tourne.

Beneficium collocare, deferre, dare, facere, conferre, ponere, to bestow or employ a benefice, to doo a pleasure.

Tantis beneficijs a me in rep. positis, bestowed on the common weale.

Apud hominem gratissimum tuum beneficium pones, you shall bestow.

Meo beneficio, for my sake, by my good helpe and meanes.

Tuo beneficio, id est, opera tua: Tuo beneficio adhuc viuit hæc pestis, by thy meanes.

Hoc beneficio, vtrique ab vtrisque deuincimini, by the good helpe of this, erhe of you be bounde to other.

Beneficio complecti aliquem, to shewe fauour, to doo friendly to a man.

Beneficio complecti aliquem, to doubt a benefice.

Beneficium dare & reddere.

Beneficium dare & accipere.

Ut hoc beneficium inabili clauo figeret, that myght make this benefite remoued for sure.
 Dare pro beneficio, in loco beneficii deferre,
 to giue for a benefite.
 Serere beneficium, ut possimus metere fructum.
 Habere pro beneficio, to accept for a benefite.
 Ornare beneficium, to shew many goodly pleasures to a man.
 Angere aliquem beneficio, to woo one a great benefite.
 Auctus nuper est, preclato eorum bene-ficio.
 Quotum beneficia maxima habebam, at whose hande I receyued great benefites.
 Magna mihi beneficia debebam, he was bound to shew me greate pleasurs.
 Placare beneficium, to mitigate or soage by the wynges of doynge a pleasure by benefite.
 Beneficium remunerare, to make a mende of requite a good tourne, to reward a man for a pleasur that he hath shewed.
 Quis tantis beneficijs respondere poterit, who can shew lyke hyndenefice for so greate benefites.
 Non beneficium faneramus, we doo not besstow our benefite looking for commoditee by it
 agayne.
 Beneficium interit, the benefite is losse.
 Beneficus, a, um, that is beneficiall or liberrall.
 Oratione beneficus, liberrall in wordes.
 Beneficus in aliquem.
 Beneficior, retis, to doo a good tourne or pleasure.
 Beneuolens, friendly.
 Beneuolens, lentis, om. g. he that loveth well an other, fauourable, friendly, well wyllynge, a frende.
 Officio sanctus sum beneuolentissimi.
 Non sum molestus sed beneuolens.
 Beneuolentia, rix, f. g. fauour, or good wyl, an intent to doo well, hartte good will.
 Beneuolentiam conciliare, acquirere, allicere, to get fauour, to wyne ones good wyl.
 Beneuolentiam confectari, captare, to endeanour to get ones fauour.
 Beneuolentiam conseruare, to kepe or maynteyne ones goodd will towarde vs.
 Beneuolentiam prestare alicui, to shew fa-uour or good wyl towardes one in dedde.
 Beneuolentiam declarare erga aliquem.
 Quos summa beneuolentia sum complexus, whom I haue very hartely loued.
 Beneuolentia quam erga me contulisti, which you shewed towarde me.
 Suscepta erga te beneuolentia, my hartly good will, that I haue begonne towarde you.
 Singulari est in te beneuolentia.
 Quomodo tuebimur beneuolentiam Cæsaris, how shall we maynteyne. &c.

Beneuolus, nebulosus, fauourable, well wyllynge.
 Benigne, comitatus, graciously, bountifully, gentilly, liberrally.
 Benigne flere alicui, to shew liberrally for his sorrow.
 Facis perbenigne, pe doe very liberrally.
 Benigne audire, to heere gentilly, or courteously.
 Grauate audire, contrary.
 Benignitas, alicui, f. g. bountifullnesse, cunctely, liberrallnesse, gentillnesse.
 Dei benignitate, by the goodnesse of god.
 Numquam benignitatem sensisti in te claudier? hysd you euer perceyue my liberrallite to be stoped from you?
 Amicorum benignitas exhausta est in eare
 quæ. &c. was consumed of spent.
 Benigniter, idem quod benigne.
 Benignus, a, um, gentill, benigne, bountifull, or liberrall.
 Dies benignus, a fortunate or lucke day.
 Sermo benignus, pleasant communication,
 gentell woordes.
 Benigno vultu, with a sweete or pleasant countenance.
 Benigna terra, a grounde that is fertile. lykes
 wylle Benigna tellus, and Benignus Ager.
 Vini somnique benignus: id est, vino somnoque large indulgens.
 Benna, nre, f. g. a hynde of wagons, wherof commeth Combennones, they that bee together in one wagone.
 Bro, aui, are, to comferte, to make happye, to make gladde.
 Berberia, idem quod Verbera.
 Berberion, a certayne shell fythe, in the which preslrs are byed.
 Berecynthia, called the mother of goddes.
 Berecynthius, a, um, of Phrygia, or of Lybele.
 Berecynthium cornu, an horne wherewith the priestes of Lybele were apointed to a rage of furie.
 Berecynthia tibia, a ppye vled in the sacrifice of Lybele.
 Berecynthus, a mountayne and towne in Phry-gia, where Lybele was worshypped, wherof the was named Berecynthia.
 Berengarius, a french man, which affirmed, that in the sacrament of the aultare was not the ve-rie bodie of Christ in the substance of flesh and blond. He had littell learning, but was a subtil Logician. Afterwarde he dyd recant. And in the counsaile of Lateranense, his etroun was condemned, the pte of our lord. 1082.
 Berenice, or Beronice, es, a woman of excellent beautee, wyfe to Ptolomeus Agas. Of that name were dyuers other women. It is also a towne in Syria.
 Berenices crines, treuen stetes lyke a triangle, at the taylor of the lyon.
 Bergidum, a cite of Spayne called Bergh.
 Bergion,

Bergion, a gygant the sonne of Neptune, slayne by Hercules.
 Bergomum, the citee Bergamo in Italy.
 Berilion, idem quod anemone.
 Berillus, a byshop of Bosterna in Arike, whiche crrred in certayne popnytes, and was reduced to the church by Ougene.
 Beritos, a famous citee of Phoenicia, called now Barutus.
 Bernaba, a citee in Spayne called Benaubie.
 Bero, onis, idem quod pero, a lake.
 Beroa, a citee in Theffalie.
 Beroe, the nurse of Samuele, the mother of Isaac.
 Beronice, looke Berenice.
 Berofus, a counnyng astronomer of Caldeie.
 Bersabe, a citee in Iudea, called also Putcus iuramenti, the pytte of the oth, where Abraham dwelled. It is the confines of the lande of be-heste.
 Beryllus, li. ma. & f. g. a pcepyous stone, called Berill, in facion like square, in colour like oyle of water in the sea. His ppropetees are, to make theim that weare hym mery. It conserueth and increaseth the loue betwene man and wyfe, hangged about ones necke, it putteth away dreames: It cureth diseases of the throte and cheekes, and all those whiche come of moistnesse of the head. It helpeth women that trauayle with chyldre.
 Bes, bēsis, or Bēsis, huius bēsis, masc. gen. a weight of viii. ounces. also. viii. partes of an acre diuided into. xii. partes.
 Vtura ex bēse, the gayne of eyght in the hunddred.
 Bēfafa, s. f. g. the fede of eue.
 Bēfa, a citee in Phoeis, an other in Deloponesus.
 Bēfālis, le, the adiectiue of Bes, of viii. ounces of ynches.
 Bēfāles, laterculi, bones. viii. fyngers longe.
 Bēfara, a citee of Syria.
 Bēsi, people of Thrace, famous for their thefte and robbery.
 Bēsyppo, an haue in Spayne.
 Bēstiana, a certayne medicine, looke Aetius, lib. 10. cap. 6.
 Bēsyga, an haue of marte towne in India, wher of the people are called Bēsygita. There is also a ryuer called Bēsygas.
 Bēstia, a cruell beaste.
 Bēstia crudelitate eximit: Bellua magnitudinem, Fera cicuri opponitur.
 Bēstarij, men that in olde tyme fought with beas-tes in the syght of the people.
 Bēstioli, s. f. g. the diminutiue of Bēstia.
 Beta, an herbe called beete, therof cometh a verbe Bētifare, whiche signifieth to bee vnfauoury in communication of wytyng. Eras. Chil. And men vnfauourie or vnwittie, were in scoone called Beta. Laert. de Diogene.
 Bētanomantia, a, southsaynge of witchcraftie by herbes, as Medea, and suche other dyd vse.

Bethania, a towne two myles from Jerusalem, on the syde of the mount Olyuete.
 Bethanij, people dwellinge aboute the towne of Bethsight within the diocesse of Lube in Ger-manie.
 Bethdagon, the temple of Dagon.
 Bethel, a citee in Samaria, where the people dwelled, which were called lebutai.
 Bethlehem, the citee where Dauid the prophete was bozne and died. Our Sauour also was bozne there. There dyd Mathell the wyfe of Jacob the patriarche. It was assigned to the tribe of Iuda, beinge distant from Jerusalem sixe myles, and was fyrst called Euphrata, and signifieth in the hebreue tongue, the house of bread.
 Bethsaida, or Bethesda, a grease ponde in Jerusalem, wherein the Priestes washed the Garbe, whiche should bee sacrificed, and may be interpreted, the house of catell, also the name of a towne, where Peter and Phylpp, the apostles were bozne.
 Bethsamis, a citee in Galilee, where Chysto dyd many myracles.
 Bethsamita, people of Bethsamis.
 Bethsura, & Bethsur, a stronge fytrest of the Jewes.
 Bericarius, looke Baticatus.
 Betica, Betis, Beticus, Beticola, looke Batica.
 Betica, the thyrde parte of Spayne, called now Granate, looke Batica.
 Betisfalca, idem quod vitis nigra.
 Beto, ti, ere, to goe.
 Beronica, or Veronica, called of the Grekes Cestron, of the Italians Serratula, an herbe called Betayne. whiche is hotte and drie in the first degree, and hath innumerable vertues. Of this herbe is an other kynde called Tunica, wherof be two sortes: One is named Siluestris, an other Betonica altilis, or Coronaria, whiche is the gylofer.
 Bethphage, a towne in Iudea, and may be interpreted the house of a mouth or a iawe.
 Betere, a towne called Bēies in Cypen.
 Betulla, s. f. g. a tree called byrche.
 Betulo, a towne in Spayne called Beson. Also a ryuer.

Beacon, wheate, whiche is harde to be beaten out of the huskes.
 Bianor, oris, a man surnamed Venus, who builded Mantua.
 Bias Prienæus, one of the seuen wyse menne of Grece, beholdinge his countrey taken by enymies, fledde: other men catynge with them, suche gooddes as they mought beare, he was demaunded why he tooke nothyng with hym: where to he answered, Cruelly I carry all my gooddes wyth me, meanyng vertue and doctryne

trine, reputing the goodde of fortune none of by.

Biana, a citie in Spayne called now Bacsa.

Bibacitas, ma. f. g. grete drynkyng.

Bibaculus, he that drynketh often, alway bibbyng.

Bibaga, an yle in India, where is great plenty of officers and musles.

Bibax, acis, and Bibolus, a. um, a great drinker.

Bibisia, w. for. g. bybbyng.

Biblia, the wyfe of Dulian the Romayn, which was of such chastite, that he was at that tyme an example, when it was a thinge monstrous to her of unchastite.

Biblio, blere, to make a soune as a pottle dooth,
when drynke is drawen into it.

Bibliographus, phi. mas. gen. a wyter of booke
a scriuener.

Biblion, lj. n. g. a booke, a volume, in the plurall number Biblia, the booke of holy scripture.

Bibliopola, la. masc. gen. a facioner, or booke seller.

Bibliotheca, ca. f. gen. a librarie, a study. Some tyme great numbre of booke.

Bibliothecalis, le. anye thyng belonging to a librarie.

Biblos, a hull rushe. also a booke.

Bibo, bi. ere, to drynke. Sometyme to sucke or tescepe in.

Bibere in auro, to drynke in cups of golde.

Aut bibe, aut abi, A prouerbe, signifyinge that we should apply our selues to the maner of men, or els auoyde theyr company.

Bibere aure, to heare diligently or attentively.

Longu bibebat amorem, and he sucked in.

Ab hora tertia bibebatur, they wente to drynkyng after thre a clocke.

Nauia sex cyathis, septem Iustina bibatur, let vs drynke of sixe cuppes for Nauia, and seuen for Iustina. They were wonte in olde tyme to quaffe by as many cuppes for theyr louers sake, as there was letters in theyr names.

Bibere gemma dixit vergilius, pro bibere poculo gemmeo.

Damnose bibere, to drynke vntill he be sicke, or vntill he haue spent all that euer he had.

Ex ipso fonte bibere, to drynke at the well hedde.

Morsu bibere, to drynke with choppyng the mouth or iawes together, as certayne birdes do.

Bibunt aues suctu, moste byrdes doe drynke suckyng.

Bibit aquas terra sitiens, drynketh in water.

Lana colorem bibit, taketh colour.

Bibit cum lacte mores maternos, he sucketh together with his milke. &c.

Bibitur, the impersonall.

Mature veniunt, discumbitur, fit sermo inter eos: & inuitatio, vt graco more biberetur.
They come at the tyme appoynted, and there was amonge them talkyng and quaffyng, that euery man might drynke after the grekes facion,

Bibra, people of the countrey called Beuap Dantume.

Bibra, a towne in Fraunce called Beaulme.

Bibrax, acis, a towne in Fraunce in the countie of Neuchell called Brac.

Bibulus, a Roman that was consull with Cesar.

Bibulus, a. um, that sucketh by Morsu, or byns with greedily.

Bibula arena, drye grauell that sucketh moys-
sure.

Bibula charta, paper that drynketh inke, or will not beare inke.

Bibulus lapis, the pumish stone.

Biceps, capitis. com. gen. that whiche hath two heades.

Biceps ciuitas, a citie diuided into two partes
by diffencion.

Bicion, larinis vicia, batches.

Biclinium, clini. neu. ge. a chamber with two beddes, or a roome where two boydes or tables doe stande.

Bicolor, oris. om. ge. of two colours.

Bicornis, ne. om. ge. that hath two hornes.

Bicorpor, oris. om. g. that hath two bodies.

Bicubitalis, le. two cubites longer.

Bicurgium, a citie in Almayne, called Hersforde.

Bidens, entis. mas. gene. a tooke that household men used to digge the grounde with, and maye bes now vsd for a dunge fork, or pitche fork.
Iactare bidens, in vergile to breake cloddes of earth with a fork or lyke tooke.

Bidens, entis. for. g. a sheepe with two teeth, or rather that is two yeres old called in some place hogwells or hogattes.

Bidental, a place where they used to sacrifice sheepe, when anye house was bourned with lyghthyng.

Biducenses, people of Normandie.

Biduum, i. n. g. the space of two dayes.

Bidui nauigatio, two dayes saylpyng.

Bidui abesse, to be two dayes iourney from a
place.

Propius quam tu biduum, nare then thou by two dayes iourney.

Biduum continens, two whole dayes together.

Per biduum, by the space of two dayes.

Hæc bidui sollicitudo est, this care is but for two dayes.

Biendum, an haven in Spayne.

Biennis, ne. any thyng that is two yeres olde.

Bienn spatium, two yeres space.

Biennium, nij. n. g. the space of two yeres.

Bisariam, an aduerbe, in two partes, or two maner of wayes.

Bisariam ingressi hostium fines, in two partes.

Bifer, or Biferus, a. um, that beareth twyse.

Bifera arbor, a tree that beareth twyse in one yere.

Bifidatus, a. um, cleft in two partes.

Bifidus, a. um, idem.

Bifidi pedes, clefte fete.
Biforis, re, adiect, that hath two doores.
Bifores fenestray, with two clappes.
Biforis cantus, an untunable songe.
Biformatus, a, um, fashioned like two bodies.
Biformis, me, idem.
Bifrons, ontis, that hath two foreheades or faces.
Bifur, a double cheefe, he that hath stollen twyse.
Bifurcatus, a, um, double forked.
Bifurcus, a, um, idem.
Big, a, or Bigae, arum, for. gen. a carte drawn with two horses.
Agitare bigas, to drive cartes.
Bigamia, a, f. g. the marriage of two wyues.
Bigamus, i, m. g. he that hath had two wyues.
Bigargitani, people of Spayne.
Bigatus, a, um, toynged two and two, or that hath the ymage of a carte with two horses.
Bigati, a piece of money haupnge the ymage of a carte.
Bigemmis, e, that hath two buddees or bourges nynges.
Bigenus, eris, or Bigeneris, re, a braste comen of two sundry kyndes, as betwene a dogge and a wolfe, or betwene an Iffe and a mare, and such lyke.
Bigerones, people of Guyan in Fraunce.
Bigerra, a citee in Spayne called commonly Beiar.
Bigna, twinnes.
Biugi, sometye taken for cartes.
Biugus, i, and Biugis, & hoc ge, cattell or beastes yoked together.
Curriculum biuge, a carte with two horses.
Leones biugi, tyons yoked two and two together.
Bilans, or Bilans, ancis, for. ge. a beame wpyth balances.
Bilbilis, a towne in Spayne.
Bilibra, a, f. g. the weyght of two poundes.
Bilibris, bre, weyghyng two poundes.
Bilinguis, gue, double tounge. Also deceptfull, or that can speake two languages.
Biliōsus, a, um, that is choleyke.
Bilis, bilis, for. gen. without any addicion, moſte commonly ſygnifyeth choler, ſometye anger, melancolynesse.
Bilis atra, melancoly.
Bilis flaua, yelow choler.
Bilis rubea, choler myxt with bloud, or redde choler.
Bilem alicui mouere, to make angry.
Difficilis bilis, anger harde to be pleased.
Mediocri bili ferre.
Splendida bilis, anger that appereth and ſheweth it ſelfe.
Effundere bilem, to ſhew his anger.
Intumuit maſcula bilis, great anger was moued, or his great ſtomake or courage dyd ryle or ſwell.
Percitus atra bili, very melancoly.

Reddere bilem, to ſet vomere.
Bile ſuffuſi, they that haue the laundre.
Bilix, teis, an adiectiue, as, Bilix toria, a byggandine or core of ſente double plated.
Bilis, of the Affricanes is called the ſede of man ſpilled on the earth. It is alſo a ſpice, ſit not farre from Herachia.
Bilistris, re, that hath continued peres.
Bellum biluſtre.
Bilites, olde wyres, ſed to call theyn that were in braſſe.
Bimaris, re, that is betwene two ſeaes.
Bimaritus, ti, maſc. gene. he that hath had two wyues.
Bimater, tris, that hath two mothers.
Bimatus, a, m. g. the ſpace of age of two peres.
Bimembris, bre, of. ii. partes, haupnge two members.
Bimembres, ſubſtantiue, is taken for the Centantes.
Bimēſis, ſis, the ſpace of two monethes.
Bimēſtris, tre, two monethes olde, or two peres accompted of the moneth.
Bimulus, a, um, idem quod Bimus.
Bimus, a, um, of two peres.
Binus, a, um, two, idem quod duo.
Bini, two and two.
Bina litera, two letters.
Bini tabellarii, two meſſangers.
Bina iuga boum, two yoke of oxen.
Binis annis conuertuntur, in two peres.
Corpus binum, a double body.
In bina findere, to cut in two peres.
Fortus binos alit vbera.
Binarius numerus, the number of two.
Binōmius, a, um, & Binōminis, ne, that hath two names.
Bion, the name of a philoſophier.
Biothanatus, violently ſlayne.
Bipalium, li, neu. gen. a mattocke with two bites.
Bipalmis, me, two handfull longe or large.
Bipara, ſhe that hath had two byrthes.
Bipartio, iui, ire, to deuide in two partes. ſome uſe to write Bipertio, and bipertior.
Bipartito, in two partes.
Bipartito claſſis diſtributa.
Bipatens, tētis, om. ge. open on bothe ſydes.
Bipedalis, & Bipedaneus, & Bipedanus, a, um, two foote longe or brode.
Bipedali latitudine eſſe, to bee two foote brode.
Bipedalis moduli homines, men of the ſature of two foote longe.
Bipedimui, people of Guyan in Fraunce.
Bipēnnifer, that hath two winges, or that carrieth a twybyll.
Bipēnnis, ne, haupng two wynges.
Bipennis, is, f. g. a twybyll, wherewith carpenters doe make theyr moſtayles.
Bipes, bipedis, haupng two fete.

Bipin-

Biplanella, called commonly Pimpinella, of some Pampinula, & Bipennula, an herbe called Pimpernell.

Birēmis, is, f. g. a shippe whiche hath two ranges of oyes, or hauyng two oyes in a state.

Biremes leues, galeys.

Bis, twyse.

Bis terq, twyse of thysse, diuers tymes.

Bis mille equi, two thousande horses.

Bis quinus mensis, the tenth moneth.

Bis stulte facere, to play twyse the foole, to committe double folie.

Bis terni nati, three children.

Bis deni, twenty.

Bis die, twyse a day.

Bis tanto, twyse as muche.

Bis bina, twyse two, fower.

Bis centum anni, two hundred yeres.

Bis falli, to be deceyued two waies.

Bisalta, a people in Spayne.

Bisaltis, or Bisaltis, the mayden, whome Pentheus (counynge hym selfe into a Ramme) was upshed.

Biscargis, a citee in Spayne.

Bisellum, lii. n. g. a state of foure men, wherof two men onely may sitte.

Biseta, an hogge, whan he beginneth to bee more than sixe monethes olde.

Bison, ontis, masc. gen. a beast hauyng one horne, and a very longe mane, some take it to be the same that is named Bubalus, a bogle of wylde ore.

Bissextilis, le, Bissextilis annus, the leape yere.

Bissextus, one daye added to in foure yeres.

Biston, the sonne of Mars, whiche buylded Biston, a citee in Thrace, wherof the Thracians were called Bistonij, or Bistones, and theyr countrey Biston.

Bistonis, a citee, and also a great meere of poole in the countrey of Thrace.

Bistónius, a, um, of Thrace.

Bisúlcus, a, um, clouen footed.

Bisulca lingua, a forked tongue.

Bisultor, the surname of Mars, because he taketh double reuengement.

Bisurgis, a tyuer in Germany.

Bichus, the name of a sworde plaier.

Bithymum, hong gathered by the bees of two sortes of thyme.

Bithynia, a royaume in Asia, whiche now the Turke hath: On the north it hath the sea called Ponticum, on the southe Misia and Phrigia. it was called also Bebrytia, and Mygdonia.

Bithynicus, and Bithynus, a, um, of Bithynia.

Bithynium, a citee in Bithynia.

Bitiensis, they that trauallye alwayes in strange countreys.

Bituitus, was a kynge of the Bluernes in fraunce.

Bitumen, inis, neu. gene. a kynde of naturall tyme, wherof the olde walles of Babylon were made. Of it were diuers kyndes: One lyke erthe, an other more liquide, lyke to molten pitch, or oyle, whiche flameth whan it is touched with fyre.

Bituminus, a, um, of or mixed with the claye called Bitumen.

Bitumeneus, a, um, idem.

Biturges, Burgis in fraunce.

Biturgia, a citee of the Thracians, called now Mallianum.

Biura, or after some Biura, a wydowe.

Biuium, ij. n. g. a way hauyng two pathes.

Biuius, a, um, that hath two wayes, or that leade two wayes.

Bizia, a stronge holde or fortreffe, of the kynges of Thrace.

Bizon, a citee of Thrace.

B ANTE L.

Blasterare, to bleate lyke a ramme.
Blasus, he that stammereth omittinge some wordes in speakyng.

Blanda, a citee in Italy.

Blande, a towne in Spayne called Blanes: They be also delectable thynges in eatyng.

Blande, an aduerbe, signifyng with saye or pleasant wordes, graciously, amozously, flatterynglye. Blanditer idem.

Blande alloqui, to speake saye or gently to a man.

Blande tentare aliquem, with saye wordes to proue one.

Blande paulpare, to stroke or touche softly.

Blande ac benigne hospitio accipere, to entertayne one courtely and gently.

Blandicella, woordes gently spoken.

Blandicus, he that flattereth.

Blandidicus, a, um, a saye speaker, or flatterer. A worde out of vse.

Blandiloquus, a, um, saye spoken, that bleth saye language.

Blandiloquens, idem.

Blandiloquentia, x. for. gen. saye flatteryngs speche.

Blandiloquentulus, a, um, a pleasant speaker.

Blandimentum, ti, n. g. a thyng pleasantlye doon or spoken.

Blandimenta plebi dare, to flatter the common people.

Blandimenta fortuna, the flatteryng of fortune.

Blandior, ditus sum, iri, to flatter properlye by touchyng, to speake saye for a vauntage, to please, to deelyte.

Blandiri vitiis, to excuse our fautes, or make lyght of thim.

Fortuna fallaci blandita vultu, flatteryng with a false countenance.

Mirifice, suauiter, subdole, suppliciter blandiri.

Suauiter blanditur sensibus nostris voluptas, Pleasures

Pleasure beliteth our senses gayly.
 Blanditer, flatterynge.
 Blanditia, æ, for. ge. flattery, pleasant motion, incentive by wordes, fayne speche.
 Blanditiæ, arum, f. g. plu. fayne flatterynge wordes. Agere blanditijs, to intreate with fayne wordes.
 Vendere blanditias, to speake fayne for a vantage.
 Blandirus, us, idem quod Blanditia.
 Blandirus, a, um, flatterynge, pleasyng.
 Blandus, a, um, flatterynge, or fayne spoken, pleasant, gentle, courtlyse, alluring, mery. also delectable.
 Blandus amicus, a flatterynge frende, that doeth and saith all to please.
 Blanda legentibus, pleasant vnto the readers.
 Precum blandus, one that maketh fayne entreatie.
 Alea blanda, flatterynge dice that allure men.
 Amator blandus, a pleasant louer.
 Labor blandus, pleasant trauell that greuet not.
 Pestis blanda, Inxuria.
 Blanda puella, a fayne damoyzell, a pretty gyll.
 Blandus succus, swete and pleasant iuice.
 Blanduria, a countrey in Italy, where Iphigene the poete had lande.
 Blaphigonia, æ, for. gen. losse of generation, properly in bees.
 Blasgon, an yle in the mouth of the riuer Rhone.
 Blasphemia, æ, f. g. cursynge, reprochyng, commonly blasphemy, which is now referred only to the despite of god.
 Blasphemo, au, are, to curse, to reproch, to speke in the derogation or despite of an other.
 Blateæ, or Blatheæ, spottes of durte spynkled on a man, as he iourneith, or that is scraped from his shooes.
 Blatero, onis, m. g. a babbler, he that talketh to no purpose, a tangler that vseth many wordes.
 Blatero, au, are, to bable in bayne, and from the purpose, to clatter without measure, to make a noyse lyke a Camell.
 Blatio, iui, ire, to speake or talke lyke a foole, or without any purpose or reason, to babble.
 Blatta, æ, f. g. a littell wourme or flie, of the kind of mothes, and hurteth bothe clothes and booke. It escheweth the light, and loueth darkenesse. Some thynke it to bee that flie, which lieth in the leame of a candell. Plinie maketh it a kynde of Beetes. Also the sylke wourme. It is sometime vled for purple.
 Blattaria, æ, for. g. an herbe called Moleyne, or a kynde of Moline called Torche.
 Blatteus, a, um, purple.
 Vestis platea, a purple garment.
 Blax, softe, delicate, wanton, that cannot decerne thynges, blounte, foolyshe, and he that daynly boasteth him selfe.
 Blemmæ, or Blemmyes, monstrous people in Ethiopia toward the southe, which haue no head, but their eyes and mowthe bee in theyr breastes.

 Blenni, fooles, doltes.
 Blepharo, onis, he that hath great browes.
 Bleptæ, a people in Aethiopia, which haue theyr eyes in theyr breastes.
 Blerani, a people in Italy.
 Bliteræ, a citee of Narbone, called sometime Septimanorum colonia.
 Bliteus, a, um, vnlaurey.
 Blitea meretrix, an vnlaurey queane.
 Blitus, or Blitum, in Greeke Bliton, an herbe beyng of the kynde of betes, hauing no sent.
 Blitum, ti, n. g. an herbe, which some men suppose to be spinache. other call it Bleite.

B ANTE O.

BOa, æ, a serpent in Italy, so great and large that on a time whā one was killed, a childe was founde whole in his belly, as Plinie writeth.
 Boa, is also a sykenesse, wherein the body is full of redde blysters. And, after Festus, a swelling in the legges after iourneying.
 Boagrius, a ryuer of Aethiopia.
 Boalia, playes made for the health of oxen and hyen, consecrated to the infernall goddis, for leuine bulbaitynges.
 Boarius, a, um, perteynyng to an oxe.
 Boarium forum, the market place, where oxen be solde.
 Bobium, a towne on the cliffe of the mountayne Apenninus.
 Bocalium, a towne of Sicilie.
 Bocas, a sylke, which hath his barke as it were peynted with diuers colours. Iouius affirmeth that he is taken in all colles in great sculles.
 Notwithstanding I doe not fynde his name in englyshe.
 Bocatius, a learned man.
 Bocchus, a kyng of Mauritania and Getulia, which deliuered Jugurtha bounde, to Sylla.
 Bocchori, called also Concordiensis, people of Portugall.
 Bocchyrus, a kynges name of Egypt, famous for his iustice.
 Bocenses, people of Sardinia.
 Boces, called of Theodoros Bocæ, a sylke, that onely hath a voyce, which mought seme to bee doggish, which men saye, maketh a noyse lyke the barkynge of a dogge, after he is taken.
 Bochiana, a towne of the Ereglodytes.
 Boderia, called of Caritus, Bodorra, a creeke of the Britayn sea.
 Bodin comagum, a towne in Italy, called also Industria.
 Bodincas, the ryuer Po in Italy.
 Boca, a towne of Peloponessus in the goulfe Argolicum,

Babe,

Bobbe, es, a citee and lake of Theffaly.
Bobbeis, eidos, a lake of Theffaly, & a place by it named after Bobus, the sonne of Glaphyus.
Boemia, a royaume called Beame, inclosed wth the boundes of Germany, haunpge on the east Hungary: on the south Bawter, on the west, the southerly Roricum, on the north east Polonia. It is equal in length and breadth, eche of theyn being about three dayes journey. It is enuironed wth the famous forest Sylua Hercynia.
 Throughte the middell therof passeth the greater riuer Elbis, and the riuer Multania. Upon the eyage wherof is sette the chiefe citee Braga or Praga. The language there is the Slauiyne tongue. Notwithstanding in the churches the people are taught in the duche tongue, in the church yardes they are taught in the beame tongue. They vary from the catholike sayth in sundry opinions, and doe scope all ceremonies. In some places, they pryncipally obserue the sette of the Adamites and waldenses in the act of lechery: wherof it is written in the woordes Adamitar & Vvaldenses.
Bocodurum, a citee in Almayne, now called Bataua, or Passaw.
Boeotia, is a countrey in Grece, wherin was the citee of Thebes, now it is called Vandalia: It was sometime called Aonia, Mesapia, Ogygia, Cadmeis, and Hyantis.
Boetius, or Boetius, a, um, of Boeotia.
Boethi, they, whiche helpe secretaries or clerkes, wherof Severinus Boethius was named.
Boetius, a learned man and Senatour of Rome, in the time of Theodosius.
Boetus, a ryuer in Spayne.
Bogadium, a citee in Germany called vulgarlye Forckleyh.
Boges, a Persian, whiche beyng besieged of the Atheniens, slew fyrste hys wyfe and chyliden, and after him selfe.
Bogudiana, a parte of the prouince in Afrike, called Tingitana.
Bogus, a kynge of the Mauritaynes, whiche was with Antony at the battayle of Actium.
Bohemia, looke Boemia.
Bohilla, a towne in Italy.
Boia, arum, gyues or fettres as wel made of linnen as of yron.
Boianum, a citee of the Samnites in Italy, called now Bouianum.
Boii, people of Burbon in Fraunce, and Bawer in Almayne.
Boin, a towne in Lyrene.
Boion, a towne of Doris in Grece.
Bola, a towne of Campayne in Italy.
Bolbitinum, one of the mouthes of Aylus.
Bolbulæ, a towne and an plande in the sea Mediterraneum.
Bolenia, a precious stone.
Bolenium, a towne in Hungary, called Ratchell Spurg.

Boletus, a kynge of the best mushrooms.
Bolingar, people of Asia.
Bolis, bolidis, f. g. a dart with wythe fide, also a plummet and line, wherewith shipmen do sounde in the sea, to fynde lande. Also a certayne fyr impression in the ayre.
Bolitus, ti, a row turder.
Bolitus, a, um, wyle.
Bolus, i, masc. gen. a masse or lump of metall or other lyke thyng, a peece or gobbet of any thyng. also a throw or cast at dyce. also a draught wth a netre in waters, the soundyng leade. It is also a morsell. By a metaphore it is taken for aduantage.
Bolus terre, a clodde of earth.
Bolus argenti, a wedge or a peece of syluer.
Bolus faucibus eripitur, A prouerbe, signifiying some aduantage or profitable thyng to be taken from vs secretly.
Bomarei, people of Asia.
Bombax, an aduerbe, spoken of him that setteth nought by that, which is spoken, as one wolde say, when he is rebuked of a fault. And what than? or tush, I care not for that.
Bombilo, aut, are, to humme lyke a bee.
Bombizatio, onis, f. g. the noise that bees make.
Bombos, a countrey of Cilicia.
Bombus, i, masc. gen. a great or a hoarse sowne or noise, as it were of a trumpet or gunne, a bounse, a humming or hysping, the humming or noise that a bee maketh. It is also the name of a certayne diuinour.
Bombycinus, a, um, that is made of sylke.
Bombycina vestis, a garment of sylke.
Bombylius, a humble bee.
Bombyx, ycis, ma. ge. a sylke worme.
Bombyx, ycis, f. g. the sylke.
Bomilear, the sonne of Amilear, a duke of Carthage, whiche was hanged on a gibbet in the middes of Carthage.
Bomolochus, molochi, m. g. a common scroffe, or he that susteyneth all villany to get money. It was also taken for a boie, that stode at the aulters ende to steale away the candels.
Bona dea, was she that some called Batua, Fauna or Senta, of whome Varro writeth, that neuer man dyd se her, nor here her named, but onely her husbände.
Bonaria, x, f. g. caulmenesse of the sea.
Bonâsus, si, ma. g. a beast like a bull, but broder and shorter, & hath a mane lyke an horse downe to the shouldeers, but the heare is softer, and cometh downe to his eyes. The heare of hys body is lyke a bright soxel, his mane is darker coloured. The fleshe of hym is pleasaunt in eatynge, and is therfore hunted. But he kenneth continually till he be werie, and in his kennynge flyngeth and shooteth forth his warde and dunge thre furlonges from him, as Plinie writeth.
Bonitas, tris, f. ge. goodnesse, honestee, and iustyce, beneficence.

Bonitas soli, the fertilitie of the earth.
 Bonni, certayne hylles in Etolia.
 Bononia, a towne of Ithuria.
 Bononiensis, se, of Bononia.
 Bonum, i. n. g. good, whiche is contrary to ill.
 Bonus, a, um, good, honest, proper, holme, profitable, fauourable, benenolent, pensible, liberall, easy to speake to, treatable. sometyme
 counnyng.
 Bona, in the plu. numb. substance, goodes.
 Bona paterna consumere, to spende away his fathers goodes.
 Bona caduca, the goodes of them that be condemped, goodes escheted.
 Bona uita, that come by auncitours.
 Adedere bona, to consume his substance.
 Adiudicare bona, by sentence of iudgement, to apointe who shall haue the goodes.
 Bona pradia, the goodes whiche be lyable to euery action. looke præs, pradis.
 Bonum cælum, a good ayre.
 Bona causa, a good and rightuous cause.
 Genere bono natus, come of a good kynne.
 Operam bonam nauare, to imploye ones labour well, to doo a thyng that shall tourne to the profite of other.
 Bono animo esto, be of good courage of chere.
 Bono animo transeamus ad oppugnandum Carthaginem, let vs passe ouer hardely of cursragiously.
 Animo meliore ruit, he toke it more pacitly.
 Bonis artibus, by honest meanes of facions.
 Cælum bonum, a good ayre.
 Si bona conditio fuerit, emam, if I may be a gayner.
 Eo meliore conditione vituperabis, with so much the more auantage he shall.
 Exitus bonus, a good ende.
 Lucrum bonum, great gayne.
 Bona memoria.
 Nuntius bonus, good tydynges.
 Bona pars, a great parte.
 Melior pars diei, the greater parte of the day.
 Somno meliore fruere, thou shalt cleape more at thy ease.
 Bone vir, spoken mockingly, o ye honest man.
 Bona septem habet in cōmestura hæc herba,
 this herbe is good to eate for fower causes.
 Bonus ad cetera.
 Bonus bello, a good warriour.
 Iaculo melior, cunnynge at casting the dart.
 Pedibus melior, lyghter a foote, swifter to runne or go.
 Sagittis melior, sunnynge at shootynge, better archer.
 Bono eis fuit, it was profitable for them.
 Quod optimum factu videbitur, facies, as you shall thynke beste.
 Optimus quisque, all honest men.
 Bonum æquūque oras, it is honest and reso-nable that you desyre.

Bono literarum vi, to be the commoditie of learning.
 Boni, vñ absolutely, significth honest men,
 and of good estimation and name.
 Boni quoniam conuenimus ambo, because we bothe beynge cunnynge.
 Bonus dormitat Homerus, id est doctus.
 Sis bonus, o, felixque tuus, id est propitius.
 Quoties id fecit sepeque publico bono, and alwayes with the comoditie of the comon weale.
 Manere bonum, some good thing wil happen to thee.
 Numerare in bonis, to reckon amongh thy co-modities.
 Bonis rebus, in prosperitie.
 Bonam spem habere, to haue a good hope.
 Bono esse alicui, to be profitable to one.
 Multum bonus vir, a right honest man.
 Bonum & æquum, looke Aequus.
 Bona dicere, to repute well.
 Bona fide dicere, to say truly and playnly,
 without feynynge or dissimulation.
 Bona venia, by your licence, no displeasure to you.
 Bona venia illud a te peto, with your leaue, or no displeasure taken.
 Bona venia me audies, you shall be displeased
 yt I tell you.
 Bona verba quæso, say well I pray you, or in mockynge: It is not as you say I trust.
 Bonæ ædes, a substantiall house.
 Bonæ fidei possessor, a possessor of trust.
 Boni consulas, take it in good parte.
 Aequi boni facias, idem.
 Boni frugi, honest, of good conditions, thyng.
 Bona valetudo, good health.
 Bonæ notæ vinum, wyne of a good sorte.
 Bonæ fidei emptor, he that meaneth good sayth in buyng, intyndyng no deceipt.
 Bonas horas male collocare, to lose tyme, which mought be better spent.
 Bonis auiibus, with good lucke.
 Bono animo esse, to bee of good chere.
 Bono animo dicere aut facere, to speake or do
 a thyng for a good intente.
 Bono ingenio esse, to be debonaire, of a good nature.
 Bono publico facere, to doe it for the comon
 weale.
 Boo, aui, are, and Boo, is, iui, ire, to bellow lyke
 a cowe.
 Boos, a huge great serpent lyuyng by the mylke of rudder beastes. Pl. li. 8.
 Boosceate, a citee of Hellesponte.
 Boosura, a citee of Epyres.
 Bootes, tis, and ta, also Boötus, ti, a sterre that foloweth Charles wayne.
 Borama, a citee of Ithencia.
 Borbetomagus, or Vormaria, a towne in Al-mayne called wormes.
 Borcāni, people of Italy.
 Borcobæ, a citee of Thrace.

Boreæ

Borex, or Borix, talper stones.
Bóreas, a, m. g. the northwestern wynde.
Bóreus, a, um, and Borealis, le, northwarde.
Bóreus polus, the north sterre, called the Lodesterre.
Boreostoma, matis, one of the mouthes of Danubius.
Borix, the pterious stones called Iaspides.
Borion, a promontory of Afrike.
Borith, an herbe that fullers use.
Boron, a towne of the Troglodytes.
Borippa, a towne of Babylon, where is much woull wrought.
Borysthenes, a great river in the countrey of Scythia. also a towne.
Borysthenides, people dwelling by Borysthenes.
Bos, ouis, com. ge. a rother beast, be it bull, ore, or cowe. sometyne money, wheron the figure of an ore was copened.
Bos in lingua, a pponerbs touchyng theym, which dare not speake the trueth, or wyll not, be cause they haue receyved money to holde they peace. For the Atheniens used a certayne copen of money, with an ore figure thereon.
Armenta boum, oxones of oxen or kyne.
Custos boum, a cowe herde.
Terga boum, ore hydes.
Bouis lingua, or Bubula lingua, looke Bu-glossos.
Placide vellente bos, supple, incedir, pro-nerbially, a softe fyre maketh swete malte: I wyll not bee to hasty, it is good beyng meye and wyse.
Labores boum, the earth tilled by oxen.
Mugitus boum, lowyng of neate.
Bos cerebratus, a madde ore.
Luci boues, wilde oxen called also, Vri.
Boues contumaces, restie or vnrulid oxen.
Cruda bos, in Horace, a cowe that doeth not digest hir meate.
Boues disuncti, oxen vnynoked.
Fessi boues, weary oxen.
Forda bos, a cowe great with calfe.
Immunis bos aratri, that neuer dyd drawe
 the ploughe.
Intacta bos. Lecti boues.
Macri boues, rarene leane oxen.
Mutili boues, oxen that lacke hoznes.
Optimi boues, stalle fedde oxen.
Passa iugum bos, an ore that hath ben yoked.
Patuli boues, oxen with bynde heads, or large hoznes.
Perdomiti boues, broken to the yoke.
Arare bobus, to eare with oxen.
Curare boues, to tresse his oxen.
Bos enectus arando. Fatigare boues.
Errant boues, the oxen graze.
Dentem non petit bos, the ore biteth not.
Subicere boues aratro, to putte oxen to the plough.
Bolca, a water foule lyke to a duche, but somewhat lesse: Iudge it a pocharde.

Boschis, idis, f. g. a bynde that is fed in the houle.
Bosrites, a kynde of olive trees bulke and full of leaues, also a pterious stone.
Bosphoranus, or Bosphorius, a, um, of Bos-phorus.
Bosphorus, looke Bosphorum.
Bosphorum, a kynde of consecrated holy graine somewhat lesse then wheate, as soone as it is mowed, thershed, and wyndowed, the mowers are sworne, not to carry any of it away vntill it be sodde or baked, that the vse and benefite of
 it may not be transferred into other countreys, Diadozus.
Bosphorus, the name of a part of the sea, whiche
 lyeth in two sundry costes, One by Constantia nople, an other more northwarde.
Bosra, Botzra, or Bozra, a cite of Idumea.
Bostar, an ore houle.
Bostrix, or Bostrius, a buthe of heare.
Bostrychites, a pterious stone lyke to womens here. Pl.
Bosyrites, a kynde of olives, haung many bous-ghes, whiche and spotted with sanguine.
Botellus, li, m. g. looke Botulus.
Bothryon, a certayne disease or soze in the eye,
 Auicenna calleth it Anulum.
Bottel, people of Thace.
Botrion, onis, idem quod Botrus. Also a cer-tayne medicine.
Botris, or Botrys, tris, f. g. the herbe called oke of Hierusalem. Some doe call this herbe Ambrosia.
Botripes, a pterious stone, in whiche blackenes is mixed with bloudie and whyte spotted.
Botrus, tri, m. g. a cluster of grapes.
Botrys, a towne of Syria.
Botrytes, a pterious stone lyke to a grape. also the first kynde of the herbe named Cadmia.
Botularius, i, m. g. he that maketh or selleth
 puddinges or saulages.
Botuli, they which haue much bludde.
Botulus, i, m. g. a puddynge or saulage made of porke.
Botyllus, li. m. g. a litle cluster of grapes.
Bouare, idem quod Boare.
Bouatim, lyke an ore.
Bouiana famis, idem quod Bublina.
Bouianum, an olde towne in Italy.
Bouicida, cidar, com. g. a slaughter man.
Bouile, bouilis, n. g. an ore stalle.
Bouilla, arum, a towne not farre from Rome.
Bouillus, n, um, belongyng to neate, or of neate,
 as, Caro Bouilla, beoffe.
Bouinalis, a shrubbe, called also Paronychia.
 Diosc. li. 4. cap. 57.
Bouinator, oris, m. g. he that with great noyse crieth out on an other man, or he that cannterly or rebuketh.
Bouinor, aris, to taunte, cheeke, or rebuke, to trie out on one.

B Rabastenes, an hill .x. myles from Lacedemonia.
 Brabeuta, & Brabeutes, m. g. he that is ordeyned iudge in any game, of wastynge, rennyng, or leapyng. Also he that beareth the kynges scepter.
 Brabyla pruna, the plummes called Damofene.
 Brabium, or Brabium, uij. n. ge. the rewardes or ppyce, geuen to the best doers in common games.
 Braccha, x. or Bracha, x. f. gen. that kynde of mantell, whiche now cometh out of Irelande, or a longe garment made of rough fyle. Also a breeche, floppe, or cobpiece.
 Laxa brachx, wide flappes.
 Braccharius, ij. m. g. he that maketh suche garments of breeches.
 Brachara, a citee in Spayne called Braga.
 Bracharus, or Bracharus, a. um, that weareth suche a garment, mantell, or breeche.
 Brachata Gallia, Parbone in Fraunce.
 Brachiale, is, n. gen. a bracelette. it may be also bled for a bracer.
 Brachialis, le. of the arme.
 Brachiatas, a. um, that hath armes or thynges lyke armes.
 Brachiata vinea, a vyne that hath longe branches lyke armes.
 Brachionifer, eris, a bracelet or lyke ornamente wyne on the arme.
 Brachium, brachij, n. g. an arme, properly of a man. it is also in hilles, vynes, cyuers, seas, fishes, bestes, and other thinges.
 Leui brachio, or molli brachio aliquid facere to do a thyng negligently, or litherly, and without payne.
 Porrectio Brachij, the stretchinge oute of the arme. Contractio brachij, the pulling in of the arme.
 Prolectio brachij, the castinge oute of the arme.
 Brachium maris, an arme of the sea.
 Brachium piscis, the synne of a fysh.
 Brachia arboris, the great boowes of a tree.
 Molli brachio aliquid obiurgare, to rebuke one gently.
 Brachia montium, the armes of hilles.
 Brachia in vitibus, the longe branches.
 Alterna brachia iactare, to cast and wagge his armes, one after an other.
 Cerea Brachia, nice tender armes as soft, as ware.
 Celeriter brachio vii, to moue his armes faste.
 Retorta brachia tergo, armes bound behinde.
 Circundare, inncere, implicare, brachia collo, to take one aboute the necke with his armes.
 Concavere brachia in arcum, to set his armes a kenbowe.
 Contrahere brachium, to drawe in his arme towarde his body.
 Curuare brachia, Demittere brachia, to lette downe his armes by his syde.

 Efferre brachia, to holde up his armes.
 Exerere brachia, to put out his armes out of his syde, or gowne.
 Extentum brachium :
 Fidere brachijs, to trust to his strength.
 Fregit brachium.
 Iactare brachia, to wagge the armes.
 Nectere brachia, to entangle the armes as men doe in wastelengs.
 Brachodes, a citee in Aethiopia, called Monexi.
 Brachycatalecticum carmen, a verse lacking one syllable or more.
 Brachycatalecton, where syllables lacke at the ende of a verse.
 Brachilogia, shortnesse of speche.
 Brachmanes, philosophes of India.
 Bractea, x. f. g. golde fyle, or thynne leaues, or tapes of golde, syluer, or other metall.
 Bractea ligni, lytle thynne peeces of wodde.
 Bractearius, ij. m. g. he that maketh suche leaues, a golde beater, a golde layer, a gylter.
 Bractearia, x. f. g. the arte of a golde beater, or gylter.
 Bractearior, oris, m. f. ge. the same that Bractearius.
 Bractecola, x. f. g. a lytell leafe or cape of golde, syluer or other metall.
 Bracteatum, ti, that is couered or layed ouer with thynne and flatte peeces of golde, or other metall.
 Bractia, an yle of Illyricum.
 Bragada, a riuer nere to Utica in Aethiopia.
 Braga, certayne deserte plandes.
 Brana, a towne of Turbulians in Spayne.
 Branchia, arum, f. g. plu. nu. the gilles of fysh.
 Branchidæ, ceretene priestes of Appollo, in Pósideum, a towne of Ionia.
 Branchos, the rume or cattare that falleth downe by the cheekes.
 Branchosi, people of Asia.
 Brannouites, people of a countrey in Fraunce, called Le vale de Broyane.
 Brasidas, a capitayne of Lacedemonia.
 Brassica rustica, idem quod Apocynon.
 Brassica, ca. f. g. called of the Grekes Crambe, of the apothecaries Caulis, colewortes. Of it bee dyuers kyndes, but. liii. most commonly in vse.
 Brassica marina, sea sole fote.
 Brassica capitata, cole rabes.
 Brassica syluestris, an herbe of the kinde of colewortes, growyng by the sea syde, muche lyke vnto the garden coleworste, but moze whiter, rough and bitter.
 Brachis, this, f. g. the herbe called in latin Sabina, in englysh Sauine.
 Bractia, an yle in the prouince of Aethiopia.
 Brabium, looke Brabium.
 Brauron, a towne in the countrey of Aethiopia, where was a chapell of Diana.

Brabium

Brauum, the cite of Burgus in Spayne.
 Breger, Briges, and Phryges, idem.
 Bregmenteni, people of Etoas.
 Brenda, the towne of Brundis in Italy.
 Breno, or Brennus, a capitaine or leader of the Frenchmen called Galli, whiche buylded Ves uue, a cite of Venice.
 Brethine, a certayne kynde of rootes, with the whiche women were wonte to pyncte theyr fas ces with.
 Bephorophum, or Bephorophia, x. for. g. an hospital, where childerne be kept and nourished.
 Brepium, a promontorie of Achaia.
 Bretena, called now Brintum, the cite Brindes in Italy.
 Bretoleum, a towne of Portugall, now called Britium.
 Breuci, a people of Hispanie, by the river Saule.
 Breui, shortly, briefly, in few wordes, also in shorte space.
 Breuia, orum, shallow places in the water, where one may wade.
 Breuiarium, n. g. a compendious draught, a briefe collection or bygement of any thyng, a summarie, a registre.
 Breuiculus, a littell short man.
 Breuiloquens, tis, om. gen. he that useth fewe
 wordes.
 Breuiloquentia, x. fem. ge. a shorte forme of speake.
 Breuiloquium, qui, neu. g. the same.
 Breuiloquus, qui, mal. gen. he that speaketh his mynde in few wordes.
 Breuius, qui, are, to abridge or make shorter.
 Breuis, breue, short briefly, compendious.
 Breui tempore, shortly, in short space.
 Breuis esse laboro, I endeavour to be shorte.
 Breue donum, a gyfte that wyll not longe con tinue.
 Breue vite reliquum, a short space of our life
 remaineth.
 Frons brevis, a shorte forehead.
 Gaudium breue, shorte ioye.
 Summa brevis, a small summe or price.
 Breue facere aliquid, to make a thyng shorte.
 In breue cogi, to be brought into a streight.
 Breuis occasio, a sodayne occasion.
 Breuis sermo, shorte communication.
 Breuibz aliquid dicere, to speake a thyng in few wordes, to tell quickly, or at once.
 Spe breuius, sooner than ye thought.
 Breui, in shorte space, ere it bee longe, also, in few wordes.
 Complecti breui, to comprehend in fewe
 wordes.
 Breui postea, soone after.
 Breuiori summa emere, to bye at a lesse price.
 Breuissima terra, littell grounde, a small plote of lande.
 Breuis, ma. g. & Breue, n. g. an abridgement of shorte together, consernyng the briefe some of any

 thyng.
 Breuias, aris, for. g. shortnesse, briefenesse, com
 pendiousnesse.
 Breuitas & contractio.
 Breuitatis causa, to be short, or because I will be shorte.
 Breuitas diei.
 Breuitas pedum, the shortnesse of ones feete.
 Breuitas arboris, the lownesse of a tree.
 Breuiter, shortly, quickly, in few wordes.
 Breuiter & cursim aliquid attingere.
 Breuiter audire.
 Breuiter & absolute complecti.
 Breuiter summamque describere.
 Breuiter dixit.
 Breuiter & in transcurso aliquid dicere.
 Breuni, people of the Alpes.
 Briareus, a gygant, whiche was of an exceeding greatnesse, and had an hundred armes, he was also called Egeon.
 Brias, aris, a cite of the countrey Picidia,
 in Asia.
 Brigantes, were aunciente people in the North parte of Englande.
 Brigantium, a cite in Galicia, called Com postella.
 Brigetium, a cite of Spayne now called Oniodo.
 Brigiani, people of the Alpes.
 Brileus, an hill in the countrey of Athens.
 Brileum, a mountayne in Athens.
 Brion, an herbe called also pes galli.
 Brisa, x. a grape, whan it is troden with mennes feete, to presse out the wyne, of some it is taken for the kernels of grapes.
 Brisabrita, people of Asia.
 Briseis, eidis, a fayre damosell that was geuen to Achilles, and taken from hym by Agamemnon:
 wherbyon grewe greete trouble in the Greeces
 hoste at the siege of Troye.
 Brisseus, a surname of Bysa, the surname of Bacchus.
 Britanica, an herbe lyke greete sorrell, but blacker thicker, and therewith mosye, the roote blacke and littell, the taste strepne the tongue.
Britania, the moste noble Ile of the worlde, wherein be conteyned England and Scots lande. It lieth from Germany weste, from France and Spayne, west northwester. The fourme therof is lyke a triangle: and (as some haue written) lyke the blade of a gleue. The length is extended into the north to the further moste part of Scotland, called Calidonia, which Plinius, Solinus, and Marrianus doe agree to bee 800. miles. The bredth of it (after Mar cianus) is 300. Italian myles. The narrow est distaunce betwene this yle and Calys (an des (called of Plinie Gessoriacum in Gallia) is 50. Italian myles. It is now gested to bee 30. englysh myles. Of the first namynge of this yle is yet no certayne determination, for as much as there remaineth no auncient history, making therof remembrance, the olde Wytons booke (suche as were) beinge all destroyed by the Saxones: who indeuoured them selfe to extyngue vnterly the honourable renoume with the name of Wytons, lyke as the Gothes delt with the Romaynes. Also the parte of Titus Liuius, where the conquest of Britaine is remembred, with the histories of Julius Rusticus, and dyuers other noble wyters, that wrote specially of this countrey, are vnterly perished. Suche as remaine, as the commentaries of Julius Caesar, Cornelius Tacitus, Diodorus Siculus, & they that wrote of Cosmographie, haue omitted the original beginning of the name. The history of Gildas the Wyton, can not be founde, who was after the Saxons had invaded this roialme. And therfore mought lacke suche booke, as should best instruct him. As for Beda seemeth to haue seen no chyng written of that matter. For where he saith, that this yle tooke the name Britania, of the inhabitantes of Britayne in France: is no chyng like to be true. For that countrey was (not longe before the time of Beda) named Armorica & Armoricus tractus, whan this yle was called of most auncient wyters Britania, & (as Solinus writeth) seemed to be, an other worlde, for as muche as the west parte of Gallia was thought to be the vttermoste parte of this worlde. Also Julius Caesar writeth, that the places of this yle were vnknewen to frechmen, sayng to a few marchauntes: and yet they knew no farther then the sea coste towarde France. Moreover the same Wyton affirmeth, that it was left amonge them in remembrance, that the innermost parte of the countrey, was inhabited of them, whiche had they first beginninge in the same yle. This well considered, with the auctoritee of the wyter, bothe an excellent prince, and also a great learned man, and was hym selfe in this yle: it is not to be doubted, but that he most diligently searched for the true knowledge of the auncientee therof. And if he mought haue founden, that the inhabitauntes had come of the stocke of Eneas, of whose progenie he hym selfe came, he woulde haue reioyced muche, for the prowesse and valiant courage, which he commended in them. Moreover, that the name began of Brutus (whome our wyters imagined to descende of Eneas the Tropane) is no more lykely, than that this yle was called Albion of Dioclesians daughter, or of white rockes. All the olde Latyne historians agree, that the sonne of Siluius, the second in succession from Eneas, and of them named the sonne of Alcanius, was Eneas, called also Siluius. wherunto the Greeces doe also accorde, but they name Siluius to be brother to Alcanius: & bozne after the death of Eneas, & was therfore called Posthumus. But neyther the Romayns nor the Greeces doe write of any man called Brutus, before Julius Brutus, whiche expelled Tarquin out of Rome. Whiche name was also geuen to hym (by the sonne of Tarquin) in derision, because they looked him to be foolish and outwitted. Moreover, there is so muche difference betwene Britania and Brutus, that it seemeth against reason, that the one should precede the other. For if Brutus had ben the first of the name to this yle, he woulde haue called it Brutia, or Brutica, rather then Britania, which hath no manifest proportion or analogie with Brutus. But now will I (as I haue done in the world which I declare a reasonable cause of doubt, why this yle was named Britania. About the year 1580, it hapned in my Wyte, at Iup church, aboute 10 miles from Sanctuary, as I was bound to make a visitation, they founde an holow stone couered with an other stone, wherin they founde a booke, hauyng in it litle aboute 20. leaues (as they sayd) of very thicke pelime, wherin was some chyng written. But whan it was meted to printe and chaunge, whiche were there, they coulde not reade it. wherfore after they had tolled it from one to an other (by the meane wherof it was toyne) they dyd neglect and cast it a syde. Longe after a piete therof hapned to come to my handes. Whiche not withstandinge it was all so rente and defaced, I meted to maister Richard Pace, than chiefe secretary to the kynges most royall maieste, wherof he exceedingly reioyced. But because it was partly rent, partly defaced & blouered with weate: whiche had fallen on it, he coulde not finde any one sentence perfect. Notwithstandyng after longe beholdinge, he shewed me, it seemed that the sayd booke conteyned some auncient monument of this yle, & that he perceyued this worde Prytania, to be put for Britania. But at that time, he sayd no more to me. Afterward, I giuing much study & diligence, to the reading of his stories, consydering wherof this worde Britania first came, fyndyng that all the yles in this parte of the Ocean, were called Britania, after my fyrste coniecture of Albion, remembryng the sayd writing, and by chaunce fyndyng in Suidas, that Prytania in greke, with a circumsflexed aspiration, doeth signifye metallas, faires and markets, also reuenues belonging to the romane treasure: I than conceyued this opinion, that the Greeces flourisshyng in wisdom, prowesse, & experience of sayng, beinge entered into the ocean sea, founde in the yles greata plenty of cyn, leade, yron, brasse, & in diuers places golde and silver in great quantitee, they called all those yles by this generall name Prytania, signifyng the place, by that whiche came out of it, as one woulde saye, he wente to market, whan he goeth to Antwarpe, or Barrow: or to the saye, whan he goeth to Sturbridge: or to his reuenues, whan he goeth to anye place, from whens his reuenues dooe come. And yet, because this yle excelled all the other in every condicion, it was of some pryuately called Albion, that is to saye, more happye or richer. This coniecture appoynteth choth moze nyshe the true similitude, than the other immitations, excepte there bee any auncient history befoze the time of Gellrey of Mons mouth or Bede, which may moze probably confute that I haue declared. To suche wyll I gladly geue place. Finally I thought it alwayes moze honourable, to haue receyued the fyrste name by such occasion as I haue reherced: And the generation of the inhabitantes of this lande, to bee eyther equall with the mozte auncient, or myxed with the mozte wyse and valiant people of Grece, vanquishers and subduers of Troians: than to take the name and fyrste generation of a vayne fable: or of a man, if any suche were, which after he had slayne hys father, wandred aboute the wyldes, vncertaine where to dwell. Also to aduante vs to come of the Trojanes, causers of theyr owne countreys destruction, by fauouringe the aduouty of Paris and Helena, Of whome neuer proceeded any other notable monumente, but that they were also breakers of theyr othe and promesse, yet this foly is founde almoste in all people, whiche contende to haue theyr progenitours come fyrste oute of Troye. whiche fantasye maye well bee laughed at, amonge wyse men. The sayeth of Christ was first receyued in this royaume, after the incarnation. 156. yeres.

Britannicus, a, um, of Britayne.

Britanneum, nei, n. g. a gallery or walkyng place of marble stone.

Britannus, ni, & Brito, onis, a man of that countrey, an englyshe man.

Britona, a nymph of Crete, whiche fearynge to be rauyned of Minos, caste her selfe into the water.

Brixellum, a towne in Italye betwene Mantua and Cremona.

Brixia, Bressa, a citee in Italy. also a ryuer in Ita.

Brixillum, a towne by Mutina.

Brochideates, the teeth that stande bendyng outwarde.

Bróchiras, áis, f. g. the crookednesse or bendynge out of the teeth.

Brochus, a, um, idem quod Bronchus.

Brochus, chi, m. g. a certayne vessel, whiche men vse, bothe to fill and empty great wine vessels, a tunnell, also a measure lesse than vna by the halfe. that is, a galon and a pottell.

Bromius, mij, one of the names of Bacchus.

Bromos, the seebe of a weede that groweth among cozne, of the kynde of wyldes otes, and was vsed of the olde Grecians for wyldes otes. Dioscorides taketh it for otes. the description of Plin. lib. 22. cap. 25. doeth not swaue muche from the description of otes. Eras. sayth it is a kynde of barley.

Bromus, one of the Centaures.

Brónchi, they which haue tut mouthes.

Bronchocele, a swellng in the chekes or throte,

Bronchus, a, um, and Brochus, a, um, that hath the nether same longer than the other, with the teeth bendyng out, tutte mouthed.

Bronchus, chi, ma. g. the innermoste parte of the throte.

Broncon, a blake tree, of the bignesse of an oliue, with a leafe like an oke, and frute lyke to wyldes figges.

Bronces, a Cyclop, one of Vulcanes seruantes, and is interpreted thunder.

Bronceus, the surname of Iupiter.

Bróntia, x, a thyng lyke the head of a mayle, fals lyng with the thunder, It quencheth suche thynges as be fyed with lyghtnyngs, a thunder stone.

Bróntion, the herbe called also Aizoum minus.

Broteas, one of the Lapithes.

Brotheus, the sonne of Vulcane, who beyng mocked for his yll fauourednesse, bourned hym selfe in the fyre.

Bruchus, bruchi, ma. ge. a flie lyke to a locuste, which eateth cozne as it groweth.

Brucia, a kynde of pitche somewhat moze ruddie and fattie than the common pitche, loke Col. lib. 12. cap. 19.

Brullix, people of Ephesus.

Bruma, x, fœ. gen. properly the stay of the sunne in wynter, the shortest day of the yere, commonlie wynter.

Iners bruma, that maketh men slothfull.

Bruma cano horrida gelu.

Brumæ terdenæ, thirtie wynter.

Tor brumis. Cic.

Minor bruma, a mylde wynter.

Horrida, sæua, nimbofa bruma, an harde, rough, and stormy wynter.

Frigida bruma, a colde wynter.

Brumalis, le, belongng to wynter.

Brundulum, an hauen of the ryuer Atesis.

Brundisium, a citee in the roialme of Naples.

Bruscandula, looke Bryon.

Brupeo, ere, olde wyters vsed for Stupeo, to bee abashed.

Brusa, a citee of Bithynia, builded by Anniball.

Bruscum, ci, neu. g. a bounche or knur in a tree, specially in bore, of the tree called Acer.

Bruseum, sei, neu. ge. an herboure or hedge made with thornes and byers wounde together.

Bruta, a certayne tree like to Cipres, haupng whitish leaues, and maketh a pleasant sauour when it is burned.

Brutianæ parinx, certayne tergates, which the Brutians dyd vse.

Brutiarj, they which were wonte to execute seruile ministeries to the Romans, because the Brutians were put there vnto for that they dyd fyrst forsake the Romans, and went to Annibal after the ouerthrow at Cannas.

Brutij, people of the roialme of Naples ioyngng to Sicile.

Brutius, a, um, of the Brutians.

Brutus, a, um, dull, or grosse witted lyke a beaſt, brute, without reaſon, or condition.
Brutaxellus, ſpoken of the earthe, becauſe it hath no ſenſe nor feeling.
Bruta fulmina, ſodayne lightenynges, that chaunce without naturall cauſe.
Bruta fortuna, fooliſhe and blinde fortune, hauynge no conſideration in thynges.
Bruta animalia, brute beaſtes.
Brutus, the name of a familie in Rome, whereof were diuers very notable men.
Brya, x. for. ge. a litle buſhe or heathe, whereof they make buſſhes, to bruiſe clothes. It beareth a fruite lyke galles, and is called alſo Myrice, and Tamarice.
Brayzon, a ryuer in Bithynia.
Brygion, a citee of Macedonia.
Bryon Thalafſion, or muscus marinus, of two ſortes, the one deſcribed of Dioſcorides to be very ſmall after the maner of heares, whiche is alſo in it ſortes, the one vſena marina, ſea moſſe, the other Lozallina, both haue very ſmall branches. the other ſorte of Bryon is deſcribed of Plinie to haue leaues lyke lettices, and is called in Engliſhe ſlanke.
Bryon, brii, n. g. or as ſome write it Bryton, an herbe, hauynge leaues like white vyne, it is called alſo Lupus ſaliſtarius, Lupulus, commonly Humulus: in Italy Bruſcandula, in Engliſhe hoppes, wherewith beere is made.
Bryonia, x. f. g. called alſo Vitis alba, Viticella, and Philotrum, a wilde vine, whiche groweth in hedges, & hath redde beeries, the ſyre wherof touchyng the ſkynne, wyl cauſe it to bliſter. Some doo call it Brionic, or wilde neppes.
Bryax, people of Thracia.
Bryſanx, people of Scythia.
Bryſea, a citee of Laconia.
Bryſeus, a name of Bacchus.

B A N T E V.

B V, olde wryters vſed to ſette thys ſyllable before wordes, whan they ſignified any thyng to be greate, as, Bupeda, greate chylde. Bua, x. for. g. the worde of ponge chylde, whan they aſke for drynke, with vs they vſe to ſaye Summe.
Bubalinus, a, um, of a bugle.
Bubalina ſtragula, couerynges or hoſe clothes made of buſſe leather.
Bubalus, a peyneter of Elazomena.
Bubalus, li, com. gene. a beaſte called a bugle, a wilde ore.
Bubastis, a citee in Egypt, wherin was a temple of Diana.
Bubafus, a countrey of Caria.
Bubeium, a countrey of Cyrene.
Bubeſſus, a gouſe of the ſea in Caria.
Bubetani, a people of Lampayne.

Bubetia, or Bubern Iudi, feaſtes, wherin was great huntynge of bulles and oxen, as bulbaytynges, and ſuch lyke.
Bubern, they which ſet forth thoſe playes.
Bubeum, a kynde of wyne.
Bubile, li, n. g. an ore houſe.
Bubinda, a ryuer in Irelande.
Bubino, ſui, are, are, to deſile with the mens ſtruous ſtre.
Bubo, bubonis, the m. g. ſometime, f. g. a ſhrike oule. looke after in bubones.
Bubulat bubo, the oule howleth.
Bubo, is, ere, to crie lyke a bittour.
Bubo, a citee in Lybia.
Bubona, or Bubonia, the goddeſſe of oxen.
Bubones, m. g. botches or impoſtumes, ſpecially about the ſhare or members, alſo the parties aboute the pryncipal members.
Bubonium, m, n. g. looke After.
Bubonocela, nocela, f. g. a dyſeaſe, where the bowell is breaſt by the ſhare of a man, towards his pryncipal members.
Bubſequa, com. gen. a cowherde.
Bubula, lx, f. g. boefe.
Bubulcito, ſui, are, to play the herde man.
Bubulcus, ci, m. gen. an herde man, or he that goeth to plough with oxen.
Bubulus, a, um, that whiche belongeth to an ox or cow: as, Lac bubulum, cow mylke.
Bubulum corium, an ox hyde.
Buca, a towne in Italy.
Bucar, a certayne veſſell.
Bucardia, x. for. g. a ſtone lyke to a bugles or ore hart. Pl. li. 37.
Bucca, ca, f. gen. the holowneſſe of the cheke or mouth.
Bucca fluentes, waggyng chekes.
Quicquid in buccam venerit loquitur, He ſpeaketh at aduenture, or withoute aduſement.
Inflare buccas, to be angry, or ſwell for anger.
Bucca, is vſed of Iuuenall for pypers.
Bucca, x. f. g. a moſſell.
Buccella, lx, f. g. the ſame.
Buccellarij, orum, were certayne ſouldiours of the Romaynes in the eaſte partes, whiche after they were diſmiſſed, liued by robbynge and ſtealyng.
Buccellarius, rij, m. g. one of Gallogræcia.
Buccellatum, ti, n. g. breade called byſket, twyſe baked and made in ſmall cakes.
Buccina, buccina, f. g. a trumpet. Alſo an horne or like thyng, wherewith ſhepherdes and ſwines herdes vſed to call their beaſtes together.
Inflare buccinā, to blowe or ſowne the trumpet.
Vt ad tertiam buccinam præſto eſſent, That they ſhould be ready at the thyrde ſowne of the trumpet.
Buccinator, toris, m. g. a blower in a trumpet, a ſpreader of ſame, a trumpettour.
Bucino, ſui, are, to blow a trumpet, or ſette forth a mans praye or diſprayle.

Buccinum

Buccinum, ni, n. g. oꝝ Buccinus, ni, m. g. the sonne of a trumpette. It is also a shell, like as bee made at saint Cornells, wherein one may blowe as in a trumpet. It is also a kynde of Melfe in the sea, in forme lyke a hoꝝne.
Plinius li. 9.
Buccones, num, ma. g. they whiche haue greete cheekes.
Bucculenti, idem.
Buccula, lx, f. g. a litle cheeke. Also that parte of the helmet, whereby wynde is taken. also the crest of the helmet.
Bucculentus, a, um, that hath great cheekes.
Bucea, cx, f. g. a thin huske in a beane within the hull.
Bucentaurus, ri, m. g. a great hyppie oꝝ carrike.
Bucentes, centus, m. g. a kyngys sonne.
Bucentrum, tri, n. g. a pycke of a gode.
Bucephalus, cephal, m. g. an hoꝝse, which wold suffer no man to come on his backe but onely great kyng Alexander: who lytting on hym did meruaylous battayles, and escaped wonderfull dangers. Finally beyng. xxx. yeres old, he died, not of any wounde, but onely by extreme laboꝝs and sundry beuities. Quer whom Alexander builded the citee called Bucephala, after the hoꝝses name. This citee is in India, where Alexander vanquished Darius.
Bucephalus, doth signifie an oxe head.
Buceras, ceratis, n. g. called also Fenogracum.
Carphos, Aegoceras, the herbe fengreke.
Buceria, hearde of neate.
Bucerus, a, um, of neate oꝝ hoꝝned beastes.
Bucere armenta, hearde of neate.
Bucrum pæcus, an hearde of oother beastes.
Bucheides, an herbe called also Saryrium regi-
um, Digit Citrini, of the apothecaries Palma Christi, because the roote is lyke an hand. Of it bee two sortes, the male, whiche hath leaues without spotted, and a purple flower: The female hath bzoder leaues and spotted.
Buchia, a place of Ionia. It is vled of the grekes foꝝ Buccina.
Bucia, a citee in Sicilie, called now Butera.
Bucinua, a litle yle in the Cilician sea.
Bucolica, drum, n. g. verses wherein shepherds
 oꝝ herdemen dooe speake.
Bucolicus, a, um, perteynyng to the keepnge of bullockes.
Bucolicu carmen, a poeme made of herd men.
Bucolicon, oꝝ as some wryte it Bucolon, an herbe of the kynde of Panax, lyke vnto Ferula, and groweth in Arcadie, in Macedonie and Thrike, and hath very great and rounde leaues.
Bucolon, the sonne of Laomedon.
Bucolus, idem quod bubulcus.
Bucranion, the herbe called vitis nigra, Diosc.
Bucula, x, a ponge towe, a heifer.
Buculus, li, m. g. a calfe, a steere, a bullocke.
Buda, the chiefe citee in Hungarie, whiche hath by the walles two bathes: The one veray colde,

the other so hotte, that it can not bee suffered, wherein is muche fyre, which being sod, hath no
 tast. This citee is called Offen.
Budea, a citee in Magnesia, an other in Phrygia.
Budora, two plandes by Landie.
Budorgis, the citee Brestian in Germanie.
Budoris, a citee in Flumina called Heidelberg, belongenge to the Pallegraue of counte Bas-lantine.
Bufo, onis, m. g. a tode.
Buges, a ryuer of Scythia in Europe.
Bugla, after Carolus Stephanus, is the bulgar name of the herbe Symphitum petreum.
Buglossa, Buglossum magnum, Circion, and Bouis lingua, Bugloss, Langue du buet.
Buglossa, a certayne fyth called also solea, as some haue thought, a sole.
Buglossos, glossi, f. m. gen. & Buglossum, fsi,
 neu. gen. called also Bubula lingua, & Bouis
lingua, of the apothecaries Borago, in englishe Bozage.
Bugones, gonum, ma. ge. bees, because they bee sometyme engendred of an oxe bodie. Varro de re rust.
Bulapathum, thi, neu. gen. an herbe called pas- cience.
Bulbaceus, a, um, belongng to such herbes as haue rounde rootes.
Bulbine, es, f. ge. an herbe haupnge leaues lyke leekes, and a purple floure, betraie medicinable foꝝ greene woundes. It is named dogges lieke.
 Some vse this woꝝde foꝝ Scalions oꝝ chibols.
Bulbito, aui, are, to cast durte on one. It is pꝛopꝛy of childeꝛne, whiche nourses dooe name, cackng.
Bulbosus, a, um, haupnge lytle rounde headed in the rootes.
Bulbus, i, m. g. is taken generally foꝝ euery roote that is rounde, as onions oꝝ turnepes, of which one kynde doeth meruaylously pꝛouoke the car-nall luste, and styꝛeth appetyte, whiche Moulde
 seeme to be scalions.
Bulbus sylvestris, our ladies coullappes.
 & Bulbos quarit, He looketh foꝝ onyons: A pꝛouerbe applied to them that behold the grounde as they go.
Buleuia, x, ma. ge. one of the counsaillours of a citee, a Senatour.
Bulenterion, ri, n. g. a great buildyng, wherein is nother yꝛon pyꝛne, noꝝ nape, so ioynged that euery beame and rafter maie be taken awaie. It is also a counsaile house.
Bulga, ga, f. g. a male oꝝ boudget of lether.
 also a purse oꝝ bagge.
Bulgari, a people in the countrey of Media, to-warde Danubium.
Buli, bowelles.
Bulimia, x, f. g. and Bulimos, great famine oꝝ hunger. It doth also signifie the hungry sickenes.
Bulis, the name of a citee.
Bulla, lx, f. gen. an ornament that men vled to weare

weare in triumphes, wherein were inclosed remedies agaynst enuie. Also a bullion sette on the couer of a booke, or other thyng. also a casquette or other thyng hanged about ones necke, properly whan it is holowe. Also a bubble of water, whan it rayneth, or whan a pottle seetheth. Sometime the head of a naple, as in great mens doores and gates for an ornament. Otherwhyles studdes in gyrdels or other thynges.

Bulla aurea, a tablet or Agnus dei of golde.

Demittere bullam collo, to hang an Agnus dei at his necke.

Fulgere bullis, to glister with studdes or bosses.

Homo bulla, a prouerbe, notyng the frailtee of mans lyfe, that vanysmeth awaye lyke a bubble of water.

Bulla regia, a towne in Africke.

Bullatus, a, um, that is garnished with tablettes, studdes, or other lyke ornaments, as noble mens children were in olde tyme.

Bullata nugæ, auintynge or boastynges, or elles a payne clatterynge, wherein is no substantiall sentence.

Bullenfes, the towne and people of Locrus.

Bulleum, a towne in Englande called wilsan.

Bullidensis, a towne of Macedonie.

Bullio, iui, ire, to boyle or seeth, to bubble in seethynge.

Bullo, aui, are, to bubble as water dooeth whan it seetheth.

Vrina bullanis, beyne bubblynge.

Bullula, læ, f. g. a diminutive of Bulla.

Excitare bullulas, to styre by lytle bubbles.

Bulua, the citee of Lyburnia, now called Budea.

Bumamma, mæ, idem quod Bumastos.

Bumastos, or Bumastus, m. g. a great teat, also a kynde of grapes lyke to teates.

Bumelia, æ, f. g. a kynde of asche, verie medecynable agaynst the styngynge of serpentes. Plin. li. 16. ca. 13.

Bunias, buniadis, f. g. called in latine Napus and Bunion, nij, n. g. two dyuers kyndes of rapes, or turnepes.

Bunium, a rare herbe in Englande. it may be called square persely.

Bunitium, a towne in Germanie called Sund.

Bupædæ, great boies.

Buphonum, ni, ueu. ge. an herbe, called of some Chamælion, of other Ixium, whiche if cattell eate, it maketh them die of the squynce, and thers of hath the name, Buphonum, quasi bouis mors.

Buphthalmus, mi, f. g. an herbe, called also. Cotula non ferida, and Oculis bouis, and is lyke to camomill, but it groweth more vpright, maywede. some call it Marthes, that synke not.

Bupina, æ, f. g. great thyrste.

Bupteuos, f. g. an herbe that groweth without sowynge or settyng, and hath the stalk a cubite high, full of long leaues, and the topp lyke byl.

Bupodes, great fete.

Buprestes, tis, f. g. gene. a flye lyke to a blacke beetle, but he hath longer legges, he lieth in the grasse, and is of that nature, that if a beaste dooe eate hym, he swelleth so, that he bursteth.

Buprestis, is also a certayne herbe used to bee eaten.

Bura, a citee in the goulfe by Corinth, whiche was swallowed of the sea.

Bura, ræ, or Buris, is, f. g. gener. the hyndes parte of the plough, whiche is croked, the plough taylor.

Burbatus, a flye, whiche by the description of Paulus Iouius, seemeth to be a carpe.

Burchana, a famous yre in Pontus.

Burdegala, or Burdigala, Burden in Gallois.

Burdo, onis, m. g. a mulet.

Burgi, they whiche kepe a forte, castle, blockhouse or other holde.

Burgundia, Burgoyne.

Burgundiones, Burgonpons.

Buris, a citee of Achaia.

Buris, looke Bura.

Burhanicum, ei, neu. gen. a certayne kynde of garments.

Burhanica, a certayne porton of dyne of myke and sope mixed together.

Burhum, rhi, n. g. a deepe redde colour.

Burhus, rhi, m. g. one that after eatynge of dyne lyng hath a redde face, lyke a puddyng.

Bursaonenses, people of Spayne.

Burtina, a towne of Spayne called Burbastro.

Busicon, a great egge.

Busiris, a citee of Egypt. in the dominion of Busirica, the Egyptians call it Solis vrbs, the greekes call it Thebe.

Busiris, firis, or firidis, the sonne of Neptune, whiche he begotte on Libya, the daughter of Eapaphi, who fedde his hoxes with mens fleshe, and was slayne at last by Hercules, as he wolde haue slayne him.

Bustuarius, orum, mascu. gene. swoorde platres, whiche caught at the bournynge or buryng of one.

Bustuarius, a, um, the adiectiue of bustum.

Bustuaria machæ, common strumppettes and hoozes that vled to prostrate them selues in tomes, sepulchres or chancell houses.

Bustum, sti, n. g. a place where dead bodies haue bene burnt. Sometime a sepulchre.

Coaceruatum bustum excelso aggere. Virg.

Ingens bustum terreno exaggeré.

Fumantia busta.

Eruere busta.

Ille nō in busto Achillis sed in lecto occupat, id est, non in sepulchro.

Seq̃ vocat bustum miserabile nati, id est, miserabile sepulchrum nati, quem commederat.

Bustum omnium legum: pro perniciē.

Incidere

Incidere in busta, to graue in the sepulchre.
 Facere bustum, to make a sepulchre.
 Facere bustum, peragere busta.
 Pyra est congeries lignorum: Rogus cum ardere capit. Bustum vero iam exustum vocatur.
 Butco, ónis, m. g. a kinde of haukes, which hath three stones, a bussarde.
 Butes, the sonne of Amun, kyng of the Bedycians, and father of Cris, also the sonne of Les crops, and a ryuer in Aegyptia.
 Butos, a towne of Egypte.
 Butrotum, or Butthrotium, a towne in Epire.
 Butus, a certayne myrtle.
 Butyfia, a, f. g. was called a great sacrifice, such as Hecatumbe, is.
 Butio, ónis, ma, g. a hyde, whiche I suppose to bee a bytous.
 Butra, an yle nere to Candia.
 Butus, a citee in Liburnia.
 Butuntineses, people of Calabria in Italy.
 Butubata, a trifle of no value.
 Butirum, ri, n. g. Penult. interdum producta, interdum correpta, butter.
 Buxentum, a towne that the Greeces call Pyxonta.
 Buxetum, ti, neu, gen. a place where boxe trees grow.
 Buxeus, a, um, of boxe, or pale of colour like boxe.
 Dentes buxci, pale like boxe.
 Buxifer, ifera, rum, that beareth boxe.
 Buxosus, a, um, full of boxe, muche like boxe.
 Buxus, i, f. g. or Buxum, i, n. g. boxe, or the boxe tree. Sometime a trumpet or a pype.
 Buxos inflare, to blowe a pype.
 Torno rasile buxum. Crispata puxus.
 Densum folijs buxum. Horrida, horrisorabuxus.
 Buxus pro tubea buxea. Fada Celenza committere praelia buxo.
 Inflati murmur buxi.
 Buxum torquere flagello, to byppe a toppe.
 Buzz, people of Indie.
 Buzeri, people of the countrey Chemischia in Asia.
 Buzegus, an hyll of Thessalie.

B ANTE Y.

Bylefia, a citee of Asia.
 Byblis, a littell rounde yle in the sea Mediterraneum. Also the daughter of Philetus, who beyng enamoured on his owne brother Launus, and of him neglected: died for sorowe.
 Byblus, a citee of Phenicia, called nowe Gaeta.
 Byblus, is a certayne rushe, called in latine Papyrus, loke there.
 Bycus, a ryuer of Sarmatia, called now Buges.
 Byrsa, a, f. g. an hyde of a beast.

Byrseus, a tanner, or copperer.
 Byssinus, a, um, of fine linnen, silken.
 Byssina verba, woordes wherein is a magnificent eloquence, expounding an auctoritie. Parysates, mothe to the kynges Artax and Artaxerxes, used to saye that he whiche wolde speake to a kyng boldely, must haue woordes lyke to fyne threde. In latyne more properly Verba bisina.
 Byssus, si, f. g. a maner of fine flaxe of linnen, silke.
 Byzacium, a countrey of Africa.
 Byzantium, a citee of Thracia now called Constantinople, sometime founded by Paulinus a kyng of Spartane, wherof the inhabitants were called Byzantij. Afterward it was augmented by Constantine the emperour, and was the chiefe and head of all the empyre of entall.
 Byzari, fantastical men, and of strange intentions.
 Byzenus, the sonne of Neptuneus, who used such a libertie in speeche, that therof growe this proverbe Byzeni libertas.
 Byzeri, or Byzeres, loke Buzeri.

C ANTE A.

Cabala, a tradicions of the Jewes, left among them by Moyses without wytyng, but from the father to the sonne, and so continuous ally in their generations, wherein is concluded the vnderstandyng as well of the secretes of nature, as the mysticall sence included in the woordes of holy scripture.
 Cabzefi, measures that can not be fylled.
 Cabalaca, a towne of Albania in Asia.
 Cabalia, a countrey of the lesse Asia, the people wherof be called Cabalij.
 Cabalij, a people of Asia.
 Caballinus, a, um, perteynyng to an horse.
 Caballinus fons, the ryuer called also Helicon, aboute whiche was the moste haunte of the nyne muses.
 Caballitio, ónis, f. m. g. the office of keepyng horses.
 Caballus, li, ma. g. an horse, yet in some part of England they doe call an horse, a caplo.
 Succus,

Succussator caballus, a trotting horse.
 Agere caballum, to make an horse to galope.
 Cabellio, the towne of Cauillon in Harbon.
 Cabera, the daughter of Portheus, whiche had
 iii. sonnes by Vulcan, called Caberi, or Cabiri,
 And as many daughters called Caberida.
 Caberon, a ryuer in Asia.
 Cabiri, the sonnes of Cabera.
 Cabullinum, a citee in Fraunce.
 Cabus, a measure of the hebrues conteyning two Sextarios, and an halfe. vi. ounces, and three drammes of Athens measure, which amounteth to. llii. pound. llii. ounces and. llii. drammes.
 Cabyle, a citee in Thace.
 Cabylia, a citee in the lower Asia, although Ca-byrij, be people in India.
 Cacabus, i. ma. gen. a pottle of sauldrion, wherein meate is sodden.
 Cacabo, aui, are, to call lyke a parriche.
 Cacabulum, the herbe called also Solanum.
 Cacademon, demonis, m. g. an euell spyrite, a dyuell, whiche stirreth a man to dooe euill. Com-tyme it is taken for yll fortune.
 Cacalia, x, f. g. called also Leonrice, of the apoc-thecaries Carui agreste, an herbe called wylde carwales.
 Cacaturio, iui, ire, to desyre to go the scoole.
 Cacarus, a, um, fylled with ordure, beached.
 Cacéphaton, ti, n. g. an yll or displeasunt pronunciation, either in a woorde or in a sentence, as Arrige aures, O fortunatam, natam. &c.
 Cachelus, ei, masc. gen. he that hath the diseste called Cachexia.
 Cachexia, x, f. g. a spye of a consumption, which proceedeth of an ylle disposition of the bodie, and the bodie and vsage is therewith verape leane and yll coloured.
 Cachectici, they whiche haue that disease.
 Cachinnatio, onis, f. g. a great laughter.
 Cachinno, onis, m. g. a great laughter.
 Cachinnor, aris sum, ari, deponent, and Ca-chinno, aui, are, to laugh immoderately, and and with a loude voyce.
 Cremulo cachinnare risu, to laugh and shake withall.
 Furtim cachinnare, to laugh pryncely.
 Cachinnus, ni, m. g. a scoyne, or a lowde laughter in derision.
 Concuti cachinno, to laughe that he quaketh
 agayne.
 Concuti cachinno, to laugh that he quaketh,
 to shake with laughing.
 Distorque ora cachinno, to wyeth his mouth or vsage with laughing.
 Tremulus chachinnus, that maketh one quake.
 Cachinnos mouere, to make men to laugh.
 Cachinum sustollere, vel tollere, to laughe out of measure, to take by a great laughter.
 Cachla, la, idem quod Buphthalmos.
 Cachris, is suche a thyng as groweth on trees,
 as we see on hasels, hangens lyke aglettes, before the leaues come out, compacte together as it were scales. Plinie calleth it Pilula. In other trees they be rounde, as in the case of the Cachry, the seeds of rosemary, or rosemary it is selfe.

 Cacia, x, f. g. viscositer, or that whiche we dooe commonly call a fause in a thyng.
 Cacidini, people of Scythia.
 Caeirini, people of Scythia.
 Caebani, or Caradani.
 Caco, aui, are, to spye.
 Cacobasilea, x, f. g. an yll hyngedome.
 Cacoblépa, x, f. g. a leide braste in the handes of the ryuer Atlas, whiche hath such a venemous ste in his eyes, that whom so euer he beholdeth, dieth incontinent.
 Cacobchyla, such thynges as haue yll sayes.
 Cacobchéxia, x, f. g. an yll habyte of the members of the body, caused by sydenesse.
 Cacobchymia, x, f. g. yll digestion, by which yll sayes, gatheren in the rundies of the body, for lacke of perfecte digestion.
 Cacademon, loke Cachidemon.
 Cacoethe, n. ge. plur. nu. a boyle of soye, breap
 harde to be tured.
 Cacoethes, ne. ge. an yll condicion, custome, or maner, that a man hath taken of longe continenaunce. Iunenall semeth by translation to be the ambition to the thing, as to the, m. g. 2000.
 Cacología, yll speche.
 Cacologus, gi, m. g. an yll speaker.
 Caco stomachos, chi, one that hath an yll and breake stomache.
 Cacos, yll, deformed. also an herbe called Iris agrestis.
 Cacosynthetion, ti, neu. gen. an yll or deformed composition.
 Cacotéclina, x, f. g. an yll arte, or the vyce of any arte or science.
 Cacoelia, x, f. g. an yll affection, or imitation.
 Cacoelus, li, m. g. an yll fauoured imitation.
 Cactos, an herbe, whiche groweth only in Sicile.
 Cacula, la, m. g. a souldiours flaue or page.
 Cacumen, inis, n. g. the toppe of an hyll, or any other thyng.
 Cacumen ouis, the toppe of sharpe ends of an egge.
 Cacumen pillorum capitis.
 Motare cacumina, to wagge the toppes.
 Surgere gemino cacumine, to haue two high toppes.
 Ad summum donec venere cacumen, idest,
 absolutionem & consummationem, vntill
 they come to absolute perfectenes.
 Cacuminatus, a, um, with a sharpe top or topped.
 Oua cacuminata, with sharpe toppes.
 Cacumino, aui, are, to make sharpe toward the toppe, to make copped.
 Cacus, a gygant, whom Hercules slawe in Italy.
 Cadauer, cris, n. g. a deade bodie of carcorie, a carcoris.

Abiectum cadauer, a vyle carkeys.
 Coniecta cadauera, dead bodies cast one vpon
 another.
 Cruentum cadauer.
 Cadauer erudum, defunctum, lacerum, eiectum, informe, tremebundum, rigidum, tasbo dilapsum, toruum.
 Expirant cadauera vermes.
 Spoliare cadauera.
 Cadauera oppidorum, citres of towne deca-ed, or vntirely destroyed.
 Cadauerofus, a, um, horrible, hideous, like a dead corse or carkeis.
 Cadauerofa facies, a deadly face or countenance,
 or after some a cruell looke or countenance.
 Cadducij, people of Media.
 Cadi, a citee of Phrygia.
 Cadiscus, an hell in Candy.
 Cadiscus, sci, ma, g. a vessell, where into are gathered sedules, bylles, and lottes, where thyngges are doone by a consente of many counsail-lours, or of the people.
 Cadiuus, a, um, that whiche falleth by it selfe.
 Cadiua folia, leaues fallen by them selfe.
 Cadiua poma, appuls whiche dooe fall downe without violence.
 Cadmea, the citee of Thebes.
 Cadmeides patronymicum.
 Cadmeius, a, um, and Cadmeus, a, um, of Cadmus.
 Cadmea victoria, A prouerbe applied to that victorie, wher of cometh more harme then good, or that it were better to lose than geat. Reade hereof in Chil. Erasmi.
 Cadmia, x, f. g. the ore of brass.
 Cadmites, m. g. a stone whiche hath blew speckles about it.
 Cadmus, a prince, the sonne of Agenor, and brother to Europa. who buylded Thebes, and brought out of Phenicia into Grece, sirtene letters. and founde out the fusing and casting of mettalles. There was an other Cadmus, the fyrst that euer wrote in prose. Also an hell
 in Asia.
 Cado, recidi, ere, n. g. to fall, to dye, to be slayn, to happen, to chaunce, to belonge or agree with a thyng. to ende or synne, to fall or go downe, as sterres and planettes dooe.
 Cadere, to happen.
 Cadere causa, to be nonsuite in an action, to bee cast in the lawe, to lese his suite.
 Cadit illi animus, his herte or courage faileth, or is abated.
 Cadere animis, idem.
 Cadere in deliberationem, to come in counsultation, or to be consulted of.
 Cadit solutio in diem calendæ, the paiement is the fyrst daie of the month.
 Cadere ab, de, or ex equo, to fall of or from an horse.
 In pectus cadit pronus, he falleth flat downe

on his breast.
 In pontum cadunt flumina, the ryuers haue theyr course or fall into the sea.
 Inter verba cadit lingua, when a mannes tounge stoppeth in his talke.
 Verba cadunt singulæ, he can not speake for sobbyng.
 Cadunt dentes, the teeth fall out.
 Homini illico lachrymæ cadunt præ gaudio, He and by the man wepte for ioye.
 In verba singula cadunt lachrymæ, The teares tribled downe his chekes at euery woorde.
 Arma ceciderunt, the warre or debate cessid.
 Ceciderunt arma dilapsa ex manibus, theire weapons fro them fell out of their hands, or they were not able to dooe any thyng with their armour.
 Cadunt auri, the south wyndes were alaid.
 Cecidit tibi ira, Thy anger is cooled or asswaged.
 Spes cadit, hope decayeth.
 Ad irritum cadit spes, oure hope is come to naught, or wee bee disapoynted of that wee looked for.
 In cassum cadunt tua promissa, your promises come to none effect.
 In classem cadit omne nemus, the whole forrest was cutte downe to make shyppes.
 In pedes alicuius cadere, to fall downe at ones
 feete.
 In plagas cadit ceruus, tenneth in to the nettes.
 In fatiem cadere, to fall vpon his face.
 Mora lenta cadere, to fall slowly or softly.
 Barba cadit, his bearde is chaunced.
 Imbres cadunt, the showres of raine poyse downe.
 Cadunt vmbræ, the shadowes were longe, or draweth toward night.
 Victa graui somno cadunt lumina, he can not holde vp his eyes for heauines of sleape.
 Vrbes cadunt, citres be destroyed.
 Autoritas principum cadit, decayeth.
 Cecidit tibi ira, thy anger is alaid.
 Paulatim cadit ira.
 Non cadit in eundem contemptus pecunie & cupiditas, It is not to be thought that in one man is both.
 Quod ne in cogitationem quidem cadit, a man can not thynke it.
 Cadere in morbum, to fall into a disease.
 Cadit in rerum naturam, it may come naturally or by the course of nature, or it is possible by nature.
 Cadere in offencionem alicuius, to fall into ones
 displeasure.
 Cadere in potestatem alicuius, to come into ones power or handes.
 In rem apte cadit, it falleth well to the matter.
 Sub aurium mensuram cadere, of that sorte that is to be measured by the eare.
 Sub ratione eandem cadere, to be of the same sorte.
 Omnia mihi iucunda ab eo ceciderunt, all pleassant chinges that possible coulde be, haue happened to me by him,

Quo cadunt promissa non curat.
Video mihi opus esse viaticū: sed id ex prædijs ut cadet, ita soluetur: as it shall come in, &c.
Quod melius caderet, nihil vidi: I neuer sawe any thyng that came in better tyme.
Fontes Græco cadunt verba quædam: be despued.

Cadere formula, when the attournee by neglygence doth not declare the proceſſe of the matter in his due forme, and omitteth that whiche maketh moſt for his client.

Cadere in iudicio, to be overcome in the lawe, to be caſt in a ſuite.

In eum cadit iſtud, this agreeth well to him, or it is not vnlyke that he will dooe it.

Non cadit in alium tam abſolutum opus, No man elles is able to make ſo perfecte a woozke.

Cadit ſuſpicio in eum, he is ſuſpected.

Cadunt in malos omnia ſclera, All miſcheuous deedes may be founde in euill perſons.

Si cadit in ſapientem dolor, If a wyſe man may bee ſorrowfull.

Non cadit in virum bonum mentiri, It is not the paynt or condition of an honeſt man to lie: or a good man dooth neuer lye.

Non cadit in conſuetudinem noſtram, we dooe not vſe it.

Non cadit in hos mores ſuſpicio, ſuche a ſuſpicion agreeth not with theſe maners: or there can be no ſuche ſuſpicion in a man that lyueth after this ſorte.

Quod in noſtram intelligentiam non cadit, whiche thyng we can not vnderſtand, or whiche paſſeth the compaſſe of our vnderſtandynge.

Cadere in offencionem, to fall into diſpleaſure.

Non in vnam formam cadunt omnia, All thynges happen not after one faſion.

Cadit in ſenſum cernendi, It is of that ſorte, that it maie bee ſcene.

Cadere in ſuſpicionem, to come in ſuſpicion, or to be ſuſpected.

Cadere in vituperationem, to bee blamed, or blame woozthy.

Cadit aduentus tuus in alieniſſimum tempus,
you come in a very euill tyme.

Quæ cadunt ſub aſpectum, or ſub oculos, ſuche
thynges as may be ſcene.

Illa cadunt ſub iudicium ſapientis, Thoſe things be ſuche, that a wyſe man may iudge of them.

Ita cadebat ut vellem, It chaunced as I woulde haue it.

Quorſum id caſurum eſſet, to what purpoſe that woulde come.

Quod cecidit forte, that happened by chaunce.

Fortuito cecidit, idem.

Male cecidit, it happened yll.

Nihil mihi incommodi cecidit, there hath no diſpleaſure or damage chaunced to me.

Per oportune hoc mihi cecidit.

Quocumque res cadet, To what poynt ſo euer the matter will come.

In irritum cadit, In fruit.
Faciliter cecidit alea, I prouerbe ſignifying a thyng to haue chaunced fortunately, as we woulde haue it.

lambus in verſum cadit maxime, The ſote lambus is moſte conuenient or agreeable in a verſe.

Verba melius cadunt in ſyllabas longiores,
wooordes fall or ende beſt in longe ſyllables.

Cadere ſimiliter, to haue lyke ende.

Primo congreſſu ſeptingenta ceciderunt, At the fyrſt encounter were ſlayne ſeuene hundred.

Ante diem cadere, to dye before ones tyme.

Enſe cadere, to be ſlayne with a ſwoorde.

Cadere ſua manu, to ſlae ones ſelfe.

Ovis cadit deo, is offered.

Acie cadere, to dye in battaile.

Dies cadens, the later ende of the daye.

Sol cadens, the ſonne goyng downe, or deſcendyng lower from vs, as he dooeth in wynter.

Grauius cadere in aduerſis, to haue a greete fall in aduerſitee.

Alte cadere non poteſt, he can haue no great fall.

Cecidit tua laus pariter cum rep. perſhed. &c.

Caduarij, orum, maſ. gen. men haupng the ſals lyng euill.

Caduca, thynges that wyl ſhortely perſhe or decaye, olde wyters vſed them, for ſignificacions of thynges, which ſhoulde happen.

Caduceator, oris, maſc. ge. an ambalaſſatour or heraulde at armes ſente to demaunde peace, or to take a truce.

Caduceus, cei, m. g. & Coduceum, cei, ne. ge.
a rodde, whiche poeſtes ſuppoſed, that mercurie bare in his hande, in token of peace, as meſſenger of Jupiter. Alſo a little white rodde, that herauldes at armes vſed to beare, when they wene to treat for peace.

Caduci, they whiche are deceſſed.

Caducifer, ciferi, m. g. he that beareth the ſame white rodde.

Caduciter, ruynouſly, as it wolde fall, headlonge.

Caducor, eris, ci, to be ouerthrowen.

Caducus, a, um, fragile, ruynouſe, lyke to fall, decaye or perſhe, ſometyme deade or deceſſed.

Caducum & fragile, tranſitorie, that will aſwaie.

Caduca & incerta ſunt diuitiæ, bona valetu-do, honores. &c.

Caducum & mortale.

Bello caducus, ſlaine in warre or deade.

Omnia caduca præter virtutem, all thynges be tranſitorie ſauynge vertue.

Caduceæ litere, letters whiche will be ſhortely put out, blynde letters.

Caduci tituli, honours and dignities, whiche endure but a lytell while.

Folia caduca, leaues fallen from the tree.

Vitis caduca, that falleth downe on the grounde.

Caducus

Cadūcus labor, labour lost.
Cadūcus morbus, the fallinge euill.
Legatum caducum, hereditas caduca, bona caduca, Bequestes, inheritance, or goodes fallen in estate for lacke of heires: or because the heires bee deceased before the tyme.
Cadura aqua, water that aboundeth or runneth ouer the vessell or ponde.
Preces caduca, prayers that be not herde.
Cadueni, people in Caria.
Cadula gutta, droppe of roste meate.
Cadurci, Labors in France.
Cadūcum, ci. n. ge. a heuerled of linnen, moste properly a quille. a beyle or curtayne. Some take it also for a canoby, such as they were wonte to beare ouer the sacrament in processions. Also a vessell of certaine instrument to draine water out of a ponde.
Cadus, cadi, m. g. a wyne vessell. It was taken for a pyxe, the frenchemen call it, vn Laque. It dooeth also couteigne the same measure that Amphora dooeth. or after other, and more truly, idem quod Metreda. By Plinius des cription this vessell is shewe towards one ende.
Cadus temeti, a vessell of wyne.
Ahenus cadus.
Siccari cadi.
Porus cadus, a vessell of wyne drunke by.
Onerare vna cadis, to sell vessels with wyne.
Parcere cadis, to spare his wyne.
Vrebantur etiam cadis ad condenda falsamenta.
Cadytis, a great citee in Syria.
Cra, or Czos, and after some Cia, an yle in the sea called Aegeum, where the moormen were first founde. it is the countrey of Hippocrates, the prynce of phisitions.
Cabus, bi, mas. ge. an ape with a tayle, we may take it to be a munkie.
Cacatus, a, um, blinded.
Cacias, cia, m. g. the east northeast wynde.
Cacias nubes, a prouerbe spoken of him that purchaseth to him selfe matter of contention and business.
Cacigenus, a, um, that is borne blynde.
Cacillia, x. f. g. a floe moorme that is blynde.
Cacillius, the name of dyuers notable men, one was so ryche, that not withstandynge muche of his goodes was destroyed by ciuile warre, yet he had left. 416. seruantes. 360. poke of oren: of other castell. 257000. in monie 600. lib.
Cacinos, an hyl in Sicile.
Cacitas, asis, f. g. blyndenesse, not onely of the bodyly eyes, but also of the mynde.
Cacitatem inferre, to make blynde.
Caco, aui, are, to make blynde.
Cecare animos, by a metaphore, to blynde mens myndes.
Cecare mentes largitione, to blynde mens myndes with bzyberie.
Cecari cupiditate, to be blynded with conye-lousnesse.

Cacubum, a towne of Capayne in Italy, where is made good wyne.
Cacubus, a, um, the aduertise.
Caculo, aui, are, to haue a homine sight, to bee almoste blynde, to imitate a blynde man.
Caculus, a, um, a diminutive of Cacus.
Cacus, a, um, blynde. also darke unknownen, vn-certayne.
Futuri cecus, ignorant of that shall come.
Amore auri cecus, blinde with couetousnes.
Cecus animo, & cecus animi.
Cecus cupiditate, auaritia, fraud & ira fu-tore, metu.
Amor sui cecus, selfe loue is blynde.
Cecus casus, a blynde chaunce without reason.
Causa ceca, incertayne or unknownen.
Cupido ceca, blinde luste.
Foras ceca, myne doies.
Fossa ceca, ditches covered shate that they can not be seene.
Historia ceca, a darke storie harde to under-stande.
Ictus cecus, a vayne stroke, whan one misseth that he streketh at.
Ignis cecus, a fyre in the pyxe the cause wheres of is vnknownen.
Lupi ceci, that loue darkenesse or night more then daie.
Pericula ceca, unknownen perilles.
Scelus cecum retere, that was unknownen or hydde.
Cecus tempus, troublous tyme.
Ceca vestigia, where one may not see his way that he rydeth or goeth.
Specus cecus, a blynde dongion.
Caca dies, oculata dies, The daie when the moneie is payed, and the daie whan it is not payed.
Eme die ceca hercle oleum, id vendito ocu-lara die, Bye oyle not payng out of hande, but promysynge at a daie: sell it agayne for readye moneie. Eras. Chil. Also the cyple lawyers doo call those daies and witnesses, which onely be certified by them that be absent. Caca dies, & caca testimonia.
Vada ceca, unknownen. not seene.
Cecus acervus, a confuse heape.
Cecus aditus, a darke entree.
Caca fata, unknownen destenies that can not be foreseene.
Carcere ceco clausus, darke.
Caca nox, darke night.
Caca saxa, rockes in the sea that bee not seene.
Caca expectatio, an uncertayne hope or loos kyng for a thyng.
Cecus ramus, the bough that byngeth forth no blossom nor budde.
Ceci hemorroides, hemorroides or piles, which are within the fundament, and doe not appere.
Ceci morbi, spekenesses, whiche be not appar-pant,

parant, the causes wherof bee hydd from phys actions.

Cæcum intestinum, is a bowell, which cometh from the ryght syde, at the poynte of the huckle bone, and goeth to the left syde in length, and is also called Monoculus.

Cæcum vallum, a trench, whiche in tyme of warre is pyght pyperpe with sharpe stakes, the whiche are hydd with bokes or bushes.

Cæcus cæco dux, One blyndeman leadeth an other, & proverbe signifiyng one ignorant person to teache an other vnlearned: one foole to geue an other foole counsaile.

Cæcütio, iui, ire, to see but little, to bee halfe blynde.

Cædes, cædis, f. g. death slaughter, or murder.
Instructus ad cædam, ready to murder and slaughter.

Molitor cædis, one that endeuoureth murder and slaughter of any person.

In exhausta cædes, vnfaciable murder.

Accumulare cædem cæde, to committe mures der vpon murder.

Furere cæde, to kille lyke a madde man.

Spectat res ad cædem, the matter is lyke to come to slaughter and murder.

Sternere cæde viros, to kille.

In cæde atq; ex cæde viuere, to liue in and by murder.

Arbori factus aspergine cædis, id est, sanguinis.

Cæde occidi, to be kyled.

Querere cædem, to seeke occasion of murder.

Instaurare cædem, to begynne to kyll a frethe:
to begynne a newe murder.

Cædes, cruenta, acerba, acris, dira, fera, ho-stilis, impia, indignissima, maxima, miserrima, nefanda, fæua, vasta, sanguinea, notabilis, &c.

Cædem facere, perpetrare, or committere, to kyll, to make a slaughter.

Auidissimus cædis, verate despyous of mans
slaughter.

Cædicus, the name of an excedyng riche man.

Cæditæ, certayne houses or tauerne, builded by one Cæditus.

Cædo, cecidi, ère, to beate or whyppe, to cutte, to strike, to digge, to kille, to breake. Sometime to sacrifice.

Cædere pluteum, to dash his fist agaynst the deske.

Cædere ense, to strike with a swoorde.

Cædere aliquem virgis ad necem.

Robora cædere, to cutte downe okes.

Syluas cædere, to cutte downe wooddes.

Cædere exercitum hostium, to kille.

Cædere femur, pectus, frontem, to strike. &c.

Saxis cædere populum, to hurle stones at the people.

Cæduntur vigiles, the watche men be kyled.

Cædis greges armentorum, he kylleth.

Cædere calcibus, to bythe or steppe with the heelles.

Cædunt binas de more bidentes, accordyng to the custome they sacrifice two hoggettes.

Cædere ianuam saxis, to breake the doore with stones, or to lay on the doore. &c.

Cædere montes, to bygge into great hilles.

Cæditur testibus, id est, virgetur, vel premi-tur, he is conuicted by witnesse, or he is laped at with witnesse.

Cædere pugnis, to beate with the fistes.

Cædere flagellis, to whyppe.

Cædere virgis.

Cædus, dua, um, cut downe, or that may be cut.

Cædua sylua, woodes bled to be cut, copesit.

Cæra, æ, f. g. the herbe named calamin.

Cæix, loke Cæyx.

Cælamen, inis, n. g. idem quod cælatura.

Cælasis, bled of olde wyppers for cælaueris.

Cælator, oris, m. g. an engrauer.

Cælatura, æ, f. g. engrauing in metall.

Cælatura altior, somewhat deepe grauninge.

Cælatus, a, um, engraued.

Cælebs, ibis, com. gen. he or she that is vnu-ried, a single persone.

Maritus & cælebs, contrarie.

Cælebs muliere, Plaut. alone without a woman.

Cælebs arbor, a tree wherunto no vyne is sette or ioigned.

Cælebs sine palmitre truncus.

Lectus cælebs, a solitarie bedde. Catull.

Cælebs vita, syngle lyfe.

Cælestini, people of Ambrya.

Cælicus, a, um, idem quod Cælestis.

Cælestis, te, om. gene. heauenly, or of heauen.
of god.

Arcus cælestis, the rayne bowe.

Mens cælestis, a heauenly mynde.

Monitus cælestibus aliquid agere, by the ad-uertisement of god: by some reuelacion or sygne from heauen.

Gemine cælesti oriundus, descended or begot ten of a god.

Stirpe cælesti creatus, idem.

Virum cælestem in dicendo Ciceronem vo-cat Quintilianus, a meruaylouse man in eloquence.

Inuisus cælestibus, hated of the goddes.

Voluntas cælestium, the will of the goddes.

Colere cælestes, to honour saintes.

Tentare cælestia, to enterpyce to doe high and greate matters aboue the reach of mans common nature.

Cælestis aqua, rayne water.

Animi cælestes, angelles, saintes.

Cælestia dona, giftes of god.

Ira cælestis, gods anger, gods wrath.

Cælia, a kynde of dzyphie.

Cælibatus, us, m. g. or Cælebs vita, the stat of a man or woman vnuried, syngle lyfe.

Cælibaris.

Celibaris, hasta, looke Celibaris with oe.
Celicola, he, com. g. one that inhabiteth heauen,
 a saincte.

Omnes celicole, all sainctes in heauen.

Celifer, lifera, um, that beareth by heauen, the surname of Atlas.

Celiculum, a place where was a temple of Diana.

Celimonantius, a um, of the hyll Celius.

Celites, rum, ma. g. plu. n. heavenly creatures;
 santes in heauen. Celie, in the ablative case singular is redde in Quide.

Celitus regnis, for caelestibus regnis.

Celius, the name of diuers notable men, of which one was an oratour, an other a pzetor of Rome.

Celias mons, one of the vii. hylls that Romus
 lus enclosed.

Celos, aut, are, to graue in metall.

Celare auro, and in auro, to engrauie in gold.

Aurum & argenti celatum, plate engraued.

Argentum celare, to graue in silver.

Celare argento, or in argento, idem.

Serpens celatus in patera.

Libidines in poculis celare.

Celare aquora, flumina, & alia in valis.

Inclatus in auro celando, by grauing in gold
 he became of great fame.

Craterem celare longo argumento, to graue
 a longe deasse of store in. &c.

Celare scuto auro, to garnish with gold.

Celata recta & laqueata, routes carued and embowed.

Celatum nouis musis opus, id est, variatum & quasi pi-um.

Celoma, a certaine soze in the ele, bigger then that whiche is called Botrium; Auicenna calleth it Lilinte.

Celos, an hauen in Elyce.

Celum, heauen, the firmament, an instrument to graue with. Also the ayre, the palate or rouse of the mouth.

✱ Celum digito attingere, to touche heauen with his synger. A prouerbe applyed to them, which suppose them selues able to dooe thynges impossible, or to bee of great power.

✱ In celo esse, A prouerbe signifyenge to bee in felicitie, or to be mooste happy.

✱ Varians celum, an vncōstant wether.

Ruina celi, thunders.

Rabies celi, horrible tempest.

Celum apertum, liquidum, purum, serenū, illustre, clarum, an open ayre, a fayre cleere wether.

Austrinum celum, a cloudie or cloase wether.

Bonum celum, a good ayre.

Pacatum & placidum celum, a calme and quiete wether.

Caliginosum celum, darke.

Tectum de celo, blasted or hurt with lyghtnyng, In celum attollere, to auante, or praise exceedingly.

Detrahere celo, to put a man from great glory and renowne.

Celo hoc ac spiritu carere, to lacke this ayre and common breath.

Grauis celo ac terris, greuous to god and
 man.

Celi aspiratio, the lutchyng in, or drawyng of the ayre by breathyng.

Conuertio celi, the turning of the firmament of laye.

Cursus celi, the course of the firmament.

Decus celi, the goodly beaultie of the skye.

Grauitas celi, grossenes of plnesse of the ayre;
 naughtie ayre.

Hiatus celi a terris, the space betwene heauen and earth.

Inclinatio celi, the bendyng of the firmamente.

Morbus celi, corruption of the ayre.

Crassum celum, a grosse ayre.

Tenue celum, contrary.

Liquidum celum, cleere.

Dubium celum, vntedfast wether, now laye;
 now fowle.

Varium celum, idem.

Liberum celum, an open ayre.

Immixe & turbidum celum, tempestuous and troublous wether.

Nebulosum celum, cloudie.

Nivale celum, snowe.

Nigritus celum pice, blacker then any pitch, or a fowle blacke wether.

Accipere celo aliquem, to receiue one into paradise or eternall synge roye.

Aequare aliquid celo, to make exceedyng hyghe.

Celum aequat, it is as high as heauen.

Allegere aliquem celo, to number amonge the company of sainctes or goddes.

Arcem celi annuit illi, he graunteth hym hea-den or paradise.

Aperitur celum, the skye apereth or it begyn-neth to be day.

Asserere aliquem celo, to make a god, or to auouch one to become of a god.

Ceciderunt celo fulgura, it lightened often.

Ciere celum tonitru, to moue or styre heauen or the skye with thunder.

Circumregit omnia celum, heauen compasseth all thynges.

Contristare celum pluuio frigore, to make the firmamet loke darke or vnplesantly.

Conuertere & torquere celum, to tume. &c.

Credere se celo, to flee.

Honore celi dignare aliquem, to thynke one woorthy heauen.

Descedere celum dicitur, when the firmament
 semeth to open and goe into partes.

Ducere de celo animam, Cic. to haue our soule from heauen.

Educere molem celo, to build vp a great thing on high.

Eripiunt cælum nubes, the cloudes doe cleane
 couer of hyde the Que from vs.
 Exiit ad cælum arbor, the tree did grow of a great heighth.
 In cælum ferre, to prayle exceedingly.
 Per cælum ferri, to flee in the ayre.
 Inficere cælum Iris dicitur, to colour.
 Labuntur cælo stellæ.
 Luduntur examina cælo, playe in the ayre.
 Miscere cælum terram, to trouble heauen and earth: to make a great trouble.
 Mutare cælum, to chaunge the ayre.
 Penetrare in cælum.
 Rigare cælum sol dicitur, when he spreadeth his beames of light.
 Cerenare cælum, to make faire wether.
 Seruare de cælo, to marke of obserue what signe of straunge light is shewen in the skye, as Figures did.
 Subrubere cælum dicitur, to be ruddie.
 Teste cælo viuere, to liue a life known of pen to all men.
 Cælum capitis.
 In cælo sum, I am excedyng glad, of I am in heauen.
 Cælus, the father of Saturnus and Titan.
 Cæmenta, is vled of Ennius in the feminine gender.
 Cæmentarius, rij, m. g. a dauber, a pargetter, of rough mason, whith doth make walles onely.
 Cæmentitius, a, um, made of masons worke, of
 of moyster, of of rubbell and broken stones.
 Parietes cæmentitij.
 Cæmentum ti, n. g. moyster, of any other grosse matter, wherewith walles be made, as rubbyshe, sheldes, of ragged stones. Sometime the wall selke, made of such matter, but specially of ragged stones.
 Cæne, a citee about the goulfe of Aconia, and a little yle in the Sicilian sea.
 Cæneus, a very expert warriour of Thessalie.
 Cænica, a countrey of Thrace.
 Cænina, a towne of Latium.
 Cænis, a promontory of Italy.
 Cænis, the daughter of Clathrus, one of the La-pithes, who beyng rauyshed of Neptune, obteyned to bee turned into a man, and had the gyfte, that no weapon could wound hir.
 Cænites, an hauen of Thacia.
 Cape, loke Cepe.
 Capi, the preterperfect tense of Capio, I haue taken, of I haue begunne.
 Capori, people of Spayne.
 Capula, a diminutive of Capa.
 Capus, a beast in face like a Sayre, of woodward,
 in the residue of his bodie betwene the lykenesse of a dogge and a beare. it breedeth in Ethiope.
 Care, vndeclined, and Carète, rétis, neu. gen.
 was an abncient citee of Tuscia.
 Cara, loke Cera,

Cerago, loke Cerago.
 Cero, Carinco, Cararius, Caratum, &c. loke
 Cero, with single e.
 Carefolium, lij, n. g. an herbe called cheruill.
 Carémônia, x, f. g. and Carémônia, arum, ceremonies, rites, and custumes: also holynesse, religion. Sometime pompe.
 Promptus animus ad capeffendas ceremo-nias.
 Ceremonia, religionesq; in deos, Cic.
 Facere ludos maxima ceremonia, arrate pompe. Cic.
 Polluere ceremoniam, the holie facion of order.
 Ceremoniam legationis quasi sanctitatem &
 religionem Cicero dixit.
 Ceremonia denaria, or tricenaria, when it behoued them that sacrificed to waite tenne recs sayne thynges of Sometime thirtie.
 Caretanus amnis, a ryuer that ranne by the citee called Care.
 Carerum, a towne of Umbria.
 Carinthe, loke Cerinthe, thye leaued grasse, which byngeth sooth white hony suckles.
 Caris, ris, f. g. a sope lyke an hony combe.
 Carites, people of the citee Care.
 Carium, loke Cerium.
 Caroma, or Caromatum, loke Ceroma, an oynment, made with oyle and neates dunge, wherewith men that wastled, vled to annoynt theyr bodies, to make them the more delyuer and stronge. It dooth also signifie the place wher wastlers were annoynted.
 Ceroferarij, loke Ceroferarij.
 Carotum, loke Ceratum.
 Carulus, and Caruleus, a, um, blewe of colour
 lyke the skye in a cleere wether, saye colour.
 Caruleus Tybris, id est, altus vel profundus, for water beeyng deepe is of a darke blewe or blackyshe colour: whereas water that is but shalowe or thynne appeereth byghter and whyster: wherefore Carulus, or Caruleus, is often vled for blacke, or for that is blackyshe and enclynyng towards blew although it be not a ryght blew.
 Imber caruleus, a blacke sure of rayne.
 Mors cerulea, id est, Liuida, wanne, mixed with blacke and blew, as dead bodies be.
 Oculi carulei, blacke eyes.
 Spumabant Carula, id est, maria.
 Carula verrunt, they sayle in the sea.
 Nubes carulea, a blewe or blacke clowde.
 Casca, a weapon, sometime vled in Fraunce.
 Casale, is vled of some for fella familiaris.
 Casar, the surname of a noble house, amonge the Romaines, of whiche name Julius Casar, the fyrste emperour of Rome.
 Casar Augusta, a citee in the roialme of Arragon, called Sarragossa.
 Casarea, a citee of the countrey of Palestina. also of Mauritania: In other of Cappadocia, an other

other of Spamia.

Cæsareus, a, um, and Cæsarianus, a, um, pertaining to the Emperour.

Cæsariatus, a, um, that hath a great bushe of heare.

Cæsaries, ricī, f. g. heare, or a bushe of heare.

Densum cæsarie capud, with a thicke bushe of heare.

Aurea cæsaries, heare as yellow as golde.

Decora cæsaries, a fayre head of heare.

Intonsa cæsaries, that is not rounded.

Horrida cæsaries, rough.

Horrida, terrifica cæsaries, terrible.

Dimouere cæsariē ab ore, to tourne his heare from his face.

Decora cæsaries, a fayre and comely bushe of heare.

Repexa cæsaries, a bushe twice or thrise hems med. and triched.

Promissa cæsaries, a longe bushe of heare.

Pectere cæsariem, to combe ones heare.

Cæsarium, a mart towne in Egypt.

Cæsarobrisenses, people of Portugall.

Cæsenna, a citee in Italy, the people whereof be called Cæsennates.

Cæsim, edgelynge, or with the edge, as one wolde cutte.

Cæsim dicere, to speake nowe one woorde, and than an other. also to speake by thoste membyres and clauses.

Hispani punctim non cæsim hostes petunt, the Spanyardes soynge at their enemies in fyghtyng and styke not with the edge.

Maior pars operis in vineam ductim potius q̃ cæsim facienda est, the moste parte of the worke in the vyne yarde must be done with drawyng your hande in cuttyng, and not wpyth choppyng.

Cæsim opus facere, in cuttyng to choppe as they doe that loppe trees.

Ductim opus facere, in cuttyng not to pull his tooke awaie from the branche vntyll it bee cutte of.

Cæsis, ōnis, f. g. a strype, a gasse, or a cutte.

Cæsitium, tñ, n. g. a sheete, a cleane naphyn or handkerchiefe.

Cæsius, a, um, after some coloured lyke the skye. or rather haupng a terrible byghthesse lyke fire, as the eyes of a lyon, and in the eyes betokeneth a fierynes or crueltie. other take it for a graine colour, as the skye is, whan it hath little speches of gray cloudes in a faire daie, as it were a blunz het colour.

Cæsi oculi, eyes terribly glisterynge, and not gray eyes, in myne opinion.

Cæsius, haupng byght persynge eyes.

Cæsones, num, plur. they whiche bee cutte out of their mother or dames bealpes.

Cæspes, lris, m. g. a turfe.

Aggerabatur cæspes, turfes were laied on a heape.

Festus cæspes, an anitar made of turfes.

Grammineus cæspes, a greene turfe, or a heate of greene turfes.

Viridis & viuis cæspes, idem.

Cæspitator, ōris, m. g. a stumbler.

Cæspitatores equi, stumbleng hories.

Cæspitius, spitiua, um, made of turfes.

Ara cæspitiæ.

Cæspiro, qui, are, to stumbl.

Cæstrum, tri, neu. ge. an instrument, wherewith pnyss was doyd. Also a weapon, lyke a dagger.

Cæstus, us, f. ge. a weapon haupng great plummettes hangng at it, the Greecians used them as a playe or exercise in common games.

Cæstibus contendere, to playe as it were of the whole batte. Bellare cæstu.

Dare brachia experienda cæstibus.

Valido decernere cæstu.

Explorare cæstus, to feele of this.

Exuere cæstus, to put of or laie downe.

Manibus induere cæstus, to put on.

Cæsulæ, they whiche haue bleme eyes.

Cæsum, si, neu. g. a part of a proposition, signifiying no full sentence.

Cæsuræ, ræ, f. g. a cutte of gasse, an incision. also intailng or carryng in stone or tymber. also a piece, as it were the remnant, properly of a verse.

Cæsuratim, briefely, succinctely, by membyres or short clauses.

Cæsuratum vas, a vessell notched or cut rounde about.

Cæsus, a, um, cutte, beaten, slayne, offered.

Exercitus fusus cæsulq̃, an army vanquished and slayne.

Arbores cæsa, trees cutte downe.

Cæsa victimæ.

Cæsa pectora, beatyng their breastes.

Inter cæsa & porrecta, betweene the cuttyng and the geuyng: A prouerbe signifying taxyng and doubtyng what to dooe, and as it were the space betweene the leauynge of from the thyng that is begunne, and the begynnynge of that whiche is newly enterprysed.

Cætarij, loke Cetarij.

Cæter, or Cæterus, a, um, the remnant or residus.

Cætera doctus, learned in other thynges.

Cætera, f. g. Cæterum, neu. ge. the other, the remnant, the residus.

Nunquid me vis cæterum & well ye any thyng elles with me?

Exercitum cæterum seruauit, that was left of the armie.

Paucula cætera, a fewe other thynges.

Cætera mitte loqui.

Virum cætera egregium. i. quantum ad cætera, in all other thynges an excellent man.

Est terebintho cætera similis, pomo amygdalis, in other thynges it is lyke a turpentine tree, in the fruite lyke the almonde trees:

Excepto quod simul non esses, cætera lætus, for all other thynges mery enough or in all other poyntes. &c.

De cetero vellem equidem aut ille ipse, &c. Item & cetera, and likewise other thynges.

Quid ceterum? what more?

Pro cetera tua diligentia, for your other diligence. Ceterum omne, all the residue.

Aetas cetera, the residue of his age.

Caterus, is catted in Lato.

Cetera, for Quantum ad cetera, as concerning other thynges.

Cetera, sometyme hereafter.

Cetero, an aduerbe, as for the residue of the time, & concerning the residue.

Ceteroquin, or Ceteroqui, for Alioqui.

Ceterum, & cetera, bee aduerbes, signifying sometyme moreouer. Sometyme from henceforth.

Sometyme Ceterum, is a conjunction, and signifieth Sed, but. Sometyme Alioqui.

Cetobrix, a citee of Portugall.

Ceus, a, um, of the yle called Cea.

Ceyx, ceycis, a certayne byrde, whiche after some, breedeth of the nest of the byrde called Halcyon.

Cassani, phylatours dwellinge in Indle the more, whiche woozthyp dyuelles in moste terrible fygure, beleynge, that they are permytted of god, to punyssh or spare men at theyr pleasure. wherefore vnto them they sacrifice theyr chyldren, and sometyme them selues. They haue many wyues, but they company not with them, vntill they be defloured by other byred to that purpose. Also they suffer theyr priestes to haue carnal company with their wyues in their absēce. They haue bulles and kyne in great reuerence, but they neuere eate fleshe, theyr sustinauce is rice, sugar, and dyuers sweete rootes, they drinke the licour that cometh of rype dates.

Caiani, heretikes that woozthyppe Layn, saynge that he was made of the one vertue of power, that is, of the diuel, and Abel of the other, and that the vertue of Layn preuayled so, that he slewe Abel. They saie Judas was a godly mā, and his arte a benefyte to mankynde. For he perceyvinge howe muche the passion of Chryste should preuayle, deliuered hym to the Jewes, that by his death man might be redeemed. They asseyne, that the olde lawe was naught, and denye the generall resurrection.

Caianus, a, um, of Caia.

Caici, people of Germanie, dwellinge by the Rhyn.

Caicus, a ryuer of Thyrgia, whiche renneth out of Thysia. also one of the companions of Aeneas.

Caiera, a citee and haven of Campayne.

Cain, the fyrst sonne of Adam, who had to wyfe his owne syster, whiche of Philo is named Thesmech, he fyrste builded citees. And for enuy he slewe his brother Abell, wherefore beyng in desperation, he continually wandred, and his body trembled. Finally he was slayne by Lamech, whan he was of the age of. 730. yeres, after Philo.

Caínas, a ryuer in Sythia, whiche renneth into Ganges.

Caia, a propre name of a man.

Cala, la, f. g. a billet, a wyde of woodde, or a byg slubbyr staffe, whiche the seruantes of the Mos mayne souldiours caried after them in warre to make theyr trenches with.

Calaber, a, um, of Calaber.

Calabri hospitii xenia, a prouerbe spoken of small triselynge gyffes more troublesome than pleasant.

Calabra, a conuocation place, where matters concerning deuotion were treated.

Calabria, a countrey ioynnyng to Saples, called before Magna Græcia. Also an ylande called before Messapia.

Calabris, bre, & Calabricus, a, um, of Calaber.

Caladrius, and Caladrius, a certayne byrd of ro: loue white.

Calz, arum, a citee in India.

Calanum, loke Calenium.

Calagurium, a towne in Biskay.

Calais, the sonne of Boceas, and brother to Zetha, whom poetes feigned to haue wynges.

Calais, is a precious stone lyke to a saphyre.

Calama, a, f. g. an eare of corne.

Calamarius, ri, n. g. a pennar.

Calamentum, ti, n. g. a broken piete of a forke or prop, that a byne hath bene vnderleste with.

Calamintha, an herbe, of whiche are. lii. kyn: des. One called Calamentum, hath leaues lyke to great Basil, but that they be hoze, and hath square stalkes, with many knottes and iopnes: tes, and is now called bushe calamint, or hoze calamint. An other called Pulegium syluestre, is lyke to peny royall, or Bulhole royall, but that the leaues are greater, and is commonlye called wylde peny royall, or rather corne calamint, or calamint. The thirde called Nepeta, or herba catiorum, groweth higher than any of the other, hath a larger leafe, lyke to wylde mynt, a yelow flower, and is commonlye called neppy or catmynt, because cattes dooe desyre to rubbe theim selues against it, and to eate of the braunches. All thys kyndes be hoite and dry in the thyrd degree.

Calamis, a famous engrauer.

Calamistrum, stri, n. g. a pyne of wood or yuoyr, wherewith men or women dooe sette or trym vp theyr heate.

Calamistratus, a, um, that is trymmed with such a pyne.

Calamistrata corna, a crisped bushe of heate.

Calamisus, a towne of Loerus.

Calamita, arum, f. g. little greene frogges.

Calamitas, atis, f. g. is properly hayle, whiche beateth downe corne, and destroyeth it. Also a generall destruction, misery, calamitee, aduer: sities. Calamitas in amore, trouble in loue.

Calamites, te, m. g. a precious stone called a calamite.

lamite.

Calamitose, miserably:

Calamitosus, a, um, destroyed with tempests of wether, hurtfull, miserable, or full of aduersities

Calamitosum cecum, an yll or hurtfull ayre.

Calamitosa pratura, an hurtfull prator hypppe, bryngng muche trouble to the common weale.

Calamochnus, ni, m. g. a hythe called Adarcha.

Calamos, a towne in Asia by the hyll Libanus.

Calamus, mi, m. g. a reede or wheate straw. Also a penne to wyte with. It is taken for a pype or whystle. also a hyppnge rodde and a twygge wheron byde lyme is putte. Also a small twyg of a tree, a grasse, a lytle dart, or arrow, commyne the stile or fourme of an ozacion. also a poll to mette with, conteynng sixe cubites and a span. also a measure, whiche the Jewes vsed, as we dooe a poll, whereof be two sortes: One called Calamus sanctuarij, conteynng .x. fete and an halfe: The other Calamus vulgaris, the common poll or perche, conteynng nyne fote, of our measure. .iii. yardes.

Calamus aromaticus, vel odoratus, a cane or reede growng in Arabia, Syria, and India, whiche hath many knottes or ioyntes, and is of a pale redde colour. whan it is broken it falleth into longe peeces as it were cut, and hath within it as it were copwebbes. It sendeth forth a meruaylouse sweete sauour farre of, and beyng tasted, cleaueth to the tounge, and streyngeth it.
It is hotte and drye in the seconde degree.

Calantica, x, f. g. a tyte, bulet or coyse, a hreschief, or a hood for a woman.

Calanus, a philosopher of Indie, beyng of the age of .73. yeres, dyd in the presence of great Alexander, make a great bonfyre, and teclunge him selfe sycke, went into the toppes therof, and burned him selfe.

Calapis, a notable ryuer in Hungary.

Calaris, a citee in Sardinia.

Calasaster, i, m. g. he that hath a myll and lowd
voyce.

Calasastri pueri, were chylzen, whiche had sharpe voyces and lowd, and were muche sought for of great princis. some thynke that it sholde be rather red Catasthi pueri.

Calasiss, sis, f. g. a certayne facion of quotes, or after some a knot of a womans garment about the shoulde.

Calara comitia, a certayne assembee, called for the election of the byshops and priekes named Flamines.

Calathiana, x, fce. g. a flower, whiche the french mien call Ancholie.

Calathis, the name of a citee.

Calathiscus, a diminutiue of Calathus.

Calathus, thi, m. g. a basket, a hamper, or a panyer made of osyers, in facion lyke the leafe of a lythe, brode above, and small benethe. Also a brasse vessell, wherein women vsed to brynge mylke and frethe cheese to the markette. Also a cuppe vsed in sacrifice.

Calathusa, an yle betweene Chersonesus and Mos-chozare.

Calatiz, a citee of Italie.

Calatis, a citee of Thrace.

Calator, oris, m. g. a seruant, whiche is alway called for, or alwayes occupied in callinge for
other.

Calatus, the sonne of Jupiter and Antiope.

Calaura, or Calauria, an plande in the sea bettiteraneum, where Demosthenes poplond him selfe.

Calbei, orum, m. g. byzarettes, whiche were geuen to souldiours.

Calbis, a ryuer of Caria.

Calcaneus, nei, m. g. & Calcaneum, the heele.

Calcanthum, is after Cor. Celsus, Atramentum sutorium.

Calcar, aris, n. g. a spurte.

Calcar addere currenti, a prouerbe signifying to prycke one forwarde, whiche is of him selfe well disposed to a thyng.

Calcaribus concitare equum, to fetche by the hoise with the spurres.

Calcaribus agere, and Frenis agere, are contrarie.

Immensum calcar habet gloria, Glozy streyth by, or entozageth a man wonderfully.

Calcaria, orum, neu. g. the spurres of a cocke or an henne.

Calcarius, a, um, of or pettepnyng to lyme.

Calcaria fornax, a lyme ppyte or kyle.

Calcarius, rij, m. g. a lyme burner.

Calcas, antis, an Augurian, who beyng mony-shed by Appollo, forsoke the Troians, and fled to the grekes.

Calcarorium, rij, n. g. a lyme ppyte.

Calcatus, a, um, pergetted or white lymed.

Calcata edificia, houses that be pargetted.

Calce, a citee of Campayne.

Calceamen, inis, & Calceamentum, ti, ne. ge.
a shoe, pynson, or soke.

Calcearium, rij, n. g. idem.

Calceatus, us, m. g. idem.

Calceatus, a, um, Moed.

Calcendix, dicis, f. g. a kynde of shell fythe.

Calceo, aui, are, to put on Moen, to Moen an hoise or mule.

Calceolarius, rij, m. g. a shoemaker or cordiner.

Calceolus, li, m. g. a little shoe.

Calceus, i, m. g. a shoe.

Calceos mutare, to be made a senatour.

Calceus lunatus, a shoe facioned befoze lyke a moone, whiche onely the Senatours of Rome dyd weare.

Calcio, aui, are, idem quod calceo.

Calciope, the syster of Absyrus, and daughter of kyng Neeta.

Calcitratus, us, mas. gen. kythyng, wynsyng or flynng.

Calcitro, aui, are, to kycke or wynse, and by a M iij metas

metaphor, to be against, or to refuse stubbonly and frowardly.
Calciro, ónis, m. g. an horse that dothe slynge,
stryke, or perke out behynde.
Calcitrósus, a, um, that oftentymes slyngeth,
lycketh, or stryketh.
Calco, áui, áre, to treade or presse downe, and by a metaphore, to subdue, to keepe vnder, or to haue in subiection. Also to contemne and sette naught by, and as it were to treade vnder foote.
Calcáre vnes, to stampe grapes.
Calcularius, a, um, perceptynng to accompte.
Calculátor, óris, mas. gene. one that casteth ac-comptes.
Cáculo, áui, áre, to caste accomptes.
Calculósus, si, ma. ge. he that is muche diseased with the stone.
Calculósus, a, um, stony, or full of grauell.
Calculósus locus, a stony place.
Calculus, li, m. g. a pebble stone, the stone in the bodie, a chesse man, or a table man, accompte, the least weight of popple that maie be. Also counters to caste or numbre with. Sometyme doubties or difficile reasons.
Calculus ponere, to yelde accompte.
Calculus premittere vel porrigere, to put it to ones libertie to geue a sentence, or to geue his voyce in election, as he lysteth.
Calculus parem ponere, to requite.
Candidus calculus, a favourable sentence, or iudgement, that quitleth a man.
Niger calculus, contrarie, a mortall sentence that coudemneth a man.
Calculus reducere, to reuoke a sentence, wherof one repenteth, or to tourne that purpose, whiche was not well and commodiously dryed.
✠ Calculo modére, A prouerbe, signifying to hurt one in geuyng sentence, or in election.
✠ Calculum album adicere, to approue or al-lowe a thynge, A prouerbe, taken of the olde maner of iudgemente, whan men vied to geue sentence, by puttynge lyttell stones into a pot.
Omnes quos ego noui in vtraq; parte calculos,
pone: all harde doubties.
Calculus album adicere erroralicuius: to approue.
Calculus de se premittere, to make othere iudges of hym.
Ad calculos vocare, to call to accompte.
Ad calculos vocare amicitiam, to accompte howe manye pleasures he hath doone for his frienche, that he maie loke for as many agayne.
Ad calculos reuerti, to returne to his accoupt.
And by a metaphore, to haue consideration or regarde of a thynge, whiche befoze wee byd lette passe, and by negligence omitted.
✠ Candido calculo notare diem, A prouerbe taken of Chyrcians, whiche vied to note suche daies as were happy and fortunate, wyth white stones, and the vnlucke dayes with blacke.
Calculi, is vied of Columella for reuénues, or as muche as one can spende.

Calda, x, for. ge. hotte water.
Caldaria, arum, hotte bathes.
Caldaria cella, places ioyngynge to an hotte house or dye bayne, whiche bee made warme by the heate that procedeth from the sayde baynes.
Caldarium, ri, neu. gen. a cauldron, wherein water is hette.
Cardariolum, a dimin.
Caldarius, a, um, that warmeth or maketh hotte.
Caldarium as, copper.
Caldor, óris, m. g. idem quod calor.
Caldus, a, um, olde wyters vied for Calidus, and Caldior, for Calidior.
Calé, es, a citee in Campagne.
Calecut, a famous citee in Indie the more, ioy-ngynge to the Indian sea: where is the greatest marke and recourse of marchauntes in all Indie, not onely from the countreys adioyngynge, but also out of Arabie, Syria, Ethiopie, Lybia, and Egypt, for to sell and bye all maner of spyes, sweete gummes, muske, ambegrice, and myro-balanes. The kynge of that countreys rycheste is inestimable, and although he weareth no garmentes, yet his necke, armes, and legges bee adorned with diamandes, saphires, rubies, emer-raudes, and balaytes, wondrousfull greete and saye. The kynge and people bee Idolatours, called Caffrani, loke there.
Caledon, loke Calydon.
Calefácio, calefacis, feci, ére, to make hotte,
and by a metaphore, to beze, to make angrie,
to chafe.
Calefacto, áui, áre, to heate or make warme.
Aquam calefactare, to heate water.
Calefactus, a, um, heatte or made warme, angred, chafed.
Calefactus, us, m. g. heate, or warmeneste.
Calefio, calefis, pas. I am made hotte.
Calegia, the citee wittenberg in Germanie.
Calena, na, for. ge. a towne in Englande called Oxford: wherein is the fyrste and chiefe vniuersitee of chrystendome, flozishynge in all kynde of learnynge.
Calendæ, arum, for. g. plu. nu. the fyrst daie of euery monthe.
Ausonia calendæ, the latyne Calendes.
✠ Ad calendæ græcas, a prouerbe, signifyinge newer, because the Greeces had no calendes.
Calendaris, the surname of Iuno, to whom all Calendes were dedicated.
Calendâris, re, that perceptyneth to the Calendes.
Calendrius, a, um, idem quod Calendaris.
Calendarium liber, idem quod Calendarium.
Calendarium, ri, n. ge. a Calender or table, nas-med of the obseruation of monethes: as Dia-rium, of the obseruation of actes dailly done.
And because marchauntes and blurers byd often make suche reckynng booke or tables for remembraunce of dettes, it is taken amonge ciuile lawyers, for the seate or partysse of lending of

of money.
Calendula, lxx, f. g. an herbe called also (of the latines) Calha, or Calhula.
Caleni, people of Campayne.
Calenum, a citee in the countrey of Naples.
Calco, ui, ere, to be whotte or warme, and by a metaphore, to be freshe and new: as,
 Dum res calet, while the matter is hotte. also to desyre feruently, to be somewhat hotte or earnest in a matter.
Calent iudicia, the iudges haue much to do, or the iudgements be exercised busily.
Illud crimen caluit re recenti, nunc refrixit, That accusation was hotte or much spoken of at the fyrste, while the matter was freshe, now it is alaied or littell mencioned.
Illi rumores caluerunt, Those rumours were very frequent in many mens mouthes, or were oft reported of dyuers men.
Tubas audire calens, despyous to here trumppettes.
Caletur, the impersonall.
Cales, a towne or people in Campayne, where is very good wyne. called Calenum vinum.
Calesco, ui, scere, to waxe hotte.
Calestra, a citee in the sea coste of Italie.
Calera, the towne of Calice. also an plande by Samothrace.
Caleranus ager, a place in Italy.
Calfacio, calfacis, idem quod calefacio.
Calicadnus, a ryuer of Cilicia.
Calicula, a towne in Spayne.
Caliculus, li, m. g. a diminutiue of Calix, a littell cup or mazer. Also a thyng in the legge of Polypus, lyke a cuppe.
Calidris, lyke Caladrius.
Calidus, da, dum, hotte. Also feruente, fierse, or rashe.
Calidi pedes, lyght fecte.
Calida consilia, rashe and vnadvised counsayles.
Calidum prandium comedisti, Thou haste doone that wyl tourne to thy greate hurte and damage.
Caliendrum, an oznamment for womens heades, or after some, counterfayte heares, laied out in stede of theyr owne.
Caliga, gx, f. g. an hols, also a legge harneys, or a stertyp or buskin, that souldiours vsed in warres, whiche in the soles were dyuen full of little nayles: wherof those nayles be cald Caligares.
Caliga maximini, A prouerbe, applyed to men of great stature and personage, haupnge yll conditions or propertees, or had in contempte or hatred. whiche grewe of the Emperour Maximinus, who was in heighe eyghte fecte and an halfe, his greaues were a foote longer than any other mans: Notwithstandynge he was of manners barbarous and beastly, and extremely hated of all men.
Caliga spiculatoria, a fasion of stertyps or leg

harneys, that souldiours vsed to the myddell legge, so made, that the vpper parte was lyke to a lyons head, lyke in Baysius, de re vest.
Caliga, Epicratis oratoris lasciu, Cicero vsed for a style flowng with ourt curious eloquence.
Caligaris, re, and Caligarius, a, um, perteyning or scrupng to holes or legge harneys, or to stertyps, that souldiours vsed.
Caligatio, onis, f. g. dymmyng of the syght.
Caligatus, a, um, holed, or that weareth legge harneys.
Caligari milites, common souldiours, of small estimation, that wore stertyps vnto the myddell legge.
Caliginosus, a, um, full of darkenes, very obscure.
Caliginosum exilum, a darke mystie weather.
Caligo, ginis form. gen. darkenesse, dymnesse of the eye. Quasi per caliginem, darkely, and as it were in a cloude, or myste.
Caligo oculorum, dymnesse of the syght.
Caligo mentis, blyndenesse of mynde.
Caligo noctis, darkenesse of the nyght.
Caligo, aui, are, to make darke, or to be darke.
Caligare in sole, to bee deceiued in a playne matter.
Caligante animo, with a blynde imagination.
Oculi caligantes, eyes dymme of syght.
Amnes caligant, The ryuers breathe out as it were mystes.
Caligula, an Emperour called also Caius, who succeeded Cyderius, and was sonne of the noble Germanicus, and had the name Caligula geuen to him by the men of warre, whiche were with his father, because he beyng a chyld in the campe, dyd weare lytle greaues, or harness boottes, called Caliga, for his lyfe looks Sueto. & Sabellicus.
Calim, olde wyters vsed for Clam.
Calinga, m. g. a people in India, where women byng forth chyldren at. v. yerres of age, and lyue not paste. viii. yerres.
Calingij, people of Asia.
Calingon, n. g. a promontory of India.
Calinipaxa, f. g. a citee in Scythia.
Calinus, m. g. a certayne pmage maker.
Caliphus, phi, ma. ge. was the name of dygnitte of the kynge of Egypte, from the yere of our lord. 704. vntyll the yere, 1050. that Almericus kynge of Hierusalem, made warre on Egypt. and the Laste sente to the soudan of Babylon for succours, whiche sent an army with one Harrago, who fyrste expelled the chrissten men, and afterwarde dyd caste the Calife in pylson, and takynge on hym the rule, caused hym selfe to bee called the soudan of Egypt. Caliphus is also the dignitte of hym, that is the chiefe byshop of Machometes lawe.
Caliopolis, or Calliopolis, a citee in Thrace by Helesponte, an other in Macedonie. also one of the yles called Aeolida.
Caliptra, lyke Calyptra.

Calirohe, or rather Callirohe, the name of two fountaynes, the one by Hierusalem, the water wherof is medicinable, and healeth many sythenesses. The other is by Athens, and hath nyne heades.

Calisthenes, or rather Callisthenes, a philosopher, disciple to Aristotle, whom great Alexander tooke with him in his conquest, for his excellent learnynge and wysedome, and had hym in great honoz. But afterwarde Alexander imbracyng the pydde of the Persians, and commaundyng the Macedons to honour hym prostrate, (after the maner of the Persians) and to call him the sonne of Jupiter: Calisthenes rebuked and dissuaded him from that folly. wherefoze Alexander commaunded his armes and legges to bee cutte of, and lykewyse his eares, nose, and lippes, and to bee throwen into a dungeon, whose greuous paynes and deformitee, one Antimachus, a noble man, pityng, gaue to hym popson, wherof he died.

Calisto, the daughter of Lycaon, and mother of Archas, whiche gaue the name to the countrey of Archadia, whom poetes feigned to be transformed into a beare.

Calithoe, the name of a fountayne.

Calix, icis, m. ge. a cuppe. also a pottle, wherein potage is sodden. Also that parte of the cuppe or pot onely, that conteyneth licour. It is also taken for the shell of a fywe.

Calix vitreus, a glasse to drynke in.

Calix auratus, a gilt cuppe or goblet.

Calicem siccare, to drynke by cleane all that is in the cuppe.

Calix fecundus, a cuppe full of wyne.

Inaeuales calices, cuppes of dyuers bygnesses.

Plebei calices, cuppes of small pyttes.

Texere calices smaragdis, to sette cuppes full of precious stones.

Callaici, people of Portugal.

Callaicus, a, um, of that people.

Callais, laidis, ma. ge. a precious stone of a pale grene colour.

Callaria, æ, for. ge. a cole whytynge, meane betwene a haddocke and a whytynge.

Callens, wyle or perfect in a thyng.

Callens vaticinandi, skylfull in southsaynge.

Calleo, callui, ère, to bee harde as braune, to bee hardened with longe vse, as the feete with goyng, or the handes with workynge; and by translacon is applied to the mynde. Also to perceiue, to knowe perfectly by longe experience.

Ego illius sensum pulchre calleo, I knowe the mans facion wonderfully well.

Dei muneribus sapienter vti caller, he knoweth well how to vse. &c.

Callère iura, to be well skylled in the lawe.

Callere ad suum quæstum.

Callesco, scere, to become harde, Callet, a towne in Spayne.

Callias, a poete of Athenes, the sonne of Alcymachus, whiche made ropes to gette his luyng. It was also a noble capitayne sente agaynst Artaxerxes. It is also an herbe, called Solanum somniferum.

Calliblepharum, ri, neutri. gene. a medicine to make heates to growe in the browes. Or rather a medycine for the eyes, specially when the eyeliddes dooe cleave together, or when the lores of the eyes bee not well healed. Idem li. 23. cap. 4.

Callicles, a certayne ymage maker.

Callicrates, m. g. a keruer, whiche in puerie hermed Emotes, and other small beastes so finely, that the partes might scantly be seene. Also the name of a great wyse man, and of a iudge of Athens.

Callide, aduerb. wittly, prudently, craftly, subtilly.

Calliditas, âtis, for. g. slynesse, wplynesse, craftynesse, longe practised subtiltee.

O mira hominem calliditate, O subtille and crafty felowe.

Callidromus, a mountayne in Grece.

Callidus, a, um, slye or crafty. Sometime wyle, circumspect, or that by longe experience hath good knowlage of a thyng, an olde craftie fore.

Callidum mendacium, a craftie lie.

Callidus rerum iudex, a wyle and prudente iudge, and of great experience.

Callidissimus rerum rusticarum, a perfect good husbände man.

Callidus rerum iudex, wyle, or skylfull in discernynge of thynges.

Consilium callidum, a subtill deuys.

Animus callidus, a crafty mynde.

Callidus accendendis offensionibus, skylfull or cunnyng to sette debate and variance betwene men.

Callidus ad quæstum, a wyle worldly man, that hath many waies to wyn, a crafty fore, that wyl not leghtly bee beggled, craftie to gette geynes.

Callidus ad fraudem, cunnyng and craftie in deceyfyng.

Astus callidi, subtille craftynesse.

Callidus and Stultus, contrary.

Calligonon, ligoni, ne. ge. an herbe, called also Polygonon, commonly Sanguinaria.

Callimachus, the name of a poete of Syrene, the sonne of Battus, one of the ouerscers of Ptolemaeus lybrary.

Callimus, a certayne stone.

Callinicus, a sophister of Syria, whiche wrote the gestes of Alexander.

Callionimus, mi, ma. ge. a certayne fywe, whose gall healeth the scarres of woundes. Some take it for the fywe called accipenser, other for lycus.

Caliope, pes, f. g. one of the nyne Muses, whych excelled all the other in swetenesse of voyce. Of some she is taken for the goddesse of Rhetorike: of of other for the goddess of poeetrie.

Callipæda, ma. g. an olde man playng the boy,
 beyng wanton and busy.
Callipida, people of Sythia in Europe, by the ryuer Hypanis.
Callipo, a philosopher, whiche in his teachynge
 ioygned voluptye with honestie.
Callipolis, looke Calipolis.
Callippus, one of Athens, whiche was slayne of the Syraculans in Sicilie, because he attempted tyranny after Dionysius.
Callirohe, the daughter of Lycus, a cruell ty-ranne, that vsed to sacrifice his gestes. Looke more in Calirohe.
Callis, lis, m. g. a way muche vsed, a beate pathe.
 Angustus callis, a straite pathe or narrow.
Calliscere, to wake harde, propriety in the shyne of fleshe.
Callisthenes, looke Calisthenes.
Callistratus, a certayne ymage maker.
Callistruthia, arum, f. ge. a kynde of egges, of all other most colde.
Callitriche, es, f. g. idem quod Callitrix.
Callitrichon, chi, n. g. an herbe called also Pollitricon, Adiantum, Oincinnalis, Terra capillus, and Supercilium terræ, of the apothecaries.
Capillus Veneris, in englysh, mayden heare.
Callitrix, triceis, f. gen. an herbe which beyng sodde in water, is medicinable agaynst moyste sores.
Callitriches, a beast in forme contrary to an ape, haupnge as it were a beard on his face, and a brode tayle, it wyl lyue in no place but in Aes-thiopie where it is bred. Idi.
Callôsus, a, um, thycke skynned.
Callôsa vlcera, sores haupng the fleshe aboute them harde.
Callosa tunica oculi, the thycke or harde skynne.
Callus, li, m. f. ge. & Callum, li, n. ge. browne or hardenesse of the fete, made with goynge, or of the handes with labourynge.
Callum obducere, to harden, to make to endure labours or pynes.
 * Callum ducere, A prouerbe, significynge to be longe exercised or vsed in any thyng.
Consuetudo diuturna callum obduxit sto-machio meo, hath hardened my stomacke.
Callum solorum, the harde browne in the sole of the fete.
Callum aprugnum, browne.
Calo, ônis, m. f. g. a shoe of woodde. Also a scul-lyon, or a boye that foloweth an hoste, to carye baggage, wood, coles, and other lyke thyng.
Calo, aut, are, to call.
Calon, an ymage maker.
Calophanta, phanta, ma. gen. a mocker.
Calopodium, di, neu, gen. a paten or slipper.
 * Calceare omnes vno calopodio, a prouerbe applied to fooles and ignorant persones, whiche apply one thyng to diuers matters.

Calopus, lopodis, m. f. gen. a beast in Syria, whiche with his hoynes throweth downe greate trees.
Calor, ôris, m. g. heate.
Sumissior calor, a gentler or mylder heate.
Horrifici calores: parchynge heate.
Decedere calori, to go out of the heate.
Ergitur solidem caloris omnibus, the same heate. sc.
Liquefieri calore, to be melted.
Redit calor ossibus, he waxeth warme agayne.
Reliquit ossa calor, he waxed colde wythin.
Molestiam caloris sedare, to asswage.
Sustinere calorem, to abyde heate.
Temperat calorem ventus, qualesfeth.
Impatiens caloris, that cannot abyde heate.
Dum se calor frangat, tyll the heate asswage it
 selfe.
In vium calorem reuocare, to refoze to nas-tural heate.
Euocare calorem in cutem, to fetch the heate into the viter partes.
Calor remittit mel, heate melteth hony, or mas-keth it liquide.
Calorificus, a, um, that whiche heateth or mas-keth a thyng hotte or warme.
Calostoma, or of the mouthes of Danubie.
Calotechnus, i, m. f. gen. a good woorker
 man.
Calpar, calparis, n. g. a certeyne earthen vessell, of olde wyters it was vsed for a tunne. Also new wyne drawn for sacrifice, before the vessell was sette a broche. Warro taketh it for the wyne vessell called dolium, a tunne.
Calpas, an hauen in Bithynia, or after Strabo,
 a ryuer.
Calpe, one of the mountaynes called Hercules pylers, by whiche is the passage out of the spays into the sea Mediterraneum. Also the name of a citee in Granado.
Calpurni, people that had theyr begynnyng of Calpo the sunne of Roma.
Calra, an herbe growyng amonge cozne, haupnge
 a yelow flower.
Caltha, called also Calthula, and of the Apothecaries Calendula, of some Flos omnium mensium by the iudgement of Ruellius, and the description and figure sette forth by Fuchsius, is a marygolde. of some it is taken for a kynde of white violettess.
Calthula, la, f. gen. a garment of the coloure of marigoldes. After Clario it is a hoote cloke.
Calua, x, f. g. a skull.
Caluaria, x, f. gn. the whole head of a man or beast, whan the fleshe is away. It was also a common place of buryall. Some men suppose it was the place, where Adam the fyrste man was buried.
Caluater, stri, m. f. g. a man somewhat balde.
Caluatus, a, um, balde,

Caluāra vinea, a vineparde, wherein be but few vyues.
Caluesio, to be made balde.
Calueso, calui, ére, to be balde.
Caluesco, scère, to waxe balde, as well in thynges hauyng no lyfe, as in men and beastes.
Caluēta, orum, n. g. downes or playnes, wheron doe grow neyther cozne ne trees. They be also called of Columella, Glabreta.
Caluire, amonge the olde Romaynes signyfied to deceyue or disapoynt.
Caluinātus porcus, a swyne fedde with graynes and suche other vyle thynges.
Caluifius Sabinus, a very ryche man in Rome whiche had so smalle remembrance, that some tyme he forgate the name of Ulfes, sometyme of Achilles, sometyme of Pyramus, whiche befor he knew as perfectly as chyldern dooe theyr tutours. And because he woulde be scene to bee learned, he founde thys ready way. He bought diuers slaues, of whiche one had the markes of Homer by hert: In other Hesiodus: lyke wyse to euerie of the. ix. poetes called Lyrici, he appoynted a seruant to learne by herte. Whan he had gotten this company, at supper they shoulde sit vnder the bourde at his feet. Of whome he receyvyng verbes, woulde appose them that satte with him. yet sometyme he forgat the myddell of the verbe. For withstanding he thought he knew as muche as any man in his house. A mery felow, called Satellius, perceyvyng hys folly, exhorted him to wastle, beyng leane, sicke and pale. Than saied Caluifius, how shoulde I wastle, sens vnieth I may liue for feblenes? Whylaye not so (quod Satellius) I pray you, see you not what a sorte of talle felowes you haue to your seruantes?
Caluities, ei, f. g. baldenesse.
Caluitium, rij, n. g. baldenesse, when one hath but few heares.
Caluitium loci, the barenesse of anye place, where groweth nother grasse, nor anye other thyng.
Calumnia, æ, f. g. a false or crafty accusation, a forged cryme, a surmyse, or a malicious inuencion or alledgyng of a thyng, to trouble or vexe a man. A malicious detraction.
Calumnia ieiuna, a tryflyng cauillation of no effecte.
Adhibere calumniam, to vse falsehode.
Calumniam contundere, to subuerte and destroy a false cauill.
Extrahere rem calumnijs, to prolonge the matter with false cauillacions.
Imponere alicui calumnia personam, to repute one to be a cauiller.
Iurare calumniam in aliquem dicebatur accusator, when the tooke othe in open iudgement that he commeth not to accuse one falsely or maliciously.
Litium calumnia, malicious alteracions and ouerthwartynge in suites or controuersies of the lawe.

Calumniator, ōris, m. g. he that accuseth or sueth a man vniustly, he that dooth interpret or alledge a thyng disceitfully and craftily.
Apponere calumniatorem, to suborne a false accusar or malicious detraictour.
Calumnior, āris, āri, to accuse or sue a man vniustly, to lay a thyng to ones charge falsely and maliciously, disceitfully, and wilfully to allege a thyng agaynst one.
Calumniōsus, a, um, he that often vseth detrects full interpretations.
Calumniosis criminibus innocentes infectari.
Caluo, aui, are, to make balde.
Caluo, ui, uire, to deceyue or disapoynt.
Caluor, iris, iri, to be disapoynted or deceyued, or as a deponent, idem quod Caluo, is.
Caluus, ui, m. g. he that is balde.
Caluus, a, um, balde.
Caluum vellis, Thou pluckest heare of a bald mans head. A prouerbe, where one woulde haue a thyng of a man that he hath not, thou wouldest take a byrche from a bare arste man.
Caluus comatus, a balde man with a bushe: A prouerbe, applied to them, whiche shew them selues ryche, with other mens goodes, or do see forth for theyr owne markes, which other men laboured and deuided.
Caluus, an auncient poete.
Calx, calcis, ma. & for. gc. the heele, or ende of a thyng.
Concisus pugnīs & calcibus, thumped bothe with the fistes and with the feete.
Cruentare equum ferrata calce, to spurgale a horse.
Pulsa calce, kicke him backwarde.
Verberare auras calcibus, to flynge and kicke as horses doeth.
Vti pugnīs & calcibus, to strike with the fistes and kicke with the heeles.
A capite ad calcem, from the top to the toe, from the head to the heele. A prouerbe, signifying euerie whittle, al together. sometyme from the begynnyng to the latter endyng.
A calce ad carceres, contrary, from the ende to the fyrst begynnyng.
Calcibus cedere, calce ferire, petere, pulsare, to stryke or kicke with the heeles.
Calces, is sometyme taken for strokes with the heeles.
Calx, calcis, f. g. lyme made of stoncs bourned.
Calyba, a citee of Thrace.
Calycadnus, a riuer in Lilicia.
Calýculus, lýculi, m. g. a diminutiue of Calyx.
Calydium, a towne in Italy, in the way called Appia.
Calydne, or Calydna, a towne of Laria. Also one of the yles called Sporades.
Calydon, a citee in Greece.

Calydonia sylua, a greates forest in Scotlande, wherein were white bulles and hyen, which had manes lyke to lyons.

Calypso, the daughter of Atlas, or after some of Oceanus and Cethys, a nymphe or woman of the sea, whiche reygned in the yle Ogygia, and receyued Ulysses, whan he escaped downynge.

Calyptra, trā, for. g. a womans cappe, hoober, or bonet.

Calyx, lycis, m. g. the lytle greene leaues on the toppe of a stalk, out of the which cometh firste the floure and after the seede.

Camaca, a people of Syria.

Camædri, looke Chamædri.

Camæ, an other people of Syria.

Camalodunum, a citee of Britayne.

Camara, a citee of Candie.

Camarica, a towne of Spayne, called also Victoria.

Camarina, nā, for. gen. a synhyng herbe, the appe wherof whan it is touched, taken or tryed, prouoketh one to vomitte. It is also a mayste or fenne nere vnto a citee of the same name.

✠ Camarinam mouere, a prouerbe, spoken to one, that hurteth hym selfe, by that thyng that he stirreth or goeth aboute to haue doorn. And it procedeth of a fenne so called, whiche beyng dried vp, there hapned a great pestilence, wherof the people adioynnyng, asked of Appollo, if they shoulde make it dry for euer: who answered, Ne moueas camarinam, as he shoulde cause there not mischiefe to thy selfe.

Cambala, orum, a place in Asia, where bee golde mynes.

Cambalidus mons, a parte of the mountayne Caucasus.

Cambalu, a great citee in the countrey of Cathay, which is in circuite. xl. myles, strongly walled, and hath xii. gates. In the myddell therof is the palaice of the great Cham or Kane of Cathay, called the palaice of iustice, whiche conteyneth in circuite. liii. myles: And in it be foure great pillars of fyne golde.

Cambio, si, vel iui, ire, to chaunge. In the olde tyme it signified to fyght, to begyn a iorney, or to tourne in a iourney.

Cambodunum, a citee in westphalia, called Monachum, and Munchen, whiche late was destroyed because the people maynteyned the heresie of the Anabaptistes.

Cambolerci, people of Narbon in Fraunce.

Cambusis, a citee of Ethiopie.

Cambyses, a kynge of Persia, the sonne of Cyrus. It is also the name of a ryuer in the countrey of Hyrcania.

Camelani, people of Italy.

Camelarij, orum, m. g. they whiche ryde on camelles, or kepe and dryue them.

Camelasia, dryuyng or hepyng of camelles,

Camelates, a dryuer of camelles.

Camelinus, a, um, of a camell.

Camelopardalis, idem quod Nabis.

Camelus, li, m. & f. g. a beaste called a cammelle, whiche hath a longe necke and a littell head. And some haue on theyr backs two bunches lyke vnto hyllocks, some haue but one. They of the countrey of Barria, bee higher than horses, and moze swifte, in so much, that some wyll renne aboue an hundred myles in one day.

✠ Camelus bacrina, a prouerbe, applied wher one dryngeth foozth a thyng to be meruayled at or feared, which in dede is to be contemned and laughed at. Some take camelus in the mascus line gender, for an anker cable.

Camella, a certayne cuppe.

Cámara, a, f. g. the false couer of an house, or a vaulte. Also a kynde of myppes couered aboue.

Camerarius, a, um, what so euer groweth hanging ouer perches, or on the routes of houses.

Cameratus, a, um, vaulted, siled, couered ouer.

Camerata, or rather cameraria cucurbita, gourdes, which growe on perches, not creppynge on the grounde.

Camerata vehicula, chariottes or litters couered with boordes or leather.

Camerina, idem quod Camarina.

Camerinum, a towne of Italy, in the countrey of Picenum.

Cámero, aui, are, to make a false route of an house, or a collar: to sleie or make a vaulte.

Camers, an adiectiue of Camerinum.

Camertes, the inhabitantes of Camerinum.

Camertinus, a, um, idem quod Camers.

Cametes, the companion of Janus.

Camilla, a woman of the Volscians, which ayded Eneas agaynst Eneas, and the latins.

Camillus, and Camilla, was in olde tyme a boye or wenche, that serued the byshop, whan he dyd sacrifice. also a certeyne vessel.

Camillus, a littell chimney or ouen.

Camillus, the surname of a noble Romayn, whiche was dictatour fye tymes, and triumphed foure tymes, who was of so gentill a courage towarde hys countrey, that not withstanding the people of Rome had expelled hym, yet whan the Galles had taken the citee of Rome, and compelled the Romaynes to redeeme theyr headdes with golde, he perswadyng the people, called Ardeates, with whome he lyued in exyle, to succour the citee, entred with them er any man was ware of his comyng, and slew and discomfited the Galles, and saued or rather restored the citee from bondage. He was before the incarnation. 350. yeres, of his actes reade Val. Max. li. i. ca. 5. li. 2. ca. 4. li. 5. ca. 3. Liuium, ab vrbe con. &c.

Caminatus, ta, tum, made lyke a founneys or chymney.

Camino, aui, are, to make lyke a founneys.

Camius, ni, m. g. a chymney or founneys.

✠ Camino oleum addere, to caste oyle into the fyre

Espe. A proverbe, signifying to minister occasion of great rage or fury.
Caminus anhelans, a smokyng chimney.
Camirus, a citee in Rhodes.
Cammaron, ri, idem quod Mandra. Diosc. li. 4.
Cammarus, ri, ma. g. a fysh, called a creuple of the sea: or after some, of the freshe water.
Camæna, næ, for. gen. one of the .ix. muses, a songe.
Camæna dulces, gaudentes rure.
Camæna inhumana.
Insignis camæna, a goodly songe.
Camæna, arum, f. g. the .ix. muses.
Camomilla, looke Chamæmélum.
Campana, næ, f. g. a belle.
Campania, a countrey in the roialme of Naples, which was accompted the moste fertile and pleasant countrey of all the worlde.
Campanula, læ, for. gen. the flower called Canterbury belles.
Campanus, a, um, of Campania.
Campanus morbus, vnseemely and arrogant speece. Or, after some, the vice of ouer much bablynge.
Camparius, ri, m. g. a keeper of the fieldes.
Campe, es, or Campa, pæ, a worme, whiche eateth herbes, and is roughe with many feete, called a palmer.
Campēster, hæc campestris, hoc tre, of the playne or champion countrey.
Ager campestris, a playne fiede, a champion countrey.
Iter campestris, a iourney throughe a playne and champion countrey.
Scithæ campestris, that liue in the fieldes wildely in tentes.
Campestria loca, playne countreys.
Campestris ludi, playes exercysed in the fieldes.
Campēstre, tris, n. ge. a payre of sloppes or breeches, vled in the fieldes at common games, of wrastring and rennyng.
Camphora, or Camphura, a certayne gumme vled in sweete confections.
Campigeni milites, those men of warre, whyche be alwaye a bouthe the standerde, and by theyr prowesse and actiuitee, doo kepe the hoste in exercise of armes.
Camponi, people of Aquitayne.
Campro, aui, ære, to tourne an other way.
Campsiani, people of Germany.
Campsor, oris, m. g. an exchangeour of money, or he that deliuereth money by vsury.
Campus, pi, m. g. a playne fiede, great and large. Sometyme it is taken for assemblies made in the fieldes. Also euery thyng that one putteth his labour and study in.
Cāpus Martius, a fiede nigh Rome, and ioyning, to the ryuer of Tyber, where the Romaynes not only exercysed them selues in rennyng, leappng, wrastring, and swimmyng: but also had their assemblies for the election of grate officers in the common weale.

Campus rhetoris, a large matter for an orator to speake of.
Immenso campo vagari, by a metaphore, to haue a plentifull matter, wherof he may speake at large.
Magnus campus ad laudem, greate matter to get renoume by.
Aequor campi, looke Aequor.
Immensitas camporum, the largenesse of fieldes.
Apricus campus, a fiede that lieth open on the sonne.
Campi liquentes, the sea.
Campum colligere, to gather the spoyle, or to rife the fiede, after the battayle is fought.
Aequo campo se dare, to enter into the playne fiede to fight.
Euersus campus, a fiede tilled.
Frequens herbis campus, full of grasse.
Iners campus, a barane fiede.
Campus apertus, fertilis, gramineus, herbosus, horrens, ingens, immensus, irriguus, latus, Nitens, patens, pinguis, planus, rudis, vastus, virens.
Mersus campus cruore, drowned in blood.
Natantes campi, whan the blades of longe grasse be moued by and downe in meddowes in suche sorte that it semeth to be water flowinge.
Nudi Campi, naked fieldes, that bee neyther sowne nor planted.
Segnis campus, that bringeth fruite slowly.
Squalentes campi, drie fieldes.
Stagnantes campi, wherein water standeth.
Circūuolare campum iaculo, to renne round aboute the fiede with a darte in his hande.
Consternere campos milite, to couer the field with soldiours.
Credere campo aciem, to bryng his army in to the playne fiede to fight.
Dare se campo, to come into the fiede.
Decedere campo, to go out of the fiede.
Exutus campis Mithridates, driuen out of the fiede.
Flauescit campus arista, coine waxeth rypp.
Inferre se campo, to enter into the fiede to fyght.
Instruere per campos aciem.
Inundare campos dicitur exercitus.
Lustrare oculis campos, to looke aboute the fieldes.
Partiri campos limite, to bounde.
Per campos pascuntur equi.
Peragraré campos, to wander aboute the fieldes.
Perfultat campos exercitus, maketh courses ouer the fieldes.
Proscindere campos ferro, to till.
Redeunt campis gramina, the fieldes waxe greene agayne.

Renouare

Renotare campum aratro, to till agayne.
 Tondere campum dicuntur equi, to cate
 the grass.
 Transmittere campos cursu.
 Tremiscunt campi tonitru, to shake.
 Vestiti gramine campi.
 Exultare in campo dicitur oratio, when it flourisheth in a large and copious matter.
 Dare se campo, idem quod in arenam de-scendere.
 Laceratū campi, so much ground lieth untilled.
 Camura, or as some doe accent it, Camūra, x. f. g.
 a certayne bevell bozne covered before a hyde.
 Camurus, a, um, crooked.
 Camuri boues, open or hyne with crooked boznes.
 Camus, mi. m. g. a bitte, a hyde or a shaffle also a capne or cozde, wherewith men condemned were bounde. also a hynde of lottes, whiche iudges used, made in facion small above, and broade benethe. also a certayne pipe, a certayne herbe, and an instrument to cary fier in.
 Cana, idem quod canistra.
 Canaan, the sonne of Lam, the sonne of Noe, of whome cometh Canaanus.
 Canabatus, and Canabinus, loke Cannabatus.
 Canabis, loke Cannabis.
 Canabus, a wyne seller.
 Canace, the daughter of Colus, and sister of Phereus.
 Canaius, a typer of Colis.
 Canalicola, arum, com. ge. poore people alway
 in the middes of the strete, beggers.
 Canalicula, lx. for. g. & Canaliculus, li. mas. g.
 a littell pype, or a lyttel splente to stay a broken synger, sometyme, the embayed worke made in pillers lyke vnto cundite pipes.
 Canaliculatus, a, um, facyoned lyke a pype.
 Canaliculata folia, leaues which be holow and turned rounde lyke cundite pipes or wafers.
 Canalis. lis. m. & f. g. sometyme hoc canale, ca-nalis, a pype of leade or tymber, wherby water doeth renne into a cundite. also a splent, wher with the legge is stayed whan it is broken.
 Per angustas canales serpit, renneth by na-row pipes.
 Canalibus aqua immissa, lette in by cundite pipes.
 Lignei canales.
 Canalis structilis, an holow place, made and paued vnder the grounde, to conueigh water to
 any place.
 Canalitius, a, um, of or lyke a pype.
 Canalitium aurum, golde dygged in pyttes, so called, because the beynes renne in the crthe lyke cundite pypes.
 Canan, the countrey called Arabie.
 Cananara, a parte of Syria, now called Iudea.
 Cananitis regio, idem.
 Canaria, called also Herba canis, the herbe, wher with dogges vse to prouoke vomite.

Canaria insula, ples in the great Ocean, 4000 myles from Spayne, whiche some suppose to be those that of the olde wyters are called Insule fortunare, the new names of them be these,
 Lanzelota, Fortis ventura, Magna canaria, Tenerife, Gomera, Palma, & Ferrea, in these ples of late yeres grew great numbre of Canes, wherin men sugar: but eider by disemperance of weather, or by rones, whiche some men suppose were brought thither, that commoditie is al most destroyed.
 Canarij, people of thise.
 Canarius, a, um, pestyng to dogges, or to the signe Canicula.
 Canarium sacrificium, sacrifice used for the preservation of soyne, agaynst the extreme heate of the signe Canicula.
 Canas, a towne of Aycia.
 Canastreum, a promontory of Sacerdonis, by the goulfe Fermaurum.
 Canatha, a towne in the countrey Decapolitana.
 Canatim, an aduerbe, lyke a dogge.
 Canautz, olde wyters used for ornaments of the head.
 Cancanus, of Galen is taken for a certayne herbe, whiche Diosc. calleth Cacalia. It is also a cer-tayne gumme profitable to die with, called also Lacca. Barbar. in corrol.
 Cancellarius, ri, ma. g. in the olde time was taken for a scribe or notary, now it is called a chauncellour.
 Cancellatim, lattise wise.
 Cancelli, orum, m. g. plu. lattises, of any thyng made like lattise. Also secrete places to loke out.
 also wyndowes made with barres of woodde or yron, wyth dyuers holes. also little crabbes of the sea.
 Cancellis sibi circundare, by a metaphore, to prescribe to hym selfe certayne boundes in hys communication or speakynge, whiche he wyll not passe.
 Cancellis circumscribi, to be closed or rayled in, and metaphozically is applied to any thyng that hath certayne boundes.
 Cancelli, aui, are, to raise or put out, to cutte or teare any thyng that is wyitten, to make in fourme of lattise.
 Cancellare testamentum, for Delere.
 Cancellatus, a, um, lyke to a lattise. also raised or crossed out.
 Cancellata cutis elephatorum, with crosse
 stries or barres lyke to lattises.
 Cancellarus brachiorum amplexus, the clyp-ping of the armes one ouer an other.
 Cancellus, a diminutiue of cancer.
 Cancer, cri, mas. gen. a hynde of fythe called a crabbe. also a signe in heauen.
 Brachia cancri, the clawes.
 Cancer, cēris, or cancer, cancri, secundæ et ter-tiæ declinationis, ma. gen. a dysease called a canker.

Cancri,

Canceri, is the same that Cancelli be.
Canceris, a yll in medicine of that sort that burneth.
Cancherimon lapathon, a kynde of scorpell.
Canchlei, people of Arabic.
Candace, ces, and Candax, acis, a queene of Bethiope.
Candaria, a promontorie in the yle of Cos.
Candauris, mountaynes in Macedonia.
Candaules a tyran of Sardis, which by foolyshe dottage, thynkyng hys wyfe the sayest woman in the worlde, shewed hir naked to his familiar frende Gyges: for whiche cause he was after murdered by the same Gyges, through the counsell of hys wyfe.
Candaulus, or Candylos, a meate, as Athenicus sayeth, made of sodden fleshe, bread and cheese, as Plinie sayth, of mylke and honny.
Candebora, a fenne at the foote of the mountayne Carmelus.
Candefacio, candefacis, feci, facere, to make white, to make hysp, or to glow lyke fyre.
Candei, people of Arabic, whiche vse to eat scorpentes: and therfore be called Ophiophagi.
Candela, a. f. g. a candell.
Candelas sebare, to make tallow candels.
Candelabrum, delabri, n. g. a candelsticke.
Humile candelabrum, a low candelsticke.
Aeneum candelabrum, a latten candelsticke.
Candeo, ui, dēre, to glow lyke a burnyng cole, also to be whyte.
Candens color, a white colour.
Marmor candens, whyte marble.
Candens carbo, a burnyng cole.
Aer candet, the ayre shyneth, or the weather is byght and cleare.
Fauilla candens, a burnyng sparke of fyre.
Chalybs eades, a gad of Steele glowing whote.
Lilia candentia, sayre white lillies.
Pruina candens, hoate froste.
Vestis tineta cocco candet, glistereth.
Candet aestas, the sommer is hotte.
Candescō, scēre, to waxe white or shynyng, to waxe fire, or to glow lyke fyre.
Candicantia, a. f. g. the whytynge, bleachynge, or makynge of any thyng sayre and byght.
Candico, ui, are, to be white.
Candidatus, a, um, clothed in white.
Candidatus pratorius, he that despyeth or looketh to be Pryetor or mayre.
Candidatus consularis, he that despyeth the counsaill.
Candidatus gloriæ & immortalitatis, he that despyeth glozy or immortall renoume. lyke wyse Candidatus eloquentiæ.
Candidati, amonge the Romayns were such as laboured for some of the great offices in the publyke weale, so named, because they dyd weare in the tyme of theyr election, whyte apparayle. It may be taken by translation at this tyme for them that in vniuersities be called inceptours or regente maysters. also for them that be lately chysened, or newly entred into some honourable or worshipfull state. Vegetius sayeth, that Candidati were men of warre, whiche hadde a priuilege before other.

Candidati Caesaris, were such as sued for great offices, and were commended of the emperoure to them, which had election, who presumynge alway that the emperours commendacion would take place, did soligite but negligently. Wherof hapned this prouerbe: Sic petis tanquam Caesaris candidatus, when any man asketh a thing in such forme, as he thynketh no man will deny hym: as who sayeth, ye aske it as though the emperour had spoken for you. They were also called Candidati principis: where that faction is vsed, may neuer be publyke weale perfect.
Candidatorius, a, um, of or pertynyng to them which looke for, or despye great offices.
Candide, aduerbium, benignely, gently, mildly, without enuy.
Candide vestitus, trimmely apparayled.
Candido, ui, are, to make white.
Candidulus, a, um, a diminutiue of candidus.
Candiduli dentes, whyte teeth.
Candidus, a, um, white, more than Albus, or lene white. It is sometyme taken for fortunate, gentle, or easie, also pure, sincere, without malice or ill wyl, also frendly, fauourable.
Candidus iudex, a gentle easy iudge.
Candidus lector, a gentil reader, whiche doeth not openly repproue that which he readeth.
Candidum oui, the white of an egge.
Candidum ingeniu, a gentil courteous nature.
Scriptor candidus, a good authour of styne and pure eloquence, not crabbed or harde to be vnderstanded.
Candida nigra facere, to make white blacke.
Lapide candidiore diem notare, to marke a day as fortunate and luckely.
Candidus pectore, pure without malice or enuy.
Annus candidus, a fortunate yere.
Candida vita, i. irreprehensibilis.
Iudicio candidiore legere, to reade wth a more indifferent and fauourable iudgement.
Fauoni candidi, i. benigni, fauorabiles, sereni, sayre, pleasant, prosperous.
Candidum, a promontory of the countrey Zeus gitana in Afrique.
Candifico, ui, are, to make white.
Candor, oris, m. gen. brightnesse, or whitenesse, curtesie or gentilnesse of mynde.
Candofoccus, focci, m. g. in bynes, is idem quod Mergus.
Candiba, a citee in Licia.
Canella, a, f. g. idem quod Cinnamomum.
Cane, a towne in Aeolis.
Canentæ, were of the olde Romaynes named the apparayle pertynyng to the head.
Caneo, ui, ēre, and Canesco, scēre, to bee hoze of graye headed, to wase olde, to deray of wyrd

ther.
Canent herbar, the herbes be gray with dew.
Canescit flos, the floure withereth.
Canescit oratio, his stile of oracion waret
grau, auncient of tyme.
Canescit siu, It is gray with hozenesse.
Canephora, x, f. g. a mapden, whiche bare on his head a basket of coffes, wherein were iemels of ymagis of the goddis.
Cangrena, x, form. gene. a soze called a canker.
looke Gangrena.
Can, orum, ma. gen. plu. nu. be taken for white hoze heares, for age.
Cania, x, f. g. a kynde of sharpe stingyng nettles.
Canica, canica, f. g. byanne of wheate.
Caniceps, a beast, which hath onely the face of a dogge.
Cancies, ei, form. gene. hozenesse or graynesse of the heare.
Canicula, lx, f. g. a lytle butche. Also a sterre, whereof canicular and dogge dayes be named.
Dies caniculares.
Caniculus, li, m. g. a whelpe.
Canidia, a woman of Naples, whom Horace ras teth as a witche or sorceres.
Caninus, one that was consull of Rome onely ses uen houres.
Caninus, a, um, doggyshe, or of a dogge, curryshe.
Verba canina larrare, to rale spitefully.
Canina facundia, doggyshe or curryshe elo quence. A prouerbe, applyed to suche as doo not uer exercise theyr tongue or penne, but in repro uyng or blamyng other men.
Caninum prandium, a dogges dinner. A pro uerbe vled, where there is no wyne at dynner or supper, for dogges do of nature abhorre wyne.
Caninus appetitus, a syknesse, with an vn
saciable appetite to eate, pcedyng of v. causes:
Of abundance of melancolpe, flowyng from the splene to the mouthe of the stomake: Of a cold distemperace of the stomake: Of the lousenes of the body, the pores beyng to open: Of to muche labour, resoluyng: or of the consumyng of natural moysture, wherewith the body is nours ished.
Canis, is, com. gen. a dogge or bitche, a sygne in heauen, wherof there bee two sterres, one cal led Canis maior, the other Canis minor. It is also a kynde of fythe, called a doggythe. Also a certayne caste at dice, whan the ace beyng caste vp, loseth all.
Canis festinans cecos xdit catulos, The hasty bitche byngeth forth the blynde whealpes, the moze hast the woze spede. A prouerbe ap plyed to them, whiche beyng hasty in settynge foorth theyr woikes, do make them vnperfecte.
Canis reuersus ad vomitum, The dogge tur neth agayne to eate that he vomited. A pro uerbe referred to hym, whiche beyng reconcy led to god, retourneth agayne to his olde condic

tion and vices.
Canes, is sometyme vled of the poetes for the furies, it is also a woide of extreme despite to our enemies, to call them dogges.
Ter geminus canis, Cerberus.
Ain vero canis, Shalt thou so in dede, thou curryshe hygue.
Canes molossi, are taken for handdogges.
Canis peius & angue, A prouerbe noyng extreme hate of a thyng.
Canis celer, citus, pernix, a swyfte dogge.
Canes horri to chere the houndes.
Armillati canes, dogges with collars aboute theyr neckes.
Emeriti canes, dogges that be so olde that they can hunt no moze.
Melirai canes, litle dogges that gentill women
vse, for theyng houndes.
Odorus canis, a hownde or spaynell of a good sent.
Canistrum, tri, n. g. sometyme canister, stri m. g.
a basket or a panier.
Canistellum, li, n. g. or Canistellus, li, ma. g. a lytle panier, hamper, or basket.
Canities, ei, f. g. hozenesse or whytenesse of hea
res. It is sometyme taken for graunce, or aun cientnesse.
Canitudo, idem.
Canna, nx, f. g. a cane or reede. Also a canne or ayle pottle. Sometyme a pyper made of a cane.
Cannabaceus, a, um, of hempe.
Cannabinus, a, um, made of hempe.
Cannabis, is, f. g. hempe.
Cannabum, and cannabion, bi, n. g. idem.
Cannacas, a kyng of Whrygia, who forseyngs
the deluge, made great lamentacion. vide pro.
Kecanaca.
Cannaz, arum, a towne in the countrey of Apulia, where a great hoste of the Romaines was slaine
by Anniball.
Cannetum, ti, n. g. a place, where canes and reedes doe grow.
Canneus, a, um, of a cane.
Cannitaz, arum, thatched houles.
Cannitius, a, um, of canes or reedes.
Cannius, a poete in the tyme of Martialis, whiche was so mery of nature, that he laughed al waye.
Cano, cecini, ere to synge, to play on the shalme,
or other instrument, also to prayse, to prophery.
Canere classicum, vel bellicum, to blow to the frelde, or to the assault, to blow alarme.
Canere eandem cantilenam, to tell one tale
twyse, or to recite often tymes one thyng.
Canere fidibus, to play on an harpe, or other instrument, haupng strenges.
Canere receptui, to blow the retreate in bat
tyle, and by a metaphore, to reuoke or wythe draw a mans mynde from doyng any thyng, to make an ende.
Canere sibi, to speake for his owne profite.
Canere

Canere sibi & musis, to synge of wylle for hys owne pleasure, and for them that doe fauoure him, nothing caryng for any other.
 Canere signa, to blow whyles men do fyght in battayle.
 Canere surdis auribus, to gyue counsaile in bayne, to lose labour in speakeinge.
 Canunt tuba, the trumpettes blow of towne.
 Tibijs canere, to play on the pipe or flute.
 Canere dicuntur poetae, cum quid versibus scribunt.
 Absurde canere, discorde, to synge oute of tune.
 Canere aliquem, or laudes alicuius, to laude or prayse a man.
 Canere ad tubiam, to synge to the pype or flute.
 Canuntur haec apud Homerum, these thynges be spoken or wyrtten in Homere.
 Canere belia, to declare, speake, or wyte of warres.
 Obscura canere, to prophesie obscure and doubtfull thynges.
 Quicquid fama canit, what so euer is reported by fame.
 Canus canere, spoken prouerbyally, of them that doe all for theyr priuate commoditee, and conueigh to them selues what so euer they can catche.
 Canobus, the mayster of Menelaus shyppe. looke Canopus.
 Cannocersea, the herbe Helxine, looke there.
 Canon, canonis, m. g. a rule. Also that parte in a targat, wherein the arme and hande is putte. al so the tongue of a balance. It is also the reuenues in customes and fee termes of townes shippes, a custome in paynge yerely a certayne of coyne.
 Canonibus soluere, to dispence with one.
 Cratiam canonis facere, idem.
 Canonarii, orum, gatherers of taks and tallages.
 Canonis, the transomes in a shyppe, whereon the hatches are made.
 Canonici, bee those sorte of musicians, whych doe trie musike by reason, as the Pythagorians did: lyke as Harmonici iudged by the delectation of the eares, accordyng to the folowers of Aristoxenus.
 Canonicius, a, um, regular.
 Canonici libri, booke amonge the romans of the auncient decrees, and ceremonies of the bi-shops and hie priestes.
 Canonium, ni, ne, g. a place assigned to deuoute persons, whych lyued vnder a certayne rule.
 Canonizo, aui, are, to canonyse, to exampne by rule.
 Canopicon, is an herbe, whiche is one of the kindes of spurge. Reade moze in Pityusa.
 Canopus, a meruaylous bryght sterre. also his name that was mayster of Menelaus shyppe, whiche beyng dead in an yle, at the entree of Etilus, caused that yle to bee called by hys name, and was there honoured for a god. Of whome this pretie historie is remembred of Strabon.

 The people of dyuers countreys contendyng for the preeminence of their goddis, agreed, that those ydols, whych were vanquished by any notable experience, should giue place to the vanquisher. A priest of Canopus, a wittie fellow, gat a water pot full of small holes, and stoppynge the holes with wate, filled it ful of wate, prynced it, made it in foure of an ydoll, and hid craftily set it on the olde ymage, knowynge that the Caldeies, honouryng the fyre for god, did cary it aboute into all countreis, and consumed therewith all other ydols, made of metall and other matter. But when they came to Canopus, and did sette the fyre aboute hym, the wate melted quickly, and the water dissoluyng into the fyre, quenched it, wherfore Canopus was deemed vanquisher and chiefe of the goddis.
 Canor, oris, m. g. melody.
 Canor cygni, the melodye or tunable songe of a swanne.
 Vox suavis & canora, a pleasant and a loude voyce.
 Canorosus, a, um, full of melody.
 Canorus, a, um, loude or mylle.
 Canta, olde wyrttes bled for canata.
 Cantabri, people of a countrey in Spayne called now Biskay.
 Cantabrica, is called in Englyshe wythe ge-loufer.
 Cantabricus, a, um, of Biskay.
 Cantamen, minis, n. g. a songe.
 Cantarus, a poete of Athens.
 Cantatio, onis, form, gen. a syngeinge or chaunting.
 Cantator, oris, m. g. a synger.
 Cantatrix, icis, f. g. a woman synger.
 Canterij, orum m. g. be the piers, whiche doo lie vnder a piece of tymber, whan it is sawen. whiche some doo call strynges.
 Cantharias, a stone, whiche hath the pynte of a blacke flie called a bittell.
 Cantharis, idis, vel Cantharida, da, a greene woyme, synnyng with a glasse lyke golde, bred in the toppe of ashes or olyues, whiche layde to a mans body, maketh it to blyste. The rayce of it is poyson. wherfore Cantharis, is vsed for a venomous porcion. Some doe saye, it is a flie heuered with a shale lyke a bittell, but that he is greene. Theophrastus sayth, this woyme doeth brede in wheate, and to it is very noysome.
 Erasmus addeth, that it ingendreth in Roses, and doth hurte and destroy them in lyhemaner.
 Cantharis, fumitori, after Diosc. lib. 4. cap. 3.
 Cantharita, a kynde of wyne.
 Cantharus, ri, m. g. a pot, a tugg, or a tankarde, also a kynde of boates. Also a beast, wherof there is founde no female, a kynde of fyre, a blacke flie.

eye, called a hypocrite. and a knot under the tounge of Apis, the ore that the Egyptians worshiped.
Cantharus, a signe in the firmament, conteynyn-
 g. betres.
Cantheriatus, a, um, stayed by with proppes of forkes.
Cantheriata vinea, a vyne rayled hypon frasmes of perches.
Cantherinus, a, um, of or lyke a geldynge.
Cantherino ritu somniare, to dreame stansdynge.
Cantherinum hordeum, a kynde of barley.
Cantherinum lapathum, a kynde of sorrell, called also Rumex.
Cantheriolus, a diminutiue of Cantherius, a lit-tell stake, proppes, or forke.
Cantherium, ij, n. gen. a maner of a chariot or wagan.
Cantherius, ij, m. g. a geldynge of an horse onely.
 It is also the rale of a vyne, boyned by with forkes and postes. also a rafter.
Cantherij, idem quod Canterij.
Canthes, thium, form. gene. organ pypes, after Calepine.
Canthus, thi, m. g. the corner of the eye, as well by the nose, as nexte to the temples. It is also the yron, wherewith the extremite of wheles be bounden, the stroke of a carte.
Canthus, is also the sonne of Abas.
Canticum, ci, n. ge. a pleasaunt or mery songe, a balade.
Cantilena, lx, f. g. a songe. it is taken of Licero,
 for a speche of tale, commonly or to often used,
 and is of a small effect, a tumult, a braggynge reporte.
Cantilenæ, the daughters of the muses.
Cantio, onis, f. g. a songe. sometyme a charme, or enchauntment.
Cantorbis the citee Emberge in Germany.
Cantium, the countrey of Kent.
Cantiuncula, lx, f. g. a songe of lyght matters.
Cantisto, aui, are, to synge often.
Canto, aui, are, to synge or to charme. sometyme to mony the or exhort, to speake or inculcate a thyng oftentymes, to geue grete prayse, or to sette forth the ones commendacion. also to en-chaunte.
Hæc dies, noctesque tibi canto, vt caueas,
 This I exhort the day and nyght, that thou beware.
A uena cantare, to pype.
Surdo cantare, looke canere surdis.
Istum canto, I set forth this mans prayse, or
 I commende him greatly.
Dignus cantari, worthy to be lauded or praysed in wytyng or speakynge.
Metuo ne idem cantent literæ, I feare leaste these letters bynge the same tydynge that the other byd, or intreate of the same matter.
Cantor, and Cantrix, a synge man, or a synyng woman.

Cantus, us, m. g. a songe, a charme, or enchaun-ment in verses.
Cantus lugubris, a mournynge songe.
Cantus tremulus, warblyng, releslyng, or quaueryng.
Cantus buccinarum, the soune of trumpets.
Cantu delinire, mollire, mulcere, to assuage,
 please, or mitigate.
Canuleus, a Romanne.
Canus, an olde man.
Canus, a, um, gray or hore.
Canafides, the fapthfulnesse of olde tyme: or after some, the fapthfulnesse of auncient men.
Canaveritas, idem.
Absynthium canum, gray wormewood.
Canus december, the monthe of December,
 hore with froste.
Canapruina, the hore froste.
Canusinatus, a, um, arayed with the cloth made of the wolle of Canusium.
Canusinus, a, um, of Canusium.
Canusium, a towne in the countrey of Apulia,
 where is veray fyne woulle, called Canusina
lana, and is ruddy of colour.
Capacitas, aris, f. g. aptnesse to take, largenesse of place, capacitee.
Capaneus, three syllables, the housbande of E- uadne, and one of the seven capitaynes that bes-sieged Thebes, where he first inuented scalyngs with ladders, and was there slayne with stones caste from the walle.
Capaneus, and Capaneius, the adiectiue.
Capara, a towne of Portugall, called commonly Caparea.
Capax, acis, om. g. that taketh or conteyneth any thyng, able to conteyne or receyue, large, bigge.
Capax amicitie, he that considereth what belongeth to frendshipp.
Capaces aures, eares delightynge greatly to here.
Capax calix ad sextarios tres, a cup that wylholde aboute thre pyntes.
Domus capax, a large house that will receyue
 a great numbre.
Regnum capax, an ample and great kyngdome.
Scyphus capacior, a bigger cuppe.
Capax inuidie, that is able to defende it selfe agaynst the yll will of his enemies.
Capedo, inis, for. g. the greatnesse of a vessell or lyke thyng that conteyneth. A potte or pytche used in sacrifice.
Capeduncula, lx, form. gen. a diminutiue of capedo.
Capella, lx, for. g. a ponge gotte, or a little gotte.
 Also a certayne sterre.
Capena, a towne by Rome by the fountayne E- gena. also a gate in Rome called Appia porta, where is a water consecrated to Mercury, used in diuers ceremonies.

Capenates, people of Capena.
 Caper, pri, ma. g. a geibed gote. It was also the name of an olde grammarian, and a rper ren- nyng by Laodicea. Sometyne it is taken for the buche gote.
 Caperatus, a, um, wrynkeled.
 Capero, aui, are, to frowne or lowze.
 Caperare frontem, to bende the browes, to frowne.
 Capesso, si, sum, or siui, situm, sere, act. to take, or to goe about to take, to receyue. Sometyne it signifieth to take in hande.
 Capessere fugam, to flee or renne away.
 Quo te nunc capessis hinc? whether goest thou from hence.
 Capessere se domum, to get hym home.
 Capessere se in altum maris, to take the mayne sea.
 Capessere montem, to ascend or go by the hill.
 Ad saxum capessit, supple iter, he taketh hys way at the stone.
 Capessere se precipitem ad malos mores, to tourne hym selfe headlonge to lewdenesse.
 Capessere arma vel bellum, to take armes, to enterpryse warre.
 Capessere alicuius iussa, to do or execute ones commaundementes.
 Capessere curas imperij, to take the charge and gouernance of the common weale.
 Capessere locum, to endeuour to take a place.
 Capessere cursum ad aliquem, to renne towarde one.
 Capessere oculis, to beholde.
 Capessere cibum, to eate.
 Capessere pugnam, to enter or ioygne battaile to skirmish or fyght.
 Capessere urbem, to go or take his tourney to the citee.
 Capetus, the name of a kynge.
 Caphareus, thze syllables, a mountaine in Grece, by whiche the grekes nauy was soze afflicted for the death of Palamedes.
 Caphareus, a, um, of Caphareus.
 Capharnaum, the chiefe citee in Galilee.
 Capheris, an yle by Samothrace.
 Caphura, looke camphora.
 Capidulum, li. n. g. an hoode.
 Capillaceus, a, um, heary, of heare, lyke heare.
 Capillamentum, ti, n. g. the heare of a mas head. Sometime the toppes of herbes, where the seedes do grow. also a counterfayte heare, a perruke.
 Capillaris, ris, n. g. a caule or copse, that women trusse theyr heares in.
 Capillaris, re, of or belongyng to heare.
 Capillaris, a tree, wheron ponge men for a ceremony, bled to hange their heare whan they were polled. It is also called Capillata.
 Capillati, people of the Alpes.
 Capillatia vela, clothes of heare.
 Capillatus, a, um, that hath longe heare, or that weareth a great perruke.

Capillitium, ti, n. g. the heare of the head.
 Capillo, aui, are, to make heare.
 Pollytrix capillatur, id est capillos habere videtur.
 Capillus, li, m. g. the heare, as well of the head as other places. Sometyne it is used for Casarics. Sometyne for Barba.
 Capillo tenuis, iust to the heare.
 Capillus veneris, an herbe cald Venus heare, looke Adiantum.
 Capillorum defluuium, or profluuium, the falling of the heare.
 Demissi capilli, longe heare.
 Ducere capillis, to draw one by the heare of the head.
 Capiō, capi, ere, to take willingly, or buywillingly. Sometime it signifieth to delite, to mitigate, to disceyue: also to receiue. Sometyne to conteyne, also to make.
 Dñi boni, quid turba? ades nostræ vix capient, Good lord, what a company? vneth our house wll holde them.
 Capere rationem, to fynde the meane.
 Rationem capi, vt & amanti obsequer, & patrem non offenderem, I founde the meane how to please my louer, and yet not to offende, or displease my father. Also Capiō rationem, signifieth to know the cause why.
 Scio tibi esse hoc grauius multo, ac durius, cui fit: verum ego haud minus ægre patior, id qui nescio, nec rationem capio, nisi quod tibi bene ex animo volo, I know well that to you, whome the thinge toucheth, it is much more displeasing and greuous: but yet it greueneth me no lesse, I cannot tell why, but onely because I loue you.
 Capere conditionem, to accept the offer.
 Capere fugam, to renne away.
 Mente capere, to conceiue in ones mynde.
 Miseriam capere, to be in mysery.
 Misericordiam capere, to haue pitee.
 Caput eum facieras, he was weary of it.
 Capere somnum, to sleape.
 Capere rationem oculis, to iudge by syght.
 Hi loci, atque hæ regiones sunt, quæ mihi ab hero sunt meo demonstratæ, vt ego oculis rationem capio, These are the places and stretes that my maister shewed me, as farre as myne eyes can iudge, or as farre as I can perceyue.
 Capere voluptatem, to delite.
 Capere versoriam, to chaunge a pourpose, to tourne sayle, to doo the contrary to that he intended.
 Capere vsuram corporis vxoris alterius, to committe adulterie with an other mans wyfe.
 Te vxor aliena capit, Thou arte in loue with an other mans wyfe.
 Capi ac deliniri re aliqua, to be delited or pleased with any thyng.
 Si stes propius, te capiet magis, If you stand nere, it wll delite you more.

Caueat ne capiatur, let him beware he be not disceyued.

Capi assentatione, to be disceyued with flatterye. As the wyse Capi dolis, donis, fraude, insidijs, precio, muneribus.

Capit eum admiratio, he meruayled.

Capit me voluptas, and Capi voluptatem, I was delited, or I toke pleasure in it.

Capit me amor, I loued.

Angorem capere, to languishe, to sorrow, or take thought.

Capere cibum, to cate.

Capere coniecturam, to coniect, to gesse.

Coniectura capitur ex eo, it may be pexerued or gathered thereby.

Capit animum cura eius rei, I tooke charge of that matter, or I was carefull for it.

Capere desiderium, to desyre.

Capere detrimentum vel damnum, to take harme, or to be endomaged.

Capere alicuius dicta, to here ones wordes.

Capere disciplinam, to learne.

Capere experimentum, to proue.

Capere finem, to ende.

Capere exordium, to beginne.

Capere formam, or personam, to disguise or nes selfe.

Capere latitiam ex re aliqua, to reioyse of a thyng.

Capere generum, to chose a sonne in law.

Capere laudem ex re aliqua, to be renoumed or prapled for any thyng.

Capere incrementum, to increase.

Si inimicos omnes homines capiam, though I should get the displeasure of all men.

Capere inimicitiam, to get enmittee, or displeasure. Likewise Capere inuidiam & iram.

Capere locum castris, to take or chose a place, to pitche theyr tentes, or campe in.

Capere magistratum, to obteyne an office.

Si magnitudinem mensarum caperet, if it wer so large, that tables myght be made of it.

Capere metum, to feare.

Capere modum, to kepe a meane.

Capere mortem, to suffer death.

Capere obliuionem, to forget. Ipkewyse Capir me obliuio.

Capere odium alicuius, to begyn to hate one.

Capit ciuitatem pauor, The citee was in a great feare.

Capere penam de aliquo, to punysh one.

Capere quietem, to take rest.

Capere specimen, to take a profe or shewe.

Capere spem, to conceyue an hope.

Capit eum tadium belli, he was wery of war.

Capere tempus, to wathe a tyme.

Verecundia eum capit, he was a bashed.

Capere vires, to waxe stronge.

Capere opinionem virtutis, to be esteemed or compted vertuous.

Capere pallorem, to waxe pale.

Capere pignus, to receyue a gage.

Pignora capere, to streyne ones gooddes for dette.

Capere prouinciam, to take charge of a thing.

Quosdam religio caput, some wer scrupulous.

Vitium capere, to be corrupted.

Capis, pidis, f. g. a cuppe to drynke in.

Capissena, people of Asia, dwellinge in the citie.

Capissa, a crible, or a sieue to purge cozne withall.

Capistro, aut, are, to haulter, or putte on a rope or corde.

Capistrum, stri, n. ge. an haulter, or a collar, to tie an horse or other beast, a musle. also a bande to tie vines to the rayles.

Capistrum maritale, the bonde of wedlocke.

Frenare ora capistris, to mouill.

Capital, alis, n. ge. a thyng that women priestes used to weare on theyr heades in olde tyme, whan they dyd sacrifice, as it were a lace or soile to trusse vp theyr heare. Also after some, a towel used in sacrifice.

Capitale, and Capital, an adiectiue, an offence worthy death.

Capitale est, it is death, or deserueth death.

Capitalia, an hygh hell in India.

Capitalis, le, deadly, worthy death.

Capitalem fraudem admittere, to doo a thing worthy punishment by death.

Capitales triumviri, iudges in causes of death.

Capitalis noxa, likewise Capitale, nephas, or crimen, an offence worthy death.

Capitalis aduersarius, a mortall enemy.

Capitalis dies, a day appoynted to one to receyue iudgement of death.

Capitalis homo, a man that deserueth death, also he that is prone to murder.

Capitalis ira, mortall wyathe.

Capitalis locus, a place of execution.

Capitalis ædis, an house, where anye deadly offence is committed.

Capitalis inscitia, ignorance that putteth a man in daunger of his lyfe.

Capitalia iudicia, iudgements concernyng lyfe and death.

Capitaliter, mortall, deadly.

Capitatio, onis, f. ge. head spluer, or subsidie, gathered of euery man after the rate of his substance.

Capitatus, a, um, that groweth great in the head or that hath an head.

Capitati caules, cabages.

Capitellum, li, n. g. a littell head or toppe of a thyng. also the highest part of a piller. of some it is used for a stillatorie.

Capitium, ti, n. g. any thyng that couereth the head, commonly they do call it a hood.

Capito, onis, ma, ge. he that hath a great head. Also heady, obstinate in opinion. It is also a fytte, which by his description, seemeth to be a codde. A learned man of this name, translated the epitome of Liue and Eutropius into greke.

Capitolinus, the surname of him that founde the head, whan the capitoll should be builded.

Capitolinus, a, um, of the palaice of the citee of Rome.

Capitolium, li, n, gen. the palaice of the citee of Rome.

Capitofus, a, um, he that hath a greate of a dull head.

Capitulatus, a, um, any thyng that is growen to an head.

Capitulata folia, leaues, whiche in the toppes haue thynges lyke heades.

Capitulatim, the aduerbe.

Capitulatim de re aliqua dicere, to recite the sum of principall poyntes of any matter.

Capitularia, orum, booke of actes and statutes.

Capitulo, aui, are, to diuide by chapters.

Capitulum, li, n, g. a lytle head. also a chapyter, and the toppe of a pillar or other thyng. It is also a woorde of dalpance, as, O capitulum lepidissimum, O pleasant companion, o meate head.

Capitulum martis, the herbe Eryngion.

Capitulum, a towne in Italy.

Capnias, a precious stone mynyng lyke saffron.

Capnia vitis, a certayne kynde of vyues.

Capnitis, a kynde of brasse ore.

Capnium, ni, is interpreted of Aetius, to bee the herbe called Calidonia, which groweth aboute hedges. And yet after Dioscorides, and the common opinion of Physicians, it is Fumis tope.

Capnobatae, people called Mysy.

Capnos, ni, f. ge. & Capnon, ni, n. ge. an herbe called of the latynes Fumaria, of the apothecaries Fumus terræ, in english Fumitory.

Capnogorgion, gi, the herbe called Fumitory. Diosc. li. 4. ca. 3.

Capo, onis, m. g. a capon.

Capote, a mountayne in Asia.

Cappa, the name of a greke letter, for whiche the latynes vse C.

Cappadocia, a countrey in Asia, hauynge on the south Cilicia and the mountayne Taurus: On the east, Armeny, and dyuers other nations: On the north, the sea Euxinum: On the weste Galatia: and is deuided from Armeny the more with the famous riuer Euphrates. In that countrey are bredde plentie of excellent good hoxles. It was sometyme called Alba Syria, because the people there be whiter than in the other Syria. The people therof are called Cappadoces, whose condicions were reputed so yll, that amonge the common people, if one had ben scene to be of yll facion, they woulde say he was of Cappadocia. In that countrey were bozne, Basilus magnus, and Gregorius Nazianrenus, two holy byshops and excellent doctours.

Cappadox, ocis, and Cappadocus, a man of the countrey of Cappadocia.

Cappagum, a towne in Spayne.

Capparis, ris, form. gen. a fruite called capers, wherewith we make salates and sauce for mutton, which eaten before meales, bee veray good for the stomake, and agaynst diseases of the spleene.

Capparus, a dogges name, notable, because he bewrayed the theefe, that robbed Aesculapius temple.

Capra, x, form. ge. a gote. also a sygne in the firmament.

Olidra capra, the synnyng saoure of the arme pittes.

Capraria, an yle in the sea called Ligusticum.

Caprarius, ri, m. g. a gote hearde.

Caprasia, the mouth of the ryuer Po.

Caprea, x, f. g. a roe bucke. also a beaste, whiche dooeth see wonderfull. It is also a kynde of vyues so called.

Caprea certayne plandes in Naples.

Capreolus, li, m. g. a kynd. also a beaste called a roe. It is also a tendzelle of a vyne, which winneth many wayes. Also a forke to set vp a vyne. It is also a certayne instrument of yron to dig with, and a bande of hooke of yron to hold partes of buyldynges together.

Capreus, a, um, of a gote.

Capria, a fenne in Damphilia. also idem quod Capparis.

Capricornus, ni, m. g. a sygne in heauen conteynyng xx. steres.

Caprificatio, onis, f. g. the verball of caprificor. of some it is taken for the cuttyng of the barkes of trees, that they may grow bigger.

Caprificales dies, the canicular daies, so named, because the matrones of Rome dyd at that tyme vse to doo sacrifice vnder a wyldc sygge tree.

Caprificor, aris, ari, to husbandle wyldc sygge trees.

Caprificus, fici, or as some accent it, caprificus, ci, for. gen. a wyldc sygge tree, whiche renneth vp by valles.

Caprigenus, a, um, that whiche is of the kynde of a gote.

Caprile, pilis, neu. gen. a stable or penne where gotes be kepte.

Caprilis, le, of a gote.

Caprillus, a, um, idem quod Caprinus, a, um.

Caprimulgus, one that milkeith gotes.

Caprimulgi, byzdes lyke to gullies, which appere not by day, but by nyght, they come into gote pennes, and sucke the gotes, wherby the vdders of them bee mortified.

Caprinus, a, um, of a gote.

Caprina bacca, gotes dunge, or gotes tirtles.

Capripes, pedis, that hath fete lyke a gote.

Caprisans pulsus, is whan the pulse semmeth to ryse, and is sodenly chaunged into an other forme of meeuynge.

Caprona, arum, for. g. plu. the toppe or lyttell mounte mane that is in the forehead of an hōte of the heart that hangeth ouer a mans forehead. some write it Capronex.

Caprotina, a surname of Juno.

Caprullon, an haue by the mountayne Otho.

Caprunculum, li, n. g. an earthen vessell.

Capfa, f, f. g. a coffer of chest.

Capfella, a litle coffer.

Capfa libraria, a cloafe pteffe of coffer, where bookes are kept.

Capfa vestiaria, a chest, of cloafe pteffe of warde robe, where garments are kept.

Capfa nummaria, where money is kept.

Capfates, a vessell, wherein oyle is kept.

Capfarius, m, g. he that keepeth chestes of apparayle. also he that waiteth on a noble man nes chylde, and beareth his bookes in a litle coffer after hym hole.

Capfis, for cape fivis, take it and thou wilt.

Capfit, for prchendit, a woode out of use.

Capfitani, people of Zeugitana in Africk.

Capfoldum, a barbarous worde, that whiche is taken out of the hole.

Capfula, f, f. g. a diminutue of capfa.

Capfus, a couered carte.

Capratio, onis, f. g. a purchase, the acte of crafte to get fauour. also disceite of subtilitee.

Capratio, oris, m. g. he that vseth that crafte, or one that flattereth a man that hath no chylde to the intent to haue his goodes.

Capratio aure popularis, one th at goth as boute to get fauour and prayse of the people.

Capratio, oris, a, um, flatterpng, or of a flatterer.

Capratio institutio, a disposition in ones will or testament, made by hym that is deceyued by flatterie, or obsequious facion, or rather to flate ter and please other.

Caprio, onis, for, g. the acte of takynge or decey uynge, or that wherby any thyng is taken, de ceyte, capriousnesse.

Caprio honorum, the sekynge for honour.

Nulla in hac re caprio est, In this matter is no deceyte.

Capriones dialectice, the subtyll caullacions of logicians.

Caprio in verbis, capriousnesse in caullatpng of wordes.

Capriose, captiously, disceitfully.

Capriofum, is sometyme vset for Damnosum, hurtefull.

Capriofus, a, um, caprious or disceitful.

Capriuncula, f, g. a diminutue of caprio.

Capriuitas, atis, f. g. caperuitie or bondage.

Caprius, a, um, that is taken in warres.

Capto, aui, are, to get the fauour of one wth fayre wordes, pleasant dedes or rewardes.

Also to deceyue or take quickly.

Caprare assentionem, to gette ones consent in
any thyng.

Caprare beneuolentiam, to endeuour to gette ones fauour. lykewyse Caprare gratiam & fa

norem.

Caprare auras, spoken of houndes of spang elles, that seeke out any thyng by the fauour.

Caprare consilium, to consule.

Caprare occasionem, or tempus, to watch a convenient time.

Caprare sermonem alicuius, to listen ones tale.

Caprare pisces, to fysh.

Caprare risus, to doo a thyng to be laughed at.

Caprare solitudines, to couet to be in a solitas tie place. Caprare somnum, to sleape.

Caprare auribus, to herken.

Caprare voluptatem, to seeke for pleasure.

Caprare aliquem, to lay a wayte to deceyue one, or to go aboute to wyne or allure one on our parte.

Caprare cernam, to get a supper of free coll.

Caprare impudicitia, to laye a wayte to take one in the acte of lecherie.

Caprare sermonem, to herken priuylge what men talke.

Captura, f, g. the apprehendpng or gettynge.
also a litlel gayne or vantage. also a praye.

Captura piscium, fyshpng.

Captura auium, bydpng.

Caprus, a, um, take, snared, deceyued also belited.

Capri oculis, blynde. also great louers are cal led capri.

Capri auribus, deafe.

Capri mente, out of his wytte or madde.

Capri est, he is intangled in lone.

Dulcedine vocis caprus, belited with the pleas saunethesse of the voyce.

Caprius dolis, discreyued, beggled.

Caprius membris, taken, benumbed, depty
ued of the vse of his lymmes.

Capri conatus frustra, labour spent in vayne.

Capri vsu hereditas, heritage gotten by long possession.

Caprius, us, ma. g. chaunce. also discreyte, percey
uynge of a thyng, or capacitee.

Caprius hominum, mens capacitee.

Capua, a citee in the royalme of Naples.

Capula, f, f. g. a longe vessell of wood, which an handle, which serueth to take oyle out of a vessell.

Capularis, re, the adiectiue of capulum, by a mes saphoze, olde, decrepite, at the pities brinke.

Capularis senex, an olde man, readie to bee layed on his biere.

Capulato, oris, ma. gen. he that doeth empty or take out oyle of a vessell, with the wooden ves sell called capula.

Capulo, aui, are, to take oute or empty vesselles of oyle.

Capulum, li, n. g. that which receyueh any thing into it. also a coffyn or biere, wherein dead corps is be caried or layde in. also a certeyne knot in a corde, by the whiche wilde beastes are taken and holden.

Capulus, li, m. g. and capulum, li, n. g. the hils tes or handle of a swearde.

Capus, pi, m. g. a capon.

Caput viride, a place in Aethiope called there Mandanga.

Caput, pitis, n. g. an head. also the begynnynge of a thyng, a chapter of a booke, an article, a clause, the somme of the principall poynt of any thyng, also a man. sometyms lyfe, the mouth of a ryuer, the toppe of a tree, the ende of a rafter of planke, the authour of begynner of a thyng. sometyms chiefe, otherwhyles perill. sometyms estimation.

Ad caput rei peruenias, come to the poynte of the matter.

Capita frumenti & vectigalium, The articles concernynge grayne and reuenues.

Capita rerum expedite, go to, declare of shew quickly the principall poyntes of the matter.

Capite damnatus, condemned to die.

Capite decernere. Vtinam meo solum capite decernerem, I woulde god I myght trie it at myne owne perill onely.

Sine capite manere res dicitur, when one kno weth not wherof the herte is spynge.

Capitis anquirere, to procede in iudgement agaynst one for treason or felony.

Penam capitis pendere, to bee punysshed by death.

Capitis arcessere, to appeache one of felony or treason. Capitis diminutio, a condemnation, wherby a man loseth eyther libertee of his person, is made bonde, or is banysht hys countrey, or put out of the kynges protections, or renouncynge his owne familie is adopted, or taken into an other, which thinge is not now vsed.

Capitis iudicium, p[ro]cesse criminall.

Operire caput, to put on the cappe.

Tegere caput, idem.

Aperire caput, to put of the cappe or bonet.

Operto capite esse, to haue his cappe on hys head.

Demulcere caput alicui, to stroke ones head.

Distinguere caput acu, with a lytell pynne to make the shed of diuision of the heare.

Caput facere, to gather to a head.

Capite censi, were amonge the Romayns, the pooze sort of the people, whiche were dyscharged of all exactions, and remayned in the citce onely for generation.

Caput diminuere, to bryake ones head.

Impingere caput parieti, to knocke ones head agaynst the wall.

A greste caput, a rude fellow.

Audax caput, a bolde fellow.

Charum caput, a person derely beloued.

Si quidem hoc viuit caput, if I lyue.

Capitis res est, the matter concerneth lyfe and death.

Caput & famam alterius defendere, to defende an other mans lyfe and good name.

Vt in singulas horas capite dimices tuo, that at euery houre you should bee in icoperdie of your lyfe.

Caput disputationis illius, the summe of that disputation or controuersie.

Prima duo capita sunt epistola, the two first poyntes of your epistle.

A capita ducere, to fetch a matter even from the begynnynge.

Caput scelerum, the authour and first begynner of the mischefe.

Caput esse alicui rei, to bee the chiefe in any matter. Et quod caput est, and that is the chiefe of principall poynt of all.

Nec caput neq[ue] pes sermonis apparet, there appereth neyther begynnynge nor endynge of the communication, or the tale hath neyther head nor foot.

In capite Bichymia, in the frontiers of Bichymia.

Caput regni, the principal town in the roialme.

Capita vitium, the endes of vppermost synnages of vynes.

Capys, a mans name that builded Capua.

Carabi, a ryuer of Scythia.

Carabus, bi, m. g. a fyne called a lobster, lyke to a creuse, but that he is greater, and is redde when he is alque.

Caracra, a cite in Spayne, called Guadaluza.

Caralitanum, a promontorie of Cardima.

Carambis, a great promontory towards the north part, in the sea Euxinum.

Carambusis, a ryuer of Scythia, by the mountaynes called Rhipari.

Caramus, idem quod Carabus.

Carana, a towne of Ponte.

Caranus, a kyng of Macedonia. Also an hauein in Phenicia.

Caraseni, people of the countrey Caria.

Caraxus, the brother of Sapphus.

Carbania, a lytle yland by Italy.

Carbas, a winde that bloweth from the south.

Carbaseus, Carbasinus, and Carbasineus, a lymade of fynelynnen.

Carbasus, si, m. & f. g. Et plu, Carbasa, or si, n. g. a kynde of fyne linnen or cyppes.

Also the cappe of a shyppe. also a robe or garment of fyne or fynelynnen, that vyche folkes vsed to weare.

Sometyme the surtes of a coate, that callisth pleytes lyke a cappe.

Carbatina, shoes that husbandmen vse.

Carbilesi, people of Thace.

Carbilius, a man that amonge the Romaynes, dyd first repudiate his wyfe for barrenhelle. Another of the same name, whiche had beene hys seruant, was the first that dyd teache gramme openly in Rome.

Carbo, onis, m. g. a quicke or dead cole. It was also the name of a Romayne.

Carbone notare, to marke with a cole, a prouerbe, signifying to condeprune a thyng. Sometime to take a thyng for ill lucke.

Carbonarius, rij, m. g. a colper.

Car-

Carbonarius, a um, pectynphg to coles.
Carbonaria fornax, the pitte where coles bee made.
Carbonaria, all thynges, that haue moze mattier of earth, then of fumes or exhalacions.
Carbulo, a towne in Spayne.
Carbunculario, onis, for. ge. and Carbunculus, a corruption in herbes and trees, that blasteth the floures.
Carbunculatio in vitibus, is a faute in vyues whan the clufter of grapes are not sufficiently couered with leaues, by whiche occasion they be withered and dried.
Carbunculo, aui, are, or Carbuncolor, to be burned lyke a cole.
Carbunculantia vlcera, inflamed sores.
Carbunculantur semina, the seedes be bourned or blasted.
Carbunculosus, a, um, the adiectiue of Carbunculus.
Carbunculosus ager, a fildes petched with heate of the sunne, and made vnfertill.
Carbunculosa arena, sande full of litell redde stones lyke burning coles.
Carbunculus, li, ma. g. a botche that cometh of inflammation. also a kynde of pious stones, whiche doo myne lyke a burning cole. Mozes ouer a defaute in a vyne or other trees, whereby they are burned, whiche hapneth aboute the canicular dayes. It also signifieth earthe, wherein are founde blacke slate stones. also earthe, whiche with the heate of the sonne is so hot, that it bourneth all thynges, sette or sownen in it.
Carcasum, a towne of Barbon in Fraunce.
Carchiocherta, a towne of the greater Armeny.
Carcet, eris, m. g. a prison. Sometime a naughty fellow worthy prisonment.
 Ain' tandem carcer? Sailest thou so in dedde thou naughty theefe?
Ianitor carceris, the saylout.
Teneri in carcere, to be kepte in prison.
Conijci in carcerem, to be cast in prison.
Carceres, m. g. pl. the place where horses stande, whan they ren for pices, and from thens dooe take theyr course. hereof cometh a prouerbe.
 A carceribus ad calcem, or ad metam, from the begynnyng to the endyng of an enterpryse.
Carcerarius, a, um, of a prison.
Carceratinum, the rewarde, whiche the officers were wont to geue to them that kept the prison. It may now be vsed for that they call theyr fiele. some reade Charisticon, and not Carceratinum.
Carchedon, the citee of Carthage, and Carchedonij, the people therof.
Carchedonius, nij, ma. g. a kynde of carbuncle stones, whiche in the house seme of purple colour: a brode in the ayre they are fyre. Agaynst the sonne, they sende out sparkes, and yet waxe be touched with them, it melteth.
Carchesia, orum, n. ge. the vppermost parte of the masse, that is the holes, wherein the coles or shrowdes are fastned.

Carchesium, sui, neu. gen. a standyng cuppe with handels.
Carchoquids, quij, m. g. a kynde of frogges, hanging on theyr heales pealow spotted.
Carcina, a citee.
Carcinetron, the herbe called Corigiola, looke thereto.
Carcinias, a, m. g. a pious stone of the colour of a crabbe fyre.
Carcinizes, a goulte in Scythia of Europe.
Carcinodes, nodis, n. g. the canker in the nose.
Carcinoma, aus, n. ge. the eatynge canker in the ouer partes of the body.
Carcinus, ni, m. g. a crabbe. Also a signe in the firmament. also the name of a poete.
Cardamilla, a citee in Argus, nere to Syllus.
Cardamantice, idem quod Iberis, looke thereto.
Cardamine, an herbe called Vincetoxicum.
Cardamina, a, idem quod cardamum.
Cardamomum, mi, n. g. an herbe of spice, whiche is lyke a seede somewhat longe. The beke is harde to be broken, and soone pecteth the nose in smellyng: In taste quicke and somewhat bitter. In freede of this spice, whiche cometh ouer of Arabia or Indie, they now commonly vse a spice, whiche the apothecaries call Granum paradisi, in englysh graynes.
Cardamon, or Cardamum, mi, ne. g. an herbe called cresses.
Cardia, a towne of Thace.
Cardia, as, f. g. the herte of a man or beast.
Cardiaca, ca, the herbe called motherwort.
Cardiacus, a, um, of the herte.
Cardiacus morbus, vel Cardiaca passio, a spekenesse of the herte, proceedinge of to muche weakenes of the body, and feeblenesse of the stomake by ouermuch swette, consumption of naturall spirites, or certayne other causes.
Cardialgia, a, greife or payne of the hert.
Cardiacus, ei, m. g. he that hath that disease.
Cardinalis, le, chiefe or principall.
Cardinatus, a, um, the adiectiue of Cardo: as, Ligna cardinata, rafters pynned in the moztayles.
Cardinea dea, idem quod Carna.
Cardineus, a, um, idem quod cardinalis.
Ordo cardineus, a, principuus.
Cardinum, ni, neu. g. an herbe, whiche some dooe suppose is cresses.
Cardisce, ces, m. g. a stone that is engendred of a dragons bryne.
Cardo, inis, ma. ge. the hooke, wheron the doore hangeth, and is moued. Also a mere or boundes, whiche passe throughe the fildes, from the southe to the northe. Also the tenon, put into a moztayle. Sometime oportunitie. Vitruuius calleth the two poles of the firmament Cardines.
Cardines temporum, the foure tymes of the yere, spring tyme, sommer, autume, & wynter.
 N iij Cardo

Cardo causa, the issue of the matter.
 Cardo rei, the effecte of the matter of thyng,
 the chiefe poynte of the matter.
 In hoc cardo rei vertitur, herin consisteth the hole matter, or on this hangeth all the matter.
 Cardo litium, idem quod cardo causa.
 Cardopos, pi, ma. g. an hutch or coffer, wherein bread is put. In the north countrey it is called an arke. It is also a vessel, wherein dough is moulded.
 Carduelis, lis, f. g. a byrde called a lynnnet, or some other litle birde, that liueth by the seede of thistles. for I dare not affirme it to be a lynnnet, which is named Miliaria. This Carduelis is described to be a litle birde, with a redde head, yelow wynges, distincte with white and blacke:
 It, beyng (as Plinie sayth) of all birdes the least, is thought to do any thyng not only wyth
 the voyce, but also with the fete & byll in neede of handes.
 Carduus, dui, mas. ge. a thystell, of the wyld ar-richoke.
 Care, deere, at a great price.
 Carēctum, ti, ne, ge. the place where sedge doeth growe.
 Carenies, people of Spayne.
 Carentani, people of Italy.
 Careo, ui, ēre, to lacke, properly those good thynges, whiche ones were had. Sometime it signifieth to be without a thyng: as,
 Careo culpa, I am without fault.
 Careo febre, I am without feuer.
 Præterquā tui carendū quod erat, Sauing that I coulde not haue your company.
 Quod amat caret, he lacketh that he loueth.
 Ego illa caream, si sit opus, vel totum triduū
 I coulde bee withoute her, if neede were, three whole dayes together.
 Caruit ne te febris heri? had you not your ague yesterday?
 Caruit Pompeius foro, Pompeius came not abroad into the common place.
 Fide caret res, the matter is not to be belueid.
 Care suspicione, not to be suspected.
 Cares, the name of a kercer, the scholar of Li-sippus.
 Cares, people of Hyrgia, of barbarous and seruile maners and facion, rede the prouerbe, in Care periculum.
 Carehus, a ryuer of Troye.
 Caretha, an yle called also Dionysia.
 Careum, or Carium, an herbe, in Englysh cassawys, apothecaries call it carui.
 Carex, caricis, f. g. sedge that groweth in fennes, and watry groundes, it is called in Roithynns berlande. Mergasse.
 Caria pontica, latinis auellanae nuces, fielberbes or hassil nuttes.
 Caria, a region in Asia hauynge on the north side the great riuer Meander. On the west the great sea Icarium, on the east Licia, and diuers other countreys. Towarde the southe the mountayne Taurus. The people therof called Cares, were good men of warte, and therfore euer where retiered for souldiours, as Suijars, or Sutch-ners be now.

 Carjatis, idis, a woman of Carpa, a sister of Peloponesus.
 Carica, ca, f. g. a dry fygge, such as is eaten in Lent. Carica, is also a kynde of meate: rede the prouerbe, Lydorum carica.
 Carica, litle houses sette on hygh places, whiche be stronge by theyr naturall municion.
 Caricus, or Carius, a, um, of the countrey of Caria.
 Carides, a fische called a prane, lyke to a thympe.
 Caries, ci, f. g. a litle worme that eateth wood. It is also putrefaction or spylth growen by age or continuance, the rottenesse in timber or trees.
 Vini caries, the dregges of wyne.
 Cariem trahere, sentire, inducere. Carie infe-stari, to waxe rotten, or to be putrified, or bins newed.
 Carilla, a towne of Picentum, destroyed by Anniball.
 Carina, a, f. g. the keele or bottome of a shippe.
 Carina, arum, certeyne houses within the temple of Cellus, made lyke the bottoms of shippes.
 Carina, arum, a Arcete in Rome, wherein Pompeie dwelled.
 Carina putaminum, the two Wales of a nutte deuided in sunder.
 Carinatum, lyke a keele.
 Carinatus, a, um, made in fourme of the keele of a shippe.
 Carini, people of Germany.
 Carino, ui, are, to make any thyng lyke to the keele of a shippe.
 Carindia, a countrey by Dukrike, soygnyng on the south to the mountaynes Alpes and Italy,
 On the east and north to Stiria. The election of a new prynte or gouernour there, is verie strange. Pius writeth in his cosmography, that in the towne called Sancti viti, is a greate valey, where, in a medowe is sette a stone of marble, of a good height, wherupon ascendeth an husbände man, vnto whom that office by inheritance belongeth: On his right hande stan-deth a blacke cow: on his lefte hande an yll fauoured mare. About hym standeth a great multitude of carles. On the other syde of the me-dow cometh the duke, accompanied wyth his noble men in their robes of estate. Before hym goeth the Erle of Gortia, the greate mayster of his house, betwene. xii. banners, bearyng the pryncis standerde. The other noble men folow with the prynte, clad lyke an husbände man, with a shepceroke in his hande, as he were a shepheard. As soone as the carle, on the marble stone, perceiueh him comyng, he askech a loude in the Slaudyn tungue, who is this, that cometh with so proude agate? They that stande about

about, answers, It is the pynte of this countrey. Chan saith he esteemes: Is he a right iudge, seeking for the weale of the countrey, a free man bozne, and woorthy to haue honour? Is he a true christen man, and defender of Christes saith? They all answer, yea, he is and shall be. Chan saith the earle, By what right may he putte me from this place? Chan answereth the earle of Gortia, Thou shalt haue for thy place. I. grotes, these two beastes (the cow and the mare) & the pyntes appaile, which he dyd late put of. Also thy family of kinne shall be free from al manner of tribute. Chan the earle, geuynge the pynte a lytle blowe on his cheeke, byddeth him be a good iudge, and comynge downe from the stone, geueth him place, and so departeth, takynge with him the cowe and the mare. Chan the pynte goeth vp on the stone, and holdynge a naked swerde in his hande, brandyngge it, turneth to euery parte of the stone, promysynge equall iudgements to all the people. Then is there brought to hym colde water in an housband mans cappe, which he drynkeheth, signifyng that he condemneth dynnyng of wyne. Chan goeth he to a churche thereby: where, after he hath herde masse, he putteth of his rustical raiment, and putteth on appaile of honour. And dynnyng with his nobilitie sumptuously he commeth esteemes to the meadowe, where he heareth matters, and wynnstreth iustice. The duke of this countrey, is as it were chiefe maister of the game to the imperyll maister.

Carion Basilicon, called of the latines regia nux and Persica iuglans, the wall nutte.

Cariophyllata, x, f. g. a flower called auance.

Cariophillon, a spere called cloues.

Cariosuelites, people of the countrey of Lyons in Fraunce.

Cariotus, a, um, as earth is after it is well dounge and sturred. It is also putrified or rotten.

Cariota terra, rotten earth, that commeth of dounge.

Cariota, x, f. g. looke Caryota.

Cariotis, idis, looke Caryotis.

Carisa, a towne in Spayne.

Carissa, vled of olde wynters for vafra.

Caritas, atis, f. ge. scarltee, dearthe, properly of that whiche serueth for the sustinaunce of man.

Caritas nummorum, scarltee of money.

Caritas annonæ, scarltee of vyttayle.

Caritas, and vilitas, contrary.

Carium, looke Careum.

Carius, the name of Jupiters sonne.

Carmacæ, people of Asia, nere Theotis.

Carmani, people of Carmania.

Carmania, a countrey in India, whiche is after Ptolome, diuided in two partes: One is veray fertile, the other is veray barayne. Carmania the desert, hath on the west Persis: on the east Aria, on the north Parthia, on the south, the other Carmania. The scruple Carmania, hath on the north the desert: on the east Gedrosia, on the west, Persis: on the south, the Indian sea. Of this countrey I find one thing worthy of remembrance. who so euer wil mary, must first byng to the bynge there, the head of an enemy: whiche he setteth vp in his palace: but first he taketh out the tounge, and cauleth it to be cut in peeces, and mingled with bread, & geueth parte thereof to hym that brought the head.

And if there be many heades, he deuiderth the tounge among his gentlemen, as most delicate meate.

Carmelus, or Carmelum, the name of two sundry hilles in Judea.

Carmen, inis, neu. g. a verse or meter. Also the whole worke that is made in verses. Sometime it signifieth a charme. Sometime a prescript or ration of praier, in makynge a dowe, or other lyke purpose. also a prophetic.

Carmen, is sometime taken for the voyce or noyse of an owle.

Carmen virtutis, the harmonie and vnpoyme consent of vertue.

Carmina, componere, condere, contexere, facere, fingere, to make verses.

Carmenta, & Carmentis, the name of a ladye, whiche had the spirite of prophetic, and gaue answer in verses. She was also called Nicostratis, and was mother of Quander.

Carminarij, orum, m. g. they that doo picks, make cleane, or carde woull.

Carminator, oris, m. g. and Carminarius, rij, idem.

Carminatrix, a woman or wench that pycketh or cardeth woull.

Carminario, onis. form. ge. the pyckynge or cardynge of woull.

Carmino, aui, arc, to carde woull, or other lyke thyng.

Carmon, a place in Messenia, the temple of Apollo in Laconia, a ryuer in Achaia, and a mountayne in Peloponnesus.

Carna, x, f. g. was supposed to be the goddess of mans lyfe, of hir they despyed the herte, lyuer, and intayles, to be preserued.

Carnapæ, people about Theotis.

Carnarium, narij, n. g. a larder, wherein hangeth fleshe. Sometime it signifieth a bouchers Chables. Also fleshe meate. Sometime an instrument with many hookes, whercon fleshes of baken, or other peeces of fleshe do hang in a larder house, or other place.

Carnarius, rij, m. g. a boucher. Also one that despyeth in eatynge of fleshe: a fleshemonger.

Carnarius, a, um, that perteynyth to fleshe.

Carnaria taberna, a bouchers shop.

Carne, a towne of Phenicia.

Carneades, a philosopher, the folower of Chrysippus, and chiefe of the secte called Noui Academici.

Carney

Carnus, a, um, that whiche is of fleshe.
Carni, the people of the countrey in Almayne, called Carinthia, belonging to the duke of Austrie. It is also the name of an other people in Italy, in the countrey called Marca Tarvisia.
Carnifex, icis, ma, gen, an executioner, or hangman, that cutteth men in peeces. And by a metaphor, a murderer, a cruell person.
Carnifices epulae, banquettes, which put a man to payne and tourmentes after.
Carnificina, ae, for. ge. the place where suche execution is doone. Also the office or acte of an hangman. Also great murder, crueltie.
Carnificinam facere, to execute the office of an executioner.
Carnificinam subire, to go to execution, to bee tormented and murdered.
Carnificinus, a, um, pertaining to the acte of murdering or sleaying.
Carnificina agritudo, poppetfull sickness that tormenteth a man.
Carnificium, idem quod Carnificina.
Carnificor, aris, ari, to bee putte to execution, to be tormented, and as it were toyne in peeces.
Carnivorus, a, um, any thyng that deuoureth fleshe.
Carnopes, the flies called Locustes.
Carnolitas, atis, fœm, ge. abundaunce of fleshe, fleshyenes.
Carnosus, a, um, fleshye, grosse.
Carnosaradix, & Carnosum folium, a thych leafe, or a thych roote.
Carnotum, the middell region of all Fraunce.
Carnulentus, a, um, idem quod Carnosus.
Carnuntum, a towne in the border of Germany.
Carnus, a, um, fatte.
Carnutes, people of a countrey in Fraunce, called Charters.
Carnuti, people of Germany.
Caro, carnis, f. g. fleshe, properly of that whiche is dead. Also in herbes, leaues, and fruite, that whiche is vnder the skynne or pylle.
Caro piscium, the meate offishe.
Caro arborum, the woodde or tymbre next the tappe.
Cardanum, the citie Cracan in Polonia, called also Cracouia.
Caronium, a citie in Spayne called Cheroga.
Caros, Caron, vel Careum, of the apothecaries Carui, an herbe called Laret, the roote wherof is lyke a pershepe, but some are yelow, and some redde, and are in eatyng more pleasaunt than persheppes, and wyl bee sooner digested: There be of them that are whyte. Some call this herbe careaways.
Carota, a, the wyld Laret.
Carora, vel Carotici, bee the greates synewes, whiche dooe holde vp the necke, called also Tenondes, whiche in Cornelius Celsus, in some printes, be called Carotes, whiche woulde be amended and written Carotas.

Carotica, be the great veynes on euer yde of the necke.
Carpanetum, a place of Schem.
Carpasium, a towne of Egypt.
Carpantium mare, the sea fornyng to Egypt, wher in be the yles called Sporades.
Carpathos, or Carpathus, an yle against Egypt, the middes between Rhodes and Landie.
Carpasina, arum, f. g. plowmens bootes made of untanned leather, they may be called others.
Carpatus, a mountayne of Dacmatia, called somtymonly Crapalz.
Carpentarius, ri, m. g. a cartwright or carpenter.
Carpentarius, a, um, pertaining to the carte or chariotte. Carpentarius equus, a cart horse or chariot horse.
Carpentoracte, the cite of Carpentis in France.
Carpentum, ri, n. g. a chariot or waggon.
Carpesia, a, an herbe that is popson. pli.
Carpheotum, ti, n. g. frankonsente.
Carpetani, a people of Spayne.
Carphos, called also Bucerat, and Aegoceras, an herbe called Sengrene.
Carpi, a people of Zrugitana, in Thrace.
Carpineus, a, um, of the tree Carme.
Carpinus, ni, f. g. a tree called among the frenche men Carpi, or Carme.
Carpio, ois, for. ge. a fysh, not that whiche we call a carper: for that is of some called Pilsis Cyprinus.
Carpis, a ryce in Scythia.
Carpo, pli, ere, to gather or plucke softly, with out violence. Somtym to hurt or diminishe, debilitate or infreble. Also to choole out, to expoure or taunte, to vse. i. frvor. to passe ouer quickly.
Carpere agmen, to bere an hoste, and to settrappe and slea suche as sleape abode from the armie. Carpere cibum to eate.
Carpere iter, to take a iourney.
Carpere herbas, to eate grasse.
Carpere linum, to draw out the flaxe in spinning at the distaffe.
Carpere sanam, to tole or carde woul.
Carpere maledico dente, to reppone maliciously, to backbite or slaudie.
Carpere viam, to walke.
Carpere vires, to debilitate or infreble.
Carpere vitales auras, to lyue.
Vnum quicquid, quod quidem erit bellissimum-carpam, One mozell, which so euer shall be the deynest, I wyl choole for my selfe.
Genio carpamus dulcia, let vs make good chere.
Carpere exercitum in multis partes, to diuide an hoste or army in many partes.
Carpet citius aliquis quam imitabitur, One shall sooner fynde faute than dooe the lyke.
Carpere fugam, to renne awaie.
Carpere somnos, to sleepe.
Carpere flores, vel poma, to gather flowers or fruite.

Forma capitur suo spacio, saupur, the longer it continueth, the more it decreaseth.
Carpere faciem, to rent or teare the face.
Carpere aliquem, id est, Emungere, to dyle people one or rydde him of that he hath.
Auro pectus carpitur, the mynde is troubled with couctousnesse.
Cura alicuius carpi, to be carefull for one.
Carpere facta alicuius, to fynde a faute at ones doynge.
Gaudia carpere, to be ioyfull or glad.
Carpobalsamum, mi, neut. gene. the fruite of Balsamum.
Carpocrates, an heretike, whiche denied Christe to be god, affirmynge that he was pure man, whose sect were named Carpocratite, or Carpocratiani. They affirmed the worlde to be made by angelles. They reiected the olde testaments, and denied the general resurrection. They denyed, that Christ was boyn of the virgin Mary, sayng, that he was gotten of the seede of Joseph. Also that his bodie suffered, and that his soule onely was receyued into heauen: he liued about the yere of our lord. 142.
Carpophillon, li, n. g. a tree, whiche hath leaues lyke a laurell.
Carpopharus, a, um, that beareth fruite.
Carpus, pi, m. g. the wyest, or the ende of the lesse bone in the arme, called Radius or Parapachion.
Carpasij, orum, they whiche in bathes dooe kepe mens clothes, haunge some reward for theyr labour.
Carpim, pickyng out here and there.
Carpim breuiter, perstringere aliquid, to touche a thyng summarily or in few wordes.
Carpim dicere, to touche thynges here and there quickly.
Carpitor, oris, m. g. a reppouer or taunter.
Carpura, a, for. g. a gatherynge together of many thynges.
Carpus, us, m. g. idem.
Carpus, a, um, plucked, gathered. also toled lyke woull.
Carra, ra, a citee in Arabia.
Carraca, a citee of Italy vnder the dominion of Venice, called commonly Caranas.
Carra, arum, a citee of Mesopotamia, where Crassus the senatour, and Caracalla, the emperor were slayne.
Carrago, semeth of Pollio, to be taken for Impedimentum.
Carrodunum, loze Carodunum.
Carruca, ca, f. g. a chariotte.
Carrucarius, a, um, pertynyng to a chariotte.
Carrus, ri, m. g. & Carrum, ri, n. g. a chariot.
Carseolanus, a, um, of the towne or people called Carseoli.
Carseoli, that towne and people.
Carrallus, li, m. g. or Carthallum, li, n. g. a basket made of osiers.

Carteia, a towne in Spayne.
Cartenna, a towne in the prouynce Tingitana.
Carthea, or Cartheia, a citee in the yle Ceos.
Carthaginensis, or after Punician, Carthaginensis, se, of or pertynyng to Carthage.
Cardago, thaginis, f. g. a famous citee in Arike called Carthage, almost enuyroned with the sea, whiche citee was in compasse aboute the walles 360. furlonges, which are 45. Italian myles, wherof. vii. myles and an halfe ran in length on the rydge of an hyl, whiche went from sea to sea, where were sette the stables of olyphantes, a verye large place. Almoste in the myddell of the citee was a castell or tour called Byrsa, on the top wherof stode Cerulaput temple: vnderneath were hauens or hopes of the castell, and a lyttell rounde yle called Lothou, standyng as it were in a great pōde, about which were set the houses that serued for the name of Carthage. this citee continued warres with the Romaynes, xl. yeres, and had many excellent menne of warre, of whom Anniball was the moste noble and famous. That citee had in subiection a greate parte of Arike, Sicille, the more part of Spayne, and the ples of the myddell sea. It was at laste destroyed by Scipio, befoze the incarnation of Christe. 144. yeres. The countrey where it stode, is now called Tunys.
Carthamus, looke in Cnicos.
Cartheus, and Cartheius, a, um, the adiectiue of Carthea.
Carthumandua, a queene in this Bytayne, of the people called Brigantes.
Cartilagineus, a, um, of a gristle.
Cartilago, ginis, f. g. a gristle.
Cartilaginofus, a, um, full of gristles, or of a gristle. also a meane betwene harde and soft.
Cartris, a place of the Lymbzians.
Carty, the herbe called spurge.
Caruncula, la, f. g. a lytle piece of fleshe.
Carus, a, um, deere.
Carusij, people of Arike by Ethiope.
Carya, the name of a citee in Grece.
Carya basilica, the walnutte tree.
Caryanda, a citee or more in Caria.
Caryatides, the ymages of women holdyng garlandes or other lyke thynges, sette vp to garnish houses.
Caryca, rede in Carica. after Suidas, it is a certayne meate, made of bludde and diuers other thynges mingled together, a kynde of pudynge.
Carynus, caryna, um, of a nutte, as Oleum carynum, the oyle of nuttes.
Caryon, ryi, n. g. a kynde of nuttes.
Caryon Indicum, vel nux Indica, a great fruite lyke to a nutte, which the Arabians dooe caie, are the dates of Indie. Out of them cometh a lycoure more sweete than butter. This nutte is hotte in the seconde degree, and moyste in the fyrst.
Caryon mirificon, vel Mothocarion, is that that spice, whiche is also called Nux muscata, in englysh nutmygges; which is hot and dry in the second degree.

Caryopon, pi, n. g. the tpyce of a nutte, that cometh of a hynde of Cinamon tree, that groweth in Syria.

Caryota, re, f. g. a date.

Cariotis, idis, f. g. idem.

Carystus, and Carystius, a, um, of the yle Caryste.

Caryste, tes, and Carystos, ti, an yle in the sea called Euboicum, wherein is plentie of marble of dyuers colours. there groweth also a hynde of stones, wherof they make fync cloth, whiche beyng foule is purged by fyre.

Carytis, carytis, f. g. a hynde of spurge.

Casa, se, f. g. a cottage.

Ita fugias, ne prater casam, A prouerbe among theyng so to escheue a thyng, that we fall not into a wyse.

Casabundus, a, um, fallng often.

Cassandra, an yle ouer agaynst Deris.

Casaria, re, f. g. gen. the woman that keepeth the cotage.

Cascandrus, an yle by India.

Cascatenies, people of Spayne.

Cascus, a, um, olde.

† Cascus, calcum ducit, A prouerbe signifying vnequal marriage, whan a yong man marryeth an olde woman.

Casale, lis, n. g. a depe house, where cheese is made.

Casarius, as, um, of oꝝ perteynyng to cheese.

Casaria taberna, a depe house, a place where cheese is made.

Casus, ei, m. g. cheese. some men ble Casum, in the neutre gender.

Casus musteus, Howen cheese.

Casus recens & mollis, newe and softe cheese.

Casia, an herbe, that beareth a spyce, whiche hath the vertue of cynamome, and is wouderfull soote in sauour. It is of the apothecaries called Cassia lignea. some haue iudged this, whiche the olde learned men called Casia, to be ouercynamome, because wee neuer had the true cynamome, and that whiche we call Casia, not to be the true Casia.

Casia fistularis, is that, whiche is called commonly Cassia fistula.

Casili, a people, whiche beyng besieged of the Carthaginenses, susteyned theyr hunger a great space with small nuttes.

Casilinum, a citee of Campayne in Italy.

Casina, a comedie of Plautus.

Casinum, a towne in Italy.

Casiro, aui, are, to fall oꝝ drop often tymes.

Casius, an hyl in the bozders of Egypt: an other in Seleucia.

Casmene, olde wyters bled for Camene.

Casmonates, people of Liguria.

Casnar, in the Olde tounge is an olde man.

Caso, aui, are, a frequentatiue of Cado.

Casos, an yle by the sea Carpathium. Also one of them that be called Cyclades.

Casperia, a citee in Italy; also a womans name.

Casperula, a towne of the Sabines.

Caspij, a people howe in Cassaria; theyng to the sea Caspium, so inhumayne (as Strabo wytteth) that whan theyr parentes exceede the age of lxx. yeres, they in a close place, kille them, and then they lay them in a deserte, beholding them a farre of. If byrdes plucke them out of their clothes, and deuour them: they account them blessed. If dogges oꝝ wilde beastes dooe it, they account it not so happy. But if both dooe it, they esteeme the man vnhappie.

Other wyte, that they nouryshe dogges of purple to deuour them.

Caspus, a parte of the mountayne Caucas.

Caspus, and Caspicus, a, um, of Caspus.

Caspia porta, are broken places in the Rocks of the mountaynes of Caucas, towarde Byzancia and Persia, in length, as Plinius wytteth. vii. myles, as Soli wytteth. viii. myles: In brade the so narrowe, that a carre may hardly passe through them. Marcanus wytteth, that those gates were fast shutte with greate yron beames, that no man shuld passe. In the spring tyme and sommer, all serpentes dooe repaire thither from all countreys about, wherfore the passage that waie is perillous.

Casabundus, idem quod Casabundus.

Cassandane, the daughter of Pharnaspis, and mother of Lambysa, Strages sonne in lawe.

Cassandra, the daughter of Priamus, slayne by Lyttemnestra, whan Agamemnon brought her into Greece.

Casse, in Wayne.

Cassera, a towne of Macedonie.

Cassia via, a waie oꝝ Causey made by Cassius the Romayne.

Cassculus, ficuli, m. g. a little haire.

Cassida, re, f. g. idem quod Cassid, idis, an helmette.

Cassidile, is bled of Hierome for Perula.

Cassina, looke Casina.

Cassinum, a towne of the Sabines, also an olde market place in that towne.

Cassiodorus, a learned man, teacher of Theodosius kyng of Boethia.

Cassiope, an haund on the south part of Sicilia.

Cassiope, called also Cassiopeia, the wyfe of Cepheus, and mother of Andromedes, which contended in beauctee with Hecides, and was therfore tourned into a bynde in heauen, that hath xii. sterres and is figured lyke a woman, lpytyng in a chayne.

Cassus, sis, m. g. a nette, whiche may be called an haie.

Decidit prada in meos casses, the pray is fallen in to my handes.

Cassus, idis, f. g. an helmette, a skull, oꝝ a cappe of fence, a salade oꝝ basenet.

Cassira,

Cassia, α , f. g. a larche.
Cassiterides, be ten yles in the Spayne the Sea, wherein was dygged muche tynne, and they be not farre from the west parte of Spayne.
Cassiterum, α , n. g. tynne.
Cassiteros, idem.
Cassias, the gumme that droppeth out of a fyre tree.
Cassius, the propre name of dyuers men. It is also the name of a mountayne, and of a citee in Egypt nere to Pelesium, looke the prouerbe Cassioticus nodus.
Casso, α , α ui, are, to put out or make of none effect.
Cassum, α , n. g. a fragment or piece of any thing.
Cassus, α , α um, voyde and of none effect.
Cassa dote virgo, a mayde haunge nothinge toward her mariage.
Cassa nux, a pyped nutte.
Cassus lumine, dead.
Anima cassum corpus, a bodie without a soule.
Sensu cassa simulacra, ymages without sense or feelinge.
Cassa consilia, bayne counsailes.
Cassus labor, labour in vayne.
Cassutha, the herbe commonly called Cascuta, in englishe podder, and is not the same that Ephithimum, for this groweth not onely aboute Cyme, but also aboute Care, Pettles, Sauerp. &c.
Castaldia, α , f. g. a stewardship or ouersight of a mans goodes; and Castaldus, α , α ui, a proctor, a steward, a bayle, that hath the ouersight and charge of a mans possessions.
Castalides, the surname of the muses.
Castalius, a fountayne in the foote of the hyll of Parnassus, dedicated to the muses.
Castanea, α , f. g. a chesten tree, or a chest nutte.
Castanetum, α , n. g. a place sette with chesten trees.
Castanius, and Castanius, α , α um, of chestens.
Castaninum oleum, an oyle made of chesten nuttes.
Castus, chastly, honestly, vncorruptly.
Castus integritas, chastly, and vncorruptly.
Castellanus, α , n. g. he that dwelleth in a litle walled towne or fortreffe.
Castellanus, α , α um, of or perteynyng to a litle castle or walled towne.
Castellatim, one litle walled towne after an other, towne by towne.
Castellum, α , n. g. a castell, or a litle walled towne. It is a cundite, oute of whiche water renneth. Also the name of a countrey called Iuliers or Gulike.
Castenes, a gulfe in the sea by Constantinople.
Castoria, α , f. g. an house, wherein the taylorge of shypes is kept.
Castianira, one of Pyramus wyues.
Castigabilis, α , α um, that whiche shoulde or maie bee corrected or amended.

Castigatio, α , α nis, f. g. correction, a chastisement.
Castigator, α , α nis, m. g. a correctour.
Castigo, α , α ui, are, to chastise with wordes, to chide or rebuke. Also to correct or amende, to reforme, to punyche.
Castigare verbis, to chide.
Castigare verberibus, to beate.
Castigare vinculis & carcere, to punyche or chastise by imprisonment.
Castificus, α , α um, that maketh chaste.
Castimonia, α , f. g. idem quod Castitas.
Castitudo, α , α nis, idem.
Castitas, α , α nis, Castitudo, α , α nis, & Castimonia, α , f. g. chastitee.
Castilogi, people of France.
Castor, α , α nis, m. g. a beere, which hath the taylor of a fyre, and in the residue is like to an otter.
Castor & pollux two byetherne, bozne at a birth, and touned in to a sygne in heauen called Gemini.
Castor, a phisicion, who taught, that the herbe Piperitis, was good to drynke for the fallynge sicknesse.
Castorea, α , α nis, m. g. the stones of a beere, mesurable for many thynges.
Castoreum, α , α nis, neu. gen. an oyle made of a beers stones.
Castoreus, α , α um, of the beast called a beere.
Castoreus odor, a rotten synnyng sauour.
Castorides canes, dogges ingendred of a fore and a beere.
Castra, α , α nis, m. g. an army of men, when they lie or hyde in any place. Also the campe or place where the hoste lodgeth, the paupions beeryng pitched. Also they signifie Stationes, restyng places, where the hoste tarpyeth to refrethe them selues: whiche amonge the olde Romaines consygned. ix. myles, as Scualis wytteth.
Castris exuere, to compell the enemies to forsake their campe.
Nec ante abscissu est, quam castris exuerunt hostem, For they departed not awaye, vntyll they had consygned theyr enemies to forsake theyr campe.
Metator castrorum, he that chooseth the place to pytche the campe.
Cingere castra vallo, to trench the cape about.
Conferre castra castris, to pytche the campe ouer ryght agaynst the campe of our enemies.
Exuere hostes castris, to discampe his enemies.
Facere castra, to campe.
Habere castra, to be encampre.
Castrametator, α , α nis, m. g. one that campeth.
Castrametor, α , α nis, α ri, to lay or lodge an army, to pytche or campe.
Castratio, α , α nis, f. g. the geldyng or cuttyng awaye of the stones, And by a metaphoze, a pluckyng awaie or diminysing of a thyng.
Castratio arborum, the ofte cuttyng or prynnyng of trees.

Castratūra, α, f. g. idem quod castratio.
 Castratus, a, um, gelded, scabbed, diminished.
 Castrata respublica, a weake of febele common weale.
 Castrēnsis, se, that whiche pertaineth to anhoste of armie, of warre.
 Castrense peculium, that whiche a man of war hath gotten in warres.
 Castrensis corona, a crowne of garlande geuen vnto hym that fynde periled the campe of his enemies.
 Verbum castrense, a woorde vsed in warre as among souldiours.
 Castrimonienſes, people of Italy.
 Castritius, a noble man in the tyme of Scylla,
 and an orator vnder Adrian the emperour.
 Castro, dui, āre, to gelde. sometyme to cutte of generally.
 Castrare arbores, to boze holes lowe in trees.
 Castrare vites, to cutte vyues.
 Castrum, stri, n, g. sing. a castell or fortreſſe.
 Castrum nouum, a towne in Italy by the mouth of Tyber.
 Caſtula, lar, f. g. a linnen clothe, wherewith maidens byd gyd them selues vnder their pappes.
 Caſtulonenſes, people of the towne Caſtulon in Spayne, called commonly Caſtona.
 Caſtus, a, um, chaſte, honeſte, continent, vncor-rupted.
 Caſta mola, a kynde of sacrifice, that the viregins Veſtales made.
 Caſtus a culpa, pure, without fault, nothinge guiltye.
 Caſtus moribus, of honeſte and vncorrupted maniers.
 Caſta aures, honeſt eares, that can not abyde fylthy talke.
 Caſtus, us, idem quod caſtitas.
 Caſu, by chaunce.
 Caſuentillani, people of Italy.
 Caſuentum, a ryuer nere to the boſome of the ſea called Tarentinum.
 Caſula, α, f. g. a diminutiue of caſa.
 Caſura, α, f. g. a fall or decaye.
 Caſurgis, a ritee in Boeme nowe called Praga.
 Caſurus, a, um, that will fall or chaunce.
 Caſus, us, m, g. happe, chaunce, peryll, daunger,
 ruine, miſfortune, or miſerie. alſo a caſe.
 Caſus acerbus, an heuy chaunce.
 Incerto caſu pendere, whan a thyng is in doubt, wherto it will come.
 Accipere caſum aliquem grauior, to bee ve-raie ſoz for any chaunce or miſfortune that hath happened.
 Iudicio & caſu aliquid facere, contrary.
 Variis caſibus tractatus, coſſed in many aduerſities.
 Caſum alicuius lugere, to bewaile a mans fall or miſerie.
 Magnum caſum habet haec res, this matyer is verie daungerous.

Caſus hyemis, the later ende of wynter.
 Caſus vrbis, the decaye or ruine of a citee.
 Grauiore caſu celſe decidunt turres, The high towers haue the greater fall.
 Cata, a prepoſicion in greke, ſignifyinge Contra, or Aduerſus.
 Catabanes, people of Arabia deſerta.
 Catabaſis, ſis, ſc, gen. a deſcendynge or goynge
 downe.
 Carabathmus, a place in Aſyhe ſoygnyng to Egypte. ſo named of the ſhipenſſe of deſcendynge.
 Catableprus, ti, maſc, gen. a beaſte, breeding in Aſyhe, lyke a bul, with eyes terrible to beholde.
 Aelianus.
 Catachreſis, ſis, f. g. a figure, whan one woorde is ſurped for an other. as Paricida, for one that hath kylde his brother. Piſcina, a ponde, wherin is no fyſhe.
 Catachyſmata, among the Athenienſes, whan newe ſeruauntes came fyſte into an houſe, as they ſtoode by the chimney or hearth, they poured on theyr heades, egges, nuttes, dates, beanes, and peason, whiche were catched vp of the other ſeruauntes. And the lyke was doone on the new bypde, in token of good lucke. This was called Catachyſmata, for Catachyſis, in greke, is in engliſhe a pourpage out.
 Cataclyſmos, or Cataclyſmus, mi, m, g. an vniuerſall floudde, a great ſhowe of rayne.
 Cataclyſta, α, f. g. a garment cloſe all about.
 Catacryſis, ſis, f. g. a condemnation.
 Catadromus, mi, ma, g. the place where menne dooe renne hoſes for pyres or wagers. alſo li-ſtes, wherein men praſtiſe deedes of armes.
 Catadupa, a place by Aſylus.
 Catadupi, a place in Ethyope.
 Catagrapha, orum, pmagis, lookynge dyuers
 waies, and in dyuers ſourmes.
 Catalēcticum metrum, a verſe, wherin one only ſyllable lacketh.
 Catalēſis, ſi, f. g. occupation, deprehenſion.
 Catalēptum, ti, n, g. idem.
 Catalēxis, xis, f. g. a ſynnyng of a thyng.
 Catalogus, li, m, g. ſpeeche or wytyng, where thin-ges be recited in order and number: A reherſall or table of the numbre of thynges, a rolle.
 Catalyma, lymaris, n, g. refection. alſo an ynne.
 Caralyſis, ſis, f. g. diſſolution.
 Catamidio, are, to ſet one vp with a paper on his head, to be mocked or rebuked for ſome offence as they vſe to dooe with men periured, or with forgers of euidences.
 Caramitus, miri, m, g. a boie byred to be abuſed contrary to nature.
 Carana, a towne of Sicilie, the people wherof were called Catanei.
 Catangelos, idem quod Rubus, Dioſc.
 Caranchuſa, idem quod Anchufa, Dioſc.
 Caraphora, ra, f. g. a deade ſcape, or a diſpoſi-tion to ſleape.

Cataphractarius, rij, ma. ge. a man armed at all pieces. sometime it is taken for a foote man, armed with a best plate of cuiered.

Cataphractus, a, um, armed or fenced on all partes.

Cataphracti equites, men of armes on barbed hories.

Cataphractæ naues, covered shippes.

Cataphryges, heretiques, which tooke that name of one Pontanus, of Phrygia, an arche heretique. who affirmed, that the holy gost was geuen to them, and not to the apostles. They baptised not in the name of the trinitee, and used to baptise men after they were dead. They condemned the seconde marriage. This secte beganne in the yere of our lord. 170.

Cataphisis, idem quod physillum. Diosc.

Catapiromantia, æ. fœ. ge. divination, or sooth saying, by lookinge in a glasse.

Catapsyxis, f. idem quod Cicuta. Diosc.

Cataplasmata, ætis, neu. gen. a playster made of dyuers thynges.

Cataporia, orum, n. g. plu. pylls in medicine.

Catapulta, æ, f. g. an engine in warre, wherewith they shoote darts or quarelles a great waie of.

Catapultarium pilum, a bolte or darte shotte in that engine.

Catapia maior, the greater spurge. looke Ricinus.

Catapia minor, an herbe called the lesse spurge, looke moze in Tithymalus, and also in Lathyrus, which is the same herbe.

Cataracta, or Catarrhacta, æ, fœm. gen. and Cataractes, æ, masc. gen. a poxtullets. Also a greate course of water fallinge downe from hygh broken places. Also the place from whence it dooeth fall. whereof it is sayed, whan there is great showres of rayne, that Cataractæ cæli apertæ sunt.

Cataracta, is also a discaise of the eyes, hauynge a tough humoz lyke a gelie, rennyng out.

Cataractæ, bee also thynges sette to stoppe the course of water, as flud gates, weares, dammes, and sluises.

Cataractæ aues, byrdes called also Diomedæ, whiche had teeth and eyes lyke fyre.

Catarectes, a ryuer of Pamphilia.

Catari, people of Dannonia.

Catarnia, a countrey of Asia.

Catarrhus, catarrhu, ma. ge. a reume or spilling downe of water or fleume from the head.

Catarrhytus, a, um, that wherby a ryuer dooeth renne.

Catascopium, ij, n. g. a shyppe that watcheth or espieth for other: A bygandyne or pyennes.

Catascopus, pi, a spye.

Catasta, æ, f. g. a cage, wherein men be set, which are to be solde, also wherein they were punyshed.

Catasthus, looke Calafaster.

Catastroma, or rather Catastrôma, strômatîs, neu. g. the hatches or deckes in shippes, where men do stand to fight.

Catastrophe, phes, f. g. a subuersion. Also the later ende of a comedie, and by a prouerbiall figure, the last ende of any thyng.

Catapyosis, sis, f. g. a figure, where one thyng is described by an other.

Catax, idem quod claudus.

Cate, idem quod caute.

Catachêsis, is, f. ge. an instruction or teachynge, properly by mouth, and not by wytyng.

Catechiso, aui, are, to instructe, to instructe, or teache by mouthe.

Catachomenion, idem quod cicuta. Diosc.

Catachumenus, ni, m. g. he that is newly instructed or taught by mouth.

Categorémata, orum, n. g. predicamentes.

Categória, gôria, f. g. an accusation.

Catella, or Catellum, diminutives of Catena, a litle chayne.

Catellus, li, m. g. and Catella, læ, fœ. g. a very litle hounde or hache, a whelp.

Catena, æ, f. g. a chayne.

Injicere catenas allcui, to bynde one with chaynes.

Catenarius, a, um, perteynyng to a chayne.

Catenarius canis, a bande dogge, tyed in a chayne to kepe the house.

Catenatio, ônis, f. ge. a streight fastnyng or togyng of beames and rafters together in buildinge.

Carêno, aui, are, to chayne together.

Catenula, læ, f. g. a litle chayne.

Caterua, æ, fœ. ge. a company of men of warre, sometime a multitude of people.

Agere cateruam, to dysse awaie a bande of souldiours.

Magna caterua comitatus, accompanied with a great route of men.

Cateruarij, orum, ma. ge. they that dooe assemble in companies without order.

Cateruatim, by companies.

Cathalanum, a towne in Fraunce called Chalons.

Cathartica, orum, n. g. purgatiue medicines.

Cathari, were heretiques, whiche affirmed, that it was not lesfull for a christian man to swere, for any cause, or at any tyme. They did also deny all the sacramentes of the churche.

Catharmata, tharmatum, n. g. plu. men which for auoyding of the pestilence, or some daungerous sicknesse, were offered to the goddes.

Catharmos, a certayne purgation with fyre.

Catharticus, a, um, any thyng that purgeth.

Cathay, a great region in the east part of the world, extendinge to the east ocean sea: on the south, to the ouer India: and is also called Sinarum regio. It is dyuided in to nyne royalmes: all be vnder the great Cham. This countrey is wondrous full of golde and sylke, aboundynge in grayne, wyne, and all other thynges necessary for mans sustenance. The people for the moze parte, honour Christ as God, but they are not baptised.

baptised. They are courtesye and reasonable, and verie counnyng artificers.
Cathedra, x, f. g. a seate of chaire.
Cathedralicus, a, um, perteynyng to a chaire.
Cathedralicus seruus, a seruant that carryeth his maister in a chaire. Sometyme an ydle sleuth full felowe.
Cathedrarij philosophi, philosophers whiche
in theyr seates onely dispute and talke of vertue.
Cathi, looke Chatti.
Cathmiza, a kynde of earth, wherof latin met-tall is made.
Catholikus, a, um, vniuersall, nowe it is vsed for him that kepeth the fayth, as the vniuersal church hath obserued it. Also the byshop of the Armenians was so called.
Catholica medicamenta, medicines profitable to pouge all maner of humours.
Cathon, one of the yles called Cyclades.
Cati, a well in Italy by Cyber.
Catilina, a Romain, notable for his conspiracy.
Catillatio, onis, f. g. a greete reproche layde to gentylmen, whiche had robbed the countreys that were alped to the Romayns, and had riot tousle consumed the goodes.
Catillo, au, are, to like dishes, to fede gredylpe on depntee meate.
Catillo, onis, m. g. a lyckedyshe, a glutton.
Catillus, li, m. g. or Catillum, li, n. g. a dimi-natiue of Catinus, a lytell platter of dyshe, a potager. Also Catillus is the ouer stone of a myll called the renner.
Catillus, the sonne of Amphiaras, and brother of Cyburtus, in memoire of whom he builded the citee of Cybur.
Catina, x, or Catine, es, a citee of Sicile. Some called it Catona.
Catinus, ni, m. g. and carinum, ni, n. g. a charger, platter of dyshe.
Catizi, the people called Pigmaei.
Cato, onis, was not fyrst a surname, but a name of merite. For the auncient Romaynes called him Cato, that was wysse by muche experience.
Of this name, two were most excellent. Marcus Cato Censorius, because he alwayes vsed the grauitee and rygour that was wont to be in the correctours of maners, called Censores. Also he him selfe beyng Censor, was aboue all other most sharpe and rigorous. Valerius Mar-tyreth, that he was almost an olde man ere he learned latine letters. and than it semeth he was olde ere he learned greke. yet not wythstandyng by gatheryng bydygements out of Tucydides, and Demosthenes wordes, he became the great-test oratour of his tyme, and was called the Ro-mayne Demosthenes. He beyng made consull, wanne moe cities in Spayne, than he had a-boden daies in that countrey. In whiche tourney he reteyned to him selfe, nothyng of all that was founde there, but meate and drynke onely.
He made his souldiours ryche, geuyng to euery of them a pounce weyght of syluer, saynge.

Better it were, that many Romaynes retourned to Rome with siluer, than a fewe with gold.
He taught his owne sonne grammer, not with-standyng he had a seruant called Chylo, an excellent grammarian, and taught a great schole, saynge. It is not conuenient, if my sonne bee slow of learnyng, he shoulde be rebuked or pulled by the eares of him, that is of a seruile condiction. He also taught him the ciuile lawes, the exercise of all weapons, to ryde well, to fyght with the fyfles, to susteyne bothe colde and heate, to leape into waters, and swymme agaynst wyfstreames. Beyng Censor, he spared none estate, whose maners he founde corrupted, or superfluous in luyng, wherby he brought into the citee a meruailous ymage of vertue. hys sentences rcherished by Plutarke be wonderfull, of which I wyl remembre thre. Like as the diers, sayed he, doo die most often that colour, wherby
they doo perceyue most men delite in: so ponge men doo most studiously haunte and embrace that, whiche they se olde men and counsailours haue in most estimation. He blamed the people of Rome, for that they committed authoritee and offices ofte tymes to one persone, saynge,
They seemed not to esteeme rule and authoritee, or els they supposed there were but fewe worthy of promotion. The one was a sygne of contempt, the other discouragement to good wittes, and rebuke to theyr countrey. Whan thre ambassadours were chosen to be sente into Bithynia, of whom one had the goutte, an other peyne in hys headde, and the thyrde tymorous, Cato laughyng, sayed in the senate. The people of Rome sendeth an ambassade, whiche hath neyther fect, head, nor herte. The lyfe of thys and of the other Cato, are worthy to be often tymes red, specially of counsail-lours and men in authoritee. He was before the incarnation. 182. yeres.

Cato Vticensis (so called because he stow him self in the towne Vtich, to whom the other Cato Censorius, was greete graunde father) shewed a wonderful constauce and grauitee euen in his childehode. seldome mery or serue to laughe, and yf he dyd, it was a very little smylng: not lightly angry, but if he were, he was not soone appeased.
He was very studious in all morall philosophy, practysyng in his actes and luyng, that which he radde of vertue and honestee: and studied eloquence only to the intent, that in counsayling and reasonyng, he mought adde vnto philosophy more force and ornament, and yet woulde he not practise it openly. whan one said to him, men dispraise thyne obstinate silence, he answered: I force not so they dispraise not my luyng. But I wil breake out of this silence, whan I can speake that is worthy to be spoken. Beyng Tribunus militum, he was sent into Macedonie, where with his mer-uailous grauitee, prudence, and pynfullnesse, he made all that were vnder him fere and hardy as gayns

gaynst their enemies, gentill to their blowes, fearful to doe iniurie, prompt to get prayles, & him selfe labouryng with them. vnyng his apperayle, feedyng and goyng lyke vnto them: he contrary to mens expectations (not withstanding his seueritee) wan the hertes of them, going on foate and talkyng with every man. He was of such constancie, and so farre from ambition & flattery, that neyther Pompey nor Caesar, in theyr chiefe pyde, whan all men, eyther for dread or fauour, inclyned to theyr despyres, coulde perswade him to agree to theyr mynides, in cases where it seemed to be against the weale publike: nother mought any maner menacing or dreadful tokens moue him from that constancie. In so muche, that whan he herde that Caesar had vanquished Pompey, and that his frendes wold haue sent to Caesar, to despyre his fauour, he answered: They which are vanquished, or haue any wyse trespassed, ought to make suite, but he in all his lyfe was neuer vanquished, and in innocenye surmounted Caesar, who in makinge warre againste his owne countrey, had condemned him selfe to haue done that thyng, which he had often denied. Finally not for malice of Caesar, but because he would not beholde the weale publike destroyed, he slew him selfe at Utica, hauyng with him at supper, the euening before, the greatest officers of that citee, and many of his freendes. Also this sentence beeng spoken amongst other: Onely a good man is a free man, al yll men are bonde: whan one happened to reason against it. Cato beyng therewith chaufed, disputed with the other so vehemently and longe, that al men suspected that he woulde not longe lyue. He died before the incarnation. 44. yeres.

Catoblepos, called also Basiliscus, a little beast, whose eyes if a man beholde; he dieth immediately.

Catochites, a certayne stone that cleaueth to a mans hande lyke gumme. Idi.

Catocelia, α , for. ge. the panche, or nethermoste parte of the bealie.

Catoni, people of Syrithia about Protis.

Catopyrites, a precious stone, that groweth in Cappadocia.

Catorthoma, α tis, n. g. a perfecte woozke of vertue, a herbe iustly and well doone.

Catorthosis, sis, f. g. a ryghtfull doyng.

Catti, looke Charti.

Cattiterides, idem quod cassiterides.

Cattus, ti, ma. g. of some is taken for a catte, but without any approued authour.

Catulária, α : f. g. one of the gates of Rome.

Catulaster, stri, ma. g. that imitateth a whelp of little dogge. also the little whelp it selfe.

Catulinus, a, um, of a catte, or rather of a lyttle dogge, or whelp.

Catúlio, liui, lire, the despyre offemale kynde to company with the male kynde, properly to goe assaute, to rudder, to hoysyng, or to blissingyng.

Catulicio, ónis, f. g. the goyng assaute. re.

Carullus, the name of a poete.

Carullus, a Romayn capitayn in the fyrst warres of Carthage. Also an oratour that was consull with Marius.

Calculus, li, ma. g. a whealpe, properly of a dog.

It is vñed also for a kytyng, and the yonglynges of all kynde of beastes.

Caturactorium, a cytee called Carple in Englands.

Caturiges, people of Italy.

Carus, a, um, idem quod cautus, wyse or wittie, graue, sage, auncient, fatherly. Also the name of a noble and wyse familie in Rome.

Caua, α , f. g. looke Cauus.

Cauadium, looke Cauedium, but it is moze truly wyppen Cauadium.

Cauamen, inis, n. g. an holowe place.

Caueres, people of Parbone in fraunce.

Cauaticus, a, um, that is of a caue or denne.

Cauator, óris, mascu. gen. he that maketh anie thyng holowe.

Cauarus, a, um, made holowe.

Cauca, a citee in Spayne called commonlye Quenca.

Caucalis, lis, or idis, f. g. an herbe lyke fenel, with a whyte flowre and most stalke, and is supposed to come of naughtie persely seede. It is called bastarde persely.

Caucasus, an hyll, one of the highest in all Asia, situate aboue Iberia, and Albania on the north parte, and is a parte of the mountayne Taurus, one of the partes of this hyll dyuydyng India and Media, stretcheth towarde the redde sea, Philoste.

Cauchæ, certayne fieldes by the ryuer Tygris.

Cauda, α , for. g. the tayle of a beast. sometyme a mans priuie membze.

lactare caudam, to wag the tayle lyke a dogge.

Caudam trahere, a prouerbe, signifying one to bee scorned or made a foole, taken of chyldern, whiche vse to hange a tayle behynd hym, whome they mocke or illude.

Equina caudæ pilos vellere, to plucke the heares of an horse tayle, A prouerbe, spoken of hym, that by litle and lyttle atchieueth that he coulde not doe immediately altogether.

Caudacus, a, um, pleasaunt, gentle.

Caudææ, arum, f. g. littell coffers of wickers, or a iunket, wherin peles are taken in ryuers.

Caudens, a, um, of the bodie of a tree, or stalke of an herbe.

Caudex, caudicis, m. g. the lower parte of a tree next the roote: the bodie of the tree, the stalke of an herbe. Also a table, hauyng many leaues or tables, wherof bookes and tables bee called Codices. And shippes that carry bytayles Caudica. It also signifyeth a dull foole, suche as can neyther well speake nor dooe.

Caudicâlis, le, perteynyng to the body of a tree.

Caudicarius, a, um, made of thicke planks.

Caudicariae naues, Shippes made of thicke planthes, or a Shippe that carryeth upptayles.
 Caudicarius, a, um, idem quod caudicarius.
 Caudicatae naues, idem quod caudicariae.
 Caudinus, a, um, of Caudis.

Caudinae furcae, a place in Italse, where the Romaynes were discomfite by the Samnites.
 Caudis, or Caudium, a towne of the Samnites.
 Cauea, a, f, g, a caue or darke place in the ground.
 Also a cage or coupe, wherein byrdes be kept.
 Also a denne of wylde beastes: a place where men behelde playes or enterludes: Sometyme a company of people gathered for that purpose.
 Also every place that is lysted or rayled in.

Cauedidium, or rather Cauadium, a place at large, haung many porches, whiche serueth to a common, lyke a market place. It is also a porche or byode place in the court of an house, common for all men to stande in.

Caueo, caui, ere, neu. to beware, to eschewe. Also to prouyde diligently, to take hede.

Caue tibi, take hede to thy selfe.

Caue tibi illum puerum, beware of that child.

Caue facias, take hede thou dooest it not.

Cetera cauebuntur, The reste I wyl prouyde for.

Cauere alicui, to geue counsaile to one in matters of lawe, or concernynge contractes, to instructe one what he shall dooe.

Cauere capite, to put in sureties to appere in matter of lyfe and death.

Cauere sibi ab aliquo, to take a quittance or other discharge for the paiement of moneys, or deluyeraunce of any other thyng.

At vero, inquam, tibi ego Brute non soluam, nisi prius a te cauero, amplius eo nomine neminem, cuius petitio sit, petiturum, Cruelly saied I, Brutus, I will not paye the, except I haue first a quittance of the, that thou shalt not esloones demaunde it of him, of whom thou moughtest aske it.

Quid isti cauea? what shal I prouyde for him?
 Cauere testamento, to will a thyng to be done by testament.

Caueri, to be taken hede of.

Cauere insidias, to beware that one be not at trapped or taken in a snare.

Cauere honestatem, to flee honestee.

Cauere aliquem, to take hede of one, that he hurt him not. Likewise Cauere sibi ab aliquo.

Cauere alicui, to take hede or prouide, that one haue no hurt or displeasure.

Scabiem pecori caueto, take hede that thy catte tell be not infected with the scabbe.

Obsidibus de pecunia cauent, They gaue hostages vntill the money was paid.

Cauere sibi obsidibus ab aliquo, to take or requyre hostage of one for suretee of couchantes.

Cauere alicui obsidibus, to geue hostage for suretee of paiement.

Caues tibi per Brutum, thou makest thyne ex-ruse by Brutus.

Cauere pecuniam alicui, to putte one in assurance for money that he oweth him.

Cauere scriptis, in wytyng lawes, to make provisions to exclude euery doubt and inconueniency that might folowe.

Nunquam caui quid facerem, I neuer regarded what I shoulde dooe.

Cauetur, and Cautum est lege, it is excepted or prouided for in the lawe: or it is prohibited by the lawe.

Cauere in iure, to geue counsaile in matters of the lawe, what is best to be done.

Cautum est praedibus, or praedijs, assurance taken by bandes and suretees.

Cautum est, it is agreed or prouided by an act of parliament or counsaile.

Cauerna, a, f, g, a caue or holowe place in the grounde. Sometyme Cauerna doe signifye cates.

Cauernosus, a, um, full of caues.

Cauernula, la, f, g, a diminutive of cauerna.

Cauiares hostia, & caua: were partes of the bestes next to the tayle, to bee sacrificed for the byshop.

Cauilla, a, f, g, and Cauillum, li, n, g, a moche or a crosse, an hastyng question, a cauell.

Cauillatio, onis, f, g, a cauillation, a subtill forged tale, a mery taunting, a subtille wrytyng of a falsse thyng to the confirmation of ones sentence.

Cauillator, oris, m, g, a mocker or boorder, a cauiller.

Cauillatus, us, idem quod cauilla.

Cauillor, atus sum, ari, to test, to moche, to boord, to cauillate, to reason or common subtilly and ouerthwartly.

Caula, a, f, g, a shephehouse, but properly a folde, also a hole, wherein any thyng maye be receyued.

Caulescere, to grow into a stalke.

Caulias, lia, f, g, the iuyce, whiche is pressed out of the herbe called Lacerpitium.

Cauliculus, li, m, g, a tender stalke.

Caulina, wyne made about Capua.

Caulis, lis, m, g, a stalke or stemme of an herbe or tree. It is sometyme taken for all potte herbes, the rumpe of a beast, and for a shaft or a tueline. It is also an herbe called colewortes. Reade Brassica.

Caulis pennae auis, all the quill and stemme of the fether besydes the downe.

Caulis cauda bouis, all the rumpe or gristle of an oxe tayle, besyde the tuft of the heare at the ende.

Caulis Iouis, idem quod Aizoum. Diosc.

Caulum, or Caulon, a towne, whiche as Plinie wyrteth, is situate in the syth region of Italse.

Cauma, atis, n, g, heate. also a disease in chyl dren procedyng of a burnyng in the heade about the byayne, and causeth holownesse of the eyes, with dyynesse of the bodie.

Caumas, a Centaure, the sonne of Trion.

Caunus

Caunus, a citter in Caria, by the ryuer Calbis.
Caupo, cauani, are, act. to make holow.
Luna cauat cornua, the moone decreaseth of wane.
Caupo, onis, com. gen. an hushier that selleth
 meate and drynke, a tauerne, a vitayler.
Caupona, a, f. g. a tauerne or vitayling house.
 Sometime a woman that serueth wyne.
Cauponaria, a, f. g. tauerneers craft.
Cauponius, a, um, perteynyng to the tauerneers craft.
Cauponius puer, a tauerneers boy.
Cauponor, aris, ari, depo. to sell wyne or other vitayles, as tauerneers doo.
Cauponari bellum, by a metaphoze, to make warre for aduantage.
Cauponula, la, f. g. a diminutive of caupona, a typplyng house or ale house.
Caurio, ris, iui, ire, to crie like a panther.
Caurium, a towne of Portugall, called also Caus ra, commonly Corra.
Cauros, an yle, whiche was afterwarde called Indios.
Caurus, ri, ma, ge. a westerne wynde, called also Corus, and Euronotus.
Causa, a, f. g. a byode hatte or cappe, suche as haruest folkes vse, to kepe of the sonne. It was also a royall ensygne of the kynges of Maces dony.
Causima, a, f. g. dyre woode, that wyll bourne quickly.
Causa, or caussa, la, f. g. a cause or controuersye in suite, a matter to be spoken of before a iudge, or other audience. Also a businesse or charge in a mans affayres. An excuse, a reason or consideration that moueth one to doo a thyng, an occasion, a quarell, a state or condicion.
Causam accipere, to take the matter in hande.
 also to take an excuse, to holde one excused.
Causam capere, to take an occasion.
Causa cadere, to lose his action.
Causam agere, to pleade a matter.
Causam dicere, to answer vnto that which is layed vnto his charge, eyther by him selfe or by attorney.
Causam dicere, to say contrary, to deny.
Hoc si secus reperies, nullam causam dico, quin mihi & parentum, & libertatis apud te deliquio fiet, If thou doest finde it otherwise, I wil not say contrary, but that it is at thy pleasure that I shal lose both my parentes and libertee.
Causam dicere ex vinculis, to answer in ward or beyng a prysoner.
Causasnectere, vel fingerere, to fygne matters to make excuses or delays.
Dare causam, to gyue an occasion.
Causam orare, to pleade.
Causam querere, to seeke occasion.
Causam sustinere, to beare the blame.
Causam tenere, to obteyne in iudgement.
Causa mea, for my sake.

Syro ignoscas volo, quia mea causa fecit, I will that ye forgie Syrus al that he hath done, for my sake.
Causa inferior, the lesse right or weaker title.
Causa superior, the better right or title.
In causa hanc sunt, the reason is this, of the considerations be these.
Samen & causa bellorum, the matter and occasion of warres.
Nunquid causa est, quin &c. Is there any let or excuse but that.
Per causam exigenda pecunia, vnder the pretence or colour of gathering money.
Contumelia causa, for reproche.
Causa mea, for quod ad me attinet.
Mea quidem causa vidua victima, I gree a wyf dowe still for me.
Verbi causa, and Exempli causa, for an example.
Causa dictio, a defence or answeringe to that is layed to ones charge.
Accipe quæ sit causam, heare the cause of that ye demaunde.
Cæcas causas exponere, to explicate or declare hidde and darke causes.
Cum causa facere, to doo as the matter seemeth to require.
Causa cardo, looke Cardo.
Pro magnis causis, for great reasons and considerations.
Frons causæ, the vtter apperance of a matter.
Exudare causas, spoken in derision of babbling lawiers, which contend in their matter till they sweate.
Incubere in causam, to applie a matter earnestly lie: Also to fauour the quarell of any partie.
Indicta causa damnari, to be condemned without answer: or to be condemned, the cause not not beyng hearde.
Periclitari causa, to put his matter in harsarde or icopardie.
Deponere causam, to leaue of his quarell or suite.
Omnis familiaris causa consistit tibi, all the charge or busynesse of my house is leste to thee.
Etsi tibi causa est de hac re, Although thou haue an excuse or defence for thee in this matter Morte qui affecti sunt, in eadem causa sunt, qua antequam nati, They that be dead, bee in the same state and condicion, that they were before they were bozne.
Erat in meliore causa quam si, &c. He was in better state and condicion, than if.
Diutius commoratus est in Pompei causa,
He abode longer in the mayntenance of Poms peies quarell.
Profectus est cum his, quorum erat vna caus sa, he went forth with them, whiche fauoured one quarell.
Causarie, an aduerbe, after the faction of theym that be discharged for some lausfull cause.
Causarij, they that bee esloped in our law, or excused.

excused for a speciall cause.
Causaria missio, a discharge of a souldiour, for a reasonable cause.
Causarii milites, souldiours, whiche for causes reasonable, were discharged out of the armie:
 For sychenesse, as Policianus wytteth.
Causatio, ōnis, f. g. an inward sychenesse.
Causarius, a, um, that is cause of the doyng of a thyng.
Causa, or Causa, looke before Causa.
Causidicus, ci. m. g. a man of law, an attorney.
Causificor, āris, to complayne of a thyng that doeth greue one, to refuse, to lay excuses, why he wyll not doo a thyng.
Causōdes, or Causon, ōnis, ma. ge. an heate of bournynge, a continuall hotte feuer, ingendred of redde choler and sharpe, in the veynes next to the herte, in the veynes of the mouth of the stomake, and in the holownesse of the liuer or lounge. The signes of this feuer, are intollerable heate, with continuall thyrt, hoxtour, a swifte pulse keepng no order, Morthe bzeath, the vyne hygh coloured and thynne.
Causor, āris, dep. to shewe and alledge the reason of excuse of any thyng.
Causari tempestatem, & vim fluminū, to lay for his excuse the tempest and great fluddes.
Nunquid causare? Doest thou lay any excuse? or doest thou say any thyng to the contrary?
Causos, si, m. g. a bournynge ague continually being a man, and maketh the tongue drye, and of colour blacke.
Cauticus, a, um, bournynge, or that bourneth.
Cautica medicamenta, medicines whiche doo burne the skynne or the fleshe.
Cautum, sti, n. g. a thyng that may be burned.
Causula, a diminutiue of causa, a small cause.
Cautēla, lē, f. g. a prouision or cautell.
Cauteriatūs, a, um, marked or burned with that instrument, which is called Cauterium, or marked with an yron.
Cauterium, rij, n. g. a markynge yron, or an instrument, wherewith sores are burned. Also a peynsters instrumente.
Cauteres, idem quod cauteria.
Cautē, and cautum, wisely, circumspectly, subtilly, warily.
Cautē & pedetentim dicere, to speake of shew a thyng circumspectly, and leyslerly.
Cātes, tis, f. g. or Cotes, or Cos, a ragged rocke or hill full of great stones.
Cāte loquator, moze clattering than a rocke A prouerbe, applied to great speakers, gathered of the continuall clackynge that the sea maketh, whan it striketh agaynst a rocke.
Cātes Marpesia, a prouerbe applied to a stubburne felow, that will not chaunge his opinion.
Cāutio, ōnis, f. g. a testament, obligacion, or promyse in wrytynge, made diligently for the assurance of any thyng. Also a prouision or remedie.
Cāutio est, it is nede to prouide or beware.

Mittere cautionem chirographi, to deliuer wrytynge signed with his owne hande for assurance.
Cauto opus est, vt sobrie, &c. we must beware and take heed, that.
Cautiōem & diligentiā adhibere, to be ware, circumspect, and diligent.
Haber multas cautiones, the matter hath many thynges to be forware and taken heed of.
Cautiōnalis, le, the adiectiue of cautio.
Cātor, ōris, ma. gen. he that forseeeth matters wittly and craftly, that he or an other bee not deceived.
Cātor alieni periculi, he that warneth an other man of any daunger.
Cātor formularum, he that can skyll of all actions to be sued, an expert lawier.
Cātus, a, um, prouident, circumspect, wyle, wise, ware.
Diligens & cautus. Cātus & prouidus.
Cātus, and Tardus, contraria.
Cātus ero in credendo, I will take heed what I beleue. I will not be ouer lyght of credence.
Cātas praeferre manus, to grope with ones handes before hym, whan he goeth in the darke.
Quo mulieri esset res cātor. That the woman myght be moze circumspect in the matter, or take better heed to it.
Cāta & moderata liberalitas, circumspecte and moderate liberalitee.
Cāus, a, um, hollow.
Cāua vena, the veyne of the liuer.
Aedes cāux, sieled houses or chambers.
Cāux fenestra, id est patula.
Flumina cāua, id est profunda & alta, depe ryuers.
Pinus cāua, is sometyme used for a wypp.
Cāus, ui, m. g. or cāuum, i, n. g. an hollow place, or an hole, wherein byrdes dooe bzeede.
Cāxo, idem quod carax.
Cāyēus, a ryuer in Thyrgia.
Cāyster, or Caystrus, a ryuer of Asia.
Cāystrius, a, um, of Cayster.
Ales cāystrius, a swanne.
Cāystros, a famous ryuer of Ionis, by the cytee Ephesus.

C Ea, looke Cra.
Ceadus, a Chzation, whiche apded the Troianes.
Cēbes, ētis, a philosophier of Thebes.
Cebrenia, a place of Trope, called of some Les bria.
Cebrenij, people of that countrey, & also of Asia.
Cebrenis, idis, patronymicum femini.
Cebriones, the basterde son of kynge Pyramus.
Cecina, a ryuer by Moletere. Also the name of a Romayne whiche fauoured the quarell of Romans in the ciuile warre.

Cecropia,

Cecropia, a towne that Cecrops builded, whiche was after the castle of Athens.

Cecropida, men of Athens.

Cecropis, idis, a woman comynge of Cecrops.

Cecropius, a, um, of Cecrops.

Cecrops, opis, m. g. an auncient kynge of Athens, whose ymage was made hauynge two heades, as some suppose, because he dyd fynde institute matrimonie in Grece. Other wyte, that he was bozne in Egypt, and dyd fynd vte both languages, Greeke and Egypcian. he was afoze the incarnation .1589. yeres.

Cecryphalea, a rocke in the sea, of an yle.

Cecubum, bi, n. g. a kynde of wyne, profytable to digestion of meate.

Cecurri, olde wyters vsed for cucurri.

Cedar, a region in Arabie.

Cedita taberna, of Ceditius.

Cedo, celsi, ere, to geue place, to departe, to goe away, to vopde, to withdraw, to obey, to graue, to geue, to succede.

Cedere auctoritati, to be of lesse authorite.

Cedere ad factum, to come to the effect, to bee doone. Plan.

Cedere creditoribus, is properly where one vnable to paie his dettes, leaueth all his goodes of landes to his creditors.

Cedere ex transuerso, to goe spdeynge lyke a crabbe.

Pudori fama'q; celsi, I was ouercome with shame and regarde of myne estimation and good name.

Cedere intercessioni, to pcedre no further, to admytte the contrary.

Cedere ius suum alteri, to geue vp his ryght and tyle to an other.

Cedere pro, to be in the stede of an other thing. Nam pro pulpamento cedit sicuti ficus, for it is in stede of meate, lyke as fygges be.

Cedere vita, & cedere fato, to die.

Cedere possessione, to leaue the possession.

Cedere periculo, to flee from daunger.

Cedere precibus, to graunt to the requeste of praier, to heare ones petition.

Cedere tempori, to accommodate him selfe to the tyme. to dooe accordyng to the tyme.

Cedit remedijs morbus, quando percuratur.

Cedit dies, is amonge the lawyers, the tyme is come, that the debte is due to be payed.

Cedit huic quæstus ille, he hath that aduansage by it.

Cedit illi res, this matter cometh wel to passe.

Cedunt mihi ea bona, Those goodes are come or happened vnto me.

Cedunt dies, the daies passe awaie.

Celsit, it happened.

Celsit parum gratus, Admytte he had lytle thanks for his labour.

Celsit in prouerbum, It became, or was turned into a prouerbe.

Cedere & locum dare, to auoyde or geue place,

Cedere loco, patria, vrbe, domo, to departe from his place, country, cite, or house, to leaue it and go his waie.

Cedere de republica, ab oppido, a gladiatore, e corpore, e ciuitate, in auras, ad aliquem locum.

Cedere retro, to retyre, to geue backe.

Cedam vira, I wyll be content to dye.

Cedere alicui, to obey one, and not to doe agaynst his mynde, to be inferior, and of lesse estimation of value. also to goe awaye vanquysed, and haue the worse parte.

Non cedit gratia alicuius rei, It is no lesse pleasant.

Cedere ponderi, or oneri, to bee vnable to beare or susteyne the weyghe or burdene.

Operæ cedit, for munus vel officium suum detractat, he refuseth to do his duty.

Cedere spacijs, to geue one place to st of go by.

Cedere foro, to plaie banke rupte.

Lux candida celsit nubibus, The sayre daie was ouertourned with cloudes.

Male celsit res, the matter had an ill ende.

Vinum ceder annis, The wyne wyll not continue.

Nihil omnino grecis ceditur, we geue no place or we be nothyng inferior to the grekes.

Cedere honore, & nomine suo alteri, to geue vp and resigne his roye and dignitee to an other.

Cedere legibus, to obey the lawes.

Cedentes capilli, heares that fall awaye from the head.

Seniores Lacedæmonij iure, quod illi nigra appellabant, contenti, carnes cedebant iunioribus, the auncientes of the Lacedemonians, contented with the wyntes or grewe, which they called blacke grewe, wolde leue the fleshe to the yonger.

Cedo, a verbe defectiue, vted onely in the imperative mode, and significth geue, say, or tell, and in the plurall, Cedite.

Cedo manum, geue me thy hande.

Quin tu mihi argentum cedo, but geue thou me the money.

Cedo quid factum sit, tell what is doone.

Cedo quoniam arbitrum, appoynt what arbiter ye wyll: or I wyll abyde any mans awarde, or arbitrement.

Cedo aquam manibus, geue me water to wash myne handes.

Cedras, a towne of Carie.

Cedraus, a, um, annoynted with the iuyce or oyle of the cedre tre.

Cedraui libri, bookes that wyll neuer perishe nor be eaten with wormes.

Cedrelæon, oyle of Cedre.

Cedrelæte, es, f. g. a great cedre tree.

Cédria, æ, f. g. the roseyn that renneth out of the great cedre tree.

Cédrinus, a, um, of a cedre tree.

Cedris, cédridis, form. gen. the fruite or beeties of Cedrus.

Cedrium, cedrij, neu. g. a hynde of pyche, of the tynge of the cedre tree.
Cedrium malum, & Cedromelum, was of old tyme taken for an orange, as Athenus and Dioscorides doe wyte.
Cedropolis, a towne in Laria.
Cedros, an plaunde in the costes of Germany.
Cedrostis, tis, form. ge. a whyte vyne, called also Ampeloleuse, of apothecaries Bryonia, commonly Viticella. It groweth in hedges.
Cedrus, dri, f. g. a tree, haupng leaues lyke a susnyper, bearies lyke myrtles, yelow, soote of sauour, and pleasant to eate: they beare all tymes of the yere newe fruyte and olde, as oranges dooe, the leafe neuer falleth. The tree sweateth out a lycour lyke Roseyn, meruaylous odyfferous. In the lande of Egyptes hath bene scene of them growynge, in length, 130. fecte, and in co-passe fyue fathome. Of lyke greatnesse of great-ter are in Syria. The woodde neuer rotteth, nor woymes may breede therein. wherefoze it is muche praysed in buyldng.
Carmina cedro linenda, verses woorthy neuer to perishe. Cedro digna, thynges woorthy perpetuall memory.
Celadon, one of them that was slayne at the maryage of Perseus and Andromache.
Celadusa, a litle yle in the sea Byzantium.
Celano, one of the Harpies.
Celatum, pryuply, secretly.
Celatus, a, um, hpd, kept close.
Celebratio, onis, f. g. solemnisation. Sometyme an assemblee of company of men.
Celebratus, a, um, muche spoken of or haunted, renowned.
Celebratus dies, a daie of great solemnities.
Celebreſco, lebreſcere, to begyn to be in greates fame, or renowned.
Celebris, bre, and Celeber, bris, bre, famous.
 also swyfte, honourable, muche haunted, much spoken of, renowned.
Celebris locus, a place muche haunted and greatly spoken of.
Celeberrimus conuentus, a verape solemn and great assemblee or meetynge of men.
Celebris homo, a man muche sought to.
Via celebris, a waie much haunted and vsed.
Dies celeberrimus, a daie, whereon meruayllous great honour and gloze hath chaunced vnto to any man.
Ciuitas celeberrima, a citee, to the whiche is verie great resorte of people.
Celebris rumor, a bruite, or eumour reported of many men.
Celeberrimus arte, or in arte grammatica, an excellynge good grammarian, and greatly este-med and spoken of.
Celebritas, atis, f. g. renoume. Also a greates assemble, greates hauntynge or resorte to a place.
Celebritas & solitudo, contrary.

Celebritatem odi, I hate the greates resorte and company of men.
Hic locus maximam celebritatem habet, this place is greatly frequented.
Celebritatem addere ludis, to make playes more haunted or resorted to.
Celebritas & nomen, brute and renoume.
Diei extrema celebritas, the solemnities at a fu-nerall or interment.
Sermonis hominum celebritatem consequi, to gette great fame, or to be muche spoken of among men.
Celebritas virorum & mulierum, great resorte of assemblee. &c.
Celebritas fama, great renoume.
Celebriter, honourably.
Celebro, aui, are, act. to celebrate or bypge in renoume, to make good resorte, to make famous, also to haunte, to honour or worship.
Celebrare nuptias, to make a feast at a marriage. Celebrare epulas, to make banquettes.
Celebrare conuiuium, to make a great feast or banquet.
Celebrare exequias, & funera, to bypge one solemnely to buryng.
Celebrare ludos, to make playes with greates assemblee of people.
Celebrare suum natalem, to make a great feast
 at the daie of his byrthe.
Celebrare ceteris hominib, to assemble a great numbre of people.
Celebrare syluas, to resorte muche to the woods;
 or to bee much in the wooddes. Alphewyle,
Celebrare templum, domum, locum.
Celebrare ferias, to kepe holy daie.
Celebrare & ornare.
Carminibus celebrari, to be greatly commended or praysed in verses.
Celebrare laudibus, to set forth a mans name with great prayses.
Ea sunt & latinis & graecis literis celebrata, those thynges were described and set forth honourably bothe in greke and latine.
Celebrata res omnium sermone, a matter so known, that euery man speaketh of it, or that is in euery mans mouth.
Seip & rempublicam celebrare, they gate laude and renoume both to them selfe, and to the common weale.
Studium agriculturæ celebrauerunt, they commended and practised the vse of husbandry.
Celeia, a towne of Boetie, called commonly Cilia.
Cilena, &c, a place in Lapayne, dedicate to Iuno.
Celenarum, sometime the chiefe citee of Phrygia.
Celendris, a towne in Lilicia.
Celer, leris, lere, swyfte, quicke.
Celeris copia. Dare dii quæso conueniundi
 mihi eius celerem copiam, God graunte that I may veray shortly meete with him.
Celeratim, celeranter, and celeriter, hastily and quickly, shortly, swiftly, ere it be long.

Celeres,

Celeres, olde wyrters used for Equites, horsemen.
Celeritas, acis, f. g. also celeritudo, quicknesse, swyftnesse. Celeritas & festinatio, Breuitas & celeritas syllabarum, the breuenesse and swyftnesse of syllables.
Expedita & profluens celeritas verborum, a prompt and flowynge readinesse of wordes.
Celeritas ad discendum, a ready and quicke capacitee to learne thynges.
Celeripes, fipedis, om. g. swyft of foote.
Celeriter, swyftly, quickly, with speede.
Celeritudo, idem quod celeritas.
Celero, aui, are, to doo a thyng quickly, to haste.
Celerans iter ad naues, making haste towards the Shyppes, or to take Shyppynge.
Celerare gradum, to go apace, to make speede.
Opem celerare, to make speede to helpe or succour.
Celer, a mans name.
Celerini, people in the higher Spayne.
Celes, itis, looke Celox.
Celeries, lerum, maf. gen. plu. horses that renne for wagers.
Celerizantes pueri, lyttle boyes that ryde on such horses.
Celeus, two syllables, a mans name.
Celeusma, or Celeuma, acis, n. g. the thout or cry that Shyppmen or botemen make, whan the master doth whistle or call to encourage them.
Celeustes, ste, m. g. he that calleth on the maryners, to encourage them in suche wyse.
Cella, x, f. g. a cellar, wherein any thyng is kept. Also where we be prymply washed. Also a prymp place in the temple, a chauncell. Sometyme a secreete chaumbre. Virgile calleth the holes of an hony combe Cellas.
Cella penuraria, a garnere or storehouse.
Cella olearia, a cellar for oyle.
Cella vinaria, a wyne cellar.
Cella propuraria, Plautus useth for a prison.
In cellis stratos lectos videres, you might see the beddes made ready in the chaumbres.
Cellaria, x, f. g. idem quod cella. Also a woman butlar, or she that hath the keepynge of the cellar.
Cellaris, re, the adiectiue of Cella.
Columbi cellares, dooues that breede in holes.
Cellarium, rij, n. g. a store house.
Cellarius, rij, m. g. he that hath the charge of a cellar or storehouse.
Cello, lis, of olde wyrters was used for Cedo.
Cellula, lae, a diminutiue of Cella.
Cellula columbarum, culuer holes.
Celmus, a man that nourished by Jupiter, whom he tourned afterwarde into a diamonde, because he aspyred him to be mortall.
Celo, aui, are, to hyde, to concele, to kepe close or secreete. The diuers construction of this word, note by the examples folowynge.
Celare aliquem de realiqua.
Balbus noster me celauit de hoc libro, Our frende Balbus tolde me nothing of this booke.

Celare & occultare.
Celare quæ scribat existimo, I thynke he keepeth secreete suche thynges as he wyrteth, or wyll not let them be knownen.
Vxorem ipsam hanc rem ut celes face, see that thou keepe this thyng secreete such from thy wyfe.
Celare aliquid alicui.
Id Alcibiadi celari diutius non potuit, That thyng coulde not be hyd or concealed from Alcibiades any longer.
Celare se tenebris, to hyde him selfe in the darke.
Diem celare dicitur sol cum occidit.
Cui, diem promere, opponitur.
Iugenum celare, to hyde or dissemble ones disposition or nature.
Celoni, rauengng people.
Celor, the passiu.
Vbi vbi est, diu celari non potest, where so es he be, he can not be longe vnknewen.
Celox, acis, f. g. a lytle swyfte Shyppe, called a Byggantyne or barcke.
Celsenses, people of Spayne.
Celsus, a noble Romayne, whiche wrote of physike and husbandry, in moste eloquent latine.
Celsus, a, um, hygh, lofty, vpright.
Status celsus & erectus, a standynge bolte vpright, or a streight vpright standynge.
Celta, frenchemen.
Celtiaca, a citee in Spayne, in the countrey of Hispalis.
Celtiberi, people of that part of Spayne, whiche is called Biskaye.
Celtiberia, Biskaye.
Celtiberius, and Celtibericus, a, um, of Biskaye.
Celtica, the countrey of Lyons in fraunce.
Celtici, people of Spayne, which toke their begynnynge of the frenchemen called Celta.
Celticum, a promontory of Spayne.
Celtis, tis, f. g. a kynde of sweete trees growing in Arike, called also Lotos, Lote tree: the tree it selfe is of the bygnesse of a peare tree: but the fruite no bygger then a beane, and therefore of some is called Faba Græca, or Faba Syriaca.
Celtogallia is that parte of fraunce, whiche containeth Aquytayne, Lyons, Belgica, and Narbone, whereof the frenche kyng hath. iii. partes whole. Belgica, for the more parte is in the handes of the emperour that now is. Rede of eueryche of them in their letters.
Celydrus, or rather Cylindros, a womanes apapaple.
Cemelleo, a towne in Liguria.
Cemeneleum, a citee in the Alpes.
Cemas, idem quod Hinnulus vel cerua.
Cemos, idem quod hederæ, Diost.
Cenchirex, a towne of Peloponessus by Corinth.
Cenchris, chris, f. g. a wormelyke an adder.
Cenchris, idis, f. g. a byrd of the kynde of haukes, whiche maketh a wyll sowne whan he cryeth. idem quod Tinunculus. looke there. It is also the name of a towne or countrey of Grece.

Cenchrites, re, m. g. a p̄cious stone, which hath in it thynges lyke myll seede. also a kynde of made wyne, not of the pure grape.
Cenchrius, a ryuer in Ionia, by the wood Oxy- gia, where the poete saygne that Latona was washed of hir nourse Oxygia, after she hadde traquayled with childe.
Cenchron, a kynde of dyamondes, no bygger than a myll seede.
Cencia, called also Atalanta, the daughter of Caneus.
Ceneum, a promontory in Euboea; where Herc- ules erected an altar to Jupiter.
Ceneus, looke Caneus.
Cenina, a citee of Italy nere to Rome.
Cenites, his name that builded Cenina.
Cenodoxia, bayne glorie.
Cenomani, people of Lumbardie. also a people in fraunce of a countrey called Maine.
Cenotaphium, taphij, n. g. a monument of them, whiche are dead, wherein the bodye is not, as an herse set by at the mouthes of yeres ende.
Censeo, censui, ere, to suppose, to shewe ones or opinion or sentence, to thynke good, to p̄terre mine, to be discontent, to numb̄e people, to the intente to take the apte for the warres: Or to leaue a taske or sub̄yde, to speake or telle.
Magnopere censeo tibi properandum, I thinke very earnestly. &c.
De ea re ita censeo, I am of this opinion. &c. or I thynke this.
Ne vobis censeam, si ad me referetis, lest I would be angry, yf ye tolde me.
Quid grauare censeas? Telle me, what is that, that greueth thee?
Censeo, vi hoc facias, I will, I determine, or
 I thinke good, that ye do this.
Senatus dicitur censere, Populus iubere.
Censeor, sus sum, eri, a deponent, to p̄fesse or enrole in the censours tables.
Censeri, to be nomb̄ed and inrolled of the Censors, or to be taxed or cessed.
Censeri, to be had in estimation, or to be sette by, also to be meruayled at.
Quod ex iis studiis, hæc quoq; censetur oratio, Because of these studies, the same kynde of oration also, is esteemed and had in p̄ice.
Si censenda nobis atq; estimanda res est, If we must iudge and weigh the matiere.
Censio, onis, f. g. a chastisement, or a correction
 doen by the Censor, a p̄ice, aduice, or opinion.
Censio hastaria, a punishment, whan souldiours, for some trespassse were inioyned to deslyue speares to other.
Censitor, oris, ab antiquo Censio: idem quod Censor.
Censor, oris, m. g. an hygh constable, a lord, a comptroller, a iudge of mens maners. also suche one as was appoynted to value mens goodes.
Censorius, a, um, p̄terryng to them, whiche had oversight of the maners of the people, whiche

 they were called Censores.
Censorius vir, he that hath bene a Censor, or is worthy for his graunte to iudge and correcte other mens maners.
Censoria virgula, is taken for the authoritee of the censores.
Censoria animaduersio, was a punishment of them, whiche were of yll maners.
Censoria nota, the rebuke or checke of the master of maners.
Censuālis, he that doeth company or assiste the iudges of maners, called Censores.
Censuālis, le, of or p̄terryng to the Censores.
Censualis lex, a law made for humbryng and celsyng of people.
Censura, a, f. g. the authoritee or iudgement of a censor, an hygh constableship, a comptrollers ship. also a correction of maners, law or decree, concernyng maners, a reformation.
Censuram vini facere, to taste wyne, to assaye whether it be good or badde.
Census, us, ma, g. p̄erely reuenues, gooddes or substance. also valuation of goodes. Also a sub̄sidie, and the numbryng of the people.
Census equestris, the estimation or value of them, whiche were in the order of gentylmen.
 called Ordo equestris, whiche rate was. 400.
Sestertia: And that summe amounted (after the rate of our money, at this day,) to 2635.
 li. 6. s. 8. d. wherby it appereth, howe ryche Rome was at that tyme, sens that was the generall estimation of one order of state.
Census senatorius, the estimation of them, whiche were Senatours: And was double the rate of Equestris. In Augustus tyme, it was treble so muche: whiche amounted of our money now curant, to. 7906. lib. not with stand-yng, there were aboue. vi. l. Senatours.
Censum agere, and habere, to cesse or taxe mens goodes, accordyng to whiche valuation they must paye tribute.
Censum liberari, to be deliuered from the taxyng of hys goodes.
Census, fortuna, facultates, idem.
Census exiguus, tenuis, breuis, unal sub̄stare.
Nec census nobilitate maior, he was as noble
 as ryche.
Ex censu tributa conferre, to paye tribute or taxe, accordyng to the valuation, or accordyng to his substance.
Census, a, um, valued or taxed. Sometime a man of that valu, that ought by the law to be taxed.
Capite censi, taxed by the polle, or they that paye head syluer.
Censuus, a, um, the adiectiue of Census.
Censui agri, fieldes, which may by the law be bought and solde.
Centaūrius, and Centauricus, a, um, of the Centtaures.
Centauri, a people in the countrey of Thessaly, whome

whome the popes decreed to bee the one halfe lyke a man, the other halfe lyke an hysle. There be also certayne great myppes so called.
Centauria, and Centaurium, an herbe wherof there be two kyndes. The great, which apothecaries doe call Reuponticum, crepontiye in Englyshe. And the lesse, whiche is called Cento-
ria. Also Fel terra, and febrifugia.
Centaurium, a medicine inuented by Chiron,
the Centaure.
Centaurus, ri, a myttle fiell called Euenus.
Centenarius, a, um, of an hundred yeres of age,
or of an hundred ponde weight.
Centenaria cœna, were suppers, on which by a law called Licina, was bestowed but an hundredth of the byason coyne called Asses.
Centenus, a, um, an hundredth.
Centismus, a, um, the hundredth: as,
Centesima pars, the hundredth parte.
Centesima vsura, were gagnes of the hundredth, one peny for euery moneth lone: looke ex asse vsura.
Centesimare, out of an hundred to peeke out one.
Centesimis calendis, in eight yere and fower monethes.
Centiceps, cipitis, com. gen. that hath an hundredth heades.
Centies, an hundredth times.
Centifolia, x, f. g. a kynde of roles growynge in Italy. Pli. li. 21 cap. 4.
Centigranum, grani, n. g. a kynde of wheate,
which had in euery eare an hundred cornes.
Centimanus, i, mal. gen. that hath an hundredth handes.
Centinodia, x, f. g. an herbe, whiche hath manye knottes, called of the grekes Polygonon: by the figure and description of Fuchsius, it shoulde seeme to be knotte grasse, or swynes grasse.
Centinum, a towne of Umbria in Italy.
Centipeda, x, f. g. a worme called a palmer, which is heary, and hath many fecte.
Centipeda, or des, called also Scolopendra, a kynde of scyllies.
Centipellio, onis, f. g. part of the intrayles of an harte.
Cento, onis, m. g. a faction of trouge, thicke and heary couerynges, which very pooze people vse:
wherwith tentes and all other thinges necessary for souldiours, are couered whan it rayneth.
Also a byle garment, that men of the countrey weare: and all kynde of thynges made of dy-uers pieces of cloth, of sundry coloures. It is taken of some for a quyle, a lake, or other lyke thyng, stuffed with lynnyn, flore, or cotton.
Cento, is also a worke compiled of diuers frag-mentes of verses, pyked here and there oute of authours, as Virgilio centones.
Centones farcire alicui, a prouerbe signyfysynge to holde one in talke, with many gloriouse tales and lies.
Centonalis, wilde rue. Diosc.

Centonicum, ei, n. g. idem quod Abfinthium
marinum. Diosc.
Centralis, le, that which is set in the very myddes
of a thyng.
Centrines, num, a kynde of gnattes that stingeth.
Centrones, mounte Sincis, goynge into Lum- hardy.
Centrosus, a, um, full of knottes or knurres.
Centrum, tri, n. g. the poynte in the very myddes of a thyng, the centre: also an harde knotte or knurres in tymber, that maketh the woymans toole.
Centum, an adiectiue of the placeall numbze, and vnderclined, an hundredth. It is sometyme vnderclined infinitely for exceedynge many.
Centum capita, Centum capitum, Centum ca- pitibus, n. g. plu. hum. a kynde of thyfte, with many heades, called also Eryuge, and Eryn- gium: looke there. The roote and stalke is vnderclined to be eaten of some both sodden and raw.
Centumgeminus, an hundredth folde.
Centum peranea insula, a litle towne in Italy.
Centum pondium, an hundredth wepght. some-tyme indefinitely, an exceedynge great wepght.
Centumuiralis, le, perteynyng to the hundredth and. v. iudges.
Centumuiratus, looke Centumuiui.
Centumuiui, ceu Centumuiorum, n. gen. plu.
an hundredth and. v. iudges. The people of Rome were deuised into. xxxv tribes. of euery tribe were thre menne chosen to bee iudges in common matiers: wherby the company was called Centumuiratus, And they were called Centi- tumuiui, although there were fyue moe than an hundredth in that companye. And they iudges-ment was named Centumuirale iudicium and Centumuiralis hasta, for as much as those iudges, whyles they satte in iudgement, had a speare pitched by befoze them.
Centunculus, or centunculum, a certayne herbe, whiche hath soft leaues lyke flore, and is named chawwede: it is called in Yorke shire Ludwede.
some call it Cartaphilago, but that is an other herbe.
Centunculus, a diminutiue of Cento, a byle garment.
Centuplex, plicis, an hundredth folde, an hundredth double.
Centuplicato, an aduerbe, an hundredth tymes so much.
Centuria, x, f. g. a patte of an host, conteynyng an hundredth men: but of grounde in the fildes, it conteyneth two hundred acres.
Centuriatim, by an hundredth together, hundredth by hundredth. Also plentifully, or in a greates numbze.
Centuriatus, a, um, appoynted or registered in the numbze of the hundredth.
Centuriata comitia, were generall congregations of people, to treat of common affayres:
whiche assemble was not gathered by diuision of
partes

parishes or wardes, but by the rate of theyr substance, or by theyr age.
 Centuriata leges, lawes, whiche were enacted by the people assembled after the rate of theyr substance or age.
 Centuriatus, us, m. g. the office and estate of a Centurion.
 Centurio, ōnis, m. g. a capitayne ouer an hundred footemen, a Centurion.
 Centurio, aut, are, to diuide men into a company, conceyning an hundred persons, or fieldes into two hundred acres of lande.
 Centurionatus, us, idem quod Centuriatus.
 Centuripe, or Centuripe, Sicilie.
 Centuripini, people of Sicilie.
 Centussis, sis, m. g. a rate of Romayne money, whiche was of .x. of theyr grotes, called Denarii, whiche mounteth in the rate of our money at this tyme, to .v. s. vi. d. ob. halfe farthing and halfe an halfe farthing.
 Centussis, the value of. 40. Sesterij. or after of ther. 10. groates sterlyng.
 Cepa, æ, f. g. & Cepe, neu. gen. indeclinabile, an oynion.
 * Cepas edere, to eate oynions, was a prouerbe spoken of them, whiche did seeme to weepe, or that do wepe often.
 Ceprea, æ, f. g. an herbe, which is diuersly described of Dioscorides and Plini. After Dioscorides, it seemeth to be that, whiche in englishe is named Brookhelem, and groweth in water spdes by brookes and springes. As Plinie sayth, it groweth by the sea side: and because it is not vnlyke to Pursellane, it may be called sea Pursellane.
 Cepetum, peti, n. g. a place where oynions grow, an oynion bedde.
 Cépeus, a, um, like an oynion, or of an oynion.
 Cephalotomi, people of Colchis.
 Céphale, les, or Cephalis, lis, f. g. signifieth the head.
 Cephalæa, læ, f. g. a greuous or longe contynuing payne in the head, susteyning much greife of euery lyght cause, neyther abyding nople nor lyght, nor sweete sauours. The patient feeleth as if his head were broken in pieces with hammers. It hapneth sometime of colde, sometime of heate.
 Cephalenia, an yle beyonde Corcyra, in the middle sea, whiche is also called Alifres yle, commonly Cephalonie.
 Cephalorus, a lecke with a great head.
 Cephalos, idem quod Daphnois. Diosc.
 Cephalocrustes, stæ, m. g. a worine, whiche is in the leaues of a peach tree.
 Cephaloedis, a riuer of Sicilie.
 Cephalicum emplastrum, a plaister layed to a broken or sore head.
 Céphalus, phali, m. g. the sonne of Colus, and the dearlyng of Aurore. Also an oratour of Athens.
 Cephalus, is a fyfhe, whiche beynge asrayde, hideth only his head, and thinketh that than all his body is hyd.

 Cephēnes, num, masc. gen. unprofitable bees, which make no honey, but do only with the multitude of them, kepe warme the yonge bees.
 It was sometime the name of Persians, as Herodotus writeth.
 Cepheus, two syllables, the name of a kyng of Ethiopia, the sonne of Phenis, and father of Andromeda.
 Cephiaticum medicamentum, a medecyne that breedeth scellhe.
 Cephisia, a fountayne in the region Attica.
 Cephisis, a lake nere to the sea Atlanticum.
 Cephisodorus, a tragicall poete of Athens.
 Cephisus, a ryuer of Scythia, where the temple of Themis stode, to whiche Deucalion and Pyrrha came to consulte how to restore mankynde.
 Cephus, phi, m. g. a beaste of Ethiopia, whiche hath the forelegges and feete, lyke to a mannes armes and handes: and the hynder lyke mens legges and feete.
 Cepphus, or Cemphus, of some called Larus, of some Fulica, looke Larus.
 Cepidines, stones lying out aboue ocher.
 Cepina, æ, f. g. an herbe called ciues. It is also a place, where oynions be set, or a great multitude of oynions sown or sette together, an oynion bedde.
 Cépno, the consull of Rome, by whose rashnesse the temple of Volsane was robbed and spoyled, wherof ensued to greate myschappes to him and his Souldiours, that thereupon rose this prouerbe,
 * Aurum Tolosanum habet, looke Aurum.
 Cépionides, dx. m. g. a prierouse stone, cleare like chrystall, and representeth in it figures lyke glasse.
 Cepites, tæ, m. g. a prierouse stone, hauyng many white strakes.
 Cepocapites, idem quod cepites.
 Cepæe, a towne of Bosphorus.
 Ceporus, ri, m. g. a gardynce.
 Cepos, a gardecyne.
 Cépula, læ, f. g. a chybboll.
 Cepurica, herbes that grow in gardecynes.
 Cera, æ, f. gen. waxe. sometime ymages made in waxe, as it were with bryanches, to declare the genealogie of noble men, lyke to that whiche in churches is called Radix lesse. Cera, is also a certayne roote, sometime Cera, is taken for bookes or tables.
 * Ceritæ cera dignus, A prouerbe notyng a vile felow, nothyng to be esteemed. looke Eras. Ch.
 Codicis cera extrema. Cic.
 Cera alba, flaua, cōmutabilis, fragilis, impatiens caloris, laborara, odorata.
 Solutæ igne cera: melted with fyre.
 Tenax cera, claymy waxe that sticketh.
 Circum-

Circumlinire cera, to smere rounde with waxe.

Cere credere aliquid, to write a thyng in tables of waxe.

Fingere in cera, to worke or make in waxe.

Formare & fingere ceram ad arbitrium, to facion and worke waxe.

Liquescit cera, melteth or waxeth softe.

Mollire ceram digitis, to make softe.

Cera miniata, redde waxe.

Ceras amaltheas, idem quod copia cornu.

Cerabaroa, a countrey late founde by the Spanyardes, in the weste ocean, where all the men goe naked, and haue theyr bodies peynted with diuers figures, wearynge only garlandes made of sundry flowers, mixt with the cleies of lions and tygres. In that countrey hath ben founde plenty of golde.

Ceracates, a pprecious stone of the coloure of waxe.

Cera, wrytyng tables, couered with waxe, and is vsed for booke, letters, or instrumentes in wrytyng.

Primæ & secundæ ceræ testamenti, pro primis & secundis tabellis, siue folijs testamenti. Sue.

Ceratis vel Ceratitis, idem quod sænogrecū.

Ceramicus, a place in Athens, where men beyng slayne in battayle, were buried. Also an other place, where common women dwelled: & a goulfe in the sea not farre from Halicarnassus.

Ceramion, mij, n. g. the same measure that Amphoja is.

Ceramites, a pprecious stone.

Ceranium, a place in Rome, where Cicero and Milo had houses. also a certayne botche of swelling.

Ceranium, mij, n. g. a botche of swelling.

Cerarius, rij, m. g. he that maketh any thyng of waxe. A waxe chandler.

Cerascomion, idem quod crenanthe, looke there.

Cerasphoros, he that weareth hoznes.

Ceras amaltheas, looke after Cera.

Cerasconia, idem quod pastinaca syluestris.

Cerasta, a certeyne tree. vide Theoph. li. 8. ca. 16.

Cerasta, certayne ples by Ethiopie.

Cerastes, x, or Cerastis, is, m. g. a serpent, which hath hoznes lyke a ramme, the body very lytle, whereby he discyueeth men, hidyng hym selfe in the grasse.

Cerastis, the yle of Egypte.

Cerasum, si, or Cerasium, sii, n. g. a chery.

Cerasus, sij, f. g. a chery tree.

Cerasus, untis, a towne of Cappadocia, called commonly Zephano.

Cerates, a small weyght of payse, whiche is the fourth parte of a scruple, the .4.8. parte of an ounce.

Ceratia, x, f. g. an herbe, whiche hath but one leafe, and a great roote full of knottes.

Ceratia stella, a blasynng sterre, lyke an hozne.

Ceratinæ, arum, f. g. intricate argumentes, which cannot be resolued.

Ceratitis, f. g. a certayne herbe.

Ceratis, tis, f. g. the hozned popy.

Ceracium, the frutte, which is called Siliqua, loke there for the description: by the weyght thereof all the aunciente phisicians made all theyr payles, whiche triers of golde doo now call a caruatt. wherof Dragma conteyned .xviii. as Leonardus Portius wryteth.

Ceratum, siue Cerotum, a playster made wth waxe, coloph, or gummes. It is called in greke Dropax, a seare clothe.

Ceratura, x, f. g. dresynge of a thyng with waxe, sepyng.

Ceratus, a, um, seted or couered with waxe.

Teda cerata, toches of waxe.

Ceratus, a citee in Landie.

Ceraunia, x, f. g. a pprecious stone, whyte of colour. also a kynde of pulle.

Ceraunij, and Ceraunia, hylls in Epyre, by the citee Ambzaria. also hylls in Armenie aboute Meotis.

Ceraunium, nij, n. g. a kinde of puffes, that grow out of the earthe.

Ceraunobolos, the table of Apelles, wherein he peyneted the thunder.

Ceraunus, the surname of one of the Ptolomees. also a ryuer in Cappadocia. it signifyeth, ligh tenyng.

Cerbalus, a ryuer of Apulia.

Cerbereus, a, um, of Cerberus.

Cerberus, a dogge with thre heades, whiche (as poetes frygne) was porter of hell, whome Hæres rules drew out of hell.

Cercaphus, a mans name.

Cercaforum, a towne in Egypte.

Cerceis, the name of a nymphe, daughter of Oceanus and Cethys.

Cerceta, people of the lesse Asia, called of Pomponius Cercetici.

Cerceti, hylls of Thessaly.

Cercina, an yle in the myddell sea, and a citee of the same name.

Cercinitis, a very lytle yle by Carthage.

Cercion, a kynde of Thessaly.

Cercius, idem quod circius.

Cercopa, a greby felow.

Cercope, es, a little grasschop.

Cercopenti, a certeyne people.

Cercopithecus, ci, m. g. an ape with a tayle, called a marmoset. it maye bee also taken for a monkey.

Cercos, or circos, a kynde of haukes, that halseth on the one legge, idem quod buteo.

Cercurus, ri, ma. g. a certayne sort of very greete hyppes.

Cercion, one of Arcadie, of exceeding strength, and a notable robber, slayne of Theseus.

Cercyræi, people ofte greened with seditions: of whom grew this prouerbe, Cercyræa sentica, Cerdo, Cerdo, onis, m. g. a cobblar. Sometyme generally ly all that vse any vyle handy craft to get money by, are called cerdones for cerdos, in Greke, is lucrum, gayne.

Cerdo, onis, an heretike, whiche affirmed, that Christ was neuer bozne of a woman, and that he had no fleshe, nor suffered any passion, but feigned to suffer. Also he taught, that the god, whiche was declared by the law and prophetes to be god, was not the father of our sauoure Christ: for he was known, the other was vnder known. The one was iust, the other was good.
 Also he saied the olde Testament was naughte, that some creatures are pt of them selfe, and that they were not made by that god, that was the chiefe goodnesse, but of an other, the begynnyng of all yll, whome he named the principall myschiefe. He was aboute the pere of our lord. 144 whose heresies be all condemned by the generall consent of all christendome.

Cerdonia, a citee in Italy.

Cercalis, a towne in Spayne.

Cercalis, le, perteynyng to Ceres the goddesse.

Arma cerealia, instrumentes to grynde cozne, and bake bzeade.

Cereales iudi, playes in the honour of Ceres.

Cerealiorum, n. g. solemne feastes and sacrifici-es, dedicated to Ceres by Crisptolemus.

Cerebellum, a diminutiue of cerebrum, the hinc-der parte of the brayne.

Cerebrosus, a, um, braynlike, or wyld brayned, trustyng only to his owne will.

Cerebrosus bos, an oxe disposed to be madde.

Cerebrum, bri, n. g. the brayne.

Cerebrum arboris, the plith.

Cerebro laborare, to be braynlike.

Putidum cerebrum, is vled for a madde feloue.

Ceres, cereris, the daughter of Saturnus, and opis, called also Isis, was wyfe of Osiris kyng of Egypte, who (as the Grekes suppose) dyd first inuente the sowynge of wheate and barley, whiche before dyd growe wyld amonge other herbes. Also that he did first make lawes, wher-by iustice should be equally ministred to al men violence and wronge beyng by feare taken away
 Herodotus writeth, that the Egyptians affirme Ceres and Bacchus, to beare the chiefe rule in hell.

Ceres, cereris, is sometyme taken for bzeade, some time for cozne.

Larga Ceres, great aboundance of cozne.

Ceres rubicunda, flaua, cozne yelow in the heruest tyme.

Cerem coquere dicitur astitius leo, to ripe cozne.

Cereri nuptias facere, vled prouerbially, to make a banquet, wherin is no wyne.

Larga Ceres, great plenty of cozne.

Cercolus, li, masc. gen. a lyze candell, or a small taper.

Ceretani, and Cerretani, a people in Spayne.

Cereus, substantiuum, a taper, or other lyke cans-dell of waxe.

Cereus, a, um, of waxe, soft, fatty, or tydy. It is sometyme taken for depntie or delicate. Also vnder constant, waueryng, and chaungeyng the mynde with euery lyght tale or perswasion, plyant lyke
 waxe.

Cerea brachia, nice and tender, or liether armes.

Cerea candela, a waxe candell or taper.

Regna cerea, Virgilius habet, pro Alueolis, & cellulis apum. Cerea pruna, wheate plummes.

Ceria, a, f. g. a certayne portion or dyntie, that the Spaniards do vse.

Ceria cuspia, idem quod semper viuum.

Cerimonia, a, f. g. a cerimony.

Cerinthus, es, f. g. an herbe, haungeth the taste of waxe and hony together, an hony suckle.

Cerinthus, thi, an herbe lyke a lily. And after Lalepyn, it is the meate of bees, which is found in hony combs, separate from the hony, in taste bitter, and is also moyste.

Cerinum, ni, n. gen. a garmente of the colour of waxe.

Cerinus, a, um, lyke to waxe.

Color cerinus, the waxe colour.

Cerion, swete and pleasant, a hony combe.

Cerites, a people, whiche the Romaynes bayne quished, and ordeyned, that they should make no lawes amonge them.

Ceritus, ti, m. g. a mad or frantike person, sicut a Baccho bacchantem, ita a Cere Ceritum dicimus.

Cerium, i, n. g. a soze lyke an hony combe.

Cermorum, a towne of Macedonie.

Cerna, or Cerne, an yle in the sea of Ethiopie.

Cernetani, a people of Italye, called also Mariani.

Cerno, creni, ere, to see, to perceyue, to knowe, to seuer or separte, to fyghe, to try by dente of swerde. Also to consider, sometyme to iudge or determyne. Sometyme to trie oute. Also to lift or range flower of cozne. Otherwhyles to deuise together, or talke one with an other.

Verecundari neminem apud mensam decet, nam ibi de diuinis atq; humanis cernitur, No man ought to bee abashed at the table: For there men doe deuise and talke of matters concernyng as well god as man.

Cernere falsam hereditatem aliena gloria,
 to gette prayse to hym selfe of an other mannes actes.

Cernere hereditatem, to entre into lande, falslen by inheritance.

Cerno animo, I do forsee or consider before.

Cernere & videre.

Cernere & intelligere, to forsee.

Acute cernere, to haue a quicke sight.

Cernitur magnus animus duabus rebus, a noble

noble herte, of a halpant courage (knownen, of deceined by two thynges.

Cernere est, a man may see.

Quodcunque Senatus creuerit, what so euer
the senate determine of iudge.

Iam cernam me ne, an illum. &c. Now I wyl see, of now I wyl proue of thy de.

Pro patria cernit cum hostibus, he fyghteth with his enemies in his countreys quarell, of in the defence of hys countrey.

Cernere ad aliquem locum, to looke toward any place.

E loco aliquo procul cernere.

Ante oculos cernere.

Cernere obliquis oculis, to looke a wyte at
one.

Vltima cernit: he seeth himselfe in daunges of
death.

Cernere ferro, to try by dente of swerde.

Cernere vitam, to fight for lyfe and death.

Ferro, non auro, vitam cernamus. vniue, let vs bothe trye for our life, not with golde, but with the swerde.

Cernulus, li, m. g. he that is busy to fynde faulte,
in an other man.

Cernuus, nui, m. g. a certayne shoe.

Cernuus, a, um, stouppng of lopyng downward
bendng and inclynng to the grounde.

Cernuus equus, an hoyle that stumbleth of falleth on hys nose.

Cero, au, arc, to dyesse of couer a thyng with waxe.

Ceroferari, they whiche doo beare candels in the churche before the crosse in procession, of that do any lyke seruice in the churche.

Ceroferarium, ri, n. g. a candell sticke, wheres vpon tapers be set.

Ceroma, as, neu. ge. an oynctement, wherewith wrestlers were annoynted, made of oyle and certayne kyndes of earthe. Sometyme the place where wrestlers were annoynted.

Cerostrotum, ti, neu. ge. a kynde of pepynge, whan many pieces of hojne of yuoie, are peined ted with diuers colours, and lielp set together vpon litell chestes of playing tables. After some it is an ymage of waxe.

Cerofus, a, um, that whiche is myxt with waxe.

Cerodum, looke ceratum.

Cerreus, a, um, and Cerrinus, of the tree called Cerrus.

Cerri, a kynde of fyshes.

Cerrus, ri, f. g. a great tree, lyke to a poplar, has upng a streghth longe stem. It beareth a kynde of masse, roughe without lyke a chestyn, not apt to be eaten but of swine, and yet not very good for them. There hangeth on the bowes longe pendantes like dry russet mosse, soote in sauour.

The timbre therof is not meete for buyldynge.

Certamen, taminis, n. g. a conflicte of bykeryng,
a contention of variaunce, a game of exercise,
where one endeuoureth to excell an other, triall,

Sometyme busynesse of tumulte.

Certamina sacra, were certayne grete games in Grece, where men contended in kates of wyte, strength, and agillite. Of thepm were four, Nemra, Pythia, Isthmia, & Olympia.

The prize of Olympia, was a garland of wilde oyle: At Isthmia, a garlande of pine appull:
in Aemea, of petely: in Pythia, of appulles growynge by the temple of Apollo. Virgilius remembreth, that the quincient grekes ordeyned that the people there assembled, standynge wryth palme in their handes, should syng their pray-ses, whiche had victorie at these games. And also whan they returned home to theyr houses, the citee or towne, where they dwelled, should receyue them with muche honour, rydng in char-riottes, and durynge theyr lyues, should haue pencions out of the common treasure.

Lex certaminis, the law and condition of the game.

Pretium certaminis ferre: to haue the prize, to winne.

Ludicrum certamen, a sportynge game.

In certamen descendere, to go into the place and present him selfe to play for the prize.

Certamen missum, synished, ended.

Certamen est mihi cum illo, he and I be at contention.

Instituere sibi certamen cum aliquo, to begyn to fall at debate with one.

Glorie maximum certamen inter ipsos erat:
there was very much contention betwene them
whiche should get most glorie.

Est mihi tecum pro aris certamen.

Cum altero certamen honoris est, I con-tende for honour.

Certamen & discrimen salutis.

In certamen & discrimen rerum omnium venire, to come in triall and dainger, &c.

Aeterno certamine praelia edere, to be alway in warre.

Certamen alacre, anceps, anhelum, asperum, atrox, audum, clarum, dispar, durum, fune-stum, gladiatorium, graue, lethiferum, longum, sauum, miserandum, rabidum, vastu, trepidum, validum.

Conferre manu certamina, to fyght hande to hande.

Conserere certamen.

Contrahere certamen.

Differre certamen, to delay, of refuse to fight.

Dirimere certamen, to put a sunder them that fyght.

Inncere certamen aliquibus, to giue occasion.

Inire certamen cum aliquo, to fight agaynst one man to man, and body to bodie.

Miscere certamina, to fight.

Ponere certamen, to ende of leaue of.

Equus primus certamine, a hoyle that hath wonne the prize in runnyng.

Ego vici in hoc certamine, I haue overcome

at his game.
Certamen vini, quaffing.
Certamina diuitiarum, labours and trauels in heappng by rypehelle.
In certamen venire cum aliquo, to fall at controuersie with a man.
Adducere in certamen rem aliquam, to bring a matter in controuersy.
Consulari deuenimus in medium reru omnium certamen & discrimen, In the tyme of our consullship, we came into the very myddell of busy eustlyng and dangerous trouble of all manner of matters.
Certamen nauale, a battayle on the sea.
Celebrare certamina, to make common games or playes.
Certatim, in contendyng and stryunge one with an other, who shall doo most or best.
Certatim ascendunt, they strine who shall go by fyfte.
Certatim ad opus currunt, they speede theym hastily to worke, stryung who may goe fyft.
Cantare certatim, with contencion who maye syng best.
Dicere certatim de salute alicuius, with contencion who can say most or best.
Certatim alter alteri obstrepebat.
Tradunt certatim de his authores.
Certatio, onis, f. g. debate, strife, study, prouocation, contencion.
Certatus, idem quod certamen.
Certe, truly, verily, assuredly, yea verily, without doubte.
Certe captus est, playnely, or without doubte, he is taken in the snare: or he is in for a byrde.
Certe, for saltem, or vtuncq; as, Molestus certe ei fuero, at the least way I shall vex him somewhat.
Certe, for Tamen, as, Etsi suasor non fueras, approbator certe fuisti, although ye couns sayled me not to it, yet truly ye allowed it.
Certe enim scio, yea playnly I know it.
Certe, concedentis, as, Cic, At dignitatem docere non habet, certe, si quasi in ludo, true it is in deede, if. &c.
At certe.
Certe enim scio.
Certe enim & boni aliquid attulimus iuuentuti.
Certe si rescuerim.
Certe hercle, nunc hic seipsum fallit.
Certe tu quidem pol multo hilarior.
Quod quidem certe enitar.
Constanter quidem certe.
Saris certe scio.
Certe hercle, in good sooth.
Enim, & depol, hercle, quidem & pol, cum sequuntur certe, sunt ornatius particula.
Certe coniunctum cum, &, affirmat: as,
Et certe is est.
Certhia, x, f. g. a lytle byrde that useth alway to clime on trees, not much bigger then a wren, it is called a cerper.

Certifico, cas, to certifie.
Certioror, aris, ari, to be certified.
Certisso, aui, are, to be certified or sure.
Certitudo, dinis, f. g. certepnie, suretie.
Certo, idem quod Certe, for a surety.
Certo haec mea est.
Certo ego vocem hic loquentis audiebam.
Me quidem certo seruauit suis consilijs.
Ere est certo, and without doubte.
Certo perij.
Satin hoc certo.
Videntur certo haec erupere aliquo.
Certo, aui, are, to stryue, to contende, to fyght, to trie, to proue maistries, to sue one an other, to endeuour, to study earnestly.
Certare damnis, to go aboute to distroy one an other, to contende who may doo other most displeasure.
Acies certant, the armies fight.
Certare pignore, to lay in a paune in contencion, to stryue for a wager.
Benedictis si certasset, audisset bene, If he had bled saye language, he should haue heard none other but good, or I would haue answered him agayne with saye wordes.
Certare officijs inter se, in doyng frendly pleasures to endeuour who shall passe other.
Officio te certasse priorem, non peniteat.
It should not repente you, that you haue fyfte shewed pleasure, or dooen the first good tourne.
In omne facinus certare, to renne headlonge into all mischiefe, to be bente and giuen to all mischiefe.
Quid si certer Phœbum superare, what if he would endeuour to excell or passe Apollo.
Certare secum, to endeuour to passe ones selfe.
Ambigue certare, to contend so, that it is vncertaine who shall ouercome.
Certare bello de re aliqua.
Augenda dominationi certare, to strine or fyght for the increase or enlargyng of theyr dominion.
Dicacitate certare, to contende who shall haue moste wordes, or who can geue moste tauntes to other.
Maledictis certare cum aliquo, to strue who can rayle most at the other.
Certare malitia, muneribus, obsequijs, pietate, vigilijs & labore, cum aliquo.
Vitijs certare cum aliquo, to contende to passe, &c.
Certare cum alterius improbitate, to enforçe him selfe to be moze naughty.
Imparibus certare, to contende with them that be not his equals.
Forma certare deis, to be in fauour lyke vnto an angell.
In decus & famam lethi cum aliquo certare, to contende, to dye a moze famous and honorable table death.

In omne facinus certare, to enforce him selfe to committe as much mischief as is possible.

Iure certare inter se.

Certare ob rem aliquam.

Sub hac lege certabant.

Certantq; illudere capto.

Certo vincere, I contende to overcome.

Honorem certare: Horat.

Certare aliquid, to enforce him selfe to doo it.

Solus tibi certat Amintas: cum datiuo.

Certare mero, to contende who shall drinke moste.

Certare cum alterius improbitate, to endeavour or contende to passe an other in naughtynesse.

Aegyptus certat cum feracissimis terris, Egypt is as fertile as that countrey, which is most fertile, what so ever it be.

Melioribus certare, to strive or contende with them, that be richer or better then wee bee.

Certare de imperio, to fight, who shall beare rule, to contende who shall be maister.

Pugnaciter certare, to contende obstinately.

Certare sagitta, to shote one with an other.

Certatur, the impersonall.

Certus, a, um, certayne, sure, withoute doubt. Sometime it signifieth trustye, saythfull, vnfeyned, appoynted, or determined, stronge, hardy, stedy, firme, constante.

Certa opes, rychesse that is permanent.

Certi homines, sure men and saythfull.

Certi, some, certayne other.

Certiorum facere, to aduertise, to lette one to wpt or vnderstande, to signifie to one, to geue knowledge.

Certo certius, as sure as may bee.

Certum habere, to know surely.

Ex hoc vt sim certus metu, that I maye feare this matter no more.

Amor certus, vnfeyned loue.

Certis diebus aliquid facere, to doo a thyng on certayne dayes appoynted.

Ante certam diem, befoze a day appoynted.

Quidam non certa fidei videbantur, some thynges seemed vnworthy to be beleued.

Certo fœdere, certa lege, on a certayne condition, after a certayne facion.

Certa manus vno telo metam feriet, a sure, and stedy hande, will hitte the marke at the fyrst cast with a fauelyn.

Nebulo certior nullus, There is no verice knaue.

Horum profecto certa oratio est, Merely these mens wordes be true.

Certi liberi, legitimate childerne, begotten in wedlocke.

Signa certa, vnfallible signes or tokens.

Certa res est, the matter is without doubt, also I haue appoynted or determined.

Arboribus certis grauis vmbra tributa est:

id est, quibusdam.

Author certissimus, a very good and approued autho.

Certis de causis aliter existimabam.

Consul certissimus, moste assured to be consult.

Fluitantia reddere certa, to make thynges certayne that be waneryng and mutable.

Ictus certus, a stroke that sayleth not.

Certus & definitus locus, a place determined and appoynted.

Loco certo dicere, to speake a thyng in hys place.

Motus cœli certi, ordinarie, vnmutable.

Patre certo natus est, he is bozne in lawfull marriage.

Spes certa magis, a more assured.

Testis certissimus, a very good witness.

Certior transitus, more without danger.

Homines certi, saythfull and trustie.

Maris certa, quiet places of the sea.

Certum est, it is clere and manifest.

Certum est de iure.

Mihi abiurare certius est quam dependere, I am determined rather to forswear the thyngs, and deny it, then to pay it.

Certum est facere.

Si istuc ita certum est tibi, If you be this certayne determined.

Certum alicui facere, to assestayne, to assure.

Certum facere aliquem, to declare vnto one, to tell.

De eo certum habeo quid agam, I know for a surety what to doo concernyng that.

De illo nihil certi habet.

Certum nescire, not to know the certepntee.

Certum non scimus.

Pro certo creditur. Pro certo dicere. Pro certo habere. Pro certo habere de re aliqua.

Pro certo negare. Pro certo polliceri.

Certus cum genituo: Certus eundi.

Vtinam tui consilij certior factus essem.

Iudex quam primum certus esse sententiae cupit.

Destinationis certus. Exitij certus.

Spei certus. Matrimonij certa.

Apud latera certos locauerat, he set about his persone, such as were sure and trusty felowes, or stronge and hardy men.

Certum est, it is manifest, or I haue determined or appoynted.

De hoc mihi parum certum est, of this I am not well assured.

Clare & certum loqui, to speake playnly and distinctly.

Pro certo habere de realiqua, to bee sure, or haue certayne knowledge of any matter.

Tum Agrippina sceleris olim certa, Then Agrippina, whiche was fully determined longe befoze to worke that mischief.

Certus cum ablatiuo.

Iaculis certus, a good castre of a dart that sayleth

sayleth not to hitte.
 Certus cum infinitio,
 Certus succurrere,
 Certus mori.
 Cerua, a, f. g. an hynde.
 Ceruaria, a place in Aquitayne.
 Ceruarius, a, um, of o: perrepyng to an harte.
 Ceruarium venenum, a popson, wherewith the Frenchemen vled to annoynte theyr arrowes, whan they went on huntynge.
 Ceruarius lupus, a beast ingendred eyther of a wolfe and an hynde, o: elles of an harte and a the woulfe.
 Ceruchus, chi, m. g. a cabyn in the hyghest parte of the shyp, o: rather the endes, and as it were
 the ho:nes of the sayle yerde.
 Ceruical, o: Ceruicale, lis, neu. gen. a pillow o:
 bolster.
 Ceruicofus, a, um, styffe necked, harde, vntreac-
 table.
 Ceruicula, a, f. g. a diminutiue of ceruix.
 Ceruinus, a, um, of an harte.
 Ceruinus color, the colour lyke an hartes shine, tawne.
 Ceruina, o: Cereuisia, a, f. g. ale o: beere.
 Ceruix, icis, f. ge. the hinder parte of the necke,
 and figuratiuely, the lyfe o: sauegarde a man.
 Sometime, stubbernesse.
 Ceruici imponere, to laye on his necke; to charge one with a thyng, will he o: no.
 Ceruices dare alicui, to offre to one his head,
 to put his lyfe in ones handes.
 Duræ ceruicis homo, a stiffe necked felowe, a proude and stubbourne persone, that wyl not bende.
 Ceruicum mollitia, softnes of the necke.
 Tantis ceruicibus homo, qui audiat, &c.
 Ceruix candida, Eburnea, lactea, fortis, horrida, lauis, languida, mollis, niues, pulchra, prona, rebellis, rosea, teres.
 Abscindere ceruibus caput.
 Sub iuga ceruices adigere, to bynge in subsection.
 Applausæ ceruicis sonitum amare. spoken of a horse that delighthe to here his mayster clap him on the necke.
 A ceruicibus hostem auertit, he kepte awaye from theyr neckes.
 A ceruicibus depellere aliquem, to kepe o:
 defende one from vs, that intendeth our destruction.
 Rebelli ceruice onus detrectare, obstinacie to refuse that that one is charged with.
 In ceruicibus bellum est, for prope, o: Vicinum est.
 Cérula, a diminutiue of Cera.
 Ceruina, a, f. g. care ware.
 Cerus manus, idem quod Bonus creator.
 Cerussa, a, f. g. ceruse, o: white leade, wherewith some women be peincted.
 Cerussatus, a, um, peincted white.

Ceruus, ui, m. g. an hart. also a fowle, wherewith torages were propped up.
 Ceryx, ycis, a pursuaunt o: bedell. It is also a shell fythe of the kynde of purples.
 Cescus, a citee in Pamphilia, o: in Cilicia.
 Cesena, a towne in Italye.
 Cespes icis, mas. gen. a tyfe: some doo call them soddes, grasse and earthe together. looke Cespes.
 Cessero, the citie Castres in Narbone.
 Cessa, a towne in Iberia.
 Cessatio, onis, f. g. slackenesse in doyng, ydelnesse, ceasynge o: vacantesse from occupation.
 Cessatio in agris, the tyme whan the fieldes be not sowne, lyng fallow.
 Cessator, oris, m. g. he that is slow in doyng his dutie, a lingerer, a loyterer.
 Cessatus, a, um, left at reste, vnoccupied, not practised.
 Cessio onis, f. g. where one claymeth a thyng that an other man hath, who denieth it not; how maketh contrary clayme.
 Cessim, in reculyng.
 Cesso, aut, are, to cease, to leaue woork, to abide to doo a thyng, o: to be ydel, to loyter, to lūger, to prolonge a matter negligently.
 Opus cessat, the woork goeth not forwarde.
 Paululum si cessassem, non offendissem do-mi, if I had taried a litle longer, I should not haue founde him at home.
 Cessare & laborem fugere, to bee ydel, and eschew labour.
 Quod cessat ex redditu, frugalitate supple-tur, that sayleth, o: wanteth in my reuenues, is supplied with thurstie and honest sparyng.
 Cessatum est, the impersonall.
 Solum cessans, a grounde that lieth vntilled.
 Cesticillus, li, m. g. a garlande of clowes, whiche women doo lay on their heades, whan they ear-tie any thyng, a wale.
 Cesticulus, li, m. g. a diminutiue of Cestus.
 Cestreus, a kynde of codfyshe, which neuer eateth any other fythe. wherof cometh this prouerbe, Cestreus ieiunat, The codde fasteth; spoken of good and iuste men; whiche doo not rauen nor take other mens goodes from them.
 Cestria, a towne of Epyre.
 Cestrofendona, a kynde of weapon.
 Cestrum, tri, neu. gen. an instrument wherewith pyrie is made holow, a small pectre, auger, o:
 wybble. also a dagger, o: lyke weapon, that the Grecians vled to hurle at their enemies. Pollux doth take it for a prycke o: goade. Also an herbe, which is called Berayn.
 Cestrus, a ryuer of Pamphilia.
 Cestus, ti, m. g. a gyrdell, wherewith the husband dyd gyrd his wyfe, whan he was first married, which was set full of studdes. It is taken also for anye other gyrdell, o: bande to ty-bynes.
 Cesyphum, phi, n. g. a certaine gumme, the right Ladanum,

Ladanum, looke there.

Cetaria, α , f. g. a woman that selleth greates fyshes called.

Cetarie, α rum, places nere to the sea syde, where tunny and other greates fyshes are taken and sold.

Cetarius, α , um, perteynyng to a whale, or great fysh.

Cetarius, α ri, ma, g. a fyshmonger, or taker of great fyshes.

Cethegus, a name of certayne Romaynes, wherof one conspired with Catiline to destroy hys country.

Ceth, people in Asia.

Cetius, a mountayn in Norice, called Calambis.

Cetra, α , f. g. a lyght terygate.

Cetratus, α , um, that bleth such a terygate.

Cetrati milites, souldiours with light terygates.

Cette, for Dicite, or Date, an olde woorde.

Cetus, α ri, ma, gen. a great fysh called a whale, or any sorte of monstrous greates fyshes. Also Cete, plu. tantum, idem quod Ceti.

Ceu, as it were, euen as.

Ceu vero, for Quasi vero, oftentimes in Plini.

Ceua, α , f. g. gen. a lytle cow that geueth muche mylke.

Ceuco, es, ere, proprie est marium obscene clunes morantium: & per metaphoram in decoro adulari.

Ceyx, the male of the byrde called Halcyon.

C ANTE H.

Chaa, a citee of Deloponessus, by the fieldes called Ephasius.

Chaam, called also Gog Chaam, is the name of dignitee of the greates Emperoure of Tartarijs, called the great Chane of Cataye, or Cambalu, whose dominion extendeth from the furthest parte of the east, vnto the countrey of Russe north west, and so vnto the north sea: on the southe east, vnto the southe or Indian sea: on the south west vnto Persia: So that by the charte appeareth, there is vnder hym as muche mayn lande within lytle, as is the residue of all Asia, Europa, and Africa.

Chabrias, a noble capitayne and philosophier of the Athenienses.

Chare, the imperatiue mode of a grecke verbe, whiche in latin is Salue, God speede, well met, and suche other salutacions.

Charemon, a grecke poete.

Charephon, a philosophier of Athens, the discypyle of Socrates.

Charephyllon, li, n. g. an herbe, called cheruile.

Charis, a foolish mynstrell.

Cheronea, a towne of Boetia.

Chala, a towne of Egypt.

Chalacium, or chalacia, a disease in the eye, whan there ryseth a lytle white pimple lyke a hayles stone.

Chalmon, an hausen of Auctus.

Chalame, a citee of Persie, whiche now is called Actisiphon.

Chalassa, sis, f. g. a kynde of wydogarmentes, and after some, the knot, wherewith wotiens garments were knit about theyr neckes.

Chalastra, a citee by the bosome of the sea called Termentum.

Chalastrium, or Chalastreum nitrum, salte pester, whiche is very pure and like salte.

Chalaza, α , f. g. a gatherynge vnder the skynne lyke the dyscase called Bubo.

Chalazias, a stone lyke to hayle, and so colde, that no fyre may heate it.

Chalazium, a lytle rounde weert in the eye liddes, whiche may be moued hither and thither wiyth ones fynger.

Chalcanthum, thi, n. g. coprocete, or vitriole, a thyng mete to make leather blacke withall, wherewith makers bleache.

Chalce, an yle and a towne by Rhodes.

Chalcedon, a citee in Asia, agaynst Constantinople.

Chalceos, a certayne herbe. Plin. li. 21.

Chalceritis, an yle in Pontus.

Chalcerum, and herbe, Plin. li. 26. cap. 7.

Chalceus, α , um, of brasse.

Chalceutice, es, f. gen. an house where brasse is made.

Chalcia, one of the ylandes called Cyclades.

Chalcidica, α , f. g. a kynde of chalky earth, whiche conserueth wheate.

Chalcidium, di, n. g. a kynde of buyldynge.

Chalcidix, icis, or Chalcides, α , f. g. a kynde of Lizards.

Chalcidicus, α , um, of Chalcis.

Chalciope, the wyfe of Phryxus, and sister to Medea.

Chalcis, cidis, f. g. a fysh of the sea, of the kynde of turbot.

Chalcis, idis, f. g. the name of a citee in Grece. also of an yle, and of a byrde.

Chalcites, a stone of the colour of Brasse.

Chalcitis, is, f. g. a stone, wherof brasse is tryed, also an ylande by the mouth of the ryuer Rhindarus in Asia.

Chalcographus, phi, m. g. a pynter.

Chalcophonos, ni, m. g. a blacke stone, whiche beyng knocked, soundeth lyke brasse.

Chalcos, seu areola, the .xxvi. parte of a diam. also a coyne, the eyght part of Obolus.

Chalcosmaragdus, di, ma. g. a precious stone in Egyptes, which hath in it brasse veynes.

Chaldaea, a countrey, whiche (as Strabo writeth) toygneth to Arabia, and to the sea Persicum.

Solinus and Plinius name that countrey Chaldeia, where the greates citee of Babylon stode.

In the new chartes, it is sette in this wyse: On the west it toygneth on Mesopotamia: on the north vpon Assyria, and Media: on the east vpon Persia: on the southe vpon Arabia deserta, and to is it farre from Iudea. They haue a propre language, somewhat lyke to hebrue, but they letters are vnylike to any other. Strabo nameth the countrey, where the people Chalabes dwell, Chaldæa. Chaldæi, be taken for greate astronomers of the countrey of Assyria. Chalestra, a citee in Chetaly, on the sea coast. Chalix, a tynt stone, out of which fyre is stricken. Chalybes, a people in the lesse Asia, in the countrey called Pontus, whiche digge greate plentie of yron, and goe naked. It is also the name of a ryuer in Spayne. Chalybs, lybis, m. g. Steele. Sometime it is vled for a thyng made of Steele. Chamæ, arum, a kynde of Mallowes in the sea, which some call Hiatalæ, and make therof two kyndes. Chamæactæ, es, f. g. looke Ebulus. Chamæcerasus, a littell tree, or shrubbe, lyke the ponge shootes that spryng out of the roote of a plumme tree: of it be two kyndes, the one called Chamædaphne, the other Laurus Alexandrina. Chamæcissos, called also Hedera terrestris, and Corona terræ, an herbe called grounde pype, of some hare hose, of other petwinckle. Chamæcyparissus, fsi, f. gen. an herbe, holsome agaynst the venome of al serpentes, it is of many taken for Lauander cotten: al be it Turner iudgeth it rather to be an other herbe, which is more like to Lypies, and nameth it heath Lypies, or dwarte Lypies. Chamædaphne, es, f. g. an herbe, which groweth in lengthe, wyndyng together in dyuers partes, and hath leaues lyke to a laurell or baye, and a floure lyke to a violet, and is called of some men Perwynckle. Of Plinie it is named Vinca peruinca. But Ruellius aspyrmeth it to be an other herbe. Chamædryes, drys, f. gen. called also Trifrago, Serrata, or Serreatula, commonlye Quercula minor, the herbe called Germander, or englysh triacle, it groweth wilde in the towne welles of Oxforde. Chamædrocontes, a kynde of serpentes. Chamægiron, idem quod Tussilago. Dios. Chamælaæ, æ, f. gen. an herbe haupnge leaues lyke olyue. Chamæleon, onis, f. g. an herbe, wherof be two kyndes: One called Albus, is in maner of a lytell thystell, growynge by the grounde, withoute any stalke, puttyng by prickles lyke an hedgehogge, haupng in the myddle a knap full of prickles, on a thoste stalke, in which doo appere purple floures, that growe into plummes, fleeth awaye with the wynde, lyke as of other thystles, hath a white roote and sweete, groweth on olde landes, and bare hilles. The other (called Chamæleon niger) is the common thystell, whiche hath a great longe stalke, somewhat tuddye, on the top a rounde knap with sharpe floures, chaun-geable of colour. Chamæleon, onis, m. g. a lytell beaste, haupng his skynne spotted lyke a lybarde, whiche chaugeth into dyuers colours, accordyng to the thyng that he seeth. They be engendred in India, of the quantitee and figure of a lybarde, but their legges be longer. They go vpright, and haue the moute lyke a swyne, a longe taylor, and smalle at the ende. They euen be neuer closed, they neuer eate nor dypnke but ate nourished by the ayre onely. Chamæleuce, es, f. g. called also Bechion, Vngula caballina, and Tussilago, an herbe, growynge by riuers sydes, haupng leaues lyke a poplar, but much greater, coltes hookes. Chamæmelon, li, n. g. an herbe called camomill, of this be thre kyndes, the fyrst Leucanthemon, because it hath a white flower, and of her beeries is named Camomilla Romana, in englysh camomyll. The seconde Chrysanthemon, because it hath a golden flower, it may be called in englysh pealow camomill. The thyrde named Eranthemum, not much in England. Some call it Amarisca rubra, redde mathes, other redde mayde weede, other purple camomill. Chamæmyrsyne, es, f. g. a buche or tree, whiche hath sharpe prickles in the leaues, and red beeries clustered. Of some it is taken for that kynde of heath, wherof they make bysshes in Italy, called also Ruscus, Bruste. Chamæpitys, itys, f. g. called also Aiuga, or Abiga, sometime lbiga, commonlye lua, an herbe, wherof be. iii. kyndes: One is commonly called herbe pype, but it is not that, whiche is described of Dioscorides, although it haue bene proued to haue lyke vertue. The second is the smalle cypres, set in pottes: The thyrde is supposed to be that, which is called saynet Johns wort. Chamæplatanus, a thoste plane tree. Chamærops, a certayne herbe. Chamætaræ, arum, maydens, which were wont to sit at their maystresses fecte: or rather lytell ymages set by great ymages. Chamæzelon, li, ne. g. an herbe, called ringes foyle. Chamærepes, a kynde of date trees, growynge in Landie and Sicilie. Chamæropis, is, f. g. of some is thought to be the same herbe that Dios. calleth Chamædryes, or Chamædropis. Chamæthyten, idem quod Struthion, reade there. Chamæfyce, of Diosco. called Astragalus, and also papauer satium, li. 4. cap. 63. & 65. Chamelopardalis, a beaste, which is as greate as a camell, of skynne and colour lyke a panther, haupnge spotted of dyuers colours. his fozelegges and necke are longe, and the head lyke a camell, his fecte and legges lyke an oxe. Chamelus, looke Camelus. Chamepence, a very rare herbe, of some named Pelies.

Pelie Larix, a kind of pine tree.
Chamus, i, m. g. a byrdell or snaffle.
Chanona, n, f. g. a tart or matchpayne, or of ther lyke delicate thynges.
Chäonēs, people of the countrey of Epir in Grece: the countrey is called Chäonia.
Chäonīs, idis, the feminine of Chäos.
Chäos, n. g. vnderlynd, a confuse matter wyth out forme, made fyft of nothyng, wherof poe-tes supposed all other thynges to procede. Some-tyme it is taken for hell.
Chara, n, f. g. a certayne roote.
Characātus, a, um, trenched, or inclosed in.
Characata vinea, bynes inclosed with canes or reedes in steele of pales.
Characias, a kynde of the herbe called spurge.
Character, ēris, m. g. a token, a note made with a pen, a figure, a style of forme in speakyng.
Characterēs, letters.
Characterismos, mi, masc. gene. a notyng, or markyng.
Charadra, is that chenne or clefte of the earthe, that the rayne water, or a violent streame ren-syng downe from hilles, and other while the earth quake, maketh.
Charadrius, drii, m. g. a great deuouryng byrde
 of the sea.
Charadrus, a meete or poole by Cilicia, nere the ryuer Paradus.
Charax, a fylle, called also Dentix, with teeth standyng out of hir lippes. It is a brade fylle, somewhat redde, with a changeable colour.
Charax, ācis, m. g. a place where the Carthagi-nenses kepte their martē. Also a trence, some-tyme the kay or frame of a byne.
Charchari, orum, certayne fylles.
Charaxes, the brother of Sapphus.
Charchesium, hii, n. g. a cuppe, longe and smalle
 in the middell, and full of handels.
Chares, retis, a capitaine of Athens. also a caruer,
 the scholar of Aylippus.
Chareres, a duke of Athens, whiche woulde promise every thyng, and naught perfourme.
Chariētimos, vrbante, pleasantnesse of speeche. Also a figure, whan a thyng hard to be spoken, is pleasantly pronounced.
Charillus, a capitaine of Lacedemonia.
Chariophilon, looke Cariophilon.
Charis, charitis. f. g. grace, pleasauntnesse, a pleasure, a good tourne.
Charisius, an oratour of Athens, or a grāmarian.
Charisma, ātis, n. g. grace, a thankfull gifte.
Charistra, orum, neu. gen. plu. nu. is as it were a Christmas feaste, or a wake, where kynsfolke doo resorte together, bynynging or sendyng presentes mutually.
Charistum, or Charistrum, a greene marble.
Charistion looke Carceratinum.
Charisticon, ci, n. g. rewardyng.
Charitas, ātis, f. g. charitee, or loue, properly to-warde a mans countrey or neyghbours.

Charitate reipublica aliquid facere, to doo a thyng for the loue that he beareth to the common weale.
Consiliare charitatē, to get loue and fauour.
Charitēs, the graces, whiche were supposed to bee the daughters of Jupiter, thre in numbre, whose names were Aglaia, Thalia, and Euphrosyne.
 And where in speakyng or wrytyng appereth to bee a meruaylous delectation or sweetnesse, it was sayde, that therin was a grace, in Greke Charis.
Charitonius, a, um, that speaketh saye to wyfauour, or whose fauour may be bought or won with giftes.
Charmasynum, masyni, neut. gene. a kynde of sylke, whiche deliyeth the beholders, I thynke it is crymson.
Charmione, the handmayde of Cleopatra, that wyllynghly dyed with hir maistresse.
Charmonia, a citee in Spayne.
Charon, tis, was named of the paynym, the boteman that caried soules ouer the thre ryuers of hell, Acheron, Stix, and Corcyus. It is also the name of thre historiographers.
Charonia, a countrey by Hierapolis.
Charonium, a certayne denne, consecrate to Pluto, and Juno.
Charopes, a Tropane, the sonne of Hippasus.
Charopus, charopi, m. g. amiable, pleasant, or haupyng a good grace.
Charta, a, f. g. paper. also a leafe of paper, or other lyke thyng, wherin we doo wryte. Also any thyng contenyng the description of a place in picture. Also a mayden that had neuer chyld.
 It is sometye taken for that, whiche is wryten in paper. Sometye a booke.
Chartas codicis explicare, to turne the leaues of a booke.
Bibula charta, paper that wyll not beate wyke.
Dentata charta rem agere, to wryte Marpelye, angely, tauntingly, or with a stomake, to one of any mattier.
Epistolaris charta, lyne wrytyng paper.
Charta plumbea, a thynne and flatte piece of lode lyke a leafe.
Pura charta, cleane paper, wherin nothyng is wryten.
In charta aduersa scribere, to wryte on the backe
 syde of the paper.
Chartaceus, a, um, of paper.
Chartarius, a, um, idem.
Chartaria officine, paper mylles.
Chartarius, rij, mas. gene. a maker or seller of paper.
Chartilago, looke Cartilago.
Chartophylacium, cij, n. g. a place, where wrytynges or monumentes are kepte: as the rolles.
 And the mayster of the Rolles may bee called Chartophylax, or Magister scriniorū, whiche office had Tlpianus the greates lawier with the emperour Alexander Severus. It may well bee bled for a coflar, or any other lyke place in a stude by or closet, where one keepeth his wrytynges, bookes evidences, rolles, and suche other.

Chartula, lxx, f. g. a lytell leafe of paper.
Chartularius, rii, m. g. a name that one hath for a certayne office. after some a paper seller. but rather one that doeth register thynges, that be receiued and laied out, one that kepeth a register or booke of accomptes.
Chartupratus, ii, m. g. one that selleth paper.
Charundas, the name of a man which gaue lawes to the Athenienses.
Charus, a, um, decre, well be loued, acceptable.
Charum habere, to loue earnestly.
Habere aliquem se ipso chariorem, to loue one better than him selfe.
Amare, & charum habere.
Sibi charum esse, to loue ones selfe.
Charybdis, a goulfe of the sea by Sicile, wherein is daungerous saylynge, by reason of streames flowynge contrary eche agaynst other, whereby Shippes be therein deuoured. It is also taken for a great heape of mischieues.
Chaстанon, idem quod Lappa.
Chasma, chasmatis, n. g. a gapyng or openynge of the firmament, or of the earth.
Chasmaticus, a, um, the adiectiue.
Chasmaticus terræ motus, an earthe quake, which causeth such cleauynge and gapyng of the grounde.
Chatti, people of Germany.
Chaus, i, m. g. a kynde of woulfes, called also Ceruarii, looke there.
Chedra, x, f. g. one kinde of the herbe Hippuris, Chelæ, arum, f. g. the cleies, or the foreparte of the sygne called Scorpion.
Chelidium minus, the herbe called gyle worthe.
Chelidon, onis, f. g. a swallow. also a lytle fysh lyke Polypus.
Chelidonia, x, f. g. an herbe called Selandyne.
also a western wynde, a kynde of fygge trees,
a precious stone, and a certayne serpent.
Chelidonia, two plandes ouer agaynst the moun tayne Taurus.
Chelidoni, littell stones founde in the maw of a swallow.
Chelidonium micron, the herbe fumitory. Dios.
Chelidonium, nij, n. g. an elbow of the mountain
Taurus, lyng into the sea. also the weede cald Vitis alba.
Chelonapices, I suppose to be the byrdes, whiche
we doo call Barnacles.
Chelonates, a promontorie of Achaia.
Chelone, es, f. g. idem quod testudo.
Chelonia, x, f. ge. an excelyng greate eye of the Indian Tortoise, and is a kynde of precious stones.
Chelonitides, a precious stone lyke the Tortoise shell.
Chelonium, nij, n. g. the shell of a Tortoise.
Chelonophagi, a people in Germania, whiche

lyue by eatynge Tortoyses, where are founde so greate, that they tauer theyr causes with the shelles.
Chelon, lonis, m. g. idem quod Banchus.
Chelydrus, dri, m. g. a serpent that lyueth bothe
in the water and on the lande. also a certayne ornament geuen vnto women.
Chelyon, lyi, n. ge. a tortoise shell.
Chelys, ys, f. g. a tortoise. sometyme it is taken for an harpe or lute, because the fyrste lute was made of a tortoise shell.
Chema, a measure of the Grekes, conteynyng two Cochlearia, whiche receyue of wyne in poyse of weyght. ii. drammes, i. scruple. iiii.
graynes, and. iiii. fyue parties of a grayne.
Chemites, a maner of tombe lyke to yuorpy.
Chemnis, is an plande, as Pomponius writeth.
Chémosis, a disease of faule in the eyes, when by a vehement and extreme feare, bothe the eye liddes are so tourned, that they may shant moue them.
and the whyle of the eye beyng distoxt ouer the blache, becometh somewhat ruddle.
Chenalópex, pécis, a byrde of the kynde of geese, somewhat longer and bigger then a ducke, lyuynge in the water, bredynge sometyme in conye holes, sometyme in holow places in rockes, it is named a Bergander, reade Helianus of the nature of this byrde.
Cheniscus, sci, m. g. a parte of the shyppe, where by the anker doeth hange, made lyke a goose necke.
Chenobóscium, scij, n. g. a place where geese be fedde.
Chenómicon, or chenomychon, chi, n. g. an herbe, whereof geese be a prayde.
Chenopus, pi, m. g. a goose foote. Also an herbe lyke a goose foote.
Chenotróphia, x, f. g. houses, or places, where water foules are kept.
Chenópina, x, f. ge. the halfe pynte of Parise measure, that is. xvi ounces, iust our pynte.
Cheops, a kyng of Egypt, which made the greate steeple at Memphis, whereon were so many men woorkynge, that he spent onely in persily, opyns one, and garlyke. 1060. talentes, whiche (if it were the great talent) amounted of our money
to. 250550. poundes.
Chepren, the brother of Cheops, and reygned after hym.
Cheramides, dis, mas, gen, a certayne precious stone.
Chéria, x, f. g. wyld radyshe.
Cherophillum, the herbe called Chervile.
Cherilus, an vblearned poete, that wrote the gestes of greate Alexander. And of all his great woorke there were but. vii. verses allowed. For the whiche he was rewarded with. vii. pieces of golde. And for eche other verse he had a good buffette.
Cherinthus, an heretyke, whiche affirmed, that Christe shoulde come and reygne in the worlde
the

the space of .1000. yeares, and durynge that tyme men shoulde lyue in all carnall delictes, and afterwarde come vnto heauen, where they shoulde enioy the pleasures of gluttony, and lecherie. he denied Christe to be any other than pure man. He receyued onely the gospel of sayncte Mathew, and reiected the other euangelystes, and the actes of the apostles. he was aboute the yere of our lord. 88.

Chernites, tis, m. g. a stone lyke yuoy.

Chernitus, a childe of excellent fauour, who abandoned him selfe to the filthy imbraynge of men.

Cherronesus, idem quod Peninsula, the parte of Greece now called Morea. It is sometye taken for the northe parte of the great Asia. It is also called Chersonesus.

Chersidamas, a Tropan.

Chersina, na, f. g. a kynde of lande mayles.

Chersos, or Cherson, a lande of grounde vntyled and vnmanned.

Chersydrus, dri, m. g. a kynde of serpentes in Lasabzia, which liue both on lande and water.

Cherubin, one of the holpe orders of angelles, wherein is the science diuine and mysticall.

Cherusci, a people of Germany.

Chia, a serpentes den. Also a maydens name in Bozace, and a certayne plande.

Chibis, is, f. g. an herbe, whiche of some is called also Droptana.

Chidnæi, people about Pontus.

Chidorus, a ryuer of Macedonie.

Chiliarchus, chi, m. g. a capitayne of a thousand men. It is the same office that Tribunus militum was amonge the Romaynes.

Chiliars, liadis, f. g. the numbze of a thousande.

Chiliastæ, were christen men, which helde thys opinion, That Christe shoulde come personally and reygne as a kyng in this world, a thousand yeres, of which opinion was Lactantius.

Chilo, onis, ma, gen. one of the .vii. wyle men of Greece. also one that hath great lyppecs.

Chimara, ra, f. g. a mountayne in Licia, oute of the whych ysseueth fyre. It is also a monster hauyng thre heades, One lyke a lyon, an other lyke a gote, the thyrde lyke a dragon. after Homer, it is a beast inuincible.

Chimerij, a people bozderynge on the Amazons, and all people dwellyng in colde countreys are called Chimerij.

Chimastrum, tri, n. g. a winter garment, it may be vsed for a frysle frocke or gowne furred.

Chimerine, the herbe named Aizoum minus.

Chimerinus, ni, m. g. a circle in heauen into the whiche whan the sonne cometh, the dayes be at the mostest.

Chimerium, an hill in Thessaly.

Chione, es, a famous harlotte.

Chios, looke Chius.

Chiræ, rarum, ruptures in the feete.

Chiragra, æ, f. g. the goute in the fyngers,

Chiragricus, a, um, he that hath suche a disease.
Chiridoria, ra, f. gen. a garment that hath very longe sleaues, to couer the handes: this kynde of garment is named also Macrochera, Manuleata, and Dalmarica, it is vsed of nice and tender persons, that can abyde no colde.

Chirocrates, the name of a famous carpenter.

Chirographarius, a, um, perteynyng to an obligation, slygne manuell, or subscription.

Chirographarius creditor, is he that hath but a byll or a scedule of ones hande, for the surrect of his dette.

Chirographarius debitor, a dettoure that leaueyth a byll of his owne hande wryting, or by his owne hande wrytyng in a booke, doth testifie him selfe to owe a somme of money.

Chirographus, i, m. g. & Chirographum, i, n. g. a slygning or subscription of a wrytyng or letter with a mans owne hande. An obligation or like instrument, wherby a man is bounden, and hath put to his hand. also a bill of a mans owne hande.

Chirographum imitari, to counterfayte a slygne manuell, or subscription.

Inane chirographum factum solutione, the obligation is voyde, when the money is payde.

Suo chirographo misit mihi litteras, he sente me letters slygned with his owne hande, or wrytten with his owne hande.

Chirogylium, an plande.

Chirogylius, li, m. g. an hedgehogge.

Chirōmantes, he that telleth mens fortune, by palmestry.

Chirōmantia, tia, f. g. palmestry.

Chiron, onis, the name of a man who dyd fynde the vertues of Herbes: he taught Esculapius Physicke, Apollo to harpe, and Hercules astronomie. he was master to Achilles, and excelled all other men in hys tyme in vertue and iustice.

Chirōnia, æ, f. g. is a foule soze, harde to bee cured, by Iphelyhodde it is that, whiche is called Noli me tangere, It is also a wylde vyne, called Bryonie.

Chironium, an herbe called Centauria maior, in englyshe Centoie the greater. It is hot and drye in the seconde degree.

Chironomia, æ, f. g. a facion of gesture with the handes, vsed in daūsyng, as in a moyses daunce or in keruyng of meate.

Chironomica saltatio, the moyses daunce.

Chirōnomon, onis, ma, gen. idem quod Chironomus.

Chirōnomus, i, ma, gen. he that teacheth one to make gesture, or he that daunceth with gesture of the handes in a moyses.

Chirōpedes, they whiche haue certayne ruptures in theyr feete.

Chirothēsia, æ, f. g. the putting on of ones hādes.

Chirothēca, f. g. a gloue.

Chirūrgia, æ, f. g. surgery.

Chirurgus, i, m. g. a surgeon.

Chius, an yle by Grece in the sea Aegeum, whiche (as Strabo writeth) is in compasse. 900. fur-longes, which is an hundred Italian myles.

In this yle doo growe veray good malmseys, and other hotte wyne. Some greke authours write, that it cannot be remembred, that within that countrey, was any auourtrie committed, or vnlawfull companys of women amonge them selues.

Chius ad Coum, A prouerbe, notyng a very vnequall comparison, as an ase, to a lile.

Chius, (after some) is a citee of Laria, an other of Cubra, an other of Rhodes, by Etiopia.

Chius, a, um, of Chius.

Chlana, a maner of vpper garmentes.

Chlamyda, la, f. g. a diminutiue of Chlamys.

Chlamydatus, a, um, cloked.

Chlamys, chlamydis, f. m. gen. a cloke, properly woꝛne by men of warre. also a chyldes garment.

Chlorion, onis, ma. g. a greene byrde, as greate as a turtill, which is neuer seene but in summer.

Gaza translateth it Vireo: after Plinie it is yealow lyke golde, a witwoll.

Chloris, chloridis, f. g. the daughter of Amphion, and wyfe of Peleus, and mother of Nestor.

Also the goddesse of flowres. also a byrde, looke Luteola.

Chloris, ridis, f. g. a byrde. looke Luteola.

Chlorites, tis, masc. gen. a precious stone, greene lyke grasse.

Choa, a, f. g. a certayne measure, looke Chus.

Also a vessell, wherein was putte licour, whiche was offred to ydolles.

Choa in triclinio, A prouerbe, spoken of a great drunkarde, whiche will empty a vessell at one draught.

Choacon, rather then Coacon, looke there.

Choaspes, a famous ryuer in Asia, which renneth into the great ryuer Tygris.

Choaspites, a precious stone.

Choatra, a people aboute Mcothis.

Chobar, signifyeth all the greete fluddes that are in the region of Caldea.

Chœmis, was a space of grounde amonge the Jewes, conteynng. iiii. myles Italian.

Chœnicion, on, n. g. or Chœnicon, a certeyne instrument of surgery, called in Latine Modiolus, wherewith they cut out litle bones.

Chœnix, icis, f. g. a measure conteynnge (after Ruellius) iiii. Sextarios, which amounteth to xl. ounces, or ynche measures, so is it lesse than our quarte. After Agricola it conteyneth thzee Cotylas: And than is the measure vncertayne. For Galene saythe, there were diuers opinions of the measure Cotyla. Not withstanding this measure was so common amonge the aunciente Grekes, that therby they measured as muche meate as should suffice theyr seruantes for one day, as Suidas remembreth, in expoundnge a place of Homere, Chœnici ne infideas, was one of the counsayles of wyle Pythagoras, whiche saynte Hierome doeth in this wyle expound: Be not much carefull, how thou Maite lyue to morow. Plutarchus in thys wyle: Leauē some for to morow. For he sayth, that in the olde tyme it was not lesfull to take by the table, without any thing lesste: whiche expolition is contrary to saynte Hieromes. Erasmus doeth declare it in this wise. Men ought not by ydelnesse and slouth, to eate that, which other men pay for: but by theyr owne labour and study to get somewhat, whereby they may honestly lyue.

Chœnix, (after Budei) a measure conteynnge ii. sextarios, euerie sextarius, holdynge twoo pounde of Romayne weyght, that is. xiiii. ounces: so that Chœnix holdeth. xlviii. ounces, whiche is more then our quarte. xvi. ounces. by this, amonge the Greecians they measured so muche coꝛne as might suffice a man one day: and therfore it is taken for Cibarii diurni. Whicacions accompte but. xlviii. ounces to Sextarius, and then Chœnix, is but. xxxvi. ounces. Gesnerus, in his laste edicion, maketh it but. xx. ounces, wherat I merueyle.

Chœrilus, a poete, whiche wrote the Atheniens victorie agaynst Perres, and the gestes of Alexander magnus. He dyed in prisonne for hunger.

Chola, la, f. g. a precious stone.

Cholemasia, est vomitio biliosa.

Cholera, a, f. g. one of the. liii. pyncypall humours, called choler. Also a sickness of the stomacke and bowelles, wherein happeneth bothe vomite and fluxe, with tourment of the bowels, sendynge forth the choler vpwarde and downe warde, fyrste watery, afterwarde lyke as fleshe had ben washed in it. It is ingendred by inordinate feeding of longe tyme, specially of raw frutes and musheromes, muche vse of cucumbers, pompones, and all frutes very colde, whiche eaten after meales, or the meate be digested, are corrupted in the stomacke, and doo ingender a venemous iuyce, whiche nature maye not susteine: And therfore expelleth it with vyolence.

Cholericus, a, um, coleryke.

Cholerica tormina, tormentes or frettynges of the bowels, that come of choler.

Choliambi, orum, m. g. a kynde of verses made of the foot of meter called lambus.

Cholon, li, neu. g. the gut, wherein the ordure or dregges of the meate is formed, and coming from the lesste kydney, toucheth the splene, and rysing by to the ryght syde of the stomacke, cometh by the lyuer, and receyuech a lytell choler from the gaulle: by the Charpenesse whercof, the ordure is prouoked to descende, and made redde to passe.

Choma, chomatis, n. g. a water banke, to kepe in ryuers, that they ouerflow not,

Cho-

Chomer, looke Corus.
 Chondros, idem quod granum thuris.
 Chondrus, idem quod Alia.
 Chondrilla, l^a, f. g. an herbe that groweth not in Englands, it hath leaues lyke Curcūle, and floures lyke rufhes, & therfore may be called Ruffe Curcūle, it hath a clauyne wyke.
 Chondros, dri, ma. g. called also Niphontes, a bout of bristle, that cometh ouer the mouthe of the stomake, & byrned of nature for a defente of the same.
 Chodrosyntesmon, mi, neu. gen. a certayne constitution in the body, looke Galen. li. i. de temper. a fine.
 Choragium, rāgn, n. ge. stufte, properly wherewith the place is adorned, where enterludes or disguysenges shall be. Also the apparail of the players, and by translation the ornament of beehyng of any thyng.
 Choragus, i, maf. g. he that kepeth suche stufte or apparail, or is at the charge to set forth places.
 Choralistria Phyllis, a woman that P^{ro}perius loved, which daunced fynely.
 Chorannei, certeyne men that lyue in woodes in Persia, whiche are so swyft, that they take hartes with rennyng.
 Choraula, x, and Choraules, x, or lis, maf. gen. one that playeth on a fluite, Maulme, or other pyper, a mynstrell.
 Choraula, l^a, the seate or arte to playe on a fluite recorder or lyke instrumente.
 Choraules monumentarij, suche mynstrelles as play at burials or intermentes.
 Chorda, x, f^a, g. a stryng of an harpe or lute, or other instrument.
 Experire chordas, to saye the strynges, whither they be in tune or not.
 Pretendere chordas, idem.
 Oberrare eadem chorda, to harpe alwayes on one stryng.
 Chordapson, si, neu. ge. the sickenes called Illiacapasio. Reade moxe in Illiacapasio.
 Chordi agni, lambes caned after their tyme.
 Chordum, di, neu. gen. or Chordum farum, latewarde hey, or hey that is very late ere it can be made.
 Chorea, x, f^a, ge. a daunce, where many daunce together.
 Choreuma, ātis, n. g. a songe, whan many synge and daunce together.
 Choreus, looke Chorius.
 Chorēates, ma. g. one of a company that be together synngynge, a quire man.
 Choriāmbus, bi, ma. g. a foote in meter, whiche hath the first and laste syllable longe, and .ii. in the middell short.
 Chorineus, a mans name.
 Chorius, a foote in meter, which by an other name is called Trochæus, and is but of two syllables the fyrst longe, and the seconde shorte.
 Chorobates, tis, a measure, to mette ground with or a masons rule. Some deserue it to be an instrument, or measure to weygh water with.

 Chorocitharista, x, maf. gen. he that leadeth a daunce, or playeth him selfe on an instrument.
 Chorodidascalus, li, m. g. the master of a company of dauncers or syngers.
 Chorabus, was one of Athens, whiche dyd fynde inuente the makinge of earthen vessell. also the name of a ponge man mentioned of Tygill.
 Chorodanon, idem quod Sphondylion.
 Chorographia, x, f. g. the particuler description of countreys.
 Chorographus, pli, m. g. a descripter of regions or countreys.
 Chorostates, m. g. a chaunter.
 Chors, tis, f^a, g. a place inclosed, wherin castell or pultry is kept, called in some places a barton. Some vse it for a penne, or coupe, wherin hennies and capons be fedde.
 Chortalis, le, of or perteynyng to suche a court or barton.
 Chortales aues, poultry feedynge abode in a barton or court of husbandry.
 Chortos, ti, m. g. hep or grasse mo wen.
 Chorus, a measure, looke Corus.
 Chorus, i, m. g. a companye of players or dauncers. Sometyme an other assemblie of people together.
 Semiuri chori, the company of Cybilles priestes, which were all gelded.
 Virtutum chorus, the whole company of vertues.
 Inuentus choro stipari, to haue a great company of ponge men aboute him.
 Scriptorum chorus, all wyters.
 Chorus circularis, a round, when men daunce and synge takynge handes rounde.
 Virgineus chorus, a company of maydens synng and daunsynge.
 Chorofoes, a kyng of the Persians, excellentlye well leamed.
 Chresis, is vse, & Catachresis, abusion.
 Chreston, sti, n. g. an herbe called rhyoz.
 Chrestus, the name of a noble sophyster of Byzance.
 Chria, x, f. g. a notable sentence, spoken Moyses, to exhort to vertue, or dissuade from vice, echeryng the authours name with all.
 Chrisis, sis, f. g. vncion.
 Christodorus, a poete of Egypt, in the tyme of Anastasius the emperour, an other of Thebes.
 Christus, sti, ma. g. annoynted, the surname of our redeemer.
 Chromaticus, ci, maf. gen. whose colour neuer chaungeth, but is alwayes one: One that neuer blusheth.
 Chrombus, bi, m. g. a certayne fysh.
 Chromis, a fysh that maketh a nest in the water, Plin. li. 32. cap. 2.
 Chromis, the sonne of Hercules. Also a bope mens etioned of Virgile.

 Chromius, one of Argive.
 Chronia, looke Cronia.
 Chronica, corum, n. g. an history of actes doen,
 with the tyme exprested, chronicles.
 Chronicus, a, um, temperall, or perteynyng to tyme, retuynng at a certayne tyme.
 Chronisco, looke Cronisco.
 Chronoleri, olde dotardes.
 Chronos, ni, m. g. time.
 Chrysamon, mi, n. g. idem quod Balluca.
 Chrysa, a citee of Phrygia, and an plande of Ind
 die. also a riuer in the countrey of Syracuse.
 Chrysalis, lis, f. g. a certayne vermyne or worme, called of Aristotle Xylotropos.
 Chrysanthemum, mi, neu. gene. the herbe called crowfoote, whiche hath pealow flowers, commonly called goldknappes. And where so euer this herbe groweth, who that wyll dygge shall fynde water, looke Chamamelon.
 Chrysaor, the sonne of Neptune, begotten of the head of Medusa.
 Chrysas, a ryuer, that the Pagans worshipped for a god.
 Chryse, an yle, whiche Plinie and Solinus doo set out in the mouth of the famous riuer Indus where (as Martianus writeth) is such abundance of fyne golde, that therof the yle tooke his name. For Chrysos, is in englyshe, golde.
 It is also a citee by Lemnus.
 Chrysei, sterres that seme to caste byght pealowe beames.
 Chryselectrus, a, um, that hath the colour of the pealow electrum.
 Chrysendeta, cuppes haupnge borders of gold, as our masers and nuttes were wonte to haue, and therfore they may bee so called.
 Chryses, a prophete amonge the Gentyles. also a mayden giuen by the Grekes to Agamemnon at the battayle of Troy.
 Chrysippea, an herbe.
 Chrysippus, a noble philosopher, bozne in Lilica, in the towne Solx, as Solinus wyrteth, but Laetius wyrteth, that he was bozne in Carus: he was of the secte called Stoici.
 Chrysites, tis, m. g. a pprecious stone.
 Chrositis, the skynne, which is on golde beyng molten. also an herbe called Chrysocome.
 Chrysoaspides, dum, ma. g. knyghtes that had shieldes gylded.
 Chrysocerillus, li, m. g. a chystall stone, wherein the colour of golde shyneth.
 Chrysofocalis, the herbe Parthenium.
 Chrysoceras, a promontory of Thrace by By-saunce.
 Chryfocolla, la, f. g. a stone, with the pouldre
 wherof pyncers doo make a golden colour.
 Also goldsmithes doo vse it to soulder golde.
 Chryfocoma, ma, f. g. golden heare.
 Chryfocome, es, f. g. an herbe like to Pulegium.
 Chryfocomus, a, um, that hath pealow or golde den heare.

 Chryfogonum, ni, neu. g. that byngeth fothe golde. also an herbe described of Dio. li. 4. ca. 59
 Chryfogonus, a mans name.
 Chrysolachanon, ni, n. g. an herbe called Orage,
 in latyne Atriplex.
 Chrysolampis, a stone of fyne colour by nyght,
 and pale in the day tyme.
 Chrysolectrum, tri, n. g. a stone of golden colour, and in the mornynge most pleasant to see.
 Chrysolitus, a pprecious stone of the kinde of Jaspper, and in colour lyke golde.
 Chrysomallon, li, the raiment that bare the golden floure.
 Chrysomitris, tris, f. g. a golde synche.
 Chrysoma, idem quod Balluca.
 Chrysomela, drum, neu. ge. pealow gutters, of which they are called Aurea poma, as Ruell-ius supposeth. Some take them to bee the same that mala armeniaca be.
 Chryson, or Chrysos, a synche, which after some,
 is that which is called Aurata.
 Chrysoplycium, ci, n. g. an house, where golde is fynded or tried from other mettalles.
 Chrysoplytes, tum, m. g. golde syners.
 Chrysopolis, a citee of Bithinia.
 Chrysoprasus, a stone greene as a leche, myxed with a brightnesse of golden colour.
 Chrysorrhoeas, a ryuer that renneth by Damascus in Syria.
 Chryfos, golde.
 Chrysothemis, the daughter of Agamemnon, and Clytemnestra.
 Chrysothomus, the name of a byshop of Constantinople, and also of an historian, whiche were so called for theyr eloquence. For Chry-sostomus is in englyshe, a golden mouthe.
 Chryxus, the newew of Brennus, vnder whome
 the Galles invaded Rome.
 Chutra, idem quod Chytra.
 Chus, vel Choa, a measure of the Grekes, of the whiche be .iiii. sortes: Oh called Attica, or Medica, and conteyneth .vi. Sexrarios atticos, whiche is of englyshe measure one pottell and halfe a pynte: In other called Georgica, and is of englyshe measure .vi. pyntes, an halfe, and a quarter: that is in poyse of oyle .xi. li. and thre ounces: Of wyne .xii. li. and an halfe. Of hony .xviii. li. and .xx. ounces. In other is Veterinaria, or of them, which cure cattel, which receiue of our measure a pottell and a quarte:
 And in weyght of wyne .xi. li. one ounce .ii.
 drammes .ii. scruples: of oyle .viii. li. of hony
 xvi. li. an halfe, one ounce .di. and one dram.
 Chus, vel Choa, idem quod congius, looke there.
 Chyladinamis, the herbe Delomonis. Diosc.
 Chylus, li, m. ge. a certayne iuyce as thycke as Ostran, which commeth of the meate in the first digestion. Ruicn.
 Chymosis, a moysture in the skynne, which inclo-seth the cie,

Chymus,

Chymus, mi, m. g. the iuyce proceedinge of meate digested, whiche by the vermes cometh into the members, and restoreth that whiche is consumed by heate.

Chytra, tra, f. g. & Chyttron tri, n. g. a pottle to sette on the fyre.

Chytropus, odis, m. g. a trivet, reudel, or hand-iron, wheron pottes are set to boyle meate, also a possenet, skillet, or pottle that hath sette.

C A N T E I.

Cibalis, le, perteynyng to meate.

Cibarium, rij, neu. gen. foode, meate, sustenance.

Cibarius, a, um, perteynyng to meate, vntayle, or sustenance. also vile, simple.

Cibarius homo, a vyle person.

Cibarius panis, ranged bread, or crible bread, course bread.

Cibarium vinum, small or yll wyne.

Cibaria menstrua, vitayles for a month space.

Inopia cibarium, scarcete and lacke of vntayles.

Dare cibaria alicui, to fynde one meate and drynke.

Cibaria publice locare, to fynde meate of the common cos.

Cibarium oleum, meate oyle.

Cibarium, is taken for meate after the floure is houlted out.

Cibarci, people of Spayne.

Cibatus, us, m. g. vntayles.

Cibele, or rather Cybele, es, the daughter of Idis nois, king of Lerta, she was cast out into the deserte, nourished with beastes, and founde by a woman that kepte sheepe, and by hir nourished: after she became meruaylous fayre and wysse, she founde fyrst the pype and tabour, and cimballs amonge the greckes, moze ouer the education of chylderne, all whiche she so tenderly loued, that for the death of a chyld, called Atis, she became madde. Afterwarde she was honoured of the gentyles for a goddesse. She was also called Rhea, mother of the goddes, Vesta, Ops, and Terra. Her ymage beynge specially honoured in a citee of Phrygia, called Pessinus, was by the counsell of Sibilla, fetched thens by Scipio Africa, and brought to Rome, and there had in great reuerence.

Cibo, aui, are, to feede, to nouryshe.

Ciborium, rij, or Ciborium, tij, n. g. the lease of the beane of Egypte, called Colocasia. After Plinie a cup fashioned and made of those leaues. After Dioscorides, a parte of the codde of that beane. Porphirio saith, it is a cup made lyke the lease of that beane. After some it is a kinde of appuls of Alexandry.

Ciborus, a citee of Asia.

Cibus, i, m. g. euery kynde of meate.

Cibi repositi, meate sette by to be kepte.

Cibum facere, to make ready meate.

Mare aliquid fiet cibi, There shall bee some meate made ready betwixt.

Cibum subducere, to take meate awaie from one.

Penuria cibi, lacke of meate.

Varietas ciborum & copia, plentie of meate, and many dishes.

Disciplina cibo satiare, to feede with instruction of learyng.

Vilis cibus, good cheape meate, and easy to be gotten.

Cibum capere cum aliquo, to be at meale, or to dyne and suppe with one.

Maturus cibo, that is ripe and meete to be eaten.

Conditius cibus, meate that is condite, well serued, and kept.

Operosus cibus, harde to be digested.

Adjicere cibo, to geue one somewhat moze to eat, to encrease his petance.

Deducere cibum, contrary.

Defecti cibo, they that lacke vntayle.

Ingurgitare se cibus, to gourmandyse, to eat vnmoderately, to feede vnreasonably.

Cibus imperfectus, meate not well digested.

Prægustare cibos, to taste the meate afore, to take the saie.

Cibo suo seruire, to serue for meate and drynke.

Cibum peragere, to digeste ones meate.

In cibo homini est, The man vseth that for his meate.

Cibus Saturni, the herbe Hippuris.

Cibus Italicus, Lapars.

Cibyra, a citee of Phrygia.

Cibyrtæ, people of that citee.

Cicada, æ, f. g. a grasse hopper.

Cicada fritini, the grasse hopper chirpith.

Cicadæ prius æstate tacant, A sentence spoken of a thyng that will not bee.

✚ Cicada cicadæ, chara, lyke condicions loue together, lyke of luyng loue together, lyke wyll to lyke.

Cicatrigo, aui, are, to styke one so, that the marke alwaies remayneth.

Cicatricosus, a, um, that hath manye scarres or tokens of woundes.

Cicatricola vitis, a vyne full of scotches and chappes.

Cicatricula, a diminutiue of Cicatrix.

Cicatrix, icis, fœ. gen. a token or scarre, where a wounde hath bene.

Cicatrix etiam in arboribus.

✚ Refricare cicatricem, to rubbe or make soze that, whiche was almoste whole, spoken prouers byally, of renewng and styppng by agayne a dangerous matter, that was well alayed.

Cicatrices aduersæ, scarres or woundes ouerthwart the face and breast.

Coit cicatrix, The wounde closeth or draweth to a scarre. Cicatrix oculi, idem quod albugo oculi.

 Cicatrizo, idem quod Cicatrizo. Also to heale a wounde so, that onely a scarre or scarre maye
 appere.
 Ciccum, ci, neu. gen. the tender rinde of a pome-granade.
 Cicer, eris, n. g. a grayne lyke to peason, wherof some be red, some blacke, and some white, and be called Cich or Cich pease, they be but seldome seene in England.
 Cicera, ra, farmi. gene. a kynde of foode, called also Cicercula, but they differ in this that Cicera hath blacke seedes, and cicercula hath white.
 Cicérbita, x, f. g. an herbe called a southstell.
 Cicercula, x, f. g. is lesse than Cicer, named cich-lyng, or petite cich.
 Cicerculum, li, neu. gen. a kynde of colour called Sinopre.
 Cicero, ónis, mai gen. the surname of Marcus Cullius, whose diuine eloquence, abundante learnynge, sharpnesse of wyt, dexteritee in actes, and mooste ardent loue to the common weale of his countrey, can not be sufficiently expessed by a mortall mans tounge or pen. He lineally descended from the auncient kynges of the Volscis-ans: all be it tyme and occasion wearynge out dignitees in bloud, his name continued longe in the state of worship. His auncelours were called Cicerones, because Cullius Appius, a noble king of the Volscians, had on his nose, a marke lyke a chiche pease, called Cicer. In his chyldes hode, he so excelled al other children in witte, that their fathers meurd with his fame went purposely to the schoole, to beholde and here him. He so profyted in the eloquence of grecke and latine, that not only his companions were in a merua-lous admiracion of him: but also Apollonius (the most excellent oratour at that tyme) hearing him, and not speaking a great space, saied at last: Cruly, Cicero, I prayle the, and meruaile at the. But I lament the fortune of the Grekes: whan I consider, that by the, learnynge and eloquence, which were left vnto vs only, are euen now transailed vnto the Romaines. whiche saynge was afterwarde founde true. For loke what subtiltee was in logike, what commoditie in moztall phis-losophy, what secreete knowlage in philosophy naturall, he knew it (as Tacitus wyrteth) and declared in latine mozt eloquently. And he beyng but a very yong man, came to practise in Rome, studied abundantly the ciuile lawes, was meruapulously occupied in great weighty causes. And after he was Senatour, was continually (as it seemed) mozt busy about the weale publike. yet he that exactly redeth his workes, shall thinke he neuer did any thinge but reade great authours, and wyrt books. For there was no philosophier, no oratour, no poete afore his tyme that escaped him, as dooeth in his bookes sufficientlye appere. And yet how many bookes made he: Ieue we haue not the thyrde parte of them, yet such as we haue, if any man now did wyrt so much and so well, we shoulde thinke him to haue spent the mozt parte of his tyme in wyrtynge. And noble Cicero, I orde god how many thynges he exploite by his wilddome and diligence, in mozt weighty awaies, as well in warre as peace: & how did he by his dexteritee and prudent saue the citee and people of Rome from the mozt pernicious confederate and rebellion of Catilne, and other of the nobilitie, which went about to destroy the weale publike, and robbe the titede.

 How preserued he the same citee and people after the death of Caesar, that they were not oppressed by Marcus Antonius: For his incomparable actes, the whole Senate and people came to him, first befoze any, the name of father of the countrey. What trouble and misery susteyned he, beyng exyled by the procurement of Clodius, onely for the puttyng of the same rebelles to death.
 Suche is the rewarde of people vnstable. Iykewyle for dyspyng Antonius out of Rome, and by his sharpe oracions, causyng him to bee proclaymed enemy to the weale publike: he made Antonie so much his enemy, that in the treaty of peace betwene him and Octavianus. He demanded Cicero, to doe with him his pleasure. which thyng graunted of the vnkinde Octavianus (whom Cicero had brought vp, and by his meanes caused to be made chiefe gouernour of Rome) Anto-nie sent one Herennius (whom Cicero had saued from death by his eloquence) to pursue him as he fled, which thing whā Cicero perceined, he abode his compynge. And lyng in an hoyle lytter for weaknesse, he byd with constant eyes prepare his throte to Herennius: who did (all other men abhorryng) strike of his head, and handes. and brought them to Antonie: who reioysyng ther-at, caused the head and handes to be set ouer the place of ciuile iudgements of Rome, which day
 ly beholden of the Senate and people of Rome, was lamented. He flourished about. xl. yeres befoze the incarnation. For his lyfe and actes seide Plutarch, de vitis: Cor. Nepos, Appian, Sabel. Traph. Crasm.

Ciceronianus, a, um, of Cicero, or that studiously to folowe Cicero.

Cichesus, a rpuer.

Cichorea, x, for. g. & Cichorium, rñ, ne. g. an herbe called Succore.

Cici, an herbe otherwyle called Ricinum, of apothecaries Palma Christi.

Cicimeni, people aboute Meotis.

Cicina, x, f. g. a nyght crow, called also Cicuma, or as Casa wyrteth it, Cicumo.

Cicilindrum dri, n. g. a certayne herbe or kynde of pulle.

Cicindella, Cicindella, or Cicindula, x, f. g. a flie or wourme, whiche flyneth in the nyght, as boutharues, a globerde.

Cicina,

Cicinia, α , f. g. a little leane serpent in Italy, which most commonly hath no payson.

Cicinum oleum, a certayne oyle vſed to pource the bealye.

Cicones, a people of Thrace.

Ciconia, α , f. g. a byrde, whiche some ſuppoſe to be a ſtorke, and is of the ſygure of an hearon, but is greater, and al white, ſaung the toppes of his wynges: his byll and legges be redde.

Some thinke they haue no tounge. They be naturally enemies to ſerpentes, and do ſlea them: whan they be olde, they byrdes feede them, and prouide meate for them. wherefoze the ymage of them, was the token of Juſtice. The ancient kynge had it on the toppes of theyr ſceptours, as they had in the lower parte, the beaſt called Hippopotamus, which contrary wiſe ſleaeth his father, and rydeth on his mother. wherby they were admonyſhed, to auaunce juſtice and pitie, and to oppreſſe iniuſtice and crueltee. Of this byrde came a greeke woord for a prouerbe, Antipelargin, which ſigniſieth to be lyke a ſtorke, which prouerbe is to exhort men to be kynde to theyr parentes, or to theyr maſters, which teach or byng them vp, requyting the benefyte, which they receyued of them.

Ciconia, α , f. g. is alſo a certayne measure.

Ciconius, the name of him that builded Brixia.

Cicorium, idem quod Cichoria.

Cicur, \bar{u} ris, om. ge. euery beaſt or byrde, whiche ones beyng wyld, is made tame.

Cicur ingenium, a gentyll nature.

Cicuto, \bar{a} ui, \bar{a} re, act. to make tame.

Cicuta, α , f. g. a venemous herbe, whiche groweth. it. cubites in height, with a grene ſtalke full of knottes, buſhy on the toppe, hauing leaues ſmaller than Loſiader, the ſeedes greater than any ſeede, and is horrible of ſauour. Some do now vſe that name for hemlocke, but our hemlocke hath not ſo ſmall leaues, as the deſcription of Dioſc. requyeth.

Cicuta, is ſometyme a payſon made of that herbe. Alſo the ſpace betwene the knottes of a cane or reede.

Cicuta, the name of a notable ſurer.

Cidaris, a cap, whiche the kynge of Perſia dyd vſe, and alſo the byſhops in the olde lawe.

Cico, \bar{e} s, \bar{c} ui, \bar{e} re, and Cio, \bar{c} is, \bar{c} ui, \bar{i} re, is properly to prouoke or moue one to weeping or ſorrowe. Alſo to meue, to ſtirre or raiſe vp, to prouoke one to anger, to vex, to irritate, to call or name.

Quid negotij eſt, Piſtoclerum Lydus quod herum tam ciet? what is the matter that Lydus thus troubleth and angereth his maſter Piſtoclerus?

Bellum ciebant. they rayſed by warre.

Ciere aluum, to prouoke one to the ſcoole.

Ciere vrinam, to make one pſſe.

Prælium aut pugnam ciebant, they ſtyred vp, or exhorted theyr men to fyght in battayle.

Ciet horrorem membris, it ſtirreth by a certain trembling in the partes of the bodie.

Ciere verba, to ſpeake.

Numina ciere, to call vpon the goddes.

Ciere ſingularum nomina, to call euery one by his name.

Ciere auxilia, to raiſe ayde or ſuccour.

Cilicia, a countrey in Asia, partly incloſed with the higheſt parte of the mountayne Taurus, and hardeſt to paſſe by. Strabo diuideth Cilicia in to two partes, one called Tracher, that is to ſay, rough or rocky: the other Campeſtris, that is to ſay, playne. Joſephus wryteth, it was of olde tyme called Carſus of Carſis, one of the ſonnes of Japhet, the yongest ſonne of Noe. Herodotus ſaith, the people were called Cilices of Cilix, the ſonne of Agenor king of Phenicia: where befoze it was called Hyppateus. S. Hierome interpreteſh Cilicia, a congregation, a lamentacion, an aſſumpcion, a lamentable calling, or vomite. The people were by nature inclined to lying and ſtealyng, wherof grewe this prouerbe.

Cilix non facile verum dicit, The Cilician not lightly ſayeth truth, A prouerbe applied to a couetouſe man, which alwaie lyeth for his particular aduantage, as now adaiies moſte parte of men doo, which lyue onely by ſell yng.

Cilicenis, ſe, of Cilicia.

Ciliſſus, a, um, idem.

Cilicinus, a, um, made of heaten cloth.

Cilicium, \bar{c} ij, n. g. any cloth or garment made of heare. alſo the wearyng of the ſame cloth.

Cilium, \bar{l} ij, n. g. the ouer ſhynne, wherein the eye is cloſed.

Cilix, \bar{i} cis, an inhabitaunt of Cilicia. Alſo the ſonne of Phœnix.

Cilla, a citee nere to Thebes.

Cillere, to moue or ſtirre.

Cillibæ, arum, rounde tables.

Cillicon, \bar{c} ontis, a traytours name, loke the prouerbe Cillicon bona.

Cilo, \bar{o} nis, m. g. he that hath a greate forehead.

Cilones, or Cillones, num, m. ge. mynſtelles, byng ſpithy and vncleane lecture.

Cima, α , f. g. and Cima, \bar{c} imatis, n. g. the toppe of an herbe.

Cimacia, orum, neu. gen. thynges that be foure ſquare.

Cimas, an yle by the ryuer Iſter.

Cimbalâris, ris, f. g. an herbe, whiche groweth in ſtone walles, which hath a ſmall leafe, ſomewhat in ſacion lyke to pype, and hath a lytle purple flowre. It is ſuppoſed to be the herbe, whiche is called Vmbelicus veneris.

Cimbices, they that make muche of a litle, or gret by eſteeme a thyng of ſmall value, nygards.

Cimbicus, a ſparynge man, a nygarde.

Cimbum, bi, the bottome of an earthen pott.

Cimbri, people that inhabited Denmarke, and Bozwaie, who had a meruaylouſe cuſtome:

They

Their wiues folowed them in warres, women counnyng in diuynacion, whose heares were whyte, and lykewyse theyr gownes: vnder the whiche they had launde clothes, made faste with pynges and taches, beyng gytt with gyddelles of brasse, and wente bare footed. Alwayes as prissoners were taken, they with naked swerdes bette them to the grounde, and drew them to a brassen cauldron, whiche conteyned fyfty amphoras, and hauyng an haulte place made for the purpose, went vp quickly, and lysteinge on hygh the men that were taken, dyd cutte theyr throttes ouer the cauldron. And by the drop- pyng of the bloudde, declared theyr prophesies. Some other opening mens bealies, serched their bowelles, and prophesied byetoze vnto the people.

Cimbria, the countrey now called Denmarke.

Cimbrius, a, um, of Cimbria.

Cimeliarchon, chi, n. g. a ieuell house.

Cimeliarchus, chi, mal. ge, maister of the ieuell house.

Cimelium, any precious thyng that is layed vp.

Cimex, micis, ma. g. a synkynge wourme, bree- dyng in wood or paper.

Cimmerij, people inhabytyng the furthest parte of Europe, not farre from the fennes called Paludus Meotidis, about the sea Bosphorus Cimmerius, north east from Grecia. Plinie and other asseyne, that by the farre dystance of the sonne from it, that countrey is alwaie ver- raie darke, wherof hapned this prouerbe, ☛ Cimmerijs tenebris atrior, blacker than the darkenesse of Cimmeria, applied to much dark- nesse, dulnesse of witte, or lacke of wisdom.

Cimmerij, were also people of Italy, in the coun- trey betwene Baia, and Cumæ, whiche was so enuyroned with hylles, that the sonne came not to it, neyther in the moornyng nor at nyght. There was supposed to be a descente into hell.

And the people dwelled onely in caues.

Cimmeris, a citee of the countrey of Troy.

Cimolis, a citee of Baphlagonia. Also of Galacia, called commonly Quinoli.

Cimolius, a, um, of the pland Limolus, or of the citee Limolis.

Cimon, a noble man of Athens, Miltiades sonne.

Cinabulum, li, n. g. a cradell.

Cinadia, dia, f. g. a stone longe and whyte, found in the brayne of a fythe of the same name, which stone by chaungeyng of colour signifyeth tempest of the sea to come.

Cinadus, of Plinius is expounded to be an ex- erciser of wanton daunces and motions of the body in diuers formes. Perottus in Corn. co. de- clareth it to be a person, exercysinge actes of le- cherie detestable, agaynste naturall forme and order, whiche I wyll not expresse. If he had o- mytted it, he had nothyng offended, beeyng a thyng worthy to be out of remembraunce. other interprete Cinados to be them, which be with out all shame: other chyldren that be abused.

Cinamomum, or rather Cinnamomum, mi, n. g. a kynde of spice odouriferous and delectable, cald Cinamom, of some Canell. it groweth in Ethio- ppe, lyke a low bushe in diuers stemmes, which passeth not .ii. cubites in height, hauynge leaues lyke organum. The rindes therof is that, which we haue in vlc. reade moze in Plin. li. 12. cap. 19. Theoph. li. 9. cap. 45. Diosc. li. 1. It is hotte and drie in the thyrde degre.

Cinara, a, f. g. an herbe called Artochoke.

Cincia, a place in Rome.

Cincinnatus, the name of a senator in Rome, whiche beynge called from the plough, was made dictatour.

Cincinnatus, a, um, that hath crisped or curled heares.

Cincinnus, ni, m. g. a bushe of heare that is cris- ped or curled.

Cincius, the name of certayne cenatours of Rome.

Cinclidæ, arum, haies or parclois made aboute the places of iudgement, where men maie stand, beholde, and heare what is doone and spoken amonge the iudges and pleadours. Suche a like thyng is at westmyster hall about the common place, and is called the bekens.

Cinclidarius, the keeper of the place, where monu- mentes or recordes were kept, that euery man shoulde not enter without leaue. As he, whiche now kepeth the recordes in the towre, or the por- ter of the rolles maie be so called.

Cinclos, cli, m. g. the byrde called a water swal- low, not much bigger than a lark. Graul. saith vpon the prouerbe Cinclus, that it is a certayne byrde, so weake and feeble that she can not make hir owne neste, and so laieth hir egges in other byrdes nestes. wherupon vplandyng the men, in a bie woorde, vlc to cal wandryng beggers Cin- cli. Suidas saith, it is a sea byrde, leane and very little of body.

Cincticulus, li, m. g. a shorte garment, that was gytt vnto the navel, and came downe to the mid- dell legge. It maie nowe be vsed for a far- dyngal, whiche is woze after the same facion, but somewhat longer.

Cinctus, us, m. g. a gyddell or gyddynge.

Cinctus gabinus, a garmente that the consull of Rome did weare on, whan he denounced war: whiche he threwe backward, and gydded hym selfe with a parte of the same.

Cinctus, a, um, gydded, compassed, enuyroned aboute.

Cincturus, a, um, readie prepared to warre.

Cineas, a man of Thessaly.

Cinefactum, brought into ashes, as thynges that be bourned.

Cinefacio, nefacis, ere, to byng to ashes.

Cineraceus, & Cinereus, a, um, of ashes, or of the colour of ashes.

Cinerarius, idem quod Ciniflo.

Cinericius, a, um, baken or roasted vnder ashes.

Cinestas,

Cineſias, a learned man of Thebes.
 Cinga, a ryuer that renneth out of the mountaynes Pirenei.
 Cingo, xi, 3re, to gyde oꝝ compaſſe about, to en-uirone, to beſette, ſometyme to dwell about a
 place.
 Cingere arborem, to barke a tree.
 Cingere caſtra vallo, to caſte a trenche aboute
 the campe.
 Tempora floribus cingere, to ſette a garlande of flowres on ones head.
 Cingere urbem exercitu, to lay ſiege to a citee, oꝝ to beſiege a citee rounde about.
 Cingere ſe gladio, to gyde a ſwoorde aboute him, to hange a ſwoorde by his ſyde.
 Qui lacum cinxere Bycen, whiche dwelled as boute the meere oꝝ poole called Byces.
 Periculus cingi, to bee in daunger on euerye ſyde.
 Cingria, x, f, g. a ſhorte pyper, haupage a ſmall ſounde.
 Cingula, x, f, g. a gyth for beaſtes.
 Cingulus, li, m. g. and Cingulum, li, ne. ge. a gyrdell.
 Sub cingulo delata illuſtris dignitas dicitur, quando iuſta & plena eſt, citra cingulum, quā
 do honoris tantum gratia.
 Spoliare cingulo, amonge ciuile lawyers, to depole one, oꝝ diſcharge him of his office oꝝ authoritee.
 Cingulum, li, n. g. an herbe that groweth in the ſea lyke a gyrdell, and is called ſeabelt.
 Cingulum, a citee of Picene in Italy, from whence the moyles come, whiche are called Cinsgulari.
 Ciniſſo, onis, maſ. gen. he that maketh hotte the instrumentes, wherewith men oꝝ women dyd trimme theyr heades.
 Cinipheſ, maſcu. gene. plur. certayne lyttle flies lyke knattes, wherewith the Egyptians were plagued.
 Cinira, x, f, g. an herbe, which is moſt aptely dunsged with aches.
 Inurere dolorem ciniri atque oſſibus alicuius.
 Cinis, éris, ma. g. aſhes. ſometyme it is vſed for the ſpyrite and memorie of a man after his death.
 ſometyme for a dead man.
 Cinna, a citee of Spayne. Alſo the name of a Ro-mayne, whiche excelled in crueltee, and was in the ciuile warre toynded with Marius.
 Cinnabaris, a ſtone called a ſanguinarie. It is called in latine Sanguis draconis, dragons blood.
 It is putte into ſundrye medicines to ſtaunche blood. After plinie, it is a certayne colour, lyke to readde leade, called in latine Minium, oꝝ rather the ſame that Minium is. But Dioſcorides ſaith, that Minium, and Cinnabaris, are dyuers.
 Cinnamum, idem quod Cinnamomum.
 Cinnamomum, looke Cinamomum.

Cinnabaris, ris, maſ. gen. the blood of a dyddil, (ſquilled out by the poſſe of an Elephant, lyngg vpon him in their fyghe, when the Elephant is wounded to death) and being mixed with the blood of the Elephant. Cinnabaris, whiche is ſolde of the apothecaries, is but counterfayted, and made of Hympſtone, and quicke ſiluer.
 neyther in colour, noꝝ yet in vertue lyke the true Cinnabaris.
 Cinnamologus, called of Plinie, and Ariſtotele, Cinnamomus, is a byrde, whiche maketh his neſt with cinnamonie.
 Cinnara, looke Cinara.
 Cinniligium, gi, n. g. a gyrdell, whiche a byrde,
 oꝝ newe wedded wyfe weareth, a coſe.
 Cinnomyron, ri, n. g. oyle of Lilies.
 Cinnus, ni, maſcu. gener. a heare of a man, oꝝ womans head, oꝝ a medley of diuers thynges together.
 Cinxia, a ſurname of Iuno.
 Cinyphius, a, um, of oꝝ by the ryuer called Cinips.
 Cinyps, nyphis, a ryuer of Lybia.
 Cinyras, a kyng of Phoenicia, an othet of Typtes whiche vnwares had to dooe with his daughter Myrrha, whiche is called after him Cinyreia.
 Cio, ciui, ire, looke Cico.
 Cios, an hauen oꝝ port towne of Phrygia, and a ryuer of the ſame name.
 Cipérum, ri, n. g. a ſoote plant oꝝ herbe, whiche mixed with ſaffron, rooteth vpon heares, and is good to breake and expulſe the ſtone.
 Cippus, i, m. g. a payre of ſtocks. Alſo a lytle hyll oꝝ other marke, whiche men call a barrow. it is alſo a croſſe, oꝝ other marke, whiche ſheweth
 the ryght waie to a place.
 Cirannus, a man of Licia, the compaignion of Hapeton.
 Circa, about, nighe.
 Circa regem, about the kyng.
 Circa, for Circiter, as,
 Circa ſeſtertium viſſes, Aboute tenne thouſande pounde.
 Circa, for de, as,
 Varia circa hæc opinio, Of theſe thynges bedyuers opinions.
 Animus eſt circa campos, id eſt, in . His mynde is in the fieldes.
 Circa Demetrium, about Demetrius tyme.
 Circa præfectos literas dimittere, to ſend letters about in to all partes, to the rulers of the countrey.
 Circa'a, x, f, g. the herbe called Mandragora.
 Circa'ium, n. g. idem.
 Circania, x, f, g. a byrde, which in his flight ſetteth a compaſſe.
 Circe, the daughter of Sol by Perſis, the daughter of Oceanus: She knewe the meruaylous oꝝperations of ſundrye herbes, and howe to euſe all poſſons: At the laſt ſhe ſlew her huſbande, byngg

kyng of Seythes, with payson, and vexed the people with muche tyranny: wherefor shee was expelled the countrey, and fled into a deserte yle in the ocean sea. Homerus nameth his the sister of Aeta, and Meteth, how diners of Ulysses compaynons, arryving in the Ile, where Circe dwelled, were by hir transformed into swyne. And after, by the intercession of Ulysses, shee restored them to theyr pristinate fourme, moze beautifull and younge in syght, than they were before.

Circes domus, a towne of Lampayne.

Circeiensis, the inhabitants of Circeium.

Circeium ingum, a mountayne of Lampayne.

Circenses ludi, plaies that the Romaynes vled in the place called Circus.

Circense, a kynde of downe, made of the toppes of Bulrushes or reedes.

Circæus, a great thyp, whiche they of Asia vled.

Circeus, a, um, of Circes.

Circinatio, alwaie tournyng rounde lyke a circle.

Circino, aui, are, to compasse, to make a circle with a compasse.

Circiaus, i, m. g. an instrument called a compasse.

Circion, cñ, n. g. an herbe whiche is commonly called Buglosse, not that whiche is called Languebeuße: but that whiche hath the great leafe, whose pyckes are not so harde.

Circion, cñ, n. g. is of learned phisicions, taken for longebeuße.

Circiter, about, and is referred sometymes to tyme: as,

Circiter calendis Iulias, Aboute the fyrst date of Iulye. Sometyme it is referred to place: as,

Circiter in media arce, aboute the myddes of the castell. Sometyme to nymbre: as,

Circiter duo millia hominum caesa sunt,

There were nygh two thousande men slayne.

Circites, houppes of yron or brasse. also a kinde of olyues.

Circitores, officers in citees, whiche go aboute to see good rule kept in the nyght, watchmen.

Circius, cñ, ma. gen. a southerne wynde, whiche is wonderfull vehement. it was also an ylande in Misia.

Circos, ci, m. g. a certayne kynde of haukes, lame on the one foote. also a precious stone.

Circuitio, or Circuitio, onis, f. ge. a compassyng, goyng about, or enuyronyng.

Circuitio verborum, great circumstance in wordes.

Circuitor, ôris, maf. gen. the sercher of watches. also he that goeth about the stretes to sell garments or linnen clothe.

Circuitus, us, maf. ge. a circuite or compasse, a goyng about.

Circuitus februm, the course of agues.

Circuitus orationis, a periode.

Verborum circuitus, or circuitio, a goynge about the bushe.

Circuitu vorticis agi, to go rounde with the hurltyge of the poble.

Circulatio, by titles, or in the fourme of a circle. Circulator, ôris, masculi. gener. he that goeth aboute to shewe him selfe, what he can doo, or to decepue the people with craft and subtiltee, a iuglar.

Circularioris, a, um, perteynyng to suche deceytfulls, or iuglars.

Circularix, tris, form. gene. shee that goeth aboute to gette money with daunsyng and tumblyng.

Circulo, aui, are, to compasse or close with a dicke, or other lyke thyng. Or to make a circle or compasse aboute a thyng.

Circulus, li, m. g. a circle or compasse. And by a metaphoze it is taken for a compay of men standyng or sytting together.

In circulis & conuiuijs sermo est liberior, In companies and feastes men talke moze lybes tally.

Circum, both a ppepocicion and an aduerbe, signifieth about, rounde about.

Pueros circum amicos dimittit, he sendeth seruauntes about to his freendes.

Agere circum, to hyue or tourne rounde.

Pugnare circum aliquem, to fyght by one, or in ones company.

Circumactus, us, a tournyng of a thyng rounde about.

Circumaggero, aui, are, to heape, or make heapes about a thyng.

Circumago, cumagis, egi, agere, to leade about, to turne about.

Circumagere frenis equum, to turne the horse about with the byddell.

Circumambulo, aui, are, to walke rounde about.

Circumaro, aui, are, to eate rounde about.

Circumaspicio, spexi, ere, to looke rounde about.

Circumcido, looke Circuncido.

Circúmeo, circumis, iui, ire, or Circueo, or Circucuo, iui, ire, to go about any thyng.

Circumquito, aui, are, to ryde about.

Circummissus, a, um, sent about.

Circummitto, misi, ere, to sende about.

Circummulceo, si, ere, to stroke or touche softly or gentilly on euery parte.

Circummanio, iui, ire, to inclose, walle in, or dyche in. also to enuyron strongly. To fortifye with walles or men.

Circummunitio, onis, f. ge. a stronge fence or municion, made about a place.

Circummunitus, a, um, fenced and fortified rounde about.

Circumnascor, âtus sum, asci, to grow about.

Circumobruo, rui, re, to couer with earth ouce and ouer.

Circumpadanus, a, um, that dwelleth about the ryuer Po in Italy.

Circumpango, pēgi, ere, to cramme or lay earth about about a thyng.

Circumpansio, uij, ire, to strike and beate about.

Circumpedes, lachies away thyng at theyr maysters sytpe. also, footemen of princes.

Circumplexio, plexus, sum, ecti, to embrace of thyng aboute.

Circumplexus, us, m, g. embracing of thyngs about.

Circumplico, ui, oꝝ aui, are, to folde vp, to rolle awaynde aboute.

Circumpono, sui, ere, to lay, oꝝ put aboute.

Circumportatio, onis, f. g. a bankettyng, and feastyng one with an other a quassyng rounde about the table.

Circumspicius, a, um, that maie be beholden on all partes.

Circumselliones, tauerne haunters, oꝝ roylers about.

Circuncidaneus, a, um, cutt rounde about.

Circuncidaneum mustum, oꝝ Circuncistium vinum, wyne, whiche after the grapes are pressed, is taken out of the same grapes, beyng cut and newe pressed.

Circuncido, cidi, ere, to cut about a thyng, to cut oꝝ take awaie, to diminishe.

Vinum in toto circuncidendū est, wine muste all together be taken from him, oꝝ he muste bee hept, that he drynke no wyne at all.

Circuncidere atq; imputare alicunde, to dysmysh the oꝝ take awaie from any thyng.

Circuncingo, cingi, ere, to compass, oꝝ enuyron.

Circuncirca, all aboute on euery syde.

Circuncise, an aduerbe, bysely, puttyng away all superfluites.

Circuncise agere, to make an oracion grossely and bysely, without eloquence.

Circuncisio, onis, circuncision.

Circuncisius, a, um, of that whiche is cutte rounde about.

Circuncisura, a, f. g. a cutte oꝝ gallye rounde aboute a thyng.

Circunsum & breue, Morze and byesse.

Circuncisus, a, um, cutte rounde about, circuncised.

Circuncisa omni negotiosa cogitatione, puttyng awaie, oꝝ layng asyde all cogitations of any busynesse.

Circunclaudo, idem quod circuncludo.

Circunclūdo, clāsi, ere, to inclose in rounde about.

Circunclūsus, a, um, shutte and closed in.

Circuncolo, colui, ere, to dwell about a place.

Circuncolumnium, nij, n. g. a place sette about with pylours, oꝝ an house standyng onely on pylours oꝝ postes.

Circunculco, aui, are, to treade a thyng downe on euery parte.

Circuncarro, curri, ere, to renne all aboute in euery place.

Circuncurso, aui, are, to renne hyther and thither.

Omnia iam circuncursauī, I haue runne about in euery corner.

Circundo, cūdedi, cūdare, to shupponne oꝝ compass about, as a ringe dooeth about a mannes fyngre, oꝝ a dyke about a close, oꝝ a trench about a campe.

Quis castis oppidum circūdedit, he besieged the towne about with fyue campes.

Circūdedit noua moenia oppido, he newe walled the towne aboute.

Vluis circūdare aliquem, to embrace one.

Argentum auro circūdare, to gyfte silver.

Arma humeris circūdare, to put on harneys, to arme a man.

Circūdolo, laui, lāre, to chyp, cut oꝝ hew smoth round about.

Circūduco, dūxi, ere, to leade about, to decrease oꝝ begyle. Also to abolysh oꝝ sette asyde an acte.

Quod si is qui edictum peremptorium impetrauit, absit die cognitionis: tunc circūducendum erit edictum peremptorium: And if he that hath obteyned the peremptory decree, be absente the daye, whan the matter shoulde bee determined: than the peremptory decree is to be dissolved and abolished.

Circūducere aliquem argento, to gette ones money by falschod, to begyle one of his money.

Circūducere aliquem per dolos, to deceiue one by cautels oꝝ fraude.

Circūit per familias, he goeth aboute from house to house.

Circūductio, onis, f. g. decepte, gyle.

Circūductus, a, um, lead about, begyled, abolished.

Circūfero, cūntuli, ferri, to carrie oꝝ beare about. also to cleanse.

Item ter socios pura circūtulit vnda, Also he clenched his company thre times with cleane water.

Circūferre se, to goe byaggyng about the streets.

Circūferre oculos, to looke rounde aboute, to caste ones eyes on euery syde.

He quarelae primum domos nobilium circūlatae sunt, These complayntes were fyrst casted about and reported at noble mens houses.

Circūfert fama, the byute oꝝ fame carieth it abode.

Ad nutum aliorum circūferri, to be enclined now to one thyng, now to an other at the wyll of other men.

Circūfirmo, aui, are, to strengthen, stape, and vnderlet on euery syde.

Circūflecto, xi, ere, to tourne hyther and thither, to tourne about.

Circūflexus, us, m. ge. a bowyng oꝝ bendyng of a thyng rounde.

Circūflexus, a, um, bowed rounde, tourned aboute.

Circūflo, aui, are, to blow rounde about, to blow hyther hither and thither. Circunflari a ventis inuidia, to be tossed with enuious and malicious reports.

Circunfluo, fluxi, ere, to abounde. Also to flowe of reyne aboute, as water about a cite or countrey. Sometime to enuyronne, or compasse. Also to resort to a place in great numbze out of all partes.

Postquam varia gentes vndiq; circunfluxerunt, after that diuers people had in great numbze resorted thither, out of all countreys there about.

Tanta cernorum multitudo nos circunflexit, So great a multitude of hartes came about vs.

Copis omnibus circunflere, to haue plentie and abundaunce of all thinges.

Circunfluus, a, um, that floweth aboute.

Circumfodio, circumfodis, fodi, fodere, to dig aboute a thyng.

Circunforaneus, nei, m. g. a wanderer about in markettes, spending the tyme ydelly, to tell and here newes. one that goeth about to bye and sell in markettes, as it were a pedlar.

Circunforaneus, a, um, the adiectyue.

Circunforaneum as, money lent for gynes, as common vsurers dooe.

Circunforo, aui, are, to make holes rounde aboute a thyng.

Circunfossor, oris, m. g. he that dygeth aboute a thyng.

Circunfossura, a, f. g. a dygging about a thyng.

Circunfrico, aui, are, to rubbe about.

Circunfulgeo, fulsi, ere, to shyn or glister bright rounde about.

Circunfundo, fudi, ere, to caste water or othe lyour about. Also to compasse, to byll or slea downe ryght on euery syde.

Circunfundere hostes, to slea enemies on all partes.

Circunfundito ad oleam, cast it about the oyle tree.

Terram circunfundit aer, the ayre compasseth the earth rounde about.

Circunfunditur equitatus, the horsmen bee enclosed.

Circunfunditur mari, It is enuyronned with the sea.

Ne circunfundatur lac, That the mylke be not tourned.

Circunfusus, a, um, gathered about, as people whan they desyre to see a thyng. Sometime wrapped about lyke an adder or serpent.

Vide in Bibliotheca sedentem, multis libris circunfusum, Beholde him syttinge in the lybrarie, hauinge great multitude of bookes on euery syde aboute him.

Consul multitudine circunfusus est, The consul hath about hym a great numbze of men.

Circunfusus molestijs, wrapped in muche misery, heaped with many aduersities.

Circungelatus, a, um, all frozen; or frozen round about.

Circungembo, gemui, ere, to waple, to grone, to make a lamentable noyse, thus to a deate, or to a bull after he hath belowed.

Circungesto, aui, are, to cary about with one.

Circunglobo, circunglobas, to gather about a person or place in heaped or plumpes.

Circuniaceo, cuniaces, iacui, ere, to be waste aboute a place.

Circuniectus, us, m. g. a compassing or enuyronnyng about.

Circuniectus, a, um, that is cast or situate about.

Circuniectayrbiloca, places lying nere about the cite.

Circunq; cio, circunq; cis, iere, q; cere, to cast or throw about, to set or builde about.

Circunq; cere vallum, to cast a trench about a place.

Circunlambo, bi, ere, to lyke about.

Circunlatus, a, um, carped about.

Cirunligo, aui, are, to bynde, to, or wryppe aboute a thyng.

Circunlinio, circunlinis, liniui, ere, idem quod Circunlino.

Circunlinitio, or circunlinitio, onis, f. m. gen. bournyng, clensyng, or polisyng. Also nornyng.

Circunlino, circunlinis, linoi, lere, to annoynt aboute, or to laye a moyste thyng with the synger or other instrument softly.

Circunlinitus, nua, um, annoynted round about.

Circunlitis, a, um, annoynted about.

Circunluo, onis, f. g. the flowyng or enuyronnyng about of waters.

Circunluo, circunlui, ere, to washe or wete all aboute.

Circunrado, rasi, ere, to shawe or scrape aboute.

Circunretio, tui, ere, to snare, wryppe, or intangle, as it wete in a nette.

Circunretitus, a, um, intangled or wrypped in.

Circunrodo, osi, ere, to gnawe aboute.

Circunscalpo, psi, ere, to clawe, scratche, frotte, or rubbe about.

Circunscario, aui, are, to launce or cutte about.

Circunscindo, cunscidi, scindere, to cutte about.

Circunscribo, psi, ere, to wrytte or drawe aboute with a lyne: Also to deceiue one in bargaynyng with him, to lympte, appoynt, or determyne, to abolyse or put out of authoritee.

Fratrem circunscriptit in diuisione hereditatis, He deceyued his brother in partition of the inheritance. Also to gather, descriue throughe, or comprehend.

Cuius scientia, summam breuiter circunscribo, The effecte of whose lernyng, I wyll comprehend and descriue shortly.

Exiguum curriculum vitæ nobis circunscriptum natura, Nature hath appoynted to vs a shorte tyme to lyue in this worlde.

Circunscribere alicui locum habitandi, to lympte a place where one shall dwell.

Circun-

Circumscribere seipsum, to begyle him selfe.
Circumscribis his sententijs, these sentences being put out and abolished.
Circumscribere aliquos testes, to put awaie or refuse some witnesses, as hurtful or unprofitable.
Circumscribere Senatum, to take from the Senate the authoritie to determine of matters concerninge the common weale.
Parata de circumscribendo adolescente sententia, They had determined to depose the yong man from the authoritie of the empyre.
Circumscripte, briefely, shortly, in measure.
Circumscripte dicere, to speake in a certayne number and measure.
Circumscriptio, ónis, f. g. an abusynge or deceyvinge, a compassynge.
Circumscriptio orationis, a Perioche.
Circumscriptio terræ, the circuite or compasse of the earth.
Circumscriptio temporis, a certayne measure of tyme.
Aperta circumscriptione aliquid facere, to doe a thyng with manifest treumphe and deceite.
Circumscriptor, óris, ma. ge. a false felowe that begyleth one of his goodes, a deceyvaunt.
Circumsriptus, a, um, put out, rased, abolished also briefe, short, deceyved, abused.
Circumscripta oratio, a measurable oration.
Circumscripti syllogismi, briefe syllogismes.
Circumseco, circumsecas, secui, are, to cut round about.
Circumsecus, an aduerbe, on both sydes, rounde about.
Circumsedeo, circumsedes, sedí, ere, or Circumsideo, sedí, ere, to besiege.
Pompeium Brundisii circumsedere, They besieged Pompeium at Brundise.
Circumsépio, circumsépis, sépsi, ire, to hedge about, to enclose or compasse in.
Circumsero, cui, erere, to sowe or plant aboute a place.
Circumsessio, ónis, f. g. a besiegeynge.
Circumsessus, a, um, besieged.
Circunsido, cunsidis, sedí, ere, to besiege a citee.
Circunsident, qui assident virimq; alicui. vt, A quibus me circumsessum videtis, whom ye see sytting here about me.
Circumsigno, aui, are, to marke about.
Circumsisto, circumsistí, ere, to stand about one, to invade, assaile, or defende hym.
Circumsono, sonui, are, to make a sound or noyse about.
Circumspectatrix, icis, f. g. a woman that beholdeth about, or watcheth.
Circumspecte, wysely, aduysedly, with consyderation.
Circumspectio, ónis, f. g. idem quod circumspectientia.
Circumspecto, aui, are, to looke about earnestly, to looke hyther and thither.
Alius alium circumspectat, one looketh asyde on an other.

Circumspectare rem aliquam, to viewe and consider a thyng earnestly.
Circumspector, óris, ma. ge. one that looketh about on every thyng.
Circumspectus, us, ma. ge. a beholding, regarding, or looking round about.
Circumspectus, a, um, circumspecte, wysely, prudent. somtyme passively, consydered, regarded.
Verba non circumspecta, unabused wordes.
Circumspéro, spérí, ere, to cast about.
Circumspicientia, æ, f. g. circumspection.
Circumspiceo, cónspicis, xi, ere, to looke about, to viewe, consyder, and regarde diligently.
Prudentis est se circumspicere, It is a wyses mans parte to looke well about hym.
Magnifice se circumspicere, to esteeme and aduance ones selfe greatly.
Omnia circumspexit, he consydered and marked every thyng well.
Circumspicite omnes procillas, quæ imminent, Consyder you well all the stormes that are lyke to fall ere it be longe.
Circumspicere & prospicere, to consyder well and forsee.
Circumstantia, æ, f. g. the circumstance or qualitee that becomgeth to a thyng, as the tyme or place.
Circumstatio, ónis, a standynge rounde aboute a thyng.
Circumstipor, átus sum, ari, to bee under sette rounde about.
Circumsto, cónstiti, are, to stande about.
Circumstrepo, cónstrepis, strépui, ere, to make a noyse or dynne on every syde.
Circumstruo, strúxi, ere, to builde about.
Circumsúdo, áui, are, to swate or beemoyse rounde about.
Circumsuo, cónsui, ere, to sowe rounde about.
Circumtego, téxi, ere, to couer all about.
Circumtexo, téxui, ere, to weaue about.
Circumtextum, ti, neu. gen. a certayne garments wouen about with pourple.
Circumtóndeo, di, ere, to rounde.
Circumtono, tónui, are, to make a noyse or sowne on every syde.
Circumtónsus, a, um, founded.
Circumtremo, ui, ere, to tremble or shake rounde about.
Circumúdo, si, ere, to invade or set vpon on all partes.
Circumúasit urbem terror, All the citee was in a great feare.
Circumnuagus, a, um, that wandreth about.
Circumnuallatus, a, um, trenched about.
Circumuallo, aui, are, to trenche aboute.
Circumuectio, ónis, f. g. a carying about.
Circumuecto, áui, are, to cary about often.
Circumueho, uéxi, ere, to cary about oftentimes.
Circumuenio, ueni, ire, to deceiue or begyle, to compasse, to close in, as in warres, to oppresse.

Circunueniri iudicio, where iudges dooe condemne one by a confederacie, contrary to iustice and reason.
Fornore circunuentus, oppressed with vsury.
Vallo fossaque circunuenit moenia, he made of cast a trench and ditch about the walls.
Circunuenire hostem, to inclose his enemy.
Potentis alicuius opibus circunueniri vide-tur, he seemeth to bee oppressed, or to suffer wponge by the rycheffe of some great man.
Circunueniri per insidias, to bee deceyved by cautels or falsehode.
Circunuentus pecunia innocens, an innocent
persone put to wponge by reason of money.
Circunuerfor, arus sum, ari, to go about hyther and thither.
Circunuerfo, uerti, ere, to tourne aboute.
Argento aliquem circunuertere, to deceiue
one of his money.
Circunuestio, stui, ire, to clothe or couer about.
Circunuiacio, uinxi, ire, to bynde aboute.
Circunuiso, si, ere, to see on euery syde.
Circunulito, aui, are, to flee aboute, to be often about a place.
Circunuolo, aui, are, to flee about.
Circunulao, ui, ere, to rolle, folde, or tums-ble rounde about.
Circunulato, utus sum, ati, to bee tumbled
about.
Circuo, fui, ire, to go about.
Circus, i, m. g. a rundell or circle. It was a place in Rome walled about, wherein was fygthynge with the fykes, and rennyng with hoxles. About it were sundrye galleries, where the senators and gentylmen behelde the pastyme. The playes used there, were called Circenses ludi, as it were among swoozdes, for as muche as befoze there were any suche places made, as Circus was, the homely antiquitee vled those games in the open feilde, enuironned with ryuers and swoozdes, the poyntes bpwarde, that on euerye parte a cowarde was in daunger.
Ciris, ris, f. g. a larke, and the name of Scylla,
the daughter of kynge Atis.
Cirnea, x, f. g. a bolle to dypke wyne in.
Cirratus, a, um, he that hath his heares brayded or curled.
Cirrha, a citee of Phocis.
Cirrhaeus, the surname of Apollo, so named after that citee.
Cirrus, us, mas. gen. the heare of ones head, or feathers that dooe growe on the top of a byrdes head, as a larke or hearon. Also a lyke thyng growyng on therbes, whiche maie be clipped of.
Also thynges lyke heares about oysters.
Circeum, cei, neu. ge. called also Spina mollis, and Buglossum magnum, in englishe longe de beise.
Circocle, is a lousynge or pullynge out of theye places of those vesselles, whiche dooe nouryshe the bones of a man, a gatherynge of all humours in a bagge.

Cirsa, x, f. g. Diole. vled it for Varix.
Cirros, si, m. g. a distale in the coddes.
Cirta, a citee of Numidia.
Cirtacus, ci, m. g. a kynde of baulme.
Cirtiscus, a famous ryuer of Scythia.
Cis, a wooyne amonge cozne, whiche I suppose to be called weuils. also it signifieth on this syde, as,
Cis Rhenum, on this syde the ryuer of Rhine.
Cis alpes, on this syde the mountaynes, called Alpes. sometyme it signifieth lasse.
Cis natura leges, lasse than the lawe of nature maie suffer. Saluste vled it ones for beyonde.
Cis Rhenum, atque intra mare nostrum & oceanum, beyonde the ryuer of Rhine, and within our sea and the ocean sea.
Cis paucos dies, within fewe daies.
Cis vndiq, in all places about.
Cisalpine Gallia, was sometyme that countrey, whiche is from the mountaynes Alpes, vnto the ryuer of Rubicon, now called Lombardy.
Cisamus, a citee of Candie, called now Iphitisa.
Cisapinnina, a part of Italy.
Cisiantli, a pcepte of Scythia.
Cisium, ij, n. g. a cart with two wheles.
Cisarius, rij, m. g. a cartter.
Cisilites, a kynde of wyne growynge in Galatia, haupng the taste of new must.
Cispello, puli, ere, to hepe one out, that he come not into an house.
Cispius, a mountayne in Rome.
Cissa, a ryuer in Pontus, called Quisa.
Cissamethos, thi, f. g. the herbe Helxine. Diole.
Cissanthemos, mi, f. g. an herbe, whiche the aspothecaries doe call Sigillum marie.
Cissaron, idem quod Hedera.
Cisseus, a kynde of Chyace, father of Hecuba, queene of Troie.
Cissires, tis, m. g. a pperious stone, lyke an puyleste, byght of colour.
Cissos, ci, m. g. a kinde of puy that groweth alone without stay.
Cissybium, bij, neut. gene. a cuppe or boll made of puy.
Cista, x, f. g. a chesse, coffer, or baskette.
Cistella, x, f. g. a diminutiue of cistula.
Cistella suffragiorum, a lytell casket or like thing, wherein the suffrages of men were gathered in grauntynge offices, or makynge lawes.
Cistellatrix, trici, f. g. a woman seruaunt, that carieth his maistresse casket or forcet.
Cistellula, x, f. g. a diminutiue of Cistella, a little casket or forcet.
Cistena, a citee of Colis.
Cisterna, x, f. g. a cesterne.
Cisterninus, a, um, of a cesterne.
Cisthus, an herbe lyke thyme, but somewhat bygger. Other wyte, that it hath moze resemblance of sage, and therefore is called Cistfage.
Cisthus ladanifera, an herbe, it hath smaller leaues than the other Cisthus, it is called Ladonrub.
Cistifer,

Cistifer, a, um, that beareth a casket or coffer.
Cistophorus, ri, m. g. a certayne auncient coppe, wherein was a man, hauing a panter on his head, of the whiche . 7000 . and . 500 . were in the talente called Talentum Euboicum. This woulde be sette for Costrophinari, in the xviii. booke of the digestes. Tir. depositi. L. publica.
Cistula, x, f. g. a casket or boudgette, to carpe whan one rydeth or goeth.
Citinos, one of the yles called Cyclades.
Citani, people of Sicilie.
Citarista, a promontorie of Raybon.
Citacim, quickly, swiftly.
Citatus, a, um, called, summoned, or cited, swift, quick, streynge.
Citato gradu, with quicke speede.
Citatus arteriarum pulsus, the cheate beating of the pulse.
Rhenus citatus fertur, The ryuer Rhene renneth swiftly.
Citeria, x, f. g. an ymage or picture that coulde speake, whiche for spote was carped about in common lightes.
Citerior, citarius, neerer.
Citerior Gallia, Lombardy.
Dies citerior, for proximior.
Cithare dicus, a, um, of an harper.
Citharon, onis, kynge of Platea, in Grece, who aduoyed Jupiter (whan Juno in an anger was gone from him into Boetia) to make an ymage of woodde, and cladder richely in the apparell of a byrde, to be set in a chariotte, and to publyshe amonge the people, that Jupiter was dectemphed to marry Platea, the daughter of Ilos pus. As this ymage was solemnely carped, Juno inflamed with Ielose, met the chariot, and entering therinto, dyd rent the clothes and apparell aboute the ymage, and syndyng an ymage of tree, and no byrde, deyled at the inuencion, wherewith she was beggled. And tournynge hir anger into laughtynge, was foot with reconciled to Jupiter.
Citharon, is also an hyll in Chetialy, dedicated to Bacchus.
Cithara, x, f. g. an harpe, sometyme it is taken for musyke or harmony.
Citharis, a cappe of ornament, that byshops of the gentiles used to weare.
Citharista, x, m. g. he whiche onely plaiceth on an harpe, and syngeth not. It is also an angle of Fraunce by Mareple, lyng out into the sea.
Citharistria, x, f. g. a woman harper.
Citharizo, auj, are, to harpe.
Citharcedus, i, m. g. an harper, whiche syngeth to his harpe.
Citimus, a, um, the last, the next vnto vs.
Citissime, as soone as is possible.
Citium, a towne of Epyres.
Citius, sooner.
Citius dicto, sooner then one maye speake it.
Cito, soone, shortly, quickly, ere it be longe.

Cito, iam ego vos assequar, So quickly, I wyll ouer take you by and by.
Non cito dixerim, I can not well say.
Cito, auj, are, to cite, to summon, or calle. also to name. sometyme to spur or gallop footy an horse.
Citare testes, to byng in wytnesse, to teyple or name.
Citare in curiam ad regem, to summon to appeare in the court before the kynge.
Citare Senatum, to calle a parliament.
Citare iudices, to call the iudges together.
Citare reum, to summon or call for a persone accused.
Citare per nomina, to call by name.
Citare authores, to recite or name authours.
Citare equum, to spurre an horse, and gallop footy.
Citare palmitem, aut radices, dicuntur arbores, to put forth leaues, to take roote.
Medicamentum, quod humorem illuc citat, The medicine, whiche causeth the humour to gather to that place.
Citare aliquem ad aliquid faciendum, to strete by one to doe.
Citare urinam, to prouoke vryne.
Citare gradum, to goe a pace.
Citacatium, ri, hen, g. an herbe in Dioke, called Chamalea.
Citorus, a mountayne, where groweth plentie of bore trees.
Citra, on this syde. sometyme without. sometyme for Extra.
Citra leuadem, on this syde. Leucades.
Citra adulationem, without flattery.
Constitit adueniens citra lumenq; foresq; & tantum celo tegitur, whan she came, she stode still without the doore, and had nothyng ouer hir head but the skie.
Citra pulueris tactum, without any duste: A prouerbe applied vnto them, whiche come to a thyng without any labour.
Citra fastidium, without lothsomenesse.
Citrage, ius, f. g. an herbe, commonly called balm: Of the apothecaries Melyssa. After Busellius and Carolus Stephanus, the herbe Apis astrum is so called.
Citreum, trei, n. g. an orange.
Citreus, a, um, the adiectiue.
Citrea malus, an orange tree.
Citrinus, a, um, of orange colour or lyke golde.
Citromela, idem quod malus Medica.
Citrum, i, neu, gen. a fruite called pome citron. Also the woodde Citrus, wherof tables were made.
Cirus, ri, f. g. an other maner of tree growynge in mounte Atlas, whercof in the olde tyme were made sayre tables, and coffers, as nowe bene of cypresse. also an orange tree.
Citra, a ppe, of the whiche be . ii. kyndes, our common ppe, and that we called a Jape.

C ANTE I.

Citta, is also the affection of longynge in women with childe.
Cittosus, a, um, is in vines, when the grapes fall from the clusters, and so be destroyed.
Cittium, a towne of Appeste.
Citus, a, um, quicke hasty, swifte. Sometime divided or parted.
Cita aliud, a louse bealy.
Aluo cita est, he hath a laske.
Ciues, dwellers in one citee, or subiectes in one common weale.
Ciuicus, a, um, is the same that ciuilis is.
Ciuica corona, a garland of oken leaues, vnto be geuen to him, that had saued a citisen in battayle.
Ciuilis, le, that perteyneth to a citeline.
Ciuilis homo, a man expert in those thynges, that apperteyne to the ministracion of the common weale.
Ciuilitas, âtis, f. g. curtesye, ciuillitee, gentynesse, good humanitee.
Ciuiliter, like a citeline, also curtesly, or with good maner, after a ciuile facion.
Ciuis, is, com. g. a citisen, or one of the same countrey.
Ciuis meus, my countrey man, of the same citee that I am of.
Ciuis, & peregrinus, contrary.
Ciuitas, âtis, f. g. a citee, properly it is the multitude of citisens gathered together, to lyue accordyng to law and ryght.
Ciuitatem administrare, to gouerne a citee.
De ciuitate eicere, to cast out of the citee.
Ciuitatem adimere alicui, to take from one the freedom and ryght of the citee, to disfraunchise one.
Ciuitatem amittere, to lose the lybertee and fraunchise of the citee.
Ascribere in ciuitatem, & ciuitati, to admytte one to the fraunchises and libertees of the citee, to make one free of the citee.
Consequi ciuitatem beneficio alicuius, to get the freedom of the citee by some mans benefite.
Cius, a ryuer in Thyrace, also a citee of the same name.
Cizicus, a citee in Asia the lesse.

C ANTE L.

Clabula, looke Clauola.
Clades, dis, f. g. a discomfytur in battayle, a destruction of men, losse, great myery and misfortune.
Lybia clades, the ruine or destruction of Libya.
Cladem accipere, to haue a great ouerthrow.
Claron, a ryuer in Thyracia.
Clam, priuily, vnwares, by stealth.
Is amare occipit Alcumenam, clam viro, he began to loue Alcumena vnwares to his husbande.

C ANTE L.

Clam alter alterum, the one not knowynge of the other.
Clam me profectus est, vnwares to me, he went his waies.
Clam me, clam te, I of thou not knowynge.
Clam omnes, vnwares to every man, no man knowynge or wyttynge.
Non clam me est, I know it well enough.
Non clam me haberet, he woulde not hyde it or kepe it close frome me.
Clam vos sunt facinora eius, you know not his naughtie actes. His vngacious deedes are vnknewen to you.
Clam, an aduerbe.
Ilac per ortum circuit clam, he went aboute that wate by the gardeyne priuily.
Si sperat fore clam, if he hope that it maie bee vnknewen.
Clamito, ani, are, to cry often, to cry out in complaynyng or repchendyng.
Clamitare, for pre se ferre, as,
Supercilia illa clamitare calliditatem videntur, Those browes seme manifestlye to signifye and note a crafty wylinesse to be in the man.
Clamitor, ôris, m. g. a crier, or one that speaketh ouer lowde.
Clamitorius, a, um, that perteyneth to cryng lowde.
Clamo, aui, are, to crie, to call.
Clamat veritas, trueth saith playnly.
Mihi quidem non placent, & clamo sape, Truly these thynges please not me, And I cry and complayne oftentymes.
Clamare aliquem nomine, to cal one by his name.
Clamata refugit, called vnto.
Clamor, ôris, m. g. a crye or clamour, a noyse, or thoute.
Cæcus clamor, a confuse crye or thoute, where some crye thyll, some great, some loude, some softe.
Fatiscere clamore, to crie that he panteth, and is wey agayne.
Immensum clamorem tollere, to make an exceeding thoute or noyse.
Clamosus, a, um, clamorous or full of noyse.
Clampetia, a place in Italy.
Clancularius, a, um, secreete, vnknewen.
Clancularius poeta, a poete that sheweth not his name in his wytynges.
Clanculum, secreetely.
Clanculum dicta, thynges spoken in secreete.
Clandestino, priuily or secreetely.
Clandestinus, a, um, priuy or secreete.
Clandestina colloquia, priuy communication.
Clanga, idem quod planga.
Clango, xi, ère, to sowne a trumpette, also to cry lyke an egle.
Clangor, ôris, ma. ge. the sowne of a trumpette sometime the crye that geese or other lyke byrdes dooe make.
Clanius, a ryuer of Campayne, neere to the citee Accras.

Acceas.

Clare, clearly, apparantly, manifestly.

Clare audire, to here perfectly.

Clare videre, to see cleerly.

Clareo, ul, ere, to appere, to be well knownen, to bee cleere, to bee renoumed, to be notable and famous.

Ad primordia aetatis clarent, at the beegynnyng of sommer they appere.

Claret, it is manifest, it appereth.

Claresco, idem quod clareo.

Clarescit dies, the daie is layre and cleere.

Clarifico, aui, are, to make cleere and apparant.

Clarigatio, onis, f. g. a cleerynge, a subydie or taske graunted by a common consent. A denouncyng of warre: also an authoritee geuen a man to take one prysoner, and to ransome him.

Clarigo, aui, are, to demaunde a thyng with a loude voyce. It was properly a woorde perteynyng to the hynges of armes of the Romaynes, called Paterpattratus, whan he went to the borders or marches of them, whiche had doone iniurie to the Romaynes, and there, with a loude and clere voice, demaunded amendes, and otherwise he denounced and proclaimed warre against them. So that Clarigo, dooeth synnyfie to denounce.

Clarifonus, a, um, that maketh a cleere towne.

Claritas, atis, f. g. clerenesse. Sometyme nobilitie or honour, famousnesse.

Claritas visus, clerenesse of syght.

Claritas vocis, clerenesse of voyce.

Claritas & amplitudo, honoz and noblenesse.

Excellere claritate nascendi, to excell in noblesnesse of byth.

Clarix, people of Thrace.

Claritudo, inis, f. g. idem quod claritas: Also byrte, renoume.

Clarium, a towne in Grecia, where Apollo was honoured, and thereof called Clarius. There was an hole in the grounde, out of whiche ranne a lytle brooke, whereof he that dranke, gaue meruaylouse aunsweres, but he lyued not longe after.

Claro, aui, are, to make noble or honozable, to make notable or knowen.

Claros, a citie in Greece, where was an oracle of Apollo.

Clarus, a, um, cleere, loude, honozable, famous, renoumed.

Clara pugna, a battayle woorthy memozy.

Clarus clamor, clara vox, a loude cry, a loude or myll voyce.

Clara res, a playne mattier.

Clarus genere, of a noble or honozable house.

Clara dies, a layre cleere daie.

Vir clarissimus, a very honourable and noble gentyll man.

Sole clariora, thynges as manifest as maie bee possible.

Clarus, ri, m. g. a ryuer, whiche renneth from the mountaynes Alpes into the ryuer Danubium.

Classarius, i, m. g. a man of warre on the sea.

Also a dyligent persone, a ready felowe.

Classici, they whiche in a towne, were most ryche and substantiall. Also after some, the rowers in myppes of warre. Also the chiefe souldiours.

Classici be they also, whiche at the commaundement of the maiestates, did call together the people by sounde of trumpet, to any assemble or conuocation.

Classici authores, wyrters of most estimation.

Classici testes, wytnesses haupnge mooste substance, and estimation.

Classicula, lae, f. g. a diminutive of classis.

Classicum, i, n. g. a peale or noyse of trumpettes or belles, to call men together, or to goe to battayle. Sometyme a trumpet.

Classica nunquam sonant, The trumpettes neuer sowne.

Classico aduocare ad concionem, to cal to an assemble or conuocation by the sowne of a trumpet.

Classicum canere, to styre dissension and debate, looke Cano.

Classicus, ci, m. g. an officer, whiche with a trumpet or taboure called people together. Sometime a man beyng in reputacion.

Classicus, a, um, perteynyng to a myppe, or nauy of myppes.

Classica bella, watre on the sea.

Classis, sis, f. g. a nauy of myppes. Sometyme one myppe. It is also an order of fourmes or scooles sette in a place, where men dooe lyte accordyng to their degrees, authoritees, promotions in cunnyng or substance. The people of Rome were dyuided by Seruius Tullius, the vi. king of Romaynes, into v. bandes, whiche were called Classes. And they of the v. bande were of no value. The thre places of iudges in westminster hall maie be called Classes. Sometyme Classis, is a company of horsmen.

Appellere classem, to arryue with an nauy of myppes.

Aedificare classes, to make myppes.

Qui classi praeerat, whiche was maister, admiral, or capitayne of the myppe.

Armare classem, to furnishe a nauy of myppes with ordinaunce.

Conscendere classem, to take shippynge.

Comparare classem, to prepare a nauy of myppes. Ducere classem, to gouerne a nauy of myppes.

Impellere remis classem, to rowe the myppes by force of oyes.

Instruere & ornare classem, to decke or furnishe a nauy with all abillmentes and takelynge.

Molire classem, to prepare a nauy.

Nauigare classis, the nauy sayleth forth.

Subducere classem, to bynge the myppes to lande:

Deducere classem, to take the sea.
 Renouare classem, to repayre a nauy.
 Stant classes, the shippes lye at Rode.
 Primæ classis homo, one of the chiefest persons.
 Distribuere in classes pueros, to diuylde chylderne into certayne fourmes.
 Claterna, a citee in Italy.
 Clathrum, i, n. g. in plu. hi clathri, & hæc cla-thra, or Clathrus, i, m. g. a lattise wyndowe, or any thing made lyke a lattise, or with barres called a grate. It is vsed of Horace for an harrow, because it is made after that facion. Some doe wyte it Clarrum, without an aspiration.
 Clatratus, a, um, of lattise, lattised.
 Clatro, aui, are, to shutte a wyndowe, specially a lattise windowe: To close with lattise grates, or treyles.
 Claua, æ, f. g. a clubbe.
 Clauam extorquere Herculi, To take from Hercules his clubbe: A prouerbe, applied to him, that goeth about to gette a thynge, that an other man hath, muche stronger than him selfe.
 Clauarius, rij, an officer appoynted to deale the emperours gyft of money or coyne amonge the souldiours.
 Clauator, oris, m. g. he that vseth a clubbe.
 Clauatus, a, um, sette with nayles or stubbes.
 Clauata vestis, a garment sette with spangles lyke the heades of nayles, as we see in some ves-timentes in churches wrought in bjaunches and flowers. And if the garment were wyde, it was called Larus clauus, whiche in Rome no man
 myght weare, except he were a Senatour.
 Claudia, a gentyll woman of Rome, whiche for hir curiouse apparayle, was infamed to be vnchaste. But whan the Image of Idea, called mother of the goddes, was brought out of Phry-gia to Rome, in a barge by the ryuer of Tiber, it hapned to sticke so fast in a Malow place, that it mought not be remoued with any force. This mayden, knelynge downe, desyred the goddesse, that as she breynge a cleane byrgyn and falselye sleaunded, the sayde ymage woulde wilsafe to folowe hir to the citee. And than, she onely tynge hir gyrdell to the barge, casly drew it to the lande, whiche all the youth of the citee were not able to dooe.
 Claudia, is also a towne of Norice, called Clausdium.
 Claudianus, a famous poete.
 Claudicatio, onis, f. g. haltinge.
 Claudico, aui, are, to halt, and by a metaphoze to fayle or lacke, to be saynt or vnperfecte.
 Claudicare in aliquo officio, to be neglygente in doyng a mans duetie, or not to doe ones full duetie in any parte of honest behauiour.
 Ex aliqua parte claudicare, to be vnperfecte on some parte.
 Claudicat ingenium, the wytte fayleth, or is not perfecte.

Oratio claudicat, the oracion kepeth not one luste tenour or fourme.
 Claudicat res publica, the common weale is in an vnperfecte state.
 Claudiopolis, a citee of Cappadocia.
 Claudicus, artis, f. g. idem quod claudicatio.
 Claudiuium, a citee in Roze, called commonly Closternewburge.
 Claudius, the propre name of diuers Romaynes:
 and also the surname of a noble family in Rome, whiche were euer repugnaunt to the actes of the common people.
 Claudio, si, ere, to shutte, to compass, to put of,
 to halte. also to ende, to synne the or adde a conclusion to a thynge.
 Claudite Nymphæ Dictæ, nymphæ nemosrum, iam claudite saltus, Close about, ye nymphes of the mountayne Dicte, ladies of the for-restes, close in your wooddes.
 Nuncubi meam benignitatem sensisti in te claudier? Did you euer perceiue, that my lyberaltee was slacke toward you? or, that I vs-ed not my selfe liberally toward you?
 Claudere & refecare, contrary.
 Claudere aditus, to stoppe or close by the plasces, where men shoulde enter. Likewise, Claudere exitum, transitum, viam.
 Opus aliquod claudere, to ende a woork.
 Bella claudere, to synne the warres.
 Epistolam claudere, to ende or adde the conclusion to a letter.
 Claudere sanguinem, to staunche bloude.
 A mari clauderetur, It was compassed about with the sea.
 Pudor meus illius consuetudinem mihi clau-sit, My shamesfastnesse woulde not suffer me to vse his familiar company.
 Claudere aures, to stoppe ones eares.
 Nolo tibi vllum commodum in me claudier,
 I woulde not that any commoditee of yours
 shoulde be hyndred by me.
 Clausum ad huc mare fuisse scio, Hitherto I know the passage of the sea hath ben stopped.
 Clausa habere sua consilia, to haue his coun-sayles kepthe secrete.
 Claudus, a, um, lame.
 Claua fides, feeble credence.
 Clauena, the duchie of Cleues.
 Clauicula, æ, f. g. a little knie or clubbe. Also the tendrell of a byre. also the canell bone of the throte.
 Clauicularius, a, um, that beareth keyes.
 Clauiculus, li, m. g. the diminutiue of clauus.
 Clauiger, idem quod clauicularius. also one,
 that carryeth a clubbe.
 Clauis, uis, f. g. a keye.
 Sub clauis esse, to bee shutte by vnder locke and key.
 Clauola, æ, f. g. a greasse.
 Claustrarius, rij, a maker of keyes and lockes.
 Claustrinus, ni, m. g. a keyer of a cloyster, or other
 place

place, wherewith any lypynge thyng is inclosed.
Claustrum, i, n. g. a cloyster or other place, where any lypynge thyng is inclosed, or that is compassed with walles, rayles, barres, or any lyke thyng.
Claustrum, may be vsed for the flappe, leafe, or casement of a wyndow.
Regni alicuius claustra, The kepe of any kyngedome.
Natura claustra confringere, to open the secretes of Nature.
Ferrea claustra, barres of Iron sette a crosse to kepe a thyng strongly, or grates of Iron.
Claustrum, si, neu. gen. an house or place, where a thyng is kepte close.
Clauus, a, um, shutte vp, closed, kept in, (imprisoned).
Claufula, x, f. g. a little sentence, or a parte of a sentence, the conclusion or ende of an epistle or other matter, a clause, a periode.
Claustra, x, f. g. a shutting in.
Clauulus, li, mal. gen. a diminutue of clauus, a lytle nayle.
Clauus, i, m. g. a nayle, the sterne of a shyppe, a corne on a mans toe or fonger. Moreover, Clauus be littell swellynge of harde fleshe in the corner of the eies. Also a certayne swelling or soze, called of some Furunculus, or Bubo. also puffes growynge in the stemmes of great trees. In harneys it is called the ryuette. also Clauus were certayne tables sette on the walles of the temple, to knowe the numbres of yeres. Moreover Clauus is a garment, pyled or poudred with rounde knappes of purple lyke nayles heades. wherefore the propre garment of a Senator was called Latus clauus.
Clauus caligares, nayles that were dyuen into souldiours buskins or sterups.
Clauus capitatus, a nayle with a heade.
Clauus ligneus, a pynne made of woodde.
Figere clauum, to strike in a pynne or nayle.
Also idem quod pangere clauum.
Clauus xeneus, a brason nayle, A prouerbe signifying a sure remedy agaynst all myshappes, whiche Selius sayeth, proceeded of this supersticion. In olde tyme, whan hunters had ouerthrowen a wyld swyne or harte in places farre from habitation, they dyaue into the beaste a brason nayle, beluyng that thereby the flesch shoulde be kepte from putrefaction.
Clauum clauo pellere, to dyue out one nayle with an other: A prouerbe, signifying one yll to put out an other, one labour an other, one greife an other, one deceyte an other, extreme pleasure with extreme payne.
Pangere clauum, to sette vp the table, wherein the number of yeres was noted.
Clauum imperij tenere, to haue the gouernance and rule of the common weale.
Dum clauum rectum teneam, so that I doe my durtie as I shoulde doe.

Clazomena, a citee of Ionia, whiche Paralus builded, called before Gerynia.
Clazomenia, an plande, whiche is called Martus.
Cleantes, the name of the noble philosopher, whiche was so poore, that in the nyghte tyme he gatte his lypynge by carryng of water, and in the daye studied philosophie. He succeeded Zeno in his scholl.
Clearchus, the name of a philosopher. There was a noble capytayne of the same name, of whom Xenophon wyrteth in the expedition of Cyrus the lesse: he wrote those thynges, whiche he learned of Zeno, in ore bones, and tyle Martus, for lacke of money to bye papet.
Clematis, or after some Clematis, tidis, for. g. called also Chamedaphnis, an herbe, wherof be two kyndes, the one Peruinca, in englyshe perwinke: the other Volubilis maior. there is an other Clematis, whiche Ruellius getteth to be withwyne, but his iudgement doeth not please some leaened men of our tyme.
Clema, idem quod Pityusa. Diosc. li. 4.
Clematis, idem quod Tithymalus. Theoph.
Clemens, entis, om. g. gentill, humayne, patient, not lightly angry, easie, quiete, soft, mercyfull.
Clemens castigatio, a gentill and moderate correction.
Annis clementissimus, a yuete that renneth not ouer swiftly, but is veray quiete and styll.
Clemens seruitus, an easie bondage, wherein a man is gentilly intreated.
Clementi animo ignoscere, to forgiue with a gentyl and mercyfull mynde.
Clementer, mercifully, gentilly, without anger, with temperatnesse and moderacion.
Clementer tractare, to intreate gentilly or sweetely.
Clementer volo, I am well content.
Clementer audire, to here gently and patiently.
Clementer ambulare, to walke softly.
Clementia, x, for. g. mercy. Sometyme patientie, clementie, temperatnesse.
Clementia xstatis, the temperatnesse of somer, not excedynge in heate.
Clementia hyemis, the quietnesse of wynter without great stormes or colde.
Confugere ad clementiam alicuius, to flee or appeale to a mans mercy or gentylnesse.
Clementia & lenitas.
Clementia, mansuetudo, & humanitas.
Clena, nx, f. g. a cloke.
Cleobis, and Biron, the sonnes of Aegta, whiche drew theyr mother to the temple in a wayne.
Cleobulus, one of the seven sages of Grece, whose daughter called Cleobulina, was an excellent poete, and made a booke of ryddelles, conteyned in thre thousande verses.
Cleodamas, the name of a Geometrician in the tyme of Plato, and of an other of Chesaly, whiche wrote of horshypynge.

Cleombrotus, the sonne of Pausanias, capitayne of the lacedemonians. Also a yonge man whiche after he had redde Platos woordes, conceivede suche an hope of immortalitee of the soule, that he lepte into the sea, not withstandyng he had no misfortune in all his lyfe.

Cleomedes, a wrestler of exceeding strength and greatnesse of body, who keepyng putte besyde the pyrie at the games of Olimpus, fel madde.

Cleomenes, a capytayne of the Lacedemonians, and a rycottous persone, in the tyme of Licerio and Terres.

Cleon, a capytayne of the Atheniens, ennemie to Alcibiades: also a poete and oratoure of the same name.

Cleonæ, arum, plu. & Cleone, sing, a towne in Grece, betwene Argos and Corynthe, where Hercules slewe a Lyon.

Cleonæus, a, um, of Cleonæ.

Cleopatra, the name of dyvers great ladies, specially quenes of Egypte. Of whom one excellyng in pleasantnesse and sharpnesse of wit, first allured unto hir Julius Cesar, afterwarde Marcus Antonius, companion in the empyre with Augustus, whom she brought into suche dotage, that in folowynge hir appetyte, he aspyred unto the whole empyre: wherfore he was afterwarde destroyed by Augustus. This woman so exceded in sumptuous gluttony, that she puttyng an excellent perle into tarte vyneger (wherin beyng resolved) receyved it into hir body, beyng esteemed at Centies Hs, whiche is of our moneye, 70000. li. This lady after the death of Antonie, inclosed hir selfe in a tumber, and haupnge two serpentes suckyng at hir pappes, so dyed.

Cleopatra, a capytayne of Corynthe.

Cleophrantus, a famous physician. also a counnyng prince of Corynthe.

Cleophon, a tragicall poete of Athens.

Cleostratus, an auncient philosopher, which was the first that wrote of the celestiaall figures.

Clepo, phi, ere, to steale.

Rapere & clepere, to robbe and steale.

Clepsydra, a, fæ. ge. a dyall, whiche divided the houres by the rennyng of a certayne measure of water. much lyke to an houre glasse. It maie be vled for a pottle to water a gardeyne with. It was also the name of a fountayne in Athens.

Cleromantia, tia, f. g. southsayng by lottes.

Cleronomia, a, f. g. heretage.

Cleronomus, mi, m. g. an heyre.

Clærus, cleri, m. ge. circumflexa prima syllaba, fortune, chaunce, lotte. It is taken for a certayne measure of lande. Also a worne, whiche destroyeth and hurteth hony combes.

Clerus, acuto in fine, one that is chosen by lot, a deacon.

Clibanarius, rij, m, g. he that fighteth in tustyngharnes.

Clibanitus, a, um, baken or sodden in an oven or fornyng.

Clibanus, i. m, ge. an oven or fornyng.

Clibodion, idem quod Helxine. Diost.

Cliduchus, chi, m. g. idem quod clauiger.

Clients, entis, ma. ge. is he, that belongeth or retyeneth to some man in authoritie, to have his defence and assistance in hony causes. It is also he, which hath retayned a lawyer to susteyne his matter, called a client.

Clienta, a, f. g. a woman client.

Commendare se in clientela alicuius, to be retyened, or to committe ones selfe to be under the protection of some great man.

Clientela, a, f. g. the multitude of clientes, or of seruantes retyened. Sometyme safeguard or protection of a great man.

Clientellaris, re, of a client.

Clientellaris officij sponsio, The homage that the clientes make to thei retyendours.

Clientularium, rij, n. g. an peryle like, for counsaile or assistance.

Clima, âtis, n. g. is a portion of the worlde betwene southe and north, wherein is variation of tyme in the lengthe of the daie, the spate of halfe an howre, whiche is sette out in the tables and chartes of cosmographie.

Climacter, eris, mas. gen. the round or key of a ladder.

Climactera, re, fæ. gen. the peryllous tyme of a mans lyfe, at euery. vii. peres ende, or after other at the. 63. peres ende, at whiche tyme he is in daunger of some greate misfortune and peryll, either in body or mynde.

Climactericus, a, um, of or pertynyng to the peryllous tyme of a mans lyfe at euery. vii. peres ende.

Climactericum tempus, the sayed dangerous tyme.

Climox, âcis, fæ. g. a ladder, and the figure called Gradicion, also the name of an hill.

Climenos, an herbe, whiche beyng vled in medicine, cureth the disease, but it engendreth barrenesse.

Clinamen, inis, n. g. a declynyng or bowyng.

Cline, es, f. g. a bedde or a table.

Clingo, gere, olde wyrters vled for Cingere, to gyrd.

Clinias, a certayne philosopher of Pythagoras sect. also a musician.

Clinice, es, f. g. the art of physike that healeth by diete and medicines.

Clinicus, ci, m. g. a physician, that healeth with medicines, or that cometh to a mans bed to vyte hym. Also he that is so sicke, that he can not aryse out of his bedde, beddyed.

Clinidium, dij, n. g. a lytle bedde.

Clino, aui, are, to bende or incline, out of vble.

Clinopale, wastlyng in the bedde. also immoderate vble of lecherie.

Clinopodium, the herbe, whiche is called Puliole mountayne, other name it horse tyme, because it is like great tyme, it groweth about Oxford.

Clio,

Clio, the name of one of the muses.
 Clipea, a towne in the lesse Afrike, called also Clupea, and Clypea, commonly Quipia.
 Clisis, sis, f. g. declination.
 Clitarchus, an historiographer, that was with great Alexander, and wrote his actes.
 Clitellæ, arum, f. g. plu. a packe saddle, also the name of a place in Rome.
 Clitellæ boui impostæ sunt, a packe saddle on a cowe, a prouerbe, notynge a man as vnmete for an office, rourne, or dignitee, as a cowe to beare a saddle.
 Clitellarij, orum, packe hoxses of mules that doe serue for cariage.
 Clitellarius, a, um, that beareth a packe saddle.
 Cliterini, orum, m. g. the cullpons or stones of a man.
 Cliternia, a towne in Italy, by the mountayne Garganus, called commonly Celano.
 Clitomachus, a philosopher, also a notable wastler, whiche was so chaste, that if he hearde in company any filthy worde spoken, he woulde forthwith rise from the table and departe.
 Clitorium, dicitur muliebri pudendum, quod etiam Sacandrus nominatur.
 Clitoris, or Clitorium, a citee of Ieradie, by the whiche is a denne, out of the whiche springeth a water, of the whiche who so drinketh, doeth este after hate wyne.
 Clitumnus, ni, a ryuer in Italy, of whiche it beastes dypnke, the yonge that they byynge forth are whyte.
 Cliuia, all thynges harde to bee brought to passe. Also southsaynge, forbiddynge a thing to be dooen.
 Cliuina, x, f. g. a hyde, whiche in southsaynge gaue sygne, that a thyng shoulde not be dooen.
 Cliuius, a, um, steepe. difficile, harde.
 Cliuofus, a, um, pitchynge downe, or steepe downe.
 Cliulus, a diminutiue of Cliuius.
 Clius, i, ma. gen. or Clium, i, n. ge. the pitche of an hyll, a downe hyll. Sometime the syde of an hyll. Sometime a lytle hyll, wheron is some thyng buylded.
 Sudamus in vno cliuo, Prouerbialiter, Let vs labour in one busynesse.
 Cloaca, x, f. g. a synke or gutter, wherby water and all filthy thyng passeth. And by a metaphoze the bealy of a glutton or riotous person.
 Cloacalis, le, of a synke.
 Cloacare, to defile or polute.
 Cloacarium, scatte in a towne for clenlynge of common draughtes, or sinkes.
 Cloanthus, the companion of Encas.
 Clodia, a noble woman of Rome.
 Clodicare, was vsed of olde wyters for Claudicare.
 Clodij forum, a towne in Italy.
 Clodius, a name of dyuers Romaynes, whereof two by theyr ylle actes gatte speciall reynem;

draunee: One was sonne to Clopas, the playe in tragedies, vnto whome his father left mee: uapulous great ryche, whiche he shortly consumed in banquetyng, wherin he was sumptuous, that vnto them, which supped with him, he wold geue perles of great value, relented in vineger to eat. An other Clodius, of a noble house of the Romayns so hated Cullpe, for bearynge wytnesse agaynst him, whan he was accused for comitting adulterie with Pompeia, the wyfe of Julius Cesar, that afterwarde, being Tribune of the people, he neuer ceased to styre the people agaynst Cullpe, vntill he compelled hym to go into exile.
 Clodo, for Claudio.
 Clodia, a mayden of Rome, whiche beynge in hoastage with other, to the kynge Dozenna, deceyued hir keepers, and swamme ouer the ryuer Tyber to the citee.
 Clonius, a captayne of the Scythians, whiche came to ayde the Trojans.
 Clorion, looke Clorion.
 Cloris, a mayden of Smyrna, whiche was married to Zephrus, vnto whome was assigned for her dowrie, to haue rule ouer floures.
 Clostrum, i, neu. g. olde wyters vsed for Claustrum. Also the ioyning together of rafters, and a rayle or lyke thyng made of quarters or punsions.
 Clora, a creeke in the Britayne sea.
 Clotho, one of the fatal ladies, hauynge powere ouer mans lyfe, in dysoluyng therof. An other the daughter of Pterus, and goddess of the sea.
 Cludidatum, of olde wyters was vsed for Dalce or Suzue.
 Cludo, si, ere, to shutte.
 Cluentius, a Romain, whome Cicero defended in an eloquent oration.
 Cluco, ui, ere, to be named or called, to be compacted or esteemed, to purge or cleanse, to appeare. And after some, to contende or stryue.
 Clumæ, arum, f. g. the bushes of bayle.
 Clunadum, or after some Clunaculum, li, n. ge. a bouchers choppyng knyfe.
 Clunia, a towne in Spayne.
 Cluniculus, i, masc. gene. a diminutiue of Clunis.
 Clunicus, ci, he that hath disease in his buttocks.
 Clunensis, a county in Spayne.
 Clunis, is, ma. & f. g. or after tymes, Clunes, clunium, plu the buttocks or haunces.
 Clupea, x, f. g. a citee of Afrike nere to Carthage. it is also a fysh, whiche beynge very delycious of a beyne in the lawes of a Tunny, cleeth hym.
 Clasi, he supposed to be certayne spirites, made of the ayre.
 Clasilis, le, that may be quickly shutte.
 Clusini, people of Hetruia.
 Clusinum, a kynde of wheate,

Clusinus, the surname of Janus, because that in the tyme of peace, the gates of his temple were shutte.

Clusolum, was an olde towne of Umbria.

Clusium, a citie in the myddle of Tuscia, in the which Horfena was buried.

Clymeides, the sisters of Phaeton, named after their mother Clymene.

Clymene, the mother of Prometheus, daughter of Oceanus and Tethys.

Clymeneis, idis, patronymicum.

Clymenum, semeth not to be one herbe in Plinie and Dioscorides. Clymenum of Dioscorides, is water Betonie, and groweth alwayes aboute water sydes. Clymenos Plinij, groweth in wooddes about hedges.

Clipeatus, a, um, that carieth a shield or tergat.

Clypeus, ei, m. g. Clypeum, neu. g. Mielde or tergate of footemen.

Clysmus, mi, m. g. a purgacion or washyng.

Clyster, éris, m. g. a clyster.

Clytemnestra, the wyfe of Agamemnon, the daughter of Cyndarus and Leda.

Clytia, or Clytie, a mayden, which Apollo loved.

Clytius, a yonge man loved of Cydon. Also the sonne of Laomedon, and brother to Priamus.

C ANTE N.

CN. vel Cneus, the surname of dyuers Royes maynes.

Cnemides, a place in Thrace.

Cnicion, idem quod trifolium. Diosc.

Cnicos, or Cnicus, an herbe, called of the apothecaries Carthamus, of the whiche bee two kyndes, the one is of the gardeyne, the other is wilde. Of the fyrst is a notable confection made called Diacharthami, whiche louseth the bealy, and purgeth watry flewme. It is of some calde Saffron of the gardeyne, basterde Saffron, or moche Saffron. it is hotte and drye in the seconde degree.

Cnidos, a certayne herbe.

Cnidium oleum, an oyle made of the seede of that herbe.

Cnidon coccum, idem quod Chamæleon niger. Diosc.

Cnidos, or Gnidos, a citie of Laria, where Venus was worshipped. Also a promontory in the same place.

Cnips, a litle woyme, whiche is founde bred in an elme tree, not muche vnlike a gnatte. looke the prouerbe, Cnips in loco.

Cnipologos, the hyrde called a waggetayle.

Cnopodium, dii, n. g. the herbe called Polygonion.

CO A, a towne in Arabia felici.

Coaccēdo, ēre, to be added to the pythys pall summe, or to appoche or draw nere with other.

Coacesco, acui, cescere, to waxe soure or tart.

Coaceruo, aui, āre, to heape vp, or gather into heapes.

Cogere & coacervare pecunias, to gather together and heape vp ryches.

Coacervatio, ōnis, f. g. a laynge vp in heapes.

Coacervatus, a, um, lapde or caste vp on a heape.

Coacon, ei, n. g. a blacke playster.

Coactilia, ōrum, neut. gene. was bled for thynnes, wherein cloathes weare packed in cartage, and now may well be bled for packe cloath, and also for cozdes, wherewith the packes are trussid.

Coactio, ōnis, f. g. a particular receipt of gatheryng to gether; also a passion in bodie, wherewith bredeth dyuers spychenes.

Coactio argentaria, a gatheryng together of money.

Coacto, aui, āre, a frequentative of Cogo, to force or constryngne.

Coactor, ōris, m. g. a particular receynoure, or one that gathereth vp an vsurers debtes, also a forcer, a constrainer, one that gathereth together.

Coactura, æ, f. g. a great heappenge or gathering to gether.

Coactus, us, m. g. constrynt, forcement, compulsion.

Coactu ac flagitatu meo, by my compulsion and importune suite.

Coactus, a, um, constrynged, enforced, compelled, gathered and assembled together.

Coactus dices, sponte quæ fari abnuis, thou shalt be constrynged to tell that thou wilt not by thyne owne accord.

Lacrymæ coactæ, teares wrested oute by violence.

Scelus coactum, a naughty arte dooen by the impulsione and counsaile of an other.

Coacti, men summoned or gathered together.

Coaddo, didi, ēre, to adde or lay together.

Coadūno, aui, āre, to assemble and gather men together in one company.

Coadificio, aui, āre, to buylde harde together.

Coæquālis, le, equall.

Coæquāre, idem quod æquare, to make lyke or indifferent.

Coequare leges, to make lawes indifferent to all men.

Coæquus, a, um, lyke, even.

Coætanus, a, um, of one age.

Coæuus, a, um, idem.

Coagitatio, ōnis, f. g. a meynge or stirryng together.

Coagito, aui, āre, idem quod simul agito, reade Agito.

Coag-

Coagmentatio, ōnis, fœ, ge. idem quod coagmentum.
Coagmentatus, a, um, toyned together.
Coagmento, aui, are, to toynne oʒ couche togethet.
Coagmentare pacem, to make peace.
Coagmentum, ti, n. g. a couchynge oʒ toynynge of thynges together.
Coagulatio, ōnis, fœ, gene. the gatherynge of a curde.
Coagulo, aui, are, to gather into a curde oʒ creame.
Coagulum, li, n. g. a curde oʒ creame, the ruen of a beast, wherewith mylke is tourned, and by a metaphoze, any thyng, that toynneth oʒ coupleth together.
Coaleo, coales, alui, ère, to cleane to, to increase oʒ augment by receiuyng nutriment.
Vt nisi pinguisimo solo coalere non posset, So that it cannot grow oʒ increase but in a very fatte grounde.
Concordia coaluerant omnium animi, By conuoyde all theyr courages increased.
Coalesco, ui, scère, to gather together, to increase.
Coalescit vulnus, the wounde closeth.
Authoritas coalescit, his aucthorite increaseth oʒ is moze esteemed.
Coalit, a, um, nouerfshed, increased, augmented.
Coalluo, allui, lûere, properly in a rpuer, oʒ the sea, whan it casteth moze sande oʒ grauell to an heape, and maketh it bygger.
Coamicus, ci, m. g. a freende.
Coangusto, aui, are, to make moze narowe oʒ streite.
Coangustor, the pashue.
Coarctatio, ōnis, f. g. a streignynge oʒ pressynge togethet.
Coarctatus, a, um, constrynged oʒ kepte streite in.
Coarcto, aui, are, to streyne oʒ presse together.
Also to gather a matier in few wordes.
Coarctus in oppido, kept within the towne by force.
Coarguo, gui, ère, to rebuke, to blame, to reprehende, to shew a man his faute, to declare oʒ proue a thyng manifestly, to conuince, to take tarding.
Fuga laboris desidiâ coarguit, the eschuyng of labour is a manifest pʒofe of slouthfulnesse.
Reum eius criminis coarguit, He pʒoueth him gyltie of that trespassse.
Coarguere auaritiâ, to conuicte one of couesousnesse.
Coarguere coniectura, to reason, oʒ shew by coniecture.
Ne lituris coargui posset, that he myght not be espyed by the blottes.
Coaspis, a riuer of the Medes, whiche renneth into Tʒgris.

Coassatio, ōnis, a planhynge oʒ layinge of boardes, a toynynge.
Coasso, aui, are, to planke oʒ boorde, to toynne boardes together.
Coastræ, people of India, where be trees so high that a man cannot shoote to the toppes.
Coaugmento, idem quod coagmento.
Coaxio, ōnis, f. g. idem quod coassatio, toynnynge woʒke oʒ sielynge with boordes.
Coaxo, aui, are, idem quod coasso. also to make a nople lyke a frogge oʒ tode.
Cobios, spurge, Diosc.
Cocalus, a kynge of Sicilie, to whome Dedalus fledde out of Crete, whan Minos pursued hym.
Cocanicus, a rpuer in Sicilie, wherof a certayne kynde of salte is called Cocanicus.
Cocalus, li, m. g. a pyne appull.
Cocœtum, ti, neu. gen. a meate made of honys and poppe seede.
Coccinum, ni, g. a scarlet robe oʒ vesture.
Coccinatus, a, um, that weareth a scarlette gowne.
Coccinus, and Coccus, a, um, scarlette colour, some suppose it to be crimson.
Coccinus, & Coccineus, a, um, of scarlet colour.
Coccus baphice, idem quod Coccum.
Coccus, of some is taken for spurge.
Coccula, oʒ rather cocula, orum, n. g. vesselles to bake oʒ boyle in.
Coccum, ci, n. g. grayne wherewith cloth is grained. It is sometyme used for a garment of that colour.
Coccum cnidium, a beartye lyke to myrtle, blacke and harde without, and within white, the herbe wherof some dooe call Thymalea, some Oliuella, some Leo terra, some Lynum Sylvestre. The berry is medicinable to purge cholce, water, and fleume. Some authoʒs doo call it Granum cnidium.
Coccyx, pars ex lateribus lacri ossis.
Coccyx, cœcygis, fœm. gene. the birde called a cockow.
Cochlacæ, certayne stones, rounde lyke cokles oʒ snayles.
Cochlea, æ, f. g. a snayle, haupnge a shell, oʒ the shell of a snayle. also a fyfthe called a perwynke. Also the vice oʒ wourme of a presse. It is also a kynde of pumpes, wherewith water is drawn by goynge in a whele. also a faction of doozes. also a wyndyng steepe.
Cochleare, vel Cochlear, âris, neut. gene. a spoone. It is also a measure conteynyng thre drammes, and one scruple, and the fourth parte of Lyathus.
Cochlearium, rij, nen. ge. a place where snayles are kepte.
Cochlearium medicum, seu atticum, conteyneth one dramme, halfe a scruple. ii. graynes, and, ii. fyue partes of a grayne in measure: In weyghs weight of wyne, as much, of oyle one diamme, and ii. scriples, there was of this measure twoo loztes, the lesse and the bigger.

Cochlearium, after Glarian and other learned authoꝝ, is the sixte parte of an ounce, called in latine Sextula. Whiche affirmen also, that it is the .12. parte of Sextarius, and not the fourth parte, as other would haue it: but opinions are very diuers in it.

Cochileum, lei, n. g. a wyndynge steype.

Cochlidium, idem.

Cochlides, dum, f. g. wyndynge stappes. also a bone founde in Arabie, whiche beyng boyled.
vii. dayes, and as many nyghtes in hony, and al
the earthe taken from it, is made wonderfull pleasant in sight, hauyng veynes and spottes of sundry colours, and is so greate, that sometyne therof is made horse harneys for kynges.

Cocles, coclitis, com. ge. he or she that hath but one eye.

Cocles, a Roman, whiche at the siege of Rome kepte backe Postena and all his armye, tyll the brydge was broken behynde hym. looke Lucie.

Cocnithum, a great promontory in Italy.

Cocibilis, le, easy to be sodden.

Coclia, a parte of the mountaynes Alpes.

Coctilis, le, sodden or baken.

Cocilia vasa, earthen pottes.

Cocilitia taberna, an house, where woodde was dyed, and made that it should not smoke.

Muri cociles, walles of brycke, or other lyke matter.

Coclio, onis, f. ge. a seethyng or boylinge. also digestion.

Coclionem facere, to concoct or digeste the meate in the stomacke.

Coclitio, aui, are, to boyle or seethe.

Coclius, a, um, easy to be boyled or soone ripe.

Coclia poma, appuls soone ripe.

Coccona, looke Corona.

Cocconum, ni, n. g. cotton.

Cocctor, oris, m. g. one that seetheth. also a ryot-tous person, that spendeth all that he hath in car-tyng and dymyng.

Cocctura, x, idem quod Coclio. also the tempe-ratenesse of the ayre, apte to make grayne and frutes ripe.

Cocetus, a, um, sodden, boyled, digested.

Coculum, a pottle to boyle in, a pyphyn. some-tyme Cocula, doo signifie stiches, whiche will soone be on fyre.

Coculus, a diminutiue of cocus.

Cocus, ci, m. g. a cooke.

Cocytia, sacrifices that were dooen in honour of Proserpine.

Cocytus, a ryuer of hell.

Coda, a tayle vsed of olde wyters.

Codanonia, an yle of Germany.

Codanus, a goulfe in Germany, about the ryuer Elbis, hauyng many ylandes in it.

Codatremla, la, f. g. a birde called a wagtail.

Codeta, a feld by Tyber.

Codex, leis, ma. g. the body of a tree, or a greate booke or volume.

Instituere codicem, to make his booke of rece-kenyng.

Referre in codicem, to register or write in his booke.

Codex robustus, a kynde of punishment, or a place where misdoers were punished.

Codex accepti & expensi, a rekenyng booke.

Chartaceus codex, a paper booke.

Codia, the toppes of Popie.

Codicarius, a, um, that is made of the body of a tree, or of thicke plankes.

Codicaria naues, shippes or barges made of thicke plankes.

Codicillaris, re, the adiectiue of Codicilli.

Codicillaris potestas, authoꝝtie graunted by the kynges letters.

Codicilli, orum, m. g. plu. epistles. sometyne it is taken for letters patentes of a prince.

Codicilli, also be those writings, by the which a man disposeth his goodes in his last will, without ordeynyng any certayne heyre, and then be vsed, when one cannot make his testament.

Codicillus, li, ma. ge. a litle booke, also a litten mistue.

Codiculus, a diminutiue of Codex, when it is gniseth a booke.

Codion, di, n. g. a kynde of lettys.

Codones, saunce belles.

Codonophori, they that goe befoze with belles ryngyng in theyr handes.

Codrus, dri, the proper name of a kyng of Athens,
who to save his countrey, willingly lost his lyfe.

Also a very pooze man, whose name is growen to a prouerbe.

Codio pauperior, poorer then Codrus.

Coa, of Polician is vsed for Coa, of the yle of Los.

Coale, a name of Syria.

Celiacus morbus, a peyne in the bealy, with a continuall flux, diuers in colour, with losse of appetite, and coldnesse in the extreme partes, whis the sicknesse happeneth of the feblenesse of ver-tue digestiue in the stomache and bealy. Some suppose it to be that, which is called Colica pas-sio, I thynke it rather to be Lienteria ventri-culi. Reade in Lienteria.

Celiacus, i, m. g. he that hath that disease.

Celibaris hasta, the staffe of a rauelyn, which had ben in the body of one of them, whiche were called Gladiatores, and was slayne: with the whis the staffe the head of a mayden new married was kempt, and striken, signifyinge, that lykewise as the staffe had styken fast in the body of hym that was slayn, so should the sicke faste, and be ioyned with him that married hir.

Celostomia, the prouounyng low in the mouth.

Celostomia, x, f. g. when one speaketh holow in the mouth.

Celoma,

Cocylma, iris, neut. gen. is a rounde and hol lowe soze aboute the circle of the eye, nyghe to the syght.

Coculum, looke Caculum.

Coclos, an haven of Thracia.

Cocmba, a citee of Gedrosia, called now Lambaia.

Cocmentum, looke Camentum.

Cocmeterium, rij, n. g. a churcheparde.

Cocmo, coemis, emi, etc., to bye, to bye with
other.

Cocmprio, onis, f. gen. where two or mo persones doo by together. Also a solemnitee of the lawe civile, where the man and the woman by mutuall consent come together, and (as it were) one byeth the other.

Cocna, x, f. g. a supper. Sometime the place, where men suppe.

Caput cocnae, the begynnyng of supper, or the first dishe that men doo eate of.

Cocna nitida & frugi, a cleanly supper, and of smalle coste.

Adducere ad cocnam, to bryng to supper.

Itare ad cocnas, to vse to go abrode to supper.

Inuitare ad cocnam, to bydde to supper.

Inter cocnam, at supper tyme.

Super cocnam, immediatly after supper.

Accipere aliquem cocna, and Adhibere co-na, to take one to supper as his guest.

Apparare cocnam, to make redy supper.

Apponere cocnam, to sette the supper on the table.

Præbere, or dare cocnam senis ferculis, to make a supper, that shall not have paste syre dyshes.

Recta cocna, a sette supper, contrary to Sportsula, whiche is putte as it were for a livery or small allowaunce.

Cocna opima, a plentyfull supper.

Cocna dubia, a supper where be many dyvers
dyshes.

Cocnaculária, x, f. g. the lettynge to hye of sollars or upper chambers.

Cocnaculariam facere, to sette an house in dy-ners partes to sundry persons, wherein are many upper roomes.

Cocnacularius, rij, m. g. he that dothe sette suche houses to hye.

Cocnaculum, li, neu. g. a parlour or other place, where men doo suppe. also a chaumber in the upper parte of the house. Sometime the uppermost roome in an house, whiche in London they call a garret. Sometime Cocnaculum is vsed for a place to suppe in, in the sommer season.

Cocnaculum meritorium, a chaumbye sette out to hye.

Cocnaticus, a, um, perteynyng to suppers.

Apparatus cocnaticus, ordinance for supper.

Sermo cocnaticus, communication maecte for suppers.

Cocnatio, onis, f. gen. a lower parlour to suppe

in, a sommer parlour.

Cocnaticula, x, f. ge. a litle drynkyng house or chaumber.

Cocnatorium, rij, neu. gen. a garment to sette at supper in.

Cocnatorius, a, um, belonging to supper.

Cocnatorio, ij, ire, to have a luste or desyre to go to supper.

Cocnatus, a, um, that hath supped.

Cocnato mihi, epistola est illi reddita, when I had supped, that letter was deliuered to me.

Cum illa munera inspexisset cocnatus, when he had looked upon those presentes, after he had supped.

Cocnipeta, a goat aboute to suppers unhodden.

Cocnito, ani, are, to suppe often.

Cocnitare foris, to vse to suppe abrode.

Cocno, aui, are, to suppe.

Cocnare alienum, to suppe at an other mans coste.

Cocnabis hodie magnū malum, Thou shalt haue thy supper soone in grewe rest.

Cocnare herbas, and Cocnare colus, to suppe with herbes.

Pulmentia cocnare, to suppe with porrage.

Cocnobium, bij, n. g. a monastery or other place,
where men lyue in common.

Cocnoeum, the citee of Lubembergh in Germany.

Cocnosus, the name of an haven.

Cocnosus, a, um, full of myze, dyttie.

Cocnula, x, f. g. a lyght supper.

Cocnum, i, myze or dytte, and by a metaphoze, felythnesse, vnderlynesse, dysconfort.

In tenebris & cocno volui, to leade a vyle and felyth lyfe.

Cocpio, was vsed a monge olde wyters for Incipio, to begynne. Howe the preterperfect tens is only in vse, with the other that be deryued of it.

Cocpit albescere, it began to waxe white.

Cocpra, orum, neut. gene. thynges or matters begunne.

Cocpro, aui, are, to begynne.

Cocptare rebellionem, to begin a rebellion.

Cocptum, i, n. g. an enterpryse or beginning.

Tadia cocpti capere, to waxe weery of that,
that one hath begunne.

Desistere cocpro, to leaue of an enterpryse.

Tenere cocpra, to go forwarde with that one hath begunne.

Cocptus, us, m. g. idem quod cocptum.

Cocptus sum, for Cocpi.

Minus haberi cocptus est postea, he began after to be lesse esteemed.

Cocptus, a, um, begunne.

Opus cocptum perficere, to make an ende of the thyng that is begunne.

His cocptis, after these thynges were begunne.

Cocpulonus, ni, m. g. a banketter or reuellar.

Cocruleo, onis, f. g. a birde, whiche appereth not in the winter, a clotbyrde, a matche, an arlyng a scing

Reincheke.

Cœtus, us, m. g. an assemble of people, a conuention, a congregation. Sometime in Lucretius a knittynge and couplynge, together of the partes of a mans body, with the humors, spirites, and all thynges, wherof the body is compacte.

Cœdo, aui, ire, to come together, to assemble, to ioyne to, to drawe together, to gather together to doo the acte of generation, to ioyne together in action by mayntenance of chawpettie.

Coire in fœdera, to make alliance.

Coire societatem, to be familiar.

Coire vulnus, the wounde closeth.

Coire in densitatem, to waxe thicke.

Societatem periculi coire, to venture the perill of daunger of a thyng with an other.

Coire in accusationem alicuius, to subscribe or agree to the accusation of any person.

Coire pus, the matter of fylthe gathereth together.

Cornua lunæ coeunt, the moone waxeth towarde the full.

Coire dicuntur milites, to ioyne in battayle to fight.

De bonis alicuius coire, to conspire to deprive one of his goodes.

Coequito, aui, are, to ryde together, side by side.

Coerceo, ui, ere, to restraine, to binde harde or streite, to compelle or constrain, to kepe with in a compasse: also to comprehend or coneyne, to correcte or punishe, to let a thyng to be dooeth, to kepe under subiection.

Coercere ignes, to stynte the fyre, whiche burneth an house or other lyke thyng.

Coercere iras hominum, to restreigne or kepe under the wyathe of people.

Aquam coercere, to stoppe water, or lette that it renne not.

Coercere nauisiam, to stoppe vometyng.

Terras coerces omnes, he subdueth all countreys to his obedience.

Coercere & refrenare.

Coercere & reprimere.

Cupiditatem coercere, to refrayne the appetite.

Coercere supplicijs & verberibus, to panishe or chastise.

Morre, exilio, vinculis coercere, to punishe by death, exyle, or imprisonment.

Alterum sequi, alterum vitare coercemur, we are constrained to folow the one, and to eschew the other.

Mundus omnia complexu suo coerces & continet, the worlde in the compasse thereof comprehendeth and coneyneth all thynges.

Vitta coercebat capillos, the fillet bounde by the heares.

Carcere coercere animalia, to kepe beastes in houses, which naturally woulde be abroad.

Coercitus, a, um, constrained, compelled kepte in.

Coercitio, ōnis, f. g. a restrainte, or keeping in subiection.

Coercitio, ōnis, or Coertio, idem.

Cœtus, us, ma, gen. a company, a multitude, an assemble.

Vitiatorum cœtus, a whole table of multitude of vices.

Agitare cœtus, to gather into companies, to assemble together.

Dimittere cœtum, to dimittie an assemble or congregation.

Inire cœtus, to assemble.

Cœtus, the name of a gygant.

Coexercitatus, a, um, exercysed together.

Cogitabilis, le, that may be thought on.

Cogitabundus, full of musynge, one in a study, one that hath his wittes close.

Cogitare, aduisedly, with good imagination.

Cognate verba facere, to speake aduisedly.

Accurate & cogitare scribere, to write diligently and with meditation.

Cogitatum, and Cogitatio, idem quod Cogitare.

Cogitatio, ōnis, f. g. a thought, a deaple of imagination.

Nulla cogitatione homo, a man without consideration.

Abicere cogitationem in rem vilem, to cast a mannes thought or ymaginacion vpon a vile matter.

Auerrere cogitationem, to tourne away a mans ymaginacion from a thyng.

Complecti cogitationem, to comprehend in a mans mynde or ymaginacion.

Spe tamen deducebar ad istam cogitationem per by hope I was brought to thynke this, or to haue this ymaginacion.

Fingere nobis aliquid cogitationem, to ymagyne with our selfe, that a thyng is as we wold haue it.

In cogitationem belli regem auerrere, to make the kynge, to cast his mynde to leaue warre.

Super in istam cogitationem incidimus, we chawnce often to thynke on this matter, or descender this softe.

Cognatum, n, g. a thyng deuyled, thought on, and imagined in ones mynde.

Cogitatus, a, um, intended, purposed, thought vpon.

Paricidium cogitatum, non perfectum, a murder intended and not done.

Cogito, aui, are, to muse, to thynke, to ymagin, to cast in ones mynde, to consult with ones selfe, to attende or purpose.

Cogitat curas, he thinketh on his matters.

Tam sum irritatus, ut nequeam animum ad cogitandum instituire, I am so moued that I can not settle my mynde to ymagin or muse on any thyng.

Cogitare cum animo suo, or in animo, to ymagine imagine in ones mynde.

Cogites hæc tecum, Thinke on these matters with your selfe.

Cogitare suspendium, to thinke to hange ones selfe.

Carpi egomet mecum aliam rem ex alia cogitare, I began to muse of thynke on one thyng after an other.

Cogitare de aliquo, to haue one in remembrance.

De perniciæ alicuius cogitare, to deuise of or imagine a mans destruction or death.

Cogito in Tusculanum, subaudi, proficisci, I thought to go to my place at Tusculum.

Ego hinc perendie mane discedere cogito, the next day sayng one I intēd to depart hence, early in the mornng.

Cras cogitabat, s. discedere.

Qui alteri cogitat nocere, he that intendeth or endeuoureth to hurt an other.

Cognati, ōrum, m. g. kynsmen.

Cognatio, ōnis, f. g. a kynred.

Cognitione iunctus alicui, or cum aliquo, kinne to one.

Cognātus, a, um, kynne: also lyke, agreng, almost of the same nature.

Cognitio, ōnis, f. g. a knowledge: sometyme it signifieth iudgement.

Quæ lex earum rerum, quas Cæsar statuisset decreuisset, egisset, Consulibus cognitionem dedit, whiche lawe gaue to the consules iudgement of those thynges, which Cæsar should haue iudged, decreed, and executed.

Habere cognitionem faciliorem, to bee moze easie to be knowne.

Dies cognitionis, the daye of apparaunce in court, or the daye appoynted by the iudge, when the matter shalbe herde.

Sustinere cognitionem, to allow a mans excuse for none apparaunce.

Cognitor, ōris, m. g. an attourney or proctour in the law.

Cognitus, a, um, knowne.

Habere aliquid cognitum, to haue knowledge of a thyng.

Cognobilis, le, idem.

Cognōmen, nis, neut. gen. a surname, which a man hath of his auncestours, or by some other chaunce.

Cognōmentum, ti, n. g. a name purchased by some chaunce, or great act done, a bie name, besides ones owne name. And Cognomen signifieth the same, and not the surname, but in dede a surname.

Cognōminis, cognōmine, om. g. he that hath the same surname.

Cognominātus, a, um, surnamed.

Cognōmino, aui, āre, to geue a surname.

Cognōsco, nōui, scēre, to knowe, to consyder diligently, to perceiue, to vnderstande, to lie with a woman, to iudge a matter, to here a matter to iudge it.

Perpicere & cognoscere rerum naturam, to perceiue throughtly, and know the nature of thynges.

Cognoscens in foro Augusti, &c. As he was decyphre of matters in the place called forum Augusti.

Ibi cognoscebat de Clodij cæde, There he sat in examination of Clodius death.

Domi ius ciuile cognouerat, he learned the ciuile law at home.

Cognoscere instrumenta, amonge the lawyers is to reade ouer diligently theyr instrumentes and wytynges.

Qualis natura montis esset, qui cognosceret, misit, he sente forth certayne, which should view and consider the nature of the hill.

Cognoui ex amicorum litteris, I vnderstode by my frendes letters.

Hominem prudentem cognosces, & dignum, qui a te diligatur, you shall perceiue him to be a wyse man, and worthy to bee loued of you.

Quas res gesserit, cognoscite, what actes he hath done, here you of me diligently.

Cogo, egi, ēre, to constryne, together together, to mylke a beast, to make licour thicke or harde, to presse, to set or bynge in order.

Cogere in arctum, to kepe one strict, or from his libertie.

Cogere in ordinem, to abate ones pride, or to make one to be contente with his owne condition, or not to be singular, or excell other.

Cogere oues, to put vp the shepe into the stable or folde.

Quas talenta ad quindecim coegi, I haue gathered together about fiftene talentes.

Cogere pecuniam, to leuie or gather a certain somme of money.

In semihoræ curriculum cogere, not to gyue one halfe an houtes leasure.

Cogere in mollitiem lanæ, to make a thyng as softe as wolle.

In angustum cogi, to be brought or byuen to a streite.

Vndique auxilia cogere, to gather ayde and succour from all partes.

In vnum locum cogere exercitum, to bynge an armie together into one place.

Cogere Senatum, to assemble or call a parliament.

Cogere vi & minis, to compell with force and manassnges.

Vis ventorum in portum naues coëgit, the force of windes droue the shippes into the hauē.

Cogi aliquo, to bee byuen or constrynged to go any whither.

Verba cogere in pedes, to make verses.

In nubes cogitur aer cōcretus, the ayre beynge congeled and made thicke, is gathered into cloudes.

Cogere

Cogere cuneos, to beate of dyne in wedges.
 Cohararius, ri, m. g. a topntenant, one that is coupled of topnged with an other in a matter.
 Coharētia, æ, f. g. a fastnyng of hangyng of thynges together.
 Coharēo, hæsi, ere, to be topnged, to be familiar together, or to cleave to a thinge.
 Non coharent, the matters hange not together.
 Vix cohærit oratio, the oration hangeth scant lie one piece with an other.
 Non coharet sermo, this tale is not to the purpose, or hangeth not together.
 Coharētia inter se dicere, to speake thynges agreable to the purpose, and hangyng well together.
 Coharere dicuntur aliqui, when they cleave together, and loue eche other hertely.
 Coharēs, rēdis, com. gen. one that is topnged with an other in inheritance.
 Coharēco, scēre, idem quod Coharēo.
 Cohibeo, cohibes, hibui, ēre, to reseyne of kepe to him selfe, to restreyne, to kepe of, to let, to reseyne, to kepe one wyse.
 Cohibere filium, to kepe vnder his sonne.
 Cohibere intra limitem, kepe you within the dooyes.
 Cohibere se, to moderate him selfe, or to reseyne.
 Sydera in se cohibent nitorem, the sterres reseyne and haue in them selues a certayne brightnesse.
 Venti cohibentur in antris, The windes are inclosed and kepte in their dennes.
 Colubere iracundiam, to reseyne and moderate ones anger.
 Libidines effrenatas à coniugibus aliorum cohibere, to reseyne from aduourtie.
 Cohibere manus, oculos, animum, not to steale, wylle of desyre other mens gooddes.
 Cohibere pari seueritate fiscum & ararium, to vse lyke diligence and seueritee in prouyding, that neither the eschequer, nor the common treasurie encrease ouer much by fees, or extraordinary paymentes.
 Cohibent pugnare leges, the lawes forbyd to fight.
 Cohibitio, ōnis, f. g. a lettynge, restreynte or forbidding to do a thyng.
 Cohibitus, a, um, let, reseyned, restreynged.
 Cohonesto, aui, āre, to honour, to commend or make moze honourable.
 Cohonestare alicuius victoriam, to make a mans victorie moze honozable.
 Cohorreo, vel cohorrēco, ui, ēre, to be in great horzour and feare, so that he trembleth or chylleth for feare.
 Quem vt agnouit, equidem cohorrui, whome as soone as I knew, I was in suche feare, that I trembled.
 Ex quo cum cohorrui, &c. By whiche or ration, or after which time, when he had taken a cold, and his body began to be chylly.

 Cohors, tis, f. g. a company of men of warre. In euery legion were ten Cohortes. But the fyfte excelled the residue, as well in preeminence, as multitude. Therein was the Romaynes chiefe bannar, wherein was peynted the Eagle. The capitayne of that company called Centurio, was of moze reputation than any other Centurio, for in that company required to be men of good birth, well learned, and of valiaunt courage: also the capitayne wise, valiaunt, stronge in armes, and polityke in leadyng. In that companie were. 1105. footemen. 132. men of armes, and was called Cohors milliaria. The seconde cohors had. 555. footemen, and. 66. men of armes, and is called Cohors quingentaria. The thyrde had as many footemen, and. 66. men of armes, but therein were the strongest men, because it was set in the myddes of the battayle. The fourth had lyke numbre of footemen; and 66. men of armes. The fyfte hadde as many footemen and horsemen, but therein were chosen men, for as the first bēde was on the right wyng of the battayle: so the fyfte was one the left wyng. for fyue Cohortes or bendes, made the fyft battayle, the other fyue had equal numbre, euery of them with the sayd fourth and fyfte bend so that these ten bendes made vp a legion, containing. 6100. footemen, and 736. men of armes. Cohors is also taken for the domesticall companie of seruantes and ministers, attendinge vpon a man of high dignitee or authoritee. And suche was Cohors pratoria, that waited on the Pryetour or gouernour of countreyes.
 Cohortes conscribere, & cohortes, contrahere, haue one signification, to get together or assemble bendes or copanies of men of warre.
 Ex finitimis regionibus, quas potest contrahit cohortes ex delectibus Pompeianis, oute of the countreys adioynnyng, he gat bendes together of them that had ben chosen of Pompey.
 Ille cohortes veteranas, quas tumultus causa conscripserat, in fronte, post eas, ceterum exercitum in subsidij, locat, He byd sette in the fronte of the battayle the bendes of olde Souldiours, whiche he had gathered together, because of the sodayne commocion: behynde them, he sette the reste of the hoste for succoure, if neede were.
 Cohortes complere, to make vp bendes of men of warre, after the rate of the company that is assembled.
 Catilina ex omni copia, quam & ipse adduxerat, & Manlius habuerat: duas legiones instituit, cohortes, pro numero militum compler, Catilynes of all the men of armes, as well that he had brought with hym, as also Manlius had there al redie: he ordeyned two legions, and made vp bendes accordyng to the numbre of souldiers Muldiours.

Cohors, seu cors, is, f. g. a batton of plate inclosed wherein all kinde of pultrie was kept.

Cohortalis, le, of a batton of court.

Cohortalis gallina, & Cohortalis anser, in hen of goose that feedeth abrode in the batton of court.

Cohortatio, onis, f. g. an exhortation.

Cohortor, aris, ari, to exhort.

Deterrere & cohortari, opposita.

Cohortari ad virtutem, to exhort to vertue.

Cohortari inuicem to exhort of incourage one another.

Cohorto, was bled of olde wretches for Cohortor.

Cohum, cohi, neut. gene. a thonge of lynnell, wherewith the ore bowe and poke are bounde together.

Coinquino, ai, are, to soyle of stayne. also to desfame a man or woman.

Coinquiro, ris, quirere, to seeke or make inquisition of a matter.

Coibilis, le, adiectiuum, as.

Oratio coibilis, an oration that goeth quickly and rounde together.

Cois, is, f. g. a garment of fyne sylke.

Coitio, onis, f. g. an assemble. it is also a secreete pact or agreement among men to doo some acte, whiche they would not haue other men knowe.

It may be taken for couine. some tyme the coyping together of them that fyght.

Eiusmodi pactiones in ea coitione factæ, such couenantes or agreements were made in that conuencion.

Prima coitio acerrima, the firste incountry of copping together is most fierce or vehemente.

Coitus, us, ma. g. the acte of generation.

Coitus lunæ, the eclips of the moone.

Coix, icis, f. ge. a basket. It is also a certayne kynde of oysars, hauing a leafe lyke a rede, wherewith baskets were made at Athens.

Cola, ia, f. g. a stragynour.

Colaicum, a promontory of the plande Taprobana.

Colaphizo, ai, are, to buffet.

Colaphus, phi mas. gene. a buffet or blow on the cheeke.

Colaphum incutere, infligere, infringere, to geue a buffet.

Colapiani, people of Pannonie.

Colasis, is, f. g. a kynde of punishmente that is dooen for chastisement.

Colassis, the scholar of Apollippus, whiche made the ymage called Colossus at Rhodes. 70. cubites high.

Colax, acis, om. g. a flatterer.

Colaxes, the sonne of Jupiter and Dia, whiche was slayne by Jason.

Colchi, people in Asia, wherof the countrey is of Strabo called Colchis, by the sea syde called Pontus, where the toppes of the hill Caucasus toucheth to the mountaynes Rhipai, the one syde bendyng to the sea Euxinum, and the fenne called Meotis, the other syde towarde the sea Caspium. In this countrey is the famous river Phasis. And it was the countrey of Medea wyfe to Jason.

Colchis, is sometyme a woman boyne in that countrey.

Colchion, ci, n. g. wild casson, it hath leaues and sedes in sommer, and flowers like casson about Michaelmasse.

Colchicum, in Dioscor. is a kynde of Hermodactylus.

Colchiacus, and Colchiens, a, um, of Colchis.

Colchus, a, um, idem quod Cholchiacus.

Coleus, lei, m. g. the stone of a man.

Coles, lis, f. g. the yerde of a man.

Coleus, the rodde, whiche conteyneth the stones.

Colica, the colycke, byedde in the gutte Colon, the greke wherof is felte. ili. fingers byedth as boue the nauyll on the right syde, extendyng lyke a gyrdell vnto the left syde: the occasion wherof procedeth of one of these causes: by a coleryche heate, bying by the moysture of the ordure whiche therfore may not passe out of the bealy: or the meate eaten was dye and byndyng, lettyng the saied passage: or els viscus and clammie flume is so augmented in that gutte, that it stoppeth the issue therof: or a grosse and thicke winde is there ingendred, either by coldenesse of the naturall complexion, or by weakenesse of the stomake in digestion, or of the liver, or by meates fatte and wyndie: or it hapneth by an impostume in the same gut: or by wormes wrappes in the ordure. Or for the insensiblenesse of the gutte, wherby one feeleth not the annoyances of the ordure.

Coliculus, h, m. g. a diminutiue of Colis, a tender stalk of an herbe.

Colicus dolor, the colycke.

Colicus, a, um, that hath the colycke.

Colidos, an plande in the ocean of Indie, conseruate to Venus, whiche was so hygh, that no byrde flew by to it.

Colimbris, looke Collimbris.

Colina, for Culina, a kitchen.

Coliphium, phi, n. g. a kynde of breade, whiche wraisters did eate, to make them stronge.

Colis, is, m. g. a litell tender stalk of cole worttes or cabages. also the byaunche of a bynes.

Colis, also idem quod coles.

Colla, la, f. g. a kynde of glewe.

Collabasco, scere, to be redy to fall.

Amici collabascunt, our frendes begynne to fayle.

Collabescere testula, to be banished out of the cite by lottes or shottes, as it was vsed in Athens. See after in Ostracismos.

Collabello, ai, are, to ioyne lippes together, that is to say, to kysse on the lippes. A woorde out of vse.

R

Colla-

Collabefacto, idem quod labefacto.
 Collabefio, collabefis, or collabefis, to be cast or beaten downe to the grounde.
 Collabor, apsus sum, labi, to fall downe.
 Collachrymatio, onis, f. g. a weepynge or way-lynge with other.
 Collacrymo, aui, are, to weepe with other.
 Collachrymare casum alicuius, to bewaile a mans mischaunce.
 Collactaneus, he that souketh with me of one nurse, a foster brother, also one that is brought up with vs at nurse.
 Collacteus, idem quod Collactaneus.
 Collapsus, a, um, sydde or fallen downe, and by a metaphoze, faynt, abated in courage.
 Mornia subito collapsa sunt, The walles are todaynly fallen downe.
 Collare, ris, n. g. a collar for a hounde or other beaste.
 Collaria, x, f. g. a collar of piron that theues be bounde with.
 Collatia, a towne by Rome, wherof one of the gas-tes of the citee was called Collatina.
 Collatina dea, was supposed to be the goddesse
 ouer small hylles.
 Collatina porta, the name of a gate in Rome.
 Collarinus, the name of a noble Roman, whiche was husbnde to the chaste Lucretia.
 Collatio, onis, f. g. a taske or lyke, also a confersyng together.
 Collatium, ui, n. ge. a sacrifice made of manye
 mens offerynges together.
 Collatiuus, a, um, that whiche is brought and gathered together.
 Collatiuus venter, a greate paunche or bealy,
 whiche woerde Plautus vsed.
 Collato, aui, are, to make larger.
 Collator, onis, m. g. he that conferreth or layeth his porcion with other.
 Collatus, a, um, assembled, geuen, conferred,
 compared, brought, sent, coped together.
 Dolere aliquem sibi collatum, to take greuous self, that an other shoulde be compared with him.
 Pecunia collata, money conferred and layed together for any purpose.
 Collatus, us, m. g. a comparynge, a couplynge or ioyngynge together in battayle.
 Collaudatio, onis, f. m. ge. a commendacion or prayse.
 Collaudatus, a, um, commended, praysed.
 Collaudo, aui, are, to prayse that which other do commende.
 Collecta, x, f. g. a shotte or reckynge that is gathered of many.
 Collectanea, orum, n. g. thynges witten or gathered out of many warkes.
 Collectaneus, a, um, and Collectitiuus, that whiche is gathered.
 Collectarij, collectours, or they, which bie of common recepuours suche thynges, as the sayde recepuours can not gather by them selues, beyng letted with some greater busineses.

 Collecte, & collectim, compendiously.
 Collectio, onis, f. g. a collection or gatherynge together, a catarre or impostume in a mans body.
 also a conclusion in an argument.
 Collectiuius, a, um, that gathereth.
 Collectum, ti, n. g. a gatherynge together.
 Collectus, a, um, gathered together.
 Colléga, x, masc. gen. a fellow or companion in office.
 Habere collegam in aliquo munere, to haue a compaignion of equal power ioyned with one in any office.
 Collegatarius, rij, he that is part taker of that,
 that is bequeathed to any man.
 Collegiati, gathered together in any felowship.
 Collégium, gij, n. g. a company of them, which haue equall auctoritee. Also a company of men whiche be of one mystery or craft. Sometyme the felowship in any office.
 Collegium fabrorum, the felowship of carpenters, and lykewyse of other craftes.
 Collegium naturæ, a felowship that two thin-ges haue together by naturall inclination.
 In collegium cooptare, to chose one into a fellowship or company.
 Colleuo, aui, are, to lyft up, to lighten.
 Collibértus, ti, m. g. he that is made free by the same patron that an other is.
 Collibet, & collubet, collibuit, libitum est, collibere, to lyke, to please.
 Vt cunque animo collibitum est meo, Euen as it pleaseth or liketh me. After myne owne fantasy.
 Collicia, loske Colligæ.
 Colliculus, li, a littell hillocke.
 Collido, si, ere, to beate or knocke together.
 Confligunt leges inter se, & collidunt, The lawes repugne and are one agaynst an other.
 Collidere manus, to clasp the handes.
 Colligæ, Colliquiæ, Colycæ, or rather Colliciæ, certayne denues or caues in the earth, wher the some of salt petre is founde. also greate fos-rowes or ditches, in to the whiche water is drey-ned out of fieldes, by lesse forowes.
 Colligatio, onis, f. ge. a bindyng, ioyngynge or fastynge of thynges together.
 Colligatum, i, n. ge. a thyng that is bounde or knitte together.
 Colligatus, a, um, bounde together, fastened,
 ioynged.
 Colligata & implicita inter se, thynges linked together, or mingled one with an other.
 Aptæ & colligata inter se, thynges a greable and well compact one with an other.
 Colligo, colligas, aui, are, to binde together.
 Colligare vulnera, to bynde by woundes.
 Ita se cum multis colligauit, he hath so intangled hym selfe with many persons.
 Colligare impetum furentis, i. reprimere.
 Col-

Colligare vno libro omnia, to knytte of comprehende all thynges in one booke.
Colligo, colligis, legi, ere, together together, to bynge together. also to prepare, to numbze of counte, to gather by prose of reason, to gette of purchase.
Se colligit in arma, he made him ready to fight Seipsum colligere, to bynge home agayne the partes of the mynde that were dispersed. to gather a mans wittes together.
Colligere rationes, to cast a compt.
Colligere vestem, to tucke vp his garment.
Colligere exercitum, to gather together an army, or to repse by men of warre.
Colligere annos, to recken the yerres.
Colligere vitia alterius, to recken by an of ther mans fautes.
Colligere naufragia fortuna, to numbze the great aduersities of losses that haue chaunced by misfortune.
Vasa colligere, to trusse by kuffe and baggage.
Colligere testes, to gette witnesses.
Eandem esse naturam quam cerebro colligunt, they gather that it hath the same nature that the brayne hath.
Colligere omnia, together a summe of all together.
Colligere beneuolentiam alicuius, to gette ones fauour of good wille.
Colligere existimationem, vel famam, to come in estimation, to gette a good name, to become famous.
Iras colligere, to waxe angry.
Colligere vires, to waxe stronge.
Colligere se ex timore, to come to ones selfe
agayne after a great feare.
Colligere se, together of wynde together lyke
a serpent.
Breuitur quæ acta sunt colligere, to tel briefly
what thynges were dooen.
Colligere causas, to seke excuses.
Collimbris, bris, f. g. a bird, called a douker of didapper.
Colliminium, nij, n. ge. the metyng of boundes of fieldes together.
Collimitatus, a, um, bounded together.
Collimator, aris, ari, to bounde together as landdes doo.
Collimo, aui, are, to winke with one eye, or to looke straight on the marke. sometyme to hitte the marke.
Collimare manum atq; oculos, to leuell with the hande and eyes.
Collineo, aui, are, idē quod Collimo, to leuel.
Collino, lini, & liui, leui, linere, to rub or frote many thynges together softly, as one maketh an oymnt of a thyng. sometyme to defyle.
Crines puluere collinere, to raze of fyle the heare with duste.
Collinus, a, um, of or perteynyng to an hylloche.
Collina porta, a gate at Rome.

Collina vinea, a vinegarde made on an hill.
Coliphium, idem quod Coliphium.
Collignatio, is when a man aboydeth downes ward a certayne liquide ordure, comynge, not of meate and drinke, but of raw humours, fallynge out of the bodie into the bealy: and is like to yelowtholet: but that it is more yelow, and sometyme oyle and fattie. Aetius. Sermon. 9.
cap. 39.
Colliquefacio, quēfacis, to melte of dissolue.
Colliqueo, cui, ere, to melte.
Colliqueſco, ſcēre, idem.
Colliquia, arum, ſcēre, gen. plu. greate gouted of water rennyng through fieldes after greate rayne, or snowe. looke colliga.
Collis, is, m. g. an hille.
Collisio, ōnis, f. g. a knockyng or bathyng of thyn-ges together.
Collisus, us, m. g. idem.
Collisus, a, um, beaten and knocked together.
Græcia collisa bello, the countrey of Grece soze broken and damaged with warre.
Collitæ, arum, f. g. great forowes in fieldes, out of whiche water is dyaned. looke colliga.
Collocatio, ōnis, f. g. a placyng, settinge, or disposyng of thynges.
Collocatus, a, um, put of sette in some place.
Coloco, aui, are, to sette in a place, to place of settle.
Collocare se in arborem, to clyme vpon a tree.
Collocare aliquem in soporem, to strike one in such wyse that he is amased, and lpech as he were on sleape, or to speake it more thoyte, to lay one a sleape with a stroke.
Collocare in collo, to lay on ones necke.
Collocare te in ocium, drawe thee to ease.
Collocare in lecto aliquem, to bynge one to bedde, or to lay one in his bedde.
Collocare filiam nuptui in dimidia parte agri, to gyue halfe his lande in mariage with his daughter.
Collocare patrimonium in salutem populi, to employ his inheritaunce to the wealth of the people.
Collocare beneficium, to doo pleasure.
Dorem in fundo aliquo collocare, to asygne
dowrie to one in some lande.
Male collocare horas, to bestow the tyme yll.
Inſidias collocare, to lay in wayte to dooe one harme or displeasure.
Præſidium collocare, to sette a garrison in a place to defende it.
Collocare pecuniam vsuris, to set out of lende moneys for vsury.
Spem in aliquem collocare, to put trust in one.
Collocare se palam in meretricia vita, to geue
hys selfe to lyue lyke a common harlotte.
Collocare se in ocium, to dispose hym to lyue quietly and without labour.
Collocare nuptum, to bestowe a woman in mariage.

In lace beneficia collocare, to cause benefites of good tournes to be openly known.
 Collocare aliquem in aliquo gradu, to exalte of auance one to some degree of dignitee.
 Ad aliquem interimendum collocatum esse,
 to besette to hyll one.
 Bene pecuniam collocare, to bestow ones money well.
 Fortuna collocavit te in amplissimo statu, Fortune hath auanced thee to moste highe honour and dignitee.
 Collocuplêto, aui, are, to enrich.
 Collocutio, ônis, f. ge. a communication of tal-kyng together. also parlynge.
 Venire cum aliquo in collocutionem, to come to communication with a man.
 Collôquium, ij, n. g. idem quod collocutio.
 Ad hostium colloquia descendere, to goe
 downe to parle with the enemies.
 Colloquia interrumpere, to breake mennes communication.
 Fugere colloquium alicuius, to eschue ones
 communication.
 Colloquor, êris, tûs sum, lôqui, to talke with one, or to talke together.
 Colloqui alicui, to deuise or talke with one.
 Colloqui aliquem, to talke to one.
 Colloquuntur inter se, They talke together,
 or one with an other.
 Colloqui cum aliquo per literas, to sende letters one to an other.
 Collostrati, be chyldren, which do sucke of the first mylke of their mothers as sone as they be bozne.
 Collûmbia, orum, & Collûbiar, arum, idê quod tragemata, or bellaria.
 Collustratio, ônis, f. g. a sicknesse, whiche chy-dren haue by suckyng curdy mylke of a woman new deliuered.
 Collûco, aui, âre, to make a glade in a woode, or to cut away the bowes that let the light to come to a place.
 Collûceo, lûces, lûxi, êre, to shine or giue lyght.
 Collûcet sol mundo, the sunne gyueth lyght to
 the worlde.
 Vidi collucere omnia furtis tuis, I saw thy theftes and robberies to be manifestly knownen in all places.
 Colluctatio, ônis, f. ge. a wraastelynge or contenzdyng together.
 Colluctor, âtus sum, âri, to wraastle with one.
 Collûdium, ij, n. g. a playing together.
 Collûdo, si, êre, to play with one or together.
 Also amonge Quilians, it signifieth to pleade together by couine, to the intent to deceyue some other man.
 Collum, li, n. g. a necke.
 Contrahere collum, to plucke in the necke.
 Languido collo trahere vomerem, to drawe wetely.
 Eripere collum iugo, by translation, to ridde him selfe out of bondage.

Inijcere collobrachia, to slippe one aboute the necke.
 lactare collum, to caste the head now on one syde, now on an other.
 Præbere colla iugo, to submit ones selfe.
 Retorquere collum equi, to tourne the hogs head with a bydel.
 Colluo, lûi, êre, to washe or rince.
 Collue poculum, rince the cuppe.
 Collurio, ônis, f. g. by Aristotles description, tes-meth to bee the birde, whiche we call a feldesare.
 Collus, idem quod collum.
 Collusio, ônis, f. g. the couyne and conclusion be-sed amonge lawyers.
 Collûsor, ôris, ma. g. a play fellow. also he that dooeth any thyng by collusyon or couyne.
 Collusorie, an aduerbe, with couyne or fraude.
 Collûstratus, a, um, made cleare or bryght.
 Collûstro, aui, are, to beholde on all partes.
 Collustrare lumine, to make very cleare.
 Oculis omnia collustrare, to looke, or to be-holde all aboute.
 Luna solis lumine collustrari putatur, The moone is supposed to be made bryght and shyn-yng by the lyght of the sunne.
 Collûstrum, looke Collustrum.
 Collutulo, aui, âre, to dishonest or defile.
 Collûtus, a, um, washed, rince.
 Colluuiaris porcus, an hogge that walloweth in the mpye, and hath meate giuen him there.
 Colluuiarium, ij, n. g. a synke or gutter.
 Colluuius, ei, f. g. filth, ordure, or stinkyng wyte,
 of synkes, and such lyke.
 Colluuiio, idem quod Colluuius, and by a metas-phoze, the vile and naughtye condicion of any tyme. also an heape of naughtynesse, a mixture of confusion of thynges.
 Collybia, orum, fygge tartes, tartes of Portus-gall, or other lyke thynges.
 Collybistes, m. ge. he that deliuereth money by exchaunge, a banker.
 Collybus, i, ma. g. the losse of money receyued by exchaunge, or in banke, as men doo, whiche goe into straunge countreys, deliuerenge money of this realme, to receyue as much of an other come where he cometh.
 Collyra, ræ, f. gen. a losse of bycade or bunne, a craknell or symnell.
 Collyrida, æ, f. g. a cake.
 Collyrium, i, n. g. a medicine for sore eyes. Also a medicine for hoxles and oxen.
 Colo, aui, are, to streyne out licoure.
 Colo, iiii, êre, to worshyp, to loue or fauoure, to haue in estimacion, to haunte, to inhabite or dwell, to tyll or husbände lande.
 Colere questum suum, to seeke hys owne
 profite.
 Hanc vitam colo, I leade this lyfe.
 Colere officium, to doo his dutie or deuour.
 Colere pietatem, to haue his parentes in resuerence.

Colere se, to appoynt him selfe.
 Colere vitam, to lyue.
 Quia me colitis, & magnificitis, Because ye haue me in estimation, and let muche by me.
 Colere & amare.
 Colere, diligere, & obseruare.
 Colere & ornare.
 Colere aliquem loco, or in loco parentis, To loue and reuerence one as it were his owne
 father.
 Colere corpus, to trym or decke the bodie.
 Colere terram, agrum, hortum, vitem, To tyll or houthande the grounde.
 Colere urbem, domum, regionem, to dwell in a citee, house, or countrey.
 Colere & negligere, contrary.
 In officio colendo sita est vita honestas omnis, in negligendo turpitudine, in practyse that whiche is vertuous and comely, consisteth all the honestie of our lyfe: And in neglectynge
 the same, all vniclenesse and dishonesty.
 Villitate colere amicitiam, to fauoure and esteeme friendship for profit sake.
 Disciplinam colere, to applie learning.
 Memoriam alicuius colere, to kepe a solempne memorizall or remembrance of any person.
 Pudorem & pudicitiam colere, to be chaste fast and chaste.
 Colere religionem, to folow and esteeme religion.
 Testimoniorum religionem & fidem nun-quam ista natio coluit, this nation neuer este-med or regarded religion and trouthe, or was neuer true and faythfull in witness bearinge.
 Colobium, bij, n. g. a lacke of cote without sleeves that is short and cutted.
 Coloboma, matis, n. ge. the mayme or lacke of any membre of the bodie.
 Colocasia, x, f. g. a beane of Egypt.
 Colocassium, sij, n. g. idem. And after some the roote of that beane.
 Colocaurum, the citee Fridunall in Germanie.
 Colocynthis, idis, f. ge. a kynde of wyld gourdes, called of the apothecaries Coloquintida, which do moste vehemently purge sleume, after warde choler, finallye blood. Many men by this medicine haue finished theyr lyues, whan they haue thought thereby to haue pouged theyr bodie.
 Colomestrum, stri, n. g. a kynde of Aconitum Wiole.
 Colon, vel Colum, li, n. ge. a gutte, whiche goeth from the lesse syde to the right, in the whiche the dounge taketh his source. And there is the disease called Colica, the Colicke. It is also a membre of parte of a Periode.
 Colona, na, f. g. a husbände mans wyfe.
 Colonus, a place where Sophocles was borne.
 Colonarij, orum, m. g. rusticall people, tenants in villenage.
 Coloniarium, rij, n. g. or after some Columna;

rium, a certayne pension, whiche the Romans were compelled (by the three pythies called Triumviri) to paye for theyr houses at Rome.
 Also a rent paid for thynges belongynge to husbandrie. it maye be taken for the tenour (called with vs) villenage, where the tenants is bounde to plowe, hedge, and reape the lordes corne.
 Colonia, x, f. g. a cell, an vnder titee, an vnder towne, a place whither people are sent to dwell, whiche is not inhabited. it is also a citee, the people wherof came from an other citee builded before. it is sometyme a grange, where husban-drie is kept.
 Colonias nouas deducere, to make a new tites, and to bynge inhabitants of an other citee to dwell there.
 Colonicus, a, um, pertainynge to housbandry.
 Colonus, ni, m. g. a housbände man. Also Co-loni be they, which are sent to inhabite a countrey or towne. Also an hygh place in Athens, where Neptune was worshipped.
 Colonus, a, um, apt to be tilled.
 Ager colonus, A countrey whither men be sent to inhabite and manure the earth.
 Colophon, onis, A citee of Ionia in Grece, where was the temple of Apollo called Clarius and Homerus the famous poete was borne.
 Colophonem addere, to attchieue or bynge to conclusion the thyng that is enterprised, or taken in hande.
 Colophonia, x, f. ge. the herbe called also Scamonium, wherof is made the vehement purgation of choler: out of the roote distilleth a gume in grecke named Dacrydion, which signifieth a littell teare: that worde is now corrupted, and for Dacrydion, they call it Diagredium, which medicine beyng geuen without discretion, kyl-leth many men.
 Colophonij, people of Colophon.
 Color, or colos, oris, m. g. colour, and by a metaphore a cloke and pretense of a matter. also the externall face and beauty of a thyng.
 Amissus colorem & speciem pristinam ciuitatis, we haue losse the aunciente beautie and goodlynesse of our citee.
 Mutare colorem, to chaunge colour.
 Floridi colores, liuely colours.
 Thessalicus color, purple colour.
 Contactus colore aliquo, stained.
 Percoctus color, when one is bourned in the sonne.
 Tueri colorem, to preferue ones colour.
 Inducere colorem, to peyncte.
 Excidit color, his colour is fallen awaye.
 Colores rhetorici, be called of Cicero the fygures, tropes and ornaments of oration.
 Colorbafus, the name of an heretike, whiche taught, that all mans lyfe was gouerned by the
 vii. planettes.
 Coloratus, a, um, coloured peynted.
 R ij Colorius,

Colarius, a, um, of naturall colour, or that was neuer died.
Colorix vestes, garmentes made of woll vn- died.
Colorificus, a, um, that maketh colour, or colourerth.
Coloro, aui, are, to colour or make pretence.
Colos, li, m. gen. the fundement.
Colosse, a citee of Phrygia, whiche in the tyme of Nero was ouerthrowen with an earthquake.
Colossinus color, a kynde of violet or purple, died at Colosse, lyke the flower of the herbe called Cyclaminus.
Colosseus, & Colossicus, a, um, in fourme of Colossi, or great images.
Colossi, ymages of horrible greatnesse, lyke to towres: one of Apollo in the capitall at Rome was. xxx. cubites high. Also at Tarentum, one made by Apollonius, was. xl. cubites hygh. But at Rhodes one of the sonne, exceeding all other, was in heygth. lxx. cubites, made by Colassus, scholar to Apollonius. The thombe of that ymage few men might fathome. It was in makynge. xii. yeares, and the charges drew to .300. talentes, whiche amounteth to. 43115. li. Strabo writeth, that the ymage was of Jupiter, and made by Chares Apndius. besides this were an hundredth lesse Colossi in Rhodes, and at Rome were many made of mettall.
Colossica onera, great and heauy burdens.
Colostrum, a, f. g. vel Colostrum, i, n. gen. the firste milke that cometh in the brestes of douges incontinent after the byrthe, whiche hurte the infantes that souke it. Paladius sayth, that Oepherdes cal it the thicker parte of mylke, whiche I deeme to bee creame. Other thynke it to be kurdus.
Colostratio, onis, f. g. the corruption or disease of children, taken by soukyng of suche mylke.
Colostratus, a, um, that hath souked suche milke.
Colostrati infantes, children whiche haue souked such courtie mylke.
Colotos, a kynde of lycardes: after other, a certayne colour.
Colotes, the name of a peinter.
Colpe, a citee of Ionia.
Colube, a citee of India.
Coluber, bri, m. g. a serpent, whiche lieth in the shadow of woodes. It may be taken for our Adder or snake, although the properties of Coluber, described by Hierom, doo not agree to our snake or adder.
Colubaria, an yle in the middle sea.
Colubrifer, that beareth an adder or snake.
Colum, li, n. g. a strainer, a colander, a certayne vessell made of osiers, and occupied aboute makinge of wyne. Also a certayne disease, whiche first began in Tiberius the Emperour.
Columba, a dooue Columba liuia, a Rockdooue.
Columbar, aris, n. g. a pyllozie.
Columbaris, re, of a dooue.

Columbarium, ri, neu. gen. a douehouse or culuer house. also a culuer hole.
Columbarius, ri, ma. ge. he that keepeth a douehouse.
Columbarim, in the maner of dooues.
Columbinus, a, um, of a culuer or dooue.
Ouum columbinum, a pigeons egge.
Columbulus, li, m. g. a littell pigeon.
Columbus, bi, m. g. & Columba, ba, f. g. a culuer or dooue.
Columella, the name of one that wrote of husbandrie most eloquently.
Columella, la, f. gen. a diminutive of Columna. Sometime the chiefe seruant in the house. Also a parte of the mouth, called gutturis vula.
Columellares dentes, cheeke teeth.
Columen, inis, neu. gen. the succour or stay, the wynde beame of an house.
Columen familie, the chiefe stay or succour of a familie: lykewyse Columen reipublice.
Amicorum Antonij columen, the chiefe or principall of Antonies friends.
Columis, & hoc columine, whole, sounde, in good health.
Columna, a, f. g. a colunne or pylloze.
Scapus columnæ, the bodie of the pylloze.
Capitulum columnæ, the toppie or chapter of a pylloze.
Immanes columnæ, merueylous great.
Spira or basis columnæ, the base or foute of a pylloze.
Columnæ Herculis, two mountaynes, one at the westmost parte of Spayne, the other in the westmost west parte of Africke, where now are the Greeces of Cyll or Marroche. Some holde opinion, that it is two yles in the sayde Greeces, one of them in Europe, & the other in Africke. Some (as Strabo sayth) affirme them to be in dedde two pyllozes of brasse, in the yle Gades, longyng to Spayne, set in the temple of Hercules, in the honoz of him, where they that traualled by the meddell sea, and were come to the westmost parte therof, and entrynge into the Ocean sea, came and dyd sacrifice to Hercules: which opinion Plutarchus thought to be most true.
Columnarium, looke Colonarium.
Columnatus, a, um, that standeth on pyllozes.
Columnella, la, f. g. gene. a diminutive of columna.
Columinus, was in olde tyme that, whiche we call now Culmus.
Colari, are two great circles in the Sphere, which do declare the time called Aequinoctia & Solstitia, that is to say, whan the daye and nyght be equall in length: Also whan the day is longest and the nyght at most length.
Colurnus, a, um, of the tree Cornus.
Colus, li, and Colus, us, f. g. a disaffe. In Colus it is redde in the, m. g.

Colus, li, m. g. a kynde of tortures made of lez then.
Colutca, f. g. a tree. or as some thinke an herbe called Gene, wherof the leaues and cobbles are ministred in medicines to purge melancoly.
Colutrum, rei, n. g. the fruite of that tree.
Colyca, arum, eates in the earth, wherem Salte petre is founde.
Colymbades, olyues or oyle beated, condis in hygne or pickle.
Colyrides, littell small lous lyke manibottes.
Coma, x, f. gen. all the heate together, called a bushe. It is also taken sometyme for the lea-ues of trees and bryanches of herbes.
Colamistrara coma, a rusted and set bushe of heare.
Populea coma, bryanches of Poplars.
Lacerare comas, to teare ones heare.
Nutrire comam, to trimme and set muche by ones bushe.
Composita coma, a manis heare trimmed and set.
Steterunt comas, his heare staid.
Religare comam, to hynde or tie vp the heare.
Peccere comam, to combe the heare.
Soluere comam, to vndoos the heare that is bounde vp.
Comagene, a parte of Syria.
Comaginum, ni, n. g. a caryage opmenthe of medicine.
Comana, a citee in the greater Cappadocia, and other in Pontus. The people are called Comani.
Comans, anis, om. ge. that hath a great bushe of heare.
Comans humus, the grounde that hath muche
 grasse.
Equi comantes, hoxses with longe manes.
Comans galea, an helme with a plume of fethers.
Comans stella, a blaspyng sterre.
Comari, a people of Asia, beyonde the Syethes.
Comarus, ri, called also Vnedo, and Arbutum,
 a kynde of appuls, whiche are so vnplesant,
 that but one onely can be eaten at ones.
Comata, a Sheperdes name in Theocrite.
Comatulus, a bope with a fayre bushe of heare.
Comatus, a, um, that hath a great bushe of heare by translation it is sayed of trees or herbes, that haue longe leaues or floures.
Comata Gallia, all Fraunce, on this halfe the mountaynes.
Combe, a mayden that inuented the armoure of Eneas.
Combennones, looke Benna.
Combibo, combibi, ere, to drinke with one, to sucke vp.
Combibere artes, to leatne sciences.
Combibor, the passue.
Combibo, onis, mascu. gen. a companion in dyngnyge.

Combinatio, onis, f. g. a coupling together.
Combindi, sul, are, to combine or confederate gythes, to blinde in couples.
Combretum, called also Conferua, Conuolatulus, of the Apothecaries Volubilis, of some Flouialis spongia, an herbe that groweth in the bottoome of ryuers, thynke together lyke the moue of a sponge, the leafe lyke to Simlax, and the floure lyke a white floure. It is veyr vble some for woundes, soze bryues, & broken bones.
Combard, bursi, ere, to burne or consume with fyre.
Combustibilia, thynges that may be bourned, or that be apte to receiue fier.
Come, es, f. g. an herbe called godes berde.
Comedim, olde wytted vnto for Comedam.
Comedo, onis, m. g. he that consumeth his owne goodes riotously, a glutton.
Comedus, di, idem.
Comedo, comedis, edi, ere, to eate, to consume
 riotously.
Comedere patrimonium, to consume his inheritaunce in riotte.
Comedere beneficium, to forgette a good turne.
Comedere aliquem, bona alicuius, or numi-mos, to walke or consume a mans goodes, to stainte or money.
Comenses, people of Comum in Fraunce.
Comes, itis, com. gen. a compaignion or fellow,
 and is applied to diuers other thynges, as well as to man. Also a name of dignitie, whiche we call an earle.
Vie comes, & itineris comes, a compaignion that iourneth wyth one by the way.
Addere, prabere, aut adiungere se comitem, to accompany him selfe with one.
Prabere se comitem alicuius furoris, to bee compaigne one that enterpriseth some myches-tidous or furious acte.
Comitem Platonis se proficere, he professeth hym selfe to be folowyr of Plato.
Comites iudicium, amonge the Romans were the Legates, Pryuocles, Questors, Secretaries, and suche other that wente with them that were assigned to the gouernance of prouinces.
 Also they that were assistent to iudges in matters of the common weale.
Largitionum comes, qui praterat largitionibus imperatoris.
Comes domorum, maister of the houtholde
 in a princes corte.
Comes horreorum, he that hath the ouersight of the bakchoule and barne, with prouision of breade for a princis house.
Comes laborum, ouerscar of the workemen.
Comes rerum priuatarum, he that the emper-our trusted in the ouersight and charge of all priuate matters.
Comes stabuli, maister of the hoxses.
Comes patrimonij, he that had the ouersight of the emperours heritage.

Comessabundus, a, um, that bleseth to go a banquetting, revelling, and gourmandysenge: also overcharged with meate and dymke.
Comessans, idem quod Comessator.
Comessario, f. gen. a bankette after supper, or a pottous banquetting, a revesupper.
Comessaror, oris, m. g. a banketter, a reveller, a riotour out of season.
Comesse, for Comedere, to eate.
Comessor, status, su, are, to banquet after supper.
Temulento agmine comessabundus incessit He wente lyke a reveller wyth a drunken route aboute him.
Comest, for Comedit, he eateth.
Comestura, x, f. g. an eatyng.
Comestus, a, um, eaten. Comestus, a, um, idem.
Cometes, the father of Aetion, one of the Argonautes.
Cometes, x, or Cometa, x, m. g. a blasing starre.
Comicus, a, um, of a comedie.
Comidrys, idem quod psillium.
Cominia, a kynde of olyues.
Cominus, forthwith, at hand, hande to hande.
Pugnare cominus, to come to hande strokes, to fyght hande to hande.
Cominus, and Eminus, contrary.
Aer cominus aestuat, forthwith the ayre became troublous.
Comis, me, om, gen. gentle, benigne, familiar, full of good humanitee. Sometyme redye to forgyue, curteise.
Comitas, atis, f. g. gentynesse, humanitee, curteysie. Comitas & affabilitas sermonis, gentynesse and courtesye in talkyng.
Comitas & Beneficentia.
Comitas & facilitas.
Obsequium & comitas.
Comitas & severitas, contrary.
Aspergere grauitati comitatem, to bee sage and graue, in suche wyse, that he sheweth hym selfe gentill with all.
Exquisitissima comitatis cœna dare, to make one a supper, and shewe hym therein excedyng gentynesse and humanitee.
Grauitas condita comitate, grauitee, sauced or made pleasaunt with gentill behauor.
Comitatus, us, mal. gen. fellowship, company, retinue, a trayne. Sometyme a princis corte.
Sometyme an assemble of people, if the princis erre not.
Comitatus, a, um, accompanied.
Ex viue parum comitatus exhibat. He wente oute of the citee haupnge with him but a small company.
Vno est comitator, he hath one the moze in his company.
Homo est comitassimus, The man hath very many that kepe him company.
Comiter, gentilly, courteisly, wyllyngly, gladly, sweetely.

Comiter & benigne appellare aliquem, To speake to one, and call hym by his name gentilly and fauourably.
Comiter accipere aliquem, to welcome one sweetely and gentilly.
Comitia, orum, neu. gen. plu. a congregation or assemble of the people, for election of officers, or for promulgacion of lawes, lyke to our parliament.
Comitia edicere, to calle or summon a parliament.
Comitia calata, looke Calatus.
Comitia habere, to holde or kepe a counsaile or parliament.
Comitia, le, pertynyng to the conuocation, or conuocation house.
Comitiales homines, befy fellows full of pretencion. Also they that be taken with the falslyng sickness.
Comitialis dies, The day whan people assemble at Rome for the election of officers.
Comitialis morbus, the falslyng sickness.
Comitialiter, in maner of the falslyng sickness.
Comitiarius, a, um, lyke the assemble or congregation of the people.
Statio comitaria, whan an army of souldiours bee together in fourme of counsaile or congregation.
Comitiatus, a, um, chosen by consente of the people at theyr assemble.
Comitiatus, us, the assemblyng or gatherynge together of the people.
Comitium, tij, n. g. the place where the assemble is made.
Comitor, atus sum, ari, and Comito, aui, are, to company or go with one, or kepe fellowshippe with other.
Quæ comitantur huic vitæ, whiche be toygned or coupled with this life. where note, that it is construed with a datiu case.
Superbia comitatur honores, pryde is alwaye toygned to honour: or pryde foloweth or accompanyeth honour.
Comitare aliquem, to kepe one company.
Comma, commatis, neu. g. a point, dyuydinge a sentence, where many thembyes be: as,
Nihil te nocturnum præsidium palatii, nihil vrbis, vigilia, nihil timor populi, nihil concursus bonorum omnium, nihil habendi senatus locus munitissimus, nihil horum ora vultusque mouerunt?
Comma, a kynde of money, of very small value.
Commaculo, aui, are, idem quod Maculo. also to steyne a mans honestie or good name.
Commaculare se ambitu, to steyne his honestie with vnlawfull labouryng for any office or dignitee.
Manus commaculare sanguine alicuius, to polute or defile ones self with the vniust shedding of a mans blood.
Commado, commades, madiui, ere, idem quod quod Madro.

Commalo, idem quod Exerceo, I worde out of use.
Commandatus, a, um, chewed or eaten.
Commandatus cibus, chewed meate.
Commandatus, us, m. g. chewynge.
Commanduco, aui, re, to chew meate.
Commampulo, onis, ma. ge. a souldiour of the same bande that an other is.
Commarius, ti, ma. g. one that is in stede of an husbunde.
Commata, torum, neu. gen. trenches, whereby water is let out of a ponde or ryuer. also a kind
 of money.
Commeatus, us, mascu. gen. a saufe conductte, a passorte. Sometyme bytales for an army or multitude of men, or for any other pyuate person.
Comméditor, aris, ari, to meditate or muse on a
 thyng.
Commeminisse, to remembre.
Commémini, I remembre, or I dooe remembre well.
Commemorabilis, le, woorthy to be mentioed.
Commemorandus, a, um, to bee remembred, mentioed or spoken of.
Commemoranda liberalitas, liberalytee worthy to bee mentioed or commended of anye
 man.
Commemoratio, onis, f. gen. a mencionyng, a remembraunce, a reherfall, or a puttynge one in mynde of a thyng.
Commemoro, aui, are, to reherse, to make reherfall of a thyng, to remembre, to tell, to put one in mynde or remembraunce, to mentio or speake
 of a thyng.
De cuius virtute ante cōmemorauī, of whose vertue I haue spoken befoze.
Quid quoquo die egerim, commemoro velle pere, I recorde or call to my remembrance in the euenyng.
Commemorare officia, quæ contulimus in aliquem, to put one in mynde of the freendlye pleasures that we haue doone for him.
Sed quid ego complura commemorem? But why should I respte any more?
Commendabilis, le, woorthy to be commended or prayled.
Commendatio, onis, f. g. a commendacion or praylyng a lettynge out, an hablyng, or auancyng of the dygnities of any thyng.
In prima commendatione aliquid ponere, to commende or prayle a thyng first of all, or specially.
In vulgus commendatio, reputacion or estimacion among the common people.
Commendationem ineuntis ætatis ab impi-etate & scelere ducere, to make his youth fryst of all famous and notable by some impious or detestable acte.
Commendarius, a, um, that wherewith a man is remembred or recommended.

Commendatix literæ, letters of commendacion.
Commendator, oris, m. g. he that recommendeth one to another. He that laudeth, prayleth or bestereth, he that anaunceth or setteth forth the dignities of any thyng.
Commendatrix, icis, f. gen. she that commendeth.
Lex virtutum commendatrix, The law is the letter forth and commender of vertue.
Commendatus, a, um, prayled, commended, hablyd, sette forth. Also committed to a thyng or persone.
Ex virtute sua commendat nobis res, thynges that we loue, for the profite that cometh to vs by them.
Commendatum habere aliquid, To haue a thyng so commended of one, as it were to defende or supporte the same.
Commendationis esse famam, to bee more resnoued, to be better reported of.
Sibi commendatus, one that fauoureth or losueth him selfe.
Commendo, aui, are, to commende or prayle.
 Sometyme to commende, to sette out, and make more acceptable and woorthy prayle, to hablyd, to anaunce the dignities of a thyng, also to comytte, and as it were to put one in truste with a thyng, or person, to speake or wyse in ones commendacion or fauour.
Morlens nōs commendauit tibi, whan he dyed, he prayled you to be good vnto vs.
Committre & commendare.
Ego me tuæ commendo fidei, I comytte my selfe to your trueth and honestie, I put my selfe into your handes.
Rem & famam suam commendare, & con-credere alicui, to comytte and putte ones goodes and good name into the handes or tuition of any man. Lykewise Commendare & tradere se alicui.
Iustitiam suam humanitate commendat, with his gentylnesse he maketh his iustice commendable.
Eius negotij tibi commendo, I desyre you to shewe fauour to him in his busynesse.
Commendare se clientelam alicuius, to put him selfe in the tuiion or protection of any noble man.
Commendari, to be esteemed.
Nulla re magis commendatur orator, quam verborum splendore, an oratour is not more esteemed.
Commendare sempiternæ gloriæ, or immor-talitati, to make a thyng to be famous and renoued for euer: to gette it an immortall name.
Commendare memoriæ, to committe a thyng to memozie, to kepe it in mynde.
Commendare se fugæ, to flee.
Commendare literis, to put in wytyng.
 Commenda-

Commendare halitum realiqua, to make his breath more sweete with any thyng.
 Oleum amigdalinum colorem commendat, oyle of almondes maketh one to haue a good colour, or setteth sooth the colour.
 Virtus commendat virum, vertue commendeth a man, and maketh him to be more esteemed.
 Eloquentiam vox maxime commendat, The voyce commendeth and setteth sooth a mans eloquence chiefly.
 Commensus, us, m. g. an equall propozcion and measure of thynges.
 Commentaculum, li, n. g. a marshals, or an hushers rodde.
 Commentationis, ensis, ma. ge. he that keepeth the register booke, or a gallowe that is charged with the keepynge of trespassours.
 Commentariolum, a little register or memorill.
 Commentarium, ri, n. g. vel commentarius, ri, m. g. a bypdyment or other booke that containeth thynges byefely wyrtten. Also a comment or exposition. Also a booke of remembrance, a register. Sometyme a byefie history, containing the actes of anye personne or common weale. Also a byefie note of instruction or memorill.
 Rerum vrbaniarum commentarium, a booke or register, wherein suche thynges as are doone in a citee, are byefely noted.
 Conficere commentarios, to drawe out a byefie memorill of thynges.
 Commentarium paulo plenius, a wyrtynge, wherein thynges bee mencioned somewhat at large.
 Referre, or Regerere in commentarios, to register.
 Scribere commentarios rerum suarum, to make or wyrtte a byefie history of his owne actes.
 Commentatio, onis, f. g. a meditatynge or deuysynge of a thyng: a debatynge or reasonynge of a matter. Sometyme a description or settynge sooth of a thyng in wyrtynge.
 Meditatio, and Commentatio idem.
 Commentatio & cogitatio, idem.
 Causarum commentatio, a meditatynge or debatynge of causes afore hande.
 Mortis commentatio, medytatynge of death before hande.
 Commentarius, a, um, deuyled, ymagined, byspited, wyrtten.
 Commentitius, a, um, feygned, or deuyled for the tyme. Sometyme newly inuented or deuyled.
 Crimen commentitium, a false ymagined accusation.
 Ficta & commentitia.
 Noua & commentitia.
 Commentator, oris, m. g. an inuenter or deuyser.
 Commentor, aris, ari, to thynke on, to make mention, to dispute, common, talke or reason of matters, to wyrtte commentaries or bookes of remembrance. Also to deuise, to inuent or ymagyne a false tale.

 Id ipsum mecum in his locis commentor, I thynke or muse on the same matter here with my selfe.
 Futuras mecum commentabar miseras, I considered or cast with my selfe, what miseries would follow.
 Cum in hortos commentandi causa venissemus, after that we were come into the gardenes, to talke, deuise, and reason of matters.
 Commentari & meditari de re aliqua, to reason on a deuise of any matter.
 Commentari aliquem, to counterfayt any persone.
 Commentemur inter nos, qua ratione. &c. Lette vs deuise amonge our selues, by what meane, &c.
 De militari disciplina commentari, to wyrtte a booke of martiall polycy, or of warfare.
 Cum commentaremur hæc, when wee bydwytte these thynges.
 Commentum, ti, n. g. a rothment or exposition, a matter feygned, a sodayne deuyle, a phantasye.
 Commentus, a, um, actiuelly, that inuently: passiuelly, that is inuented, ymagyned, or feygned.
 Non verisimile est tantum scelus commentum esse, It is not lykely, that he deuised or inuented so heynouse an act.
 Commentus est illud de sua sententia, He deuised that of him selfe: He inuented that of his owne byayne, or of his owne phantasie.
 Commenta sacra, relygions inuented and feigned.
 Commeo, aui, are, to goe hyther and thither, or to goe to or with an other, to come and goe.
 Ab ortu ad occasum commeat sol, The sonne goeth from the east vnto the weste.
 Commeare vltro citroq, to goe hyther and thither, to walke by and downe.
 Crebro illius literæ ad nos commeant, His letters come to vs oftentimes.
 Quacunque commeauerat, By what so euer waye he passed.
 Vt ruto ab repentino hostium incurfu singuli commeare possent, that euery one might come and goe safely, without daungier of the sodayne inuasion of the enemies.
 Dicit, posse internuntio sermones commeare, He sayed, that theyr communication or wordes myghte be declared by some messenger goynge betwene.
 Commécor, aris, ari, idem quod Mercor.
 Commércium, cij, n. g. an enterpryse or bybertee to cary marchandise from one place to an other. Also communication or foyme of byngre and sellynge together, also a familiar custome of acquitaing Commercium, sermonis, communication, talkinge.

Quid tibi mecum est commercij? what acquaintance of familiaritee hast thou with me?
Non habet illum cum virtute commercium, he useth no honeste or vertuous conuersation at all.
Perdere linguæ commercia, to lose the vse of the toungue.
Miscere commercio diuersas gentes, to mingle diuers nations together, by entrecouise of marchaundise.
Commereo, commeres, merui, ere, to deserue, to commette, to offende of trespassse.
Si senserit te inuidum pater, arbitrabitur commersisse culpam, If thy father do perceyue the to be a frayde: he wyll suppose that thou art gyltee, or hast committed the offence.
Quid commerui? what haue I done amysse?
Nunquam quicquam erga me commerta est, She neuer trespassed any thyng agaynst me.
Commerere culpam in se, to committe a faulte agaynst ones selfe.
Commereor, idem quod commereor.
Commereri culpam, to doe an offence.
Commessari, loke Comesari.
Commetior, iris, iri, idem quod Metior.
Commetiri cum tempore negotium, to conferre the busynesse with the tyme, or to measure it by the tyme.
Commetare, for Commear, a wooide out of vse.
Commictilis, le, sette together, trymmed.
Commigro, commigras, aui, are, to goe with one to a place. also to goe from one place to dwell in an other.
Neg enim huc diu commigrarunt, It is not longe sene they came hither to dwell.
Commiles, militis, m. ge. a souldiour with an other vnder one capytayne.
Commilitum, ij, n. g. fellowshyp in warres.
Commilito, onis, m. g. a fellow of companyon in warres.
Comminatio, onis, f. g. a threathynge or manastynge.
Comminiscor, eres, commentus sum, sci, to call to remembraunce, to inuent of ymagyne, to deuyle.
Comministro, aui, are, idem quod ministro.
Comminor, aris, ari, to threten vehemently.
Comminuo, ul ere, to breake in small pieces.
Frangere & comminuere aliquem, to breake or abate ones power.
Auaritia comminuit atque violat officium, Through couetousnesse, he neglected and threwe asyde all honest dealing towards his freende.
Comminui te familiari, made pooer.
Comminus, loke Cominus.
Commisceo, scui, ere, to mixe together.
Commiscere aliquid cum altero, to mynge gle one thyng with an other.

Commiscere consilium cum aliquo, to consult with an other man.
Commiseratio, onis, f. gen. compassion, or mowynge of pitee.
Commiseresco, scere, to haue compassion.
Commiseror, aris, ari, idem quod Miseror.
Commisso, confutations, thynges doone contrary to the testament of any man, and punished by some penaltie.
Commissio, onis, f. gen. a settinge together of twayne or mo in iryll of maystry in any feastes.
Commissionses pratorum, were the relections or publick charges of places made by the great officers called Prætores.
Commissorius, a, um, an adiectiue.
Lex commissoria, an exception, covenant, or condition in any busynesse or contracte, whiche not beyng fulfilled, the whole bargayne is voyde.
Lege commissoria emere, to take by a thyng, that if the mony be not payed at a date appointed, the bargayne is voyde.
Commissum, si, n. g. a thyng committed or done, a trespassse.
Commissa regere, to keepe secreete that is tolde to a man.
Prodere commissa, contrary to the other.
Punire commissa, to punish the trespassses.
Commissura, æ, f. ge. a ioynt of any thyng that is closed and opened, as propriety of tables, whiche be ioynted.
Commissus, a, um, doone, committed to the keeping of one, trespassed, ioynted or sette together, myngled.
Commissum bellum, open warre.
Bella commissa alicui, geuen in charge to one.
Ludi commissi, playes begunne.
Picula commissa, greuous offences committed.
Commitigo, aui, are, idem quod Mitigo. also to knocke.
Tibi uti commitigari videam sandalio caput, That I may see thee knocked on the head with his slypper.
Committo, si, ere, to committe into ones handes or charge, to enioyne, to offende or trespassse, to ioyne or put together. Also to dooe or begynne. It doth also betoken, to deliuer, to committe, to byng to contention, to sette together, to confute, to seyle for a forsaikure, to prosecute or styre.
Quibus dictis, mox prælium commiscere, That spoken, they began battayle.
Committre alicuius plagæ oras futuris, to strike a wounde together as surgions dooe.
Committre semen solo, to cast seede into the grounde, to sowe seede.
Bona nostra hæc tibi committo, These my goodes I committe into your handes.

Seruō ne fortunas meas me commississe futuli, To haue put or committed all that I haue, to a lyght pratyng knaue.
 Committere & commendare.
 Committere & communicare.
 Committere & credere.
 Arbitrio alicuius committere aliquid, to com-mytte a thyng to a man to order as he wyl him
 selfe.
 Committere literas alicui, to putte one in trust to conueygh letters.
 Committere gnatam vxorem alicui, to geue his daughter in maryage to one.
 Committere in discrimen, to put in daunger.
 Nauigationi, or ponto se committere, to take
 the sea.
 Periculo mortis se committere, to putte hym
 selfe in daunger of death.
 Itineri se committere, to take a iourney.
 Par gladiatorum committere, to sette together
 two sworde players.
 Committere bellum, to make open warre.
 Spectaculum committere, to begynne a may-game or syght. Likewise Ludos committere.
 Non timent, qui nihil commiserunt, They that haue not offended feare not.
 Committere contra legem, to trespasse against
 the lawe.
 Committere adulterium, eadem, culpam,
 delictum, flagitium, fraudem.
 Rixam committere, to bzaule or chide.
 Ne committas, vt aliquando dicendum sit,
 Non putaram, doe not so, that thou must say after at any tyme, I thought not so muche.
 Committere se in aspectum populi, to shewe
 hym selfe in the syght of the people.
 Calumniatores apposuit, qui illam hereditatem Veneri commissam dicerent, he suborned certayne false accusers, whiche shoulde say, that that heritage was confisate or seyled as forfayte to Venus.
 Commodatarius, ri, maf. gen. he that taketh a thyng of lene: he that borroweth, he to whom any thyng is lent.
 Commodatares, a thing lent without auantage.
 Commodē, very well, profitably, aptely, hande-somely, to ones paine or appetyte, conueniently, to the purpose.
 Commodē cadere, to happen or succede well,
 or to the purpose.
 Commodē verba facere, to speake thynges to
 the purpose.
 Commodissime per eum agi potest, it maye be done by him moste conueniently.
 Minus commodē audire, to haue a shewde name, or to be yll reported of.
 Commodē cadit, it fortuneth well, or it com-
 meth well to passe.
 Commodē dicere, to speake fayre.
 Commodē latine dicere, to speake a thyng in pure and cleane latyne.

Commodē res gerere, to exployte matters prosperously.
 Commoditas, atis, f. g. a commoditee, deptyte,
 profyte, aptnesse, conuenientnesse.
 Commoditas hominis, the facilitie or cour-tesie of one, whiche agreeth to any request.
 Commodō, aui, are, to dooe for an other mans commoditee, to dooe good to, to shewe pleasure or commoditee also to lende.
 Commodare capillum, to hembe the heade, to decke the bushe.
 Commodare loquelam, to speake.
 Commodare operam, to helpe.
 Quicquid eis commodaueris, erit mihi maiorem in modum gratum, what so euer you shall dooe for their profyte, or what so euer ye shall doo them good in, shall be to me verie acceptable.
 Ob suam causam commodare alicui, to dooe good to an other for his owne commoditee.
 Commodare alicui in re aliqua, to dooe good or shewe pleasure to one in any matter.
 Commodare, for Accommodare.
 Omnibus in rebus te illi commodas, Bende your selfe to shewe him pleasure in all thynges.
 Commodamus vestes, libros, vasa, equos, & similia, quae eadem redduntur. Mutuo autem damus nummos, frumentum, vinum, pro quibus alia redduntur eiusdem generis.
 Aurem alicui commodare, improprie.
 Aurem commodare alicui, to geuerate, or hatchen to one.
 Commodito, aui, are, a frequentatiue of Commodo.
 Commodūle, a diminutiue of commodō.
 Commodum, i, n. g. profyte or commoditee. also a thyng good, apte, and conueniente. some tyme it is an aduerbe, and than it signifieth the same tyme, in good tyme, leysure, or opportunitie, scarcely.
 Commodum discesseras heri, cum Trebati-us venit, Thou were scarcely departed yesterday, whan Trebati-
 us was come.
 Comparare sua commodā ex incommodis alterius, to geat his commoditees or pleasures by an other mans harmes and dysprofyte.
 Inhibere commodā alicuius, to hynder or lette
 a mans profytes.
 Inferuire suis commodis, to worke for his owne profyte.
 Quum est commodum, whan it shall bee thought good, conuenient or meete.
 Vt cui tibi esse commodum condonares, that you myght pardon whom ye thynke good.
 Si id non commodum erit, ores vt redeat, yf he may not so dooe conueniently, praye hym to come agayne.
 Si commodum est, apud me sis hodie volo,
 If you haue leysure, or if ye may conueniently,
 I would ye shulde be with me to daie.
 Quod comodo tuo fiat, as muche as you
 maye,

maie, saynge your selfe harmlesse: Or so that you put your selfe to no discomfort, or as farre as you maie conveniently.
Commodum huc aduerterat, As hadde was,
he tournd this waie.
Commodum, aduerb. in good tyme, or season,
as fortune was. also scarsely, when cum fol-loweth.
Commodus, a, um, profitable or apt, handsome,
good to agree withall, feate, commodious, pleasant, tractable, easy to be pleased, beninge, husmaine, gentle.
Commodus capillus, a bushe well decked,
or kempte.
Commodus homo, a tractable or reasonable manne.
Commodus conuiua, a guest not curious to please.
Commoda & faceta mulier, a pleasaunte and mery woman.
Litera commodat, pleasaunte letters such as a man despyeth.
Commoda statuta homo, a man of good stature, not to great nor to litle.
Commodum id non est, it maie not bee ear-sely doone.
Commodum obsonare, to vse moderate fare.
Commoda valetudo, good health.
Te iam commodiorem, mitioremque nuns-ciant, They shewe that you bee moze tractable and gentill.
Vestis comoda ad cursum, handesome or easie to renne in.
Commodus, & inhumanus, contrary.
Commodis moribus homo, a man of gentill behaviour, nothyng straunge or curpouse.
Commodius esse opinor, I thynke it better or moze conuenient.
Commo: reo, moeres, ui, ere, to be all heauie or sory.
Commoli: or, liris, litus sum, liri, to go about or endeuour.
Commoliri dolem, to go about decrypts.
Commolo, molui, commolitum, lere, to bruite or bzeake.
Commonefacio, communefacis, feci, ere, to warne or aduyle one, to geue a man warnynge, to put him in mynde of a thyng.
Commonefieri, to be warned.
Amicitia veteris communefacere aliquem,
to put one in mynde of olde frendshyp.
Commonefacere rem aliquam, for Commemorare.
Commoneo, communes, monui, ere, idem quod Commonefacio.
Aliorum exempla commonent, the examples of other men do shew or teache me.
Amice commune, to warne frendly.
Commonere aliquem, to remembre one of a
thyng.
Commonere aliquem officium suum, to adu:

uertise one what he ought to dooe, or what his dutie is.
Commonitorium, ri, neut. gene. a pteule conuention.
Commonitus, a, um, monyshed, aduertysed, warned, put in remembrance.
Commonstro, aui, are, to shewe a thyng that is hyd or vnknowen.
Viam commonstrare, to shewe or teache the
waie.
Commoratio, onis, f. g. a bydyng, a taryng, or lyngetyng. Also a fygure of rhetoricke, when one abydeth longe vpon a matter.
Commordeo, di, ere, to byte.
Commorior, eris, commori, to dye with one.
Commorientes, they that dye together. Also the name of a commedy in Plautus.
Commoro, aui, are, to make to tary.
Commoror, aris, ari, to abyde with one, also to dwell in a place for a tyme. also to make one to tary that is goyng.
Malefacis, properantem qui me commorare, folabit, Thou doest naught to tary me, send
I goe in haste, and the sunne is now sette.
Tardare & commorari.
Consistere & commorari.
Complures dies ibi commoratus est, He as bode there a longe tyme.
Commorare multis verbis in re aliqua, to a-byde longe in a matter, and speake muche
of it.
Anteauspiciu commoratum est: an tempestas continet, qui non abisti ad legiones, ita vt dudum dixerat: Dyd the token, shewed by the byrdes, cause the to tary: or elles the wether kepe the hache, that thou wenterst not to the arme, as thou saydest a while agoe that thou wouldest?
Commortalis, le, mortall, that shall or must peryshe or dye.
Commotsem, for Commouissem.
Commotio, onis, f. g. a commocion, perturbacion, or disquietynge.
Commotio animi, perturbation or disquiettyng of the mynde.
Commotiuncula, lx, fce. gen. the diminutiu of Commotio.
Commotria, a mayden that dooeth arate or ap-parayle hir maistresse.
Commotus, a, um, merued, troubled, aspayde, angry. also quicke.
Grauiter commotus, veraye angry.
Commotum reddere, to bere or angre.
Commoueo, commoues, moui, ere, to trouble, to bere or disquiete, to remoue, to plucke or stee-pe to a thyng. sometyme to depart.
Tu & cura vt valeas, & te istinc ne temere commoueas, farewell, and take hede, that thou depart not hence to hastily.
Commouere castra, to remoue the campe.
Ab Amalthea te non commouebo, I wyl not

not cause you to departe or remoue from Ithal-thea.
 Commouere sui expectationem, to cause one to looke for him.
 Grauitur primo nuncio commotus sum, I was very angry or greatly moued with the first tydings.
 Ad turpe compendium aliquem commouere, to moue a man to fylthy lucre.
 Commouere dolorem, to make sozr.
 Misericordiam, inuidiam, iracundiam, com-mouere.
 Odium in aliquem commouere, to make one hated.
 Tumultum aut bellum commouere, to reyle
 by ruffling.
 Commouere se aliquo, to departe from a place.
 Commisceo, lei, ere, to mitigate or assuage.
 Commune, is, n. g. a communaltee.
 Communicatio, onis, f. g. communicacion, consultacion, making of an other part taker in any mattier.
 Communicatio sermonis, communicacion, talking, or deuyng together.
 Communicatus, a, um, sometyme actiuelly, making an other part taker, conferting in commu-nicacion. sometyme passiuely, commoned of, conferred, or made part taker.
 Communico, aui, are, to communicate or depart
 a thyng with an other, whiche I haue. sometyme to common or talke together, to conferre counselles.
 Communicaui tecum consilia mea, I haue made you ppyr of my counsayles.
 Rem cum altero communicare, to make an other part taker with vs in a mattier.
 Magistratus communicare cum plebeis, to suffer the commoners to beare offytes as well as the nobles.
 Communicare laborem, to labour together
 one with an other.
 Laudem cum altero communicare, to make an other part taker of our laude and renoume.
 Alike wyse Lucrum communicare.
 Mensa sua communicare aliquem, to geue one meate and drynke at his table.
 Communica mecum hanc prouinciam, helpe me in atchieuyng this mattier.
 Impartire & communicare.
 Ad te scripseram, vt cum Camillo communicares, I wrote to you, that you shoulde common or talke with Camillus.
 Communicare inter se de re aliqua, to common, talke or deuyse together of any mattier.
 De officio vtriusque nostrum communicare, to talke or conferre together, concernyng bothe
 our dueties, or what both you and I ought to dooe.
 Communicari, sometyme in the actiue signification.
 Communio, onis, f. g. communion; mutuell, participation together.

 Communio sanguinis, kyntede.
 Communio sermonis, talking together.
 Communio legis, a felowshyppe vnder one lawe, as is betwene the men of one citee or countrey.
 Communio, communis, niui, ire, to fortifie, or make stronge, to fence on all partes.
 Communis, ne, that is in common, that longeth as well to one as to an other, common. sometyme for vniuersus.
 Communes dies, were vnlike daies to goe about any thyng, such as we call dishonour daies, or crosse daies.
 Communis, aris, f. g. communaltee, participation, felowship.
 Communiter, in common.
 Communiter & separatim, Opposita.
 Communis, a, um, fortified, fenced, made stronge.
 Commarmuro, aui, are, idem quod Murmuro.
 Commurmuro, aris, ari, idem.
 Commutabilis, le, that whiche maie bee easely
 chaunged.
 Commutatio, onis, f. g. an exchange, one thyng for an other, an alteration.
 Commutationes temporum quadripartite,
 the. iiii. alterations and changes of the yere.
 Animorum commutationes, the alterations and changeynges of mens myndes.
 Commutatus, us, a chaunge or alteration.
 Venire in commutatum, to bee altered or chaunged.
 Commutatus, a, um, chaunged, altered.
 Commuto, aui, are, to chaunge one thyng for an other, to alter.
 Commutare verba, to chyde, or to geue a shewde woorde for a good.
 Commutare aliquem, to change ones minde.
 Commutare captiuos, to change ppysoners.
 Commutare fidem & religionem pecunia, for money to dooe agaynst trouth and conscience.
 Sententiam & consilium commutare, to chaunge ones aduise, purpose, or counsayle.
 Mortem cum vita commutare, to die.
 Commutare in horas, to chaunge euery houre.
 Commutare aliquid in libris, to alter, change,
 or amende any thyng in bookes.
 Animos commutare & flectere, to moue or chaunge mens myndes.
 Commutare contumeliam alicuius vita sua, to put his lyfe in daungier, to woozke an other man reproche or despyte.
 Como, psi, ere, to kemb or decke the bushe, to apparayle gorgeously, to trymme, to attyre, to pple, to make gaie, properly it belongeth to women.
 Comedia, x, f. g. an enterlude, wherein the common vices of men and women are apparantly declared in personages, a comedie.

Comed.

Comedice, gently, and pleasantly.
 Comedior, aris, ari, to iest, or scoffe.
 Comedus, di, mas, gen. a plaier of comedies, or enterludes.
 Comicus, ei, m, g. a maker of enterludes.
 Comosis, the excrement of beegges of waxe in the hyues of bees, the fyfte foundation of theyr woork in makinge honie. Pli. li. 2. cap. 7.
 Comosus, a, um, that hath a great bushe of heare, and in trees and herbes, that hath many branches or leaues.
 Compactilis, le, that is well compacted and trussed together, mozte and rounde.
 Compactio, onis, f. ge. a ioynginge of settinge together.
 Compactus, a, um, well sette or ioynged together.
 Compactum corpus, a body well pyght and sette together.
 Compactum, ti, nen, gen. an agreement or appointment.
 Compacto, or De compacto rem agere, to conspyre a matter, or to doe a thyng by one accord, or confederacie.
 Compagino, aui, are, to putte or ioygne together a thyng that is lousd.
 Compago, paginis, and Compages, agis, f. g. selbome or neuer, ginis, a ioynginge together of thynges.
 Compages lapidum, the couching or ioynginge together of stones.
 Muri compagem soluere, to bryake downe the wall.
 Compar, aris, om, ge. equall or euen, lyke.
 Compar coniugium, an equall mariage.
 Compar, aris, ma, ge. a compaignion or equall. sometyme a wyfe or husbnde.
 Compar, an ornament of rhetorike, whan the partes of a sentence haue equall numbze of syllables.
 Comparabilis, le, that maye be compared.
 Comparate, in maner of comparinge of thynges together.
 Comparatio, onis, f. g. comparison, preparation or byng, a purchasyng or gettinge.
 Comparatio noui belli, preparation for newe warre.
 Quibus ita credo, vt nihil mea comparatione diminuam, to whom I geue such credence, that I wyll prepare nothyng the lesse: or that I will make nothyng the lesse prouision.
 Constringi comparatione, to be ioynged and pacted together in good proportion.
 In comparatione vis rerum cernitur, in comparing of thynges together, the strength of them is perceyued.
 Comparatio voluptatis, a purchasyng of pleasure.
 Comparatiuus, a, um, comparative, wherein begynneth excess in comparison.
 Comparatus, a, um, ordeyned or receyued in an vylage.

Quam inique comparatum est, hi qui minus habent, vt semper aliquid addant ditioribus: what an vyl vyl is this, that they, whiche haue but a littell, shall geue moze to them that bee ryche.
 Quandoquidem ita ratio comparata est, vite nature nostre, vt alia etas oriatur ex alia, Deno the fourme of our lyfe is so ordeyned by nature, that of one age cometh an other.
 Hoc preclare legibus comparatum est, This was exceedingly well ordeyned and constituted by the lawes.
 Comparco, parsi, fere, to spare.
 Compareo, pares, parui, ere, to appete, or to be seene.
 Comparebunt quæ imperas, you shall see all thynges doone that ye commaunde.
 Comparet ratio argenti, it appeereth howe the money is spent.
 Nusquam comparabat, he was seene in no place.
 Eorum exigua pars nunc comparet, id est, extat, verat fewe of them are seene, or remaine at this day.
 Comparo, aui, are, to compare, or make equall or moze, to ordeyne, to prepare, to ioygne to or by. also to get or purchase, to prouyde, to bye, to fynde the meane, to deuise.
 Nunc hoc tibi curandum est Chrysale. C. Quiduis curem? M. Vt senem etiam alteram facias viam, compara, fabricare, finge quod lubet, Now Chrysalus, thou muste take good heede of this C. what wilt thou that I shoulde dooe? M. Deuise yet to goe an other waye to wooke, imagine, contriue euen as thou thyngest best.
 Comparare conuiuium, to prepare a banquet.
 Comparare malum, to purchase an ill turne, or a mischief.
 Comparare se, to dyspose hym selfe to anye thyng.
 Comparare sibi aditum, to fynde the meane to haue entrance to a thyng or person.
 Comparare bellum, to make prouision for warre.
 Comparare dolum, to goe aboute to wooke some discreete.
 Comparare infidias alicui, to late wayte, to entrappe or deceyue a man.
 An ita me comparem? Shuld I so dyspose or settle my selfe.
 Comparare se ad respondendum, to prepare or settle hym selfe to make an answer.
 Comparare se ad iter, to make hym readye to take his iourney.
 Comparare subsidia ad omnes casus, to prepare and purchase ayde agaynst all chaunces of fortune.
 Comparare sibi auctoritatem, to procure or geat hym authoritee.
 Gloriam ex bellicis rebus comparare, to get glory

glorie and renowne by martiall prowesse.
 Comparare pradium, to bye a manor place.
 Ad frumentum comparandum missi, sente forth to byecorne.
 Alterum alteri comparare, Comparare cum altero, & inter se, to compare thynges together,
 or one with an other.
 Ne comparandus hic, quidem ad illum est,
 This man is not to bee compared to the other.
 Ut compararent inter se, qui duo, &c. That they should ordeyne or appoynt betwene them selues, whiche two. &c.
 Accusatores in aliquem comparare, to pro-
 uide men to accuse a persone.
 Vultum suum e vultu alterius comparare, to facion his countenaunce lyke an other mans.
 Argentum comparare, to make prouydon for money.
 Compasco, paui, pascere, to fede or herpe cattell in pasture together.
 Compascor, the passue.
 Compascuus, a, um, that belongeth to common pasture.
 Compascuus ager, a common fiede.
 Compedio, compedis, diui, ditum, to gyue or fetter the fecte.
 Compeditus, a, um, fettered or gyued.
 Compellatio, onis, f. g. biamynge, chidyng, or rebukynge.
 Compello, aui, are, to speake to, to call, to accuse.
 Blande compellare virum, to speake faire to a manne.
 Honorifice & magnifice compellare, to speke to one woordes woorthipfull and honourable.
 Nominatim compellare, to call one by name.
 Compellare in concione, to rate or rebuke a man openly in a great assemble of people.
 Aliquem edicto compellare, is when a man of authoritee, by some commaundement, cyleth or calleth a man to his diswoorthippe.
 Compello, pui, ere, to compell or constreyne,
 to ioyne, to byng together.
 Compellere & dispellere, contrary.
 Expellere & compellere, contrary.
 Compellere ossa in suam sedem, to set bones
 in theyr places, when they be out of ioynt.
 Compellere & congregare in vnum locum,
 to bynge or gather together into one place.
 Compellere lanam in aurem, to thrust wooll into ones eare.
 Compellere gregem, to byue a flocke together.
 Ad bellum nos compulit regni cupido, the desyre to regne, forced vs to warre.
 Compellere in angustias, to byue into a stricte.
 Compellere in oppidum, to byue into the towne.
 Compelluceo, luxi, ere, to shyne through.
 Compellucidus, a, um, that shyneth bryght.
 Compendiario, by a compendious waie,

Compendarius, a, um, compendious or bryefe.
 Compendifacio, feci, ere, to make compend-ous, to wyne.
 Compendiosus, a, um, verie profitable.
 Compendiosum iter, a shorter waie.
 Compendium, ij, n. g. a saynge or sparyng, an aduantage, a compendious or short soote in wytyng or other acte. Sometyme a nether way in iourneyng.
 Compendij facere, to make bryefe, or to bee short in speakyng.
 Breuia docendi compendia monstrare, to shew bryefe and compendious meanes to teche or instruct.
 Questus & compendium.
 Hoc compendium operæ est, this is the aduan-tage of the woork or labour.
 Ne cui compendio sit, that it myght not bee
 gaynes or vantage to any man.
 Conferre verba ad compendium, to speake compendiously.
 Compensatio, onis, f. gen. a recompence, satisfaction, or amendes makynge.
 Compensio, aui, are, to make recompence or asmendes.
 Tarditatem gravitate supplicij compensat,
 The longer he deferreth, the more greuously he punyssheth.
 Comperendinatio, onis, f. gen. a delate or prolongynge of tyme, when the attournes hath a respye graunted hym vntyll the nexte daye sayung one.
 Comperendinatus, us, m. g. idem.
 Comperendinatus, a, um, adiourned.
 Comperendinata dies, a daie ouer in matters of lawe.
 Comperendinati rei, they whose iudgement is deferred vntyll an other tyme.
 Comperendino, aui, are, to delate, to prolonge,
 deferre a matter from daie to daie.
 Comperendinare reum, to deferre the iudge-ment of a person accused, vntyll an other tyme.
 Comperio, comperis, perij, ire, to fynde or trye out a matter, to haue sure knowlage or prooffe
 of a thyng.
 Certo comperi, I haue sure knowlage of the matter: or I haue sure tryall of the matter.
 Manifesto comperire, & manibus tenere, to haue manifeste prooffe and sure knowlage of a
 thyng.
 Ex multis audiui, nam comperisse me dice-re non audeo, I haue herde it of many: for I dare not saye, that I haue tried it, and know it to be true.
 De amore comperit, he knoweth certainly that he loueth.
 Comperire ex aliquo, to haue knowlage by
 an other.
 Comprior, iris, iri, idem quod Comperio.
 Compertis, nis, mas, & f. gen. he that hath his knees nigh together, or longe feete.

Comperro, absolutely put, when it was known and tryed out.

Comperro matrem suam intestatam decessisse, when it was known and tryed out, that his mother dyed intestate, or without wille making.

Comperus, a, um, founde out, taken, convict, proued, known.

Compertum est, it is proued by experience.

Compertum est mihi, I haue tryed it out, and haue sure knowlage of the matter.

Compertum oculis, that whiche we haue seene.

Comperus in stupro, taken in auourtrie.

Compertum atque deprehensum.

Cognitum & compertum.

Nullus flagiti compertus homo, a man that was neuer convicted of any heynouse acte.

Comperus furti, founde guilty of felony.

Compertum habeo, I knowe or perceyue, I haue tryed the matter.

Compes, edis, f. g. a letter or ppeue.

Faber compedes, quas fecit, gestat, he is whipte with his owne rodde.

Compesco, scui, ere, to kepe streicte, as it were in one pasture: to bydle or keepe vnder, to stoppe, to staunche or quenche, to assuage, to mitigate.

Compesce in illum iniuste dicere, leaue to say yll of him.

Curas compescere, to assuage rage and sorow.

Equum freno compescere, to restraigne, stop or holde backe the horse with the bydle.

Compescere incendium, to stynte or quenche fyre.

Compescere tumentes populos, to appease and keepe vnder proude and stubburne people.

Risum compescere, to restraigne or forbear laughynge.

Situm compescere, to quenche ones thyrste.

Compescere vitem, to cut or kepe a vine that it sprede not to farre abrode.

Compescere mores rabidos, to assuage and mitigate the fierce maners of men.

Digito compesce labellum, kepe silence.

Competens, tis, an adiectiue, competent, conuenient.

Competentia, x, f. g. conueniencie, agreableness, metenesse.

Competitor, oris, masc, gener. he that sueth for that, which an other man sueth for, a competitor.

Competitrix, icis, the feminine.

Competo, iui, ere, to aske or sue for an office, or other lyke thyng, agaynst a nother that sueth for the same, to wyshe. Also to agree, to be mete or conuenient, to appertaine, to mete with or ioigne to an other thyng.

Competit, it is mete or conuenient. Also it is sufficient.

Hoc illi competit, that is mete or conuenient for hym.

Si omnia competunt voto, if all thynges agre to our desyre. Or if all thynges be as we woulde haue them.

Si non competet, vt in villam fœnum portetur, if we shall haue no leasure, or if we may not conueniently, &c.

Si uille situs ita competit, if the situation of the ferme dooe so requyre, or be conuenient and mete.

Si cuiusquam neptium cōpeteret ætas, yf any of his neeces were in age, or were of conuenient and mete age.

Formidine ætonitus neq; animo, neque auribus, neque lingua competit, Bepng astonyed with feare, he neyther had the vse of his mynde, eares, nor tongue.

Ita vt in patentes fossas ora hiantia cæcarum competant, so that the open mouthes of the trenches vnder the earth: meete and be ioyned with the dyches, that are made aboue in the sight of men.

Compilatio, onis, fœ. gen. pillage, robbynge, or pollynge.

Compilator, oris, masc. ge. an extorcioner that leaueh a man nothyng.

Compilatus, a, um, polled by extorcion, robbed, pylled.

Compilo, compilas, aui, are, to take by extorcion or wryonge. Or (as the vulgar speche is) to poll and shawe.

Compilare sapientiam alicuius, to robbe one of his wisdom.

Scrinia alicuius compilare, to robbe ones cofers. Rem publicam compilare, to pylle and robbe the commune weale.

Compingo, égi, pactum, ere, to compacte or pue together, to thrust, to make, as one maketh a ship or lyke thyng.

Quid faciam nunc, si tres viri me in carcerem compegerint? Howe shall I doo now if the oles ficers thrust me into prison?

Compingere axibus, to boorde or planke a floore or rooffe.

Ipsium in vincula compegit, he layed hym in fetters, or in prison.

Compingere in oculos, to thrust it into ones eyes. Componere & compingere.

Detrudere & compingere in pistrinum.

Compegerat se in apuliam, he went and kept hym selfe in Apulia.

Compitalia, or Compitalitia, orum, feastes or byrnynges made, where as be many pathes or high wayes in a place.

Compitalitius, a, um, belongynge to the sayde feastes.

Compitalis, le, of a place where many wayes or pathes meie.

Compitum, ti, neu. gene. a waste or place, where many wayes dooe mete, or where two stretes do crosse.

Compitus, is sometyme vñed in the masculine gender.

gender.
Complacéo, complaces, cui, ère, to please or lyke well.
Complacitum est, it pleaseth or contenteth, it lyketh.
Complácó, áui, äre, idem quod Placó.
Compláno, áui, äre, to make playne: sometyme to make equal with the ground, to fynysh.
Complanare domum alicuius, to deltege ones house, and cast it to the ground.
Complanare opus, to fynysh and make perfect a woork.
Compláudo, si, ère, for ioy to clap the handes together.
Complector, eris, xus sum, ti, to compyte, to imbrace or holde streicte, to loue well, to intertayne, to intreate gently, to shewe pleasure or frendshipp, to compasse, to comprehend or conteyne, to describe or handell a matter in few woordes.
Quare velim eum quam liberalissime complectare, wherefore I woulde that ye dyd entertayne hym very lybetally.
Peto, vt eum complectare, diligas, in tuis habas, I requyre you entertayne hym well, fauor hym, and take him as one of your freendes.
Nos inter nos esse complexos, that one of vs loued well an other.
Complecti amore, to loue hartely.
Complector memoria, I beare in mynde.
Complector animo, I consider.
Oratione completi non possum magnitudinem beneficii tui, I can not sufficiently sette forth with woordes the great pleasure and benefite that ye haue shewed me.
Vno verbo omnia completi, to speake all at one woorde.
Complectitur verbis, quod vult, He is eloquent, and can vter with woordes, what so euer he wyl.
Complecti & osculari aliquem.
Beneficio completi aliquem, to shewe pleasure to any man.
Comitate completi, to shewe friendly gentleness.
Beneuolentia, charitate, pietate, completi, to loue and fauour earnestly.
Arcta familiaritate complexus sum, I was very familiar with him.
Cogitatione completi non possumus, we can not conceiue or comprehend in our myndes.
Absentem cogitatione completi, to thynke earnestly on one that is absente.
Me somnus complexus est, slepe toke me.
Complector, sometyme passiuely.
Complementum, ti, n, g, a farnyng or fyllyng.
Compleo, cui, ère, to fulfyl or fyl to the toppe, to fynysh or perfourme, to make vp or supplie that lacketh.
Quis tam dulcis sonus complet aures meas?

what pleasant and sweete soune filleth myne eares?
Aurem complere sermonibus, to make one very with bablyng.
Atrium complere vialatibus, to make the house ryng with howlyng and cryng.
Ad summum complere, to fill vp to the brinke.
Compleuit annos centum, he lyued full an hundred yeres.
Sol terras luce complet, The sunne beeth lyght to all the earth, or casteth his lyght ouer all the worlde.
Complet omnia odor vnguenti, the sweete sauour smelleth ouer all the place, or pefumeth all the place.
Complere promissum, to fulfill ones promise.
Complere aliquem coronis & floribus, to ouer one with garlandes and flowres.
Complere hominem bona spe, to put one in good hope.
Complere gaudio, to make very glad.
Complere terrore, contrary.
Erroris & demencie complere, to make madde.
Complectus, a, um, complete, absolute, perfect, full.
Complex, icis, om, gen, partener, companion in acte.
Complexio, onis, idem quod complexus, also a conclusion in an argument.
Complexus, us, ma, ge, embracyng or collyng, also agreement in woordes or sentence, sometyme feruent loue. Also a iuste periode or full sentence. Sometyme a compasse or a conteynyng.
Complexus & osculatio.
A complexu matris filium auellere, to plache the childe away from the tender imbracyng of the mother, or out of the mothers armes.
Continet omnia complexu suo mundus, The worlde conteyneth and comprehendeth all thynges.
Ad complexum & osculum alicuius currere, to make haste to embrace and kysse one.
Complexu luctari, to wrastle by the middle.
Alicuius complexu, colloque pendere, to toll one and hange aboute his necke.
Complexu totius generis humani, with all mankynde vniuersally.
Complexus, a, um, actually, embrasyng or clippynge: passiuely, clipped or colled, comprehended, conteyned.
Res altera alteri complexa, id est, Implicita.
Complico, áui, äre, to folde or wrap together.
Complicare & Euoluere, contrary.
Complicare epistolam, to folde vp a letter.
Complodo, ósi, ère, to clap together the handes for ioy, sorow, or admiration.
Comploratus, us, mas, ge, and Comploratio, onis, f, g, a lamentacion, wepyng or wailynge of many together, Comploro,

Comploro, aui, are, to weepe, wayle, and make sorrowe with other.
Complures, m. & f. g. Complara, & Complars
ria, n. g. plu. many.
Complures, heratē often.
Complasculi, Complascula, Complascula,
plu. many.
Compluuiatus, and adiectiue.
Compluuiata vinea, a vyne fastned and layed
a longe vpon a frame.
Complutus, a, um, covered or wette with rayne.
Compluius, a, um, wherinto raine water falleth.
Compluius lacus, a dyche, wherinto water falleth out of dyuers gutters.
Compluius, ui, n. g. a gutter, wherem falleth
rayne from many houses.
Composito, sibi, etc. to put or ioyne together, to make, or delyt, or dispose. Also to compate or cons terre, to adorne, to gather, to recreate, to appeale, to conclude, to accorde or agree, to synnise, ente, or conclude a matter, to redeme, to dissemble or seigne, to wyte or make a booke, to byng to sa tion. Sometyme to burie.
Mernia limes composito Scirone patet, id est,
sepulto, layed in his graue, vel mortuo, dead.
Componere lites, to agree men together, which are at varyaunce.
Componere bellum, to synnise warre, to make peace. Iphewle Componere contentiones, contouersias, discordias, tumultum.
Componere quæ simul tecum ferantur, packe and lay together suche thynges as may be caried with you.
Ad exemplum alterius se componere, to fa
tion him selfe to dooe as he seeth an other.
Componere capillos, vel crines, to sette or dresse vp the heares.
Animos nostros ratio componat, sette reason moderate and rule our myndes.
Exercitum componere, to sette an armye in arraye.
Leges componere, to make or ordeyne lawes.
Membra defessa componere, to recreate or res telle the wepy lymmes.
Componere se ad reuerentiam alicuius, to fa tion or sette him selfe, as though he shewed a re uerence to one.
Signa componere, to ioyne battayle.
Res suas componere, to dispose and set his matters in an order.
Componere vitem in brachia, to sette the vine
alonge vpon the sayle.
Componere vultum, to sette or facion the countenance, to looke sabbely, to make a graue countenance.
Componere aliquem, to burie or laye one in the earth.
Curas componere, to allwage care, to ende forowe.
Fluctus componere, to quiete the rages of
the sea.

Amicos auersos componere, to reconcy
le friends that are fallen out.
Componere & transigere, to fall at agreement,
and dispatche a matter throughly.
Componere animos ratio dicitur, to sette mens myndes in good quiete.
Componere dicta cum factis, to conferre a mans wordes and dedes together.
Cur audes componere milite? why darst thou compare thy selfe to me?
Componere historiam, to make or wyte an hystorie.
Carmina componere, to make verses.
Laudes alicuius componere, to wyte ones laude and prayse.
Componere itinera, to appoynte, or dispose ones iourneys.
Componere fallacies, to inuente and imagyne
gyles and discretes.
Componere mendacia, to feigne or pyagyne
lyes.
Blanditias componere, to speake saye and flatterynge.
Componere & constituere rempublicam, to dispose the common weale, and leue it in good order.
Componere pacem alicui cum altero, to sette men at concord and vnitee.
Componere societatem, to assortate.
Literas alieno nomine componere, to coun terfayte letters.
Componere urbem, to bulde a citee.
In alio infans componitur, The infant is brought to faction in his mothers wombe.
Composito, aui, are, to beare, to cary together, to conuicgh.
Compos, compotis, com. gen. he that hath his purpose or desyre. also euer content.
Compos animi, of sound remembrance, not made.
Compos culpa, he that hath done offence, gyl ty, or culpable.
Compos laudis, he that is prayled.
Compos patriæ, he that is come home into his countrey.
Compos prædæ, he that hath gotten the praye that he looked for.
Compos voti, he that hath his owne desyre or appetite.
Compos rerum sempiternarum, he that hath the knowlage of thynges euerylastyng.
Vix præ gaudio copotes, For ioye they coulde not tell what they woulde dooe.
Compos mentis, rationis, sanitatis, quod hæc habeo: Compos voti, victoriæ, optati, quod hæc opera & labore optinui.
Vix copos sui est, he is almost beside him selfe.
Compotem facere gratulationis, to geue an occasion to one, to gratifie or thanke his frende, or rather to geue an occasion to reioyse on his frendes behalfe for any pleasure that is hapned or doth.

Compos scientiar, he that hath the vnderstandyng of a science.
Compos virtutum, vertuous.
Compos miseriarum, miserable of full of aduersities.
Compositē, in order.
Compositē & aptē dicere, cui contrarium est, sine ordine & modo dicere.
Compositē ambulare, to walke or goe with a certayne measure, no more at one steppe than at an other, as our gentle women dooe.
Compositio, ōnis, f. g. facture, proportion, a makynge, an ornament, a composition, or agreement, a confectiō of mynglyng of dyuers thynges together, a peace makynge.
Compositiones gladiatorum, were the byngyng in of swoord players into the fyghtynge place.
Compositio membrorum, the composition and facture of the partes of the body.
Compositio sermonis, the couchyng of woordes.
Compositio, aduerbially vsed. and Ex compositio, of purpose, for the nones, as it was agreed.
Compositū factum est, it was done of a sette purpose.
Compositor, ōnis, m. g. he that setteth, composeth or toygneth thynges together.
Compositura, æ, f. g. a composition, toygnynge, or setting of thynges together, a confectiō.
Compositus, a, um, settled, put, or toygned together, sette in arraye. For other englyshes looke after in the phraes.
Compositus in ostentationem, settled to make a great shewe or bragge of hym selfe.
In securitatem compositus, he that hath disposed and set his mynde to lyue without care and trouble, haupng countenance as though he were carelesse, or passed for nothyng.
Compositum agmen ad pugnam, a bende of men sette in aray ready to fyght.
Comæ compositæ, & crines compositi.
Compositum mare, a caulme sea.
Composita verba, woordes cunnynge and fitly sette together.
Composita hora, the howre prompted or appointed.
Vt compositum fuerat cum eo, so soone as they had fallen at agreement with him.
Compotatio, ōnis, f. g. a bankette or dnykynge together.
Compoto, aui, are, to dnyke with an other man.
Compotrix, icis, f. g. she that dnyketh with an other: a dnykynge gossyp.
Comprātor, ōnis, m. g. he that dyneth wyth an other.
Comprecatio, ōnis, f. g. a praynge, a despyng, a supplication.
Comprās, prādis, m. g. a pledge or suretee together with an other.
Comprecor, ātus, āri, to desyre or pray.

Comprehendo, di, ēre, to take holde on a thyng to comprehend or contene, to comprize. Also to fauour and defende, to compasse or attayne, to sette forth a thyng in woordes, to perceiue, to vnderstande sensibly, to dephehnde or come to the knowlage of a thyng.
Manu comprehendere, to take holde with ones hande.
Emittere & comprehendere, contrarie.
Comprehendere dicuntur plantæ, to take roote.
Comprehendere verbis, to set forth a thyng in woordes.
Comprehendere numero, to number.
Comprehendere & percipere, to vnderstande and perceiue.
Comprehendere signis, to know a thyng by certayne signes and tokens.
Animo & mente comprehendere, to conceiue in ones mynde.
Comprehendere contemplationem rerum naturæ, to haue the knowlage of naturall thynges.
Intelligere & comprehendere cogitatione.
Memoria comprehendere, to remember, to kepe in memozy.
Visu comprehendere, to see.
Adulterium alicuius comprehendere, to despynde or disclose a mans aduoutie.
Officijs aliquem comprehendere, to bynde one to him by friendly pleasures.
Comprehendere humanitate aliquē, to shewe great gentylnesse to one, to dooe many pleasures for him.
Comprehensē, bryefly.
Comprehensibilis, le, that maie be comprehended.
Comprehensio, ōnis, f. g. a takynge, a comprehending, conteynynge, perceiuyng, or vnderstandyng, a spyng out or reueylng of a thyng, sometyms a periode, or full sentence.
Comprehensus, a, um, holden, taken, comprehended, concluded, inclosed.
Comprēdo, and Comprensus, idem quod Comprehendo, and Comprensus.
Comprēsse, bryefly, compactly.
Comprēssio, ōnis, f. g. a pressynge or a strepte trussynge of thynges together.
Comprēssiuncula, æ, f. g. a diminutiue.
Comprēssus, a, um, thurst or prest together. also rauished.
Comprēssis manibus sedere, to syt ydell.
Annona comprēssa, in Liue, whan the pryce of coyne is rayled by meanes of regraters or foze stallers of the market.
Comprēssa in pugnum manus, the fyste.
Comprēssum atq; tacitum odium, pryuy and vnknownen hatred.
Comprēssa manu ferire, to strike with the fyste.
Comprēssus, us, m. g. a deslozacion or rauysment. also bryusyng or pressynge.
Comprimo, prēssi, ēre to presse, thurst or strepte together.

together, to holde of rethynge, to appeale, to moderate, repress of hepe vnder. Sometime to say pisse, to clyng together.
 Comprime, lette be, peace.
 Epistolam comprimere, to close a letter.
 Comprime re, the stylle, leaue of.
 Comprimere se, to seale of rethynge, to doot a
 thyng.
 Vix comprimor, quin inuolem illi in oculos,
 I can not forbeare to take him by the face.
 Comprimere aliquem, to beate of tourmente
 one. Comprimere animam, to holde in a mans breathe.
 Comprimere manus, to holde his handes that he seale not.
 Comprimere dentes, to grynde of crashe the teeth together.
 Comprimere alium, to stoppe the dealy.
 Moru comprimere, to bite.
 Comprimit rosa florem noctu, the rose closeth his flowre in the nyght.
 Comprime tela manu, holde thy handes, caste not thy sauleyn of darre.
 Lachrimas comprimere, to stent weepng.
 Plusquam vinum ad comprimendum stoma-chum valet, it is of more force to stoppe wome than wyne is.
 Comprimere audaciam alicuius, to repress of hepe vnder the rathe boldenesse of any man.
 Doctrina comprimere vitiosam naturam, to repress and hepe vnder.
 Seditionem comprimere, to appeale of saypisse a sedition.
 Restringere & comprimere, to appeale of moderate.
 Iram comprimere, to assuage of stynt anger.
 Comprimere vocem, to hepe silence.
 Virginem comprimere, to rauyshe.
 Comprobatio, onis, f. g. the approuynge of allowng of a thyng.
 Comprobator, oris, m. g. he that alloweth of approueth a thyng.
 Comprobo, aui, are, to allowe, to make good of allowable, to declare a thyng to be true.
 Laudare & vehementissime comprobare.
 Studio se comprobare.
 Re aliquid comprobare, to shew a thyng to be true in dede.
 Testimonio alicuius rem comprobare, to ap-proue a thyng by the wytnesse of any man.
 Res somnium comprobauit, the thyng selfe
 proued the dyrame true.
 Compromissarius, a, um, the adiectyue of compromissum.
 Compromissum, si, n. g. the authoritee graunted to the arbitrator by the assent of the parties.
 Compromissum facere de re aliqua, to submitte him selfe to the arbitrement of a man in a ny matter.
 Compromitto, misi, ere, to commytte him selfe to the arbitrement of any indifferent person,

Comptum, ti, n. g. a certayne offering of lycours,
 whiche was made with meale.
 Comptus, us, m. g. fresh apparayle.
 Comptus, a, um, decked, trimmed.
 Compugno, aui, are, to fyght together, to con-tende in wordes, to byaule.
 Compulso, aui, are, the frequentatiue of compella-lo, to beate of styke agaynst a thyng.
 Compulsus, a, um, compelled, forced. Also hitte of knocked with any thyng.
 Compunctus, a, um, marked, spotted, pyched.
 Acum compunctus, pyched with a nedell.
 Compunctio, onis, f. g. a pyching. Sometime a stiche of greefe in a mans herte or other place.
 Compungo, pupugi, of punxi, ere, to punche,
 pyche of styke.
 Cauendum, ne aculeis vitice compungatur,
 Ye must beware that he be not stonge with a nettell.
 Sensus compungere res dicuntur, quæ offendunt, ut splendor oculos, gustum amaritudo, &c.
 Compungere se suis acuminibus, to bete and tourment ones selfe with his owne subtyll inuentions.
 Computabilis, le, that may be compted, teched,
 of numbrez, accomptable.
 Computatio, onis, f. g. an accompt of techyng.
 Computationem expostulare, to call for a compt of techyng.
 Computo, aui, are, to deeme, to accompt, to ret-ken, to decerne, to impute.
 Si computetur impendium operæ, if the pro-fyte of vantage of that labour bee accompted, techened, of valued.
 Computare digitis, of Articulis, to techen by pon the fyngers.
 Facies tua computat annos, thy face doth ret-ken thy yeres. of thy face declareth of what age thou art.
 Computresco, putui, trescere, to putrishe of rotte together.
 Comum, mi, ne. ge. a citee of fraunce on this syde the mountaynes, the inhabytantes wherof are called Comenses.
 Comus, the god of bankettyngs, of rere cups pers.
 Con, idem quod Cum.
 Conamen, inis, n. g. an indenour.
 Magno conamine aliquid agere, to doot a thyng diligently, with great labour and indeuoure.
 Conamentum, ti, ne. ge. that whiche aydeth of helpeth in doynge of a thyng, of that one useth to reache of pluche at a thyng, that he can not easily come by.
 Conatus, us, m. g. the indenour of labour that one taketh in doopng a thyng. Sometime disligence.
 Magno conatu, studioq; aliquid agere, to doo a thyng with great indenour and diligence.

Infringere conatus aduersariorum; to breake
the purpose and endeour of the aduersaries.
Obstare conatibus alicuius; to withstande of lette that, whiche a man endeoureth of goeth
about.
Prohibere conatus, idem.
Concaco, aui, are, to besmyte.
Conca des, cecidim, plur, the loppinges of trees or the fragmentes of shredes that be cutte of any
thyng.
Concalefacio, or Concalfacio, feci, ere, to inflame, to warme or make hot, to chaufe, styre, or prouoke.
Concalefactorius, a, um, that heateth or maketh warne.
Concalefactus, a, um, made hotte or warne, chaufed.
Concalescio, factus sum, fieri, to be chaufed or made warne.
Concaleo, concales, calui, ere, to be hotte, to be warne, to be moued or chaufed.
Concalesco, lescere, to be hot, or to be made hot.
Concallo, lui, ere, to be made hard, as a mans handes with much woorkyng, or his feete with much goyng: And by a metaphore, a mans mynde with much vse and exercise.
Concameratio, onis, f. g. a woopke made lyke to a vault with arches, whiche we call skelinge of chambres. also a couered walke or herbours made in a gardeyne.
Concamero, aui, are, to vault or siele.
Concana, a citee in Spayne, the people whereof be called Concani.
Concastigo, aui, are, to chastyse.
Concateno, aui, are, to chein or lynke together.
Concauo, aui, are, to make holowe.
Concauare brachia in duos arcus, to sette the armes on bynbowe.
Concauus, a, um, holowe.
Concedo, cecsi, ere, to graunte, to prymytte or suffer, to departe awaie, to go to a place, to cons-sent, to geue place, to geue ouer, to remyt, to condescende or agree, to dye.
Concede hinc, Go hence a little.
Concedere fato, vita, or Concedere, absolutely, to dye.
Concedamus huc, lette vs be here.
Concedere octauam partem, to abate or resmytte the eight parte.
Concedere alicui, to gyue place to one.
Concede ad dextram, go on the ryght hand.
Concede hinc domum, go thy waie home.
Concessit in iras, he is angry.
Tempus est concedere, it is tyme to geue place.
Num ab oculis concessi tuis? Wyd I departe out of your syght?
Concedere a, vel ab, huc, illuc, aliquo.
Concedas aliquo ab illorum ore aliquantif-per, Go some whither out of their syght for a whyle.
Tantisper ego ad ianuam concessero, in the meane space I wyll go to the gate.

Quandocumq; concessero, when soeuer I shal depart out of this lyfe.
In voluntarium ex his concessis, he went wyllyngly into exyle.
Date hoc & concedite pudori meo, prymytte and graunte this to my bashfulnes.
Concedere in sententiam alicuius, to graunte or agree to ones sentence or iudgement.
Concedere Senatus petitioni tue, the Senate condescended or agreed to your petition.
Concedere impunitatem, to pardon, or not to punyssh.
Inimicitias hostis reip. concedere, for the common weales sake to remytte and geue ouer that enmitye, whiche we haue conceyued agaynst one.
Ludum pueris concedere, to geue children leaue to playe, or to suffer theim to playe.
Partem octauam partij concedere, to abate the eighth parte of the pytye.
Tempus ad aliquam rem concedere, to geue
one tyme or leysure to dooe a thyng.
Vitam concedere, to pardon one his lyfe.
Concedere in diuinem alicuius, to geue or submitte ones selfe to be an other mans subject, or to lyue vnder his dominion.
Concedere de suo iure, to beare or suffer somes what, or not to be the eygour of extremitee, whiche he myght lawfully.
Concedere peccata liberorum misericordie parentum, to remytte and forgiue the trespasses of the children, for the loue of their parentes.
Nemini concedere de re aliqua, To geue place to no man in a matier, or to knowlage him selfe inferiour to no man.
Etsi de cupiditate nemini conceda, Although there be no man more despyred than I.
Nemini in illa causa, studio, & cupiditate concedebat, There was no man that more earnestly despyred or endeouored to sette forth that cause.
Nemini concedo, qui maiorem ex pernicie reipublice molestiam traxerit, There was no man luyng that toke more sorowe, or was more grieved for the destruction of the common welth than I.
Omnes artes tuas tibi concedit, he geueth place to you, or will not compare with you in any of your practises or fentes.
Concedo, forsan aliquis, &c. I admytte the case, perchance some man, &c.
Concedo tibi, vt ea prætereas, I am content that you shoulde let those thynges passe.
Ne quis concessum puter, lette no man thynke that it is lesfull, or permitted to be done.
Numine concedas mihi? wyl thou not geue ouer to me?
Concelebro, aui, are, to celebrate with other.
Concelebrare plateam hymenæo, to make ioye abode with dymyng and dauncyng in the honour of marriage.

Concelebrare conuiuium, to keepe a solempne feaste, or to honest a frast with his presence.
 Funus concelebrare, to keepe a solempne funes nerall or interment.
 Mercatus concelebrare, to keepe a solempn marte or fayre.
 Spectaculum concelebrare, to sette forth a goodly syght, or a maie game.
 Victoriam concelebrare, to make a mans vics to be famous and renowned.
 Concēlo, aui, are, idem quod celare, to concele or keepe close.
 Concētio, ōnis, idem quod concensus.
 Concentratio, aui, are, to gather together.
 Concēsus, us, m. g. a consent, many voyces in one tune, or accord in musyke: And by a metas phoze, agreement, concord.
 Concēsus in sermonibus & colloquijs, as grement in communication and talkyng.
 Conceptaculum, or Conceptabulum, li, ne, ge. any thyng that is holowe or apte to receyue and hold, as a vessell: or the place where any thyngs is receiued and kepte.
 Conceptiua feriae, holy daies kept at a tyme certayne perely.
 Conceptus, a, um, conceived, purposed. somes tyme gathered.
 Ne cum a vertice torrentis imbris conceptus affluerit, fundamenta cōuellat, Lest whā the streame gathered by the Moutes of rayne, ren into it, it should pull by the foundation of that, whiche is builded.
 Concepta verba, wordes expressed and pronounced.
 Conceptis verbis iurare, to sweare, an other man prestribyng or recptyng the wordes of the othe.
 Furto conceptus, begotten in auduty.
 Concepta actu pestis, pestilence ingendred through great heate.
 Conceptus, us, m. g. and Concēptio, ōnis, f. ge. the thyng that is conceived, or the conception it selfe.
 Concerno, creui, nēre, to see or perceyue.
 Concēpo, psi, ere, to pull in pieces, to rente or teare.
 Concēpere epistolas, to teare or rent the letters in pieces.
 Conceptus, a, um, that is rente and tozue in pieces.
 Conceptatio, ōnis, f. ge. debate, disputation, contention, variaunce.
 Concētrarius, a, um, contentious.
 Concētratorius, a, um, that pertyneth to contention or variaunce.
 Concētratorium genus orationis, a kynde of oration apt for matters in controuersy or suite.
 Concētratus, a, um, that is contended or stryued for.
 Concētratum, debated in reasonyng.
 Concētro, aui, are, to contend or fight, to strus or strale, to chyde, to play or contende in any game or exercise for the victorie.

 Concertare velocitate nandi, to contende, who shall swymme faster.
 Concertare lingua, concertare verbis, to chyde or sholde.
 Concertare cum aliquo.
 Concēssio, ōnis, f. g. idem quod concessus.
 Concēssus, a, um, that grauntery or permitted.
 Concēssio, aui, are, to cease from labour, to be idle or vnooccupied.
 Concēssus, si, a. g. a thyng granted or permitted.
 Concēssus, us, m. g. permission, sufferance, leave or lycence, consente or agremente.
 Concēssus, a, um, granted, given, permitted.
 Iure aut legibus concēssum, permitted by the lawe.
 Concha, a, f. g. euerie fish that hath a shell. somes tyme a shell of a muscul, oyster, cockle, or other lyke fysh. somes tyme it is taken for a perle, becs cause perles do grow in shell fishes. Also euerie vessell, that is holowe and open aboue, as a bol, wherein linnen clothes be washed, or a trep, which is holowe and longe. somes tyme a wyne potte, wherein they dyd vse to dypke. also a trompette, as it seemeth made of earth, lyke to suche as paye men doe vse, which haue the fallyng sicknesse, & come from the place in Duchelande, called sainct Loynelis.
 Conchatus, a, um, facioned lyke the shell of a fysh.
 Conchis, is, f. g. a kynde of bearies, or after some, beanes sod in theyr coddies, or a meate made of beanes, beane potage.
 Conchon, chi, n. g. is called a vessell of the Grekes, or the holownesse of the eyes.
 Conchula, a, f. g. the diminutive of Concha.
 Conchus, chi, m. g. a perle.
 Conchyle, les, f. g. or Conchylum, li, n. g. a kynd of shell fysh, out of whiche a liquor is taken, wherewith sylke is dyed purple. It is somes tyme taken for the purple or violet colour.
 Conchylarius, a, um, of a purple colour.
 Conchylia vestis, a purple garment.
 Conchyra, a, m. g. he that seketh for the shells fyshes. out of the whiche the lycour is taken that dyeth purple: we maie take him for a fysher of oysters and muscles.
 Concido, cidi, ere, cism, to cutte in lytle pieces, to hache small, to iagge or pounce, to beate, to hyl or slea.
 Concidere minute, to cut in small pieces.
 Concidere vsque ad sanum corpus, to cutte to the quicke.
 Totis voluminibus concidere aliquem, to wypte whole volumes vtraie vehementely a gaynst one.
 Concidere exercitum, to beate downe and slea an armye.
 Concidere virgis, to beate one tyll he bleede, so beate tyll the bloud folow.

Concidere nucleum dentibus, to knache a nutte with ones teethe.
 Concidere & delumbare sententias, to make feeble or confounde mens argumentes.
 Concido; concidi, ēre, to fall downe, to dye, to saynt.
 Concidit crimen, the action is abated or fallen.
 Concidere sub onere, to fall downe vnder his burthen.
 Grauitur concidere, to haue a soze fall.
 Ad aliquem concidere, to make supplication to one.
 Concidere in praelio, to be slayne in battayle.
 Venti concidunt, the wyndes be slayed.
 Concidunt venæ, the veynes breyng emptye, fall together or diminish.
 Et muri ciuitatum concident, And the walles of all cittees shall fall all together.
 Concidere in optima causa, to bee vanquished in a good quarell.
 Animo vel mente concidere, to lacke courage or comforte, to saynt, or be abashed.
 Concidit animus, my hert is doone, or my hert sayleth me.
 Concidit fides, he hath lost his credence.
 Concio, concies, iui, to moue or stee, to call together.
 Concire, to call together a multitude.
 Concire iram, to moue or stee one to anger.
 Concire & concire seditionem, to reyle a sedition.
 Conciliabulum, li, n. g. a counsaile house.
 Conciliatio, ōnis, fœ. g. a reconcylyng of attone makynge.
 Conciliatio, & consociatio.
 Conciliatio gratiæ, a wynnynge of fauour.
 Conciliator, ōris, m. ge. he that by his woordes or meanes reconcileth folkes together.
 Conciliatricula, a diminutiue of Conciliatrix.
 Conciliatrix, icis, f. g. a woman that endeuoreth to make agreement betweene menne and their wyues.
 Conciliatūra, æ, f. g. a reconcylyng.
 Conciliatus, us, ma. ge. an assemblyng or gatherynge of people together.
 Conciliatus, a, um, assembled or sette together, reconciled. sometyme bought.
 Concilio, aui, are, to accord or make freendes together, to gette, to purchase.
 Conciliare affinitatem vel pacem, to make aliaunce or peace.
 Conciliare beneuolentiam, to gette fauour or loue.
 Conciliare odium, vel inimicitias, to gette hatred or displeasure.
 Conciliare pecunias, to gather moneys of the people.
 Conciliare & coniungere.
 Conciliare aliquem ad alterum, or alteri.
 Conciliare iudicium animos ad beneuolentiam erga se, to drawe the Iudges myndes to fauour them.

 Conciliare & dirimere coniunctionem, contrary.
 Conciliare fidem, to make one to be beleued.
 Conciliare auctoritatem, to make moze esteemed and regarded.
 Somnum conciliare & fugare, contrary.
 Concilia eum huc, get him to come hysheer.
 Concilium, li, n. ge. a counsaile or assemble of counsailors. sometyme a compagne, also a certayne herbe is so called.
 Concilium vocare, to call a counsaile.
 Cœtus & concilium.
 Concilia & conuenticula.
 Habere concilium, to holde a counsaile.
 Dimittere & discindere concilium, to breake by a counsaile.
 Concilium Antiochenum, the generall counsaile holden at Antioche in Syria, in the yere of our lord. 346.
 Concilium Ariminense, a generall counsaile holden at Ariminum in Italy, the yere of our lord. 361. In the whiche, the articles of the counsaile of Nice, were confirmed.
 Concilium Arelatense, a generall counsaile holden at Arelance, the yere of our lord. 814.
 Concilium Basiliense, a generall counsaile holden at Basell, the yere of our lord. 1345.
 Concilium Calcedonense, a generall counsaile holden at Chalcedon in Bithynia, the yere of our lord. 453. In the whiche counsaile the heresie of Nestorius & Eutiches, were condemned. And all the bookes of the Maniches heresies were burned.
 Concilium Carthaginense, a generall counsaile holden at Carthage in Arike, the yere of our lord. 419.
 Concilium Constantiæ, a generall counsaile holden at Constance in Heluetia, the yere of our lord. 1414. and durd, iii. yeres and moze.
 Concilium Constantinopolitanum, a counsaile holden at Constantinople, the yere of our lord. 869.
 Concilium Ferariense, a generall counsaile holden at the citee of Ferraria in Italye, where the churches of the Latins and Greeces became one churche, in the yere of our lord. 1438.
 Concilium Lateranense, a generall counsaile holden at Rome in the palayse of the byshoppe of Rome, called Lateranum, the yere of our lord. 1215.
 Concilium Lugdunense, a generall counsaile holden at Lyons in France, in the yere of our lord. 1273. where the Greeces accorded with the Latines, in procedynge of the holy goste, from the father and the sonne in diuinitee.
 Concilium Nicenum, the first generall counsaile, whiche was holden at Nicea, a citee in Bithynia, the yere of our lord. 327.
 Concinnatio, ōnis, fœmi. gen. a makynge fyt or apt.

Concinnatitius, a, um, compendiously, and aptly gathered together.
 Concinnator, oris, mas, gen. one that maketh a thynge fitte.
 Concinnator causarum, a forger of causes.
 Concinnator capillorum, a trimmer of ones buthe of head.
 Concinnatorius, a, um, the adiective.
 Concinnatus, a, um, apparayled, trimmed.
 Concinnus, properly, honestly, trimly, featly, galantly, minionly.
 Concinnus vestitus, thynonly apparayled.
 Concinnus & blandus rogare, to aske a thynge featly, and with sayre wordes.
 Concinnitas, aris, f. g. & Concinnitudo, dinis, proprienesse, featnesse, aptnesse.
 Verborum concinnitas, the featnesse of wordes.
 Concinnus, aui, are, to make apt, prope, or featly also to make, to forge a thynge with lies and falsed wordes.
 Ut illi mastigia cerebrum excutiam, qui me infanum verbis concinnat suis, I will surely brayne thys knave, that with his wordes maketh me out of my wytte.
 Concinnare lutum, to make moxter.
 Concinnare se leuem suis, to put his frendes to no cosse.
 Nunquam erit alienis gratus, qui suis se concinnat leuem, He shall neuer be onerous to other, whiche will not boudayne his frendes.
 Concinnare struces patinarias, to make fasshy banhettyng dishes.
 Concinnare vinum, to myngle speces wpyth wyne.
 Concinnare vestem, to amende a garment, or make it fitte for one.
 Concinnare viam, to make some that a man may passe.
 Concinnare vxorem lachrymantem, to make his wyfe to weepe.
 Lachrymantem ex abitu concinnas tu vxorem tuam, By your departing hence, you make your wyfe to weepe.
 Concinnare pelles, to breste felles.
 Concinnare munusculum alicui, to prouide a presente of gifte for one.
 Concinnus, a, um, prope, wel facioned, minion, feat, handsome, well compact.
 Concinnus acutus sententia, prety and witty saynges.
 Concinnus & venustus sententia, feat and pleasant sentences.
 Concinnus & elegans, minion and prety.
 Concino, ui, ere, to syng, to agree in one songe, or one tune, sometime to prayse.
 Concinnunt tuba, the trumpettes soune.
 Concinnere lyra, to syng to the harpe, or to play on the harpe.
 Concinnere modis quibusdam, to syng in cery

ayle measures of proportions.
 Concinnere aliquem, to laude or prayse a man.
 Re concinnunt, verbis discrepant, in the thynge it selfe they accord, and disagree in wordes.
 Concio, iui, ire, to call together, looke Concio.
 Concire, to moue or stirre.
 Dispens, scelestus, quantas turbas cociui in sciens? I am vndoed wretche that I am, what a businesse hath I made in waters.
 Concire lites, to moue debate.
 Concio, onis, f. g. a pulpitte or stage, wherfi he standeth that exhorteth the people. Also an assemble of congregation of people, called together to heate the commandementes of the kynge or other in authoritee in the weale publike. also it is the oracion of proposition made vnto them, called a concion, a sermon.
 Concionem habere, to make an oracion to the people, to make a sermon.
 Concio & conuentus.
 Aduocare concionem, to call the people together.
 Ascendere in concionem, to goe vp into the pulpit: or to goe to make a sermon or oracion.
 Submouere concionem, to dissolue a congregation.
 Concionabundus, i, ma. g. one that maketh an oracion to the people, or that proposeth a matter solemnely.
 Concionalis, le, of or pertynyng to an assemble of people or oracion.
 Concionator, oris, ma. ge. he that preacheth or proposeth an oracion.
 Concionatorius, & Concionarius, a, um, pertynyng to a concion.
 Concionor, aris, ari, to preache or propose a matter to the people.
 Concipilare, idem quod corripere, & immolare.
 Concipio, concipis, cepi, ere, to conceiue a childe to conceiue or apprehend, to deliberate or determine in minde, sometime together together, as, Torrens conceptus imbribus, gathered.
 Concipere fedus, to make a league.
 Concipere iusiurandum, to receyte or prescribe the forme of an othe, to one that muste sweare the same after him.
 Concipere metum, to be a feared.
 Concipere oculus, to see and beholde.
 Concipere scelus, to imagine to dooe an vyl deed.
 Concipiunt aues.
 Concipere radices, to take rooffe.
 Oua concipere, dicuntur pisces, to brydde spawne.
 Concipere ingenio, mente, to conceiue in ones mynde, to imagine, to determine in the mynde.
 Auribus concipere, to heare.

Amorem concipere, to kyndle or conceyue a loue towards a thyng.
 Concipere calorem, to wake hotte.
 Concipere flammam, to take fyre, to flame, to kyndle in a light fyre.
 Furores mente concipere, to rage, or to bee madde.
 Iram acerbiorē concipere, to be very angry.
 Inimicitias concipere, to take displeasure, to fall out with one.
 Spem concipere, to take good hope.
 Concipere vadimonium, to recite the forme of a surety, to appere at a day appoynted.
 Concipere verba, to recite wordes that one must rehearse after him.
 Concise, in pieces, sometyne briefly.
 Concisura, re, f. g. a cuttyng or diuidyng.
 Concisus, a, um, byefe, thoste, beaten, cut, hacked, ragged or pounced, killed or slayne.
 Concise sententiæ, byefe sentences.
 Concisus ignominijs, al to rated with schauens derous rebukes.
 Exercitus concisus, killed and slayne.
 Concisum & laceratum, cutte and tozue.
 Concisa oratio, a thoste forme of speakyng.
 Concitate, swyftly, violently.
 Concitatio, ōis, a steryng or prouokynge.
 Concitator, mas. gen. one that moueth or stereth other.
 Concitatrix, the feminine.
 Concitatus, a, um, stered, prouoked, meued.
 Concitator cursus, a moze vehement or quier her course.
 Concito, aui, are, to moue or stere vp, to prouoke to reple vp, to trouble or make rough.
 Concitari in aliquem, to bee verpe angry or vexed with one.
 In iram concitare, to make angry.
 Concitare se in hostem, to renne violently agaynst his enemye.
 Fuga se in aliquē locum concitare, to fle and renne as fast as he can towards a place.
 Clamore concitare aliquem, to rayse vp one with cryng.
 Aus concitat alas, the byrde rayseth vp her wynges to fle.
 Concitare bellum, to rayse vp warre.
 Equum concitare calcaribus, to fetch vp the hofse with the spurres, or to thyste the spurres to the hofse, and gallop forth.
 Feras concitare, to hunte wilde beastes.
 Concitare grauedines, & destillationes, to ingender reumes and catarres.
 Concitare inuidiam, or odium in aliquem, to moue hatred or enuy agaynst one.
 Misericordiam concitare, to moue pitee.
 Risum concitare, to moue laughter.
 Concitare equum in aliquem, to spurre hys hofse and renne agaynst one.
 Concitare sui expectationem, to cause men to haue a trust or expectation in hym.

Concitare somnum, to cause one to sleape.
 Concitare yrinam, to make one to pyse.
 Concitus, a, um, of Concio, penultimam corripit, of Concio producit, moued, stired, troubled, made rough. Sometyne angered.
 Concitus ad rixam, prouoked to thydyng or byaulynge.
 Aequora concitauentis, the seas troubled with the wyndes.
 Concitum ferri, to be caried very swyftly and violently.
 Conclamatio, ōis, for ge. a thoute or noyse of many together.
 Conclamata vasa, proclamation made to trusse together, bagge and baggage, as is vled in the raplyng of a flegge, or remouynge of a campe in battayle.
 Conclāmito, aui, are, to make many cries, to stire often.
 Conclāmo, clāmas, aui, are, to crie, to crye together, to make a thoute or noyse. Also to make a cry or proclamation.
 Conclamatum est, It is at a poynte, or passe remedy.
 Corpora conclamata, bodie drabe and passe all hope of recouerte to life.
 Conclamare ad arma, whan all the world crieth warre.
 Vbi abiit conclāmo, heus quid agis tu in tegulis? whan he was gone, I tried vnto hym, howh fyre, what doest thou amonge the tyles.
 Vis conclamari auctionem quidem vouldest thou that it shoulde be proclaymed, that there shal be porre sale.
 Conclāue, uis, n. g. and Conclāuis, uis, for ge. a pryuy or secrete chaumbe. Sometyne a banquettyng house, or a parlour.
 Conclāua, orum, n. g. many chaumbres or places vnder one key.
 Conclāuium, uij, n. g. idem quod conclāue.
 Conclādo, fi, ēre, to conclude, to fynishe, to determine, to shutte vp or enclose.
 Concludere se in cellam, to locke ones selfe in a chaumbe.
 Concludere aliquo, to shut vp in some place.
 Cingitur atq; concluditur ipse portus vrbe, the haven it selfe is compassed and inclosed with the citee.
 Concludere aliquem in angustissimam formam sponsonis, in makynge a contract or bargayne, to wrape one in very stricte condicions.
 Concludere & perorare.
 Concludere & Definire.
 Concludere epistolam, to adde the conclusion to a letter.
 Verbis interdicti non concluditur, it is not comprehended or conceyued in the prohibition.
 Concluse, an aduerbe.
 Conclusio, ōis, f. g. a conclusion or ende of a matter.
 Conclusiuncula, the diminutiu of Conclusio.

Conclafus, a, um, shut up, inclosed, concluded.
Circumfcriptio conclusa, a last periode, proceeding and falling in a certain number.
Conclufum & comprehenfum.
Perfectum & conclufum, consummate, and fulfilled.
Conclufa oratio, pro numerosa.
Concoctio, onis, form. gen. digestion in the stomake.
Concoctus, a, um, fobbe digested.
Concompagio, onis, f. g. a bankette.
Concolor, oris, m. g. of the fame colour.
Concolor ei est, it is of the fame colour that the other is.
Concoquo, xxi, ere, to boyle or seeth, to concoct or digest, and by a metaphoze, to beare or suffer, to abyde or away with a thyng.
Cibus facillimus ad concoquendum.
Concoquere odia, to fuffre displeasures of malice lettynge them paffe, or forgettynge them.
Quem fenatorem ciuitas vix concoquere poffet, eum regem ferret. Moulde the citty fuffre him a thyng, whome they coulde fcarce abyde or away with, whan he was but a fenatour.
Concordia, x, f. g. conioyde or agreement.
Coniunctio & concordia.
Concordia & conspiratio.
Reconciliatio concordia, attone makynge.
Discors concordia, a vnyon of thynges together, haupng contrary natures and operations.
Concordia, a citee of Italy, an other of Spayne.
Also a goddesse of the Romayns.
Concorditas, aris, idem quod Concordia.
Concorditer, by one assent or agreement.
Concordo, aui, are, to be at a conioyde or agreement.
Concorporo, aui, are, to make one thyng of dyuers, to myngle.
Concors, ordis, om. gen. of one mynde or wyll, agreeable, of one assent. Sometyme equall.
Moderatus & concors ciuitatis status, a moderate and quiete state of the citty, whan all sortes of people agree well together.
Concratius, a, um, made of hurdellles or fuche lyke thynges, walled.
Concratitij parietes, walled wounde with redde lyke hurdellles, as they vse in the countrey.
Concredo, didi, ere, to delpue or committe a thyng vpon trust, to trust one with a thyng.
Concredere vites teneriores solo calido, to plante tender vyues in an hotte ground.
Concredere mari nauigia, To take the sea with shippes: Or to take shippynge, and so to sayle forth on the sea.
Concredere aliquid taciturnitati alterius, to tell a thyng secretly to one, whiche he woulde haue kept close.
Concredere aliquem in custodiam alterius, to commit one to an other manes custody.
Concremo, aui, are, idem quod Cremo, to burne.

Concrepo, aui, are, to make a greate noyse, or to create as a dooze dooth, in the openyng.
Concrepant arma, The hartneys maketh a tufshyng or tengllyng.
Concrepare digitis, to knache or fillyp wyth the fynget.
Concrefo, creui, escere, to growe together, to congele, to brynge harde together.
Concrefo & liquefo, contrary.
Mare concrefoit glacie, the sea freezeth.
Nubes concrefount, the cloudes congeale or gather thicke together.
Sanguis concrefoit, The bloude congeleth or waxyth thicke.
Concretio, onis, f. g. a gatherynge together, and waxyng harde of many thynges.
Concretum, ti, n. g. congeled, or conglutinate.
Concretus, a, um, lopyned or congeled together, as a thyng that is lypquid, to bee made harde, frozen, compact. Sometyme made.
Aer concretus in nubem cogitur, The ayre beyng congeled is gathered into a cloude.
Caelum crassum atq; concretum, and Aer purus & tenuis, opposita.
Induratus & concretus glacie, hardened and congeled, frozen.
Corpus concretum ex elementis, a bodys compact or made of the elementes.
Dolor concretus, an excedynge pensiuensse, whiche mortifieth and stoppeth all weepynge and mournynge.
Concretus, Coniunctus, Conglutinatus.
Concretus & Coalitus, made and nouryshed.
Lac concretum, creame or thicke mylke.
Concreta labes, a spotte whiche well neuer away, or be rubbed out.
Concretus, us, m. g. and Concretio, onis, f. g. a congeylng or conglutination.
Concrimino, aris, ari, to blame or accuse one.
Concrucior, aris, ari, to be tourmented.
Concubina, x, f. ge. a woman vfed in the steepe of ones wyfe.
Concubinarius, us, mascu. gene. hoozedome, fornication.
Concubinus, ni, m. g. he that lieth with one.
Concubitor, oris, he that meddleth with a woiman.
Concubitus, us, ma. g. the companyng together in the acte of generation.
Concubium, bñ, n. g. the fyrst sleape in the night, or the deepest of the nyght.
Concubius, a, um, the adiectiue.
Concubia nox, the deepest of the night, or the first parte of night before midnight.
Conculatio, onis, form. gen. a treadynge vnder foote.
Conculco, aui, are, to treade vnder foote. Sometyme to suppress or put to extreme vilany.
Concumbo, ui, ere, & concubo, ui, are, to lie together, to accompany together in the acte of generation.

Concu

Concupio, concupis, iui, ěre, & concupisco, iui, scere, to coueite oꝝ despye feruently.
In matrimonium illam deducere concupiuĩt, he feruently despyed to mary hir.
Concupiscētia, a, f, g. a feruent despye oꝝ appetite, as well of good thynges as badde.
Concupitus, a, um, despyed feruently.
Concuro, aui, are, to care for a thyng, to take hede to a thyng.
Concurre, curri, ěre, to renne with other, to ren together as souldiours doo in battayle. Some tyme to accord oꝝ agree, not to repugne one with an other: also to chaunce oꝝ happen.
Ad arma concurrere, whan the souldiours renne to arme them.
Concurrere inter se, to renne one agaynst an other.
Frontibus aduersis concurrere, to renne and bushe together as bulles and rammes doo.
Concurrere alicui obuiam, to ren to mete one.
Tot concurrent verisimilia, there come together so many thynges lyke to be true.
Multa concurrent simul, quamobrem coniecturam hanc nunc facio, there come many thynges together, why I doo this coniect.
Concurrere in sententiam aliquam, to agree oꝝ assent gladly to any sentence.
Somnia casu nonnunquam concurrunt, dremes oftentymes by chaunce happen and come to passe.
Concurritur, they renne together.
Nomina concurrent, the debtes whiche are owyng me be sufficient to pay all that I do owe.
Ne aspere concurrent verba, that the wordes mete not together and sounde vnpleasantly.
Concurrere cum summa, to be equal with any summe.
Concursatio, and Concursio, ōnis, f. ge. a rennyng together, a rennyng to and fro.
Concursator, ōris, a courrouer, one that renneth hither and thither.
Concurso, aui, are, to renne often together, to renne hither and thither.
Huc illuc concursare, to renne hyther and this ther.
Omnium domus concursare, to renne aboute to euery mans house.
Concursus, us, ma. gen. a rennyng of people together to one place.
Occupationum concursus, whan manie and diuers busineses chaunce together at one tyme.
A sper concursus verborum, a rough oꝝ vnpleasant metyng of wordes in oration.
Concursus facere, to assemble together hastily.
Concussura, a, f, g. and Concussio, ōnis, idem quod Concussus.
Concussus, us, ma. gen. a shakynge, mouynge, oꝝ troublynge.
Concutio, concutis, cussi, ěre, to shake, to moue, to brandish, to make to tremble.
Concutere mare, to make the sea troublous oꝝ

Touche, to touch, to handle, to move, to stirre.
Concussio, a fisto, stantin, concussio, cautus, fiera,
I trouble and make rough.
Caput concutere, to shake the head.
Hastam concutere, to make a spere.
Metus ossa concutit, feare maketh the bones to tremble.
Republicam concutere, to trouble or disquite the common weale.
Condaliū, hij, n, gen, a manner or fashion of ringges, a thimble, such as taplers or mounailers use for hurting their fingers.
Condare, the citter in Rens in Britayn.
Condecēter, agreeable, very comly, or comely.
Condecētia, a, form, ge, a besmyng or comlyness.
Condecet, (impersonall, it well becommeth.
Condecōre, comely, honozably.
Condecōro, ai, āre, to make cleantie or honest, to polittie, also to honour a thyng in makinge it more commendable.
Condemnatio, ōnis, f, g, a condemnation.
Condemnātor, ōris, one that condemneth. Some-tyme an accuser that convinceth one to be gilty.
Condemnātus, a, um, condemned.
Pecuniā publicā condemnatus est, he is condemned for wastynge the common treasure.
Condemno, ai, āre, to condemn, or to cause to be condemned.
Iniuriarum condemnari, to be condemned for injuries that one hath doen.
Me ipsum inertiā condemnō, I condemne
my selfe of cleutfulness.
Sponsionis condemnari, to bee convicted or condemned in the forfeite of the couenantes.
Condemnabo ego eodem te crimine, I will condemne thee, or shewe thee to bee gilty in the same faute.
Eius familiares de vi condemnati sunt, hys
familiers are condemned or proued to be gilty for vsyng of vnlaufull violence.
Condemnare omnes de concilij sententia, to condemne all by the aduysle or sentence of the counsaile.
Condemnat accusator reum, whan he dothe conuince hym, and causeth hym to bee condemned.
Condēso, ai, are, and Condenseo, ere, to make thicke, or gather together.
Condensant se in vnum locum oues, The sheepe flocke thycke together in one place.
Se condensat aer, the ayre waxeth thycke.
Condēsus, a, um, thicke, close together.
Condensa arborum, places where trees growe thicke together, as a foylet, woodde, or groue.
Condensa acies, the fronte of the battayle, wherewith manye men are raunged thycke together.
Condepso depsum, depfere, to myngle.
Condico, xi, cere, to appoynt, to ordeyne, to promysse, to requyre or aske agayne, to deny, to assigne

assigne by mouthe, to denounce or declare.
 Condicare cenam, vel ad cenam, to appointe a supper, or to promise to go to supper.
 Condicare operam, to declare or shew that he will take upon him that enterprise.
 Nummos tibi dominus condicere possit,
 The master may require the money ayant of you.
 Condicare, amonge the lawyers is to sue an action personall, to require that the defendant be condemned and constrained to deliuer, doo, or performe any thynge to him.
 Condictio, ōnis, f. g. an action personall in the lawe, or appoyntment of the action to the thirde day folowynge.
 Condictius, a, um, the adiective.
 Actio condicticia, the action personall in the lawe, whan we require any thynge of our adversary.
 Condictum, ti, ne, g. a promise, agreement, or appoyntment made amonge many.
 Condictus, a, um, appoynted, denounced, declared, promised, accorded.
 Condicta cenula, an appoyntement made to go to supper in some place.
 Condigne, worthely, honestly.
 Condignus, a, um, worthy, and accordynge, as it is esteemed.
 Condignissima, a towne of Cannania.
 Condimentarius, a, um, that pertyneth to sauce or seasoning.
 Condimentum, ti, n. g. that wherewith thynges be preferred from corruption, or els made delectable in taste, sauce, seasoning.
 Condimentum amicitiae, suauitas morum & sermonum, The sauce of friendshippe, or the thynge that maketh friendshippe acceptable and pleasant, is sweetenesse of maners, and gentyll wordes.
 Condimentis humanitatis mitigare seueritatem, to mitigate seueritee, and make it more pleasant with curteys and gentyll behauiour.
 Facetiae omnium sermonum condimenta, wittie and pleasant sentences make all mens communication delectable.
 Cōdio, iui vel dii, ire, to season meate, to powder or otherwyle order it, to preserve it from corruption. And by a metaphore, to temper wisely, to make more pleasant or acceptable.
 Labore & fame condiebant epulas, wth labour and hunger they made their meate pleasant.
 Condire tristitiam hilaritate, to temper wisely sorowe with mythe, or to mitigate.
 Condire mortuos, to embaume dead copes to preserve them.
 Asperitas ipsius humanitate conditur, His Harpenesse or seueritee is tempered with gentleness.
 Condiscipula, ae, f. g. a woman scholar.
 Condiscipulatus, us, mas, gen, the fellowship in schooler.

 Condiscipulus, li, m. g. a scholer fellow.
 Condisco, didici, ere, to learne.
 Conditans, a, um, that whiche is to be preferred, or that may be saved.
 Conditio, ōnis, condicion, place, fortune, state, matter, waile, or meanes, propertee or nature election, choyse, couenant, law, an offer or promise conditionall.
 Conditione vii, not to refuse the offer.
 Conditionem accepit, he took the bargayne or promise, or he agreed.
 Conditio humana, the condicion or state of man.
 Frugum conditiones, the properties and natures of frutes.
 Conditio regionis, the nature of the country.
 Conditio temporis, the state of the tyme.
 Sequi aliquam vitam conditionem, to follow any state, condicion, or manner of lyfe.
 Aequa conditione causam agere, whan equalitye is betwene the parties that seue or pleade.
 Metri conditio, the qualitee, or faction of the metre or verse.
 Iniqua conditione agere, whan one hath more aduantage than the other.
 Meliore conditione est, he is in better state.
 Commodiore conditione praedia, fermes that be not very chargeable.
 Immortalium conditionem postulare, to desire to be equall with the goddes.
 Mortali conditione generati, to bee borne mortall.
 Ea conditione nati sumus, we be borne in such condicion.
 Sub ea conditione, vnder that condicion.
 Conditionem ferre, to geue or offer the condicion.
 Accedere ad conditionem, to agree.
 Offerre conditionem pacis, to offer meanes of peace.
 Ferre conditiones, est victoris, Accipere, victi.
 Perducere aliquem ad suas conditiones, to bynge a man to suche condicions and offers as he woulde haue hym.
 Controuersiae conditio, the state of the controuersie.
 Repudiare or respuere exquisitam conditionem, to refuse or forsake a very iuste and reasonable offer.
 Stare conditionibus, to abyde by the bargayne or couenantes.
 Fugere a conditionibus, contrary.
 Prouidere, ne duriorem vobis conditionem statuatis, see that ye make no suche agreement, that shall be littell for your aduantage.
 In superiore conditione poni, to haue the more aduantage.
 Conditio, ōnis, f. g. causing.
 Conditio ciborum, a causing of meate.

Conditio

Conditionalis, le, that pertaineth to the condicio on of offer.
Conditionaliter, conditionally.
Conditivus, a, um, that is hidde of layde vp.
Conditiva cibaria, poudered meate, or other wyse preserved.
Conditivum, ui, neut. gen. idem quod conditorium.
Conditivus, a, um, that whiche may be pouder-ed of kepte.
Conditivus cibus, poudered meate.
Conditior, oris, m. g. a maker of builder, a founder of the first inuenter of a thyng.
Historix conditor, the maker of wytter of an hystory.
Conditior Peripateticæ sectæ Aristoteles, As-trophile the fyrste author of the secte Peripa-tetyke.
Conditior, oris, m. g. one that maketh sauce, or seasoneth meate.
Conditorium, rij, n. g. a sepulchre, a place wher-in ordynance for warre is kepte.
Conditivus, a, um, that, wherin any thyng is hydde of layed vp.
Conditura, ræ, fæ. ge. sauce of pickle made with spyes.
Conditus, a, um, hyd, layde vp, made, builded.
Tumulo conditus, buried in a tumber.
Ensis vagina conditus, a sworde put vp in the scabbard.
Mensis condita, layde vp in a grayner, or barne.
Conditus, us, m. g. idem quod conditio, a sau-syng of seasoningg.
Conditus, a, um, sauced, seasoned, tempered,
made sauory, or pleasant, endauored.
Conditio oratio, woordes of language tempo-red with honest and pleasant thynges.
Bene coctus & conditus sermo, very circum-spect and pleasant talke.
Ius male conditum, vnsauory or naughty postage, potage yll seasoned.
Nemo vnquam suauitate conditior, no man euer vsed moze swete, pleasant, or courtelyse maner of speakyng.
Condiuincum, frautes in fraunce.
Condo, condidi, ere, to lay vp saulfe, or hyde, to put in. Sometime to make of buyde, to found.
Condere capiuos in custodiam, to putte the pylsoners in safegarde, to kepe them in warde.
Condo in crumenam, I put it vp in my purse.
Se ponere & condere.
Arca condere aliquid, to lay vp or hyde a thyng
in ones chest.
Condere terra, or humo, to bury.
In carcerem, or carcere condere, to caste in pylson.
Condere corpora sepulchro, or in sepulchro,
to bury dead bodies, or lay them in graue.
Ensem condere in alicuius corpore, to thrust his sworde into one.

Triticum condere in granaria, to lay vp wheate
in granaries.
Sol conditum in undas, the sonne goeth downe.
Iram condere, to kepe close ones anger.
Condere urbem, ciuitatem, arces, domos,
to buyde. &c.
Iura & leges condere, to make lawes.
Nomen memorandum condere, to get greate renoume, or an immortall name.
Condere reipublicam, and Occidere, to ruyne.
Condere carmen, to make a verse.
Condere bella, to describe or write of warres.
Iuramentum condere, to make of institute an othe.
Condere historiam, to write an hystory.
Condoceo, condoces, cui, ere, to teache.
Condocefacio, cefacis, feci, cere, to make to knowe, to instructe or teache.
Condoleo, condoles, ui, ere, to be very sick or pyned.
Condoluit caput de vento, the wynde hath made my heade ake, or my head ake with the wynde.
Condolefco, scere, to be sorre, to be syke or pyned.
Condonatio, onis, form, gene. agrayng or for-geyng.
Condonatus, a, um, forgyuen, forgotten, pardoned.
Condonatum iudicium alicui dicitur, when the person accused is either condemned or quitted for the fauour of some man.
Condono, hui, are, to giue, to forgiue a debt or duette, to pardon.
Condonare alicui munusculum, to giue one a present.
Condonare aliqui pecuniam, to forgiue one money that he oweth. Lyke wyse Condonare pecuniam debitoribus.
Condonare peccatum, to forgiue a trespass or an offence.
Condonare animaduersionem & suppliciu,
to remitte or pardon a mans punishment.
Condormio, tui, ire, to sleape with other.
Condormisco, scere, to sleape a litle, to nap.
Condrille, les, fæ. g. or Condrillum, li, neu. g.
wyde ephypp.
Condris, dris, form, gene. an herbe called false dittayne, because it is lyke dittayne, but it hath lesse leaues.
Condrites, bread made of Zea.
Conducibilis, le, profitable, commodious.
Conduco, xi, ere, to bypnyng with, to hyre, to byre, to take an house or lande. Also to gather or assemble in one place, to conuerte, to take in hand to doo a worke or busynesse for hyre or wages.
And in the thyrd person, it is to profite.
Conducit, it is profitable.
Conduci non possum, I can not be brought to beleue: No man can make me beleue it.
Exercitus in vnum conducere, to bypnyng the armies.

armies together into one place.
 Nimum magno conducere, to hye o: hie at to high a puce.
 Aliquem ad eadem faciendam conducere, to hye one to committe a murder.
 Fundum de aliquo conducere, to hye a ground
 of one.
 Conducere mercede, to hye for wages.
 Ea maxime conducunt, quæ sunt rectissima, Those thynges are moſte profitable, whiche are moſte honeſt.
 Conducit hoc tua laudi, This maketh muche
 for your prayſe.
 Conducere nauem, hortum, domum, locum
 &c. to hye. &c.
 Conductio, ōnis, f. g. a hying.
 Conductitius, a, um, that whiche may be hyed
 o: taken, o: is vſed to be hyed.
 Conductitæ operæ, hyed labours.
 Conductor, ōris, ma. ge. he that hyeth a thyng.
 ſometyme he that is hyed.
 Conductum, ti, n. gen. a thyng hyed.
 Conducti in vnum locum, gathered together into one place.
 Habere aliquid conducti, to hye a thyng.
 Conductus, a, um, gathered, aſſembled together
 hyed.
 Condulus, li, m. g. idem quod Condaliū.
 Conduplicatio, ōnis, f. g. a doublyng.
 Conduplico, aui, are, to double a thyng.
 Conduplicare beneficium, to double a benefite.
 Tenebræ conduplicantur, it waxed twyſe ſo
 darke.
 Condurdon, an herbe that beareth a red floure, and flouriſheth in Auguſt: beyng hanged about the neke, it helpeth the diſeaſe called Struma.
 Condus, di, m. g. a ſuarde of houſeholde, o: he that kepeth the ſtoze of houſeholde.
 Condylōma, ātis, neu. g. a ſwellng of the tuell
 o: foundement, procedyng of an inflamacion.
 Condylus, i, m. g. of Feſtus Pompeius is expoſ-ded a ryng, o: a thimble, ſuche as taylers, o: o: ther do vſe. Some oſther do declare it to bee the roundneſſe of the bones in the knee, the ancle,
 the elbow, the knuckles of the fyngers.
 Confabulo, aui, are, to tell tales, to common o:
 talke together.
 Confarcio, looke Confercio.
 Confarreatio, ōnis, fæ. ge. a marriage betwene
 a man and a woman, whiche was dooen wyth certayne ſolemnities in the preſence of the byſhop.
 Confarreatus, a, um, ſo married.
 Confarreo, aui, are, to wedde ſolemnely after that facion.
 Confatilis, le, that hath the ſame deſteny.
 Confecta, thynges diſpatched and concluded by reaſon.
 Confectio, ōnis, f. g. an atcheuyng o: byngyng of a thyng to paſſe, a chewing, a digeſtyng.

Confectio tributi, the impoſicion of a tribute.
 Annalium confectio, the wytyngs o: makynge of an hystorie.
 Belli confectio, the diſpatchyng o: atcheuyngs of warre.
 Escarum confectio, the chawpyng of meate.
 Conſector, ōris, ma. g. he that diſpatcheth, atcheueth, conſumeth o: waſteth.
 Negotiorum confector, he that atcheueth matters.
 Conſectura, æ, f. g. a makynge, doynge, o: mynglyng of a thyng.
 Conſectus, a, um, hylled, ſlayne, vndoone, gres-ued, ſore broken, perfected, atcheued, brought to an ende o: conſluſion, chewed, digeſted.
 Conſectus ætate, æuo, ſenecta, ſenectute,
 ſenio, very aged, at the pyttes bynke.
 Bellum confectum, warre ſynſhed and brought to an ende.
 Conſectus angore, cura, dolore, labore, cruciatu, morbo, ſlayne o: ſore broken, with an-gwyſhe, care, ſorowe. &c.
 Corpus ſenectute confectum, ac penè dilapſum, A body ſore broken, and almoſte cleane decayed o: doone for age, o: beyng at the laſte caſte.
 Conſectus vulneribus, he that hath many ſore woundes.
 Conſectus cæde, ſlayne, murdered.
 Conſectus & trucidatus.
 Cibo confectus, hylde with eatynge.
 Cibus confectus, meate digeſted.
 Ciuitas ab aliquo confecta, deſtroied.
 Forma confecta macie, when leanneſſe dooeth
 diſfigure ones face o: fauour.
 Confercio, ferſi, cire, to ſtuſſe o: porre.
 Confero, tūli, ferre, to beare, to cary, to put o:
 lay together, to profite, to ſette forth, to prepare,
 to deuſe, to talke together, to geue, to compare o: conferre, to chaunge, to employ, o: beſtowe, to bynge, to go, to deferre, to put in, to lay to o:
 ſoygne.
 Ne poſterius, in me culpam conferas, Put not at the laſt the faute in me.
 Conſilia conferunt, They kepe theyr counſell together: O: they lay their wittes together: o:
 deuyſe amonge them ſelues.
 Nouiſſima conferam primis, I will lay to o:
 ſoygne the laſt to the fyrſt.
 Sitq; vtriq; proximū horreum, quo confe-ratur ruſticum inſtrumentum, To bothe nexte there muſte be a barne, wherein may be layed by together inſtrumentes belonging to huſbandry.
 Multa contuli in Catonem, I haue geuen o:
 attributed muche to Cato, I haue much fauour red Cato.
 Contuli me domum, I went home.
 Contuli me ad Catonem, I went to Cato.
 Confero me ad campum, vel in campum, I goe into the ſielde.
 Conferre amorem, to loue, to ſette o: caſte o: nes

nes loue.

Conferre animum alio, to sette hys mynde els where.

Conferre capita, to assemble for counsaile, to lay thei heades together.

Confer gradum, come forth, come hyther to me.

Conferre in pauca, to conclude shortly, to better in few wordes.

Conferre manus, to assaile eche other, to fight.

Conferre pedem, to come to the point, properly in contencion, where the parties doe ioygne.

Also to appoche or come nere.

Conferre se in pedes, to renne awaye, to take his heels.

Conferre studium, to employ his study.

Conferre tempus in aleam, to spende the time in playing at the dice.

Conferre verba ad rem, to do as he sayeth.

Si verba ad rem conferantur, if he dooe as he sayeth.

Confert, it is profitable.

Nos conferemus nostro sumptu, non tuo, we will geue it or bestow it of our owne coste, and not of yours.

Quæ dii immortales ad Cn. Pompeium consulerunt, which the immortall goddis haue gesuen to Cn. Pompeius.

Quem nymphe Pellicis ira contulit in saxū, id est mutauit.

Falso conferre aliquid in aliquem, to laye a thynge to a mans charge falsely.

Benignitatem in aliquem conferre, to shewe great liberalitee or gentilnesse to one, to dooe many pleasures for him.

Castra castris conferre, to pitche or campe ouer ryght agaynst an other.

Conferre causam, or culpam in aliquem, to lay the faute or blame in one.

Omnes meas curas cogitationesque in rem publicam conferebam, I employed all my cares and imaginations vpon the common weale.

Mores duorum conferre, to compare the manners of two persons together.

In carmen conferre, to make a thynge in verses.

In commune conferre, to lay together a position for the common profite.

Conferre & fabulari, to deuple and talke together.

Causam conferre in tempus, to excuse ones self by the tyme.

Dona alicui conferre, to giue gyftes to one.

In tempus ambulationis cogitationes conferre, to remitte or deferre his earnest cogitations till the tyme he go a walkyng.

Verba in pauca conferam, quid te velim, I wyll tell you briezely or in few wordes, what I would with you.

Coram inter nos conferemus, we wyll deuple and common of these mattices, whan we meete together.

Contuli iter, I tooke my iourney, or I went.

Ingenium ad rem aliquam conferre, to geue ones minde to a thynge.

Maledicta in aliquem conferre, to rayle or geue one these wordes.

Conferre officia in aliquem, to doo friendly pleasures for a man.

Omni operam in aliquid conferre, to employ or bestow all ones labour on a thynge.

Orationem ad seruitutem suam contulit, he touned his communication from other thynges and spake of his bondage.

Pecuniam in opus conferre, to bestow or lay out money vpon some worke.

Pestem hominibus hæc conferunt, These thynges engendze and bynge pestilence amonge men.

Conferre rationes, to cast accompt, or make a rekenyng.

Conferre sermonem cum aliquo, or inter se, to talke.

Conferre signa, to ioygne battaile, and by a metaphoze, to contende or stryue.

Conferre omnia sua studia in aliquem, to do all the pleasures that one can for a man.

Conferre suspicionem in aliquem, to suspecte one.

Aliquod stipendium nostro studio contulerunt, they gaue certayne money to the furthesaunce of our study.

Conferre tributum, to pay tribute.

Conferre vires in vnum, to assemble thei powers together.

Conferre se totum ad amicitiam alicuius, to geue him selfe holy to any mans frendshipp.

Conferre se in fidem & clientelam alicuius, to put or committe ones selfe into the handes or tuition of any man.

Conferre se in societate, to associate, to make hym selfe a companion.

Conferre aliquem alteri, or cum alterio, to compare one with an other.

Conferrumino, aui, are, idem quod Ferrumino.

Confertim, in a busshement together.

Confertus, a, um, full. also in a flocke or multitude, in a busshement.

Vt nunquam conferti, sed rari magnis interuallis præliarentur, that they myght fight, not a multitude together, but a few at ones, and a great distance a sunder.

Turba conferta, iter clausit, The people gathered together in a busshement, stopped the waye.

Qua parte hostium acies confertissima visa est, erupit, he brake oute on that side, where the hoste of the ennemies seemed to bee moste thicke of people.

Confertissima turba, In the thickest pzease.

Conferta vita voluptatum omniū varietate, I lyfe replenished with all kynde of pleasures.

Conf

Conferva, x, f. gen. an herbe, whiche groweth in freshe waters, lyke to a sponge.

Confervico, bui, ere, to be hotte.

Confervico, scere, to waxe hotte.

Confessio, onis, f. g. a confessyng or acknowlagyng of a thyng.

Sit erranti medicina confessio, let the acknowlage of the faute be a medicine for him that hath dooen amysse.

Confessione illius xui, by the confession and reporthe of men of that tyme.

Urgetur sua confessio, his owne confession is layde harde to his charge.

Ad ignoracionis confessionem aliquem ad-ducere, to bynge one to acknowlage his igno-raunce.

Confessor, oris, ma. ge. he that confesseth or acknowlageth.

Confessus, a, um, that confesseth or acknowla-geth. also cleare, manifest, withoute doubte,
certayne.

Confessares, a manyfest thyng, out of all constrouersie.

Reus confessus, he that acknowlageth hym self giltie.

Quæ ex confesso sunt turpia, whiche be manifestly known, or whiche every man graunteth to be vn honest.

In confesso est, No man denieth it, every man graunteth it.

Manys confessas alicui tendere, to lyfte up ones handes, and confesse hym selfe vanquished.

In confessum venire res dicitur, whan every man graunteth it to be so.

Confestim, esteloones, soothwith, incontinent,
by and by.

Sine vlla mora & confestim.

Confibula, æ, fœm. gen. a claspe or tache. also a woodden pynne, or thyng made to clenche two peeces together.

Conficio, conficis, fœci, ere, to performe, synithe or make an ende of, to dispatche, to peryshe or be consumed, to destroy or slea, to greue vexe or torment, to explicate or declare, to byng to passe together money, to breake, to consume or waste to make, to chaw meate. also to digest.

Honestatis pars confecta est, quam tibi cupio esse notissimam, the parte of honestie is declared, whiche I woulde should bee vnto the perfectely known.

Si me amas, confice, If thou louest me, byng
it to passe.

Per magnam dices ex illa re pecuniam confici posse. Thou wylt say, that a greate summe of money myght bee made of that thyng.

Conficere, to breake.

Nucem dentibus conficere, to breake a nut with the teethe. also to consume or waste.

Qui cum hic non videant me, credant me conficere argentum suum, who because they see me not here, beleue I waste their money. Also Confici, to be made.

Quomodo potest ex multorum deorum aceruo vnus deus confici? By what meanes may there bee of an heape of goddes one god made?

Conficere pensum, to spynne oute hit threde, or doo hit taske. It is translated into this sentence: To haue dooen or brought to an ende that thyng, whiche he was appoynted or commaunded.

Conficere prandium, to haue dyned.

Pallium ad Phrigionem fert confecto prandio, whan dynet was doen, or whan he had dy-ned, he caried hit mantell to the brouderer.

Conficere sollicitudines alicui, to bynge one into heauynesse, or to make hym sorowfull.

Confeci, quæ iussisti omnia, I haue dooen or dispatched all that ye badde me.

Sica hominem confecit, He murthered the man with a dagger.

Confici curis, dolore, angore, merore, in-firmitatibus, To be greued, vexed, or soze broken with care, sorow. &c.

Conficere ambulationem, to walke.

Absolutionem conficere, to dispatche or quitte Prope centum annos confecit, He hath lyued well nere a hundred yeres.

Conficere bellum, to atchieue or finish a warre sometyme to fight.

Cibos conficere, to concorte or digest meate sometyme to chawe.

Cursum annum sol conficit, the sunne goeth
a certayne course yerely.

Conficere cum aliquo de re aliqua, to cōclude or falle at agreement wpyh one concernyng a mattier.

Diem conficere, to spende the day.

Conficere diem extremum, to ende ones life,
to dye.

Facinus conficere, to commytte some naughty
deede.

Conficere exercitum, to gather an army.

Iter conficere, to dispatche or go a iourney.

Librum conficere, to write or make a booke.

Mandata conficere, to fulfyll or accomplishe ones commaundementes.

Malum alicui conficere, to wooke one myschiefe or displeasure.

Conficere munus susceptum, to atchieue or accomplishe that one hath taken in hande.

Negotium conficere, to dispatche a busynes.

Nuptias conficere, to make a mariage.

Verustas omnia conficit, continuance of tyme consumeth or weareth out all thynges.

Patrimonium conficere, to waste or spende as way ones heritage.

Pacem conficere, to pacifye or quyet a coun-tre.

Peculium grande confeci, I gate or gathered together a great rycheffe or substance of money and cattell.

Mille passuum conficere, to walke the space of a myle.
 Vario sermone sex stadia confecimus, we wente talkynge of diuers matters, the space of vi. furlonges.
 Rationes conficere, to caste accompt, to make a rekenyng.
 Reditum conficere alicui, to get one licence to retourne.
 Rem conficere, to dispatche a matter. also to consume ones substance.
 Sacra conficere, to doo diuine seruice.
 Sermone confecto, whan he had tolde hys tale.
 Tabulas conficere, to make rolles, registers oz rekenyng bookes.
 Confictio, onis, a saynyng.
 Confictus, a, um, deuised, feygned, counterfayted ymagyned.
 Confidens, entis, om. gen. he that regardeth no lawes, nor feareth any thyng, stubburne, styffe necked, foole hardy, rather, past all shame. sometye taken in good parte, it signifieth constant, assured.
 Confidenter, constantely, assuredly. sometye hardily, boldly, aduenturously, stubburnly.
 Confidenter restare in re aliqua, to abyde stiffely oz stubburnely in a matter.
 Confidenter colloqui, to talke boldly with out feare.
 Confidentia, æ, f, g. truste, hope, certayne assurance, constancie, boldnesse. also madde hardynesse, vnshamefastnesse.
 Improbilas & confidentia.
 Temeritas & confidentia.
 Confidentiloquus, he that speaketh boldly with out feare.
 Confido, di, vel firus sum, ère, to trust, to be sure, to dare, to haue a sure confidence.
 Confidere & metuere, contrary.
 Animo confidere, to haue a good hert.
 Timide confidere alicui, to be halfe astrayde, to trust one.
 Causa confidit, he trusteth on his matter, that it will not deceiue hym.
 Corporis firmitate confidere, cum ablatiuo, to trust in the strength of the body.
 In nullo illorum sibi confidebat, he putte hys truste in none of them.
 De urbis salute confidunt, They haue good hope of the sauegarde of the citee.
 Configo, fixi, ère, to speke oz thynge in to a thyng.
 Sagittis configere, to shoote throughe with arrowes.
 Cornicum oculos configere, a prouerbe, signifiynge to deface, condemne, oz foedoowe wth a newe inuencion. that whyche the antiquitee hath of longe tyme approued: oz to go aboute to blynde them that are very wyse and circumspecte.

Configere omnes curas in reipublica salute, to put his whole care to mayntaine and ppeferue the common weale.
 Configuro, ani, ère, to facion oz fourme, to make lyke.
 Configo, finxi, ère, to feygne a thyng to be true, to fourme oz make, to comment, to inuent oz imagine.
 Configere dolum, to fynde a meane to deceyue one, to deuise a craft to deceyue one.
 Hyrundines eadem materia nidos configunt, Swalowes make theyr nestes of the same matter.
 Apes fauos configunt, Bees make the hony combs.
 Configere & comminisci.
 Crimen in aliquem configere, to inuente oz imagine a false accusation agaynst one.
 Confinis, ne, next to, oz adioynyng, boundenge to. sometye almoste lyke, of the same sozte.
 Confinis ager, a fiede adioynyng, oz bounding to an other.
 Confinis meus, my neyghbour, whose ground lieth next to mine.
 Confine, is, neu. ge. a thyng oz place adioynyng to an other.
 Ei confine est, It is almoste lyke to that, oz of the same sozte.
 Confinium, nij, n. g. a bozder oz a marches of a countrey oz lande.
 Confinia, nium, plu. tertix declin. idem.
 Vicinitas & confinia.
 Confit, is, fieri, to bee made.
 Stercus quod ex pecoribus confit, douge that is made of beastes, beastes douge.
 Confit, it is made together.
 Confirmatio, onis, for. ge. a confirmation oz assurance.
 Confirmator, oris, ma. ge. he that affirmeth oz assureth.
 Confirmatus, a, um, confyrmid, made stronge, fortified, strengthned.
 Confirmata valetudo a morbo, helth well rescouered after sicknesse.
 Confirmata ætas, perfitte age, when one is become a man.
 Confirmitas, atis, for. g. assurednesse.
 Confirmo, aui, are, to confirme oz assure a thyng to be as it is spoken: to strengthen, to fortify, to make sure: to encourage, to make more constant and hardy.
 Confirmare animum, to take courage.
 Confirmare se, to make him selfe stronge after syknesse, to gette his strengthe agayne, also to take a good harte oz courage, and not to feare. sometye to pause and refrethe ones selfe after weyrynesse.
 Cum te confirmaris, ad nos venias, whan ye haue recouered your strength, come to vs.
 Confirmare se ad omnia, to settle ones mynde to abyde all maner of chaunces.

- Militēs consolatur & confirmat, he comforteth the souldiours, and maketh them more constant and bolde.
- Confirmare amicitiam cum aliquo, to confirme amities and frendship with one, and make it more sure.
- Confirmare & Comprobare.
- Confirmare, & infirmare, refellere, refutare, contrary.
- Difficile est hoc de omnibus confirmare, It is harde to affirme this to be true of all without exception.
- Confirmare possum, I can assure you.
- Confiscatus, a, um, confiscate, taken as forsaite.
- Confisco, aui, are, to seise a thyng for a forsaite sure to the common weale, or to the prince.
- Confiscare hereditates, to seise mens heritages as forsaite.
- Confiscare homines, to take mens bodies and goodes to the princes pleasure.
- Confissio, ōnis, f. g. an hopping or trustyng.
- Confissus, a, um, trustyng, hopping, hauyng a sure confidence.
- Confiteor, fessus sum, eri, to confesse, to acknowledge.
- Questione adhibita confiteri, By examinacion and tourmentes to confesse.
- Morum animi sui lachrymis confitetur, with teares he vitereth the troublous motion of hys mynde.
- De re confitetur, the thyng it self he confesseth.
- Vide me confitear, that I may confesse or tell you for myne owne parte.
- Confixus, a, um, pricked, thruste through, stiched. Telo confixus, thrust in with a weapon.
- Confixus, us, m. g. a stickyng or thurstyng in.
- Conflagens, gium, f. g. places, wherunto manye wyndes doo blow.
- Conflagito, aui, are, to despye importunately.
- Conflagratus, a, um, bourned, consumed with fyre.
- Conflagro, aui, are, to be on fyre, to be inflamed to bouene.
- Conflagrare amoris flamma, to bouene in loue.
- Conflagrare inuidia, and Conflagrare incendio inuidia, to be extremely hated.
- Conflatile, statilis, n. g. that which is apte to be wrought or cast lyke mettall.
- Conflatio, ōnis, f. g. and Conflatura, æ, a melting of mettall.
- Conflatus, a, um, blowen, compacte, made, pressed.
- Conflatus ex duabus naturis, compacte and made of two natures.
- Conflati testes, forged witnesses.
- Conflecto, xi, ere, to bende or bowe.
- Conflexus, a, um, bowed or bended.
- Conflictatio, ōnis, f. g. a beatyng or dasthyng of one thyng agaynst an other.
- Conflictatus, a, um, greued, vexed, soze troubled.

- Conflictatus graui morbo, tourmented or vexed with a greuous sicknesse.
- Tēpestatibus conflictatus, soze doubled and beaten with tempestes.
- Conflicto, aui, are, to fyght, to vex, or trouble. also Conflictor, atus sum, ari, com, to fyghe, to vex, to trouble or greue, or to be vexed, troubled or greued.
- Rempubicam conflictare, to vex or trouble the common weale.
- Multis incommodis conflictantur, they be vexed and troubled with many incommodities.
- Iudiciis turpibus conflictari, to contend in vn honest iudgements.
- Conflicari cum aliquo malo, to fight or strue earnestly agaynst an euill chaunce or myfortune and to endeuour to beate it out.
- Conflicari iniqua valetudine, doloribus, molestijs, to be greued or vexed with sicknesse. &c.
- Nouissima valetudine conflictari, to lie sick in his death bedde.
- Qui cum ingenijs, conflictatur huiusmodi, he that keepeth company, or hath to doo with men of suche disposition.
- Conflicari graui annona, to be soze greued with scarcitee and dearth of vintayle.
- Siti conflictari, to be soze a thyrst.
- Conflictio, ōnis, f. g. idem quod Conflictus & Conflictatio.
- Conflictio causarum, the replication in controuersies, where the one affirmeth and the other denyeth.
- Conflictus, tus, idem quod Collisio.
- Confligium, ij, ne. g. the dasthyng together of the waues of water.
- Configo, fixi, ere, to fyght, as men doo in battayle, and by a metaphoze, to contend or strue, to be contrary one to an other, to repugne.
- Configere manu cum hoste, to fyght hande to hande with ones enemye.
- Venti confligunt, the wyndes blowe contrary one agaynst an other.
- Confligunt leges & Collidunt, looke Collido.
- Causæ inter se confligunt, the controuersies agree not one with an other.
- Confligit magna ira, They fyght together with great wythe.
- Conflo, aui, are, to blow together, to blow lyke as one bloweth fyre, to melte mettall, to forge or make, to procure or get. also to gather.
- Statuas argenteas conflauit omnes, he melted all the ymages of syluer: Likewise Vasa aurea conflare.
- Bellum conflare, to rayse warre.
- Conflare exercitum, to gather an army.
- Magna familiaritas conflata est, greute familiaritee was procured and gotten.
- Quibus ex rebus conflat & efficitur, id quod quarimus honestum, of whiche thynges that honestie, whiche wee desyre to know, is compacte and made.

 Conflavit ex his omnibus populum, Of all these he gathered a great multitude.
 Et curvæ rigidum falces conflantur in enssem, And the crooked sythe is made into a harde swerde.
 Conflare invidiam, inimicitias, odium, to sterre or procure enuy, hostilitie, hatred.
 Conflare mendacium, to ymagine a lie.
 Conflata pecunia, money copned.
 Conflavit æs alienum, he is runne in debte.
 Malum ab aliquo conflatum & perfectum, an yuell or mischief brought to passe by one.
 Manum improborum conflare, To gather together a route of naughty felowes.
 Conflare negotium alicui, to bypunge one into busynesse and trouble.
 Conflare pecuniam, to gather money.
 Conflare accusationem, to forge.
 Periculum conflare, to bypung one in daunger.
 Seditio conflare, to reise or moue a sedition.
 Confluens, entis, ma. g. where two ryuers doo meete together.
 Confluges, gium, fœ. g. places, into the whiche many ryuers doo flow.
 Confluo, fluxi, ère, to come or renne together, to flow, to assemble together out of dyuers places.
 Confluebat ad eū magnus numerus, a great number came aboute him.
 Confluctuari, the imperfonall.
 Confluere ad aliqua studia, when many men with great desyre geue them selfe to any study.
 Ad nos pleræque causæ confluunt, moste causes be brought to vs, or most men bypunge theyr causes to vs to be pleided.
 Sentina confluit aliquo, the synke renneth to any place.
 Confluium, & confluxus, a meetynge together of many streames.
 Confluus, a, um, that whiche floweth together.
 Confodio, confodis, fodi, ère, to dig the earthe, to peerce or thrust through.
 Confodere aliquem vulneribus, to geue one many woundes, or wounde one in many places.
 Confodere & lacerare, to speake with vehemente and soze wordes agaynst one.
 Confodere hortum, to dygge a gardeyne.
 Confœdusti, olde wyters vñd for them, whiche were toggned in league, confederates.
 Confœra sus, a sowe, whiche was brought to sacrifice with all hie pygges.
 Confore, to be brought to passe hereafter.
 Et spero confore, and I hope it wil be brought to passe.
 Contório, iui, ire, to desyle with dytze, to bee squyt one.
 Conformatio, onis, f. ge. the facture, framyng, disposicion or facyonng of a thyng.
 Conformatio & figura totius corporis, the feature and facion of the body, or the proportion and figure of the body.

 Vocis conformatio, the facyonng and tuning of the voyce.
 Sententiarum conformatio, the apt framyng of sentences.
 Cōformatus, a, um, fourmed, facyoned, made like.
 Conformis, me, of a conformiter, or lyke (in facion, convenient.
 Conformo, aui, are, to bypunge to a facion or figure, to make apt or lyke to a thyng, to frame.
 Genuit & conformauit nos natura ad maiora, Nature hath brought forth and facyoned vs to greater thynges.
 Conformare se ad alicuius voluntatem, To facion him selfe after an other mans wyll and pleasure.
 Filios conformare, to beget or bypunge by childen in good maners.
 Orationem conformare, to facion ones style or fourme of wytyng.
 Mores conformare, to facion ones maners.
 Conornico, aui, are, to make lyke a roose, arche or vault.
 Conforto, aui, are, to comforte.
 Confossus, a, um, dygged, wounded.
 Confoueo, confoues, foui, ère, to nurythe together.
 Confractus, a, um, broken.
 Confracta illis naus est, they had a shipwacke.
 Confragōsus, a, um, rough as a grounde, which is not playne, yt to go in, also harde to be vnderstande. rude in language.
 Versus confragosi, verses rough and displeasunt.
 Confragosa loca, rough places full of stones.
 Confragus, a, um, idem quod confragōsus.
 Confremo, mui, ere, idem quod fremo.
 Confrico, ui, are, to rubbe harde.
 Confringo, frēgi, ère, to breake or bryse.
 Confringere rem, to spende or consume away all his substance.
 Confringere tesseram, to be out of fauour, or no moze welcome to one.
 Ne dens sub forfice confringatur, That the toothe be not broken with the pyngons.
 Confilia confringere, to breake by or dysolue counsailes by power or vnlesfull meanes.
 Iura confringere, to breake and violate lawes.
 Confugio, confugis, fugi, ère, to flee, to renne for succour.
 Confugere ad aliquid, to resort to any thyng for succour or for excuse.
 Quid te futurum? quo fugies? what shall bee dooen of thee? whether wilt thou flee?
 Confugere in naues, to flee to the shippes.
 Supplicem confugere ad aliquem, to come humbly to one for succour.
 Ad vota precesq; confugere, when all hope is paste to fall to entrete and prayer.
 In misericordiam alicuius confugere, to flee of appeale to ones mercy.

Nec tu eo nunc confugies, Neither shall ye make your excuse by this: of you shall not laye this for your excuse.
Confugit ad opem medicam, he resorteth to phisicke for ayde and helpe.
Confugium, gñ, neu. gene. a place of refuge or succour.
Confusio, fñ, fulci, to stape, underlette, or proppe bp.
Confulgeo, fñ, gère, to shyn byght.
Totæ ædes confulgebant tux, All your house byd shyn.
Confultus, a, um, stayed, underlette or proppe bp.
Confundo, fñ, ère, to confounde, to meddle together, to trouble, to disturbe, also to myxt out of order, to disorder.
Confundere aliquem dolore, to trouble.
Confundere in vnum corpus, to byng confusely into one company.
Fædus confundere, to disturbe the makinge of a league.
Sermones in vnum confundere, to speake confusely al at ones.
Vera cum falsis confundere, to myngle true thynges with false.
Iter confundere, to trouble and let a iourney.
Lachrymas confundere lachrymis, to weepe one in an others bosome.
Confundi, to be abashed or a shamed, to be dismayed.
Confuse & Confusim, confusely without order.
Confuse & permiste, cui contrarium Descripte & Electe.
Confusio, ónis, f. g. a confusion or disorder, also a trouble of mynde, a dismayng.
Confusus, a, um, confounded, disordered, troubled, dismayed, abashed, astonied.
Confusus animo, troubled, dismayed.
Pudore confusus, soze abashed.
Castra confusa tumultu, the campe troubled with tumult and rustlyng.
Olympus confusus, cloudy wether.
Permixtum & confusum.
Confusa oratio, a confuse oration, withoute good order or disposition.
Confusa rubore rosa, a speckled rose.
Confusum os, a face halfe redde, halfe pale.
Prolem confusam vtero capere, to conceive of many men.
Confutatio, ónis, for. g. a confutation, a dissoluyng of contrary argumentes, a disprooung of that whiche is spoken.
Confuto, ai, ère, to confute, to reproue or banquish by wordes, also to stirre.
His dictis confutabitur, here he shalbe tolde his owne.
Congedus, a river in Spayne, nere to the towne called Bilbilis.
Congelatio, ónis, f. g. freezlyng,

Congelatur, it is frozen or congeled.
Congelidus, a, um, like warme.
Congelo, cóngelas, ai, ère, to congele or warm thyche.
Congelauit otio, he is as it were frozen for ydelnesse.
In lapidem congelare, to harden into the nature of a stone.
Congeminatio, ónis, f. g. a doublyng.
Congemino, ai, ère, to double.
Crebros ensibus ictus congeminant, They lay on with theyr swerdes thicke & thye folde.
Congeminare vocem, to crye often.
Congemo, cóngemis, gemui, ère, to wayle, lament, or weepe with other for a thyng.
Congener, eris, om. g. of one stocke or kynd.
Congénero, ai, ère, to begette, to associate or adde to.
Congénitus, a, um, begotten, ingendred.
Congénulo, ai, ère, to kneele, to bow the knees.
Conger, idem quod Congrus.
Congeries, gerièi, f. gen. an heape or laynge together of diuers thynges.
Congerminasco, scère, to budde together.
Congérmino, ai, ère, to growe ioyntly together to be associate or coupled together.
Cóngero, esci, ère, to gather together, or heape bp, to heape or cary together.
Congérere causam in aliquè, to lay the fault, or caste the blame on one. Aphewys Crimen in aliquem congerere.
Oscula congerere, to kysse one oftentymes.
Maledicta in aliquem congerere, to rayle or scolde at one, to giue one shewde wordes.
In quem cum di atq; homines omnia ornamenta congererint, tum tu ipse plurima & maxima, To whome as bothe god and man haue plenteously giuen all maner of goodly or namentes: so you also especially very many and excellent.
Congérro, ónis, ma. ge. a mery companion, he that kepeth company only in pastime and merrye deuylyng.
Congestitus, a, um, that is cast bp in an heape.
Congestitus locus, a place whither the filthe of a citee is carped, a layestall: also a place where as is no firme lande, but holow grounde.
Congéstus, us, m. ge. an heapyng or gathering together.
Congéstus, a, um, made in an heape, caried, or heaped together.
Congialis, le, that conteyneth the measure congius.
Congiarius, rii, n. g. an almesse, or other liberal gyfte gyuen by the prince or greate man, to hys people, be it in money, coyne or vitayles, some tyme giuen to a peculiar person.
Multitudinem imperitam congiarijs lenire, with liberall giftes to mitigate and please the ignorant and rude people.
Cóngius, ii, ma. ge. a measure, conteynynge. vi.

Sextarios, and recepueth in weyght of oyle. ix. li. of wyne. x. li. of hony. xv. li. And is of our measure a pottle and one pynte.

♣ Congius, after Budei, the eight part of Amphora, & containeth like Sextarios, every Sextarius beyng. 24. ounces, that is a wine pinte and an halfe, so that Congius is of our measure a gallon and a pynt. If you take Sextariū, as physicians doo, to be but. 18. ounces, or. 20. ounces: then is it but a pottle, a quarte, halfe a pint, and. iiii. ounces, or otherwise accordyng to the rate. It is vled for a gallon of our measure.

Congiarius, a, um, and Congialis, le, that holdeth. vi. Sextarios.

Conglaciatus, a, um, frozen.

Conglacio, aui, are, to freeze, or let to freeze.

Conglaciari Tribunatus Curioni, Curio letteth the office of Tribune to freeze, as who sayth, he doeth nothinge in the office woorthye of remembrance.

Conglobatim, in a rounde fourme, lyke to a botte of chede.

Conglobatio, ōnis, a gatherynge together in a rounde heape.

Conglobatus, a, um, gathered or made rounde together.

Sanguis conglobatus, blond clouttered together.

Conglobo, aui, are, to bynge or come rounde together, to gather together in plumpes.

Conglómero, aui, are, to wynde vp in a botome. also to lay in an heape.

Vt fortuna omnia in me conglómerat mala, How fortune heapeth all euyls vpon me.

Conglutinatio, ōnis, fœm. gen. a ioyngynge or glewyng together.

Conglutino, aui, are, to ioygne together as it were glewed.

Conglutinare & dissoluere, contrary.

Si vtilitas amicitiam conglutinaret, eadem cōmutata dissolueret: If profite should knitte and ioygne frendeshipp, the same beyng chaunged, woulde dissolue it agayne.

Conglutinantur consuetudine voluntates, the appetites or myndes of men, by longe familiaritee, are ioygned or knitte together.

Vulnus conglutinant folia vitium, vyne leaues close the wounde.

Congraco, the actiue, or Congracor, ari, to eate and bynke exceedynglye, after the common woorde, to make good chere.

Congratulatio, ōnis, fœm. ge. a reioysyng with an other man, for his good fortune, congratulation.

Congratulor, âtus sum, ari, to reioyce with an other man of his good fortune, to declare in wordes the ioy that we haue for an other mans prosperitee, to congratulate.

Congrédior, effus sum, edi, to go with an other, to fyght or dispute, to go in hande to talke with one.

Congredere actutum, go to hym quickly.

Si ipse coram congredi poteris, yf you your selfe can come to speake with hym.

Congredi aliquem, to enter communication with one, to go to talke with hym.

Congredi cum hoste, to cope with ones enemye, to fyght, to ioygne battayle.

Congredi alicui quotidiana consuetudine, to haue accesse to one dayly, to be with one euery day.

Congregabilis, le, that lightly assembleth together.

Congregatio, ōnis, fœm. ge. a congregation or assemble.

Congregatus, a, um, gathered or assembled together.

Congrego, aui, are, to gather or assemble together.

Libenter se cum aequalibus congregant homines, men kepe company gladly with theyr equals.

Congregare se ad alterum, to affociate hym selfe to an other.

Quicum te aut voluntas congregasset, aut fortuna coniunxisset, with whome either your owne wyll had affociate you, or fortune coupled you.

Congressus, us, masc. gen. a battayle. also company with other, a meetyng or reioysyng of men together.

Congressio, idem.

In congressum & colloquium alicuius venire, to come to one to haue communication with hym.

Congressus quotidianus, dayly meetyng.

In congressum nostrum reseruabo, I wyll kepe it tyll we mete.

Multi in eo congressu perierunt, Many were slayne at that reincontro of conflict.

Congrex, of the same floke.

Congros, a faute in an olive tree.

Congruens, entis, om. gene. accordyng, apte, agreeable.

Congruenter, aptly, fitly.

Congruentia, æ, fœ. g. agreeableness, metenesse, lykenesse.

Congruo, grui, ère, to agree, to accord, to serue well to a purpose.

Congruere & differre, contrary.

Congruere & conuenire.

Congruit mulier mulieri magis, one woman agreeth best with an other.

Tempus ad illud congruit, the tyme serueth well for it.

Congruit eius sermo cum tuis literis, Hys wordes agree well with your letters.

Ne nos inter nos congruere sentiant, That they perceyue not that we be agreed betwene our selues.

Congruunt extrema primis, the begynnyns agreeth with the latter endyng.

Nostri sensus congruunt, we be of one wylde mynde.

Congruere, cum moribus alterius, to agree well with the maners of an other man.

Congrus, & Conger, gri, ma. g. a sphe called a congre.

Congruum, na. g. a greable.

Congruus, a, um, apte, mete, convenient.

Congylis, lis, f. g. looke Rapum.

Coniectarium, ri, n. g. for Confectarium Nostrius legit.

Coniectatio, onis, fcm. ge. a conjecture of diuination.

Coniectio, onis, fcm. ge. an hurlynge, flyngyng or castyng.

Coniecto, aui, are, to suppose, to iudge, to coniecte of dyuine, to gather by argumentes and tokens.

Coniectare aliquid euentu, to coniecte of dreame of a thyng by that that foloweth.

Vultu offensionem coniectare, to gather by ones countenance, that he is not well pleased with vs.

Haud dubio coniectatur argumentu, a man may gather by a good token of argument.

Coniector, oris, m. g. an interpretout of dreames, a coniectour that dweth coniecte what shal happen, a southsaier.

Coniectura, e, f. g. a coniecture of diuination.

Aberrare coniectura, to coniecte wryngs, to gesse otherwyle than the thyng is.

Coniectura aliquid assequi, to hitte a thyng by gesse of coniecture.

Coniectura augurari, to coniecte of gesse.

Coniectura colligere, to gather by coniecture.

Coniecturam facere, to coniecte.

Ex vultu coniecturam facere, to gather by ones countenance.

Coniecturam facio de meo stomacho, I gather of coniecte howe it is by myne owne stomache.

Coniectura consequi, to hitte a thinge by coniecture.

Profiteri coniecturam somniorum, to profess the interpretation of dreames.

Coniecturalis, le, that whiche is coniected of gathered by coniecture.

Coniecturo, as, to coniecte, Senec.

Coniectus, us, idem quod coniectio.

Coniectus oculorum, the castyng of the eyes a lyde.

Lapidum coniectus, the castyng of stones.

Coniectus, a, um, coniected, diuined, caste, hurled.

Coniecti in te omnium oculi, All men behold you: and by translation, you be in greate admiration of all men: Or they looke for some greate thyng of you.

Oratio coniecta in charissimos viros, words rashely spoken agaynst veray noble and famous persons.

Conifet, conifera, apum, an adterline.

Conifera arbor, a tree, whiche beareth fruite byng smaller at the one ende than at the other.

Coniferi, in Bacchus army, were they, whiche carried Thyrsos, that is, speares wrapped about the toppes with hye leaues.

Conicio, conicis, icci, are, to caste together, to coniecte, to deuine.

Coniecit se in fugam, he fledde.

Coniecit se intro, he went his way in.

Coniecit se in pedes, He stoode him to flight, he tooke his legges and ranne away.

Conicere pecuniam, to bestow money.

Conicere in leticiam, to make gladde.

Conicere in saginam, to put to saytyng, to goe where he may sell his bealpe.

Conicere in vincula, to caste in prison, or to lase a man in the stockes or gyues.

Conicere tela, to caste darts, or to shote.

Acute arguteque conicere, to coniecte finely and wittly.

Conicere aliquem in amorem, to caste of byng one in lone.

Conicere pallium in collu, to caste hys clothe on his necke.

Hic se coniecit intro, he conueighed him selfe in quickly.

Hostem in fugam conicere, to bycomfyt or put his enemy to flyght.

In quod me conieci malum, Into what mischiefe or trouble haue I cast my selfe.

Conicere in morbum, to caste into a sickness.

In nuptias conicere, to cause one to be married agaynst his will.

In plagas conicere, to bytue or byng one into the nettes, to intrappe or snare one.

Maledicta conicere in alicuius vitam, to curse or speake euill of a mans lyfe.

Oculos conicere in aliquem, to looke vpon one.

Conicere culpam aut causam in aliquem, to caste the faute or blame on one.

Conicere in librum, to wryte in a booke.

In eandem epistolam plura praterea conieci I haue wrytten manye thynges besydes in the same epistle.

In intimum domus se coniecit, he bydde him selfe in the innermost parte of the house.

Sub scalas se coniecit, He byd hym selfe vnder the stappes.

In ordinem iudicum conici, whan a naughty felow is made one of the numbre of bypyght and iust iudges.

Verba conicere in interdictum, to speake muche or rayle agaynst a proclamation, or commaundement geuen.

Tu conicito cetera, coniect thou the residue.

Flammam temporum conicere in aliquem, to say that one is the cause of the trouble or damage of any time.

Sextarios, and recepueth in weyght of oyle. lx. li. of wyne. x. li. of hony. xv. li. And is of our measure a pottle and one pynte.

Congius, after Budei, the eight part of Amphora. & containeth sixe Sextarios, eury Sextarius beyng. 24. ounces, that is a wine pinte and an halfe, so that Congius is of our measure a galon and a pynt. If you take Sextariū, as phisicians doo, to be but. 18. ounces, or. 20. ounces: then is it but a pottle, a quarte, halfe a pint, and. iiii. ounces, or otherwise accordyng to the rate. It is vsed for a galon of our measure.

Congiarus, a, um, and Congialis, le, that holdeth. vi. Sextarios.

Conglaciat, a, um, frozen.

Conglacio, aui, are, to freeze, or let to freeze.

Conglaciarius Tribunatus Curioni, Curio letteth the office of Tribune to freeze, as who sayth, he doeth nothyng in the office woorthye of remembrance.

Conglobatim, in a rounde fourme, lyke to a bot: some of thede.

Conglobatio, ōnis, a gatherynge together in a rounde heape.

Conglobatus, a, um, gathered or made rounde together.

Sanguis conglobatus, blond clouttered together.

Conglobo, aui, are, to bynge or come rounde together, to gather together in plumpes.

Conglómero, aui, are, to wynde vp in a botome. also to lay in an heape.

Vt fortuna omnia in me conglómerat mala,
How fortune heapeth all euyls vpon me.

Conglutinatio, ōnis, fœm. gen. a ioyngynge or glewynge together.

Conglutino, aui, are, to ioygne together as it were glewed.

Conglutinare & dissoluere, contrary.

Si utilitas amicitiam conglutinaret, eadem cōmutata dissolueret: If profite should knitte and ioygne frendeshyp, the same beyng chaunged, woulde dissolue it agayne.

Conglutinantur consuetudine voluntates, the appetites or myndes of men, by longe familiaritee, are ioygned or knitte together.

Vulnus conglutinant folia vitium, byne leaues close the wounde.

Congraco, the actiue, or Congraco, ari, to eate and bynke exceedynge, after the common woorde, to make good there.

Congratulatio, ōnis, fœm. ge. a reioysyng with an other man, for his good. fortune, congratulacion.

Congratulor, âtus sum, ari, to reioyce with an other man of his good fortune, to declare in wordes the ioy that we haue for an other mans prosperitee, to congratulate.

Congredior, effus sum, edi, to go with an other, to fyght or dispute, to go in hande to talke with one.

Congredere actutum, go to hym quickly.

Si ipse coram congredi poteris, yf you your selfe can come to speake with hym.

Congredi aliquem, to enter communication with one, to go to talke with hym.

Congredi cum hoste, to cope with ones enemy, to fyght, to ioygne battayle.

Congredi alicui quotidiana consuetudine, to haue accesse to one dayly, to be with one euery day.

Congregabilis, le, that lightly assembleth together.

Congregatio, ōnis, fœm. ge. a congregacion or assemble.

Congregatus, a, um, gathered or assembled together.

Congrego, aui, are, to gather or assemble together.

Libenter se cum aequalibus congregant homines, men kepe company gladly with theyr equals.

Congregare se ad alterum, to as sociate hym selfe to an other.

Quicum te aut voluntas congregasset, aut fortuna coniunxisset, with whome either your owne wyll had as sociate you, or fortune coupled you.

Congressus, us, masc. gen. a battayle. also company with other, a meetyng or reioysyng of men together.

Congressio, idem.

In congressum & colloquium alicuius venire, to come to one to haue communication with hym.

Congressus quotidianus, dayly meetyng.

In congressum nostrum reseruabo, I wyll kepe it tyll we mete.

Multi in eo congressu perierunt, Many were slayne at that reincountre or conflict.

Congrex, of the same flocke.

Congros, a faute in an olive tree.

Congruens, entis, om. gene. accordyng, apte, agreeable.

Congruenter, aptly, fitly.

Congruentia, æ, fœ. g. agreeableness, metenesse, lykenesse.

Congruo, grui, ẽre, to agree, to accorde, to serue well to a purpose.

Congruere & differre, contrary.

Congruere & conuenire.

Congruit mulier mulieri magis, one woman agreeth best with an other.

Tempus ad illud congruit, the tyme serueth well for it.

Congruit eius sermo cum tuis literis, Hys wordes agree well with your letters.

Ne nos inter nos congruere sentiant, That they perceyue not that we be agreed betwene our selues.

Congruunt extrema primis, the begynnynge agreeth with the latter endyng.

Nostri sensus congruunt, we be of one wylde mynde.

3. Congruere, cum moribus alterius, to agree well with the maners of an other man.
Congrus, & Conger, gri, ma. g. a sylle called a congre.

Congruum, na, g. a greable.

Congruus, a, um, apte, mete, convenient.

Congylis, lis, f. g. looke Rapum.

Coniectarium, ri, n. g. for Coniectarium Nostrius legit.

Coniectatio, onis, f. m. ge. a conjecture of divination.

Coniectio, onis, f. m. ge. an hurlyng, flynginge or castyng.

Coniecto, aui, are, to suppose, to iudge, to conjecte of dyuine, to gather by argumentes and tokens.

Coniectare aliquid euentu, to conjecte of dreame of a thyng by that that foloweth.

Vultu offensionem coniectare, to gather by ones countenance, that he is not well pleased with vs.

Haud dubio coniectatur argumenta, a man may gather by a good token or argument.

Coniector, oris, m. g. an interpretour of dreames, a coniectour that dweth coniecte what shal happen, a southsaier.

Coniectura, e, f. g. a conjecture of diuination.

Aberrare coniectura, to coniecte wryngs, to gesse otherwyle than the thyng is.

Coniectura aliquid assequi, to hitte a thyng by gesse or coniecture.

Coniectura augurari, to coniecte or gesse.

Coniectura colligere, to gather by coniecture.

Coniecturam facere, to coniecte.

Ex vultu coniecturam facere, to gather by ones countenance.

Coniecturam facio de meo stomacho, I gather or coniecte howe it is by myne owne stomache.

Coniectura consequi, to hitte a thyng by coniecture.

Profiteri coniecturam somniorum, to profess the interpretation of dreames.

Coniecturalis, le, that whiche is coniected or gathered by coniecture.

Coniecturo, as, to coniecte, Senec.

Coniectus, us, idem quod coniectio.

Coniectus oculorum, the castyng of the eyes a syde.

Lapidum coniectus, the castyng of stones.

Coniectus, a, um, coniected, diuined, caste, hurled.

Coniecti in te omnium oculi, All men behold you: and by translation, you be in greate admiration of all men: For they looke for some greate thyng of you.

Oratio coniecta in charissimos viros, wordes rashely spoken agaynst veray noble and famous persons.

Conifet, conifera, a, um, an adteritue.

Conifera arbor, a tree, whiche beareth fruite being smaller at the one ende than at the other, nylde a pynne appull.

Coniferi, in Bacchus army, were they, whiche carried Thyrsos, that is, speares wrapped about the toppe with iuy leares.

Conicio, conicis, ic, ci, &c, to caste together, to coniecte, to deuine.

Coniecit se in fugam, he fledde.

Coniecit se intro, he went his way in.

Coniecit se in pedes, he abode him to flight, he took his legges and ranne away.

Conicere pecuniam, to bestow money.

Conicere in leticiam, to make gladder.

Conicere in faginam, to put to fastyng, to goe where he may fyll his bealy.

Conicere in vincula, to caste in prison, or to lase a man in the stocks or gytes.

Conicere tela, to caste dartes, or to shote.

Acute arguteque conicere, to coniecte finely and wittly.

Conicere aliquem in amorem, to caste or byng one in lone.

Conicere pallium in collu, to caste hys clothe on his necke.

Hic se coniecit intro, he conueighed him selfe in quickly.

Hostem in fugam conicere, to bycomfyt or put his enemy to flyght.

In quod me conieci malum? Into what mischiefe or trouble haue I cast my selfe?

Conicere in morbum, to caste into a sickness.

In nuptias conicere, to cause one to be married agaynst his will.

In plagas conicere, to bytue or byng one into the nettes, to intrappe or snare one.

Maledicta conicere in alicuius vitam, to respozte or speake euill of a mans lyfe.

Oculos conicere in aliquem, to looke vpon one.

Conicere culpam aut causam in aliquem, to caste the fault or blame on one.

Conicere in librum, to wryte in a booke.

In eandem epistolam plura praeterea conieci I haue wrytten manye thynges besydes in the same epistle.

In intimum domus se coniecit, he hydde him selfe in the innermost parte of the house.

Sub scalas se coniecit, he hyd hym selfe vnder the stappes.

In ordinem iudicum conici, whan a naughty setow is made one of the numbre of bypyght and lust iudges.

Verba conicere in interdictum, to speake muche or sayle agaynst a proclamation, or commandement geuen.

Tu conicio cetera, coniect thou the residue.
Flammam temporum conicere in aliquem, to say that one is the cause of the trouble or damage of any time.

De se conijcere, to gather or coniecte by ones selfe. idem quod Myrrhis. Diol.
 Coniosis, the fyrst foundation of Bees wark in making the honey.
 Conion, called of the latyns Cicuta, of some is taken for hemlocke, although it be ascribed to grow amonge wheate.
 Conisco, aui, are, to put the one at another with their heades, as rammes, bulles, and deere doo.
 Coniugalis, le, and Coniugialis, le, that des longeth to wedlocke.
 Dii coniugales, goddes that haue the premi
 nence in wedlocke.
 Festa coniugalia, feastes at weddinges.
 Fœdus coniugiale, the bonde of wedlocke.
 Coniugalis choros, the bedde, wherein the hals bande and wife doo lye.
 Coniugata, be those wordes, whiche being of one kynde, be derpyed one of an other, as of In iusticia, iustus, & iustum, wherof an argument maye be made in this wyse: If iustice be to bee honoured and loued of men: chiefly and befoze other thynges, a iust man must nedes be had in estimation and reuerence amonge men.
 Coniugatio, ônis, f. g. a loyngnyng together, or a deriuation of wordes that be as it were of one kynde or lynage.
 Coniugator, oris, m. g. a loyngner, one that loy neth or coupleth.
 Coniugium, ij, n. g. marriage. sometyme carnall copulation.
 Coniugia, sometyme for them that be coupled as mates together, as,
 Bina coniugia, two couples of mates, two ma les and two females.
 Potiri coniugio alterius, to haue an other mās
 wyfe.
 Coniugo, aui, are, to poke together, to mary.
 Coniugus, and Coniugulus, a, um, that whych is loygned or coupled with a mate or felow.
 Conium, nij, n. g. looke Conion.
 Coniuncte, or Coniunctim, together.
 Coniunctio, ônis, fœ. gen. a loyngnyng toge ther. sometyme affinitie, amitee, familiaritee or acquaintance, mutall loue or conçoide.
 Verustus est amor, consuetudo, studia paria, quod vinculum, quæ res deest nostræ con iunctioni? There is olde loue, acqeyntance, studies lyke, what bonde, or what thyng lac
 keth, that we shoulde not be familiar?
 Spero & opto nobis hanc coniunctionem voluptati fore, I desyre and also trust that this alyuance shall be ioyfull vnto vs.
 Conciliare coniunctionem, to get acqeyntaunce or familiaritee.
 Coniunctio, amicitia, & beneuolentia.
 Coniunctio & familiaritas.
 Coniunctio & conspiratio.
 Conuenientia & coniunctio naturæ.
 Sanguinis coniunctio, kynred, affinites.

Coniunctio & disunctio, contrary.
 Coniunctissime, & amantissime.
 Coniunctissime uersati sumus, we were verie familiar together.
 Coniunctus, ti, arig: a frende or very familiar and well trusted.
 Coniunctus, a, um; loygned, allied, coupled, familiar, knytte in frendeshyppe, sometyme married.
 Coniunctissimi inter se, very greate freendes and familiar one with an other.
 Par amicitie coniunctissimum, two entere and very familiar freendes.
 Vt ad omnes causas coniunctiores reip. esse mus, that wee myght bee the better affectioned together towards the common weale, what so euer shoulde chaunge.
 Coniuncta & sociata.
 Coniuncti inter se atque impliciti.
 Propinquitate, & natura alieni coniunctum esse, to be of kynred or affinitie with one.
 In quo non sit coniunctum consilium meum cum tuo, wherein myne aduysle or counsaile doeth not agree with yours.
 Fidissima gratia coniunctus alicui, loygned in thist faythfull and trusty frendeshyp.
 Coniuncta mihi uita de re publica & priua ta cum illo fuit, he and I were alwaies solle citouse together, bothe for our common and pri uate weale.
 Digno coniuncta viro, married to a worthy housebande.
 Coniunctis sententijs discernere, whan a whole company with a full consent or depneth a thyng to be doen.
 Coniungo, xi, ere, to loygne together, to couple in marriage.
 In negotio se coniungere, to associate hym
 selfe with an other in a matter or busynesse.
 Conciliare & coniungere.
 Coniungit amicitias naturæ similitudo, the lykenes of nature or disposicion loygneth men together in frendeshyp.
 Coniungere sibi fœminam in matrimonio,
 to wedde a wyfe.
 Coniungere connubia, idem.
 Castra oppido coniunxit, he pitched his cæpe
 harde by the towne.
 Bellum coniungere, to loygne in warre.
 Coniungere dextras, to take by the hande.
 Fœdere coniungi, to be alyed, or knitte toge ther in league.
 Aetas hunc mihi coniunxit studijs commu
 nibus, hath made him my companion in study.
 Causa tua coniuncta est cum clarissimis viris, many right noble men are in lyke case or condi tion as you be.
 Vsu cum aliquo coniungi, to be of acqeyn taunce.
 Coniuola, hyd, secreta.
 Coniuratio, ônis, f. g. a conspiracy.

Facere coniurationem, to make a coniuration or conspiracy.
Prodere coniurationem, to betray a conspy-racy.
Coniuratus, a, um, that conspireth or confederas
teth together.
Coniurati, men confederated together for some yll purpose.
Coniuro, aui, are, to coniure or conspyre with other for an yll purpose. Sometime to swear.
Coniunx, iugis, or Coniunx, iugis, co. g. a mate
a husbände or wyfe.
Coniza, zæ, f. g. an herbe, wherof be two sortes,
the greater and the lesse, some call it in Englysh flebayne.
Conlâbor, loke Collabor.
Conlatro, aui, are, to barke or raple at a thyng.
Conligo, loke Colligo.
Conliquesco, loke Colliquesco.
Conlâculo, loke Collutulo.
Connas, a drunken minstrel, that after was a great doer in the places Olimpicis: he was of victour, and yet veray poore.
Connatio, onis, f. g. a swymmyng together, as fitthes doe. Sometime in Plautus, accompa-nyng of diuers with one woman.
Connâro, aui, are, to swymme together.
Connectio, onis, f. g. a byndyng together, also a conclusion.
Connecto, xui, ère, to bynde together.
Connectere alicui rei aliquid, to adde somes
what to a thyng.
Vestem connectere, to tuche or trusse a garment.
Connexum, i. n. g. a conclusion.
Connexus, us, masc. g. a knittynge or tyngs together.
Connexus, a, um, knit or tied together.
Connexiuus, a, um, that coupleth together.
Connitor, nixus, or nixus sum, niti, to endeuour or labour together earnestly. Sometime to trauell with chyldre, to leane vpon.
Conniti in aliquo locum, to labour to ascende into a place.
Vno animo conniti, to endeuour with one accorde or mynde.
Toto corpore connixus, endeuoring and thus styng forwarde with the whole bodie.
In hastam connixus, leanyng on his speare.
Conniuentia, æ, f. g. a sufferance of a thyng, or a feignyng, not to se or knowe.
Conniueo, conniues, penultima producta, or Conniuo, is, iui, vel xi, to wynke, and is vled to be spoken whan men wyl let thynges passe that oughte to be looked on, to wynke at a mat-tier, to make as though he knew it not, to dissemble, to take patiently, to beare or suffer a thyng.
Oculi somno conniuentes, The eyes beyng heavy for lacke of sleape, can scant loke vp.
In ceteris conniuebat, In other thynges he winked & made as though he knew not of them.

Conniuere claustra stomachi, dixit Gellius, for that the mouth of the stomake openeth and shutteth agayne.
Connixus, a, um, that endeuoureth. Sometime that byingeth forth pong.
Conno, aui, are, to swymme together.
Connodo, aui, are, to knyt together.
Connubialis, le, perteynyng to wedlocke.
Connubium, bi, neu. gen. matrimonie, weds locke.
Celebrare connubium, to kepe a wedding.
Iungere & sociare connubio, to mary or wed
together.
Inire connubium, to marie.
Vitare connubia, to leade a single lyfe, to eschus marriage.
Connubo, ère, to mary together.
Connudo, aui, are, to discouer or make naked.
Connus, Socrates maister in musike.
Conoides, the female of the Eppes tree, & what so euer is small vpwarde lyke the fruite of this tree.
Conon, onis, a famous captayne of Athenes.
Cononienfes, people of Harbone in Fraunce.
Conopeum, péi, or Conopeum, and Conopium, n. g. a canopy, properly such one as hangeth ouer beddes, and is wrought lyke a nette, to kepe out gnattes, that do styng men in theyr beddes.
It is vled for a tent or paulion. Some haue taken it for a testoz to hange ouer a bedde.
Conor, âris, âri, to endeuo, to labour or go about to byng a thyng to passe, to attimpte.
Perdite aliquid conari, desperately, or with all ones power to endeuour.
Conari alicui obuiam, to make haste to meete
with one.
Conari manibus pedibusque, to endeuour with hande and fote, with tooth & nayle, or as muche as one can.
Occulte aliquid conari, to endeuour a thyng piously.
Conari aliquid fallatix, to goe about to deuise
some deceypte.
Magnum opus & arduum conari, to go about a great and harde enterpryse.
Egone istud conari queam? coulde I attempt or goe aboute such a mattiere?
Conquadratus, a, um, made square.
Conquadro, âci, âre, to make square.
Conquassatio, onis, f. g. a shakynge, a vexacion or trauaplyng.
Conquassatus, a, um, shaken, broken, spogled, wasted, vered.
Conquassata terræ motibus, shaken with earth quakes.
Conquasso, aui, are, to bryake in pieces. Somtyme to bere, to shake, to waste or spoyle.
Conquassare nationes, to spoyle, stroye, or wast countreies.
Conqueror, quæri, to complayne, to make mone.
Deplorare & conqueri de re aliqua, to lament
and

and complayne for any thyng.
 Conqueri fortunam aduersam, to complayne of aduersitee.
 Nequicquam cōqueri, to make none in vaine.
 Conqueritur tibi, he maketh his none to thee.
 Patris in se seuitiam conquerens, complaining of his fathers crueltie towarde hym.
 Conqueri cum aliquo de alicuius iniuria, to complayne or make his none to a man for the iniury that one hath doone hym.
 Conquestus, us, m. g. and Conquestio, onis, f. g.
 a complaynyng or none makynge.
 Conquiesco, cui, esse, to cease, to leaue of, to be alayed, or asswaged, to be at rest or quiete, to delyte ones selfe in a thyng, to repose or recreate hym selfe in a thyng.
 Ab armis conquiescere, to reste or be at quyet from warres.
 Conquiescere ab execrationibus, to curse no
 more.
 Nisi perfectare, de me non conquiesci, you neuer ceased or leste of in myne assaye or businesse, tyll you had brought it to passe.
 Conquiescere in loco, to reste or abyde in a
 place.
 In his studiis conquiesco, I repose or delyte
 my selfe in these studies.
 In alicuius amicitia conquiescere, to delyte ones selfe, or take pleasure in a mans frendship.
 Calor conquiescit, the heate is alayed, or assuas-ged.
 Conquiescere à re aliqua, not to be troubled or busied any more with a thyng, to cease of, or be at quiet from it.
 Conquiescere in eadem mensura honorum,
 to holde hym selfe content with. &c.
 Conquiescent studia, nisi, &c. I wyl not medle with studie, or I wyl geue ouer studie for a time, excepte. &c.
 Conquinisco, quexi, niscere, to douch with the head, to boowe or encline.
 Conquiro, siui, irere, to seke all aboute, to searche for. Conquirere opes meretriceo quæstu, to gather richesse by whoore dome.
 Cōquirere vndique, to serch for in euery place.
 Terra maris, conquirere, to serche for, both by sea and lande.
 Conquirere & comparare.
 Conquisitè, exquisitely, with great learnyng and diligence.
 Conquisitio, onis, f. m. gen. a serchyng, a choo-syng.
 Conquistor, oris, m. g. a sercher. also an officer, which is sent to attache a man for a great offence.
 sometyne a commissioner that hath the charge to muster and take by men of warre.
 Conregione, olde wyters used for E regione, on the other syde, or agaynst a thyng.
 Cōreus, rei, m. f. gen. he that is accused with an other.
 Consaburense, people of Spayne.

Consalutatio, onis, f. ge. a salutynge together, a greetynge.
 Consaluto, aui, are, to salute or greete one an other. Consalutant inter se, they salute eche
 other.
 Consalutant dictatorem, they salute him by the name of dictatour.
 Consanasco, is, or Consanasco, nui, scere, &
 nascere, to become hole.
 Consanguineus, a, um, consyn, kynne.
 Consanguinei, de sometyne called bytherne,
 that haue one father.
 Consanguinitas, atis, f. g. a kynrede.
 Consano, aui, are, to heale. sometyne to waite hole,
 or become hole.
 Consarcino, aui, are, to patche to.
 Consarrio, iui, ire, to pouerge or weede corne.
 Consaucio, aui, are, to wounde.
 Conscleratus, a, um, become mischeuous and naughte.
 Concilero, aui, are, to make mischeuous.
 Consclerare oculos dicitur, whiche beholds deeth any myscheuouse acte, that he myghte haue letted, or haue chosen whether he woulde haue seene it or no.
 Concclerate aures paternas, violate your fasthers eares, with tellyng thynges abhominable.
 Conscendo, di, ere, to clymbe.
 Nauim, or in nauim conscendere, to take shippynge.
 Equum conscendere, to take ones horse, to leape to horsebacke.
 Montem conscendere, to clymbe by an hyll.
 Conscensio, onis, f. g. a takynge of shyppe.
 Conscientia, æ, f. g. a conscience, the testimony or witnes that ones owne minde bereth, knowlage, remorde.
 A recta conscientia discedere, to doe contrary to ones conscience.
 In conscientiam assumere aliquem, to disclose
 a secreete mattier to one.
 Maleficiorum conscientia stimulant, remorde of his naughty actes pricketh hym.
 Conscientia bene actæ vitæ, The testimonie that ones owne mynde beareth of the honest lyfe that he hath ledde.
 Exonerare conscientiam, to dyscharge our conscience.
 Ascitus in conscientiam facinoris, made priuy to any mysse.
 Officij sui conscientia frui, to take pleasure in the testimony that his owne mynde beareth of any freendely scruple that he hath shewed to a
 man.
 Labes conscientia in animo habere, to haue a corrupte conscience.
 A recta conscientia trasuersum vnguem non oportet discedere, we must doe nothyng that our owne conscience doeth testifie to be yll done.
 Remota hominum conscientia, no man knowyng what we doe.

Opprimi conscientia scelerum, to bee confounded with the remors of ones owne wicked actes.

Conscindo, scidi, ere, to cut in peces. also to scorne or rebuke one openly.

Concindere sibilis, to hyffe one oute of the place.

Conscio, scui, scire, to knowe with other, to know ones selfe fautes.

Conscisco, scui, ere, to consente, determyne, or graunt to a matter wyllyngly, to doe or woozhe a thing. Also to drawe to, after. Calepyne.

Facinus fœdum consciscere, to comit a naughtye and dishonest acte.

Fugam sibi consciscere, to flee.

Voluntarium exilium consciuerat, he went in banishment wilfully.

Censuit, consensit, cōsciuit, vt bellum fieret, he thought good, he agreed, he determined.

Diligens pastor stabulum cotidie conuertit, nec patitur stercus humorem consciscere: or (after the better ppyntes) stercus aut humorem rem consistere, a diligente shepheard eury day sweepeth his stable, and letteth not the dung drawe mofsure to it: Or to gather dunge and mofsure.

Consciscere sibi mortem, to kyl hys selfe wylfully.

Conscisura, æ, f. g. a gash or cuttyng.

Conscissus, a, um, cut in peces.

Conscius, a, um, that is of ones counsaile, that knoweth with an other, that is ppynt to a thyng. also gilty, or culpable.

Conscius sceleris, partie or ppynt to the offence: accessory.

Conscius mihi sum, my conscience beareth me wytnesse.

Ego qui mihi sum conscius, I that knowe myne owne herte or mynde.

Animus conscius, a mynde that knoweth it selfe gyltie or culpable.

Nec mihi conscius est vllus, no man knoweth it but I.

Meorum omnium consiliorū conscius, which knoweth all my secretes, or ppynt to all my secretes.

Mens sibi conscia recti, a conscience bearynge wytnesse to a man of his honest behauiour.

Comperi ex his, qui ei fuere conscij, I knewe it by them that were of his counsaile.

Futuri conscius, that knoweth what shall chaunce hereafter.

Vultus conscius, that sheweth it selfe to begiltye.

Conscius alicui in priuatis rebus, that knoweth a mans priuate affayres.

Conscribello, aui, are, to wyte together, vled of olde wyters.

Conscribo, psi, ere, to wyte, to wyte thynges together. also to enroll or register names.

Questionem conscribere, to wyte ones examination, and confession.

Syngraphum conscribere, to make an obligation. Milites conscribere, to wyte the souldiours names at the musters; to take vp souldiours to goe to warre. Alphewyse Conscribere exercitum.

Conscriptio, ōnis, f. g. an enrolment; a regestryng, or wytyng.

Conscriptus, a, um, wyitten, enrolled, regestred.

Officium conscripti, the office of a senatour.

Milites conscripti, souldiours enrolled.

Conscripti, they whose names be wyitten or regestred to supply a number, which doe lacke, or such as be new cholen or added vnto the other, properly spoken of the senatours of Rome.

Consecro, secui, are, to cutte or hache.

Consecari minutatim, to cut or hache in small peces.

Consecrānei, suche as be dedicated to one secte or opinion.

Consecrāneum, idem quod consecratum.

Consecratio, ōnis, f. g. a dedication or consecration.

Consecrātus, a, um, geuen or bent.

Consecrātus & addictus alicui sententia, geuen or addicte to any opinion.

Consecro, aui, are, to dedicate or consecrate; to make holy, to make a thyng remayne, to put in remembrance by wytyng. also to attribute to.

Consecrare memoriam nominis, to put hys name in perpetuall remembrance.

Delubra consecrare, to dedicate temples.

Alphewyse Consecrare ades, terram, aram, domum, simulachra, &c.

Ars curandi corporis deorū inuentioni consecratur, the inuention of Philosophy is attributed vnto the gods.

Magnitudinem ingenij alicuius consecrare, to put in perpetuall remembrance, or to make immortall.

Consecrare suas origines, by wytyng to put their begynnyng in perpetuall remembrance.

Consecrānei, they that be of one secte.

Consecrarium, ij, neu. ge. a bryefe argument or collarie.

Consecrarius, a, um, the adiectiue.

Consecratio, ōnis, f. g. a folowynge or pursuyng, also an imitation.

Consecrator, ōris, masc. ge. he that foloweth or pursueth.

Consecratrix, the feminine.

Consecratio, idem quod Sectio.

Consecro, aris, ari, to folow, to pursue diligently, to hunte after, to labour to attayne or get, to endeavour to haue. also to imitate or endeavour to doo lyke.

Omnia me mala consecrantur, All puelles folow me.

Conuitiis consecrari aliquem, to rayle at, or reproche one spitefully.

Hostes consecrari & conficere, to pursue and slea ennemies.

Opes consecrari, to hunte after richesse, to flus die to get rycheffe.
 Consecrari alicuius beneuolentiam largiri- one, to endeouour to geat ones fauour and good wyll, with gyses and bybes.
 Consecrari feras, to hunte beastes.
 Consecrari etiam minutissima, to endeouore to come to the knowlage of the smallest thynges.
 Quid singula consecrator? why doe I endeouore to recite or speake of euery thinge?
 Consemineus, a, um, and Conseminalis, le, for wen with diuers seedes, or planted with dyuers plantes.
 Sylua conseminea, in whiche dyuers kyndes of trees are planted.
 Consenesco, ui, ere, to be or ware olde.
 In armis, or sub armis consenescere, to leade all ones lyfe in warre.
 ✥ Nemo potest vno die consenescere, a mā can not be olde the first day.
 Consensio, ōnis, for, ge. a consent or accorde, one mynde or purpose.
 Consensus, us, ma, ge, accorde, agreement, a consente.
 Omnium consensu, by the accorde and agrement of all.
 Consensus & dissensus, contrary.
 Consentaneus, a, um, agreeable, meete, conueniente.
 Consentaneum sibi, agreeable to it selfe.
 Aprum & consentaneum.
 Consentaneum est, it is meete, or it is good reason.
 Consentaneum & dissentaneum, contrary.
 Consentia, ōrum, such thynges as be agreed vpon by the consent of many.
 Consentia, a citee of the Brutians.
 Consentini, people of that citee.
 Consentio, iui, ire, to consent, to agree, to accorde, to be of one opinion. also to be conuenient.
 Consentire & pugnare, contrary.
 Vno ore omnes consentiunt, I allowed it, or agreed with one consent.
 Consentire sibi, to abyde styll in his opinion, to be alway lyke hym selfe, not to bee contrarie to it selfe.
 Consentit vultus cū oratione, his countenance declarerth him to speake as he thinketh: his wordes and chere consent or agree.
 Consentire cum aliquo, de re aliqua, to agree with one concernyng a matiere.
 Consentire magna conspiratione amoris, to agree and loue eche other greatly.
 Consēpio, sēpis, sēpsi, ire, to inclose with an hedge, to enuiron or compass.
 Consēptum, ti, n. g. an inclosure or place inclosed, a cloase.
 Consēptus, a, um, enclosed, hedged in.
 Consequens, quētis, that foloweth, ensueth, or is conuenient or agreeable.
 Consequenter, consequently.

Consequētia, thynges which doe folow or ensue, or be agreeable or conuenient.
 Consequētia & consentanea.
 Consequētia, a, f. g. a sequele, a consequence.
 Per consequēcias contingit, when a thyng happeneth not immediately of that which is willed, or done of the parties, but necessarily of the sequele.
 Consequi, arum, sequeles.
 Consequor, eris, utus sum, sēqui, to folowe, to folowe immediately, to ensue, to obteyne or geat, to expresse in wordes, or acte, to ouertake in iourneyng or goyng.
 Viden' homini sarcinatos consequi, cum datiuo? do you not see men with fardells folowing of hym?
 Verbis consequi non possum, I can not expresse it in wordes.
 Cursu feras consequi, to hunt.
 Consequuntur equites, the horsemen folowe immediately.
 Aliquem certamine consequi, to vanquish, to ouertake.
 Voluptati vt mēror consequatur, that sorowe or heauynesse mighte folowe immediately after pleasure.
 Mors illum ex egritudine consequuta est, he died of that sicknesse.
 Si accelerare volent, ad vesperam me consequantur, if they wyll make haste, at night they may ouertake me.
 Hoc videmur esse consecuti, This much we seme to haue attained.
 Animo aliquid consequi, to comprehend or conceiue in the mynde.
 Inuestigare & consequi.
 Per aliquem aliquid consequi, to obteyne a thyng by an other mans meanes.
 Consequi coniectura, to hitte by coniecture, to gesse.
 Quid ex eo consequutus es? what haste thou wonne therby?
 Si quid dicendo consequi possum, If I be habile or can doe any thyng with eloquent pleading, or yf I can doe any thinge with my tonge or eloquence.
 Memoria consequi, to remembze.
 Consequi aliquid diligentia, to attaine or geat a thyng by diligence.
 Consequi gratiam, gloriam, laudem, dignitatem, commodum, famam, maiestratum, fructum, premium, &c. to purchase, geat, obteyne or wyne fauour, glory, &c.
 Anni consequentes, the nexte yeres folowyng.
 Nullam partem tuorum meritorum consequi possum, I can not requite the hundredth part of the pleasure that ye haue shewed me.
 Consequūtus, a, um, that foloweth or ensueth, also that is obteyned or gotten.
 Consero, sēui, ere, to sow, sette, or plant.
 Conserere agros, to plant.

Conserere

Conferere leges, to constitute or ordeyne lawes.
 Bella conferere, to make or styre occasion of warres.
 Consero, conserui, ere, to entermingle, to ioigne.
 Conferere prælum aut pugnam, to ioygne battayle, to fyghte.
 Conferere manus, to fyghte hande to hande.
 Conferere certamen, to consende or striue.
 Diem nocti conferere, to ioigne daie & night together in doyng a thyng.
 Conferratus, a, um, facioned or made lyke a saw.
 Conserre, as it were interlaced.
 Confessor, oris, m. ge. he that copeth or fighteth with an other.
 Conseruus, a, um, ioygned, enterlaced, entermynghed. Conseruus & intextus alicui rei.
 Conseruatio, onis, f. g. a keepng, mainteyngng preseruyng.
 Conseruator, oris, m. ge. one that maynteneth and preserueth, a protector, or defendour.
 Conseruator, & oppugnator, contrary.
 Conseruator & custos.
 Conseruatix, the feminine.
 Conseruatus, a, um, saued, maynteyned, preserued.
 Conseruitium, ij, neu. gene. a felowshyp in seruice.
 Conseruo, aui, are, to kepe, to preserue, or mainteyne, to defende.
 Tueri & conseruare.
 Conseruare fidem, to dooe that one hath promysed.
 Conseruare incolumem, to kepe in safegarde or out of daungier.
 Iusiurandum conseruare, to keepe or obserue an othe, to doe that he hath swozne to doe.
 Conseruare aliquem, to preserue one.
 Patriam conseruare, to defende and mainteyne ones countrey.
 Memoriam alicuius rei conseruare, to remem-
 bre or kepe in mynde.
 Rem suam conseruare, to saue or keepe his goodes and substance.
 Conseruus, ui, m. g. a felow or companion in seruice. Conserua, the feminine.
 Concessor, oris, m. g. he that sitteth with or neere other.
 Concessus, us, m. g. men sitting together. It may be taken for a sessions or sittynge of men, whiche be commissioners.
 Consideo, confides, sedi, sidere, to sitte, abide,
 or tarye in a place, to sojourn, it maie bee vfed to sit at a sessions, to bee sette in companie with
 other.
 Tuto confidere in aliquo loco, or apud ali-quem locum, to remayne or abyde saufely in a
 place.
 Confidere in solitudine, to kepe hym selfe or to tary and abyde in a solitary place.
 Confidere in otio, to be at quiet and leysure: or out of trouble and busynesse.

 Consedit in mente iustitia, Justice is placed in the mynde.
 Consedit vtriusq. in quaestura nomen, the same and renoume of them both rested in theyr questourshyp, or byd not encrease, or was not augmented any thyng after they had bene ques-tours.
 Considero, loke Consydero.
 Consido, considis, sedi, sidere, to reste or abyde after the remouynge from an other place: or to reste at the bottome, as dyegges in dyynke, to lyghte as a byrde doeth after he hath flownen.
 Ignis consedit, the fyre is allwaged or stinted.
 Confidere & regnare in aliqua regione, to asbyde (especially after trauayle) and reygne in as ny countrey.
 Cura consedit, care is allwaged or ceased.
 Vbi ira consedit, whan his anger was appeased
 Dum considat, relinquatur, it is leste vntyll it synke downe and be seiled in the bottome.
 Confiditur, the impersonall.
 Consignatio, onis, f. gen. a sealynge, or wrytyng signed.
 Consignatus, a, um, signed, put in wrytyng.
 Consignata in animis notiones, knowlages printed in mens myndes.
 Consignificatio, onis, f. g. a declaracion by some meane or token.
 Consignifico, aui, are, to shewe by tokens, to signyfic.
 Consigno, aui, are, to scale, to sygne, to marke.
 Consignamus literis, when we put any thyng in wrytyng.
 Consignare literas, to scale letters.
 Legem consignare, to adde a condicion to that whiche is put in wrytyng alreddie.
 Consileo, consiles, lui, ere, to kepe silence.
 Consileo, filui, scere, to be still, to kepe silence,
 to holde ones peace.
 Consiliarius, ri, mascu. gene. one that geueth
 counsaile.
 Amici & consiliarij, freendes and counsaylours.
 Consiliator, oris, m. g. a counsaylour.
 Consiligo, inis, f. gen. an herbe called of some Leonis pata, Of Vegetius and Ruellius Pulmonaria, It is veray medicinable for the lightes and lunges of beastes, it is called of the frenche men Bomelea, or Pate de lyon. in Englyshe beare foote.
 Consilium, a towne of Italye neere to Tarentum.
 Consilio, consilis, lui, lire, to leape together.
 Consilio, aui, are, to aske or geue counsaile.
 Consilium, ij, n. g. counsaile, iudgement or ad-uise, a purpose or intende, policie, apoyntment.
 It may be taken for commissioners or iudges al-
 signed.
 Consilium est ita facere, I haue purposed so to doe, or it is wisdome so to doe. Vestrum est co-silium

filium non solum meum, quid sit faciendum, you must consulee and dyuise as well as I, what
 is to be doen.
 Ambiguus consiliū, that can not tel what aduise to take, that can not tell what to doe.
 De consiliū sententia aliquid facere, to dooe a thyng after the aduise that is geuen hym, or els accordyng to the aduise and opinion of the coun-sayle that doth determine it.
 Consilium adificandi abiicere, to leaue of his purpose or intende that he had to buylde.
 Afferre in templum consilium furri, to come into the temple of purpose or entent to steale.
 Clausa habere sua consilia, to keepe his coun-sayles secreete.
 Labi consilio, to take yll aduise for hym selfe, to take aduise that is not good for hym selfe.
 Nihil mihi accidit, quod maioris consiliū sit Nothyng hath chaunced to me that hath neede of greater aduise or counsayle.
 Velut consilio petitur esset, as though it had
 be done of sette purpose or for the nones.
 Tuum consilium est, aduise you.
 Hoc vestrum consilium fuit, this was your dytce.
 Quo consilio hac imus, vpon what considerastion or policie doe we come hither.
 Casus & consilium, opposita.
 Consilium capi, I take aduise or counsayle, I purposed.
 Habere consilium, to consulee.
 Magni consiliū est, quid sit faciendum, it is a matter that nedeth great aduise and coun-sayle, what is to be doen.
 Eo consilio, for that intent or purpose.
 Non est consilium, I intende not, I purpose
 not.
 Consimilis, le, in all thynges lyke.
 Mos consimilis vestrum, a facion in al pointes
 lyke yours.
 Isti formæ, mores vt consimiles forent, that his condicions myght bee lyke to this his fauour and beautie.
 Consimilis moribus, lyke in maners.
 Consisto, constiti, stère, to stande faste or sure, to abyde boldely by a thyng, to consiste, to stande styll, to recke, to be at quiet.
 Consistit alius, the bealy is costur.
 Consistit morbus, the sicknesse standeth at a staie, neither encreaseeth nor diminisheth.
 Consistere mente, to be of sounde memozy.
 Consistere & commorari, to stand styll and as byde. Consistit triduum Rome, he abode thre dayes at Rome.
 Consistere ad anchoram, vel in anchoris, to lye at anchoze.
 Stomachus consistit, the stomack leaueth vo-mitynge.
 In hoc tota causa consistit, herein consisteth or standeth all the whole matter.
 In iudicio cum aliquo consistere, to stande in iudgemente and pleade or contende agaynst a

 man.
 Legatum consistit, the legacie that is geuen is of good force or baileable.
 Consistit autoritas illius vini intra Gallias, that wyne is onely esteemed in fraunce, or is not pyaped or set by out of fraunce.
 Non consistere mente, lingua, oratione, when ones mynde and his tonge faileth hym.
 Mente consistere, to bee quiete, and not to be troubled or dismayed.
 Virum consistit fides, sayth and promesse is kepte firmly on both parties.
 Rem publicā in vnius anima consistere, when the common weale dependeth wholly vpon the lyfe of one man.
 Omnis spes eorum consistit in ea re, all theys hope is onely in that.
 In sententia consistere, to abyde in ones opianon.
 Tranquillo animo consistere, to bee in great quietnesse of mynde, without feare or trouble.
 Pectore consistere nihil consilij potest, I can not tell what I should doe.
 Consistit tibi omnis causa familiar, the whole charge of the familie resteth in you.
 Consistere verbis cum aliquo, to agree with one in wordes.
 Consistit in digitos, he standeth on tip toe.
 Consistorium, rñ. n. ge. a counsayle house, especyally in a pryncis house. Sometyme the counsayle assembled in such a place.
 Consitio, ònis, f. g. a setting or plantyng.
 Consitor, òris, m. g. one that planteth.
 Consitura, a, f. g. idem quod consitio.
 Consitus, a, um, sette, sowne, planted.
 Consmittere, for committere.
 Consobrina, a, f. ge. the feminine of Consobrinus.
 Consobrini, consyns germainys of two sisters, like sters sonnes.
 Consoceri, they two, whose sonne and daughter are married together.
 Consociatio, ònis, f. g. a companyng or felow-shipp, association.
 Consociatus, a, um, assoiate, ioygned in felowshyppe.
 Consocio, aui, are, to assoiate, to ioygne a felowe or companion to one.
 Consociare armacum populo, to assoiate or ioygne them selves in felowshyppe of warre with
 other.
 Consociare consilia cum aliquo, to delibcrate or consulee with one.
 Consolabilis, le, that may be comforted.
 Consolabundus, he that comforteth a man.
 Consolatio, ònis, f. m. gene. comforte in ad-ueritate.
 Consolator, oris, m. g. a comforter.
 Consolatorius, a, um, that comforteth.
 Consolida, a, f. g. the name of an herbe, called consrey,

conspect, or Camfpey.
Consolidatio, ónis, form. gen. is where one that had the vse and profyte of a thyng, called of the lawyers, Vsu fructuarius, hath rendred the tith thereof, to the lord of owner.
Consólido, ái, áre, to make sounde that was bro ken, to consolidate.
Consólór, áris, a deponent, to geue comforte, or take comforte.
Consolari miseriam & calamitatem, to com
 forte one in miserie and trouble.
Consolari aliquem de morte patris, to com
 forte one for the death of his father.
Consólór, áris, atus sum, the passyue.
Consonnio, ái, áre, to dreame.
Consonans adiectiuum, consonant, meete, agree able.
Per omnia consonans sibi, lyke of agreeable to
 it selfe in all poyntes.
Consono, nui, áre, to make sowne together. And by a metaphoze, to accord or agree.
Consonat moribus oratio, his talke agreeth well wth his maners, or is very lyke hys ma ners.
Consonare sibi, to be alwayes lyke hym selfe,
 not to chaunge or vary.
Consonum, ni, ne. gen. a thyng meete and con sonant.
Consonus, a, um, of lyke tune or sowne.
Consópio, sópis, piui, íre, to lay, bynge, or lull
 a slepe.
Conforanni, people of Aquitayne in France.
Confors, órtis, om. gen. a fellow or companyon.
 a parte taker. Sometime it signifieth lyke. They are proprely called Confortes, whose landes bounde together.
Temporum cum aliquo consors, partaker of aduersite and dangerous tymes with other.
Generis consortes, kyns folke, allyances.
Socius & consors.
Confors consilij publici, he that is one of the common counsaile.
Confors laboris, partaker of labour or tra
 uayle.
Confors thalami, a wyfe.
Confors casus, a lyke chaunce.
Confortes periculorum, they that be together in lyke peryll and daungier.
Confortio, ónis, f. g. fellowship. Sometime com munitie and participation.
Confortium, tij, neu. ge. fellowship or company societee.
Conspectus, us, m. g. a beholding, or syght.
In conspectu esse, to bee in syght, or in a place where one may be seene.
E conspectu euolare, and fugere conspectu,
 to goe quickly out of syght.
Ne quis conspectus fieret, That men myght not gather aboute to beholde it.
In conspectu oppidi esse, to bee so nere, that they within the citee may see them.

Frui conspectu alicuius rei, to haue the full syght of a thyng.
Prodire in conspectum, To come abroad in syght.
In conspectum cadere, to be of suche sorte that
 it may be seene.
Cadit in conspectum, It is of that sorte, that
 it may be seene.
In conspectum se dare, to come forth: & shew them selves, that they may be seene.
Conspectum alicuius vereri, to be a frayde to
 come in ones sight.
Conspectus, a, um, beholden, solemnely looked on, diligently regarded.
Supplicium conspectius, an execution or pun nishment, whiche many men goe to beholde.
Nihilo mea turba quam vilius conspectior erit, my company or trayne shall bee no greates ter to see to, or no moze notable, than any of theirs.
Mors conspectior, moze notable death.
Conspérgo, spérsi, gère, to scatter or sparte as boue abundantly, to strawe. by translation to myngle.
Conspérgere ante ades, to strawe herbes or greene graske before the doores.
Conspérgere hilaritate, to myngle with mirth and pleasauntnesse.
Conspérgere aliquem lachrymis, to make one to weepe.
Conspersus, a, um, spynkled, strawed, scattered myngled.
Conspicillum, and conspicillum, i. n. g. a loupe to looke out of an house or wall, a payre of spec takles.
Conspicio, conspicis, spéxi, ére, to se or beholde, to attende, regarde, or consyder, to beue.
Conspicere ex alto, to beholde from an hygh place. Corde conspicere, to perceyue in ones
 mynde.
Conspicere aliquem mente, to ymagyne that he seeth one.
Conspicere sibi, quæ sint in rem suam, to see and know, what is profitable to him selfe.
Locum insidijs conspicere, to view and see a place meete to set an ambushment in.
Conspicere dicuntur res inanimata, to be turs ned, or to stande toward a thyng.
Conspice, quibus vitij affectus sit, Regarde or consyder what fautes he hath.
Conspicior, the passyue.
Bonis animi conspici, to be esteemed for vertue and knowlage.
Conspici infestis oculis, to be spitefully looked on, of them that enuy and hate one.
Conspicor, áris, ári, a deponent, idem quod Conspicio.
Conspiciuus, a, um, that one seeth or perceueth very playnely: as, redde and other thynges of hygh colour, that is greatly in syght, clere, that euery man hath in regarde and admiration.

Ocultus & conspicuus, contraty.

Conspicius forma, of goodly shappe and fauoure.

Venustas conspicua, notable of excellent beautie.

Conspicius homo, a man in greate admiration. Laude conspicuus, greatly praised of renowned.

Magnitudine conspicuus, merueylous greate of notable, and muche prayed for the greatnesse of it.

Fons conspicuus in planicie, A well so cleare that a man may see the botome.

Conspiratio, ónis, f. g. a conspiracie, consente, agreement, whan many accorde together, as wel for a good intente as an yll.

Conspiratus, us, m. g. a conspiracie, consent, or agreement.

Conspirati, They whiche haue conspired, and be confederate agaynst one.

Conspiro, áui, áre, to blowe together, and by a metaphoze, to conspyre of consent, to be alied or agreed together, to doo any thyng good or yll.

Conspirare, to wynde hym selfe rounde lyke an adder.

Conspirare & consentire.

Senatus cum populo conspirauit, The Senate conspired and agreed with the people.

Conspisso, áui, áre, to make thicke.

Conspódeo, spóndi, ére, to promyse mutually, one to an other.

Conspónsi, they which haue mutually promysed the one to the other.

Conspónsor, óris, m. ge. he that is bounde with an other for any man.

Conspuo, spui, ére, to spitte on one.

Conspúco, áui, áre, to violate or defyle, to make foule.

Conspúto, áui, áre, to spitte often on one.

Constabilio, iui, ire, to make sure, stable, or stronge.

Constans, ántis, om. gene. constant, stable, or stedfast.

Constans amicus, an assured freende.

Lewis & constans, contraty.

Mobilis & constans, contraty.

Rumor constans, a certayne rumour.

Voce constanti negare, to deny playnly.

Constanter, constantly, stedfastly.

Constantia, æ, f. g. constance or stedfastnesse.

Constantinópolis, a citee in Thrace, sometyne called Byzantium, and afoze that Lygos. It ioygneth to the sea Pontus Euxinus, on the narrowest parte betwene Europa and Asia. It was sometyne the chiefe palayce of the moste christen Emperour Constantine, and is now the pompous denne of the great turke, enemy to Christis fayth. It was taken of the turkes the yere of our lord. 1452. Mahumetes beyng great turke, and Constantine emperour of Grece.

Constantinus, the name of dyuers Emperours:

The most excellent was sonne of Constantius, (a noble and valyaunt prince, fellow in the empire with Maximinus) and of Helene, a woman bozne in Englande, than called Britygne: After he had atteyned the monarchie, he dayly moste studiously laboured to augmente the faythe of Christ: not withstandyng in his time were dyuers heresies and horrible contencions amonge the byshoppes, whiche he dyd cyther dissolue, or at the least way reuerently moderate with a wonderfull temperaunce. He reigned. xxx. yeres, and was buried in Constantinople. He dyed in the yere of our lord. 330.

Constat, it costeth, it is solde for.

Consternati, men ouerthrowen. sometyne abashed, or troubled in mynde.

Consternatio, ónis, f. ge. an a bashment, a great feare or trouble of the mynde.

Consternium, nij, n. g. a place where men layed their garmentes whan they were bayned.

Consterno, áui, áre, to ouerthrow, and by translation, to make soze a frayed or a bashed, to a stony she.

Consternari animo, to bee soze troubled and abashed.

Consterno, stráui, stérniere, to strawe, to paze, to liuer the flosse with any thyng.

Campi consternuntur milite, all the fiede be couered. &c.

Terram consternere tergo, to lie vpright vpon the grounde.

Consternere cubilia gallinarum, to make hennes nestes.

Lapide consternere, to paze with stones.

Luto consternere, to couer with earthe, as men vse in makyng of floszes.

Constipatus, a, um, gathered thycke or close together.

Constipo, áui, áre, to make thicke or fast together to stiffe by together, to thurst by many in one place together.

Constituo, ui, ére, to appoynt or ordeyne, to purpose or determyne to doo a thing, to promyse, to place or settle, to erect or buylde, to couerant.

Constituere & designare.

Habeo constitutum, or constitutum est mihi I am so determynd, I haue so purposed.

Constitueram vt irem rus, I had appoynted to go into the countrey.

Constituimus inter nos, We haue ordeyned amonge our selues.

Constituere alicui, vel cum aliquo, se venturum, to promise to one, that he will come.

Ad constitutum venire, to come at the daye appoynted.

Constituere tempus, to asseyne or appoynte the tyme.

Hominem ante pedes Manilij constituunt,

They brought the man befoze Manilius.

Constituere aliquem magna gratia apud regem, to byngne one in greate fauour with the kynge

Domos constituere, to builde houses. Aphes
Oppidum, currim, mania constituere.
Finem rei constituere, to make an ende of a
 thyng.
Diem colloquio constituere, to appoynt a daye to common of the matter.
In verbis ius constituere, to take the wordes of the lawe as they lye, without any interpretation.
Necessitudinem habere constitutam cum aliquo, to have very neere frendshipp of familie
 with one.
Intra syluam aciem constituerat, he had placed or lodged his army within the woodde.
Constituere spem in aliquo, to putte hope in
 one. Constituere amicitiam cum aliquo, to constitute in diem tertium, to determine to dooe a thyng the third daye following.
Constituere disceptationem, to make his plea formall: or to foresee that which shall come in contention, to determine what is that is in controuersie betwene them.
Constituere iudicium, to admitte the processe and sute of any matter.
Iudicium constituere dicebant veteres, pro constituere actionem. Vide actionem constit- Rarum est, vt iudicia propter id constituantur,
 It chaunceth seldome, that the iudges shuld sitte in iudgement or examination of that.
Constituere maiestatem, to conspyre or aduance the reuerence due to the supreme authoritee.
Constituere quaestionem, to decreet, that vpon
 streite examination, execution be doone.
Constituere quaestionem nouam, to appoint extraordinary iudges, vpon a matter, that hath not bene wont to come in examination.
Patriam mihi sanctitatem in illo colendo cō-stitui, I purpose to vse as great reuerence to warde hym, as if he were my father.
Constituere statum causæ, is when the iudge dooeth determine, whether it bee a matter in lawe, or a matter in dede, which is in controu-ersie.
Crucem sibi constituere, to make a rodde for his owne taylor, to doe that, which is for his owne hurte.
Constituere rem nummariam, to appoynt a certayne order concernyng the value and course
 of money.
Constituere vadimonium, to put in pledges.
Constituere testem aliquem in alium, to cause
 witnesse to be brought forth agaynst one.
Summam totius huius in aliquo constituere, when the parties contendyng do rest principally vpon one poynte, and endeavour to cons-firme that.
Constituere & regere inscitiam iuuenum, to rule and gouerne.
Constituere pecuniam, to promise money to bee payed, which was before due by an oblygation.

Constituta, drum, statutes, actes, or ordinances.
Constitutio, oris, f. g. an ordinance, a decree, a complexion, the determination of a thyng, whiche after it hath bene well debated, is brought to an ende, inuencion.
Constitutio corporis, the complexion.
Constitutio causæ, whiche our lawyers dooe
 call the matter in debate.
Religionum constitutio, inuencion and ins-titucion.
Constitutor, oris, ma. ge. he that ordeyneth or maketh any thyng.
Constitutorius, a, um, adiectiuum.
Constitutus, us, ma. ge. idem quod constitutio.
Constitutus, a, um, ordeyned, appointed, determined. Constitutum patrimonium.
Constitutus ad eadem, appointed and marked to be slayne.
Existimat patrimonium fore suum per te cōstitutum, he recogniseth, that the landes, whiche he hath, came by your meanes, or that you were the cause that he came by his liuelode.
Corpus bene constitutum, a body well complexioned.
Præclarissime constituta respublica, a common-weale in right good order and facion.
Consto, stui, stare, to stande together, to persist or abyde, to perseuer or continue, to be manifest or known, to agree, to petyne. Sometyme to be,
 also to be comparte and made.
Constant sententia, the opinions do agree.
Constat animo, he is of steadfast mynde.
Constat mens, he is not troubled or dismaide.
Mente vix constat, he is almost dismaide or besyde him selfe.
Constat hoc mihi tecum, we bee both agreed in this.
Constat ratio, there is a reasonable cause.
Constare sibi, to abyde in his opinion.
Ille sibi constat, he is alway of one sorte or facion.
Constet modus, Let there be a measure.
Constitit nusquam, he abode in no place.
Constat omnibus, it is euident to all men.
Non constat et color nec vultus, his countenance and colour do chaunge.
Nec auribus, nec oculis satis constare porerant, They coulde not tell certainly wherto to loke, nor wherto to harken.
Fides constitit pratoris, the ppetor kepte promisse, or did that he promised.
Me constare mihi scis, you knowe, that I am alwaie lyke my selfe, or alwaies one man, or abyde still in one opinion.
Constare in sententia, to keepe one minde still,
 to perseuer in one opinion.
Si humanitati tuæ constare voles, if you wyl continue still in your gentleness.
Constant officia tua in me, your frendly pleas-sures

Sures toward me are manifest.
 Mea in te omnia officia constabunt, non se-cus ac si te vidissem, All the pleasures that I can doe you, shall be shewed as well as though
 I had seene you.
 Quominus mea in te constarent officia, That
 I myght be the lesse beneficiall toward you.
 Chare constat mihi, I bought it derely.
 Gratis constat, it costeth me nought, I had it for graund mercy.
 Minoris constat dimidio, it costeth lesse by the halfe.
 Vilissime constat, It is verarie good cheape,
 it coste little or nothyng.
 E quibus omnia constant, Of whiche all thynges are compact or made.
 Constat experimentis medicina, phisick standeth
 chesly in practyse.
 Vis constare magistratibus reuerentiam? woulde
 you that there shoulde be due reuerence geuen styll to the magistrates?
 Quis feret vxorem, cui constant omnia? who will suffre a wyfe, that hath all thynges at his will? Constat, it is manifest.
 Non satis constabat animis, They were not verarie certayne or sure, they were in doubte, they doubted.
 Constat de hac re, of this mattier it is agreed,
 there is no controuersy in this thyng.
 Constat de eius innocentia, His innocencie is well known or tried.
 Constratus, a, um, couered ouer, pauced.
 Constrata naues, couered shippes.
 Constrata naues tempestatibus, Shippes beaten together and byuiled with tempestes.
 Constrepto, strepui, ere, to make a noyse together.
 Constrictus, a, um, streigned, bounde harde, wyonge.
 Constringo, strinxi, ere, to bynde faste, to wyonge harde.
 Constringere supplicio, to cause him to dye.
 Quadrupedem constringere, to bynde hande and foote lyke a beast.
 Necessitate constringi, to bee constreigned with necessitee.
 Constringendum se tradere libidinibus, to yelde them selues as pryncers or captiues, to the fylthy luste of the bodye.
 Constructio, onis, f. g. edifyng, composition.
 Constructio hominis, the facture or forming
 of a man.
 Constructio verborum, the order, construction, or placynge of woordes.
 Constructus, a, um, builded, made, cast by in an heape: furnyshed, garnyshed, prepared.
 Construo, uxi, ere, to build, to ordeyne, to heape,
 one thyng on an other.
 Construere pecuniam, to gather money.
 Acerui nummorum construuntur apud eum,
 He hath gathered together great heapes of
 money.

Construere vocabula, to make netre woordes.
 Aggerem construere, to cast or make a bulwarke.
 Nidos aues, construnt, The byrdes make their nestes.
 Nauem construere, to make a shype.
 Aedificium construere, to buylde an house.
 Constuprator, oris, m. g. an adulterer.
 Constupro, aui, are, idem quod Stupro.
 Constupratum iudicium, a iudgement corrupted with bybes.
 Consuadeo, suades, suasi, suadere, to counsaile or exhorte earnestly.
 Consualia, orum, n. ge. places dedicated to the god of counsaile Consus.
 Consuator, oris, ma. ge. one that counsaileth or exhorteth.
 Consuantes, people of the Alpes.
 Consudo, aui, are, to sweate vehemently, and Consudasco, idem.
 Consuefacio, efacio, feci, ere, to accustome, to enure, to teache by vse.
 Consuefacere, and Disuefacere, contrary.
 Consuesco, suui, scire, to be wont, to haunt or vse a thyng muche, to accustome, sometyme to vse carnally.
 Cum eius consuevit matre clanculum, he had company with his mother pryvely.
 Nec magis humo quam stagno consueuerant, they are accustomed to be as well in water
 as on the lande.
 Consuescere alicui, to haunte muche to one,
 or to be muche in ones company.
 Consuescere iuencum aratro, to accustome
 the bulloche to drawe the plough.
 Consuetio, onis, f. m. g. is vied of Plautus for Consuetudo.
 Consuetudo, inis, f. g. custome or vslage, also company or familiar couersation, faction or maner.
 Tam parua consuetudinis causa, for respect of so small acquayntance.
 Praeter consuetudinem, agaynst the faction or custome. Pro mea consuetudine, accordynge to mine vslage and custome.
 Ad Graecorum consuetudinem, accordynge to the custome &c.
 Consuetudo morbi, the course of the spekenesse, whan it retourneth certayne tymes.
 Si corpus supra consuetudinem incaluit, be more whot then it is accustomed to be, or then it is wonte.
 Non est mea consuetudinis, it is not my fassion. Consuetudo & institutum.
 Consuetudo & exercitatio.
 Consuetudinem facere alicui cum aliquo, to make one verarie familiar and well acquainted with a man.
 Victus alicuius consuetudo, the manier of ones liuynge.
 Consuetudo & familiaritas.
 In consuetudinem vertere, to byng into a cus-tome.

Rome.

Amicitia, consuetudines, vicinitates,

Consuetus, a, um, accustomed.

Consul, lis, ma, g. a chiefe officer among the Romans, wherof were two, which had the chiefe rule of the citee for one yere. Of poetes it is vsed for a yere space.

Consularis, re, of or perteynyng to the consull.

Consularis vir, he that had bene Consull, or were mete to be consull.

Consulariter, lyke a Consull.

Consulatus, us, the office of a consull.

Consulo, lui, ere, with a datyue case, to geue counsaile, with an accusatiue case to aske counsaile. Also with a datyue case it signifyeth to prouyde, to helpe to.

Grauiter de se consulere, to doo some hurte to hym selfe, to take suche counsaile that may bee hurtefull to hym selfe.

Consulere sine abiecto, idem quod Consulere.

Consulere in longitudinem, to prouyde or prepare for the tyme to come.

Oro te, in commune vt consulas, I pray you that you will doo indifferently for both partes. In humiliores crudeliter consulebatur, The byler sorte were cruelly handeled, or Warpeleye punished.

Consulere de aliquo bene, to intreate or handell one gentilly.

Malè consulere, contrary.

Consulere & providere.

Consulere & prospicere.

Consulere dignitati, æstimationi, famæ, to prouyde for, or haue consideration and regarde to ones honoz, estimation, and good name.

Pessime in te atq; in illum consulis, you dooe that whiche is veray hurtefull and vnprospereable bothe for your selfe and hym.

Consulere alicui, to prouyde for ones profyte, or to haue consideration of a man.

Concordiæ consulere, to haue respect to concord and vnites.

Per literas consulere aliquem, to aske counsaile of a man by letters.

Consulam hanc rem amicos, I will aske counsaile of my freendes concernyng this mattier.

Dij consulunt rebus humanis, neq; solum vs niuersis, verumetiam singulis, The goddes dooe conueighe the state of the worlde, and not onely the whole in generall, but also the perteyners. And in the same sence, Dij mundum hunc omnem administrant, the goddes conueyghe, that is to say, do rule, gouerne, and order. &c.

Consulte, prudently, considerately.

Consultatio, ónis, f. g. a deliberacion or consultation, a demaundyng of counsaile in a matter.

Responde consultationi meæ: aunswere me to that I asked the counsaile of?

Consultus, better standyng with wysedome or reason.

Consulto, aui, are, to geue or aske counsaile, to consult or deliberate.

Male corde consulare, to thynke naughtily or shrewdly in ones mynde.

Consultare aliquem, to aske counsaile of one. Deliberare & consulare.

Consulto, deliberately or aduisedly, with good counsaile, aduisement, and deliberacion, of sette purpose.

Consulto, & fortuito, contrary.

Consulto, the ablatiue case for consulere.

Opus est consulto, it behoueth to take good aduise.

Consultor, óris, ma, ge. he that geueth counsell. sometyme he that asketh counsaile.

Consultrix, the feminine.

Consultum, ti, n. ge. the thyng that is consulted. sometyme an acte of counsaile, decrees, or ordinance.

Consultus, a, um, the participle, demaunded or asked counsaile of.

Consultus, a, um, the adiectiue, wyse, cunnyng, full of knowlage, whom a man maye well aske counsaile of.

Consultus eloquentia, depe eloquent.

Natura consultus non disciplina, wyse and cunnyng by nature, not by learnyng.

Consultissimus iuris, a very good and perfect lawier.

Consultus vniuersæ disciplinæ, cunnyng and perfectly seene in all partes of any knowlage.

Consummatio, ónis, f. g. a perfection, a full finishing, the totall summe.

Consummatus, a, um, perfect at a poynt.

Consummatus homo, a perfect felow, an absolute man.

Consummo, aui, are, to summe vp in a rekenyng, to synnise or perfourme, to make vp, or make perfect.

Consumo, sumpsi, ere, to consume or destroe, to spende or bestow, to waste or weare out, to byng to nought.

Consumere diem in apparando, to spende all the daie in preparyng.

Consumere fidem, to lose credence.

Consumere operam, to emploie labour.

Consumere orationem, to tell a longe tale without a conclusion.

Effundere & consumere bona omnia, to wast and spende all a mans goodes riottously.

Vetustas consumit ferrum, continuance of tyme weareth out Iron.

Cuius omnes curæ in te consumuntur, all whose care and sollicitousnesse is set vpon thee.

Aetatem consumere in studio, to spende all ones lyfe in study.

Consumere diem, annum, tempus, horas, ætatem, to passe ouer, or spende the daie. &c.

Eum diem ibi consumpsi, I passed forth all that daie there.

Preces consumere, to make longe intreatyng and bespyng

Despyng in bayne.
 Consumere omnem nostram diligentiam in realiqua, to bestow all our diligence in a thyng.
 Consumere studium, operam, curam, orium,
 to bestow of employ. &c.
 Consumor, the passive, to wither or wast awaie.
 Consumi incendio, to be consumed with fyre.
 Consumi siti, to be deade with thyrst.
 Consuo, sui, ere, to sowe together one thyng to
 an other.
 Consuere dolos, to ymagyne deceit.
 Consumptio, onis, f. m. gen. a consumpunge or spendyng.
 Consumptor, oris, m. g. one that consumeth or wasteth awaie.
 Consumptus, a, um, consumed, wasted, wythes
 ted awaie.
 Consurgo, exi, ere, to arise together with other.
 Consurgunt venti, the wyndes arysle or begin to blowe.
 Consurgere in venerationem, to rise vp to do reuerence to one.
 Consurgitur, the impersonall.
 Consurrectio, onis, f. g. the rysyng vp of many together, most commonly to doe reuerence.
 Consus, i, m. g. the god of counsaile.
 Consyderare, with consideration, aduisedly.
 Consyderatio, onis, and Consyderantia, e, f. g.
 consyderation.
 Consyderatus, he that doeth a thyng with consyderation.
 Consyderatus, a, um, particip. considred, bies
 wed, regarded.
 Consyderatum, & meditatum.
 Consydero, aui, are,, to consyder, to regarde or biewe.
 Contabesco, scere, to wyther or pyne awaie.
 Contabulatio, onis, f. g. a flooze boozed, or a boozdyng of a flooze.
 Contabulo, aui, are, to boozde or to laie boozdes on a roufe or flooze.
 Contactus, a, um, touched, stayned, coloured,
 infected.
 Contacti religione dies, dates reputed of the paynymes to be infortunate to beginne any en-terpryse.
 Sale modico contactum, coznde with a little salte.
 Colore croci contactum, stayned or died with saffron colour.
 Contacta halitu eius, nulla fera attingit, no beaſt toucheth those thynges that he hath breashed on.
 Contactus, us, m. g. atouchyng, sometyme car-nall dealinge.
 Contagio, onis, f. g. idem quod Contagium.
 Contagio aspectus, the infection that commeth by lokyng on a thyng.
 Contagio belli, whan by the occasion of one warre, an other ryseth.
 Sed etiam illos ad quos conscientia contagio pertinebit, But theim also, whiche be condemp-nyng and agreyng to the same naughtynesse.

 Contages, is, f. g. idem quod contagio.
 Contagiosus, a, um, contagious, that soone in-fecteth other.
 Contagium, n, n: g. a contagious or infective sicknesse, also an infection.
 Contaminatus, a, um, despyled, corrupted, dishonested, disteyned.
 Contaminatus & integer, contrary.
 Contamino, aui, are, to violate or despyle, with mixtyng thynges together, or with touchyng a thyng vncleanly, to disteyne, to dishonest.
 Manus contaminare, to committe some heysnous act.
 Contaminare fabulas, to make one comedie of many.
 Contaminare & honestare, contrary.
 Contaminare se vitijs, to dishonest ones selfe with vice and leaudenesse.
 Contechnor, atus sum, ari, to inuent some thing to deceiue, to imagine some subtill deuyse.
 Contectus, a, um, couered, hidde.
 Contego, exi, ere, to couer or hyde a faute, that it be not espyed.
 Contegere tumulo, or sepulchro, to bury.
 Contemero, aui, are, to violate, polute, or defile.
 Contemno, tempſi, ere, to despyse or contemne, whiche is lesse than despylyng, to despy, not to regarde.
 Contemnere & admirari, contrary.
 Contemnere & efferre, contrary.
 Contemnere, despiciere, & pro nihilo habere.
 Contemnere aliquem prae se, not to regarde
 one in comparison of him selfe.
 Deridere & contemnere.
 Contemplatio, onis, f. g. a beholdyng, specia-ally in the mynde, with deuotion to god, constemplacion.
 Consyderatio, & contemplatio.
 Contemplatiuus, a, um, contemplatiue, that con-sisteth onely in contemplacion.
 Contemplator, oris, mas. ge. he that beholdeth with great affection.
 Contemplatus, us, idem quod contemplatio.
 Contemplor, aris, ari, to beholde intently with great affection. Also Contemplo, aui, are, of olde wyters vſed for Contemplor.
 Contemplari & intueri.
 Contemporaneus, a, um, that is in one tyme.
 Contemporanei, they that be at one tyme.
 Contemptibilis, le, that is to be despyled or not regarded.
 Contemptim, disdeignefully.
 Contemptio, onis, contempt.
 Contemptio & despicientia.
 Contemptor, aris, ari, to sette lyttell by, out of vſe.
 Contemptor, oris, m. g. one that despyseth or contemneth, that setteth nothyng by a thyng.
 Contemptrix, icis, f. g. the feminine.
 Contemps

Contemptus, us, m. g. despitte, contempe.
 Contemptus, a, um, contemned, not esteemed, nought set by.
 Contemptus & abiectus.
 Despicatus & contemptus.
 Contendo, di, ere, for intendere, to bend harde, to stretch out, to strepne, to knytte of the strept. Also to goe towards a place, to endeuour earnestly, to enforce, to requyre of desyre effectually, to aspyre and defende an opinion:
 to contende of resyste, to strue, to cast of shoote
 a dart of arrow, to continue, to make haste, to goe.
 Contendere aliquid ab aliquo, to requyre some thyng of one earnestly.
 Contendere sacramento, to wage the lawe.
 Contendere agmen, to leade forwarde an armie with haste and speede.
 Eniri & contendere, to labour and indueour
 earnestly.
 Contendere omnibus nervis, and Contensdere omnes nervos in re aliqua, to labour and endeavour to the uttermost of a mans power.
 Non erat causa, cur a te hoc tempore aliquid contenderem, there was no cause why I shuld earnestly requyre any thyng of you at this time.
 Omni studio a te contendo, I desyre of you with all my hert, or I requyre you as earnestly as I can.
 Ludo contendere cum aliquo, to plaie with one who shall have the victory.
 Voce contendere, to crie or speake out aloude,
 to strepne the voyce.
 Ut Asclepiades contendit, As Asclepiades
 doeth aspyre and defende.
 Pugnare & contendere.
 Contendere aliquid contra equitatem, to con-tende of stryue to attayne a thyng contrary to equitee.
 Vocem contendere, to streigne the voyce.
 Contendere iurgio cum aliquo, to chyd with one. Summo iure contendere, to vse the ex-gour of extremitie of the lawe.
 Contendere ciuilitur, to contende of sue after the maner of citelens.
 Cursum aliquo contendere, to renne towards
 any place.
 Cursu contendere, to trie maiesties in renning.
 Contendere iter constitutum, to goe on the iourney that he appoynted.
 Romam contendit, he goeth to Rome.
 Contendere tormenta, to bend ingins of war.
 Contendere vincula, to tye or bynde the bands des harde.
 Contendere poplitem, to stretch out the knee.
 Contendere cursum aliquo, or ad aliquem, to renne towards a place or person.
 Ad ades contendit, he went towards the house.
 Contenebrare, to waxe darke.
 Quoad contenebrauit, untill it waxed night.

Contente, continually, without intermission,
 earnestly.
 Contentio, onis, f. g. bablyng, an endeavour to dooe a thyng, an earnest maner of speaking, a comparing or conferring with other thynges.
 also resistence, stryfe or debate, bawling, variance. Also a sharpe oracion apte to confyme or expreue, a continuance, an enforcement of setting forth with vehemency, streingnyng.
 Contentio studiorum, pynfullnesse in study.
 Contentio animi, and Relaxatio, contrary.
 Labor & contentio.
 Magna animi contentio adhibenda est in ex-plicando Aristotelem, In expoundinge Aristotle, the minde muste bee verie attentive of wholly bent to consider the matter.
 Contentio vocis, and Submissio vocis, contrary, loudespeakinge and softe speakinge.
 Sine intermissione vocis contentio, a continuall speakinge without fetchyngs of breath, or pausing.
 In contentionem venire, to come in contro-versie.
 Honorum contentio, great labour or earnest
 suite for promotions and advancementes.
 Contentiose, earnestly, Subbournely, with contention.
 Contentiosus, a, um, contentious, and passiuely, that is dooen stubburnely, or with earnest endeavour.
 Contentus, a, um, participium, a contedo, streched out, streigned.
 Contentus, and Remissus, contrary.
 Arcus contentus, a bowe bended.
 Contentus, a, um, adiectiuum, a continuo, that whiche is contrined, Also contente of satisfied.
 Contermisus, a, um, boundyng nere together.
 Contero, triui, ere, to weare out with occupyinge.
 also to make warre, to breake small, as breake into crommes, or cloddes into duste: to waste or consume, to spende in vayne.
 Conterere ratem, to spende his lyfe.
 Conterere diem, to spende the daie vnprofit-ably.
 Conterere operam, to lose labour or payne.
 Conterere quantum, to spende all that he hath gotten or wonne.
 Conteris tu tua me oratione mulier, Thou mahest me wery woman with thy talkinge.
 Conterere iniurias obliuione voluntaria, wyllingly to forget iniuries dooen to vs.
 Contraneus, nei, m. g. a countreie man.
 Conterreo, terrui, terrere, to make asfede.
 Contestatus, a, um, proued by wytnesse.
 Contestor, aris, ari, to call to witnesse, to desyre,
 to complayne to one lamentably.
 Contestari litem, to perpleade, where the one hath fully purposed, the other hath fully answered.
 Contexo, texui, ere, to weaue, togyne, to worke together, to linke together, to tye together.

Contexere interrupta, to ioyne together thynges that be broken.
Contexere dolos, to fynde crafty meanes.
Quam festine crimen contexitur, howe pleasantly or feately this accusation is imagined and diuised.
Contexere carmen, to make a verse.
Contexte, and Contextim, ioygnedly, and as it were weauiyng together.
Contextus, us, ma, g. a weauiyng or ioyngyng together.
Contextu pennarum corpori tegumenta faciebat, he made hym garments with the feathers of foules, wouen or wrought together.
Contextu longiore loqui, to speake longe of one thyng, without charynge or mynglyng of other.
Vno contextu, continually together, without interruption.
Contextus, a, um, wouen, or wrought together.
Conticeo, contices, conticui, ere, to holde ones peace, to kepe sylene.
Conticuerunt literæ, the exercise of learyng ceased, or there were no letters wrytten.
Studium nostrum conticuit, Our study ceased, and was leste of.
Conticesco, cui, scere, to kepe sylene with other.
Conticinium, nij, ne. ge. bedde tyme, or the first part of the night, whan menne prepare to take theyr reste, and all thynges be in sylene. Conticinium, after Grasius, seemeth to bee the tyme betwene the fyrst cockecrowyng after midnyght, called Gallicinium, and the bryake of the daye, called Diluculum, loke the prouerbe, Præquam gallus iterum cecinerit.
Contignatio, onis, f. g. the raftering or rearinge of an house, the rouse of an house. also a collar or boorded floure.
Consigno, aui, are, to rafter an house.
Contiguus, a, um, that whiche toucheth, or is nexte to a thyng.
Continens, entis, f. g. fyne or mayne lande that is none yle.
Continens, entis, f. g. the adiectiue, ioyngyng to, continuall, without separation or space betwene.
Continent, chaste in absteynyng from women, and all other pleasures. also no extorcioner nor poller, or a man nothyng couetouse.
Continencia adificia, buildynges ioygned one to an other, without any separation or space betwene.
Labore continenti, with continuall labour.
Imber continens, continuall rayne, or a great shower, duryng a long tyme.
Continencia fundo prædia habet, he hath manours ioyngyng to his lande.
Incontinenti, incontinent, forthwith, by and by.
Scriptura continenti expositum, declared in one continuall worke, makyng no diuision of bookes, volumes, chapyters, or partes.

Partus & continens, labor, sparyng and abstaynyng from all pleasures.
Continens, amonge the Rhetoricians, the very poynt of the matter in controuersie.
Continenti biduo, two daies continually.
Continenter, continually, continently, chaste, firmly.
Continencia, e, f. g. continence, absteynyng from pleasure, a vertue refuysing thynges that are pleasant. Also refuysence of yll.
Continere, continens, ai, ere, to refuysne, to kepe backe, to kepe close, not to tell of them, to hyde, to conteyne, to kepe together, to withholde, or lette, to holde, to ioyne together, to kepe and preserue.
Continebat me tempestas, The foule weather letted me.
Continere se domi, to abyde at home. Ephe wife Continere se ruti, tectis, mœnibus urbis, in occulto.
Continere amicitiam, to mainteine frendship.
Nulla res vehementius temp. continet, no thyng doth moze preserue, kepe, and holde together. &c.
Continere odorem, to keepe a good sauoure longe.
Neruis & ossibus consinentur, they are compact and made of synewes and bones.
Continetur publica salus incolumitate illius, doth depend.
Contine caput quæso, Holde my heade, I pray the.
Audita continere, not to blabbe out that one hath heard.
Continere canes catenis, to kepe dogges tyed by in chaynes.
Feras septis continere, to haue parkes.
Continere exercitum in castris, to kepe the army within the campe.
Continere in officio, to kepe in obeyssaunce.
Aluum continere, to stoppe the laste.
Animam continere, to holde ones bzeath.
Continere gradum, to abyde, to stande still.
Continere iracundiam, to refraine ones anger. Continere lachrymas, to forbear weauiyng.
Contineo me ab exemplis Grecis, I dooe not alledge the examplis of the Grecians.
Continere linguam, to refrayne to speake.
Continere risum, to forbear laughyng.
In ieiunio continere aliquem, to kepe one fastyng, or without meate.
Nequeo me continere, I can not refrayne.
Continere alio dicitur mulier prægnans.
Honestas continetur ex quatuor virtutibus, honestee consisteth in foure vertues.
Continere gaudium, to hyde ones ioye or gladnesse.
Contingens, gentis, the adiectiue, that chaunceth or fortuneth.
Contingo, contigi, ere, to touche, to come vnto to an-

to annoynt.
Contigit, in the thynde person, it happeneth, it fortuneth, it chaunceth.
Contingere se inter se, to touche one an other.
Contigerat nostras aures, it came to our heares. Limen contingere alicuius, to come to ones house.
Contingere terram osculo, to kysse the ground.
Visu contingere, to see.
Fines aruorum contingunt, they boorde upon.
Portum contingere, to enter into an haven.
Melle contingere, to annoynt with honey.
Contingere alicui rei, to bee adioynnyng to a thyng. Sale contingere, to powder meate.
Contingere aliquorum familias, or domum, to be kynne to one.
Propius contingere aliquem, to be nere hithe to one.
Crimine contingi, to be gyltie, or to haue consented.
Si mihi vita contigerit, if god sende me lyfe.
Continuatio, onis, f. g. a continuation.
Continuitas, atis, f. g. idem.
Continuo, an aduerbe, by and by.
Continuo, vbi interrogatiue or negatiue, is put for Non ideo, or Num ideo.
Continuone si ille stulte dixit, tu stultius facies? If he haue spoken foolishly, wilt thou therfore doe more foolishly?
Non continuo si in gregem sicariorum me contuli sum sicarius, I am not therfore a murderer, because I haue associated my selfe and kept company with murderers.
Continuo, qui, are, to continue, not to cease, to ioyne to, or to buylde to.
Continuare agros, to ioyne fielde to fielde.
Continuare domos, to buylde houses together.
Continuus, a, um, continuall, without intermission, that continueth for euer, that hangeth well together.
Ordo continuus,
Continuus spiritus, one bzeath without paryng.
Continui dentes, plaine and vnyforme teeth, as a mans be, Serrati dentes, contrary.
Continuus & intermissus, contrary.
Continuum triduum, thre whole daies together.
Contollo, tollis, tollere, to beate together.
Contollam gradum, I will go forward faster.
Contor, atus sum, ari, to abyde, to inqwyre diligently.
Contorqueo, oris, ere, to wind or wreath about, to tourne round, to wrethe to ones purpose, to hurle violently.
Conterquere amnem in alium cursum, to turne the course of a ryuer.
Contorque telum, to shoote an arrowe, or hurle a darte, and therewith to hytte or perce a

thyng.
Curram contorque, to tourne round.
Contorque aliquem ad iristitiam, to enforse one to sadnesse, to make sadde.
Contorte, stowardely, obdurely, as it were wrethed or wrythed.
Contortio, onis, f. g. a wrythynge or wrythynge.
Contortuplicatus, a, um, combydus, hard to be pronounced.
Contortuplicata nomina, names so difficult, that they may vnneth be pronounced.
Contortuplico, atis, ere, to wryppe or wrynde a thyng so, that with grene peryne it maye bee vnwounded.
Contortus, a, um, wretched, wronge, or made crooked, curled, or crisped, wrythled.
Comua contorta, crooked hoynes.
Contortus crinis, curled heare.
Contortulus, a, um, the diminutive of Contortus.
Contortæ res, thynges wounded and wrythled, also wretched matters, or suche as one parte agereth not with an other.
Contra, agaynst a place, a person, or a thyng, on the other parte, otherwyle then. It is sometyme an aduerbe. Sometyme a preposition.
Contra disciplinam meam te gessisti, ye haue behaued your selfe otherwyle then I did instructe you.
Aspice contra me, loke this way toward me.
Facere contra aliquem, to do agaynst one, or that is displeasent to him.
Contra expectationem, otherwyle than was looked for.
Contra aliquem stare, to stande ouer ryghte agaynst one, on the other syde.
Contra ac, contra atque, contraquam, othera wyle than.
Contractio, onis, f. g. scare, a thynking of gatherynge together, a frounyng, a contraction of moynnyng, a drawynge in, a saynyng of courage.
Contractio frontis, frounyng of lowynge.
Contractio animi, a stonyng of the minde.
Contractio nervorum, wrynyng of the synewes, the crampe.
Contractio & productio, contrary.
Proiectio & contractio brachij, the castynge out and pluckynge in of the arme in gesture.
Effusio animi & contractio, contrary, sadnesse of mynde, thought.
Contractiuncula, æ, f. g. a diminutive of Contractio.
Contractus, a, um, gotten, drawen together, short, narowe, wrynkled.
Bona contracta, goodes gotten by conquest.
Res contractæ, bargaynes, contractes.
Frons contracta, a frounyng forehead.
Exiguus & contractus locus, a small and narrowe roume.
Spaciosum & contractum, contrary.
Contractiores noctes, thorte nightes,

Contractus & brevis ambitus verborum, a bryfe and shorte perode.
Contracta & astricta eloquentia, a kynde of eloquence in fewe woordes and bryfe sentences.
Contractus, us, m. g. a contract or bargayne.
Contradico, ixi, ere, to contrary in woordes, to saie contrary.
Contradictio, onis, a contradiction, a speakyng contrary to one.
Contradictum, ti, n. ge. a thyng spoken agaynst
a man.
Contrado, didi, ere, idem quod Trado.
Contraeo, to go contrary or agaynst a thyng.
Contraho, axi, ere, to gather together, to committe, to make a contracte or bargayn, to drawe together, to make shorte. Also to plucke or shynke in, to purchase or get.
Nervi contrahuntur, the sinewes be shynken.
Contrahere as alienum, to be indebted.
Contrahere animum, to take thought.
Contrahere bona, to geat goodes.
Contrahere frontem, to lowze.
Contrahere cum aliquo, to make contracte or bargaine with one.
Contrahere tempus, to abydge the time.
Contrahere aduersam valetudinem, to geat sykenesse.
Contrahere milites, to gather souldiours
together.
Contrahere & dilatare, contrary.
Dissipare & contrahere, contrary.
Contrahere collum, to shynke in the necke.
Contrahere ad colloquium, to byng together to communication.
Lac contrahere, to tourne mylke into a conrd.
Contrahi incommodis amici, to bes soyy for his frendes hurtles.
Id eius culpa contractum est, he offended in that thyng, that was committed by his faute.
Contrahere eruginem, situm, mucorem, to waxe rusty, hoze, and full of filth and vniue.
Contrahere amicitiam, to wyn frendshyppe.
Animum demittere & contrahere, to bee as frayde, to waxe faynt herted.
Cicatrices vulnerum contrahere, to heale the scarres of woundes.
Periculum contrahere, to bynge hym selfe in danger.
Ne contrahas aut demittas animum, Let not thy courage fayle the, take a good herte.
Contrahere sibi causam mortis, to bee cause of his, owne deathe.
Litigium inter aliquos contrahere, to make debate and contencion betwene men.
Contrahere inimicitias, inuidiam, iram, odium, offencionem, morbum, to pourchase or geat. &c.
Iter contrahere, to shorten ones iourney.
Noxam contrahere, to fall into some sickness,
to committe somme offence.
Pituitam contrahere, to engender fleums.

Tristitiam contrahere, to make sadde.
Vultum contrahere, to looke lowly.
Res contrahere, to bargayne.
Contraliceor, liceris, liceri, to cheape and profer monie for a thyng, that an other was about to bye.
Contrapositus, a, um, idem quod oppositus.
Contrarie, one agaynst an other.
Contrarius, a, um, contrary, repugnant, agaynst.
In contrarias partes disputare, to dispute pro & contra.
Decernit contrarium, ac paulo ante decreuerat, he doth appoynte it otherwise then he had determined a lyttell before.
Versantur retro, contrario motu atq; caelum,
they are moued contrary to the syngement.
In contrarium cadere, to be turned cleane contrary.
Contrascriptum, ti, neu. gene. a thyng wrytten
agaynst one.
Contrasto, stiti, are, to be against one, to repugne.
Contrauenio, trauenis, eni, iri, to happen contrary, to come contrary, to speake agaynst one.
Contrauersum, contrary wyle.
Contractabiliter, after the maner of touchyng or handlyng.
Contractatio, onis, f. g. a touchyng or handling.
Contracto, aui, are, to touche often, to handle.
Contractari oculis, to be viewed or considered, to be seene or looked on.
Contractare mente, to reuolue and thinke of.
Contremisco, tremui, scere, idem quod contremo.
Non contremiscamus iniurias, lette vs not feare, &c.
Contremo, ui, ere, to tremble or shake for feare.
Contribuo, bui, ere, to attribute, to conferre, to geue with other, to contribute.
Contribuere in regna, to diuide it into roialt-mes. Contribuere se alicui, to become one of his, or to be at his commaundement.
Contributio, onis, f. g. contribucion, whan
many geue theyr portions.
Contristo, aui, are, to make soyy or heauy.
Auster contristat caelum, The south wynde maketh a lowzyng wether.
Contritor, oris, m. g. one that bryketh in small pieces, or weareth out a thyng.
Contritus, a, um, broken small, wozyne out, much bled, common.
Contrita praecepta, pceptes, that euery man
knoweth and bledh.
Controuersia, ae, f. ge. controuersye, debate or variance.
Nulla controuersia mihi tecum est, There is no controuersie betwene you and me.
Sine controuersia, without doubt.
Dirimere controuersiam, to fynne the or ende
the controuersy.
Controuersia verborum inter eos est, in their reasonyng they vary onely in woordes, or they reason onely of the woordes.

In con-

In controuersiam inuentionis deducta herba, an herbe wherof men doubt who did fynde it.
Controuerſia non erat, quia verum dicerent, there was no difficultee, but that they might speake the trowth.
Controuerſioſus, a, um, idem quod Contro-uerſus.
Controuerſor, aris, ari, to contende or vary.
Controuerſus, litigious, or full of controuerſy.
Controuerſus, a, um, that is in controuerſy.
Res controuerſa, a matter in controuerſy.
Gens controuerſa natura, people of naturefull of contention and variaunce.
Contrucido, aui, are, to murder or ſlea cruelly.
Contrudo, ſi, ere, to thruſt in harde together.
Contrudere in naues, to byng into the ſhips
pes. alſo to put or thruſt in.
Contruoco, aui, are, to miniſhe or cutte away part of a thyng.
Contruſus, a, um, thruſt together.
Contubernalis, lis, com. ge. a ſelow or companion, or of one company, a chaumbe ſelow, one of the ſame houſe. ſometyme a gueſt.
Contubernium, nij, n. g. a companie of x. ſoul-diours together vnder one ſente or pavilion, and the tent or pavilion of that company. alſo familiaritee, ſelowſhip in one houſe.
Contueor, eris, eri, to defende, to ſee, to regarde very ſtedfaſtly.
Contuitus, us, m. ge. an earneſt lohyng or be-holdyng of a thyng.
Contumacia, æ, f. g. diſobedience, a ſelfe will,
a ſrowardneſſe, a ſtubburneſſe, a ſoleinneſſe.
Sometyme conſtancie in opinion.
Contumacia præſumpta, amonge the lawiers a kynde of ſtubburneſſe, whan the officer warneth a mans freendes or familie, that he muſte appere at a certayne day, and he will not, becauſe the officer ſpake not to him preſently.
Contumacia vera, whan he beyng warned him
ſelfe, doth not appere.
Contumaciter, diſobediently, ſtubburnely.
Contumaciter reſiſtit ſcalpturæ lapis, the ſtone is very harde to be grauen in.
Contumax, acis, om. g. diſobedient or ſrowarde in opinion: he that will not be perſwaded, he that doeth not appere whan he is ſummoned, ſtubburne, ſelfe wyllled, ſolleyn. ſometyme it ſigniſieth conſtantly ſufferyng in the good part.
Contumax triticum, harde wheate that wyll not be eaſily broken or bzuiſed.
Emori contumax, loth to die.
Contumaces boues, curſt oxen that will not be ruled.
Contumelia, æ, f. g. a thyng dooen or ſpoken in deſpite of a man, a repproche, a rebuke, a checke, a taunte.
Contumeliam dicere, and Iacere contume-liam, to ſpeake a thyng in deſpite of a man, to taunt or rebuke.
Contumelia magna verborum interrogare aliquem, to demaunde a queſtion of one with verie ſpitefull and ſauntynge woordes.

Grauiſſimas contumelias inſorquere, To ſpeake verie ſpitefull tauntes one to an other.
Contumelioſe ſpitefully, repprocheſully.
Contumelioſus, a, um, that vſeth to ſpeake re-bukeſully: or that is dooen to a mans rebuke, ſpitefull, repprocheſully.
Contumulo, aui, are, to bury, to lay in earth.
Contundo, contudi, ere, to breake in pierces, or ſtrike downe, to beate or knoche: and by a metaphoꝛ, to conquer or ſubdue, to tame, to ſuppreſſe or kepe vnder, to ſwage or mitigate.
Contundere facta alicuius, to putte an other mans actes out of eſtimation or remembrance.
Contundere pugnis, to beate or thumpe with the fiſtes.
Contundam tibi nares, I wyll knoche thee on the noſe.
Contundere & frangere.
Obterere & contundere.
Animum contundere, to tame or abate ones
courage.
Iram contundere, to mitigate and ſwage ones
wrathe.
Contundere virtutem, to ſuppreſſe vertue.
Contuor, eris, tūrus, or tūrus ſum, tui, to ſee or beholde diligently.
Contuoſi oculi, eies lookyng narrowly.
Conturbatio, ois, fœm. gen. a troubyng or diſquietyng.
Conturbator, oris, ma. g. one that troubleth or diſquieteth, or that conſumeth his goodes riottouſely.
Conturbatus, a, um, troubled, diſquieted.
Conturbo, aui, are, to mingle or confounde, to trouble, alſo to ſpende in waſte.
Conturbare fortunas, to ſpende all his goodes in waſte.
Conturbare baſia, to kiſſe ſo often, that one can not numbre it, or kepe the compt. Carul.
Conturbare rationes, to ſpende all that he ſhould haue made rekenyng of.
Contuſio, onis, fœm. gen. a punnyng or bea-
tyng.
Contuſus, a, um, beaten, broken, punded, knocked.
Contutor, oris, ma. g. he that is tutour or ga-dian with an other.
Contus, ti, ma. g. a ſpeare or longe pole. alſo a longe pole with yron at the ende, wherewith ſhyppmen do gage the water, and ſhoue ſootly
the veſſell in ſhalow places.
Conuador, ari, to compell one to fynde ſuccies to appere at the daie appoynted.
Conualeſco, conualeſ, ualui, ere, and Conualeſco, ſcis, ſcere, to waxe ſtronger, to recouer helth, to encreaſe or growe.
Conualeſcunt opes, richeſſe increaſe.
Conualuit opinio, That opinton is greatly encreaſed amongemen.

Conuallis

Connallis, lis, for, g. a valley, hangge hills on bothe sydes.

Conualso, auis, are, to trusse bagge and baggage, to gather by wealth.

Convecto, auis, are, frequentatium a coueho, to tary offe.

Conuector, oris, ma, gen. a marpner that conueigheth ouer many, a passenger.

Coueho, xi, ere, to cary or conueigh by carte, shippe, or beaste.

Conuello, uulsi, llere, to shake or pull out of his place, to plucke vp all together, to plucke vpbv the rootes wholly, to diminish or abate, to trouble, to abolyshe or fordoe, to confute, also to take from one by robbery.

Conuellere gratiam, to bynge out of fauour or credence.

Conuellere repagula, atq; refringere valuas, to pull of the barres and boltes, and to breake open the gates.

Conuellere fundamenta, to shake the foundations.

Conuellere vires, to abate ones strengthe, to make weake.

Cur ea, quæ mutare non possumus, conuellerem malum, quam tueri? why desire we moze to abolyshe or fordoe, or to speake agaynst such thynges as wee can not chaunge, than to desende them?

Quæ conuelli non possunt, whiche thynges can not be confuted.

Conuellere aliquem de pristino statu, to trouble or disquiete.

Conuellere statum reipublicæ, to trouble the state of the common weale.

Conuellere aliquid alteri, to steale from one.

Conuelo, auis, are, to couer, to lay a cloth ouer.

Couena, a, com, ge. one of them that cometh out of one countrey to dwell in an other.

Conueniens, entis, conuenient, mete, agrepyng together, also comyng together.

Conuenienter, conueniently, agreeably, to the pointe.

Conuenientia, a, scm, ge. a congruence. also a comyng together of people, proportion or agreeableness.

Conuenientia partium corporis, the apte proportion of the partes of the body.

Conuenio, conuenis, eni, ire, to come together, or to assemble in one place, to resorte to a place, to common or talke with, to be meete, to ingender. Sometyme onely to come, also to agree, to sewe at the lawe, to bynge in iudgemente, to accorde.

Conuenire sibi, to speake or doe one thyng stil as he begonne.

Conuenit inter me atque hunc, It is agreed betwene him and me, he and I be agreed.

De precio conuenit, wee are agreed of the price.

In manum conuenit, He is my wyfe.

Conuenire in manum, to be affianced or betrothed on the womans parte onely.

Conuenit, I am contented, also it is conuenient, meete or fytting.

In urbem crebro conuenio, I come often into the cite.

Conuenire de re aliqua, to assemble together about a matter.

Conuenit mihi hoc recum, In this that I speake, you and I agree.

Conuenit hoc tibi mecum, you and I agree in that that you doo speake, you be of mine opinion in this.

Nec locus nec sermo mihi conuenit cum eo, we agree neither of the place, nor yet the wordes that were spoken.

Ne inter consules quidem satis conueniebat, The consuls did not well agree betwene themselves.

Conuenit inter eos ratio accepti atque expensi, they be agreed what was receyued, and what was layde out.

Pactis conuenit, It is agreed by covenannt.

Id conuenerat signum, that was the signe or token that they agreed vpon.

Pax ita conuenerat, or Conuenerat pax in has condiciones, The peace was concluded vpon these conditions.

Factum conuenit, they agree that it was done.

Conuenit numerus quantum debui, There is the full some of that I ought you.

Conuenit in eum hæc suspitio, He may be well suspected for that matter.

Non conuenit in eum hæc contumelia, this reproche toucheth him nothyng at all.

Conueniunt hæc vites ad, vel in quemuis agrum, These vines will proue well in all manner of groundes.

Conuenit aliam statem, aliud factum, i. decet.

Conuenit optime ad pedem cothurnus, the slipper is as meete for the foot as may be.

Conuenit in me quiduis harum rerum, Any of these thynges may be well spoken of me.

Conuenire aliquem, or Conuenire aliquem in ius, to conuent one or sew him in the lawe.

Conuenire aliquem, to talke or common with one.

Conueniebat in tuam vaginam, the sword was meete for your sheathe.

Conuenibo, vld of olde wyters in the future tense.

Conuenta, orum, couenantes, agreementes.

Conuenta frangere, to breake couenantes.

Conuenticulum, li, n. g. a congregation, a littell assemble, most commonly for an yll purpose.

Conuentio, onis, f. g. a couenannt.

Conuento, auis, are, to resorte or come often to a place.

Conuentus, us, mas. ge. an assemble of people, warned by the high officers commandemente, a multis a multitude of diuers people resortinge to one place, also a conuention.

 Conuentus maximus, may bee taken for a parliament.
 Conuentus iuridici, may bee vsed for the courtiers.
 Minores conuentus, sessions of the peace.
 Conuentus & frequentia, Conuentus & turba.
 Conuentus agere & celebrare, To holde of kepe assemblies, as the sessions of iustices.
 Conuentus, a, um, accorded, commoned of talshed with.
 Conuenta pax, peace accorded.
 Conuerbero, aui, are, to beate.
 Conuerrior, oris, ma. g. one that bjaitheth, eubboth of swepeeth.
 Conuerro, uerri, and uersi, ere, to sweepe together into one place. Also to rubbe, to bjaith. Sometime to strike or beate.
 Conuersatio, onis, f. ge. conuersation or familiaritee. Sometime conuersion or tounyng.
 Conuerso, clearly.
 Conuersio, onis, for, ge. alteration or chaunge, a tounyng about.
 Incitatio conuersio, a swifter turning aboute.
 Conuersio rerum, change and alteration.
 Annorum conuersiones, reuolutions of yeres.
 Conuerso, aui, are, to tourne about.
 Conuersor, atus sum, ari, to be conuersant.
 Conuersus, a, um, tourned, conuerted, translated. Sometime contrary.
 Conuersa ad aquilonem spelunca.
 Conuerto, uerti, ere, to conuerre, to tourne, to retourne, to chaunge or transfoyme, to translate.
 Conuertere se in fugam, to renne away.
 Conuertere se aliquo mente & cogitatione, to set his minde and cogitation on a thyng.
 Conuertere in serium, quod per iocum dictum erat, to turne that to earnest, that was spoken in iest.
 Conuertere homines in admirationem, to make men to meruaile.
 Conuertit mentes militum, it changed. &c.
 Conuertit aetas tua septenos octies solis am fractus, you be. lvi. yeres olde.
 Conuertere hominem a consuetudine, To cause a man to leaue his accustomed facion.
 Exercitum conuertere, to mustre and make a hewe of his army.
 Conuertere ordinem, to chaunge.
 Conuertere e Græco, to translate.
 Gressus conuertere, to tourne backe agayn.
 Conuertere ora & oculos in aliquem, To looke earnestly vpon one.
 Conuertere se ad otium, to geue hym selfe to ydelnesse.
 Conuertitur animus ad sensum & nutum alterius, His mynde is facioned to the wyll and becke of an other man.
 Conuertere terga, to retine away.

Conuertere in beluam, to turne into a beaste.
 Conuertor, is vsed of Plautus for Conuerto.
 Conuestio, tui, ire, to appaile or becke.
 Conuestiantur herbis prata, The meadows are sowed and furnished with herbes & grasse.
 Conuexitas, atis, for. g. the crookednes and bending of the innde of that which is holowe and turned downe.
 Conuexo, aui, are, to bere or trouble.
 Conuexum, i, n. g. the crookednes and roundnesse of a thyng that is holowe, and tourned downe warde.
 Conuexus, a, um, rounde and holowe within, crouked and bending downe round on eury syde.
 Cælum conuexum, the firmament crouked and bending downe rounde.
 Cæli conuexa fueri, to looke vp into the firmament, to looke vp to heauen.
 Conuicinium, nij, n. g. a neighbourhood.
 Conuictor, oris, ma. g. a dayly compaignon at table, or a dayly guest.
 Conuictus, a, um, vanquished, ouertome.
 Conuictus, us, masc. gene. a luyng together in house, or at one table, ordinary fode, meate and drinke.
 Conuictus & consuetudo.
 Conuictus & societas.
 Conuictum habere cum aliquo, to vse ordinarly to be at meate and drinke with one.
 Conuincio, uici, ere, idem quod Vinco, to ouercome, to proue manifestly.
 Redargui & conuinci.
 Conuincere leuitatis, to conuicte one of lightnesse.
 Conuinxio, onis, fæm. ge. a binding or linyng together.
 Conuiso, uisi, fere, to go to see, to visite.
 Conuitiator, oris, m. g. he that speaketh to menes rebuke, a railer.
 Conuitor, aris, ari, to speake in repproche, to checke or taunte.
 Conuitium, iij, n. g. or after some Conuicium, cij, a repproche or rebuke, a checke or taunte, a worde spoken to a mans rebuke.
 Conuitium dicere, to speake to a mas rebuke.
 Conuitium facere, to doo a thyng to a mans rebuke.
 Dicere, fundere, ingerere conuitia, and Proscindere conuitijs, conuitijs confectari, To checke, to taunt, to raple.
 Conuitium, is sometyne vsed for Clamor, quasi conuocium.
 Conuida, x, com. ge. a bidden guest, he that is invited or bidden to dinner or supper.
 Conuiuiam sibi abducere, to bypunge one to a dynner or banquet.
 Agere conuiuiam lxtum, to bee mery at the table.
 Conuiualis, le, perteynyng to feastes or banquettes.

Conuiuium

Conuiuator, oris, ma. ge. a feaster or banketter.
 Conuiuiones, companions at drynkyng or bankettyng.
 Conuiuium, uij, n. g. a feaste or banquet.
 Agere & celebrare conuiuium, to keepe a great feast or bankette.
 Mutua inter se conuiuia curare, to feaste one an other.
 Conuiuo, uixi, ere, to lyue, to liue together, to be at meate and drinke together.
 Conuiuior, aris, ari, to make a feast or banquet, or to take meales with other men.
 Conuiuari de publico, to make feastes at the charges of the common weale.
 Conuocatio, onis, f. g. a calling or assembling of many together, a conuocation.
 Conuoco, aui, are, to call together, or to assemble many together.
 Conuolo, aui, are, to flee together, and by translation, to speede, to make haste.
 Conuoluo, lui, ere, to wyappe or wynde about a thyng, to tumble or rolle rounde.
 Magno cursu verba conuoluere, to speake thicke, to speake. ix. wordes at thyse.
 Conuoluolus, li, maf. gen. a little worme with many feete and heary, that eateth the leaues of bynes.
 Conuoluulus, or Conuoluolus, or Cissampelos, is an herbe, which hath a leafe like to pue, but muche thynner, and a floure lyke a lilly, and windeth aboute lyke a byne, some hath white flowers, some violet, I suppose it to bee withwynde, or byndweede.
 Conuomo, ui, ere, to bespue.
 Conuomere lectum, to bespue his bedde.
 Conuori, sworne bytherne, or men makynge one another of promyse.
 Conus, i, maf. gen. properly a pyne apple tree, by translation, it is a figure, in facion lyke to a pyne apple, also the crest of an helmet or salet.
 Conuulnero, aui, are, to geue one many woundes.
 Conuulsio, onis, f. g. the sickenesse in greke cald Spasmos, which is an affect of the sinewes and muscles, wherein sometyme all, sometyme parte of the body is drawen and stretched, will he or no that suffereth. If it be in parte of the body, it is called in englysh the crampe: If it be in all the body, it hath yet no name in englishe, because it hapneth seldom.
 Conuulsiones, prickynge ache, or shootynge ache, suche as is in the sicke stomake, or in a wounde.
 Conuulsus, a, um, plucked by wholly by the roote taken with the crampe, pulled or shaken.
 Suagi conuulsarobora terra, And great trees plucked by by the roote earth and all.
 Conyza, called of some Cimicaria, commonly Pulicaris, an herbe, wherof be two kyndes: the bygger, called also Cunilago, hath a stalke triculibites hygh: the lesse onely a foote hygh: bothe haue leaues lyke the olue, heary and fatty, looke Coniza.

 Coons, the eldest sonne of Antenor.
 Coopericulum, li, n. g. a couer.
 Cooperio, cooperis, perui, ire, to couer or ouerwhelme.
 Cooperire aliquem lapidibus, to stone one to death.
 Cooperitus, a, um, couered, ouerwhelmed.
 Cooperitus flagitijs, ouerwhelmed with lewdenesse.
 Cooperitus miserijs, ouerpressed with myseries.
 Cooptatio, onis, f. ge. a choosynge into a place, or roume.
 Coopto, aui, are, to choose a gine place to one in a colledge: to take choise of thynges equall, or almost equall.
 Coorior, oris, or oreris, coortus sum, iri, to aryle by from many places and costes together, to assaile or set vpon.
 Cooritur tempestas, the tempest aryleth.
 Cooritur pestilentia, beginneth.
 Coos, vel Cos, vel Co, vel Coum, the name of an yle nigh to the Rhodes.
 Copæ, arum, a citee of the Bæotians.
 Copen, olde wyters vled for copiosum, plentifulous.
 Cophantus, an hille of Bactria, in India, which euer burneth.
 Cophes, a pyne in India.
 Cophinus, i, m. g. a baskette, or panier.
 Copi, for Copioso.
 Cópia, a, f. g. plenty, abundance, eloquence, power, leaue or licence, multitude, also ayde, rycheesse, substance. An army of souldiours. sometyme prouision of thynges necessarie, vi. sayles.
 Copiam dare, to geue power or licence, also to geue occasion.
 Copia est. Nam apud patrem tua amica tecum sine metu vi sit, copia est, for thou mayest now bynge to passe, that thy wench maye be with thy father without any dreade.
 Copia est, I may or mought.
 Copia est illi in ocio viuere, he may liue.
 Ego in eum incidi infelix locum, vt neque eius sitamittendi, neq. retinendi copia, I am unhappely come to that poynt, that I maye neither leaue hir, nor kepe hir.
 Copia vix fuit eum adeundi, with great difficulty or payne mought I come to him.
 Copia cunctandi non est tibi, Thou haste no leysure to tary, or to stande linyng about the matter.
 Copiam aliam querere, to seeke for other ayde.
 Copia est tibi magis, thou mayst more easily.
 Copia nulla est tibi in illo, he can nothyng helpe thee.
 Copiam efficere alicui, to fynde the meanes that one may come in.

Copiam facere argentum, to lende one money.
Copiam facere, to communicate any thyng with an other.
Copiam pugnæ facere, to byng forth his armie, that his enemies may fight if they will.
Copiam facere consilij sui, to admitt enterie man that will come to aske him counsaile.
Copiam scientie suæ facere alicui, to communicate his science or knowlage.
Opes copiarum, substance and riches.
Vberras in dicendo, & copia, flowynge eloquence.
Copiarum pedestres, an army of footemen.
Navalis copia, a fleet of shippes.
Pro copia, as much as I am able, as much as I shall be in my power.
Pro copia & sapientia, according to our power and wisdom.
In angustum oppidum nunc meæ coguntur copiarum, All the helpe of myght that I have is now brought into a verie narrow streete.
Exigua amicorum copia, very few frendes.
Copiarum cornu, was the hoine of a goly with whose mylke Jupiter was nourished in Creta, of two maidens, Idas and Ide, daughters of Delisseus, which hoine Jupiter gave to his saide nurses in reward, hauing therewith this comoditee, That what soever thyng they wished for, it should abundantly come out of that hoine, wherof came a proverbe, when men would declare plentie of any thyng, they signifye it in these two wordes, Copiarum cornu.
Copiola, a, f. g. a diminutive of Copia.
Copior, aris, ari, to be well storied of thynges.
Copiose, abundantly, plentifully.
Copiose & abundanter, Large & copiose.
Copiose aliquo proficisci, to goe to a place, with a great trayne of company.
Copiosus, a, um, plentiful, abundant, riche, having great knowlage or eloquence.
Urbs celebris & copiosa, a citee greatly frequented and full of people.
Amplum & copiosum, Lautum & copiosum.
Tenuis & copiosus victus, contrary.
Doctus & copiosus homo, a man of great learning and eloquence.
Copis, plentiful.
Copo, onis, idem quod caupo.
Copona, a, a taverne or vitaplyng house, or the woman that kepeth the vitaplyng house.
Copra, a, f. g. a kynde of cakes.
Cópula, a, f. g. a couplyng or ioynged together, couples or fetters.
Copulate, in couples, or as it were ioynged together.
Copulatio, onis, f. g. a couplyng or ioynging together.
Copulativus, a, um, that coupleth or may couple together.
Copulatus, a, um, coupled, ioynged together.

Natura copulatum, convenient or agreeable to nature.
Cópulo, aui, are, to couple together, to bynde or ioyne together.
Copulare concordiam, to reconcile, to make at one.
Coquina, a, f. g. a kitchyn.
Coquinaria, a, f. g. cookery.
Coquinarius, i, m. g. he that selleth meate ready boyled.
Coquinarius, a, um, perteynyng to cookery.
Coquitor, aris, ari, to do the office of a cooke, to play the cooke.
Coquius, a, um, idem quod Coquinarius.
Cóquito, aui, are, to boyle often.
Coquo, coxi, etc. to seeth or boyle, to make rype, to make ready, to digest, to trouble or vex.
Coquantur fructus, quando perfecte maturi resunt.
Coquere ex oleo, to seeth in oyle.
Coquere lateres, to make bricke.
Aestas coquit glebas, maketh drye.
Coquere bellum, to prepare or prouide for warre priuely.
Coquit me illud, that troubleth me greatly.
Coquit me cura, care and heauynesse consumeth me, or maketh me pyne away, or doeth soe vex and greue.
Coqus, qui, m. g. a cooke.
Cor, ordis, ne. ge. the hert. Sometime it is taken for the minde.
Cor ne edito, dooe not torment thy mynde with care and heauynesse. It was one of Pythagoras counsailes.
Stupor cordis, dulnesse or heauynesse of spyte and courage.
Alto de corde, from the bottome of the hert.
Cordi est mihi, It pleaseth me well, it helpeth me.
Vterque vtrius cordi est, eche of them loue other hertily.
Patrio corde, with a fatherly affection.
Aequo ferre corde, to take patiently.
Micat cor timore, the herte panteth.
Cora, a citee that Dardanus buylded, of the whiche the inhabitants are called Corani.
Coracius, a part of the hill Taurus.
Coracini, people of Asia.
Coracius, a, um, of a crow or rauen.
Coracius color, a blacke colour.
Coracius, a certayne sea fishe, or rather of the rper Apulus. Plin. li. 9.
Corallum, in, n. g. a stone called corall, whiche byng in the sea, is a tree or bush: And out of the water becometh a stone. Solinus wytteth, that it chaungeth his colour out of the water.
It is founde (as Hermolaus wytteth) in the redde sea, in the Persian sea, aboute Sicile, in the north sea, about the ples Orchades. While it is in the water, it is greene of colour. Auicenna affirmeth, that there be thre kyndes thereof, whyte, whye, redde, and blacke, also that it is colde in the firste degree, and drie in the seconde. But Constantine saith, it is colde in the seconde degree.

Coraloachates, a stone with golden raies.

Coram, befoze, openly in presence.

Coram me presente dixisset, he should haue saied so befoze me, whan I was present.

Coram in os laudare, to prayse one to his face.

Coram ante oculos adducere, to bring befoze ones face.

Coram ex ipso audiebamus, we heerd him self speake it, when we were with him.

Coram, sometime here in this place.

Corambla, x, or Coramble, es, f. g. an herbe that maketh the eyes duske and weake of sight.

Corax, a learned man of Sicilie, who wrote first of rhetorike, also an hill in Sarmatia, and a ryuer rennyng out of the hill Caucasus.

Corax, acis, m. g. a rauen.

Coraxi, people of Colchis.

Coraxicus, a part of the hill Taurus.

Corbis, is, f. g. or after Priscian the mas. gen. a baskette or panier.

Corbis messoria.

Corbita, ta, for. ge. a great shyppe, beryn clove in saylpyng.

✶ Corbitam dare, a prouerbe, signifyng to helpe one slowly.

Corbito, ai, are, to lade a greete shyppe: And by translation to gourmandise and fyl ones belly.

Corbona, the treasure of the temple amonge the Jewes.

Corbula, x, f. g. or Corbulum, li, n. g. a littell baskette, a panier or maunde.

Corcalis, lis, a certayne precious stone.

Corcholis, a kynde of apes, whiche hath a tuft tayle.

Corchorus, ri, m. g. or Corchoron, n. g. a vyle herbe called chickewede.

✶ Corchorus inter olera, Iacke will be a gentelman. A prouerbe, notyng one that is of no estimation, and yet will be compted amongst the wyldest.

Corculum, sweete herte. Also wyle men were so called amonge the Romaynes.

Corcya, ra, f. g. an yle in Grece.

Corcyreus, a, um, one of that yle.

Cordapsus, a sickenesse that is now called Illiacus, which is a peyne in the guttes.

Cordate, wylfely, discretely.

Cordatus, a, um, wyle, discrete, of an honest mynde and good iudgement.

Cordatus homo, a wittie man, and of great memorie.

Cordilio, a stoike philosopher, so seuer, that he contemned the acquaintance and frendshipp of kynge and great princes.

Cordilla, or Cordyla, the yonge frye of the fishe called Tunie.

Cordistæ, a certayne nation, that abhorreth gold, neyther will they bringe it into theyr region, nor suffre other to be spoiled of it.

Cordolium, lij, n. g. sorow, grieve at the hert, an hert soze.

Corduba, a citee in Spayne.

Cordus, one of the maisters of Alexander the Great: also an historiographer.

Cordus, a, um, that thyng, the whiche springeth and cometh late in the yere.

Cordiagni, latewarde lambes.

Cordum fornum, latewarde hase.

Corefa, an plande in Grece.

Corgo, olde wyters vled for Profect.

Coria, orum, neu. ge. are in buyldyng certayne setting and laying of thynges in one order, whether in heght or in thickenesse, rowes, lynes, or courses.

Coriacea, a certayne herbe.

Coriaceus, a, um, of leather.

Coriago, ginis, for. gen. the sickenesse of cattall whan they are cloung, that their shynges doo cleue fast to their bodies, hyde bounde.

Coriandrum, dri, n. ge. the herbe and seide called Coriander, or Colander.

Corianum, idem.

Coriarius, ri, m. g. a tanner, or coxer, also a certayne herbe vled to tanne leather.

Corias, x, a certayne fische.

Coriatum, riatij, neu. gene. a thyng made of leather.

Corica, two ples by Deloponnesus.

Corinium, a towne of Dalmatia, called nowe Lozimum. Also a towne in England, called Claudiocestria, Gloucester.

Corinnus, a poete, whiche wrote of Troie befoze Homere.

Corinthas, adis, an herbe called also Menais.

Corinthius, and Corinthiacus, a, um, that whiche is of the citee of Corinthus.

Corinthia vasa, plate of the mettall of Lozins the, whiche was a mixte mettall.

Corinthus, a citee in Achaia, whiche was in that parte of Grece, whiche is now called Morea, wherof came a prouerbe.

✶ Non est cuiuslibet Corinthum appellere, it is not in euery mans power to arriue at Lozins thus, whiche dooeth signifie, it pertyneth not to euery man to attempte thynges dangerous, or harde to atchieue.

Coriolanus, a noble man of Rome.

Corioli, a towne of Latium.

Corion, ri, neu. g. an herbe called also Cypericon, Androcemon, and of some Herba perforata, commonly Herba diui Ioannis, saint Johns woozte. It is also diuers other herbes, as apereth in Diosc. li. 3. ca. 171. 172. &c.

Coriscus, a lyght darte lyke an arrowe.

Coritus, ti, m. g. a bowe case.

Coritus, an hyll of Thessaly, and a kynge, on whose wyfe Jupiter begat Dardanus.

Corium, rij, n. ge. the skynne of a beast, leather, and in building, it is a course of bricke, stones, or other matter.

✱ Canis assuetus corio, A prouerbe, signifyng that one ones rooted in naughtinesse, can neuer be withdrawen.

Corna, na, the name of two cities.

Cornelia, the proper name of diuers noble women, of whiche one was sister to Scipio, mother to Cyberius Gracchus, and Caius Gracchus, who beyng men of excellent eloquence in the latine tongue, were taught onely of theyr fated mother. This woman was of a mercuri- lous temperaunce: For on a time beyng in company with other ladies of Rome, (beholdyng her meane appaile) was demanded, if she had no better rayment: She poyntyng to hir two sonnes, whiche than wente befoze hir, answered: No here is my frefhe appaile, wherein I delite.

Cornelius, a propre name of diuers noble Romans, of whom mention shal be made in their surnames.

Cornescio, nescis, escere, to waxe hard as horne.

Corneolus, a diminutue of Cornus.

Cornetum, ti, neu. gen. a groue where the trees Cornus growe.

Corneus, a, um, of or lyke horne. Also of the woode Cornus.

Cornicen, nicinis, ma. g. a blower in an horne.

Cornicor, aris, ari, to make a chattering lyke a chough, or to gape for a pray, as Erasmus doeth expounde it.

Cornicula, la, for. gen. a diminutue of Cornix a chough.

Cornicularius, a certayne office in armes concernyng capitall sentences.

Corniculum, a litle horne. also after some, a certayne gift giuen to souldiours, it was sometime a towne in Italie.

Cornificius, a learned man in the time of Salust.

Cornigenus, a, um, of the kynde whiche hath hornes.

Corniger, ra, rum, horned, all thyng that beareth hornes.

Cornipes, pedis, om. gene. that hath an harde houe or horne on their feete.

Cornix, nicis, f. g. a birde called a crowe.

✱ Cornicum oculos configere, to prick oute the crows eyes: A prouerbe vsed whā we wold signifie, that one with a new deuple, had obscured the doctrine or estimation of them, whiche had ben afore him, and had made theym to seme, they knew or sawe nothyng. It maye be also said, where one man wold make all other men blynde, that haue been befoze hym, and doeth reproue or dissolue that, whiche hath ben allowed by wyle men.

Cornicibus superstes, spoken prouerbially of one that is longe liued.

Cornu, vndeclined, Cornum, ni, n. g. and Corz nus, nus, ma. gen. a horne: by translation the corners and wyndynges of ryuers. Also the two wynges of a battayle be called Dextrum cornu, and Sinistrum cornu.

Cornua antennarum, the endes of the sayle pades.

Cornucopia, an horne that Hercules plucked from Achelous, whiche horne the nymphes or immortall ladies filled with sweete floures and frutes: There is befoze an other opinion therof.

Cornupeta, a beast that striketh with his hornes.

Cornus, nus, or Cornus, ni, f. g. a tree called in frenche yng Corneillier, of this be .ii. sortes, the male and the female: the male is not in England, and therfoze hath no English name, vnlesse ye will call it longe cherie tree. The female is a tree, that some bouchers make pyckes of, and is in Englande, of some called dogge tree, or gatten tree.

Cornum, ni, n. g. the fruite of Cornus, called Corneillies in frenche, which be like to olives, but they be redde, and somewhat longer.

Cornutus, a, um, that whiche hath hornes.

✱ Cornutam bestiam petis, thou settest on an horned beast: A prouerbe, spoken of one, whiche prouoketh him, of whome he is lyke to haue the woofe.

Cornutus, the name of a learned man in the time of Nero.

Coræbus, looke Choræbus.

Corolla, la, f. g. a litle crowne or garlande of flowers.

Corollarium, rij, n. g. an addicion or aduantage. also Corollaria be certayne gistes giuen at feastes, or to people when they behelde com- mon plaies.

Coron, wilde rue.

Corona, na, f. g. a crowne, a garlande, a chaplet, a company of people standyng rounde like a circle. also the circle aboute the moone.

Corona militares, garlandes of dyuerse sortes:

One (named Triumphalis) was fyrst of laurell or bay leaues, afterwarde of golde, whiche the chiefe capitayne ware on his heade, whan he had the whole victorie agaynst his enemies, and his seruantes dyd weare garlandes of olyue.

An other (called Obsidionalis) was geuen to the chiefe capitayne, whan he had reyled a siege, laied aboute any of theyr townes or fortreffes, and that garlande was of the grasse growyng in the place, where the siege was layed. An other (called Ciuica) was of holly, beinge euer greene, wouen with oken leaues, this garlande was geuen to him, whiche had saued a Romayne from takyng, fightyng valiantly for him. Muralis, was geuen to him that fyrste scaled the walles maugre the enemies: and therfoze it was made lyke vnto battymentes Castrensis, was geuen to him, whiche fyrst by force entred the campe of the enemies. Naualis, was put on his his head, whiche in battayle on the sea, fpyke boorded the myppe that was assailed. Oualis, was wome of the chiefe capitaine, whan the victorie was without sheddyng of blood, or that the battaile lacked his circumstance in the appointment. Muralis, Castrensis, and Naualis, were of golde: Oualis, was of the litle sweete bushe called Myrrus.

Coróna, was also a certayne sygne, whiche seruantes (sette to be solde) vsed to weare. also the sygne of Ariadne in the firmament, whiche hath. ix. sterres in forme of a crowne. it is also the water table or copping of a wall.

Coronamentum, ti, n. ge. roses, violetttes, and other floures, wherof garlandes be made.

Coronarius, ria, he or she that maketh crownes or garlandes.

Coronarius, a, um, that belongeth to garlandes or crownes.

Coronatus, a, um, crowned, or wearyng a garlande.

Corone, a towne in Grece in the partes now named Morea.

Coroneola, a kynde of roses.

Coronea, a citee in Beotia, where no molles brede, if any be brought thither, he dieth.

Corónis, nidis, f. ge. the nose of a myppe. also an ende, the extreme part, the toppe of a thyng, the horne or other lyke. Sometyme the conclusion, or that, which doeth finishe.

Vique ad coronidem, euen to the ende.

Coronis, the daughter of Leucippus, on whome Apollo begatte Esculapius.

Coróno, aui, are, to crowne, or sette a crowne or garlande on ones head.

Corónopus, an herbe, whiche by the description of Dioscorides and Theophrastus, some suppose to bee Dent de leon, other, herbe Iuie, or crowfoote, wey bread. Falchius sayeth, it is sometyme called Cornucruinum, Pes cornicis, and Sanguinaria, because it stynteth bleedynge. Ruellius, after the mynde of Leoniceus saith, it is named Capreola, Dens canis, and sometyme Sanguinaria, because it prouoketh bleedynge.

Coróphium, a kynde of crabbe fysh.

Corporális, le, corporall.

Corporatio, ónis, and Corporatura, ra, the quantitee, state, or faction of the body, copulation, copulencie.

Corporatus, a, um, copulate.

Corpóreus, a, um, that is of a bodily substance.

Cóporo, aui, are, to kyll.

Cóporor, aris, ari, to be fashioned or made a body.

Corpulentia, a, f. g. copulencie, fleshyneffe.

Corpulentus, a, um, copulent or grosse in body, fleshy.

Corpus, corporis, neu. gen. a body. Sometime it signifieth but fleshe only: Sometyme all maner of substance, also a whole felowshipp or compas-nie, or a multitude of people: Sometyme a volume or some of a booke.

Vires & corpus amisi, I haue lost my strength and haue nothyng on me but skin and bones.

Habitus corporis, the fourme and plyght of the body, or the complexion.

Corpore viriati, they that lacke some membe at their natiuitee.

Corpus arboris, the body of a tree.

Corpus reipublice, the whole common weale.

Genitalia corpora, the lower elementes.

Prima corpora, idem.

Corpusculum, li, n. g. a littell or small body.

Corrado, rasi, dere, to shave or scrape, to take away, spoile, sell, or alienate, to scrape together.

Correctio, ónis, f. g. a correction, amendement, a redresse. also a figure of rhetoric.

Corrector, óris, ma, g. a correctour or amender of faultes.

Corrépo, répsi, répere, idem quod Repo.

Corréptor, óris, ma, g. he that taketh or plucketh a thyng to hym.

Corréptus, a, um, taken, attached.

Corrideo, risi, ridere, to laugh with other.

Corrigia, a, form. g. a thonge of leather, a lachet of a shoe.

Corrigiola, la, f. g. an herbe, which renneth on the grounde lyke grasse, but it hath leaues lyke rewe, somewhat longer and softer, vnder the whiche the seede spryngeth, and hath floures partely white partely redde. Manardus saith, it hath leaues lyke to an ashe, and therefore is called Fraxinella.

Córrigo, rexi, rigere, to correct or amende, to streighten, to make right, to redresse.

Corrigere aliquem ad frugem, to amende one, and make him honest and thysse.

Corrigere & Depravare, contrary.

Corrigere & emendare.

Corrigia, a, form. ge. a tree, hauyng a leafe like Adrachne. Plin. lib. 13. cap. 22. the fruite of it is called Pappus.

Corripio, corripis, pui, pēre, to rebuke, properly it is to take a thyng quickly and with haste, to shorten.

Corripere sese ad aliquem, to goe to one hastily.

Corripere sese intro, to enter in hastily.

Corripere se repente, to go his way sodenly.

Corripitur febre, he is taken with a feuer.

Corripitur somno, he is faste a sleape.

Cursum corripere, to sette a rennyng hastily.

Corripere morsu, to bite.

Gradum corripere, to go a pace.

Viam corripere, to take the way and goe forwarde.

Tanto celerius viam corripiemus, we wyll take our waie, and go so muche the faster.

Corriuales, they whiche doo loue together one woman.

Corriuare, is properly of beastes, to go together to wateryng.

 Corriuatio, ónis, form. g. a rennyng together in forme of a ryuer.
 Corriuor, áris, ári, is of waters, whan they of small brookes doo become riuers.
 Corriuátus, a, um, the adiectiue.
 Corróboro, áui, áre, to make stronge or bigge, to harden.
 Corroborátus, a, um, made stronge or bygge, hardened.
 Corródo, rósi, ródere, to gnawe about.
 Corrósus, a, um, gnawne about.
 Corrógo, áui, áre, to gather together, to despye
 earnestly.
 Corrotundo, áui, are, to make rounde.
 Corróda, dæ, f. g. an herbe called wilde sperage.
 Corrugí, fózowes made in hilles, to conueighe water to washe the owze of mettall.
 Corrógo, áui, are, to wrinkle.
 Corrugare frontem, to frowne.
 Corrugatus, a, um, wrinkled.
 Corrumpto, rupi, rumpere to corrupte, to marre or spille, to viciate, to destroye, to suborne, to tempte or procure by giftes.
 Corrumperé aliquem ex optimo, of a very honest man to make a very naughty pack.
 Corrumperé igni, to bourné by.
 Corrumperé opportunitates, to lose opportunitie or occasion.
 Corrumperé rem familiarem, to waste his substance.
 Fontes corrumpere, to infecte.
 Corrumperé & Deprauare.
 Corruptela, læ, f. ge. any thyng that corrupteth or defyleth, corruption or defyllyng.
 Corrupté, corruptly.
 Corruptio, ónis, a corruption.
 Corruptor, óris, ma. ge. a destroyer, a waster, a corrupter of thynges.
 Corruptrix, triciis, the feminine.
 Corruptus, pra, tum, corrupted, destroyed, visciate, rotten.
 Video corruptum hic ex adolescente optimo
 I see him here of a very honest yonge man to bee cleane changed, and become naught.
 Corrumpi situ, to moulde and waxe hoze.
 Corruo, rui, ruere, to falle downe together, to fall greuously, to fayle or erre.
 Corruerunt opes, the goodes were wasted.
 Rifu corruui, I coulde not stande for laughlyng.
 Cors, cortis, idem quod Chors, a courte.
 Corfoides, a certayne stone.
 Corsica, an yle in the myble sea, betweene Gean and the yle of Sardinia called Cors, it is now
 vnder the citee of Gean.
 Corsicum mare, the sea about the yle of Cors.
 Cortex, córticis, m. & f. g. a rynde or barke.
 Corticula, læ, a litle rynde or barke.
 Corticátus, ta, tum, haupnge a rynde or barke.
 Corticósus, a, um, that hath a thycke barke or rynde.

Cortina, na, f. ge. a diers batte. also it is a table of Apollo, from the whiche he gaue aunswere.
 Lato taketh it for a vessell, out of the which oyle is lette renne. Also that whiche is called a courteyn of linnen cloth or sylke. also a pan or kettell, wherein water was hette.
 Cortina, a citee of Crete.
 Cortinále, lis, neu. g. the place where vessels bee
 sette, wherein wyne and hony be sodden.
 Cortinon, rabyde seede.
 Cortona, a citee in Tuscanie.
 Cortyna, or Gortyna, a citee in the yle of Landy.
 Corus, ri, ma, ge. the westerne wynde north west and by west.
 Corus, vox hebraica, a certayne measure compreshendyng (as Josephus and Budci witnesse) one and forty Medimnos Atticos, euery Me-idmnum containyng sixe Romaine Modios, of our measure. 738. galons: which differeth farre from the opinion of Hieromie byð Clay, esteem-yng Corum, at thirtie Romaine Modios.
 Coruncanus, a Romaine, whiche firste of any of the common people was made high bishop.
 Corusco, áui, are, to brandish or glitter, to shine.
 Coruscare mucronem, to brandish a sword.
 Corúscus, a, um, that glistereth or shineth, that is brandished, or that shaketh.
 Syluæ coruscae, trees shakynge and tremblyng with the wynde.
 Coruinus, a, um, of a crowe.
 Coruinus, the name of a noble oratour. reade in Messala.
 Coruis, a place in Cheshaly, into the whiche trans-gressours were hurled downe headlong.
 Coruus, ui, m. g. a rauen or crow. also a cer-tayne fische.
 Coruus crocitat, the rauen crieth.
 Coruos in cruce pascere, to be meate for croswes, to be hanged on a gibbet.
 Corybantes, the priestes of the ydole Cybeles, whiche as madde men, wagging theyr heades and daunsyng, playnge on cimballes, ranne aboute the stetes, prouokynge other to doo the semblable.
 Corybántius, a, um, perteynyng to the sacrifices of those priestes.
 Corybas, antis, the sonne of Jason and Cybeles.
 Corycia, a promontory in Crete, and an haven in Bethiope.
 Corycides, the surname of the Muses of an hyll or denne in Parnalus by Delphis, called Cor-rycius.
 Corýcium, cij, neut. gene. a gardeniaundes, walllette or scrippe, or other lyke thyng to putte in vitayles.
 Córýcon, a promontory or elbow of Pamphilia vnder the which, the citee Atalea, is situate.
 Corycos, or Corycus, the name of a mountayne and citee in Sicile, by the which is a caue called Corycius.
 Corycus, a mountayne and haven of Pamphislia, of

lia, of the which certayne rousers on the sea were named Coricæi, whose falsehode in beggylng the marchauntes resorteinge thither, is growen to a prouerbe: and of theim all crafty and wply spies and serchers oute of matters are called Coricæi.

✱ Corycæus auscultauit, a prouerbe, spoken, whan a thyng greatly dissembled and kepte secrete, is by some spie disclosed.

Corydalis, li, f. g. a certayne birde, after some a larke, also the herbe Capnon.

Corydon, a Shepards name in Theocrite and Virgill.

Corydus, a byrde of small estimation, whiche singeth not, but charactereth, also the name of a parasite.

Corylæum, ti, n. g. a groue of hasils.

Corylus, li, f. g. an hasyll and an hasyll nutte, or filberde.

Corymbe, bes, idem quod Corambole.

Corymbethra, Juie. Diosc.

Corymbion, bi, the herbe called Lychnis coronaria, Diosc.

Corymbios, i. hædera alba. Barbar. in Corol.

Corymbus, bi, m. g. a beary of Iuie, or other, whiche doo grow in the same fourme. Corymbus, or Corymbum, is also the stemme of a Myppe, and the fruite or berry of the herbe called Chrysóchoma.

Corymbifer, bifer, um, that beareth bearies.

Corymbites, tæ, a kynde of spurge.

Corynéphoros, he that beareth a clubbe.

Coryphæus, phæi, ma. g. the chief in euery order, or in knowlage.

Corythus, a towne in Tuscan, nere to Aretium.

Corytus, ti, m. ge. a bowe case, or a quiver for arrowes.

Córyza, the pose or distillation out of the head into the eis and nose.

Cos, looke Coos.

Cos, cotis, f. g. a whette stone.

Cosmæta, tæ, com. gen. a chaumberer, a man or woman that apparaileth their maistresse.

Cosmiana vnguenta, very sweete oyles named of Cosmus.

Cósmicus, a, um, wordely, or of the worlde.

Cosmitto, for committo.

Cosmographia, æ, the description of the worlde.

Cosmógraphus, phi, m. g. he that descriueth the worlde.

Cosmus, mi, the worlde.

Cosmus, mi, a propre name.

Cossa, a towne of Umbria.

Cosim, idem quod Coxim.

Cossus, si, m. g. a worzme bredde in trees, whiche the people of Phrygia dyd eate for a delicate meate. also a man or woman, that haue theyr bodies riuelled or full of wrinkles. Plinie hath Cosses in the plurall numbze.

Cossus, a Romayne.

Costa, æ, f. g. a rybbe.

Costa nauium, the sydes of Myppes.

Costa aheni, the sides of a caudion.

Costatus, a, um, that hath rybbes.

Costum, or Costus, an herbe called commonlie Cocus, & Herba Mariæ: it hath but one stalke halfe a cubite highe, and leaues lyke Betayne, sayng that they be thynner, and moze sauourie, reade Plin. lib. 12. cap. 11. It is also a straunge herbe, wherof be. iii. kyndes, Arabicum, Indicum, Syriacum.

Cosyra, or Cosura, an yle in Afrike.

Cotaria, æ, f. ge. a quarrie, where whette stones be founden.

Cothurnus, ni, m. g. a kynde of busshyns to hunt in, which might indifferently bee putte on either legge, also a slypper, spectally high soled. Sometime it is taken for a plaier in tragedies: Sometime for a tragedie: and for an high and arrogant fourme of speakyng or writyng.

Cothurnatus, a, um, that weareth suche a busshyn or slypper, or vseth a tragicall maner in writyng or speakyng.

Cotacula, læ, fæ. ge. not a little whet stone, but a touche stone, to trie golde or syluer.

Cotidie, dayly, day by day.

Cotia, the Alpes.

Cotiso, a kyng of the Danes.

Coton, an haven made with stone. also a towne in Syria, of the whiche a certayne kynde of small fygges are called plurally Cotona, Cóttona, or Cottona.

Cotónea, æ, f. g. a quince tree.

Cotóneum, nei, neu. g. a quince: also an herbe, whiche the frenche men call Halum.

Cotia, an oratour of Rome, greatly commended of Cicero.

Cóttabus, bi, the sounde, whiche a stroke maketh with any thyng, a clappe.

Cottona, looke Coton.

Cotula, the coddies or Maies of the pulse Cicer.

Cótula, an herbe, which hath leaues lyke Lamomill, and a yelow floure like to an oxe eye. Of this be diuers kyndes, one is called Buphtalmos, an other Cotula foetida, whiche hath a white flower.

Cotula, a measure, looke Cotyla.

Coturnix, nicis, fæ. ge. a byrde, called a quayle, whiche (as Plinie and Solinus write) appeareth not vntill the ende of sommer, and than they flee ouer the sea easily withoute makyng hast: and whan they perceyue lande, they assemble in flockes, and flee muche faster. They wypte also, that these byrdes doo feede on seedes of venemous herbes, and therefore in the olde tyme they wer not eaten of wyse men: For that byrde hath the fallynge puell. Auicen, Galene, and Lucretius affirme, that this byrde feedeth on the herbe Elleborus, or Veratrum, whiche of it selfe is venemous: all be it phisicians giue it sometime for the purgation of melancolie. Auicen writeth, that eatyng of quayles is to be feared, rid, lest thereby may be engendered the crampe, and sickness called Teranus, Teranus is a disease Coryla, or Coryle, a measure, which after the saying of Galen, was in some place. xii. ounce measures, in some place. xvi. Julius Dollus saith, it is the thyrde parte of Cornix, that whiche is called Georgica, of petteynge to husbandrie, receiveth in weyght of wyne. i. lb.

and halfe an ounce: of oyle. xi. ounces, of hony
i. li. di. and. vi. drammes: of our measure a pinte and one ounce. That which is called Veieriharia, or belonging to horse lethes, is in measure.
xii. pynches, and conteyneth of wyne. xi. ounces,
and. ii. scruples, one obolum, and one siliqua:
of oyle. x. ounces: of hony. i. lb. iiii. ounces di
one dramme, and one scruple: It is of our measure iuste halfe a pynce.
Coryla, called also Hemina, a measure after Bus-det, beyng halfe sextarius, conteynge in weight
xii. ounces: If sextarius be bas. xviii. ounces, or as physicians doo take it, then is Coryla, but halfe therof. The length and bredth of this measure (as Glarian describeth it) is. iii. inches, the depth only. ii. inches, which conteyneth the weight of a pounce Romaine in wyne or water.
Coryla, is also a vessell or cuppe to drynke of, suche as Diogenes vsed, before he learned of a chylde to drynke out of his hande.
Coryle, coryles, f. g. sometyme signifieth all the holowenesse of a cup. also the ioynte of a mans thigh. Eras. saith, that Coryle in greke, among many other thinges, signifieth the holow parte of the hande.
Coryledon, ledonis, f. ge. the herbe called Vmbelicus Veneris.
Corylum, a place in the mountayne of Iuda, oute of the whiche renneth thre great ryuers, Sca-mander, Granicus, and Aefopus.
Cotys, a kynge of Thrace, whiche in the ciuile warre fauoured the part of Pompeie.
Covinus, ni, m. g. a maner of charpot.
Covinarius eques, an horse man that fought leappng out of a chariot vnto an horse bakke.
Covinum, a towne in Dorset shyre, called Dorschester.
Counos, the yle of Shepey in Kent.
Cous, a, um, of the yle of Cos.
Cous, in greke is a sphe.
Coxa, x, f. g. idem quod coxendix.
Coxendix, dicis, f. g. the hippe or huckle bone,
the ioynte of the hippe, the haunch.
Coxendicis morbus, the ache of the hip, commonly called Sciatica, which cometh of a grosse fleumatike humour, that lieth aboute the synue called Ichias, in the holow bone of the hippe.

C Rabus, Bris, ma, gen. a great waspe called an hoznette, whiche syngeith popsona-ly. And who that is longe with an hoz-net, shall hardly scape an ogew. Pol. lib. ii. ca.
And there is another without a synge. Ar. lib.
de part. an. i. ca. i. lib. i. ca. i. lib. i. ca. i.
Crabronum, a proverbe, when a man
prouoketh one to his owne harme.
Spicula Crabronum, the sting of a waspe.
Cracca, a kynde of pulle, wherein culuers greatlye delite.
Cracentes, men that are leane, sometyme it is taken for graciles.
Cracuta, dogges, engendered of mouises and dogges.
Cragus, a mountayne of Asia, dedicate to Ipe-pollo.
Crambe, es, f. g. a kynde of cole wortes.
Crambe repetita, is called of Juuenalis, a bea-stimation to often hearde with muche tedious-nesse to the hearers.
Cranus, a kynde of Athenes, who succeeded Ecrops.
Crambion, bij, v. g. idem quod Pityusa.
Craneum, a place of exercise at Louthe.
Craneus, the first kynge of Macedon, betwene him and Alexander Magnus reigned. xxvii.
kynge, aboute the space of. 500. yeres.
Cranocolaptra, x, f. g. a kynde of the spider called Phalangij.
Cranos, or Cranium, nij, n. g. the skull.
Crantor, oris, the name of a philosopher.
Crápula, la, f. g. an inflammation and heade ache, whiche cometh of excess of drynkinge. It is also taken for drunkennesse, or any disease caused by surfetting.
Crapulam edormiscere, to slepe out drunkennesse vntill one be freshe agayne.
Crapulam exhalare, to vomite whan one is drunke.
Crápula, is also a thynge, wherewith wine is tempered, after some the dregges of rosyn.
Crápulor, aris, ari, to surfette.
Cras, to morow, in time comyng.
Crasis, sis, f. g. gen. a greke woorde signifieth complexion, temperature or mixture of naturall humours.
Crassamen, minis, & Crassamentum, ti, neu. g.
the thickenesse of any thyng.
Crassesco, fescis, fescere, to make fatte or full of fleshe, or thicke, to waxe fatte.
Crassitudo, dinis, f. g. ge. fatnesse, thickenesse, grossenesse.
Crassities, idem.
Crassiuenum, nij, neu. gene. a kynde of tree called Acer.
Crassus, a, um, fatte, fleshy, thicke, grosse, possie,
sometyme dull, blocky, blunt, cosly.
Crassa Minerua, a grosse witte, whiche doeth nothyng exactly.
Crassa compedes, weyghty gyues.

Crassiore mufa, with a more playne of intelligible sence.
 Crasse, thicke, grossely.
 Crassum, si, n. g. a grosse or thicke thyng.
 Crassus, the surname of noble Romayns. One, named Lucius Crassus (next to Cully) was the most excellent orator amonge the Romayns, of whome, and Marcus Scaevola, Cully writeth in this wise: Thynke not (I say) Crassus, that in this citty were euer two more excellent persons. For where it is well known, that of all consailers, the one (Scaevola) was most eloquent: the other (Crassus) was in counsaylunge most excellent. Likewise in all other thynges they were vnylike one to an other: but so as ye coulde not tell vnto whiche of them ye woulde wishe to be like. For Crassus of all delicate and toly, was the most loby: Scaevola of al that wot loby, was most frethe and pleasant. Crassus with gentillesse had sufficient seueritee; in the great seueritee of Scaevola lacked no getillesse.
 Crassus, called Marcus, was the rycheest pivate person of the Romayns: he had in his treasure. 7100. talentes, whiche amounteth of our money to. 1100.50. li. or more truly after the computation and valuation of Tostall, to. 852000. li. sterlinge, besydes that he had geuen the .x. part of his mouables to Hercules in offerynge, and had made a feast to all the people of Rome, appointing to euery man the rate of thye Minas. He woulde say, he ought not to be called a riche man, except he could with his yerely rent maine kepe a legion, whiche commonlye conteyned 6000. foremen, and .500. men of armes. By whiche wordes it may be well supposed, that where Plinie esteemeth the riches of Crassus to be. 20000. Sestertia, whiche in the rate of our money is. 131065. li. the same summe was the yerely reuenues of Marcus Crassus, euerly Sestertium, beyng. vi. li. xi. s. ix. d. ob. which reuenues were not only of his possessions, graine, fruit, and cattell, but also of the labours of bondemen, whiche he dyd lette to hye, they beyng instructed in al maner sciences and artes. of whome were. 500. carpenters, of all the other a muche greater numbze. All that they gained, came to his coffers. Moreover he practised vsury, lendyng lightly to all men that would borrow, but if they brake promise with him, he was in exactyng therof extreme and rigourous. He gatte infinite substaunce by men atteynted in the tyme of Sylla. He was excedyng couetouse and vnstable, but vsyng muche liberalitee and affabilitee towarde the people: he was alway in greate estimation amonge them: he was eloquent, and woulde pleade in euery common cause. Finally, beyng sterred with couetousenesse and enuy, at the greate honours that Caesar and Pompeie had obteyned, he procured warre agaynst the Parthians, by whome both he and his sonne with. 30000. Romayns were slayne, many also were taken, whiche as Plutarke writeth, hapned by his negligence, beyng most industrious aboute the gathering of money, than in gouernyng his army. He dyd also the incarnation of Christ. 51. yeres.

 Crastino, an, are, to deferre from day to daye, to delaye of tyme on the morowe.
 Crastino, idem quod Crastinus.
 Crastinus, a, um, pertynyng to to morowe, or time to come.
 Crastina hora, the next day folowynge.
 Aetas crastina, the tyme to come.
 Crastinus fructus, new fruite.
 Cratægonon, or Cratægonon, goni, a, g. an herbe, whiche Plinie saith is like an ear of wheate, with many stirmes springing out of one roote, and full of knottes, the same lyke mat. Theophrastus affirmeth it to be the tree called in Italy Aquifolium. Ruellius saith, it is the seconde kynde of the herbe Persicaria, called of the frenchemen Curage; in englishe this herbe is called Arismet.
 Crater, tæris, ma. g. a basyn of a water cundite, whereinto the water renneth out of pyppes or cockis.
 Cratæra, ræ, or Crater, tæris, a great cup, also a great hole on the top of the metuaylouse hill of Etna in Sicily, out of the whiche issue flames of fire. it is also the vessell of a well: also a vessel, wherein meate is sod or brought to the table.
 Craterites, te, m. g. a pious stone.
 Craterra, ræ, f. g. a bucket to take by water.
 Craterus, one of great Alexanders companions.
 Crates, a philosopher, whiche to the intente he might more quietly study philosophy, threw all his gooddes into the sea, sayng, Hence with a mischiefe, ye vngyracious appetites, I had lief for drowne you, than ye shoulde drowne me: supposyng he mought not haue vertue and ryche together.
 Crates, tis, f. g. an hurdill, a grate of yron or woodde: also the watyng of an house claid or thatched. Comtyme an harrow or dragge, wherewith they brake cloddes.
 Crathis, the name of two riuers, the one in Grece, the other in Calaber.
 Craticula, læ, f. g. a gredeyion, wheron meate is broyled.
 Cratylus, the name of a philosopher to whome Plato wrote a booke.
 Cratinas, a ryuer in Afrike.
 Cratinus, a poete, whiche wrote comedies.
 Cratio, iui, ire, to couer with grates, to wattill. also to harrow or brake cloddes.
 Cratippus, the name of a philosopher.
 Cratitius, a, um, that is made of or lyke hurdels wattelid.
 Cratitij parietes, wattled walles made lyke hurdels, as they vse in the countrey.
 Cratos, power or dominion.
 Crauron, a certaine disease in cattell when by a whote whose humour falling out of their heades the lightes dooe rotte.

 Crea, x, f. g. the mynne, behinde the whiche is the calfe of the legge.
 Creatio, ōnis, f. g. a makynge of creatyng.
 Creator, ōris, m. g. the first maker of a thyng.
 Creator urbis, the founder of first builder, the first maker of causer of the citee.
 Creatus, a, um, looke Crea.
 Creatura, x, f. gen. a creature of thyng made of nothyng.
 Creber, bra, brum, frequent of accustomed. also standyng of beyng thicke together as trees.
 Crebri, many.
 Creberrimus rumor, a rumour muche spoken,
 a very great rumour.
 Creber in eo fuisti. Thou diddest speake of that many times.
 In scripto multo essem crebrior quā tu, I woulde write to you moze often tymes than ye doo to me.
 Aphricus creber procellis, which often tymes
 causeth tempestes.
 Scitis creberrimum fuisse sermonem, me, &c.
 you know that there was great talke.
 Sylva crebra, a thicke woodde.
 In eo creber fuisti, thou haddest that muche in thy mouth, of, thou spakest often, of muche of that.
 Crebresco, brui, brescere, to be wonte, to bee commune.
 Crebritas, atis, and Crebritudo, oftensse, of thickensse in beyng of growyng together.
 Crebrisurus, a trench fortifyed with many stakes.
 Crebro, often.
 Credibilis, le, that whiche may bee beleued, credible.
 Credibiliter, credibly.
 Creditor, ōris, m. ge. he vnto whome a man or weth any thyng, he that lendeth or trusteth, a creditour.
 Creditrix, the feminine.
 Creditum, ti, ne. gen. that thyng that is owed,
 debte.
 Creditus, a, um, trusted, beleued, owed.
 Credo, didi, dere, to beleue, to trust, to commit of deliuer a thyng to be safely kept, to putte into ones handes, to publishe, to haue a sure confy-dence, to thynke, to know surely, after Donas-
 tus. to lende one money of any other thyng.
 Credere verba alicui, to tell to one his coun-sayle. Creditur tibi, I truste thee.
 Creditur male, it is yll lente.
 Credo, Ironice dictum.
 Debeam credo isti quicquā furcifero, si id fecerim, I weene I should be somewhat in this knaues daungier if I did so, should I? spoken in mockyngly.
 Credōne tibi hoc nunc, peperisse hanc ē pamphilo? thynkest thou that I beleue this,

that thou tellest me. &c.
 Recte non credis de numero. &c. you dooe well, that ye doo not beleue. &c.
 Credere se alicui, to put him selfe in to ones
 handes.
 Pecuaria præsidio canum credere, to truste
 dogges to kepe beastes well, and in saulsegarde.
 Summam belli puero credere, to putte the whole charge of the warre into a childe's handes.
 Non me tuis rebus crederem, I wolde not be so bolde to lodge in thy house.
 Credere libris, to put in writyng.
 Veritus se credere nocti, he durste not goe as byode in the night.
 Credo, interpositum. Exarsi non solum præ-senti (credo) iracūdia, as I wene, as I beleue.
 Quid his rebus credis fieri? what thinkest thou maie be dooen by this meannes?
 Credis huic, quod dicat? Doest thou beleue that he saith?
 Credere alicui de re aliqua, to beleue one in a mattier.
 Nobis de Casare creditis.
 Committere & credere.
 Male credere, to mistrust.
 Crede hoc meæ fidei, beleue me in this, truste me truly.
 Credere se Neptuno, to take the sea.
 Credere alicui argentum, to trust with money to lende one money.
 Credere pecuniam, to lende money.
 Credo, I beleue well.
 Nunquam hoc mihi voluit credere, he woulde
 neuer disclose so much to me.
 Credidi tibi consilia mea omnia, I haue disclosed of committed all my secrete counsailes to you. Creditur, the impersonall, men beleue it:
 of, money was lent.
 Creduis, vel creduas, for credas.
 Credulitas, tātis, f. g. lyght beleue.
 Credulus, a, um, that beleueth lyghtly, of lyght of beleefe.
 Cremastères, the sinewes, whereby the stones of a man or beast doo hang.
 Cremasthra, a certayne hangyng vessel, wherein men bled to put their fragmentes of meate, such as our hearon cupboorde is.
 Crematio, ōnis, f. g. a bournyng.
 Crematus, a, um, bourned.
 Crementum, increase.
 Cremera, a ryuer.
 Crémium, mij, n. ge. fried meate bourned to the panne, after Calpine, but Columella semeth to take it for byrthe of drie stiches to kende fyre with.
 Cremo, aui, are, to bourne.
 Cremōna, a towne of Italy.
 Cremor, ōris, m. g. the iugre of barley stiped in water, beaten, and pressed.
 Crena, x, f. ge. the dente about the leafe of an herbe, of tree lyke to a saw. It is also the scoze
 the

the notche of taylor, whiche menne vnlearned make on stiches for their remembraunce. also the nocke of a bowe or arrowe.

Creocaccabis, a kinde of meate made of fleshe chopped, with blud, sewet, and swete licour.

Creon, tis, the name of a kynge, whose daughter Jason married, whan he forsoke Medea. also a kynge of the Thebanes, father to Jocasta, wyfe of Oedipus.

Creophilus, the name of a poete, whome some affirme to be maister to Homere.

Creo, aui, are, to geue the first beyng vnto any thyng. also to get a childe, to cause, to create, to make, to ordeyne.

Creare magistratum, to ordeine an officer.

Errorum creare, to make one to erre.

Fastidium creare, to make lothsom or weery.

Erumnas alicui creare, to purchase one muche trouble.

De stirpe humili creatus, descended of bozne. &c.

Creare periculum alicui, to procure a man great daungier or trouble.

Aduersam valetudinem creare, to make sicke, to breede a disease.

Carmina creata, verses made.

Creontiades, the sonne of Hercules by Megara, the daughter of Creon of Thebes.

Crepa, of olde wryters vsed for Capra, a goat.

Crepax, p̄cis, that maketh a noyse.

Creperus, a, um, doubtfull, ambiguous.

Crepi, idem quod Luperci.

Crepidā, a, f. g. a lowe voided shoe with latches, whiche couereth litle or nothyng of the vpper parte of the foote. Some take it for a cozled shoe, or slipper, because of the noyse, whiche it maketh whan a man goeth.

608 mab Crepidarius, rij, ma. g. he that maketh shoes or slippers.

Crepidatus, a, um, that weareth a voyded shoe or slipper.

Crepidō, inis, f. g. a creke, shoze, or banke, where on the water beateth. also the mouth of a well, the toppe of a steepe rocke, and the extreme parte of any place.

Crepidula, l̄a, f̄em. gen. a diminutiu of Crepidā.

Crepitaculum, li, n. g. a tymbzel or other instrument made of brasse, which beyng touched with the hande, maketh a sounde, a rattle.

Crepitacillum, a diminutiu of Crepitaculum.

Crepis, pidis, idem quod crepidā.

Crepis, a fine cake of hony and flower.

Crepito, aui, are, to make a noyse or creakyng.

Crepitare dentibus, to crashe with the teeth.

Crepat mihi venter, my bealy coureth.

Creputum, li, n. g. an ozament of the heade, whiche with mouyng of the heade, maketh a sounde.

not noys Crepitus, us, ma. g. a bounse, a greate dynne or noyse, a farre.

Dentium crepitus, the craschyng of the teeth.

Crepitus pedum, the noyse, the which the feete make in goyng.

Creputum reddere, to breake winde. 609 f

Crepo, crepui, seldome crepui, pare, to make a great noyse or sounde, to geue a croke or crashe. also to breake or burst, to speake or talke, to preache, to prayse.

Siquid veri crepat, if he speake any thyng that is true.

Creput fores, the dooze creaked.

Intestina tibi crepant, thy bealy crouleth.

Crepā, a citee of Liburnia.

Crepundia, ōrum, n. g. trifles or small giftes geuen to litle children, as litle belles, tymbzelles, poppettes, and such like toyes. also the fyrst apparail of children, as swathels, waste cores, and suche like. And by translation they saye, A crepundis erat virtuti deditus, from his childshode he was euer giuen to vertue.

Crepusculum, li, n. g. the twye lycht, eyther in the euening or in the moynyng.

Cresco, creui, crescere, cietum, tu, to growe, to waxe bigger, to increase in honour or richesse.

In domo alicuius creuisse, to haue ben brought vp of a childe in ones house.

Crescere in multas opes, to become very riche.

Factis alicuius crescere, to become more honourable by an other mans deedes.

Animi creuerunt, they waxed haute and hyghe mynded, by reason of riches: or they took a better harte or courage.

Crescere in altitudinem.

Crescere ex accusatione alterius, to gette riches by accusyng of an other.

Cres, cretis, one of Creta.

Cresseis, a nymph of the sea.

Cressa, a woman of Creta. Also an haven of Caria, ouer agaynst Rhodes.

Creta, a, f̄em. g. and Crete, tes, an yle lyng betwene Peloponesus, and the Rhodes: It hath on the north parte of the sea Aegeum and Cretense: on the southe the sea of Egypt and Africa. It is now called Candy. In this yle was Jupiter nourished: whom the painhims named their chief god. There Minos reigned, and Masdamathus gouerned vnder him with most exquisite iustice, of whose lawes other countreys tooke their first paterne: yet not withstandyng the people of that countrey were noted to be vicious and shamefull liers: as Epimenides wrote in a verse, recited by saint Paule, in his epistle to Titus, sayng: Cretes alway been liers, vngacious bestes, and slouthfull paychers, this is now vnder the Turke.

Creta, t̄a, f. g. chalke.

Cretaceus, a, um, of chalke.

Cretatus, a, um, laied with chalke.

Cretatis pedibus homines, men marked to be solde: whiche from greate riches were fallen into great pouerty.

Cratens,

Cræteus, Cræsius, & Créticus, a, um, of Cræta.
Crætheus, the son of Æolus, whiche begat Æon,
 on the daughter of his brother Salmoneus.
Crerhmos, i. vel. Creramus, an herbe growyng on the sea rocks, whiche we call Sampere: it is offsome called Crera marina, The leaues are kepte in byne or salte, to be eaten with fleshe, as a sauce.
Cræthon, the sonne of Dioclis.
Créticus, a foote in meeter.
Crétizare cum cretensibus, A prouerbe vled wher a crafty man will deceiue him that is crafty:
 A theefe steale from a theefe, or a lier lie besyde for them, that vse to make leasynge.
Crétio, ónis, f. ge. a certayne solempnitie, whan
 one is admitted to his heritage.
Cretofus, a, um, full of chalke or chalky.
Crétula, a diminutiue of crera.
Cretus, a, um, bozne.
A sanguine Troiano cretus, descended of the Troianes bloude.
Crétura, idem quod Cyribia.
Creusa, the daughter of Ægeon of Lozinthe, whome Jason married.
Creusis, a towne of Scotia.
Crex, crecis, f. g. a certayne birde, whiche semeth by Aristotle, to be that, which in some places of Englande is called a Daker hen.
Cribo, aui, are, to liste or lare.
Cribrum, bri, n. g. a sieue or a sarge.
Farrinarium cribrum, a rangeyng sieue.
Arctum, or angustum cribrum, a syne syene.
Cribo incernere, to list, or trie out by listyng.
Cribrum excussorium, loke Excussorius.
Cribo aquam haurire, A prouerbe vled,
 whan a man spendeth his labour in vayne.
Cribrarius, a, um, of a sieue.
Cribraria, æ, fœm. gene. the finest floure after three listynges.
Crimen, minis, n. ge. a fault, an offence, blame, matter laied agaynst one by actiõ or suite: som-tyme a false suspicion. also the crimination, accusacion, or the laiyng of a thyng to a mannes charge, for the whiche he is woorthie punishment.
Crimen fortunæ, a faute comitted by chance,
 and not of purpose.
Relegamus ad crimen fortunæ, we put the faute in fortune.
Crimen facere, to committe an offence.
Crimen alicui inferre, or dicere, and Inten- dere crimen in aliquẽ, criminis reum agere, to accuse or charge one with an offence: or to lay
 to ones charge.
Esse probro & crimini, to be to a mannes rebuke and blame, to be woorthie reproche.
In crimen vocare aliquid.
In crimen dare, and Crimini dare, to blame or rebuke a man for a thyng.
Trahere in crimen, to laie to a mans charge,
 that he is one of the trespassours.
Auerrere crimen in aliquem, to cast the faute vpon an other.

Venire in partem criminis, to be partaker of any faute.

In crimen vocare aliquid, for Dare crimini.
Fama nostra vacat crimine, our good name is not deteyned: or there is no mistepoite that goeth on vs.

Criminalis, criminal, wher in is an offence or fault.

Criminari, for Criminatur.

Criminatio, ónis, fœ. ge. blame, fals report, res-proche, false accusacion.

Criminor, aris, ari, to blame, to rebuke, to laye to ones charge, to accuse.

Hunc metuebam, ne me criminaretur tibi, I feared this man, least he woulde accuse me to you, or complayne on me to you.

Apud populum Romanum criminatus est, bellum illum ducere, he complained or made reposte. &c.

Non libet omnia criminari, I will not lay all to his charge that I can.

Criminose, criminally, rebukely.

Criminosus, a, um, readie to accuse men, rebukes full, blame woorthie, reprochable.

Criminosum hoc ei est, He is woorthie to be blamed or punished for this: or this is a thyng for whiche he is woorthie to be condemned.

Crimissa, a citee.

Crimissus, a ryuer of Grece.

Crimnodæum, grosse waters, that haue resis-dence like meale or flower.

Crimanthemon, mi, the wilde lillie.

Criminalis, le, that belongeth to the heare.

Criminalis, lis, n. gen. a thyng to bynd vp the heare
 as a cope, a fillet, a heare lace, or such lyke.

Criniger, that hath much heare.

Crinis, nis, ma. g. heare of the head. sometyme a peruke. also a certayne bonde to tie a thyng
 with.

Erecti crines horrent, wy heare standeth an end for feare.

Passi crines, the heare cast abrode, and hangyng loose about the head.

Deducere crines pectine, to kembe the head, properly as women doe.

Effundere crines, to spreade the heare abrode.

Impexi crines, a head vnkempt.

Ligare & euincere crines, to bind vp the heare.

Promittere crinem, to lette ones head growe
 longe.

Crines Polypi, the finnes.

Crinire, to beginne to haue heare growyng.

Crinita stella, a comete or blasynge sterre.

Crinitus, a, um, that hath muche or longe heare.

Crinomenon, that wherin the chiefe controuersie lie is.

Crinon, a redde lillie. Cras saith, that Crinon is the floure of a gourde.

Crinor, niris, niri, to haue a bushe of heare, or to be made to haue a bushe of heare.

Crinitur arbor, the tree hath many leaues or boughes.

boughes.
 Crisnon. i. Buglossum magnum. Diosco.
 Crisis, iudgement.
 Crissa, a towne builded by Crisus the sonne of Phocus.
 Crispans, artis, curled, wrinkled, braided.
 Crepitus crispans, a cracke, sowne of noyle, that continueth not, but goeth by stoppes, as cricke, cracke, crocke, ticke, tacke: also a tremis blyng of quaueryng noyle.
 Crispatus, a, um, that is curled or wrinkled.
 Crispina, by the description of Jo. Agricola, seemeth to be the byer called Respis.
 Crispina, of some is taken to be Oxyacantha, that is Berberie tree.
 Crispulus, a, um, that hath curled heare.
 Crispus, a, um, curled, wrinkled. It was also the name of Salustius.
 Crisum lignum, rough wood, ful of beynes.
 Crispo, aui, are, to curle or brynde, to make to shyne or glister.
 Aurora crispit pelagus nouo Phœbo, The mornyng whan the sonne ryseth, maketh the sea to glister and shyne.
 Crista, x, f. ge. a crest, or any thyng growyng on the head of a foule or beast, as a cockes combe, or the feathers on the head of a byrde, called a coppe.
 Crista galli, a cockes combe.
 Crista gallinæ, after Ruellius. li. 3. cap. 103. seemeth to be Meruin, called of the Grekes Peristerion, in latine Veruenna, or Verbenata. In his seconde booke, cap. 118. he descriueth it to be that, whiche Plinie calleth Alektorolophos, and Dioscorides Horminum, or Orminum hortense, an herbe muche lyke hores hounde, named of the frenchemen, Oruala, Tout bone, of the Italpans, Sclaria: of some Cetrum gallinæ, or Gallicentrum: of other Salvia transmarina.
 Cristatus, a, um, that hath a crest or coppe.
 Cristata auis, a cocke.
 Cristula, læ, a litle crest.
 Critæ, arum, neu. gen. they that be iudges in any matters.
 Crithe, es, f. g. a weart on the vpper lidde of the eie lyke a barley corne.
 Crithmus, or Crithamus, called also Batis, in Englyshe Sampere, loke Chethmos.
 Critheis, the daughter of Atellus, and mother of Homer.
 Crithiasis, a disease in hores.
 Critias, one of the thirtie tyrannes of Athenes.
 Criticus, ci, mal, ge. he that iudgeth the actes or woordes that men doo write.
 Critici dies, the daies wherein physicians giue iudgement of the continuance of the sickenes.
 Crito, a philosopher of Athens, familiar with Socrates.
 Critobulus, a physician, of whome Plinie speaketh, lib. 7.

Critolaus, a philosopher of Athens, and a capitaine of Traia, whiche destroyed the citee of Corinth.
 Crobialon, a towne in Paphlagonia, wherby renneth the ryuer Parthenius.
 Cróbylon, li, ne. gen. a caule to weare on ones head.
 Crobylus, a ruffian baude, so naughty, that of hym grew a proverbe, Crobyli iugum.
 Crocallis, lis, ma, gen. a precious stone, like to a cherie, or after some printes, lyke to ware.
 Crocatus, Crócinus, and Cróceus, a, um, of or lyke saffron.
 Croceus color, yelow colour lyke saffron.
 Crócinum, ni, neu. gen. a swete oyle made of saffron.
 Crocio, ciui, cire, to crye like a rauin.
 Crócito, aui, are, idem.
 Crocis, cis, f. g. an herbe that magicians vse.
 Crocitus, us, ma, gen. the noyle that a rauyn or crowe maketh called crokyng.
 Crocátio, or Crocitatio, idem.
 Crocodilæa, x, f. g. the dunge of cocatrice, wherewith women byd peincte their faces.
 Crocodilon, a towne of Phenicia.
 Crocodilus, an hill of Cilicia.
 Crocodilus, li, ma. gen. an yll beaste bredde in Egypt, and liueth partely in water, partely on lande, and is in facion lyke a dragō, but he hath small eies, verie longe teethe like to a sawe, & lacketh a tongue, and moueth onely the vpper iawe, and hath great and strong naples on his feete. there hath been seen of them. xx. foote long, or after some. xxii. cubites longe, and the skyn of his backe is vnpenetrable. he deuoureth not only men, but also beastes, whiche come nigh to the riuer of Nilus. And yet not withstandyng, the Egyptians did honour that beast, in so muche, that if any were kyled, they caused hym to be salted and buried. They bypge footth egges, no bygger than geese egges, and that. lx. at a time, the male and female sittyn on them by turne. reade Plin. li. 5. cap. 29.
 Crocodili lachrymæ, crocodiles teares. A proverbe, applied vnto them, whiche hatynge an other man, whome they woulde destroe, or haue destroyed, they will seeme to be soze for hym. It is taken of the propheete of Crocodilus the monster, who beholdynge a man comynge, whom he woulde deuoure, weepeth: and after he hath eaten the body, he wasmeth the head with his teares, and than eateth it also.
 Crocodilinus, a, um, of a crocodile.
 Crocodila, a beast lyke to a crocodile.
 Crocodilium, an herbe (after Plinie) lyke the thistill called Camælion niger. Ruellius supposeth it to bee that, whiche is commonly called Carlina, or Cardina.
 Crocomagma, mātis, neu. gene. dyegges of the oyle of saffron.
 Crocōta, tæ, fæ. gen. a garment of saffron colour that that women used to weare.

Crocotillum, veraiie slender oz thynne.

Crocotirium, rij, n. g. cake breade.

Crocoton, idem quod Trama. But Cras. saith, in the prouerbe Feli crocoton, that it is a round puffed garment, that riche matrones used.

Nonius accompteth it among delicate garmēt.

Crocotula, the diminutiu of Crocota.

Crocotularius, rij, maf. gen. a dyer of saffron collobred garmentes.

Crocum, ci, n. g. oz Crocus, ci, ma. g. saffron. it is hotte and dry in the fyft degree. Crocum, is also the pelowe chieues in the myddes of a lyle.

Crocus, the sonne of Eumenes, the nurse of the Muses, who was touned by Jupiter into the signe called Sagittarius, some wyte his name Crotus oz Croton.

Crocota, a beaste, whiche Solinus calleth a monster, begotten betwene the beaft Hiena, and a lyonelle: he neuer closeth his eyes oz wyneketh: on bothe sides of his mouth, he hath as it were one toothe: he breaketh all thynges with his teethe quickly, and swalloweth, and forthwith digesteth it. The nature of him is betwene a dogge and a wolfe, but he is muche worse than any of them. he counterfeiteth the voyce as well of men as of other beastes.

Crcsus, kyng of Lydia, sonne of Halyattes, subdued many great countreys in Asia and Grece, and gathered innumerable rycheffe, he on a time demaunded of Solon, who was the happpest man that euer he see. He said Cellus, a man of Athenes, who had honest and good sonnes: and they also had likewise good chyldren: all which he saw in his lyfe. And whā he had liued a good time honestly, at the last, syghyng agaynst and vanyquyng the enemies of his countrey, he dyed a faire deathe, and was in the same place honorably buried of the Atheniensis. Whan Crcsus asked, who was most happye nexte Cellus, he saied, Cleodis and Bito, whiche were Argiues, and had a competent liuyng, and in all games, in prouyng of strength, they obtained the price. Crcsus, being abashed, said vnto Solon: My frende of Athenes, settell thou so lyttell by our felicitye, that thou preferrest befoze vs these priuate persons? Solon answered: Cruelly Crcsus, in proesse of time, many thynges are sene, whiche men would not see: and many thynges be suffred, that men woulde not suffre. And spekyng much of mans calamitee, at the last he concluded, sayng: The ende of euery thyng is to be loked on, whereto it shall come. For god plucketh by by the rootes many men, vnto whom he gaue all fortune at pleasure. Crcsus made hereto no countenance, but estemyng Solon for a foole, consydeyng he passed so light vpon thynges, whiche appered good, let hym depart. A good space after. Crcsus by the comfourt of Apollon answerd at Delphos, attemptyng warre agaynst Cyzus kyng of Persia was at the last taken of hym, who caused a greafe pile of wood to be made ready, and Crcsus gyued to be set on the toppre thereof: Than forthwith Crcsus remembryng the woordes of Solon, that no man lyuyng was blessed, oz on all partes happy, lamentyng, cried: O Solon, Solon, Solon: whiche Cyzus heyrng, caused to be demaunded of him, who it was that he named. Crcsus with mushe difficulte told what he was, and declared all that befoze is rehersed. whiche whan Cyzus had herde, recognisyng him selfe to be also a man, sore repented, that he went about to burne hym, which was equall to hym selfe in honour and rycheffe: and commanded him to be taken from the fyre, whiche than began to flame: and so with great difficulte he was deliuered. Afterward Cyzus entertained him honourably, and vled his counsaile, whiche in many thynges he founde very profytable.

Crolla, idem quod Corolla.

Cromion, an opyon.

Cromis, he to whom Hercules gaue the hoxses of Diomedes, whiche wolde eate men.

Cromna, a citee of Paphlagonia.

Cronciades, one of Hercules soones, by Mezgara, the daughter of Arcon.

Cronia, orum, n. g. plu. nu. the feastes dedicate to Saturnus, whiche were also called Saturnalia, in the whiche littell presentes and gyftes were sent from one to an other.

Cronium, is the noythe sea called Mare concretum, oz Glaciale, the frozen sea.

Cronius, one of the Centrautes.

Cronon, the thirde kinde coniza.

Cronos, Saturnus.

Crotalia, orum, n. g. certayne peeces, haupyng that name of the towne, that they make.

Crotulum, li, ne. ge. an instrument, whiche the Aegyptians vled in sacrifice, made of. ii. plates, which beaten together made an harmonie. it is also a rattil for a childe to playe with, a cymbale. some haue taken it to be a great ringe of brasse, striken with an Iron rodde, to make an harmonie, suche one I sawe an Irishman vse in London.

Crotalus, li, maf. gene. he that hath a soungng voice and a Whill.

Crotaphitz, the muscles, which are in the temples.

Croton, looke after in Ricinum. Crastinus saith, it is a kinde of flies, not greuous, neither with suckyng nor otherwyle. Hesychius saith, Croton is a kynde of gumme in Aegypt, of whiche Pli. li. 24. ca. 11. sheweth diuers medicines.

Croto, oz Croton, form. gen. an auncient citee in Italye, in the goulfe called Tarentinum, the countreie of Wilo the famous mastlar.

Crotus, looke Crocus.

Cruciabilitas, atis, f. g. tourment, affliction.

Cruciata, rz, f. g. of some is taken for the herbe called Custama.

Cruciatus,

Cruciatus, tus, m. g. idem quod cruciamentum.
 Cruciatio, idem.
 Cruciamentum, ti, n. g. tourment, payne, affliction, greefe.
 Crucibilis, le, that tourmenteth or putteth one to payne.
 Crucibiliter, with great tourmentes and paynes.
 Cruciarus, a, um, worthy tourmentes and paynes, worthy to be hanged.
 Crucifigo, fixi, figere, to crucifie, to naye to a crosse.
 Crucifixus, a, um, crucified, nayed to a crosse.
 Crucinum vinum, or Crucium, lower wyne.
 Crucio, aui, are, to tourment, to afflict, to put to payne.
 Crudaria, a, form. gene. a beyn of spluer in the top of an hyl.
 Crudelis, le, cruell, fierce, vngentyl, vnttractable, that will not be moued with prayer.
 Ferus, crudelis, inhumanus.
 Poene crudeles, terrible and cruell paynes.
 Crudelitas, atis, f. ge. crueltee, fierkenesse, outrageousnesse.
 Adhibere crudelitatem in aliquem, to shewe crueltee to one.
 Omni crudelitate lacerare aliquem, to tourment or bere one with all maner of crueltee.
 Anhelare ex intimo pectore crudelitatem, to shewe crueltee euen from the bottome of his herte.
 Crudeliter, cruelly.
 Acerbe & crudeliter.
 Crudeo, dui, descere, to ware rawe.
 Crudeo morbus, The sicknesse increaseth more and more.
 Pugna crudeo, The fyghte waxeth more fierce and cruell.
 Cruditas, ratis, f. g. rawnesse of the stomake or yll digestion.
 Crudus, a, um, rawe, freshe, or newe made, not ripe, vndigested: sometyme harde, greene, fierce, cruell, terrible.
 Crudus homo, whose stomake can not digest well: also he that hath a cruell and terrible countenance.
 Crudus ensis, a cruell swoorde.
 Cruda poma, frutes that are not ripe.
 Vlnus crudum, a freshe and newe wounde, a greene wounde.
 Alnus cruda, The stomake that casteth vp meate vndigested.
 Cibi crudi, meates vndigested.
 Cortex crudus, a greene barke.
 Crudum solum & immorum, a ground that is not labourd and wel husbanded.
 Castus crudus, pro duro & crudeli.
 Cruentari oculi, eyes redde as bloudde, bloudde shotte.
 Cruenter, bloudily, with much effusion of bloudde.
 Cruento, aui, are, to make bloudde.

Morsu cruentare, to bteyntill it blede.
 Cruentare rempublicam vulneribus, by translation to sla and putte to deathe many of the citelens.
 Cruentari scelere, to be dyspayned or dishonored by some naughty acte.
 Cruentus, a, um, blouddy, cruell, fleshed.
 Cruentia victoria, a cruell victorie, wherein many men be slayne on both sydes.
 Vox cruenta, and Cruentia oratio, a cruell and blouddie sentence.
 Bello cruentior ipso, more cruell and bloudde.
 Crumena, a, f. g. a pourse.
 Cruma, loke Crisma.
 Cruor, oris, ma. ge. bloudde: whiche cometh out of a wounde.
 Crunos, an hanen of Thrace.
 Cruppellarij, certayne souldiours or swoorde plaiers, so armed with whole harness of yron, that they coulde neyther dooe nor take hurte.
 Tacitus, li. 3.
 Cruricrepida, they that bee settred or gyred.
 Crurifragium, i, neu. gen. breshynge of the legges.
 Crurules, lum, hoses or ornamente for the legges.
 Crus, cruris, that parte of the legge, that is from the knee to the anke, called the thanke.
 Distorta crura, crooked legges.
 Crus arboris aut vitis, the stocke or bodie of the tree or vyne benethe the bowes.
 Crisculum, li, n. g. a littell or small legge.
 Crisma, atis, n. ge. a pympber, whereon women and maidens do plaie with their fingers.
 Crusta, a, f. ge. the vpper parte of euery thyng that is not eaten, also the scurf or scabbe of a wound, also playster of a walle, the harde scale or crust that any thyng is couered with, bullions or ornamente of plate, whiche may be taken of.
 Marmoris crusta, hardes of marble, wherewith they used to playster theyr walles.
 Crusta parietum, the parieting of walles.
 Crustarius, i, ma. g. a pargettour, or he that couereth walles with hardes or such lyke thyng.
 Crustaceus, a, um, that hath a scale, a cruste, or harde couerynge, or wherupon playster or thyne hardes of stone be laied.
 Crustata animalia, beastes that haue scales or harde couerynges.
 Crusto, aui, are, to laie playster or parget, or settell thynne hardes of stones on walles: And to sette bullions of siluer or golde about cuppes, to garnyshe theim.
 Crustosus, a, um, that hath an harde cruste or scale.
 Crustula, la, f. g. a diminutive of Crusta.
 Crustularius, ri, m. g. a paster.
 Crustulata, a meate made of crustes of bread.
 Crustulum, li, n. g. a diminutive of Crustum, a wafer or lyke thyng, that men geue to children.
 Crustum, ti, n. g. a crust, of bread, of a pastie, or of meate roasted, dyed, or fried.

Distringere huius panis crustum, chyppe this bread.

Crustumina pira, peates redde on the one syde.

Crustumium, a towne in Italy.

Crustuminum vinum, wyne of that towne.

Crux, crucis, f. g. a crosse, galowes, or other like. also any thyng that troubleth, greueth, or toz menteth a man.

Agi in crucem, to be hanged.

Cruci dare aliquem, to hange one.

In crucem tollere, and Cruci affigere. To hange vp, or to crucifie.

In malam crucem, with sorowe, with a mys chiefe.

Crymodes febris, a fruer comynge when the lightes are infected of the discafe called ignis sacer.

Crypsorchis, is where a mas stones are remoued out of their place.

Crypta, x, f. g. a vaulte lowe in the grounde.

Crypticus, a, um, secrete or hydde vnder the grounde.

Cryptoporticus, ci, f. g. a place vnder the ground, with wyndowes lyke to a parloure, where men dooe dyne in the sommer tyme for heate: a crowdes, and a close place, compassed about with a wall, lyke the other vnder the ground.

CrySTALLINA, orum, neu. gen. vessell of cuppes of cristall ston.

CrySTALLINUS, a, um, of cristall.

CrySTALLUS, li, for. g. and CrySTALLUM, li, n. ge. a ston called Cristall.

C ANTE T.

CTeatus, the father of Amphimachus, one of the capytaynes of the grekes at the sieg of Troie.

Ctenes, num, n. g. plu. the fortyteeth.

Cteniatus, tri, ma. ge. an horseleache. He that healeth diseases of horses and cattell.

Ctenos, in latine iumentum.

Ctesias, an opatour of Scille.

Ctesiphon, the name of a warkema, which made the great temple of Diana at Ephesus, a worke wonderfull and renoumed throughe the worlde, whiche was after hourned by one Herostatus, onely because he woulde for some deede be spoken of. It is also the name of hym that perswaded the Atheniens to crowne Demosthenes in the theater.

Ctesiphon, is also a towne in Parthia.

Ctesippus, the sonne of Chabrias.

C ANTE V.

CVba, x, f. g. an horse litter or bedde.

Cubario, onis, f. g. a lyng.

Cubarus, us, and Cubitus, us, masc. gen.

a lpytynge on byoode, as an henne dooeth: a lyng downe.

Cubicularis, re, and Cubicularius, a, um, that pertyneth to the chaumber.

Cubicularis vestis, a nyght gowne.

Cubicularius, ri, m. g. a seruante that awayteth in the chaumber, a chaumberelayne, or groome of the chaumber.

Cubiculum, li, n. g. a bedde chaumber.

Cubicus, a, um, square as a dyc.

Cubile, lis, n. g. a bedde. somtyme it is taken for a closette. also an hennes or other byrdes nest, a dogges couche or cannell, a beastes denne.

Cubile saluatorium, a chappell or oratorye, where ymages were sette.

Cubilia ferri eruere, to dyspyyon mynes.

Terra cubile erat Anacharsi, Anacharis vled to lye on the grounde.

Inire cubile alterius, to lye with an other mans wyfe.

Cubilia auaritia alicuius, the neste.

Cubitalis, lis, neut. gene. a foresleeue of a garmente, whiche keuereth the arme from the elbowe downewarde.

Cubitalis, le, om. ge. a cubite hygh.

Cubito, aui, are, to lye often with one.

Cubitor, oris, ma. ge. an ore or horse, which will laie him downe, whan he shoulde woozke.

Cubitus, ti, m. g. & Cubitum, ti, n. g. an elbowe. somtyme a measure called a cubite, that is to saie, one foote and an halfe. but a cubite in geometrie conteyneth. vi. of our common cubites.

Cubitus, us, m. g. a lyng downe.

Cubitus pronus, a lyng flat on the face.

Cubitus supinus, a lyng vpyght.

Cubitus in latus, a lyng on the one syde.

Primus cubitu surgat, postremus cubitu eat, Lette him ryse fyrst and go to bedde laste.

Cubo, bui, are, to lye downe, to kepe ones bedde in chynesse, to lye in chylde bedde. somtyme to lye at the table.

Cubare in faciem, to lie nourselyng on the face.

Cubus, bi, ma. g. a fygure foure square lyke a dice. It is somtyme vled for a dyc.

Cucubo, aui, are, to make a noyse lyke an oule.

Cuculio, onis, ma. gen. a heueryng of the head, whiche men did vse whan they walked in the nyght, a kynde of whoddes.

Cucullatus, a, um, that hath a cappe or hooode.

Cuculus, or Cuculus, li, ma. g. a byrde called a cuckowe. It is also taken for hym that hath to dooe with an other mans wyfe.

Cucullus, li, masc. gene. a hooode, that menn or women dooe weare for the rayne, or whan they mourne. also a coynct of paper that grossers put spice in.

Cucuma, x, f. g. a vessell of brasse or tynne fashioned lyke a cucumer, wherewith bathes were fylled and emptied.

Cucumella, x, a diminuttue of Cucuma.

Cucumer, or Cucumis, eris, m. g. a fruite calsed a cucumber. also a certayne fyne.

Cucumis,

Cucumis sylvestris, called also Cucumis anguinus: of herbaries, Asininus, wilde cucumber, or leppng cucumber.
Cucumis, is also a bullion of copper, sette on bzidels or paytrels of hozles, for an oznamment. Sometime it is taken for a certayne vessel.
Cucumerarium, rij, n. ge. a gardeyne where cucumbers dooe growe or be kepte.
Cucurbita, x, f. g. a fruite called a gourd. also Cucurbita, and Cucurbitula, is a cuppe, wherewith surgians doe drawe out bloudde, with scarifying of the skyn, called cuppyng.
Cucurbita sylvestris, coloquintida.
Cucurbitarium, a place wher gourdies be sowne.
Cucurbitarius, a louer of gourdies.
Cucurbitinus, a, um, lyke a gourd.
Cucurbitula, lx, fœ. ge. a littell gourd. also a scarifying cuppe.
Cucurio, cucuris, iui, ire, to make a noyse lyke a rocke.
Cudo, udi, ere, to stryke as smythes dooe. also to coyne.
Argentum cudere, to coyne moneye, and by translacon, to fynde meanes to geat money.
In me hæc cudetur faba, The peryll of this will lyght on my necke, or I shall beare the blame for this.
Cudon, onis, ma. ge. a cappe of fence, made of a rawe skynne.
Cuias, atis, om. gen. of what secte or countrey. olde wyters vsed Cuiatis & hoc cuiate.
Cuias es tu? what countrey man art thou?
Cuiates philosophi estis? of what secte of philosophers are you?
Cuius, a, um, whole.
Cuium pecus? whose cattell.
Cuia interest, to whom it pertyneth.
Cuiam vocem audio? whose voice do I heare.
Cuiuscunq; modi genus hominum, of all maner of sortes of men, of what sorte so euer.
Cuiusmodi, vndeclined, what, what facion, what maner, of what sorte.
Cuiusmodi homines erunt? what maner of men shall they bee?
Cuiusmodicunque mater sit, what maner of mother so euer she bee?
Cuiusmodi est, suche as it is, of that sorte as it is.
Cuiusdammodi, idem quod Cuiusmodi.
Cuiusquemodi, suche as it is.
Cuiusquemodi sunt, suche as they be.
Vereor enim cuiusquemodi es Rosci, ne ita hunc videâr voluisse seruare: vt tibi omnino non pepercerim: For I feare Roscius (what maner of manne so euer thou arte) lest it bee thought, that I was mynded so to defende hym, that I haue not spared to speake against the ouer freely.
Culcitra, x, fœ. ge. a mattresse, a pallet, a flocke bedde, a feather bedde, or suche lyke.
Culcitra plumea, a feather bedde,

Culcitula, x, f. g. a diminutive, a litle mattresse.
Culcitra, x, a litle flasse, or bundell of woodde vsed in sacrifice.
Culeolus, a diminutive of Culeus.
Culest, vsed of Plautus, for Qualis est.
Culeus, lei, ma. g. among the Romayns was the greatest measure, and receiued .xx. measures called Amphora, whiche amounteth to, 2804. pounde of measure, euer pounde beynge .xii. ounces, of our measure, fise scoze galons. But the true measure of Culeus (after Budis compte) conteyneth, 90. galons of Parise measure, after, 32. ounces to the pint. for Culeus conteineth, 20. Amphoras, euerie Amphora, 48. Sextarios, and Sextarius lacketh of the Parise pint, the sowerth parte, that is, 8. ounces, & is a pint and an halfe of our measure, so that Culeus is of our wine measure, 180. galons.
Culeus was also a sacke of leather, wherinto they that had slayne theyr fathers or mothers were sowne, and with theim also were put a rock, a serpente, and an ape, on lyue, and thowen all together into the riuer of Tiber: And this was the punishment of parricides or murderers of their parentes. Some wyte it Culleus, or Culleum.
Culex, culicis, m. g. a gnatte.
Culicem colant, camelum deglutientes, they straigne a gnatte through their teeth, and swallowe downe a camelle, an apte prouerbe applied by our sauour Christ vnto the pharisees, whiche byd aggrauate small offences, and magnifye greate enormities. It may be nowe vsed against suche persons as seeke out and punyssh the small offendours, and leat the great trespassours agaynst the lawe go quite unpunished. Also theim that are scrupulous in thinges of lyttell importance, and in ambition, auarice, extortion, auoutie, thefte, murder, treason, or heresie: they fynd no daungier of conscience.
Culicis, re, om. gene. that conteyneth the measure Culeus.
Culicij panes, great loues of browne bread.
Culicilega, the byrde called a waggetayle.
Culigna, x, a bolle, or dyshe to drynke of.
Culina, x, f. g. a hytchyn. sometyme the meate that is dyessed.
Culinor, aris, ari, to dooe the office of a cooke.
Culeolum, li, neu. ge. the ryne or vtter thale of a nutte, whiche is greene.
Culmen, inis, n. g. the rouse of an house, the top of any thyng, beane strawe, or thatche of an howse, the highest or principall poynt.
Regale culmen, royall maiestie.
Peruenire ad culmen, to come to the highest.
Culmus, mi, n. g. or Colmus, the rede or strawe of coyne from the roote to the eare.
Culpa, x, fœ. g. an offence done not wyttynge, or not intendyng to do harm, a fault, blame, wite.
Culpam committere, to commyt an offence.
Culpam in alterum conferre, to lay the blame to an

to an other.
 Dare veniam culpæ, to pardon, to forgive.
 Culpa teneri, to be in faulte.
 Absesse a culpa, carere culpa, consortem culpa non esse, non residere in aliquo culpam, in culpa non esse: extra culpam esse, vacare culpa, not to be in the faulte, to be blameles.
 In culpam convertere fortunam, To blame fortune, to lay the faulte vpon fortune.
 Liberare aliquem culpa, to declare that one is not in the faulte.
 Luere culpam, to satisfie or be punished for an offence done.
 Vitio & culpa dare alicui summam laudem, to laie that to a mannes reproche and blame, that is worthe great prayse.
 Culpa in te residet, The faulte resteth vpon you.
 Simili sunt in culpa, they be in lyke faulte, or they be no lesse to be blamed.
 Culpa habet a me procul est, this chaunced not through my defaulte: or I am nothing guilty in this matter.
 Is in culpa sit, let him be blamed.
 Maxima in eo culpa est, there is a veray grente fault in him, or he is much to be blamed.
 Morrepiare culpam, for satisfaction of an offence, to put to death his murdres.
 Hoc prætexit nomine culpam, He colouryth or couereth his offence or faulte by this name of marriage.
 Sustinere culpam rei, to be blamed.
 Culpa, is vñd in the plurall numbre.
 Culpatio, ðnis, f. g. a blamyng.
 Culpro, auj, are, to blame often, a woide out of vse.
 Culpro, auj, are, to blame, to lay the wyte of faulte on one.
 Culcellarus, a, um, that is sharpe or edged lyke a kullfe.
 Culcellus, li, ma. g. a littell knife, or a whyle.
 Culcris, tri, masc. g. & Cultrum, tri, n. g. a knife, a culter of a plough, and the partie of a shille nexte to the handell.
 Culter venatorius, a woodknife.
 Culter popinarius, a dyssyng knife.
 Culter tonsorius, a rasour.
 Culinus, ðnis, f. m. g. gen. tilling or husbandinge of the grounde.
 Culinus, ðris, ma. g. an husband man that tpylth the ground, or one that inhabiteth any place.
 Cultor veritatis, an honest playne man without gyle or fraude.
 Cultrarius, rij, masc. gen. was he that kylled the beast, and diuided him in sacrifice to ydols. It may bee now taken for a slaughter man.
 Cultricus, a, um, that cutteth lyke a knife.
 Cultrix, icis, the feminine of Cultror.
 Cultrum, ti, neu. gene. a thyng that is tyllid or husbanded.
 Cultura, rz, f. g. husbandyng of the ground, teylyng.

 Cultus, us, ma. gen. apparayle, deckyng, tpyng myng. sometyms seruys: sometyms honoure doone to god.
 Cultus vite, lare thyng of a mannes estate and lyfe, with all honeste commodities and pleasures.
 Cultus agrorum, labouryng, tpyng husbandyng of the grounde.
 Cultus hominis, the ornament and instruction of a man of better and knowlage.
 Cultus, a, um, decked, tpyng, apparayled, tilled, straped, well husbanded.
 Culullus, li, an earthen cuppe, such as the galtee cuppes be, or a little chalice or cuppe of earth, whiche the byshop vñd in sacrifice.
 Cum, with, a proposition seruyng to the ablas tyue case.
 Cum dicto, foloweth with a thing.
 Cum imperio est, he beareth a rule.
 Cum maxime, especially.
 Cum maxime, as much as.
 Cum potestate est, he is in authoritie, and in an high officer.
 Cum primis, betaye. Cum primis nobilibus, betay noble.
 Cum stomacho, disdainfully.
 Cum tempore, in a certayne space.
 Recordari cum animo, to remembre, or to resuoule in his mynde.
 Statutum cum animo habere, to be determyned in his mynde.
 Cum populo agere, to demaunde or aske of the people, what they wolde haue doone in the matter.
 Cum tua pace, sayng your displeasure.
 Cum venia tuaz, with your licence.
 Cum causa facere, to dooe a thyng for some shyll or consyderacion.
 Cum cura legere, to reade attentively with diligence.
 Cum catenis esse, to be in cheynes.
 Cum diluculo, or cum prima luce, abitt, or departed as sone as the dale appered.
 Cum decimo, ager effert, The fildes yeldeth ten for one.
 Cum fide, persolueret, to paie truly and faithfully every pennie.
 Cum magna fide vir, a veraye sure and trustie man.
 Cum bona gratia dimittere aliquem, to dismyt one, so that he is well content with vs.
 Cum laetitia viuere, to lyue in ioy and miche.
 Cum bona spe adolescentis, betaye towardly yonge men.
 Cum bona venia audire, to here patiently, or without displeasure.
 Cum eo, so that, on that condicion.
 Obsequar voluntati tue, cum eo ne dubites &c. I will obeie your mynde, so that, or on that condicion ye wyl not doubt, &c.

Cum,

Cum, is sometyne an aduerbe, sometyne a conjunction, and signifieth whan, whyles, where, where as, seynge that, for as muche, as well.

Cum mihi tum illi, as well to me as to him.
In Cum, is somethyng lesse vnderstanded, in Cum, some thyng more.

Quod cum omnibus confitendum est, tum nobis precipue, whiche thyng ought to be confessed of all men, and of vs mooste specially.

Cum, signifieth an beuall, cum totum vultu.

Nam cum sedulo munditer nos habemus, vix egre amatorculos inuenimus, although we apoynt vs neuer so cleanly: per vnueth tynde we any louers. Whan it signified whan, where, and for as muche, the auncient wyrtters wrote it Quom, & Quam, in dale hollid ad adpud.

Cum, whan Tamen foloweth, moost commonly signifieth where as, all though, all be it.

Cum, seynge that: as, Cum haec ita sint, tanto magis te aduigilare equum est, Seynge that these thynges be so, it is good reason that you take so muche the more heed.

Cum hoc non possum, illud minus possem, Seynge I can not dooe this, muche lesse can I dooe that other thyng.

Cum, for quod, as, Tibi maximas gratias ago, cum tantum mea littere potuerunt, I thanke you hertily, that my letters coulde dooe so muche with you.

Cum, for preterquam quod, as, cum vno ore omnes omnia bona dicere &c. Besyde that this was to me very pleasant, all my neighbours also so, with one accord.

Cum, for Quia, or Quandoquidem, after Donato, Cum propter summum ingenium, tum propter singularem modestiam, so well for his excellent witte, as especially for his singular modestie.

Luxuria vero cum omni aetate turpis, tum festiue fardissima, so vncleanly luste is a foule thyng in every age: so especially in olde men it is mooste fylthy.

Or, lechery in verbe is a foule vice at all tymes: yet in age it is moost vnhonest, or though it be vnhonest in all ages yet in olde age it is mooste dishonest.

Cum, sens that: as, lam biennium est cum ille mecum esset: capiti. It is now two yeres sens that he came first to me.

Dia est cupidines exciderunt, it is longe or a great while sence.

Dies hanc multi intercesserant cum legati venerunt, There passed not many daies, but that the ambassadours came.

Cum for In quo, as, Utinam illum diem videam, cum tibi gratias agam, I pray god I maie ones see that daie, wherein I maie geue you thanks.

Aphempe Tempus erit cum, &c.

Cum dare potuerit, sometyne in the stulle

lwe for cum dederit.

Praefertim cum se feruam fateatur totum, et specially seynge he geuureth hym selfe to be your seruaunt.

Cum minimum, at the least.

Cum primum statim, by and by, as soone as.

Cum plurimum, for the mooste part.

Vel cum tardissime seprimo, Or whan it cometh moost slowly, on the seuenth daie.

Cumago, Come, es, a towne of Ionia, in the lesse Asia, wherof Sibilla Lamea was named.

Cuma, Arunt, a citie in Campania.

Cumani, are also a people in Colus, aboue Act.

mbas, of whom the proverbe goeth, Sero sapiamie Cumani, or cumani, or cumani, or cumani.

Cumanus, or Cumaeus, a man of that citie.

Cumarius, is, a blew of this colour.

Cumba, looke Cuba.

Cumbo, is, ere, was used of olde wyrtters to be downe, out of vse.

Cumera, is, a great vessell, eyther of wyther, or of earth, wherein cosse was kept.

Cumerum, ri, n. g. a vessell used at weddinges.

Cuminum, ni, n. g. an herbe and seede called Cu-mine, which was wont to be sowed with cueling.

Cumuni, Bygone in France.

Cumulare, abundantly, with large measure.

Cumulare planum aliquid facere, to make a thyng as playne and manifest as ned to be.

Cumulatum, by heaped, or heaped up.

Cumulatus, a, um, augmented, heaped, abundant.

Cumulatum gaudium, ample ioye.

Locus cumulatus, a place, wherein lyeth a great heape of thynges.

Cumulatorius scelerum, a verie naughty

felowe, full of mischief and lewdnesse.

Cumulator gloria, gredder honoz and renome.

Cumulator gratiam referre, to requyte ones genylnesse becaie abundantly.

Cumulo, aui, are, to make an heape, to sell, to adde more to.

Cumulare & augere, to cumulate, to augere.

Non possum, non cōsiteri, cumulari me maximo gaudio quod. &c. I can not choose, but confesse, that I am exceeding gladde for that.

Cumulare gaudium, to encrease ones ioye or gladnesse.

Cumulari gaudio, to be exceeding ioyous and gladde.

Africanus eloquentia cumulanit bellicam

gloriam, Africanus with his eloquence, byd greattely augment the glory of his knightly pro-wesse, or Africanus beside his prowess and glory in warrefare, was of notable eloquence.

Cumulare sibi inuidiam, to make ones selfe greatly spied or hated.

Nunc meum cor ira cumularat, Now am I exceeding angry.

Laudibus aliquem cumulare apud alios, to praise a man greatly.

Cumulare scelus, scelere, to heape mischief upon bypon mischief.

 Cumulare benefacta, to dooe pleasure bypon pleasure.
 Publicæ necessitudinis pignora priuatis cumulat officijs, Quer and besyde the tokens of that loue and frendshipp, whiche we haue together for the common weales sake: he sheweth to me many frendly pleasures in our ppyuate affayres.
 Cūmulus, li, ma. gen. an heape: And by translation, the encrease, augmentation, or plentie of any thyng. Sometyme a waue of water.
 Tux literæ cūmulum gaudij mihi attulerunt, your letters haue made me excedyng glad.
 Vt tantus cūmulus accedat mea commendatione, That so muche mate be added thorough my commendation.
 Ad summam lætitiā meam, quam ex tuo redditu capio, magnus huius aduentu cūmu-lus accedit, The gladnesse that I haue for your retourne, whiche is so great, that almost it can not be moze, is muche encreased by the comynge of this man.
 Cūnabula, orum, n. g. plu. tantum, idem quod
 Cūnæ, arum.
 Cūnabula auium, brydes nestes.
 A primis cūnabulis, euen from his infancie.
 Vbi gentis nostræ cūnabula, in whiche place
 our nation had the fyrst begynnyng.
 Cūnæ, arum, plura. tantum, cradels, wherein chyldzen bee rocked. Sometyme it is taken for the age of infancie. also for the begynnyng of thynges.
 Cūctābundus, slowe, lynyng.
 Cūctāns, prolongyng, deferyng, lynyng, doubtyng.
 Cūctānter, slowly, softely and sayte.
 Haud cūctānter, forthwith, by and by, without delay.
 Cūctatio, ōnis, f. g. a taryng or abydyng, a prolongyng of tyme, a doubtyng, lynyng.
 Eximere cūctationem, to put out of doubt.
 Abiecta omni cūctatione, without any moze taryng or lynyng.
 Inijcere cūctationem, to make one be in a stur-
 die, whether he shall doe a thyng or no.
 Cūctatio, & mora. Cūctatio & dubitatio.
 Cūctātor, ōtis, masc. gene. a taryer, a deferyrer, a lynyng, a prolonger of tyme. It is als so he that speaketh lyytell, and taryeth long in his speakyng.
 Cūctātor & tardus. Cūctātor & segnīs.
 Cūcti, all together, full and whole.
 Cūcto, aui, are, is vsed actiuelly of Plautus.
 Hesitare, cūctare, & dubitare.
 Cūctor, āris, ari, to tary to prolonge tyme, to abyde, to doubte.
 Cūctus, a, um, all together, full and whole.
 Cūneatim, wedge wise, by littell bandes or panies, imbattayled wedge wyse.
 Cūneātus, a, um, that whiche appereth to be in the salde fourme of a wedge.

 Cūneo, aui, are, to make in fourme of a wedge.
 Also to ioyne or fasten in buydyng, as one toppe of stone is cocketted within an other.
 Hispania cūneatur angustis, Spayne hath many streetes or corners lyng out wedgewyse.
 Cūneolus, li, ma. g. a diminutive of Cūneus.
 Cūneus, nei, m. g. a wedge to cleare wood with small and thynne befoze, and brode and thicke after. By translation it is a company of footmen in battayle, that goeth in a lyke order, small befoze and brode behynde. There was a lyke fourme in the Theatre or place, where menne be helde plaies. It is sometyme taken for a company of people.
 Cūneus ager, a promontory of Portugall.
 Cūniculāria, littell ples in the myddell sea.
 Cūniculārius, ri, ma. ge. a mynour, he that myn-neth vnder the earth.
 Cūniculātim, by holes or mynes vnder the erth,
 or after the facion of a pyper.
 Cūniculōsus, a, um, full of mynes or holes vnder the ground, or full of conies.
 Cūniculus, a diminutive of Cūneus.
 Cūniculus, li, m. g. a beast called a conie. also an hole in the ground, a myne vnder the earth:
 sometyme a pyper of leade.
 Agere cūniculos, to myne vnder the ground.
 Cūniculis oppugnare, by translation to goe about a mattier couertly, by gyle or deceipt.
 Cūniculis hostium cūniculos excipere, to countremyne, to myne agaynst other to meete them.
 Cūnila, cūnilæ, f. g. an herbe, wherof be. iiii. kind-des: One is called Capitata, whiche is oure sauerie. An other Gallinacea, whiche some dooe call Origanum, Heracleoticum, in englishe the maioran, whiche hath the small leafe. The thirde is that, whiche is also called Origanum, whiche I suppose to bee peny for all with the brode leafe.
 Cūnilāgo, inis, f. g. a kynde of sauerie.
 Cūnina, the goddesse of infantes.
 Cūnire, to myne.
 Cūnnus, a womans wickette.
 Cupa, æ, f. g. a cuppe. also a great wyne vessell,
 a tonne or pyper.
 Cupēdia, æ, f. g. the desyre of deyntie fare.
 Cupēdia, ōrum, n. g. plu. delicate meates.
 Cupedinārius, ri, ma. ge. an housholder that sellet
 meate and drynke, a vitayler.
 Cupedo, pedinis, idem quod Cupido, and Cuspiditas.
 Cupēdula, læ, fam. gen. delicate meate, or deyntie fare.
 Cupes, delicate meate. also a deyntie mouthed fe-lowe, one that deylteth in deyntie fare.
 Cupherion, flux of bloudde at the nose, whiche
 (as Vegetius saith) chaunseth often to horses, whiche be galoped to farre.

Cupide,

Cupide, desirously, greedily, with great affection, gladly.
 Cupiditas, âtis, f. g. desyre, conetousnesse. Some-tyme dishonest loue.
 Reuertit cupiditas cibi, I am a hungred
 agayne.
 Ardere cupiditate, to desyre exceedingly.
 Coercere cupiditates, to moderate the affections.
 Injicere cupiditatem hominibus, to make men desirous.
 Cupiditas & auaritia.
 Studia cupiditatisque honorum.
 Cupido, inis, mas. gen. the sonne of Venus, god of loue.
 Cupido, inis, f. g. sometyme. m. g. desyre, conet-tousnesse of any thyng.
 Auri cæcus cupido, blynde desyre of money.
 Cupido cepit me, I was desirous.
 Illum incescit cupido, he had a mynde of fans-tasie.
 Cupidines, in the plurall numbze.
 Cupidus, a, um, desirous, couetous, sometyme that loueth or fauoreth earnestly, desirous to be in ones company, glad and sayne.
 Cupidus & moderatus, contrary.
 Cupidissimus mei, my veray frende.
 Cupiens, entis, he that desyreth a thyng.
 Cupiens tui est, he loueth the hartly.
 Cupienter, with great desyre.
 Cupio, iui, ere, pitum, to desyre vehemently, to wyshe, to couete, to be sayne, to haue a greate affection, to will well to one, to be muche desy-rous, to be right sayne.
 Cupere & optare.
 Nimis quam cupio, I desyre vehemently, I haue great affection, I woulde veray sayne.
 Cupio omnia quæ tu vis, I am ready to dooe you pleasure or seruyce, in what matter soeuer you will haue me.
 Cupit te conuentum, he desyreth to speake
 with you.
 Cupio matrem reuisere, I woulde sayne goe
 see my mother agayne.
 Ego Fundanio non cupio? Am not I ready or dooe I not desyre to dooe any pleasure for Fundanius?
 Omnia alicuius causa cupere, to be glad and ready to dooe all the pleasure in the worlde for
 a man.
 Cuius causa omnia cum cupio, tum me hercule etiam debeo, For whose sake I am not onely ready to dooe all the pleasures in the worlde, but also that moze is, I ought, and am bound so to dooe.
 Cupire in quarta, apud antiquos.
 Cupitor, ôris, ma. g. one that desyreth or wolde
 sayne haue a thyng.
 Cupitus, a, um, desyred, coueted.
 Cupra, a towne in Italy.

Cupressetum, ti, neu. gen. a place where Cypres dooe growe.
 Cupressifer, a, um, that beareth Cypres trees.
 Cupressinus, a, um, and Cupressicus, of Cy-pres tree.
 Cupressus, si, or us, f. g. a cypres tree.
 Cupreus, a, um, of copper.
 Cuprum, i, n. g. metall called copper.
 Cur, wherfoze, or why. sometyme with interrogation. sometyme without.
 Cura, æ, fœ. g. care, thoughte, studie, diligence,
 wathe or labour. also loue.
 Dare aliquid curæ corporis, to employ some parte of tyme to cherishe his helth.
 Insomnes curæ, that hepe from sleape.
 Confedit cura, the care of heuynesse is asswaged.
 Cura est, negotij quid sit, I am solicitous,
 what the matter is.
 Curæ habere, Curæ esse, to care for.
 Curas adimere, to put out of care.
 Curam figere, infigere, configere, defigere,
 to sette care or studie on a thyng.
 Curis laxari, to be out of care.
 Cura & diligentia.
 Antiquissima cura, the chiefe and principal care.
 Adhibere curam in re aliqua, to take good hede, to bee carefull and diligent in a matter.
 Cura aliquem afficere, and Curam injicere alicui, to make one solicitous, carefull or heauy.
 Delegare curam alicuius rei alicui, to commyt
 the charge of a thyng to one.
 Leuare aliquem cura, to diminishe ones care
 or heauynesse.
 Hæc mihi cura nunc maxima est, This is the thyng that I am now most carefull for.
 Fecerunt curam, they tooke hede.
 Fluctuat æstu curarum, or vndis curarum, he is soze disquieted with diuers matters: or he is veray solicitous and carefull.
 Cura aliquem liberare, to put one out of care.
 Abigere curas, to dypue awaie care.
 Cura consumi, & confici, to consume and pine awaie with thought and care.
 Curantia, idem quod Curatio.
 Curare, carefully, diligently.
 Curatio, ônis, fœ. ge. an healyng or turyng, specially of phisitions, a diligent tending or cures-syng: an office, a cure or charge, a commission appoynted to a man.
 Curatio & administratio rerum, The charge and administracion of thynges.
 Curationem deferre ad aliquem, to appoynt and assigne the cure and charge of a thyng to
 a man.
 Curatio mea est, it is mine office or charge.
 Curator, ôris, m. g. a gardiane in forage, or he to whom the custodie of a madde or foolyshe man is comitted, he that hath the custodie of a ward.
 also he to whom any thyng is committed to surueie, or to prouyde thynges necessary for the weate publike, or to order suche thynges as he hath selfe. When he was accused of withholding of monie, he brought forth a iron barrell, whiche he occupied when he dyd sacrifice: and tooke a solenne othe, that of all the praye that was gotten of theim, whom he banquished, he kepte

 no more but that barrell to his owne use.
 Curmunda, a poore, or rather an hebe, haung in thyng a rynde, that men used to ease it with out pulling.
 Curo, cure, to cure for a thyng, to take hede to,
 or be diligent about a thyng, to see what to be doing of a thyng, to prouide, to passe for, some tyme to prepare, to heale one that is sicke, to take refectiō or comfort, to purney.
 Medicaminibus curari, to be healed by medicines.
 Cura ut valeas, loke to thy health.
 Curasti probe, Thou haste doone every thyng well, thou hast sene well to the matter.
 Curabo, I will dooe my diligence.
 Curabo illi pecuniam, I will prouide, that he shall haue monie.
 Curabitur, it shall be prouided, it shall be done with diligence.
 Curare xdes, to take hede to the house, that nothyng be lost.
 Huic mandes, si quid recte curatum velis, If ye well haue a thyng well husbanded, committe it to this mans ordering.
 Curare equos, to kepe and dresse horses.
 Curare ocreas, to dresse bootes.
 Curare aliena, to meddle with other mennes
 matters.
 Ciceronem cedere domo & patria curasti, thou hast so wrought or prouided, that Cicero is constrained to forsake his.
 Adhuc curauit hoc vnum quidem, vt mihi es-set fides, I haue alwaies hytherunto bene cared full for this one thyng.
 Curare amicos, to entertayne frendes or ac-quayntaunce.
 Mea mandata de domo curabis, you shall see to those thynges, whiche I willed you to dooe concernynge my house.
 Curare mandata alicuius, to see to those thyngges, that one gaue him in charge to doe.
 Curare faciendum, to cause or make it to bee done.
 Curare fidem, to kepe promise.
 Curare munus suum, to dooe his office.
 Legatis imperat, vbi quisque curaret, he telleth his leutenantes, where euery one of their charges did lye.
 Non curat redire, he passeth not whether he come againe or no.
 Te curasti molliter, thou haste cherished thy selfe well.
 Cura asseruandum vinctum, see that he bee
 kepte fast in prons.
 Quid me curas, quid rerum geram, what hast thou to dooe? or what carest thou what I go about?

Quidam, suamque vitam bene curant, which make much of them selfe, and leade their lyfe pleasantly.
 Curare rebus alienis in vestimento & cibo, to serue an other man for nothyng, and sende himselfe to spende his meate and drinke and apparell in an other mans seruice.
 Curare prandium, to make ready dinner.
 Curare xdes, hanc. Least these thynges be well done, or wel handled.
 Mederi & curare, to be healed with more grece and payne.
 Curare cutem, to make good chere, to cheere the
 hym selfe.
 Curare corpora sua somno & cibo, to cherishe their bodies with meate, drinke, and slepe.
 Currere, he that runneth.
 Currere in citare, to exhort or sette him forwarde, that of his owne courage is well disposed to a thyng.
 Currulo, quickly.
 Currulo percurrere, renne quickly.
 Curriculum, li, nage, a diminutiue of Currus, a littell carre or chariot, a shorte space of tyme.
 also a rennyng place. Sometime a rennyng or a course. And by a metaphore, a matter, wherein one is conuersant, and well exercised, sometime fame or prayse.
 Curriculum, is used of Cicero, for the auncient maner of iudgeynge or geuyng sentence in the Senate.
 Curriculum vnum facere, to renne one race.
 Curriculum solis & lunæ, the course of the sonne and moone.
 Currulo celeritate, to renne apace.
 Curriculum vitæ, the space of ones lyfe.
 Curriculum mentis, matter, wherein the minde is exercised.
 Curriculum industriæ, a cause or matter, wherein a mans studye or industrie is shewed or proued.
 Quartum curriculum obtinere à diu o Iulio Mamartina vina, that wyne had the fowerth prayse geuen to it: as was prayled to be the best sayng thre.
 Quum de currulo petitionis deflexisses, after that ye leste to lye with other for offices and dignities in the common weale.
 Curro, cucurri, rere, to renne. also to flowe as ryuers doe. It is also to passe awaie faste as wyppes doe.
 Currere subsidio, to renne to succour.
 Placido currere fluctu, to sayle prosperously.
 Aetas currit, the age passeth.
 Nox inter pocula currit, The nyght passeth awaie whiles they drinke merrily.
 Curritur, the impersonall.
 Ad me curritur, they renne or resort to me.
 Curruca, ca, f. gea litle byrd, which hatcheth and byngeth by cuckow byrdes. It is supposed to be be an hedge sparrowe, or rather a tytyng.

Curus, us, m. g. a rarte, a waggen or chariot. In Grepple it is sometyme bled for the carte hoyses.
 Also by a metaphore it is bled for a triumphe.
Agere currum, to dypue a carte, or chariot, or waggen.
Cursum, rennyng with all speede, verie speedily,
 rennyngly, hastily.
Cursum legeré, to reade a pale, to reade roundly.
Cursum, and Sensum, contrary.
Cursum, & breuiter aliquid attingere, to touc
 the a thyng bryefly and in fewe woordes.
Currito, aui, are, to renne often.
Curso, aui, are, to renne alwaies or often, to renne aboute hyther and thither.
Cursor, oris, ma. gen. he that renneth in poste, a rartour, a lackaye.
Armillati cursores, postes.
Cursorius, a, um, pertaynyng to rennyng.
Cursum, a, f. g. a course.
Cursum, us, m. g. a course, a rennyng, a maner of lypnyng, a trade or pprocess in a mans affayres.
Cursum vitæ, the course & short space of the lyfe.
Cursum eunt in hac sententiam, they agree gladly to this sentence or opinion.
E cursu ipso reuocauit voluntas tua, your wil or pleasure called me backe whan I was well entred.
Quamquam vos iam pridem estis in cursu, althoughe that you be all redy well entred in the matter.
Omnis omnium cursus est ad vos, the resort or refuge of all men is to you: Or, all men resozte and flee to you.
Cursus honorum, the tyme that one beareth rule or authozitee in the common weale.
Ad honorem eo cursu venit, qui semper paruerit omnibus, he came to honour or aduans-cement by that waie or meane, that hath euere bene open to all men.
Cursum atque exitum rei perspicere, to for-see & perceiue what waie thynges wyll goe forwarde, and to what ende they wyll come.
Cursum tenere, to holde on the course that one hath begun.
Mihi cursus in Græciam est per tuam pro-uinciam, I must take a iourney into Grece by your prouince.
Curtius, a famous Romayne, which for the weale of his cuntry, caste hym selfe into a gapyng quare of the earth.
Curto, aui, are, to make shorte or dimynish.
Curtus, a, um, shorte, littell or small.
Curta supellex, littell or small substance.
Curta sententia, an vnperfite sentence that lacketh somewhat.
Curuamen, inis, n. ge. a crookednesse or bending.
Curuatio, onis, f. g. a bootwying or crookwying.
Curuatura, a, f. g. idem.
Curuatus, a, um, bended, boowed, croked.
Curuca, a, f. g. a bird, in whose neck the cuckow

(as Aristotle saith) doth lay his egges, a tytyng.
Curuico, scere, to be croked.
Curupes, uipedis, com. ge. he that hath a cro-ked foote.
Curulis, and Curula, wer littell cartes or dreyes, haung in them chayers of yuooy, wherin they satte, which were heade officers of Rome, especially the ediles: sometyme it is bled of poetes for the same officers.
Curulis, le, the adiectiue: as,
Curulis cella, a chayer of estate.
Curuo, aui, are, to bowe or make crooked.
Curuus, a, um, crooked, boowed.
Cuscuta, a, f. g. a weede, whiche twineth about herbes, haung a redde stalle.
Cuso, the frequentatiue of Cudo.
Cuspidatim, poyntyng, or poyntwysle.
Cuspidatus, a, um, poynted.
Cuspides, is bled for earthen pyres.
Cuspido, aui, are, to poynte or make sharpe at the ende.
Cuspis, idis, f. g. sometyme signifieth the point of a weapon: sometyme the Steele: sometyme the speare heade.
Custodia, a, f. g. the custodie, keepyng or ward:
 sometyme he that kepeth: sometyme he that is kepte: sometyme the pyson, or place, where any thyng is kepte, a wathe, also the place where the wathe men be.
Publica custodia, a common pyson.
Priuaa custodia, a priuate warde, whan one man is committed to the keepyng of an other.
Custodio, stodis, iui, iri, to kepe, to obserue, to retaine.
Custodire modum, to kepe measure.
Morem custodire, to kepe the custome, fasson or maner.
Memoria custodire, to kepe in memoize.
Custodiendum est, we must obserue & beware Custodire & obseruare aliquem, to marke and wathe one that he dooe no harme.
Custodit nomen loci hac herba, this herbe reteyneth or kepeth stil the name of the place.
Custodire literis, to kepe in wrytyng.
Custodire parsimoniam, to kepe and obserue
 a certayne sobyietee in dypnyng and eatyng.
Custodire, sagely, takyng good heed.
Custoditio, onis, f. g. a keepyng.
Custoditus, a, um, kepte.
Custos, odis, com. ge. a keeper, a wathe, a war-depne, a gardian. Also he that is assystent to any accusor, not onely to helpe hym, but to see that he bee not corrupted. In bynes it is the younge branche that is cutte of, haung. ii. or. iii.
 budde.
Ad limina custos, a porter.
Custos gregis, a sheparde.
Custos ianitrix, a woman porter.
Custos exactor, the ouer seer of any worke or busines that is to be doone with diligence.
Cuticula, a, f. g. a thynne skynne.

C ANTE V.

Cutiones, they, whiche in tellyng, make many piz-ces as they come to a poynte.
Cutis, tis, f. ge. the skynne, also a thynne rinde.
Curara cute homo, grosse and well fedde.
Curare cutem, to make good there.
Cutis vuae, the skynne of huske of a grape.
Cutis arboris, the bark of a tree.
Cutis terræ, the upper parte of the earth.
Cuturnium, a vessell, out of whiche wyne was powzed in sacrifices.

C ANTE Y.

CYamea, α, f. ge. a stone, which beyng broken, is lyke a beane.
Cyamus, mi, ma, gen. a beane, also a certain cuppe.
Cyane, es, a mayden of Syracusa, who beyng rauided of hir owne father, drewe hym afterwarde by the heare to be sacrificed: and was hir selfe kylled vpon his bodye, to seale the penitence that Bacchus had sent for that abhominable acte.
Cyaneæ, plandes of rather rocks vnder Bos-phorus Thracius.
Cyaneë, or Cyanea, a nymphe, the daughter of the ryuer Meandrus.
Cyaneus, & Cianus, a, um, of a bypghte blew colour, lyke a saphyre loupe.
Cyanippus, a man of Syracusa, that rauished his owne daughter Cyane.
Cyanus, ni, m. g. a blew floure growyng among roze, called a blew bottell. It is also a precious stone called a turquoyse. also a byrde called Ceruleo, loke there.
Cyaraxes, the sonne of Phraortes, kyng of Persia and Media, father of Astages.
Cyathisso, au, are, to syppe, or to quaffe all out,
or halues: Or rather to fyll out drynke to one,
to serue one of drynke in his cup.
Cyathus, thi, ma. g. a cuppe. it is also a measure, conteynyng of oyle one vnce and an halfe: of wyne, one vnce. v. drammes, and one scruple:
Of hony, two vnces and an halfe also a certayne
poule of weight, of. 16. drammes.
✱ Cyathus, after Budei and Clarian, the. xii.
parte of Sextarius, that is. ii. vnces measure, or after Fuchsius and phisicians, accomptyng
but. xliii. vnces to Sextarius, Cyathus is an vnce and an halfe.
Ad Cyathos stare, to attende on ones cuppe.
Cybea, α, f. g. a kynde of great shippes.
Cybele, les, or Cybeles, lis, or after some Cy-belle, the wyfe of Saturne, named of paynyms the mother of the goddis, whiche hath dyuers other names, as shall appere in their places.
Cibindus auis, a byrde, whiche is enemye to the egle. Erasmus saith, it is Accipiter noctur-nus, the night hauke.
Cybister, éris, ma. g. a certayne tumbler or dancer, whiche tumblyth rounde.

C ANTE Y.

Cybiſtēma, áris, neu. gen. the maner of theſe tumblyng.
Cyblum, bi, a ſphe, which is ſoure ſquare. It is also a meaſure called quadantall. Loke there.
Cyborium, ij, n. g. loke Ciborium.
Cyclades, the ſyſie ples in the ſea called Aegeum.
Cycláminus, ni, f. g. or Cycláminum, ni, n. g.
an herbe called of the latines Rapum, Tuber terræ, of ſome Vmbelicus terræ, of the Spo-theraries Panis porcinus: an other is of the ſame name, whiche they call Sigillum Mariae, it is named in engliſhe rape violet.
Cyclas, cycladis, f. g. a womans gowne with a longe trayne, veray thynne and ſclender in maner of a veyle.
Cycloborus, a riuer of Attica, ſwift and violent.
Cyclopædia, the learnyng and knowledge of all ſciences.
Cyclops, ópis, m. g. an auncient people inhabi-tyng the yle of Syſile, whiche were lyke yggantes, hauyng but one eye in theyr foreheads.
Cyclus, cli, m. g. a round place in Athens, where thynges were ſolde, also a coyne or poyle.
Cycnus, a capitayne of the Agurians, who bee-wraylyng the death of Phaeton, was turned into a ſwanne.
Cýdarum, ri, n. g. a bote.
Cydias, a peynter, whiche peincted the Argos nautes.
Cydnus, a ryuer in Cilicia, whiche renneth from the great mountayne Taurus, & paſſeth through the citee Charſos, whiche ryuer is ſo colde, that whan the great Alexander in his iourneye agaynſt Darius, went into it to reſteſſe hym, he was ſo mortified with colde in all his bodye, that he ſhulde haue dyed, had not that excellent and faithfull phisicion Philip recouered him.
Cydon, one of the notable townes of Landy, also a man of Cozynth, whiche kepte ſo great hoſ-pitalitee, that thereof grew a pꝛouerbe.
Cydonea, an yle by Aetbos.
Cydonium, ni, n. g. a quince pear.
Cygneus, a, um, of a ſwanne.
✱ Cygnea cantio, a ſonge of a ſwanne. A pꝛouerbe applied vnto them, that in their later daies, diſpute, reaſon, or wypte moſt eloquently and pleaſantly.
Cynólogus, is bled of ſome for one that ſingeth
pleaſantly and ſweetly, lyke a ſwanne.
Cygnus, or Cycnus, ni, m. g. a ſwanne.
Cyleno, the daughter of Atlas, and mother of Pycteus.
Cylicrani, a people of Spayne.
Cylindraceus, a, um, that is in ſourme lyke a langat or a roller.
Cylindrus, dri, ma. ge. an inſtrument, whiche is longe and rounde lyke a pyllar, and turneth, wherwith the cloddes of earthe are broken, called commonly a roller. It is also any thyng that is eaſy to be rolled or tumbled.

Clindri,

Cylindri, be also littell small stones, longe and round lyke a roller.
 Cylisma, Ais, n. g. a rolling or tumblyng.
 Cylix, idem quod Calix.
 Cyllarus, the horse of Castor.
 Cyleborus, the sonne of Ethelenus.
 Cyllastris, tris, m. g. barley breadde.
 Cyllene, an hill of Archadie, where they say Mercurius was nourished.
 Cyllenius, one of the names of Mercurie.
 Cylo, onis, m. g. one that is lame and maymed.
 Cylidros, a serpente that rolleth hym selfe as he goeth.
 Cyma, æ, fœm. gen. of Cyma, Ais, n. g. pong colewoortes. Also the tender parte of the stalk of euery herbe.
 Cymatilis, le, of blew colour lyke the sea.
 Cymatilis vestis, a blew garmente, and not chamblette, as some take it.
 Cymba, æ, f. g. a bote.
 Cymbalaris herba, an herbe that groweth in mud walles, haung a leafe like to Iup, but veraye muche lesse, and a littell purple flower.
 Cymbalista, æ, maf. gen. he that plaith upon cimbales.
 Cymbalum, li, n. g. an instrument of musike.
 Cymbalisso, aui, are, to play on the cymbales.
 Cymbium, bij, neu. ge. a peece of cuppe to drinke wyne in.
 Cymbrica Chersonesus, the countrey of Denmark.
 Cyme, a citee of Ieolis.
 Cymes, Sibille, called Cumæa.
 Cuminum, ni, n. g. cummin.
 Cyminus, a lake in Italy.
 Cymodoce, the daughter of Oceanus, and Cethis.
 Cymosus, a, um, that hath a tender stalk.
 Cymothoe, the daughter of Aereus, and wife of Neptune.
 Cyna, æ, a certayne tree in Archadie, wherof they make theyr garmentes. also a cappe that the Lacedemonians vsed to weare.
 Cynaglossus, described of Plinie to haue litte burres, is that, whiche in english is called dogs tonge, or houndes tonge.
 Cynamulgus, a certayne bird in Arabie.
 Cynanthropia, idem quod Lycanthropia.
 Cynæthium, a citee of Archadie.
 Cynamia, æ, a dogflie.
 Cynanche, es, f. ge. a spekenes called the squinke, whiche is in the throte and iawes.
 Cynara, an herbe now called Artichokes.
 Cynasonas, a pyne, wherewith women trym by theyr heare.
 Cyneas, an excellent wyse man, who byng sente from kynge Porphus ambassadour to Rome, the nexte daie after he came thither, he saluted the whole senate & gentylmen by theyr names. Seneca in prologo libri. i. Decla. saith, that he saluted the Senate, and all the people stanz byngt about to beholde him, by theyr names.

 Cynegética, volumes written of hunting.
 Cynegirus, a capitayne of Athens.
 Cynia, idem quod Cynocrambe.
 Cynice, es, fœm. gen. the sette of philosophers called Cynici.
 Cynici, were a sette of philosophers, whiche sig nyfeth doggish, for the sympleude of their edicions. For they barked at all men, and occupied womenne openly, and lyued without any prouision. The fyrst author thereof was Antisthenes, and nexte him folowed Diogenes.
 Cynips, cyniphis, a fue with longe legges, called also Musca canina, a græte, or muge.
 Cyniphis, or Cyniphos, a ryuer of Arike, by the whiche are bredde great gotes.
 Cyniphus, a, um, of that ryuer or of gotes.
 Cyniphia pellis, the skynne of a gote.
 Cynaberis, is that, whiche the apothecaries doo call Sanguis draconis.
 Cynacauma, an inflammation or bournyng, comyng of the bytyng of a madde dogge.
 Cynochala, idem quod Poligonum.
 Cynocéphalus, a beaste lyke an ape, greater and moze puissant, and hath the heade moze lyke a dogge. Diodorus Siculus saith, that in body and fourme, he is lyke to a man, and hath a like uoys. I suppose it to be those, whiche we call Babrons. Horus Apollo wytteth, that they howle. xii. tymes in a daie, and as often in the nyghte, declarynge euery houre of the daye and nyghte by makynge their wyne. Also that the dogge of that kynde so lamenteth the wane of the moone, that durynge the tyme that she is darke, befoze the change, he neuer looketh backward, nor eateth any thyng, but sheweth a countenance of sorowe. Also people vnder the greates Lane, haung heades like dogges, are so called.
 Cynocéphalia, æ, f. g. an herbe, the floure wher of is lyke a dogges head, called of the Latynes, Herba pulicaris, because the seedes bee lyke to fleas.
 Cynocéphalum, idem quod psyllium. Dios.
 Cynocrambe, the herbe Cynia. Dios.
 Cynodontæ, are dogges teethe, whiche doo growe in their latter age.
 Cynoglossa, or Cynoglossos, an herbe called houndes toungue.
 Cynomazon, is interpreted to bee Camalion, whiche put in poysage, doth kyll dogges.
 Cynomorion, called also Orobanche, a weede growyng amonge beanes and peason, and destroyeth them.
 Cynomia, æ, fœ. ge. a flye that doeth sucke the bloude of beastes, some call it an horse fly, all be it by the etymologie of the woorde: it myght be better called a dogge fly. It is also the herbe called Cynocéphalia.
 Cynopolis, a citee, where Anubis was honoured.
 Cynorrhodon, the flower of the red lily.
 Cynorrhodus, f. g. named in latine Rosa canina, that whiche they call swete hyar: or Eglantyne.

 Cynos, in latine Canis, a dogge: Also a citee in Locris.
 Cynosarges, a place in Athens, where children,
 whiche were bastards, were exercised.
 Cynobatos, ti, for. g. the wyld eglantyne, called also dogge hyar.
 Cynosorchis, an herbe called also Orcius, of the apothecaries Testiculum canis, and Satyrion.
 It hath leaues lyke an olyue, softe and lyng on the grounde, the roote is round lyke the stones of a man, loke Orchis.
 Cynosrhodos, eglantyne.
 Cynosura, a figure of Heres in heauen, called Vrsa minor, It was also the name of one of Jupiters nourses.
 Cynofura oua, egges that proue not vnder a foule that lytteth.
 Cynozolon, a synkynge herbe of the kynde of thystelles, the stronge sauoure whereof, causeth
 the tyckes to falle from a dogges eares.
 Cynozon, idem.
 Cynthia, one of the names of Diana.
 Cynthus, an hyll of the plande Delus, where Apollo and Diana were bozne.
 Cyparissa, a citee of Achaia.
 Cyparissia, x, f. g. the fyrst kynde of spurge, the greatest of theym all.
 Cyparissus, the sonne of Telephus, whiche bewayng the death of a tame hynde, slayne by his louer Syluanus, was tourned into a Cyptes tree.
 Cyparissus, si, f. g. a cypres tree.
 Cypérus, ri, ma. g. is that, whiche of the apothecaries, is called Iuncus odoratus, or rather an other lyke vnto it, a kynd of Galingale.
 Cypérus Babylonicus, galyngale.
 Cyperus, & Cyperis, an herbe, hauynge leaues lyke sedges, also a roote lyke gynger.
 Cypria, was one of the names of Venus.
 Cyprinus, a, um, of the tree called Cypres.
 Cyprinum oleum, an oyle made of the tree called Cypres.
 Cyphi, a confection vsed in sacrifice of the priestes of Egypt, made of these thynges folowing, mel, vinum, vuapassa, Cyperus, resina, fese-lis, aspalathus, myrrha, bitumen, iuncus, bryon. &c.
 Cyprinus, a tectayne fysh of the kynde of conger,
 some saie it is a carpe.
 Cyprium, ij, neu, gen. or Cyprium xs, a mettall called copper.
 Cyprium, in the Sabyne tunge signifieth good.
 Cyprius, a, um, of the yle of Cypres.
 Cyprus, an yle in the sea called Carpathium, as gaignst the countrey called Syria, on the northe
 it hath Cilicia: on the southe & the east Egypte.
 It is in length, after the description of Stras-
 bo. 175. myles, after. 8. furlonges to the myle:
 Some suppose it was at the fyrst a porcion of Syria, diuided by erth quakes. This countreie aboundeth in wyne, oyle, mettall, vitriole, and canes, wherof sugar is made. Also Venus was there had in great reuerence, in so muche that men beefore they did set foorthe theyr doughters in marriage, offered them to suche strangers as came into the countrey, to be by theym defloured, & afterwarde married them to husbandes.

 Cyprus, pri, f. ge. a tree, called also Lygustrum,
 looke there.
 Cypsella, a towne of Thate.
 Cypselos, the wake of the eare.
 Cypselus, cypseli, m. g. a hynde called a martlet.
 Cypselus, a kyng of Corinthus, father of Per-rander, one of the seuen sages of Grece.
 Cyprasia, a citee in Galatia, called Carosa.
 Cyrcilus, a man of Athens, who was stoned to death, for perswadyng them to yelde the citee to Heres.
 Cyrema, id est conceptus.
 Cyrenaica, a countrey in Arike called also Pentapolitana. It hath on the west the great Suestis, and the lesse Arike: on the northe the parte of the middell sea called Lybicum: on the east, Maritima: on the south the desertes of Libia, in this were the notable citres, Beronice, Ar-sinoe, Ptolomaies. &c.
 Cyrenaica secta, a secte of philosophers, who affirmed the chiefe felicitie to be in carnall des-lertation, of whom Triskippus was chiefe.
 Cyrenaici canes, dogges engendred of wulfes and dogges.
 Cyribia, orum, chafe of wheate and barley.
 Cyrites panis, fine bread of flower or meale.
 Cyrene, es, or Cyrenæ, arum, a famous citee in Libia: also a citee in the yle of Cypres.
 Cyreneus, a man of that citee.
 Cyrillus, the name of dyuers learned byshops, of the whiche one wrote agaynst Nestorius.
 Cynea, x, f. g. a goblette to drynke wyne in.
 Cynus, the yle, whiche is called Corsica, or Cors-
 se, the people wherof are called Cynij.
 Cyrrellis, a goddesse, worshipped in the countrey called Cyrestica.
 Cyrtha, a towne of Phocis, by the whiche be the fieldes called Cyrthæi campi.
 Cyrthea, a citee in the mountayne of Helycon.
 Cyrserum, ri, n. g. a great shyppe or carrake.
 Cyrus, the name of two ryuers, the one in Armenia, the other in Media.
 Cyrus, a noble kyng of Persia, the son of Cambyses and Mandanes, the daughter of Ariasges, kyng of Media. This man excelled all menne of his time in goodly personage, gen-tlynesse, prowesse, liberalitee, wisdom and mes-mozie. Solinus wyrteth, that of the excedyng multitude of men whiche were in his hoste, he so retyened the names, that he called euery man by his propre name, whan he spake vnto them.
 The residue of his wonderfull vertues bee
 wyrtten by Xenophon most eloquently in Greke.
 At the laste beyng insatiabie in couetyng coun-treis

Itetes, he was slayn by Colchis, quene of Colchis, whiche was a daughter of him reade Iustine, li. i. Herodotus, and Solinus. Valer.
 Max. li. i. cap. 7. Cyssophyllon, idem quod Cyclaminus, Cystiolithi, ortum, m. g. certayne stones, whiche growe in Cyprus, holseme agaynst diseases of the stomacke. Cysus, vel Cysus, a kynne of yew, that groweth in Cyprus: also the name of a ryuer. Cyreus, a towne of Colchis. Cyteus, of Cytelus, a, um, of Colchis, of Cydon. Cyteorum, a towne of Cappadocia.
 Cythéra, órum, n. g. an yle agaynst Candie, and dedicated to Venus. Cythère, es, and Cythéræ, æ, one of the names of Venus. Cytheria, an harlotte, loued of Cornelius Calpus, the poet. Cytharon, a forest of woodde in Scythia, consecrated to the muses. Cythnos, one of the yles called Cyclades.
 Cylinus, n. m. g. the first budde of the floure of a pomegranate. Cysius, si, m. g. an herbe, whiche is good to geue to cattell agaynst the rotte, some call it tetrifolie.
 Cytorus, an yle of Daphlagonia, where is mythe Cytrago, gnis, f. g. the herbe, whiche is commonly called basilme, of the apothecaries Melissa.
 Cyrtarus, the high part of the firmament, also the holes of an honycombe called Cyrtari: And so is the huske of an acorne, that groweth to þe stalk.
 Cyzicenus, a philosophier of Athens, excellent in geometrie. Cyzicum, a famous citee of Bithinia, so named of the kynge Cyzicus. Cyzicus, the name of an yle by Grece, also a citee of Propontis.

DANTE A.

Ax, arum, people of Scythia.

Dacia, a countrie
 beyond Hongary.
 it hath on the north Sarmatia of Europe: on the west
 the Iazigians of Octanest: on the south, Mysia su-periorē, & Dunaw: on the est, þe

lower Mysiam, and Dunaw. they call it nowe Transyluaniam, they doe not wel, whiche call Denmarke by this name, wiche is Dania.

Dachrymæ, for Lachrymæ.

Dacicus, a, um, pretepyng to the countreye cald

Dacia. Dacnades, looke Dagnades.
 Dacus, ci, one of the countrey of Dacia.
 Dacus, and Dacius, a, um, idem quod Dacicus.
 Dactylicus, a, um, of the foote in meter called Dactylus. Dactylides, grapes beyng longe lyke a synge, of lyke a date. Dactylion, li, neu. ge. is taken for a synge. also the herbe Scammonia. Dactylitis, Aristolochia longa.
 Dactylotheca, ex, form. ge. a glooure, also a precious stone. Dactylus, li, m. g. a synge, a foote in meter, having the first syllable longe, and the other two shorte. It is also a date, also a shell fyre, a precious stone, and an herbe good to heale syn-ges, and to prouoke bleding at the nose. Dactylus idem, a pponie. Dacala, n. ge. were fastes celebrated yearly in the honour of the reconeyng of Juno to Jupiter: Made before in Citheron. Also Dacala, was the generall denomination of ymages wroughte, of whom it seemeth to some, that Dardalus tooke his name. Dardala, of Lucretius is vled for Terra, for the diuersitee of thin-ges & fourmes that bee in it: Also it is a towne of Lycia, where Dardalus was buried.

Dardala, a bowe, wherewith they play on a hittle of byll.

Dardalus, the name of an excellent carpenter of Athens, whiche first founde the sawe, the swybylle, and the augoure, and made the place in Crete, called Labyrinthus.

Dardalus, la, lum, and Dardaleus, a, um, of Dar-dalus.

Dardice, a certayne people of Scythia, on the part of Asia.

Demogorgon, ónis, whom paynyms called the god of the earthe, first creatour of the earthe.

Dæmon, mōnis, (as Proclus wyrteth) is taken in diuers significacions: One is that, whiche euery wher hath soueraintee, and prouydeth nexte vnto God: And so Jupiter called Sasturne Dæmon. Also that whiche for euery man particularly prouydeth. Also the reasonable soule, is of Plato, in his booke Timæus, called Dæmon animalis. And in his booke, Symposium, the loue of the minde aboute the contemplation of the diuine pulchritude or vnspassable beaultie is called Dæmon. Porphyrius supposeth, that Dæmon in euery man was nothyng els, but vnderstandyng. Plato affirmeth (in his booke Phædo) that vnto the soules, whiche dooe come vnto this lyfe, is geuen Dæ-mon, whiche is the beholder and sercher of his thoughtes and deedes, whiche after that the soule is departed from the body, remapneth styll with him, and forthwith byngeth hym sodenely before the Iudge, where by his testismonie he eyther deliuereth or condemneth him.

Sometyme Daemon is taken for God. And therefore Apuleius intituled his booke De deo Socratis, and not De damone Socratis: All thowge Socrates him selfe alwaye so named that thyng, that restrayned hym from dooynge or commyttynge any thyng that was yll or vnconuenient. Whoe ouer, Demon; beynge a Greeke woorde, is diuersely wyttyn: One waye with the pythell, or called Omicron, And than dooeth it signifie that, whiche the Latines call Genius. Cicero nameth it Lai, whiche signifieth priuate Goddes or spiritus; appoynted vnto euery particular persone or howse: the whiche in effecte is our good aungell or hadde. Sometime it is wyttyn with the great O, called Omega, and than it signifieth God, entwisidome, or fortune. A phoyse Dæmonium, in the neutre gendre, signifieth God, godhead, the power of god, whiche dooeth order and gouerne the whole worlde. Dæmonias, in the male gendre had dyuers significacions, and the one contrary to the other. For it signified happy, lyke to God, diuine, and meruailouse. Contrary wyle, miserable, unhappy and vnfortunate. Therefore, where this worde Dæmonium, is wyttyn amonge the ancient Grekes, that onely senten; wherein it is, will not be well vnderstande, without considering what goeth before, and what foloweth after. Notwithstandynge amonge christen authours, Demon, and Dæmonium, be indifferently taken for a diuell or a dampned spirite. Dæmoniacus, & Dæmoniosus; possessed with an euill spirite. Dæmonicus, a, um, dyuellysh. Demonifuga, the herbe called Perforata. Dætor, a Cretiane mentioned in Homere. Dagnades, a kynde of byrdes, whiche the Egyptians vnde to ty with theyr garlandes whan they were dnyng, which with continuall synging, bytyng, and pluckynge at them that dranke, woulde not suffre them to sleape. Dai, people of Persia, whiche were all Sheperdes and grauers. Dalæ, people of Scythia, valiant and cruell in battayle. Dalida, vel Dalila, an harlot dwellyng in Gaza in the countrey of the Philistines, which deceiued the stronge Samson. Dalmatia, a part of the great countrey called Illyria or Slaunonia, it hath on the west Croatia, on the east Bosnia, on the north, the great mountayne Albanus mons, and the countrey called Seruia, on the south the sea Adriaticum, or the goulfe of Venice. Dalmata, a, a man of that countrey. Dalmaticatus, apparayled lyke a Slaunoyse, or haunynge a coate with longe fenes ouer the hande. Dalmaticus, a, um, of Dalmatia. Dalmatica vestis, loke Chirodota.

Damæne, m, & f, ge. a salow here. Damæne, m, & f, ge. a salow here. Agitare damas, to hunt with the houndes. Damascene, a part of Syria, called also Mesopotamia, m, & f, ge. a salow here. Damascenus, a, um, of Damascus. Damast, a, um, of Damascus, whiche growe about Damascus, greater and longer than other damascus; whan they be dyed, we call theyr pyunes Damascene, whiche are more commended than other of that kinde: they loue the beautey and the streyned stillacion. Damascius, an historiographer, whiche in the tyme of Herodotus wrote of thynges doon before the tyme of Peloponnesus. Damascus, a salow here in Syria, supposed to be the first that ever was inhabited. Damastichinus, one of Perces capitaynes. Damasonium, among the grekes is that most excellent and petyous fruite called Myrobalanum Indum. Damatris, the priest of the temple of the goddesse Damia. Damia, one of the names of the goddesse Cybele. Damianus, a sophister of Ephesus. Damnas, for Damnatius, is sometyms vnde amonge olde Cyllians. Quisquis mihi heres erit, dare damnas esto; fideique eius committo vti det quantas summas distauero; who so ever shall be myne heire, shall be bounde to pay it, and I put him in trust to pay all such money as I shall appoynt. Damnatio, onis, f, ge. a condemnation. Damnatio, more worthy death. Damnatarius, a, um, that condemneth or giveth iudgement agaynst one. Damnataria tabella, a bill wherein ones condemnation is written. Damnatius, us, m, ge. idem quod damnatio. Damnatius, a, um, condemned, reproued, compelled, bounden by necessitye. Tuus est damnatus gnatus non tu, Thy son is bounden to doe it, and not thou. Damnicus, a, um, that is hurtful or noysome to one. Damniculus, a, um, idem. Damno, aui, are, to condemne, to discredit, to compell, to deliuer, to blame, to reprove. Damna tempora infelicitatis, to say that the time is vnfortunate. Damna res capitalis, to be condemned of a deadly offence. Stulticia damnare aliquem, to condemne one of folie. De maiestate, or maiestatis damna, to be condemned of treason. Damna causa indicta, to be condemned being absent, or not suffered to speake. Damna votis, to obteyne that, for whiche a vow was made, and to be bounde to performe the vowe.

Inter ipsam dimicationē adeū Iunoni More vout, cū illis damnatus vōt, cum victor Romam reuertisset, dictatura se abdicauit,
 In the middell of the fight, he vowed to make a temple to Iunō Minerva, whiche vow (having his desire, and beyng a conquerour, retournned to Rome) he became bounde to persourne, and furnished the office of Dictator.
 Damnari vout, is taken of Virgile, to auowe oʒ bynde by auowe.
 Damnoſe, hurtfull, with great perill.
 Damnoſus, a, um, harmefull oʒ hurtfull, oʒ ha-uyng much harme, damageable.
 Damnum, ni, ne. gen. harme oʒ hurte, damage,
 losse.
 Damni dari formula, an action of trespassse, for takyng away any thyng from vs.
 Damno auctas, he that is more indamaged.
 Damnum contrahere, to gette losse oʒ harme
 by any thyng.
 Magnum damnum factum est in Seruo, I haue a great losse by the death of Seruius.
 Damnum dare, to hurte oʒ to doe harme.
 Quid facias illi, qui damnum dederit aut ma-lum? What wilt thou doe to him that doeth hurte oʒ displeasure?
 Damnum refarcire, to recompence for harmes that are dooen, to make satisfaction oʒ amēdes.
 Damnum maximum est, nisi eo ad mercatum ueniam, It wyl be my greates losse, excepte I come thither to the marke oʒ fayre.
 Damno esse, to be to a mans hurt oʒ damage.
 Damnum facere, to lese.
 Nihil damni facis, Thou leest nothyng, oʒ thou haſte no losse.
 Damocles, one of the flatterers of Dionysius.
 Damocras, a Shepherdes name in Virgile.
 Damocrates, a phisicion.
 Damon, a philosophers name of Pythagoras secte.
 Damophila, a woman of Grece excellently well
 learned.
 Damosstratus, a Philosopher that wroote of ſilhes.
 Damoxenus, a poete of Athens.
 Dan, a towne, whiche is in the boundes of Judea,
 on the northe parte.
 Danaë, the daughter of Acrisius, kyng of Argis-ties, vnto whome (beyng closed in a stronge towre) Jupiter came in the ſozme of a ſhower of golden rayne in at the houle toppe, and gatte on his Perſeus, who was afterwarde a valyaunt knight. He gaue that name fyrſt to the countrey and people of Perſia. By this fable is ſigny-fied, that Jupiter ſente treaſure priuilege vnto Danaë, and alſo to them that had the keepyng of hir, wherewith they beyng corrupted, ſuffered Jupiter to entre into the towre, and accompliſhe his pleaſure. The fable declarerh the force of money and giſtes in aſſauyng of chaſtiter.
 Danaides, the daughters of Danaus.

Danaus, a kyng of Argis, that had ſittie daughters, whiche (all ſayng one) ſlew their hulbandes in one night.
 Dandaria, the countrey of the people called Dandaride.
 Dani, people of Germany called now Daci.
 Daniel, elis, an holy prophete of the tribe of Juda, a noble man boine, beyng a yonge childe was brought to Babilon, and became a man of ſuche temperance, that amonge the Jewes, he was taken to be Eunuchus, oʒ a man gelded.
 He continually bewayled Hieruſalem, and in faſtynge reſtrayned all maner concupiſcence. In ſourme of body, he was dry and leane, but in the fauour of god he was beautifull. By his prayer he reſtoied Nabuchodonosor to his fyrſte figure, where he was tranſformed of god into a monſtrous beaſt, not withſtandynge, that a little befoze, he by the ſame Nabuchodonosor kyng of Babilon, was throwen into a doungreon among hungry Lyons, which neuer would touche him to hurte him. He beyng afterwarde deliue-red, propheticd bothe of the comyng of Chriſte, and of the Emppres of Babilon, Media, Perſia, Grece, and Romaines: And finally died at Babilon: and there was buried: he liued befoze
 the incarnation of Chriſt. 619. yeres.
 Danisma, ſis, n. g. ſurie.
 Danista, a, m. g. an ſurer.
 Dauisticus, a, um, pertainyng to ſurie.
 Danies, a poete of Floence.
 Dantiſcum, a towne of Polonia.
 Danubius, a ſamouſe riuer called Dunowe (after the diſcription of Plinie) hath his begyn-nyng in Germanie, out of an hill called Arno-ba, and paſſyng by countreys innumerable, res-teryneth his name: but as ſoone as he entereth into Illiria, he is called Iſter, and receyuerh into him. lx. other riuers, well nigh the haſte of them beyng nauigable. Finally, beyng in ſixe wound-derfull great armes, he falleth into the ſea called Pontus. The ſame is affirmed by Cæſius, ſayyng that he calleth the hill, wher Dunow ſpryngeth, Arbona, and not Arnoba.
 Danunt, Plautus doeth vſe for Dant.
 Dapalis cœna, a ſupper, wherewith many and di-uers meates.
 Dapaticæ, feaſtfully, plentifully.
 Dapaticum, ample, magnificent.
 Dapes, um, ibus, f. g. plu. delicate and precious diſhes oʒ bankettes. alſo meates hurtfull and to be eſchued.
 Inemptæ dapes, ſuche diſhes as one hath of his owne prouiſion vnought.
 Menſæ extructæ dapibus, furniſhed with delicious diſhes.
 Daphne, the propre name of a littell mayden and alſo of a woodde.
 Daphnia, a, f. g. a precious ſtone holſome againſt
 the fallynge ſyckeneſſe.
 Daphnitis, tis, f. g. perwinckle.

Daphnis, idis, in latin is a laurell. also the sonne of Mercury. also a delectable place without the citie of Antioche: And the name of a porcion of Lycia by the sea syde.

Daphnites, one of the names of Apollo.

Daphnoides, an herbe like to Laurell, now called Rozell or Laurie, whiche causeth a vehement purgacion. In the plurall numbze they be the bearies of laurell.

Daphnon, ónis, ma. gene. a place where laurell groweth.

Dapifer, pifera, rum, he that beareth a disse at a banket.

Dapino, áui, áre, to prepare and make ready costely and delicate meates.

Dapsa, or rather Daps, apis, a sacrifice, whiche was made in wynter and in spyng tyme.

Dapfile, abundantly.

Dapsilis, le, abundant, liberall, or large, sumptuous, costely.

Dapsilis lectus, an excellent good bedde.

Dapsilia dicta, wordes frankly spoken.

Daradus, a ryuer of Libia, now called Darat.

Dardanarius, ñ, ma. ge. a forstaller of markettes, which doeth bye before hande, to selle deere afterwarde: or he that keepeth in his coyne to make a greater dearthe.

Dardania, the countrey where Troie stode, of the towne of Troie.

Dardania artes, witchcraftes.

Dardanides, dx, one of the storke of Dardanus.

Dardanis, idis, a woman of Troie.

Dardanius, a, um, of Troie.

Dardanium, a certaine ornamēt, of the shouldres or armes.

Dárdanus, the name of a pynce, reygnyng in that parte of Phrygia, where Troie stode, whiche was of him called Dardania.

Dardanus, is also the herbe Cicuta.

Dares, an historiographer of Phrygia, whiche wrote of the battayle of Troie.

Daricus, a coyne of the Persians haupyng Darius ymage.

Darideus, the name of a kynge of Persia, in the tyme of Tyberius, Caius, and Claudius, the emperours.

Dariorigum, Mannes in Britayne.

Darius, the name of diuers kynges of Persia.

Darisan, of Euricius Cordus is named to bee Asphalaton, how be it phisicians agree not what it is.

Daruernum, Douer.

Darus, a riuer of Hungarie called Mora.

Daschylos, a towne of Bithynia.

Dascia, x, f. g. thickenesse of breath.

Daspis, the herbe Chrysospermon.

Dassarita, people of Thrace.

Dastylus, the father of kynge Gyges.

Dásypos, sypodis, m. g. an hare or coonle.

Dararius, a, um, geuen, or that muste be geuen. also an officer in Rome, whiche subscribed the date of letters.

Darátim, one geuyng to an other, as in the tossing of a ball.

Ludere pila datatim, to tosse.

Dates, one of Darius capitaynes.

Dathiathum, a kynde of Frankensens of the myddle soyle.

Dathus, a place in Thessalie, nere to Sterymon, where plentie of golde is founde.

Datio, ónis, f. g. a geuyng.

Dato, áui, áre, to geue often.

Dator, óris, m. g. he that geueth: a geuer.

Datum, ti, n. g. a thyng geuen.

Datus, us, m. g. a geuyng.

Datus, a, um, geuen.

Data opera, for the nones, of purpose.

Darylus, a right honourable man of Athenes.

Daucus, the yelowe carotte, the rootes wherof sodden in brethe are pleasant and holisome.

Constantine saith, that it is hote and drie in the seconde degree. Wher kyndes there be of this herbe, whiche I will not speake of, because they are not so necessary.

Daulia, or Daulis, a towne of Phocis, vnder the dominion of kynge Cereus.

Daunia, a part of Italy, now called Apulia.

Dauni, a people of Italy.

Dáunifer, a capitayne of Darius.

Dautia, idem quod Lautitia.

DE, of, but togynged with a verbe or nount it signifieth withdrawynge, or takynge as waite, as Decortico, I barke or take a waite the rynde.

Depilo, I pluche away the heare. Sometime it signifieth downeward, as, Deorsum descendo, I goe downeward. Sometime contrary: as, Dehortor, I geue contrary aduise. Dedoco, I teache contrary. Sometime it signifieth for, as, Quantum me amas de fidicina hac? How wel dooest thou loue me for this singyng wenche?

De die, to day, sodeinly, the same day without warnyng.

Ergo ne vna orationis pars de die dabitur mihi? Than shall I not be suffered to speake one littell worde to daye?

De die viuere, euery day, from day to day to lyue.

De compacto, by agreement.

De filia te adij, I came to speake with you for or concernyng your daughter.

De illis verbis caue tibi, Beware how thou speakest suche wordes.

De imperio decertatur, they fight for the empyre or chiefe rule.

De improviso, at aduventure, vnought for, or vnlooked for, sodeinly.

De industria, of purpose, for the nones.

De integro, eftsoones, from the begynnyng.

De manu in manum, from hande to hande.
 De istac re amo, I loue thee for hir sake.
 De mea sententia, by my counsaile.
 De meo, of my good, of my owne inuencion, at myne owne coste and charge.
 De tuo, of thy good, of thine own inuencion.
 De suo, of his owne coste and charge.
 De meo exemplo edificet, lette him builde according to my plotte.
 De more, as it hath been accustomed, or as the facion is.
 De calcaria in carbonariam, out of the lime hyl into the cole pitte, A prouerbe, wherby is signified, from one mischief to an other.
 De lana caprina, A prouerbe, where men contende for a trifle, as who saith, whether a gote beare woulde or heare.
 De media nocte, at midnight.
 De nihilo nihil est irasci, It is folp to be angry for nothyng.
 De nocte abiit, he went away in the nyght.
 De nocte vigilare, to wake in the night.
 De pace legatos mittebat, he sente ambassadors to treate for peace.
 De prae facili exores, Thou shalt lightly ob-teyne.
 De proximo senex, The olde man that dwelleth here by.
 De repente, sodenly.
 De subito, idem.
 De scripto dicere, to speake that was before wrytten vnto him, to reade on a paper.
 De sua sententia, of his owne head or fantasie,
 without other counsaile.
 De sententia alicuius, by ones counsaile, as one aduised him.
 De via linguebat, he was sicke by reason of his iourney.
 De meo consilio, with my counsaile or aduise.
 De principio, from the begynnyng.
 De te quidem, as concernyng you.
 De prandio, after dinner.
 De summo loco adolescens, a yong man of a noble house, or comen of a noble linage.
 De cetero, hereafter, henceforth. also as concernyng the residue.
 Non hoc de nihilo est, this is not for nought.
 De procul, a farre of.
 De super, from aboue.
 De tempore, in very good season.
 Dea, a, f. g. a goddesse.
 De acinatus, a, um, that, from the whiche the kirs-nelles are taken cleane away.
 Dealbo, aui, are, to make white to blaunche, to whitelme.
 Deambulatio, onis, f. m. gen. a walkyng forth or a brode out of the house.
 Deambulatorium, rij, n. g. an aley to walke in:
 it may sometyme be vled for a galerie.
 De ambulo, aui, are, to walke a brode.
 De amo, aui, are, to loue or fauour greatly.

De argentassere, to steale or byrbe away money, a worde out of vse.
 De armatus, a, um, that hath his harneys and weapons taken away.
 De artuo, aui, are, to ioynt, or to cutte of by the ioyntes, to dismembze, to cutte of hew one in pieces one parte from an other, to quarter, as traitors bee.
 De artuare opes, to consume and waste, &c.
 De auro, aui, are, to gylt or lay ouer all with golde.
 De bacchor, aris, ari, to rage as it were in a duns hennesse, to be woode angry.
 De bacchatur ignis, the fier rageth.
 De ba, people of Arabia felix.
 De bellato, aduerb. as though the warre were at an ende.
 De bellator, oris, m. ge. he that vainquisheth or ouercometh.
 De bellatum est cum Graecis, the warre agaynst
 the Grecians is at a pointe.
 De bellatus, a, um, vainquished.
 De bello, aui, are, to vanquish by warre.
 De beo, ui, ere, to owe, to be bounde to one.
 Animam debet, looke Anima.
 Nos tibi debemus, we be bounde to you.
 Magnopere debere alicui, to be greatly bound
 to one.
 Inuentio eius debetur Chio insula, that thyng was fyrst inuented in the yle Chius.
 De buit nosse, he should haue knowen.
 De bere alicui, to be bounde to thanke one that he is on lue.
 De bere alicui eruditionem, salutem, nostra omnia, to be bounde to thanke one for our lera-nyng, our helthe, and all that we haue.
 Pecunia capta est debere, the money began to be due.
 De bibo, bibi, bibere, to drinke by.
 De bilis, le, weake, feeble.
 De bilitas, aris, f. ge. weakenesse, feeblenesse, debilitee.
 Animi debilitas, basenesse of courage.
 De bilisatio, onis, f. ge. a weakenyng, or makyng faynte.
 De bilisatus, a, um, weakened, made feeble, discouraged.
 Infirmus & debilis. Mancus & debilis.
 De bito, aui, are, to make feeble or weake.
 De bilisat spem meam tua profectio, your gosyng forth maketh me haue the lesse hope.
 Vocem fletu debilitare, to make that one can scant speake for weepnyng.
 Frangi & debilitari.
 De bitio, onis, f. g. the acte of owyng.
 De bitor, oris, m. g. he that oweth, a dettour.
 De bitum, ti, n. g. a debte or dutie.
 De bitum iudicatus, condemned in an action of
 debte.
 De bitus, a, um, that is due, owen.
 De blatero, aui, are, to speake folishly, to babble reproche.

epochesfully.
 Debrior, aris, ari, to be drunken.
 Debris, a towne in Ethiopia, wher as be the people called Garamantes, in the whiche towne is a well, wherof the water is in the day tyme as colde as yee, and in the nyght boylinge hotte, the cuntry beyng the hottest parte of all Ethiopia.
 Debuccino, aui, are, idem quod Buccino.
 Deca, tenne.
 Decachinnor, aris, ari, to scoone.
 Decachordum, di, ne, ge. an instrument with .x. stringes.
 Decacuminatio, oris, f. g. the cuttyng of the toppe of a thyng.
 Decacumino, aui, are, to stryke of the toppe.
 Decadorus, a, um, ten hanfull longe.
 Decameron, that is of ten diuers thynges.
 Decarchon, a capitayne ouer ten hoysmen.
 Decalcatur, washt ouer with lyme.
 Decalogus, i, ma. ge. the booke of holy scripture conteynyng the ten commaundementes.
 Decaluo, aui, are, to make verie balde.
 Decanto, aui, are, to repoyte or speake often tymes. Sometyme to bable or prate.
 Decaphorus, ri, m. g. a lycter bozne by ten men.
 Decapolis, a countrey in Judea, beyonde the ryuer of flume Iordane, conteynyng tenne citees.
 Decaproti, generall receyvers of tributes and taxes, whiche stonde alwaies charged with any thyng that is minished or lacketh.
 Decapulo, aui, are, to empty vesselles, properly of oyle.
 Decarchus, a capitayne ouer .x. men of armes.
 Decas, adis, that conteyneth the nymbre of ten.
 Decalesco, to growe to a stalke.
 Decedo, cessi, ere, to departe from a place, to mynythe or appayze, to geue place to an other, to dye.
 Decedamus hinc, leate vs go hence.
 Decedere de suo iure, to remytte somewhat of his ryght.
 Decedere de suo more, to change his custome.
 Decedere instituto suo, to doe otherwise than he was wont.
 Decedere itinere, to tourne out of the waye for some purpose.
 Decedere officio, or De officio, to doe against his duetie, to dooe no more his duetie, or to dooe contrarie to that honestee and reason requyeth.
 Decedere via, to go out of the way, to geue the waie to an other of courtesye.
 Decedet nihil de summa, there shall bee no thyng diminished.
 Decedi, to haue place or way gotten.
 Hæc enim ipsa sunt honorabilia, quæ videntur leuiatq; communia, salutari, appeti, decedi, assurgi, deduci, reduci, for those thynges are honourable, whiche seeme to bee of small effecte, and continue, to be waited on, to bee sued vnto, to haue the way giuen, to bee risen vnto, to be brought vnto the court, brought as gaine home.

 Decedere alicui, to disdayne to meete one.
 Decedere a superioribus decretis, to breake or dooe against suche ordinaunces as haue bene in tyme past decreed.
 Decedere fide, to breake saythe or promyse, to go from his promyse.
 Nihil decedet periculi de causa eius, his cause shall haue neuer the lesse danger or perill.
 Furor Tribunitio decedam, I will departe or giue place to the furie of the Tribunes.
 Decedere de sententia, to change his opinion.
 De vita decedere, to die.
 Decedet hæc ira, this anger will away.
 Decelia, one of the .xii. citices ordeigned and disposed by Cecrops.
 Decem, the nymbre of .x.
 December, i, m. g. the name of one of the .xii. monethes.
 Decemugis, a tyme of .x. hoyses.
 Decemmodia, vesselles conteynyng ten buttes.
 Decempeda, æ, f. ge. a perche, a polle ten foote longe, to measure lande with.
 Decempedator, oris, m. gen. he that measureth lande with that polle.
 Decemprimi, idem quod Decaproti.
 Decemscalmus, a bote that hath ten oyes.
 Decemtabula, were the old lawes of the Romans fetched out of Grece, wher vnto afterwarde were twoo tables added, by them that were called Decemviri.
 Decemuiralis, le, perteynyng to the office of Decemuir.
 Decemuiratus, us, m. g. the office of Decemviri.
 Decemviri, after that the lawes of the Grekes were brought vnto Rome, by Spurius Posthumius, P. Sulpitius, and A. Manlius, ambassadours sente for that purpose to Athens, that were there .x. men chosen and appoynted, which shoulde, of those same lawes and the aunciente customes of the citee, make lawes, write & publish theim: And their authoritee was aboue all other, so that they mought make lawes, and if neede were interpret theim. And where before were but .x. tables of lawes, they added vnto them two mo: And so all those lawes together were called Leges duodecim tabularum, and the dignitee of those men was called Decemuiratus, and euery of them was called Decemuir, and theyr authoritee Decemuirale ius.
 Decennis, ne, of ten yeres age or continuance.
 Decendium, the space of ten daies.
 Decennalis, le, of .x. yeres.
 Decennium, nij, n. g. the space of .x. yeres.
 Decens, entis, com. g. conuenient, mete.
 Decenter, comely, seemely, or as it is conuenient.
 Decentia, æ, f. g. comeliness, seemeliness.

Deceps

Deceptor, oris, m. g. a deceiver or beggler.
 Deceptus, a, um, deceived, beggled.
 Decernina, orum, n. ge. thynges pulled awaye,
 in purgynge or makynge cleane of thynges.
 Decerno, creui, ere, to decrene, to iudge, to ordeyne,
 to decree, to determine, to purpose or discusse:
 Also to contende, to trie by battayle.
 Decernere questionem, to ordeyne that an examination be made.
 Nequeo satis decernere, I cannot well iudge or decrene.
 Decretum est mihi, I have determined or purposed.
 Decernere & iudicare.
 Statuere & decernere.
 Secundum aliquem decernere, to giue sentence,
 to conclude or determine a matter on ones parte,
 or for his profite or furdurance.
 Decernere de re aliqua, to decrene or decree,
 and make some ordinance for a thyng.
 Decernere honores alicui, whan one by his opinion and iudgemente, geueith honour and dignitee to a man.
 Decernere regnum alicui, to geue a sentence or opinion, that one should be made a kyng.
 Laudationem alicui decernere, to appointe and ordeyne that certein ambassadours be sente to geue honourable prayse and commendacions to one for his vertue and noblenesse.
 Legationem contra aliquem decernere, to ordeyne certayne persons to goe to a prince or people to complayne on one.
 Noxiam decernere, to determine that one shall paye and make amendes for the hurtis that he hath doen.
 Nouam questionem decernere, To ordeyne that an extraordinarie examination be made after a new sorte.
 Utinam meo solum capite decernerem, I would god the daunger of this peryll that I am now in, belonged vnto me only.
 Decernere cornibus, to fight with the hornes,
 as bulles and other lyke beastes doe.
 Ferro vel armis decernere, to trie the matter
 by playne force or dent of sworde.
 Decerpo, psi, ere, to pull or plucke of, to pulle
 what awaye, to diminish.
 Decerpere fructum ex aliqua re, to take fruite or profite of a thyng.
 Decerpere de dignitate alterius, to plucke awaye or dimynishe parte of an other mannes dignitee.
 Decerptus, a, um, plucked of.
 Humanus animus decerptus de mente diuina,
 The mynde of man taken and fourmed of the spirite of god.
 Decertatio, onis, fcm. gene. a stryppynge or contendynge.
 Decertatorius, a, um, contentiouse.
 Decertatus, a, um, contended or stricken for.
 Decerto, aui, are, to contende or fight together,

to trie or wage to the uttermost.
 Contentione decertare, to contende with great alteration.
 Decertare cum aliquo de imperio, to contende with one, who shall haue the soueraintee or maystrie.
 Decertare vi, praelio, armis, ferro.
 Decertatur, the impersonall.
 Decessio, onis, a departynge from any thyng, a goynge awaye, whan one leaueth his place to an other. Also a diminucion or decrease.
 Mansio, & Decessio, contrarie.
 Decessio & Accessio, contrarie.
 Decessor, oris, ma. ge. one that goeth awaye and leaueth his place to an other.
 Decessus, us, m. g. idem quod Decessio.
 Decet, sometyne impersonall, sometyne personall, it becometh, it is conuenient, to become,
 to be apte or mete.
 Decet me hac vestis, this garmente becometh me well.
 Ornatum capiam; qui me potius decet, I wyll take that apparayle, that becometh mee better.
 Fieri sic decet, it is mete or conuenient that it be so dooen.
 Ita nobis decet, so it becometh vs.
 Aptum est & decet.
 Decido, cidi, ere, to cut of. Also to decyde or discusse a matter in variaunce, to determine or make a composition or agreemente betwene men that be at controuersie. Sometime to expresse.
 Decide mihi collum, si falsum ad te loquar, cut of my necke, if I tell you a false tale, or yf
 I lie to you.
 Transigere & decidere cum aliquo, to come to a poynte, to conclude or fall to agreement with one, concernynge any matter.
 Decidere de negotio aliquo, to discusse or determine a matter, to conclude or bypnye it to a poynte.
 Precio cum aliquo decidere, to geue money to the entente to come to some ende or conclusion in a matter, or to bypnye a thyng to passe.
 Decidere pro libertate, To fall at some composition for ones libertee or freedom.
 Cetera proprijs decisa sunt verbis, other thynges were expessed in their propre and feate
 wordes.
 Decido, decidi, ere, to fall of or awaye.
 Decidere ab archetypo, to vary from the copy or paterne.
 Decidere a spe, to be disapoynted of that he looked for.
 Decidit fructus, he losse all the profite that should come of it.
 Quanta de spe decidi? out of how greate hope am I fallen?
 Decidere equo, vel ex equo, to fall from ones horse.
 Decidit in præceps, he fell downe headlonge.
 Pore

Potestas vr̄bis decidit, the power of authoritee of the citee is deraied.
 Decidium, dij, n. g. a fall.
 Decidua, are those thynges that fall away, as leaues of trees.
 Deciduus, a, um, subiecte to falling. sometime cut downe. sometime it signifieth hangyng downe. Testes pecori armentoque ad crura decidui, The stones of sheepe and rudder beastes, been hangyng downe to their shankes. In the fyrste signification.
 Omnibus caua cornua & in mucronem desum concreta sunt, ceruis autem solida & omnibus annis decidua, all haue their hornes holowe, but beyng sharpe at the endes, there be they concrete and without holowenesse: Onely deere haue hornes full and massy, whiche euery yere do fall of, or (to speake it more properly) which heades they do cast euery yere.
 Decies, ten times. Leonardus Portius (in hys booke De Sestertio) writeth, that he had obserued, that where Decies, and other aduerbes of nombze, haupng that termination, were added to an other nombze for multiplyng therof: they signifie no more than they represented: as Decies Centena, ten hundred: Decies millena, ten thousande. But whan they were founden by them selues, to signifie the quantitee of the thyng that folowed, they were multiplied by an hundred thousande: as, Decies Sestertium, ten hundred thousande Sestertij. Duodecies talentum, for. xii. hundred thousand talents. For the fyrste he byngeth examples of Martianus Capella, Macrobius, Plinius, Varro, and Columella. For the seconde he byngeth out of Tacitus, Tranquillus, Plinie and Cicero, in secunda philippica: Afterwarde he supposeth, that in the olde tyme, whan the said nombzes were multiplied with an hundred thousande: they dyd than putte an N. betwene the E. and the S. As Deciē, duodeciens, milliē: And to the profe therof he byngeth in Varro de analogia, & Pedianus in secundam actionem Ciceronis in Verrem. concerning the computation of Decies Sestertium the same is affirmed by Budeus, and the reuerende father Cuthbertus Tunstallus (at the writynge hereof moste worthy Bysshop of Duresham) in his booke de supputatione.
 Décima, arum, f. g. plu. the tenthes.
 Decimanus siue Decumanus, a, um, greake.
 Décimo, aui, are, to take the tenth parte from the residue.
 Decimar ilegiones, was whan the tenth persone of euery legion was put to deathe.
 Decimodia, vesselles that holde. x. bushelles.
 Decimum, the tenth tyme.
 Décimus, a, um, the tenth, the chiefe or principall: as,
 Decimum quodq; onum, euery tenth egge.
 Decimus quisque fluctus, euery tenth riuer.

Decipio, decipis, cēpi, ēre, to disceine or begyle.
 Expectationem alicuius decipere, to deceiue ones expectation.
 Decipula, x, f. m. g. a ginne, trappe, or snare to take byrdes with.
 Decipulum, li, n. g. Idem.
 Decircino, aui, are, to vnbowe, or to bynge oute of compasse or roundenesse.
 Decirēmis, is, f. g. a galie that hath ten oars in one seate or benche.
 Decisio, ōnis, a discussyng, determination, or composition of matters in debate.
 Facere decisionem, to make a composition or determination.
 Decisus, a, um, discussed, determined, cut of.
 Decius, the name of a noble house of the Romans.
 Declamatio, ōnis, f. g. an exercise in feigned orations, or amonge our lawiers a moot.
 Declamator, ōris, m. f. g. one that declameth, or exercyseth hym selfe in feigned theames.
 Declamatorius, a, um, perteynyng to such exercise.
 Declamito, aui, are, to declame often tymes.
 Declamo, aui, are, to declaime or exercyse in pleasyng feigned argumentes, whiche amonge the lawiers of this realme is called mootyng. some tyme to speake out contenciously.
 Declaratio, ōnis, a declaration or denouncyng.
 Declaratus, a, um, declared, denounced.
 Declaratus est consul, he was denounced or declared Consul.
 Declāro, aui, are, to declare, to open a thyng whiche is darke.
 Declinatio, ōnis, f. g. a bendyng or inclinyng of the bodie. Also a digression from a matter or purpose. An eschuyng or auoydyng.
 Declinatus, a, um, bended, inclyned.
 Declinata ætas, olde age.
 Nec declinatam quicq; ab aliarum ingenio, villam reperias, Nether shall ye fynde one, that in the leste point in the worlde is of vnylike nature or disposition from the other. Or you shall fynde them all of lyke nature or disposition, or not one to swarie from the nature of other.
 Declino, aui, are, to eschewe, to leaue, to turne away, to leade away, to alienate.
 Urbem illam declinari, I leste that citee, and passed forth by.
 Declinare se extra viam, To tourne out of the way.
 Declinare de via, to go out of the way, and by a metaphoze, to erre, not to obserue the ryght rule of reason.
 Declinat in vesp̄um dies, it waxeth night, or it draweth toward night.
 Inflammatio corporis declinat, the vehement burnyng of the body asswageth.
 Appetere & Declinare, contrarie.
 Persequi & declinare, contrarie.
 A malis natura declinamus, euen by nature we Declinare ab religione officij, not to observe the lawes of honoure and vertues.

Declinare a statu, to remitte somewhat of ones consent in his behauiour.

Declinare uia, to wauye of the webbe.

Huc declinabant nec inuitus, theyd vende somewhat to this matter in my communicas-cion, and that wyllyngly of purpose.

Declinare ea quæ sunt nocitura, to wauye those thynges that be hurtfull.

Declinare ictum, to wauye a blowe by geuyng
backe or stoppyng a blowe.

Declinare certamen, to eschewe battayle, or refuse to fight.

Declinare, bendynge or inclynng as it would fall.

Declinis ætate, fallen in age, very olde.

Declinitas, ætis, the bendynge or inclynng of a thyng as it would fall.

Decedens, oris, ma. gen. he that hath wasted all his substance, and is brought to extreme po-uerty, specially by deceayng and lecherie, a banke rupt.

Decoctum, i. neu. g. a decoction of a thyng that is sodde.

Decoctus, us, mascu. gene. a decoction of the
thyng.

Decoctura, æ, f. g. idem quod decoctus.

Decoctus, a, um, well sodden, and by a metaphor, tried or purged.

Decocta, sodden water.

Decollo, aui, are, to styke of the head by the necke, to behede. Also to sayle, to deceyue or disapoynte.

Vna est quæ decollauit, one woman there is that hath deceyued him.

Décolor, oris, om. gene. yll coloured. sometime soule or helth.

Décolor ætas, a tyme of age that hath no ver-tue or honester.

Decoloratio, ónis, f. g. a lesynge or destroyng of the colour of a thyng.

Decoloro, aui, are, to stayne, to spyll the colour,
to take away the colour of a thyng.

Decolorus, a, um, idem quod decolor, after Calpeyne. Decoloratus, a, um, yll coloured, or that hath losse his colour.

Decoontes, the sonne of Hercules by Megara,
the daughter of Creon.

Décoquo, coxi, ère, to boyle or seethe very mus-
che. sometime to chaunge or digest perfectly. Als to consume or waste a mans substance, or to byng detriment or losse. sometime to change or conuerte: as, Omnem succum alienum in venenum decoquit, i. conuertit.

Décoquit domino res, when a man bestoweth labour on a thyng, and it doeth not quite coste.

Decoquant anni materiam, yeres of age maie diminthe or take away mathe of the matter.

Decoquenda est tibi animi ægritudo, Thou shalt bite on the bysell.

Decoquere creditoribus, to consume & waste ones substance, so that his creditors can haue nothing.

Decoquere bonas species, to frustrate and bereyue
the good hope and expectation of men.

Decor, oris, m. g. the grace that one hath, when that that he sayth or speaketh, cometh him wel aduaunte, comelynesse.

Honestas decor, the beautie and comelynesse of honestie.

Decoratus, a, um, set forth, commended, made beautiful and gorgious.

Decoré, honeste, comely.

Decoro, aui, are, to beautifie or make sayre, or pleasant to the eyes or eares.

Décoro, decoras, aui, are, penultima correpta, to dishonour a man, to make more honoustable, to set forth, to commend.

Magnam principem decorat sapientia, wises dome dooeth much honoure into a great prince.

Hæc omnia decorabat vitæ grauitas & inte-gritas, grauitie & integritie of life did greatlye commende and set forth all these thynges.

Mores decorant virum, maners do commende and set forth a man.

Decorare aliquem honoribus, to aduaunce one and make him of great authorite.

Omni laude decoranda virtus, vertue worthy to be commended and set forth with all prayse.

Decortatio, ónis, the barkynge of trees.

Décortico, aui, are, to barke a tree.

Decorum, ri. n. gen. a comelynesse, or that whiche becometh the person, haupng regarde to his nature, degree, studie, office, or profession, be it in dooyng or speakyng: a grace. sometime it signifieth honestie.

Decorum & elegans, comely & galyng.

Decorum ab aspectu, beautiful to the eye: that maketh a sayre shewe.

Vix satis decorum est, It is scante comely or honeste.

Decorus, a, um, honest, seemly, sayre, comely beautiful.

Decorus ab aspectu, beautiful to see to.

Decores, the bare garments, or garments
wozne to the uttermoste.

Decrepitus, a, um, very olde, at the pittes byncke.

Decrepita senectus, extreme age.

Decresco, eui, scere, to waxe lesse, to decreasce.

Decrescere & Accrescere, contrarie.

Morbus decrescit, the sicknesse weareth away.

Decrescente die, whyle the day wareth shorter.

Decretorius, a, um, iudiciall. also decreed, stablyshed.

Decretorii dies, daies, in whiche Physicians may perceyue the importance of a sicknesse, by certayne tokens in the patient: which be also called Dies Critici.

Decretorium tempus; Decretorium sydas, whereby iudgment is geuen of the increas that Malis de on any thyng; of, consilium Arma decretoria, weapons, whereby a man must fight earnestly for lyfe and death.
 Decretoria dies, a used of Seneca for the day of ones death.
 Decretoria pugna, a controversy whar it aduocates reason on the principall poyntes of the matter, wherby it must be discussed and determined.
 Decretum, n. g. a decree, anyng determined,
 a fyne consent in an opinion of a iudice.
 Edictum & decretum, n. g. a decree.
 Decretum auferre, to fordoe an ordinance.
 Decretum facere, to make a decree by dy-naunce.
 Decretus, a, um, decreed, appoynted, determined.
 Omnibus decreta mors est; death is appoynted to all men: or all men be made mortall.
 Decubitus, m. are, to lye downe.
 Deculco, aui, are, to treade vnder foote.
 Deculso, aui, are, to hyde vnder or pryuple.
 Decum, a, arum, s. g. plu. the tenthes.
 Decumanus, m. maso, gen. a generall receiuer or gatherer of taxes, subsidies, or other lyke ex-actions: Also a fermer of the tenthes.
 Decumanus, a, um, the adiectiue.
 Decumana porta, the great gate of entry into a campe, or armie.
 Decumanus limes, a lyne goeing from the east to the west.
 Decumana oua, greates egges. Likewyse Decumana pira, and Decumani fluctus.
 Decumanus ager, a fynde, wherof tenthes be taken.
 Decumbo, bui, ere, to lye downe, to syt downe at the table. It is properly spoken of wyndeplai-ers, whan they brynge wounded fall downe to the grounde.
 Honestè decumbere, to die honestly.
 Decumus, a, um, idem quod Decimus.
 Decupa, a, fcm. gen. he or she that sellth wyne
 by the pottle.
 Decuplatus, a, um, ten tymes double. r. folde.
 Decuplo, aui, are, to double ten tymes.
 Decuplo, an aduerbe, signifyeth ten tymes or ten folde.
 Decuplum, idem.
 Decuplus, a, um, ten times so muche.
 Decures, olde wyters bled for Decuriones.
 Decuriatio, onis, a makinge of knightes or capistaines.
 Decuriatus, us, m. g. idem.
 Decuria, a, fcm. ge. was the ordie, office, or company, which was vnder the office of Decurio.
 Also the company of iudges, as we haue of the hynges bench, common place, and exchequer.
 And Decurio, he that is chiefe of them. The nobilitie of Rome was diuided into companies, called Decuriae, like as the commons in to Centurias, and the chiefe of euery Decuria, was named Decurio. Also a company of men eatyng and drynkyng together. Also a bande of men, as the Decurio of iudges.

 Decurio, onis, m. gen. an officer, haueing authority ouer ten men of armes, or the tenth parte of a company. Also it was taken for the lorde of a chambrelayne to the emperour. Also they were in other cities the same that the Senators were at Rome, as upon that map is assigned.
 Decurio, aui, are, to deuide into bandes or companies.
 Decurro, curri, or cucurri, ere, to runne. Notone, so by translation it signifyeth to renne from the one ende to the other, to iuste, to make haste, to flye awaie, to fynde of respite to a thyng for further.
 Decurrere solum deorsum, to renne by and downe.
 Decurrere cum aliquo, to iuste with one.
 Decurrere in armis, to renne at the tytle in harness.
 Effuso passu decurrere, to make speede, to ren
 a palse.
 Ad remedium aliquod decurrere, to renne of haue refuge to some remedie.
 Vitam decurrere, to leade of palse for the ones
 lyfe.
 Decurritur, men renne of respite.
 Breuiter decurrere, to palse ouer a thyng in fewe wordes.
 Decursio, onis, fcm. gen. a rennyng, a course, a flowyng; a iusting at the tytle or randon, an inuasion of men of warre, made on theyr enemies landes, a rode.
 Decursionem indicere, to proclaime iustes.
 Decursorium, ri, neu. ge. the place where the iustices be kepte, the listes.
 Decursus, a, um, passed ouer.
 Septuaginta milia passuum vis esse decursa
 biduo? woulde you, that he should traunyle 700. myles in the space of ii. daies.
 Decursa abs te hæc sunt breuiter, you haue passed ouer these thynges, bryefely or in fewe
 wordes.
 Quid mihi opus est, decurso ætatis spacio, cum eis gerere bellum? What needeth me nowe in myne olde age, or nowe in my later daies, to make warre with them?
 Decursus, us, masc. g. a flowyng or rennyng of water, a iusting, a passyng ouer of tyme.
 Decursus honorum, the tyme or space that one hath bozne office or dignitee in the common weale, or passed throughe all offices in the common weale.
 Decursus temporis mei, the passyng ouer of the tyme that I must be there.
 Decurtatus, a, um, shortened, abreniated.
 Decus, decoris, n. ge. honour, and reputacion, that one hath for doynge of a thyng.
 Decoris securus, he that hath no regarde of honestie

Decus verum in virtute positum, True honour consisteth in vertuousnes.
Décora & ornamenta, to be adorned with.
Decus & lumen, honour and light.
Decus & laus civitatis, the honour and commendation of any citty.
Decussation, cutte in ten partes of euen proportions, as in forme of an X. or hegomon cross.
Decussation, omis, and Decussis, a division, cutte, fashion, or carved upon any thyng after the forme of foure lynes drawne a crosse, by one center of points, whiche maketh .viii. equall proportions.
Decussis, is, m. g. ten whole partes, or ten shes, of any pounce weighe. Also pieces equally cutte.
Decussus, the divisions of tymber lawen in equall partes. It is used of Vitruvius for the number of ten. It is also a fourme in any thyng representing the letter X. whiche parted in the middle maketh an other figure called Quincunx. V.
Decussio, aui, are, to cutte or draw oute in length, or to cut or divide in ten partes: or rather to cut and divide after the fourme of the letter X. to cut equally in the middell.
Decussus, as, m. g. a strepyng or shapynge of.
Decurio, decuris, cussi, ere, To strike of, to make of.
Deceret, it is not honest or convenient, it misbecometh.
Deceret illud in eum, That dooeth not become him.
Hic pilus redereet, this cappe dooeth not become thee.
Decedoratus, a, um, desyled, defamed, dishonoured.
Dedecoro, aui, are, to dishonour, dishonest, reproue, or desyle, to defame, to dissteine ones honestee.
Dedecorus, a, um, unhonest, that is to others dishonour.
Dedecus, dedecoris, dishonour, dishonestee, reproche, disworshipp.
Dé decus vitæ, ac turpitudine.
Dedecus, flagitium, probrum, infamia.
Dedecus in se admittere, to take a foyle.
Dedecori esse studijs ac literis, to do greaf dishonour to learnyng and good letters.
Macula & dedecori esse alicui, To doo greafe disworshipp to a man, & dissteine his honestee.
Incurrere dedecora, to runne into greafe dishonour, or infamie.
Dedecore nullo abstinere, to withholde hym selfe or abstine from no shamefull or unhonestee acte.
Dedicatio, ónis, f. m. gen. a dedication or consecration.
Dedicatus, a, um, dedicated, consecrated.
Dedico, aui, are, to dedicate, or consecrate.
Dedignatio, ónis, f. g. disderyne,

Dedignor, áris, ári, to dedecore, to contemne, not to honour.
Dedisco, dediti, fere, to learn, or forgette, sometyme to leane ones facyon, to learne consuetude to that he hath learned before.
Dedirio, ónis, f. m. gen. g. to render up of a place besieged, or whan one yeldeth hym selfe to an other.
Properare deditionem, to make haste to yelde.
Facere deditionem ad hostem, to yelde.
Ad deditionem percellere, to have one to yelde.
Dediting, a, um, recreant, or that yeldeth hym selfe to an other.
Deditus, a, um, given, rendered, yelded by.
Dedita opera, by his owne consente, of his owne free will, purposely for the good.
Deditus literis, studious, given to learnyng.
Dedo, dedidi, ere, to give utterly, or for ever, or to become subiecte, to tender by, to yelde hym selfe to an other in battaile.
Deditionem facere, signifieth the same.
Dedere aliquem morti, to slea.
Dedo me tibi, I submitte or yelde my selfe to thee.
Dedere se totum alicui, to yelde hym selfe wholly to one.
Dedere aures suas alicui, to hearken to one diligently.
Dedere se lamentis, to weepe and wayle thus moderately.
Manus dedere, to yelde.
Dedere neci seipsum, to slea ones selfe.
Dedo tibi istud negotij, I committe the charge of this busynesse to you.
Dedere aliquem in pistrinum, To caste one into prison.
Dedo penas mereratis meæ, I am punished for my rathenesse.
Ad scribendum se dedere, to give ones selfe to writyng.
Dedere aliquem alteri ad supplicium, to deliver one to an other man to be punished.
Dedere se alijs, to applie and geue hym selfe to the facyons and customes of other men: and to be ready to doe what they will haue him.
Dedo tibi hunc diem, I will doe as thou wilt haue me this day.
Dedoco, dedoces, cui, ere, to teache a man other wyle than he hath afore learned: or to shewe hym that it is false that he learned before.
Dedoleo, dedoles, lui, ere, to cease from sorowe and payne, to sorow no more.
Dedolo, aui, are, to hewe or cut with an axe, lyke a carpenter.
Deduco, xi, ere, to bynge downe, to leade or drawe, to bynge from one place or one thyng to an other: Sometyme to moue from his purpose: Sometyme to bynge home honorably from any place. Also to abate of a summe.
Deducere vocem, to speake small,

Deducere cibum, to diminish the ones meate.
 A dolore deduci, with paines to be compelled to chaunge his opinion, or to saye contrary to that he had said.
 Deducere aquam, to conuey the water to any place from a good way off.
 Deducere fastidium, to prouoke vomite.
 Deducere filum, to spyne.
 Deduci in fraudem, to be brought into daungger, to be intrapped.
 Genus deducere ab aliquo, to descend or come of ones linage.
 Lineamenta deducere, to pourtray or drawe out the proportion of a body.
 Deduci periculo de animi lenitate, to be constrained with perill and daunger, to alter the gentleness of the mynde, and become more rigorous of cruell.
 Deducere naues, to bynge the shippes to lande.
 De domo deducere, to conducte one from his house to any place, or house.
 Rationem deducere, to make accompte, to reckon.
 Deducere aliquem ex regno, to depyue one of his kyngdome, to take ones realme fro hym.
 Ab eo deduci non potest, he cannot be turned,
 or caused to chaunge his fantasie or opinion therein.
 Rem huc deduxi, I haue brought the matter to this point, or I haue doen this myche.
 Deducere aliquem de sententia, to cause one to chaunge his mynde.
 Deducere aliquem in sententiam, to cause one to agree to any opinion or sentence.
 Deducere de statu vitæ, to make one dooe a thyng contrarye to his accustomed facion.
 Vela deducere, to strepke the sayles.
 Deducere aliquem in viam, to bynge one into the way.
 Ad otium rem aliquam deducere, to bynge a thyng to quiete.
 Deducere & reducere, contrarie.
 Addere & reducere, contrarie.
 Ut centum aurei deducerentur, That .100.
 crownes of the sonne should be rebated.
 Deducere plerisque dies, to continewe and proulonge the reasonyng of a mattier many daies
 together.
 Deducere sibi pilium, to put of his cap.
 Vxorem deducit maritus domum, when he taketh hir freendes and byngeth hir to his owne
 house.
 Deductio, ðnis, form, gene. a byngyng to, a dis-minishyng.
 Deductio aquæ, a conueyhyng of water.
 Deductionem facere moribus, after the accustomed maner and facion, to dispossele one of a house or landes, which he hath iust title vnto.
 Deductor, oris, m. g. one that conducteth a man, or that goeth with him.

Deductus, a, um, brought, ledde, diminished.
 Sometime slender.
 Deductus ad caum extremum, brought to the laste case.
 Deducta ed res est, the thyng is come to that poynte.
 Deductum carmen, i. tenue & subtile.
 Frons deducta, a frownyng forehead.
 Deerro, aui, are, to goe oute of the right way or reason, to erre. Sometime to make digression.
 Deerrare dicuntur iaculantium ictus, to mis-se, to faple, not to hit.
 Deerrare itinere, to goe out of the way.
 Defacatus, a, um, tynd or cleane from the lies or digges, as wyne, which is not troubled.
 Defecatus animus, a cleane and incorrupted
 mynde.
 Defeco, aui, are, to draw from the daggas, or to let wyne lye till it be tyne.
 Defusco, aui, are, to cut off, take away or minish which now may be said defalcate.
 Defamo, aui, are, to defame.
 Defatigatio, ðnis, form, gene. werinesse, or mar-hyng wery.
 Defatigo, aui, are, to make one wery, or to fastygate.
 Defatigari cursu, to be wery of runnyng.
 Defatiscor, look. Defatiscor, to be weary.
 Defectio, ðnis, f. g. where a countrey, fortrese, or armie, doeth forsake thez lord or capitayn, and taketh the contrary parte. Also lacke of des-faute: sometime lownyng, feebleness, weakenesse, sayntnesse.
 Defectio animi, saylyng of courage.
 Defectio virium, decay and lacke of strength.
 Defectio solis & lunæ, idem quod defectus.
 Defectio à recta ratione, when the minde forsaketh all honest iudgement and reason.
 Defectiuus, a, um, that whiche is maymed, or lacketh any parte, vnperfecte.
 Defector ðris, m. g. he that departeth from or rebelleth against his lord or capitayne, or goeth from one to an other.
 Defectus, a, um, that which lacketh any thyng:
 And passuely, forsaken.
 Defectus ætate, very olde, or aged.
 Defectus senectute, idem.
 Dentibus defecti, they that lacke teethe, toothelesse.
 Cibo defecti, they that lacke meate.
 Defecta senio arbor, an olde tree that wyl beare no fruite.
 Defectus animo, faint herted.
 Fauore defectus, one that is out of fauoure.
 Defectus, us, m. ge. lacke, rebellyon, or departyng agaynst couenaunt or promyse.
 Defectus solis & lunæ, the eclips of the sunne and the moone.
 Defectus animi, lownyng or lyng in a trance.
 Defecta corpora, bodies consumed with sye hennesse.

Defendo,

Defendo, di, dere, to defende, to put of, to p[ro]hibite, to defende and mainteyne any quarell: to assure and auowe a thyng, to vpholde.

Caput domini defendere, to defende his maist[er] from enemies, whan he is in daunger to be slayne.

Defendere hostes, to defende, repell, and kepe backe enemies.

Defendere & obfistere iniuriæ, and Defendere & propulsare iniuriam, to resiste and withstande iniurie or wronge.

Toga frigus defendit, my gowne kepeth away the colde.

Solis ardores defendit, it kepeth of the heate of the sunne.

Vestes à tineis defendit hæc herba, this herbe kepeth clothes from mothes.

Dignitatem defendere ab inimicis, to provide that a mans honour be not diminished by his aduersaries.

Defendere vim, to repell and kepe backe aduersaries, to withstande vnlawfull force and iniurie.

Rectum defendere, to susteyne and vpholde right and trueth.

Valetudinem bonam defendere, to preferue and mainteine a mans good health.

Defendere iniuriam alicui, to kepe one, that he haue not iniurie doen vnto him.

Defendere atque sistere iniuriæ, to repelle and withstande iniurie.

Defensio, ònis, f. ge. a defendyng.

Propugnatio & Defensio.

Defensito, to defende often.

Defensio, aui, are, the frequentatiue of defendo.

Defensor, oris, m. g. a defender.

Defensor necis, he that saueth ones lyfe, whan he is in peryll to be slayne.

Defensus, a, um, defended.

Deferbeo, loke Deferueo.

Sperabam iam deferbuisse adolescentiam, I hoped that the great heate or rage of yowth, had ben paste.

Defero, tuli, deferre, to beate or sarie, to byngge to, to repozte, to declare or shewe, to bestowe, to offre, to committe, to disclose, to cōplayne, to accuse or appeale one, to geue office or dignitee, to attribute.

Deferri nauis, to be caried or cōueighed by ship.

Deferre ad aliquem, to make repozte or declare vnto one.

Deferre aliquem furti, maiestatis, erroris, veneficii, impietatis, to apeache one of felonie, treason, &c.

Deferre mandata, vel postulata, to doe a message.

Deferre nomen, to complayne.

Deferre primas, to giue place, or p[re]minence to one.

Deferunt de me apud vos, they repozte of me falsely vnto you.

Deferri in errorem, to be brought into errour.

Deferri in præceps, to fall or tumble downe headlong.

Deferri Moganus in Rhenum, the ryuer Moganus, renneth into the riuer of Rhine.

Vxor marito dotem deferit, the wyfe bynggeth dowrie to the husbände.

Studium & beneuolentiam ad aliquem deferre, to offre his seruite & good wyl to a man to p[ro]uoke him to amitie and frendshipp.

Deferre aliquid in beneficii loco, To dooe a thyng to one, accomptyng it in steede of a benefite and pleasure.

Deferre causam ad patronum dicitur litigator, whan he sheweth to him the matter, despyng ayde and counsaile therein.

Deferre querelas ad aliquem, to complayne to one.

Querelas ad aliquem per alium deferre, to sende complayntes to one by an other.

Deferre consilia ad aduersarios, to disclose mens counsailes to their enemies.

Acerbum nuncium ad aliquem deferre, to byngge heauy tydynge to one.

Denegare & deferre, contrary.

Beneficia dormientibus deferuntur, whan pleasures and benefites be dooen to men, as it were sleappng, and not lookyng nor sekynge for them.

Deferre pacem hostibus, to offre peace to the enemies.

Optionem eligendi deferre, to gyue one the choys.

Palmam alicuius rei alicui deferre, to geue or attribute to one the chiefe p[re]st and commendation in a matter.

Præconium alicui deferre, To comitte the charge to one, that a thyng be openly cried and solde.

Deferre negotium ad aliquem, to trust one to dispatche a matter or busynesse.

Deferre nomen alicuius de ambitu, de reputandis, to accuse or to cōplaine vpon one for vnlawfull suite that he maketh for any office: or for money that he withholdeth.

Deferre crimina de aliquo, to lay diuers thynges to ones charge.

Deferre sermones de aliquo ad alterum, To tell tales, or to repozte thynges of one man to an other.

Omnia ad vnum delata sunt, All thynges were put into one mans handes.

Deferuio, ferui, or ferui, ere, to be colde, or to waxe colde and patient, to appease hym selfe, or withd[ra]we his furie, not to be so hot and vhesment in a matter.

Deferuescit ira, the anger swageth or waxeth colde.

Studia hominum deferbuere, the affections of men were somewhat cooled, or men were not so earnest or hotte in the matter.

Aestus deferbuit, the greete heate was als swaged.
Deferbuit adolescentia, the heate of youth was cooled.
Deferuesco, scere; idem quod Deferueo.
Deferuefacio, feruefacis, feci, ere, to make be rie hotte.
Defessus, a, um, werie.
Defetiscor, defessus sum, defetisci, to be wery.
Defessus sum ridendo de te, I am wery with laughyng at thee.
Deficio, deficiis, feci, ere, not to suffice, to lacke, to leaue, to disagree, to rebell, to departe from him, with whome he is retyned, to go from one capitayne to an other, to renolte. Also to forsaake oz fayne. Sometyme to be wery.
Prudencia nunquam deficit oratorem, prudence neuer fayleth an oratour.
Quem sanguis viresque deficiunt, whome bloud and strengthe fayleth, oz whiche lacketh bloud and strength.
Ab eo defecerat, he wente from him to his enemye.
Vires deficiunt, they be not able.
Luna deficit, the moone leeseth hir light.
Memoria nos deficit, our memozy fayleth vs oz we lacke memozy.
Res frumentaria ipsos deficere cepit, graine beganne to fayle them.
Res quam scribam deficit, I lacke mattier to wyte of, I haue nothyng to wyte.
Deficere rebus dubijs, to forsaake one in aduersitee.
Spes deficit, hope faylethe.
Tempus te deficiet, you shall wante oz lacke tyme, you shall not haue leasure enoughe.
Si utilitas ab amicitia defecerit, if profite forsaake frendshipp. Or if there chance to be no profite oz commoditee in frendshipp.
Si a virtute defeceris, if you forsaake oz falle from vertue.
A se ipso deficere, to chaunge his maners, to be no moze lyke him selfe.
Dolor me no deficit, my sorow neuer ceaseth.
Tam cito deficiis, art thou so quickly wery?
Also, doest thou forsaake me so soone?
Cohortatus est suos, ne animo deficerent, he exhorted his men to be of good courage.
Visu deficit, he is fallen blinde, he cannot see.
Alimento deficere, to lacke foode oz nourysment.
Deficior, the passyue.
Mulier consilio, & ratione deficitur, a woman lacketh bothe good sence and reason.
Defigo, xi, gere, to sticke in, oz fasten in, properly as men dooe a grasse in a stocke, oz a plante in the ground. Also to tacke oz fasten with nayles oz other thynges.
Defigere aliquem colaphis in terra, to strike one to the ground with buffettes.
Defigere curas, to set all care on any thyng.

Defigere in animis, to make it cleue in mens myndes.
Defigere in oculis populi, to make all the worlde looke on it.
Defigere oculos, to looke despyrfully on a thyng.
Defigi diris precationibus, to be accursed.
Defixerat pauor cum admiratione, feare and wonder strake them to the hertes.
Defigere sicam in corpore alicuius, to stabbe one in with a dagger.
Defigere mentem, to fixe ones mynde on a thyng.
Stupor omnes defixerat, they were all astonied, amased, oz abashed.
Defixus, a, um, fastened in, stiched in, fixed on.
Defixus vno intuitu, staryng, not mouyng his eyes from a thyng.
Animus defixus malis, a mynde alway thynkyng on mischiese.
Defixa humi mens, a mynde thynkyng alway on earthly thynges.
Defixa radicibus, stychnge harde by the rootes, deeply rooted.
Definio, definis, iui, ire, to define, determynen oz disusse, to bounde, to limite, to prescribe the ende of a thyng, to declare oz shewe.
Definiant arbitri, let the arbiters oz iudges define oz appoyne.
Definire diem, to determine oz appointe a daie.
Quam vitam ingrediar defineas, Declare oz shewe me, what kynde of lyfe is best for me to take.
Definire alicui quid faciat, to declare oz shewe, to tell oz prescribe.
Eius fundi extremam partem, olea directo ordine definiunt, In the uttermoste parte of the grounde, they plated a row of olpues, which should be the boundes oz limites of it.
Circumscribere & definire.
Definitum est, it is concluded.
Definite, expressely, shortly, oz at fewe wordes.
Definite & distincte, particularly, and specially.
Definitio, onis, form. ge. a definicion, which expresseth in fewe wordes, what it is that is spoken of. Homo est animal rationale, mortale, A man is a thyng lyuely, reasonable, and mortall.
Definitiuus, a, um, an adiectiue.
Constitutio definitiua, The state of a controuersie, whan the nature of the wordes muste be defyned.
Definitus, a, um, defyned, determyned, appoynted.
Defioculus, li, ma. gen. he the whiche lacketh the sight of one eye.
Defit, there lacketh.
Neque defiat, neque supersit, Neyther lette there be any thyng lackyng, nor superfluous.
Nihil

Nihil apud me tibi defieri patiar, I will not suffer that you shall wante of lache any thyng with me.

Nihil quum est, nihil defit ramen, Although I have nothyng, yet I lache nothyng.

Ve deficiat dies, that the day may passe away.

Deflacco, aui, are, to weate out.

Deflagratio, onis, fcm, ge, a bournyng of consumpnyng with fire.

Deflagro, deflagras, aui, are, To bournre exte dyngly, or to be burned. Also to aduage, to diminish, to waxe colde.

Ictu fulminis deflagrauit, he was bourned with lightnyge.

Spes animum subibat deflagrare iram posse vestram, I hoped that your anger might haue swaged it selfe, or waxed somewhat colder.

Seditione paulatim deflagrante, The sedition by litell and littell flaknyng and waxyng quite.

Deflecto, xi, ere, to boowe downe, to tounre from a place or out of the way. also to make digression from the purpose.

Deflectere ex itinere, to tounre out of the way.

Derecto deflectere, to goe out of the ryght way.

Deflexit de via consuetudo, The custome is chaunged or tounred.

Oratio rediat illuc vnde deflexit, let vs come agayne to the mattier, from whiche wee made digression.

Deflectamus in Thucos, lette vs tounre our waie to the Thucanes.

Desleo, cui, ere, to wayle or lament, to be soyy.

Insatiabiliter deslere, to weepe beyonde measure.

Deslere in sinu amici, to make complaint with teeres to his freend familiarely.

Defletus, a, um, bewayled, lamented for.

Deflexus, us, m, g, a boowynge or bendyng.

Deflexus, a, um, boowed, bended, turned out of the way.

Desio, aui, are, idem quod flare.

Desiocatus, a, um, woyme for aeg. Sometime passed the floure of youthe.

Desioresco, florni, scere, to fade or falle away; as flowers doo: or to lese beautie. sometime is significeth to bourgen or floure.

Desloro, aui, are, to desloute or dimynishe the glozy of a thyng.

Gloria eius victoria deflorata est, The glozy of that victorie was greatly diminished.

Desino, desluis, xi, ere, to slowe downwarde, to fall of or away, to come to nothyng.

Ex nouem Tribunis vnus me absente desluxit, Of nyne Tribunes, the whiche were on my parte, one in myne absence forsoke me.

Oratio ab alia re defluxit ad aliam, The communication of talke fell from one thyng to another.

Capillus defluit, the heare falleth away.

Pet socordiam etas, tempus, ingenium defluxit, by slouthfulnesse, age, time, and wyte, consumed and passed away.

Color defluit, the colour fadeeth.

Defluere luxu & inertia, to marre of vndoot ones selfe with ryot and idelnesse.

Defluere res ad aliquem dicitur, whanne it tounreth to his profite and aduantage.

Vbi saluatio defluxit, literis me inuolo, After I have saluted my freendes in the moynyng, I gawe my selfe wholly to study and learyng.

Toga defluxit ad imos pedes, my gowne fell downe to my fete.

Defluunt hanc a superis in terram, these thyngs come from heauen as the giftes of god.

Defluere beneficia dicuntur, quorum memoria intercidit.

Ex animo defluxit, it is fallen or gone oute of my memoie.

Defluus, a, um, that which floweth or falleth from any thyng.

Deflunium, uij, n, g, the fallynge of the heare.

Defluxus, us, m, g, idem.

Defluxus, a, um, that floweth or falleth downe.

Defodio, defodis, fodi, ere, to bury or hyde a thyng in the grounde, to dygge downe or into the etth, or to set or plant a thyng in the grounde with diggyng.

Defectus, a, um, destituted.

Defomicatum, that whiche is chipped or barked.

Defore, not to be hereafter.

Verum arbitrabantur non defore, qui illa restituerent, They deemed that there would not fayle to be some, whiche shoulde restore those thynges agayne.

Deformatio, onis, fcm, gene, a deforminge or defacynge.

Deformis, me, soule, defourmed, vn honest, vncomely.

Deforme spectaculum, an yll fauoured sight, a thyng vncomely to beholde.

Vita deformis, a filthie and disonest lyfe.

Deformis & horridus ager, an yll fauoured and soule fiede, out of facion and culture.

Non est deforme, It is a goodly and beutifull thyng.

Deformem habent aspectum, They are vncomely or vn honest to be seene.

Deformitas, atis, f, g, a blemyshe in ones fauour yll fauourednesse, vncomelynesse, deformatice.

Dignitas & deformitas, contrary.

Deformiter, yll fauouredly.

Deformo, aui, are, to desroie or waste, to disfigure, to marre the facion, to disgrace, to dishonour, to defourme, to defile. sometime to graue.

also to portraie, or drawe lyke a pepnyter, to facion, to make the fourme of a thyng, to descriue.

Deformare areas, to sette footthe, draw footth, or facion quarters in a gardeine.

Vulrum deformat macies, leanness disfigure

Aestus deferbuit, the greate heate was all swaged.
Deferbuit adoleſcentia, the heate of youth was cooled.
Deferueſco, ſcere, idem quod Deferueo.
Deferuefacio, feruefacis, feci, ere, to make beſie hotte.
Defeffus, a, um, werye.
Defetiſcor, defeffus ſum, defetiſci, to be wery.
Defeffus ſum ridendo de te, I am wery with laughyng at thee.
Deficio, deficiſ, feci, ere, not to ſuffice, to lacke, to leaue, to diſagree, to rebell, to departe from him, with whome he is receyved, to go from one capitayne to an other, to reuolte. Alſo to forſake or ſayle ſometyme to be wery.
Prudencia nunquam deficit oratorem, prudence neuer fayleth an oratour.
Quem ſanguis virisſque deficiunt, whome bloud and ſtrength fayleth, or whiche lacketh bloud and ſtrength.
Ab eo defecerat, he wente from him to his enemye.
Vires deficiunt, they be not able.
Luna deficit, the moone leſeth hir light.
Memoria nos deficit, our memory fayleth vs or we lacke memorye.
Res frumentaria ipſos deficere capit, graine beganne to fayle them.
Res quam ſcribam deficit, I lacke matter to write of, I haue nothyng to write.
Deficere rebus dubijs, to forſake one in aduerſitee.
Spes deficit, hope fayleth.
Tempus te deficiet, you ſhall wante or lacke tyme, you ſhall not haue leaſure enough.
Si utilitas ab amicitia defecerit, if profite forſake frendſhipp. Or if there chance to be no profite or commoditee in frendſhipp.
Si a virtute defeceris, if you forſake or falle from vertue.
A ſe ipſo deficere, to chaunge his maners, to be no moze lyke him ſelfe.
Dolor me nō deficit, my ſorrow neuer ceaſeth.
Tam cito deficiſ, art thou ſo quickly wery?
Alſo, doeſt thou forſake me ſo ſoone?
Cohortatus eſt ſuos, ne animo deficerent, he exhorted his men to be of good courage.
Viſu deficit, he is fallen blinde, he cannot ſee.
Alimento deficere, to lacke foode or nouryſhment.
Deficior, the paſſyue.
Mulier conſilio, & ratione deficitur, a woman lacketh bothe good ſence and reaſon.
Defigo, xi, gere, to ſticke in, or faſten in, properly as men dooe a graſſe in a ſtocke, or a plante in the ground. Alſo to take or faſten with nails or other thynges.
Defigere aliquem colaphis in terrā, to ſtrike one to the ground with buffettes.
Defigere curas, to ſet all care on any thyng.

Defigere in animis, to make it cleue in mens myndes.
Defigere in oculis populi, to make all the world looke on it.
Defigere oculos, to looke deſperately on a thyng.
Defigi diris precationibus, to be accuſed.
Defixerat pauor cum admiratione, feare and wonder ſtrake them to the hertes.
Defigere ſicam in corpore alicuius, to ſtabbe one in with a dagger.
Defigere mentem, to fixe ones mynde on a thyng.
Stupor omnes defixerat, they were all aſtonied, amaſed, or abaſhed.
Defixus, a, um, faſtened in, ſticked in, fixed on.
Defixus vno intuitu, ſtaryng, not moving his eyes from a thyng.
Animus defixus malis, a mynde alway thynghyng on miſchiefe.
Defixa humi mens, a mynde thynghyng alway on earthly thynges.
Defixa radicibus, ſtyckynge harde by the rootes, deeply rooted.
Definio, definis, iui, ire, to define, determyne or diſcuſſe, to bounde, to limite, to preſcribe the ende of a thyng, to declare or ſhewe.
Definiant arbitri, let the arbiters or iudges deſine or appoynt.
Definire diem, to determine or appoynte a daie.
Quam vitam ingrediar defineas, Declare or ſhewe me, what kynde of lyfe is beſt for me to take.
Definire alicui quid faciat, to declare or ſhewe, to tell or preſcribe.
Eius fundi extreſſam partem, olea directo ordine definiunt, In the uttermoſte parte of the grounde, they platted a row of olyues, which ſhould be the boundes or limites of it.
Circumſcribere & definire.
Definitum eſt, it is concluded.
Definitē, expreſſely, moſtely, or at ſewer woordes.
Definitē & diſtinctē, particularly, and ſpecially.
Definitio, ōnis, ſcē. ge. a definition, which expreſſeth in ſewer woordes, what it is that is ſpoken of. Homo eſt animal rationale, mortale, A man is a thyng lyuely, reaſonable, and mortall.
Definitiuus, a, um, an adiectiue.
Conſtitutio definitiua, The ſtate of a controverſie, whan the nature of the woordes muſte be deſyned.
Definitus, a, um, deſyned, determyned, appoynted.
Defiſculus, li, ma. gen. he the whiche lacketh the ſight of one eye.
Defit, there lacketh.
Neque defiat, neque ſuperſit, Neether lette there be any thyng lackyng, nor ſuperfluous.
Nihil

Nihil apud me tibi defieri patiar, I will not suffer that you shall wante of lache any thyng with me.

Nihil quum est, nihil defit tamen, Although I have nothyng, yet I lache nothyng.

Ut deficiat dies, that the day may passe away.

Defiacco, aui, are, to weare out.

Deflagratio, omis, form. ge. a bouenpnyng of consuming with fier.

Deflagro, deflagras, aui, are, To bounte excedyngly, or to be burned. Also to assuage, to diminish, to waxe colde.

Ictu fulminis deflagrauit, he was bourned with lightnyng.

Spes animi subibat deflagrare iram posse vestram, I hoped that your anger might haue asswaged it selfe, or waxed somewhat colde.

Seditione paulatim deflagrante, The sedition by litell and litell slayng and waxing quete.

Deflecto, xi, ere, to bowe downe, to tounne from a place or out of the way. also to make digression from the purpose.

Deflectere ex itinere, to tounne out of the way.

Derecto deflectere, to goe out of the ryght way.

Deflexit de via consuetudo, The custome is chaunged or tounned.

Oratio rediit illuc unde deflexit, let vs come agayne to the matter, from whiche wee made digression.

Deflectamus in Thucos, lette vs tourne our waie to the Thucanes.

Defleo, cui, ere, to wayle or lament, to be forry.

Insatiabiliter deflere, to weep beyond measure.

Deflere in sinu amici, to make complaine with teeres to his freend familiarely.

Defectus, a, um, betwyled, lamented for.

Deflexus, us, m. g. a bowyng or bendyng.

Deflexus, a, um, bowed, bended, turned out of the way.

Deflo, aui, are, idem quod flare.

Deflocatus, a, um, woone for aegē. Sometime passed the floure of youthe.

Defloresco, floruī, scere, to fade or falle away, as flowers doo: or to lesse beautee. Sometime is significeth to bourgen or floure.

Defloro, aui, are, to defloure or dimynishe the gloze of a thyng.

Gloria eius victoriae deflorata est, The gloze of that victorie was greatly dimynished.

Defluo, defluis, xi, ere, to flowe downwarde, to fall of or away, to come to nothyng.

Ex nouem Tribunis vnus me absente defluxit, Of nyne Tribunes, the whiche were on my parte, one in myne absence forsoke me.

Oratio ab alia re defluxit ad aliam, The communication of talke fell from one thyng to another.

Capillus defluit, the heare falleth away.

Per socordiam iras, tempus, ingenium defluxit, by slothfulness, age, time, and wyte, consumed and passed away.

Color defluit, the colour fadeeth.

Defluere luxu & inettia, to waite or vndooe ones selfe with ryot and idelnesse.

Defluere res ad aliquem dicitur, whanne it tounneth to his profite and aduantage.

Vbi saluatio defluxit, literis me inuoluo, After I haue saluted my freendes in the mornyng,

I gree my selfe wholly to study and learyng.

Toga defluxit ad imos pedes, my gowne fell downe to my feete.

Defluunt haec a superis in terram, these thyngs come from heuuen as the giftes of god.

Defluere beneficia dicuntur, quorum memoria intercidit.

Ex animo defluxit, it is fallen or gone oute of my memorie.

Defluus, a, um, that which floweth or falleth from any thyng.

Defluuium, uij, n. g. the fallpnyng of the heare.

Defluxus, us, m. g. idem.

Defluxus, a, um, that floweth or falleth downe.

Defodio, defodis, fodi, ere, to bury or hyde a thyng in the grounde, to bygge downe or into the erth, or to set or plant a thyng in the grounde with diggynge.

Defectus, a, um, destituted.

Defomicatum, that whiche is chipped or barked.

Defore, not to be hereafter.

Verum arbitrabantur non defore, qui illa restituerent, They deemed that there would not fayle to be some, whiche shoulde restore those thynges agayne.

Deformatio, omis, form. gene. a deformyng or defacynge.

Deformis, me, foule, defourmed, vnboneste, vncomely.

Deforme spectaculum, an yll fauoured sight, a thyng vncomely to beholde.

Vita deformis, a filthie and dishonest lyfe.

Deformis & horridus ager, an yll fauoured and foule fielde, out of facion and culture.

Non est deforme, It is a goodly and beautifull thyng.

Deformem habent aspectum, They are vncomely or vnbonest to be seene.

Deformitas, atis, f. g. a blemyshe in ones fauour yll fauourednesse, vncomelynesse, deformitie.

Dignitas & deformitas, contrary.

Deformiter, yll fauouredly.

Deformo, aui, are, to destroy or wasse, to dissipate, to marre the facion, to disgrace, to dishonour, to defourme, to defile. Sometime to graue.

also to portraye, or drawe lyke a peynter, to facion, to make the fourme of a thyng, to describe.

Deformare areas, to sette forth, draw forth, or facion quarters in a garden.

Vulrum deformat macies, leanness diffuses teth the face.

 Ornare & deformare, contrary.
 Deformata ciuitas, a citie brought cleane out of facion.
 Vitijs deformatus, dishonested or disteyned with vices.
 Caue deformes multa bona vno vitio, Bes ware thou disgrace not many good propertees with one vice.
 Deformatum aliquid habere, To haue any thyng that is not comely, well facioned and proportioned.
 Quæ à fortuna ita deformata sunt, whiche be so facioned and made of fortune.
 Deformare aliquem, to descriue or peynce or nes maners and facions.
 Defraudator, oris, m. g. a disceper, a begpler.
 Defraudo, qui, are, to begple, to minishe or take away the profite of an other, to disceper.
 Defraudare genium, not to content nature, by nygardesthypp to defraude nature, or not to take that is sufficient and necessary for nature.
 Defraudare se victu suo, to diminish the a mans owne lypng.
 Defrañatus, a, um, idem quod effrañatus.
 Defricatus, or Defricus, a, um, rubbed of.
 Defrico, defricas, fricui, or aui, are, to rubbe muche, or to rubbe of: And by a metaphore to taunte, or as we say, to rubbe one on the galle.
 Defrigesco, idem quod frigesco, to ware colde.
 Defrigo, xi, ere, to fry muche.
 Defringo, frégi, ere, to breahe downe and cutte
 downe, to breahe of.
 Defrugo, aui, are, to weare out lande, and make grounde barrayne by any meanes, to take oute all the fatnesse or substance therof.
 Defruor, eris, frui, to take the fruite of any thyng.
 Defrutarius, a, um, that pertyneith to the boys
 lypng of new wyne.
 Defrutarium, a great caudron or ledde, such as byuars doe vse, wherein new wine was wonte to be boyled.
 Defruto, aui, are, to boyle new wyne.
 Defruum, ti, neu. gen. new wyne boyled, till the one parte therof be consumed.
 Defuat, idem quod deficiat.
 Defugio, defugis, fugi, ere, to refuse, to flee from, to eschewe.
 Defunctorie, remissely, lyghtly, withoute study, diligence or care.
 Defunctus, a, um, deade.
 Defundo, di, ere, to poure downe or in.
 Defungor, eris, functus sum, fungi, to vse no longer, to leaue or respygne, to persourme, to dooe a thyng negligently, and as it were onely to kepe hym selfe out of daungier, to escape.
 Also to be discharged, propely of an offyce or commaundement, to bee deliuered, rydde, and no moze troubled with a thyng.
 Defuncta morbis corpora, bodie recovered from sicknesses or diseases.

Defunctus fato, escaped his destiny.
 Defunctus consulis fato, deliuered or rydde by the death of the consull.
 Magnis pelagi defunctus periculis, he that hath escaped and passed great dangers of the sea.
 Vnam hoc sit modo defunctum, would god
 this were at an ende or finished now.
 Laboribus defunctum esse, to be deliuered and past his peines.
 Periculis defunctum esse, to be past danger.
 Oportet omnes defungi vnius pena, all must bee deliuered oute of trouble by one mans pun ishment or condemnation.
 Defunctus pietate animus, a mynde whiche hath fully declared and shewed his honeste loue towards his countrey or parentes.
 Defungi in hac re, to be out of this busynes,
 to be discharged of this mattier.
 Defungi praelio festinat, he hasteth to make an ende of that battayle.
 Defungi regis imperio, to dooe the kynges
 commaundement.
 Defunctus iam sum, I haue nowe dooen my duetee: I am now dispatched, rydde or oute of daungier.
 Degener, eris, om. gen. that doth dishonour to his stocke or lynage, that in maners is vnlike to his auncestours, or base of lynage, vnnoble.
 Degener humani ritus, that doth not after the facion and maner of men.
 Degenero, aui, are, to be vnlike to his aunces stours in maners: It may bee sayed of frutes that ware wylde, to go out of lynde.
 Degenerare tam à bono quam à malo di cimus.
 Degenerare in feritatem, to ware wylde.
 Degero, degeris, gessi, ere, to carpe away & waste.
 Degerere laborem alicui, to ease one of his labour.
 Deglabro, deglabras, aui, are, to plucke of heares.
 Deglubo, deglubo, bi, ere, to pulle of the rynde or other lyke thyng, to blanch, to flea or pulle of the skynne of a thyng.
 Boni pastoris est tondere pecus, non deglu bere, It is the propertee of a good shepherde to sheare his sheepe, and not to flea the skynnes of theyr backes.
 Deglutino, aui, are, to leuse that, whiche cleaueth
 faste, or is glewed.
 Dego, egi, ere, to dwell in a place, to lye, to byng to an ende, to passe through, and contin nue a thyng to the ende. Also olde wryters vsed it for Expectare, to looke for.
 Degere atatem aut vitam, to lye.
 Aetatem pulchre degere, to lieue at ease and
 pleasure.
 Degere tempus, to passe the tyme.
 Bellum degere, to kepe continuall warre.
 Corium degere de tergo, to flea or pull the skynne of ones backe.

Degere vitam cum virtute, to leade ones lyfe in vertue and honoure.
Sine quibus vita degi non potest, a man cannot liue.
Degradinat, impersonale, It haiteth downe right.
Degrasso, aui, are, to rage, to spoyle, to robbe, or to be extorted cruelly in a place.
Degrauo, aui, are, to burthen, to make heauie, to pisse downe.
Degredior, gressus sum, edi, to go downe, to descende, to light on foote from ones horse.
Degrummor, aris, ari, to directe, to lay by lynne.
Degulo, aui, are, to consume in gluttonie.
Degummo, mi, ere, idem quod Degusto, to taste.
Degusto, aui, are, to taste, to take a littell taste, to touche a thyng or speake of it briefly.
Degustare vitam aliquam, to taste or say any kynde of lyfe.
Odorare & degustare aliquem, to perceyue, or feele what maner of man one is.
Degustanda sunt hæc proemio, These thynges must be touched or briefly mentioned in the prologue.
Aliquid speculæ ex sermone alicuius degustare, to conceyue a littell hope thorough a mans wordes.
Degustare mentes, sensusque hominum, To perceyue or feele the myndes or fantasies of men.
Dehaurio, hausi, ire, to draw out.
Dehinc, from hens footth, moze ouer.
Nunc iam dehinc, Now hens footthe, after this tyme.
Dehisco, sci, scere, to gape or open by it selfe, or cleaue as a tree doth, or thynke as the grounde doeth, to burst.
Dehiscunt quidam pisces, præ pinguedine, some fishes be so fatte that they burst.
Dehiscere in aliquem, to inuighe or speake vehemently agaynst one.
Dehiscit flos, the floure spreadeth.
Rictus animalis dehiscens vsq; ad aures, the gappinge of a beastes mouth openyng euen to the eares.
Terra dehiscit ardore, cheppeth or gapeth with heate.
Dehonestamentum, ti, n. g. a thyng that doeth dishonest, disfigure, or disgrace a thyng. Sometyme a rebuke or reproche.
Dehonesto, aui, are, to dishonest.
Dehonestus, a, um, dishonest.
Dehortor, aris, ari, to discourage, to exhorte or aduise to the contrary, to dissuade or bid nay.
Dehortari canes, to rebuke the houndes.
Inuitare & dehortari, contrary.
Deianira, the wyfe of Hercules, and daughter of Etolus kyng of Aetolia.
Deidamia, the concubine of Achilles, on whome he begat Pyrrhus.

Deiectus, a, um, lowe, cast downe.
Deiecta & elata luna, the moone, eithen when it is low towards the south, or highe towards the north.
Deiectus, us, ma. g. and Deiectio, opis, fer. m. g. a casting out of possession or a dissolue.
Deiectio alui, a siege caused by medicine.
Perere deiectionem medicamento, to take a purgation.
Deiectus arborum, felling of trees.
Deiectus gemmarum, vel collis, the imbolment of a stone or tree.
Deierator, oris, ma. g. a great swearer.
Deiero, aui, are, to swear deeply, or a greate othe.
Deicio, deicis, ieci, necere, to throwe downe, to cast down, to tourne away, to put out of office, also to dissolue or putte a man out of his possession: sometyme to cast and hitte a thyng.
Deicere alium, to make one go to the stoole.
Deicere de gradu, to byng out of a constant mynde, also it signifieth to put one out of his place, to depriue of dignitee or authoritee.
Deicere de possessione, to putte one out of possession.
Deicere de sententia, to make one change his opinion.
Deicere templo magistratus, to chase or driue out.
Deicere præsidium, to driue or chase away a garrison.
Hostem deicere, to discomfite or driue away.
Deicere de statu vitæ, to make one forget or leaue his former state of lyfe.
Deici honore, to be put belide an office.
Oculos de isto nunq; deicit, he neuer looketh from him: or he neuer casteth his eyes from him or his eyes be alway on hym.
Si tantum oculos deiecerimus, If we dooe but ones winke: or (as we say) with the twynkeling of an eye, signifying the sodaine chaunce of any thyng.
Deicere multum de terrore doloris, to cast away a great parte of the feare, that one hath of payne, or to feare payne muche lesse.
Deicere iugum seruitutis, to caste away or make of the yoke of bondage, and become free.
Taurum deicere, to hylle a bulle.
Spe deici, to be put out of hope.
Dein, moze ouer, further moze, afterwarde.
Deinceps, after our gramer, or after other deinceps, an aduerbe, one after an other, in order, consequently, successively, from hens footthe, or thense footthe, afterwarde, lastely. Sometyme agayne.
Deinceps, cipis, he that begynneth, whā an other hath begun befoze, or he that is taken or chosen after an other.
Deinceps inde, from thens footth.
Deinde, or deinde, an aduerbe: moze ouer, then afterwarde, secondly.

Deinsuper, bywarde, aboue.
 Deintegrō, effeones, agayne, a freshe.
 Deioces, a kyng of the Medes, the sonne of Phraoxa.
 Deiopeia, a nymphe.
 Deiotarus, a kyng of Galatia.
 Deiphobe, a nymphe, the daughter of Glaucus a god of the sea.
 Deiphobus, the sonne of Priamus and Hecuba.
 Deiphyle, the mother of Diomedes, wyfe of E-deus, and daughter of Adastus.
 Deiphylus, the sonne of Polyneſtor, a kyng of Thebes, also the sonne of Sthenelus.
 Deſugo, deſugas, aui, are, to vnyoke, to vnyogne, to diſſeuer.
 Deſungo, xi, gere, to vnyoigne, to put a ſunder.
 Deſuro, aui, are, to ſwear derpely.
 Deſurium, ri, n. g. a great and ſolemne othe.
 Deſurus, ri, m. g. he that ſweareth ſolemnelly.
 Deſuuo, deſuuas, iui, are, not to helpe.
 Deſerere illum, & deſuare in rebus aduerſis pudet, I am aſhamed to forſake hym, and not to helpe hym in aduerſitee.
 Delabor, lapſus ſum, delabi, to ſlide downe, to fall downe of an high place, to be waſted, conſumed, or come to naught, to decaye, to faile, erre, or doo amiſſe by ignorance or negligente, to fall or ſlide to an other matter in communiscation.
 Delabitur res familiaris, whan a mans goods and ſubſtance decay and come to nought.
 Delabi in inſidias, To falle into a trappe or ſnare, lated to deceiue one, to fall into an ambuſhment of men of warre.
 Non nunquam in hoc vitium delabitur, he falleth ſometimes into that fault: or he offen-deth in this often tymes.
 Ad vulgares amicitias delabitur noſtra oratio, we doo begin to ſpeake of the frendſhip, that is commonly among men.
 Ad præcipiendi rationem delapſa eſt oratio mea, my maner of communication is now fallen to the maner of inſtruction or preceptes geuyng.
 Delabitur interdum vt dicat, ſometimes he cometh to the pointe that he ſayth. &c.
 Ad æquitatem delabi, to encline to equitee.
 Delacero, aui, are, to teare in pierces, to conſume or ſpende.
 Delachrymo, aui, are, to weepe.
 Delachrymor, aris, ari, to weepe or ſende out dropes lyke teares.
 Delauo, aui, are, to make ſmoother.
 Delambo, bi, ere, to lick, to lappe.
 Delamentor, aris, ari, to lamente or wape for
 a thyng.
 Delánico, aui, are, to cutte in pierces.
 Delanio, aui, are, looke dilanio.
 Delapido, looke Dilapido.
 Delapidata, pauementes.
 Delaſſo, aui, are, to make wecry,

Delatio, ōnis, an accuſation ſecretly made, or a ſecretre complaynt, a tale tolde pſually to putte a man to diſpleaſure.
 Delator, ōris, ma. g. a ſecretre accuſer, a complainer, a pitche thanke, a tell tale.
 Delatus, a, um, accuſed, also brought, genen, ap-poynted, assigned.
 Delauo, delauas, aui, are, to waſhe myghtly.
 Delebilis, le, that which may be putte out, or put away.
 Delecto, aui, are, to deſite, to leade, to allure to a
 thyng.
 Plus nimio delectare, to deſite to muche.
 Delectare hoſtem, to allure ones enemye.
 Sine ſatietate delectare, to deſite one ſo that he ſhall neuer be wery thereof.
 Delectatio, ōnis, delectation in pleaſure.
 Delectationi eſſe, and Aſſerre delectationem to deſite.
 Delectamentum, ti, n. g. paſtyme, ſolace.
 Delectus, a, um, choſen, pyked.
 Delectus, us, m. g. election, choſe.
 Delectus rerum, choſe or election of thynges.
 also of men apt for the warre.
 Delectum habere & agere, ſometimes ſignis-fieth to take muſters for the warres.
 Habere delectum ciuis & peregrini, to put a difference betwene a ciſeyn and a ſtranger.
 Delector, aris, ari, to take delectation or pleaſure Deſego, aui, are, to aſſigne to ſome office, meſſage, or other neceſſary and great buſines, to committe or cauſe a matter to be determined to ſende in ambaffade or meſſage, ſometimes to attribute or impute.
 Delegare cauſam peccati alicui, to impute or lay the fault of any offence to one.
 Delegare curam, to committe the charge of a thinge to one.
 Delegare aliquem alicui negotio, to apoynt or aſſigne one to diſpatche a matter.
 Delegata, thynges conſecrate to the goddes.
 Delegare ſpes ſuas fortunæ loci, to put his hope to the fortune and lucke of the place.
 Dlegatio, ōnis, ſcē. gene. charge or commiſſion.
 Delénio, delénis, níui, níre, to pacifie, appeaſe,
 or ſette in quiete.
 Deleníſicus, a, um, that paciſieth or mitigateth.
 Deleo, léui, lére, to deſtroy, to put out a thyng that is witten, to kill, to remoue, to put away, to abolith.
 Delere ex animo, to put out of mynde.
 Delere exercitum, to vauquiſhe and ſlea a whole armie, to diſcomfite.
 Vetuſtas delet famam, age or longe continuance of tyme maketh a thyng forgotten.
 Delere memoriám alicuius rei, to make a thyng forgotten.
 Nummulis acceptis ius atque fas omne delere, For money or bybys to fordoore and deſtroy all right and equitee.

Delere ciues, to kill.
 Delere maculam susceptam, to reuenge an infamie or rebuke.
 Delere urbem, to destroy.
 Morde deleri homines, dead.
 Delere obliuione sempiterna, To make a thynge forgotten for euer.
 Molestiam delere, to put awaye.
 Delicta, omis, a puttynge out, a destroyng an abollynge.
 Delictory omis, m. g. he that destroyeth.
 Delictrix, the feminine.
 Deliction, fern, n. g. venome.
 Delictilis, le, that destroyeth or putteth out.
 Delia, one of the names of Diana.
 Deliacus, a, um, and Delius, a, um, of the yle of Delus.
 Delibatio, omis, f. g. tastynge or takynge of assaye.
 It is also a sacrifice of meate or drynke.
 Delibatorium, like Distribitorium.
 Deliberandus, he that aduyseth him, or askeeth
 counsaile in euery thynge.
 Deliberatio, omis, fern. gen. aduysment or consultation.
 Adhibere aliquem ad deliberationes, to call or admytte one to his consultations.
 Haberes deliberationem, the matter maye be consulted of, or aduysment maye be taken
 of it.
 Incidunt omnis deliberatio, there can bee no consultation.
 Cadit in deliberationem, it commeth in consultation.
 Habere deliberationem de aliqua re, to consulte, &c.
 Deliberatiuus, a, um, that pertaineth to consultation.
 Deliberatiua oratio, wherein any thynge is consulted.
 Deliberator, omis, m. g. he that taketh leysure,
 to be aduysed what he shall doe or saie.
 Deliberatum, ti, neutri. gener. a thynge consulted of.
 Deliberatus, a, um, aduysed, consulted of.
 Delibero, aui, are, to bee aduysed, to take aduysto determyne, to doubt, to consulte.
 Delibera hoc, take aduysment of this.
 Diu tibi deliberandum & concoquendum sit,
 You muste take longe aduysment and consultation.
 Deliberatum est mihi, I haue so determined.
 Statutum cum animo ac deliberatum habere, To bee certapnly fixed and determyned in ones mynde.
 Delibo, aui, are, to taste a thynge. Sometyme to violate, to hurte, to destroye or corrupte, to sacrifice, to drynke water by fozrowes, to take away by littell and littell, to diminyshe. Some-tyme for Decerpere, to take a porcion of a parte of a thynge.
 Delibare cibos, to taste a little.

Artes delibare, to taste or haue a little.
 Delibare de gloria alterius, To mynyshe or take awaye some porcion of an other mannes pryse and honour.
 Delibare hominum honorem, to beate fyrst any newe office or authoritee.
 Delibare & carpere flosculos orationis, To pyke and take out here and there the flowers of eloquence, out of any oration.
 Delibare honestatem, to destroye, hurte, or dis-minyshe a mans honestee.
 Delibatus, a, um, tasted, pyked, or taken of the parte of an other thynge, hurted, violated. Some-tyme for Illibatus, vntouched, vntasted, vnt-corrupted.
 Delibro, aui, are, to pull of the bark of the rynde of a tree.
 Delibutus, a, um, anoynted, besmyered,
 coured.
 Gaudio delibutus, replenished with ioye.
 Delibutus periuriis, ragged or defyled with periury.
 Delicata, orum, neu. gen. thinges consecrate and offred to the goddes.
 Delicate, wantonly, nicely, delicately.
 Delicatus, a, um, delicate, wantonly brought vp,
 delicious, geuen to pleasures.
 Delicatusissimus amnis, a pleasant ryuer, that renneth veray quietly.
 Delicatusissimum fastidium, a very nice and delicate lothynge or abhorrynge of thynges.
 Mollis & delicatus.
 Lepidus & delicatus.
 Delicia, x, for. g. the timber, whiche maketh the ende of an house, called a gable.
 Deliciares regula, the yles at the gable ende.
 Delicium, cii, n. g. and Delicia, arum, f. g. plu-
 nu. and somtyme in Plautus Delitia, x. sing.
 num. delices, recreations, pastymes, pleasaunt fantasies, generally all thynge, wherein one taketh syngular pleasure or deysire. Sometyme it is taken in a good part. Sometyme in a badde.
 And whan it is spoken by one, of any personne whom he specially loueth or fauoureth, it maie bee interpreted in this wise, Meum delictum, or Mea delicia, My dearynge, my sweete herte, and suche other lyke elegancies of Venus secretaries. And whan it is spoken of a thynge, than in this wise: Quid agit Comum tua mea que delitia? How is it with Comum oue most pleasant and dilectable place of resorte?
 Deliciarum causa, for pastyme or recreation.
 Delicias facere, to bee wanton, to bee squays
 myshe, to plaie the cockenci, to dally.
 Mel & delicia.
 Delicia & amores.
 Mea delicia, my pastyme, my pleasure.
 Habere aliquem in delitiis, to haue syngular delite and pleasure in a man.
 Esse in delitiis, to be ones dearynge, or his chiefe delite and pleasure.

Delitia,

Deliciae pueri, a cockeneie, a wanton.
 Delicias hominum, D deynter gentyll man.
 Delico, aui, are, to dedicate, to declare oʒ Mewe,
 to tell, to erplane.
 Delicus porcus, a pounge pygge taken from the teate.
 Delictum, ti, neu, g. an offence, whan a thyng is vndoone oʒ omitted.
 Deligo, légi, ligere, to choose oʒ picke out, to culle out.
 Deligere & reijcere, contrary.
 Deligo, aui, are, to hynde vp oʒ to.
 Delimo, aui, are, to fyle oʒ Mause of from any mettall.
 Delingo, linxi, lingere, to lycke of.
 Delinimentum, ti, neu, ge. delectation, an allec-tive oʒ sweetenesse in feelyng.
 Delinio, delinis, niui, nire, to annoynt, to rubbe pleasantly, to touche: and by a metaphoze, to mitigate with fayne woozdes.
 Flectere & Delinire.
 Delinire blanditiis, to flatter.
 Delinitor, óris, maf. gen. one that mitigateth oʒ assuageth.
 Delinitio, ónis, f. g. idem quod Delinimentum.
 Delinio, linias, aui, are, to drawe the foyme oʒ propozcion of a thyng, as a peincter doeth, erre
 he do laie on colours, to tricke out.
 Delinirus, a, um, touched sweetely, annoynted, pacified, appeased.
 Delino, delinis, liui, oʒ léui, linere, to blotte,
 to defyle.
 Delinquo, liqui, linquere, to omitte to do well,
 to offende.
 Delinquere in aliquid, to offend in any thyng.
 Delinquere erga aliquem, to dooe an offence
 to one.
 Delinquo, the paffine.
 Deliquium, quij, n. g. lacke, defecte.
 Deliquum, qui, vled of Plautus foʒ Deliquium.
 Deliquium animi, whan a man is in a swoone fownyng.
 Deliquium solis, the eclips of the soonne.
 Deliqueo, deliques, licui, liquère, to melte, to be dissolued, to waxe softie.
 Deliquesco, licui, quescere, to consume, to wast,
 to pine awaie.
 Alacritate deliquesce, with immoderate mirth to waxe fonde.
 Deliquo, deliquas, quâui, quâre, to dwayne out water, to poure out liquour.
 Deliro, aui, are, to goe out of the right waie, pro-pely to goe out of the fozow, and make a balke as plough men doe. also to dote, to raue.
 Delirans, dotyng.
 Deliratio, ónis, f. g. dotage, folie.
 Deliramentum, ti, n. g. idem.
 Deliritas, âtis, f. g. idem quod Deliratio.
 Delirus, a, um, that swaructh from reason, that doteth.
 Deliteo, tui, ère, to lye hydde.

Delitesco, tui, tescere, idem.
 Delitigo, aui, are, to babble to the ende, to bvaule oʒ chyde earnestly.
 Delius, a, um, of the yle called Delus.
 Delius nator, was one perfecte in swym-minge, whiche became a proverbe, that whan a thyng was spoken oʒ written, hard to bee vnderstande, and requyred a runnyng expoustour, they wolde saie, Delio natore eger, he requyeth a runnyng oʒ subtyl expousitor.
 Delminium, a towne of Dalmatia, nowe called Demna.
 Delos, an yle by Grece, where Apollo and Diana were bozne, & is one of the yles called Cyclades Delphax, a hogge.
 Delphi, a citee and people in Grece, where an was the oracle of Apollo.
 Delphicus, a, um, of that citee, oʒ of Apollo.
 Delphicum oraculum, the aunswere made at the temple of Apollo in Delphos.
 Delphides, a fruite of the kynde of carrettes.
 Delphinus, ni, oʒ Delphin, nis, n. g. a great fysh of the sea, a Dolphin, whose mouthe is almoste at his bealve, oʒ els no fysh might escape hym, he is so swyfte in swymmyng: but he can not take anye fysh, but lyngge vpright:
 his tongue is mouable and apte foʒ voyce, contrary to other fyshes, and hath a camoped nose, and a compassed backe. he delpteth in musike.
 There hath of them bene knownen to lode chyldren, and receyue them to ride on their backs, by the space of. xxx. myles in the sea, beholde of muche people. He that readeth plinie and Appiane in Varia historia, shall fynde of this fysh thynges to be wondred at. Delphinus, is also a sterre.
 Delphos, a citee in the countreie called Phocis,
 on a mountayne in Grece called Parnassus,
 there was the great and famous temple of Appollo called Delphicus, where the dyuell gaue aunsweres by women, whiche there serued foʒ
 the purpose.
 Delta, is the letter D, in greke. it also signifieth
 the numbze of foure, as in the letters it signifieth. v. hundred. Also at Memphis, the moste famous citee of Egypte, the ryuer called Nilus, maketh a place in the foume of this letter, whyche is this A. wherefoze that place is called Delta.
 Delubrum, bri, neu. g. a place, wherin be diuers
 ymages of god and sainctes.
 Deluctor, aris, ari, to wrestle, to contende oʒ stryue.
 Delucto, aui, are, to trauayle, oʒ labour.
 Deludifcor, aris, ari, to begyle, to moeke.
 Delûdo, si, ere, to moeke, to deceiue, to abuse.
 Delumbis, be, weake. sometyme wanton, effe-minate.
 Delumbatae radices, rootes nipped of oʒ bzok-ken, to the intent that they shall waxe greatter.
 Delumbo, aui, are, to debilitate oʒ make feeble,

of no strength.

Deluo, lui, ere, to washe cleane, or washe out.
Delutamentum, claiung.

Deluro, aui, are, to laie claie on any thyng, to couer with claie.

Demades, a great oratour in Athenes, in sodayne oracions without any study, excelled Demosthenes, in so muche (as Plutarch writeth) whā Demosthenes was conspaigned to speake to the people vnprouided, beyng timorous, some-tyme staied in the myddell of his oracion, Demades would aryse out of his place, and synge that oracion, whiche Demosthenes had begun.
He was of so corrupe maners, that Antipater was wonte to saie of him, whan he was olde and decrepite, he was lyke to beastes offered in sacrifice, of whom remayned but their tounge and bealies. Finally the ende of his auarice, prodigalitee, flattery, and falschode was this:
comynge vnder coloure of frendshipp into Macedonie, where in dede he had secretly conspired with Antigonus, enemy to Antipater kynge of that countrey, he & his sonne wer taken by Cal-sander (chiefe capytaine of Antipaters armie) and firste his sonne Demas was slayne in his armes, that the bloudd sprange into his face: and than him selfe (after many reproches, touchynge his treason and vnkynndesse) was cruelly kylde.

Demádeo, demades, dui, dère, to make weete or moyste.

Demagis, muche moze, old wryters vled it for lesse.

Demando, aui, are, to commit any thyng wholly
to one.

Demandare curā alicuius aliquid, to commit a thyng to ones charge.

Demāno, aui, are, idem quod Mandō.

Demarathus, a capytaine of the Lacedemonians.
also the father of Tarquinius the proude.

Demarchus, chi, mascu. generis, a ruler of the people.

Demeaculum, a place to discende into, a celler

Demens, entis, om. gen. madde, that regardeth not what he dooeth, vnprouidente, vncircumspecte.

Demensum, si, neu. gen. a certayne quantitee of meate, dynke or grayne, geuen to euery seruant to fynde him one moneth. it is also a mes-sure, conteynyng. iiii. Romayn bushelles.

Demensus, a, um, measured.

Dementer, madly, foolyshe, vnadvisedly.

Dementia, a, f. g. madnesse, folly, lacke of wit.

Dementio, tiui, tire, to be madde, to dote.

Demento, aui, are, to bee madde, to make mad, to make foolyshe.

Demeo, aui, are, to go downe, or to go away.

Deméreo, démeres, rui, ére, to wyne or geat.

Demereor, éris, éri, to bynde by frendshyppe, to wyne ones fauour, to make a friende, to deserue thanke.

Demergo, si, gere, to drowne a thyng, or depe it in water or other licour.

Demergere semen, to caste seede into the grounde.

Demersus, a, um, drowned or deeped in water,
or other licour.

Demersus ero alieno, deepe indebted, or in great debt.

Demersa leges opibus, lawes subdurd with money, or lawes laied in water for monie.

Demeter, the name of Ceres.

Demetior, tris, tri, to measure diligently.

Démeto, démetis, demessui, demerere, to reape.
sometyme to gather.

Demetrius, a, um, passuely measured, actuely measurynge.

Demetrias, a towne of Chasalic.

Demetrius, the propre name of dyuers grekes,
one, a kynge of Macedonie, was of so goodly nature, excellent fauoure and beautee, that no peincter or haruer mought trulye counterfayte hym. For it seemed, there was in his visage both terriblenesse and mery, grauitee and gentyl-nesse, wherewith was ioynded a princely manner. He was in tyme of recreation of all kynges most pleasant: whan great affayres were in hande, he surmounted all other in iudge dyggence and wysedome. He had his father and mother in wonderfull reuerence. Not with stan-dyng he was muche noted of incontinnencie, he was full of prowesse and valiaunt: he deliuered Grece from Ptholomeus tyranny, and vanquished hym on the sea. He also subdued Athenes, and all the countrey of Boecia, with the citee of Thebes. He had warre at one tyme with Ptholomeus kynge of Egypte, Antiochus kynge of Asia, Seleuchus kynge of Syria, and Ptolemy the kynge of Egypte, and oftentymes vauquished their armies. But in conclusion, beyng vanquished by Seleuchus, he was also by hym committed to an honourable prison, that is to say, kepte in a towne of Syria, called Cheronea, where he had appoynted vnto him fayre gardens, pleasaunt orchardes, and gardeyns, and the company of such as he liked: where, with ydelnesse and excessie of voluptuous pleasure, he felte sicke and dyed, of the age of lxxii. yeres.

Demetrius Phalareus, a noble philosopher and oratour, discipule to Theophrastus, of whom Culliasaith: he was a subtile disputer, but no vehement oratour, yet was he sweete and delecttable. For his excellent vertues he gouerned the Athenienses ten yeres. And because he had greatly enryched the citee of Athenes in pecerly reuenues, and adozned it with commodious buyldynge, the people in the honour of him dyd set vp. CCC. and .lx. of his images made in mettall. But afterwarde beyng absent, by the meanes of certayne enuyous persons, the people condemned him to dye, & also pulled downe his ymages. Some they brake, some they solde, onely

onely one was kepte hole in the castell, whereof Demetrius herynge sayde: yet haue they not plucked downe the vertue, for which they dyd sette vp these ymages. This man caused Ptholomeus kynge of Egypte, to make his great lybrarie, and to sende to the Jewes to haue their lawes and prophesies translated into grecke, who sente vnto him of eury tribe, twelue great learned men, who dyd accomplishe his desyre, and are called Septuaginta interpretes, all though there were of them. lxxiii. persons. He was afore the incarnation of Christ. 277. yeres.

Démigro, démigras, áui, áre, to chaunge habytations of lodgynges, to remoue from one place to an other.

Demigrare ab improbis, to forsake vnthyfyt or yll company.

Demigrare de statu, to chaunge the faction or forme of luyng.

Demigrare de vita, to dye, to decesse.

Deminuo, nui, nuere, to minyssh or make lesse.

Deminuam tuum caput, I wyl bpeake thynne head, an olde maner of speakynge.

Demiror, áris, ári, to meruaile muche. Sometime it signifyeth not to knowe.

Demisse, aduerbe, with great humilitee, lowly.

Demissio, ónis, abasement, lacke of courage, falsenesse of herte.

Demissitia tunica, a long quote.

Demissus, a, um, humble, lowe downe.

Demissa aures, hangynge eares.

Demissi homines, men fallen from rycheffe to pouertee. also men of base and faint courage.

Demissa loca, lowe groundes.

Demissa toga, a longe gowne.

Demissi capilli, longe heare.

Demisso capite, the heade hangynge downe ward, with the heade in the bolome.

Nomen demissum ab lulo, deriued, desconded.

Demissis labiis, hangynge blabberlyppes, blabberlypped.

Demissis humeris virgo, a mayden hangynge lowe shoulders.

Voce demissa loqui, to speake lowe, or to speake in a base voyce.

Demissus animus, a faynt hert, a base courage

Tristis ac demissus, sadde and without spirite or courage.

Demitigo, áui, áre, idem quod Mitigo,

Demitto, misi, tere, to sende downe, to humble ones selfe, to late downe. also to dygge.

Demittere equum in flumen, to make his horse to leape into the ryuer.

Demittere in pectus, to sette at his herte, to kepe in remembraunce.

Demittere animum, to abate courage, to lose courage.

Demittere equites in campum, to send forth horsemen into the fiede.

Demittere in terram, to put into the earth.

Demittere puteum, to dygge a pytte.

Robora demittere ferro, to hewe downe great trees.

Metu vultum demittere, to loke downe ward for feare.

Ad minora se demittere, to vouche false to meddle with small matters, or to speake of small thynges.

Demitti & contrahi animo, to be of sainte courage, to be fearfull and in despayre.

In alium demittere, to put into the paunche.

Gladium demittere in imilia, To thrust a sword into ones guttes.

Demium, a pious stone, whiche hath the name of samesse.

Demiurgus, gi, mas, ge. an officer or magistrate among the people, whiche purposed to them all thynges, wherupon they shoulde treat, as the speaker of the parliament among vs.

Demo, dempsi, mere, to take away or abate.

Demere fidem fabulis, to make that men shall not beleue tales.

Demere soleas alicui, to pull of ones shoes.

Demere vngues, to pare ones nayles.

De capite demptum, appayred in substance or value.

Metum demere, to take away feare.

Addere & demere, contrary.

Cibo aliquid demere, to diminish the ones meate.

Demere odorem vini, to make the wyne to haue no sauour.

Demere curam & solitudinem, to put away care and pensiuenesse.

Democedes, a notable phisicion, in the tyme of kynge Darius.

Demochares, an oratour of Athenes, newwe to Demostenes.

Democides, a phisicion, belongynge to Polycrates, the tyranne of Samiens. he wrote a booke of phisike.

Democles, a notable flatterer, in the tyme of Dionysius the tyran.

Democoon, the baker de sonne of Darius.

Democrates, the name of a carpenter, of a notable wrelkar, and of a phisicion.

Democrátia, crátia, fce. ge. a fourme of a common wealth, where the people haue authoritee without any other state.

Democraticus, a, um, that fauoureth the common welth, where the people haue authoritee.

Democritus, an excellent philosophier, brynge a childe, learned of the wyle men of Chaldea astronomy & their diuinitee: afterwarde he wente into Persie, to learne geometrie, after he returned to Athenes, where he gaue his possessions & richesse innumerable vnto the weale publyke, reseruyng a littell gardeyne, wherin he mought at moze libertee, serche out the secretes of nature. He wrote many wonderful woorkes in naturall philosophie and phisicke. whan he becs

hyde

helde the ceter of Athens, he continually laughed at their foolyshe diligence, whiche spared no pennes to great authorites and cythes, that they were not sure to hepe: whiche laboured to great their children great possessions: who cyther died before the fathers, or els ouer luyngge theym, mostely spent awaye all that they fathers left them. But the Atheniens, not perceyving the cause of his laughter, thynkyng hym madde, caused Hippocrates the physicion to goe vnto hym. Who perceyvinge the occasion of his laughter, said: Democritus, is not madde, but the Atheniens be madde, at whom he dooeth laughe. He was before the incarnaciō of Christ 492. yeres.

Demodocus, the name of an harper, of whom Homere maketh mention.

Demogorgus, an enchanter, whiche was supposed to bee of such excellencye, that he had authorities ouer all spirites, that made men asfere.

Demolchus, a poete of Syracusis.

Demolior, iris, iri, to throwe downe any thyng that is builded.

Demolitus, a, um, caste downe.

Demolio, molis, lui, lire, to caste downe.

Demoliri culpam, to discharge him of his faute of blame, to shewe, that he is not in the faute.

Demolitio, ōnis, for. g. a subuersion of beatyng
downe of a thyng.

Demonax, a philosophier in the tyme of Adrian the emperour: he contrarie to all other philoso-phiers, eschewed solitarinesse, and despyed the company and frendshyp of men.

Demonica, a woman, whiche for money betrayed
Ephesus to Brennus.

Demonstro, aui, are, to shewe openly, to declare manifestly.

Digitō demonstrare, to poynte with ones
fynger.

Demonstrabitur, the impersonall.

Demonstrator, oris, one that sheweth or declareth.

Demonstratio, ōnis, f. g. a shewing. also a kind of argument necessarye concludyng the thyng that it proueth, a demonstracion.

Demonstratiuus, a, um, that sheweth or is shewed, or meete to be shewed.

Demonstratiuum genus, a fourme of speakyng, wherein oratours did either commend or dispryse any man openly.

Demópolis, the sonne of Themistocles.

Démophon, or Demophoon, the sonne of The-scus and Phedra kyng of Athens.

Demordeo, mordi, dere, to bite, to bite of:

Demorsus, a, um, bitten.

Demorior, riris, or demóreris, riri, to die vtterly, or be in loue with.

Demoritur ea te, she is greatly in loue with you.

Demortuus, a, um, dead.

Démoror, áris, ári, neutrally, to tarpe or abyde longer: actively, to hepe backe, or cause to tar-re, passively, to be made to tarre. Sometime it is to loke for.

Detinere & demorari aliquem, To make or cause one to tarpe.

Demoratos vos esse video, I see that you haue ben kepte or caused to tarp ouer longe.

Hic tam diu demoratus sum, I haue tarped here so longe.

Demosthenes, the moste excellent oratour of the greces, was fyrste disciple of Plato, after he folowed Eubulides an oratour: and viede such wonderfull diligence and labour, to attayne to the perfection of eloquence, that where he had an impediment in his pronounciation, he by put-tyng small stones in his mouthe, and enforcynge to speake treatably, at laste attayned to moste perfect forme of speakyng. Whan king Philip besieged Athens, and soze distressed it, vpon certayne treatres offered them, he requy-red to haue deliuered vnto hym .x. oratours, of whom Demosthenes was one, and than woulde he rayse his siege. Demosthenes hearyng this, and commynge into the common counsaile, rehered this fable. On a tyme the woulues exhorted the sheapherdes to be in leage with them, where vnto the sheapherdes accorded: than the woulues requyred to haue deli-uered vnto them their mastiues, whiche were the cause of debate betwene them. The shea-pherdes graunted therunto, and deliuered vnto the woulues, theyr dogges, the moste vigilant hepards of their flockes. Afterwarde, the woulues beyng without anye feare, dyd not onely nowe and than eate a shepe, to alaiue their hunger: but dyd also for theyr pleasure rente and teare other in piertes. In like wyse (sayed Demosthenes) kyng Philip, after he hath taken from you your oratours, whiche by theyr wise aduertismentes haue hitherto preserved you from his tyzannie, he will do the semblable.
Whiche the Atheniens hearyng, agreed to his counsaile, and valiantly defended the citee. He was afore the incarnation of Christ.
345. yeres.

Demórus, put a backe, banished.

Demóueo, demoues, móui, ére, to remoue, to put backe.

Demoueri gradu, to be dyspuen backe, to bee constrained to recople.

Demouere a sententia, to cause one to change
his opinion.

Demoueri ex recto, to bee caused to dooe a-gaynst ryght.

Demptus, a, um, put out, taken awaie.

Demugio, demúgis, iui, ére, to bellowe.

Demulceo, si, ére, to stroke gently and softly with the hand, as we do children and houndes, whan we make much of them. Also to merygate or intreate gently.

Caput demulcere, to stroke the heade.

Demum,

Demum, at the laste. sometyne it signifieth onely of alwayes, fynally, whan all is done.
Cognitum est castissimæ demum sciminæ manu moueri posse, They had knowlage, that it coulde be remoued onely with the hande of a chaste woman.
Nunc demum, and Modóne demū, sens that a thyng cometh to passe, or chaunceth slowlye.
Demum, soygned with ille, is, or ita, most commonly signifieth onely, or in deede.
Ille demum est antiquis moribus, that man is in deede well manerced, or hath onely the auncient vertue and maners.
Ea demum magna voluptas est, amonge all the pleasures that a man can haue, that is onely a great and singular pleasure.
Ita demum mihi satisfacias si. &c. You shall only by this meanes contente my mynd if. &c.
Demus, bled of olde wyters for Demum.
Demussatus, a, um, the adiectiue.
Demussata contumelia, displeasure doone by disimulation.
Demutatio, ónis, f. g. a chaungeyng.
Demutulo, aui, are, to cut of.
Demuto, aui, are, to change his maner or faction.
Non demutabo, I will not reuoke that I haue spoken or promysed.
Demutare aliquo orationem, to tourne his communicacion to some matter.
Denaria, the numbze of. 39000. of the coyne called Denarij.
Denarius, ij, mas. gen. in weyght is the seuenth parte of an ounce, in coyne it is as muche in poyce & valuation as our grote, whiche wayeth of our money, nowe currante. vi. d. ob. and the
vii. parte of an haulfe peny.
Denarius, the Romaine peny, wherof were. iij.
sortes. The fyrste was the sixte parte of an ounce, and was more by the thynde parte then the Greke Drachma. An other was the. 7. part of an ounce, 84. to a pounce. The thynde Des narius was the. 8. parte of an ounce, equall with the Greke Drachma, and in value a sterling grote, when eight went to an ounce.
Ad denarium soluere, to pay every peny.
Denarius, a, um, that whiche containeth the num-bze of tenne.
Denarro, aui, are, to tell in oydze.
Denascor, sceris, sci, to reassle to be, to dye.
Denaso, aui, are, to cut or pul of the nose.
Dénaro, dénatas, aui, âre, to swymme, to swym out.
Dendragates, a precious stone, lyke a shubbe or little bushe.
Dendritis, dritidis, f. g. a precious stone, whiche beyng put vnder a tree, maketh that the axe, whan it shall cut it, shall not be dulled.
Dendrocissos, the pup, that groweth by it selfe.
Dendroides, a kynde of spurge.
Dendromalache, the marthe malow.
Dénego, dénegas, aui, are, not to geue, or to de-nye to geue, to denye earnestlye that hee hath done a thyng.

Denicales, certayne holydaies, on the whiche the familie was purged, where one had dyed.
Deni, tenn together.
Vxores habent deni duodenique inter se cõmunes, ten or twelue together haue wyues commune amonge them.
Denicales ferie, certayne sacrifices, whan the whole familie was purged, whan one was deade in the house.
Dénigro, aui, âre, to make blake.
Dénique, in conclusion, fynally, forthermore, at lengthe.
Denominatio, ónis, form. gene. the namyng of
a thyng.
Denominarium, amonge grammarians, that is derpyed of a nounce.
Denomino, aui, are, to name, to geue a name.
Denormo, aui, are, to sette out of rule or oydze, to make vnequall, to make crooked.
Denotatus, a, um, marked, or appoynted out.
Dénoro, aui, âre, to blame, to marke, to marke
out.
Dens, entis, ma. ge. a toothe: also euery thyng, wherewith an other thyng may be holden faste or drawen out: it is sometyne bled for a combe.
Dens aratorius, the couniter of a plough.
Euulsio dentis, tothe drawyng, the pluchyng out of a toothe.
Dentium dolor, the toothe ache.
Aduersi, primores, & anteriores dentes, the foze teethe.
Dentes maxillares, genuini, intimi, the cheke teethe.
Cauernis dentium aliquid indere, to put som-what in to the holoness of the teethe.
Cauere dentium dolorem, To auoyde the toothache.
Colluere dentes, to washe the teethe.
Dentium dolorem prohibere, to preserue from the toothe ache.
Dentium dolori profunt, they be holsome
agaynst the toothe ache.
Dentium dolorem sedat, it easeth the payne.
Dentium dolorem tollit, it healeth the toothe ache.
Dentium mobilitas, the waggyng of the teeth.
Motus dentium stabilire, To make faste the teeth that doe wagge.
Defluunt dentes, teeth doe fall.
Eximere, extrahere, cruer, euellere dentem,
to drawe a tooth.
Hebetare dentes.
Candorem trahunt dentes, they waxe whyte.
Continui & ferrati dentes, loke Conrinuus.
Eburnus dens, a combe of yuorie.
Dens putridus, a rotten toothe.
Fætidus dens, a stynkyng tooth.
Dente maledico carper aliquem, to speake
yll by one, to rayle.

Citare dentem, to pluche out a toothe.
 Dentes conficiunt cibum, the teeth chaw the meate.
 Denfatio, onis, a gatheryng thyche together.
 Denfatus, a, um, made thicke.
 Dense, an aduerbe, signifying thicke or close together, as when many be assembled in a lytell roume.
 Dénfitas, átis, & Denfítudo, inis, thykenesse.
 Coire in densitatem, to gathet thicke together.
 Denso, aui, are, and denseo, to thicken or make thyche.
 Densus, a, um, thyche, harde closed together, compacte, plentious.
 Densus labor, a continuall or perpetuall labour.
 Dentale, lis, n. g. the share of a plough.
 Dentatim, in ordyng the teethe.
 Dentatus, a, um, that hath great teeth, strange teeth, or many teethe.
 Dentata charta, a wytyng conteynyng sharpe and bytyng tauntes.
 Dentex, a certayne sphe.
 Denticulare, to thynke in his teethe.
 Denticulatus, a, um, that hath litell teethe, or made in fourme of a toothe.
 Denticulate falces, fyckles.
 Denticulus, a, um, Dentatus, a, um, Dentosus, a, um, toothed.
 Dentifrangibulum, a thyng wherewith teethe bee broken.
 Dentifrangibulus, li, masc. gen. one that breaketh teethe.
 Dentifricium, ch, n. g. a medicine, wherewith the teethe bee rubbed to make theim white.
 Dentiloquus, he that speaketh betwene the teethe or hspeth, or rather one that in speakyng spyteth out his teeth.
 Dentiloquos omnes mortales faciam, quérone offendero, whom so euer I synde or mete with, I wyll so dawbe hym about the mouthe, that I will make him spytte out his teethe.
 Dentio, iui, ire, to putte foozthe or byerde teethe.
 Dentiscalpium, scalpui, n. g. an instrument, wherewith teethe be scraped.
 Dentitio, ónis, f. g. a puttyng foozth or growyng of teethe. A byedyng of teethe.
 Denúbo, psi, ere, to marie or wedde on the womans parte.
 Denúdo, aui, áre, to despoyle or make naked.
 Denúmero, aui, are, to paie money.
 Denuntiatio, ónis, f. g. manasyng, a signifying or declaryng of a thyng before.
 Hac denuntiatione contreritus, beyng afraide with this thytynng.
 Denuntiatio testimonij, an iniunction to appere, and beare wytnesse.
 Denuntiatio belli, a denouncyng of warre, a sendyng of despaunce.
 Denuntio, aui, are, to shewe or tell a thyng to an other man, to denounce, to signifie or geue knowlage; sometyne to manasse or thytten. Als to Denunciare testimonium, to common or byngge wytnesse into the court of iudgemente, as they dooe in the chauncery, where wytnesses are compelled to come.

 Denunciare vt adesset, he sommoned hym to appere.
 Denuntiare inimicitias, to declare hym to bee his enemy.
 Denuntiare bellum, to profer, denounce, or indite warre or battayle.
 Domum denuntiare, to geue knowlage of a thyng at home as a mans house.
 Denuntiare periculum alicui, to thytten or manasse peryll and daunger to a man.
 Sol ceruleus pluuiam denuntiat, The sonne, hauyng a blew colour, betokeneth or signifyeth rayne.
 Huic homini iam ante denuntio, I tell this man before.
 Denuntiare alicui, to signifie to one, to dooe to wytte.
 Denuo, agapne, estelones.
 Denus, a, um, tenne.
 Deo, the name of Ceres.
 Deocco, aui, are, to harrowe lande, or to break it with rolles.
 Deónero, aui, are, to discharge or disbourden, to unlode.
 Deoratum, for Peroratum.
 Deoratus, a, um, despyed, hertely prayed.
 Deoro, aui, are, to despye hertely. Amonge our lawyers it is to pleade or to conclude in pleasdyng.
 Deorsum, downwarde.
 Sursum deorsum, vp and downe hyther and thither.
 Deorsum versum, downe ryght.
 Directo deorsum ferri, to fall streyght downe.
 Sursum deorsum, vltro citro, y meare, to go vp and downe hyther and thither.
 Deóscolor, laris, atus sum, ari, to kisse sweetely.
 Depacifcor, pactus sum, sci, to make couenaunt, to agree vpon certayne couenantes, to promise, to patise.
 Depacisci morte cupio, I am content to dye.
 Depacisci honestissimo periculo, where many perylls be, to be content to take that, whiche is moste honeste.
 Depacisci partem suam cum aliquo, to promise a man parte of his gayne.
 Depacisci ad condiciones alterius, To agree to all condicions and couenantes that an other man requyrezth.
 Depactus, a, um, the participle of Depacifcor, couenaunted or patised.
 Depactus est cum hostibus, he patysed with his ennemies.
 Depactus, a, um, the participle of Depango, planted or sette.

Depalmo, aui, are, to buffet or clappe one on the cheke with his handes.
 Depango, Depanxi, and depegi, ere, to plant or sette.
 Deparcus, ci, a great nygarde.
 Depasco, aui, scere, to eate as a beast dooeth, to feede beastes in a pasture, to eate vp, to consume.
 Depascere possessionem alienam, to feede his cattell on an other mans pasture.
 Stilo depascere luxuriam orationis, with exercise of wyppynge, to diminish the great aboundance and coppy of wordes and sentences.
 Depascere agros publicos, To eate vp the common fieldes.
 Depascor, the deponent, idem quod depasco.
 Depastio, onis, feedynge of cattell.
 Depastus, a, um, eaten vp with beastes, or that hath eaten.
 Depaupero, aui, are, to impoueryshe, or make poore, to spende awaie a mans goodes.
 Depecto, xui, ere, to hempe diligently.
 Depectere frondium caniciem, to rubbe of the mosse of the bowes.
 Depeciscor, idem quod Depaciscor.
 Depectus, a, um, idem quod Depastus.
 Depeculasso, idem quod Depeculor.
 Depeculator, oris, com. ge. a robber.
 Depeculor, aris, ari, to robbe a common weale, a prince or a place halowed.
 Depeculari laudem alicuius, to abolyshe or destroye the renoume and prayse of a mannes actes.
 Depello, depuli, ere, to put downe, to put away, to put asyde, to remoue, to weane.
 Depelli portenta, whan monsters or straunge thynges doe happen, betokenyng some yll aduerture to come, to repeale it by prayers, auowes or other good deedes.
 Depellere aliquem ad calamitatem, to cast one into misery or trouble.
 Dolorem depellere, to put awaie sorowe and heavynesse.
 Sententia depellere, to force one to change his opinion.
 Spe & de spe depellere, to put out of hope, to make in dyspeyre.
 Depellere agnum a matre, to weane a lambe.
 Depellere lacte, to weane.
 Depellere aquam de agro per hyemem, To tourne or drygne water out of the fielde in the wynter tyme.
 Depellere ex potestate, to putte out of authority.
 Famem depellere cibo, to delaye hunger with meate.
 Depellere a se suspicionem, to put any suspition from him selfe.
 Dependeo, di, ere, to hange downe of a thyng, to depende.
 Dependens lychni laquearibus.

Dependo, di, ere, to pale.
 Soluere & dependere.
 Dependere caput, to bee slayne or lose ones head.
 Dependere tempus amori, to bestowe tyme in loue.
 Dependere mercedem, to paie one his wages.
 Dependere operam, to take payne about a thyng.
 Pro capite dependere pecuniam, to paye a rancome for his lyfe, to reuere his lyfe with money.
 Dependere pernas, To be punished, to suffer pynes.
 Deperdo, perdidit, ere, to lose.
 Deperdere de existimatione, to lose parte of his estimation or credite.
 Deperdere honestatem, to lose ones honestee.
 Lingua usum deperdere, to lose the vse of the tounge.
 Deperdere folia dicuntur arbores, whan the leaues fall awaie.
 Deperio, deperis, rui, operij, ire, to perishe, to die, to loue inordinately, to be loste.
 Deperierunt naues, the shippes were loste or perished.
 Amore impotente deperire aliquem, to loue one immoderately.
 Deperit sapor, the sauour or taste is loste.
 Depesco, scui, scere, to dygne cattell.
 Depessus, rent, tozne.
 Depesta, a maner of cuppes.
 Depexus, a, um, hempte, trynmed.
 Ego ne si uiuo a me exornatum dabo, aded depexum: vixq; dum viuar meminerit semper mei: trowe pe, that I wyll not so deche hym, and trynme hym, that he shall thynke on me as longe as he lyueth.
 Depilatus, a, um, balde, without heares, or that whose heate is plucked of, made balde.
 Depilis, le, without heare, balde.
 Depilo, depilas, aui, are, to pull of heare.
 Depingo, pinxi, ere, to pepnte, to describe.
 Depingere facta alicuius, To describe a mans actes.
 Viram alicuius depingere.
 Cogitatione depingere, to conceyte or imagine a thyng in ones mynde.
 Deplango, planxi, ere, to lament or bewaile greatly.
 Deplano, aui, are, to make playne.
 Deplanto, aui, are, to plant or sette.
 Dpleo, pleui, ere, to emptie.
 Deploratio, onis, f. g. a lamentyng or waylyng.
 Deploratus, a, um, without hope of recouerye or remedie, desperate.
 A medicis deploratus, forsaken of the physicians.
 Deplorata res publica, a desperate common weale, paste all hope of good recouery.
 Res deplorata est, there is no remedie in the matter.

malice.
 Deploro, deploras, aul, are, to lament or bewaile, to complayne.
 Vitam deplorare, to lament and complaine the life that one hath ledde.
 Conqueri & deplorare.
 Deplorare & lamentare.
 Deplorare de re aliqua, to lament or make pitious complaine for any thyng.
 Deplorantur, the panyue.
 Depluo, plui, ere, to rayne downe ryght.
 Deplumus, me, that wherhe hath fewe feathers or none.
 Depolito, depolis, liui, ire, to make perfit, to fy-nish, to polp the or make smother.
 Depono, posui, ere, to laye downe, to depyue,
 to take awaye, to put awaie, to leaue.
 Deponere arma, To put of his harnes, to leaue of warre.
 Deponere bellum, to cease from warre.
 Deponere exercitum, to discharge the armie.
 Deponere imperium, to leaue or geue vpp the rule or gouernance. likewise Deponere officium, magistratum, praturam, provinciam.
 Deponere inimicitias, to leaue all malice.
 Deponere negotium, to leaue businesse.
 Deponere femina, to plant.
 Deponere soleas, to put of ones shoes.
 Deponere onus, to discharge a burdyne or charge, to unlode.
 Deponere aliquid apud aliquem, To laye a thyng in gage or pledge, or to deliuer to one a thyng to kepe.
 Deponere in terram, to plant.
 Deponere ædificationem, to leaue of a buil-dyng.
 Crines deponere, to be polled or notted.
 Deponere desideria alicuius rei, not to be so muche desyrouse of a thyng.
 Formidinem deponere, To shake of feare: lykewise Deponere metum, mœrorem, luctum, molestias, pudorem, timorem.
 Deponere seueritatē, to waxe moze pleasaunte and gentill, and lesse rigourouse in ones behaviour.
 Deponere imperio, to put out of authoritee.
 Deponere ineptias, to leaue tryflyng.
 Deponere, lay downe stakes.
 Deponere ingenia syluestria, to becom tame.
 Deponere aliquid de lenitate, to becom moze
 graue or sadde.
 Deponere memoriam alicuius rei, and De-ponere aliquam rem ex memoria, to forget
 a thyng.
 Deponere apud memoriam, to committe a thyng to memozie.
 Deponere offensionem, to leaue of grudge or displeasure.
 Depontani, aged men, whiche after. 60. yeres, be caste downe from a bypge, or rather men for their age, excused from offices and businesse of the common wealth.

 Depopulatio, onis, f. g. destruction or desolation of a countrey, depopulation.
 Depopulator, oris, mal. g. a robber, a spoyler, a conquerour.
 Depopulor, aris, ari, to destroye or waste a countrey, to robbe or spoyler. There is also read Depopulo, the actiue.
 Deportatio, onis, f. g. a conueyng or carrying,
 sometyme banishing.
 Deportatus, a, um, banished, exiled, caried awaye, conueyghed.
 Deportati, They that are exiled, hauinge no proprietes left in any goodes or landes, after the definition of lawiers, howe be it other an-thours doe vse that word generally for men exilled.
 Deporto, aui, are, to carpe or bring awaye, to battle. sometyme it signifieth to repute.
 Deportare iumentis, vel nauibus.
 Deportare exercitum, to brynge home agayne
 the armie.
 Deportare triumphum, to brynge home the victorie.
 Captiuos Romanos deportare, to carie prisoners to Rome.
 Deportare se aliquo, to goe or conueyhe ones selfe to some place.
 Deportare in solas terras, to banyshe, to exyle.
 Deposco, poposci, scere, to desyre muche or to require, to require earnestly.
 Deposcare omnibus sollicitationibus, To be-maunde or sollicite with all maner sayre promptes.
 Deposcare aliquem ad supplicium, to requyre to haue one to be punyshed.
 Morti deposcare, to requyre to haue one to be put to deathe.
 Depositarius, rij, ma. g. he vnto whome one hath deliuered a thing to kepe. Also he to whome any thyng is laied in guage.
 Depositarius, rij, ma. g. he that leaueth a thyng with an other man.
 Depositum, ti, neu. g. that whiche is left in an other mans keepyng, or that is layed to pledge, a guage. it maye be vied for that chylde in playng call stakes, or the thyng that they playe for.
 Depositum abnegare, to denie that was left to kepe.
 Depositum accipere, to take a thing to guage, to kepe stakes.
 Reddere deposita, to geue by the stakes, or thynges that he had to kepe.
 Depositus, a, um, layed downe, left in an other mans hande, or keepyng. sometyme it doeth signi-fie desperate, or he that is in desperacion.
 Itaque mihi videor magnam & maxime regram, & prope depositam reipublice pars rem suscepisse, therfore me semeih I haue tasken in hande a great parte of the weale publike, Aa not

not onely beyng feeble, but also almost in extreme desperation.

Depostulo, aui, are, to requyre earnestly.

Deprador, aris, ari, to robbe a cuntrye of towne.

Depralior, aris, ari, to fyght.

Deprauate, corruptely.

Deprauatio, onis, f. g. a corruptyng.

Deprauatio verbi, when one turneth a worde to an other sens then it was ment, a misinterpretynge of a worde.

Deprauatus, a, um, depraued, corrupted, made yll.

Deprauatus indulgentia, marred with to much libertie.

Deprauati mores, yll or lewde condicions.

Deprauo, aui, are, to make yll, to depraue, to viciate, to corrupte, to misinterpret.

Corrigere & deprauare, contrary.

Deprecatio, onis, fer. ge. a despyng of pardon, whan we confesse that we haue offended. Also a puttyng of a thyng from vs by intreatee or prayer. Also a charmyng with wordes to dysgwe a waie any thyng.

Dixit deprecationes, cursynges.

Deprecator, oris, mascu. gen. an excuser, he that sueth or intreateth for an other manne, that he shoulde not be punyshed. In lyke maner Deprecabundus.

Deprecator fortunarum alicuius. i. seruator.

Deprecor, aris, ari, to beseeche, to make intreatise, to pray earnestly, to refuse, to despye the contrarye, to put awaie by prayer or intreatee, to denye that whyche wee woulde not haue, to haue in detestation, to respyte, to despyet a man by prayer.

Deprecari veniam, to aske forgeuenesse.

Deprecari alicui ne vapulet, to make requeste or despye for one that he be not beaten.

Deprecari iniuriam, to requyre that he wyll not doe him any wronge.

Deprecari auaritie crimina laudibus frugalitatis, To requyre to haue one excused for his nysgardshyp, because his temperaunce in lyuing seemeth to be worthy commendacion.

Deprecari maleuolentiam, to excuse hym of blame, for the ioye that he hath of an others misfortune.

Claudij inuidiam Gracchi charitas deprecabatur, Gracchus was so well beloued, that for his sake the fautes of Claudius were hyd and not spoken of.

Deprecari munus, to excuse hym in takynge on hym an office or charge.

Deprecari culpam, to excuse him selfe, and despye that the faute be not laied to him.

Deprecari periculum, to pray that he fall not into peryll, or that he be in no daunger.

Deprecari mortem, To despye pardone of death, or to endeuour him to save ones lyfe.

Deprecabitur a vobis, he wyll beseeche you, or he wyll despye you earnestly.

Deprecatum venit ad me, vt sibi ignoscerem, He came to entreate me, that I shoulde forgeue hym.

Pacem deprecari, to intreate for peace.

Deprecari sibi exilium, to despye or make request, that he be not banysed.

Precari, and Deprecari, sometyme contrarye: as Sape precor mortem, mortem quoque deprecor idem.

Deprecari poenam, to requyre or intreate, that he be not punyshed.

Nullam deprecor poenam, I refuse no payne.

Nullæ sunt imagines, quæ me a vobis deprecantur, I haue no memoie of the noblenesse of myne auncestours, which maie make intreatee to you for me.

Odiū summæ improbitatis deprecari excusatione summæ stultitiæ, to defend or excuse hym selfe of some great mischiefe and leudenesse vnder the colour and pretence, that it was committed by folie, or lacke of witte.

Deprehendo, di, dere, to take a manne vntwares, to take tardie, to take one in the dede downyng, to knowe or perceyue by inquiry, or examination, or other meanes. sometyme for Comprahendere, to take.

In adulterio deprehendi, to bee taken in the acte of aduoutrie.

Cursu faram deprehendere, To take in reynyng.

Manifesto deprehendere, to perceyue manifestly.

Facinora oculis deprehendere, to see a mans naughtie actes.

Deprehensio, onis, a takynge.

Deprehensus, or Deprensus, a, um, taken vntwares, so that he canne not tell what to doe, or whither to tourne, taken in the dede downyng known, perceyued.

Testis deprehensus, a wytnesse taken or troypped in his tale.

Deprehensus est in sermone, he was taken in his wordes.

Deprehensus est in scelere, He was taken with the faute.

Depressus, a, um, lowe, pressed downe, boulded, drownd.

Depressus, & Demersus, thurst downe, and boulded vnder the water.

Veritas depressa, trouthe kepte downe and troden vnder fote.

Depressus locus, a lowe place.

Depressa vox, a lowe voyce.

Aqua depressior & altior, contrarie.

Depretio, aui, are, to bynge to a lesse price.

Deprimo, pressi, mere, to kepe downe, to thurst downe, to presse downe, to weygh downe, as one poyle in a balance weygheth heavier than an other.

Deprimere naues, to make shypes to synke and be drownd.

Deprimunt me quæ porro, my houndeysne mas hath me to stoupe.
Exiollere & deprimere, contrarie.
Locum deprimere, to make a place lower.
Deprimere vitem in terram, to plant a vyne.
Depromo, psi, mere, to drawe out, to declare, to fetch out, to take out.
Depromere ex libris, to fetch out of booke.
Depromit ex sensu suo, he fetcheth it out of his owne witte.
Depromere sagittam pharetra, to take an as rowe out of his quiver.
Depromptus, a, um, taken out, drawen out, sets shed out.
Depropero, aui, are, to make muche haste or spede.
Deproperant sedulo sacrificare, They make spede hastie to doe sacrifice.
Depsicus, a, um, or Depsius, a, um, knea ded, moulded, wrought with the hande.
Depso, psi, ptere, To worke a thyng with the handes, to the intent to make it soft, to kneade dowe, ware, or other lyke thyng.
Depuber, or Depubis, depuberis, a childe or yonge beaste, whiche is not come to ripe yeres.
Depuder, he hath layed asyde shame, he is past shame.
Depudico, aui, are, to dishoneste or violate a woman, a worde out of use.
Depugnatus, a, um, well fought.
Depugno, aui, are, to fight valiantly, to stryue, to disagree.
Depugnat voluptas cum honestate, inordi nate pleasure and honestee doe not agree.
Cum animo suo depugnare, to fyght or stryue with ones selfe.
Ferro depugnare, to fyght with a weapon.
Depugnatur, the impersonall, the battayle is fought.
Depulsio, onis, form. g. a puttyng of or lettynge a thyng that it can not appoche.
Quæ causa iustior est belli gerendi, quam ser uitutis depulsio? What better cause is there to fyght, than to withstande that we bee not brought into seruitude and bondage?
Depulso, aui, are, the frequentatiue of Depello.
Depulsor, oris, mas. g. one that hepyth backe or putteth awaie a thyng.
Depulsus, a, um, put downe, weaned, looke Depello.
Depulsus, a, um, for Depulsus.
Depunio, or rather Depuio, ui, ire, to beate.
Depuratus, a, um, purified, clenfed from dregges and fylthe.
Depurgo, aui, are, to cleanse any thyng vnder
foote, to purge.
Depurgare locum aliquem ab herba, to weede any place, or to make it cleane from weedes and grasse.
Depurgare pisces, to garbysh fishes.
Depurgare crimen, to dyscharge one of the faulte whiche is layed vnto hym.

Depuro, aui, are, to make cleane or pure, to pu rifie or cleanse.
Deputo, aui, are, to cutte of, to esteeme, to iudge,
to repute, to thinke.
Deputare vineam, to cut a vyne.
Deputare rationes, to rehen or make accompte.
Deputat se indignum, he thynketh hym selfe vnworthy.
Operam alicuius deputare parui pretij, To esteeme a mans labour or paynes littell worth.
Omne id deputat esse in lucro, all that he res
keneth for a vantage.
Me quouis malo dignum deputem, I would thynke my selfe worthy any mischiefe, or pus shement.
Déqueror, eris, estus sum, déqueri, to come playne.
Derado, rasi, etc, To haue of or barke of, to strape of.
Derbices, people of Asia, about the sea called Mare Caspium, which haue this custome, that whan they friends come to the age of. lxx.
yeres. they slea them, and eate them, callenge all they neyghbours to the feaste. Olde wo men they slea not, but doe onely strangle them, and afterwarde bury them. Semblably, if men die before the saide age, they also doe burie them.
They punyssh euery offence, (be it neuer so lit tell) with death.
Derce, a well mooste colde in sommer, betwene
Bibilis, and Sepobriga.
Derceto, a goddessse name of the Assyrians.
Dercyllus, one of the capitaynes of Pyrrhus.
Derelictus, us, and Derelictio, onis, f. g. a lea uynge or forsakyng.
Derelictus, a, um, forsaken, lefte destitute.
Pro derelicto rem aliquam habere, to for saie a thyng utterly.
Derelictus ab omni spe, he of whom is no good hope of honestee, an hopelesse.
Incultum & derelictum solum, a ground vnc
tylled and vnhousebanded.
Derelicta & celebris regio, contrarie.
Derelictui habere, not to care for a thyng, or to neglect it.
Derépo, pui, ere, to creepe awaie.
Deribitores, they whiche dooe noumbe an ara mie, and doe paye the souldiours their wages:
loke Diribitores.
Derideo, derides, derisi, ére, to laughe to shoone,
to moche.
Deridere atq; contemnere.
Deridere & Arridere, contrary.
Deridiculum, li, n, g. a shoone or a moche.
Deridiculo esse, to be a laughyng stoche.
Deridiculum est, it is a thyng to be laughed at.
Corporis deridiculum, a deformitee of the bodpe, for whiche one is mocked or laughed to shoone.
Per deridiculum audiri, To bee laughed to shoone.

Skorne whan one is harde to tell his tale.
 Deridiculus, a, um, that is to be laughed at.
 Deripio, deripis, ripui, ere, to take awaye, to dispoyle.
 Deripere aliquem capillo, to pull one downe
 by the heare of the heade.
 Derisor, oris, ma. g. a mocker, one that laugheth an other to skorne.
 Derisus, a, um, mocked or had in contempte.
 Derisus, us, m. g. mockery, laughyng to skorne.
 Deriuatio, onis, f. g. a tournyng of water from one place to an other.
 Deriuo, aui, are, to diuinate from one to an other,
 to laie to one, as to lay to a mans default, or charge, to take from one and geue to an other.
 Deriuare aquam, to drayne water by a fowes
 rowe, to tourne it an other waie.
 Deriuare iram alicuius in se, To tourne ones wrath and displeasure in his owne necke.
 Deriuare crimen, to tourne the faulte from one to an other.
 Deriuare suam culpam in aliquem, to laye his owne faulte to an other mans charge.
 Deriuauit responsionem alio, he tourned his answere an other waie, or to other matters.
 Aliquid in domum suam deriuare, to turne a thyng to his ppyuate profite.
 Derodo, si, ere, to gnawe or gnbble.
 Derogatio, onis, f. m. gene. an abolishinge of some parte of a lawe. A derogation or tak-inge awaye of parte of an other mans prayse or authoritee.
 Derogito, aui, are, to make instant desire, to pray hertely.
 Derogo, aui, are, to minishe, to derogate, to take awaye, to abolishe parte of a lawe, by a decree of an other lawe.
 Derogare sibi, to diminishe his owne estimation, to saie he is not able to doe so muche as he can, to disable ones selfe.
 Derogare de fide testium, to diminishe the credence of a wytnesse.
 De lege aliquid derogare, to fordwere some part of the lawe.
 Derogare fidem alicui, to put no trust in one.
 Derosus, a, um, partici. a Derodor, gnawen or gnbbled.
 Derfai, people of Greece in the borders of Thace.
 Derumpo, rupi, ere, idem quod Dirumpere, to breake.
 Deruncino, aui, are, to cut or pull of that whiche is superfluous, to dissipate, or breake in peeces.
 Deruprum, ti, n. g. a place that is steepe downe.
 Deruptus, a, um, broken, steepe downe.
 Deruo, rui, ruere, to fall downe.
 Deruere de laudibus alicuius, to diminishe an other mans prayse and commendacion.
 Des, a poyle of eyght ounces.
 Desacro, aui, are, to consecrate or dedicate.
 Desalto, aui, are, to daunce foorth a daunce.

Desauio, saului, ire, to bee wood angry. Comes tyme to cease to be angry, to shewe extreme cruelltee.
 Sanguine plebeio desauire, to shewe extreme cruelltee towardes the common people.
 Descendo, di, ere, to go downe, to descende. Some tyme onely to go, to condescende or agree to a
 man.
 Descendere in altum, to go deepe downe.
 Descendere in aciem, to go into the battayle.
 Descendere in sese, to humble hym selfe, to consider in hym selfe the basenes of his estate.
 Descendere in causam, to come in styffe, to take parte and ioyne with one in any accusation, suite, or variante of the lawe.
 Descenditur gradibus, one goeth downe by stappes, or stappes.
 Descenderunt ex oculis lachrymæ, the teares fell from his eyes, he wepte.
 Descendimus ad nostras nauiculas, we went to our shippes.
 Descendere equo, and ex equo, To lyghte
 downe from hysse backe.
 Descendunt radice arbores, the trees take deepe rote.
 In mare descendit Tybris, it renneth. &c.
 Descendunt in plana, Corylus, Cornus, &c,
 they growe. &c.
 Paratus ad omnia descendere, to submitte hym
 selfe, to condescende or agree.
 Vbi pluribus diebus non descendit alius, one hath not gone to the stole.
 Cibus celeriter descendit, whan it is of quicke
 digestion.
 Ad condiciones alterius descendere, to agree to an other mans offer or condicion.
 Descendere ad alterutram conditionem vult, he woulde haue hym to agree to one of the offers.
 Descendere in certamen, to enter into battaile, to fyght.
 Descendere ad extremum auxilium, to vse
 the extreme refuge and socour.
 Descendere obuiam alicui, to go to mete with
 one.
 Descendere in omnia familiaritatis officia,
 whan a pynce or great estate vouchsafeth to shewe all tokens of familiaritee to a meane persone.
 Ad preces descendere dicitur quis, whan hee
 dooeth entreate for that he maie commaunde.
 Descendit ad hyacinthum hæc gemma, It doth muche resemble the hyacinth.
 Descensus, us, masc. gen. a goyng downe, a des-cendyng.
 Descensio, onis, f. g. idem.
 Descensiones facere, to descend or go downe.
 Descio, iui, ire, to knowe not.
 Descisco, iui, sciscere, to disagree, to leaue, to forsake, to leaue his capitayn or souerayne and go to an other, to rebelle.

Desciscere

Desciscere à se, to chaunge his forme of lyuynge or faction.
 Desciscere à consuetudine parentū, to leaue
 the custome of maner of his parentes.
 Desciscere à natura, to alter from ones nature.
 Desciscere ab opinione alterius, to forsake an other mans opinion.
 Desciscere à veritate, to forsake the trouth.
 Desciscere à vita, to die.
 Descitum, thei personall.
 Descobinatus, a, um, lame, maimed, hursle.
 Describo, psi, ere, to wyte out of a ropp, to owe, to appoynte, to assigne, to sorte, to deuide, to distribute, to place, to peinct of wyte aduys-edly, to declare or describe.
 Describere pecuniam in ciuitates, To assesse sommes of money in a tace to be paid in sun-dyle tities.
 Describere rationes, To make accomptes in an ordre.
 Non credis animas in alia corpora describi,
 id est transferri.
 Describere in genera, to diuynge a thyng into dyuers hyndes.
 Describere comcediam Græcam, to translate it into latine, and make another like it of the same argument.
 Duodena describit iugera in singulos, he a poynteth, assigneth or deuideth.
 Latronem & sicarium aliquem describere, to signifie one by the name of theese or murderyr, without rehersyng his ppyr name.
 Describere librum ab aliquo, To wyte out a booke by an other mans copie.
 Descriptio, onis, f, g, a copie, a description.
 Descriptio populi, a diuidynge of the people into dyuers parties and bandes, in a quarrell betwene two persons.
 Descriptiones temporum, The hystoppe of thynges, whiche haue happened, accordynge to the ordre of tyme.
 Defeco, aui, & ui, are, to cut in sunder, to cut of.
 Defecare prata, to mowe the medowes.
 Defecare vitem, to cut a vine.
 Defecare collum alicui, to cut of ones necke.
 Defecratus, a, um, discharged.
 Defecro, aui, are, to discharge.
 Defectio, onis, a cuttyng of or moweyng downe of coyne, strawe, or grasse.
 Defectus, a, um, cut of, mowed downe.
 Desedeo, desedi, ere, to sytte downe.
 Desero, ul, ere, to leaue or forsake.
 Deserere pignus, to lose his gage.
 Deserere vadimonium, To make defaulte where one is bounde to appere befoze a iudge or other great officer.
 Deserere in malis, to forsake one in aduersitee.
 Deserui me fides & fama, I haue lost my credence and god name.
 Deseri à mente, whan ones wyttes doe faile
 hym.

Causam suam deserere, To geue ouer, or to geue place in a matter, whan one hath enter-prised to defende it.
 Deserunt hunc genua, his knes faile hym,
 his legges doe weery.
 Preces alicuius deserere, not to heare ones
 praylers, not to doe as one desyareth hym.
 Deserere vitam suam, To offer ones selfe to deathe willingly, to fles hym selfe.
 Desertio, onis, f, g, a forsakynge in tyme of nede.
 Deserto, aui, are, to forsake.
 Desertor, oris, m, g, he that leaueth his cuntry, and goeth to his ennemis: A traytour, one that forsaketh his frende in tyme of nede.
 Desertor miles, a souldiour that departeth without licence.
 Desertor salutis mee, one that forsaketh me
 whan my lyfe is in isoperdie.
 Desertum, ti, n, g, a deserte or wyldernes.
 Desertus, a, um, forsaken, not habitable, where no man dwelleth, deserte.
 Deserta regio, a countrey not inhabited.
 Desertus ager, a filde out of tythe, unhutbanded.
 Deserta causa, is to ouer come, where none
 defendeth.
 Desertus homo, a man forsaken.
 Celebris & desertus, contrary.
 Deserui, uiui, ire, to obeye or serue humbly.
 Sometime to doe plesuryce.
 Deseruire studiis, to apply learnynge or study.
 Deseruire amicis, to obeye his frendes, and apply hym selfe to folowe theyr myndes.
 Deseruire corpori, to cherysh the body.
 Deses, desidis, om, g, vnoccupied, ydell.
 Vita deses, an ydell lyfe.
 Cura deses, negligence of mynde.
 Passu deside ire to go slowly.
 Desidem ab opere suo aliquem facere, To make one a loyterer, and not to regarde his worke.
 Desicco, aui, are, to drye by.
 Desideo, desides, sedi, ere, to sytte styll, to abide in a place, to be ydell.
 Desiderium, looke Desyderium.
 Desidea, æ, f, g, slouthfulness, ydelnesse.
 Animum inficere desidia, to infecte the mynde with ydelnesse or slouthfulness.
 Socordia & desidia.
 Desidiosus, slouthfully, ydelly.
 Desidiōsus, a, um, full of ydelnesse, slouthfull.
 Desido, desidis, sedi, ere, to sytte downe, to go to sytte, to lyght downe, to synke downe, to as-swage and fall lower, to chinke or gape, as the earth doeth.
 Terra desedit, the grounde opened or gaped.
 Desidit tumor, the swellynge assuageth.
 Designatio, onis, f, g, a deuple or ordinaunce, an appoyntment.
 Designator, oris, mas, ge, a marshall, which setteth or appoynteth every man to his place conuenient,

uenient, after his degree or office. They whiche in solemne pompes and syghies, see that men kepe their places and order, be called Designatores.

Designatus, a, um, assigned, ordeyned, appoynted, predestinate.

Designati consules, Prætores, Tribuni, they whiche were elected and appoynted to succede them which at that tyme exercysed the sayde offices. Res designata, a thyng ordeyned, purposed, and predestinate.

Respublica ratione & disciplina disignata, a common weale sette in good order and well appoynted.

Designo, aui, are, to assigne, to note or signifie, to committe or dooe a thyng newly. also to choise a thyng, and appoynt it for some purpose.

Agrum seminario designare, To ordeyne or apointe to be sowed.

Digitis vulgi designari, to bee poynted at of the people as one goeth in the strettes.

Designare nota ignominie, to putte one to some reproche or open rebuke.

Defilio, defilis, lui, lij, or liui, ire, to leppe or light downe.

Defilire ad pedes, to lyght on foote.

Defilire ab equo, to lyght of his horse.

Desino, sij, or siui, ere, to leane, to cesse, to make an ende, to holde ones peace.

Definas, holde thy peace.

Definere artem, to leaue the craft.

Definit in violam, it dyatweth to the colour of violet.

Define ei succensere, be no more angry with hym.

Definere gradatim, to make an ende of a thing by littell and littell.

Definunt caduca, transytoy thynges haue an ende.

Definere bellum, to leaue of warre.

Definit dicto magistri esse obediens, He is no more obedient to his maisters commaundement.

Definit in orbem, the ende is rounde lyke a circle.

Definitur, the impersonall.

Desipio, desipis, pui, or piui, ere, and desipisco, to doe foolyshe, to waxe foolyshe.

Senectute desipere, to dote or waxe foolyshe for age. Desipere & delirare.

Desisto, destiti, ere, to leaue of, to abyde or tary, sometyme to departe.

Desistere conatu, and incepto, to leaue his enterpryse.

Desistere litibus, to leaue suite.

Desistente autumnno, at the ende of autumnne or haruest.

Ne desistatis currere, cesse not to renne continually.

Quid illic destitisti obsecro tam diu? I pray the, why dydest thou tary there so longe?

Quid ille iratus abs te desistit? What is the matter, that he parted from the beeryng so angrie?

Rogat ut id facere desistant, he despyeth them that they wyl doo no more so.

Desistere fuga, to cesse to flee or renne awaye.

De aliqua mente desistere, to chaunge ones mynde or opinion in a matter.

Sententia, or de sententia desistere, idem.

Negotio desistere, to leaue of a busynesse.

Itinere desistere, to breake of ones iourney.

Desitus, a, um, lesse, forsaken.

Non esset desitum, They shoulde not haue lesse of.

Ille orationes legi sunt desitæ, Those oracions are no more reade.

Desita ars, a science out of vse, not spoken of.

Primus Papisius est vocari desitus, he was the first that was lesse to be called Papisius, or in hym the name of Papisius first ceased.

Desolatus, a, um, that is made desolate, or destroyed.

Loca deserta & desolata, desolate and deserte places.

Desolo, aui, are, to make desolate.

Despectio, onis, fæm. g. a despying, a looking downwarde.

Despecto, aui, are, to loke muche downwarde.

Despectus, us, regarde or syght. sometyme despitte, contempte, neglecting.

Despectus, a, um, despyed, contemned, lytell sette by.

Desperanter, desperately.

Desperatio, onis, dispye to obteyne a thyng.

Victoria desperatio, dispaye to obteyne victorye.

Desperatus, a, um, desperate, also wherein one hath no hope.

Desperò, aui, are, to dispaye, to haue no hope at all.

Desperare fugam, to haue no hope to flee.

Honores desperare, to haue no hope to come to honour.

Pacem desperavi, I haue no hope of peace at all.

Desperavi de re publica, I haue no hope that euer the common weale shall be in good case agayne.

Ab aliquo desperare, to dispye that he maye haue any helpe or succour of one.

Desperare sibi, or de se.

Desperare suis fortunis, to haue no hope to saue his goodes.

Desperare saluti, or salutem, to haue no hope to saue his lyfe.

Turpiter desperatur, quicquid fieri potest. Despicabilis, to bee despyed.

Despicatio, onis, fæ. g. idem quod Despicatus.

Despicatus, us, m. g. contempte, despitte.

Despicatui duci, to bee contemned or despyed.

Despicatus, a, um, he by whom no man setteth, despyed, despised, contemned.

Despiciencia, a, f. g. despying or contemnyng.
Despiciencia rerum humanarum, the contēpt of worldly thynges.
Despicio, despicias, exi, ere, to loke or beholde downe, to despise. Also for Aspicere, to see or loke. also to sette lytell by, sometyme to resgarde or consyder.
Despicere in terram, to loke downe vpon the grounde.
Despicor, âris, âri, depo. to despise, to contemne.
Despicus, ei, mas, g. a watche man to see who cometh, as it is in a towne of warre.
Despolio, aui, are, to despoyle, to robbe.
Despoliare digitos, to pull the rynges from ones fyngers.
Templum despoliare, to spoyle or robbe a temple or churche.
Despoliare virgis dorsum alicuius, to beate one untill he bleede.
Despondeo, di, ere, to affiaunce or betrouthe, to promysse ones sonne or daughter in mariage, to sayle in courage, to despayre.
Despondere animum, to bee in desperacion of weete of lyfe, to despayre of anye thing that a man seeketh for.
Despondere sapientiam, to despayre to come to wysedome.
Despondere prouintiam, to geue one charge or rule of a countrey.
Despondere sibi domum alicuius, To make hym selfe assured to haue an other mans house.
Spes reip. despondetur te consule, men despayre, or the hope is loste.
Despondebitur, one shall make him agreed.
Desponsatus, a, um, idem quod desponsus.
Desponsata & destinata laus, prayse looked for and detwe.
Desponso, aui, are, to affiaunce a woman.
Desponsus, a, um, affiaunced, or promysed in mariage.
Desponsa laus, prayse or commendation that is worthily geuen to a man.
Despreius, a, um, greatly contemned, braye lytell sette by.
Despūmo, aui, are, to shimme or clarifie any liour. also to caste by some, to some.
Despuo, ui, ere, to spette downe, or to spette on a thyng, to detest or delude, to contemne.
Despuere in mores, to blame the maniers or condicions of one.
Despuitur, the impersonall.
Desquamō, aui, are, to shale a fythe.
Desquamare pisces, to take of the scales from fythes.
Desquamare arbores, to bathe trees.
Desquamare vestem, to busle clothe.
Desterto, ui, ere, to shotte.
Destico, aui, are, to make a noyse lyke a ratte.
Destillo, aui, are, idem quod Distillo.
Destinatio, ōnis, a purpose, appoyntement, a deliberacion.

Destinatus, a, um, appoynted, certayne, determined.
Destino, aui, are, to pourpose, to appoynte, to depute, to prepare, to chuse, to tye to a thyng, to sende, to sette a pyce, to leuelle at a marke.
Quanti destinatus es? For howe muche will he sell his house?
Destinare puellam, to promise the mayden in mariage to one.
Destinare diem necis alicui, to apoynt a daye whan one shall be hylled.
Idem certum destinare, to endeuour to hytfe euen in huryng or styng, as it were to leuell.
Destinare spe aliquid futurum, to hope, and as it were to propheticie, that a thyng will come to passe.
Destinare animo, vel animis, & in animo, to purpose in his minde.
Destinare animo authorem cedis, to suspete one to be the authour of the murder.
Destinatum est mihi, and Destinatum est mihi in animo, I haue purposed.
Destinare egrum cibo, to appoynte a sycke man to eate meate.
Destinare alicui prouinciam, to appoynte or assigne to one the gouernance of a prouynce.
Destinare aliquid agere, to pourpose to dooe a thyng.
Destinare legationem, to sende an ambassade.
Destituo, ui, ere, to forsake, to leaue, to sayle at ones nebe, to disapointe one; to despyue or take fro, to louse or vnhynde, to set downe a man, to breake promysse.
Destituit omnes seruos ad mensam ante se, He dyd sette downe all his seruantes at the table before hym.
Somnus destituebar, I coulde slepe no more.
Destituere spem, To disapoynte one of the truste that he had in him.
Destituit aliquem, he brake promise with one.
Destituit ciuitatem, he disapointed the citee.
Inceptum opus destituere, to leue of a worke that one hath enterprysed.
Nimia siccitas destituit plantas naturali alimēto, i. priuat, doeth make them to lacke.
Destituere nauis anchoris, to lose.
Destitutio, ōnis, f. g. a leaping or forsaking.
Destitutus, a, um, forsaken, destituted, despyued. sometyme one that is desperat.
Destrigmentum, ti, neu. ge. that is scraped of a thyng.
Destringo, xi, ere, to hynde harde, to cut of, to rubbe or scrape of. also to abate.
Olea destringenda est, must bee pruned or cut.
Destrinxit aciem, it blemysed the syght.
Destructile, that whiche shall be destroyed.
Destruo, xi, ere, to destroye, to throwe downe that whiche is buylded.
Destruere testes, to destroye the wytnesses by shewynge of their yll maners, to bynne them out of credence.

 Desubito, suddenly, unproued.
 Desubulo, aui, are, to perce, properly with an aule or bodkyn.
 Desudafco, scere, to labour vntyll he sweate.
 Desúdo, aui, are, to sweate of labour muche.
 Desuefacio, desuefacis, to bynge out of vse, to leaue ones facion.
 Desuefactus, out of custome of vse.
 Desuefio, fieri, to be brought out of vse, to bee disvled.
 Desueo, desues, eui, ere, to bynge out of cus-tome, to disuse.
 Desuesco, sueui, suescere, to disuse of chaunge ones custome of facion.
 Desuetudo, inis, f. g. a disuse.
 Desuetus, out of vse.
 Desultor, oris, ma. ge. he that can vault an horse, or leape from one horsebacke to an other. also those menne of warre, that in tyme of battayle woulde leape downe of theyr horses quickely, and fyght on fote, and leape vp agayne as quickly, were called Desultores.
 Desultorius, a, um, that leapeth from one to an other. also vncoustant, waueryng, variable.
 Desultoria leuitas, spoken prouerbyally of an vncoustant and waueryng persone.
 Desultoriequi, horses that serued for the saule diours called Desultores.
 Desultura, a, fig. lyghtyng vp and downe, hautyng of an horse, leappng from one to an other.
 Desum, fui, esse, to lacke, to fayle.
 Deesse causa, not to defende one, not to take ones parte.
 Deesse occasione, not to take a thyng whan occasion hapneth.
 Deesse officio, not to dwe his duities or en-deuour.
 Deesse sibi, to bee negligente in his owne bussynesse.
 Desuit animus, his courage fayled.
 Non desunt qui interpretentur, some men doe interprete, or there be some that.
 Deesse alicui opera, not to helpe one.
 Deesse voluntati amicorum, not to folowe his frendes will.
 Deesse & abundare, contrary.
 Non animus ei, sed vires defuerunt, he lacked not a mynde, but power and strength.
 Arbitrabatur non defore, he thoughte there wolde be some.
 Deesse conuiuiio, not to be present at a feast.
 Desumo, psi, mere, to take out, to choole.
 Desuper, from aboue. Desursum idem.
 Desyderabilis, le, worthy to be wysshed for, or desyred.
 Desyderatio, onis, f. g. idem quod desyderium.
 Desyderatus, a, um, desyred, wysshed for, that lacketh.
 Desyderati, men dead, or slayne in battayle.
 In eo pralio trecenti capti, quinquaginta mislia desyderata sunt, In that battayle thre hundred were taken, and fiftye thousande slayne and deade.

 Desyderata in magno philosopho grauitas, the grauitie, which is requyred to bee in so great a philosopher.
 Desyderium, rij, neu. gen. desyre, loue, desyre, studie. sometyme absence, death, or the lacke of
 a thyng.
 Societas alicuius, and desyderium, contrary.
 Multarum rerum desyderio te angi necesse erat, Thynges muste be greued with the sorrowfull remembrance of dyners thynges.
 Desyderium scabendi, the itche.
 Desyderia mulierum, the steeryng of the mens strenuous flize.
 Desyderia oculorum, The dyscase called Ophthalmia.
 Afficere desyderio, to make desyrous.
 Desyderio urbis flagrare, to be very desyrous of the citee.
 Desyderio incendi, moueri, teneri, angi, To be veraye desyrous.
 Desyderio alterius aliquid facere, to dooe a thyng for an other mans sake.
 Relinquere desyderium sui apud aliquem, to make one to desyre or wishe for hym, whan he is gone.
 Ita magno desyderio fuit ei filius, He was so greatly desyrous of his sonne, or he longed so muche for his sonne.
 Erat in desyderio ciuitatis, The whole citee desyred hym, or wysshed for hym.
 Incutere desyderium, to make one desyrous.
 Meum desyderium, my desyre.
 Desyero, aui, are, to desyre. to wyshe for a thyng. also to requyre to loke for, to fynde lacke of.
 Lepidus quod ego desyderabam fecit, That I desyred, Lepidus did.
 Neq. nunc vires desyero adolescentis, non plusquam adolescens tauri vires desyderabam, For I nowe dooe moze wyshe to haue a yong mans strength, than whan I was yong I wysshed the strength of a bulle.
 Virtus nullam aliam mercedem suorum la-borum desyderat, prater hanc laudis & gloria, Vertue requyrez none other rewarde for hir labour, but this only of praise and renoume.
 Quis ab eis vllam rem laude dignam desydes-rat? Who loketh for any thyng of theim wooz thie commendacion?
 Si erit bellum (vt video fore) partes mee
 non desyderabuntur, If it chaunce to bee war (as I perceyue it will) there shall lacke nothing in me, in dooyng my duetie, or for my parte I wyll not fayle.
 Curia vires meas non desyderat, The senate hath no nede of myne ayde.
 Desyero abs te aliquid, He seemeth thou dooest not as I woulde haue the to dooe, I find lacke

lacke of sumwhat in the.
 Desyderauit non nunquam Agrippa patientiam, He was soye that Agrippa was no more patient, or he often tymes founde lacke of paci-ence, or wyshed more patience. &c.
 Ut ego tuum dolorem amorémque desydesro, I synde lacke that thou dost not loue, nor arte not soye.
 Hæc longam desyderant orationem, These thynges require many woordes, or to be spoken of at large.
 Nihil desydero, I passe not, I care not, I des-syre nothyng at all.
 Desyderare Ciceronis eloquentiam, to be sore that he hath not Ciceros eloquence.
 Nulla nauis desyderabatur, Neuer a shyppe perished or was losse.
 Detectus, a, um, discouered, disclosed, made apparant and manifest, bare, naked.
 Detectus caput, he that hath his heade vncouered.
 Dētego, regi, ere, to disclose or discouer, to open,
 to vtter.
 Dētere stomachum, to vtter his stomake or
 mynde.
 Dētere insidias, to disclose or open wyles or deceiptes.
 Detendo, di, ere, to stretche out, or to stretche forth.
 Detentio, ōnis, fœm. gen. a withholdyng or restynyng.
 Deter, lackyng somewhat, yll.
 Detērior, woofse.
 Deterrimus, woofse.
 Color deterrimus, a very yll colour.
 Deteriori conditione esse, to be in woofse state or condicion.
 Deterius facere, to appayze a thyng, to make it woofse.
 Deteriore tempore, at a woofse occasion.
 Deteriore iure esse, to be in woofse condicion.
 Detergeo, es, or Detergo, is, si, ere, or ere, to wype of, to make cleane, to scoure.
 Detergere fastidia, to put away lothsomnesse.
 Lachrymas detergere, To wype away the tear-res from ones eyes.
 Detergere gemmas, to rubbe of the buddes of the vine.
 Detergere sarmenta arboribus, to cut grasses from trees.
 Remos detergere, to cut of the oyes.
 Determinatio, ōnis, f. g. a determination, a conclusion or endyng.
 Determinatus, a, um, determined, discussed.
 Dētermino, aui, are, to prescribe the boundes or lymittes of a thyng, to determyne or discusse.
 Dētero, triui, ere, to bryste, to beate oute, as graghe is beate out of the care with thye thyng or tredyng, to empaire, to hurt or weare.
 Deterere laudem alicuius, to diminish.
 Deterere calces, to weare out shoes.

Deterere sumprum, to lose his costes or expenses.
 Deterere frumenta, to thye the corne.
 Aliquid vsu ipso deteretur, somewhat will be woone away with vse.
 Famæ alicuius detētere, for Detrahere.
 Deterreo, ui, ere, to put in feare, to let by feare, to discourte, to feare one from his purpose, to discourage from a thyng.
 Deterre a sententia, to make one a frayde to abyde in his opinion.
 Deterre a studijs, to feare one from studie or learnyng.
 Deterre a scribendo, to make one a frayde to wyte.
 Deterre & Cohortare, contrary.
 Deterrime, an aduerbe, whiche signifieth in woofse
 condicion, moste vngacious.
 Deterritus, a, um, abashed, made a frayde.
 Ab officio deterritus, made a frayde to dooe his duettie.
 Detestabilis, le, abhominable, detestable.
 Detestabile & pestiferum.
 Detestatio, ōnis, fœ. gen. abhorryng, execration, summonyng with witness, also Spuleus cas-keth it for geldyng.
 Detestor, âris, âri, to abhorre, to detest, to haue in abhominacion, to take earnestly to witness, to eschue and putte from hym by woordes. As mong Ciuilians Detestari is to summon a man with witness.
 Detestari inuidiam, to eschue enuie.
 Caput alicuius detestari hostili prece, to curse or banne.
 Detestari iram dei in caput alicuius, to curse with a solemne othe, to wythe the vengeance and wrath of god to light on one.
 Aeuertere & detestari.
 Detexo, xui, ere, to weaue, or to wynde.
 Detexere telam, to weaue by the webbe.
 Detexere aliquid viminibus, To make of others.
 Detineo, detines, tuiui, ere, to withholde, to res-tregne from libertee, to let or cause to tary.
 Detinere aliquem & demorari.
 Detinere aliquem de suo negotio, to let one from his busynesse.
 Maiori aliquo negotio detineri, To be letted or caused to tary by the meanes of some great busynesse.
 Detinent terras niues, The snowe lieth longe
 vpon the grounde.
 Detines me suspensum, thou keepest me longe in doubt.
 Detineri ventis, to bee kepte in any place by the meane of contrary wyndes.
 Detondeo, detondi, ere, to sheare or clyppe, to notte or polle.
 Détono, ui, are, to make a greete sounne or noyse.
 Detorno, aui, are, to woofse as tourners doo, to iourne or thyme.

Detórqueo, tórñ, quère, to boole, to tourne out of the right way. also to tourne a thyng from the one syde to the other.
 Cursum detorquere ad aliquem, to tourne towards one in rennyng.
 Recte facta detorquere, to interpryte in an yll parte the thyng that is well dooen.
 Praue detorta opinio, an opinion mistaken, and farte from the true meanyng.
 Detorquere à virtute, to toune ones mynde from vertue.
 Felstere & detorquere voluntatem alicuius, to toune oꝝ wrythe a mans mynde to an other purpose.
 Detorsus, a, um, tourned away, wrythed.
 Detractio, ónis, fœ. g. a pluchynge away oꝝ from one. It is also dysprysynge oꝝ yll reposte, detraction, sclaudynng, backbitynge. It signifieth also withdawayng of any thyng necessary. also purgeynge of excrementes & yll humours of the body.
 Detractio sanguinis, lettynge of bloud.
 Detractio alieni, the takynge away of an other mans gooddes, extorcion.
 Detractor, óris, masc. ge. he that reposteth yll, oꝝ speaketh yll of any one, a slanderer, backbiter, oꝝ detractor.
 Detractus, a, um, withdawayen, plucked away.
 Détraho, xi, ere, to drawe oꝝ plucke of, to take from one by violence, to reposte yll of one, to diminish oꝝ abate, to pull away. sometyme to plucke backe.
 Detrahère alumnus mamma, To weane a chyld.
 Detrahère de celo, to pulle out of heauen, oꝝ from heauen, to put one out of great estimation.
 Detrahère alicui, to reposte yll, oꝝ say yll of one.
 Detrahère de autoritate Senatus, to haue the senate in contempte, to diminish the authorytee of the Senate.
 Detrahère de se, to blame him selfe.
 Detrahère de pecunia, to abate of the money.
 Detrahère de suis commodis, to minishe his owne commodities oꝝ profits.
 Detrahère in iudicium, to byng in iudgement.
 Detrahère sanguinem, to draw bloud of one.
 De fama alicuius detrahère, to minishe the estimation of one.
 De pondere detrahère, to abate of the wright.
 De suo iure detrahère, To remitte oꝝ abate somewhat of his right.
 Fidem verbis alicuius detrahère, to cause one not to be beleued.
 Ex summa detrahère, to abate of the summe.
 Ex redditu detrahère, to minishe his reuenues.
 Precio detrahitur, the price is abated.
 Detrahère collo, to plucke from ones necke.
 De digito annulum detraxit, he plucked his rynge from his fynger.
 Non cessat de nobis detrahère, he ceaseth not to diminish the our estimation, by his yll reposte.

 Detrahère calamitatem alicui, to put one out of myserie and trouble.
 Detrahère honorem debitum alicui, to take from one the honour that is due to hym.
 Detrahère fastidium, To take away lothesomenesse.
 Ut cum ab illa iniuria detraherent, that they should withdawaye him from dooynge that iniurie to me.
 Detrahère lunam celo, to pulle downe the moone out of the skie.
 Detrahère fucum, to pull away the false colour. And by a metaphoꝛe, to discouer falschode and deceipte.
 Detrectatio, ónis, fœ. g. a refusall oꝝ deniall to do a thyng.
 Detrectator, óris, masc. g. he that refuseth oꝝ denieth to dooe a thyng.
 Detrecto, aui, are, to refuse to doe a thyng. It also signifieth to abate.
 Aduersæ res etiam bonos detrectant, Adversities abateth mens reputacion, althoughe they be good men.
 Benefacta malignè detrectare, to dyspraise and blame good thynges.
 Militiam detrectare, to refuse warrefare.
 Principem detrectare, to refuse to haue one their chiefe and soueraigne.
 Detrimentum, ti, n. g. detriment oꝝ damage.
 Detrimentum facere, oꝝ capere, to susteyne damage.
 Detrimentum, & Emolumentum, contrary.
 Incommodum & Detrimentum.
 Detrimentosus, a, um, that whiche is cause of muche damage oꝝ hurt.
 Detritus, a, um, woꝛne out.
 Detrúdo, si, ere, to thruste downe, to thrust out. sometyme to constreigne oꝝ inforce, to caste oꝝ putte one out of any place.
 Detrudere comitia in aduentum alicuius, to deferre oꝝ put of the parliament tyll a mans comynge.
 Detrudi in carcerem, to be put in prison.
 Detrudere regno, to putte one oute of his roialme.
 De sententia detrudere, to make one to forsake his opinion.
 Detrudunt naues scopulo, they thruste oꝝ putte backe the shippes from the rockes.
 Detrudere in luctum, to caste one into mournyng.
 Detrudere aliquem ad mendicitatem, To make one a begger.
 Detruit nos ad ea necessitas, necessitee enforced vs to doe these thynges.
 Detrullo, aui, are, to put out of one vessell into an other.
 Detruncatio, ónis, fœ. g. a cuttyng woꝛte, a loppynge of trees.
 Detrunco, aui, are, to cutte of woꝛte oꝝ in pieres.
 also

also to loppe of thynges a tere.

Detruncare vitem, to cutte a vine.

Detruncare caput, to cut of ones head.

Detruncare corpus, to cut of the armes, or any other partes of the body.

Manu aliquem detruncare, to cutte of ones hande.

Detulit, he brought.

Detulit illi laudem, he referred all the pryse unto hym.

Detumes, decumes, ul, ere, whan swelling doeth assuage.

Detumbo, aui, are, to beate down, or to put from a thyng, to throwe downe one from an hygh place.

Deturbare aliquem aedibus, to thrust one out of his house.

Deturbare de mente, to make one madde.

Deturbare possessione, to put one out of possession.

De fortunis omnibus deturbare aliquem, to put a man bydes all that ever he hath.

Deturbare ex magna spe, to put out of greete hope.

Deturgeo, detursi, gere, is whan a thyng, which is swollen of blowen, doeth assuage it selfe.

Deturpo, aui, are, to make foule or defile, to make ynell favoured.

Deua, a typer in Scotlande called Dee, and the towne called Dondes, is also Deua.

Deuana, a towne in the northe parte of Englande called Dancastr.

Deuasto, aui, are, to waste or spoyle.

Deucalion, the sonne of Prometheus, a man of great wysdome and vertue, who saued muche of the people of Grece in the tyme of an vniuersall floudde, whereby the moze parte of Grece was drowned. The poetes seigne, that after the floud, he asked counsaile of the goddesse Themis, how mankynde might be restored: and it was answered, if he and his wyfe Pyrrha, dyd cast the bones of theyr mother behynde them. Deucalion (being very wittie) perceiued, that the erth was mother of all thynges, and the stones the bones therof. Therfore he thre stones behynde him, and they became men: and his wyfe dyd lykewyse: and they betamewomen. But in dede he saued the people by byngyng them to the hille called Parnassus. He was before the cominge of Christ. 1534. yeres.

Deuectus, a, um, caried away, caried downe.

Deueho, deuehis, xi, here, to carie from a place, to cary downe, to carie to.

Fruges deuehit in urbem.

Deuello, uelli, or uulsi, ere, to pulle away, to plucke of.

Deuelo, aui, are, to discouer, to open.

Deueneror, aris, ari, to worship.

Deuenio, deuenis, ni, nire, to come downe from hygh to lowe, from richesse to pouertee: from prosperitee to aduersitee, sometyme generally to rome.

Deuenire ad senatum, to haue refuge or recourse to the Senate.

Deuenire ad maturitatem, to waite or becom ripe.

Ad iuris studium deuenire, to geue ones selfe to the study of the lawe.

Deuenire in victoris manus, to come into the conquerours handes.

Miseret me tantum illi deuenisse mali, It pitieth me, that so much yll hath chaunced to him.

Deuenire domum, to come home.

Deuenire in medium certamen, to come to the middell of the confliete of battayle.

Deuenire in aliquem, to chaunce on one.

Deuenire in alienas manus, to come into another mans handes.

Deuenusto, aui, are, to make foule, to disgrace, to deface.

Deuerbero, aui, are, to beate muche.

Deuerbium, looke Diuerbium.

Deuerro, ri, ere, to sweepe cleane away.

Deuersus, turned downewarde.

Deuerto, looke Diuerto.

Deuestio, iui, ire, to vnclothe.

Deueto, aui, are, to forbydde.

Deuexitas, aris, f. g. holownesse.

Deuexo, aui, are, to vexe muche.

Deuexus, a, um, holowe, or lyke to a bailey, bowmed, idem quod decliuus, vndyng downe, hanging.

Deuexum caput in dextrum humerum, bending downe towards the right shoulder.

Deuictus, ouercome, subdued, vanquished.

Deuincio, xi, ere, to binde faste, to ioygne or knite in familiaritee or frendshipp, to make one bounden to hym.

Deuincit se scelere, he byngeth him selfe in daunger for the offence of mysdede.

Vbi animus semel se cupiditate deuinxerit mala, whan the mynde hath ones intangled or captiued it selfe with any yll desyre or naughtye appetite.

Deuincere hominum inter homines societatem, to knitte or ioygne societee or frendship betwene men.

Deuincere aliquem sibi beneficijs, To bynde one to him by shewyng frendly pleasures.

Hoc beneficio vtrique ab vtrisque deuincimini, By meane of this benefite, ye be bounde eith ther to other.

Affinitate sese alicui deuincere, to bynde hym selfe to a man by affinitee or kynred.

Fœderibus deuincitur fides cum hoste, Our saythe and promise is made sure to our enemies by couenauntes.

Deuinctus, a, um, bounden, properly in dues tie or office.

Deuio, aui, are, to goe out of the way.

Deuirgino, aui, are, to defloure a mayden.

Deuarginari, spoken of theym that bee pasted childe.

thyldehode.
 Deuotio, ónis, fém. gene. an. aduoydyng of Quynnyng.
 Deuito, aui, are, to eschewe, to shounne, to auoyde.
 Subterfugere & deuicare.
 Deuicare aliquem, to eschewe ones company.
 Deuitatum se à me putat, He thynketh that I dooe eschue his company.
 Deuius, a, um, oute of the ryghte way, or that dwelleth farre out of the waie.
 Deuium iter, a way not haunted or bled to be gone.
 Deuium scortum, a common harlotte.
 Auis deuia, an oule.
 Deuia & syluestris gens, a sauage and wilde people, dwelling in a deserte countrey.
 Aequi deuus, swaruyng from trueth.
 Deuium tibi non erit, It will not be out of your way.
 Omnibus consilijs deuus & præceps, rathe and foolyshe in all his counsayles.
 Deunx, uncis, ma. g. a leuen ounces, and a meas-sure conteynyng .xxii. ounces, a leuen of the measures called Cyathi, our pint and .vi. ounces. It is also taken for a leuen partes of any thyng diuided, or for the whole, saynge one parte.
 Vltra ex Deunce, gayne of a leuen in the hundred.
 Deuoco, aui, are, to call asyde, or call away, to call or fetteh downe.
 Deuocare in suspitione, to byng in suspicion.
 Deuocare e celo philosophiam, by translation to byng philosophy from consyderacion of heauenly thynges, to humayne matters.
 Deuolo, aui, are, to flee or renne from an higher place to a lower, to go with spede.
 Deuolare de celo, to flee downe from heauen.
 Deuolant de tribunali, They go spedily from the iudgement seat.
 In portam deuolauit, He spedde him quickly towards the hauen.
 Deuoluo, ui, ere, to tumble or rolle downe, by translation it signifieth it is fallen, comen, or hapned from one to an other.
 Deuolui ad otium, to be geuen to ydelnesse.
 Deuolui retro, to be turned backe.
 Pensa deuoluere fusis, to spinne.
 Verba deuoluere, to speake hastily and behesmently.
 Deuolui ad spem inanem pacis, to be turned. &c.
 Eo res deuoluitur, vt. &c. it is turned to that poynte.
 Deuolutio, ónis, fém. gene. tumblyng or rol-
 lyng downe.
 Deuolutus, a, um, tumbled downe.
 Deuoluta est hæreditas, The inheritaunce is fallen or come.
 Deuoluta eo res est, The matter is come to that point.

 Ad spem pacis estis deuoluti, pe. conteyned an hope of peace.
 Deuona, a towne in Alwayne called Aluonache betwene Aremburge, and Mentzburge.
 Deuoratus, a, um, deuoured, consumed.
 Deuorata vrbes, cities beynge sucked vp with earthquakes.
 Deuoro, aui, are, to deuoure, to eate withoute chaupnge, to swalow downe whole & rate every morsell. Sometyme to heare or suffer patiently.
 Hoc tedium mihi deuorandum est, This lazynes must I susteyne.
 Deuorare dicta, to take good hede vnto wodes, to heare diligently.
 Deuorare hominum ineptias, to sette litle by mens folie.
 Deuorare libros, to reade ouer many and sundry bookes hastily, to reade greedily.
 Deuorare molestiam palicorum dierum, To passe ouer a thyng tyghtely, that is a litle while greuous.
 Deuorare nomen alicuius, to forget a mans nes name.
 Deuorare orationem, to heare a tale without takyng any hede also to heare a mans tale gladly and with great pleasure.
 Deuorare pecuniam, to consume all his substance.
 Deuorare spe lucrum, to couet a thyng so mache, that he thinketh all redy that he hath it.
 Deuotio, ónis, fém. g. a curse, a vowe to die, or to make a man die.
 Deuotiones, dyuelly the inuocations to the basmage of one.
 Deuoto, aui, are, to bynde by a vowe.
 Deuotorius, a, um, concernyng a vowe or curse.
 Deuotoria carmina, inuocations, curses.
 Deuotus, a, um, bowed or cursed, dedicated,
 destinate.
 Deuotus & donatus studijs, one addicte and geuen to study and learnyng.
 Deuotus vobis animus, a mynde geuen and addicte to doo you pleasure and seruite.
 Deuotus, i, ma. g. one that is saythfull and obedient. Also geuen or determynd to dooe some thyng. he that is sworne not to forsake one.
 Deuoti, men that promise to liue and die in the seruite of princes or capitaines.
 Deuoueo, deuoues, ui, ere, to vowe or curse, to consente to dye, to addicte or geue, solemnly to promise.
 Deuouere se, to make a vowe to die in any quarell, or for the sauegarde of other.
 Deuouere se amicitia alicuius, To geue ones selfe whole to the loue of one.
 Deuouere aliquem, to curse one.
 Deuro, usi, ere, to bourne.
 Deus, God
 Alipes deus, Mercurie,

Architenchus deus, Apollo.
 Armiger deus, Mars.
 Auerrancus deus, looks Auerrancus.
 Auidus deus, Pluto.
 Noctinagus deus, Neptune.
 Inuerecundus deus, Bacchus.
 Ogygius deus, Apollo.
 Opifer deus, Aesculapius.
 Auerrant omen dii, god forbode.
 Si diis placet, ironia, and god wyl, a goddes name.
 Dii meliora, god forbode.
 Testari deum, to take god to witnesse.
 Dii bene verant, god sende vs good lucke.
 Dii faciant, god graunt, would to god.
 Dii iuuantibus, with goddes helpe.
 Dexamene, a nymphe of the sea.
 Dexippus, a phisicion, the scholar of Hippocrates.
 Dextans, antis, m. g. a weyght beynge. p. ounces: some haue taken it for ten doleyn.
 Vtura ex dextante, gayne of. p. in the hunt.
 Dextella, e, f. g. a diminutiue of Dextra.
 Dexter, tra, trum, or Dexter, tera, terum, right or apte, handsome, conuenient, prosperous, profitable, fauourable, quicke, and diligent.
 Dexter ades ducibus, assiste and ayde our cas pitaynes.
 Dextera, vel dextra, the right hande. Sometyme on the ryght syde.
 Dexteram tendere, to geue to one his hande.
 Dexiram dare, to healte or ayde.
 Dexiram dextra committere, To promysse fapth and trouth in hande.
 Cedo dextram, geue me thynne hande.
 Conferere dextras, to toygne battayle.
 Dextra iungere dextram, the auncient maner of saluting also to agree.
 Dextra leuaque, bothe on the right and on the lefte hande.
 A dextra, on the right hande.
 Dextere, or Dextre, proppely, aptely, feately, fortunately, handsomely.
 Dexterior, Dexterius, moze proper or apte.
 Dextéritas, atis, fcm. g. aptenesse and redynesse in the thyng that a man goeth aboute, handes somnesse, dextéritée.
 Déxtero, aui, are, to leade in the right hande, to couple hoxses in a teeme, to set one on hys right syde.
 Déxtimi, hoxslemen beynge on the righte wyng in battayle.
 Déxtimus, a, um, olde wyrtewysd for Dexter.
 Dextrale, a byacellette to weare on the right arme.
 Dextrarij, hoxses toygned in a teeme.
 Dextrocherium, rij, m. g. a byacellette made lyke a broade howpe of golde, sette with pperious stones.
 Dextrorsus, and Dextrorsum, towarde the right hande, or on the right hande.

Dextrorsum, idem.
 D I ANTE A E . C
DI, and Dis, two propositions, which onely in composition.
 Dia, an addition to womens names, when theyr foolyshe iourne wyl make them equal to goddesses. It is also an yle by Grece called Naxus. Finally this woorde Dia, is sette before all noble confessions, dynged by the Grekes, as Diacalamynthe, Diacitonites, Diapapauer, &c.
 Diabathra, a certayne sozte of Moes bled in Grece.
 Diabathrarius, rij, mase. gen. a maker of suche Moes.
 Diabetes, tis, a passyng through, and sometyme the pipe of a cundite.
 Diabethe, a sickness, which causeth that one can not holde his wyne, or after some, a disease in the kidneys byngyng an excedyng thirst.
 Diabolus, the deuill: how be it in grecke it signifyeth proppely a false accuser, an aduerfarié.
 Diacatharona, a, when the prince geueth licence for priuate groundes to be iourged.
 Diacapregias, a medicine made of gotes dounge.
 Diacalanthus, a confectioun in phisike.
 Diachysis, the herbe Delphinium.
 Diacheton, idem quod Diplacos.
 Diacodion, dii, ne. g. is a syrope made with the toppes of the herb called Popie and water, whiche profiteth agaynst reumes, and to cause one to sleape.
 Diaconus, ni, m. g. a deacon. In grecke it signifieth a minister.
 Diactor, toris, m. g. a messenger.
 Diacytoniten, or Diacidoniam, a confectioun made with the iuyce of quynces and hony or sugar, and is an excellent medicine for feeble stomakes.
 Diadema, aris, neu. ge. an hyge cappe, wheron an Emperour or kynge weareth his crowne: or rather a white bande, in maner of a lictell towell which beynge rolled about a thyng, kynges vsed to weare, as they dooe yet in Turkey: It is now bled for a kynges crowne.
 Diadematus, a, um, that weareth a diademe.
 Diadocos, a stone like beerrill.
 Diarefis, sis, diuision. also a figure, when one syllable is diuided into two. As Albai, for Alba.
 Dieta, e, fce. g. a parlour to sup in. Also diete in eatyng and drynkynge. Also a place where iudgements were geuen.
 Diatarij, Geuantes that do awaite on the table. Sometyme such as dooe haunte bynners and suppers, to the intent to steale somewhat.
 Dieteta, arbiters, or indifferent iudges.
 Dietetixa, that parte of phisike, that cureth by diete.
 Diagalanga, a confectioun of Galanga.

- Diaglaucion, a kynde of the medicine called Collirion.
Diagonios, a lyne in geometrie, from one corner to an other.
Diagoras, a philosopher of Milefius, also a famous poete.
Diagramma, artis, neu. gen. a title of a booke, a sentence of verree: Also a figure of geometrie drawn in a place.
Diagraphice, a kynde of peynting or caruing.
Diagridion, a certeyne confection made with Scammony, to purge choler.
Dialage, a figure whan many argumentes be brought to one effect.
Dialectica, x, or dialectice, es, form. g. the arte, which teacheth to inuent quickly, to dispute aptely, and finally, to trie what is true and what is false. It is commonly called Logycke.
Dialectice, like a logician, by the art of logike.
Dialecticus, a, um, perteynyng to logike.
Dialecticus, i, m. g. a logician.
Dialectus, a maner of speche, as we would say, *dis*uerfites in englyshe, as Southerne speche, Southerne, Bentyfhe, Deuounyche, and of ther lyke.
Dialeucum, ci, n. g. a kynde of saffron.
Dialeutensis, se, an adiective.
Dialeutense genus purpure, a kynde of purple.
Dialexis, disputacion.
Dialisis, f. g. dissolution.
Dialis, le, of or perteynyng to Jupiter. Also it signifies of one daie, as Consul dialis, a consul of one daie.
Dialogus, i, m. g. a disputacion betwene two.
Dialyton, ti, neu. g. a figure, whan membes be toygned together without coniunctions.
Diamargariton, a confection made of perles.
Diamonos, idem quod Mandragora.
Diamoron, a certeyne electuary.
Diameter, or Diámetrus, tri, m. g. a lyne, which diuideith any figure into two equall partes.
Diána, the daughter of Jupiter, whiche sleepege the company of menne, to the intente that she woulde not be meued with carnall lustes, dyd continually cerryple hir selfe in huntynge wilde beastes, and for hir chaste lyfe was honoured of the paynims for a goddess: she is also taken for the moone.
Dianéa, x, form. gen. the minde or sense, the vnderstandyng.
Diapasma, atis, neu. gen. a composition of diuers swete pouders to cast on the body, to the intente that superfluous sweate may be put away. It may bee also taken for a swete perfume or a pome ambre.
Diapason, a controrde in mulyche of. v. tunes, and two halfe tunes.
Diapenidium, dij, neu. g. a certaine medicine to lay to the breast.
Diapente, of fyre.
Diaphanum, cleere thynge out as crystal.
Diaphonia, x, f. g. a discorde.
Diaphora, a difference.
Diaponi, certayne dogges in Crete.
Diaporefis, digestion, or euaporacion.
Diaporeticus, a, um, that whiche dooeth dissolue or sende forth the humours.
Diaphragma, atis, n. ge. a skynne in the loweste part of the breast, which diuiderth the place, where the herte and the longes bene, from the stomake and bowelles, so that the vapours rysenge vppwarde, shall not come to the spirituall members, whereby the mynde and reason myght be indamaged: it is taken for diuision, as the gristell betwene the nosespylles, or other lyke.
Diaporéfis, a dubitacion, a fygure in Rhetorike, whan a man maketh as thonghe he dyd doubte.
Diapsalma, some take this worde for one thynge, some for an other, where the Hebrewes in the psalmes haue Sela, Aquila tranlateth it Diapsalma, toke in Hierom. writyng to Marcella for the signification of this worde.
Diapyanon, a confection made with the herbe called Rue, whiche is called also Diapoliticon an excellent medicine agaynst lacke of good digestion, agaynst peyne in the breast, the spleen, the liver and the reynes: It mollifieth the beaslie, comforteth the stomake, and maketh good digestion.
Diarium, rij, neut. gen. provision for one daie. also a booke declaring what is dooen daie by daie: A booke of remembraunces, an intpyllyng booke.
Diarius, a, um, of one day.
Diaria febris, a feuer whiche dureth but one daie, if the sicke man doore kepe good diete.
Diarrhoea, x, f. g. a lashe of flice without inflammarion, or exulceracion, whiche of the late physicians is called Fluxus humoralis.
Diarrhodon, di, neu. ge. a certaine medicine made of roses.
Diastarydon, a medicine to stee men to the lust of the bodie.
Diastasis, f. distantia.
Diastéma, atis, n. g. space.
Diastrophos, phi, m. g. peruerse or frowarde.
Dias, a philosopher of Ephesus in the tyme of Philip kynge of Macedonie.
Diastole, a distinction or porntte, whereby one worde or sentence is distincte from an other.
Diasymos, mi, maogen. a figure in Rhetorike, whan wee delude or mocke the argumentes of our aduersaries, or by crossing to cleuate theyr authorite.
Diatesseron, offoure.
Diathéca, x, or Diathéca, orum, sometyme a testament: sometyme an heritage, that cometh to a man by testament.
Diatheon, thei, n. ge. a certeyne medicine for the head ache.
Diathesis

Diathesis, i. affectus.
 Diatremum, ti, n. g. a cup endowed and cunningly wrought.
 Diatremis, i. uenies which make such cuppes.
 Diatricos, abstinent by the space of the daies.
 Diaturei, they which kepe shippes only for their living, of meate and bynde, hauing no other wages.
 Dianla, one of the foure notable portes in Rome.
 Dianlus, li, ma. g. a measure of grounde, conteynng. ii. fourlonges, euerie fourlonge beynge of a .xii. f. fecte: or after some a space of grounde conteynng. 1200. foote.
 Dibapha, phae, f. g. any colour in sylke or clothe, whiche is steept twyse in the die batte, we call it a deepe colour.
 Dibaphus, a, um, any thyng twyse died.
 Dibapha Tyria, purple twyse died.
 Dibutades, a potter of Lozynth, which taught first to make beselles of chaffe.
 Dica, æ, f. g. a cause, an accusation, a iudgement.
 Dicam impingere, To bynge an action agaynst one.
 Dicam scribere alicui, To entre an action agaynst one.
 Dicis fortiri, to examyne and deepe matters by lotte.
 Dica, the goddess of iudgements.
 Dicacitas, atis, f. g. shrewdnes or boundnes.
 Dicaculus, a, um, merie in talkyng, full of toys des. Also he that chatteth or prateth.
 Dicea, a citee in the goulfe called Thermaicus.
 Dicæarchia, æ, f. g. the citee called Puteoli.
 Dicæarchus, chi, ma. gen. a iuste pynce. also the name of a philosopher.
 Dicæogenes, a certeyne poete.
 Dicæologia, æ, fæm. g. iustification, a figure in Rhetorike.
 Dicæus, a mans name.
 Dicæodotes a iustice, one that dissideth matters accordyng to the law.
 Dicæsis, for Dica, tell on.
 Dicatio, onis, fæ. ge. a bowyng, a submyttinge, a promysyng.
 Dicax, acis, om. ge. a rayler or reprocher, a tester, a theploger, a great pratter.
 Dichalcum, ci, n. ge. the coyn called quadzans, the fourth parte of Obolus.
 Dichas, a measure of twoo palmes or eyght fingers.
 Dicelicta, Mimus.
 Dichoreus, a foote in metre.
 Dichotomos, halfe, or that is diuided in the middes.
 Dicibulum, li, neu. gen. a tryflyng repozte and saynge of childzen.
 Dico, aui, are, to bowe, to offer, to dedicate, to geue for euer.
 Dicamus tibi hunc totum diem, this daye is yours to doe with vs what it shall lyke you: or we will spende this whole day in hearyng you.

 Dicare operam suam, to offer his service.
 Donum alicui dicatum atque promissum, a gyfte vowed and promised vnto one.
 Hanc operam tibi dico, I will doo so muche at your requyre.
 Dicare se alicui in seruitutem, to make hym selfe ones bonde man.
 Studium suum laudi alicuius dicare, To emplot his studie to set forth ones prayse.
 Dicare opus alicui rei, To write a thyng in a booke by it selfe, not mixed with other matters.
 Dicare se in aliquam ciuitatem, to bee made a citizen in any place.
 Annos suos dicare vix celebri, To bowe a synple lyfe.
 Dico, xi, ere, to say, to tell, to byd, to promise, to asseure, to defende: as, Cicero dixit causam Milonis, Cicero defended Milons cause. Also to appoynte, to call a thyng by name, to pleade lyke an orator, to speake aptely or eloquently of any matter.
 Dicere causam, to make answer to an action or playnte.
 Dice illi, for Dic illi, tell him hardely.
 Dicere diem, To sue a man or call him by (as we vse to say) by action, wryte or commaundement, properly to cause a man to be bounden to appere and make answer.
 Dicere dictatorem, To name or make a dictatour.
 Dicere dotem, to assigne a dowrye.
 Probra dicere alicui, to cherke or rebuke one.
 Dicere doti, to assigne dowrye by promysse.
 Dicere ex animo, to speake as a man thinketh.
 Dicere ex tempore, to speake an oracion without studie. Also to speake vnadvisedly.
 Dicere ius, to geue commaundement, or sentence on a payne: sometyme it signifyeth to gouerne a towne or countrey by lawes.
 Dicere contumeliam, To outrage or rayle on one.
 Dicere leges, To appoynt lawes, or condicions of peace, as by the vainquisher to hym that is vainquished.
 Dicere diem nuptiis, vel operi, to appoynte a day for mariage. &c.
 Dicere mulctam, to sette or assele a fyne or a summe of money, to be payed by hym that hath committed a trespassse, to amerce one.
 Dicere in ytramque partem, To susteyne the saynges of bothe partes.
 Dicere nummos, to promise money.
 Dicere sacramento, to take an othe, properly as they doo that be receyved in warres.
 Dicere salutem, to salute or recommend hym vnto one. Also to pray god to sende hym good healthe and well to dooe.
 Dicere sententiam, to geue sentence or iudgemente.
 Dicere pro sententia, idem.

Tibi dico, an non? Speake I to thee or no? Or thynkest thou that it doeth appertayn to the that I say, or no?
 Ad aliquid dicere, to aunswere to that, that an other hath said.
 Aliouersum dixeram, I mente it an other way,
 I spake it for an other intent than ye take it.
 Bene atque amice dicis, ye speake well and frendely.
 Animo presenti dicere, to speake boldly with out feare.
 Bene latine dicere, To speake a thyng in good latine.
 Dicere in aurem, to tell one in his eare.
 Nunquid causam dicis? quin, &c. Canst thou say naie, or canst thou say any thyng for thy self:
 but that. &c.
 Magno conatu nugas dicere, with an earnest and very solemne facion, to tell tryfles or thyn-ges not woorth the hearyng.
 Gontumeliose aliquid dicere, to speake a thyng tauntyngly, or to a mans rebuke.
 Dicere bona fide, To speake a thyng honest-nedly.
 Nolo in illum grauius dicere, I wyl say no worse by hym.
 Inclementer & acerbè in aliquem dicere, To chyde one vngently and bitterly.
 Iniuste alteri dicere, to lay a thyng wrongfully
 to ones charge.
 Ioco aut per iocum dicere, to speake in boued.
 Legem sibi dicere, to prescribe to ones self what
 is to be doen.
 De loco superiori dicere, to speake to the people out of the place of pleadyng, or sytting in the iudgement seate.
 De loco inferiore dicere, To speake oute of the place of pleadyng to the iudges, whiche satte higher.
 Mala plurima dicere, to rayle, to geue one many shrewde woordes.
 Neruose dicere, to speake pythly.
 Dicere repudium, to caste of ones wyfe.
 De scripto dicere, to reade a thyng vpon his pas-per, to pronounce a thyng as it is witten.
 Ad voluntatam alicuius dicere, to flatter.
 Dicam vt reuertantur domum, I wyl byd them retourne home agayne.
 Vt dicitur, as it is said, as men reporte.
 Nesciebam sic dicere illam, I perceyued not that she went so.
 De prandio dicis? speake you of the diner? or meane you of the diner?
 Quod inter nos licet dicere, as I may tell you betwene you and me.
 Ne dixis istud, saie not so man, or it is not as thou saiest.
 Partem aliquam æqui boniq; dicere, to speake reasonably, to offer reason.
 Argumenta rei dicere, to tell the tokens or signes of a thyng.

Dixi, I haue sayed all that I wyl say.
 Dictionum, n. g. m. a galei that hath two reines of oyes.
 Dicrotus, ti, m. g. a kynde of moung of the pulses; Galen. de pulsibus.
 Dicta, signified mery sentences.
 Dictamen, crāminis, n. g. a thyng witten by an other mans instruction.
 Dictamnium, idem quod Dictānum.
 Dictāmus, masc. ge. and Dictānum, neu. gen.
 an herbe, the leaues wherof are lyke penie roall but greater and somewhat hote and moly, and byteth the tongue lyke gynger, but it hath neyther flower nor seede. Constantius saith, that it is hote and drye in the thyrde degree. There is of this herbe wonderfull and incomparable vertues, as well agaynst all popson, as also in drawyng out any thyng, whiche sicketh faste in any parte of the body, this is the right Dic-tamen.
 Dictata, ōrum, n. g. interpretations, expositions, or declaracions, made by the maisters to theyr scholers, whiche they doo wyte.
 Dictator, ōris, ma. gene. the highest office in the publike weale of the Romans, whiche was also called Magister populi, the master of the people: whiche for the space of .vi. monethes had the auctoritee of a kyng. And therefore that dignitee was neuer geuen, but onely whan the state of the citee was in seoperdie. Dictator is also he that pronounceth the thyng that an other wyteth.
 Dictatorius, a, um, perteynyng to the dictator.
 Dictatrix, icis, a woman that appoynteth and commaundeth thynges to be dooen.
 Dictatum, a minute geuen from one to an other to wyte a letter by.
 Dictatura, æ, form. gen. the office or dignitee of dictator.
 Dicte, es, an hill in the yle of Candie, where Justice was nourished.
 Dictērium, rij, neu. g. a metie quippie or taunt,
 wittily spoken.
 Dictio, ōnis, f. g. a woorde, a fourme of speakyng, a pronouncyng, an eloquent oracion: Als
 so a pledyng, an oracle.
 Dictito, aui, are, to speake often, or in diuers places, to tell one thyng often.
 Dicto, aui, are, to reherse vnto one that whiche he shall wyte. Also to inuestigate or expounde the sence of any authour. Also to byng to remembraunce, to speake.
 Dictare rationem, to yelde an accompte.
 Dictare actionem, idē quod dicā impingere.
 Dictare testamentum alicui, to make an other mannes will after his owne will & pleasure, to apoynte or tell one how he shall make his wyl.
 Ratio ita dictat, reason byddeth or counsayleth so.
 Dictum, ti, n. g. a woorde, a sayinge, a prouerbe.
 Dicto obediens, he that dweth that whiche he is coms

is commended. Dicta blanda & benedicta, saye and flattering
wordes.

Dictum ridiculū, a tette to make a man laugh.
Ingerere dicta in aliquem, and dictis onera-re aliquem, to raple at one spitefully.

Dictis bonis petere, to desyre a thyng with saye wordes.

Dicturus, iul, i. e. to goe aboute, or prepare to speake.

Dictus, a, um, spoken, sayed, techened, ordeyned, appoynted, assigned.

Dicto citius, at a trette.

Non nisi dicto honore, not without a tennesence.

Dictum istud, in this tette that thou sayest.

Dictum est, men say the repozte is.

Dictum est, I have spoken it.

Dictum ac factum reddidi, I dispatche it with a word. As after some, I have dyen as muche as was possible.

Dicroium, ti, neu, ge. a wyrd with two ordres of oyes, or that hath two oyes in one seate.

Dictynna, one of the names of Diana. Also a citee of Grece.

Dictynneus, an helyn wherein the temple of Diana was situate.

Dictyotheron, ti, neu, ge. a certayne kynde of byldeynge made full of grates for men to looke throughe.

Dictys, one of the Centaures. Also an hystorios-grapher of Landie, whiche wrote the battaile of Troy.

Dictys, is also a fether, whiche nourished Perseus.

Didascalia, a, f. g. doctryne, learyng.

Didascalus, li, m. g. a scholl maister.

Didia, a lawe made amonge the Romans agaynst
the excesses of fate.

Dido, onis, for, ge. the name of a lady that builded Carthage.

Dido, dididi, didere, to distribute, to diuide, to digesse.

Didorus, a, um, of two hande bzeade.

Didrachmum, mi, n. g. two of the cognges called Drachmas, of our money now. xi. d. ob.

✠ Didrachmum, a siluer cogng conteynyng. ii.
Drachmas, euery Drachma, beyng in value an old sterlyng groat, when eight went to the ounce.

Didrachmus aureus, a peece of golde, conteynyng the value of. 100. sesterij, that is two crownes of the sonne and an halfe.

Diduco, diducis, xi, ere, to byng into sundrie partes, to diuide or pull aparte, to open a thyng that is shutte.

Diducere argumenta in digitos, To marke and deuise argumentes on his fingers endes.

Diductum stare, To sette one foote here, an other there.

Diducere digitos, To spreade the syngers abrode.

Fauces immensi diducit hiatus, he gapeth mree mynde wryth. Diducere arcem in cornua, To diuide an arse into two wynges.

Diducere, & contrahere, to stretch.

Comprimere & diducere digitos, contray, &

Diductus, a, um, diuided, separated, opened.

Diuisio in digitos diducta, when one pointeth
the partes of any diuision on his fingers endes.

Foribus diductis, the gates beyng opened.

Didyme, arum, plandos of Thracie, that bound vpon Carle.

Didymaon, a fownde maker of harnie.

Didyme, es, an ple in the Thracian sea.

Didymens, one of the names of Apollo.

Didymi, certayne hilles in Arabia felix.

Didymus, a, um, is in latyn geminus, in Greeke

Thomas, in englyshe, a twyngne in byrthe, or double a man. It is also the name of doctors learned men, of whiche one beyng a grammas-rian, wrote. 3500. booke.

Diecula, a, for, g. a diminutive of Dies, a littell whyle, a short space of tyme.

Directus, a, um, crucified, or hanged.

Apagere in directum, sette the hente and be-hanged.

Directum, was dyed of olde wryters (by and typhazim) for an yll day or infortunate tyme.

Dies, ei, ma. & for, g. in singulari, in plur. vero tantum, mas. ge. a day: somtyme it signifyeth tyme or season.

Dies critici, The daies, wherein the phisicians dooe geue a certayne iudgement vpon the spechelesse.

Dies legitimi, amonge lawiers he called ordinary daies, or daies in coure.

Die decies, ten tymes in a day.

De die, for interdiu, in the day tyme.

Diem de die expectabam, I looked from day to date.

Diem dicere, looke Dicere diem.

Die crastini, for Die crastino, and Die septimi, for septimo.

In diem abijt malum, the punishment is proslonged and deferred, tyll an other day.

Dies noctesque, continually day and nyght.

Vides iam diei multum esse, ye see now that it is farte daies.

✠ In diem viuere optimum est, It is best not to be carefull for to lieue, but to take as it commeth: for god neuer sendeth monthe but he send deth meate.

Quinquennij die, the fiftre yere.

Atra dies, a blacke or dymol day.

Cæco die emere, looke Cæcus.

Medius dies, noone tyme, wydday.

Conterere diem verbis, To spende away the day with babbling.

Supremum diem expleuit, he died.

Insequens dies, the next day folowynge.

Præcipiti iam die, when it was all mooste
Bb night

night, or when it drew towards night.
 Paucis interiectis diebus, after a few daies.
 Genitius a dies est; diei, diei, dies, diei.
 Dius, for die.
 Diescit, it is day, it waxeth day.
 Diespiter, one of the names of Jupiter, quasi diei pater.
 Dieteris, the space of two yeeres.
 Diffamo; aut, are, to speade an yll repozle of one, to defame, to publishe.
 Diffarreatio, onis, form. ge. a certayne sacrifice, whiche was betwene a man and his wife; contrary to Confarreatio, that is a bloudfement to dissolue the marriage, as confarreatio was a bygnyng of knyghtynge, and was only doon of the plectes.
 Differcio, feris, ire, to fustle, fustle of poyre in.
 Differentia, a, f, g. a difference.
 Differentia, & Dissimilitudo.
 Differentia, olde wyters vled for Differentia, difference.
 Differo, distull, sferre, to spate. Sometyme to bygnyge from one place to an other, to carie a lundze of into diuers partes, to take from one place and carie to an other, to trouble and with some sodeyne feare to bygnyge a man at his wytes ende, that he wolteyth not what is fynde of but to bee doone, to ppolonge of deferre, to be lase. Sometyme to rente of feare in plectes. Sometyme to repozte abroade, to lowe of speade a bzode in dyuers partes: also to endure. Sometyme to diuide of cut a lundze. Sometyme to sette in odyse. Sometime to differre of be in different.
 At vide quid differat inter meam opinionem & tuam, bute now what difference is betwene thynne opinion and myne.
 Differre famam alicui, to speade ones name abrode.
 Differre sitim, to endure thynne.
 Differre vadimonium, to geue a day oter to hym that is bounde to his apperance.
 Differri, to be so vexed in mynde, that a man wotteth not what to doo.
 Castra vi fluminis differebantur, The campe of tentes were caried awaye by violence of the floudde.
 Differor amore. I am in extreme peynes for loue.
 Differor letitia, I am rauished with ioyfulnesse.
 Rumores distulerunt maleuoli, yll willers of maligners haue speade abrode naughty tales.
 Differre rumorem de aliquo, To speade a bzode, lowe of bygnyge by a bzute, noyse of tale by of of any body.
 Differre sitim, to forbeare to dypke.
 Nocuit differre paratis, it hath doen harme to many, after they haue ben ready, to make longe delay.
 Iam ego te differam dictis meis impudice, I wyll carie of Make the by erre I go, that thou shalt not wotte wat to dooe, thanneleste felow that thou dost.

 Orationem sperat inuenisse se, quod differat ze, he hopeth that he hath inuented some chynge wherwith he may trouble and vexen you, or that he hath nowe founde a tale agaynst the, wherewith to bygnyge thee at thy wytes ende.
 Differri and Differri doloribus, to bee vexed and troubled in mynde, and we were vexed and troubled hither and thither with sorow and care, to bee in such yette; that one thynketh hym selfe to bee pulled in plectes. Althowgh Differri amore, and Differri inuidia.
 Differre rumorem, to speade abrode a rumoz.
 Distare & Differre.
 Res cum te differ, one thynge differeth from
 an other.
 Differunt inter se, the thynges differ and be vnyghe.
 Hoc ab illa differ, this differeth from that.
 Differre & Procrastinare.
 Hoc non queo differre, I can not differre this mattier.
 Differre in posterum diem, in annum, in mensem, in aliud tempus, in aduentum ali cuius, To deferre a thynge vnyll the nexte day. &c.
 Diem de die differre, To deferre from day to daye.
 Aquilo differt nubila, The northewind wynde scattereth the cloudes.
 Difficilis, aut, are, to vnbackle, to open, to vn
 gyde.
 Difficile, aduerbium, hardely, difficultly,
 vneasily.
 Difficilis, le, harde, vneasy.
 Difficilis homo, a crabbed and waywarde fel low, harde to please.
 Difficilis & morosus.
 Difficiles terre, countreys harde, troublous,
 and yll to trauallye in.
 Difficile ad fidem est, it is harde to be beleued.
 Difficilis transitus, a harde passage.
 Difficuler, for Difficile.
 Difficultas, aris, form. gene. difficulte, trouble, perill, daunger.
 Difficultas in audiendo, whan men make it straunge to here matters.
 Difficultas nummaria, or rei nummaria, scar
 citee of lacke of money, pouertie.
 Difficultas annonae, scarcitee of vitayle.
 Difficultas spirandi, peynesfulnesse in fetchyng of bzeathe.
 Difficultas vrinae, peynesfulnesse in ppyng.
 Conflatus multis difficultatibus, troubled with many perylles and daungers.
 Difficuler, with great peyne and labour.
 Difficuler & difficiliter idem quod difficile.
 Difficuler atq; agre siebat, with greate diffi cultee and peyne it was broughe to passe.
 Haud difficulter persuadere, To perswade easely.

Diffidenter, with mistruste; without hope.
 Diffidentia, a, f. g. mistruste.
 Diffido, diffusus sum, ere, to mistruste.
 Dubitare, & sibi ipsi diffidere, to doubt and mistrust ones selfe.
 Dictis alicuius diffidere, To mistruste ones
 wordes.
 Memoriz diffidere, To mistruste ones memory.
 Iacere & diffidere, to despaye bitterly, and see past all hope.
 De Othone diffido, I mistruste Otho.
 Rem posse confici diffido, I mistruste that ever the matter can be brought to passe.
 Diffindo, fidi, ere, to cleave a sundre.
 Diffindere diem, looke Diffundere.
 Diffindere medium, to cut of in the middle.
 Diffissum saxum, a stone cutte of clefte into sundre.
 Diffindere minute humum, to cut the ground
 a little.
 Diffingo, finki, gere, to destroy or undoe that is made, or after some, to make newe that is broken.
 Nihil hinc diffingere possum, I can not deny but the matter is so.
 Diffinio, diffinis, iui, ire, to define or declare in fewe wordes playnly the signification of a
 thyng.
 Diffinitio, onis, form. g. a definition or declaration of the nature, qualitee, or prope signification of a thyng by generaltee, specialtee, and difference.
 Diffusus, a, um, mistrustynge.
 Ingenio suo diffusus, one that mistrusteth his owne witte.
 Diffiteor, filus sum, téri, to deny.
 Nunquam diffitebor, I will never deny it.
 Difflo, aui, are, to blowe or puste downe.
 Diffuio, uxi, ere, to flowe abroad, to floe into divers partes, to renne abroad as water doeth, and by translation, to bee riotouse and wylde, rennyng at large, nothyng refreinyng him selfe.
 Sudore diffuere, to be in a great sweate.
 Diffuere orio, to be drowned in idelnesse.
 Diffuere voluptatibus, to swymme in sensualitee.
 Diffluens, ac solutum, leuse and readie to fall in sundre.
 Animus eius diffluit luxuria & lascivia, His mynde renneth at rouers in riotte and wantonnesse.
 Diffringo, fregi, fringere, to breake in pieces.
 Diffugio, diffugis, fugi, ere, to flee hither and thither, to refuse to doe a thyng.
 Diffugium, gij, neut. gener. refuge, a place to flee to.
 Diffundo, fudi, ere, to scatter, to spil, to let renne abroad, to spreade abroad.
 Diffundere diem, to put of a matter untill

the next daye. But Politian in Miscellaneis, doeth affirme, that it ought to bee read Diffingere diem, as well in the Digestes, as in all of ther authours: who of theym save most truly, I committe it to the iudgement of the readers.
 Crimen pactorum, in omnes diffundere, to laye to the charge of all, the fault of a fewe persons.
 Grauisimus est morbus, qui a capite diffun-ditur, That disease is most greivous and perillous, that hath the begynnyng from the head.
 Diffundere vim suam longe lateq, to spreade his power or strength farre abroad.
 Vultum diffundere, to shewe ones selfe mery and pleasant.
 Diffunditur vastis ramis ficus, The figge tree spreade abroad with large bowes.
 Diffundit se in latitudinem lactuca, The let-tle wareth broad.
 Diffuse, an aduerbe, as it were scattered here and there diffusely.
 Diffusio, onis, forminini generis, a setting at large.
 Diffusus, a, um, sprede abroad, large, wide.
 Diffusus error longe lateq, an error spedberie farre abroad.
 Diffusum & dissipatum, med. ion. in. 1.
 Diffusum vinum, wyne filled into the vessell.
 Diffusiora concepta, great groundes inclosed.
 Diffusa sus, a great sowe and a fatte.
 Diffusi campi, large and wylde fieldes.
 Vultus diffusus, a merye or cherefull countenance.
 Digama, a woman that hath had .ij. husbandes.
 Digamma, amonge the latines is the letter F. It erer beth it for his manour called Formianu, because it beginneth with the letter F.
 Digamus, mi, m. g. he that hath had two wyues commonly called Bigamus.
 Digeries, a disposition of order.
 Digerio, digeris, gessi, ere, to dispose, to order,
 to interpret, or make playne, to diuide, to ressolue, or seuer that was congeled or gathered together, to set in apte place, to soze, to separate, to distribute, to digest, to carry hither and thither to declare.
 Digerere crines, to trym the heare.
 Digeri, to be resolved.
 Argumenta in digitos digerere, to compte the argumentes on his fyngers endes.
 Digerere mandata, to doo in order the thinges that one is commaunded.
 Digerere cibum, to digest meate.
 Digerere rempublicam, to dispose and sette a common weale in good order.
 Digerunt cibum dentes lati, The foreteethe doo diuide the meate.
 Humorem digerere, to dissolue an humour.
 Digestio, onis, for. ge. an order of thynges. it is also the digestion of meate and dypnke into the veynes and memberes.

Digestus, a, um, digested, disposed, ordered, crummed.
Digitale, lis, ni, ge. a thyng woꝛne on the fynger, as a thymble of a fynger skalle.
Digitalis, le, pertynyng to the fynger.
Digitali crassitudine, of the thychenesse of a fynger.
Digitatus, a, um, that hath fyngers of toes.
Digitellus, a certayne herbe.
Digitus, are muschels of a lyke kynde of shell fysh.
Digitulus, i, m. g. a littell fynger.
Digitus, ti, ma. g. a fynger. It is also a measure wherof .iiii. dooe make .iii. ynches, and it is the xvi. parte of a foote. also a measure of water of licour.
Digitis extremis vel summis attingere, To touche a thyng with the fyngers toppes, vled for a pꝛouerbe: where one hath vnyth attened to any parte of a thyng.
Digitum tollere, to fauour or consent.
Digitum transuersum, signifieth in a sentence a litle of small distance.
Concrepare digitis, to flippe with the fyngers.
Condere digitos in oculos alicuius, to thꝛuste out ones eyes with his fingers.
Digitum transuersum ab eo non discedebat, He went not from him a fynger breadeth.
Teneo tanquam digitos, I can it as pꝛesite as my Pater noster, I can saye it on my fyngers endes.
Digitum vno ne me attingas, Touche me not with one fynger.
Gestus digitorum, mouynge of the fyngers.
Infamis, or impudicus digitus, The myddell fynger.
Digitum medio notare, To poynte at one rebukefully, meanyng hym to be a vicious and dishonest person.
Digitum cælum attingere, looke Cælum.
Digitum tollere, to holde vp the finger, signifiyng in contractes, that one wyll bye the thyng, whiche he hath cheaped.
Digladatio, ónis, form, gene, a fyght, a strife, a debate.
Digladior, áris, ari, to fyght together with two oꝛdes. And by transclacion, to contende or stryue.
Digladantur inter se, They contend or strue among them selues.
Dignatio, ónis, f. g. great estimation. sometyme fauour or familiaritee with noble men. also reuerence shewed towarde a man.
Digne, woꝛthily, honestly.
Digne laudare aliquid, to pꝛeple a thyng as it is woꝛthie.
Vter nostrum cruce dignius peccat ? whethyr of vs is moze woꝛthie to bee punyshed for his offence ?
Dignitas, áris, and Dignatio, ónis, f. g. honour geuen or due to a man for his merites. also an estate of nobilitie or great authoritee. sometyme beautee, pꝛopely of a man, especially in posture and communication.

Dignitas vultus, a comely and manly maiestee in the face, signifiyng honour and woꝛthyp in the person.
Dignitatem suam tueri, To defende and saue his honour.
Dignitas domus, magnificence in house keepyng, great pꝛouision.
Maior dignitas est in sexu virili, The male kynde is the moze woꝛthie.
Dignitas & amplitudo.
Dignitas & deformitas, contrary.
Discedere a dignitate sapientis, to doo a thyng vnseemly or vnwoꝛthie a wise and vertuous man.
Digno, aui, are, to iudge one woꝛthie.
Dignor, aris, ari, a verbe deponent and passiue, to be reputed and esteemed woꝛthie, or to esteeme or repute woꝛthie, to vouchesafe.
Dignari aliquem venia, to esteeme one woꝛthie to haue fozgeuenesse, to holde one excused.
Haud tali me dignor honore, I thynke not my selfe woꝛthie of so great honour.
Cultu & honore dignari, to be iudged woꝛthie to haue reuerence and honout.
Dignoro, aui, are, to marke as men marke bestes to know them.
Dignosco, ui, scere, to discerne or knowe by dyuers meaners.
Dignus, a, um, woꝛthie, meete, or apte, accoꝛdyng, conuenable.
Dignus domino seruus, a seruauit meete for suche a mayster.
Non te dignum fecisti, you haue dooen that, that did not become you to doe.
Dignus sum pꝛæ te, I am moze woꝛthie than thou.
Luce dignum non putare, to thynke one vnwoꝛthie to lyue.
Dignus cui committas, a woꝛthie persone, to whome ye shoulde committe the charge of any thyng.
Dignus te filius, a sonne woꝛthie of suche a father as you be.
Dignus nihil est quod ametur, There is no persone liuyng, that is moze woꝛthie to be beloued than he is.
Dignum, for Dignitas.
Digredior, digrederis, edi, to departe or go a waie, to make digression to an other matter.
Digredi in latus, to tourne on the one syde.
Digredi ab aliquo, to departe from one.
Digredi de causa, to make digression.
Digredi ad pedes, to light on foote.
Digressio, ónis, and Digressus, us, m. ge. a departing, a digression, a goyng away.
Digressus, a, um, departed.
Digressa, a woman that hath fozsaken hie husbände.
Diambus, a foote in meter consistyng of two of the fete called Iambi.

Dilouis, Jupiter.
Diuidicatio, ónis, form gen. a iudgment, & determination.
Diuidicatus, a, um, determined by sentence.
Diuidico, aui, are, to iudge betwene two thynges, to determine.
Diungo, nxi, ere, idem quod disiungo.
Dilabidus, a, um, that falleth or flyeth away quickly.
Dilabor, éris, abi, to slippe or goe away, to fall downe, as an house doeth. Sometime it signifieth to fayle or to decay.
Nostra dilabitur oratio, Our communication falleth to some other matter.
Male paria, male dilabuntur, Thynges will gotten, are yll spent.
Dilabi memoria, to fall out of ones memory.
Fortuna dilabitur, Fortune decayeth, prosperitie faileth.
Concordia parua res crescunt, discordia maxima dilabuntur, By contrarie small thynges doo increase, by disorde very greate thynges waste and consume.
Dilacero, aui, are, to teare or rent in pieces.
Dilatio, aui, are, idem, also to breke in sunder.
Dilapido, aui, are, to consume gooddes, or spende riotously, or wastfully, to gather stones out of a place, to ridde a place of stones.
Dilapsus, a, um, slippynge or flydng away, rennyng, as water dooeth.
Dilapsa & Diffuxa, fallen and scattered hiee and there.
Dilapsi domos, departed home to their houses without any busynesse.
Dilargior, giris, giri, to geue or graunt liberally to many.
Dilatio, ónis, a delay, a prologynge of descreynge.
Dilatatus, a, um, deferred, delayed.
Dilato, aui, are, to stretche out in bredth, to extend, to enlarge.
Imperium dilatare, to enlarge ones dominion.
Oracionem dilatare, To make ones oracion more ample or abundant.
Dilatare & contrahere, contrary.
Dilatator, óris, m. g. one that maketh delays, that brudgeth of the time.
Dilaudo, aui, are, to prayse greatly for diuers causes.
Dilemma, áris, neu. gene. an argument, whiche on euery parte conuinceth him, to whome it is spoken.
Diligens, entis, diligent, or louynge, studious.
Diligentissimus rei familiaris, a very good husbände.
Studiosus & diligens.
Diligenter, diligently, aduisedly.
Diligenter hic eram, I did harken diligently what you sayd.
Studiosè diligenterque curare, to take hede of or ouersee a thyng studiously and diligently.

Diligentia, m. & g. diligence or loue.
Adhibere diligentiam, to be diligent.
Consumere diligentiam in aliqua, to spend all ones diligence vpon a thyng.
Afsiduitas & diligentia.
Diligentia & industria.
Diligo, xi, ere, to fauour or loue meanely, lesse than Amare, sometime to diuide.
Diligere & charum habere.
Furtim diligere, to loue one pryuely, that he dare not be a knowen of.
Diligere se, to stande in his owne conceyte.
Valde, ynice, mirifice, admodum diligere.
Dilorico, aui, are, to vnder or cut a corde or other thynges that is tough.
Diluceo, luxi, ere, to be bright or cleere, to shine.
Diluces, res, the matter is cleare and manifest.
Dilucesco, cescere, to waxe daye, or begynne to be day.
Dilucide, evidently, clearely, manifestly.
Dilucide diluere, to dissolue a thyng, to shewe manifestly, and playnely, that it is false.
Dilucido, aui, are, to delaye or make a thynges playne to vnderstande.
Dilucidus, a, um, cleere, bright, manifest.
Diluculo, an aduerbe, whiche signifieth betwene in the moynynge.
Cum diluculo abire, To go away in the moysnyng betwene.
Primo diluculo venit, He came in the dawnyng of the day.
Diluculo, aui, are, to waxe day, to appeere to be day.
Diluculum, li, neu. gen. that portion of day that is befoze the sonne ryseth.
Diludia, órum, neu. g. plur. the leaung of play, the space betwene recreations of play.
Diluo, ui, ere, to washe or make cleane, to putte away, to release, to dissolue, to declare or explicate, to alay, as wyne is alaid with water, to temper, to purge, to discharge a crime or fault that is layd to one.
Cura diluiui meto, care is washed away with wyne.
Diluere auctoritatem, to diminish the ones auctoriter.
Extenuare & diluere molestias, To assuage and put away grefe and heauynesse.
Dilutum, ti, n. ge. wyne or other houre, wherein any herbe or other thyng is deaped by a certain space, which some physicians call, infused.
Dilutus, a, um, alaid or tempered.
Dilutus color, a faynte colour, or vnperfecte colour.
Vinum dilutum, wine alaid with water.
Diluvialis, le, of a deluge or floudde.
Diluiques, ei, for. g. idem quod diluuium.
Diluuio, aui, are, to ouerflow & drowne a countrey.
Diluuium, uiij, neu. ge. a deluge, a great floudde whan the grounde is surrounded or drowned with muche rayne.

Dimano, aui, are, to flow abode, as diuers freames out of one springe, and by translation to come to ones hearyng.

Dimembro, aui, are, to diuide.

Dimensio, onis, f. g. measurynge.

Dimensum, si, neu. ge. a portion that is measured out.

Dimensus, a, um, measured, or that measureth.

Dimetiens, entis, that wherewith a thyng is measured.

Dimetior, mensus sum, iri, to measure or mete.

Dimetiri digitis, to accompt on his fyngers.

Dimetor, aris, ari, idem quod Dimetior.

Dimicatio, onis, battayle, contention, strepe.

Inter illam dimicationem, whyler they where fyghtyng.

Dimicatio prelij, The rage or hurle of the battayle.

Dimicatio capitis, a battayle for the luyng of a mans hondur.

Discrimen & dimicatio.

Dimico, aui, or dimicui, are, to fight or contende with some thyng.

Dimicare de imperio, To fyght for the soueraynetee.

Dimicare inter se, to fyght one with an other, to contende amonge them selues.

Decapite dimicare, to fight for ones life.

Dimidiatum, an aduerbe.

Dimidiatus, a, um, that which is seuered and diuided into two partes.

Dimidio, an aduerbe, signifyng halfe.

Dimidio plus, dimidio minus, halfe moze, halfe lesse.

Dimidius, a, um, the halfe deale of that whiche is diuided.

Dimidium plus toto, spoken where a man intendeth to shew that the meane is best.

Dimidium facti, qui bene coepit habet, He that hath well begunne, hath finished halfe his enterpryse.

Ad dimidias coquere, to seeth the one halfe.

Dimidio minoris constabit, It will coste lesse by the halfe.

Dimidio carius, deerer by the halfe.

Minus dimidium, for Minus dimidio.

Reddidit dimidio stultiores quam cum acciperat, He made them moze fooles by halfe than they were whan he tooke them.

Dimidius modius, halfe a bushell.

Dimidium equitum cecidit, halfe his hopyes men were slayne.

Dimidias clepsydras dixit Plinius, pro Dimidiatas.

Diminuo, ui, ere, to diminishe or cut of, to breake in peeces, to strepe.

Diminuam ego caput tuum, nisi abeas, I wil breake thyne heade, except thou get thee hence.

Detrahare & diminuere.

De bonis alicuius diminuere, to diminishe a mans goodes.

De praesidijs diminueret, to minishe part of the garison.

Quod nostro negotio diminutum fuerit, exequabimur industria, That whiche shall lacke in our busynesse, we will supplie with diligence.

Diminutio, onis, f. g. diminutynge or abatyng.

Accretio & diminutio.

Nec de bonis priuatorum publice diminutio fiat, Let not the gooddes of the commons be diminishe or taken from them.

Diminutus, a, um, diminishe, spoken

Diminutus capite, & diminutio capitis, vide Capitis diminutio.

Dimissio, onis, a leue to departe, a discharging.

Dimissorius, a, um, the aduerbe.

Dimissoria litera, letters minishe sent from one to an other.

Dimissus, a, um, dimyshe, sent downe, sometime taken for abiete.

Deiecit vulcum, & dimissa voce locutus est, He caste downe his looke, and with an humble voyce sayed.

Dimitto, aui, are, idem quod Demitigo.

Dimitto, si, ere, to sende diuers persons into diuers places. Sometime it signifyeth to licence to departe, to giue leaue, to leane, to cease, to let passe, to suffice, to humble. also to giue, to let downe, to forgiue.

Dimittere folia arbor dicitur, cum decidunt.

Dimittere exercitum, to discharge an army.

Dimittere se in valles, to descende downe into the valleys.

Domum dimittit, he geneth theim leaue to departe home.

Dimittere & retinere, contrary.

Dimittere se ad aurem alicuius, to incline and speake to one in his eare.

Dimittere se in comparationem alteri, To compare hym selfe with an other.

Contumeliose dimittere, To dismishe oneres pprochfully.

Dimittere matrimonium, To dissolue matrimonie, to be diuorced.

Dimissa a matrimonio, a woman repudiated.

Dimittere reum, to dismishe and discharge an offendour, or person accused.

Dimittere scholam, To breake by schoole, to geue by teachyng.

E manibus non dimittere authorem, to haue an authour alwaies in his handes.

Dimittere tempus, To let passe an occasion to doe a thyng.

Dimittere literas, to sende letters.

Dimittere boues in pascua, to sende or putte hyne into the pasture.

Dimittere consilium, to dissolue a counsaile.

Dimittere e manibus, to let one escape.

Dimittere sanguinem, to let blood.

Dimittere de summa, To abate of the summe totale.

Dimit-

Dimittere debitorem, to helpe a bettome.
 Dimittere creditorem, to pay his debte to his creditor.
 Dimittere facultatem rei gerende, to lose of lette stypp that power that one hath to doe a
 thyng.
 Dimittere osculo, to kysse at departing.
 Dimixos, xi, m. g. a lamppe with two lyghtes.
 Dimoued, dimoues, moui, uera, to remoue of put out of a place or counte. Sometime to pue backe, to cause to retye.
 Dimouere perfrangereq. custodias, to byke
 the pyale and passe through the kynges garde.
 Dimouere de dignitatis gradu, to put out of
 of high auctorite.
 Dimouere suspicionem, to put away suspiction.
 Dimoueri de sententia, to be caused to change
 his opinion.
 Labem a republica dimouere, to put a great infamy from a common weale.
 De suo cursu dimouere, to cause one to chage his trade or maner of behauiour.
 Dimulgo, au, are, to publysh abroad.
 Dindymene, & Dindyme, one of the names of Libete, called the mother of the goddess.
 Dindymus, the rydge of the hylle of Ida in Phrygia.
 Dimocrates, a philosopher.
 Dinumeratio, onis, fce. g. a numbyng, a recky-nyng or pryncing of money.
 Dinamero, au, are, to numbye, to pale money.
 Diobolaris, re, byed for littell money.
 Diobolares meretrices, harlots, whiche be byed for a littell money.
 Diocles, a poete of Athens: also a phisicion in the tyme of Darius Histaspis.
 Diocleus, the sonne of Otilochus.
 Diodorus, a philosopher of Socrates secte, and Diodorus Siculus a story writer, and an other Diodorus, a stoike philosopher, of whome Lisceto writeth.
 Diocesis, fias, f. g. a iurisdiction, a gouernance.
 also a diocesse of a byshop.
 Diocetes, te, uale, g. he that hath the charge of ouerlyght of any thyng.
 Diogenes, a famous philosophers name.
 Diogenianus, a grammarian of Heracles.
 Diogenetus, a learned man, whiche wrote the explication of Alexander.
 Diomeda, the daughter of Phobas.
 Diomedea, an yle, wherein Diomedes was buried.
 Diomedea aues, certayne birdes, whiche haue tere, and clea of fierie choyre, of the nature of the m reade Pliny.
 Diomedes, a noble capitayne of the Grekes at the siege of Troy.
 Dion, a noble mannes sonne of Sicile, called Hipparinus, brother to Aristomacha, wyfe to the elder Dionysus, wherfore he was longe tyme

in fauour with him, in so muche that Dionysus commanded his officers, that they should geue to Dion all that he would aske. reade this Dion
 one lye and artes in Plutarke.
 Dionus, aza, azum, perteynyng vnto Venus.
 Dione, a goddess of the Sea, the mother of Venus.
 Dionysius, gram, m. g. little swellynge of pulses, rising in the temples of the heade.
 Dionysia, z, idem quod hederia.
 Dionysias, the herbe Indiosman.
 Dionysias, a precious stone, whiche hath in it redde spottes.
 Dionysiaci, certayne ministers.
 Dionysopolis, a cite of Thracia.
 Dionysus, reade in Plutarke. He is also the name of two kynges of Sicile, which for their crueltie and auarice were called tyrannes. The fyrste was sonne to Democritus, a kyng man of Sic-ile, whome for his valpantise in armes, the Sicilians admyred to see they captaynes as gaynte the Carthaginenses, whiche invaded them, and menaced to destroy theyr countrey, and take from them theyr libertie. But after the enemies were vanquished, Dionysus, which preserued his countrey from bondage, of a texnefactour became a cruel tyrann. The other Diaonis was sonne vnto this, lyke in condicions, but better learned. He also made meanes to haue Plato come vnto hym, and a good space hadde hym in muche reuerence, and herde his lessons in philosophie. Finally, suspernyng that he conspired agaynst him with Dion, and other, whom he had expelled, vnneth at the desyre of Archias prince of Tarentum, and other: he suffered hym to retourne to Athens. of bothe these yee may reade in Plutar. in the life of Dion. also in Justine. 31. lib. and many thynges notable in Cesarus Apph.
 Diopetes, looke Dryophites.
 Diophanes, a rhetorician, the master of Cracchus.
 Dioptra, z, f. g. a geometrical instrument, to discerne altitudes, and distance: vnderstande
 it for weyghing or pluckyng of waters.
 Diore, a prope name in Virgile.
 Dionhoticum ins, id est, emendatum.
 Dioryx, diorygis, m. g. a ditch or trenche made with mens handes.
 Dioscorides, called also Pedacius, and Phascas, a worshipfull knight of Egypte, whiche byng learnyng with chynalre, byng in the Romaynes hoste in diuerse countreys, in tymes vacante from battayle, made diligente sear-che for the fygyres and vertues of diuers her-bes and other thynges necessary for medicine, and wrote moste trewly of them in Greche as Galene testifieth. He liued vnder Cleopatra and Antonius.
 Dioscoron, an Ilande within the borders of Italy.

Dioscippus, a notable wright also a countour of Alexander the grete.
Dioscurias, a cite of Colchis, in the whiche were sometyme people of iii. hundred diuers nations.
Diospolis, a cite of Egypt. There bee. iii. other of the same name in Egypte, but very small cities in comparyson of this.
Diospoliticum, ci. n. g. a certayne medicine, made of diuers thinges, as cummine, poppe, rue, &c.
looke Galen. 2. de Sanit.
Diosporon, idem quod lithospermion. Diosko.
Didayn, form. g. a vessell of erthe with handels,
wherin wyne was kepte.
Diphiris, ris, ma. g. a precious stone, wherof are two kyndes, the male and the female.
Diphyx, is described of Plin. li. 34. cap. 13.
Dipharmiceydem quod Tarmiceydem Diphthera, a, form. g. a Shepherdes coate of garmentes, made with shepe skynnes.
Diphthera, is also sayde to be the skynne of the goate, that nourished Iupiter, wherin the anty-quitee beloued, he wore all thynges that should be dooe: rede the prouerbe.
Diphthongus, gi, fa. ge. two bowelles ioyned together, called a diphthonge, as, ay, ey, au, ei.
Diplarum, tri, n. g. the thirde part of stadium.
Diplinthiparieris, wallis, wherin be twoo rowes of wyche.
Diplois, idis, fa. g. any garment lynced, but it is taken for a doublet.
Diploma, ma, n. gen. a Charter of a pynne of a cite, a wynte, letters patentes.
Dipenus, the brother of Sophis, whiche twoo were the first inuentours of grauyng in marble.
Dipolos terra, grounde wise cast of eared.
Dipondarius, a, um, that is of an. li. weyght of value.
Dipondium, di, n. g. of Dipondius, di, of Du- pondius, ij, m. g. a weight of. ii. pound. also a piere of money, aboute the balowe of. viii. d.
frenche. It is vled of Cicero for money.
Dipsacon, or Dipsacus, called also Aspalathus, Diacheron, Cacabus, Labrum Veneris, Vir- ga pastoris, commonly Pectorius Cardo, of some Fallomius Carduus, the sauts, wheres with fullers vse to dyesse clothe.
Dipsas, adis, form. gene. a littell woorme lyke a serpent, of colour white, the tayle diuided with two blacke lynes. He is also called Præster. He that is stong with this woorme, feeleth footeth with intollerable heate, and therewith so greate drieth, that no drynke may extingwe his thyrste, althoughe he neuer cesse from drynkyng, and so dieth without remedie; as some suppose.
Diprôta, nounes that haue onely two tases.
Diradio, aui, are, to set in facion of byaunches,
or of the soune beames.
Diradiare vitem, To lay or settle a vyne in byaunches.
Diræ, arum, form. gen. pluri the furies, exetrascions, curlynges.

Diræa, idem quod Mandrogora.
Dircion, the herbe called Solanum somniferum.
Dirce, a womannes name, the wyfe of Arcus
to kynge of Thebes: also an other of Babylon, which for speakyng agaynst Sallas, was toun-ned into a bylde.
Directarij, they that goe into other mens houses or chambers, of purpose to steale.
Directe, or Directo, an aduerbe, signifyinge rightly or straightly, or in a right forme, simply.
Directo aliquid optare, and sub conditione of optare, contrary.
Directio, ônis, form. gen. a direction of leadyng or syght to a thyng.
Directum, i, n. g. right, straight.
Directus, a, um, straight or right.
Dirempcio, ônis, form. gen. a breakyng or dis-soluynge, or a separation, a delay or deteryng of tyme.
Diremptramari gens, a people of beyonde the sea.
Dirempus, us, ma. ge. a separation or diuision,
a lettynge of thynges a parte.
Dirempus, a, um, diuided, separated.
Direprio, ônis, f. g. a robbynge, spoylynge, or sackynge of a cite, extorcion, pollynge.
Direptor, ôris, mafe, gen. a robber, a spoyler, a cisteler.
Direptus, us, m. g. a takynge away.
Direptus, a, um, robbed, spoyled.
Diribeo, diribes, bui, ere, to distribute or diuide.
Diribitores, distributours of money, or pay-maysters.
Diribitorium, rij, neut. gener. the place of paiement.
Dirigeo, diriges, ai, ere, to styrenge for colde, or for feate.
Dirigo, xi, ere, to make straight or syght, to order, to direct.
Dirigere cacumina ad cælum, to clype the toppes high or upwarde.
Dirigere aciem, to sette a battayle in order.
Aciem oculorum, or visum dirigere, to loke towarde one.
Aren dirigere tela, to shote.
Ad veritatem sapissimè dirigit coniectura, coniecture or gesse leadech oftentymes to the trouthe.
Dirigere artes suas ad voluptatem, To haue principall regarde in all his doynge vnto pleas-sure, to make pleasure his principall ende.
Dirigere gressum, or goe.
Dirige hastam in aliquem, to caste his speare straight at one.
Ad naturam leges hominum diriguntur, are made conformable or accordyng vnto nature.
Eius tota similitudo ad succum porri dirigitur, is like. &c.
Dirigere iter, to take a tourney.
Dirigere aliquem ad suam opinionem, To byngge or leade one into his opinion.

Victim flam ad normam rationis dirigere, to dispose and order his life according to reason.
Dirigere se ad aliquid, To dispose of faction him self to some thing.
Dirigere omnia voluptate, To measure all thynges by pleasure.
Dirimo, rem, mère, reptum, to breake of lease of, to sette aparte, to departe, to diuide, to trye with of ends.
Ea res consiliu dirimit, that thing breake up of dissolued the counsaile. Also to put of of deterte.
Dirimere bellum, to cause warre to cease.
Dirimere controuersiam, To make the parties agreed.
Dirimere actionem, to delay a matter.
Dirimere litem, to make an ende of a matter in iudicance of iustice.
Dirimere societatem, to breake fellowship.
Dirimere colloquium, To breake of the communication that is betwene men for any matter.
Dirimere tempus, to make delate.
Dirimuntur oppida vnus diei itinere, those townes her one daies iourney asunder.
Prælium dirimere, to parte, or make an ende of the battaile.
Rixam dirimere, To appease persons that chide. Likewise iram, altercationem, similes tales dirimere.
Diripio, diripis, ul, ere, to robbe, spoyle, take away by violence, to dimynghe, to pull awaie.
Diripere oppidum, to sacke a towne.
A pectore vestem diripere, to teare his garment from his breast.
Diripere enssem vagina, to drawe ones sword.
Diripere aliquem e loco, To pull one out of his place.
Diripere de autoritate alicuius, To dimynish and take away parte of a mans authoritie.
Diripere & vastare.
Expilare & diripere.
Diris, an high hill of Mauritanie, now called Telus.
Diritas, âtis, form. ge. crueltee, vengeance, terriblenesse.
Morum diritas, crueltee of maniers, vengeance.
Diritas, & comitas, contrary.
Dirumpo, rupi, pere, to braste of breake asunder.
Dirumbere ludum, to trouble of breake by a play, and lette that it be not finished.
Dirumpere amicitiam, to breake friendship.
Dirumpi dolore, to burst for sorowe.
Se dirumpere, to burst for very spite.
Dirumparis licet, although thou wouldest burst for anger.
Diruncino, loke Deruncino.
Diruncio, lui, ire, to weede out, to putte that whiche is naught.

Diruo, ul, ere, to braste downe to the ground, to ouerthrowe, to destroye.
Diruptus, a, um, braste or broken.
Diruptus homo, a persone, whose gooddes and inheritance is riotously spent awaie.
Dirus, a, um, venigible, cruell, terrible, horrible, huge, great.
Diræ deprecationes, horrible cursinges.
Cruciatu diru, venigible and cruell tormentes.
Dirior, the comparative.
Dira religio, for magna.
Pugna dira, a cruell and deadly fight.
Peltis dira, a terrible or horrible pestilence.
Dirurus, a, um, broken downe to the ground, destroyed, overthrowen, cast downe.
Dis, ditis, called the god of sycheite, sometyme it signifyeth syche.
Dis, a preposition, vled alwayes in composition, and signifyeth sometyme diuersitee, sometime diuision, sometyme greatly, sometyme diuersely, sometyme puell.
Discalceus, a, um, vnshodde.
Discalceo, au, are, to pull of ones shoes.
Discapédino, au, are, to vncluse of open, & wynde out of vte.
Discauco, discaues, to beware, to take good hede.
Discedo, scessi, ere, to departe. Sometyme it signifyeth an exception, as,
Cum discesserim a fratre, nemo est mihi recharior, Excepte my brother, no man is to me moze deere than thou arte. Also it signifyeth diuision of opening, as, Cum terra discessisset magnis quibusdam imbris, descendit in illum hiarum, When the earth by occasion of muche rayne opened, he wente downe into the chift of swallows.
Discedere a sese, to forgerre hym selfe, or to be out of his mynde.
Discedere superiorem, to go away vngather.
Discedere inferiorem, To goe away vngather.
Discedere ab armis, to leaue of warre, and to departe every man to his owne.
Discedere ab officio, to do no moze his duetie, to do contrary to reason and honestie.
Discedere a iure, to do agaynst the lawe.
Discedere a sententia, to chaunge his opinion.
Discedere in diuersa, To bee of sundry opinions.
Discedit vsus fructus, he loseth the possession and profite.
Discessit mos, that maner of vse is lefte.
Discedere ab amicis, to breake frendshipp.
Discessit cælum, the firmament opened.
Discevere a consuetudine, To leaue a faction or custome longe vled.
Non discedere digitum a re aliqua, Not to departe from a thyng a synger breadth.
Si vno verbo discesseris a libro, If ye speake one woide otherwyse than it is in your boke.
Discedamus a nobismet ipsis, Let vs cesse to speake speaks of our selfe. Discedere in aliquam opinionem, To condescende or agree to an opinion. Discedere a re, To departe

 A re discedere, to goe from the matter, to make digression. Discedatur, the impersonall. Discedat, the Discessio, ónis, fem. gen. a departing, a diuis-sion or seperation. also in the Senate of Rome it was whan dyuers sentences were sayed in anye matter, and the moze part byd. not pronounce they opinions, but went to hym, whose sentence
 they allowed. Discessus, idem.
Discessus animi a corpore, the departinge of the soule from the body. Discessus celi, the opening of the ayre.
Discessio facta in eius sententiam, the moze part went on his syde, and was of his opinion.
Disceptatio, ónis, fem. gen. disputation or contention; an arbitrement or examination of a matter. Disceptatio libera, iudgement accordyng to the conscience of hym that iudgeth. Disceptatio legitima, iudgement accordyng to the lawe. Disceptator, óris, m. g. a iudge, an arbitour, of a dates man. Disceptatrix, the feminine.
Discepto, aui, are, to dispute, to contend, to arbitrate or iudge. Disceptare armis, to trie by battayle.
Disceptare verbis, to contend with wordes.
Disceptare causam, To trie a matter by arbitrours. In vno praelio omnis rei publicæ fortuna disceptat, The whole state and condicion of the weale publike is ventred and tryed in one battaye. Disceptant eodem foro, Othronienses, The Othronienses resort to the same common place for iudgement. Qui iactura affectus est, damni disceptet, Let hym pursue his damage or losse by the lawe.
Discerniculum, li, neu. gene. a pinne or other like instrument, wherewith women byd diuide
 the head of theyr heare before: also a difference or diuersitee. Discerno, discernui, ere, to departe a sunder one thyng from an other. also to strye or vary, to knowe distinctly, to iudge, to discern. Discernere armis, to fyght in battayle, to try by bent of sworde. Litem discernere, to finish the contention or variaunce. Tumultum veterem discernit, he appyled or ended an olde discorde. Nequeo satis discernere, I doe not well knowe, or I can not well discern. Alba & atra discernere, To iudge white from blake. Discernere vtra pars iustiore causam has et beat, To iudge whether parte hath the better cause. Discernere a sapiente discernere, to discern and put difference betwene a foole and a wyseman.

Discerpo, phi, ere, to plucke or teare in peeces, to rente. Discerpere & dilacerare, to rente and Discerpere & distrahere, to rente and to Rem proposam in membra discerpere, To diuide a matter purposed into certayne members or partes. Discerptus, a, um, to be rent in peeces, plucked in sunder. Discens, a bynde of blasfemye sterres, somewhat lyke a sworde in facion. Discidium, dii, n. g. a diuision, or a partition.
Discinctus, a, um, vngayded, And by a metaphore dissolute, negligent, rechelesse, sleuthfull, vnas-ble for the warres, cowardlye. Discindo, discidi, ere, to cut of, to cut in peeces.
Discindere amicitias, to breake frendshipp.
Vide, vt discidit labrum, See howe he hath cut my lippe. Discingo, xi, gere, to ungyde, to unloose.
Disciplina, æ, f. g. learning, as it is perceyued of the scholar: doctrine, as it is taught of the mayster. It is also a good fourme of lpyng, reinestruction, an example to good lyfe, an institution or ordinaunce, allowable custome. Cicero sayeth it for a sect of philosophers. it maye also some-tym be called a scholl, a maner, an order, a discipline, Disciplina est, this is the scholl, or this is the facion, maner, or trayn that must be kept.
At nunc alia disciplina est, but nowe we haue lerned a new scholl. Disciplina gladiatoria, the preceptes and waye of traynyng men in the weapons. Disciplina meretricia, the scholl and waye that light housewyfes and strumpettes haue among them. Institutio & disciplina.
Militaris disciplina, martiall pollicie, obseruation of honeste behauiour in warfare, the tra-cion that yong souldiours are trayned or excised in, to make them perfecte good men of warre. Disciplina dicendi, Rhetorike.
Accipere disciplinam, to learne. Abstrahere a disciplina, To take from leas-nyng. Perdiscere disciplinam ruris, to lerne the the frate of husbandry. Colere disciplinam, to esteeme learninge, to apply learning. Disciplinabilis, le, that maye be lerned.
Disciplinosus, a, um, apte to learne. Discipula, æ, f. g. a woman scholar.
Discipulus, li, masc. gene. a scholer, a discipyle, a pprentice. Discludo, s, dere, to withdraw, to dispygne, to separate.

Disco,

Disco, didici, scere, to learne, to geat the knowlage of that which one hath not, epyther by meditacion, or by instruction, to heare.
Discere fidibus, to learne to playe on instrumētes.
Dedisco, ere, to forgette that whiche was ones learned.
Discobinatus, a, um, wounded or cutte.
Discobolus, li, masc. gen. he that throweth the round instrument called Discus, vled of yonge men in olde tyme for exercise.
Discoctus, a, um, well sodde or boyled.
Disconuenio, disconuenis, ueni, nire, to disagree, or discorde.
Disconuenit inter me, & te, thou and I be not like, there is difference betwene the and me.
Discolor, oris, om. ge. dyuers of colour.
Discophorus, ri, ma. g. a seruauit that carrieth a dysh to the table.
Discordabilis, le, that discordeyth or disagreeth.
Discordia, a, f. g. debate, variance.
Seditionem atque discordiam concitare, To rasye sedition and discorde.
Discensiones atque discordia.
Discordialis, le, that ingendryeth or breedeth debate or strep.
Discordiōsus, a, um, contentious, prone to debate and variance.
Discordo, aui, are, to discorde or agree yll.
Aeternum discordare cum aliquo, to hate one perpetually.
Discordant inter se, they are at variance.
Discoquo, oxi, ere, to seethe or boyle well and throughe.
Discors, ordis, om. gen. discordeant, agreeynge yll together.
Modi discordes, discordes in musike, songe that agreeth not.
Discrepito, aui, are, a frequentatiue of Discrepo.
Discrepo, aui, or ui, are, to discorde or disagree, to be contrarie.
Discrepant facta cum dictis, his wordes and deedes agree not.
A consilijs alicuius discrepare, not to be of that mynd that an other is.
Sibi discrepare, to disagree with ones selfe.
Discrepat inter authores, the opinions of authours are dyuers.
Inter se discrepare, to vary and disagree one with an other.
Nulla in re discrepat, It varieth not from the other in any thyng.
Discrepancia, a, f. g. difference, disagreynge.
Discretē & discretim, seuerally.
Discretio, onis, f. g. a seperation somtyme election of good from yll, discretion.
Discretorium idem quod Diaphragma.
Discretus, a, um, seuered or parted. Nulla scieth it is he that discerneth the qualitees of men, or value of thynges.
Discrimen, minis, neu. gene. diuersitee or difference.

ence, also the deadlyng or partyng of the heate, also it signifyeth perill or daunger. somtyme baytaylor.
Nulla discrimine, easily without dangier. also without regard moze of one than of an other.
Discrimen & Delectus.
In discrimine est res, the matter is in bout of controuersie.
Aequo discrimine, with lyke distance or space aunder.
In contentionem & discrimen venire, to fall in controuersie or debate.
In discrimen adducere, to brynge into perill or daunger.
Dare in discrimen, to uenter or put in danger.
Offerre se in discrimen pro re aliqua, to put hym selfe in daungier wyllyngly for any thyng.
In summo discrimine esse, to be in great perill.
Discriminale, lis, an instrument, wherwith the heare is parted or shadde.
Discriminatum, distincti, aunder here and there.
Discriminatus, a, um, distincte, in a diuersitee, diuided separated.
Discrimino, aui, are, to diuide, to seuer.
Discrucior, aris, ari, to be muche vexed or troubled in mynde.
Discubo, cubui, bare, to lye downe to sleape.
Discumbo, cubui, cubere, to spt at meales.
Discumbitur, the impersonall.
Discubitōrius lectus, a bed, wherupon men bled in olde tyme to eate theyr meate.
Discunatus, a, um, opened or clouen with a wedge or other lyke thyng.
Discupio, discupis, piui, pere, to despye verate muche.
Discurro, curri, rere, to renne hyther and thither, or to dyuers partes, to wander about.
Discursus, us, m. g. rennyng hyther and thither, a wandryng.
Discussiores, sessors, whyche value how muche a man is wourth.
Discussorius, a, um, that dissolueth.
Discussoria medicamenta, medicines, whiche dissolue or breake thynges congeled or rough.
Discus, ci, ma. gen. a dysh. also a rounde thyng made of stone, leade, or yron, haupng an hole in the myddell, whiche in olde tyme men vled to throwe vp into the ayre, to the intent to exercise them selues.
Discutio, discutis, fsi, rere, to cast or shake of, to remoue, to examine, to discusse, to take or put as waye, to dasthe. also to dissolue humours gathered into an impostume.
Discutere ebrietatem, fastidium, metum, tristitiam, to put awaye drunkenness. &c.
Tristis cogitationes discutere, to put awaye heauy and sadde cogitations.
Febrem somno & sudore discutit, With sleape and sweatynge he drowe away the ague.
Discutere cunctationem, To put awaye and sette a parte all delaye.

Morbū discutere, to shake of a disease.
 Discutere caput, to bathe one on the head.
 Discussus, a, um, shaken or put away.
 Diserte, eloquently.
 Diserte loqui, to speake well and to the purpose.
 Disertiones, diuisions of heritages.
 Disertus, a, um, well spoken, eloquent.
 Disicio, disicis, disieci, disicere, to caste a sunder.
 Disiectus, a, um, caste a sunder, caste here and there, scattered.
 Disiectæ naues, Shyppes broken a sunder by force of weather.
 Disiecti milites, the hoste dispersed.
 Disiunctio, ōnis, f. g. a separation.
 Disiunctio sententiæ, diuersitie in opinion.
 Disiunctionem facere, To fall out with one and forsake his company.
 Disiunctus, a, um, separate, vnynked, farr of, a sunder.
 Terra disiunctissima, verale farre counstreyes.
 Disiunctior à te sum, I am somewhat farrer of from you.
 Disiungo, xi, ere, to vniogne, to sepearate a sunder, to vnynke.
 Eares multo maxime disiunxit illum ab illa, That matter moste of all caused hym to forsake hir, or to withdraw his minde from hir.
 Disiungere boues, to vnynke oxen.
 A familiaritate alterius aliquem disiungere, To cause one to forsake an others familiaritee or company.
 Disiungere à mamma, to weane, to take from the teate.
 Dispalesco,lescere, to publishe abroad, to make knowne to all men.
 Dispalo, aui, are, to wander hither and thither.
 Dispallatus, a, um, scattered.
 Dispando,spandi, dere, to stretche out, to spreade abroad.
 Dispansus, a, um, spredde abroad, stretched out.
 Dispar, disparis, om. gen. vnlyke, vnmete, vnequall.
 Haud dispar animorum, of no lesse stomache or courage.
 Disparilis, le, vnlike, vnequall.
 Dispariliter, dyuersely, vnequally.
 Disparo, disparui, or disparui, rare, to seuer, to separate.
 Disparatum, ti, neu g. is that whiche is separate from any thyng, by layng to the contrary, as Sapere and Non sapere.
 Dispartio, tiui, tire, to deuide.
 Dispartior, tiri, to deuide or be deuided.
 Dispello, dispuli, dispellere, to expell or put fro many places, or many wayes.
 Dispellere & compellere, contrary.
 Dispendiosus, a, um, harmefull, vnprofitable.
 Dispendium, dii, neu. gene. losse by negligence, or superfluous expenses. Also it signifieth harme: sometyne a longe waye aboute, contrarge to Compendium.

 Dispendo, di, ere, to spende, also to stretche out.
 Dispenno, ere, to stretche out of vse.
 Dispensator, toris, ma, gen. a steward, or other officer, leying out money for householde, a dispenser of thynges.
 Dispensatio, ōnis, f. g. layng out of moneie for an other man, distribution.
 Dispenso, aui, are, to laye out money, to dispense, to geue licence or power to do a thing, to distribute accordyng to the proportion of a thyng.
 Dispepsia, pſtconcoction.
 Disperdo, di, ere, to lose, to spend or consume.
 Disperdere & dissipare possessiones, to spend and waste spottously a mannes substance.
 Disperditus, a, um, losse, destroyed, vndown.
 Disperditio, ōnis, f. g. gene. an vndowning or destroyng.
 Disperco, disperis, disperui, and disperij, tire, to be losse viterly, to be vndown.
 Dispercam, I praye god that I dye: It is a word vſed in the ſede of an othe in the assurance or denyng of a matter.
 Disperij, I am vndown.
 Dispercut tui labores, thy labour is losse.
 Dispergo, sperſi, spergere, to ſowe abroad, or to scatter.
 Dispersus, a, um, scattered abroad.
 Dispersa & dissipata, disperſed and scattered abroad.
 Dispersus, us, a disperſyng or scatteryng abroad.
 Disperſe, and Disperſim, as it were scattered here and there.
 Dispartio, tiui, tire, to geue parte to one, parte to an other, to diuide, to distribute.
 Iniuria dispartiuisti, pinguiorem agnum isti habent, Thou haſte not parted it equally: for they haue the fatter lambe.
 In membra orationem dispartire, To diuide an oracion into membrs.
 Aequaliter prædam dispartire, to diuide the praye equally.
 Dispartitus, a, um, departed, deuided.
 Dispesco, cui, ere, to dyue beaſtes from their pasture, also to separate, or diuide.
 Dispeſſo, ſi, ere, to spreade abroad.
 Dispectus, us, conſideracion, viewyng, also discrecion or choſe.
 Disphendomena, a kind of punyſhment among the Persians, where the toppes of ii. trees were drawne downe together, and the offender bound by the legges to ethe of them; was drawen a sunder.
 Dispicientia, æ, f. g. circumspection, aduſement, diligent conſideracion, prouidence.
 Dispicio, dispicis, xi, ere, to diſterne, to eſpye, to conſyder, to loke about diligently.
 Displiceo, displices, plicui, ere, to diſpleaſe, to miſlyke.

Si quando tibi displicere consilium tuum cœperis, If your counsaill shall chance hereafter to myghte you, or yf ye shall thynke hereafter, that your owne aduysse be not good.
 Displicentia, æ, a displeyng, or mylcontentyng.
 Displicina, æ, form. gen. he that hath or dooeth displease one.
 Displico, plicui, plicui, plicare, to unfold.
 Displicatus, a, um, unfolded, and by translation scattered or dispersed.
 Displicatæ volucres, bees scattered and sparred abrode.
 Displodo, si, dere, to make a clapping or noyse with the handes or feete.
 Displuuium, uis, and Displuuiatum, neu. gene, a parte of the house, wherby rayn water was receyued.
 Dispolio, aui, are, idem quod Despolio, to spoyle or robbe.
 Dispoliabilum, li, neu. gen. a despoyle, a place, where all mischiefe or robbery is doone. also howedom, naughtynesse.
 Dispondæus, a foote in meter, that hath foure syllables long, as Oratores.
 Dispono, sui, ere, to dispose, to order, to sette in order.
 Describere & disponere cuius munus suum, to appoynt and assigne every man his office.
 Disponere comas, to decke the bushe.
 Disponere classem, to sette in order a navy.
 Disponere pocula, to set tuppes in order.
 Disposuit remedia homini natura, Nature hath geuen diuers remedies vnto man.
 Dispositus, a, um, disposed, sette in order, raunged.
 Dispositus vir, he that setteth his wordes in good order.
 Disposira hominum vita, the lyfe of man well ordered and facioned.
 Dispositus, us, idem quod Dispositio.
 Dispositio, ònis, form. gene. disposition, order, placing of a thing.
 Dispositor, oris, m. g. a disposer, one that setteth thynges in good order.
 Dispositor mundi deus.
 Dispositæ, ordinately, in good order.
 Dispudet, I am ashamed, or he is ashamed of that whiche is doone.
 Dispudet, mihi sic data esse verba, I am greatly ashamed, that I was so shamefully begyled.
 Dispulvero, aui, are, to make a thyng in poulder or duste, to dissolue.
 Dispumo, aui, are, to skumme of.
 Dispunctio, ònis, f. g. an examination.
 Dispungor, xi, gere, to put out thynges wyppen, setting pyches under every letter.
 Dispungere rationes, To examyne an accõpte.
 Dispungere dies, to note and marke dales.
 Disputo, aui, are, to purge or cut of that is superfluous, and by translation, to dissent, to make playne to be vnderstande, to reason, to talke, to create.

Neque in eam sententiam disputo, neither doe I speake these thynges to this entente.
 Disputare rationem cum aliquo, to rechen or make accõpte with one.
 Aliquid multis verbis disputare, To talke or treat of a thyng with many wordes.
 Ne ego vllam in partem disputo, I dispute not eyther on the one parte or on the other.
 Disputare verbis in veramque partem, to bring or lay reasons for bothe partes.
 Disputatio, ònis, f. g. a disputyng, a reasonyng, a talkyng or treatyng of a matter.
 Disputator, òris, mas. gen. one that disputeth or reasoneth.
 Disputatrix, tris, f. ge. the feminine.
 Disquamatus, a, um, vnshaked.
 Disquiro, siui, rere, to inquire diligently, to inqyre.
 Disquisitio, ònis, form. ge. diligent serche, where every mans opynion and sentence is demaunded vpon a matter in iudgement, an inquisition or inquerie, a triall.
 Venire in disquisitionem, To haue inquerie made of it, to come into iudgement, whan every man is demaunded what he thynketh of the matter.
 Disraro, aui, are, to cut awaie here and there, and make thynne that is thicke.
 Dirumpo, rupi, rumpere, toke Dirumpo.
 Dissauior, aris, ari, to hysse sweetely.
 Dissectus, a, um, cut as a body is in an anatomy.
 Dissecō, secui, or secāui, care, to cut in pecces, to cleaue in sander.
 Dissectio, ònis, f. g. an anatomy.
 Dissémino, aui, are, to sowe ouer all, to spredde abrode, to publyshe.
 Disseminare & dispergere.
 Disseminatus, a, um, sowed, spredde abrode, publyshed.
 Dissentaneus, a, um, not accordyng.
 Dissentio, senti, tire, to thinke contrary, or to disagree, to be of a contrary opynion.
 Longe dissentire, To bee vnterly of an other opynion.
 De veritate ab aliquo dissentire, To dissent from one concernyng the truthe.
 A seipso dissentire, to disagree with ones selfe.
 Dissentit voluntas scriptoris cum scripto, the wrytynge and the will of the writer doot not agree: or the wryter ment other wise than is expressed in the wrytynge. Inter se dissentiant, they agree not among them selues.
 A ceterorum more & natura dissentire, to be of a nother facion and nature then other be.
 Cum datiuo: as, Ne orationi vita dissentiat.
 Dissensus, us, idem quod Dissentio.
 Dissentio, ònis, f. g. dissencion, variance, debate.
 Dissidium, & dissentio.

Commonere dissensionem, to reyle discorde and debate.
Dissipio, dissipis, sepsi, sepire, to breke downe an hedge, or any other thyng, wherwith a place is enclosed, to breake downe enclosure.
Dissipato, aui, are, to disseuer one from an other.
Dissipimentum, ti, n. ge. the partition in a walle or mure, wherwith the hennell is diuided.
Disseptum, ti, n. ge. a closure.
Differeno, aui, are, to waxe fayne wether.
Differo, disleui, or ferui, ere, to sowe sedes. also to dispute or declare, to reason.
Aggredi de realiqua differere, to go about to dispute or reason of a matter.
Dissertabundus, a, um, one that reasoneth or disputeth.
Dissertatio, onis, f. g. disputation or treatise of any thyng, contention, reasonyng.
Dissertio, onis, f. m. gen. a partition of landes,
or heritage.
Disserto, aui, are, to contende or stryue in wor-des, to reason vehemently.
Dissideo, dissides, disledi, ere, to be at variaun-ce or discorde, to dissent, to disagree, also to be contrarie or diuers.
Dissidere animo & voluntate ab aliquo, To dissent from one with harte and mynde.
A se ipso dissidere, to dissent from hym selfe.
A veri fide dissidet, it is vnlike to be true.
Multis rebus cum illo dissidet, he varieth or disagreeth from hym in many thynges.
Cum causa dissidere, non cum homine, To hate the cause or quarell, and not the person.
Inter se dissident & discordant, They bee at variance and debate among them selues.
Capitali odio a Pompeio dissidet, he beareth mortal hatred agaynst Pompeie: or there is deadly hatred betweene hym and Pompeie.
Adamas dissidet a magnete, The diamand and the lodestone be dyuers.
Dissidiōsus, a, um, one that loueth discorde or variance.
Dissidium, dii, n. g. variance or discorde, dissen-cion, debate, diuorce, breache of frendshipp, the se-paracion of frendes beyng farre asunder.
Dissidentia, x, f. g. idem.
Designatio, onis, f. g. loke Designatio.
Designatores, loke Designatores.
Designo, aui, are, loke Designo.
Dissilio, dissilis, iui, ire, to leape downe from a place, to leape out of his place. Sometime to braft or crake a sunder, to leape here & there, to leape a sunder.
Dissiliit solū, the ground chappeth or goeth a sūder.
Dissimilares partes, are those partes, whiche haue not the name of that thyng, whereof they be partes: as, the heade, armes, and other partes of a man are not man.
Dissimilis, le, vnlyke.
In dissimiles incidere naturas, To chaunce to haue dyuers natures.

Nihil tam dissimile, quam Cotta Sulpicio,
No twayne be so vnlyke in theyr styte as Cotta and Sulpitius.
Sui dissimilis, vnlyke hym selfe.
Forma haud dissimilis in dominum erat, In Mappe he was not muche vnlike his master.
Dissimiliter, in a diuers facion.
Dissimilitudo, dinis, f. g. diuersitee, vnlikenesse.
Habere dissimilitudinem cum re aliqua, To be somewhat vnlyke a thyng.
Dissimulanter, without any semblant, or countenaunce, obscurely, covertly, closely.
Dissimulatio, idem.
Dissimulatio, onis, f. g. dissimulyng.
Dissimulatio, idem.
Dissimulatio, onis, m. g. a dissimuler.
Vt qui dissimulatores studiorū fuerint, which made semblaunt as they hadde not studied.
Dissimulatus, a, um, dysembled.
Dissimulo, aui, are, to dissemble a thyng not to be so, that is so in dede, as, Dissimulare iram, is to hyde anger, or to make as yf one were not angry, that is veraily angry in dede, to make as yf he knewe nothyng, to shewe countenaunce contrarye to his thought.
Dissimulabo hos quasi non videam, I wyl make as though I byd not see them.
Dissimulabam me harum sermoni operam dare, I made as though I byd not harken to theyr communicacion.
Dissipabilis, le, easy to be broken in pieces, that maye be sparkled or scattered abroad.
Dissipatio, onis, f. m. ge. a scatteryng or byng-gyng of one thyng into many small pieces, or a wastyng.
Dissipatus, a, um, scattered, spred abroad, dyuen
a sūder.
Classis dissipata, a nauie of shippes dyuen a sūder with weather.
Dissipo, aui, are, to scatter or spread abroad. also to byng vnto nought, to consume or spende, to breake into pieces.
Alio aliud dissipare, To caste or scatter one thyng here and an other there.
Disturbare, ac dissipare.
Disperdere ac dissipare possessiones, to cons-sume and spende a mans gooddes ryottously.
Contrahere amicitiam, & dissipare discordiam, To get frendshipp, and dissolue hatred and debate.
Dissipare famam alicuius rei, to sprede the bute and fame of any thyng.
Dissipare humores, To dyscolue humores congeled.
Maledictum late dissipatur, a shewwed reposte is sprede farre abroad.
Dissipare conuiuii patrimonium, to spende ones heritage ryottously in bankettyng.
Aphewpe Pecuniam, and Rem familiarem dissipare.
Dissitus, a, um, set farre of, distant. also spredde.
Dis.

Diffociabilis, le, that can not bee brought into fellowship of company.
Diffociatio, ónis, f. g. breaking of fellowship of company.
Diffocio, aui, are, to breake company, to dissolue fellowship.
Dissoluo, ui, ere, to leaue of unbrynde, to spee, to paye leuall debts, to paye that which is owed.
Dissoluere aliquem, To dispatche one from longe taryng.
Dissoluere religionem, to doe agaynst religion, to breake religion.
Dissoluere interrogationem, To asyle a question.
Dissoluere se, to dispatche hym self of busines.
Dissoluere res aliena, to discharge of pay det.
Dissoluere amicitias, to breake frendshipp.
Coagumentare & dissoluere, contrarie.
Conglutinare & dissoluere, contrarie.
Causam dissoluere, to tell a cause of reason, Luctet.
Pesturium dissoluere, to kepe his othe.
Dissolubilis, le, easie to leaue.
Dissolute, and aduerbe, whiche signifieth, dissolutely, without care.
Dissolute rem aliquam cōficere, to doe a thing negligently and without care.
Dissolutio, ónis, f. g. a dissoluyng of leuysng.
Legum dissolutio, a dissoluyng and breaking of the lawe.
Dissolutio naturæ, deathe.
Dissolutio criminis, a purgation.
Dissolutio stomachi, vide Nausea.
Dissolutus, a, um, leuied, dissolued, sometyme abolished. Also he that lyueth at his owne pleasure, contrarie to the lawes of good customes, dissolute, unruly.
Dissolutis criminibus, after that he had made answers to that, which was layed to hys charge, and was therof acquitted.
Institutum negligentia dissolutum, abolished.
Dissonantia, æ, f. ge. discorde in voyces of tunes.
Dissono, ui, or aui, are, to discorde, to disagree.
Dissonus, a, um, that whiche dooeth not agree, dissonant.
Dissonæ sermone gentes, people that haue an other language.
Dissuadeo, si, ere, to dissuade, to assaie to tourne one from his opinion or purpose.
Dissuasio, ónis, f. g. the acte of dissuadyng, dissuasion.
Dissuasor, óris, m. g. he that dissuadeth.
Dissuasiatio, ónis, f. g. the acte of kissing sweetely.
Dissuauior, áris, ari, to kysse sweetely, and with much delectacion.
Dissuafacio, and Dissuesco, scere, to leaue the olde maner and custome.
Dissuetudo, lacke of vse.
Dissuetus, a, um, vnwont, not accustomed.
Dissulcus, ci, ma. gen. an hogge that hath a space

betweene the dykes in the herke.
Diffulto, and, are, to trape hither and thither.
Dissuo, dissui, ere, to vnde a thyng, to vnde.
Dissuete amicitias, to speake of frendshipp by litle and litle.
Distabesco, idem quod tabesco.
Distendet, distendit, & distensum est, I am welled of a thyng, it lotheth me greatly.
Distancia, æ, f. g. gen. difference, space between place and place.
Distendo, di, ere, to stretch out of stretch, to fyll as a vessel is fylled, to stiffe out, to to fyll, that it stroueth out.
Rictum distendere, to gape wyde.
Distendere curas hominum, to make moze carefull, carefull, or moze sollicitous. Lini.
Distensio, ónis, a stretching of strowyng out.
Distensio membrorum, id est, spasmus.
Distentus, a, um, the particeps of Distendo, full, bollen out, strowyng.
Pabulo distentus, to seide that his deaule stroueth out.
Distentus, a, um, the particeps of Distendo, greatly occupied, busied, troubled, lette, withholden.
Cum ipse distentus sit imperij curis, where as your selfe is greatly occupied or busied about the assayes of the impyere.
Distento, aui, are, to stiffe a thyng, and make it to stroue.
Distinatio, ónis, f. g. a diuision of ground, a boundyng of lande.
Distmino, aui, are, to diuide one place from an other, to bounde place from place.
Distero, strini, ere, to breake small, to pounce of braye in a moyster.
Distichon, chi, neu. gen. two verses conteynyng one matter.
Distichum hordeum, a kynde of barley.
Distillatio, ónis, f. g. a distylling, specially from the heade, called a reume or catarre, the poxe.
Distillo, aui, are, to distille or drop downe.
Distincte, distinctly, severally, where euery thyng is in his place and orde. orderly.
Distinctio, ónis, f. g. a diuersitee, distinction, separacion.
Distinctus, us, m. g. a separacion, or distinction, diuersitee, variete.
Distinctus, a, um, diuided, separated, distincte, poynted, noted.
Littora distincta rectis & vrbibus, that haue many townes and houses.
Distineo, distines, tinui, ere, to leat or withhold with dyuers businesse or bygent causes, to hold or put backe, to leat or stoppe.
Distineri, to be leat.
Distinere pacem, to let that peare be not made.
Distineri occupationibus, to be greatly occupied, or busied.
Nos alio bello distineri putat, he thinketh that we are occupied and let with other warre.
Occupari, & distineri,

Distinguo, xi, ere, to deuide: also to make distinction, to put difference, to distinct with notes and markes, to separate.
Grauiora opera lufibus iocisque distinguo, I myngle myne erneste and wayghie affaires, with recreacions and pastymes.
Distingue artificē ab infcio, to put difference betwene a counnyng man and a bunglare.
Distingue gemmis pocula, To set and garnishe the plate with prierious stones.
Diudicare ac distingue vera a falsis, to discerne and putte difference betwene true thynges and false.
Distingue ac separare.
Vocem distingue lingua, To pronounce wordes distinctly and leasurly.
Colore vario distingue aliquid, to distinct a thyng with diuers colours.
Distinguo, the passyue.
Caudis inter se distinguntur, they diffe one from an other by theyr taples.
Distisum, olde wryters vled for Distasum.
Distiro, au, are, to stande aparte, to be distante one from an other.
Disito, stiri, are, to diffe, to be unlike, or bee distant, to bee a certeyn space one from an other.
Spacio pari distare vtrinq, To bee equally in the myddle of two thynges.
Vides quantum distat oratio a veritate, you see howe farre your wordes diffe from the truth.
Multum inter se distant, they diffe muche one from the other.
Distorqueo, si, ere, to set awrye, to wryste a syde.
Ah illud vide, os vt sibi carnifex distorsit, oh, loke howe the hangeman setteth his mouthe awrye: or what a wrye mouthe the knaue maketh.
Distortio, ōnis, f. g. a wryestyng or wrythyng.
Distortus, a, um, set awrye out of facion, deformed, crooked.
Crura distorta, crooked legges.
Distraçtio, ōnis, f. g. separation, alienation, or pulling awaye or a sunder.
Distractor, ōris, ma. ge. he that draweth or pulleth in sunder.
Distractus, a, um, pulled in sunder, drawen in diuers partes.
Anima distraçta in toto corpore, The soule defused in the whole body.
Distraho, distrahis, xi, here, to plucke awaye, to deuide, to separate, to drawe a sunder, to plucke or pull in peces, to withdrawe a thyng or person, to alienate. Sometyme by translaçion, it is taken for to sell, also to synge or conclude matters in variaunce, to deferre or dyue of a thyng, to ppolonge.
Controuersias distrahere, to ende controuersies or suites.
Distrahuntur animi in varias sententias, they myndes be drawen nowe into one opinion nowe into an other.

Distraham eum illo societatem, I will solake his felowshyp or familiaritee, or I will hope no longer company with hym.
Filicim distrahi, To be plucked awaye thyng from other.
Vt pluris postea distraheret, that he myght after sell it for more money.
Qui hanc rem distraheret, whiche myght deserue this matter.
Distrahit mediam Asiam Taurus, the mountayne Taurus deuidenth Asia in the myddes.
Distrahor, the passyue, I am in diuers mindes.
Distribuo, bui, ere, to distribute or geue in sundrie partes, to geue to sundrye persones, to distribute.
Distribuere causam, To deuide his pleadyng into sundrie partes, or to make many pleas of one matter.
Distribuere in singulos, to geue to every one a porcion.
Distribuere in ministeria, to appoynte diuers persons to diuers offices.
Distribuere milites in numeros, To distribute or deuide souldiours into certain bandes.
Distribute, in partes or porcions.
Distributio, ōnis, f. ge. partition, distribution, also a figure of Rhetorike.
Distributor, ōris, m. g. a distributour or deuider.
Distributus, a, um, distributed, deuided.
Districte, strictly, in fewe wordes.
Districte denegare, to denie strictly.
Districte minari, to threaten strictly.
Districtus, a, um, greatly let from dooeyng of a thyng, greatly troubled, constrained, bounde, drawne as a swerde. also austere, seuer, rigorous, harde.
Districtus mihi videris esse, me thynke thou arte brought into suche a streite, that thou canste not tell what to doe.
Districta generatrix, rigorous, cruell.
Districtus & obligatus.
Ensis districtus, a swerde drawen.
Districtus negotiis, leat with busynesse.
Distrimenta calami, id est, partes calami confusa, the broken peeces.
Distringens, one that rubbeth of the sweatte or felthe of ones bodye in the bayne or hot house.
Distingo, xi, ere, to bynde faste or to strayne harde, to rubbe of or cleanse the fylthe or soyle of the body, to threaten, to stryke, to drawe out a sworde, to prycke or touche softly, to breake in small peces.
Gladium distrinxit, he drew out his sworde.
Sometyme to gather: as,
Sereno celo manibus distringi oliuam opora ret, in a fayre cleere daye the olyues must be gathered or plucked by hande.
Ramos distringere, to plucke bowes.
Distringere crustam panis, to chyp byade, or to pare of the raste.
Distringi, to be letted or busied, to bee greatly occupied.

Distingor officio, I am greatly occupied or buried with mynt office.
Distingere & eradere, To rubbe and strape awaye.
Exiguam aridam thymi super lac distingito, rubbe or strake in small pieces a litle dype thyme
vpon the mylle.
Distruo, struxi, ere, to buyde in dyuers places or a lunder.
Distruco, aui, are, to cut of a piece of a thyng.
Disturbatio, onis, for. ge. a casting downe, a rysinge of a citee.
Disturbatus, a, um, caste or beaten downe.
Disturbo, aui, are, to cast downe, to let the enter-pryse or purpose of one, to ryse of tinsle, to dysweawe.
Ni meus aduentus disturbasset omnia, he had the comping letted all to gether.
Disulcus, ci, m. g. an hogge that hath the byt-tes of his necke diuided.
Ditatus, a, um, made riche.
Ditico, to be riche.
Ditresco, scere, to waxe riche, to waxe welthe.
Dithyrambus, a verse made in the honour of Bacchus: and a mans name, whiche first found that kynde of verse.
Ditio, onis, f. g. a dominion, diction, power.
Ditioni nasci, to be borne to bee a prynce or gosuernour.
Redigere in ditionem, to bypge vnder ones dominion.
In ditione ac potestate alicuius esse, To bee
vnder ones dominion and power.
Cadere sub imperiū diuonem' q' alicuius, to become subiecte to one.
Ditior, rycher.
Ditissimus, rychest of all.
Dito, aui, are, to make ryche, to enryche.
Ditrocheus, a sorte of foure syllables in verse, has tyng one longe, an other shorte, an other longe, and the fourth shorte.
Diu, longe tyme: also the daye tyme, whetof cometh
Interdiu, in the daye tyme.
Diu est quod, it is longe sens that.
Haud diu est, it is not long sens.
Non diu huc commigravit, It is not longe
sens he came hyther.
Quid est in hominum vita diu? what is there in mans lyfe of any continuance?
Diu multūque hæsitaui, quid facere deberem, I was longe in doubt, what was beste for me to do.
Ne diutius anno in prouincia esset, That he shoulde not be in the prouince aboue a yeres space.
Diua, a woman saynete.
Diagor, aris, ari, to wander from place to place.
Diárico, aui, are, to stryde or to sprede wyde
one from an other, as boughes of a tree, to goe so brode with the toes, that the heeles be one a-gaynst an other.

Diuello, alii, ere, to pulle awaie by violence, to pull in lunder.
Duendo, didi, ere, to sell to dyuers persons, or in dyuers parcelles.
Diuerbero, aui, are, to cutte or cleane.
Diuerberat auras, it cutteth the ayre.
Diuerbium, ij, neu. g. the fyft parte of a come-
die. also an olde saied sawe.
Diuerbia, partes of comedies, wherein bee
many plaiers.
Diuerse, and Diuersum, diuersely, in diuerse
partes.
Diuersitas, aris, for. g. diuersitee, contrarieitee.
Diuersito, aui, are, to tourne often to a thyng,
or to resorte.
Diuersor, aris, ari, to resorte, or repayre to a place, to abyde in a place at hoste.
Diuersor, oris, ma. ge. a guest, or one that taketh vp his lodgeng in a place.
Diuersoriolum, li, n. g. a littel ynne, or lodgeng in the countreie.
Diuersorium, rij, neu. gen. an ynne, wherunto men in iourneie do resorte, to bapte or to be lodged, a lodgeng: sometyme a ferme in the countreie, to resorte to, out of the citee.
Diuersorius, a, um, pestyng to an ynne or lodgeng.
Diuersum, the aduerbe. idem quod diuerse.
Diuersus, a, um, diuerse or separate, that tour-neth out of the way, vnyke, contrary, farre distant. Diuersum distrahi, to bee drawen hy-ther and thither.
In diuersum afficere aliquem, to make nowe
in one mynde, nowe in an other.
In diuersum concitati equi, hofes gallopped forth some one waye, and some an other, or contrary wayes.
In diuersum curuari, to be bowed diuers or contrary wayes.
Diuersa factio, the contrary parte.
Diuersi, men standyng ouer right one agaynst an other, or some on one parte, and some on the other.
Diuersi interrogabantur, they were examined a parte, one from an other.
Agere diuersos, to dyspe some one waye, and some an other, to scatter.
Diuersus distrahor, I am tent in pieces, or pulled hyther and thither.
Diuersa de causa, for a dyuers and contrarye cause. A te totus diuersus est, he is cleane contrary from you.
Diuersa est quàm lactuca natura, it is vntrely of an other nature than lettuce.
Acies diuersa, the armie of the enemies.
Afficere aliquem in diuersum, to make one to change his mynde.
Animi diuersus, of diuers phantasies one contrarie to another.
Diuertior, the comparatiue.
Diuerticulum, li, n. g. the place where the way

tourneth, an ynne oz lodgynge, a place to baite at, also in an oracion, the place where the digression beganne.

Diuerticulum fluminis, The tournynge oz ruer.

Vbi veni ad diuerticulum, constiti, whan I came to the place where the waye tourneth, I stode still.

Diuerticulum quærere peccatis, to seke meanes to hyde our offences.

Diuerto, ti, ere, and Diuortor, eris, the deponēt, to tourne from one thyng to an other, to take lodgynge, oz to bayte, to tourne out of the waye. Sometyme to disre.

Ad hospitem diuerrere, to take by ones lodgynge at his holte.

Vt diuertetur ad me in hospicium, That he shoulde come and be at holte with me, oz lodge with me.

Diuerrere à proposito, To turne from the purpose to some other matter.

In hac diuertisse non fuerit alienum, It wyl not bee farre from the purpose to speake of these thynges, oz to tourne our communicacion vnto these thynges.

Diuertunt mores virgini longè ac lupæ, The maners of a mayde & of an harlot, dyffe greatly, oz there is great difference betwene a maydes maners and an harlottes.

Diuerto ad te & apud te, I come to lodge with the, oz to tary wth the for a tyme.

Diuerrere via, to tourne out of the right wale.

Diues, itis, om. g. ryche.

Diues auis, he whose auncesters were ryche.

Copiosus & diues.

Pecoris diues, ryche of cattell.

Diues agris, one that hath great landes.

Diues auro, a man well monied.

Ingenium diues, a plentifull witte.

Diuitior, the comparatiue.

Diuxo, aui, are, to bere oz trouble. also to consume. Diuxare rem suam, to waste his substance.

Diuxare agros ciuium, to waste and stroy.

Diuidia, æ, f. g. tediousnesse. Sometyme it betokeneth disorde, businesse, trouble, variance.

Diuidiculum, li, n. g. an head of a cundite.

Diuidium, ij, n. g. a partition oz diuident.

Diuido, si, ere, to diuide oz parte a sinder, to distribute.

Diuidere sententiam, wher in a counsaile one in his reason seemeth partely to affirme, and partely to disaffirme any thyng, whiche is to bee dooen: he that speaketh nexte, requyeth hym that hath spoken, to diuide his argument, and abyde vpon one part, whyche he will eyther confirme oz reprove, lyke as our lawyers vse to doe, whan dyuers titles are broughte in one pleadyng, they prae the court that the contrary parte maye abyde vpon one of them, wherunto they wyl answer: oz thus, where one in his reason seemeth to propose dyuers opinions, and yf all be not allowed, other requyre, that he wyl intreate of the of them generally, to the intent that that, whych myght be selected.

Diuiduitas, ætis, f. g. a diuision oz partynge.

Diuiduus, a, um, that whyche maye bee senered oz diuided.

Diuinatio, ònis, f. g. a foze iudgement oz conjecture. Also where a matter cometh in iudgements, without writynge oz wytnesse on any parte, that iudgement maye be called Diuinatio, a diuination.

Diuine, of god, godlye, as it were by inspiration.

Diuinipotens, he that hath power in dyuine thynges.

Diuinitas, ætis, f. g. the godhead, diuinitee.

Diuinitus, godly, oz of god, excellently well, as it were by inspiration.

Diuino, aui, are, to telle the truthe as well of thynges present, as paste. For the mooste parte it signifieth to coniecture of thynges presente, what shall happen, to diuine, to gesse, to iudge, to foze deeme.

Diuius, ni, a southsaier, a diuiner.

Diuius, a, um, that whyche pertyneth to god, diuine.

Diuinæ rei operam dare, oz Diuinam rem facere, To dooe sacrifice, to make supplication to god.

Ope diuina, by goddis helpe.

Locus diuinus, a place halowed oz consecrated.

Homo diuinus, a godly man.

Diuisio, ònis, f. g. a diuision, separation, partition, wherby we declare what is in variance, oz wherby we expresse, of what thynges we wyl treate.

Diuisor, òris, m. g. among the old Romans was he, which at the election of great officers, diuided oz gaue money to the people in the name of them that sued for the office, to the intent for to attayne it: one that distributeth oz diuideth.

Diuisūra, æ, f. g. a diuision, a clifte, choppe, oz gasse.

Diuisus, a, um, diuided, parted.

Diuisus, us, m. g. idem quod Diuisio.

Diuitiæ, arum, f. g. plurali, rycheffe.

Diuitiis abundare, & affluere, to abounde in rycheffe.

Cogere, congerere, accumulare diuitias, To gather rycheffe.

Superare Crassum diuitiis, to passe Crassus in rycheffe, spoken pouerbiaily.

Diuito, aui, are, to make ryche.

Dium, i, neu. g. the daye lyght vnder the firmament, whan we saie, Sub dio aliquid fieri, it signifieth some thyng to bee dooen abrode, oz out of the house.

Diunt, olde wytes used for dant.

Diuortium, ij, n. gen. a diuorſe oz separation of a man and his wyfe. Sometyme a departynge from from any other thyng, a diuision, sometyme a waile that cownteyneth.

Diurnus, aui, ure, to last longe.
Diurnum, i, n. g. a daies byte.
Diurnus, a, um, that is doen in the day tyme.
Diurna stella, the daie sterre.
Diurni libri, booke conteynyng actes dooen
euery daie.
Dius, a, um, come of a gentill stocke, or lyneally descended from Iupiter. Sometyme for Diuinus, godly. Sententia dia, for Diuina.
Diutine, longe.
Diutinus, a, um, longe continyng, continuall.
Diutissime, verat longe, or to longe, a vraye great whyle.
Diutius, longer.
Diutule, a littell whyle, a pretty space.
Diuturnitas, ariis, forme, ge, a long space of tyme, longe continuance.
Celeritas & diuturnitas, contrary.
Diuturnus, a, um, longe continyng.
Bellum diuturnum, a longe warre.
Diuturnus & desperatus morbus, a long and desperate sycknesse.
Diuulgatio, onis, f. g. a publyshyng or mabyng of a thyng common to all men.
Diuulgatus, a, um, made common, publyshed.
Tempus ætatis ad omnes libidines diuulgatum, sette open.
Diuulgo, aui, are, to publyshe abroad, to sette a thyng in suche condicion, as euery man may vse it at his pleasure to make a thyng common.
Diuulsus, a, um, pulled away, plucked asunder.
Diuus, a, um, worship a diuine remembraunce.
Some they take Diuum, and Diuam, for a man saynt, or a woman sainte.
Armipotens diua, Minerva.
Casta diua, Pallas. Creatrix diua, Venus.
Imi diui, infernall goddis.
Diuum, is sometyme vled for the ayre.

DANTE O.

DO, dedi, dare, to geue. Also to offer or proffer, to graunte, to committe or delys-uer, to appoinct, to make, to saye, tell, or declare, to byng, to obreie, to conforme, to do.
Vt res dant sese, as thynges offer them selues.
Dabit ille ruinam arboribus, he shall bynge a great fall vnto trees.
Quamobrem has partes didicerim, paucis dabo, for what cause I learned that part, I wil shewe the in fewe wordes.
Pol haud paternum istud dedisti, In faith thy father neuer taught thee to doe this: Or thou neuer learnedst to doe this of thy father.
Da te mihi, Conforme the to my will, or lende me thy helpe, doe as I would haue the.
Do manus, I render me, I am vanquished.
Do lego, I geue by testament or last will.
Dare auribus, to flatter, or speake to please.

Dare damnas, to paye damage, or to make satisfaction.
Dare facultatem, To geue libertie or power to doe a thyng.
Dare fidem, to promple faithfully.
Dare se in pedes, to flee or cenne awaye.
Dare in ruborem, to make ashamed, or to make to blush.
Dare infidias, to deceyte one, to begyle, to laye
waite to deceyte.
Dare se in viam, to take a iourneie.
Dare iusiurandum, to take an othe, to sweare.
Dare malum alicui, to do one a hurte, to hurte.
Dare mancipio, to deliuer on warranty.
Suo periculo is erat, qui eam mercabitur, mancipio neq promittet, neque quicquam dabit, he that will haue hir, leat him be hir or his owne pereill, for no man shall promise or deliuer hir on warrantie.
Dare sermonem alicui, to geue one occasion to speake of vs.
Dare in manum, to put in his hande piously, as they do to men of lawe, or priue solicitors, to corrupte officers.
Dare murum, to lende.
Dare negotium, To assigne or appointe businesse, or a thyng to be doen.
Dare operam, to applie, to geue or take heede, or to helpe.
Dare potestatem, to commit authoritie or power, to remitte a thyng to an other mans pleasure, to geue licence or libertie.
Suarum omnium rerum illi potestatem dederat,
he gaue hym the rule of all that he had.
Dare penas, to suffer punishment.
Dare se alicui, to folowe one, or to obserue his commaundement.
Dare veniam, to forgiue.
Dare verba, To deceyte by saye wordes or by myles.
Dare vitio, to dispraise or blame.
Danunt, idem quod dant, they geue.
Adeo exornatum dabo, I will so decke or styll
hym.
Quis tibi hoc dederit? who will graunt you this?
Dedi me proximam, I wente forth by and by.
Dare libellum perferendum ad aliquem, to de-liuer a booke to be caried to one.
Prout res & tempus le daret, As the matter and tyme shoulde serue and geue occasion.
Quod datur accipio, I take that is offered, spous-ken prouerbi ally.
Dare actionem, to admitte the plaintife to enter his action.
Dare defensionem, to suffer the defendaunt to make his answer.
Dare aditum, to suffer one to enter.
Dare adiumentum, to helpe.
Animos dare, to make moze couragious, to sto-make men.
Priusquam animum meum isti dedi, Before I sette my phantasy upon this woman: before I began to love this woman.

 Dare animum, to geue occasion.
 Dare arbitros, to appoynt arbitours, or iudges rent iudges in a matter.
 Dare aures, to harken.
 Rem tibi amorem dabo, the matter telle shall declare to you that it is so.
 Beneficium dare, to doe a pleasure.
 Dare bibere, geue hym dyynke.
 Dare ciuitatem alicui, to make one free of a citee.
 Clangorem dare, to make a noyse.
 Cenam dare, to make one a supper.
 Dare colloquium alicui, to speake to one.
 Dare se comitem alicui, To associate hym selfe
 with one.
 Ipsum gestio dari mihi in conspectum, I would very fayne haue hym brought hyther before me.
 Dare se in familiaritatem alicuius, To associate or make hym selfe familiar with a man.
 Dare copia, to geue licence, to permitte, to suffice.
 Dare crimini, to laye to ones charge, to blame, to accuse.
 Dare curam, to commit a charge and busynesse.
 Dare in custodiam, to commit to ward or prison.
 Dare damnum, to hurte, to endamage.
 Decus dare, to doe worshyp.
 Dare dextras, to promise, also to helpe.
 Dare dicta, to speake.
 Dare dolorem, to make heauy and sorowfull.
 Dare documentum, to shewe a proue of a thyng,
 to doe to wete.
 Dare aliquid dono, to geue a thyng freely.
 Oculis epulas dare, to delite the eyes.
 Da me excruciatum, punish me, tourment me.
 Exitio dare, to put to deathe.
 Casus dedit hunc exitum, Chauce or fortune, brought it to this ende.
 Dare fabulam, to plaie a comedie.
 Dabo factum, I wyll bring it to passe.
 Dabo famam, I will spreade it abroad.
 Dare in fœnus, to lende moneye for gayne, as vsurers doe.
 Dare frenos, & dare habenas, To geue the bry-dell, to sette at libertie, to let one doe as he will.
 Dabit fructum meliorem, It will yelde better
 fruite.
 Dare fugam, to put to flight.
 Dare se in fugam, to renne awaye.
 Gemitum dare, to grone.
 Dare aliquid gratia alicuius, to doe a thyng for a mans pleasure.
 Dare se hilarem alicui, To shewe hym selfe merie and iocunde in ones companie.
 Hospicium dare, to enterteine or lodge one.
 Dare impetum, to rushe agaynst a thyng, to renne violently agaynst ones enemies.
 Impunitatem dādam puro, I thynke it beste that he scape unpunished, or that he be forgotten.
 Dare iura, to prescribe lawes.
 Dare se in laqueum, to hange hym selfe.

Dare laudem, to praise.
 Dare libertatem, to make free.
 Dare literas alicui ad aliquem, To deliuer one letters to cary to an other.
 Dare ad litteras alicuius, to write an answer to ones letters.
 Dare se litteris, to geue hym selfe to studye.
 Dare se labori, to geue hym selfe to labour.
 Dare mamam, to geue the dymme, to geue sucke.
 Dare mandata, to geue charge.
 Dare aliquid in mandatis, to commaunde one to doe or saye a thyng.
 Dare manum, To aspye handes in signe of asgrement.
 Manus intus dare, to put ones handes into a place.
 Aliquid in manus hominum dare, to publishe a thyng abroad.
 Dare in manus alicui, to deliuer to one.
 Plena manu dare, to geue liberally, to geue aboun-dantly.
 Dare manibus alicuius, to doe somewhat to the comforte of the sprite of one that is deade.
 Dare manibus, to hyl, to ridde out of lyfe.
 Memoria dare, to wypte, to put in memory.
 Dare nomen militia, or ad militiam, To offer ones selfe to haue his name written to go to warre.
 Dare obuium, to forgette.
 Dare obuiam, to mete.
 Da mihi paulum operæ, helpe me a litle.
 Dare operam abortioni, to endeuour to traunche before the tyme.
 Aurium operam tibi dabo, I wyll harken to thy tale.
 Dare operam Platoni, to be Platos scholar.
 Dare operam domino, to serue ones master.
 Nunc id operam do, Nowe I go about this, or endeuour to bring this to passe.
 Operam mutuam dare, to helpe one an other.
 Dare operam rei, to endeuour or labour to get gooddes.
 Dare operam somno, to sleepe.
 Dare osculum, to kysse.
 Palmam dare, To geue the pryce to one in anye thyng. Ha partes ei datae sunt, this office was appoynted to hym.
 Dare plagas, to beate.
 Dare poculum, to geue one the cup to dyynke.
 Datur potui ad iocinerum vitia, It is geuen to be drunken agaynst the diseases of the lyuer.
 Dare precipitem, or in praeceps, to cast doune head longe.
 Dare praeibus alicuius, to doe that one requyreth Quem nuper in publicum dedit, which he of late publyshed or sette abroad.
 Responsum dare, to make answer.
 Risus dare, to make one laugh, to geue occasion to laugh.
 Dare salutem aduenienti, to salute one coming to vs. Nobis dedit se, he hath committed hym selfe wholly into our handes.
 Dare senatum legatis, to admytte the ambassadors

hours to come into the Senate, and to here their request.

Oculus mihi signum dedit, he winked vpon me.
Dare signum receptui, to blowe the trecense.
Satis signi dedit, he shewed or declared sufficiently.

Dare silentium, he still kept silence.

Dare se somno, to lye downe and sleape.

Dare sonitum, to make a sowne.

Specimen hosti exercitus abeuntis dedit, he made semblance to his enemy, as though he would departe with his army.

Dare specimen indolis, to shewe a token or proffe of his towardnesse.

Dare spem vitæ, to put one in hope of lyfe.

Dare stragem, to make a greates slaughter.

Qui plus studij in hoc dederunt, whiche have bestowed more study or diligence vpon the same.

Dabis ei vltro supplicium, Thou wilt be well content that he shall punyssh the.

Dare suspicionem timoris, to make on beleue that he is a traytor.

Symbolum dedit, he payed his shotte.

Dare tempus, menses, diem alicui rei, to bestowe or employe the tyme.

Tempus colloquio non dabit, he appoynted no tyme to common of the matter.

Terga dare, to renne awaye, to shewe a payre of heles.

Testes in aliquem dare, to bring forth witness against one.

Testimonium in aliquem dare, to beare one witness.

Vela in altum dare, to hoist by the sayles.

Turbas dare, to make trouble or busynesse.

Vadem dare, to put in suretee, that he will appere at the daye appoynted.

Dare mihi hanc veniam, forgiue me this offence, graunt me this request.

Dare viam, to geue one the waye, to shewe one the meanes to bynge a thyng to passe.

Dare victum, to fynde one meate and drynke.

Dare vitio, to blame.

Dare probro, to reproche, to rebuke.

Si dabitur, yf I maye.

Datu meo, of my gyfte.

Datum est mihi, it was geuen me in my cradle.

Docet, cui, ere, to teache or geue knowlage, or to enfourme, or aduise, to proue.

Docere fabulam, to playe a comedie.

Erudire ac docere.

Docere aliquem fidibus, to teache one to playe on the harpe.

Mala docet te mea facilitas multa, my gentleness causeth the to commit much lewdnes.

Quæ me docerent quid ageres, whych myght enfourme me what you dyd.

Docebo omnia esse vera, I wyll declare to you all those thynges to be true.

Docuit post exitus, The ende of the matter afterwarde declared.

Docibilis, le, apte to be taught, or after wysdome that is easily learned.

Docilis, le, lightly taught, easily instructed.

Docilis ad rem aliquam, easy to be taught or instructed in any thyng.

Nimio es tu ad istas res docilior, thou art too ready a scholer to these thynges: or thou learnest these thynges too fast.

Dochimus, mi, m. g. a foote in metere, of v. syllables, the first syllable, the next two longe, the fourth shorte, and the fifth longe.

Docilitas, acis, f. m. g. aptnesse to learne, easynesse to be taught.

Doclea, a citee of Liburnia.

Docte, cunningly, learnedly, prattly, featly.

Doctor, oris, m. g. he that teacheth other.

Sapientie doctores, philosophers.

Doctrina, æ, f. g. doctrine, techyng, instruction.

Doctrina animum excolere, To garnyshe the mynde with learning.

Doctus, a, um, learned, taught, instructed.

Rudis & doctus, contrary.

Mediocriter doctus, meanely learned.

Doctus græce & latine, or Doctus græcis & latinis literis, learned bothe in grecke & latine.

Docti doli, crafty deceytes.

Iuris ciuilis doctus, well learned in the ciuile lawe, a good ciuilian.

Doctus grammaticæ artis, a good grammarian.

Documentum, ti, n. g. a lesson, a proffe, or expertment of a thyng.

Documentum statuere, To geue to one the first instruction.

Documento habere aliquem, to take an example by one, to beware by an other man.

Capere documentum ex re aliqua, to learne by example of any thyng.

Docus, i, m. g. a timber piece, or beame.

Dodecatheon, a certayne herbe.

Dodona, a citee in Grece, wherby was a wood, in the whiche men thought that trees spake.

Dodone, the daughter of Jupiter and Europa.

Dodoneus, a, um, of Dodona.

Dodonis, idis, one of Dodona.

Dodonides, certeyne nymphes, the nourises of Liber pater.

Dodra, æ, f. m. gen. was a drynke made of nyne thynges, herbes, iuyce, water, wyne, salte, oyle, bread, hony, and pepper.

Dodrans, antis, m. a. gene. a poyse, weyghyng. ix. ounces. It is also. ix. of the measures called Ciathi. also it is some tyme taken for the nyne parte of any thyng diuided, into. xii. partes, or of any whole some or quantitie, that whiche remaineth, when the fowerth parte is debated. it also signifieth, the length or bredth of. ix. fingers. ix. pnyches.

Caulis dodrantalis, a stalk or stamme of. ix. pnyches high.

Ex dodrante hæredem facere, To make one heyre of all, sayng the fourth parte, or of thre partes of his heritage, beyng diuided into. iiii.

 Ex dodrante vsura, gayne of. ix. in the hundred,
 as for a hundred pound. ix.
 Dodrantalis, le, that is of nyne ounces, of. ix.
 ynches.
 Dogma, aris, neu. gene. a certayne determination, whiche in sectes of philosophers every one had, without the whiche the secte sayled. some-tyme they bee called Placita.
 Dogmatistes, he that induceth any secte of opinion.
 Dolabella, la, f. g. a littell axe, an hatchet.
 Dolabella, a Romayn, Ciceros sonne in lawe.
 Dolabelliana pira, certayne pearres, so named of Dolabella the fyrst graffer of theim.
 Dolabra, x, f. ge. a carpenters axe. also a picke axe, a mattocke.
 Dolabro, aui, are, to hewe as a carpenter doth.
 Dolenter, sorowfully, greuously.
 Dolentia, x, f. g. greffe, sorowe.
 Doleo, ni, ere, to feele payne of greffe, to be sorowfull of displeasunt, to be soze.
 Dolere caput, pedes, oculos, The head, fete, of euen to ake.
 Doleo tuis rebus aduersis, I am soze for thy misfortune of trouble.
 Doleo tuam vicem, I am soze on thy behalfe.
 Hoc mihi dolet, I am soze for this.
 Dolet mihi, quod tu stomacharis, I am soze that ye be angry.
 Dolet hoc cordi meo, This thyng greueneth myne herte.
 Dolet dictum, I am soze that ye spake it, of
 that it was spoken.
 Dolere interitum alicuius, To be soze for ones death.
 Dolent hac re oculi mei, it greueneth me to see this thyng.
 Vin' ne facere, quo viro tuo oculi doleant?
 Wyle thou do that, that shall grede thy husbnde to see?
 Successu alicuius dolere, To be soze for an other mans prosperitie.
 Facile fit illi, quod doleat, you maye easly do that whiche maye greue hym.
 Dolere laude aliena, to bee soze for an other mans prayse.
 Doliche, an plande called befoze Icaris.
 Dolichiste, an plande.
 Doliaris, re, great lyke a tunne.
 Dolia, id est, Cicuta.
 Doliaris anus, an olde wyfe wyth a bealye lyke
 a tunne.
 Doliaris helluo, a gozbealyd glutton.
 Doliarium, rij, n. g. a wyne cellar.
 Doliarius, a maker of tunnes.
 Dolichodromi, they that renne. xii. furlonges at one course of rase.
 Dólíchus, a space of grounde, conteynyng. xii.
 furlonges.
 Dolichi, a kynde of pulse, idem quod Lobx.

Dolium, li, neu. ge. any great vessell of wyne: as a tunne, a pype, a butte or hogges head. In the olde tyme it conteyned. x. of the measures called Amphoras.
 Dolo, aui, are, to ruste or hewe smooth with an axe or lythe.
 Dolare opus aliquod, to make a thyng rudely or grossely, as it were to rough hewe it.
 Dolon, the propre name of a man of Troie, that was verie swifte on foote.
 Dolon, ónis, ma. ge. a speare of stiffe, and after soim, a sturge, hangge a dagger or other lythe thyng closed within it. it is also a certayne tahelyng of shypes. also a lytell soyle, called a trynket.
 Dolopeius, a, um, of the people called Dolopes.
 Dolopes, people of Theffalie.
 Dolor, óris, ma. g. griefe of payne of the body of mynde. also sorowe, wofulnesse.
 Dolor partus, thynges and panges of labor.
 Laterum dolor, the disease called pleuries.
 Dolor luctusque, sorowe and mournyng.
 Conflctari dolore capitis, To bee greened with headache.
 Facere dolorem, to put to payne of greffe.
 Dolorem accipere, capere, assumere, To take sorowe.
 Dolorem abstergere, adimere, demere, discutere, eripere, To put awaye sorowe, peine,
 or heauynesse.
 Facere & mouere capitis dolorem, To make the head to ake.
 Dolorem lenire, leuare, minuire, mitigare,
 To swage payne of sorowe.
 Affici, of angi dolore, to be payned of greued,
 to be sorowfull.
 Dolor tabescere, to payne awaye with sorow.
 Remittit se dolor, the payne assuageth of dimisnysheth.
 In dolore esse, to be in payne, to be sorowfull.
 Refricare dolorem, to renue sorowe, that is almozte gone of passe.
 Dolorificus, a, um, that whyche maketh greffe of sorowe.
 Doloro, aui, are, to cause one to haue sorowe of payne.
 Dolose, deceptfully.
 Dolosus, a, um, deceptfull, of craftye, gylefull, fraudulent.
 Dolus, li, m. g. gyle, decepte, trumpery.
 Dolus malus, enery craftye decept to compasse
 a man, where by he recepueth damage, male ingine, craft, fraude, collusion, deceitfull dealing.
 Iam tum erat suspicio, dolo malo hac fieri omnia, Euen than I suspected, that all shuld be dwen by fraude and collusion.
 Adhibere dolum, to vse decepte.
 Dolus malus, and bona fides, contrary.
 Capere aliquem doli, to begyle one.
 Carent successu doli, his craftye endeuous cos-
 meth well to passe.

Confuere dolos, toke Confuo,
 Deludere dolis, to begyle.
 Dolus, was of the auncient wylters used in the god parte.
 Doma, aris, n. g. a solat or flatter heuerynge of an house. It is somtyme taken for the house.
 Domabilis, le, that may bee tamed, or easy to bee tamed.
 Domator, oris, m. g. idem quod Domitor.
 Domatio, onis, f. ge. a tamping or byngng vnder subiection.
 Domesticatim, by householdes, house by house.
 Domestici, householdes seruantes, or dwellers in owne house.
 Domesticus, a, um, perteynyng to householdes.
 Somtyme it signifieth tame, familiar. Somtyme priuate.
 Domestica exempla, examples of theyr owne
 hynde.
 Externum & domesticum, contrary.
 Domicilium, ij, n. ge. a mansion place.
 Domicenium, ij, neu. ge. a supper at home in a mans owne house.
 Domina, x, f. g. a ladye or maistresse.
 Dominatio, onis, a domination or authoritee
 ouer other, maisterthyp.
 Dominator, oris, masc. gene. a master, ruler, or,
 gouverneur.
 Dominatrix, icis, the feminine.
 Dominatus, us, idem quod Dominatio.
 Cupiditas dominatus, desyre to beare rule.
 Captare dominatum, or dominationem, To go about to get dominion or rule.
 Dominicus, a, um, perteynyng to the lord or maister. Dominicus dies, sundaie.
 Pecunia dominica, the maysters moneye.
 Dominium, nij, neu. ge. a lordshyp or rule ouer
 other, empyre, dominion.
 Dominor, aris, ari, to rule or haue soueraintee, to be lord or mayster ouer other. It is somtyme used passiuely.
 Fortuna in omni re dominatur, Fortune beareth a rule in euery thyng.
 Dominari alicui, in aliquem, inter aliquos, in re aliqua.
 Dominari & rerum potiri, to reigne and beare authoritee, to haue dominion and rule.
 Dominus, i, ma. ge. a lord or mayster, to whom other doo seruite. also an owner. somtyme an husbände.
 Dominus epuli, the mayster of the feaste.
 Bonus assiduusque dominus, a good and diligent husbände or house keper.
 Domiporta, tx, f. g. a pylour or other lyke thing that beareth vp an house, or rather a mayle; that alway beareth his house with hym.
 Domis, was taken of old wylters for Dominus.
 Domitalis, le, apte to bee tamed or broken.
 Domitius, the name of dyuers Romayns.
 Dómito, aui, are, to tame.
 Dámitor, oris, ma. g. a tamer or breaker of that which he is wylde, a subduer or vanquisher.

 Domitor equorum, an horse breaker.
 Gentium domitor, a conqueror or subduer of nations.
 Domitrix, icis, the feminine.
 Domitura, x, f. g. the act of tamping or byngng of any thyng beate.
 Domitus, us, a tamping or byngng.
 Domitus, a, um, made tame, subdued, or vanquished, brought vnder.
 Domnonij, a people of the countreie in England called Deuonshyre.
 Domo, aui, or ui, are, to make tame, sometime to vauquish, to subdue.
 Domare terram aratro, to tll the ground.
 Frangere & domare nationes, To conquer and subdue countreies.
 Domare hostes, to vauquish the enemies.
 Domutio, onis, f. ge. a departyng or turning home again.
 Domus, us, or ui, fem. ge. an house generally.
 Somtyme a temple or churche: also a familie or hynde. also a mannes countrey: also a hiden nest.
 Domo, from home.
 Domum, to the house or home. Somtyme at home. It is used somtyme aduerbially.
 Domus, the accusatiue case plurall, home to their houses.
 Multiplex domus, an house that hath many rooms one within an other.
 De domo numerare, to lend one of his owne moneye, or as we vse to saye, to lende one moneie out of his purse or coffer.
 Obire domos amicorum, to goe from one frendes house to another.
 Continere se domi, to kepe hym selfe at home.
 Domi & foris, contrary.
 Cuius domi tu fueras, at whose house ye wer.
 Qui istius domi erat educatus, Whiche was brought vp in this mans house.
 Domi est animus, my mynde is at home on my household.
 Domi & militare, in peate and in warre.
 Domi foelicque fac. memineras, See thou goe home and make a good tyme.
 Domi apud me, at home at my house.
 Domi nostra, sua, aliena.
 Ad me adducta est domum, She was brought home to my house. Likewise Ad se domum, and Ad nos domum. Capescere & conuertere se domum, to go home.
 Eum domum suam receperunt, They toke
 hym home to theyr house.
 Domo abire, to go forth of the doores.
 Domo huc accersitus sum, I was sent for fro home to some hyther.
 Domo cenare, to suppe forth of the doores.
 Domus suas quemq; ire iubet, he commaundeth euery man to go home to his owne house.
 Ex hac domu, out of his house.

Domus amica, domus optima, home is homely, and out of danger. In his owne house a man may be bold.
 Domus, i, o, a dwelling house.
 Donarium, ij, n. g. an house where suche thynges were kepte, as were geuen to the goddis, after Seruius, but after Sulla it is a gyfte, and not the house, where the gyfte is kepte. also it maye bee taken for a dole of monete.
 Donaticæ coronæ, garlandes that in olde tyme were woyn in playes.
 Donatio, ônis, fœ. g. a free geuyng.
 Donatio propter nuptias, a womans dowry.
 Donatista, heretikes that affirmed the congregation of christiân people to bee no where but with them. Wherfore those that came from the castholyke parte to them, they dyd esteemes bap-tisme. Also they affirmed, that in the churche were no yll people, but onely good. And that they ones-ly perteyned to the churche. The authour of this heresie was Donatus, a Numidian, about the yere of our lord. 353.
 Donatium, ij, n. ge. a gyfte in monete or grayn, geuen by emperors to the people. also to souldi-ours aboute theyr wages.
 Donatius, he that is able to geue.
 Donatus, ij, mas. gene. a grammarian, maister to saint Hierom.
 Donatus, a, um, to whome any thyng is geuen.
 Donax, acis, m. g. a reede or cane, wherof menne made arrowes. It maye be vñed for an angling rodde made of a cane.
 Donec, vntyll, sometyne as long as.
 Vsq̃ue donec veniat, vntyll he come agayne.
 Donec viuas, as longe as I lyue.
 Donicum, idem quod Donec.
 Dono, aui, are, to geue lyberally or freely.
 Donare ciuitate, to make a citezen.
 Donare æternitate, to make a perpetuall me-moriall of one.
 Dono te hac re, & dono tibi hanc rem, I geue
 the this thyng.
 Donare alicui multa, large, & effusè, To re-warde one bountifullly and liberally.
 Donare vacatione, To exempte one from any charge.
 Donare aliquem gaudiis, to make one glad.
 Donare aliquem dono, to presente one with a gyfte, to geue freely to one.
 Donum, ij, n. g. a gyfte, a rewarde.
 Accumulare aliquem donis, to geue one many gyftes, or many presentes.
 Conferre donum, to bestowe a gyfte.
 Dona peragere, To geue that one hath promissed.
 Donyssa, an yle in the sea Egeum.
 Dorcadias, a certayne herbe, called also mustium,
 and is good for diseases of the liuer.
 Dorcas, dorcadis, fœ. ge. a bucke or a doe. Idem quod caprea, a roe bucke.
 Doria, and Dorica, names of countreys soignynge to Athens.

 Dorica lingua, the language of the people called Dorics, the tongue of the Grekes.
 Dorica, a certayne fourme of musike, whiche represented a wonderfull grauitie: and therfore was assigned vnto noble personages, and vñed in tragedies.
 Dorcidion, the herbe Dictamnus.
 Dorij, Dorientes, or Dorics, a people in Grece so called of a people inhabytynge by the mountayne Deta, whiche wanderyng like to the Gothes, by force wanne certayne countreys, and finally subdued the olde inhabitants.
 Dorion, a towne of Achaia.
 Doriphagi, they whiche deuoure and eate by gyftis, we may call them mainly presentes.
 Doris, idis, the countreie by the hill Deta.
 Doris, a nymph of the sea, and is interpreted by-terness. Also an herbe called Anchusa.
 Doriscus, a place in Thrace, whiche conteyneth iuste 120000. men, by the whiche Xerxes num-bred his great army.
 Dorius, a ryuer of Portugal.
 Dorius, a, um, idem quod Doricus, a, um.
 Dormio, iui, ire, to sleape.
 Dormire in vtráque aurem, A prouerbe, sig-nifyng to bee without any maner of care. It maye bee englyshed to sleape soundely on bothe sydes.
 Dormire in dextram aurem, fiducia alterius, whan a man putteth his truste in an other, and
 is no longer carefull for a thyng.
 In vtráque oculum dormire, idem quod in vtráque aurem dormire.
 Dormire ad, or in lucem, to sleape vntyll it bee
 daye.
 Dormire totum mane, To sleape all the moyn-yng.
 Non omnibus dormio, I am not ready at e-uery mans calling.
 Dormisco, scere, to sleape or begyn to sleape.
 Dormitator, ôris, ma. g. a sleaper, a sluggarde, a negligent persone.
 Dormito, aui, are, to slumbe, to be almoste on sleape, to nappe.
 Dormitandum tibi non est, Thou muste not lynger the matter negligently, or go about it as thou were a sleape.
 Dormitorium, rij, neu. ge. a doctour or place to sleape in.
 Dormitôrius, a, um, that whiche pertayneth to sleape.
 Dorodocia, æ, f. gen. corrupcion of iudges with gyftes and rewardes.
 Doron, a gyfte or rewarde.
 Doronicum, rônici, neu. g. a pretious and hols-some roote, brought from Mauritania, of the quantitie of a mannes fynger, and is knottie, as it were ioyntes. It is putte into confections made for diseases of the stomake and lacke of perfect digestion. Ruellius supposeth it to be that,

that, whiche of the grekes is called Arnabo, of some Carnabum, or Zamabum. It is hot and drie in the thyrde degree.

Doróphorus, ri, masc. gene. he that carieth a present.

Dorpia, were certayne dates, whiche the Athes-nienſes hepte ſolemne, in open feaſtyng and banhettyng.

Dofualia, orum, pannelles, whiche horyes deoe weare on their backs, when they doo carry of bawe.

Doruiarius, looke Doſſuarius.

Dorſum, ſi, neu. gen. a backe of a man or beaſte.
ſometyme a promontory.

Dorſum in mari, an heape of ſande gathered in the ſea, which watermen doo call a ſhelſe.

Dorſuſus, a, um, that hath many unequalled
teſ like backes.

Dorſus, uſ, idem quod Dorſum

Dorticum, a citee of Myſia, by the riuer Danubie.

Dorus, the ſonne of Heptunus, which reigned in a parte of Grece.

Dorx, orciſ, a roe buche.

Doryclus, the baſtarde ſonne of Priamus.

Dorycnion, the herbe called Solanum ſomniferum.

Dorylaum, or Dorylaum, a greaſe citee of Phrygia.

Dorylus, one of the Centaures.

Doryphorus, ri, maſc. gene. a certayne gentylman, attendynge aboute the perſon of a kynge whiche bare a ſauelyn in his hande. Suche of late peres alſo princes haue vſed to haue, and are called ſpeares, though they beate onely in theyr handes battayle axes, which they call with vs penſioners.

Dos, oriſ, f. ge. dowery, lande gotten in marriage to the huſbande for cauſe of the marriage onely, it is alſo qualitee of a perſon geuen by nature.

Dotes animi, indowementes of the ſoule, that is to ſaie, the giſtes of grace.

Dotes corporis, indowementes of the bodye, that is to ſay, beautie, ſtrength, health, &c. the giſtes of nature.

Dos profectiua, dowery that the parentes giue of theyr owne gooddes.

Dos aduentiua, dowery that other geue to the parentes to beſtow vpon theyr daughters.

Dotiſ, id eſt, datio.

Dotiſones, are they that promyſe many thynges.

Doſſuarius, that beareth or carieth any thyng on the backe.

Doſſum, olde wyſters vſed for Dorſum.

Dotalis, le, that perteyneth to dowery.

Bona dotalia, dotalis fundus, gooddes or landes
geuen with a woman in marriage.

Dotatus, a, um, endowed, that hath dowery geuen vnto it.

Doto, aui, are, to indowe.

Doxa, a, form. gene. in Greke ſignifieth opy-nion, glozy.

DRabis, an herbe, that groweth halfe a fute hite high, and hath a tuſt at the toppe like to elder.

Dracana, a, f. g. the female dragon.

Dracrus, a capitayne of Deia, vanquiſhed by Lucius Mumius the Romaine.

Drachma, a, f. ge. the viii. parte of an ounce in weyght or meſure. It was alſo a copie ſygned with a bulloche, whiche counterſeyed a poppe grote, beynge viii. grotes the weyght of an ounce.

Drachma auri, was. xii. ſiluer dragmas, of our money now. v. s. ix. d.

Vix drachmis obſonatus eſt decem, he ſtantly beſtowed. xl. d. vpon the banquet.

Draco, onis, m. g. a dragon. One called Draco, ſyſt gaue lawes to the Athenienſes, wherein he appointed death for every ſmall faulte. Wheres fore it was ſaied, he wrote his lawes with the bloud of men.

Draconarius, rij, m. g. a ſtandarde bearee.

Dracones, of Plinie bee taken for olde byrting ches of vines. Alſo it is an herbe called Pyretrum, it bourneth and bitech the tungue, as wel the leaſe as the roote: In engliſhe Delptorie of Spayne.

Draconigena, of poetes was called the citee of Brotia, becauſe it was builded by Cadmus, &
the ſiue men that ſprange of the dragons teethe.

Draconites, a pperious ſtone, that can not bee engraued, nor wrought in.

Dracontias, a ſtone taken ouſe of a ſerpentes head, ſodeynlye ſtyken of, or elles it reſolueth in the byayne, whyle he dieth. It is alſo called Draconites.

Dracontium, rij, n. g. an herbe called Dragons.

Dracunculus, li, ma. g. a littell dragon. It is alſo an herbe called Dragons, named alſo Dracontea. for Dracontium, Dracunculus, and Dracontea, reade diligently Ruellius in his ſeconde booke. 96. and. 97. chapters.

Dragma, dragmatis, n. g. a gripe or handfull.

Draguntea, an herbe called Dragons.

Drama, dramatis, n. g. where in a comedie or tragerlude, diuers perſonages be brought in, ſome abydyng, ſome departyng.

Drangiana, a prouince in Aſia the moze.

Draui, a people of Thrice, whiche at the byrthe of childzen make greaſe lamentacion, and at the death make greaſe ioy.

Drepanum, a citee in Italy called now Trapani.

Drilon, a riuer of Dalmatia, called commonlie Drino.

Dromas, dromadis, ma. gen. a kynde of camels
les, whiche haue twoo bunches on theyr backs, and are meruaylous ſwyfte, and maye ſuſteyne to be thre daies without dzyne, when they be iourneied.

Dromedarij, a kynde of camelles.

Dromones, certayne fiſhes.

Dromus, the place, where men do renne horyes to trie the ſwyſtneſſe of them.

Dropax, drôpacis, m. g. a noble oymntment made with pitche, excellently commended of Galenus and other famous phisicians.

Druides, dum, o; Druida, arum, were sometime in Fraunce called Gallia, one of the. ii. estates, of lyke condicion, as the spiritualtee is now amonge vs. They had in great estimation wooddes of great okes, and in meruapious reuerence all thynges that grewe on okes, specially misfelden, affirming that it was sent from heauen.

They sacrifice was in this fourme. Under an oke, wheron grew misfelden, they caused meate to be prepared and set, and two white bulles to be brought forth, whose hoznes were than fyrt boanden, that is to say, were sette fyrt in the ploughe or wayne. Than the prieste (beynge cladde in white) clambe vp to the tree, and haryng a byll of golde in his hande, dyd shredde or cutte of the misfelden: than offered they the sacrifice, prayng, that the gyfte that should be geuen, might be to them that should receiue it prosperous and fortunate, supposyng that the beast whiche was barrein, yf he dranke of the misfelden, should be fruitfull, and that it was a sure remedy agaynst all popson. It is supposed, that they supersticion came first out of this ple called Wytayne.

Drupa, arum, f. g. are olyues or oyle beeries, whiche are betweene greene and rype, and dooe beginne to waxe blacke.

Drusomagus, a citce of Rhetia, called common Rempten.

Drusus, the name of a Romaine, of ryght noble lynage, and eloquence, but he was proude and ambitious.

Dryas, the propre name of a man of Thessaly, friende of Nestor.

Dryades, were fayries of wooddes.

Dryida, idem quod Druida.

Dryimus, mi, m. gen. a littell woozme founde in the roote of an oke, so myschieuous a popson, that yf one treade on him barefooted, forthwith the skynne commeth of, and all the legge swellth: And (whiche is moze to bee meruayled at) they that handle hym, that is hurte: dooe lose theyr skynne. Aboute the place where the said woyme hath bitten, is a rednesse, with a swellng, and there rysen lyttell wheales, oute of the whiche commeth a watery humour. also there happeneth vnto him that is hurte, fearetynges in the stomake and bealy. One remedie therfore is akornes beaten in a moztar, and drunken with wyne, also the roote of holly brused, and layde to the place, dooeth mytigate the payne.

Drylon, looke Drilon.

Drymodis, afterwarde Pelasgus, is now called Arthadie.

Dryopes, people of Epirus.

Dryophites, a kynde of frogges.

Dryophonon, a certayne herbe.

Dryopteris, f. ge. an herbe that groweth on olde oken trees, amonge the mosse, and is lyke to ferne: but the creaues or incisions of the leaues be lesse, and the rootes bee roughe, and twysted together, and in taste somewhat swete. Some call it Olmende royall, some petite ferne, or Que ferne.

Dryos, flyme growyng in okes.

Drys, in laten, quercus, an oke.

Dryperæ, ripe olyues ready to fall from the tree.

D A N T E V.

DVa, olde wyrters vled for Duo, in the neu. gen. plu. num.

Dualis, le, perteynyng to two.

Dubar, for Dubitat, a word out of vse.

Dubenus, ni, m. ge. was of olde Romans taken for Dominus.

Dubiōsus, a, um, doubtfull.

Dubis, a ryuer in Fraunce, called Le dour.

Dubitabilis, le, that may be doubted of.

Dubitatum, Dubie, Dubitanter, doubtfully.

Dubitatio, ōnis, f. g. a doubte.

Adducere in dubitationē, to byng in doubte.

Adferre dubitationem alicui, to bynge one in doubte.

Cæsar respondet, eo sibi minus dubitationis dari, quod. &c. Cæsar answered, that he doubted the lesse of the matter, because. &c.

Quod quamquam dubitationem non habet, Which thyng all thowge it be not to bee doubted of.

Nullam apud me dubitationē reliquisti, You haue put me cleane oute of doubte: or ye haue not caused me to doubt any thyng at all.

Dubitatus, a, um, doubtfull, vncertayne.

Dubito, aui, are, to bee in doubte, or to tracte tyme, to mistruste, to bee asfayde, to stande in a muse or studie.

Dubitatur, men doubte.

Dubitare & hæsitare.

Quid dubitas dicere? why arte thou asfayd to speake it?

Quid dubitat dare? Why standeth he musyng, whether he may geue it or no?

Dubitare de fide alicuius, to mistrust one.

Hæc dum dubitas, mentes abierunt decem, While thou haste ben doubtyng of these matters, tenne monethes be come and gone.

Dubius, a, um, doubtfull, daungerous, perple louse, vncertayne, also that is in danger.

Dubius, is he that hath two ways, and woteth not whiche to take.

Dubia cœna, a bankette, whereat are so many and dyuers meates, that a man knoweth not of which he may eate.

Dubix res, thynges doubtfull, or daunges ronse.

Haud dubium est mihi, I doubte not.

Dubium id ne est? Dooe ye doubte thereof?

or is there any doubt therein?
 Dubio procul, without doubt.
 Perspicuum & dubium, contrarie.
 Dubium argentum, money, wherof one is in doubt, whether it bee good or no.
 Accipe argenti, si quid erit dubium, immurabo, Take the money, if there be any that ye bee in doubt of, whether it bee good, I will change it.
 Dubium celum, The ayre partly cleere, partly overcast with cloudes.
 Lux dubia, dauncynge of the day.
 Dubij rumores, vncerteyne rumours.
 Dubia tempora, dangerous and peryllous
 tymes.
 Dubium nisi, doubtfull or dangerous to en-
 terpryse.
 Ducatus, us, m. g. the gouernance or conduct of men, also a duchie.
 Ducatus prae stare, to be capitayne of an hoste,
 to byng men to battayle.
 Ducatus, ti, a copie called a ducate.
 Ducenarius, a capitayne of two hundred men.
 Ducenarius, a, um, of 200. weight.
 Ducenti, a, a, two hundred.
 Ducentismus, a, um, the two hundred.
 Ducenties, two hundred tymes.
 Ducenus, a, um, two hundred.
 Duceni anni, two hundred yeres.
 Duco, xi, ere, to bynge or to leade them that bee wyllynge, to haue respecte to a thyng, to allecre or byge by some pleasaunt meane, to reuolue, to drawe, as a man draweth a swoorde, to geat, to gouerne or guide, to goe, to spende or passe the tyme, to buyde or make by, to delay or prolonge, to wedde or doo the acte of maryage.
 Sometime it signifieth doeyng, as Ducere som-nos, to sleape. Sometime to tourne awaye, as Ducere vultus, to tourne away the countenance or visage: to goe downe, as, Ego me
 duco ab arbore, I wente downe of the tree.
 Sometime to suppose, to iudge, to esteeme or thynke.
 Hanc esse in te sapientiam existimant, vt o-mnia tua in te posita esse ducas, men thynke that wisdom to bee in you, that ye thynke all that whiche is yours, to be in your self, and not in fortune.
 Ducere aetatem, to spende ones tyme.
 Ducere animum, to lyue, also to draw breathe.
 Ducere animo, to consyde or thynke.
 Ducere animam, to recreate the mynde.
 Ducere aquam, to conueyghe water from a springe.
 Ducere bellum, to prolonge battayle or warre.
 Ducere colorem, to ware ruddy.
 Ducere damno, to take it for a losse or hurte.
 Ducere aliquem ex aere, to counterfaite one in metall.
 Ducere diem ex die, to put of from day to day.

Ducere fossam, to cast or make a ditch.
 Ducere honori, to esteeme it honourable.
 Ducere horas extremas, to lie a dyng.
 Ducere infra se omnia humana, to esteeme all thynges lesse than hym selfe.
 Ducere lateres, to make tyles.
 Ducere laudi, to tourne it to prayse.
 Ducere liniam, to draw a lyne.
 Ducere minoris, To esteeme it lesse, or sette lesse by.
 Ducere mortuum, to bee dead.
 Meos ne ego ante oculos illam patiar alios am-plexari, mortuum hercle me duco satius,
 Shall I suffer hym to embrace hir before myne eyes.
 By god I had rather be deade.
 Ducere mucronem, to drawe a swoorde.
 Ducere noctem iucundis sermonibus, to passe
 sooth the nyght with pleasant talkyng.
 Ducere nomen ex re aliqua, to be named after some thyng.
 Ducere officij, to suppose it to be his duetie.
 Ducere parui, to sette lytell by.
 Ducere prae se neminem, to sette by no man but
 hym selfe.
 Ducere principium, ex ordium, initium, To be-gynne, or to take a begynnynge.
 Ducere probro, to dispraise.
 Ducere pro falsis, to take it for lies.
 Ducere similitudinem ex aliquo, to take a patterne of a thyng.
 Ducere somnos, to sleape.
 Ducere spiritum, To fetch or draw breathe, to lyue.
 Ducere sulcos, to make fozrowes.
 Ducere suspiria, to sighe.
 Ducere utilitatem ex re aliqua, to gette profite
 by a thyng.
 Ducentur suspensiones ex ipso facto, of that acte men shall gather suspicion.
 Ducere usuras, to continue payement of money taken by usury.
 Vallum ducere, to make a trenche.
 Vultum ducere, to frowne or lowze.
 Duci re aliqua, to bee delgited with a thyng.
 Duci errore, to be deceyued, to be in a wzonge or pinion.
 Duci ineptijs ac fabulis, to take pleasure in fantasies and fables, to beleue leasynge and flatter-ynges.
 Duci ventre, to loue good morselles.
 Rationem salutis ducere, to regarde health.
 Ducuntur omnia dei nutu, All thynges be go-uerned and disposed by the will of god.
 Iam ad regem recta me ducam, Nowe will I go streyght to the kyng.
 Duc te ab adibus, Get thee out of the house.
 Ducere ad credendum, To induce one to beleue a
 thyng.
 Ducere cicatricem, whan the scotche or scarre of a wounde healeth or groweth together.
 Ex quibus coniectura ducitur, By whiche thyn-ges

ges a man may coniecte or gather.
 Diem somno ducere, to spende away the day in sleape, to sleape all the day longe.
 Funus & exequias ducere, to keepe an obseque or funerall.
 Genus ab aliquo ducere, to descende linally
 from one.
 In ius ducito hominem, commence an action
 agaynst the man, or sue him in the law.
 Ducere laminam, to make a thynne plate.
 In matrimonium ducere, to mary.
 Ducere & consilare mendacium, to deuple or ymagine a lie.
 Muras ducere, to make or builde walles.
 Nubilum ducere, to make the weether cloudy and darke, and by translacon, referred to the countenance, to make to loke sadly and heauely.
 Ducere obliuia vitæ prioris, to forger the life that one hath ledde before.
 Exquisitis modis os ducere, To facion the mouthe curiously in speakyng.
 Ducere rationem salutis, to haue consideration of ones sauegarde or health.
 Sortem ducere, to draw lottes.
 E luto vasa ducere, to make vessels of earthe or claye.
 Opinione duci, to thynke.
 Tantummodo coniectura ducor ad suspica-dum, I am only moued by coniecture, to thinke or deeme so.
 Duci despicatui, To be despised, to be lyttell regarded or sette by.
 Duci phalaratis dictis, to bee flattered wth fayre wordes.
 In hostium numero duci, to be coumpted or iudged an enemye.
 Ducere rem per altercationem, To prolonge and dyue of the matter by contencion.
 Ducere aliquem, to fode of a man by prolonsgyng the matter.
 Nil ducere in bonis præter virtutem, To esteeme nothyng good but vertue.
 Pleriq in gloria, or gloriæ ducunt, the moste parte esteeme it for a great renoume or glory.
 Quod apud Numidas honori ducitur, which amonge the Numidians is compted an honourable thyng.
 Duceo, aui, are, to gouerne, after Calepine, but the place that he citeth of Warro hath ducere.
 Ducona, the cite of Caors in Fraunce.
 Ductarius, a, um, he that draweth or leadeth.
 Ductarius funis, a corde that is putte into a trocle to drawe a thyng.
 Ductilis, le, easy to be drawen, or that may bee beaten into plates.
 Ductim, with leasure.
 Ductito, aui, are, to leade about often.
 Ducto, aui, are, to leade about, to take a wife, to esteeme, to haue awaite with him, to obteyne to haue a thyng.
 Ductare restim, to leade the daunce.

Ductare exercitum, to leade an army.
 Dolis ductare, to deceyue or begyle.
 Nunc quia nihil habes maledictis eam ductas re postulas, Howe because thou hast nothyng to geue, thou wouldest geue or obteyne hyr by wrembe wordes, or frowarde language.
 Ductor, oris, masc. gene. a guyde or a capitaine,
 a leader.
 Ductus, a, um, ledde, moued, guyded.
 Ducta cicatrix, a wounde cleane healed, no thyng remaynyng but a scume or marke.
 Sorte ductus, that hath chaunced by lot.
 Ductus, us, masc. gene. a canidite, whereby water doeth renne, a leadyng or traynyng of a thyng, a gouernynge or guydyng.
 Ductus aquarum, the course of water by trenches or pypes.
 Ductus oris, The facionynge of the face or mouthe in speakyng or pronounyng.
 Ductus literarum, the drawyng or facionynge of the letters in wrytyng.
 Dudum, but late, ere whyle, whyle ere, not longe sence. Sometyme before. Sometyme longe agone, or a great while.
 Incertior multo quam dudum, muche more vncertayne than I was before.
 Quam dudum? how longe a goe? how longe sence?
 Quanto formosior mihi videre quam dudum?
 Howe muche fayrer dooe ye seme to me than ye did whyle ere?
 Vt dudum audiebamus, As we hearde longe
 before.
 Dudum & nunc opponuntur.
 Duella, æ, f. ge. the thirde parte of an ounce.
 Duellator, oris, m. g. a warrior.
 Duellicus, a, um, warrellyke, pertynyng vnto
 warre.
 Duellica ars, the state or science of armies.
 Duello, aui, are, to fyght within lyses, or in battayle.
 Duellum, li, n. g. battayle betwene two.
 Duellona, æ, f. g. in olde tyme called Bellona.
 Duicensus, he that is ioyntly tasked with an other, as the father with the sonne.
 Duidens, a sheepe of two teethe.
 Duellius, or Duillius, a citizen of Rome, whiche fyist triumphed for victory on the sea.
 Duis, of the aunciente authours was vled for Dederis.
 Dulcadium, dij, n. ge. euery swete meate.
 Dulce & Dulciter, swetely, gentilly.
 Dulcedo, inis, Dulcitas, Dulcitus, & dulcor, Sweetenesse.
 Dulceo, ere, to be swete.
 Dulcesco, scere, to waxe swete.
 Dulciarius, a, um, pertynyng to swete thyngs
 ges, swete.
 Dulciarius panis, a matchepayne made with almondes and sugar.
 Dulciarius pistor, a maker of matchepaynes

as other sweete thynges in palle Dulciculum, a, um, a litle sweete, somewhat sweete.
Dulcissimus, a, um, flowing sweetely.
Dulciloquus, a, um, he that speaketh sweetely.
Dulcis, ce, sweete, pleasaunt, contrary to Harpe and vehement.
Dulcis epistola, a sweete of pleasaunt epistle of letter.
Dulcissimus, a, um, flowing sweetely.
Dulco, au, are, to make sweete.
Dulcis, a, f. g. the seruice of a bondeman or slave.
Dulcium, an yle in the sea Ballabe, or as some saye Ionio.
Dulopolis, a citie of Ethiopie called by an other name Acandus.
Dum, sometyme signifieth whan, or whyles, as Dum dormis, fures domum intrans, whyles thou sleepest, theues enter into thy house. some time vntyll. sometyme as longe. Vsque ne va- luisti? C. Perpetuo recte dum quidem illic fui, Dyddest thou well all that whyle? L.
Yea, alway well as longe as I was there. als so it signifieth wherfoze. Allo, so that. some tyme it booseth but make vp a woorde: as, Adesdum paucis te volo. Come hyther, I would speake a woorde of two with you.
Nihil dum, nothyng yet.
Dum conderet urbem, whan or whyle he dyd buylde the citee.
Dum socij venirent, vntyll they felowes dyd come.
Dum illum modo habeam mecum, So that I may onely haue him with me.
Hæc dum incipias grauiâ sunt, these thynges be harde tyll a man haue begun.
Dum tempus ad eam rem tulit, As long as the tyme was conuenient.
Audieris dum, for Postquam audieris.
Dum ne tibi videar, non laboro, So that I doo not seme so to you, I passe not.
Dumetum, ti, n. ge. a thorny or busshy ground.
Dummodo, so that.
Dumofus, a, um, full of busshes, byers, byam-
 bles and thornes.
Dumus, mi, m. ge. a kynde of thornes or byers.
Dunium, the towne of Dorchester.
Duntaxat, onely, at the least waye. sometyme for Præsertim, especially.
Non duntaxat, for Non solum.
Dunum, a countrey in Englande called Durham.
Duo, ui, ere, to geue.
Duo, duæ, duo, two.
Duodécim, twelue.
Duodécies, twelue times.
Duodécies Sestertium, xli. hundred thousand Sestertia.
Duodécimus, a, um, the twelfth.
Duodéni, twelue together. Vide Deni.
Duodequadrage ni pedes, xxxviii. foote.
Duodequadrage nna anni, xxxviii. yeres.

Duodequingagesimus annus, the. xlviii. yere.
Duodeulgenti, eightene.
Duodeuiceni denarij, xviii. pence.
Duodetriginta, xxv.
Duodeulcesimus, a, um, the. xviii.
Duodécies, xviii. tymes.
Duodenonaginta, lxxviii. yeres.
Duonum, olde wyters bled for Bonum.
Duplâres, knightes, or such countours as haue double allowaunce.
Duplâris numerus, a numbze that is doubled.
Duplex, icis, om. gene. double of two, or twyse
 as muche.
Duplici spe vti, to haue hope two wayes, or as we saye prouerbially, to haue smoo trynges on his towne.
Duplex comœdia, two comedies.
Duplex damnum, double losse or damage.
Duplicia quam seruorum numerus exigit,
 Double so many as the numbze of his seruants tes requyeth.
Duplicatio, ônis, f. g. a doublinge.
Duplicato, at the double.
Duplicatus, a, um, doubled, made twyse so much Duplicarius, ij, a countour that hath double al-lowaunce.
Dupliciter, two wayes.
Duplico, au, are, to make double, to encrease,
 to make twyse so muche.
Duplicare verba, to compound ii. wordes in one.
Bellum duplicare, to make the warre twyse so muche as it was.
Duplio, ônis, m. g. the double.
Duplum, pli, the double.
Duplus, a, um, double.
Dupondius & Dupondium, two pound weyght.
Durabilis, le, durable.
Duracinus, a, um, that hath an harde channe, or coneryng of the grâynes.
Duracina vix, grapes, with thicke chynnes.
Duram, some thynke to her the name of a riuer,
 nere vnto whiche, the gygantes made the toure
 Babel: some will it to be a fælde, as in Daniel.
Durâmen, inis, & duramentum, ti, n. g. the arm of a vine. also stablenes, constancy, hardnyng.
Durata, plu. nu. woode, tymber.
Durateus, & Durus, a, um, wooden, or of wood.
Duratrix, icis, f. g. that hardneth.
Duratus, a, um, hardened.
Dure, cruelly, hardely, rigorously, vngently.
Dureo, ui, ere, to be harde or cruell.
Duresco, rui, scere, to waxe harde, to harden.
Dureta, the Spaniards call a vessell that they vse to washe and bathe them in.
Durias, or Turia, the name of a ryuer, nere to Valentia, called commonly Duero.
Duricia, a, f. g. Durities, ei, & duritas, âtis, f. g.
 hardnes, rudenes, rigour, asperitee, crueltee.
Duricôria, orum, thynges that haue harde shyn-
 nes.
Duricordium, ij, hardnesse of herte.

Duricors, hard harted.
Duriter, hardly, with much pynne. Sometyme cruelly, severely.
Parce acduriter, sparingly and hardly.
Vitam duriter agebat, He lyued an harde and pynfull lyfe.
Duriusculus, a, um, a diminutive of Durus.
Duro, aui, are, to endure or continue, to suffer, to harden or make harde.
Durare animum, to harden ones herte, and not to heare one that intreateth hym.
Cor dura, sette thy mynde to take it patiently.
In æternum durare, to continue for euer.
Durocorum, the citee of Reynes in Fraunce.
Durus, a, um, harde, wounde, pynfull, cruel, rigorous. also dull, harde witted, rude.
Duro animo es, thou arte harde herted.
Durus ferreus, & inhumanus.
Annona durior, scarcitee of coyne or vitayles.
Duriore fortuna conflictari, To bee troubled with aduersitee.
Duras alicui partes dare, to handle one hardely or roughly, to giue hym the worse ende of the staffe.
Durus homo, an harde and rigorous person.
Durum ingenium, an vngentill nature, harde to intreate.
Duras fratris partes prædicat, My brother is in an harde case by thy sayng.
Durus & agrestis, vncurteys and rude.
Dura prouincia, a soze charge, a thyng harde to be brought to passe.
Hyemis dura, a sharpe wynter.
Dura vita, a werte and pynfull lyfe.
Duri oris vir, a man rygorous and cruell in wordes.
Duro ingenio, dull witted.
Dusmosus, idem quod Dumosus.
Duumuir, a certeyne officer in Rome, whiche had authoritee ouer the pylons and gayles, as our Myrrettes haue in England.
Duumuiralis, le, perteynyng to that office.
Duumuiratus, us, ma. gen. an office, wherin the authoritee is committed to two men.
Dux, ūcis, com. ge. a capitayne, a leader, a gyde, a chiefe of principall doore in any thyng.
Ducem rationem habere, to folowe reason, as a gyde and capitayne.

D ANTE Y.

DYas, the numbze of two.
Dyastole, is a lysteinge or rysteinge vp of the herte, the arteries, the bzayne, and ryemes that dooe inclose the bzayne, and that is in length, breadth, and depenesse, sensible to feele by the pulses.
Dynamene, a nymphe.
Dynasta, vel Dynastes, æ, m. g. a lord of greete power; a prince, a ruler.
Dynastia, a rule or gouernaunce, might, power.

Dyōta, looke Diona.
Dyrhachium, a citee in Dardanie, whiche was fyrste called Epidamnus. It is now called Durazo.
Dys, in composition signifieth euen, difficulte, or impossible.
Dyscolia, æ, f. g. difficulte.
Dyscolus, li, ma. gen. he that is wynde and ylle to intreate.
Dysenteria, a perillous fluxe, with excoelation or rasynge of the bowelles, continuall tourmentes, some blood issuing forth. The causes be warpe and venemous humours, proceeding of peason choler vnnaturall, sharpenesse of bloude, calde fleume, melancoly adust. Sometyme of all medicines or impostumations of the lyuer. Sometyme by defaulte of the membris annexed. Sometyme by the ylle habite of all the bodie.
Dysentericus, a, um, greued with that disease.
Dysnomia, yll constitution or orderynge of the lawe.
Dyspepsia, yll concoction.
Dysphilus, an yll frende.
Dyspnœa, difficulte in fetchynge of breathe. The causes be stoppyng of the waies, whereby the breathe shoulde passe: distillations of tumours hotte and warpe, or cold and fleumatyke. Sometyme lepre by knotes in the throte of lunges comen of a melancoly matter.
Dyspnœitus, a, um, diseased with that sickness.
Dysuria, a sickness, which letteth a man to passe. The causes be extencion or bollynge oute of the bladder, after vehemente retencion or keepynge backe of the vyne, congealynge of bloude or matter in the necke of the bladder or instrument of vyne, or stones or impostumacion there: Of stones, grauell, an impostume, warte or harde flethe, bredde in the reines of the backe.
Dyricos, the herbe smilax. Diosc.

E ANTE A.

FOR THE moste parte signifieth, of.
E, of the olde wyters was often vled for I.
E conspectu fugere, to go out of syght.
E diuerio, on the contrary parte, or on the other syde.

E facili, easly.
E longinquo, farre of.
E me, ne quidem metuas, nihil sciet, feare not, he shall know nothyng of me.
E Pamphilo grauida est, She is with childe by Pamphilus.
E Pamphilo peperit, She had a chylde by Pamphilus.
E proximo aspicere, to see nyght hande.
E proximo vicinus, my nexte neyghbour.
E regione, face to face, one directly agaynst an an other, or on the other syde directly.

Eregione solis, our right agaynst the sunne.
Ere nata, considering the matter.
Ere nata melius fieri hand posuit, Consider-ynge the matter, or as the case requyred, it mought be no better.
Erenibus laborat, he is sycke in hys backe, or greued with the Colic.
Ere tua, perceiving to thy profite, or for thy profite.
Ere publica, concerning the common weale.
Ere languet, he is weary of his journey, or sycke with goyng or rydyng.
Evestigio, footsteppe.
Emeo quidem animo, after myne opinion,
 as I thinke.
Econtrario, contrarywise.
Enatura, accordyng to nature.
Esublimi iacere, to caste from hygh.
Eale, a beast in Indie, lyke an hore, found about great ryvers. He hath a taylor lyke an oliphant, in colour blacke or baie, and hath sawes lyke a boze, and therein tuskas a cubite longe and more whiche are apte to what use the beaste will, for they stande not fast, but are bowed as he listeth:
 so that whan he sygheth he letteth up the one,
 and holdeth downe the other, to the intent that yf the one in fightyng waxe dull, or be broken,
 the other shall serve hym.
Eanus, the God of the yere, whome the Phen-cians peyncted, a serpente with his taylor in his mouth.
Eantes, the name of a Rooy wyler that was in that age that Pigmalian reigned in the easie parte.
Eapropier, therefore.
Easo, the citee called saint Sebastian in Spayn.
Eatenus, unto that, in that maner of wyse, tyll that tyme, vntyll, vntyll than, so farre.
Eatenus ne quid, pro solum.
Eatenus quoad, so longe vntill that.

E ANTE B.

E Beati, they that from great prosperitee are fallen into misery.
Ebenus, ebeni, vel Ebenum, a tree blake in colour, and odoriferous whan it is burned, it hath vertue to cense the eyes. This tree groweth in Indie, and beyng cut, it waxeth as harde as a stone.
 Sola India nigrum fert ebenum, onely Indie byngeth forth blake Ebenus. It is also wrytten with H. rede. H'ebenus.
Ebeo, ebeas, aui, are, to byng out of prosperitee.
Ebibo, ebibis, ebibi, ere, to drynke all out.
Ebionita, heretikes, whiche denied Chryste to be God, and affirmed, that all partes of the olde lawe, ought to bee kepte with the newe lawe.
 They receyved onely the gospel of Saynet Mathew, & reiected the other: and also all the apstles

les of saynte Paule. The authour of that secte was one Ecion, about the yere of our lord. 88.
Eblana, a citee in Irelande called Dublyn of Denlin.
Eblandior, iris, iri, to get a thyng by flatterynge,
 also to like.
Eblandiri solitudines raris, to make that the lacke of company in the countrey, shall not bee greivous.
Eblandiri suffragia, to obtayne the voyce and consent of men by flatterynge.
Eblanditus, a, um, gotten by flatterynge, also that phosy of pleasur.
Eboracum, or Eburacum, ci, a citee in Englande called York.
Eboratus, a, um, of puoz without.
Eborcus, a, um, of puoz.
Ebosus, an yle betwene Sardinia and Arike, the earth wherof, will suffer no venemous thyng to lyue, where is suche breed of conies, that they destroy the ples next adioyng.
Ebricius, a, um, drunke.
Ebrictas, asis, f. g. drunkenhede.
Ebriculus, a, um, a littell drunke.
Ebriculus, asis, f. g. continuall drunkenhede.
Ebriculus, a, um, often drunke.
Ebriculo, aui, are, to make drunke.
Ebricus, a, um, drunke. sometime abundant.
Ebria cena, a plentyfull supper.
Gradus ebrius, a drunken gate.
Ebron, a mountayne in Palestina.
Ebrus, a ryuer of Thace, rennyng to the mountayne Rodope, in the grauell wherof are foude littell eases or pices of golde.
Ebucus, amated, askonted.
Ebudes, ples in the sea about England, I suppose nyghe Wales and the weste countrey, where the people lyue by whyte meate and fysh.
Ebuleus, the sonne of Jupiter and Hyoserpyne.
Ebullio, liri, lire, to bubble by as water dooeth whan it rayneth, or a potte whan it seitheth. And by a metaphoze to speake with ostentation and pompe, to breake out in communication.
Quod quidem ebullire solet nonnunquam, whiche thyng now and than is wonte to breake out in theyr communication.
Ebullire virtutes & sapientias, to speake gloriously of vertue and wisdom.
Ebullitio, onis, f. g. bubbling, boyling.
Ebullo, aui, are, to bubble out, to blast out.
Ebulum, ebuli, neu. g. or E'bulus, li, ma. g. an herbe called waltwozte, or danewurte, whiche is lyke a ponge elder tree. Dioscorides calleth it Chamæacte.
Ebur, & Ebor, eboris. n. g. puozie.
Ebur atramento candefacere, To make white puozie with ynke, a pounce vled, whan one endeuoureth to sette forth the naturall beau-tee with colours, and peynctyng.
Eburra, a citee of Portugall.
Eburatus, a, um, couered with puozie.

Ebu-

Eburini, people of Lucania.
 Eburneolus, a littell thyng of quoyte.
 Eburneus, a, um, and Eburnus, a, um, of quoyte.
 Eburones, people of the countrey called Liege of Luke, beyonde Zabab.
 Eburonices, a people of Fraunce.
 Eburum, a citee of Germany called commonly Olmutz.

E ANTE C.

E Cameda, the daughter of the valyaunt Tru-sinous, which at the battayle of Troy was geuen to Hector.
 Ecardia, a kynde of a umbre, which hath in it the figure of an harte blacke and greene.
 Ecator, an othe by Castor, whiche may stande for, by my saie: onely bled of women.
 Ecclasis, a figure in speakyng called digression, where a man leaueth for the tyme the prynci-pall matter.
 Ecbarana, the chief citee of the realme of Mede.
 There is a citee in Siria of the same name, sometyme called Epiphania, and may bee written Egbarana.
 Echolia, drum, neu. ge. of Echolima, x, of Ecbolis, ladiis, a kynde of medicine, whiche Phi-sicians doo vse to rydde forth the infante that is deade in the mothers wombe.
 Ecce, an aduerbe demonstratiue, which signifieth lo, see, propriely where a thyng sodenly happeneth: but it is vled, where as happeneth no sodenly thyng: as, Vt in carbone ecce & cinere, as you see in the cole and ashes.
 Ecce tibi, wylte thou see, take hede.
 Ecce me, loe here I am.
 Ecce rem, loe here is all the matter.
 Ecce subito Domitij literæ, Beholde todayn-ly Domitius letters were brought to me.
 E'ccere, an aduerbe of swearpyng, signifyinge as muche as Per Cererem, some vse it for ecce, lo now, see now.
 Eccentrici orbes, are spheres, one inclosyng an other, so that the one is ouer the other, and the one is conteyned within the holownesse of the other.
 Eccillum, for Ecce illum, see hym.
 Eccistam, for Ecce istam, see hir.
 Ecclesia, x, f. g. an assemble, a counsaile. Among christen authours it signifieth the congregacion of people in the faith of Christ, the church.
 Ecclesiastes, x, m. g. a preacher.
 E'ccubi, ecubi, lo where.
 Eccum, Eccam, Eccos, Eccas, loe he is here, loe she is here, loe these men bee here, loe these women bee here.
 E'dici, certayne officers in other citees like to the Tribunes in Rome. It was their office to summon them that withheld the common treasure.
 Echemon, Diomedes sonne slayn by Diomedes.
 Echemythia, taciturnitee of stylnesse, silence,

Echemythius, he that in a common counsell of assemble kepeth silence, and onely harkeneth what other say.
 Echeneis, a fische called also Remora, whiche cleauing to the keele of a Shyppe, wil enterpe him not withstandyng the violence of any wynde that bloweth.
 Echenes, a verie courtesie and gentyll person, of the people called Phraces.
 Echi, littell narrowe valeies of dales betwene two hilles.
 Echidna, a water serpent, propriely that whiche was slayne by Hercules, called Hydra.
 Echinades, beene ylandes in a ryuer in Grece called Achelous, whiche diuideth Actolia, from Acarnania.
 Echinatus, a, um, haupyng a rough or pyrchyng
 Male of Mell.
 Echinata folia, leaues haupyng pyches.
 Echneis, an yle in the sea Aegeum.
 Echinomētra, looke Echinus.
 Echinon, a citee of Thrace.
 Echinophora, ra, f. g. a kynde of Mel fisme.
 Echinus, ma, g. the couerpyng or yttermoste Male of a chesten nute, or other whiche is rough or pyrchyng. It is also a sea fisme, whiche hath on him a shell with pyches, and hath the pyches in steele of feete, but he goeth not, but onely turns blyth. For whan he is taken, the pyches seeme woone and made blounte. Some haue verie longe pyches and littell shelles, and they bee called Echinomētra. These fyshes be of sundry colours, some white, some redde, some purple, some blew, some grene, as Perottus writeth in his Cornucopia, that he sawe theym: but he saith, that whan they be dead, the freshe and delectable colour vanissheth away. it is also a beast called an echin or hedge hogge. It was also a vessell of brasse amonge the Grekes, wher-into the sayng of witnessers were put and sealed:
 Or after some, wherin cuppes were washed. also a porcion of hey, and a sorte of pottes. also a cer-tayne sorte of bracelettes, whiche women vled to weare.
 Echinus partum procrastinat: or Echinus parturiens cunctatur, A proverbe applied vnto him that delaith a matter to his owne payne and trouble.
 Echion, an herbe called also Alcibiadion, named in Englishe wylde bozage, growyng in valeys and rough groundes, like vnto Languedocse, and hath floures lyke bozage: but er they be full spied, they be purple of colour, and the sede ther-of is lyke the head of an adder. Echion, is also a medicine for soze eyes.
 Echioni, Thebans, so called of Echion, one of the five that holpe Cadmus to build Thebes.
 Echite, es, an herbe, not vnylike to Scammonia.
 Echites, a stone, specked lyke a serpent.
 Echo, or Echus, f. ge. a towne, whiche reboundeth to the noyse or voyce, that is made in a valey

Eclipsa, or Eclipsa, a. neu. ge. a medicine, which must not be eaten or chewed, but bynge in the mouth, suffered to sticke downe into the stomacke by iustell and listell: the Arabian physicians deuote it to Lohoch.

Eclipsis, is, f. g. a wanyng or fading.

Eclipsis lune, the eclipse of the moone.

Eclipticus, a. um, perteynyng to the eclipses.

Ecloga, ecloga, f. g. a communication, a tale, a byng, election, choys.

Ecnephias, m. g. a storme, where a cloude is broken and falleth.

Econ, an ymage. vide Icon.

Econcula, a listell ymage.

Econtra, contrarywise.

Econtrario, idem.

Espectala, wete suppes amonge the Grekes, whiche were large wyde. Our flat bolles, wherein we drynke wyne, may be so called.

Espeismus, m. g. a disease that maketh the eyes stare, as when one is almost choyled.

Esphactica medicinalia, medicines, whiche deopilate or open the canidites or passages in the body, whiche are stopped or fared off.

Esphrasis, ecphrasis, f. g. a playn interpretation of the letter, leauyng no parte vnderclared.

Ecquando, ecquando, at what time, or lo when.

Ecquis, ecquis, ecquod, vel ecquid, But lo who, see who, see what.

Ecquid, but what, for what. Ecquis in villa est? Is there any man in the ferme.

Ecquid te pudet? arte thou not ashamed?

Ecquid sit, (in Plautus) for quicquid sit.

Equisnam, quoniam, quodnam, vel quidnam, idem quod Ecquis.

Ecstasis, ecstasis, f. g. a stonyng, a damps, a reas, a traunce, whan a man forgetteth him selfe.

Estasis, ecstasis, f. g. a figure, whereby the syllable naturally shorte, is produced or made longe.

Esthipsis, where the letter M, ioygned with a bowell, is not sound.

Estrapeli, they whiche abhorre the common fashion of nature or olde vices.

Estropium, whan the nether lidde of the eye falleth, and can not ioygne with the ouer lid.

Estypum, ecstypum, n. gen. that which is made acorpyng to the paterne.

Euleus, idem quod Equuleus.

E ANTE D.

Edacitas, a. is, f. m. g. vnfaciable feedinge, gourmandysyng.

Edax, acis, om. gene. a greate eater or consumer, a glutton, or deuourer of meate.

Edaces multi tibi, they that eate much meate.

Curæ edaces, that dooe consume a man, and make him pine away.

Edeatra, they whiche haue the ordering of the bynges meate.

Eden, sightly pleasure or delectacion.

Edentatus, a. um, that hath his teeth taken or styphen out.

Edento, aui, are, to make toothlesse, to styph or beate out ones teeth.

Edentulus, a. um, toothlesse, that want bytng.

Edera, looke Hedera.

Edessa, a citee beyonde the riuer of Euphrates.

Edico, xi. cere, to commaunde or ordeyne, to declare or publishe, to deuoute, to proclame, also to speake or pronounce aloud, without feare or dissimulation.

Comitia edicere, to appoynt a conuocation.

Edicere senatum, to ordeyne a parliament to be holden.

Edicere diem ad conueniendum, to appoynt a day to meete with one.

Edicam seruis ne, I will commaunde them of geue charge to them.

Edictio, onis, f. g. idem quod Edictum.

Edicto, aui, are, to declare or pronounce often tymes.

Edictum, i. neu. g. an ordinaunce or commaundement of them that be ingreats authorites, a proclamation or intinction.

Edictum circumducere, to bryng an ordinaunce of commaundement of any officer.

Edilis, le, any thyng that is or may be eaten.

Edisco, didici, seere, to learne by herte, to tynne without booke.

Linguas duas ediscere, to learne two languages.

Edissero, serui, ere, to explaine or declare, to tell or rehearse.

Edissero nobis fabulam hanc, tell or rehearse vnto vs that tale.

Edissero, aui, are, to tell or declare often.

Editio, onis, f. g. a setting forth or publyshyng of a thyng, as of booke or proclamacion.

Editius index, a iudge named and chosen of the one parte.

Editor, oris, mas, ge. one that publysheth or setteth abrode.

Editus, editus, ma. ge. a publyshyng or puttynge forth of a thyng.

Editus boum, ore dunge.

Editus, edita, um, published, set abrode, hygh.

Edita in vulgus, published abrode.

In lucem editus, bozne.

Edita facinora, naughtie actes made notable or knowen, or naughtie actes committed.

Arx edita, an hygh castell.

Iudices editi, iudges named.

Edituus, a sexten of a churche. looke Aedituus.

Edicere, contrarywise.

Edo, es, est, or Edo, edis, edi, ere, esum, vel estum, to eate or feede.

Edenasturtium, is applyed to a dulle and a grosse person. And for asmuche as Nasturtium, called cresses, beyng eaten, doeth make the nose tynkle, and thereby canseth the dulle spirites to wake: therfore by this prouerbe is met, Plucke by the spirittes, or awake dullarde or lusher.

 Vbi esurimus, where shall wee bryake our fast, dyne, or suppe. &c.
 Edere pugnos, per translationem, pro percus-ti pugnis, To be buffeted.
 Edit agellos pecus, feedeth on groundes, or as we say eateth by ones grounde.
 Edor, eris, edi, to be eaten.
 Edo, edidi, ere, to execute or doo a thyng, or to cause a thyng to be dooen, to byng, to delquer in wrytyng, to publishe or set abrode.
 Edere animam, to die.
 Edere annos, to tell what age a man is of.
 Edere authorem, to name the author.
 Edere cadem, to make a great slaughter.
 Edere canus, to spnge.
 Edere certamen, to fyght valyauntly.
 Edere clamorem, to crie out.
 Edere exemplum, to shew an example.
 Edere facinora, to dooe mischeuous dedes.
 Edere fetus, to byng forth fruite.
 Edere frondem, to burge, to put forth leaues.
 Edere indicium, to tell or disclose who were his companions in any yll dede dooing.
 Edere iudicium, to reherse or giue iudgement.
 Edere leges, to giue lawes.
 Edere librum, to sette forth a booke.
 Edereluci, to byng to light.
 Edere ludibrium, to moche at a thyng.
 Edere ludos & spectacula, to cause playes and pageantes to be shewed to the people.
 Edere mandata, to declare his message as he was commaunded.
 Edere nomen, to geue a name to one.
 Edere nomina, to byng forth names in wry-tyng, as we be to dooe in taskes, subsidies, and musters.
 Edere operam annuam, to serue one yere.
 Edere operavirorum fortium, to do valiant lie, and as men of great prowesse.
 Edere oracula, belonged to god, or that whiche was taken for god, to make aunswere to the thyng, which was demaunded.
 Edere ouum, to lay an egge.
 Edere partum, to be delquered of chylde.
 Edere postulata, to delquer a bylle of requeste conteynyng many thynges.
 Edere praelium, or bellum, to make warre.
 Edere pugnam, to fyght.
 Edere rationes, to make accompte.
 Edere risus, to laugh.
 Edere scelus, to dooe a mischeuous dede.
 Edere scriptum, to shewe forth wrytyng.
 Edere signum, to make or giue a signe or toke.
 Edere specimen, to shewe a prooffe.
 Edere spiritum extremum, to die.
 Edere stragem, to make a great slaughter of men.
 Edere strepitum, to make a noyse.
 Edere testes, to byng forth witnesses.
 Edere vitam, to die.

Edere verba, to speake.
 Edere voces, to crie.
 Edere vinam, to byng.
 Edere pugnos, to be buffeted.
 Edunt forminam, they bynge forth a female.
 Edant & exponat, let them biter and declare.
 Edere authorem alicuius doctrine, to name
 the authore of any learning.
 Hinnitus edere, to neie.
 Edit ouum gallina, the henne layeth an egge.
 Edit quisque quod potest, Every man doeth what he can doo, or every man dooeth for his parte as muche as he is able.
 Ploratum virginalium edere, to wepe lye a wenche or gyple.
 Victoriā edere, to atchieue the victorie.
 Edo, onis, m. g. idem quod Edax.
 Edoceo, edoces, docui, ere, to instructe or informe one of a thyng, to teache diligently, to declare.
 Edocuit ratio, reason shewed or declared: or reason taught them what was to be dooen.
 Edocebo, vt res sese habet, I wyll tell or declare you, how the matter standeth.
 E'dolo, edolas, are, to hewe or cutte cleane or smoothe.
 Edom, Esau was so called, and the countrey,
 where he reigned.
 E'domo, edomas, aui, are, to make tame, to subdue.
 Edomitus, a, um, made tame, brought vnder.
 Edomus, an hille nexte vnto Pangeum in the borders of Thessalie.
 Edon, onis, m. g. a mountayne of Thrace.
 Edones, a people of Scythia.
 Edoni, or Edonij, people of Thrace, or in the borders of Macedonia, nere to Thrace.
 Edonides, were women, whiche beynge appoynted with a diuine furour, byd celebrate the mysteries of Bacchus.
 Edonis, idis, a citee of Acolis, and a countrey of Thrace.
 Edonius, a, um, of Aedonis.
 Edonus, idem quod Edon.
 Edonus, a, um, of Thrace.
 Edor, a kynde of sacrifice now called Ador.
 Edormio, miui, ire, to slepe out, to slepe soundly eyen to the full.
 Edormisco, iui, miscere, idem quod Edormio.
 Edormiscere crapulam, to slepe vntyll he bee sober agayne, whan one is drunke, to digeste his surfet with sleape.
 Edormire crapulam, to sleape out a surfet.
 Dum edormiscat vnum somnum, whyle he dooeth sleape one sleape: or whyle he doeth take a nappe.
 Edri, an yle on the east parte of Irelande.
 Educatio, onis, fag. nouryng or byngnyng by of chyliden. Mollis educatio, a nyce or wanton byngnyng by.
 Educator, oris, mas, ge, one that nouryssheth or byngs.

byngeth vp.
 Educatrix, triciis, f. g. the feminine.
 Educō, ūxi, ere, to bynge forth. also to drawe out. as, Hocedicens, eduxit corpore telum, That sayng, he drew the weapon oute of his body. sometyme to reple vp. as Molem educere calo, to reple or make vp the heape euen to the shie. sometyme it signifieth Educare, to byng vp, to nourish.
 Educere e custodia, to byng out of prison.
 Educere gladium, to draw out a sword.
 Educere aliquem in ius, to bynge one before a iudge.
 Educere naues ex portu, to bynge the shippes out of the haven.
 Eduxit mater pro sua, my mother brought hir vp, euen as hir owne daughter.
 Educo, educas, aui, are, to nourish or byng vp from childhode.
 Procreare & educare, to bynge forth and nourish.
 Educare scutum, to byng forth or be deliuered. also to nourish or byng vp.
 Eductus, a, um, brought forth. also nourished, brought vp.
 Edulco, aui, are, to make very sweete.
 Edulis, le, that may be eaten.
 Edulium, li, neu. gen. is what so euer is sette on the table at dinner or supper to be eaten, saue the breade.
 Eduro, aui, are, to make very harde.
 Edurum, not harde, soft.
 Edure, very hardely.
 Edurus, a, um, very harde.
 Edya, a nymph, the daughter of Oceanus and Tethys.

E ANTE E, & F.

Etion, Andromaches father, that reigned at Thebes in Cilicia.
 Effari, to speake, but ppozely it perteyned to Bythopes and Augures, whan they dedicated any place, or consecrated any thyng.
 Effabilis, le, that may be spoken.
 Effatio, effari, ire, to stuffe or fill a thyng harde.
 Effascinato, onis, a bewitchyng.
 Effascino, aui, are, to bewitch a thyng, wheres by the soune is chaunged, the thyng dyeth, or is in some wyse destroyed. By this woorde Solinus maketh mencion, that in Africa bee certayne kynredes, wherof the men and women, if they praye fayre trees, goodly cozne, preatie chyldren, galent hoxes and kat: forthwith they die. Plinie writeth of some, whiche beholdyng any persons stedfastely, with an angry countenance, they destroy them. Alike experience hath beene seene in this realme, as credible persons haue reported.
 Effata, were certayne prayers, whiche the diuins nouns vsed to make at the ende of their diuination or telling the success of thynges.

 Effatus ager, a fiede nere the citee, where diuins nouns made theyr prayers.
 Effatum, ti, n. g. a dialecticall proposition.
 Effaxillo, aui, are, to cutte of by the arme pitte: or rather to put out a thyng with the arme, so that the arme pitte may be seene.
 Effectus, a, um, down, dispatched, made, brought to passe.
 Effectum dare, to bynge to passe.
 Effectum reddere, idem.
 Effectus, us, ma, g. effecte or byng of a thyng to conclusion, making of a thyng to be.
 Ad effectum vires dare alicui, to heale one that he may byng a thyng to passe.
 Effector, oris, a maker, worker, or doer.
 Effectrix, the feminine.
 Effectio, onis, form. ge. a byhyng of a thyng to effecte.
 Effero, efferas, aui, are, to make ymages of wild beastes. also to make woode, shittie, or wylde, as sauage beastes are.
 Effertus, a, um, made wylde and beaustall.
 Effertis militia animis, mennes myndes bynge made fierce and wylde with warfare.
 Effrata & immania, woode and outrageous.
 Effero, extuli, efferre, to byng or carry forth, to put out, to divulgate or tell a ryde, to aduance or promote, to ouercome or subdewe. also to commende. sometyme to holde vp, to set forth, sometyme to minishe or appayse. also to lyte vp, to viter in language, to speake or pronounce.
 Efferre aliquem laudibus, to extoll one with praises.
 Efferre cadauer, to carry a body to be buried.
 Efferre clamorem, to crie out.
 Efferre in humeros, to beare on the shoulders.
 Efferre manum, to lyft vp the hande.
 Efferre sese, to aduance hym selfe.
 Efferre pedem, to go out, or goe forth.
 Seruare istum sultis intus serui, ne quoquam pedem efferat, kepe him in spys, if ye wille, that he goe forth no whither.
 Efferre se letitia, to be glad without measure.
 Efferri funere, to bee caried to buryng solempnely.
 Num quidnam efferi? Doeth he byng forth any thyng?
 Efferre caput vndis, to holde vp the heade aboue the water.
 Signa efferre, To aduance forwarde with the standerdes.
 Efferre aliquem ad summum imperium, To aduance one to moste high auctoritee.
 Quos fortuna extulit, whom fortune hath aduanced, promoted, sette a losse.
 Hic me magnifice effero, in this I aduance my selfe roially.
 Priusquam clandestina eorum consilia efferantur, Before theyr priuie counsailes be publyshed or spredde abroad.

Quod non natura humana patiendo efferat, which the nature of man cannot vanquish and overcome by sufferance.
 Ager vberiores fruges efferre solet, The grounde was wont to byng forth frute more as boundantly.
 Non indecenter aliquid efferre, to speake or utter a thyng comely.
 Efferueo, ues, or efferuo, uis, ferui, and ferui, efferuere, and efferuere, to be verie hotte, to boyle vehemently.
 Efferuesco, scere, idem quod efferueo, and by translation, to be hotte or chaufed; to be troubled or greatly moued: and contrary wyse, to alate or waxe colde.
 Efferuere in dicendo, to bee chaufed, or waxe angry in speakyng.
 Gratulatio efferuiscit, The gratulacion of gladnesse wareth lesse.
 Efferuescentia verba, hotte angry wordes.
 Effexis, for effeceris.
 Efficacia, a, form. ge. effecte or vertue, efficacitee or strengthe.
 Efficax, acis, om. g. effectual, that hath strength or power, of great force, that can doe muche.
 Efficacissima auxilia, very effectuell remedies.
 Efficax vir, a stronge and valiant man.
 Efficacitas, atis, f. g. idem quod efficacia.
 Efficaciter, effectually.
 Efficientia, idem quod effectus.
 Efficiens, entis, that maketh or causeth a thyng to be.
 Efficienter, in maner of makynge or causynge a thyng to be.
 Efficio, efficis, feci, ficere, to bynge to effecte, to wylde, to finishe, to accomplishe, to make, to dooe, to proue by argument, to conclude.
 Efficere argentum alicui, to get money for a man by some meane or deuise.
 Efficere morbos, to ingender diseases.
 Efficere nuptias alicui, To be the cause of the marriage of any, to cause one to be married.
 Efficere pollicita, to kepe promise, to doo that one hath promised.
 Id similitudinem panis efficiebat, it serued in the steede of breade.
 Efficiam tibi, tua ut sit, I wyl byng it to passe, that the shall be thyne.
 Efficere tantundem operis, to wiewde and to finishe as great a taske of worke.
 Assidua exercitatio peritos efficit, diligente exercisyng maketh men cunnynge.
 Instituire & efficere, to enterpryse a matter, and byng it to passe.
 Efficere cladem, to cause a murther or slaughtre. Hec effeci epistolam ad Casarem, yesterday I made an epistle, or I wrote a letter to Cesar.
 Tu mandata effice, quæ recepisti, do you, or dispatche you those thynges, whiche you tooke charge of.

Clamores efficere, to crye out.
 Efficere magna facinora, To worke or dooe some greates crimes.
 Officium suum efficere, to doe his dutie.
 Vicem efficiunt, They serue in the steede or place of any thyng.
 Enui & efficere, to enuie and bynge to passe.
 Efficitur, the impersonall.
 Effigies, ei, f. gen. a signe made to the similitude of a man or beast, shape, lykenesse, forme.
 Effigies virtutis, the ymage of vertue.
 Effigiam alicuius rei habere, To bee lyke any thyng.
 Effigiem dei in se ostendere, to resemble god or to shewe ones selfe to be lyke god.
 In effigiem pelagi exundabat lacus, that poole or meere ouerflowed like to the sea, or as it had been the sea, or in maner of the sea.
 Columnæ effigie, after the forme of the pilloz.
 Ad effigiem Macedonicæ chlamydis, lyke in facion, &c.
 Effigia, a, f. g. idem quod effigies.
 Effigio, aui, are, to counterfaiete ones ymage in peyntynge or heruyng.
 Effilo, aui, are, to sowe.
 Effilatum, ti, n. ge. that which is sowed or stitched on a garment, as a garde or purse.
 Effingo, finxi, gere, to make lyke, to deuyse and expresse the forme or facion of any thyng.
 Animo effingere aliquid, To diuise or ymagyne a thyng in the mynde.
 Similitudinem ex vero effingere, to presente or expresse the facion of a thyng lyuely.
 Mores effingere, To represent or expresse a mans maners or condicions.
 Effinxit Cicero vim Demosthenis, Cicero attened and expressed the force and pithynesse of Demosthenes eloquence.
 Effictus, a, um, represented, expressed.
 Effictio, onis, a representation or diuysyng.
 Effio, fieri, to be dooen, to bee brought to passe.
 Efflagito, aui, are, to desyre or aske a thyng impropunatly.
 Efflagitare conuitio, with tauntyng and chiechynge, to requyre a thyng.
 Requiere & efflagitare.
 Efflagitatus, a, um, required impropunatly.
 Efflagitatio, onis, for. gen. an impropune sute or requirynge of a thyng, an instant desyryng.
 Efflagitatus, us, m. g. idem.
 Effleo, fleui, flere, to wepe out.
 Efflere oculos, to wepe out ones eyes.
 Efflictim, exceedingly, greatly, vehemently, verrey earnestly.
 Efflictim amare, to loue ardently, to loue out of measure.
 Effligo, flixi, figere, to tourment, to afflict.
 Efflo, aui, are, to blow away, or blowe out, to breath out.
 Efflare animam, to die.
 Efflare colorem, to lesse the colour.

Efflaui animam spes, I haue no maner of hope or trust, all my hope is past and gone.
Efflaui extremum halitum, he gaue his last gaspe, he set his last breath, he died.
Effloresco flori, resceere, to blow as a floure dooeth at the first coming out, to spryng: and by translation to grow, to increase, to abound, to be brought forth.
Effluo, effluis, fluxi, ere, to flowe or renne out, as water dooeth out of a founteyn, to flyde out of ones memozy, to be forgotten, to bee publickly shamed or spredde abroad, to passe away.
Effluet, it shall be tolde abroad, I wyll not keepe counsaile, all men shall know it.
Effluxerat, it was out of remembraunce, it was forgotten.
Effluxit, it is quite gone.
Effluxit aestas, the sommer is passed.
Effluunt voluptates, pleasures dooe passe as waite lightly.
Ex animo effluere, to flyde out of memozy, to be forgotten.
Abundare & effluere.
Aetas effluit, age passeth away.
Effluunt vires lassitudine, he waxeth feynis with weykenesse.
Effluxit vita cum sanguine, he died bledyng.
Quod totum effluxit, all whiche I haue forgotten, or is gone out of my remembraunce.
Bona praeterita effluere sapienti non oportet, I wyle man muste not forgette the good thynges, that haue chaunced to him before tyme.
Effluere ex animo, to be quickly forgotten.
Desyderio alicuius effluere, to be desyrous of one by ponde measure.
Mens effluit, when one forgetteth that he woulde say.
Effluentia, a, f. g. a flowyng or rennyng out.
Effluuium, uij, n. ge. a flowyng out, or rennyng ouer, all ouerflowyng.
Effoco, aui, are, to choke or strangle.
Effodio, effodis, fodi, dère, to digge, to digge out, to make a diche.
Effodere ex terra, to digge out of the erth.
Effodere oculos alicui, to scratche out ones eyes. Effodit illius memoria pectus meum, The memozy of that man percereth myn heerte, or greueth my mynde soze.
Effossus, a, um, digged out, scratched out.
Effeminatus, a, um, wanton, delicate, tender, endyng no hardnesse, womanlyke.
Effeminatum & molle.
Effeminata artes, artes, whiche effeminate and abate the manlinesse of a mans mynde.
Effeminata, womanly, tenderly, wantonly, nyce.
Effemino, aui, are, to effeminate or make delicate, to make wanton, tender, or nyce.
Efferta, she that hath lately brought forth a chyld. also a woman paste teemyng.

Effertus, a, um, hatched, as a byrde that is comd out of the shell, that hath lately brought forth, past broodyng. also consumed, feeble, made barryne with ouer muche fertilitye.
Vires corporis effertae, the strength of the body debellate and made weak.

Efferta gallina, an hen past broode or laynge.
Terra efferta, lande spent or woyn with bedyng of much grayne.
Effertum corpus, a weak body.

Efferte, barrenly.
Effor, looke Effari.
Efforo, efforas, aui, are, to bore throughe, to make holes throughe a thyng.
Efforatus, a, um, bored throughe, or that hath many holes throughe it.

Effractorius, a, um, that breaketh downe or open.
Effractor, oris, ma. gen. a robber that breaketh downe places.
Effratura, a, f. m. gene. a breakyng open or into a place.
Effractus, a, um, broken, broken downe, broken open, consumed, made weak.

Effractus fame, made feeble for laute of meate.
Effrenatus, a, um, vnbrydled, vnruly, eashe, without moderation or measure.
Effrenatus & furiosus.
Effrenatus & praeceps.
Effrenatus animus, an vnruly mynde.
Proiecta & effrenata cupiditas, a dissolute and vnbrydled appetite.

Effrenate, proude, eashe, fiercely, vnruly, without consideration.
Effrenatio, onis, f. g. vnrulynesse, easheenesse.
Effreno, aui, are, to vnbrydell.
Effrenus, a, um, vnbrydled, eashe in maners.
Mors effrena, a violent death.
Genis effrena, a fierce and an vnruly nation.

Effrico, effricas, aui, are, to rubbe off.
Effringo, fregi, gere, to breake to peeces, to burst violently.

Effugio, effugis, fugi, ere, to escape, to flee, to eschewe or auoyde.
Si me effugerit memoria, yf I forget, or yf my memozy scape me.
Effugere nuptias, to auoyde or eschue marriage.
Effugere contumeliam, to eschewe reproche.
Si illum effugerit diem, If he myght escape that daie.
Effugere ex urbe, to flee out of the citee.
Effugere periculum, To escape or auoyde daunger.
Vituperationem effugere, to auoyde blame.
In quibus non dubito, quin negligentiam offensionem effugere non possum, In whiche thynges I doubte not, but that I can fynde no meane to auoyde the blame of negligence: Or I am sure I cannot choose, but bee noted of negligence.

Effugium, gij, neu. gen. flyght, refuge, a place of succour, a place or way, whereby one maye flee or escape a passage.

Alias habere effugia pennarum, That other haue the meanes to flee away with their wynges. Qui effugia infederant, whiche kepe the passages.

Præcludere effugium alicui, to stop the passage that one cannot escape.

Effulcio, ciui, cire, to state by.

Effulgeo, fulsi, gère, to shyne byght, and by translation to appere or shewe it selfe.

Effundo, fudi, dere, to powze out. Sometyme it signifieth to consume, to spende or waste ryotously, to come forth in greate companies, to put forth, to byng forth plentifully, as the earth doorth, to ouerflowe or renne over the bankes as ryuers dooe.

Effundere ararium, to waste the treasure.

Effundere extremum spiritum, to die. Likewyse Effundere animam, to yelde or giue up the ghoste, to be slayne, to die.

Effundere honores in mortuum, to make for him that is dead a sumptuous buriall, or an honourable interment.

Effundere patrimonium, to spende and consume his inheritance.

Effundere peditatum, to discomfite the foote men.

Effunduntur omnibus portis ad opem ferendam, They gathered together in great routes at euery gate, to defende the citee.

Lachrymas effundere, to weepe.

Effudit se in publicum maxima frequentia mulierum, A verie greate route or company of women came abrode.

Effundere se ciuitas dicitur, whan all the people cometh forth in great numbres.

Ne effundantur ad luxuriam, periculum est, It is to be feared, leaste they giue theym selfe wholly, or leste they be wholly giuen to ryote and wantonnesse.

Effundere iram in aliquem, to vtter or declare him selfe to bee extremely angrie with one, to shewe his anger and wrothe.

Effundunt herbas frugibus inimicissimas, They bynge forth a greate sorte of weedes, very hurtfull to the cozne.

Quærelas effundere, To make greate complaints.

Quorum stomachus in vomitiones effunditur, whose stomache is prone and ready to vomite.

Effusus risus, a dissolute laughter.

Effuso sinu, with his bosome open, with his quote open afoze.

